Joe Fleener - Indiana's Hot Tamale Tycoon

HOT TAMALES hoisted Joe Fleener from the depths of misfortune and made him one of Bloomington's most familiar and popular figures.

In 25 years, Joe has lugged his big thermos box a globe-girdling 25,000 miles around Bloomington and I.U.'s campus to sell a million hot, peppery tamales.

City oldsters and depression-day I. U. grads can still recall Joe's earliest hawking cry:

"Eeeeee, 'ot tamale — a nick!" Then Fleener's tasty tamales, wrapped in corn husks, sold for a nickel. Now they're folded in vegetable parchment, at two for two-bits — and so well known that to sell out Joe needs only to circle the square, softly spicing, "R-r-r-red hot tamales."

These days Joe circles less often. Tamales earned him a Social Security pension last year, so his net can't top $1,200 a year.

"That's enough to keep me happy," he grinned.

NOW 67, Joe Fleener is a relaxed, bespectacled man of average build, with gray hair and a small bristly moustache atop an easy grin.

Joe's Mexican wars and his merry dark eyes suggest Spanish origin — but few have deeper Indiana roots. Fleeners have been Hoosiers since great-grandfather Melvin was born near the Ohio line in 1818.

FARM-RAISED near Nashville in picturesque Brown County, Joe moved to Bloomington after high school in 1912.

"They say I rode in on a load of hoop poles and couldn't find the way back to my home hills," he chuckled.

Joe came deviously to his old tamale trade. Married young, he first tried factory work and tenant farming. Disliking both, he acquired a small Bloomington diner — the old Lane Star on Morton Street, later named Peggy's Place.

The diner did well and Joe was happy. One day Walter Woodward, a cook who had been in the Southwest, decided to return. Woodward had hawked tamales in Arizona. Needing train fare he said to Joe:

"GOOD TAMALES will sell here, Joe. For a small fee I'll teach you how to make them."

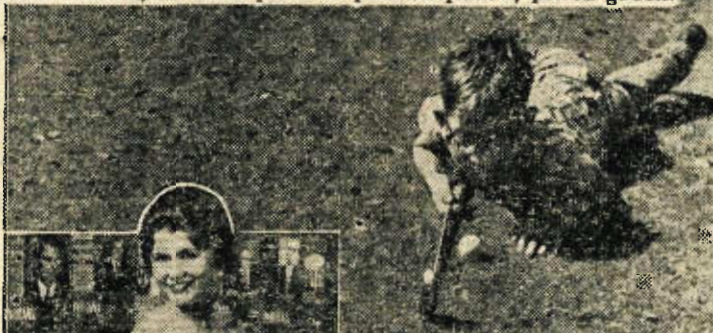

Dubious but kind, Joe paid and Woodward showed him how to mix and season spicy ground beef and give it a corn meal coat, rolled into scalded corn husks.

WOODWARD LEFT and Joe forthwith forgot tamales — until 1920 when he sold his diner to Peggy May and found himself

Reorganization Of Area Schools Again Discussed

[Contributed]

A second public school reorganization meeting was held Aug. 16 under the joint sponsorship of various Culver organizations. Chairman James Miracle presided.

Mr. Miracle made a few introductory remarks about the reason for the meeting — to inform the public of the steps that have been taken in regard to school reorganization and consolidation in Union Township.

Before turning the meeting over to Frank McLane of the County Reorganization Committee, Kenneth Cole, the new principal, was introduced.

Superintendent McLane Speaks

Mr. McLane outlined the reasons for the reorganization law, and the possibilities and many difficulties which are encountered by the County Committee.

Culver Loses 15 In Population Since '50 Census

Only Town In County To Shrink

The Town of Culver, which has always stressed quality instead of quantity, must frankly admit that it has lost 15 inhabitants since the census was taken 10 years ago.

Figures released last week by the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C., show Culver's current population to be 1,543 as against 1,558 in 1950.

Corporate Limits Need Revision

It is predicted, however, that Union Township itself will show a substantial increase in population. (Continued on Page 2)

Huge Parade And Reception To Honor Culver's "Miss Indiana" At Plymouth Thursday Night; Everything Free

Tommye Lou Glaze Getting Terrific Send-Off To "Miss America" Pageant

By HATTIE ROTH

Everybody loves a parade — young, old, rich, and poor — and Plymouth's streets will be graced Thursday night, Aug. 25, with the colorful Plymouth and Culver bands and "Miss Indiana", Tommye Lou Glaze, with a court of contestants from the ever popular "Miss Plymouth" Pageant.

The impressive parade will start promptly at 6 p.m. in front of the Centennial Auditorium on Gibson Street and will proceed to Liberty Street — Liberty Street to Garro Street — Garro Street to Michigan Street — Michigan Street to Jefferson Street — Jefferson Street to the Armory, where the big doings takes place.

A private reception will be held from 7 to 7:45 p.m. for the "Miss Plymouth" Pageant Committee, "Miss Indiana" Boosters, "Miss Plymouth" Pageant entrants, and those participating in the parade.

