"HOOSIER AT LARGE"

By Al Spiers

How Does One Get That Most Wonderful Title, "Hoosier Mother of the Year?"

WHEN THE GREAT HONOR was bestowed a week ago my curiosity was piqued. How, I wondered, does one get to be "Hoosier Mother of the Year?"

In a neat, tasteful Church of the Brethren rectory in tiny Milford in Kosciusko County, I presently coaxed the answer — and a warm, inspiring story — from two modest gentle people.

INDIANA'S MOM OF '59 was born in 1896 of God-fearing pioneer parents on a farm in Iowa's Grundy County.

Christened Frances Jane, she had a happy early childhood, close to home, parents, God, and church.

One classmate in her one-room, red-brick country school was W. Harlan Smith, a next-farm neighbor. But Harlan was four years older — a wide, deep chasm in childhood.

Years later, this chasm closed at Mount Morris, Ill., where Frances attended the Brethren's Academy and Harlan the college. Drawn naturally together by home ties, the two soon found many things in common.

HARLAN, ALREADY ordained, was tall, energetic, and handsome. He had a quick, easy laugh and a clean-cut radiant face that reflected a strong inner purpose which he soon confided to Frances.

"I want to do God's work — as a missionary in China," he said. "Would you share such a life? It won't be easy..."

"It's the kind of life I want, too," said Frances quietly.

WED IN 1917, they settled briefly in Raisin City, Calif., where Harlan taught school to repay his educational debts. In 1919, soon after their Pauline was born, the Smiths returned to Mount Morris for a year of seminary work.

On July 26, 1920, with one babe in arms and another expected, Frances sailed for China with her dedicated spouse. She had a brief sinking feeling as their ship left the dock. Then she turned her eyes seaward and her thoughts resolutely ahead.

The second Smith child — Helen — was born during a hard year of language study at Peking. Then Rev. Smith was assigned to a mission deep in Shansi Province.

EXCEPT FOR a 16-month furlough home in 1928-29, the Smiths spent the ensuing 15 years at the mission in Shansi. They had comfortable quarters, ample food, clothing, and basic supplies. The

A supply of official questionnaires for use in entering the "Miss Plymouth" pageant are on hand at The Culver Citizen office for the use of prospective contestants.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY ALSO CRITICAL OF POOR POSTAL SERVICE

Readers of The Citizen who perhaps feel that this newspaper has been super critical of the poor service of the U. S. Post Office Department, despite constantly increasing rates, may be interested in the following excerpt from a recent newspaper dispatch from Palm Beach, Fla.:

"But I would say," President Kennedy added dryly, "that just having mailed a letter to Boston, Mass., and having it take eight days to get there, I am hopeful we can improve the postal service."

MAYBE SUNDAY'S SNOW WAS THE FINAL ONE OF THE SEASON

Having missed the boat twice in the last month about the area having had the final snowfall of the year, we are making no more wild guesses after Sunday's heavy, wet fall being the grand finale in that respect. Had enough? Plenty cold here these last few days, too.

Square Dance At Skateway Friday Night

[Contributed]

Our lives are vicarious and sedentary, we of the mid-century. We exist staring at televisions, pouring over mass magazines; the actions of ten athletes satisfy 15,000 seated viewers. To paraphrase Shakespeare, occasion constantly calls and finds us to be watchers only. We need to get out of our collective rocking chairs and get into the act! Get out and participate!

And where better to begin than at the Maxinkuckee Junior Woman's Club sponsored square dance? Everyone who comes to the Skateway between nine o'clock and midnight this Friday, April 14, is guaranteed an opportunity to dance his heart out to the tune of Emil Krull's square dance band. Kick up your own heels instead of watching and wishing.

Why not come in costume and really get into the spirit of the old hoe-down? If such activity puts you in need of nourishment, the Junior Women will have refreshments of all kinds on hand throughout the evening. There will be square dancing, round dancing, and even one or two attempts at that grand American institution, the cakewalk.

Tickets for this evening of activity are available at the dance or from any club woman in return for a 75-cent donation to the Junior Woman's Club community benefit project. Don't pass up this opportunity to get into the swim, to do something for a change instead of watching the others have all the fun. And, if you insist on being a spectator, in spite of all good philosophy to the contrary, come anyway, and just watch.

School Heads Meet For Reorganization

A group of school officials from Union, Aubbeenaubee, and North Bend Townships attended a meeting in Indianapolis last Thursday with the state school commission representatives.

Frank McLane, superintendent of County schools, said the purpose of the meeting was to arrange a hearing with the commission and get its opinion of the Culver Community School corporation unit that is being organized under the 1947 law as amended by section 10 of the 1959 law.

Attending the meeting with McLane were: George Stevens of Plymouth, attorney for the Culver - Aubbeenaubee - North Bend group; Eugene G. Benedict, Union Township trustee; Deane Walker of Plymouth, representing W. O. Osborn, Culver; Vernie Bowen Aubbeenaubee Township trustee; Donald Taylor, North Bend trustee; Cedric White, a member of the North Bend Township advisory board; and Judd Stinchcomb Culver.

