Smear Campaign Against FBI's J. Edgar Hoover Subsides On His 37th Anniversary

[Final Installment]

IN 37 YEARS at the FBI's helm, J. Edgar Hoover has been called many things by many people with many motives.

AL SPIERS

Early in his career, all the barbs of assorted attackers stung Hoover. Now, toughened and tempered by long experience, he tends to sort them and react accordingly.

HONEST CRITICS are heeded, petty snipers are largely ignored — vicious attackers are fought.

But against the latter, the FBI refuses to "fight fire with fire." Hoover's counter-strategy is based on an abiding faith in our democratic processes and the ultimate wisdom of an informed citizenry. He prefers to spray lies and hum with truth and cold facts — leaving the final verdict to the people.

In this, Hoover now needs help. For the past four years the FBI has been the target of what appears to be a calculated smear campaign launched by a motley assortment of leftists, ultra-liberals, pinkos, Commie dupes, and Kremlin errand boys.

DESPITE THE DUBIOUS sources, this hooey hoodwinks some unwary citizens. It's human nature to dislike police — and to believe the worst and doubt the best about anyone or anything.

Also, few people meet an FBI agent in a lifetime. Thus, most citizens must judge from afar and can be forgiven doubts planted by shrewd smear artists.

But no one who knows the FBI well can forgive himself if he shirks an opportunity to help a great outfit clobber insidious lies with clean truth.

So let's have at it!

ONE ITEM the smear merchants try to peddle goes like this: "The FBI is really a Gestapo — and Hoover secretly hankers to be a national police czar."

GESTAPO? NUTS! Meet just one FBI agent and you'll know that's utterly ridiculous.

An interviewer once asked Mr. Hoover what keeps the FBI from using Gestapo methods. His blunt reply: "I couldn't order my men to ignore fairness, make false promises, use brutality, or engage in third-degree methods. They simply wouldn't do it because they aren't that kind!"

Want to know the quickest, surest way to get fired from the FBI? Just slug or otherwise mistreat a suspect or prisoner!

NEXT POINT: Hoover a police czar? Poppycock! He's exactly the opposite. One of his strongest beliefs, expressed often, is that crime problems are best solved

School Opening Dates and Rules Given In Detail

Shorts and Girls' Slacks Taboo

In order that the patrons of the Culver-Union Township School may be aware of the many conditions associated with the beginning of school, Principal Kenneth L. Cole lists the following as basic information that should help clarify situations which exist in the minds of parents and students alike.

The first day for all students in the upper six grades will be Tuesday, Sept. 5, and all involved will be expected to report promptly at 1 p.m. This same rule will hold true for all grade students who have not registered before Sept. 5.

If your child is in the first six grades and has registered before Sept. 5, he does not have to and should not report for school until 8 a.m. on Sept. 6.

NO KINDERGARTEN STUDENT IS TO REPORT ON SEPT. 5. There will be school for all students — kindergarten through grade 12 — beginning at 8 a.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 6.

Buses On Earlier Schedule Country parents and students are warned that buses will run just a little earlier than last year because the tardy bell in the morning will ring this school year at 8:10 a.m. Since all buses dropped children at school around 8:10 a.m. last school year, it is doubtful that any bus will have to run over ten minutes earlier this school year.

Students are not wanted on the school grounds before 8 a.m. on any morning. The end of the school day is just the same as last year — 3:40 p.m. The last 30 minutes of the day is designed for activities and study period, and it is the express dictate of the administration that no child miss academic class time for any extracurricular activity.

The noon hour for the top six grades will be from 11:45 a.m. until 12:20 p.m. with the grade school noon hour modified to fit the number that is to be fed. The grade school noon hour will probably begin near 11 a.m.

Hot lunches will be served in the cafeteria just as in past years. Students in grades one through four will pay 25 cents per meal while students in grades five through twelve will pay 30 cents for each meal. Meals will be served beginning the first day of school, Wednesday, Sept. 6.

Students Must Dress Like Ladies and Gentlemen

The rule for dress in the entire school is dictated by common sense in kindergarten through grade 12.

However, in the top six grades the rule for dress is more rigid than in the grades below. Boys

Miss Sandra Furnas and Jack Weisenauer
Speak Nuptials In Saturday Ceremony

MRS. JACK KNOLL WEISENAUER

Baskets of white gladioli, palms, and lighted candelabra graced the altar of the Culver Methodist Church for the wedding at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening, Aug. 26, which united in marriage Miss Sandra Gail Furnas, daughter of Mrs. Jay I. Rich, 364 College Ave., Culver, and the late Joseph Furnas, to Jack Knoll Weisenauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Weisenauer, Route 7, Paulding Road, Fort Wayne.

