"HOOSIER AT LARGE"

By Al Spiers

Hoosier Joie Ray Holds His Own Olympics

IF A CRANKY leg muscle behaves, Joie Ray, a doughty and durable little man, will try for a five-minute "birthday" mile next week.

Yeah, I know modern milers beat four minutes. Nevertheless, Ray's 5,280-foot gallop against the clock will be remarkable if it comes anywhere near his goal.

JOIE, YOU SEE, will be running on 65-year-old legs!

AL SPIERS

Don't bet against him. Last year on his 64th birthday — with scant prior training and a lap-count mix-up that omitted a final sprint — Joie reeled off a 5:50 mile on the University of Illinois indoor track.

This year Ray began training weeks ago at the Gary 'Y' for his annual jog. Early in March a pulled muscle stopped his running, but the gimpy leg responded to treatment and Joie hopes to be in top shape by next week.

"This may be my last birthday mile," he said. "I want to make it good."

OLD TRACK FANS with long memories know that Joie Ray ran a lot of "good" miles in his day. For almost a decade after 1915 he dominated distance running in America.

Moreover, Joie became a great champion the hard way — on his own, without benefit of high school or college training.

In a sense, Ray started running to elude the Grim Reaper. From birth in 1894, Joie was small, frail, and sickly. Germs loved him — measles, pox, diphtheria, even typhoid fever.

At 8, he scavanged junk to join the "Y" in his native Kankakee, Ill. The director sadly eyed Joie's gaunt, puny body and said: "You're too frail for regular classes. Let's tackle some build-up exercises."

TACKLE 'EM they did. In a year, Joie was a "regular" — winning most hare-and-hounds races. In two years, he was wrestling, boxing, and running mile upon mile to inject stamina into

Republicans Will Stage Free Supper Thursday

Come Out and Meet Candidates

Thursday, Sept. 22, is "Union Township Day" for the Republican candidates of Marshall County.

Following the schedule set up for the "grass roots" campaigning of 1960, the day will begin with a breakfast, after which the candidates will begin house-to-house visits.

Luncheon at the Lions Den with Culver businessmen will be held at noon, followed by more calls on the Township householders.

The big G.O.P. rally will be held at the Lions Den from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Families from Union Township are cordially invited to attend, bringing along their children for the FREE bean and hot dog supper and the interesting program which follows.

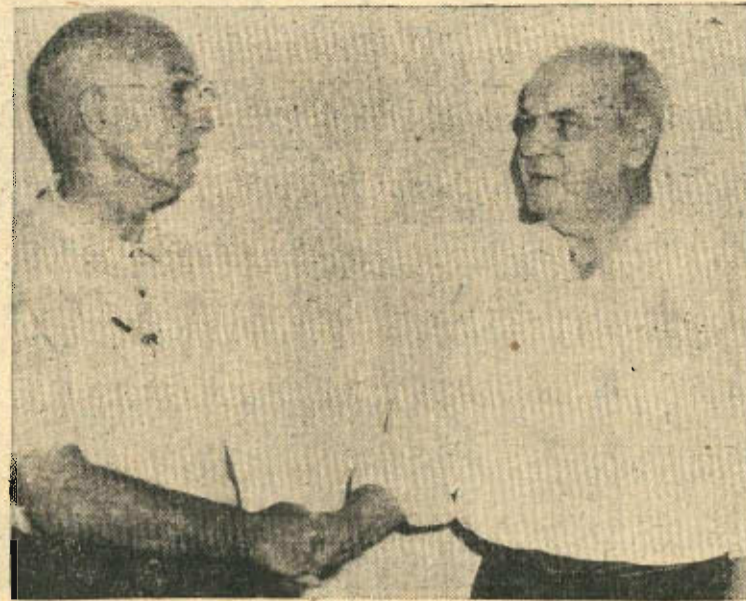

Departing from the usual type of political rally, the publicity committee of the Marshall County Republicans has put together an unusual show which provides interest for all ages.