The commission told the group a meeting would be scheduled within the next couple of weeks to review the Culver School corporation unit.

The corporation is to include the Fulton and Starke County Townships and the Richland Township from Fulton County along with Union Township in Marshall County.

On Dec. 12 last year the Marshall County committee divided Marshall County into five school corporation districts in which they included the two additional school systems with the Culver unit.

Vincent Price, Popular Actor, Culver Visitor Academy Cadet Interviews Him

VINCENT PRICE

Noted Actor and Television Personality Visits Culver

By ANDREW H. MALCOLM

Vincent Price, the well known movie actor, shed his usual villain's garb at his recent appearance in the Eppley Auditorium at Culver and lectured on American culture, citing as three examples Walt Whitman, Tennessee Williams, and James McNeill Whistler.

In a very friendly manner Mr. Price answered many questions put to him by curious CMA cadets at an informal chat backstage after his performance.

Successful Movie Villian

Concerning his film career, he was asked if he was afraid of being forever cast as the villain in horror films, or as he prefers to call them, "thrillers." He replied, "Indeed I'm not. They (the thrillers) are a lot of fun to make. You can experiment and improvise while playing the villain's part."

Tall, dark, and dressed in a navy blue suit, he autographed many hastily procured pieces of paper including permit halves.

He is a very good conversationalist and has the enviable knack of putting people completely at ease.

He appeared well versed on many diverse subjects, including the parking problem in downtown Cleveland, an art museum in Philadelphia, and art in general. Reminiscing on his school days he remarked that his roommate at Yale was a Culver graduate of the class of '29. "He was real cad," Mr. Price said.

An Authority On Art

Art is Mr. Price's favorite subject and he is considered to be a good critic. He agreed emphatically with another recent noted guest of Culver, Agnes DeMille, who declared that today's literary and theater critics dictate entirely too much to the public what is good and what is bad.

When asked by William J. Marvin, CMA director of theater, in what part he would cast senior captain Jerry Soest in "Oklahoma!", Mr. Price immediately said "Judd," the exact part that Soest did play in the student production last spring.

Mr. Price has two new "thrillers" coming out soon and his book, "I Like What I Know," is still doing very well.

A Yale Man

He originally entered Yale to study English, but soon changed to the history of art.

The year after his graduation

Mental Health Report Issued By Lloyd Beatty

261,844 Members In Hoosier State

INDIANAPOLIS — 31.7 per cent of all patients in Indiana state mental hospitals are over 65 and 27.4 of all new admissions to these hospitals are also in this age bracket, according to a report received by Lloyd Beatty, president of the Marshall County Association for Mental Health, a former resident of Culver.

These figures, compiled by the Indiana Association for Mental Health, are about average compared to national statistics. About one-third of all patients in the United States and 27 per cent of new admissions are in this category.

Despite a common notion that most of the aged patients are "just old, not sick," the very great majority of them have been found to have a distinct mental disorder.

These and other facts concerning "Problems of the Aging Psychiatric Patient," are documented in a report on the subject just issued by the Joint Information Service of the American Psychiatric Association and the National Association for Mental Health.

The report is based on a survey of 196 state mental hospitals. It summarizes facts and figures of older patients in state hospital during 1959, and the professional opinions of the administrators of the hospitals.

"Outside Care" Desirable

It was the consensus of opinion of hospital superintendents that the majority of elderly patients could be cared for outside the hospital. This would necessitate substantial expansion of other facilities including homes for the aged, nursing and county homes, foster homes and day-care programs.

Recommendations also include preventive measures to help the aging. Most supervisors agreed that "a number of elderly patients would benefit by better counseling service, social clubs and employment service." Such measures, they believe, would cut down on admissions of elderly people to state hospitals.

The report added: "Many of these patients need to be under psychiatric care for only a brief period of time, and this care might be provided outside the hospital."

Foster Homes Discussed

Foster homes for aging patients were also discussed. Such "family care" was found to be "satisfactory" wherever it was possible. But there are not enough foster homes, and they are used primarily for younger patients with a good prognosis.

"In general," declares the Joint Information Service survey, "respondents expressed the opinion that better foster and nursing home care programs were dependent upon funds to supplement old age assistance and social security programs; more psychiatrists and social workers to screen patients for placement outside the hospital and supervise patients in nursing and foster home care; and more general practitioners in the community interested in caring for the physical ills of the aged patients in foster and nursing homes."

The report also recommended a "broad program of community education, leading to increased assurance on the part of local and public agencies in their ability to care for the aging within the community."

Academic Elite Of Senior Class Receive Awards

Brains as well as brawn are being given top recognition at Culver High School with the awarding of honor sweaters to students ranking among the academic elite of the senior class.

This new award has been inaugurated this year by the C.H.S. Student Council with the presentation of maroon coat sweaters with a distinctive Old English "C" in white inscribed with the words in maroon "Honor Student." The sweaters are paid for entirely by the student council.