Rev. Kendall E. Sands, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Virginia Reed, soloist, sang "O Perfect Love," "Wedding Prayer," and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the organ by Miss Jeanette Berger. Candles marked the end of the pews.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride was lovely in a gown of hand clipped Chantilly lace over taffeta which featured a molded bodice, elbow-length sleeves, and a sabrina neckline edged with seed pearls. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with a bustle back bow which topped the full chapel train. Her veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a miniature crown of rhinestones, pearls, and crystals. Her cascade bouquet of white sweetheart roses and garlands of snowdrift pompoms was centered with a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Miss Julia Furnas, sister of the bride; and Miss Peggy Bentley, Clinton, Ind., and Miss Barbara Rust of Culver were bridesmaids. Their identical dresses made of chiffon and taffeta featured a fitted bodice with softly draped scoop neckline. The bell-shaped skirt of taffeta with front shephardess draping of the chiffon ended in a back bow of taffeta. Radiant turquoise was selected for the color of the maid of honor's gown and the bridesmaids appeared in azalea. They wore crowns of tiny pink and white sweetheart roses and carried nosegays of yellow and white sweetheart roses.

Connie Sue Kelly, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kelly, was lovely as flower girl in a sleeveless white organza over taffeta full length dress with a sash which crossed in front to form a cummerbund effect and tied in the back in a large bow. Her headpiece was of white, pink, and turquoise mums and she carried flower petals in a small basket with pink ribbons adorning the handle.

Mike Lehman of Fort Wayne was best man and ushering were Dan Weisenauer, brother of the bridegroom, Fort Wayne, Jim Black of Evansville, and Jack Mart of Plymouth.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Rich selected a brown and beige silk sheath dress with jacket. The bridegroom's mother chose an apple green brocaded sheath gown with jacket. Both mothers wore yellow and white sweetheart roses formed in a corsage.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church parlors.

For her honeymoon to New York the new Mrs. Weisenauer changed into a three-piece suit of frosted beige brocade and added the white orchid centerpiece from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return from New York the newlyweds will be at home at 609 Fess St., Bloomington.

The bride is a graduate of Culver High School and will enter her junior year this Fall at Indiana University. She is affiliated with Delta Delta Delta social sorority.

The bridegroom is a graduate of New Haven High School and will also enter his junior studies this Fall at Indiana University where he is affiliated with Sigma Nu social fraternity.

Miss Judith E. Lawrance Is Married To Charles E. Edgington In Methodist Rites

MRS. CHARLES E. EDGINGTON

The Culver Methodist Church was the scene of the candlelight wedding at 7:30 Saturday evening, Aug. 19, which united in marriage Miss Judith Ellen Lawrance and Charles E. Edgington. The church altar was decorated with white gladioli, palms, and lighted tapers in four-branch candelabra. Rev. Kendall E. Sands, pastor of the church, performed the single-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Lawrance, 900 West Shore Drive and Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Edgington of 286 South Shore Drive are the parents of the bridegroom.

Joseph Huffman of Logansport sang "Because," "I Love Thee," and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony. He was accompanied by Mrs. Chauncey Leanen at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a full length gown of banquet taffeta fashioned with a torosso bodice with a scalloped sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves. Extending from the waistline her full bouffant skirt fell softly into a brush train. The gown was highlighted with silk Alencon lace and iridescent sequins and crystals. Her veil of French illusion was held in place with a crown of crystals and rhinestones. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds, tube roses and stephanotis.

Miss Betty Jean Lawrance, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. William Herrmann, Miss Sherrill Edgington, both of Culver, and Miss Marilyn Reichard of South Bend were bridesmaids. The bridal attendants wore identical ballerina-length gowns fashioned of summer satin in moss green and trimmed in exotic green. The moss green fitted satin bodices were made with spaghetti straps and inserted cummerbunds of deep exotic green highlighted the waistlines. Rhinestones and matching nailheads outlined the scoop necklines on the sleeveless dresses. The mock balloon skirts were made in moss green and short sleeved bolero jackets with bateau necklines were worn over the sleeveless dresses. Deep exotic green bow half-hats with chin length veils and exotic green satin shoes were worn to complete the attendants' ensembles. They carried colonial bouquets of yellow roses and bronze mums with moss green ribbons.

The bridegroom's attendants were William L. Herrmann, best man, and ushers, George Hopple, Glen Snyder, and Rodney Edgington, all of Culver.