Headlining the entertainment is the T-Shirt Combo, three local high school boys, who are, in the words of a young lady from West Township, "real cool."

Dance By Nixon Girls
A dance by the Nixon girls with a vocal arrangement by Mrs. Pat Martindale, and a trio made up of Carl Dauler, Bob Slack, and Joyce Hepler will add much to the festivities.

Gene Chipman To Speak
Eugene Chipman, Plymouth attorney, a Culver Military Academy graduate, will give a short talk during the evening and the entire program will be emceed by Robert Tanner.

Homer H. Kemple Honored By Party

STEWART W. ROBERTSON and HOMER H. KEMPLE
Tireless Workers For The Republican Cause

Stewart W. Robertson, energetic chairman of the Marshall County Republican Committee, recently announced the appointment of a co-chairman to assist him in the heavy duties of the coming campaign.

Culver's own Homer H. Kemple was enthusiastically approved as the new co-chairman by the Republican workers and candidates at a meeting in Plymouth.

Neighbor Of Bill Jenner
Homer was born in 1895 in Orange County, Indiana, near French Lick and Marengo, the home of ex-Senator Bill Jenner. In fact, Kemple's brother at one time worked for the Jenner family in their auto agency at Marengo.

He and his wife, Eema, are the parents of five children: Fritz of Florida, Arthur of California, Kenneth, Marjory Ann, and Mrs. Mary Louise Kreig, all of Culver, and they have 16 grandchildren. Mr. Kemple moved to Culver 40 years ago and is employed by Culver Military Academy as head tailor of the Academy uniform shop. He will retire shortly and plans to devote his time and talents to the Republican Party.

Our local Republican leader is a member of the Grace Reformed Church and the Lions Club. He has served as chairman of the Community Chest and was a member of the Library Board for six years, retiring from that post in 1959. He has also worked on Red Cross drives and U.S. Bond drives.

Veteran G.O.P. Worker
He has been a Republican committeeman for 33 years!

When his selection as co-county chairman was made known Homer said: "I am delighted to be given the opportunity to work closely with 'Stew' and the other members of the Republican team. I will devote every minute of my time this fall to working for a Republican victory in the county and the nation."

First To Congratulate Tommye Glaze At Conclusion Of "Miss America" Pageant

Local Youth Gets Television Shot Of Tommye Glaze

LARRY DAVIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Davis of Fifield Road, tried out his new Polaroid camera for the first time during the television presentation of the "Miss America" Pageant in Atlantic City, N. J., on Sept. 10. This is the shot he caught in the family living room of Culver's Tommye Lou Glaze, our "Miss Indiana," who was a runner-up in that thrilling spectacle. Culver is 825 miles from Atlantic City. Yes, we are

"Miss America" Pageant's New Quiz Angle

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
The Associated Press

The part of the Miss America Pageant that had the viewers in my living room on the edge of their chairs Saturday night was a new quiz, done with all the dear departed flourishes of "the $64,000 Question" and "21."

There was one mad moment when I wondered when good old Ben Feit and his bank guards were going to deliver up the sealed envelope containing the vital question: "What would you do if, at a dance, you caught your boy friend kissing your best girl friend?"

However, the spontaneous answer I thought most rewarding in the course of this extra test of American womanhood was the one that came to a demand to describe the ideal wife.

The Ideal Wife

"To be an ideal wife," said the blonde, shiny-toothed young woman thoughtfully, means also to be an ideal mother — if you're fortunate enough to have children."

Dull and Pretentious

When I turned off my set at midnight, I felt as if I had been through a long ordeal. The TV-minded contest producers have turned the finals of the annual affair into a two-hour amateur night which was not only terribly long and dull but pretentious and corny.

Miss Michigan, who won, is a pretty girl with two highly distinctive things about her: she does not sing opera and she is a brunette.

