THE GREAT INDIANA ELEPHANT HUNT!
 (The late famous Terrell Jacobs, most interesting subject of today's column, was one of the closest boyhood friends of Rev. Vernon L. Palmer, pastor of the Culver E. U. B. Church.)

A GOOD THING it was for Terrell Jacobs and a passel of panicky Hoosiers that Raymond Duke fell in love with pachyderms as a small boy.

Otherwise Duke couldn't have been the hero of Indiana's whacky elephant hunt, sometimes called the Safari Safari.
 It began the night of Nov. 11, 1942, when Jacobs brought three hefty elephants — Empress, Judy, and Modoc — from his animal farm near Peru to the Wabash High School gym for a show.
 Everyone was delighted to see the elephants — except some Wabash dogs. As Jacobs unloaded, they uncorked a dandy donnybrook, whereupon Empress, Judy, and Modoc swiftly skeddaddled into the night.

EMPERESS AND JUDY, wiser gals than Modoc, soon halted, musing, "Why are we running? Barking dogs don't bite!" In no time they were back at the truck.

But Modoc went ambling through Wabash at a fast gait, and a very disconcerting thing it was, especially for Jess Owens, whose home Modoc invaded, leaving plumbing and furnace pipes in a sad state.

WEARYING OF THIS, Modoc meandered downtown to mingle with the natives. The crisp night air soon wafted her a whiff of fresh nuts roasting in Bradley Brothers drug store.

So in went Modoc, right on the heels of Mrs. Chauncey Kessler. Inside, Modoc was most unladylike. She behaved, in fact, like a battling babe at a bargain counter, knocking over Bradley's nut roaster and Mrs. Kessler, likewise.

MANAGER HAROLD STATES and two clerks frantically distracted Modoc so Mrs. Kessler could escape with sundry cuts and bruises. Her feeling of rejection rekindled, Modoc stalked out the back door, leaving a trail of tip-

Culver Bank Is Featured In National Magazine

W. O. Osborn Given Editorial Salute

The January issue of Burroughs Clearing House, an important monthly national magazine for bank and financial officers, which boasts a circulation of 114,182, features a five page well illustrated story on The State Exchange Bank.

Written by the famous journalist, Arthur Van Vliissingen, the article headed, "Will Osborn's Big Small-Town Bank," is a great advertisement for our community and a tremendous tribute to our No. 1 citizen.

Subhead of the feature article reads: "This unorthodox country banker operates far beyond his farm community area, achieves remarkable results."

Congratulatory letters by the dozen, from all over the United States, are arriving on President Osborn's desk in every mail. He generously gives a great deal of the credit for the bank's success to the teamwork of his associates and board of directors.

Petition Filed To Set Hawk Lake Water Level

Culver's citizens, particularly residents of the Hawk Lake area, will be interested to learn that a petition to establish the water level of that body of water has been filed in Marshall Circuit Court in behalf of the Indiana Conservation Department by the Indiana Attorney General's office.

In the petition, the Department asserted that the average normal level of the lake should be established at 12 feet.

It was further pointed out that the highest the water level has risen in the past 10 years was 12.85 feet and the lowest level recorded in recent years has been 10.26 feet.

The Conservation Department wants the level established preparatory to the construction of a control structure between the lake and the county road to the south.

The petition, filed by Paul F. Brady, Deputy Attorney General, asks that a hearing be held and that the petition be approved and the court establish the water level.

A legal notice relative to the Hawk Lake project appears in today's Citizen.

The young couple, both outstanding Purdue graduates, also left four small children to mourn their loss.

Tri Kappas Hear Report On Fine Hoosier Salon

Art Exhibit Runs Through Feb. 6

The new Culver chapter of Tri Kappa Sorority held its monthly meeting Monday evening at the Faculty Row home of Mrs. John W. Henderson.

Preceding the business meeting dessert and coffee were served by the hostess. Regular meetings are now held the third Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Chester W. Cleveland, who represented the local Epsilon Nu Chapter at the invitational preview and buffet supper of the 26th annual Hoosier Salon at Indianapolis Sunday evening, gave a most enthusiastic report of this outstanding art exhibition in the auditorium galleries of the William H. Block department store.

The public is invited to attend the Hoosier Salon these without charge through Feb. 6. Mrs. Leonard F. Smith of Indianapolis is the directing genius of the Hoosier Salon.

Tri Kappa gives $450 annually in purchase prizes in support of the Hoosier Salon, in addition to its many other charitable activities.

Sunday's Indianapolis Star, in a most enlightening write-up of Tri Kappa's many charitable activities, said in part:

Officers and council members of the 10 Indiana provinces of Kappa Kappa Kappa Sorority are in town attending a two-day workshop, the "Tri-Kappacademy," in the Columbia Club.