Mrs. Lawrance, mother of the bride, was attired in a beige silk linen suit with brown accessories and she wore a corsage of yellow and white roses with brown ribbon.

The mother of the bridegroom chose an Italian knit suit in beige with blue accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses with blue ribbon.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 200 guests was held at The Culver Inn. The rooms were beautifully decorated with bouquets of white gladioli and the serving tables were draped with smilax swags and white gardenias. The Misses Olive Holdeman, Barbara Lent, June Vendl, and Margo Fox, of South Bend, and Miss Sue Davis of Logansport served as hostesses at the reception and Mrs. Irene Wallen of Culver was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds are honeymooning in Northern Michigan and upon their return will reside in Culver.

For her going-away ensemble the new Mrs. Edgington selected a black knit sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were from South Bend, Logansport, Gary, Plymouth, Argos, Wabash, Chicago, Ill., Kansas City, Mo., and Annapolis, Md. The bride is a graduate of Logansport High School, attended Lincoln Junior College and Ball State Teachers College, and is a recent graduate of Vogue College of Beauty Culture in South Bend.

The bridegroom is a Culver High School graduate and attended Chicago Technical College, Chicago, Ill., and Tri-State College at Angola. He is president of Maxinkuckee Homes, Inc.

10 P.M. CURFEW NOW BEING ENFORCED BY ROCHESTER POLICE

Rochester Police Chief Paul Zartman said last week police have started strict enforcement of a curfew there which prohibits persons under 18 years old from being away from home between 10 p.m. and 5 a.m. unless accompanied by an adult or being at work.

The enforcement was ordered because of a recent wave of vandalism and other illegal acts by young persons, he said.

Like the majority of television viewers, I'm getting adept at mentally "tuning out" the cruder, louder commercials that affront one's good taste and intelligence.

TV's bigwigs are concerned about this. And so there's a growing trend toward low-voiced "soft sell" salesmanship: actually, a sort of pitch politeness, as becomes a guest in one's home.

The other evening I found myself really welcoming a soft commercial into my consciousness. It made good sense, in more ways than one. The announcer said, "You expect more from Standard, and you get it." I projected the message to read "When you expect more from yourself, you'll get it."

Some happy day it could be that there will be commercials that we won't mind listening to at all. There are a few already which are intelligent in concept and delivery. Fortunate indeed, in their bid for business, are those concerns which possess a built-in tradition to background and emphasize their products.

Most fortunate of all, without doubt, are those whose authentic tradition of service has become a part of our American heritage, forever linked with the history of our land and the days of our hardy forebears. The Studebaker people, for example, can and do hark back to more than a century of keeping our country on wheels projecting an image of the durable Conestogas which carried the westering pioneers on into the sturdy wagons and buggies for the conquered plains and yet on into their smart and sturdy automobiles of today. Such an image, truly, as transcends a million words.

WASHINGTON AND
"SMALL BUSINESS"
By C. WILSON HARDER

In the recent survey of independent business sentiment on the President's proposed 10 point tax reform program conducted by the National Federation of Independent Business among its district chairmen, the one point they were overwhelmingly in favor of, by a whopping 93.4% was the recommendation to place cooperatives under same tax laws as private business with which they compete.

C. W. Harder

Under today's system when money is power, and money represents the power to modernize a business to continue to compete, or to expand to also survive, a private business can only retain that part of its earnings remaining after taxes to make any necessary improvements. First earnings must be diverted for taxes before anything else.

But cooperatives who are competing with private independent business are permitted to retain even 100% of the earnings in the business. Members are given I.O.U.'s on which they pay no personal tax until such time as the paper is picked up for cash.

Thus, it is no problem for cooperatives to continue to expand, while their privately operated competitors, unable to escape taxes in this fashion, are greatly handicapped.

Commenting on this measure, one district chairman, a leading businessman in northwest, claims over 40% of nation's business now moves through tax-free cooperatives.

To many businessmen, with the widespread growth of business enterprises under the guise of cooperatives, there is a strong drive toward socialism in the country.

As one district chairman commented, "Am definitely for taxing cooperatives the same as every other business. These co-ops are a form of socialism and socialism has about ruined Sweden and every other country where it exists."

Others commented unless cooperatives are put under the same regulations as independent business, in due time, there will not be employment producing enterprise. The survey showed quite a concern among businessmen on the question of providing more jobs for Americans.

On the president's proposal to tax undistributed income U. S. corporations derive from foreign plants, 71.9% voted in favor of this reform.

As one of the businessmen—district chairman commented, if labor costs keep driving industry into foreign locations, there eventually won't be any source of taxes here."