Incidentally, the person who designed all those stairs on the stage didn't have the welfare of the girls at heart. It would have taxed the skill of a veteran showgirl to have walked down that long flight in a swimsuit and high heels and still look poised and unshaken.

Bert Parks handled matters in his breezy style and Douglas Edwards commented on the events with the gravity he usually reserves for Security Council meetings and Hurricane Donna.

A Shabby TV Show

Undoubtedly it will get the biggest rating of the fall season. It was still a pretty shabby TV show!

CULVER SUMMER NAVAL SCHOOL WINS TOP RATING FOR 20TH YEAR

The Culver Summer Naval School has been honored for the 20th consecutive year by the Secretary of the Navy.

Based on the annual inspection made by the Navy last month, Culver again has been designated as an Honor Naval School, a distinction it has held since the inception of the award in 1941.

Announcement of the award was made for the Secretary of the Navy by Capt. J. A. Lark, USN, assistant chief for Education and Training, Washington, D.C.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Crabb and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crabb spent Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. Glen Crabb and family at Fort Wayne.

"Miss Indiana" (Tommye Lou Glaze) Begins Her Senior Year At Indiana University

"IT WAS ALL SO EXCITING," Tommye Lou Glaze, runner-up in the "Miss America" contest, tells girls at Smithwood Hall at Indiana University, Bloomington. Miss Glaze, who hails from Culver, has begun her senior year in the University's Music School where she is an honor student. Listening while Miss Glaze relates her thrilling experiences at Atlantic City are Sandy Davidson (seated), Hammond, and (standing) Felice Speier, left, Chicago, and Carole Kroner, Valparaiso. Although she is majoring in music education preparatory to teaching, Tommye now thinks she might like a professional career.

George Storer, Delong Summer Resident, Dies

George Otis Storer, 75, died at 9 p.m. Monday, Sept. 19, at his summer cottage near Delong after a three-day illness following a coronary occlusion. He formerly resided south of Tippecanoe.

Mr. Storer was born in Brazil, Ind., in 1885 and was a retired construction engineer. He and Mrs. Storer spent the winters in Florida. Lodge affiliations were with the Masonic F. and A.M. 564 of Indianapolis.

Surviving with his wife, Ada M. Barr Storer, are a daughter, Mrs. Betty Rose Hargrove, Route 5, Plymouth; a brother, Arthur, of Terre Haute; a sister, Mrs. Ida M. Canning, of Terre Haute; and six grandchildren.

He Would Have Voted For Tommye Lou!

Noted Critic Gives Reasons

By CORBIN PATRICK
Indianapolis Star Critic

Editor's note: That grand lady, Mrs. Alma Kittle, of East Shore Drive first called our attention to this article on the editorial page of the Sept. 13 issue of The Indianapolis Star.

Here's to the new Miss America. May the crown she won bring her good fortune.

Of course, we have to admit frankly that our vote would have been cast to elect Miss Indiana Saturday night in Atlantic City, had we been on the jury there.

Perhaps we are partial, but we thought her charm, poise, and vocal accomplishment were outstanding.

Maybe too many of the girls in the semifinals sang arias from the operas to let her dazzle the panel as she might have — it's not the easy path to popularity.

Brilliant Future Ahead

We can only say that Tommye Lou Glaze pleased us the most, and that we expect to hear a great deal more of her in the future.

Otherwise, the Miss America pageant was revealing in several respects. It's the oldest national contest, suggesting the degree to which the U.S. male has become a devotee of feminine pulchritude.

It also is among the last areas of national life in which deference still is paid to his point of view.

Note, if you please, the well-considered answer our Cinderella-elect gave the "serious" question she was asked in the finals — did she think American women are usurping the place of the male?

"I do agree with that," she said. "I believe there are far too many women in the working world. I do feel a woman's place is in the home with her husband and children, and if she wants to go into the world after that, it's fine, but as a young girl I believe her place is with her family."

