"HOOSIER AT LARGE"

By Al Spiers

One Break Too Many!
THIS IS A gospel-true behind-the-scenes police story, but names and locale must be mercifully masked. A wife, some nice kids and a kindly town marshal have suffered enough . . .

By nature, Marshal Ed isn't a tough, strict, by-the-book cop. He's pretty reasonable about most things.

But any giggle-juiced gent he catches driving has had it. Begging for a break is wasted breath.

There's a reason. Ed never voices it, but it's etched in his mind.

You can kill a man with kindness. . . .

THIS STORY BEGAN — and ended! — with an average guy named Joe who lost a bout with old John Barleycorn.

Until he started hitting booze and the skids, Joe worked hard to support a good wife and several fine kids.

One night Joe didn't quite make it home. Marshal Ed found him blotto behind the wheel of a car slopped over the curb. Joe sobered up in jail. Next day he was hung over and full of genuine remorse when Ed gave him a blistering lecture.

"I could book you," Ed concluded. "You'd pay a stiff fine, lose your license — and probably your job. But that would hurt your wife and kids more than it would hurt you. So I'll give you a break — on one condition."

Joe licked dry lips and waited, eyes scared and pleading.

"You're joining Alcoholics Anonymous," Marshal Ed ordered. "And you're going to work at it. Back-slide just once and I'll throw the book at you. . . ."

"Thanks, Ed," said Joe fervently. "I won't back-slide. Believe me, I've learned a lesson."

FOR MONTHS thereafter, Marshal Ed had no cause for regret. Joe joined AA—and didn't touch a drop. His health improved and so did his home life. Everything pointed to a happy ending.

But one sad night more than a year later Joe slipped and nibbled that first drink again, at home. In an hour he was tight.

"Please go to bed, Joe," his wife begged.

Although badly fogged, Joe had enough sense to obey. But sleep wouldn't come, and the devils inside Joe kept tormenting. . . and prodding.

At last he arose, dressed, stalked out — and drove to the town tavern. Joe was flying high when Marshal Ed found him.

Briefly, Ed debated . . . and let Joe's year-plus of fine behavior tip the scales. He took Joe home, put him to bed, confiscated his car keys and warned, "This is your last break!"

"A'right . . . a'right . . . so g'way," muttered Joe irritably. Ed shrugged and left.

Slyly, then, Joe wobbled out of bed, called a cab, returned to the car he'd left near the tavern and tumbled up the hood, muttering, "Didn't know I had a spare key tapped inside here, did he? I'll show 'im."

An hour later Joe was dead — mangled to pulp by a huge truck he drilled head-on.

And Marshal Ed was bearing the mental burden he'll take to his grave. He'd given a drunk-driver one break too many — and killed him!

He later commanded the destroyer USS Parker during the North African and Sicilian campaigns, and was in command of an Atlantic task force during the invasion of Italy. Admiral Bays was operations and planning officer on the staff of Admiral Alan Kirk for the invasion of Normandy.

New Street Lights Being Installed In Business Sections

Work was begun recently by the Northern Indiana Public Service Company installing new street lights in the business sections of Culver.

The new vapor type lights, which will distribute approximately four times as much light as the old type, are being installed in the two business blocks on Main Street and from the Shell Service Station to the Culver Lodge Motel in the north part of town.

The new lights are being supplied by NIPSCO and the Town of Culver will make monthly payments for the electricity. Installation is expected to be completed sometime this week.

Tom Cultice To Be Presented In Recital Tuesday

TOM CULTICE

Tuesday night, Nov. 28, will bring to Culver music lovers, a program which promises to be one of a relatively few truly fine events in the musical history of this community.

The Seven Arts group of the Faculty Wives Association will present Tom Cultice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cultice of Culver, in a recital in the Concert Hall of the Epley Auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

While still in grade school Tom showed exceptional interest in music. As a student in the Culver High School he studied piano ardently and successfully. By graduation time he had decided on a career in music and enrolled in the School of Music at Michigan University in Ann Arbor. There he found his true metier in singing and became a voice major.

At Michigan a naturally rich and sympathetic voice was developed into an instrument of dramatic calibre without losing its warmth. Mr. Cultice toured throughout the United States as a soloist with the University Men's Glee Club and appeared with them on the Pat Boone Show. In major operatic productions in Ann Arbor he sang the roles of Papageno in "The Magic Flute" and Tonio in "I Pagliacci." He also toured the Northern United States as a soloist with the "Michigan Singers."