Public Reception At 8 P.M.

The "Miss Indiana" reception is going to be just that — an opportunity to honor a fine, beautiful, talented young lady, Miss Tommye Lou Glaze, who will represent the State of Indiana at Atlantic City, N. J. in the renowned "Miss America" Pageant Sept. 5 to 10.

Big Crowd Anticipated

Hoosiers are known for their warm hospitality and kind and considerate way of life — so as we roll out the red carpet for Tommye Lou, who has brought us glory — we also roll one out for the people of Marshall County and any other county in the State which desires to come and wish their "Miss Indiana" well.

Hear Tommye Lou Sing!

Tommye Lou will be our star attraction, and if you haven't had the opportunity to hear her sing — a rendition from her will soon convince you — why we the people of Plymouth and Culver foresee the crown of "Miss America" in the offing.

The Pepsi-Cola Bottlers of Indiana will be our host and they will serve their tempting beverage with finger cookies.

Bring The Children!

George W. Schricker, president of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce and chairman of arrangements for the huge reception, said: "There will be no admission charge, no cover charge, stay as long as you like — bring the children, too — refreshments for all — reserve Aug. 25 on your calendar for "Miss Indiana" — come and wish her well in the "Miss America" Pageant."

dict gave a brief report on the meetings of the local reorganization advisory committee.

Don Davis Reports

Don Davis followed with a report about our school and town — what it has to offer and why we should support it to the utmost in order to continue the progress and further improvement in Culver and its schools.

Mrs. Peter DeTroy said in conclusion that it is necessary for all townspeople to be aware of the importance of school reorganization and that an informed public will be the best support of a sound and workable consolidation.

The meeting was then thrown open for questions. The point was raised by several that we should have more than one plan for reorganization.

Other Possible Consolidations

The local committee had so far only seriously considered the Aubbeenaubee, North Bend, and Union consolidation. Suggestions were made to look into the four-township plan of Richland, Aubbeenaubee, Argos, and Union.

Next Meeting Aug. 26

A motion was made to have another meeting Aug. 26. By that time more citizens and the local committee will have been able to look into other consolidation plans.

It is urged that all interested persons attend this third public reorganization meeting. Please remember the date, Friday, Aug. 26, at 8 p.m. in the Community Building. Have your questions ready! Be informed!

Teach Youth To Have Faith In A Supreme Being

Behind the dark veil that separates today from tomorrow may lie strange, new faces, treacherous tides, innumerable hidden dangers and new foes of human life and happiness. These are the great uncertainties of life.

The man of today, like his primitive ancestors, peers anxiously, even fearfully, into the future and tries to solve its mysteries, but the effort is futile. His vision is humble to pierce the darkness that shrouds tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow.

He has survived and become pre-eminent in the world because he possessed faith — faith in himself and his race, and faith in a "Supreme Being" who drew the pattern of the universe and made the laws that govern human destinies.

This is the golden thread that runs through history. It is the key to all the uncertainties and mysteries. It is the light that has guided man's footsteps into his eternal futures. Teach children to have faith in a Supreme Being.

Miss Arlene Baker And Chris Batalis Speak Wedding Vows

The marriage of Miss Arlene Baker and Chris Batalis took place at six o'clock, Sunday, Aug. 21, in the St. Andrew's Greek Orthodox Church, South Bend, with Father Dan Assimakidis officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Baker, former Culver residents now of 1526 Kenwood Ave., Plymouth, and Mr. and Mrs. George Batalis, 1201 North College, South Bend.

Entering on the arm of her father, Miss Baker was lovely in her bridal gown fashioned of imported Chantilly lace and imported nylon tulle ruffles with a full chapel train. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped Sabrina neckline outlined with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The long fitted sleeves tapered to points at the wrist. From under her bouffant skirt of lace, which was scattered with sequins and seed pearls, were three rows of pleated nylon tulle ruffles forming her chapel train. Adorning her head was an imported iridescent crystal Queen Anne's crown, with tear drop crystals across the front, which held her veil and blusher of imported French silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchid and poms.

The ceremony was performed in an atmosphere of candlelight, with bouquets of white gladioli decorating the church. White satin bows and palms marked the pews.

Mrs. Richard Langfeldt was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Bessie Batalis, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Jack Rich of Culver. They were attired in dresses of soft orchid silk organza over matching taffeta, fashioned with modified scoop necklines, puffed sleeves, fully gathered skirts with deep hems. Pleated cummerbunds of taffeta encircled the waistlines. Matching pleated bow clips with circular face veils adorned their heads, shoes of the same shade of orchid and white gloves completed their ensembles. Each attendant carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli with ivy.

Angeline Lampos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Lampos, was flower girl. She wore a white silk organza over taffeta floor length dress, fashioned with a scoop neckline. Her full skirt had a net overskirt which was accented by a cummerbund of light orchid, finished with a bow in back. She carried a white satin basket with petals.

