Smutty Comic Books, Photos, And Card Decks Net Rats $500 Million A Year

J. EDGAR HOOVER, the FBI's great boss, a couple of years ago pointed an angry finger at some slimy creeps who can be properly clobbered only with the public's help.

"Let's wipe out the school-yard sex racket," urged Hoover in a magazine article aimed at filth peddlers who hawk cruddy pornography and often plant time bombs in shaky minds.

THE FBI CHIEF has abiding faith in the ability of Americans to solve any problem when given the facts and prodded into action. That faith was promptly affirmed. An aroused public sent smut sellers scurrying for cover and cut the flow of filth to a trickle.

Now, emboldened by relaxed public vigilance, some of these scummy hucksters have again crawled from under their wet rocks to ply anew a rotten but profitable trade.

Like roaches, these vermin hate light. . . so let's drop a bright beam and a harsh boom on 'em again!

WHEN THE PUBLIC dozes, pornography peddlers do a lush, $500 million-a-year business in the U.S. — a lot of it in school-yards.

Their M. O. is simple. Working from cars, they park near a big school, discreetly pass out a few "samples" to get the word around, make a big sell — then fade to a new spot.

The FBI nailed one rat whose car was loaded with 18,000 smutty comic books, card decks, photos and palm-size booklets of dirty jokes. The pinch pained this scum far less than the loss of his vile goods.

"That stuff's worth $20,000!" he wailed.

"OUR HEARTS BLEED for you," replied the FBIs dryly.

Unfortunately, Hoover's men are feebly armed in this war. Legally, they can move against only those peddlers who cross state lines.

When the wily rats stay within a state, the FBI can only tip off local authorities and, when asked, provide the services of their great lab and superb files.

THUS, THE PROBLEM is largely local and here again good police weapons are lacking. The ever moving, will-o'-the-wisp hucksters are hard to spot. The few who are juggled usually get off with piddling fines that scarcely wipe out one day's profit.

So when the public dozes, the hawkers laugh at the law, poison young minds and reap fat profits.

MORE THAN mere mental corruption is involved in this slimy traffic. Far too often smut books are the detonating caps that explode hideous sex-

Church Merger Links 2 Million Members

Dr. Oscar Wesson Attends Sessions

PHILADELPHIA — In the setting in which the United States forged its political union, the United Church of Christ recently sealed its history-making union of faith.

A constitution of the new 2,000,000 — member denomination was declared in force.

"We reiterate the pledge of our forefathers," said the Rev. Dr. Gerhard W. Gauer of Chicago, recalling a phrase from the American Declaration of Independence which also came in this city:

"We mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor."

21 Years Of Planning

Enactment of the constitution, climaxing 21 years of negotiations and planning, unites the Congregational Christian Churches, which trace back to the Pilgrims, and the Evangelical and Reformed Church which grew out of German Protestantism.

First In Nation

The church merger is the first in the nation combining denominations of different national backgrounds and organization. It was seen as setting a pattern for possible further unification of separate churches.

Said the Rev. Dr. James E. Wagner of Philadelphia, the E. and R. chief executive who served as co-president of the new church in its formative period:

"For the first time, we have demonstrated that communions of historically divergent traditions can, if they really want to do it, find a way to union fully consistent with their devotion to Christ and the Bible."

Autonomy Of Local Churches

The constitution provides for autonomy of local churches, a time-honored tradition for Congregational Christians, and for representative-type government of regional and national church organizations, an E. and R. characteristic.

A total of 6,413 local churches across the country—including 2,753 E. and R. congregations — became part of the union at the outset.

Many of the 1,422 C. C. churches, mostly small ones, which so far have not voted, were expected to join later.

There were 367 Congregational Christian Churches who voted to stay out.

Editor's Note: Dr. Oscar Wesson of Culver attended the historic Philadelphia meetings as a representative of the Michigan-Indiana Synod.

