First Flying Lesson At Wabash In 1921 Led To A Thrilling Career

(Second of Three Installments)

SOONER OR LATER the siren sky was a cinch to seduce adventurous Big Bill Fitzsimmons, a real-life leprechaun with soaring spirits.

In early manhood, Fitz was too busy mastering mechanics, test-driving pioneer autos, and risking his neck on streaking, prop-pulled ice sleds — just for fun.

But as he turned 30, Big Bill's love of speed, thrills, and new kicks lifted him aloft into a zestful new career.

FITZ GOT HIS first flying lesson at Wabash, Indiana, in 1921 in a wobbly old wartime Jennie. Because planes were then rare and costly and his purse was slim, it took him three years to solo and win a pilot's license — No. 8578.

In those hectic, hairy days the blue yonder was truly wild, but it swiftly captured Fitz's gay heart. Thus began a 'til-death-do-us-part marriage to the sky. At 70, Bill still is licensed and occasionally junks aloft in rented craft.

IN THE MID-'20S, virtually all flying was spiced with thrills and danger. Planes were rickety and uncertain, airports mostly bumpy pastures. Cross-country flights were made with road maps, prayer — and no weather reports.

That still didn't satisfy fun-loving Fitz's craving for excitement and new kicks. He soon began barnstorming out of an Auburn home base, racing, and stunting at early-day air shows and generally having an aerial ball.

A SUPERB PILOT with a watchful (if somewhat overworked) guardian angel, he flew more than 2,000 hair-raising hours with nary a crackup.

In 1932, Bill's old friend, Irvin Rieke, an Auburn industrialist and kindred soul, decided that his firm could use a plane to transport sales and service personnel.

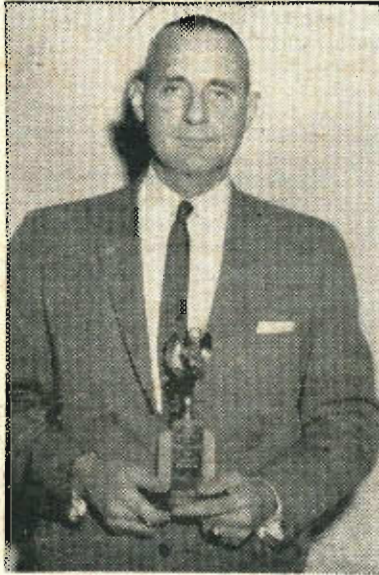

So Fitz became the Rieke Corporation's chief pilot. One of his first chores was teaching Rieke to fly.

A few months later, the two eagerly formed the Rieke Aerial Advertising Service, a slightly fantastic venture that should have incinerated Big Bill two miles up — but miraculously didn't.

"ART SMITH, a great pilot later killed flying the mail, had devised a new sky-writing method," Fitz recalled. "Instead of oil, he used liquified phosphorus to make smoke. We decided to try Smith's system."

Receives Trophy At Seed Producers' Banquet

RALPH A. OSBORN JR.

Ralph A. Osborn Jr., Osborn Seed and Equipment Co., Culver, was awarded a sweepstakes inspector-drawn seed oat trophy at the recent Indiana Certified Seed Producers' Banquet at Purdue University.

Mr. Osborn's sample of certified Goodfield oats had won sweepstakes over all inspector-drawn samples in the State Show held during Farm Science Week.

Samples in this show could not be hand-picked but were drawn by a Seed Certification inspector from bags of seed being offered for sale by Osborn's at Burr Oak. The seed needed to meet certification standards and was judged as "seed ready for sale."

Elouise Tanner Injured In Three Car Pile-Up

Elouise Tanner, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Tanner, West 16th C Road, Culver, suffered a slight concussion in a three-car pile-up on State Road 10 just east of the Academy about noon Saturday.

Miss Tanner was a passenger in a car driven by Lee Ditmire, 20, of Culver. The Ditmire auto ran into the rear of a stalled car during Saturday's blinding snowstorm. Donna Smith, 16, also a passenger, received minor bruises and slight facial cuts from her eyeglasses breaking.

Ditmire, who was not injured in the initial impact, got out of his car to stop oncoming traffic when a car following, driven by John Benedict, hit Ditmire, spraining his wrist and bruising his legs, and damaging the rear of the Ditmire auto.

Miss Tanner was treated in the office of Dr. Frank Ikirt and released to her home. She is recovering satisfactorily and will be able to return to school in a few days.

CITIZEN RECEIVES FIRST ROBIN REPORT

Mrs. Joe Morrison, School Street, reports to The Citizen that she saw a robin in the yard of Mrs. Rose Busart on Wednesday morning, Feb. 22. Has any other Culverite spotted a harbinger of Spring?

FIRE DAMAGES HOME OF THE DON SMITHS

Fire from an overheated chimney at the Don Smith home located on 16th C Road near Rutland caused an estimated damage between $500 and $1,000 to clothes and furniture.

The Culver Volunteer Fire Department answered the 7:15 Tuesday morning alarm. Fire Chief Dave Burns said the loss is covered by insurance.

Larry Adler Delights Eppley Audience

LARRY ADLER
A Great Entertainer

Larry Adler, America's foremost harmonica virtuoso, delighted a large audience in the 1,600-seat $1.6 million Eppley Auditorium on the Culver Military Academy campus Saturday evening and received a standing ovation at the conclusion of his brilliant performance.

It was the eighth of the current Concert-Theater Series so capably presented by William J. Martin, CMA director of theater.

Many season ticket holders and scores of cadets were of the opinion that Larry Adler, so wonderfully accompanied on the piano by Karl Mosbacher, presented the most enjoyable entertainment of the season.

A Wonderful Program

Mr. Adler's repertoire included beautiful and most difficult compositions to satisfy every taste, ranging from Bach and Debussy to George Gershwin's delightful "Porgy and Bess."