Ring bearer was Andrew Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Clark, of Springfield, Ill., cousin of the bride.

Julius Psalidas was best man. Ushers were Jim Batalis and Bill Ayres of South Bend.

Mrs. Baker, the bride's mother, wore a rose lace dress. The bodice was styled with a scoop neckline and short sleeves. The skirt had inserts of rose satin, and she wore matching accessories and a corsage of white gladioli.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Batalis, chose a beige lace sheath dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was orchid gladioli with greens.

The Fellowship Hall of the church was decorated with wedding bells and gladioli bouquets for the reception which was attended by 425 guests. Centering the bride's table was a three-tier cake trimmed with white roses and pale orchid bells topped by a small bride and groom. Mrs. Jerald Clark, aunt of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Julius Psalidas was in charge of the guest book.

Later the newlyweds left for a trip to Florida. On their return they will live in South Bend.

Out-of-town guests were present from Michigan, Illinois, Ohio and Virginia.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Central High School, and is currently attending the American Institute of Banking. The new Mrs. Batalis is a graduate of Culver High School and Vogue Beauty College.

FARM HOUSING LOANS ON SMALLER UNITS NOW BEING MADE

The eligibility requirements for Farm Housing loans have been changed to include more smaller farm units according to Paul D. Sharp, County Supervisor, Farmers Home Administration, Knox, who services this county.

To be eligible now the farm must produce in agricultural commodities a total of $400 or more based on 1944 prices.

Loans may be made for the construction or repair of houses, barns, machine sheds, milking parlors, or other essential buildings. The tract of land is appraised on a normal market value and this would be the maximum for a loan.

The loans are secured by a 1st or 2nd mortgage. Title to the land should be in the name of the applicant and he must be unable to obtain the necessary amount of credit through the local lending institutions.

Anyone interested should contact Mr. Sharp at the Farmers Home Administration office at Knox for an appointment.

Billy Graham Film At E.U.B. Church Sunday

Billy Graham's historic 17,000 mile "Safari for Souls" across Africa, is the theme of a new feature length motion picture, "Africa On The Bridge," which has its Culver premiere at the Emmanuel E.U.B. Church on Sunday, Aug. 28, at 7:30 p.m.

Photographed in authentic sound and natural color in 17 principal cities across Africa from Monrovia, Liberia, to Cairo, Egypt, the document captures the spirit of Africa during these current crucial years.

Frequently called "The Awakening Giant," Africa is depicted to be in a transition period — on a bridge — between ancient tribalism and the shining goal of independence from colonial rule.

During this significant period, American Evangelist Billy Graham was accorded an unprecedented welcome by Africans ranging from chiefs of state down to the general population of bush, desert, and jungle. A total of 500,000 persons attended outdoor mass meetings with nearly 35,000 inquirers remaining for further help and instruction.

"Africa On The Bridge" has great pictorial scope, ranging from sequences depicting primitive village life to scenes of modern city and industrial activity. Exciting and colorful pagan rites and ceremonies are featured, together with some of the most remarkable big-game footage ever filmed.

Climaxing the story of the spiritual thrust of the Billy Graham team is a tribute to the missionaries, whose years of faithful labors were in a large measure responsible for the spiritual harvest experienced by the Evangelist. Missionary leaders and ministers joined with state and civic officials to extend the invitation for Mr. Graham to visit the Continent.

"Africa On The Bridge" was directed by Dick Ross and produced by World Wide Pictures, the organization responsible for such well-known films as "The Heart Is A Rebel," "Souls In Conflict," "Oiltown, USA," "Mr. Texas," and many others, with newest dramatic color feature scheduled for October release, "Shadow Of The Boomerang," starring Georgia Lee and Dick Jones.

Roadside Park Draws Record Crowd

Every year some two-and-a-half million people visit our Indiana State Parks; but an even greater number yearly use the Roadside Tables and Rest Parks maintained by your State Highway Department. Our photo shows a group of nearly 500 Boy Scouts using the Mill Creek Rest Park near Stilesville as a stop-over luncheon point on their trip from New York City to the Scout International Jamboree in Colorado.

There are now 108 Rest Parks along Hoosier Highways, scattered throughout our State, averaging 2½ acres in size; with an additional 536 Roadside Tables offering the traveling public a shady spot to picnic and rest.

During the Administration of Governor Harold Handley the number of Roadside Rest Park Shelter Houses has increased from 5 to the present total of 40, with some 864 tables arranged within the shady park areas. Some parks have as many as twenty tables, but the average is ten. Next time you and your family drive past a Rest Park, stop and relax. You'll be astonished to see the huge number of travelers using our Rest Parks. Rest Parks are public relations at its best for the Hoosier State's tourists as well as our own travelers.

Dr. Russell Blair Of CMA Faculty Touring Russia

A Culver Military Academy educator, Dr. Russell Blair, left last Thursday for a month-long tour of educational facilities in Soviet Russia.

Some 55 educators from throughout the United States are making the tour, which is sponsored by the Comparative Education Society of America in conjunction with the Trade Union of Soviet Teachers.

