"HOOSIER AT LARGE"

Some Fun! This Indiana Man Has Made Over 2,000 Parachute Jumps!

DON'T TELL Gene Racht that jumping out of airplanes is a sorry way to make a living.

"Wrong!" he'll reply with an easy grin. "It's happy work. Drifting down through space is pure enjoyment. I loved every second of it."

AL SPIERS

Racht, who used the name Rock in his stunt days, knows whereof he speaks. Starting with a balloon drop at age 13, he made more than 2,000 parachute jumps before weakened ankles stopped him 14 years ago.

GENE AND HIS WIFE, Pansy, now own the Hi Ho Tavern in Rome City. There this amiable bouncy little man recently recalled some hairy highlights of a colorful jumping career.

The jet age has scragged all the high-altitude and free-fall records Gene once held — but no one is likely to beat the low-jump mark he established in 1932 over Adams Lake near Rome City.

WITH MAYNARD ANDERSON of Elkhart flying and 5,000 watching in wavy wonder, Racht hit the silk at 60 feet.

Yep — 60 feet! "The chute popped just as my pants hit water," Gene grinned. "I didn't aim to cut it that close. The jump was set for 75 feet. Anderson misjudged slightly."

A split-second or few feet on the wrong side would have broken Racht's hips and/or back. Water hit at high speed is rock-hard.

THE LOW LEAP comfortably — if that's an appropriate word — beat Jimmy Doolittle's old record, an emergency ball-out at 150 feet.

Gene was also the first chutist to drop a mile before popping his big umbrella. In 1929, before 30,000 at Elkhart, he stepped into space clutching a flour bag in one hand to trail "smoke" and a stop watch in the other.

A pre-calculated 33 seconds later and 5,700 feet lower, Racht pulled his ripcord and floated happily down with a free fall record that stood for quite awhile.

(In contrast, jet age chutists have test-fallen 40,000 feet.)

Gene got $1,700 for that delayed jump — his top fee and a far cry from the piddling pay his first leap earned.

At 13, Racht wangled a job helping inflate a chute jumper's hot air balloon in Fort Wayne's Robinson Park. In August, he made his first jump for $5, most of which went to his mother, a

Crop Of 54 "Miss America" Contestants

Tommye Glaze Faces Real Test

By MALL DODSON

Atlantic City, N.J. — A composite of the 32 Miss Americas, past and present, shows she's 19 going on 20, has brown hair and blue eyes, stands 5' 6 1/2", weighs 125, and measures 34 1/2-24 1/2-35.

None of the current crop of 54 from the 50 states, Canada, District of Columbia, New York City, and Chicago answer that description — but then, none of the 32 Miss Americas did either.

This year's group has 27 brunettes, 24 blondes of various stages of blondeness from light brown to honey, one titian, one black, and one auburn.

The two tallest are Claudette Smith (Miss Arkansas) and Alice Chaumley (Miss Kentucky), with Alice holding an edge in weight and other dimensions.

The Smallest Contestant

Tiniest of the clan is 18-year-old Lois Marie Tolkel (Miss Montana) who stands 5' 2 3/4", weighs 106 pounds, and measures 34-23-34.

Two are tied for being the second smallest — Anne "Wendy" Masino (Miss Vermont) and Sally Saabye (Miss Rhode Island) — both are 5' 3".

Miss Canada Rifle Expert

Miss Canada, Iris Thuriwell, is expert at rifle and trap shooting.

Miss Chicago, Margaret McDowell, will teach school in Laos, Indochina, when she graduates from National College of Education next June.

Miss California, Suzanne Reamo, becomes eligible to vote for the first time Aug. 30, when she turns 21.

And Miss North Carolina, Ann Herring, will be 20 on Sept. 2, two days before leaving Winston-Salem for Atlantic City.

Bert Parks Again M.C.

The girls and Bert Parks will all be singing "Happy Birthday" to Miss Alaska come Friday, Sept. 9, when June Bowdish reaches 23.

Miss Kansas (Gayla Shoemaker) and Anne Masino (Miss Vermont) have something in common with Columbus — they were born on Oct. 12 — different years, natch.

Miss Idaho (Marlene Coleman) and Miss Ohio (Alice McLain) were born on the same day, too — April 26, 1942.

Eight of the femmes were born in March — Misses Alabama, Arizona, Florida, Montana, New Mexico, New York City, Oregon, and Wisconsin.

And while on a natal-day binge,

"Ham" Radio Operators Of The Entire State Salute "Miss Indiana" Over Behmer Station W9JWI, Culver

TOMMYE LOU GLAZE, Culver's own "Miss Indiana," was saluted Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 23, from 5 to 6 o'clock by the Amateur Radio Operators of Indiana through the facilities of Station W9JWI, which is owned and operated by WINFIELD W. BEHMER of Culver.

Lyman L. "Hank" Wolfe of Station K9LZJ, Indianapolis, acted as master of ceremonies for the occasion, calling in 26 members of the Indiana "Fone Net", which is a network of "ham" operators in the State.