In a completely unacknowledged and most demanding program Mr. Cultice will sing music by Scarlatti, Samuel Barber, Brahms, and Ravel. He will be accompanied by James Herring, pianist, and in the dramatic setting of "Dover Beach," by a string quartet including Carol Jewel and Susan Bastedo, violinists, Janice Hupp, violist, and Carolyn Hallk, cellist, all from the University of Michigan.

The recital by Mr. Cultice is open without admission charge to all music lovers of the community. All members of the audience are cordially invited to join us in the Art Gallery following the concert to meet the artists and have coffee.

Academy Buys 81 Acres From Judson Dillon

The Culver Military Academy has purchased an 81-acre tract of land from Judson A. Dillon, Superintendent Delmar T. Spivey has announced.

The tract borders Highways 17 and 10, and has been under negotiation since early summer.

"We have bought the land from Mr. Dillon in the event it is needed for further faculty housing sites and to enhance the value of Academy property in the same general vicinity," Superintendent Spivey said.

The superintendent said the Academy will own all the land bordering on the west by Highway 17, on the south by Highway 10, and on the north by the county gravel road that intersects Highway 17 at the Three Sisters Restaurant. Present Academy property borders the Dillon tract on the east. The lone exception is a small piece of land owned and used by N. A. Lichtenberger for a home site.

Under the agreement Dillon will remove several structures standing on the property. Dillon also has the right to harvest any crops planted by him on the tract at the present time.

Superintendent Spivey said the Academy has already planted winter wheat on the property. Next spring, the remainder of the tillable soil will be planted in corn.

The deed was prepared by W. O. Osborn, attorney for the Academy.

Glenn Overmyer Elected Chairman Of Farm Bureau

Awarded Grant Of $11,400 From Naval Research

DR. RONN N. MINNE

Dr. Ronn N. Minne, chairman of the science department at Culver Military Academy, has been awarded a research grant of $11,400 by the Office of Naval Research.

The grant is one of the few ever granted by the U.S. Navy to a secondary school instructor.

Under the grant beginning Feb. 1, 1962, Dr. Minne will conduct research in the field of coordination polymers. The project is a continuation of work done by Dr. Minne during graduate study at Harvard University.

"The project," said Dr. Minne, "is one of basic research into certain aspects of the chemistry involved in coordination polymers. It is consistent with Office of Naval Research policy of supporting basic research that may lead to practical application."

Terms Of Grant

Terms of the grant will provide Dr. Minne with supplies and equipment for three years. During this time he will study coordination of silylamine polymers with metal ions. Polymers are large molecules made up of repeating simpler units, examples of which are rubber and plastics.

Dr. Minne did research at Harvard during three of the four years in which he studied for his doctorate. The U.S. Navy supported the project through a grant given Harvard Professor E. G. Rochow, under whom Dr. Minne studied. The Office of Naval Research published Dr. Minne's thesis on the subject.

Dr. Minne was appointed chairman of the science department at Culver at the start of the current academic year. He has been a member of the faculty since 1954 except for the years in which he studied for his doctorate at Harvard.

DuPont Fellowship

Dr. Minne was awarded a DuPont Postgraduate Teaching Fellowship and a National Science Foundation Cooperative Fellowship in addition to the aid given by the Office of Naval Research at Harvard.

A native of Menominee, Mich., Dr. Minne received his Bachelor of Science degree and Master of Science degrees from Northwestern University. He taught at Community High School, Dundee, Ill., and at Los Alamos (New Mexico) High School. Dr. Minne has been a member of the staff of the Culver Summer Schools for ten years and has served as Director of Instruction in Woodcraft Camp for the past two summers.

Indians Amass 59 Points But Lose To Tyner

First Home Game Tuesday, Nov. 28

By Earl D. Mishler

The Culver Indians dropped their third straight basketball game last Friday night at Tyner to the tune of 65-59.

Coach Gene Crosley's squad faced three equally troublesome roadblockers: injury, illness, and a zone press. Senior forward John Benedict, a tower of strength on the boards, suffered a painful knee injury mid-way in the game. Tom Boswell, whose 22 points were the best of the night, was bothered by the flu bug, and sophomore guard Paul White was below par due to an infected ear.

But Tyner's speedy Redmen worked their zone press to perfection, forcing many Culver errors before the Indians could reach mid-court. In addition Coach Hal Muncie's speedsters used a unique one-man fast break, featuring a court-length pass to dead-eye Rex Stull, whose driving and outside shooting made him Marshall County's leading scoring threat.

