CULVER, INDIANA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 1961

"HOOSIER AT LARGE"

By Al Spiers

This Brave Hoosier Deserved A Carnegie Medal But Didn't Get It!

THE SS MARSHALL was a tired old hulk, snatched from one grave to die again and thus achieve a small, varied, dubious, fame.

Historians say the Marshall was the last sailing vessel shipwrecked in the treacherous Lake Michigan waters that lap the State of Indiana's north boundary.

In the process, she drowned four and stole a valiant rescuer's new wardrobe — yet saved many other lives.

On June 13, 1911, her doom-day, the Marshall was a weary, pathetic half-ghost of a prouder past.

PART OF Lake Michigan's great 19th century sailing fleet that engines outmoded, she'd been left to die — only to be later reclaimed, demasted, repaired, and given an engine.

But the Marshall seemed to resent her new garb and innards. Slow, ungaily, and cranky, she was a profitless lumber carrier. Disgruntled owners sold her to a Chicago gravel firm and she became a plodding, sand-sucking scow.

ON FRIDAY, June 11, 1911, Capt. L. A. Rand and his crew of nine brought the Marshall to an inner sand bar 200 yards off Porter County shores. By Saturday afternoon, they'd sucked a deep load.

Going out, trouble developed. Empty, the Marshall had easily cleared an outer bar. Loaded, she drew a yard too much.

"We'll back out and bore our way with the propeller," Capt. Land decided.

They tried — but the weary old hull popped in two places. As night fell, Capt. Land caulked the leaks and anchored parallel to the bar to await daylight. Eight sailors bunked below, leaving only the captain and cook topside.

SUDDENLY, WITHOUT warning, the loggy old hulk was slammed by the kind of swift, furious squall that Lake Michigan sailors still dread.

Rain fell in sheets, lightning crackled and savage, blustery winds abruptly capsize the sand-laden Marshall. Capt. Land and the cook were swept overboard in a welter of debris. Four crewmen were trapped below. Four others fought their way out and into the savage lake. One drove a knife into the slimy hull and held on. The other three clutched his legs.

There were homes and a fish house on shore only 200 yards away. But the storm smothered cries for help. The four sailors could only hang on and pray.

JUST ABOUT 4 A. M., Richard Sabinske, a fisherman, arose and went out to survey the storm's aftermath. Spying the human barnacles on the Marshall's capsize, wave-lashed hull, Sabinske shouted others awake and then rowed a skiff into the churning lake.

Caroline Marmon Fesler, 82, Lake Resident, Dies

Leaves $\frac{1}{2}$ Million To Art Museum

Caroline Marmon Fesler, widely known Hoosier patron of the arts and daughter of the late Daniel W. Marmon who founded the Marmon Motor Car Company, died recently in her home at 4035 North Pennsylvania Street, Indianapolis. She was 82 years old.

Estate Here Garden Spot

Mrs. Fesler's estate on Lake Maxinkuckee at 1100 East Shore Drive, with its choice frontage of over 900 feet, is a garden spot of the entire area with its profusion of beautiful flowers in all seasons.

She maintained the mansion on the property in the best family tradition, never disturbing the household arrangement and contents left by her mother over a long period of years.

Mrs. Fesler, whose family came to Indianapolis from Richmond, Ind., attended Benjamin Harrison School, the former Girls Classical School, and Smith College, where she was graduated in 1900.

Widow of James W. Fesler

Her husband, James W. Fesler, an attorney who died in 1949, served on the Indiana University board of trustees for a number of years, including some time as chairman. He was a one-time Republican candidate for Governor of Indiana.

Mrs. Fesler over the years manifested a strong interest in artistic and musical affairs in Indianapolis.

She had served as a board member and president of the Art Association of Indianapolis, which operates John Herron Art Museum.

Makes 44 Different Bequests

Her will provided for 44 specific bequests, including $500,000 to the famed John Herron Art Museum and School in the Hoosier capital.

She was a long-time supporter of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, and many times had entertainments in her home featuring celebrated chamber music groups including the Budapest String Quartet.

An active collector of paintings, she had many modern works hung in her home.

Shunned Publicity Of Gifts

Mrs. Fesler shunned publicity about her contributions to art and music causes in the city.

Marmon Automobile Family

Her father founded the old Nordyke & Marmon Milling Machine Company which later became the Marmon Motor Car Company.

Her late brothers, Howard and Walter Marmon, were active in the management of the firm when Marmon was a leading manufacturer of expensive automobiles for wealthy Americans.

No funeral services were scheduled in connection with the cremation which Mrs. Fesler instructed should be held. A memorial service may be held at a later date.

There are no immediate survivors.

Famous Culver Military Academy Black Horse Troop In President John F. Kennedy's Inaugural Parade

THE KENNEDY-JOHNSON INAUGURAL IN WASHINGTON, D. C. on Friday will mark the fourth time in history that Culver Military Academy's crack Black Horse Troop has paraded in the nation's capital. Selected for academic achievement, citizenship, and horsemanship, the Troopers, shown here during a parade at the noted college preparatory school, will take an 85-man contingent to the inaugural.

CMA Black Horse Troop Leaves For Washington Today

Fourth Time In Inaugural Parade

Culver Military Academy's famed Black Horse Troop will participate in the Presidential inaugural parade in Washington, D.C. on Friday, Jan. 20, according to Maj. Gen. Delmar T. Spivey, superintendent.

"Culver is honored," General Spivey said, "to take part in this important national event. The Black Horse Troop is composed of fine boys from many parts of the nation and several foreign countries, and has on three previous occasions participated in the inaugural parade in Washington."

General Spivey said 85 troopers and 90 horses will make the trip to Washington. The cadets will leave Culver today and return Sunday, Jan. 21. The horses will be vanned to the nation's capital in advance of their riders.

85 Cadets Making Trip

Before being selected to ride with the troop, each of the 85 cadets met certain academic requirements, General Spivey added. Prior to leaving Culver, they spent several weekends doing advance work under special tutoring so that no time would be lost from the classroom. Assigned faculty members will also set up study hours at Anacostia Naval Air Station, where the troopers will be quartered in Washington.

Cadet Commander and Captains
The cadet commander of the troop is Martin E. Strand III, Dearborn, Mich. His captains are Robert S. Marvin, of Mexico City and Dale W. McMillen III of Fort Wayne.

The troop has participated in three previous inaugural parades as part of a long and honorable history dating back to 1897.

The troop is the one remaining mounted military organization in the United States, and from its earliest days has served as an escort of honor at national occasions and at times when prominent citizens of other countries have been guests of the U.S.