These sweaters are different from the sweaters awarded to athletes and musicians, but gives equal recognition to those who excel in academics as well as music and athletics.

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for an honor student sweater a student must have completed his junior year with a grade index of 3.60 out of a possible 4.0. The award is to be made at the opening of the senior year so that the honor students will have a full year of wear of the sweaters while still in high school. However, if a student falls below the minimum grade index requirement the sweater will be recalled by the student council. If a student meets the requirement at the end of the seventh semester he shall be awarded an honor sweater.

In case of consolidation, incoming students will be accepted at once with their grades taken at par and those so qualified will be given Honor Student sweaters.

This recognition of top academic students has had a salutary influence on the entire student body as shown by the decided increased interest in academic achievement, the overall increase in the grade index of the student body, and the obvious respect of fellow students for those who proudly wear the maroon "Honor Student" sweaters.

The first salute to the Stars and Stripes by a foreign power was rendered on Feb. 14, 1778, by the French Fleet when the USS Ranger commanded by John Paul Jones anchored at Brest, France. The Marines under Captain Matthew Parke rendered honors during the ceremony.

On Feb. 25, 1933, the USS Ranger, first aircraft carrier wholly designed and built as such, was commissioned at Norfolk, Va.

Academy Sports

Culver Military Academy's vast Spring sports schedule is officially under way today after Coach Norman Miner's track team opened Saturday with a narrow 55-54 victory here over Fort Wayne Central Catholic.

The track team triggered the beginning of the 47-event Spring schedule that will see the tennis, crew, golf, and baseball squads move into action by next week.

Howe Is Tennis Foo

The Academy harriers have a date here Saturday with Horace Mann School of Gary and the day will also mark the 1961 debut for Coach C. C. Clarno's tennis squad, which entertains Howe Military Academy in a 2 p.m. match.

Baseball Team Meets Winamac

Next Tuesday the track team is host to South Bend Washington and next Thursday Dr. Russell Blair's baseball squad plays Winamac here in its opener.

The Culver thinclads had the Fort Wayne meet sewed up going into the next-to-last event. Co-captains Dick Tucker and Ed Hayward won their specialties in the mile and half-mile, respectively, and other Academy winners included Bill Borkenstein in the low hurdles and a sweep lead by John Sullivan in the broad jump.

First Place In Fencing

In another sports event held at the Academy Saturday, Cadet Randy McKee won a first place in the Indiana Division of the American Fencing League Championships. McKee and two other winners qualified for spots in the Midwest regionals. McKee was first in the epee, followed by Dick Chase and Larry Gonia, both of the Academy.

Other divisions went to Tom Dwyer, Notre Dame, in the foil, versatility, in the sabre, Gonia placed and Tim Holland, Indiana University, in the sabre event while Paul Merry and Chuck Newman of the Academy won second and third on the foil.

1960-61 Changes And Improvements In C.H.S.

By Linda Kose

Changes are occurring around us all the time and the effects on C.H.S. have been many and varied.

When we returned to school in the fall many new improvements greeted the students.

The new commerce rooms were a needed improvement which was made possible by the hard work of our janitors. These two rooms, although they may have reduced the size of the study hall, have made commerce courses more enjoyable and efficient.

Another improvement has been the addition of an American flag to every class room. The civics and economics class in in charge of raising and lowering the flag from the flag pole in the front yard. This custom was started several years ago and has been continued this year.

The rooms of the school underwent a repainting job this summer. Some of them (as thought by the students) are soft and restful to the eye and others, well...

The addition of new pencil sharpeners, bulletin boards, cabinets, chairs, etc., have greatly added to the appearance of the many classrooms.

"Here are your announcements for today." This has become a familiar saying heard by the students each morning. The announcement sheets contain information on activities, convocations, and other general subjects to give the students the activity schedule for the week. This has helped to eliminate a great deal of confusion.

New lockers have been installed. Some to take the place of old ones and others to meet the needs of more students. In the past few weeks, shelves have been installed on top of the lockers to eliminate books being scattered all over the lockers and give more room for books, coats, etc. This has certainly improved the appearance of the lockers.

An improvement which has been suggested by the student body for a long time is for the installation of escalators to replace the three flights of stairs many students must climb each day. Of course, they know this is only wishful thinking. But it sure would be nice.

And so, C.H.S. has had many changes and improvements, and will go on changing and improving as long as people continue to invent materials which make our school living better and more comfortable.

Culver Bank Sponsors Trip To Chicago

The senior class of Culver High School will be guests again this year of The State Exchange Bank for a visit to Chicago. Here the seniors, all members of the economics class, will visit the Illinois Continental National Bank, the Chicago Board of Trade, and the Federal Reserve Bank.