Culver jumped away to a 9-4 margin with Benedict hitting six points. But the tight zone press of the hosts turned the tables, and Tyner led 16-9 at the quarter. With their long range shooting at its sharpest, the Redmen stretched the lead to a 28-14 midway in the second period. But Culver's superior height helped ease the margin to a 34-26 at halftime.

Despite Benedict's continued absence in the second half, Culver outscored the winners 23-31. But the Indians blew 17 free throw opportunities, while, for the third straight week, the hosts calmly sank the crucial gift tosses in the waning moments.

Stull and veteran center Bob Huff led Tyner with 19 and 18 points respectively. Jim Carter, playing his finest game thus far, hit 7 fielders for 14 points to back up Boswell's 22, while Benedict hit 10 markers in his brief appearance.

The Tyner B-Team also had some sharpshooters, as they walked away with a 54-36 triumph over our Papooses. Soph Paul White and Frank Ikirt had 8 points apiece for Culver, whose record is also 0-3.

Next Tuesday, Nov. 28, the long-awaited home opener against Richland Center is scheduled. The Indians have had three weeks of strange floors, injuries, illness, and just plain bad luck. Let's really welcome them home next Tuesday with a huge turnout.

Hohman, a major in biology at Knox, is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Harold W. Hohman. He is a graduate of Fenton High School, Bensenville, Ill.

C. A. Marshall
To Coach C.M.A.
Basketball Team

Howe Military Is Opening Opponent

Culver Military Academy will open a basketball season under a new coach for the first time in nearly two decades Dec. 1 when the Eagles face Howe Military Academy here.

Directing the team at that time will be Chester A. Marshall, one-time captain of the West Virginia Wesleyan College team, who takes over this season for veteran coach Russ Oliver. Culver basketball coach for 22 seasons, except for the war years, Oliver has been relieved temporarily of all but football coaching duties to devote time to alumni affairs.

Marshall inherits four lettermen from last year's team that won nine and lost six games under Oliver. Key player Joe Schluchter, team captain from Detroit, who will attempt to fill the gap left by the graduation of ace Paul Schuldt, who broke an all-time Culver scoring record last year, and Dexter Blome, who is ineligible due to the nine-semester rule. Other returning lettermen are Mike Ryan, Long Grove, Ill., and Bill Borkenstein, Fort Wayne, Ind., two small back court men, and Dan Vance, a 6-4 rebounder from Gary, Ind.

"I look forward to a fairly good varsity team with the best reserves I have ever seen at Culver," said Marshall.

Marshall has been frosh-soph football and basketball coach at Culver since 1952. He served as wrestling coach, was named director of athletics of the Culver Summer Schools last July, and serves as head of the physical education department during the winter.

Marshall, who looks like a basketball player because of his 6-4 frame, is a graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, W. Va. He was an all-conference, all-state, and all-tournament selection prior to his graduation in 1947. Marshall also attended West Virginia University, where he received his master's degree in 1949, and is doing graduate study on his doctorate at Indiana University.

Culver will play 17 varsity games and 15 junior varsity games this season. The Culver "B" team will be guided by James DeArmond, a June graduate of DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind. The varsity schedule:

- Dec. 1 — Howe Military Academy (home)
- Dec. 2 — LaPaz High School (away)
- Dec. 8 — Crown Point High School (away)
- Dec. 9 — Pike High School (home)

Delicious refreshments were served to 14 members and two guests, Pastor Mueller and Mrs. Mueller.

State Approves
Bookmobile Demonstration

Benefits Marshall, Starke Counties

A plan to extend free and improved library service to all persons in Marshall and Starke Counties was approved by the Board of the Indiana State Library at its last meeting Nov. 3.

The plan which was originally agreed upon and submitted by four libraries of the two-county area, was first approved by the Indiana Public Library Development Committee. Application was made to them for a bookmobile demonstration to be made possible under the Library Services Act, with additional funds for the use of local libraries to strengthen the services they already offer.

Besides providing bookmobile service to the townships now without library services, the libraries participating will also use the bookmobile for service to their own rural areas, and will be able to extend hours the libraries are now open, add new books to their shelves, and generally strengthen their services.