Escorted President McKinley
When the Black Horse Troop was organized before the turn of the century the Academy purchased 32 horses from the famous Troop A of Cleveland, Ohio, an organization that had served as an escort at the inauguration of President McKinley of Ohio. These mounts formed the nucleus of an organization that persisted as a unit of the U.S. Armed Forces until the regular cavalry was disbanded in 1950.

Since that time the Black Horse Troop has still functioned as a military unit, trained according to the Old Cavalry manual. To be admitted to this crack organization, the applicant must possess requirements of academic proficiency, citizenship, and horsemanship. Its personnel complete a four-year course in equitation including jumping, dressage, rough riding, polo, and courses in hippology. These subjects on horsemanship are studied and practiced during recreation periods and take no time from the academic schedule.

The troop first appeared in public as escort to Governor Mount of Indiana at the GAR encampment in Richmond, Ind., in May of 1897, and since that time has become nationally known for its high degree of horsemanship.

Our Hoosier Vice President

In 1913 they escorted Vice President Thomas R. Marshall of Columbia City in the inauguration and again in 1917 they appeared in Washington as part of the inaugural parade.

The Black Horse Troop made its third Washington appearance in 1957 for the Eisenhower-Nixon inaugural when the Culver troopers were part of the Armed Forces Division.

Under Colonel Graham's Direction

The cavalry unit is under the direction of Lt. Col. Gerald J. Graham, USAR (Ret.), a former trooper in the Army horse cavalry who served in several campaigns during World War II and was an aide de camp to General Douglas MacArthur. He is assisted by Col. William R. Robinette, USA (Ret.), who spent 14 of his 30 years service with the Sixth Cavalry Regiment.

Also with the Black Horse Troop is Col. C. A. Whitney, former director of the School of Horsemanship at Culver, who was with the troop when it appeared in the 1957 inaugural. "Jerry" Whitney, an ardent Maine Republican, doesn't have the same enthusiasm for this year's event!

Large Barn On Oscar Zehner Farm Destroyed By Fire

A large barn on the Oscar Zehner farm, located four miles east of Culver and just south of Road 10, was destroyed by fire at noon Thursday, Jan. 12.

The Culver and Argos Fire Departments battled the blaze of undetermined origin and remained at the scene until 2:30 p.m., wading down the adjacent buildings, and preventing flying sparks from spreading the fire.

Zehner listed the following as destroyed in the fire and which is partially covered by insurance: 250 bushels of oats, 250 bushels of corn, 200 pounds of sorghum, 475 to 500 bales of hay, 350 bales of straw, a 1948 model farm truck, a cow, and a pig.

The blaze was discovered about noon and before firemen could be summoned the blaze was well out of control.

Recommend Review Of Conservation Reserve Contract

Farmers who have Conservation Reserve contracts covering part of their cropland should review their contracts before completing their 1961 cropping plans, according to Carl W. Price, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Each Conservation Reserve contract includes a limitation of the number of acres on the farm that can be used for the growing and harvesting of crops. That acreage is called the permitted acreage of Soil Bank Base Crops. All the grains, oilseeds, and row crops are classified as Soil Bank Base Crops.

The permitted acreage of Soil Bank Base Crops is important because exceeding that acreage may result in violation of the contract and a reduction of the annual payment or possible loss of the entire payment.

In addition, Mr. Price reminded farmers that Conservation Reserve contracts provide that cropland under contract is not to be grazed, cut for hay, or a crop harvested from it.

Mrs. Eldon Cowen Found Dead In Car By Husband

Mrs. Melita Louise Cowen, 37, was found dead in the family auto by her husband, Eldon Cowen, at her home four miles east of Culver about 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 11.

Marshall County Coroner Marshall E. Stine ruled death was caused by self inflicted carbon monoxide poisoning from the car exhaust.

Mrs. Cowen had prepared a bountiful noon meal and after they ate, Mr. Cowen left on an errand. He returned a short time later and found his wife. Mrs. Cowen had been under the care of a physician.

Born July 3, 1923 in Anstineburg, Ashtabula County, Ohio, she was the daughter of Glenn and Martha Haller Johnson. With her family, Mrs. Cowen moved to Indiana when a small girl, lived in Plymouth for a few years, and later moved to Argos where she spent the remainder of her life. She was a graduate of the Argos High School, and on Nov. 2, 1941, she was married in Argos to Eldon F. Cowen, who survives.

Other survivors are three daughters, Linda Louise, 17, Charla Rae, 15, and Elita Joy, 6, all at home; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Johnson, Route 3, Argos; a sister, Mrs. Leo (Mary Jane) Houlin, Route 4, Plymouth; and four brothers, Dean Johnson, Route 3, Argos, Wilburn Johnson, Alexandria, Va., Willard Johnson, Kalamazoo, Mich., and Paul Johnson, Rochester. A sister, Valda Mae Johnson, preceded her in death in 1941.

Mrs. Cowen was a member of the Poplar Grove Methodist Church, the WSCS of the church, and the Maxinkuckee Rebekah Lodge 844.

The Grossman Funeral Home in Argos was in charge of arrangements. Services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 14, at the Poplar Grove Methodist Church with the Rev. W. Ray Kuhn, pastor of the church, officiating, and the Maxinkuckee Lodge assisting. Interment was made in the Poplar Grove Cemetery.

Township Council Of Churches Plans Lenten Services

Announcement of plans being formulated for the Lenten season were made at the bi-monthly meeting of the Culver-Union Township Council of Churches Friday evening, Jan. 13, at the Mt. Hope Church. These include the World Day of Prayer, the Good Friday Service, and the Easter Sunrise meeting.

The Women's Committee will be in charge of the World Day of Prayer Service, which will be held on the first Friday in Lent, Feb. 17, at the Methodist Church. There will be an afternoon meeting, at 2 o'clock, instead of the former evening service, with a playlet being planned as the main part of the program.

The Good Friday Service will be held at noon, following the serving of the noon meal by the ladies of the Church. The name of the speaker will be announced later.

Easter Sunrise Service

The Easter Sunrise Service will be held in the Emmanuel E. U. B. Church, followed by the youth breakfast. The hour of the devotional meeting is 6:30 a.m., the program to be announced later.

Rev. Warren Sorenson, president of the Township Council, was in charge of the meeting Friday evening at the Mt. Hope Church. He read a scripture passage for the devotion, with the prayer by Rev. Clyde Beckner. Following the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by the secretary, Mrs. William Easterday, the treasurer's report was given by J. Richard Behmer. Action was taken to send the Thanksgiving offering of $52 to the Christian Rural Overseas Program, and Helen Holifield, R. N., presented the cause of the Blood Bank for the township, urging help when the Bloodmobile comes to Culver again early in March. Information was given as to the operation of the bank, and how use may be made of it by township citizens.