Argos Bank Is Building Huge Parking Lot

Fine Improvement For That Town

The State Exchange Bank of Argos has purchased the garage and office building occupied by Gates & Calhoun, as well as the vacant lot immediately west of the bank building; and, as soon as Gates & Calhoun have completed their new building, which is being erected just north of Argos on the east side of U. S. 31, the garage building (not the brick office building facing Michigan Street) will be torn down so that the ground now occupied by the garage building, as well as the vacant lot located west of the bank building, will be blacktopped for a public parking lot.

Gates & Calhoun had purchased the garage and office buildings of Franc Brewer and, after purchasing the same, they were advised by General Motors Corporation to contract a new building, after which Gates & Calhoun sold the property to The State Exchange Bank.

The office building which will be left, facing Michigan Street, will be remodeled and used for some useful purpose.

When this project is completed, The State Exchange Bank and its affiliates will have parking lots for each of its three Marshall County bank buildings.

Two Osteopaths Added To Parkview Staff

The Marshall County Hospital Board of Trustees last week voted 2-1 to accept the applications of two osteopaths to membership on the medical staff of the hospital. The two admitted are Dr. William Fish of Culver and Dr. Harold B. Wackerle, LaPaz.

These bring to four the number of the osteopathic physicians admitted to membership on the staff. The application of Dr. E. Duane Powers of Culver was approved earlier this year.

Robert Widmar and Philip Legge voted in favor of the osteopaths' admission. Mrs. Guy Davis voted against, and the board chairman, Rev. Wallace O. Moore, declined to vote.

ROGER F. SHEPPERD AND JAMES P. SPIERRY ENLIST IN U. S. ARMY

The U.S. Army recruiting service noted quite an upsurge in regular Army enlistments according to Sgt. Frank Mullins, Army recruiter for this area located at 212 North Main St., Mishawaka. There were four area men enlisted through the local office during the month of August, two of which enlisted for duty in Europe. Sergeant Mullins further stated that there were several quotas for Army service schools still open, and that persons enlisting during the month of September will take basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

Interested persons can contact Sergeant Mullins at the Plymouth Armory every Wednesday, or they may call Sgt. Fred Beam for an appointment.

Enlisting for European duty were: Roger F. Shepperd, Route 4, Plymouth, and James P. Sperry, 454 S. Ohio St., Culver. Other enlistees were Marvin W. Klinger, Route 4, Warsaw, and Gary Brock, 609 Lake Ave., Plymouth.

Academy's Winter School Begins Next Wednesday

850 Cadets Break Enrollment Record

Culver Military Academy will begin its 68th academic year Wednesday, Sept. 13, with its largest enrollment in history.

Expected to begin classes that day will be 850 students, an increase of 22 over a record enrollment of a year ago. Enrollment for the 1961-62 term represents capacity and is the third straight year in which the Academy has set a record for the number of students on campus.

Dean of Admissions Frank M. Bryant said the additional students are due to expansion of dormitory facilities.

Culver will have 816 boarding students and 34 day students. All students are enrolled in grades eight through 12.

The first students for the fall term began arriving last weekend. They are members of the Academy football team and editors of two student publications. Officers and new cadets will arrive on campus today, Sept. 6, while old cadets are scheduled for arrival Sunday, Sept. 10. The period between Sept. 6 and 10 will be used by faculty and cadet officers to indoctrinate new students.

The students are carrying out college preparatory studies under the direction of a faculty and administrative staff of 107.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest I. Geiselman, well known local residents, will observe their Golden Wedding anniversary on Sunday, Sept. 10, in their Culver home at 709 Obispo St.

Employed at the First National Bank of Monterey and the American National Bank at Kewanna for 14 years, the Geiselmans moved to Culver in 1927 where they operated the Corner Market for nine years in the building where the present Don Trone Shop is located. In February, 1956, Mr. Geiselman retired from Bendix Products Corp. in South Bend.

Wizard of Oz Lodge At Bass Lake To Host Worldwide Meeting

The Wizard of Oz Lodge at Bass Lake is busily preparing for an exciting three days when the first convention of the International Wizard of Oz Society will be held there on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, Sept. 8, 9, and 10.