A meeting was held at the Knox High School Oct. 25, at which Miss Marcelle Foote, Head of the Extension Division of the Indiana State Library, explained how the demonstration could be set up for the two counties with the aid of funds now available through the Library Services Act. The Act, passed in 1956, and renewed in 1960, is designated for the improvement and extension of library services to rural areas in the United States. As a result of that meeting, the library boards of the Knox Center Public Library, the North Judson Public Library, Culver Public Library and Plymouth Public Library agreed to cooperate in the plan submitted to the Public Library Development Committee.

In Starke County there are only three libraries; namely, Knox Center, North Judson and Hamlet. There are six unserved townships; namely, California, Jackson, North Bend, Oregon, Railroad and Washington.

In Marshall County there are four townships without library service: North, West, Polk, and Tippecanoe. The total unserved population in these townships is 7807. The total for the six Starke County townships is 7824. Marshall County has libraries at Argos, Bourbon, Bremen, Culver, and Plymouth.

The plan to extend library services also proposes reciprocal borrowing among these libraries, so that books may be requested and borrowed from any participating library.

Besides providing the bookmobile, stocked with approximately 3,000 new books, funds will be allowed each participating library for additional books and salaries. The salary of a bookmobile driver and a bookmobile librarian will also be provided by LSA funds for the two-year demonstration period. The proposed budget to initiate the plan was a total of $58,250, with a possible second year plan costing $38,750.

According to the plan, the Plymouth Public Library will be the center for the bookmobile, with Mrs. Stella Binkele, Plymouth librarian acting as supervisor.

The ultimate purpose of the plan is to provide better library services for the area, and to aid all libraries to give better service through cooperation.

PASTOR E. M. HALL

Pastor E. M. Hall, of Grand Rapids, Mich., will begin a series of Evangelistic services at the Burr Oak Church of God, on Monday, Nov. 27. He will be speaking each night, except Saturday, continuing through Dec. 3.

The services will begin each night at 7:30 p.m. Special musical numbers will be featured during the services. The public is invited to attend these services and share in the spiritual blessings received from these messages.

Pastor Hall, at present, is pastor of the Pennellwood Church of God, in Grand Rapids, Mich. Until recently, he was pastoring the Church of God at Fonthill, Ontario, Canada.

The subjects as announced by Pastor Hall are: Monday - Our Judgement As Sower; Tuesday - Our Judgement As Stewards; Wednesday - Our Judgement As Sons; Thursday - Our Final Judgement; Friday - Modern Philosophy versus Christianity. These messages will be delivered consecutively.

Sermon topics for Sunday services will be: Morning - Working In God's Vineyard; Evening - Steps That Save A Man.

The Burr Oak Church of God feels that Pastor Hall is a spiritual leader in the Church of God and invites the public to share in this opportunity of worship.

Thanksgiving Is Discussed By Dennis Shock

POOR RICHARD'S PROGENY
When the well's dry, we know the worth of water.

— B. Franklin
This theme, which was submitted by Mr. Graham and written by Dennis Shock, a Junior, comes very near to giving us something to be thankful for over our Thanksgiving vacation — to be truthful, it lists many things which we should be thankful for having. Settle back in your easy chair and prepare to do some serious thinking because this theme will require it to finish it completely.

— The Co-Editor.
Prosperity, freedom, conveniences, and security are just a few of the things we enjoy in America. Yet, do we know their real worth? Quite often ones appreciation of his rights and good fortune declines as time goes on. Soon, everything is taken for granted and it is at this point, more than at any other time, that we are more likely to lose what we have, be it great or small.

I am using the American people as an example because of the lack of appreciation of our many rights and privileges which we enjoy. For example, every Sunday morning many Americans might rise and say to themselves, "I'm too tired to go to church this morning," or it might be, "Which church shall I attend this Sunday?" Freedom of worship originated in America as did many other rights, and Americans, above all other people, should cherish these hard-earned privileges.

In this day and age while we are taking these rights and privileges for granted the communists are working hard to take them away. They have done it to other countries, as in Hungary, which has come to the full realization of what they have lost as they showed in the Hungarian Revolution of 1950. They learned to appreciate certain rights the hard way. Undoubtedly, Americans would appreciate more fully their freedom if they lost it, but we should start appreciating what we have now so that we may enjoy these things without the need of losing them to know them.

There are many more personal and seemingly insignificant things we take for granted, also. The love and security of the home, the companionship of friends, the beauty of nature, the food we eat, modern means of transportation, and numerous other things, are pretty much taken for granted. What would happen, though, if we lost just one of these? Must we lose it to realize the value of it?