Education Committee Report

The Education Committee report was made by the chairman, Rev. Kendall Sands, who explained a possible morning prayer service for young people each Wednesday during Lent. He presented John Robinson, of the Older Youth Group, and explained a possible formation of a Single-Out-Of-High school group of young people for the community. Youth Week plans are being made for the first week in February. This year's meeting is scheduled to be held in Grace United Church, with the time and program to be announced later.

The ladies of Mt. Hope Church served refreshments, following adjournment of the business session. About 20 members and visitors were present.

MIXED UP POOCH — A Crawfordsville woman, Mrs. J. C. Mizell, says her dog, Brownie, is a bit confused. When her cat, White Foot, crawled into Brownie's dog house and gave birth to a litter of six kittens, Brownie became protectively jealous of the kittens, says Mrs. Mizell, and even resented efforts of White Foot to see her litter. "We have to yell at him every once in a while to make him let the cat in the dog house with them."

"Hoosier At Large"

WITH GREAT COURAGE and fine seamanship, Sabinske brought the four exhausted sailors ashore and then went back to pick up the captain and cook who were clinging to floating debris.

The six survivors were fed and bedded in Sabinske's home and later clad in new overalls, shirts, and underwear the fisherman had purchased only the day before.

THE GRAVEL FIRM sent a fast tug for its men. When they left, Capt. Land thanked Sabinske warmly and gave him $5 for the food and clothing he'd provided. The other five just said thanks — and neither they nor their employer later reimbursed the valiant fisherman.

The lake soon completed the Marshall's destruction and washed ashore the bodies of the four drowned crewmen. Ultimately they were buried in East Gary.

Neighbors subsequently sought a Carnegie Medal for Sabinske — but the brave fisherman, unpaid for his clothes, got no medal either.

"He didn't really risk his own life," ruled the Carnegie people.

"He's too good a seaman!"

ONE BIT OF GOOD did result from the shipwreck of this last sailing vessel. In dying herself, the Marshall saved other lives — by provoking stricter safety regulations and tougher inspections of other vessels.

So the weary, faded old girl did not die in vain.

Freshmen and B-Team Tournaments Held At Argos

By EARL D. MISHLER
The Bourbon underclassmen swept both ends of the Freshmen and B-Team Tournaments last Saturday in the all-day competition at Argos. Culver's Freshmen team reached the final game by topping Tippecanoe, 33 to 28, but fell to the Bourbon Frosh at night, 38 to 33. Culver's B-Team was eliminated in the afternoon by Argos, 35 to 28.

The day's activities began with Bourbon's Freshmen beating the host school, 31 to 23. The local Frosh allowed Tippecanoe to build up a 10-point lead midway in the second period, but a rousing comeback provided them with their winning margin. Sammy Lowry and Frank Ikert led the hard-driving Culverites with 11 points apiece.

In the afternoon, Bourbon's B-Team raced to a 41 to 25 victory over Tippecanoe, prior to the Argos-Culver B-Team clash. In the tightest game of the day, Argos broke the 26-26 tie that stood after three periods, and rallied for their 7-point victory. Thad Overmyer scored 12 points for Culver, but Argos' Rod McGowan hit 18 markers for game honors. Do not overlook the fact that Rick Ervin, Jim Carter, and George Herr, normally B-Team performers for Culver, were not allowed to play, in order that they might dress for the Varsity County Tournament this week.

That evening, Coach Jim Cox youngsters battled gamely against the much taller Bourbon boys, but fell five points short after a thrilling fourth quarter, in which they rallied for 20 points, quite an accomplishment for a Freshmen team. Lowry led the balanced attack with nine points, followed by Ikert and Paul White with eight apiece.

Bourbon's B-Team coasted to a 42-30 victory over Argos for the B-Team trophy. Chris Booz of Bourbon easily was the best performer of the day's action. The slick sophomore forward hit 19 in the afternoon and added 14 more in the lackluster title game.

Commencement Invitations Selected By Seniors

By Nancy Ervin
Freshmen: Bob Carter was in the hospital recently. The freshmen had a fudge sale last Friday. Sophomores: The sophomore movie, "Freckles," was a big success, and everyone enjoyed it very much. Carmen Gretter, who has been in the hospital since Dec. 26, is now home, and is planning on returning to school soon.

Seniors: At a recent class meeting, the seniors choose their invitations and looked at cards. The motto was presented at the last meeting and voted on.

Injuries Plague Indian Cagers

By Earl Mishler
This week's column is devoted to the "good fortune" that the Culver Indians have enjoyed thus far this season. Here is a list of Coach Tom Benbrook's prize headaches:

1. 6-foot-1 senior Jim Hall, good rebounder and shooter, moves out of town.
 2. Phil Gretter, tricky little junior guard, is declared ineligible due to technicality of IHSAA.
 3. Shortly before the season opens, senior forward John Cromley is injured in automobile wreck; misses three games.
 4. After three games, senior guard Corky Walter, leading reserve, quits school.
 5. Junior guard Tom Boswell jams two fingers playing Aubsee game, taking only four shots.
 6. Gary Dillon, star senior guard, contracts bronchitis, plays below par in important North Judson and Knox games.
 7. Boswell suffers minor brain concussion in rugged Knox game, sits out Bourbon contest.
 8. Junior forward John Benedict suffers painful muscle spasm against Bourbon, but fortunately is able to avoid missing a game.
 9. Dillon, just recovered from bronchitis episode, suffers severe foot and ankle sprain, misses 1/4 of Rochester game, all of Walkerton contest.
 10. Two weeks before County Tournament, Benedict tears ligaments in knee against Bremen; he'll be out from 4 to 6 weeks.
- Don't look now, but our fortunes are due to change, sharply!

Mystery Guest Has Variety Of Interests

By Karen Kemple
This week's mystery guest is well known at Culver High. Here are a few clues; see if you can guess who he is. His favorite food is dried beef gravy on toast, and his hobbies are art work — drawing and painting — and reading. Yellow is his favorite color, and his favorite subject is English. He enjoys the music of Harry Belafonte, and Charles Laughton is his favorite actor. Sports he enjoys are canoeing and hiking. When asked his pet peeve he replied, "Most TV shows." Now do you know who he is? If not, here is one last clue: He was born in Manchester, Vermont. Give up? This week's guest is Mr. William Graham.