The trip will be made on Tuesday, April 25, leaving the school at 5:45 a.m. The group will be guests of the Culver bank at breakfast on the way to Chicago, while the Illinois Continental Bank will be host at the noon meal in the bank's cafeteria. On the way home the seniors will be the guests of the Culver bank at Teibel's Restaurant at a chicken dinner. The trip will be made in chartered Indiana Motor Bus Company's large bus.

The bank sponsors this trip each year so that the graduating class will have an opportunity to observe first hand the organization of three important business operations.

On Feb. 22, 1909, President Theodore Roosevelt reviewed the Great White Fleet at Hampton Roads, Va., upon its return from a world cruise.

By Karen Kemple and Jean Warner

"Oh, where's the green one?"

"Here he is, but what about the blue one?"

What are we doing? Why, we're chasing the colored baby chickens that our younger brothers and sisters got for Easter. They can sure run fast, for as small as they are!

Everyone enjoyed Easter: new clothes, the day off from school, visiting relatives, the day off from school, having dates, the day off from school, doing term papers (?). The Easter Sunrise Services, Tom Boswell's solo, and the day off from school.

Mr. Graham, do you need a brighter light bulb in your room, or were you just making sure the light switch worked?

There are fourteen days until the Senior Trip, and twenty-one school days left for the seniors, counting from the day this is issued. The efforts and dreams of our school years are about to be realized; won't April 27 ever get here?

The Juniors probably have been to your house and if they haven't, they will be. The annual Junior Ham Supper is April 15, and they hope to break all past ticket sales records.

The retirement age is going down and all the Seniors are looking forward to retiring soon. They heard a talk on Social Security this week, which was very interesting.

Some people can sleep through anything. Right, Jean W. and Anne B.?

Mr. Graham, if the English 12 class really tires you out, wouldn't it be nice to have a rocking chair, excuse me, a Salem rocking chair, of your own?

Three Senior girls had quite a shopping spree in South Bend last Friday. Where is "204"? Did you ever find it?

Save your appetites for the Junior Ham Supper, and we'll see you Inside the Teepee.

Kathy Enjoys This Assignment

By Kathy Clyne

This was the hardest person to keep track of — I never knew where he was. But I managed to catch a glimpse of him as he walked me from my bus to school. He was heavily burdened with two sets of books, and barely made it up two flights of stairs, carrying all those school books that early in the morning is exhausting. (Carrying any school book is exhausting!) He sat in the typing room, and talked until 8:18, then made a furious rush to get to chemistry on time to take one of Mr. Kepler's "fun" tests. During the first break I spotted my victim again — Standing in front of locker 346 — mine. We then proceeded to the English Room, to do a little last minute reading, and it was a good thing too because Mr. Graham gave two tests that period, and from what I hear, I had better not say any more about that class but simply travel out in the hall. There he is again, right in front of 346. I followed my victim down to the algebra room. He must have really been planning on working because he bought two pencils at the bookstore. He was relieved he wasn't going to have an Algebra test, the whole class was. But just the same he worked hard, learning this new material or whatever it is. Leaving algebra he just happened to bump into one of his classmates and he just happened to usher that classmate right to locker 346. Then he raced down to his own locker and back up for home room where I'm sure he studied real hard. Next time I caught sight of him, he was impatiently waiting by the side door. Ready to journey to the M & M Restaurant for a nourishing meal. On leaving there he noticed that there were five minutes to get back to school and up to the Spanish room. I can't figure out why he rushed, all he was hurrying for was another test. This was hard, but he quickly finished and read through his history book for a quick review. After Spanish, he fought his way across the hall to — never guess where — locker 346. After complaining about the Spanish test to the owner of the locker, she walked with him to history class, where Mr. Robinson had a nice little test for us, nice and hard. But "he" managed to get a perfect paper — congratulations! Leaving history, we walked up to locker 346 again, but for the last time today. He then went to band where Mr. Boyd had him work to his best, which is pretty terrific. No one would ever guess who the Shadow was stalking so I'll tell you — Tom (Arnie) Curtis — of course!

Volleyball Tourney Features Culver Athletes

By Earl Mishler

A welcome change-of-pace from the annual sports routine was held in LaPaz last Tuesday evening, as the Vikings were hosts for an invitational Volleyball meet. Culver, Tyner, and Tippecanoe were their guests.

Although no championship or award was offered, Culver unofficially was the winner. The Indians took three out of three from both LaPaz and Tippey, and one out of three from Tyner for a 7-2 mark, easily the best of the evening.

DEBBIE AND WAYNE ARE FAVORITES

By Chris Hand

This week a survey was made on the favorite actor and actress. Although the results were close, John Wayne and Debbie Reynolds were first on the list. Troy Donahue and Tony Curtis ranked second among the male stars while Clark Gable and Tony Perkins followed close behind. Elizabeth Taylor was second with Tuesday Weld, Doris Day, and Rita Hayworth following the line of leading ladies.

REPAIRING today's new electronic products is expected to become a $25 billion industry within a few years.