So the saying from Poor

Richard's Almanac, "When the well's dry, we know the worth of the water," has held true for over two hundred years. Water is often taken for granted until the well goes dry, and it can happen again.

First Graders Make Teepees

By Tom Yocom and Jim Westcott

Mrs. Barton's first grade had a birthday this week. The person who gained a year was Richard Sytsma, and his mother treated the class in his honor. The class was elated over the Indian teepees they made in art.

Mrs. Beauchamp's third grade, not to be outdone by the first grade, also enjoyed a birthday party. It was given by Mrs. Shei in honor of her daughter, Susan. Barbara Baker, Michael De Poy, and Doris Maxson have also gained a year within the last two weeks.

In Mrs. Carter's class, the students are making health booklets in which they are drawing different kinds of food which are good for a person's health. They have changed the decoration of their rooms by posting Thanksgiving pictures.

Mrs. Keller's fourth grade is reading the story of Abdel Karuzeh — a shepherd boy of Africa. And from Africa they go to studying about the Eskimos in social studies.

Mr. Weaver's fourth grade was treated to candy bars in honor of Deborah Triplet's birthday. They then sang "Happy Birthday" to her and played games.

Mrs. Gail Little Is Interviewed

By Glenda Dawson and Anna Lutz

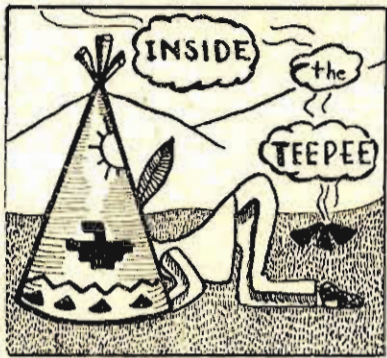

Mrs. Little, who teaches fifth grade at Culver, is from Cleveland, Ohio. She attended Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio.

She spent last year teaching in Baltimore, Maryland, where her husband was attending graduate school.

Her hobbies are swimming and horseback riding, and has taught swimming at camps and at schools. She also likes to fence, but said she didn't know of anyone in town who would compete with her.

She has been very impressed with the friendliness of the people in Culver toward her and the other new teachers. "It is quite a change to live in a small town away from the hustle and bustle of traffic," she stated.

She says that the fifth grade at Culver is an enthusiastic and co-operative group of children.

By Pam Phelps and Donna Smith

We all hope that our newly formed Booster Club will be a great success. What with our painting windows, making posters, and Pep Rally, we should have 100% enthusiasm.

Mr. Lawson's continuous laughing at the show, "Come September," proved that he must have enjoyed it. Everyone seemed to be laughing at him instead of the show.

I think Margo has been hearing too much from Bob, seven letters in one week and a telephone call from California! Wow! That's really good. Don't you think so Margo? Well, yes, but a telephone call every night and two letters a day would be better.

What's this we hear, Carol? Going to Wabash again? It couldn't be to see Gary Dillon, could it?

The way things sound in seventh period Honor Study Hall, Cheryl Lucas seems to be having some trouble trying to keep track of all the money for the Grade School pictures. Do you think you need any help?

Say Diane, we hear Randy was home last weekend. How was everything?

Mr. Lawson informed his first period civics class, after much questioning, that his wife and he have sent a letter to Mother Nature placing another order for a baby because they fear their order has been lost. Don't give up hope!

If you want to know whether or not it is going to rain on a certain day, take a peek at Mary Jane's fiery red hair and this should tell you. They just might give her a job as a weather forecaster.

Have you heard that Joe Rosebaum is a brilliant keeper of desks in civics? If not, ask Joe.

We hear by the grapevine - no, we aren't the little old wine maker - that Lana has a date with Mike Overmyer.

An alumnus of Culver is in the infirmary at Ball State with a bad sore throat. Poor Betty Kose!

Barb Williams did the dentist actually have you asleep while working on your teeth and make you groggy, or were you just confused when you walked into math class and thought it was civics?

Well, these are just about all the smoke signals the TeePee has seen this week. But next week, we'll be back full force!

Junior High Wins At Judson

By Dave Frain

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, the Seventh and Eighth Grade basketball teams opened the season at North Judson. The Seventh Grade boys from Culver took the opener with a 26 to 8 win over Judson. Paul Hatten scored 21 of the 26 points for Culver.

The Eighth Grade also won their first game of the season, defeating North Judson 44 to 22. Danny Haenes with 13 points and Bruce Lindvall with 11.