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER

The Culver Citizen is the only newspaper in Marshall County — or in the whole world for that matter — that really gives a whoop about Culver, Indiana!

By Linda Kose and Shari Yocom
"Live news at 55..."

Dateline Bremen: Flash! "Shifty Benbrook's mob" has done it again! They burst in on the Lions at their den on Sorry Street as they were preparing to steal the tourney trophy and slaughtered them, leaving their hopes smashed to bits. It's going to take more than local forces to stop this gang!

The only casualty was their tip-off man, John Benedict. Authorities were informed late last night that notorious Dan Cupid shot Benedict in the heart with a .22 caliber arrow. Police took Cupid into custody and questioning revealed that he was hired to do the job by Susan Ruhnaw, a singer at Boyd's Day Club. She is now being held for questioning as to where, when and how she obtained the ring found in her possession.

Signal Seven: Be on the alert for a brunette two-tone Senior, 1943 model; she is wanted for writing under an assumed name, that of "Shakespahr." If you see this Senior, notify the nearest English teacher at once. Do not attempt to apprehend. I repeat: DO NOT attempt to apprehend.

Dateline CHS Chemistry: the chemistry has issued a complaint against Hydrochloric Acid, claiming an attempt to take their experiment was made.

Snyder's Drive-In says they were mobbed after the game with Bremen. A group of teenagers from surrounding communities invaded their establishment and ate all their pizza, root beer, and everything else in sight.

CHS students are issuing a complaint against their instructors: they claim their brains are being over-crowded and over-worked due to exams.

Judy Kimmel, Pat Kline, Nick Knoerzer, and Larry Miller, all of Culver, were fined one day last week for speeding through the business district of town in an attempt to run back to school before the bell rang.

Bulletin: This is an important news bulletin. Found: one pair of Boy's Senior cords. Guess where? Nope, in the girls' restroom. Checking up on the matter, we found that they belonged to none other than John Hook. What a funny place to put your pants, John.

Congratulations to another steady couple, Larry Dawson and Margo Overmyer.

We're sorry to see another member of the starting five incapacitated: "Crip" has a rough time with those crutches. But we don't think he minds it too much:

Home Ec Boys Guests Of Home Ec Girls At Dinner

The boys' home economics class was the guests of the girls of home ec II Thursday afternoon after school in the home ec room at a formal dinner. Mrs. Nancy Fites, home ec instructor, supervised both groups. Mr. Robinson was also a guest.

The boys appeared at the dinner nattily attired for the occasion and were escorted to their places at the attractively laid-out table by members of the hostess class.

Members of the girls' class divided duties among serving, clearing, preparing, shopping, planning, cooking, and washing. They were required to serve the meal with a definite budget, but the sound planning resulted in a final figure below the set maximum.

The menu consisted of lime juice cocktail, assorted hors d'oeuvres, tossed salad with Thousand Island dressing, French bread, fried chicken, candied sweet potatoes, buttered beets, fruit cup with Swiss cheese, baked Alaska, and demi-tasse coffee.

After the conclusion of the delicious dinner, Mike Cihak acted as spokesman for the guests and thanked the girls for their courtesies, indicating that the boys would reciprocate during the next semester.

JOHNNY HORTON TOPS BEST SINGER REVIEW

By Jane Thomas
Even though Johnny Horton is deceased, he still rates in the top 10 singers around CHS with his song "North to Alaska." Here is Culver's rating of the 10 best singers.

Johnny Mathis, Frankie Avalon, Elvis Presley, Ricky Nelson, Brenda Lee, Connie Francis, Johnny Horton, Fabian, Dottie Stevens, and Kathy Young.

The transient display advertising rate of The Citizen is only 70 cents per column inch.

It must be pretty nice to have your own private bookbearer, and such a good looking one at that!

"Smile — that's it! Hold it — okay, that's all." And another picture is on its way to the year-book.

We congratulate the Sophomores on their fine movie. More power to 'em!

"I want one of you! Here, oh, mine are horrible. Oh, how neat! Boy, you sure have a good Senior picture."

"Next news in one week; news headlines from now until then. SCALP THOSE DRAGONS! "

Grade Rooms Report Progress

By Merrie Kay Stoneburner
Miss Cripe's first grade students have been collecting pictures of President-elect Kennedy for their bulletin board. Craig Walker brought some of the first pictures in. During share time her classes looked at cotton, white sand, and postcards which Miss Page brought from New Mexico.

In Mrs. Keyser's first grade Steven Myers had a birthday Jan. 11. In science they have started a small rock collection. Also, they are collecting pictures of our newly elected President, Mr. Kennedy.

Both of the second grades have made a dish garden using coal and common house articles. In Mrs. Allen's room, Frances Wilson had a birthday Jan. 10. Birthdays in Miss Page's room include Larry Peters, Morris DeMarco, and Jane Shock.

Mrs. Carter's third grade reports that Eric Hughes, Cynthia Carter, Denise Hall, David Hoessel, Fred May, Mike Sheppard, Margaret Ruhnaw, Jan Price, and Perry White have not missed a single word all year. Richard Brown and Perry White had birthdays Jan. 6 and 5 respectively. David Campbell was in the hospital for an appendix operation, but is reported as doing fine.

Three people got a 100 on a Social Studies test which took place Jan. 5 in Mr. Carr's room.

Mr. Weaver's fifth grade has been studying the North Central states in social studies. In science they have been doing some experiments with salt water and one on oxygen pressure. In language they are learning how to improve their outlines and in arithmetic they are reviewing division.

Students List 1961 Resolutions

By Kathy Clyne and Sam Medbourn

Here are some of the New Year's resolutions students have made for 1961.

Sharon Lindvall — To try to keep my chin up.

Carol Overmyer — A staggering attempt was made, but . . .

Frank Kaiser — Settle down for a while?

Bob Kerrigan — Break 'em (Resolutions).

Sharon Spahr — To make a success in college.

Bobbie Lou Easterday — To get my book-reports done before the deadline.

Susie Muehlhausen — I'm going to watch the gas tank from now on. I've found out that it's a lot easier than pushing the car.

Anne Osborn — Try to keep all of last year's resolutions.

Barb Moore — I resolve not to make any resolutions, because I always break them anyway. What's the use?

Jean McCoige — Try to find time to do my homework, in between writing letters.

John Hook — Graduate!

Anne Behmer — I resolve to keep up on my letter writing. If I ever get caught up that is!

Shari Yocom — To yell louder and longer at ball games and practice harder and longer on yells.

Chuck Reed — I didn't make any. I'm perfect.

Lana Berger — I didn't make any because I always break them on New Year's Day anyway.