Larry, born in Baltimore in 1914, began his notable musical career at the age of 11. Since then he has appeared in concerts all over the world and has played with the New York Philharmonic and the Chicago Women's Symphony.

One of the hits of the memorable evening was the playing of his own composition, the popular "Genevieve."

Jim Burns Is Mourned By Many Friends

JAMES E. BURNS

One of our town's most colorful citizens — James Edward Burns, age 77 — died on Feb. 14 in Parkview Hospital at Plymouth of pneumonia. He had previously suffered two strokes.

Jim, proud father of Fire Chief David Burns, was an extremely friendly man and his warm and cheerful Scotch brogue is already missed along Main Street. He was born in Scotland Dec. 14, 1883, and came to Canada in 1913 where he spent only a few months before moving on to Chicago.

Mr. Burns became a resident of Culver in 1915 and spent his entire life working as a bricklayer. He was an expert in the art of bricklaying, taking great pride in his work in the erection of many outstanding buildings in Northern Indiana. As a bricklayer Jim had many humorous experiences, scores of which have been related by his relatives and friends since his death.

The Easterday Funeral Home was the scene of his largely attended final rites and burial took place at the Culver Masonic Cemetery. Pallbearers were Donald Stubbs, Verl McFeely, Donavon Overmyer, Oscar Booker, Don Brown, and C. B. McKinney.

The Martin Mahler farm in Union Township, will be the last stop in the tour before lunch. The group will review the cattle and feeding facilities on the Mahler farm after making a stop in the Argos area.

The other stops will be at the C. O. Moriarty farm, west of Argos, at 10 a.m. and the L. O. Moriarty farm on U. S. 31, south of Argos at 11 a.m.

The tour has been planned by the County Extension Office and the Beef Committee. All interested beef feeders are invited to participate.

KOWATCH IN FLORIDA

Jack Kowatch drove Dr. C. W. Crowe's car to Florida last week and will vacation there for a few days.

Severe Winter Weather Deals Crippling Blow

Worst Storm Of The Year

The blinding snowstorm which blew in from the northwest early Saturday on 30-mile-an-hour winds dumped nine inches of wet, heavy snow on the Culver area with even greater amounts in the central portion of the State.

The worst storm of the year swept over the entire State, disrupting telephone and electric lines, blocking streets and highways, closing airfields, and raising havoc with the finals of the high school sectional basketball tournaments.

Culver basketball fans found traveling difficult, especially on the homeward trip, but turned out in good number for the sectional tourney at Plymouth Saturday afternoon. In like manner, tourney time last year brought high winds and heavy snows but was not as widespread or severe as this year's storm. For the first time in 51 years of basketball sectionals, weather conditions forced the postponement of many contests to Monday and many schools were closed Monday.

For a time Saturday evening State Road 17, between Plymouth and Culver, was closed by the drifting snow and stalled cars. All east and west roads were in bad condition from drifting snow which reclosed roads within minutes after being plowed out.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester McKee of Brook arrived Friday evening for a visit with his sister-in-law, Trula McKee, and other relatives. Their intended Saturday morning departure was delayed by the storm to Monday morning.

Moderating temperatures Sunday reduced the snow depth considerably and helped dry wet pavements and clear icy spots.

Many snowmen and other figures were enjoyably fashioned by the children of the excellent-packing snow but did not retain their original form very long in the warm Sunday temperatures. With the return of the robins and Spring just two weeks and four days away, the snow surely can't last.

Richter Says Ice Fishing Poorest In 50 Years

Otto Richter, who has lived along the West Shore of Lake Maxinkuckee for more than 50 winters and summers, is considered an expert in matters of fishing.

He states that the ice fishing season now in its final stages is by far the poorest he and his friends have experienced in more than 50 years. Moreover, Otto says that good fishing during the regular season is on the decline and that he expects no improvement in the years to come.

Mr. Richter was born in Germany on Christmas Day 80 years ago but seems much younger. He and his family moved to Peru when he was a youth and it did not take them long to find out about the wonders of Lake Maxinkuckee. Before his retirement he was chief of the Peru Fire Department for eight years. He likes to recall when Peru was the circus capital of the world.

Irving Bergman Is Quoted By The Wall Street Journal

The Citizen is indebted to John Fraser Roos, senior language instructor at Culver Military Academy, for calling its attention to a front page story in The Christian Science Monitor which concerned Irving Bergman, 1630 East Shore Drive, following the visit of Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg to the Calumet industrial region of Indiana.

Mr. Bergman, Gary merchant, was one of those contacted to weigh the impact of Secretary Goldberg's recent visit.

The following paragraph appeared in The Wall Street Journal's story about current business conditions.

"A Jolly Sort"
At Pearson's Apparel the manager, Irving Bergman, said that his business was always bad at this time of the year (between seasons).

A jolly sort, Mr. Bergman said that, sure, there was unemployment, etc., but he'd gotten used to it. "Besides," he said, "our economy holds up a lot better today than it used to when we were about 90 per cent steel, and were not diversified."

"Now it's about 50 per cent steel and 50 per cent elsewhere. So when the steel plants cut down, we aren't hurt as much."

An Appeal For Blood Donors

By JAMES McALLISTER
We again wish to remind the public that the Bloodmobile will be in Culver on Thursday, March 9, at the Community Building from 12 noon until 6 p.m. and we again appeal for your support. Plans are being made to fill our quota of 125 pints.

Mrs. Helenglen Holifield and Mrs. Allin Westcott, experienced Red Cross workers who have done so much to organize this program, report that the response has been favorable so far. We urge you to call them at Viking 2-2143 or Viking 2-2246 and make an appointment.