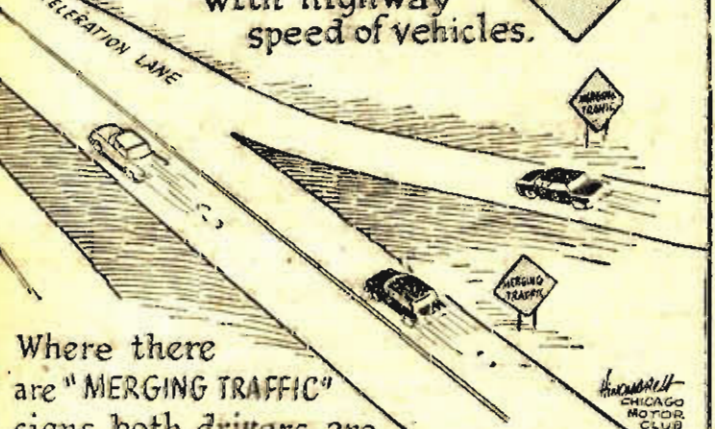

Another commented "American plants in foreign countries are there for two reasons. First, to exploit cheap labor; and second, to avoid taxation."

Or as another substantial businessman—district chairman commented "I have checked on the number of American owned plants abroad, and it looks like more to come. No wonder there is so much unemployment here." In the 240 page survey report there is ample evidence everywhere, thinking citizens are asking "There may be problems in Timbuctoo, but what about us American folks at home?"

Col. Edward T. Payson Writes New March For High School Bands

COLONEL PAYSON — NOTED DIRECTOR AND COMPOSER

Col. Edward T. Payson, veteran bandmaster and chairman of the Culver Military Academy music department, has written a new march that may well be played by high school bands throughout much of the Midwest.

Entitled "1961 Band," the march recently was made available to 100 members of the Culver Summer School Band, which is made up each year of musicians with experience in their own high school organizations.

"1951 Band" proved to be popular with the Band as well as with audiences attending parades and concerts here this summer. The march drew a near ovation during a Sunday afternoon concert in Eppley Auditorium.

Through Colonel Payson's long experience in working with high school musicians, Culver bands have traditionally played a large selection of numbers not played by other scholastic and collegiate bands. He has done a great deal of work transcribing symphonic works for band concerts at Culver.

Colonel Payson has been a member of the Culver faculty since 1926 and has chaired the music department since 1940. He studied music at Harvard College and at Wooster College, Wooster, Ohio, from which he received his degree in 1938. He was a veteran member of the South Bend Symphony Orchestra, and was cellist and soloist.

Aids 4-H Youth Home Projects For 15 Years

Sears Roebuck is celebrating two anniversaries this year; the 75th anniversary of the mail order firm's founding and the 15th year of sponsorship of the national 4-H home improvement awards program.

A conservative estimate reveals that more than 1,800,000 rooms have been improved as a result of the program. The total value of projects has been estimated by the members themselves at $380 million, or an average of $125 invested annually per member enrolled.

Prior to 1947, when the Sears-Roebuck Foundation undertook sponsorship of new awards, Sears stores had supported various local 4-H activities for more than two decades. In some states 4-H'ers were already working on room improvement projects.

Then with the addition of national recognition, participation increased and thousands of 4-H homes enjoyed better living, reports the National 4-H Service Committee.

Home improvement medals awarded to county winners for "making the best better" became a badge of accomplishment. At the end of the first year almost a third of the counties across the country named winners. The number of medals given was 1,190.

Proof of the popularity of this modern home project has been evidenced in the steady rise of county medal recipients. In 1950 some 3,400 medals were awarded by the Cooperative Extension Service which directs 4-H work. And in 1960 the number reached 6,000, when 70 per cent of all counties in 49 states named medal winners.

On November 25, home improvement trip award winners from virtually every state including Alaska and Hawaii, are expected to arrive in Chicago. They will remain for the week-long National 4-H Club Congress held at the Conrad Hilton hotel. Eight high-ranking members will receive $400 college scholarships.

Approximately 235,000 members are enrolled in the program this year. They redecorate their own bedrooms; rearrange living rooms; make drapes, spreads, slipcovers; remodel and upholster; plan, select and buy materials to complete projects. One of the high spots this year will be the annual Sears breakfast for the entire assemblage of some 2,000 club members, leaders, business people and guests attending the National 4-H Club Congress. A special program is planned to commemorate Sears' double birthday, according to the National 4-H Service Committee which schedules the event.