Ozmopolitans, Baumophiles and all collectors of Ozmania, including professors, writers, and students from all over the country will gather to discuss and compare notes on their favorite subject and hobby — the collection of Oz books and other writings and material by and about L. Frank Baum, author of the famous books.

Adding to the interest of the occasion is the fact that the Wizard of Oz Lodge, only recently opened, is owned and operated by the author's son, Harry Neal Baum, and his wife, Brenda.

Highlight of the three-day session will be the banquet on Saturday night when members will take part in a "Come-as-your-favorite-Oz-Character" masquerade. Music from the original 1902 musical extravaganza of the "Wizard of Oz" will be performed.

Sunday's program will feature Oz and Baum exhibits in the afternoon and will be open to the public. The public is also welcome to attend the dinner at 7 o'clock, preceding the exhibit.

Special guests for the convention will be Russell McFall, an editor of the Chicago Tribune, and his wife. Mr. McFall has recently completed a biography of L. Frank Baum, entitled, "To Please A Child," which came off the press in August. Also expected to attend is Henry Regnery of Hinsdale, Ill., whose publishing company has recently taken over Reilly and Lee as publishers of the Oz books, which are as popular as ever.

Others attending will be Dick Martin, illustrator of several new editions of the Oz books, and Justin Schiller, of New York, founder of the Wizard of Oz Society, collector par excellence, and editor of "The Baum Bugle," a quarterly beloved by Baum collectors.

CHILDREN'S PHOTOGRAPHER AT CRABB'S FURNITURE STORE NEXT FRIDAY

The 20th Century Studios from St. Paul, Minn., will set up equipment in the Crabb Furniture Store in Culver on Friday, Sept. 8, to photograph local adults, youngsters, or family groups.

An expert children's photographer, this firm is equipped with the very latest in lighting, the new "speed" lights, which eliminate glare. These special lights, incidentally, enable the photographer to obtain natural expressions on children who are ordinarily frightened by bright lights.

The photographer will be available from 10 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock that evening, Friday, Sept. 8.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES ATTEND DISTRICT ASSEMBLY

"The loving unity of Jehovah's Witnesses, now represented in 181 lands, will hold despite the increasing disunity of this world, even when the whole worldly system of things crumbles in disunity at its Armageddon in the 'war of the great day of God the Almighty.'" These words by Nathan H. Knorr brought thunderous applause at the United Worshipers District Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Milwaukee, Wis., last week, according to returning delegates from Plymouth.

Stanley Spangler, presiding minister of the Plymouth congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, reported that Knorr's talk was the climax of the six-day gathering in Milwaukee's Arena-Auditorium.

Knorr's talk was distributed in booklet form to those attending, during an intermission. After that Knorr concluded the assembly with farewell talk in which he recounted highlights of a recent series of European conventions.

Eleven from the Marshall county group attended the assembly which was one of 13 held by the Witnesses this summer in the United States, Canada, and Europe.

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

There has been much said about taking the fat out of American defense.

But there is probably no connection between these high policy statements and the fact that at the army commissary store at Fort Benning, Georgia, the demand for a well known brand of 900 calorie powder meal diet food is so high that it is stacked on the floor with the cases cut open as it is impossible to keep the item stocked on the regular shelves.

C. W. Harder

But this is just one of the items stocked in one of the largest food chain operations in the country run by the armed forces. There are now 259 such stores in the continental U. S. doing an estimated $400,000,000 per year.

Because they pay no taxes, rent, utilities, and because a great part of the manpower costs comes out of defense costs, these stores sell from 20 to 25% less than independent stores in the area. The customers are active or retired members of the armed forces, plus their dependents.

While in a few remote areas, these armed forces commissaries may furnish a needed convenience, many are not necessary on this basis. For example, between the Presidio of San Francisco, in the heart of San Francisco, and Fort Lewis, surrounded by Tacoma, Washington, shopping areas, the two commissaries in these locations do almost a million dollars per month in food sales.

Actually, the majority of these government sponsored discount houses are located in big population centers where there is no shortage of stores. Military brass defends this system on the basis it is a fringe benefit to induce men to stay in business.