Anyone age 21 through 59 can give blood if in good health and passed by the attending physician. Single minors, 18 to 21, can also give if they have written permission from one parent. Donors must weigh at least 100 pounds.

Remember, none of this blood is wasted — if not used within 21 days it is converted into products such as Gamma Globulin, which is used in the care and treatment of measles; Serum Albumin, used to combat shock; Fibrigen, used to aid in hemorrhage; and Frozen Plasma, used to treat hemophilia (inability of the blood to coagulate.)

The blood program began in 1953, and this blood is available at all times within a very few minutes. No service depends as much on the support of the public as this blood program.

In August 1960, the American Association of blood banks and the American Red Cross announced an agreement for the interchange of blood which enables individuals to have blood supplied by their County of residence to hospitals away from home.

The normal cost of blood in this area is $25 per pint. With direct transfusions or individual donors, in large cities the cost runs $10 to $20 higher. There is absolutely no charge for blood from the blood bank. A laboratory charge and a charge for transfusion services are usually made by the hospitals.

We, in this area are fortunate to have this service available to our people and we urge the citizens of Culver and Union Township to give their blood.

Lenten Titles At Culver Library

"The Day Christ Died" is a story of the most dramatic day in the history of the world. The author, Jim Bishop, has painted a helpful word picture of the Jewish people at the time of Christ. The book opens at 6 p.m. with Jesus and 10 of the apostles coming through the pass between the Mount of Olives and the Mount of Offense on their way to Jerusalem and the Last Supper. It closes at 4 p.m. the following day, when Jesus was taken down from the cross.

Cronin's "Keys of the Kingdom" was written some 20-odd years ago but is still considered one of his best books. This is a study of a Scottish Catholic priest, from his boyhood to his days of retirement. He earned his own way in life after the death of his parents and trained for priesthood in Spain. Several years were spent at a mission in China where he made a brave fight to help humanity through famine, flood, and pestilence. Inspirational reading.

"Dr. Ida" by Dorothy Clarke Wilson. Dr. Ida Scudder was one of the great medical missionaries of all times. This biography tells of the Scudder family's 1000 years of missionary service. Through the efforts of Dr. Ida a vast medical center was built at Vellore, India — the largest in Asia. A wonderful story told movingly as Dr. Ida comes to life in these pages.

"The Prophet" is the fifth and last in the series of Biblical novels written by Shalom Asch. Coming at a time when the Dead Sea scrolls are shedding new light on the book of Isaiah, the author furnishes a rich backdrop of thought and feeling for their study. This volume tells of the second Isaiah who supposedly lived during the conquest of Babylon by Cyrus. At the close of the book the first of the Israelites are about to set out for their homeland.

Child Evangelism Week Observed

National Child Evangelism Week will be observed in this area Feb. 26 through March 5. Mrs. Roy Murdock of Lakeville, Director of Child Evangelism Fellowship for Marshall County, announced that churches will be provided free church bulletins for one Sunday of the special week. There will also be a presentation of the Child Evangelism Fellowship work in various churches in the county. The theme will be "... greatest in the Kingdom," from Matthew 18:4.

During 1960, C. E. F. of Marshall County enrolled 460 children in Good News Clubs, 5-day Clubs, Open-air Classes, and Daily Vacation Bible Schools.

The Culver area Good News Club (for any interested children ages 4 through 14) meets every Wednesday after school in the home of Mrs. Ray Kline, 406 W. Washington. The teachers are Mrs. William Henry and Mrs. Hershel Odle, both of Route 1, Culver.

MORE MONEY is now circulating in the form of $20 bills than in any other denomination.

The problems of life are usually those matters which, after all, do not amount to very much.

PER CAPITA CONSUMPTION in America is some 2.8 times that of prospering Western Europe.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS will cost Americans about $14,000 in the next 60 seconds.

"Hoosier At Large"

At auction, Rieke and Fitz bought (for $250) an old Douglas with a Liberty 12 engine which federal agents had taken from a rum-flying bootlegger. Into it went 800 pounds of tanks, pipes, valves, and gizmos.

PHOSPHORUS, LEST you've forgotten your high school chemistry, must be kept in water. Exposed to air, it promptly goes snap-crackle-pop and ignites.

Spewn liquified from a plane, phosphorus swiftly dried, burned and made a heavy, lasting smoke — ideal for sky-writing. At night, it produced a spectacular, fiery streak in the sky.

"During one early night test, I swooped over a rural revival meeting and let go," Fitz chuckled. The church promptly emptied and everybody rushed home to await the end of the world!"

IN 1933, UNCEE SAM contracted to have "NRA" sky-written over Chicago's World Fair. Bill flew up at night, uncorked a fiery test streak, landed and hangared his ship. Next morning his plane was alone in a hangar surrounded by five fighters.

"What's with that plane?" asked a puzzled fireman. "Every so often it pops, crackles, and spits out little fires."

"BEATS ME!" said Bill blandly. "Must be an electrical short. I'll fix it."

He took off fast, sky-wrote NRA over the Fair and hurried home. Shortly later, Rieke had to fold the aerial advertising firm.

"We discovered — too late! — that some phosphorus reached the ground before drying," said Fitz wryly. "In a dry summer, angry farmers soon beat a path to our door with claims for burned wheat fields. That broke us."

IN ENSUING years, Fitz pushed his flying log to nearly 10,000 hours piloting single and twin-engine planes for Rieke. His only crackup occurred when he tried to land on a big farm field at night.

"In bright moonlight, the field looked O. K.," he said. "But it was freshly-plowed and goosed by rain. Setting down, I settled, then flipped. But the plane wasn't badly damaged and neither was I."

BIG BILL retired five years ago. Mostly he now loafs, tinkers, or travels to bowling tournaments to cheer for his attractive wife, Jeanne, a crack kegler.