All the boys did a fine job. Good luck and keep up the good work.

Eighth Graders Learn Weaving

By Shari Croy

The eighth graders are weaving potholders on looms they have made themselves. They are experimenting with varieties of yarns and pattern stitches. Nicky Hartz has finished his project and is experimenting with string, a tin can, paint and newsprint as a means of making Christmas wrapping paper.

The fourth grade has been using tempera paint in many ways. They have been using it in combination with crayons, on sawdust pottery, and alone on paper. The results of their efforts have been very pleasant.

"We Thank Thee for..." This is the theme for a bulletin board done by the fifth grade. Among the many things they found to be thankful for were the sun, shelters, food, clothing, animals, and a free country.

Reverence is a sign of true strength — irreverence one of the surest indications of weakness. To feel no need to worship is to miss life's supreme moments. Religion in American Life urges you to find the strength for your life — to worship together each week.

Classes Center On Pet Projects

By Gloria Baker

The Freshmen are trying to outsell the Sophomores with their delicious fudge, but so far it has been a pretty close race. The Freshmen cheerleaders for this year are Valerie Gunder, Wanda Warren and Kathy Easterday.

The Sophomores are raking leaves whenever they have a minute to spare. They were also busy selling show tickets. The show was Nov. 15 and 16. They had large crowds. They are also having fudge sales every other Friday, just ask them.

The Juniors are anxiously waiting for the arrival of their class rings, and from the faces they are wearing, you can tell the rings are late. They have also picked the committees for the dances after the home basketball games. Their first dance will be Dec. 5.

The Seniors seem to be a very busy group here lately. They are now in the process of picking their class colors, flower and motto. They are choosing their graduation invitations this Friday. Their main interest right now is to get their Senior Cords done. As they are all saying, "It's New York or Bust!"

Students List Favorite Subjects

By Mary Jane Guise and Beverly Thomas

Here are the results of the survey we took concerning the students' favorite classes and why they liked them.

Bonnie Good — History. I like Mr. Robinson's way of teaching and I also like to know about the past.

Barbara Hatten — English and History. I like the teachers and their way of teaching.

Joe Rosebaum — I like study hall because it's so quiet and restful.

Diane Boots — General Business is my favorite because you never know from one time to the next what is going to happen.

Betty Everett — I like Plane Geometry because it is a small class and the teacher can spend more time with each student.

Linda Shock — English, because the subject is interesting to me and I like the teacher's way of teaching.

Judy Kimmel — French. I like the teacher and every single day you learn something new, such as words, words, and more words.

Carol Overmyer — English and French. I like the teachers and languages can be very exciting.

B. J. Lawrance — I like all my classes and teachers, but I have more fun in my algebra class.

Charlene Lucas — History. I like the teacher and it's the only class I've been able to get an "A" in!

Bonnie Parker — English and French, because I can always argue with Mr. Graham and we are treated more like adults.

Beverly Barshes — Lunch hour, because the food is so yummy and it's great fun eating.

Martha McAllister — I think Plane Geometry because it's so interesting, but I also enjoy French very much.

Cathy Carrothers — Latin, because it's more of a challenge. I also enjoy algebra.

Peggy Herr — English. I like the teacher because he lets us express our own points of view.

Bob Parker — Machine Shop, because we work on many interesting things.

Jane Thomas — Civics, because we can get off the subject so easily, the work is somewhat interesting, and Mr. Lawson is a pretty fair teacher.

Well, it appears that French and English are the two top-ranking classes. This also places Mr. Graham and Mrs. Smith on a high level. Don't lose hope Mr. Robinson, you were very close to having the favorite class.

Pedestrians, when you're walking at night, be sure you wear clothing that reflects light. Dark colors make you practically invisible to drivers.

Thanksgiving Is Discussed At Sunshine Session

By Diane Boots and Barbara Rosebaum

The Sunshine Club held a meeting Nov. 15, when Linda Kose gave an interesting talk on what Thanksgiving should really mean to us. Beverly Barshes read a poem titled, "The Pumpkin," and Sue Gardner told how Thanksgiving has been modernized throughout the years. Shari Croy recited a poem entitled, "We Are Grateful," and Carmen Gretter closed the program with a prayer. The whole meeting was not serious for Pat Hicks forgot to pay her dues, and as a penalty she had to sing "You Must Have Been A Beautiful Baby." She tried her best to sing it, but never managed to get past the first three words. After her talented performance was finished, the different committees met to discuss their projects for the year. It was decided that all of the Sunshine girls would bring canned goods for the Thanksgiving baskets. A large box will be placed in Miss Shank's room, so please place all your contributions there.