Tommye was interviewed as they checked in and she cheerfully answered their many questions, explaining the procedure of the "Miss America" Pageant at Atlantic City and the different degrees of emphasis placed on beauty, talent, and personality. Those who talked with her were greatly impressed by her pleasing manner and winning personality as it was projected to them over the microphone and they all assured her of their support and best wishes for much success at Atlantic City during Sept. 5-10.

Although only 23 towns and cities over the State were actively represented during the hour, the program was heard by many listeners and operators who did not participate. Many of these have already reported the favorable "over the air" impression they received of "Miss Indiana" and have added their best wishes and hopes that she may become our next "Miss America". — Photograph by "Benny" Behmer.

CALVIN REED GENEROUS WITH PRIZE TOMATOES

When Calvin Reed, The Citizen's good octogenarian neighbor of East Washington Street, picked up his paper last Wednesday afternoon he brought along some of his prize tomatoes for distribution among our feminine staff members. Fortunately, a Boy Scout happened along at the time and helped Mr. Reed lift some of the larger ones.

Great Fear Of Culver Losing Its High School

Consolidation Plans Hit Snag

By JOANNE PRICE

About 50 present at the public meeting on school reorganization at the local school last Friday night heard Township Trustees Eugene G. Benedict assert that there is virtually no hope of keeping our high school in Culver.

As of that time, it was Mr. Benedict's opinion that the County Committee would recommend to the State Committee in its report soon to be made, a consolidation of Union, Green, Walnut, and Tippecanoe Townships of Marshall County.

All hopes for a consolidation of Aubbeenaubee, North Bend, and Union Townships or Union, Green, Walnut, Aubbeenaubee, and Richland Townships seem to be gone as the Starke and Fulton County Committees have made it very definite that those affected will not be released. Fulton County is definitely interested in a County School Unit with all high school students going to Rochester.

Mr. Benedict pointed out that there has never been much enthusiasm in Richland Township for a consolidation with Argos. Some in that area prefer the Fulton County plan.

Prefer Plymouth To Argos

There was strong feeling among those present at the Friday night meeting that they would rather have our students go to Plymouth to high school than see the proposed plan become a reality.

Plymouth meets the state requirements at this time and has no wish for more students. So, unless many other people throughout the county feel the same as the majority of those who made their opinions known Friday night, and let their wishes be known, it seems a certainty that our high school students will be attending school at Argos.

The tentative plans for Marshall County as they now stand are for Bourbon to go to Bremen; West, Polk, and North Townships — that is Tyner, LaPaz, and West — to consolidate with a new high school to be built, probably in Polk Township as the most centralized location; and as mentioned, the consolidation of Union, Argos, and Tippecanoe Schools.

James Miracle presided at the meeting. Those present of the Union Township Committee were Mr. Benedict, Mrs. Peter DeTroy, Mrs. Glenn Overmyer, and Wayne Kline. Harry Edgington and Raymond J. Ives are also members of the committee.

Proper Dress Is Demanded Of Local Students

[Official School Ruling]

In fairness to parents and students alike the principal of the Culver High School announces the following policy governing dress for school:

Fundamentally, the rule for dress is good basic common sense. That is, girls are to be dressed as girls, and boys as boys.

No one in the upper six grades is to wear shorts of any nature at any time other than in physical education classes.

No girl in the upper six grades shall wear other than skirts and blouses, skirts and sweaters, dresses, or suits.

Any student not properly dressed for school will be promptly sent home.

At the right is Miss Indiana's mother, MRS. HELEN GLAZE, and her brother, ROBERT GLAZE, who will be in Atlantic City with her during the week of Sept. 5-10 for the famed Miss America Pageant. Gold key bore this engraved inscription: "Miss Tommye Lou Glaze, who unlocked the heart of Plymouth." (Photographs courtesy of The Plymouth Pilot-News).

A LARGE CROWD lined the route of the five-block-long parade in Plymouth to cheer TOMMYE LOU and her court of beauty which followed in brand-new convertibles — 10 attractive runners-up in the Miss Plymouth Pageant.

ERIKA and METTA ZETTY of Culver, beautiful little cousins of Miss Indiana of 1960, gathered at the wishing well where contributions were made to Tommye Lou's Atlantic City expense fund. MAYOR ERNEST BIXEL is at the right and GEORGE W. SCHRICKER, president of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, is also seen. Mr. Schricker, son of the distinguished former Governor of Indiana, was largely responsible for the success of the parade and reception. Paul Swearingen and Manfred VanGilder, co-chairmen of the successful Miss Plymouth Pageant, were also on hand to receive congratulations. Chester W. Cleveland, publisher of Indiana Business and Industry magazine, Tommye Lou's proud sponsor, was also in attendance.

Here Are Judges Who Will Rate Tommye Glaze

Experts To Select "Miss America"

GEORGE BALANCHINE — Artistic Director of the New York City Ballet Company and one of the nation's leading choreographers. A first-class musician, he has on occasion taken over the baton of the New York City Ballet Orchestra, and his piano-playing ability is considered of "concert calibre" by his friend Igor Stravinsky.

BENNETT CERF — Co-founder and president of Random House, one of America's leading publishing houses; an author, lecturer, and television personality (What's My Line?); and member of the board of directors of MGM. Cerf was a judge during the 1958 Pageant.