Membership Of 10,000
The workshop centers attention on the philanthropic work done by the sorority's 239 active and associate chapters, whose membership is in excess of 10,000 women throughout the state.

Mrs. Glenn J. May of Spencer is council president.

Support Riley Hospital
Visitors today will inspect facilities at the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children, one of the main philanthropies of the sorority at the state level.

Separate chapters also work in behalf of their individual communities as needs arise.

A feature of today's activities will be attendance at the Hoosier Art Salon preview dinner in the William H. Block Company, where delegates will view the new paintings purchased by the sorority. The sorority maintains an art collection in Brown County.

$750,000 In Scholarships
Other philanthropies of the organization include scholarships for Indiana students—a total of more than $750,000 since they were inaugurated in 1915—and support of the Indiana State Symphony Society.

Mental Health Project
Last year the group raised more than $13,000 for an "institute" on the care of mental patients in Indiana general hospitals. It was held in Rice auditorium in the Indiana State Board of Health Building last March for administrators of general hospitals.

The institute was followed by nine regional workshops for nurses caring for mental patients.

Zoning Board Featured In Farm Bureau Meeting

The Union Township Farm Bureau met Friday evening at the Lions Den.

After a delicious potluck supper preceded with prayer by Mrs. Eva Heiser, the meeting was called to order by Oscar Zehner, chairman. Eldon Davis led the group in several songs.

The following important dates were announced: Annual Livestock Producers' Meeting at Mentone, Feb. 22; Women's Leader Conference at Indianapolis on Feb. 23 and 24; and County Achievement Supper at St. Michael's School in Plymouth on March 14.

Mr. Zehner then introduced the following members of the Marshall County Zoning Board: D. L. McKesson, Frank McLane, Frank Klienke, and Robert Harvey. They formed a panel discussion and questions were asked. There are nine members on the board, four of which by State law must serve, and those are the County Surveyor, County Agent, County School Superintendent, and chairman of the County Commissioners. The other five are appointed by the County Commissioners. The Farm Bureau recommended that some of the new members coming on to the board be from the rural area.

The intent of the Zoning Board is to protect the people of Marshall County and their property value. No permit is required for buildings used exclusively for agriculture purposes on a tract of land containing five acres or more, unless used for residence purposes and then the size must be at least 576 square feet. A permit for a residence is $10 and for a garage or enlargement of the size of a residence, $5. No permit is needed to remodel the interior of a home. All regulations are in a zoning book and each member of the Zoning Board has this book and a copy is on file at the County Clerk's office. Any member welcomes comments and suggestions.

Public notice will be made of a public hearing before the final plans are submitted to the County Commissioners for final approval or disapproval.

The next Farm Bureau meeting will be Friday, Feb. 26, at 7:30 p.m. in the Lions Den.

AVAILABILITY DATE FOR PRICE LOANS EXTENDED THROUGH FEBRUARY 1

The availability date for price support loans and purchase agreements for the commodities, wheat, soybeans, oats, rye, barley and grain sorghums is very near. Students Dream Of Snow, Ice

By JOAN BARSHES, NANCY FLOENZIER, and BEA PRICE

"The weather outside is frightful, The fire is so delightful, As long as the wind may blow, Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow."

Very shortly Culver will be covered with a thick blanket of snow. The lake will be frozen over and what fun we'll have! If this were the situation, here is how a day might be spent.

In the morning our beds will be covered high with thick warm blankets, and there would be no worries about being late for school or homework because it's Saturday. Rochelle Good and Linda Gibbons say they're going to stay there all day and catch up on all that lost sleep. All of us would like to do that, but we somehow get up and begin planning the day. "Let's go skating," says Sharon Spahr. "I'm just dying to learn to skate backwards!" Backwards! I'd like to learn to skate forwards first, responds Judy Lowry. Many then go skating and a constant echo is heard across the lake - OW! OW! OW! Besides going skating, there are snow ball fights (Bea Price and Chuck Kiel plan to do this), the playing of snow games, building of snowmen, sledding, and Stan Curtis says he's going to play in it. (That'll be something to see - he must mean he's going to take his little sister out to play in the snow - of course!)

After everyone is thoroughly frost bitten, Emily Allen lights her warm, brick fireplace, and we all roast hot dogs, and marshmallows, and drink hot chocolate - yummmmy!

Barbara Kauffman, Betty Kose, and Mr. Lawson spend their afternoon a little more constructively. Betty's going to catch up on everything she's behind in, such as letter writing, cleaning out dresser drawers, filling out college applications, and so forth. Mr. Lawson is going to curl up with a good book, and Barb will work hard to finish her "Bookkeeping Practice Set." We should all take heed of these activities!

Pat Van Schoiack is going to walk in the snow and what better way to end a perfect day - a walk through the moonlight snow with your favorite beau!