The Hi-Y Club officers had a meeting with the Sunshine officers to discuss the Winter Formal. The dance is being held Dec. 22, in the gym. There has been a paper posted on the bulletin board showing all of the committees, chairmen, and committee members.

The Booster Club held its first official meeting to choose various committees for creating enthusiasm. The various committees were chosen to decorate the street windows with clever sayings, to make posters to place around school and town, and to plan a big pep rally for our first home game. It was decided that members will not have to sit in a block formation and that members may wear anything they please -- within reason of course. There is a paper on the bulletin board for people wishing to join, so SIGN UP NOW !!

On Monday, Nov. 20, 18 Scouts, two leaders, and three Committeemen met at the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall. The evening was spent in games and test passing.

There will be a Green Bar meeting Wednesday, Nov. 22 at 7:15 p.m., at Greg Dawson's house. Patrol Leaders and APL's should attend. December's meetings and activities will be planned.

There will be a Proof of Preparedness hike Saturday, Nov. 25. All Scouts should meet at the church at 9 a.m. properly clothed and equipped.

The Flaming Arrow Patrol was the better prepared on the mobilization call and hike held Sunday. The Troop as a whole made a poor showing. This Saturday's hike counts toward the prize, also.

Next week there will be demonstrations on First Class first aid. Get your application and money Troop meetings begin at 7:00 and end at 8:45 every Monday. Any boy 11 years old, or older, is extended a welcome to attend our meeting.

GO POWER for rural electricians ... GROW POWER for all America!

Within the next 10 years, we'll need at least 4 times our present supply of electricity for rural homes, rural industry, defense outposts, and production of food so necessary for a growing America. Locally-owned rural electric systems must plan and build now to meet these ever-increasing needs.

Today, rural electricians, financed by Rural Electrification Administration loans, actually generate only 16 percent of the electricity they distribute. The rest they buy. Because these local systems must usually depend on a single power wholesaler for their electricity, they have little bargaining power.

Wholesale rates paid by the rural electricians vary more than 300 percent. In addition, rural electricians are often forced to accept wholesale contracts which they feel contain unfair restrictions . . . restrictions designed to penalize rural electricians should they provide electric service to larger commercial or industrial loads developing in their areas. This means the bigger loads, which normally would help spread the cost of rural electrification, are captured by the wholesale supplier.

New cooperative generation and transmission facilities, made possible by REA loans, will help assure needed power at reasonable cost for rural America. They will help provide much needed go-power for rural areas . . . assure grow-power for all America.

Mail Early For Christmas Delivery

Announcing that he expected the 1961 Christmas season to be the biggest ever, Postmaster E. Wayne Mattox launched his 1961 "Mail Early For Christmas" campaign today.

The Postmaster said, "Here are the things to watch in planning your Christmas card and gift mailings — check your Christmas card and gift list carefully. Be sure each address is complete with full name, street and number, city, zone and state.

Stock up on heavy wrapping paper, sturdy corrugated cartons, strong cord and gummed tape. Secure Pamphlet No. 2 at the Post Office giving full information about proper packaging and wrapping of parcels.

Buy extra stamps and obtain free labels from the Post Office which read 'All For Local Delivery' and 'All For Out Of Town Delivery' so you can sort your Christmas cards into two groups with addresses all facing one way thus expediting delivery. First-class, four cent postage is best for your Christmas cards. Include your return address on every Christmas card envelope."

The Postmaster said further, "We can all make the 'Mail Early For Christmas' campaign a big success if we will plan our Christmas mailings so that cards and gift parcels going to the most distant points are mailed by Dec. 10. To be certain of Christmas delivery of mail to our Armed Forces overseas (all APO or FPO addresses), parcels and cards should be sent by Air Mail only and in the mail before Dec. 10.

Parcels and cards for friends and relatives in this area should go at least a week before Christmas."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Clock Watcher

Nothing in the world is more discouraging than a guest who doesn't know when to go home — especially if you have to get up as early as Chub Jackson, our local milkman.

Last week, poor Chub and his missus were entertaining a distant cousin from Center City who just wouldn't call it a night. The later it got, the more he talked, and the more unhappy Chub got.

But Chub finally found a way to shut him up. Just as his cousin started another long tale with, "And that reminds me of the time . . .," Chub jumped right up and said, "Gosh, you're right! It is getting late!"