Will Study Soviet System.

The tour is a seminar and field study of the Soviet education system with special emphasis on latest developments under the new program undertaken at Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's direction.

The American educators left New York Saturday, flying to Moscow on the Scandinavian Airlines System. They arrived in Moscow, Sunday, and will spend 11 days there. Then they will tour the Soviet Union, spending from two to four days at Alma Ata, Tashkent, Stalinabad, Samarkand, Tbilisi, and Kharkov before returning to Moscow.

A West Point Graduate

Dr. Blair is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point. He retired in 1950, after 26 years of service as an army officer. He holds M.A. and M.S. in Education degrees from the University of Pennsylvania, where he received his Ph.D. degree in Slavic languages in 1956.

From 1952 until coming to Culver, Dr. Blair was a research linguist for the University of Pennsylvania's Institute for Cooperative Research.

Teaches Russian At Academy

At Culver, Dr. Blair teaches both Russian and Spanish. A portion of the expenses involved in the trip are being paid by the Academy's Alexander Frederick Fleet Memorial Fund, a fund to aid faculty members financially in summer study.

UNPRINTABLE WORDS
NEEDED TO DESCRIBE
TODAY'S AWFUL SMELL

The positively "offal" smell at the junction of Roads 10 and Old 17 last Monday night was the worst in many months, permeating the atmosphere all the way to the Three Sisters Restaurant at the north to the root beer stand in the south, driving many families in the new Academy subdivision indoors from their cool reeked-in front porches.

We can be thankful, however, at the parents of the 1,500 boys in the Academy summer schools, who drove here to pick up their sons over the weekend, escaped the worst of this nauseating experience before the wind shifted. How long are the Town of Culver and Union Township going to tolerate this menace to health and pleasure of living?

"DAMN YANKEES" PLAYS TO PACKED HOUSES

The sensational two-week run of "Damn Yankees" at the Maxinkuckee Playhouse made us realize once again the tremendous asset the community has in this outstanding summer theatre, now nearing the close of its 11th successful season. Packed houses greeted every performance. Co-managers Paul Rutledge and David Hager can take another bow!

To us a priceless highlight of "Damn Yankees" was the singing of "The Game" by the terrific quartet composed of Paul Rutledge, Richard Harrison, Gary Vitale, and Vaughn McBride.

And, of course, that perennial "Everybody's Favorite" — Bob Moak — again practically sewed up The Culver Citizen's award for "Best Actor of the Year" in the role of Mr. Applegate.

CULVER AIRPORT'S PROBLEM SOLVED BY INDIANAPOLIS MAN

[From Lowell Nussbaum's popular column, "The Things I Hear," in The Indianapolis Star]

Harry Sheridan, vice-president of Metropolitan Planners Inc., was planning to fly to Maxinkuckee in his private plane. But he found the nearest airport, at Culver, had no facilities for tying down the plane, in case of high wind.

He started phoning in search of some "airplane tie-down stakes." No luck until he called North Side Hardware.

"You don't want airplane tie-down stakes," he was told. "You just need dog stakes. We're out of them, but most any drug store has them."

He got them at the Shepherd Pharmacy, 52nd Street and College Avenue. They're the type that screw into the ground for staking out a dog, and they work equally well for planes.

The Week With Governor Handley

Balanced State Budget Is Being Prepared

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 22 — Determined to present a balanced state budget for 1961-1963 to the next Indiana Legislature as one of his last official acts, Governor Harold W. Handley is holding a series of personal meetings with department heads and budget bureau chiefs as the budget is being prepared.

"With four years of current experience to guide us, we feel we are well prepared to consider the needs of the state realistically," Governor Handley said today.

"In a rapidly growing state, it is essential to have sufficient revenue to care for increased public needs.

"But just as each new family increases the cost of government, if that family has one or more members who have good jobs the state's revenue also will increase.

42% To Local Communities
"We have found that the tax reforms voted by the 1957 Legislature have given us an adequate income to run the state government and also permit the return of 42% of the money to local communities.

"By the payroll deduction method of collecting gross income taxes, we are getting transients who never before paid their part of their government's costs.

"This one reform has increased state revenue enough to permit repeal of all except one cent of the state property tax.

"The 1961-1963 budget will be big enough to meet the state government's needs but yet not so big that state tax rate increases will be justified.

Bipartisan Budget Committee

"After the recommendations of the various departments have been carefully screened by me, the bipartisan state budget committee — composed of four members of the Legislature representing both houses — will then prepare the final budget.

"If responsible and capable legislators are elected in November, the final budget total will approximate the amount originally recommended by me at the start of the legislative session.

"Conscientious preparation of such a frugal budget will enable the Legislature to devote most of its time to other business. Foremost on the agenda will be the problem of reforming local tax systems.

"I will continue to advocate substantial relief for property owners, Indiana homes, farms, and business enterprises are carrying too much of a load of local property taxes in many communities."