Her agreement "with that" is hardly remarkable — "that" is a fact. But we found it a little startling to learn that Miss America will enroll at Michigan State University — to study for a career in journalism. Do you suppose her feeling that "a woman's place is in the home" is for male consumption only?

It brings to mind a law the British Parliament is said to have passed in the 6 enlightened days of George III — 1770, we are told. It decreed that:

"All women, of whatever rank, age, profession, or degree, whether virgins, maids, or widows, who shall after this act impose upon or betray into matrimony any of his majesty's male subjects by virtue of scents, paints, cosmetic washes, artificial teeth, false hair, Spanish wool, iron stays, bolstered hips, or high-heeled shoes, shall incur the penalty of the law now in force against witchcraft."

It might have added sweet talk to the proscribed list.

Chester Easterday of Logansport was a weekend guest of his sister, Miss Bess Easterday. On Sunday, in observance of the former's birthday, they were dinner guests of Mrs. Clark Ferrier. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. William Easterday and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferrier and Tina.

Brantley-Snyder Nuptial Vows Spoken In Friday Ceremony

MRS. DONALD REA SNYDER

In a candlelight service at seven o'clock Friday evening, Sept. 16, at Portage Chapel Methodist Church, South Bend, Miss Clara Jean Brantley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse A. Brantley of 52281 Portage Rd., South Bend, became the bride of Donald Rea Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen B. Snyder, Route 2, Culver.

Rev. Keith S. Carlile, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony before the altar which was decorated with white gladioli and candelabra with white tapers.

Mrs. Ernest Houseworth, organist, played the nuptial music and accompanied Lowell C. Gray, who sang "I Love Thee Truly," and "Wedding Prayer." Mr. Gray also sang "The Lord's Prayer," as the couple knelt at the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of imported hand-clipped Chantilly lace and nylon organza fashioned with a Sabrina scalloped neckline embellished with sequins and seed pearls.

The long lace sleeves were tapered at the wrists and the lace basque bodice, which buttoned down the back, complemented the billowing skirt of nylon organza featuring lace panels and puffs in the front of the skirt and gently sweeping into a chapel train in the back.

Her fingertip veil and blusher of imported silk illusion was attached to a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and pompons.

Mrs. Loran Sims of Warsaw was matron of honor and Miss Jackie Leadley, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid.

The attendants wore identically made street length dresses of taffeta fashioned with kimono sleeves, round front necklines dipping into a V in back with full gathered skirts and matching cummerbunds. They carried modern colonial bouquets of glamelias and pompons. The matron of honor wore light aqua and her flowers were rust and the bridesmaids wore frosty pink and carried light pink flowers.

Loran Sims of Warsaw was best man and Charles Snyder also attended his brother. The ushers, James Snyder, cousin of the bridegroom, James Scheuer of Detroit, Mich., and David Clauson of Argos seated the guests in the pews which were marked with white bows.

Mrs. Brantley chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of candle light beige with matching accessories with a corsage of pink flowers. Mrs. Snyder, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of evening blue with black and red accessories and her corsage was of white flowers.

Following the wedding a reception for 100 guests was held in the church parlors. The four-tiered wedding cake was trimmed in pink and white and white candles decorated the refreshment table.

Mrs. Thomas Klota, cousin of the bride, served the cake. Also serving were Mrs. Elmo Leadley Jr., cousin of the bride, Mrs. Galen Wolf, Miss Lois Long, Miss Ann Bradley, and Miss Ruth Ann Gregg. Miss Vicky Brantley, cousin in of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The young couple left for a short wedding trip in Northern Michigan after which they will be at home at 424 Manitou Place, South Bend.

The bride chose for going away a blue shirtwaist dress with navy accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Snyder graduated from Central High School, South Bend and from Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, South Bend. Her husband is a graduate of Culver High School and the Acme School of Die Design Engineering. He also served three years in the Navy.