PHYLLIS CERF — Wife of Bennett, cousin of Ginger Rogers, and former Hollywood starlet herself. Moved into the production end of radio and now author of a weekly column for "Newsday."

MARK GOODSON — One of television's most versatile producers, was announcer for radio shows "The Answer Man" and "We, The People" before becoming a director and producer. With William Todman he produces such television shows as "What's My Line," "I've Got a Secret," "To Tell the Truth," "The Price is Right," "The Rebel," and others.

MRS. ERNESTINE BLOCK BRIGSBY — Chairman of the National Pan-Hellenic Council and vice-president of the Prince George's County (Md.) board of education; served six years as a University of Colorado regent; and is active in women's clubs, politics, philanthropic organizations, and such governmental agencies as Departments of Agriculture, War, and Health; Education, and Welfare.

HERBERT R. MAYES — Editor of McCall's Magazine, the nation's largest women's magazine, and associate in journalism at Columbia University and a member of the Authors' Club and the Society of Illustrators. Author of "Horatio Alger, a Biography Without a Hero" and "Editor's Choice."

MITCHELL "MITCH" MILLER — Bearded director of Columbia Records Artist and Repertoire; former scholarship winner at the Eastman School of Music and former Rochester Symphony Orchestra oboist. Was a judge in 1958.

BLANCHE THEBOM — Metropolitan Opera Company star, who has sung leading roles in a variety of operas including "Aida," "Carmen," "Die Walkure," "Tristan and Isolde," "Cosi Fan Tutta," and many others. Recently returned from a cultural goodwill tour of Germany, Yugoslavia, and Romania.

BUD WESTMORE — Member of the famous family of Hollywood makeup artists and husband of Miss California 1952, the former Jeanne Shores. Author of several books on the subject of glamour and of several articles for the Encyclopedia Americana.

M. COBURN "COBY" WHITMORE — One of America's foremost editorial illustrators and recipient of awards from Art Directors' Clubs in New York, Chicago, and Philadelphia. Cover artist for many of America's leading magazines, including The Saturday Evening Post, McCall's, Ladies Home Journal, and magazines in England, France, Belgium, Sweden, Australia, and Argentina.

PEGGY WOOD — Leading motion picture and television actress and current president of the American National Theatre and Academy. Starred on TV in "I Remember Mama," for which role she received the Royal St. Olav Medal from Norway's King Haakon.

"Miss America" Contestants

we might just as well toss in Miss New Jersey (Anne Barber) and Miss Texas (Mary Moore), both of whom will be a year older come Sept. 28.

If all of the contestants were stacked in a single pile the head of the top girl would be 298.7 feet from the floor. Since that will never be done, the average height of this year's is a shade under 5'5".

Mississippi Seeks No. 3

Patricia McRaney (Miss Mississippi) hopes to become the third Ole Miss entry to become Miss America, to make it three in a row behind Mary Ann Mobley and the reigning Lynda Lee Mead. She's already been named the State's Miss Hospitality and was Homecoming Queen at Ole Miss.

Miss Missouri (Dusene Vanovich) was wearing No. 16 on July 16, which was also her 19th birthday, when she was selected to represent the Show Me State in the Missouri pageant.

Heads Dean's List

Miss New Jersey (Anne Barber) headed the dean's list as a freshman at St. Lawrence University this year in a class of 500.

Carolyn Moore (Miss New Mexico) hails from a versatile family — her mother being a staff artist on the El Paso, Texas, newspapers and her father a leading luminary in the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association.

A Radio City Rockette

Sherrylyn Patecell (Miss New York City) is in her third summer as a Rockette in Radio City Music Hall, and a junior at Skidmore College as well. Her dad is a captain on Pan-American — they're both flying high since she won the Manhattan crown.

Donna "Kay" Creed (Miss Oklahoma) hopes to follow in the illustrious footsteps of two former Miss Oklahomas who are now heard regularly on TV and radio — Louise O'Brien and Anita Bryant — both of whom were runners-up in previous pageants.

There was a real switch in college graduations when Rosemary Doolen (Miss Oregon) saw her mother graduate this year from Southern Oregon College. Texas-born Rosemary is a sophomore at Willamette University.

Parade On TV Sept. 6

Philco and CBS-TV will bring your area the Miss America Pageant parade via a condensed parade preview featuring the 34 contestants, prize-winning floats, and bands from 7:30 to 8 p.m. (EDT), Sept. 6.

Big Night Is Sept. 10

Then on the final night, Sept. 10, they'll air the final 120 minutes of the Pageant, also via CBS beginning at 10 p.m. (EDT) with former Miss America, Marilyn VanDerbur, and Doug Edwards doing the commentary along with the presentation itself presided over by Bert Parks.

Eighteen of the contestants will sing in the talent competition, 11 will dance, two will do a song and dance routine, 14 will do varied dramatic presentations, two piano-song numbers, and the other seven a variety of things from caricatures to a one-woman fashion show.