But occasionally he pursues a hobby that has long been both the delight and despair of Fitz's friends.

THE HOBBY? Concocting devilishly ingenious practical jokes! But that's another story... for next week's Citizen.

Local Delegate Attends State Food Conference

By Margo Overmyer
Patricia Wesson, along with a select group of 100 Hoosier youths representing rural and urban communities, attended the first Indiana Youthpower Conference at the Hotel Severin, Indianapolis, Feb. 16-17.

"Food Comes First" was the theme of the two-day conference in which leaders representing nine prominent youth groups participated.

Patty represented Culver Sunshine Society and participated with other organizations including: Future Homemakers of America, Indiana Rural Youth, the 4-H Club, Hi-Y and Tri-Y, Y-Teens, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and the Future Farmers of America.

Patty was selected on the basis of her leadership and her ability to communicate in an articulate manner. The delegates were chosen so that approximately an equal number of boys and girls participated.

The Youthpower Conference goal was to propose a program by which teen-agers will learn the value and importance of adequate diets, because the teen-agers in the United States are deemed influential in the nation's patterns of living, and from this group will come the leaders and the parents of the 1960s.

The opening day was full for Patty. First of all she registered and then attended the official opening of activities. Then came the luncheon which she said was absolutely delicious. After lunch she attended panel and group discussions of foods, nutrition, and diets. After the first annual conference banquet in the evening, came a dance.

The next day Patty was taken on industrial tours, again spotlighting food. After luncheon, a session was scheduled at which conference results were summarized and a program leading to the selection of the delegates of the national meeting.

Patty told me she had a marvelous time, but has gotten a feeling that everytime she eats ice cream, somebody is staring at her.

Shadow Haunts Future Marine

By Jean Warner
Wednesday — cloudy and colder. No warm weather in sight. Students bored and tired of winter, talking mostly of senior trip. "Ah," says the shadow, "perfect weather for me. No sun to show me up and no one alert enough to see me."

Here's my victim for this week, a six-foot, brown-eyed senior boy. He looks sick! Oh, I guess he is just worrying about his history test. He sits all first period and works on his workbook so he will know the answers on his next test.

This senior boy wasn't too well prepared for the pop quiz given in economics. "No," Mr. Lawson informs him. "Advertisers' three main sales approaches are not soft soap, hard sell, and double talk." Better get up early, Jerry.

"What is done with used tin cans in New York City?" asked Shari Yocom. Because he thought the teacher was stumped, the victim helped him by replying. "They're fed to goats." Chomp, chomp. (That isn't the goats. Just "him" chewing Double Bubble bubble gum.)

During the third period my victim tried hard to practice his smears, I mean glissandos, in the band building, but he had trouble hearing them above the noise of an engine that was being used by the men who were working on the plumbing.

"This must be his lucky day" says the shadow to himself. "One of my victim's ink drawings is finally ready to hand in to Mr. Alexander!"

"Was that the Green Flash?" asks Susie, worriedly. "How did it get in the school?" "No, it's just 'him' running to lunch."

This boy gets along fine with the new teachers, or at least some of them. He even does nice things like washing the blackboard in art class.

On to math. "But who's walking him to class?" asks the shadow, but no one hears him. "It looks like Miss Freeman. Well, we have nice, favor-returning teachers. I'd better not let her see me or she might draw me and then my fun would be ended."

"Quiz today," says Mr. Lawson. (What a quiz-giving man.) "You aren't going to take grades are you?" inquires my victim.

"No," answers the teacher.

"Over hill, over date, we have hit the dusty trail, and those caissons go rolling along." Wonder what he's singing that for? Could he be joining the Marines?

"Get up your horn. You'll suffer more in the Marines," declares bandmaster Boyd. "Learn your chromatic scale before the next band test." I hope "he" takes heed.

I lost my victim as he went out the door, but I imagine he jumped into his '52 Chevy and sped to the drug store. (It seems that whenever food is involved he hurries. Just a shadow's thought, though.)

If you haven't guessed by now I'll tell you that the shadow has been following Jerry Kimmel.

With all this nice weather we've been having, it looks like it's almost time for spring "house cleaning."

Mr. Lawson, what's this about burying a coconut in the sand for three days? Could we have the rest of the recipe please?

Congratulations to the Juniors on their dances. The last one was a big success. Some of the couples were Merrie Kay and Lance Overmyer, Barb and Mike, Larry Davis and Anne Osborn, and Tom and Cheryl Dillon.

Did the home ec boys scorch the shirts they were ironing or was it the odor "leftover" from the home ec IV's?

Cokes! Cokes! That familiar call will not be heard again until next November. The Seniors are getting ready to spend all the money they made selling this year.

It seems Mr. Lawson has turned into somewhat of a gourmet. How were all those cakes?

Some of our girls have started rehearsals for "Wonderful Town" at the Academy. Lots of fun! Huh, girls?

What's this we hear about Larry and Rich? Ask Merrie Kay and Anne Behmer for details.

Mr. Robinson, do you always eat cake at 9:00 in the morning? Sharon Lindvall has been spending quite a bit of time at C.M.A. recently. How is Paul, Sharon?

Ancestors Day is Feb. 24 and I'm sure we're all looking forward to seeing cowpuncher Graham again.

Susie Muehlhausen has been seeing a lot of Fred Hohman recently.

"I made $300.00." "Well, I made $355.00." These are familiar sayings as the Seniors are finishing up there 20 days of watching the stock market. Wouldn't it be nice if all that "money" we made could go towards the senior trip?

Well, I suppose that I'd better leave you. It's almost time for our boys to meet Tyner in the sectional. GO BIG TEAM!

AMERICAN citizens and companies will keep the economy moving by signing some 12 billion checks this year.