Cynthia Allen Tells Sunshine Girls Of South American Customs

Miss Cynthia Allen, a senior at Indiana University, told 75 Culver High School Sunshine girls last week about her experiences while attending the University of San Marcos, Lima, Peru, last year.

She was one of a group of 10 students from the United States who flew from Washington D.C., August 1959 for one year's study in South America. While there she lived in two different homes and learned about their family life, traditions, and customs.

Some of the subjects she studied at the university were Peruvian history, literature, and poetry. She was also privileged to teach a class in English for the native college students.

While she described the bull fights she enjoyed so much, the girls listened to a record of the typical band at such events. Pictures were used to show typical dress of the people in the country.

To close the meeting she demonstrated some typical South American folk dances with native music for a background.

Lana Berger was chairman of the committee planning the meeting.

Nancy Kay Kline Weds Lee J. Morozink

MRS. LEE J. MOROZINK

Mrs. Lee J. Morozink was Miss Nancy Kay Kline prior to the couple's marriage during an impressive candlelight ceremony Saturday, Sept. 3, at 7 o'clock in the Monterey Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Kline of Monterey, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lawrence Morton of Winamac, and Jack Morozink of Chicago.

The double ring ceremony was officiated by Rev. Theodore Roberts before the altar banked by palms, baskets of white gladioli and twin seven branch candelabra. A white aisle carpet led to the kneeling bench at the altar. White satin bows with ivy marked the family pews, and lighted tapers on alternate pews lined the center aisle leading to the altar.

Mrs. Charles L. Byfield of Winamac, pianist, accompanied Mrs. Dolly Postuma, soloist, as she

Miss Joanne Struck of South Bend attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Brucker of Monterey, a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Joyce Cunningham of Winona Lake, and Mrs. Harolaine Kistler of North Manchester.

The bridal attendants wore identical gowns of new green, peau satin, styled with a V neckline and cap sleeves. The waist was accented by a smooth set-in cummerbund. The softly gathered skirt of ballerina length was accented in the back by a butterfly bow on the waistline. Matching peau satin braided crown headpieces were worn with short, full veils. Long white gloves, gifts of the bride, completed their attire.

Miss Struck carried a colonial bouquet of bronze daisies with green centers, mums and ivy. The bridesmaids carried colonial bouquets of bronze mums and ivy.

Miss Sally Kline of Monterey, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, wearing a dress of white nylon chiffon over mint green taffeta. She wore a matching circular headpiece and small white mitts, and carried a basket from which she dropped rose petals.

Richard Smith of Monterey, served the bridegroom as best man, and ushers and groomsmen were Marvin Motuliak of Lafayette, cousin of the bridegroom, David Reinhold of South Bend, cousin of the bride, and Ralph Kistler of North Manchester. Ring bearer was Rocky Fernbaugh of South Bend, cousin of the bride, who carried the rings upon a white satin, heart shaped pillow decorated with satin ribbon and lily-of-the-valley.

The mother of the bride chose a navy blue dress of nylon knit with matching accessories and wore a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Morton chose a dress of beige nylon, with black accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

A reception was held following the ceremony for 160 guests in the church parlor.

The serving table was decorated with candelabra of lighted green tapers and a floor-length, white taffeta skirt accented with a mint green swag. A four tier decorated wedding cake featuring six small heart shaped cakes at the base and topped with a miniature bridal couple centered the table.

For traveling the bride wore a black sheath dress with matching jacket, accented by a pink rose corsage from the bridal bouquet. The couple will reside at 217 Westox St., Valparaiso.

The bride is a graduate of Monterey High School and Memorial Hospital of South Bend School of Nursing.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Monterey High School and served four years with the U. S. Navy. He is presently attending Valparaiso Technical Institute and is also employed with Sears, Roebuck & Co., in Valparaiso.

A wedding rehearsal supper was served to the wedding party and their families at the home of the bride's parents on Friday evening, Sept. 2.