Sportscasting

BY EARL MISHLER

Although Culver lost the championship game in the County Tourney, local fans were impressed by the improved play of the Indians in both the tourney and the game last Saturday against La Paz.

The tourney was played before good, but not exceptional, crowds in all sessions.

This week promises to be one of the biggest of the season, as the Indians take on two perennial rivals, Argos and Plymouth. We will be favored to win Argos, but the vastly improved Pilgrims will be one of the toughest games of the year. The home court advantage may come in handy Saturday night for Culver.

Met Husband In Funeral Home

By Pat Van Schoiack and Jean McCoige

The spotlight falls on Miss Fitterling, whose name was just recently changed to Mrs. Jack Keyser.

Sandra Fitterling Keyser, was born in South Bend, but only lived there two months when her parents moved to Culver. It was in Culver that she received her schooling.

One event in her grade school life was in the fourth grade. Mrs. Helen Keller was the teacher, and Sandra accidentally dropped an inkpen on an artery in her foot. In high school she was once sent to study hall for talking too much in her science class. Other exciting events in high school were the Senior Trip, and when she went steady with a cadet, plus a few things she wouldn't mention. Sandra Keyser decided, with the aid of Mr. Robinson, to take up a career of teaching.

In college, Mrs. Keyser, was invited to join the Kappa Delta Phi sorority. She had quite a few crushes in college. One on her geography teacher; the other on a cute art teacher with a goatee.

She met her husband at a funeral home (of all places!). Sandra's husband, Jack, said it was love at first sight. They met in April and were engaged in May. On December 27, 1959, they were happily married, and spent their honeymoon in Chicago, Ill. The Keyser's now reside in the trailer court. She hopes to have a large family and will quit teaching until they are grown up. Then she might pursue her career once again.

Miss Mahan's Room Reports Top Spellers

By Shari Yocum and Jamie Piersol

Fourth Grade: Miss Mahan: There are many good spelling students in Miss Mahan's fourth grade section. Here is a list of those receiving gold stars for perfect six weeks spelling scores to prove it: Ruth Benner, Susan Donnelly, James Grothaus, Andrew Hodgkin, Joan Kosterman, Brian Lindvall, and Leon Sims.

Many of the pupils were victims of carelessness and missed only one word during the six weeks: Gregory DeTroy, Charles DeWitt, Linda Hudson, Lynn Mackey, Karen Ruhnaw, Robert Schilling and Christine Stevens.

There were opportunities for festive occasions two times the first few days of January: Martha Weaver had a birthday on Jan. 7, and served cupcakes and orange drinks. Later, on Jan. 10, Linda Brocker served candy and bubble gum in honor of her birthday. Both girls were ten.

As the high school students can tell you, this time of year is pretty important. It's exam time. And it's no different for the fourth-graders. They are "knee-deep" with exams.

This Week's Shadow Victim

By Barbara Moore
 This week's Shadow victim is none other than John Robert Hook. The first view we get of our victim is walking to school (which is very unusual for him). Upon arriving at school at approximately 8:20, John, looking half frozen, took his books to study hall, and then mosed down to the end of the hall where he remained until a couple of minutes before the bell.

My spy told me that J.R. was really ambitious. He studied English, history, and chemistry for the whole period (something must be getting into this boy).

Again I lost sight of him going down the stairs to chemistry. I was told that upon John's arriving, he promptly scorched his knee on the radiator pipe. When the bell rang, he hobbled to his seat and began his daily discussion with Don Wynn about everything but chemistry. At 9:56 John came to and began discussing what happens when you put iodine on the outside of "those things at the laundry." When Mr. O'Kelly asked him what kind of iodine, John replied, "Duh—I don't know! After all iodine is iodine!" At 10:02 John and Don shared ideas on how to eliminate chemistry teachers. When the bell rang, John shot out of the room and headed for his locker.

Third period finds J.R. trailing me down the stairs to the algebra room where he listened attentively (?) to Miss Lindvall the first part of the period. The rest of the period was spent working on the assignment for the next day and checking answers with me.

John spent fourth period study hall relaxing. He was all tired out from studying so hard first period.

He returned from lunch at 12:35 driving the Big "D." As usual he headed for the study hall for a certain engagement. About 12:40 he headed for the gym for physical training, but was back in study hall in no time at all saying that the girls were meeting instead of the boys. It was amazing that he didn't stay down there.

After deciding that he couldn't take another study hall, he proceeded to get a pass from Mr. Robinson to go to the library for a history report.

Sixth period John spent a quiet hour listening to Mr. Robinson lecture.

Again I lost sight of him when although I heard he got into some kind of trouble.

 In the last few minutes of being a Shadow victim, we see John sliding around the school corner on his way home and glad to have another day of school a thing of the past.

Watch your step because you might be the next victim of the Shadow.