"Miss Indiana" From Culver

Tommye Lou Glaze (Miss Indiana) is from Culver, home of the famous military academy. Her sponsor is Indiana Business and Industry magazine, whose publisher, Chester W. Cleveland, originated and promoted the international "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" contest, whose first judges were cartoonist Milton Caniff ("Steve Canyon"), the late Steve Hannagan, the press agent who put Miami Beach on the map, and Movie Star John Wayne. Miss Indiana was born at Pauls Valley, Okla.

This is the first year since talent was introduced in 1935 that there will be but one instrumentalist among the 54 entries. She is Anne Masino (Miss Vermont), an accordionist.

Miss Hawaii Enters Contest

Miss Hawaii has the shortest name ever listed in the Pageant scrapbook — she's Gabrielle Haleakala I.

Prior to Kala, the next shortest name was Evelyn Ay — who became Miss America 1954 — and, it would be grammatically correct to say "I is Miss Hawaii."

Thirty-five of the 54 state and area contests this year were conducted by junior Chambers of Commerce, two in conjunction with senior Chambers, and three other senior Chamber groups were sole sponsors.

Twenty-four of the girls are 18 years old, 13 are 19 years, eight 20, six 21, two 22, and one 27 — which makes the composite Miss America contestant 20 years old.

Utah Rides High

Back in 1952, 25-year-old Colleen Hutchins of Utah became Miss America — she was the tallest (5'10") and oldest entry in the field. This year's Miss Utah (Marian Walker) isn't 5'10", but she is 27, has a wealth of talent, and hopes to bring the title home to her home state for the second time in a decade.

Father Lenk's Annual "Sunshine Party" Highly Enjoyable

The annual Sunshine Party last Sunday afternoon and early evening at Villa Maria, 922 South Shore Drive, on beautiful Lake Maxinkuckee was, as always, a most delightful affair.
The Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Lenk, personable pastor of St. Mary's of the Lake Church, extended his usual warm hospitality to 232 guests of all religious denominations.
Col. Robert L. Halg again did a fine job as master of ceremonies and kept the entertainment program in high gear.
A special feature of the occasion was the singing of John Stamm of Monterey, who sang at the recent Democratic national convention at Los Angeles.
John Keck's 3-piece combo from Plymouth greatly added to the enjoyment of the lawn party.
A bountiful and delicious buffet supper was served to the happy crowd.
Father Lenk's party is always a highlight of the social season because it does such a perfect job of bringing together in good fellowship the Lake summer visitors and the permanent residents of our community.

Kermit C. Zieg Is Academy's New Controller

COL. KERMIT C. ZIEG
Financial Expert Joins Business Staff

Appointment of Kermit C. Zieg to the newly-created position of controller at Culver Military Academy and Culver Summer Schools is announced by Maj. Gen. Delmar T. Spivey, superintendent.

He will be responsible for the management and control of all financial matters at the Academy and Summer Schools and will be a member of General Spivey's administrative staff.

20 Years in Marine Corps
He comes to Culver after 20 years service in the Marine Corps, having retired in July as a lieutenant colonel.

Colonel Zieg's appointment follows the recommendation of a management survey firm, which recently examined Culver's business operations, to engage a specialist to direct financial affairs.

"Colonel Zieg will be responsible for making certain Culver operates in the most efficient and modern business manner in its financial affairs," General Spivey said. "He will prepare all financial reports, including the annual budget, and will control all budgeted expenditures."

Colonel Zieg spent most of his Marine career in the "business" aspects of the Corps. For three years prior to his retirement he was director of logistics for the Marine Corps Reserve, a position in which he formulated all policies and plans for the financial and material support of the organization.

In several other assignments in the United States and abroad he was responsible for the supplies and finances of large units. During World War II, Colonel Zieg spent more than four years in the Pacific Theater. He participated in 12 combat operations.

Graduate Of Ohio State
Colonel Zieg holds a master's degree in controllership from George Washington University, Washington, D.C. He was graduated with distinction from Ohio State University with a bachelor of science degree in education. He also was graduated from several service schools, including the Industrial College of the Armed Forces.

Colonel Zieg and his wife, Margaret, have two children, Kermit Jr., 16, and Elizabeth, 12. The family now resides in the East Shore Apartments in Culver. They formerly lived in Arlington, Va.

Culver Military Academy and Culver Summer Schools are operated by the non-profit Culver Educational Foundation. The Academy is a college preparatory school for 800 boys in grades 8 through 12. Approximately 1,500 youngsters ages 9½ to 18 enroll each year in the Summer Schools.

Miss Alice Cromley, who has spent the past summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Cromley, returned Monday to Greenville, S. C., to resume her duties on the staff at Bob Jones University.

"THIS IS THE ARMY, MR. JONES"—Military men and equipment receive an extra coat of "polish" each year when they are at through their paces in the annual Military Day Parade at the Indiana State Fair. The 1960 parade will take place in front of the grandstand at 11 a.m. on September 4. State Fair dates are August 1 through September 8.