Home Ec Girls Dined By Boys

By Carolee Easterday
The boys' home ec class honored the home ec II girls with luau at the home of Mrs. Fites in Argos on Sunday, Feb. 19 at 3:00 p.m. As each girl arrived, she was escorted into the house by one of the boys and presented a colorful lei and a "kleenex gardenia." She was then invited to remove her shoes and have a seat on the floor.

Mrs. Fites wore a mou-mou and the boys were dressed as islanders in colorful shirts and tattered pants. The atmosphere was made festive by Hawaiian music. Mr. and Mrs. Lawson added a great deal of frolic to the afternoon.

Then we ate and ate and — ! We had roast pig, which the boys had roasted in the backyard two-finger poi, which was made from sweet potatoes, anadama bread, pineapple rice, and a fruit bowl of bananas, fresh pineapple wedges, oranges, grapes, and coconuts.

Before leaving we all had to do the hula to the "Hula Hop." (By the way, we understand Carolee Easterday won first prize!)

Mrs. Keyser: Randy Kirk and Susan Wilson celebrated their birthdays at school. We have started reading "On Cherry Street" after completing our reading tests. Four children missed just one question out of 75 on the test. They were: Carol Dehne, Pam Hartz, Bruce Snyder, and Gary Strang. David Dawson brought some pussy willows to school to give the room that spring look. We are working on a seasons booklet. When it is finished it will contain pictures and stories of each season. This is our first experience at writing stories.

Mrs. Barton: We had a valentine party in our room. Mrs. Shei, Mrs. Lindvall, Mrs. Babcock, and Mrs. Ruhnow sent treats for the party. All of us had a wonderful time.

Mrs. Allen: Patty Thomas was eight years old Feb. 19. We have made a circus parade using boxes and spools for cages. We made pictures of animals in their cages.

Miss Page: Along with our valentine party we helped Loni Morley celebrate her eighth birthday. We have also made a circus parade and we have quite a display of clowns and animals. Our leaf buds are beginning to show signs of budding.

Mrs. McLane: We are studying rocks in science class. Ross Fritz, Adella McEndarfer and James Baker have brought in rocks for our collection. In social studies we are studying about famous men. Betty Cihak celebrated her ninth birthday, Feb. 20 with a party.

Mrs. Carter: Yvonne Matteson has moved to Plymouth and will attend Webster School. We made George Washington posters to decorate our room. We also read several stories about him. In social studies we are studying about banks and people who work in them.

Miss Henning: We have been studying about electricity in science class. We have done experiments with dry cells. We also made an electromagnet.

Mrs. Keller: We are learning our 8's in arithmetic. We are also learning to add and subtract thousands. In social studies we are studying about Switzerland. We are working hard to win the spelling match this week.

SUNSHINE GIRLS VISIT HOME FOR AGED

By Karen Kemple

Twenty Sunshine girls and their sponsor, Miss Shanks, went to Argos Sunday, Feb. 19, to visit the aged in the Landis Nursing Home. After singing to them, we visited with each person, and left them treats of cupcakes and ice cream for supper. It was a rewarding experience for each of us.

Mt. Hope

By Mrs. Guy B. Davis

In spite of the drifted condition of the roads, Sunday School was held at the local church with an attendance of 17 and an offering of $102.85.

Representatives from the local church and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cavender and daughters visited the Miller Nursing Home, the Rochester Nursing Home, and the Fulton County Home and held services at each place Sunday afternoon, Feb. 19. These services are under the supervision of the Fulton County Council of Churches.

Mrs. Maggie Cavender is visiting her sister, Mrs. Belle Lurch, in Logansport.

Miss Evelyn Tripp of the General Board of Education of Nashville, Tenn., held a three day course in Christian Education for the local circuit last week. The sessions were held each night at the Santa Anna Church. She was at the local church Thursday afternoon for consultation.

Miss Tripp with the Rev. Clyde Beckner and daughters were dinner guests in the Guy Davis home on Thursday. In the evening Miss Tripp was a supper guest in the Ralph Stotler home.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Kline returned home Wednesday evening after spending a few weeks visiting relatives and friends in California and Texas and attending the annual meeting of the N.R.E.A. in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kline and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Reinhold of near Monterey returned home Thursday after being away two weeks in which they attended the N.R.E.A. convention in Dallas, Texas, and visited their sons who are students in New Wester College in New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Kline, Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Winn and daughter, Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Davis and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Davis were luncheon guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis Sunday evening. The occasion was in honor of their son Kent's seventh birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Davis spent Tuesday in Warsaw where they assisted in cleaning and preparing the office building for the four-county Mental Health Clinic which opened on March 1. The counties participating are Marshall, Kosciusko, Whitley, and Wabash. The clinic is staffed by a part time psychiatrist, a clinical psychologist, a psychiatric social worker, and a receptionist.

March 15 Is New Deadline For 1961 License Plates

Governor Matthew E. Welsh Tuesday instructed Col. John Barton, superintendent of the Indiana State Police, to advise all local law enforcement officers of the Governor's request that they permit drivers of vehicles with 1960 license plates to use the public roads without arrest or penalty, until March 15.

The Governor cited his reasons for requesting the non-enforcement of the deadline for securing 1961 vehicle registrations until March 15 as: Severe weather conditions causing the closing for several days of many license branches, the strict enforcement of the requirement that applicants for vehicle registrations have property tax receipts has caused delay in applicants securing their plates, and unusually heavy unemployment in some areas of the state has placed a severe financial burden on many families, yet use of their cars is important in their seeking other employment.

Kennedy's Choice Of Egbert (Ed) Murrow Horrible

Newscaster Soft On Communists

[A most important editorial from The Indianapolis Star]

The appointment of newscaster Edward R. Murrow to the important post of head of the United States Information Agency, which serves as the nation's overseas public relations arm, raises some disturbing questions.