Tom Boswell — I resolve not to lose my temper on the basketball court and not to throw basketballs at referees.

Chris Hand — To study my history before the test, not after.

Carol Heiser — To be good.

Mimi Fisher — To keep smiling.

Library Becomes Student Mecca

By Anne and Linda Behmer

The library is doing a booming business. Approximately 100 pupils use the library daily, not counting those who just come in to check-out books. The average number of books checked out daily is 87. The largest number of books ever checked out in one day is 169. This was on Jan. 3 (some students must have really missed books during vacation).

The library seats 50 pupils, but can easily be made larger if necessary. Since the budget of the library has been increased, we shall soon be able to have a larger variety of reading material. Now, there are 40 periodicals, one daily newspaper, and 3500 books, not including reference material.

The last few years have been spent increasing grade school material. Mr. Stettbacher feels that the grade children must become interested in books at an early age in order to enjoy reading when they are older.

We now hope to receive books to help prepare the college-bound students fully.

We would like to thank the teachers for their real efforts to make wider use of the library through research assignments.

Students Express Their Appreciation

The following themes were written in Mr. Graham's class and are so unusual we thought our readers would be interested.

"As we must account for every idle word,

So we must for every idle silence," Said wise old Benjamin Franklin.

By Charles Reed

An American youth is a dreamer of dreams, owns a car, has a higher standard of living than that of any other boy in the world. He is highly educated compared to many other countries. He is healthy, clean-cut, honest, rough and tough, but also kind and fair. I read a poem once that went like this: "We are the greatest people. The greatest nation. Nobody like us ever was . . ." That is how the American youth feels about himself.

Ever since the start of this country our people have invented new and better things to make life better and easier. And so, as our standard of living rises, as our scientists set new goals in achievement, and as these goals fall, so does the standard of respect and humility fall in America. Our people forget many times to thank another for the service done, and soon we take that service for granted.

In comparing an American youth and a boy of almost any other country you will find that an American youth takes an education for granted and usually does not do his best, in fact he may think of school as a winter playground. A boy from another country is just the opposite. In his own country he is more likely to see people with no education and clearly see the disadvantage of the situation. He will try to improve himself by striving for an education, he will do his best. He is always polite to the teachers and he respects them most highly.

Teachers are underpaid and, because they can find better jobs elsewhere that pay more and are much more pleasant, teachers are few in number. Teachers in American schools are not there because they like the pay, nor the job, nor the people with whom they associate — they are there to give youth an education. How can a nation progress without knowledge and education? How can we improve ourselves without teachers to show us the way? How can we improve others without having knowledge ourselves? Teachers are the backbone of civilization. . . . Teachers are the gears of the national machine and yet, we do not pay them enough nor do we give them any cooperation or respect. Teachers are like fine machinery turning raw materials into beautiful works of art, each piece unique and worth millions of dollars. But, machines break or wear out without proper handling. Part of the proper handling means a good lubricant, and part of a good lubricant could mean a simple smile and a "Thank you" spoken sincerely at the end of a year . . .

I know I have forgotten as well as many others, and so now, I wish to thank all the teachers of America, not only for myself, but, for all the students that they teach. I know I will spend many years of my life in a classroom and that teachers help bring new dimensions to a child's mind not only in the form of math and other school courses but in morals and convictions. Teachers also help a child to think, and think independently. Teachers are truly the backbone of civilization. A little thanks could make all the difference in the world to a teacher. Wise old Ben Franklin also said "A little neglect may breed mischief; for want of a nail the shoe was lost; for want of a shoe a horse was lost; for want of a horse a rider was lost; for want of a rider a battle was lost." Pertaining to this theme it could read, "for want of a teacher, the nation was lost . . ." And so thanks again to all teachers.

IN APPRECIATION

By Shirley Crow

"As we must account for every idle word, so we must for every idle silence," said wise old Ben Franklin.

You and I are guilty of these idle silences when we neglect to state our appreciation. To make up for my idle silence, I would like to express why his job is important and how much I appreciate the one who takes me to and from school each week-day morning and afternoon.

Long ago, in this country, children had to walk, often a mile or more, to catch a bus or get to a school house. We can't imagine walking a distance to school because, today, bus drivers stop at every country home to pick up school children. Therefore, partly because of bus-drivers, education has been wide-spread throughout our country.

The bus-driver is certainly a patient individual. He listens to all the loud noise and chattering which could be quite annoying when he is driving. None of us riding on the bus realize how loud we sometimes are, nor do we attempt to quiet our voices. Yet, he remains silent.

How many times has he been late in comparison to the times I have been late? I do not need to mention either one because he is never late without an important reason. I am late numerous times and do not even have a good excuse.

Whether the roads are clear, icy, or covered with snow, the bus-driver takes us to our destination, the school. Our parents and teachers depend upon him to drive us there safely. He has a responsibility for his passengers.

By recalling some of the things he does, I realize how important he is to the children. Without his daily services, we would not be able to obtain the education which everyone needs. I am grateful that there is such a person who is willing to share in making our education better and more wide-spread throughout our country.

A DESERVED WORD OF GRATITUDE

By Linda Koss

"As we must account for every idle word, so we must for every idle silence," said wise old Benjamin Franklin.

There are many things, little things so to speak, to which we never give a thought nor to the people who perform them. But, without them and the contributions they make, our lives would be changed.

The janitors of our high school do a job for which we all should be grateful. They are the "fix-it-all" men. In the course of a day they must do a number of different things around school, from starting the furnace in the morning to sweeping the floors and locking the doors at night. They always do their job so quietly and quickly that sometimes you never really know they are around. But what if, for one day, they did not start the furnace, sweep the floor, empty the wastepaper baskets or do any of their other daily jobs? Maybe you would not take notice of it at first, but over a period of time we would appreciate their job a little more. They never utter a complaint, and somehow they always seem cheerful, even on the days when things are not going as smoothly as usual.

The work they do is not merely for the nine months in which school is in session, but it is year-round. For it is in the three months of summer when they make all the major changes in the school. We owe our janitors for the painting of almost all the classrooms, and the building of our two new classrooms. Their pay is not anything special; they will certainly never become rich, but I think they do enjoy their work.

I feel that if one day, when a janitor does something for us, or we see that they have worked hard to make our school better, if we would just give them a "Thank you," I'm sure it will make the job they do worthwhile.

LUCKY BOY GETS FREE TRIP TO WASHINGTON FOR INAUGURATION

A free trip to the Presidential inauguration in Washington started Monday for 16-year-old Douglas Kolb of Chicago, who wrote a winning slogan on the importance of voting in primary elections last spring.