Steve, and Joy Lynn returned to their home in Tucson, Ariz., after a two-week visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cramer, Sr., Rose, and Don, and other relatives and friends in and around Burr Oak.

The Junior Fleet will sail the last race of the season next Saturday morning. The August 26 race was won by John Bateson of Munster, Linda Biggs of Lafayette was second, and Stevie Speer of Indianapolis came in third. We hope to have some new Junior Fleeters getting experience next Saturday so they can start with the rest in July, '62.

This was trophy week for the Senior Fleet. There is always a special trophy for the moonlight race winners and Bob Hollowell won it in a fast race last Saturday night. In fact, the Judges' boat came in second and the moon came out third!

On Sunday afternoon, the Fleet was competing for the beautiful Bliss trophy. After a poor start, Ken Bateson was around the first buoy but had to drop out of the race because of a severed halvard. Alex Somerville, sailing Hord's boat, crossed the finish line first, Rupert Esser was second, and Jerome Zechiel was third.

Next weekend will be the 1961 season's wind-up with the Judges' Joker Race and the M.Y.C. Award Dinner.

DEKALB CROP AND WEATHER REPORTING SERVICE

(Based on Reports from 100 Observers)
 There seemingly is no doubt that this year's crop will produce the highest average yield ever attained. Based on present conditions, the national average could well be 60 bushels per acre, which would beat the previous record by 5 bushels. This, in contrast to the 25 bushel per acre averages of pre-hybrid days, shows how far hybrid corn, fertilization, and favorable weather have advanced production. Only three times in the period from 1866 to 1940 did the national cornyield average exceed 30 bushel per acre. Those years were 1905, 1906 and 1920. The highest of the three was in 1906 when the United States produced its first 3 billion bushel crop on 95 million acres with an average yield of 31.7 bushels. This year's crop of approximately 4 billion bushels will be produced on 66.6 million acres.
 Rev. and Mrs. Herschel Dyer and family of Desoto, Ind., were Sunday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Osborn and Mrs. Kline Sales.

THE BIGGEST BABY OF 'EM ALL

Suddenly We're Not Hungry

Today we're giving you only one guess as to the No. 1 expense item in the family budget.

You're right. It's taxes.

Remember when food represented the heftiest outlay? The Grocery Manufacturers of America, Inc., slips the nasty news to us that food — traditionally the largest bite in household spending — is now far outstripped by taxes.

In 1960, the country's tax bill was $112 billion — compared to a food bill of $75½ billion. This reverses the situation of 1939, when the food bill was $15.7 billion and the tax bill came to only $12.4 billion — a figure which seems almost unbelievable today.

Now the tax bill is at least 50 per cent greater than the food bill, and the difference is growing wider.

Tax collectors take at least one dollar out of every $5 you fork over at the grocery market. The buck goes far a variety of taxes — necessarily included in the end price.

And to list all these taxes fully The Culver Citizen believes that it would take a price tag the size of a Union Township barn door!

Choose A Hobby Before You Retire At Age Of 65

Boredom May Lead To Early Death

By ROGER W. BABSON
 No. 1 U. S. Economist
 BABSON PARK, Mass.

Some readers may think this subject is a little out of my line, but so many of my friends have died of heart disease this past year that I can honestly call hobbies a real investment.

Roger W. Babson

A hobby is something which takes your mind off what is troubling you.

You may have difficulty sleeping, or you may not have a good appetite, or you may be worried about the trend of the stock market or some unfortunate family affair.

The cure is to get your mind on something else. An interesting hobby will do the job. Such a hobby, however, must be a "game" to you which will hold your interest, not a chore.

Why Not Collect Stamps

One of the most popular hobbies indulged in by professional men — such as doctors, lawyers, ministers, and politicians — is stamp collecting; the late Franklin D. Roosevelt was a great stamp collector.

It combines knowledge of geography with a possible chance for profit. Those who desire the latter, however, should confine themselves to stamps of one country, preferably those of the United States.

Or Become A Painter?

The same professional group turns also to painting — Sir Winston Churchill is a master in this.

With a few painting lessons it is remarkable what an amateur can do. Now that "jazz" painting is in style an amateur may do better than a professional! You cannot think of anything else when you paint. It often keeps you out-of-doors, and your paintings are always in demand by friends and relatives.

Carpentry Work and Crafts

These require a workshop somewhere in the house and the purchase of some machinery, which any hardware store will provide. Some executives make furniture for the older members of the family and others make airplanes for the kids, who love to watch.

Among other hobbies let me mention golf, photography, leathercraft, flower making, wood carving, Indian lore, shell collecting, rug making, bead work, glass etching, jewelry, weaving, mosaic panels and carpentry of all kinds.