LIKES CITY LIFE - Farm life just wasn't for Robbie, the pet dog of young David Maudlin of Salem. Robbie was an inveterate car chaser. Finally a car hit him and both his hind legs were broken. David's parents, John and Manilla Maudlin, decided Robbie would be better off in the country and they found a home for him on a Washington County farm a mile south of Salem. Robbie recovered from his injuries and remained on the farm about a year. Unbeknownst to his new masters he left the farm and found his way back to the Maudlin home. The Maudlins decided such devotion should be rewarded so they took him in but they now keep him fenced in to prevent him getting into any trouble with automobiles. Robbie looks like a collie but the Maudlins say he is "just dog."

Cuba Really A Hot Potato In U. S. Hands

New Test For Monroe Doctrine

By ROGER W. BABSON
No. 1 U. S. Economist
Babson Park, Mass. — There are several "volcanoes" throughout the world which may explode at any time.

My travels to Berlin last year taught me that the situation there could be the most serious.

The one nearest home, however, is Cuba. Both Mr. Nixon and Mr. Kennedy should visit Cuba at once.

While I am at Babson Park, Florida, during the winter, the Webber College students often fly over to Havana as a part of their vacations.

Cuba has seemed only a "stone's throw" from any portion of Florida.

Cuba Vital To Florida
Cuba is a vital factor — for good or evil — to the Florida East Coast, with its 50 great hotels extending north and south from Miami.

I am not afraid of Florida's importing any Communism from Cuba, as the Florida people are very conservative.

I seriously fear, however, that Russia may get a foothold in Cuba.

A Russian Base In Cuba?
Could we afford to let Russia get a base in Cuba for submarine and launching pads for military use, or on the other hand, could we now afford to go to war with Russia to prevent such gradual occupation?

I leave this to Richard Nixon and John Kennedy to decide after their visit to Havana. I further advise them to consult with Governor Nelson Rockefeller, who is one of our best-posted men on Latin America.

Many Ruled By Dictators
I have visited all the countries of Central and South America. Not only are many of these people ruled by dictators, but they are very sensitive, like most Spanish people.

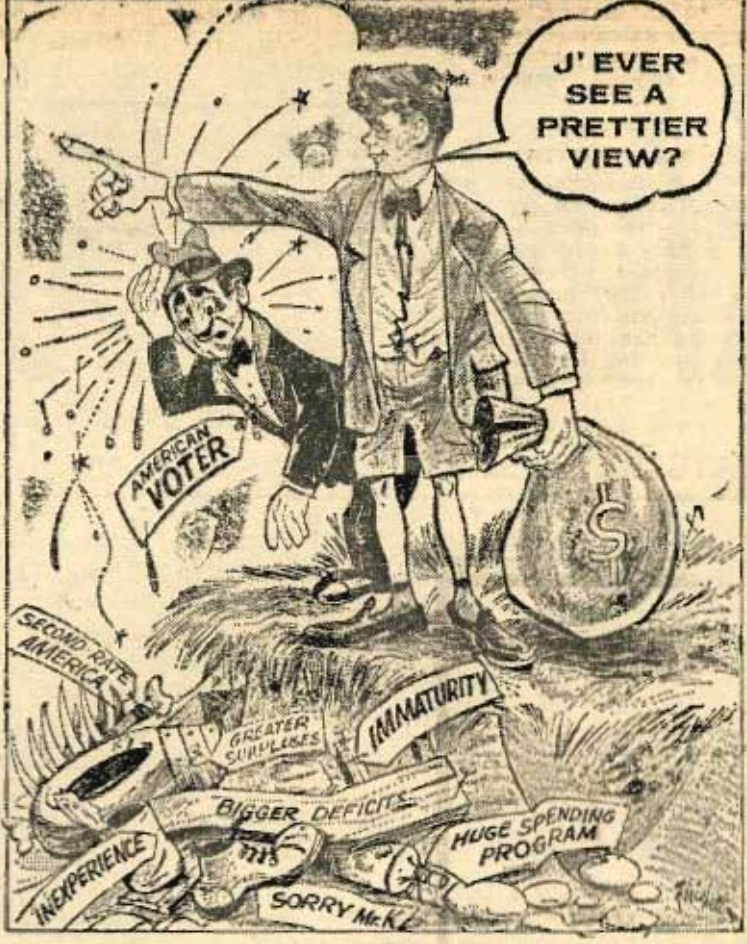

At heart they would like to have us keep Russia out of Cuba and even straighten out our affairs in Cuba.

Some of these Latin American dictators, however, might resent such an attitude on the part of the United States and make us appear more enemies than friends.

The Monroe Doctrine.
We now hear much about the Monroe Doctrine, which was announced to the world over a hundred years ago by President Monroe — namely, that we would not allow any European nation to get a new foothold in any Latin American country.

I believe that the American

people would stand for a reassertion of this Monroe Doctrine, but I wish the Latin American countries would ask us to do so. The entire situation is most ticklish. It should be one of the first things for the Presidential candidates to consider seriously. I speak with authority because I was an early supporter of the Pan American Union.

U. S. Investments In Cuba
Considerable U.S. money is invested in Cuba. This includes certain railway and traction properties, the Cuban telephone company, and many mercantile businesses.

Several thousand American families have been living in Cuba, depending upon the protection offered by its closeness to the United States.