Guest Speaker For Next Meeting Of Junior Woman's Club

MRS. A. W. KIRKMAN
Her Jewelry Hobby Brings Much Happiness

The next meeting of the Maxinkuckee Federated Junior Woman's Club will be held in the home of Mrs. Robert McKinnis on Monday, Sept. 26.

The club will be honored to have as their guest speaker, Mrs. A. W. Kirkman of Michigan City.

Mrs. Kirkman, besides being a busy housewife and a practical nurse, is presently state chairman of the American Home and 13th District treasurer of the Indiana

Federation of Clubs.

As one of the first volunteers to give regular service at Beatty Memorial Hospital, Mrs. Kirkman noticed the happiness that costume jewelry would bring to the patients. Mrs. Kirkman stated, "Dull eyes would brighten and an unexpressive face would often become animated. It gave me an idea."

Beads have always fascinated her, even as a child in Nevada when the Moapa Indians (patients of her father) taught her to do Indian beadwork and make Indian jewelry. For years she has repaired jewelry for friends and family. It occurred to her that she might collect broken jewelry from her friends, clean and repair it and take it to the hospital as gifts for patients.

Robert Lange, head of volunteer services at Beatty, has told the artisan that the more than 150 items she took to the hospital before each Christmas were much appreciated, and he indicated the hospital would be happy to have the jewelry to use for gifts for Mother's Day, birthdays and other special occasions for patients who have no one to remember them on those dates.

"One odd earring can become a necklace when put on a bit of chain," said Mrs. Kirkman. "And it's amazing to see the light of such a bauble reflected in the brightened eye of a patient, hungry to possess something pretty," she continued.

Her reward? That's it, for one so dedicated.

What They Said About Trip To Atlantic City

Mrs. Jack Campbell: "We had a wonderful and glorious trip to Atlantic City. We lived a full three weeks in a very full three days. The greatest pleasure of all was having Tommie Lou Glaze as our Miss Indiana. We can and should be very proud of her."

Mrs. James R. Cox: "My trip to Atlantic City was a wonderful experience — one I shall never forget. It was a great thrill to be able to attend the pageant and to see our girl compete. We are very proud of the fact that she was among the top five."

Mrs. Hugo Anderson: "My feelings about my trip to Atlantic City can hardly be expressed in so few words. The pageant was beautifully staged and Tommie Lou represented our community in a way in which we can all be proud. It was a tremendous thrill to be in the audience when the master of ceremonies announced her as one of the finalists. The entire trip was an unforgettable experience."

Mrs. John Lucas: "Words can't describe the beauty and excitement of seeing the pageant and having a girl as lovely as Tommie Lou represent our State. I feel it an honor to know her and wish her success in the future."

Mrs. Norman Kelly: "Our trip to Atlantic City will never be forgotten. The costumes of the Miss America pageant were very colorful and to us Tommie Lou will always be our Miss America."

Mrs. Ronald Spittler explained the accepted new method of artificial respiration and Mrs. Doyle Fishburn presented "Arithmetic of Politics," giving the percentages of eligible voters who go to polls. Mrs. Meryl Shivers, nominating committee chairman, presented the following slate of officers which was accepted: Mrs. Charles Smith, president; Mrs. Wendell Nelson, vice-president; Mrs. Doyle Fishburn, secretary; Mrs. Clem Miller, treasurer; Mrs. Carroll Thompson, reporter; Mrs. Alfred Winenger, song leader; Mrs. A. W. Mahoney, pianist; Mrs. Ronald Spittler, safety leader; Mrs. Frank Ruffing Jr., citizenship; Mrs. Pearl Hodson, flower committee; and Mrs. Hayward Claybaugh, scrapbook.