My hobby is gardening — both vegetables and flowers.

Hobby Shows Are Popular

Once each year "hobby shows" take place in all the larger cities. For information about these, write Hobby Show Office, 3443 South Hill Street, Los Angeles, California.

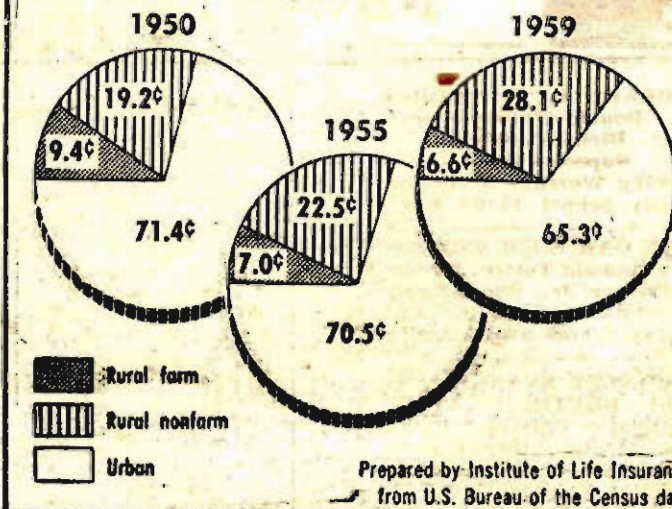

Also, you might subscribe to a hobby magazine in which you would find advertisements relating to the special hobby you are following or considering. Just reading an issue of a hobby magazine may take your mind off your troubles.

Inclined To Get Nervous?

Those who have bought stocks on borrowed money are inclined to get nervous and unsettled when the market goes against them. They are unable to sleep and cannot do their best work. They even buy more stocks when they should sell, and vice versa. These people are in desperate need of a hobby which would take their minds off the stock market and give them a clear judgement as to whether to buy or sell, or just hold.

THE FAMILY INCOME DOLLAR

Prepared by Institute of Life Insurance from U.S. Bureau of the Census data

Lay Off Tranquilizers!

As a temporary short-cut to "peace and plenty," many such worried people take drugs called "tranquilizers."

These drugs give only temporary relief; while a good hobby would be much more useful and non-habit-forming. Every brokerage office should have magazines on "hobbies" as well as The Wall Street Journal and similar papers on the stock market.

Every reader of this column should have a hobby. Executives and others who are to be retired at 65 years of age should have a hobby before the time of retirement.

Otherwise they will be left with nothing to do, which leads to deterioration and early death.

One more thought: If I were a young man looking for a "profession," I would sell hobbies!

Whether Or Not The Academy Is In Session

From where I sit ... by Joe Mars

Shorty Made No "Bones" About It

Folks thought it was a big joke when Shorty Johnson came back from Center City with a new St. Bernard for his kids.

And the truth was, Shorty did look kind of funny. The pooch practically filled the whole back seat of Shorty's car, and, when he let it out, it stood darn near as high as Shorty did!

But Shorty didn't mind the ribbing. As he explained, "I know—I look pretty silly with a dog like this. But when you've got eight kids like I do, and you get 'em a dog, you get one big enough so they can all play with it at once!"

From where I sit, folks should "size up" a situation before jumping to conclusions. For example, because Shorty likes coffee, I used to feel he'd disapproved when I'd have a glass of beer. But after I got to know him, I realized he was a tolerant man—one who'd never think of challenging his neighbor's right to his own opinions. This attitude is typical of most of the folks in our town—one of the things that makes them so "dog-gone" wonderful!

THREE STRIKES — A search of the files of The Ohio County News, published at Rising Sun, disproved the old saying, "lightning never strikes twice in the same place." After a recent bolt of lightning damaged a chimney of the Rising Sun Methodist Church, some residents recalled that the church had been struck before. A check of The News' files disclosed that on June 4, 1911, lightning had struck the church cupola and again on August 6, 1926, the cupola was set afire by a lightning bolt.

EXCURSION BOAT WHICH EXPLODED AT MONTICELLO MAY NOT BE REBUILT
PERU — Bill Luse, owner of the excursion boat, Robert E. Lee, which exploded on Lake Freeman near Monticello June 27, does not know yet if he will rebuild the boat.

Killed in the explosion was James Morecraft, age 17, of Peru. Luse and four others were severely injured and hospitalized in Monticello. Luse was released only a few days ago.

Luse said almost the entire boat would have to be rebuilt, since only the hull remained. The boat was not insured.