The Fenger High School junior won first place in a contest for children of employees of the present Standard Oil Division of the American Oil Company in 15 Mid-west states. It was conducted by the company employee magazine.

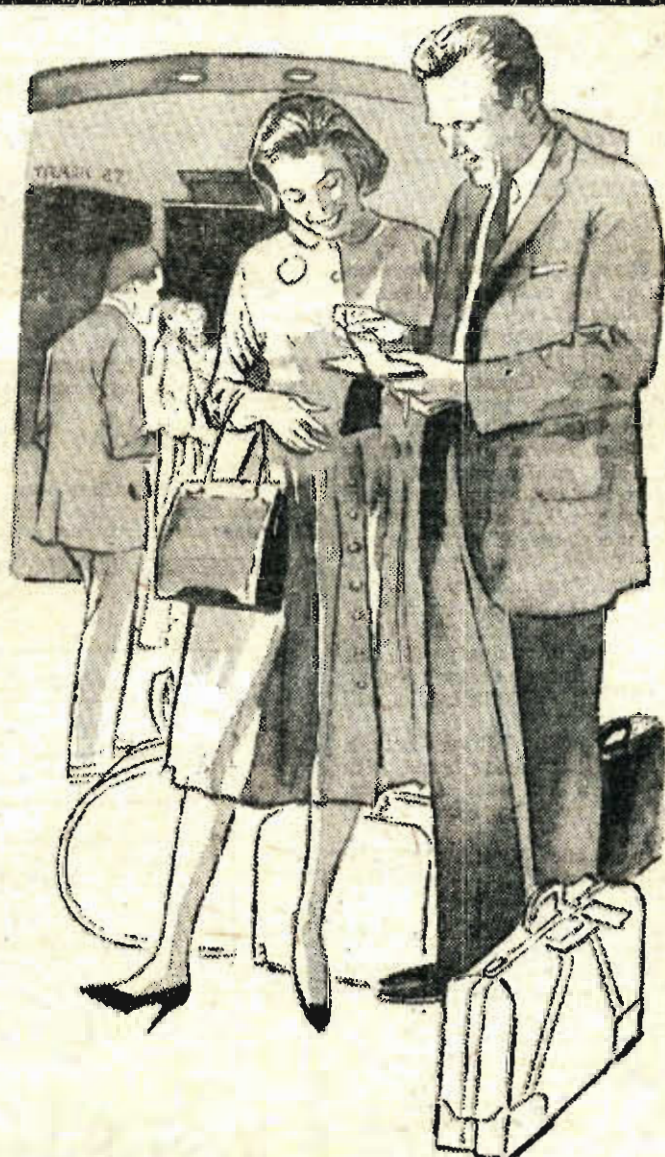

In Washington Douglas will see the inaugural parade and ceremony, attend the inaugural ball, and tour the city. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Kolb, are making the trip with him. Mr. Kolb is a general foreman at the Whiting, Ind., refinery.

Douglas' winning slogan in the contest was: "To be the victor election night, your man must win the primary fight."

Ten other children of employees and annuitants won U. S. savings bonds in the contest. Although the judging was based on the slogans submitted, the entrants were also required to write a statement about why they considered it important to vote in primary elections.

Doesn't Remember Voting
For Frank Sinatra and
All Those Harvard Men

Editor, CITIZEN:

I'm already sorry that I voted for Kennedy!

The report about family pal Frank Sinatra spending $65,000 on his wardrobe for the inaugural parties this week in Washington, D. C. is nauseating to say the least. Who voted that drip a sub-lease on the White House?

And, I don't remember seeing the names of all those Harvard men on the ballot that was handed me in the I.O.O.F. polling place on Nov. 8.

Here's A Full Explanation Of
The Rest Room Situation
At The Public Library

Editor, CITIZEN:

In the issues of The Citizen dated Dec. 28, 1960 and Jan. 4, 1961, there appeared anonymous letters on the subject of the rest rooms located on the ground floor of the Culver Public Library.

As private citizens our first thoughts were to ignore any letters signed only by initials.

However, on second thought, as responsible public officials, we felt that the writers are entitled to an explanation of the facts.

The members of the present Library Board, Jesse Sims, president; Mrs. Fredona Davis, secretary; Peter D. Trone, treasurer; Mrs. Joanne Price, and Mrs. Ruth C. Cleveland, have dealt with this problem at nearly every meeting of the board, as the minutes will indicate.

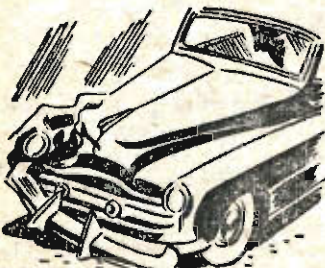

In addition, the Library Boards of the past have been faced with this problem for over 40 years, as the earlier minutes will also show.

In 1919, the Town Board was asked to provide for supervision of the rest rooms during the early evening, so that they might be kept open.

In 1949, a letter was sent to the Town Board asking that the Town Marshal make regular checks of the rooms to prevent damage, and to protect those who use the facilities.

Now, our Board realizes that open. Any woman may use it by asking the Librarian. Since the men's room is not readily accessible from the reading room, it has been necessary to keep it locked.

All meetings of the Library Board are open to the public. Our next regular meeting will be on Tuesday, Jan. 24, at 7:30 p.m. in the reading room. If you cannot appear and have suggestions to offer on the rest rooms or any other matter, please mail or bring a signed letter to the Library. Thank you.

Mrs. Sam Shearer Wins TV Dream Home In Corona

Mrs. James Shearer of 614 College Ave., Culver, who with her husband is visiting in Corona, Calif., with their son, Sam Shearer, and family, sent The Citizen the following excerpt, dated Jan. 12, from the Corona daily paper:

"Mrs. Sam Shearer, of 1002 Eighth St., received a congratulatory letter and telephone call this morning advising her that she was the winner of the grand prize, a four bedroom home, on the KCOP television program Place the Face.