Mrs. Smith announced that Achievement Day will be Thursday, Oct. 20, at the Armory in Plymouth. Each person is to take sack lunch and Mrs. George Duff and Mrs. Winenger will represent the club on the Achievement Day committee. The committee to prepare for the Craft School at the Armory on Nov. 1 is Mrs. Frank Ruffing Jr., chairman, Mrs. Doyle Fishburn, Mrs. George Duff, Mrs. A. W. Mahoney, Mrs. L. B. Vanata and Mrs. Ronald Spittler. The committee will meet at 1:30 p.m. on Oct. 11 with Mrs. Ruffing.

Ruth I. Jordan award sheets were completed. Officers Training Day for those taking office in January, 1961, will be Nov. 14.

Mrs. Duff, assisted by Mrs. Charles Smith, gave the lesson on carpets and rugs, stressing that rugs should be chosen with great care since they are a major investment and are the basis of a room's decor for years.

The hostess served lovely refreshments. On Oct. 18, at 1:30 p.m., the club will be guests of the Yellowstone Club at the E.U.B. Church on South Michigan Street in Plymouth.

Stumbling Stones May Be Tommye's Stepping Stones!

"Miss America" Quiz Questions

Editor's note: This is a thought-provoking letter from Mrs. Hattie Roth, 721 Gibson St., Plymouth, who did such an outstanding job in publicizing Tommye Lou Glaze of Culver in both the recent "Miss Indiana" and "Miss America" pageants. It is addressed to Chester W. Cleveland, publisher of The Citizen, who also as publisher of Indiana Business and Industry magazine sponsored Miss Glaze in the Plymouth and Michigan City contests.

Dear Mr. Cleveland:

As one "Miss Indiana" booster to another I wish to quote, "Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." — John 14:27.

We can't change the decision of the judges even though we don't agree with them. We must accept it and hope and pray that Tommye Lou's stumbling stones — her questions — may prove to be the finest stepping stones in her career.

The only moment we ever live is the present moment — and the best insurance for a satisfactory future is to handle it properly. No one can take the inner feeling away from us as Tommye Lou will always be our "Miss America."

Tommye Lou displayed all the charm, poise, and refinement in the regal way as she walked down the Atlantic City runway to represent our fine State. Her talent was outstanding by far, but evidently the request for personality points, plus the questions, were responsible for the final decision.

As "Miss America" her schooling would have had to be delayed for a year and also her voice training — as most of "Miss America's" appearances are just personal.

It would indeed be a pity to have that beautiful golden voice lay dormant for a whole year.

I am a great believer, "That all things work together for good if we let them." The more compassion and understanding we have, the more true joy will fill our hearts.

I have indeed enjoyed meeting you and Mrs. Cleveland and have appreciated your enthusiastic articles and great interest in Tommye Lou. It only goes to prove a County that works together will stay together and will continue to build firm foundations for our young people of today, and will insure keeping them within its boundaries.

I have enjoyed your pleasantness and helpfulness in aiding me and the Pilot-News in securing the group of interested citizens to attend the "Miss America" Pageant!

Thank you, also, for the many articles and copies of your fine magazine that will be incorporated in my "Tommye Lou Album," which may be a collector's item some day when we will see her name in the bright lights.

The best to you and your wife, and I trust she is improving rapidly.

HATTIE ROTH

BIG "WELCOME HOME" PARADE OF CADETS REVIEWED BY TOMMYE

Culver Military Academy's corps of 827 cadets turned out to welcome home Tommye Lou Glaze upon her return from the Miss America Pageant Wednesday morning, Sept. 14.

Together with Gen. Delmar T. Spivey, superintendent, and Col. Edward Stephenson, commandant, Culver's "Miss Indiana" reviewed the corps during the parade in her honor.

Col. C. A. "Jerry" Whitney commented that it was probably the best executed parade of the year!

Tommye Lou worked at the Summer Schools as a receptionist in the Woodcraft Camp. Her mother, Mrs. Helen Glaze, is employed in the Academy's business office.