Of course, food retailers fail to understand why they should be cut into to provide for this fringe benefit. To them, it seems more logical for government to take the funds now spent on operating these commissaries and convert them into a blanket pay raise for servicemen.

Or as one food merchant is reported to have said "Where it's probably costing the government $10 to save the serviceman $7 on groceries, why not give him a $7 pay raise and save the other $3."

Probably even more important is the superb waste of manpower. The armed forces are very choosy about selecting for service only young men, physically and mentally sound, in short men capable of more than ordinary physical, mental and nervous accomplishments. This is as it should be.

But it does seem quite a waste of the flower of American manhood to be assigned to such duties as trimming lettuce.

Or consider officers carefully and expensively educated in the principles of Clausewitz, Mahan, in navigation, radar, ordnance, ballistics and logistics.

It does seem quite a waste to take groups of these highly trained professionals and put them to work computing how many cases of corn flakes they should buy on a given day for store stock as compared to the number of cases they should buy of a cereal that snaps, pops, and crackles. This is perhaps as silly as the situation that would result if a law were passed requiring U. S. Senators to serve also as postal carriers in Washington.

"Top Cat," TV's newest nighttime animated film comedy series, will start Wednesday, September 27. It promises to set a new pattern for hilarious, all-family entertainment.

A roomy trash can in a cozy alley is home for "Top Cat," the star. He is a nimble witted mastermind, a natural-born leader, aggressive, and a "doer." But through it all he remains good-hearted.

His followers—also animated felines—are "Benny the Ball," "Choo Choo," "Spook,"

"Brain," and "Fancy Fancy."

A prominent, non-cat character is Police Officer Dibble who is constantly frustrated by the antics of "Top Cat" and his cohorts.

Arnold Stang, Allen Jenkins, Maurice Gosfield, Marvin Kaplan, Leo De Lyon, John Stephenson and other well known actors supply the voices. Bill Hanna and Joe Barbera, who created Huckleberry Hound, Yogi Bear, Quick Draw McGraw and The Flintstones, are producers. Kellogg's of Battle Creek is co-sponsor.

Oscar B. Perine, genial Indianapolis business tycoon, while fishing from his favorite overstuffed chair at the end of his long pier at his beautiful summer home at 1954 East Shore Drive a week ago Sunday morning caught a 4 1/2 pound small mouth bass — largest reported this season around Lake Maxinkuckee.

His ex-newspaperman friend, Tommy Hendricks, of 1780 East Shore Drive, promptly happened along and sent the big news to Lowell Nussbaum who published it in his popular Indianapolis Star daily column.

In appreciation of this publicity Oscar presented the whopping big fish to Tommy who had it mounted and it now hangs over the bar at the Princeton Club in New York according to unreliable reports.

C'MON OVER HERE, LADY!

How To Stop A Strike In 10 Seconds

The other day, in the town of Dagenham, England, a normally meek housewife with the grand old name of Smith, broke up a strike against the American-owned Ford Motor Company plant.

For one long week, Mrs. Evelyn Smith listened to the yak-yak of the strike leaders, meanwhile watching the stoppage cut into the family savings.

At week's end, she'd had it. So she mounted a platform at a mass rally, grabbed a mike, and spoke for 10 seconds.

"I'm an ordinary wife of a Ford worker," she said, "and I think I'm entitled to speak — WHY DON'T YOU ALL GO BACK TO WORK?"

There were scattered boos and catcalls. But Mrs. Smith had scored. In a subsequent vote, the strikers elected to defy their leaders and return to work.

Said Mrs. Smith: "I was fed up seeing my husband sitting around miserable at home. The union leaders just don't represent the men any more."

Said husband Smith: "I'm proud of her."

Say we at The Culver Citizen:

"Wish Mrs. Smith would take the next U. S.-bound jet. We sure could use her in this country."

C. W. BROOKS FAMILY MOVE TO FORT WAYNE

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brooks and children, Peggy and Charles, moved Saturday to Fort Wayne. Mr. Brooks is a traffic inspector with Market Insurance and has been transferred to that area.