SCREECH, CRASH, THUD! Well, here we are again, back at C.H.S. with some more of the same. Nothing like tourney time and the yelling, freezing, laughing, freezing, and crying that goes with it. Speaking of the tourney, the whole school wishes to thank the team for the great job they did in representing Culver, and give them an enthusiastic send-off for the Sectional. Tourney time brings about many surprising and fun moments. Some of them this year were: The Pep Club singing "You Are My Sunshine" to the (light of our lives and friend to man and beast) — Mr. Robert Gayle Sunshine O'Kelley, Tom Boswell's amazing appearance in, shall we say, feminine attire during the break between tourney sessions, the Pep Rally at the Kroger parking lot that never came about due to poor communication as a result of the Culver crew exercising their lungs all over Plymouth and the surrounding terrain — WHEW! Betty Zechiel's car "flooding" right in the middle of a main thoroughfare in Plymouth, and many other happenings which have not found their way to this typewriter.

Which do you like? I just can't decide, but I want something with soft bangs (Anne Behmer having a terrible time deciding on her new hair-do for the South Bend All City Prom) to which she will be one of the honored guests.

Mr. M & M himself, Mike Miller, has a heart throb among the Freshmen, but so far cupid has not delivered the final blow.

Another Junior has gotten some publicity this week and if he isn't careful he's going to get his neck wrung because of a ring. This means you Mr. Hall.

Here is a portion of a tentative report on the couples list for this week at C.H.S., we have some new "throbs" and some steady "beats": Jane Dittmire and Bert Grossman

Karen Kemple and Jim Hulley
 Sharon Baker and Larry Mahler
 Jane Ann Thomas and Joe Rosenbaum

Sandy Smith and Lance Overmyer — not officially going steady, but she still heads his fan list.

Joyce Morrison and Sam Medbourn — spent one day of bliss as a "steady."

Don Wynn and Julia Furnas — reunited.

Aune Oshorn and Betty Zechiel have taken over the gym classes temporarily and their favorite slogan is "get those knees up there, and we'll do it 50 times" — you should hear the groans.

I'll bet Alvin Triplet has a big telephone bill calling Jean Dittmire from Fort Wayne every night. Hard on the pocketbook, What! Lana Berger and Larry Davis are going steady? Not really, but the coach thought they were.

Susie Medbourn was missed at the tourney and we hope her replacement will turn into a recovery.

Mr. Curtis had a hard time of it Sunday morning attempting to remove the white shoe polish he so diligently applied to his car, especially since the time was 6:00!

There are parties in the air and the most recent one was held at Betty Kose's house for Seniors, plus others. No details on it right now.

Among the C.H.S. crowd many girls have turned their masculine interests to other localities such as: Chris Croy to Aubree, and Shirley Crow and Sandy Osborn to Argos.

Well it's about that time, and so much for this week's "Chit Chat." I'll let my fellow comrade fill you in on next week's events. So from now 'til then, "Don't just do something, stand there."

Speaker Tells Of College Problems

By Stanley Curtis
 Mr. Rogers McAvoy, a member of the department of admissions of Indiana University, spoke to a large representation of the upper grades last week. Mr. McAvoy gave a very informative account of the state system of higher education.

The speaker, in giving the requirements for admission to any of the four state institutions of higher learning, pointed out that rank in class is very important, as it is the most important single indicator of success in college. In continuing, Mr. McAvoy made it clear that even state colleges are becoming more restrictive on their admissions requirements, and that those students who rank in the lower half of their high school graduating class are required to take special entrance tests at the college of their choice. The results of these tests make up the conditions of the students' admission. He said that even though the very minimum of requirements are to be found at state institutions, that it is up to the student to work in order to remain a student, for he is competing with his fellow college students, many of whom have a solid academic background.

A resident of Indiana finds that his annual tuition bill at one of the state colleges averages approximately 20 per cent of what an out-of-state student is required to pay. This is because of the support which the colleges receive from the state through taxes.

All colleges are looking for good students, the interesting speaker concluded, and because of this colleges are offering much financial aid to needy and worthy students.

Pep Club To Be Featured

By Chris Croy and Pat Hicks
 The Pep Club will be featured at the Plymouth-Culver game here at Culver on Jan. 30. The club keeps the team and cheering section's spirit up with their fine yelling at the tourney games.

The Union Township 4-H council met Monday night at the home of the President, Mrs. Herman Sims, to discuss plans for 1960 4-H enrollments. Tuesday night, members of the council attended a county 4-H meeting in Plymouth at which time plans for 1960 clubs were discussed under the leadership of Mary Frances Smith of Purdue.

There will be a Sunshine Society Father-Daughter Banquet in February. The members are getting ready for the Formal Sale coming soon also.

Moves In Public

By Stanley Curtis
 How many of you who were at the tourney last week noticed that our national anthem was not played even once? If you are like most to whom I have spoken, you did not notice it, or, if you did, it did not make such an unfavorable impression on you that you remembered it a week after. Is this indicative of a general trend in our thinking today — that we in America are growing more unpatriotic by the day?