Many of these families, directly or indirectly, contributed to Fidel Castro in his revolution against Batista. Now the women and children are fast leaving Cuba, and the men are undecided what to do.

Fidel Castro's Health
Much depends upon the health of Castro and what will be the real attitude of his brother in case the brother becomes Prime Minister. This can only be ascertained by waiting and watching.

The largest American investments are in the sugar lands, which of necessity, must be operated either by large corporations or by the Cuban Government. It would be sheer nonsense to divide up these lands among small Cuban holders.

Whether President Eisenhower is handling this sugar situation properly by retaliation, I do not know. Such an action greatly helps the sugar producing companies outside of Cuba, as well as its own beet-sugar companies.

One of the largest amounts of Cuban sugar lands owned by U.S. investors is that held by the United Fruit Company, which has 90,000 stockholders in the United States. The stock of the United Fruit Company — which I believe to be good — is selling close to its lowest levels of the past two decades, although I understand that only 5 per cent of its earnings have recently come from Cuba.

Russia wants to get Cuba as she is in great need of tropical land and warm-water bases, but she will not go to a nuclear war to get Cuba.

BRINGS PLAYHOUSE TO A SUCCESSFUL CLOSE

The 11th season of one of our greatest community assets, the Maxinkuckee Playhouse, came to a successful close last Sunday night with a dramatic smash, "Two For The Seesaw." Sally Noble and Michael McGuire composed the entire cast. The talented pair played their difficult roles to the hilt, with many moments worthy of Broadway.

Our congratulations again to co-managers Paul Rutledge and David Hager for bringing us such superb summer entertainment.

Mrs. Chester W. Cleveland of East Shore Drive, confined to Parkview Hospital at Plymouth since Aug. 5 suffering from a slipped disc, is still a patient there in room 206. She deeply appreciates the many lovely flowers, get-well cards, and friendly visits and still hopes to be released in time to make a plane trip to Atlantic City to see Tommye Lou Glaze participate in the "Miss America" contest on Sept. 5-10.

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY

The William Banschbachs, who live near Lawrenceburg, have high praise for the folks of Greenville, S. C. The Banschbachs' 12-year-old daughter, Brenda, was a member of a Girl Scout Troop making a bus trip from Lawrenceburg to Savannah, Ga. As the bus neared Greenville Brenda came down with the measles. The troop leader, Pauline Runyan, placed Brenda in a Greenville hospital and went on with the troop. The hospital staff, Greenville Girl Scouts and nearly the entire town adopted the sick Yankee girl and showered her with gifts. When Brenda was able to leave the hospital Mrs. Jack Keys, a Greenville Girl Scout leader, took her into the Keys' home and kept her until the Banschbachs came to get her.

Guard Youth Against Juvenile Delinquency

Juvenile Delinquency was not given much of a thought until one day they sent your neighbor's boy to what they politely termed a "House of Correction."
Then you realized what Juvenile Delinquency meant, because this boy was not a bad boy at heart — he was just a kid who had played with your kids.
The boy had a good home — or did he? He had the proper teaching in his home — or did he? It is true that his parents most of the time left him pretty much to his own devices.
You wondered why . . . and in your own heart you knew the answer. It lay in neglect in the proper training by the parents training that should have been filled with faith, spiritual guidance, and solid enduring values. After you thought about it, you then made up your mind to start teaching your own children the better ways of life and to guard against Juvenile Delinquency.

The Northern Indiana Toll Road on Aug. 16 observed the fourth anniversary of the opening of its first 80-mile section between South Bend and the Ohio-Indiana border by announcing a new all-time record of revenue.
Executive Director Charles W. Cook announced gross revenue for the first seven months of 1960 totaled $7,755,176.73. This was $195,196.53 above receipts for a like period in 1959. Gross income includes tolls, concession revenue, income from investments and miscellaneous revenues.
After deducting operating expenses total net revenue increased 2.8 per cent to $5,947,612.00 compared with $5,783,417.12 for the seven months a year ago.
New Records Established
Mr. Cook said another new record was established with gross revenue for July amounting to $1,826,620.54. This was an increase of 4.3 per cent over July, 1959 and exceeds the previous one month record established in August, 1959 by $23,680.24.

Tommye Lou Glaze lived in Guymon, Oklahoma, until about six years ago when she moved to Culver with her mother and brother to join their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Zetty, of the Culver Military Academy staff Louise Zetty and Helen Glaze are sisters.
"The Referee," front page column of The Guymon Daily Herald, recently carried this interesting piece about our "Miss Indiana":
RIGHT NOW IT is timely to stake out a claim — one of beauty.
A girl who grew up to young womanhood right here in Guymon has been selected as "Miss Indiana" for the famed Atlantic City "Miss America" festival.
Tommye Lou Glaze lives in Culver, Ind., and has for the past several years, and is now attending Indiana University at Bloomington where she will be a senior this fall.
But back again to the staked beauty claim. Miss Glaze attended Guymon High School, is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Herber Glaze, who was connected with the Guymon public school system, and is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herber, 316 W. Eighth St.
MISS GLAZE won the Indiana title over an entry field of 17. Now she will go to the noted Water Festival Pageant at Minneapolis for 10 days, then in September to the Atlantic City contest.
While Miss Glaze won her honor in Indiana, it was her growing-up beauty that was acquired in Guymon that brought this about, you may be sure.
It is needless to say that the entire community and area will be in her corner at the national contest, and whatever title or titles she might acquire there, we will proudly claim them for our own!