Though residents of Culver only a few years, they contributed much to the community and will be greatly missed.

They were very active members of the Grace United Church of Christ, Order of the Eastern Star in which Mr. and Mrs. Brooks held office, and Mr. Brooks was a member of the Masonic Lodge and very active in the Maxinkuckee Fish and Game Club.

Their home on East Washington Street has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Evans of South Bend. Mr. Evans will be employed at the Park 'N Shop Supermarket as a meat cutter.

Next to the Churches a newspaper is a town's most valuable asset. — Roger W. Babson.

It's The Little Things

By MARGARET CLYNE

Labor Day weekend is like a tearful smile. All the wonderful summer friends are closing their places and school is the main topic of conversation. There will be a few flurries of activity on September weekends, but they are the little encores — the summer masterpiece has been played.

The gay confetti sails of the Academy boats have been carefully folded away and there is a void that used to be filled by the excited chatter of ingenuities here to attend the dances at "rec" hall.

The drone of the skier's boats will be replaced by stuttering fisherboats and the air will ring with the sharp blows of the hammer as the piers are taken in and piled on the shore. The tree fringed beaches will not be slashed with the sailboats pointing finger-masts at the sky that spoiled so much of their fun this summer.

We wish the summer residents could see our beautiful lake in the autumn, with its necklace of flaming red, vivid gold and bronze colored trees; with the sun bright and hot on the water in daytime, followed by a quick twilight with the tang of wood-smoke in the air.

The winter lake is so peaceful with the ice and snow glinting white-bright or hiding in a lavender-blue haze. The gleaming ring of electricity has dwindled to a few twinkles with the Academy's lights forming a glittering lavalier. The lake ice has a language of its own, so the quiet scene is punctuated with sharp cracks and moans as the ice expands and melts.

Spring! Spring spreads a lace of pale green embroidered with flowering plum to the water's edge and the air is so soft and full of promise that we just drift along in the beauty.

Before we know it — bang! bang! the hammers are at the piers again; squeak! squeak! the boathouse winches are setting the boats in the water again; groan! there are no parking places in town again!

But we miss you all — so please try to come see us soon?

The proud grandfathers seem to take delight in disproving the statement that "kids don't swim any more" and I'm glad! Ted and Ruth Baxter followed their granddaughter, Dianne Somerville, as she swam the width of the lake last Thursday morning. Lianne is just 12 years old and enters Tudor Hall next week. She is staying with her grandparents on East Shore Road until then.

Ted and Ruth Baxter have an intense curiosity about this world and the people in it. They spent three months in the Fiji Islands last year and vowed that this winter would be for lazing on the sands in Florida. But vague little references to Egypt, and Bangkok, and Cambodia keep creeping into their conversations. Send us a post card?

Two good friends had a joyful reunion Labor Day weekend after a summer of travel in different directions. Brenda McCutchan, daughter of Bob and L. L. McCutchan of Lebanon, Ind., returned to their cottage on West Shore Drive to rest up after a strenuous trip to Europe. She toured England, France, Germany, Switzerland, Lichtenstein and Italy. She enters DePauw this fall.

Kathy Clyne, daughter of Peg and Joe Clyne, spent most of the summer in Mexico. She had three weeks of intensive study with the Spanish Workshop in Monterey.

EARL MISHLER TO ENROLL AT VALPARAISO UNIVERSITY VALPARAISO, Ind. (Special) — Earl Mishler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben M. Mishler, 427 West Washington St., Culver, is one of an estimated 1,000 new students who are expected to enroll at Valparaiso (Ind.) University this fall.

The 1,000 new students are a part of an expected total census of 2,800 students. The predicted figure will give the Lutheran University a record-breaking enrollment. The figure is more than 100 higher than the 2,667 fall enrollment of 1960-61.