Governor Handley last Monday spoke at the National Retail Clothiers Convention at French Lick.

On Tuesday, he dedicated the new building of the Indiana Employment Security Division. It is at the northwest corner of Washington Street and Senate Avenue in Indianapolis, and is at the south end of the new plaza being constructed west of the State House.

Maxinkuckee — Perennial Gem
By Joe Adams
[Reprinted from the July 24, 1960 issue of The Indianapolis Star Magazine]

Culver residents declare
They have the best lake anywhere —
A lyric, loyal, local view
Shared by many others who
Have stood on Maxinkuckee's shore
And counted beauty spots galore.
Even when it is congealed
By frost its charms are not concealed,
For, with the shoreline frozen hard,
It's like a sparkling Christmas card.
In spring its verdant woodlands dress
In dogwood-redbud loveliness.
In summer its blue water seems
To glitter as a jewel gleams;
And in autumn the observer thrills
To the flaming trees upon its hills.
For here's a hearty, healthful clime
In summer, winter, any time —
Where Nature brews a tonic rare
Of pure and zestful smokeless air.
Yes, Culver folks are mighty lucky
To have a lake like Maxinkuckee!

The new State Office Building — farther north on the plaza will be dedicated in December.

"For the first time since government departments outgrew the State House," Governor Handley said, "we are now getting the state's operations in Indianapolis back into one area.

"The new Office Building will house under one roof the various departments and commissions which have been occupying at least part of more than 20 buildings throughout the capital city.

"And instead of paying rent to all these landlords, the state will be buying its own facilities. Every family aspires to own its home. So does the State of Indiana."

New Adjutant General

Also on Tuesday, Governor

Handley officially installed Alfred Ahner of Huntington as Indiana Adjutant General. He succeeds Brig. Gen. John McConnell, who has become a regional official of the National Civil Defense program.

Gen. Ahner will now head Indiana's civil defense system, as did Gen. McConnell.

43% Rise in Supreme Court Dissents

A 43 per cent rise in the number of dissenting opinions marked the 1959-60 term of the U. S. Supreme Court, its busiest term in 13 years, according to Commerce Clearing House, national reporting authority on tax and business law.

On 80 different occasions, jurists wrote dissenting opinions disagreeing with the 97 opinions issued by the majority of the Court, CCH reported in its U. S. Supreme Court Bulletin. In the previous term there were only 56 dissents.

1,822 Cases Decided

The Court disposed of 1,822 cases, compared with 1,781 cases in the 1958-59 term, and an average over the past 13 years of 1,476 cases.

A total of 222 opinions was handed down, compared with 194 during the previous term. In addition to the 97 majority opinions and the 80 dissents, there were 18 concurring opinions in which Justices cited reasons differing from those of the majority for reaching the agreed decisions. Also, there were 27 separate opinions of which Justice Frankfurter wrote 12. Such opinions generally explain a position on a side issue.

Four Leading Dissenters

The four leading dissenters wrote a total of 53 dissenting opinions during the term just ended, compared with only 27 by these four during the previous term. Justice Douglas led the group with 16 dissents, while Justices Frankfurter and Harlan wrote 13 dissents each. Justice Whittaker wrote 11.

Dissenting opinions written by the other Justices were as follows: Brennan and Clark, 7 each; Black, 6; Chief Justice Warren, 5; Stewart, 2. During the previous term, these five justices dissented on 29 occasions.

Among the significant decisions affecting business operations were these:

Outstanding was the case in which a Georgia corporation was ordered to pay the Florida use tax on sales of its products through jobbers in Florida. Such use tax liability was considered not to burden interstate commerce.

Hickey, Rural Route 1 of Culver has been extended to give service to 52 more patrons.

"Followers Of The Star" is the title of a pageant to be presented by ladies of the Grace Reformed Church at the Community Building Aug. 21.

August 25, 1920—

The first frost of the season for this area came Aug. 21 and we find it hard to believe we are in the midst of "dog days."

George Gurns has sold his residence on Main Street to Captain J. T. Stinchcomb of the Academy.

In the London Olympia, one of the largest auditoriums in the world, two Culver Military Academy boys, Fred and Leigh Gignilist, and other American boys included in the world gathering of Boy Scouts, gave an exhibition of rough riding, Culver-style.

County Superintendent Floyd M. Annis has published in The Marshall County Farmer an exhaustive review of the county school system, liberally illustrated. The consolidation plan is fully set forth with descriptions of the movement in various townships.

The price of sugar dropped to as low as 19 cents in some instances and predictions are that it will be as low as 10 cents a pound by Jan. 1.

August 25, 1910—

Herbert Labounty had his right leg broken and several toes smashed in a railroad accident at Logansport.

John Newman made an excursion to Green Springs, Ohio, on Aug. 21.

Miss Clara Stahl has returned to Greensboro, N. C., to assume the position of registrar of the college there.

Osborn and Frances, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Medbourn, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Jones and son Wendell, Oliver Shilling, Misses Elizabeth Ellis, Bessie Medbourn, Clara Shilling, Chloe Houghton, Mary and Eva Jones, and Mr. Allen of Niagara Falls.