At many other times it becomes evident that those acts which were once considered our proud, public pronouncement of faith in our nation and what it stands for, are beginning to play less and less of a part in our daily lives.

Now is not the time for us to become lax in our obedience to the great country in which we live. There are far too many other forms of government and economic systems which would be only too happy to gain control of America, if we should not defend it adequately. And what better way to defend our fatherland than by a public announcement that we are proud of it and what it has done for us and what we are sure that it will do for us in the future?

Let's all learn the new version of the Pledge of Allegiance correctly, and say it every chance we have. Let's proudly fly the Flag of the United States of America from the flagpole in front of the school every day. Let's play the Star Spangled Banner at all public meetings, tournaments, and other get-togethers. Let's show those who may wonder that we are proud of being Americans, and that we want to continue being Americans, forever.

Musicians Prepare For Contests

By Stanley Curtis
 The music department, though there may not be many visible signs, has been very busy during the last few weeks. The band and choir are doing quite a bit of rehearsal for the county music festival, the spring concert, and the band contest later this spring.

On Friday, Jan. 22, 36 members of the music department attended a concert by the Purdue University Symphonic Band at West Lafayette. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hatten. Ed Kowatch drove the bus.

Last minute rehearsal is now in progress for the vocal and piano contest which will be held this Friday. A mock contest will be held during the seventh periods.

SPEAKS ON CHRISTIAN IDEALS

BY NANCY ERVIN
 Reverend Vernon Palmer, pastor of the Culver E.U.B. Church, spoke to us on the subject of Christian ideals. He challenged us to strive to do our best in school, instead of just getting by. The person with high ideals will go farther. Reverend Palmer said that a good philosophy for all of us is to be sure we know what we are talking about, and not to act as a "know-it-all."

and tilted showcases in her

g his head and saying:
“We’ve been in business since 87 and that’s the most undesir-e customer we ever had!”
By then, the city was in an up-ar, so Modoc sought the tranquility of the country. For awhile he is reported at the country club, then rambled through a few fens-es to the Wabash River.
At this point Jacobs and a ase caught up with Modoc. Two the bravest grabbed her quiving ears and pleaded, “Let’s go ome, girl!”
MODOC merely snorted and alked into the river, whereupon er dunked captors came un-lued, permitting old two-ton to oss the river and disappear in the night.
“Well trail her in the morning,” said Jacobs — and trail her ey did, back and forth across Wabash, then up the Salaf-toute to Lagro.
“NO RECESS TODAY!” said
agro’s school principal. “Ele-hants play too rough!”
Modoc rambled on and some-hat later was spotted on the tosen. McDaniels farm well to he east. Several farmers soon aftered.
“I’m going to chase her out of ere,” said one.
Turned out to be vice-versa, owever, and the farmer wound p in Huntington’s hospital with cracked vertebra. That turn of vents did bring joy to one man, owever. It placed Modoc across he Huntington County line, leading Wabash’s Sheriff Howell to ay happily, “She’s no longer my aby.”
ALL THE NEXT day Modoc hold-up in a 60-acre woods. It was a hick woods, and dark — so dark hat one man said, “The owls in hoot all day.” So no one entured in. Came nightfall, and vith Governor Henry F. Schrier.
But Modoc wasn’t buying any adical palaver, either — so old White Hat presently left to address a more receptive audience at North Manchester.
By Saturday night Jacobs and salar had tried every trick in he book. Elephant men had axed and cajoled. They’d temped Modoc with Knipress and Indy. They had baited her with ood.
MODOC KEPT RAMBLING.
Son-one finally remembered hat Raymond Duke, who had left home at 16 to tend circus elephants, was wintering in Ora.

State Police fetched him on Sunday to the Lloyd Krieg farm nine miles south of Huntington where Modoc was lingering near chained
Judy in a small woods.
Duke surveyed the scene and asked, “What have you done?”
“Mostly,” said Jacobs wryly, “we’ve been dodging, climbing trees, jumping into ditches, or running like hell!”
“Let’s try bread,” said Duke.
“Elephants love it.”
They rustled up 32 loaves. With a pair of oft-chased helpers, Duke moved in and tossed a loaf at Modoc. She ate it.
“We’ve got her,” grinned Duke.
“All it takes now is time and patience.” For three hours he fed bread to Modoc, talking soothingly, petting, and cajoling. By dusk, Modoc was eating out of Duke’s hand.
“Unchain Judy and start her toward the truck,” Duke ordered.
Jacobs’ men did. Duke put his hook in Modoc’s ear and said firmly:
“ALL RIGHT, OLD GIRL —
the fun’s over. Let’s go home.”
Meekly Modoc followed Judy into Jacobs’ truck and the great five-day elephant hunt was over.
Modoc lost a few hundred pounds.
Jacobs saved $6,000, and Duke got $50 for his day’s work.