 Effective prayer will be a theme dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday in a Lesson-Sermon entitled "Substance."
 Scriptural readings will include the account in Luke of the Master's parable about the two men, one a Pharisee and the other a publican, who went up into the temple to pray.
 From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this citation will be read (p.2): "What are the motives for prayer? Do we pray to make ourselves better or to benefit those who hear us, to enlighten the infinite or to be heard of men? Are we benefited by praying? Yes, the desire which goes forth hungering after righteousness is blessed of our Father, and it does not return unto us void."
 The Golden Text is from Hebrews (3): "We are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end."

DeKALB CROP AND WEATHER REPORTING SERVICE
 (Based on Reports from 100 Observers)
 The Mid-South — Arkansas, Mississippi, Missouri and Tennessee — joins the corn belt in expecting one of the best crop years in history. Cotton, corn, rice and soybeans are all expected to be good crops. Crops in this area are two to three weeks later than usual, but condition is very good.
 It is of interest that Arkansas has advanced to a position as No. 5 producer of soybeans. Illinois has always been first, with Decatur as the acknowledged capital of soybean processing. Iowa is now second, as the corn and soybean crops naturally go well together, then Indiana and Missouri follow in 3rd and 4th. But Arkansas' estimated 56 million bushel crop this year will be 1/12 of the national total.
 Hot days in late August advanced corn maturity rapidly. The Iowa crop was about normal in development with 25% dented by August 25th. Most advanced Iowa corn was in central Iowa with latest in the northeast. Even there, 20% was dented by August 30th. Northeast Missouri reported 90% out of the way of damage by normal frost as early as August 25.
 The eastern corn belt area in Indiana and Ohio reported that their corn crop which had been as much as 2 weeks behind normal in southern Indiana was advancing rapidly in late August's 90-degree plus temperature.
 DeKalb crop reporters continue to designate corn crop conditions in all areas as "Very Good" to "Excellent." One of these especially good areas is in northeast Nebraska where the best crops ever are predicted. Dryland sorghum yields of up to 100 bushels per acre on the best fields are expected. A similar area of top-notch crops in eastern Missouri extends over into the bulge of western Illinois.

"Hoosier At Large"

Hoover flatly calls pornography a "major cause" of sex crimes and aptly fingers a curious irony close to the core of the problem.

"It is appalling," Hoover wrote, "that an entire community can work itself into a hysteria of outrage, yet tend to regard the man who helped trigger the criminal as only a contemptible human being, better ignored than punished."

Do you begin to see why you . . . and you . . . and I are the key to the solution of this dirty, distasteful problem?

ISN'T IT PLAIN that only an aroused public that stays alert can effectively clobber these peddlers of poisonous filth and incipient violence?

O. K. — so what can you . . . and you . . . and I do? Three things:

1. BE WATCHFUL. When obscene muck turns up, don't sweep it under the rug. Get mad! Notify police, other parents, school officials, and everyone else concerned.

2. START PLUGGING for harsher penalty laws and ordinances. Arm your police with realistic weapons. Hoover said it like this: "The glorification of degeneracy will disappear only if we make it a risky, unprofitable business."

3. GIVE YOUR children a healthy knowledge of sex facts in their own homes — and wholesome, creative outlets for their restless energy. Give them a reverent attitude toward the marvel of reproduction, not a stifled curiosity that leads to gutter wares of slimy peddlers.

IF WE MEET THIS challenge we'll be richly rewarded with a superb generation of healthy-minded young people in a cleaner, better America!

TEACH CHILDREN RULES TO LIVE BY

Whether your children walk . . . ride . . . or climb on a bus to get to school, give them a set of safety rules to live by.

Knowing where and how to cross the street or road is important for children who walk to school. After seeing that the way is clear, they should walk — not run — across the street.

Children who obey authority — whether it's a school patrolman, policeman or bus driver — are most likely to return home unharmed.

Where there are no sidewalks, children should walk on the left-hand shoulder of the road so that they can see oncoming cars. A bright jacket or cap will help drivers see them.

Bicycle riders must not only obey traffic signs but must be ready to give way to thoughtless or careless drivers. Bicyclists should keep close to the edge of the street.