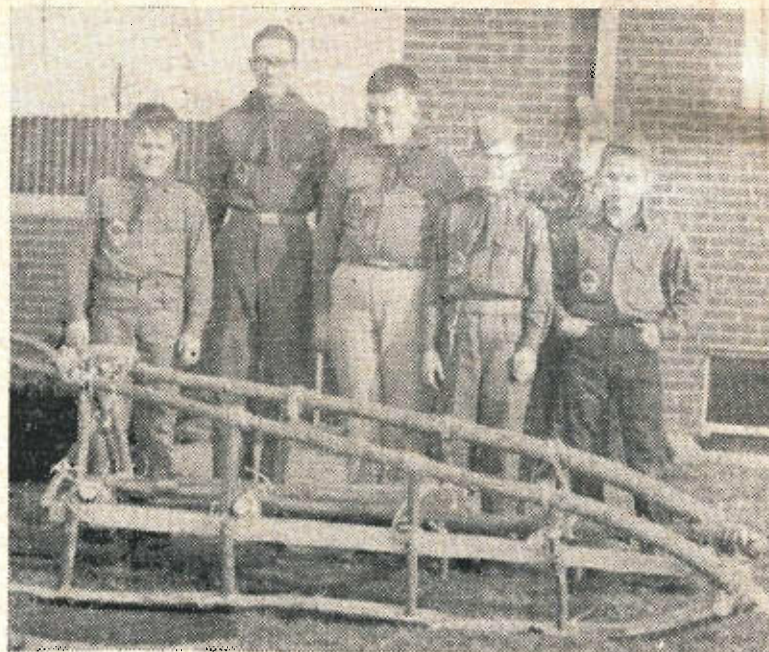

"The contest, which opened in September, was titled 'Win Your Dream Home,' but included a number of lesser prizes. The drawing for the top award, a Hawaiian style home, was held Jan. 1. Mrs. Shearer's notification came this morning.

"She registered for the contest at H and H Furniture here. During the course of the contest, Store Owner Herbert Hendricks said he sent in more than 1500 contest blanks. The house is to be built on a lot furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Shearer. She said she does not normally enter contests and this is the first one she has ever won. The home is to be built by Guaranteed Homes.

"Mrs. Shearer and Hendricks will be asked to appear on the television program. Mrs. Shearer said this morning the notice came as such a surprise that she and her husband, who works at Disneyland, have not had a chance to make any plans about where they will have the home built."

Local Boy Scout Patrol Wins Award

On Sunday, Jan. 8, the Bat Patrol went to Plymouth Memorial Park to participate in the annual Klondike Derby, sponsored by the Menominee District of the Boy Scouts of America, and came home with a second place award.

The members of the patrol, standing behind their trusty sled that gave the boys one of the fastest times of the day, are, from left to right: Larry Washburn, Greg Yapp, Greg Dawson, Steve Guise, Ass't. Patrol Leader, Dean Smith, Patrol Leader, and Philip White. The sled is made entirely of wood and rope — the rules of the contest. Other events which also contributed to the red ribbon consisted of tying knots, taking compass readings, making stretchers, cooking flapjacks and flipping them, de-coding a message in Morse Code, and first aid. Several patrols from the district took part in the derby.

The Bat Patrol of local Boy Scout Troop 290, of which Bryce Bigley is Scoutmaster and Carl F. Foust, assistant, is to be congratulated on their scouting achievement.

"What is Truth?" is a vital question to be considered at Christian Science services Sunday. Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Truth" will include this reassuring statement: "I will cry unto God most high; unto God that performeth all things for me. He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth" (Psalms 57:2,3).
The importance of prayer in understanding Truth is emphasized in this citation to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (11:27-31): "Prayer cannot change the unalterable Truth, nor can prayer alone give us an understanding of Truth; but prayer, coupled with a fervent habitual desire to know and do the will of God, will bring us into all Truth."

Pure Milk Assn. Annual Meeting Held At Winamac

Jay Reinhold, Rt. 1, Monterey, was re-elected president of District 18, Pure Milk Association, at the district's annual meeting at Winamac on Jan. 12.

Over 150 dairy farmers and their wives attended the meeting, one of 18 district meetings which PMA, representing the largest number of fluid milk producers of any cooperative in the Middle West, is holding this month and next.

Robert Plantz, Rt. 4, Rochester, was elected district vice-president.
Harold Smith, Rt. 1, Akron, was re-elected secretary-treasurer. J.
R. Miller, Rt. 1, Akron, was re-elected re-districting committee-man. Miller's alternate, by re-election, will be Harold Smith.
Robert Masteller, Kewanna, was elected resolutions committee-man.
Masteller's alternate, by re-election, will be Eli Anlicker, Rt. 2, Francesville. Robert Arlt, Rt. 2,
North Judson, was re-elected inter-cooperative relations committee-man.

District Director Whitney E.
Kline, Rt. 1, Culver, was re-elected last year to a two-year term.

Highest Spread

Avery A. Vose, President of Pure Milk Association and nationally known dairy farmer from near Antioch, Ill., stated that, through PMA leadership and the bargaining power provided by PMA's system of dairy plants, 1960 provided the highest spread between the Class I and manufacturing milk prices in the history of the Chicago Order 41 market.

This spread is about $1.17 and when the 15-cent bulk tank premium of the Association is added the spread becomes $1.32. (The condensery price averaged $3.15 on 3.5% butterfat-test milk. The Class I price averaged $4.32. With the addition of PMA's 15-cent bulk tank premium to members
it averaged $4.47.)

W. Harold Cope, assistant to the general manager of PMA, reported that the Indianapolis milk marketing order, covering 21 Indiana counties, would probably become fully effective around March 1, and that producer prices would be comparable to those paid under South Bend Order 67.
Dean Plant At Rochester

He also stated that the available information indicates that the Dean plant at Rochester would become regulated under the Indianapolis order.

Vose called attention to certain difficulties that have arisen on the Chicago Order 41 market from the more attractive prices. The higher price paid on fluid milk has attracted milk from new plants outside the Order 41 area that are paying only the manufacturing price and has brought about greater production by producers on the market, he pointed out.

"The net result is that production during the 1960 base-making period, which applies to the 1961 base-paying period, is 900,000 pounds per day greater than a year earlier, and this means that the Class I premium will be spread over more milk and more producers," he declared.

He emphasized, however, that the base price of 1961 looks to be about the same as in 1960, due in part to the higher Class IV prices anticipated.

Next Sunday attend the Church of your Faith.

In this way we wish to express our sincere gratitude to the many friends, relatives, and neighbors for their acts of kindness and sympathy shown during the illness and death of our husband, father, and grandfather, Lemuel
A. Crabb.

Culver Indians Beat LaPaz and Win Horseshoe

Larry Davis Hits For 31 Points

By EARL D. MISHLER
It was Friday the 13th here last week, but Culver's Indians did not mind that a bit. The local Tribe handled LaPaz with ease, 73 to 57, to capture the Horseshoe, the travelling Marshall County trophy. The victory, which nudged the Indians' season record up to 6-4, also established Culver as a fairly solid favorite in this week's Marshall County Tourney, despite the absence of big John Benedict.