Sunshine Girls Hear Nurse Talk On Health

By Nancy Ervin

The Hi-Y met Monday to choose nominees for next year's officers. At the last Sunshine meeting, the county school nurse, Mrs. Stewart, was our guest and answered many of the girls' questions about health. At this meeting Betty Zechel was elected girl of the month. Nominees for new officers were chosen. The Sunshine Society will hold a bake sale April 22 to raise money for the Riley Fund.

Name Delegates To Hoosier Boys State

Three Culver High School juniors will represent the school at Hoosier Boys State this Summer, according to Post Commander Edward Kowatch of the local American Legion Post. The Post has agreed to sponsor John Benedict, Tom Boswell, and Charles Reed, with James Carter and Tom Curtis as alternates. The boys will attend the week's schooling in citizenship at Indiana University, June 17-24, inclusive. The Post will pay the enrollment fees and transportation costs for the three boys who will join other outstanding juniors from all over the State at this practical and intensive course in local government.

Reporters Dream of Future School Days

By Anne Behmer and Merrie Kay Stoneburner

Here you are back as promised give you a look at what a future school day might really be e.

We leave Earth in the morning our Jet Mobile and head for our st period class on Planet Merry. Here we have chemistry.
day the class is experimenting th a new metal called Osborn-n. Now we jump in our private Mobile again and we're off for ars and our second period class, orld History. We are now disssing the Atomic Age. How uld they have gotten along with-t our interplanetary phones?
ck to our Jet Mobile and we ad for boys home ec. class on nus, but first a stop for high tane rocket fuel at a space stan. On Venus, the boys are learn-g about love, what else. Now move on to the fourth period Pluto. Here we hear the choir is it a dog h-o-w-l-i-n-g?
Lunch time has arrived at last!
aturally, we're off to the moon here we gulp our food pills and t all the green cheese we want.
n then we hurry off to the earest crater to see our best girl-end or boyfriend, whichever the se may be. On our way to rench class on Neptune, we hear,
How do I love thee, let me count e ways," coming from the Senr English class. For as old as at is, they sure had the right lea! Back to our Jet Mobile and s off to gym class with the boys.
is held on Saturn. Here we find he track team running around e rings to get in shape for the est track season yet. Last period as finally arrived. It is time for conomics class on Uranus. And e we find the great grandson f Mr. L. L. Lawson, whom we ave heard about by the legends assed down through the genera-ions and who has been immort-lized in that best seller, "Great Herds of Flying Turtles!"

At last it's back to Earth to get eady for the dance to be held on umpin' Jupiter that night. Then once more it is back to our Jet Mobiles and home for Earth to ink into Sweet Dreamy Dream-and!

This is the last of our stories about the past, present, and future school days. We hope that everyone has enjoyed reading them as much as we have enjoyed writing them. See you on the moon?

Grade Rooms Report Progress

By Bonnie Good

Mrs. Keyser: We want to thank the sixth grade class for the Easter egg hunt. We had so much fun finding the eggs that they had hidden for us. Steven Cole, a third grader, brought a garter snake to our class and we enjoyed looking at it very much. Laura Dinsmore had a birthday and she brought some cookies for us to enjoy.

Miss Page: We all want to thank the sixth grade for the Easter egg hunt they gave us. We all enjoyed it very much. Dennis Reinholt, Andrea Venum, and Debbie Martin celebrated their birthdays within the last two weeks. In spelling we have been using cursive writing instead of manuscript writing. We are all doing real well.

Mrs. Allen: Victor Triplet was eight years old April 5 and he brought us all a treat. We are all able to write cursive writing now, which we enjoy very much. We all want to thank the sixth grade for the Easter egg hunt. We all had a lot of fun.

Mrs. Carter: In arithmetic we are learning to divide by two, and we are learning the reverses of multiplication also. We are studying birds and have many bird pictures all over our bulletin board.
For Easter we made baskets and filled them with straw and candy.

Mrs. Keller: In social studies we are studying about the different way people travel. We have found some very interesting books about transportation. Marty East-erday made an electric telegraph and demonstrated it in science class. Mrs. Shei and Mrs. Porter came to school to watch our spelling match.

Miss Mahan: A new boy enrolled in our class, named Stephen Crump. Stephen has been to Culver before and then has returned.
We all welcome him back.

Mrs. McLane: In social studies we are studying foreign lands. We are all bringing articles from different countries and telling about them and the country they came from. Bill Grothaus has not missed a spelling word all year. We hope he keeps up the good work.

Miss Henning: Carl Strang brought in his rock collection which we are enjoying very much.
Terry Powers brought in two guinea pigs which we also enjoyed. Richard Snyder had a birthday last week.

Mrs. Manis and Mr. Moore: We hope everyone enjoyed the Easter egg hunt. The winners out of 218 participants were: First grade;
1st prize: Cathy Hoesel and Bobby Ringer; 2nd prize: Tim Overmyer and Randy Ikirt; 3rd prize:
Allen Cook and Jim Yocom; golden egg: Betty Napier.