Not about his ability as a proved performer — there can scarcely be doubt about that — but whether that ability has been used wisely during his news career.

After analyzing the highlights of that career, we believe not just that Murrow is a poor choice for the USA position. Perhaps with the exception of one or two others of the news fraternity, he is probably the worst choice possible.

Highest Paid Newsmen

As the nation's highest paid newsmen, the somber Mr. Murrow is not apt to be awed by his new post. But neither is he apt to adopt or carry out the tough anti-Communist stance his position necessarily demands.

For time after time, Murrow has taken the "soft-on-Communism" approach in his role as newsmen, using the purported objectivity of CBS's cameras to grind out grist for his propaganda mill.

Most Murrow propaganda efforts are generally well known.

One of his more infamous ones was his TV interview with J. Robert Oppenheimer right after the pro-Communist physicist's security clearance was revoked by the Government.

During the show (which the Fund for the Republic paid to have distributed throughout the world) Murrow did all he could to whitewash Oppenheimer.

So blatant was his approach that Dorothy Schiff, extreme leftist publisher of the extreme left New York Post, complained: "Murrow asked Oppenheimer only questions that tended to put him in the best possible light. The impression left with the uninformed viewer was that of a hero and martyr. Murrow did not ask anything which would have raised doubt concerning the character of his protagonist."

Carefully selecting pictures and statements heavily weighted in a left-wing direction, Murrow has similarly editorialized on dozens of other subjects.

He "Loaded" His Questions

His anti-McCarthy telecast was so obviously loaded against the Wisconsin Senator that even anti-McCarthyites, like Commonwealth's John Cogley and Saturday Review's Gilbert Seldes, criticized the way it was edited.

Not once, during an interview with Gen. George C. Marshall, did Murrow see fit to ask the General a single question about China, even though Marshall's efforts to secure a "coalition government" (similar to that which Dag Hammarskjöld is now forcing on Laos and the Congo) greatly aided the Communist takeover of that nation.

When Annie Lee Moss was accused of being a Communist, Murrow developed an entire program seeking to win sympathy for her and hatred for investigating committees.

Speechless Again!

Later, when it was proved conclusively that Annie Moss had indeed been a Communist, Murrow said not a word.

Keeps Bad Company

Murrow has consistently defended people like Alger Hiss, John Stewart Service, Harry Dexter White, John Paton Davies, and Owen Lattimore.

He has seldom missed an opportunity to smear Chiang Kai-shek.

He has time and again attacked those few men in public life who ever took a tough stance against Communism.

Two years ago, after a Murrow telecast accused businessmen of using call girls to land customers (a kind of "hidden persuaders" technique), Murrow — who often criticized Government agencies for refusing to reveal their sources of information — refused to reveal the sources of his information on prostitution to the New York district attorney.

But perhaps the most damning charge that can be leveled against Edward R. Murrow is that he has never yet thought it necessary to devote a telecast to the internal Communist menace, despite the number of Communist spies unearthed in the Government, and despite the irrefutable proof of Communist operations in the United States.

Because he has not done that, and because of his inability to recognize the enemy he is supposed to fight in his new position, we consider him a poor choice for the job.

ILAH REED IMPROVING AT PARKVIEW HOSPITAL

Mrs. Arthur Reed, a patient in Parkview Hospital at Plymouth since suffering a heart attack Feb. 13, is improving steadily. She was confined to an oxygen tent until last Thursday but is now able to feed herself.

Mrs. Reed is in Room 214 and will be confined there at least two more weeks and would enjoy hearing from her friends.

Langdon Lists New Procedures For Assessments

Thirty-five deputy assessors and nine trustees met last Friday in Plymouth with County Assessor Thomas V. Langdon to outline Spring assessing procedures.

Langdon said household goods will be assessed at room value as last year with the exception of pianos, organs, Hi-Fi, color TV and stereo sets. These units will be assessed separately.

Langdon stated that this year the assessor's office will be able to save $500 in having schedules bound at the assessor's office. He said the new procedure was developed by his office.

A Great Improvement

In the past years the schedules were sent out of the county for binding which caused considerable delay, he added. This procedure will allow late assessment sheets to be added throughout the year and provide better information to the schedules in addition to saving money and making the schedules more readily accessible and convenient to work with.

Assessment on cars will be 70 per cent of the average financial value as per the Red Book; auto dealers will be assessed 40 per cent of cost of new cars less excise tax and 40 per cent of average financial cost of dealers' used cars.

Langdon said businesses will be assessed 40 per cent on inventories and 40 per cent of cost less depreciation on machinery and equipment. They will be allowed to depreciate down 30 per cent on machinery and equipment this year, he added.

The Assessor said each business taxpayer must complete form one and two according to state law. Form one is a schedule listing of all personal property of the business including aircraft, autos, and boats owned by the business and form two is a confidential listing that will be transferred to form number one for taxing officials only.

All males are subject to a poll tax between the ages of 21-50. The tax on male dogs will be $1 and female dogs, $3.

Sample Forms Available

Sample forms are available at the assessor's office and each business will receive the necessary forms in the mail. Langdon stated that persons wanting copies of their assessments will receive them upon request.

Any assessments submitted after the May 15 deadline will be subject to penalty by law.

Taxpayers are urged to turn in all cars and trucks to facilitate the purchase of their 1963 license plates. It is necessary that the assessor obtain the motor number or serial number of each car and truck.

A meeting will be held Friday to select a company to handle the reassessment of Marshall County which is expected to begin about April 1.

Feed Grain Survey To Get Under Way

A survey of all farms in Marshall County which produce feed grains will get under way in the next day or so, according to Carl Price, Chairman, County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The survey is being conducted throughout the "major feed grain producing area" (which includes Marshall County) as an advance step in connection with proposed feed grain programs now under discussion. The proposals would include adjusting the 1961 acreages of corn and other feed grains.