A son was born Aug. 21 to Mr. and Mrs. William Ralston.

On Aug. 16 a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stahl.

Among the federal tax questions resolved during the Court term were several listed in the CCH report as follows:

— owners of rental cars may not use the declining balance method of depreciation on them.

— failure to file a declaration of estimated federal income tax does not subject the taxpayer to penalties for "substantial under-estimate."

— strike benefits may be considered a "gift" and not "income."

Labor Relations Area

Decisions in the labor relations area included a confirmation of a union's right to picket a foreign ship and to bargain with a railroad on the abolishment of some of its stations. Also upheld was the right of the federal government to regulate the industry-wide strike in the steel industry on the basis that national safety was imperiled.

Labor arbitration figured in three important cases decided under the Labor Management Relations Act. The decisions narrowly restrict the authority of federal courts to review determinations made by arbitrators under union contracts.

Existing Laws Strengthened

Decisions in the important area of trade regulation tended mainly to strengthen existing laws. CCH notes them as follows:

— local price cutting practices come within the reach of the price discrimination law.

— allowances by a seller's broker to a buyer are prohibited.

— a resale price maintenance program that went beyond a mere "refusal to deal" with price cutters was condemned.

— the Federal Trade Commission does have the power to regulate the advertising practices of insurance companies engaged in interstate mail order business.

HELLO, THIS IS MISS STATE AIR!—This introduction probably startled the receiver of this home call as Miss Indiana State Air of 1959, Debby Randel, dialed out a telephone on display in the Manufacturers' Building, under the direction of Estel L. Allan, R. R. #1, Box 541, New Augusta, the Manufacturers' Building will offer many interesting exhibits for visitors at the 1960 Indiana State Fair, August 31 through September 8.

blouse. "It was harvest time, so I gathered some corn husks and made tamales," Joe recalled. "They did well — but I soon ran out of tamales and took a job at the Monon restaurant."

SIX YEARS LATER Fleener's tamales seemed forever part of his life. Finally, Joe had saved enough to swing construction of a $25,000, two-story, two-store, apartment Fleener Building on Third Street in downtown Bloomington.

The building should have paid for itself and provided for Joe's life — but the crash of '29 ended his big dream into a nightmare.

BY LATE 1930, Joe Fleener had lost everything — including a wife, who left him. Broke and unable to find work, Joe passed a day one day and remembered tamales.

"What can I lose?" Joe asked himself — and a few days later ventured forth with 100 of the same, spicy tidbits in his thermos box, crying, "E-e-e-e, 'ot male — a nick!"

The hot tamales sold like hot cakes and Joe was in business. Then, hawking about in town and on campus, Joe has sold 6,000 to 40,000 tamales a year and made himself one of Bloomington's best-known figures.

In 1952, his best year, Joe's sales topped 40,000 and netted him $25,200 — more than enough to satisfy his modest needs and indulge a beloved hobby, stamp collecting.

Joe's albums now hold almost all of the world's $5,000 different stamps. He also has a valuable assortment of first-coverage commemoratives.

"STAMPS ARE A better investment than buildings," Joe chuckled.

One irony born of his unusual trade has long amused Joe. Before starting it, he tried for a halfway Express job — but inked the physical.

"THE DOC SAID I had flat feet that couldn't take much standing or walking," Joe chuckled. "I've walked 25,000 miles — and my dogs haven't barked yet. I expect I'll keep on walking and selling tamales as long as the Lord will let me."

REQUEST FROM THE CITIZEN'S EDITORIAL STAFF

The Citizen, of course, welcomes editorial contributions on all subjects of general interest. Publicity chairman of organizations, however, will please do our reworked editorial staff a great favor by double-spacing all type-written or handwritten copy so that it may be edited with ease.

One important story in today's paper, which barely made our deadline, was single-spaced on a large sheet of tissue paper — all in a single paragraph! Abbreviations were used to excess; names were incomplete. The copy was so cluttered with handwritten corrections that it had to be completely retyped before we could tackle the job of editing it in order to conform with this newspaper's style. Please give us a break!

Miss Barbara Osborn left Friday to return to Denver, Colorado, after spending the past two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Osborn.

Local Cub Scouts enjoyed a boat ride and the Woodcraft Council Fire Saturday. Jim Miracle, biggest Cub of them all, made the arrangements.

Marie Stevens' mother, Mrs. Martha Shedd, has returned home following surgery in South Bend. Marie's sister and her family were recent visitors. Len is home briefly, before the entire family leaves for Bloomington. Len will study at Indiana University for a year. Their address will be 307 South Elfton, in Bloomington.

The Art Hughes are building a new home in the West Terrace section. It should be completed this fall. The Jack Spencers will move into the present Hughes home. The King Moores have bought Chuck Kauffman's home, and will move in this week. The Tom Walkers are in their new home, with the Ken Crowes occupying their old apartment.