"Hoosier At Large"

widow with nine kids to support. "MOM APPROVED," Gene chuckled. "In fact, when I began jumping regularly she wanted to try it, herself. She never got a chance, however."
Through his teens, Gene balloon-jumped every summer Sunday in Fort Wayne and nearby towns — the start of a colorful career that would take him barnstorming through 42 states, Mexico, and Canada.

In 1918, he made his first jump with a manually-operated chute, and on Sept. 22, 1926, his initial leap from a plane.

GENE FIGURES he wore almost 40 parachutes in making 2,000 jumps in 28 years. Some were memorable — like one he made over Akron in Fulton County.

"I stepped out at 6,000 feet and pulled the cord quickly so I'd drift down slowly and give everybody a long look," Gene grinned.

"It was a lovely summer day and I was enjoying the drop immensely. Floating down, I lit a cigaret and got interested in an interurban car that was rolling across the country. Didn't realize how much I was back-drifting."

RACHT NOTED his drift too late. He landed on a rooftop, tumbled off and crashed in a tangled mess in a grape arbor. A woman emerged, peered at him and cried, "Oh darn it — I missed the jump!"

The fall sprained Gene's back — his only jumping injury aside from sundry ankle sprains.

Battered ankles thwarted Racht's try at Fort Wayne in 1934 for a multiple-jump mark.

"The record then was 20 jumps in a day," he recalled. "On my 16th, I sprained an ankle. Taping it, I went back up, jumped — and sprained the other ankle. That was that."

A three-chute jump in Youngstown, Ohio, provoked Gene's most amusing experience. After popping and shedding his first two chutes, Racht eased down with his third and went to the local paper to promote some ballyhoo.

"I found a reporter writing my obituary," he laughed. He'd seen the first chute pop, collapse and fall away — and raced for his office to write the scoop."

In 1925, Gene learned to fly and subsequently logged about 1,700 hours — mostly for pleasure, with a little relief stunting mixed in.

DURING WAR II, when civilian air shows grew rare, Gene packed chutes at Baer Field in Fort Wayne and Bunker Hill Air Base at Peru. In 1945, he jumped again a few times — until doctors examined his ankles and said:

"If you don't quit jumping, you'll quit walking!"

After a stint of commercial chute packing at Muncie, Racht bought the Hi Ho Tavern in Rome City in 1954 and bade the skies farewell for good.

HAPPILY WED for 32 years. Gene and Pansye have three grown children — Gerald, 27, an Air Force captain; Gene Jr., 22, teacher and basketball coach at Bluffton, and Mrs. Phyllis Leatherman, 29, Wolcottville.

They also have five grandchildren — a rapt audience when Grandpa reminisces.

"At times, I still miss the thrill of jumping — after all these years," Racht said wistfully. "You have no idea what a wonderful feeling it is to drift lazily through space, enjoying the scenery from on high."

A Final Tribute To A Dachshund Named Minnie

A wonderful and remarkable dog died in her sleep on Friday, Aug. 26, bringing deep sorrow to the Chester W. and John A. Cleveland households along East Shore Drive.

Named For Baseball Star

She was a lovable dachshund, resembling in greatness and color the famed Chicago White Sox baseball star, Minnie Minoso, for whom she was named.

Minnie, born in Portage, Wis., on May 9, 1955 of distinguished ancestry (she disliked the word "pedigreed"), despite all of her other splendid attributes neglected to keep up her membership in the Planned Parenthood Association, a fact which led to her untimely death.

Little Minnie submitted to a Caesarean on Tuesday, Aug. 23, giving birth to seven rather large puppies of the "traveling salesman" variety, and simply never bounced back after the harrowing operation.

Wide Assortment Of Tricks

The well known and popular dachshund was handsome, alert, intelligent, and tremendously affectionate. A lively little fellow with a big bark, she was either full of fun or loaded with sympathy, whichever the occasion demanded.

Without question Minnie was the canine mayor of Maxinkuckee Landing. In her pretty little head she thought she owned State Road 117 in that vicinity and many kindly motorists really prolonged her life by driving on the shoulders of the highway in order not to disturb her peaceful slumbers on a hot summer day. From her happy hunting ground, she thanks the many East Shore neighbors who showed her this consideration these past five years.

Minnie was buried with impressive rites along the shore of Lake Maxinkuckee where she loved to roam and make a fuss over suspected trespassers. Leon Pollock, Enoch Andrews' head carpenter on the job of rebuilding the Chester Cleveland home destroyed by fire last Feb. 1, constructed a beautiful coffin for Minnie that would have befitted Rin Tin Tin or Lassie.