To put such a program into operation for 1961 crops in a manner which would be fair to all growers, accurate data must be obtained immediately for the possible establishment of feed grain base acreages for all farms in the major feed grain producing area.

Mr. Price explained that it is the intention, as far as possible, for some worker from the County Office to interview each farm operator or owner in Marshall County whose farm has produced feed grains either in 1959 or 1960.

Because it will be necessary to obtain complete coverage of all feed-grain farms in the County, farmers are urged to attend one of the scheduled meetings in the county to furnish the information for their farms. Meetings are being scheduled for Monday, March 6 in each township. Producers will be notified by mail as to location and time of meetings.

Morning Worship 10:30 a.m.

A hopeful message of universal freedom will be delivered in Christian Science churches Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man."

Man's rightful heritage of freedom will be brought out in the Scriptural selections which include Paul's advice to the Colossians (3:9-11): "Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision or uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free; but Christ is all, and in all."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read (227:24-26): "Citizens of the world, accept the glorious liberty of the children of God, and be free! This is your divine right."

Special Meetings At E.U.B. Church

Mr. and Mrs. David Heiser are in charge of the congregational singing and special music at services being held each night this week at 7:30 at the Culver Emmanuel Evangelical United Brethren Church. Meetings will be held each evening excepting Saturday.

The Heisers play several musical instruments and sing solo and duet numbers. Mrs. Heiser plays the piano or organ for the congregational singing with Mr. Heiser doing the directing. The public is invited to all services.

Sermons, from night to night, are being brought by Rev. Lee K. McKinley, pastor of the San Pierre E.U.B. Church. Monday night was observed as special night for the J.O.Y. Sunday School class. Wednesday the choir will be the honored guests, on Thursday the Gleaners' Class is attending as a group, and Friday will be observed as Young People's night, with the youth from several of the neighboring churches being invited. A fellowship meeting will be held in the social rooms for the young people, following the worship service.

The Rev. Mr. McKinley will bring the closing messages of the Lenten series next Sunday, March 5th, speaking at morning worship at 10:30, and at the evening hour at 7:30. V. L. Palmer is pastor of the Emmanuel Church.

Does your birthday appear each year in The Citizen's special column? If not, please send us your name and the date or phone Viking 2-3377.

CMA To Host Rifle Championship Matches Saturday

Culver Military Academy will serve as host to the Indiana State Rifle Championships on Saturday, March 4, beginning at 9 a.m.

More than 100 junior marksmen from teams throughout the state are expected to travel here for the event sponsored by the Indiana State Rifle Association. The match will run through most of the day, ending at about 5 p.m.

Culver will be out to defend four titles won last year. The Academy sharpshooters won the four-position team trophy and two cadets added three more individual titles. Stephen A. Lathrop, of Indianapolis, won both the individual four-position championship and the individual prone position title.

Peter D. Joers, Hot Springs, Ark., took first place in the sitting position event. Both cadets will be back to defend their titles on Saturday.

In other events, New Albany High School won the prone position team championship and Denison, of the Pioneer Junior Rifle Club, was individual champion while firing from a standing position.

Bremen Lions Win Sectional Championship

Culver Loses To Rochester

By EARL D. MISHLER

The Bremen Lions picked up their first Plymouth Sectional championship in modern history and their first in 34 years last week, defeating Rochester, 71 to 68 in a thrilling final game.

Culver's Indians reached Saturday's semi-final round by defeating Tyner, 88 to 76, but were stopped by Rochester, 77 to 69, ending their season with a 10-11 mark.

The key game in the tourney came in the very first session. After Tippecanoe had surprised Talma, 43 to 42, in the opener, favored Plymouth faced Bremen. The Pilgrims, winners of this event the past two seasons, played without their high-scoring forward Tom Wolff, and fell to the Lions, 45 to 44. Ken Bennitt's clutch free throw with five seconds remaining gave the eventual champs their upset victory. Dale Borkholder led all scorers with 17 points for Bremen, while 6'6" Bob Braman hit 11 for the losers.

Bourbon Tops Richland Center

That evening tourney fans saw the third straight upset, as Bourbon's Comets toppled Fulton County champion Richland Center in an overtime, 59 to 57. Sophomore Chris Booz' driving lay-up was the only basket in the extra period, and it sent Bourbon into the semi-finals. Tiny Dick Hall led the winning attack with 14 points, while Bill Lewis tallied 19 for the losing Wildcats.

Bremen ended the day's activity with a routine 73 to 56 triumph over Tippey. Jim Morris' 22 markers were Bremen's best and Bennitt added 20. Sharpshooting guard Billy Robinson tallied 23 for the out-manned Police Dogs.

Thursday afternoon Argos cashed in on 23 of their 46 free throw chances to topple West Township, 61 to 53. The game Bulldogs, winners of only one game in the entire season, lost their entire starting five on fouls. Jim Munday canned 21 points for the losers, and Gary O'Dell led Argos with 14.

LaPaz gave heavily-favored Rochester a surprisingly good battle in the next game. In fact, the Vikes led 46-44 after three quarters, but the Zebras' high-powered fast break finally jelled, and Rochester pulled out a 66 to 57 victory. Bill Basham swished 12 field goals for 24 points and the fabulous Ron Zent added 18 for the winners. Big Jon Davenport was a tower of strength for La-

Paz, getting 22 points and numerous rebounds.