CLEVELANDS AGAIN IN HOWARD W. SAM'S' GUEST HOUSE

The Chester W. Cleveland, who have been "homeless" since fire destroyed their East Shore Drive residence last Feb. 1, are again living in Howard W. Sams' attractive guest house at 439 South Shore Drive with the compliments of the prominent Indianapolis publisher and industrialist.
They will remain there until their home is rebuilt, work on it being at a stalemate until Mrs. Cleveland is released from Memorial Hospital in South Bend where she is undergoing treatment for a slipped disc.
"Hersh" Rector, who looks after the Howard Sams' Lake properties along South Shore Drive during the off-season, in welcoming the Cleavelands again turned out to be just about the most accommodating fellow in all of Northern Indiana!
I want to try in this way to express my thanks for all the card thoughts from friends who I have received during the past few weeks. It is only at times like this when you can appreciate the value of true friends.
HOWARD ALBERT 38n

Thanks very much for the beautiful flowers and gifts from relatives, friends, and neighbors. Everything was so deeply appreciated. Kindnesses such as these make the stay in the hospital and the recuperation at home more cheerful.

CHS Baseball Team Wins Over Bourbon, 6-2

Downed By Tippy Last Thursday

The High School baseball squad opened its bid for the Marshall County championship last week by upsetting favored Bourbon, 6-2. However, Coach Tom Benbrook's squad was surprised in turn by an upstart Tippecanoe team, 9-3, to throw the race for the title wide open again.

Monday night at Culver, Tom Boswell pitched Culver to their third win in five fall games with a brilliant 3-hitter. The Indians broke open a tight pitcher's duel between Boswell and Steve Shively with a 4-run sixth inning. Two-out, two-run singles by Paul White and Jim Carter sparked the winning rally. Culver's junior right-hander struck out seven and walked five in gaining his second fall victory.

Thursday night at Tippecanoe, the Indian's defense collapsed for only one inning, the 4th, but the Police Dogs capitalized for 9 runs, knocking out Boswell, who had blanked the opposition handily for 3 innings. After the damage had been done, freshman right-hander Sam Lowry turned in his fifth consecutive effective relief job, but Culver could only muster 3 runs off a trio of Tippy pitchers. Larry Davis and Rick Ervin got Culver's only hits, as several mental lapses on the base-paths and in the field spelled the end for hopes of an undefeated county record.

Incidentally, in two home games, the baseball Indians have played to crowds not worthy of a turtle race. Only a handful of people seem to care about the fate of Culver's Ball Club.

Academy Football Season Opens Saturday

26th Year For Coach Oliver

Eleven letterman are expected to see action on Saturday, Sept. 24, when Culver Military Academy opens its 1960 football season at home against Buchanan (Mich.) High School.

The Eagles will be playing under Coach Russ Oliver, who is beginning his 26th season at Culver.

The Academy's eight-game schedule will include two opponents who will be facing Culver for the first time. Bloomington University School and Indianapolis Sacred Heart High School will fill out the Eagle card, replacing Ashland, Ohio, and Gary Edison.

Former Beloit Captain
Coach Oliver has been working with a 66-man squad since Sept. 3 and expects to trim the team to a varsity maximum of 35. He will again have as his assistants Charles "Chick" Owen, line coach, and Norm Miner, backfield coach. Heading the frosh-sophomore squad will be Chet Marshall and Colin Stetson, former Beloit College football captain, who is a newcomer to the Culver faculty.

Although the Eagles are untested, Coach Oliver hopes to avenge several of the defeats from last year's 4-3 season. He mainly is concerned with finding a reliable quarterback to replace Al Smith, who has graduated. Leading candidates are Enos Fry, a star Culver swimmer, and Lloyd Huth, a junior from Ashland, Ky. Fry is a senior from Bethesda, Md., and appears to have the inside track on the basis of better speed.

On the line, Coach Oliver is working to fill out the center and tackle slots before the game against Buchanan. John Terrell,