Eppley Theatre
Stages Two Hits

By ROBERT GLAZE
During the last month Culver Military Academy presented for the Corps of Cadets and the public two musical concerts in the Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium.
Last Wednesday night found the well-traveled group from Indiana University, the Singing Hoosiers, gracing the auditorium with a program of a wide variety of songs ranging from the light lyrics of “Sweet Georgia Brown” to the stirring strains of the “Battle Hymn of the Republic.”
The Hoosiers sang with a good deal of professional polish, following their director well and using good diction. Several of the members proved their individual versatility and accomplishment in music. A fine example of this was a vocal solo done by the string bass player, who sang bass as well as he played it.
Director Makes A Hit
Mr. George Krueger, the competent director of the group, captured the attention of the approximately 1,200 members of the audience (when they weren’t watching the girls) with his easy-going, friendly attitude. He amused the Corps when he had the men in his group march on stage for the second part of the program.
In the opinion of this reviewer the weakest point of the show was the “over gesturing” done by the girls during a few of the numbers, but this apparently didn’t make any difference to the audience, judging by the fine reception given them at the conclusion of the program.
Outstanding Performance
Sunday night brought an outstanding hour and a half (short) violin recital by Mr. Paul Kling, the concert master for the Louisville Symphony Orchestra.
For the first part of his program Mr. Kling, with the superb piano accompaniment of Mr. Walter Robert, who is on the staff at Indiana University, performed two nineteenth century sonatas.

The first of these was the third Sonata (op. 108) in d minor by Johannes Brahms. This sonata in four movements is considered one of the greatest ever written by the composer, and Mr. Kling certainly did it justice.
The second was the Beethoven Sonata No. 9 (op. 17) and dedicated to Kruetzer. Written in 1802, this piece in three movements is a fine example of sonata concertante in which the violin opens alone followed by the piano and then continues thus in a veritable contest between the two instruments, one following the other.
The final part of the program was the Sonata No. 2 (op. 21) in D major by the 20th century composer Serge Prokofieff. This was Prokofieff’s first sonata to be written in four movements instead of three. It had been originally written for flute and piano, but through collaboration between Prokofieff and a Russian violinist named David Oistrakh it was rewritten for violin and piano.
At the conclusion of his very exciting program Mr. Kling really put his stamina and great agility to a test when he played as an encore Pugnani’s Preludium and Allegro arranged by Kreistler. He passed the test magnificently.

Editors’ Note: Robert Glaze, son of Mrs. Helen Glaze of 702 College Ave., is a first classman at he is an outstanding student and a member of Blue Key, academic honor society; a trombone player in the Band; a vocalist in the Dance Band; and a member of the Cadet Chapel Choir. He is a brother of Miss Tommye Lou Glaze, Indiana University coed, one of the finest and most charming singers in Hoosier history in the opinion of The Citizen.

HOLD THAT LINE!

Don't Look Now, But

If you Culver folks are troubled by a $290 billion national debt and an $80 billion federal budget, cheer up. It's going to get worse!

That debt of $290 billion, Federal Budget Director Maurice Stans discloses, isn't the half of it.

Laws passed in former sessions of Congress have obligated this country to pay out another $350 billion in future years, over and above the expenses that will be incurred during those years.

As for that $80 billion budget, Stans warns that "unless we hold the line now, the day is not too distant when the budget will rise to the $90 billion or $100 billion range."

In the last session of Congress alone, 20 major spending bills were introduced in the House and 20 in the Senate, which, if passed, would add $50 billion to $60 billion a year to present spending.

As for economizing, nearly 85 per cent of the budget is "locked in" in commitments for national security, interest on the public debt, and mandatory benefits for agriculture, veterans, and the needy. That leaves little room for discretion or for cutting expenses.

Those are mean facts. Here is another fact.

This is an election year, and no legislator will want to say "No" to any spending proposal unless he is convinced completely that it will be worth more votes than saying "Yes."

Any citizen who expects Congress to be stingy in handing out federal funds this year had better let Congressman John Brademas know about it now, and in no uncertain terms.

BANK RECEIVES FORMS FOR EXCHANGE OF GOVERNMENT BONDS

The State Exchange Bank has received forms which will enable owners of Series "E", "F," and "J" Bonds to exchange them for Series "H" Bonds without the payment of taxes on accrued interest — tax payments being postponed until the "H" Bonds thus acquired are either cashed in or matured.

The new arrangement will prove attractive to holders of "E" Bonds, who desire to begin receiving semi-annual interest on their holdings. It applies especially to older bond holders who now wish to improve their annual earnings.

Interest on "E" Bonds accrues at the rate of 3-3/4 per cent compounded semi-annually when held to maturity while interest at 3-3/4 per annum on "H" Bonds is paid by check semi-annually.