One of these days a stone marker with these words will mark her grave:

MINNIE (1955-1960)
A Dog Gone Good
Dog Gone

Minnie will be missed by many, including two close friends of the dachshund tribe, the Bob Dischers' spirited Fritz of Logansport and South Shore Drive and Sir Rupert, the pride and joy of Charles Schoonover Jr. and Frank W. Snyder of Argos.

As 4-year-old Peter Cleveland said through his tears and quivering lips: "There'll never be another dog like Minnie."

This Week With Governor Handley

Urges Attendance At Indiana State Fair

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 29 — "Indiana agriculture is now more than a billion dollar business," Governor Harold W. Handley said today in reminding Hoosiers that "the best way to visualize all this investment and productivity is to attend the Indiana State Fair."

"Cash market income from Indiana farms last year totalled $1,028,346,000," Governor Handley said.

"Of this, $649,378,000 was from livestock and $378,968,000 from grain."

"Moreover, as of last March 1, Indiana farm land was valued at $4,809,000,000, according to Purdue University economists."

All-Time Records Set

"This is an all-time record both for farm income and for capital assets."

"Livestock on hand at the first of the year totalled $406,872,000. Crops on hand at that time were valued at $345,070,000."

"In addition, there are millions of dollars invested in farm machinery and equipment, for which no total valuation is available."

"From these facts it is very evident that agriculture as we know it in Indiana is our nation's biggest defense against hunger, poverty, and economic stagnation. Indiana agriculture has always been in the forefront of farming activities throughout the world."

State Fair Begins Today

Governor Handley urged every Hoosier to spend at least one day at the State Fair.

"There is nothing else like it!" Governor Handley for the eighth consecutive year auctioned off the 4-H blue ribbon steer at the Lake County Fair last Tuesday. This time the steer brought the high price of $1.80 per pound.

Millionth Phone Installed By Indiana Bell

Indianapolis' Mayor Gets It

Indiana Bell's 1,000,000th telephone was presented Aug. 23 to the mayor of Indianapolis, where all Bell telephones are made.

Roy C. Echols, new president of the state's largest telephone company, presented the phone to Mayor Charles H. Boswell at a civic luncheon.

The millionth phone is a gold-trimmed green desk set with a commemorative medallion mounted in the center of a gold dial. The phone will be installed in the mayor's office in the immediate future — at whatever time the company figures it has reached the mark.

"This millionth telephone is much more than a statistical milestone of Indiana Bell's growth," Echols said. "It underscores the importance of communications in our everyday living and reflects the great growth and progress of the communities we are privileged to serve."

Serve 134 Exchange Areas
Indiana Bell's 1,000,000 telephones are in service in 134 exchange areas throughout the state — from Michigan City on the shores of Lake Michigan to Tell City on the Ohio River. About 400,000 of them are in the Indianapolis metropolitan area. More than half the million phones have been added since the end of World War II.

The company started business 40 years ago, when it was formed by the consolidation of other firms, with 171,053 phones. The total increased to 228,000 at the end of 1929, slid downward in the early 30's, then moved back to 238,000 at the end of 1939.
By late 1945, the year the war ended, Indiana Bell served 304,000 phones, and the 500,000th phone was installed in mid-1948 in a farm home near Marion.

Echols said Bell's construction program has mushroomed to keep pace with the steadily-increasing demand for more telephones. From an annual program of a few

How mankind can set about fulfilling the divine demand for perfection will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man" is the Golden Text from Matthew (5:48): "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect."
These comforting words of encouragement from James will be included in the Bible readings (1:2-4); "My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing."

Among correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this will be read: "The divine demand, 'Be ye therefore perfect,' is scientific, and the human footsteps leading to perfection are indispensable (253:132-2). . . . God requires perfection, but not until the battle between Spirit and flesh is fought and the victory won" (254:6-8).

Sixty-eight Legion members with their families and guests enjoyed a very nice boat ride and carry-in supper last Thursday evening on the Academy boat "The O. W. Fowler." This annual affair is one of the many enjoyable evenings of the Legion's social events of the year. Our hats are off to the hosts and hostesses of this affair for such a pleasant evening.

Let's all go to Knightstown and visit the Home of Service Men's Children. You may want to make it a family affair with a picnic lunch. You may call your Commander and make arrangements so as to go in a body from the Post. Knightstown Day is an annual affair to be held this year on Sunday, Sept. 11. The children look forward to seeing the Legionnaires that day, so let's not disappoint them.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Whitey's a Man With Both Feet on the Ground

Whitey Fisher and his missus got back from their first European vacation the other day. But before they left, Mrs. Fisher tells us, Whitey had some pretty strong feeling about their transportation—a new jet plane.
"Should go by boat," Whitey complained as they boarded the jet. When they were seated Whitey murmured, "I'll get air-sick on this thing for sure."
And a few minutes later, he added, "Course I'm all right now, but wait until we take off." Just then the pilot announced, "Folks, we're now cruising at an altitude of 26,000 feet!"

From where I sit, sometimes we all jump to conclusions without knowing the facts. For instance, some people are like that about my favorite beverage—beer. They insist that coffee or tea goes best at dinnertime, when actually it's a matter of choice. We ought to be tolerant—and know before we take off on our opinions.