Led by senior forward, Larry "Herbie" Davis, the Indians raced to a 17 to 8 first quarter lead. With Gary Dillon hitting on four of five shots in the second period to take the pressure off the red-hot Davis, Culver stretched its lead to 37 to 22 at intermission.

The Culver machine kept rolling over the somewhat hapless Vikings in the second half, and after three quarters it was 52 to 33. Midway in the final period, the Indians had built up a 69 to 35 lead, and Coach Tom Benbrook gave Davis a chance to shoot for the school record of 37 points. Had he done it, it would have been fitting, for the record is presently held by his older brother, Eddie, and the LaPaz B-Team coach Jim "Piney" Kowatch. However, Herbie suffered some tough luck on his shots and fell short, ending up with 31 points, a brilliant night's work.

Dillon added 16 points, and Tom Boswell, hitting from very deep backcourt, contributed 14. Tom Whiteman hit 20 for the losing Vikings, who under Coach Dale Cox, have now won four and lost eight.

Culver travels to Plymouth Friday night for an 8 p.m. County Tourney battle with arch-rival Argos. The Indians are unbeaten in games with County opponents, but have not yet played Argos, Tippecanoe, nor West Township.

The B-Team added to the gaiety of the "unlucky" 13th. Playing without the services of forward Jimmy Carter, who was elevated to the Varsity in place of Benedict, the Papooses surprised LaPaz, 43 to 31. Thad Overmyer and Wade Logan of Culver, and Bob Landis of LaPaz all scored 12 points to share scoring honors.

Tyner and West Open County Tourney Thursday

Culver and Argos Meet Friday Night

By EARL D. MISHLER
The 1961 Marshall County Tourney opens Thursday night in Plymouth, with the eight county rivals squaring off in the Centennial Auditorium. Culver's Indians drew arch-rival Argos in a Friday night battle, scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday evening, Tyner faces West Township at 6:45 p.m., followed immediately by the Bremen-Tippecanoe contest. Bourbon meets LaPaz Friday night prior to the Culver-Argos battle.

Let's take a closer look at the participants in this annual thriller.

Tyner (7-4) has compiled the best record of any team in the Tourney thus far, but the Redmen's schedule is considerably tamer than some of the others'. Coach Hal Muncie's crew consists of several long shooters, but no rebounders. Best of the shooters is 5-foot-10 junior Rex Stull, whose 204 points lead Tyner. Senior guards Jim Truax and Rick Skiles, also fine long shooters, have scored 159 and 114 points, respectively.

West's Bulldogs (1-12), needless to say, have the poorest record in the Tourney, but their improvement has been steady since the beginning of the season. In a game played just last Tuesday, West forced Tyner into an overtime, before losing, 78 to 71. Junior forward Jim Mudy has rammed home 243 points this season, and senior guard Kent Sisk's 185 are second best. The Bulldogs are coached by George Fetting. Tyner will remember last week's scare, and win handily.

In game two, Bremen's rugged Lions bring a 4-8 record into action against Tippecanoe. Bremen's schedule is the toughest in the field, but nevertheless, Coach Chuck Blackburn's Lions have not been impressive. Junior Jim Morris leads the defense-minded Bremenites with 141 points. Coach John Ecker's Tippecanoe Police Dogs (4-4) have improved steadily this year, but must be rated an underdog Thursday night. Juniors Mick Morlan and Bill Robinson have 126 and 120 points, respectively, this season. Bremen will reach the semi-finals with a decisive victory.

Friday's opener pits Bourbon against LaPaz, and this one is a predictor's dilemma. Coach Dick Campbell's Comets (3-9) have played several close contests this season, and have not been getting the breaks. Junior forwards Chet Hall and Paul Hurford are the top threats for Bourbon with 143 and 113 points, respectively. LaPaz (4-9), who play most of their home games in the Plymouth gymnasium, have good height, but sloppy ball-handling and passing have hurt Coach Dale Cox' Vikings. Seniors Tom Whiteman, Jon Davenport, and Ken Schafer lead the scoring with 162, 145, and 140 points, respectively. In what should be the best first round game, LaPaz will nip Bourbon.

Culver (6-4) presents a tall, fast, good-shooting, well-balanced starting line-up, but will miss 6-foot-2 forward John Benedict, who was injured two weeks ago. Coach Tom Benbrook admits his bench is quite weak, but his senior stars, Gary Dillon, Larry Davis, and Lance Overmyer, are counted on to build up a big enough lead before the reserves are needed. They have compiled 133, 132, and 129 points respectively, while junior guard Tom Boswell has 101. Coach Doug Fites' Argos Dragons (4-9) will be trying for the upset of the year against the rival Indians. Junior Terry Thompson has scored 183 points to lead the Dragons' attack. The great rivalry will give Argos added incentive, but Culver will emerge victorious.

In our crystal ball (our answer to Doc Fod's mystic computer) we see Bremen and Culver winning rugged semi-final games, with Culver's superior offense overcoming Bremen's physical ruggedness in a reversal of last year's finale.

Saturday's sessions begin at 1 and 8 p.m. Let's all try to attend the Tourney and support our courageous Indians, who, after the first half of this season, are about due to get a few breaks.

Academy Sports

The Culver Military Academy basketball team had a 4-3 record going into its final weekend before semester examinations.

After defeating Tippecanoe High School here Friday night, 61-49, the Eagles dropped an 81-68 decision at Pike High School Saturday. The game at Pike was much closer than the final score indicated as Culver gave up four quick baskets near the end of the game. Dan Vance and Paul Schuldt led the scoring against Pike with 25 and 23 points, respectively, while Schuldt scored against Tippecanoe.

The basketball team meets Hobart River Forest High School here on Friday night and then plays at Delafield, Wis., Saturday against St. John's Military Academy.

In wrestling, Coach Colin Stetson's squad produced a 3-4 record after three matches last week. After losing close decisions to South Bend Washington, 24-28, and Peru High School, 22-24, the Eagle grapplers defeated Pike on Saturday, 31-21.

The swimming team continued undefeated, whipping LaPorte, 61-34, and South Bend Washington, 63-32, to push their winning streak to four in a row.

Tourney Tickets Available At C.H.S. Principal's Office

Culver fans will be seated in the northwest bleachers at their game with Argos at 8 p.m. Friday in the Plymouth gym. LaPaz will play Bourbon in the evening's opener. The tourney will open the previous night and will be concluded on Saturday afternoon and night.

There are plenty of season tickets available and may be secured at the High School principal's office at $2.25 per copy. Session tickets will be purchased at the door, which will necessitate standing in line for each session.