Culver-Tyner Battle

The Culver-Tyner battle was supposed to be an offensive battle, and neither team let the fans down. The local Tribe, using their decided height advantage well, streaked to a 25-19 first quarter lead, and stretched it to 48-37, at halftime. Then the Redmen got hot. Seven straight shots swished the cords for the Tyner boys, three each by Rex Stull and Jim Truax. However, Culver quickly regained their poise and held a 60-55 third quarter lead. A 28-point final stanza iced up the victory for the Indians. Seniors Lance Overmyer, Larry Davis, and Gary Dillon hit 24, 21, and 18 points respectively for Culver, while Stull and Truax garnered 22 apiece for the losers.

Tied 17-all at halftime against Argos, Rochester exploded for 48 points in the second half for a 65-34 victory. Zent again had 18 to lead all scorers. Terry Thompson and John Leeper led the feeble Dragon attack with nine points each.

So the stage was set for Saturday's decisive action. Bremen vs. Bourbon and Rochester vs. Culver.

Bremen Defeats Bourbon

The Lions of Bremen raced away from Bourbon for the third time this year, winning 70 to 53. Borkholder hit 28 points, the best one-game total of the tourney to lead the Lions, while Bennitt added 18. Tim Schaetzle, one of only two seniors on the young Bourbon squad, led the Comets with 13 tallies.

Rochester ended our Indians' thrilling but disappointing season with a 77-69 triumph. The Zebras built up a 33-18 halftime margin against the cold-shooting Culverites. Forced to take chances on defense, the Indians allowed Rochester to get many easy layups in the second half, and the Zebras led after three quarters, 57-36. With the fans beginning to leave, Culver's courageous lads put on a thrilling comeback effort. Sparked by the tremendous shooting of Larry Davis the Indians actually shaved the margin to 5 points with close to a minute to play. But the Indians had too much to overcome, and dropped from the tourney. They were losers on the scoreboard, but winners to the Culver fans for their great comeback try against unbelievable odds. Davis and Dillon ended their careers with 21 points each.

Championship Game

The championship game was one of the best! Bremen and Rochester see-sawed back and forth all the way. The Lions grabbed a 21-18 first quarter margin, but their strongest rebounder, Jim Morris picked up three quick fouls, and was forced to set out the second quarter. Meanwhile, the Zebras had grabbed a 35-33 halftime bulge, with Zent bagging 16 points in the first half. Bremen then got hot from the field, pouring 23 third quarter points, eight apiece by Morris and Bennitt. This rally gave the Marshall County champs a 56-50 bulge with eight minutes left in the game.

But once more Rochester stormed back. Sophomore guard Danny Daniels scored eight quick points, leading the Zebras to a 68-all tie with time running out. Morris then hit a free throw, and Bremen retained possession. The Zebras were forced to foul and Morris and Borkholder each added a free throw for the winning margin.

Morris, despite playing only three quarters, tallied 22 points. Borkholder and Bennitt added 19 and 18 points, respectively. For Rochester, who has yet to win a Sectional since moving to Plymouth, Zent had 27 and Bill Basham 19.

All-Tourney Team

Our all-tourney team includes Rochester's Zent and Davis of Culver at forwards, La Paz' Davenport at center, and Borkholder of Bremen and Truax of Tyner at guards. Our second team has Tyner's Stull and West's Munday at forwards, Rochester's Basham at center, and Culver's Dillon and Morris of Bremen at guards.

Hats off to Coach Chuck Blackburn, first-year coach at Bremen and the Lions' team, who after a slow start this season, came on to win the Marshall County and Plymouth Sectional tournaments. We wish them luck in the Regional against Elkhart; they'll need it!

Academy Sports

Academy rifle, polo, and fencing teams turned in a victorious weekend but the Eagle basketball squad fell victim to the weather in its final game of the season.

A basketball game with St. John's Military Academy was canceled when Culver's opponents failed to make the trip from Delafield, Wis., due to the heavy snow Saturday. Coach Russ Oliver's quintet closed the season with a 9-6 record, and among those lost to the team for next year are high-scoring Paul Schuldt, Dexter Blome, Steve Arbuckle, and Tom Monaghan.

Polo

The Academy's touring polo team found weather in the East much to its liking and turned in successive victories over junior varsity teams from Cornell and Yale. At Ithaca, N.Y., the Culver riders won an 18-15 decision over Cornell. The next day at New Haven, Col. Gerald R. Graham's stickmen gave Culver its first victory in history over Yale, beating the Eli jayvees, 16-6.

Rifle

The rifle team, coached by Richard W. Gimbel and Capt. Charles L. Knapp, repeated as Midwestern Military Academies champion in a five-team match held here. Culver's No. 1 squad posted a 1,917 score, followed by Howe Military Academy, 1,907; Marmion Military Academy, Aurora, Ill., 1,879; Culver's No. 2 Team, 1,842; and Millersburg (Ky.) Military Academy, 1,730.

Cadet James Augustine won the individual aggregate score title with 391 and also won the individual standing position firing with 96. Knopf of Howe took the prone firing with a perfect 100 score while cadet William M. Whiteford, Culver, took the sitting title with 100 and the kneeling championship with 99.

Fencing

Coach Elmer White's fencers ran their record to 2-1 with a 19-3 victory over Horace Mann School, of Gary. Dixon Eagle was undefeated in the foil event, won by the Academy 8-1; David Pauker was unbeaten in the epee in which Culver scored 6-3; and the Academy team took the sabre, 5-4.

Yes, It's True! Plane Rescued By Team Of Horses!

Flying low because of the heavy fog about 4 p.m. last Wednesday, pilot William Webster of Two Rivers, Wis., enroute from Indianapolis to Green Bay, Wis., and fearing he was lost, landed his four-place Piper plane in one of the Osborn wheat fields west of Burr Oak.

Unable to take off from the soft field, Webster welcomed the services of Abel A. Thompson, W. 14-B Road, who with his team of horses, pulled the plane from the soft wheat field onto the road and Webster was able to take off Thursday morning.