Second grade: 1st prize: Morris DeMarco and Danny Beerwart;
2nd prize: Scott Croy and Jimmy Hoesel; 3rd prize: Cathy Band and David Howard.

Sophs Sponsor Movie April 19-20

By Chris Croy

The sophomores are sponsoring another movie, "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come." The dates for the movie are April 19 and 20. At their last meeting they appointed a committee to nominate class officers.

The juniors have chosen their prom theme and committees are working on ideas. The juniors are now selling tickets for their Ham Supper, April 15. Anyone who wishes to purchase a ticket, and who has not done so yet, please contact any member of the junior class.

The seniors are anxiously awaiting the senior trip. The date has been set for the trip to Chicago, April 25.

Safety Patrol Is Formed

By Thad Overmyer

During a discussion period in the Boys Drivers Training class the question, "How safe are the crosswalks when the elementary children are crossing the streets?"
Learning that there was no supervision of any kind the boys took it upon themselves to set up a patrol to watch the children while crossing the street after school.

Although Mr. Mikesell patrols the school crossings in the morning the crosswalks are unpatrolled in the evenings. It was decided that three Drivers Education boys who were in seventh period study hall should leave at 3:20 when the grades let out and help the children safely across the street.

We all would like to thank the boys who are performing this act of safety. It is not only protecting the children, but it makes them stop and think while waiting on the crosswalk for the cars to go by.

Governor Praises Quality Of Culver Printing

The current issue of Indiana Business and Industry, Culver-based monthly magazine, is a large special number saluting the completion and dedication of Indiana's fabulous new State Office Building — finest of its kind in the U. S.

A superb new oil portrait of Governor Matthew E. Welsh, painted by the noted Indianapolis artist, Edmund Brucker, appears on its front cover in full color.

The magazine's publisher has received the following letter from Governor Welsh:

"Just a note to thank you for the fine reproduction of the portrait. It is an excellent likeness and the printer did a splendid job of reproduction."

The magazine is printed at The Culver Press, Inc. and Dale Davis, superintendent, and Rudy Wakefield, head pressman, are feeling pretty good about this deserved compliment from the Hoosier chief executive. A copy of the magazine may be seen at the Culver Public Library.

RETURN FROM VACATION

Mrs. Clarence Seese and Mrs. George Wiezycki have returned home from a trip through the southwestern states including Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, and Colorado. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Anglin and family at Amarillo, Texas, for several days while enjoying numerous sites and places of interest in the old west.

The Easter holidays were spent with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Seese and family at Colorado Springs, Colo., and a most enjoyable climax to the vacation was a trip to Cripple Creek, once famous for being the heart of the richest mine in the world. The population at that time was 50,000, but now it is practically a ghost town. The gold mining town has an elevation of 10,000 feet.

Miss Carol Cromley, senior student at Swedish Covenant School of Nursing in Chicago, Ill., arrived Sunday to spend a two-week vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Cromley, and family.

The three streets in the Maxonic Cemetery are being graveled.

William Minardow has sold his bakery to E. F. Courtney of Greentown, who has moved into the rooms over the bakery, awaiting, as other families are, an opportunity to rent a house.

Last Sunday's temperature ranged from 28 to 36, with rain and snow. Early fruit tree buds were killed by the freezing weather two days following Easter, so Sunday's damage was slight.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Easterday welcomed their first-born to their hearts and home Saturday morning. He has been named Edwin Paul.

G. A. Weisshaar has been assigned to the Evangelical Church. He comes here from Syracuse where he has been the past year.

APRIL 13, 1941—

IT'S NOT FUNNY!

4-H Farmer Talks Sense!

Our hat is off this week to a fine young 4-H farmer who personally advised President Kennedy and Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman to end farm supports.

Howard Werkheiser, who's only 21, owns 976 hogs in partnership with his father in Kewanee, Illinois — "the hog capitol of the world."

Recently, Howard, along with other 4-H members, visited Washington to tell the nation what's doing down on the farms. Here's Howard's report:

"I told Secretary Freeman in President Kennedy's office — in a nice tone of voice, of course, I didn't sass him or nothin' — the Government should try to get out of the farming picture in 10 or 15 years, slowly.

"The hog market has no price supports and they're doing fine, but the corn market has and is getting messed up.

"A few minutes later, I met the President, who said, 'Howard, what do you think about the farm situation?' I said the same thing, and he looked a little disturbed."

It's interesting to note the four H's of the 4-H Club stand for head, heart, hand, and health.

It's also pleasant to report that Howard is in excellent health; his hands are large as skillets; his heart is big; and he certainly used his head when the chips were down.

423 S. Michigan St., Plymouth
Morning Worship 10:30 a.m.
Sunday School 10:30 a.m.

The oneness and supremacy of God will be emphasized at Christian Science services this Sunday. "Doctrine of Atonement" is the subject of the Lesson Sermon. The Golden Text is from the first chapter of II John: "He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son."

The opening selection to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states: "Jesus taught but one God, one Spirit, who makes man in the image and likeness of Himself — of Spirit, not of matter" (p. 94).