Children who ride a school bus should follow two rules. Obey the driver and be careful of traffic when entering or leaving the bus.

WATCH FOR CHILDREN

. . . they're our most valuable assets!

Yacht Club News

By MARGARET CLYNE
For the past thirty-four years, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Delmar T. Spivey have spent as much time as possible at their beloved Lake Androscoggin in Maine. The general's strenuous duties at the Academy have made vacation days very precious, but he and his wife gave up two days there in order to be gracious hosts at the cocktail party held in their gardens preceding the Award dinner. In fact, the Spiveys arrived just an hour before party time but they were as gay and relaxed as their guests. The invitations were from 5:30 to 7:30 — and with beautiful luck, the rains held off until everyone had left the lawn!

The dining room at The Culver Inn was very nautical with all the Yacht Club flags displayed above the speakers' table and fleets of blue and white sailboats anchored down the centers of the tables.

Tad Louderback, chairman of the election board, announced that the officers for next year will be the same as this year. Tad then presented an award to Don Speer, who served as Commodore, to Chief Judge Richard Gunder, to Chief Timer Dale Riggs and to Secretary-Treasurer Laura Gunder.

Tom Sams, chairman of the Junior Fleet, presented John Bateson with the Junior Champion Skipper Trophy. Jeff Grund received the runner-up trophy. Each junior skipper who had participated in at least three races during the season received a desk pen with the M.Y.C. emblem on the stand.

Tom Sams was then surprised as John Bateson, speaking for the Junior Fleet, presented him with a gift of appreciation! The juniors had all chipped in to give it. Commodore Don Speer gave a quick resume of the summer's events with a special mention for all those who contributed their time and talents to the year's success. Then he presented the awards.

Bill Furry received the Class "C" Winslow Memorial Trophy for winning the summer regatta. Jerome Zechiel won the M.Y.C. trophy for runner-up.

Ken Bateson, winner of "C" races in '60, received a permanent trophy.

Bill Furry received the L. Roy

Ford trophy given to the winner of the first official race which was held June 26.

Alex Somerville won the Henry W. Bliss trophy for the second consecutive year. This trophy is given to the winner of the last official race which was held Aug. 28.

Bill Furry won the Winslow trophy awarded to the skipper under 21 years who had made most progress in sailing in the last two years.

Tom Sams won the Fred Holmes trophy awarded best hoy crew (he crewed for Rupert Esser.) Kris Truman received the Fred Holmes trophy given to the best girl crew (she crewed for Bill Furry).

Robert Hollowell Jr., and Jerome Zechiel received M.Y.C. trophies for winning moonlight races.

Each individual race winner received M.Y.C. trophies with an emblem for each race won. These were awarded to Bill Furry, Ken Bateson, Bob Hollowell, Tom Heckel, Jerome Zechiel, and Rupert Esser.

The coveted sportsmanship trophy donated by Frank and Charlotte Gates was awarded to Rupert Esser.

All this was the Grand Finale, climaxed by the Judges' Joker Race held on Saturday. The judges had chosen a course including each buoy (usually only three buoys are used), but the joker was that each buoy had to be completely circled — a difficult feat in a sailboat. What the judges hadn't looked for was a very fresh and gusty wind that snapped Bill Furry's mast, tipped Kathy Clyne's boat over the second time after she and her crew, Carl Wagner, had righted it, without help, and forced Bob Hollowell and Ken Bateson out of the race. Rupert Esser sailed the course with a veteran's skill and won the trophy.

FIREMEN CALLED TO BURR OAK SUNDAY

The Culver Fire Department was called at 4:30 p.m. Sunday to a house south of Burr Oak west of the residence of Mrs. Rossie Moore, but by the time the firemen arrived the building was leveled.

The house was occupied by Oscar Workman, who was working at the home of Mrs. Moore when a neighbor, Warren England, noticed the blaze and notified Workman. Mrs. Moore summoned the firemen.

Fire Chief David Burns could not determine the cause of the blaze. He estimated the loss of house and contents between $500 and $600. The house was not insured.