From where I sit people who have respect and consideration for other folks' feelings never outstay their welcome. One of my neighbors, for example, prefers other beverages to beer, yet when he drops over he never objects if I have a glass of beer while he enjoys his coffee. It's thoughtfulness like this that keeps friendships from "tiring out."

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has announced a new lactation average for the registered Holstein herd of John A. Newman and Sons, Culver, which has 72 completed production records averaging 13,409 pounds of milk and 493 pounds of butterfat.
Lactation averages are calculated on the commonly-employed two-milkings a day, 305 day, mature equivalent basis. This provides a uniform basis for comparison and selection in registered Holstein breeding programs.
Purdue University supervised the weighing and testing of production as part of the official herd testing programs of the national Holstein organization.

A word to the wise CHRISTMAS SHOPPER

THE SMALL SAVINGS YOU MIGHT MAKE ON "DISCOUNT" BUYING CAN BE QUICKLY WIPED OUT BY NO SERVICE, NO EXCHANGE PRIVILEGES, NO RETURNS

There's so much more to satisfactory shopping than price, especially at Christmas time when so much of what you buy is for others. Fact is, no "discount" price can assuredly be lower than the price charged by legitimate merchants, whose prices generally are not regulated or fixed. Your dependable merchant never drops his service. That's why he has been in business as long as he has. His customers have learned that he stands behind everything he sells. He has earned his reputation for dependability.

DON'T "DISCOUNT" INSTALLATION

Things like washers, dryers, stoves, television sets can be easily ruined by improper "do-it-yourself" installations. When you have it installed by your dependable merchant, the responsibility is his. He backs the factory guarantee to the hilt, not only on appliances but also on tools, paints, form and home supplies, furniture, etc.

DON'T "DISCOUNT" EXCHANGE PRIVILEGES

We all make mistakes when it comes to buying gifts for others. When sizes, color, style, or model are wrong, again your conscientious merchant wants to make it right. He wants the responsibility of making your presents please.

DON'T "DISCOUNT" RETURN PRIVILEGES

Sometimes the thing that looked so "right" in the store turns out to be so wrong. Nobody knows this better than your regular merchant, and part of his way of doing business is to accept the return of such merchandise in good condition without argument.

For complete service and courteous, prompt service, do your Christmas shopping with your home town merchants.

Wheat Support Requirements Listed By ASC

Growers who want price-support protection for their 1962 wheat crop were reminded today about the conservation requirements of the 1962 wheat stabilization program. Carl W. Price, Chairman, Marshall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, points out that wheat growers will have to take an extra step this year if they want to be eligible for price support on their 1962 crop.

In other years, he explains, it was necessary for a producer to comply with his farm wheat acreage allotment in order to qualify for loans or purchase agreements on his wheat crop. In 1962, such compliance is still required, but there is an additional requirement that an intention-to-participate form be filled and that the acreage diverted from production of wheat be devoted to an approved conservation use. Program payments will be made to producers for conserving the diverted acreage.

According to the Chairman, the 1962 wheat allotment notices sent to growers before the wheat marketing quota referendum last August reflected a 10 percent reduction below what the allotment would have been under previous legislative authority.

Under legislation governing the 1962 wheat program, this 10-percent diverted acreage figure is the minimum acreage which also must be devoted to soil-conserving uses in order to comply with program provisions. The diverted acres put to an approved conservation use must be in addition to the normal acreage devoted to conservation uses on the farm.

Chairman Price suggests that farmers check with ASCS County Office about approved conservation practices which may be carried out on diverted wheat acreage in complying with the 1962 Wheat Stabilization program.

Thanksgiving Day will be a happier, more meaningful day...

It's a story we all know and love—the first Pilgrim Thanksgiving. The excitement in their little homes must have been pretty much as it is today—the tantalizing smells of roast turkey and pumpkin pie—the bustle and rush of eager children—it must have been a wonderful day!

But before the Pilgrims sat down to their feast they observed the true meaning of Thanksgiving. They all gathered together in their meetinghouse to give thanks for the good they had received, for survival through a long year of hardship, and to pray for the strength and courage to keep their faith in this strange, new land.

This Thanksgiving, why not take your family to your house of worship. A quiet hour of prayer and thanks will make your holiday so much more meaningful.

Wherever you are . . . whatever your beliefs may be . . . take time to offer your words of thanks . . . just as the Pilgrims did more than 300 years ago.