It is not anticipated that the exchange plan will prove advantageous to all owners of "E" Bonds, but holders of substantial investments in "E" Bonds who are approaching a time in life when current income is more important than accruing income are being advised to consult their bankers on the desirability of taking advantage of the Treasury's conversion offer.

Alfred Kimmel Dies Suddenly At Tippecanoe

Alfred Kimmel, 75, father of Lester Kimmel, Route 1, Culver, died Friday evening, Jan. 22, in his home, Route 1, Tippecanoe, following a heart attack. He had been in failing health several years.

Born March 13, 1884, near Peru, Mr. Kimmel was married to the former Eva Menser of Burr Oak who preceded him in death on Sept. 2, 1951.

For several years he operated a restaurant in Plymouth. He lived seven years in Argos and was also a former resident of Fulton County and a retired farmer. For the past one and a half years he had resided near Tippecanoe.

Survivors besides his son, Lester, are another son, Benjamin Kimmel, Route 1, Tippecanoe, and three grandchildren.

Services were conducted Monday at the Grossman Funeral Home at Argos with Rev. Donald Dugan of the Tippecanoe Community Church officiating. Interment was in the Poplar Grove Cemetery. Mr. Kimmel was a member of the Tippecanoe Community Church.

HOWARD OBERLINS LEAVE ORCHARD BEHIND FOR TOWN

Having sold their home and well known apple orchard on East Shore Drive (Road 117) to William H. Robinson of 686 East Shore Drive, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Oberlin have moved into the Hallberg residence at 471 Lake Street, which they recently purchased.

PLENTY OF STARS ON BELL TELEPHONE HOUR FRIDAY NIGHT

Ethel Merman, Benny Goodman, Beatrice Lillie, and Ray Bolger will appear together on the Bell Telephone Hour on Friday, Jan. 29.

The four stars, each from a different field of show business, will join Donald Voorhees and the 57-man Bell Telephone Orchestra for this hour-long colorcast on NBC television.

This will be the first time the four stars have been brought together on one program. Each will have an individual segment of the program to present a group of numbers for which he — or she — is famous.

Miss Merman's contribution will be ragtime. She has been singing rhythm tunes ever since she introduced "I've Got Rhythm" in 1930. Beatrice Lillie will feature the musical clowning which has delighted a generation of theatergoers.

Benny Goodman, the underground king of swing, will play clarinet, and Ray Bolger will demonstrate why he is a top song-and-dance man in his field.

Last Call For Subscriptions At Old Rate!

Act Before Feb. 1 And Save Money!

Effective Feb. 1, 1960, The Culver Citizen will follow the lead of scores of other Hoosier and Midwest newspapers and make a slight increase in its subscription rates to partially offset the continuing higher costs of production.

It will be The Citizen's first raise in subscription rates since 1953.

Area newspapers which have recently made a similar announcement include The North Judson News, The Plymouth Pilot-News, and The Starke County Democrat at Knox.

Last year was a dismal year for U.S. small town newspapers in general. A press association survey shows that 38 per cent lost money and 65 per cent showed less profit or a higher loss. Hundreds of old established weeklies are suspending publication while desperately made mergers are being effected to save others who can no longer absorb the heavy overhead of their individual plants.

Here Are The New Rates

After Feb. 1 the new subscription rates of The Culver Citizen will be: Indiana — 1 year, $4; 2 years, $6.50; Out-of-State — 1 year, $4.50; 2 years, $7.

Subscriptions of shorter duration will be: Indiana — 6 months, $2.25; 3 months, $1.25; Out-of-State — 6 months, $2.50; 3 months, $1.50.

Save Money Now!

Subscriptions for any period in the future will be accepted up to Feb. 1 at the old rates of $3 per year or 2 years for $5 in Indiana, and $3.50 per year or 2 years for $5.50 outside of Indiana.

Single Copies Still 10 Cents

Single copies of The Citizen will remain at 10 cents. By entering a regular subscription at $4, after Feb. 1, one may still save $1.20 a year over the newsstand price.

LA PORTE BASKETBALL INVITATIONAL TOURNEY STARTS SUNDAY, FEB. 28

The LaPorte Recreation Department will sponsor its third annual Recreation Invitational Basketball Tournament starting Sunday, Feb. 28, at the Civic Auditorium. Remaining games will be played on following Sunday afternoons.

Teams are expected to enter from all points in Northern Indiana. Last year there were 25 teams entered and "Bud" Moore, tourney director, expects more this year.

Entry fee is $20. All fees will be used for large trophies and good officials. Entry blanks may be secured at the Recreation Office in the Civic Auditorium, LaPorte, or they may be received by mail by calling 3623 or 43951 after 5 p.m. The deadline for return of entry blanks and fees is Feb. 22.