This table illustrates the effect of inflation on pensions, annuities and other types of fixed income. If you retired in 1946 and have continued to depend on a fixed money income, you have fully experienced the unjust tax of inflation. If you had an annuity providing $100 a month in 1946, by 1959 it would have lost one-third of its value, says Tax Foundation, Inc.

HARDSHIP CASES

Back To The Classroom

Let's do some arithmetic, Culver Citizen readers.

Advocates of federal aid to education say we need $975 million in federal funds to build new schools in the next three years. They have a bill in Congress to appropriate the money, at $325 million per year.

The House Education and Labor Committee, which studied the bill and reported on it, placed the yearly need for new classrooms at 52,700 for 1960-64, and fewer thereafter.

If federal funds are needed to build these classrooms, it would seem that local sources are not able to construct them at the desired rate of 52,700 a year. Yet the fact is that over the last 10 years — without any federal aid — the construction rate has averaged 59,400 classrooms a year. Since 1955, the average has been 66,900.

Under the Congressional bill, 42% of the federal tax money would go to just seven states.

Far from being the seven "neediest" states, these are seven of the richest — New York, California, Pennsylvania, Texas, Ohio, Illinois, and Michigan.

When you add it up, the argument for federal school building funds isn't very convincing to most Hoosiers.

The buses did a very poor public relations job for this community after they crossed the Indiana-Illinois state line because they were labeled simply: Union Twp. School, Marshall Co.

On our new buses let's cut out these stupid abbreviations and spell out Township and County and proudly add INDIANA and CULVER, for that matter.

The Latest Development In School Consolidation Plan

Editor, CITIZEN:

The local committee on school reorganization met Wednesday evening, Aug. 17, to discuss alternate plans for a Union Township school unit.

The committee discussed a plan which would include West, Union, and Tippecanoe Townships and Argos schools as a unit. This unit could also include Richland and Aubbeenaubee Townships of Fulton County and North Bend Township of Starke County.

The original plan was a school unit of North Bend, Aubbeenaubee, and Union Townships. Due to the fact that the neighboring county committees have included these respective townships in their preliminary plans, it seems doubtful at this time that this proposed consolidation will come into being.

The vital significance of the life and works of the master Christian will be the central topic of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" which will be read at all Christian Science churches Sunday.

Scriptural selections will include the following from Luke's gospel (4:40,41): "Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak; for they knew that he was Christ."

A correlative passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy includes the following (332:11-15): "The Christ is incorporeal, spiritual, — yea, the divine image and likeness, dispelling the illusions of the senses; the Way, the Truth, and the Life, healing the sick and casting out evils, destroying sin, disease, and death."

Belgian-Congo Topic At Culver Bible Church

Just back from strife-torn Belgian Congo, Rev. Ivan Peterson will report on missionary and national conditions in that controversial region Wednesday night, Aug. 31, at 7:30 at the Culver Bible Church.

Leaving behind a car and 5 1/2 tons of other equipment, the Petersons were moved from the danger area with only two suitcases. As a result of the evacuation a baby was stillborn. Rev. and Mrs. Peterson now have three children buried on foreign soil. A baby girl died in Belgium from an undiagnosed disease and meningitis claimed a boy in the Congo as a result of African road conditions which prevented them from reaching the hospital station.

Culver Bible Church partially supports Rev. Peterson, who with his wife, Donelda, and two other children, is living in Michigan until conditions in the Congo warrant their return to the mission station. In the meantime Rev. Peterson is holding evangelistic meetings and bringing reports to the churches.

A review of 1960 activities at a financial report will be given and election of officers will take place.

Indiana Property Taxes Increase Over $45 Million

When Indiana property taxes due this year left their 1959 launching pad they zoomed to a new altitude.

This year's taxes to be paid on real estate and personal property total $468,725,352, compared with $423,427,554 called for in 1959.

This is an increase of $45,287,-$251.

"The increase in property taxes payable this year is the highest annual boost in the state's history," Walter T. Horn, executive secretary of the Indiana Taxpayers Association, said today.

"The 1960 total would have been virtually half a billion dollars had public officials been successful last year in obtaining unquestioned approval of their budget requests. However, local reviewing agencies cut $20 millions from these budgets and the State Tax Board sliced off another $12 millions. Only ten years ago the total Indiana property tax load was but little more than $200 millions.

Schools Get Increase

"The state levied $5,556,094 for the benefit of state school tuition in 1959 and then dropped out of the picture, with no levy for that purpose to be paid this year. But the 1959 General Assembly mandated all counties to levy a property tax rate of 25 cents on the adjusted assessed valuation in addition to other school levies and that will amount to $19,326,230 for 1960. Thus the schools get a net increase from that source alone of $13,-770,136.