From the Bible will be read this verse from Psalm 143: "Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness."

Feed Grain Program List Details Of "Permitted Acreage"

Each cooperating farm under the 1961 feed grain program will have a "permitted acreage" for corn and grain sorghum, according to Carl W. Price, chairman of the Marshall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

This "permitted acreage" will be the largest acreage of corn and grain sorghum that may be produced on the farm in 1961 in order for the farm to continue as a cooperating farm.

Divert To Conservation
Under the feed grain program, the producer of corn or grain sorghum agrees to divert acreage formerly planted to these crops to a conservation use. For this diversion, he receives a special payment, and he qualifies for price support on the normal production of his 1961-crop corn and grain sorghum acreage. He also becomes eligible for support on other 1961-crop feed grains — barley, oats, and rye.

Chairman Price explained that the program calls for diversion of at least 20 per cent of the "farm base" to an approved conservation use. (The farm base is established by the county ASC committee from the acreage on the farm used for production of corn and grain sorghum in 1959 and 1960). The farmer may also divert additional acreage under the program up to a farm maximum, which depends upon the size of the farm base.

More Information Available
Payments under the program will also vary according to the size of the farm base and the relative productivity of the farm acreage. Farmers who wish fur-

Here's A Great Column On The Good Old Days

Culver Youths Should Read It!

By ROGER W. BABSON

No. 1 U.S. Economist

BABSON PARK, MASS.

From a strictly statistical point, the Government's cost-of-living index today stands at 128 compared with 110 ten years ago and 60 twenty years ago. However, the great difference is due to the changes made by Washington in the things included.

When I was a boy our water came from rain on the roof which we collected in a brick cistern in the cellar of the house. Every night my father would pump this water from the cistern to a tank on the top floor of our house. This gave us running water on all floors.

Our heat came from anthracite coal and my job each morning was to get up at 6 o'clock and build a coal fire in the kitchen stove.

There were no incandescent lamps or electrical gadgets in those days. We were happy with kerosene lamps and candles.

Today the water, gas, and electric bills amount to about $20 per month for the family.

Monday Was Wash Day

Monday was then wash day, and mother used her own home-made soaps which she had allowed to dry in the attic.

We heated the house with a coal furnace. My father put in the coal four times a day and I "shook down" the fire and took out the ashes. Moreover, these ashes were carefully sifted by me and 20% of them were used over again.

There were no vacuum cleaners. My mother every Friday would sprinkle tea leaves on the carpets to "lay the dust" while sweeping the carpets with a broom.

There was then only one laundry in Gloucester, Massachusetts, a city of 15,000-20,000 people. "Dry-cleaning" we never heard of.

Long Hours For Father

But we all were well dressed and happy. My father owned the leading "dry-goods" store of the city. He personally unlocked the store every day (except Sundays) at 7 a.m. and personally locked the door at 6 p.m.

Then there were no super markets, but many grocery, meat, and fish stores all competing one with another.

Prices of food are higher today but so many food items are frozen or pre-cooked that it greatly simplifies housework.

As a result the housewife today has time to do outside work, from which she gets more than enough money to pay the extra food bills.

My mother had a kitchen maid to whom she paid $3.50 per week. This would cost $30 or more per week today, but owing to these new frozen and pre-cooked foods very few homes need any maids. Hence, although the food bills are higher, yet the saving in the homes is tremendous.

Pressed Own Pants

My mother made my sister's clothes and my pants. These I pressed at night by carefully folding and sleeping upon them!

Two-Bit Haircuts

Looking back on those happy days, the only big price increase I see is in haircuts, which were then only 25 cents.

We all shaved ourselves with longblade razors. "Gillettes" were never heard of. There was no bathroom; we shaved and washed in cold water, and sometimes had to crack the ice to get the water. But we were healthy and happy.

We, moreover, were taught to take good care of our clothing

PIANO SERVICE
Harry Smeltzer
CULVER

GOV. MATTHEW E. WELSH writes his check for the first ticket to the Statewide Jefferson-Jackson Day Banquet scheduled for the Murat Temple, Indianapolis, May 6. Mrs. Frank E. McKinney, co-chairman of the annual fund raising dinner assured the Governor that there were no free tickets and that included the Governor, who will be one of the principal speakers at the affair. Other speakers will be John Bailey, Democratic National Chairman, and Senator Vance Hartke.

because it had to be passed down to sisters and brothers.

Rents are considerably higher today than they were 20 to 40 years ago; but the tenant gets a far better place to live.

Furthermore, a family can now buy a house at a low rate of interest, paying only $500 or less down with 20 years in which to pay the mortgage. This situation did not exist 20-30 years ago.

Furthermore, it is usually easy to rent a room which will bring in $10 per week. Renting a room was in my day impossible.

Shoes cost double now; but we walk so little that they cost less per year.

Almost everyone rides to school or to work, or even to play, in school-operated buses or in their own automobiles.