Pure Milk Assn. Annual Meeting

Pure Milk Association District 18 annual meeting and dinner will be held at the Winamac, Ind., VFW hall Tuesday, Feb. 2, starting with a 10:30 a.m. delegate meeting. It was announced this week by district officers. The dinner will be served members and wives at noon.

Whitney Kline, Rt. 1, Culver, is PMA District 18 director and 2nd vice president of the association of 14,000 dairy farmers of Indiana, Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin.

Omer E. Reichard, Rt. 4, Rochester, is district president and alternate re-districting committeeman; L. Jay Reinhold, Rt. 1, Monterey, secretary-treasurer; J. R. Miller, Rt. 1, Akron, re-districting committeeman; Herman C. Wuethrich, Rt. 1, Francesville, resolutions committeeman and El Anliker, Rt. 2, Francesville, alternate resolutions committeeman.

Avery A. Vose, president of Pure Milk Association, and A. L. McWilliams, PMA general manager, will be featured speakers.

Vose will review the activities which have brought Pure Milk Association and a wide circle of dairy farmer cooperatives throughout the midwest into closer working relationships during the past year, with special emphasis on the development of Federated Dairy Cooperatives, a group of 20 dairy farmer cooperatives shipping milk to the Chicago market. He also will review legislative work affecting dairy farmers.

McWilliams will tell of the past year's PMA program under which six new plants were added to the association's plant program, as well as the development of other phases of the association's program.

The PMA general manager also will review the results of the price negotiations with respect to Chicago and adjacent markets and will indicate 1960 PMA aims.

PMA District 18 membership includes about 550 dairy farmers living in all or portions of the Indiana counties of Lake, Newton, Jasper, Benton, Porter, Starke, Pulaski, Fulton, Kosciusko, Wabash, Grant, Miami, Cass, Carroll, White, Noble and Whitley and parts of the Illinois counties of Kankakee and Iroquois.

PAUL SWEARINGEN GETS NEW MONTHLY U. S. BOND REPORT

Paul Swearingen, Plymouth shoe merchant, chairman of the Marshall County U. S. Savings Bonds Committee, has received a report on December bond sales which totalled $76,327.66 compared with $78,005.47 for the corresponding month of 1958.

Indiana's Savings Bonds sales for the month were $11,120,424 and $13,321,544 for December, 1958 — a drop of 16.5 per cent. Direct and indirect unemployment resulting from strikes in the steel industry is believed to have affected sales adversely.

Culver Indians Beat LaPaz By 72-41 Score

Meet Plymouth and Argos This Week

By EARL MISHLER

The Culver Indians evened their season record at 7-7 Saturday night in Plymouth by easily beating LaPaz, 72-41.

The Indians streaked to an 18-11 lead after the first quarter, and increased the bulge to 39-20 at halftime. After the intermission, LaPaz went six minutes without scoring, as Culver raced away to a 54-23 margin. The fourth quarter was sloppily played by both sides, with each team scoring 18 points.

Culver actually shot only average from the floor, hitting 30 of their 95 attempts, but the rebounding corps provided the Indians with 33 more shots than the Vikings, who swished only 15 of 62.

Gary Dillon led the Culver scoring with 22 points, but was ably backed up by Gene Benedict with 17. Larry Chase, LaPaz's fine long-shooting guard, paced the losers with 13 markers.

The B-Team suffered its fourth loss of the season, bowing to the LaPaz B squad, 40-27. The Papposes, who lost two of their stars, Larry Davis and John Benedict, to the Varsity, were led by John Cromley's 11 points. Jerry Anders of LaPaz took game honors with 14.

Next Friday Culver journeys to Argos and the following night plays host to the improved Plymouth Pilgrims.

Maurice E. Nelson Elected Advisory Board Chairman

The Union Township Advisory Board met with Trustee Eugene G. Benedict on Jan. 12 and received, accepted, and approved the Trustee's annual report for 1959. It is published in today's Citizen.

Prior to the meeting the Advisory Board met and elected 1960 officers. Maurice E. Nelson, owner of the Nelson Equipment Company, was elected chairman, and Wayne Kline secretary, Ralph Osborn Jr., the lone Republican, is the third member of the board.

Editor's note: The Citizen regrets that it does not have a picture of Mr. Nelson in its files. Last year over 200 Culver area people deemed "newsworthy" were invited to come to The Citizen office on Aug. 7 and be photographed without charge for our "newspaper morgue." More than 80 responded to our invitation but unfortunately Mr. Nelson, Charles Cook, Norman Kelly, Charles G. McLane, and Peter D. Trone, who have figured prominently in local news during recent weeks, did not. We hope, therefore, that these local citizens who were unable to have their pictures taken free for us last summer will now provide us with photographs taken at their own expense since The Citizen does not contemplate another such arrangement with the Detroit photographer for another five years.