How Your Dollars Are Spent

"We believe the taxpayers will be interested in knowing just how each of their tax dollars is spent. For purely state purposes this year the levy is but 31 hundredths of a cent of the tax dollar. For county purposes 15.57 cents of the tax dollar is used, a fractional increase over a year ago. Township business takes but 4.84 cents of the tax dollar and there again the increase over 1959 is trivial. City and town corporations get 20.11 cents of the tax dollar, a microscopic decrease from 1959. But although there have been slight increases and decreases in the tax dollar's allotment to local governmental units, the actual allotment of tax funds to these classifications have been increased. Thus for county purposes the total for 1959 was $64,369,516 and for this year it will be $72,-990,217. For townships last year the total was $20,015,620 and for this year it is $22,672,922. Cities and towns got $87,939, 786 in 1959 and their 1960 share will be $94,285,406.

"It certainly cannot be argued that Indiana neglects its public schools as 57.77 cents of the tax dollar goes for school purposes, up from 57.52 cents of the tax dollar a year ago. The public schools got total property taxes of $243,525,325 a year ago. This year they will receive from property taxes $270,769,591, an increase of $27,244,266. Public libraries get $6,543,766, or 1.40 cents of the tax dollar, an increase of $395,733.

Taxpayers Are Alerted

"At the moment the budgets of all governmental units for 1961 are being made and from what we have seen of them there will be another major increase in property taxes next year unless the taxpayers make a determined stand for greater economy. Nearly all units are preparing to ask for higher expenditures. A new type of assessment for real estate is to be undertaken in 1961, for taxes to be paid in 1962, and that assessment alone — the first since 1949 — will cost an estimated $5 million. There was a time, not so long ago, when all of us thought a property tax rate of $3 was too high. The highest rate payable this year is $15.67 and many rates exceed $11 and $12 dollars. A $10 tax rate will be common throughout Indiana unless something is done quickly to make the property tax load less burdensome. It is imperative that taxpayers attend budget hearings. And now is a good time to ask candidates for the General Assembly what they have in mind for property tax relief."

"A FRIEND IN NEED"—is Kathi Marie Burnett, 1029 North Treemont, Indianapolis, who found a friend in one of the Indiana Policemen located on the Fairgrounds during Fair time. Helping lost children such as Kathi to be reunited with their parents is just one of the many services performed by the Service Building, which will be "back in business" from August 31 through September 8, the dates of the 1960 Indiana State Fair.

"Two For Seesaw" Closes Playhouse Summer Season

The final production of the 1960 season at the Maxinkuckee Playhouse got underway on Tuesday night, Aug. 23.

Playing to a sold-out house, Sally Noble and Michael McGuire presented two of the finest portrayals to be seen at the Playhouse all summer. Acting in the two roles of Gittel Mosca and Jerry Ryan in William Gibson's romantic comedy drama, "Two For The Seesaw," these two professionals brought to life a beautifully etched picture of love, its happiness, its loneliness and its problems.

MISS SALLY NOBLE

Sally Noble, veteran Playhouse actress, co-stars in final production of the 1960 Maxinkuckee Playhouse season.

Both Miss Noble and Mr. McGuire have recently returned from the Chautauqua-Repertory Theater in New York where they appeared in "Say Darling." Both will travel with the Ford Foundation Tour being sponsored by the Cleveland Playhouse this winter.

MICHAEL MCGUIRE

Michael McGuire, sharing co-star honors with Sally Noble, played to a sold-out house Tuesday evening with the opening of "Two For The Seesaw."

The Playhouse patrons are indeed fortunate to be able to see two such fine actors in such a beautiful play.

"Two For The Seesaw" opened two years ago with Henry Fonda and Anne Bancroft playing the featured roles. Both won great acclaim for their performances. Miss Bancroft went on to star in this past year's success, "The Miracle Worker," a play also written by Mr. Gibson. "Seesaw" went on National tour with Ruth Roman and Jeffrey Lynn in the leading roles, playing in Chicago for some time. Now at the Playhouse Miss Noble and Mr. McGuire join this list and their performances prove that they are worthy to be named with such illustrious company.

"Two For The Seesaw" will play through Sunday night, Aug. 28. The Playhouse will then close for another season and the two managers will move on to their next assignments. Mr. Hager will manage the Ford Foundation Tour and Mr. Rutledge will visit Greece and Rome before returning to the University of Cincinnati in October.

"These trails would shake the cab off an ordinary truck...but not our Chevy"

Few trucks are subjected to the body-wracking beatings that are part of a day's work for this Chevrolet Series 60 pulpwood hauler. It's owned by J. E. Fox, North Carolina logging contractor. As Bobby Fox, a partner in the business says, "Loaded with pulpwood, we drive over stumps and potholes you'd think would tear the truck to pieces. These trails would shake the cab off an ordinary truck, but not our Chevy. We can average an extra load a day... make $45 to $50 a day more with this Chevy than we can with the others."

In every weight class these Chevis are doing more work at less expense than trucks have ever done before. Drive one at your Chevrolet dealer's. It's an experience that could pay you big dividends.

◀ "That 6-cylinder engine really performs," says Bobby Fox. "It's got the lugging power we need in the woods and walks right along with a full load on the highway."