"Hoosier At Large"

on the LOCAL level by LOCAL police.

To that end, the FBI strives constantly to strengthen — not weaken! — local police agencies. The FBI National Academy superbly trains top-grade local officers so they, in turn, can instruct their own men. The FBI's great lab, immense identification bureau and many special services are freely offered to local police.

AN ASPIRING POLICE CZAR would try to intrude his agents into local fields. Again Hoover does the exact opposite. FBI agents will help on any case — but they take charge only when jurisdiction is clearly specified by law. Nor does Hoover seek new laws that would enlarge the FBI's scope. Usually he opposes them!

THE SMEAR BOYS would like us to believe that FBI agents are chronic violators of civil rights in all kinds of cases and ways.

That one really pains agents and those who know the FBI's methods and Hoover's scrupulous regards for individual rights. I don't think another police agency in the world guards individual rights more zealously than does the FBI.

BUT I'M PREJUDICED. Let's take the word of someone who was once biased the other way — Morris L. Ernst, sometimes counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union. In The Reader's Digest, Ernst wrote:

"Those who feared the Bureau as I once did will be glad to learn the facts. The FBI is unique in the history of national police. It has a magnificent record of respect for individual freedom. It invites documented complaints against its agents. It has zealously tried to prevent itself from violating the democratic processes. Among liberals, I am by no means alone in these opinions."

There isn't space here to cover all the bleats of the boys who'd like to cut the FBI's Samsonian hair. Suffice to say that virtually all of their phoney beefs can be clobbered by simple documented truth.

IT BEHOVES ALL OF US to help keep the FBI's record straight and clear. Hoover is 66 and years slip by. Some day he must leave and if the smear merchants can corrode public confidence a lesser, weaker director may succeed him.

THE COMMIES would love that . . . but our kids would suffer!

Tobacco Auctions: Today and Yesterday

This year's tobacco auctions are bringing tobacco farmers the best prices on record. Farmers in some 21 states will receive over $1 billion for their tobacco crops. At the auctions, the buyers (top right) face the auctioneer across stacks of cured tobacco. They bid by hand or head signals as the auctioneer continues his rapid-fire chant and a clerk records the sale of each lot of leaf. In the old days (bottom) buyers were often summoned to auction by a blast on a huge brass trumpet. Action at auctions then took a more leisurely pace. Both pictures are from the new book "Tobacco and Americans," by Robert K. Heimann, published by McGraw-Hill. The illustrated book traces the social and economic impact of the tobacco industry in this country.

Indianapolis To Get Professional Football

Representatives of the six cities comprising the newly-formed United Football League will meet in Indianapolis this weekend to adopt an official set of by-laws, discuss schedule and travel arrangements, and conduct other league business.

The Indianapolis Professional Football Club, Inc. earlier this year obtained a franchise to play in the league beginning this fall. Other cities fielding a team included Louisville, Grand Rapids, Cleveland, and Akron and Columbus, Ohio.

Started By Young Men

The United Football League was started by a group of young Columbus businessmen as a result of a very successful season by the Columbus Colts professional team last year.

The purpose of the league is to bring together cities of a comparable size which are interested in providing professional football for the entertainment of the citizens of the town and to allow the promoting group a chance to test the city's ability to support big league football.

League officials expect the brand of ball played in the league to be a cut above semi-pro but below either the American or National Football Leagues.

10-Game Season Scheduled

Each team will play a 10-game season, a "home-and-home" series with every other club, beginning in September and ending in November. All games will be played on Saturday night.

Officers of the Indianapolis club are Michael G. Schaefer, president; Richard H. Stackhouse vice-president; and Roland K. Swingley, secretary-treasurer. Club directors in addition include Banker Frank E. McKinney and J. Merritt (Jack) Thompson.

CIVIL WAR JUBILEE AT PLYMOUTH'S HOUSE OF MAPLE

Authentic Civil War relics are on display at the House of Maple to commemorate the centennial of the War Between the States.

Included are a sword which actually was used by a soldier in the great conflict, Civil War bullets collected from the historic battlefields, and authentic reproductions of original documents personally signed by General Robert E. Lee or President Abraham Lincoln.

The sword will be given away as the grand prize in a Civil War Jubilee Contest sponsored by the House of Maple.

Twenty-five bullets will be awarded as second prizes and 25 documents as third prizes. Winners will be determined in a Sept. 16 drawing from the entry blanks filled in and deposited in the store's contest box by Sept. 16 at 8 p.m.

For as long as they last $500 Confederate bills, authentically reproduced on yellowing parchment-like paper, will be given to anyone who visits the store.