Bought Car For $500

Speaking of autos, a new Ford car 40 years ago sold for $500, compared with over $2,000 today; but you can today buy a good second-hand Ford with a good self-starter for $500 and it is a much better car than the new Ford of 40 years ago.

Even with the increased cost of college education any worthy boy can get a scholarship, and the increased income which he now receives the first few years after graduating more than offsets the increased cost of tuition.

The real reason for the present "high cost of living" comes from the money spent for recreation, travel, and other diversions.

A Movie For A Dime

There were no radios or televisions when I was a young man and the entrance fee to movies was only a dime or 20 cents.

Nor were there any country clubs or cocktail parties.

In closing let me give the average budget of a family of four

(for each additional child the father must increase his income.)

Annual Income $6,000 — Food $1,650, Clothing $720 (40%), Housing $1,595, Transportation $865 (40%), Church and Benevolence $270 (5%), Recreation $600 (10%).

Annual Income $10,000 — Food $1,900, Clothing $1,100 (30%), Housing $2,700, Transportation $1,100 (40%), Church and Benevolence $700 (7%), and Recreation $1,800 (18%).

In the above I have not specified the cost of educating the two children due to scholarships, government aid, summer work, and other factors.

Hence to the extent that the father is obliged to pay toward this, something must be pared off all six items above except Church.

Don't Cut Church Budget

I repeat: This shows that "Recreation" is the reason for today's increased cost of living. Certainly gifts to benevolence (hospitals, etc.) and the Church should be increased rather than decreased. Whether or not the $6,000-man can save anything is a question although money spent wisely on the two children should be a good investment.

The man getting $10,000 should, however, save something (perhaps 6%) for investing in good stocks in addition to educating his two children.

CALLS IT QUITS — A 91-year-old man, Perry Armstrong of Waldron (Shelby County), has closed a harness shop he operated for 75 years. He said he used to have customers from all over central Indiana but now there's not enough business to keep the shop going.

villagers were friendly, their servants helpful and devoted.

But there were problems galore for a mother and homemaker in such crude, remote environs. Native filth spawned disease — and at first the nearest doctor was 30 miles away.

THERE WERE NO SCHOOLS for American tots, so as five more little Smiths arrived — one during their furlough in the U.S., the others in China — Frances obtained Calvert courses by mail and taught her children through seventh grade. (After that, they went to an American boarding school in Peking.)

The children played with Chinese tykes and inevitably caught their bugs — measles, mumps, chicken pox, scarlet fever, and dread dysentery.

"Once," said Rev. Smith soberly, "we almost lost James and Dwight to dysentery. For an awful 48 hours, it was touch and go."

REV. SMITH'S mission embraced two mountainous counties. He traveled by bike — 25,000 miles, all told — to distant sectors. Often that left Mrs. Smith to face difficulties, dangers, and hardships alone.

She took it in stride, with calm, make-do resourcefulness and serene faith in God.

"It wasn't really a difficult adjustment," she says modestly. "Any good wife and mother would have done as well."

WHEN I TRIED to pinpoint her greatest difficulty or problem, she smiled faintly and said: "Getting used to having four servants. I never did wholly adjust to that. I like to keep my own house."

In 1936, the Smith and children came home for their second furlough. After a year of rest and study in Iowa, they sold their furniture, packed trunks, bought tickets, and prepared to return to the mission.

"A CABLE ARRIVED as I was roping the last trunk," Rev. Smith recalled with a chuckle. "Japs had reached Shansi. Things were unsettled, to say the least. We were advised to wait."

He laughed heartily. "We had to pay $25 extra to buy our furniture back."

WHILE "WAITING," Rev. Smith served a pastorate in Stet. Mo., where Maurine, their eighth child, was born. In the fall of 1940, they returned to China — a departure hardest of all for "Mom" Smith.

"We had to leave our three oldest girls at North Manchester — two in college, one in high school," she explained. "We expected to be in China seven more years. By then, I was sure the girls would be graduated, married, and gone from our home for good . . ."

"MOM" SMITH was wrong . . . but that's another story for next week's Culver Citizen!

WRITER'S CRAMP — In a letter to Mrs. Mindwell C. Wilson, columnist of The Delphi Citizen, a correspondent wrote: "I am at home now but my leg is in a cast and I can't write so well."

WAS HIS FACE RED — Dale Salmons, after working on the engine of the Galveston fire department's old truck, took the truck out for a test run over Cass County's rural roads. While headed east toward the Cass-Miami County line an alarm came in from Bennetts Switch. The siren summoning volunteer firemen was sounded at Galveston but because of the noise the old truck was making Salmons failed to hear it. Other volunteer firemen heard it, however, and piled into their cars and took out after the truck which they thought was going to the fire. Salmons, still unaware of the alarm, reached a county line road and headed back to Galveston.

When he reached the fire station he learned of the fire at Bennetts Switch. He took off again at full speed and reached the scene of the blaze, a small one, in time to return with the other volunteers.