On display, also, as part of the nation-wide Civil War Centennial observance, are authentic reproductions of historic posters produced in cooperation with the Civil War Centennial Commission, Washington, D. C., plus a Confederate battle flag and a 34-star Union Flag.

Those who visit the House of Maple will be able to trace the great battles of the War Between the Blue and the Gray on a large, colorful map which also lists a chronological history of Civil War events.

The map is accurate in every detail and was prepared with the help of two of our nation's foremost historians — Ralph G. Newman, author and founder of the famous Civil War Round Tables, and E. B. Long, author, considered by most authorities to be one of the world's leading "factmen" on the War Between the States.

GENE TIERNEY RETURNS TO ACTING AFTER SEVEN-YEAR ABSENCE FROM SCREEN

(This week, Ronald Reagan poses his questions to glamorous Gene Tierney, who returned to Hollywood for a starring role on Sunday's GE Theater on CBS-TV after a seven-year absence from the screen.)

Q. Gene, your lengthy illness was thoroughly reported in the papers but what prompted you to return to Hollywood at this time?

A. Well, Ronnie, I promised GE that I would star for them when my health returned—an obligation I felt I must meet after withdrawing from their first network program in 1954, when I became ill during rehearsals.

Q. Will you now consider other acting assignments?

A. Yes, I've agreed to appear for my former home studio in "Return to Peyton Place," and I hope to receive other acting offers.

Q. Now, with the renewal of your acting career and, I understand, a recent marriage to hotel magnate Howard Lee, will you continue to make your home in Connecticut?

A. Yes, because it will always be home to me. However, we'll spend much time in Houston where Mr. Lee conducts his business. Also in Aspen, Colo., which we love, and, of course, in Hollywood when I'm engaged in pictures.

Q. Just where is home, down East?

A. A lovely, sprawling place called "Green's Farms," between Westport and Fairfield, Connecticut, where I was reared, I'm a native of Brooklyn, however.

Q. For the house-and-home fanciers, will you describe Green's Farms?

A. It's a cottage at the end of a road and deceiving in appearance because we've added many rooms at the rear. Five bedrooms, six baths, dining room and parlor, kitchen and pantry. It's a mixture of decor—dining room is French provincial, livingroom is English, my husband's room is Colonial, my daughter's room is Early American as is the den, mother's room is Victorian, and mine is French provincial with a few pieces of cherrywood. It really satisfies all our tastes.

Q. Did you find time during your Hollywood stay for filming the GE episode to have any reunions?

A. Yes, many. And it was wonderful to see old and dear friends Dorothy McGuire, Jennifer Jones and David (Selznick), and my acting friends and executive friends at 20th Century-Fox, my old studio.

Q. Gene, since you've always personified what fashion writers refer to as "the sultry, sophisticated type," what makes a person glamorous?

A. It's an intangible thing, Ronnie. I feel it's an attitude, mostly inherent, and a combination of attractiveness, carriage, self-assurance, perhaps. Certainly, clothes enhance the picture of glamor.

Q. And your idea of the truly glamorous Hollywood females?

A. Greta Garbo, most certainly, has never outworn her glamor, Marlene Dietrich, Rosalind Russell, Irene Dunne, Joan Crawford, Kay Francis, Gloria Swanson all epitomize glamor, yet each in a different manner.

Q. Do people expect you, as a glamor girl, to be glamorous all the time?

A. I'm afraid so. I used to sneak into Beverly Hills to shop during luncheon breaks while filming a picture—hair up in curlers and wearing indiscreet slacks—until I caught some horrified stares. That did it.

Q. Since a wardrobe plays so important a part of glamor, what glamorous ensemble did you wear for your recent wedding?

A. Not so glamorous, Ronnie, since it was a simple wedding. I chose a Russian blue shantung dress, a natural Milan straw hat which bore blue forget-me-nots and deep red roses, and carried the same flowers. It was an outfit perfect for Spring wear or for the cocktail hour.

Q. Do you prefer classic lines in your clothes and what are your color preferences?

A. Classic lines are for me, since they seem to remain forever stylish. I have a Paris-bought suit that is not outmoded after seven years. In fact, I've had it re-lined twice. I prefer navy, black, and beige and I like to harmonize these colors, occasionally matching black with beige.

Q. And the final query, which I've saved: About that masculine name, Gene. How did that spelling, rather than J-E-A-N, come about?

A. Mother promised my maternal grandmother to name her child after my Uncle Eugene who passed away in his teens, and I became Gene. Somehow, mother felt that, as an infant, I was not the Eugenia type.
