Competition In Business Can Hurt Home Life

Children Want Companionship

By ROGER W. BABSON
No. 1 U. S. Economist
Babson Park, Mass. — Competition is the big word in our business world today. This is natural, since healthy and unfettered rivalry is the cornerstone on which our system of free enterprise has been built. With the emergence of super-automated production and super-retailing, there is little hope for a company unless it is willing and ready to compete with rivals. Today, however, I want to talk to you about the personal matters for workers and their families that can arise from cut-throat competition.

Roger W. Babson

Home and Business Equally Important

First of all, you should never forget that it is all too easy for business to damage the home life of those who think of absolutely nothing but how to "make a bundle." One of the chief causes of juvenile delinquency is the father who devotes his evenings and weekends to his work instead of to his family. This can easily lead, also, to a kind of "women's auxiliary" of wives who give far more thought to entertaining their husbands' business associates than to tending to their children's physical and emotional needs.

There is no sadder home in America than the one in which the father realizes too late that his son is practically a grown man — and that he (the father) has missed the fun and furry of the whole process. The frenzied pursuit of company business, at the expense of family life, results in a loss to both. Of what value is a man's economic advancement if personal and family values have to go by the board "until later"? That "later" will almost certainly become "too late."

Child Guidance: Parental Responsibility

Many a father appears to be actually proud of placing his children in one "fine" school after another, so that he can give all his time to his executive work. One man told me not long ago that he has "never had to bother" raising up his children, that a series of good prep schools taught them all they would ever need to know. I asked if the schools taught his youngsters family love, understanding, and the marvel of actual need during the growing-up time.

There is no question but that we are moving through a difficult dog-eat-dog business period. But let us not forget that our responsibility to our family is at least as important as our loyalty to our occupation. Guidance centers and mental hospitals are filled with girls and boys who are emotionally unstable because their parents never played with them enough, never shared their recreations enough, never taught them the religious and moral truths that alone can build a strong family unit. When the home ceases to be the focal center of a family, we may well be heading into social anarchy or to a heart attack!

Is "Big Business" To Blame?

It is a bad sign when a business executive says he does not

Sectional Tourney Begins Today At Plymouth Gym

Argos Plays Talma In Opening Game

By EARL D. MISHLER
Once again it's Tourney Time in Indiana. At approximately 1:00 (DST) this afternoon, Hoosier hysteria reaches its climax, a climax that will last for four weeks. The pairings for the Plymouth Sectional Tourney were announced last week and revealed that the balance of power is located in the lower bracket.

Marshall County champion Bourbon, highly-regarded Rochester, host Plymouth, and upset-minded Tyner all are located in Thursday's action. Fulton County power Talma, defending Sectional Champ Bremen, and pesky Tippecanoe represent the strength of the upper bracket.

Argos vs Talma
Today at 1:00, (DST) Argos (5-14) meets Talma (14-7). The starting tigers of Coach Dean Day are all juniors, but all in their second season as regulars. Forwards Barry Peterson and Don Craig lead the Talma attack with averages of 18.6 and 10.4 respectively. Argos, coached by Doug Pites, has experienced its third straight poor season since their fine teams of the middle 50's. Senior center Terry Thompson leads the Dragon scoring with a 18.3 mark, backed up by sophomore Phil Hoskins at 10.3. Talma should advance past the Drag- (Continued on Page 7)

Boy Scout Awards Given During Recent Court of Honor

These boys passed 45 merit badges that covered 9 of 15 groupings! The merit badge program gives the Scouts farther opportunities and it encourages them to learn crafts and hobbies and outdoor skills. By earning merit badges, the Scouts continue their upward climb in Scouting toward the ranks of Star, Life and Eagle.

Adult leaders of the Troop are Carl F. Feust, Scoutmaster; Ronald McKee, Assistant Scoutmaster; and Marshall Brown is the Troop Committee Chairman.

Indiana turkey growers plan to cut their production this year by five per cent, report state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. If they carry out their plans, growers will raise 2,781,000 turkeys, compared to 2,995,000 last year.

Social Security Pays Disability Benefits

A recent survey showed that only about one out of four people knew that disability insurance benefits are paid under social security if a worker becomes disabled. One out of four! Not a very impressive figure, yet these benefits have been available since 1957, according to Mr. Cornelius R. Schafer, Manager of the South Bend Social Security office. Are you one of the three who do not know their rights under the social security law?

Briefly, to qualify for disability payments, a worker must have at least five years work covered by social security within the ten years before his disability began. In addition, his illness or injury must be so severe that it will keep him from any substantial gainful employment, both now and in the foreseeable future. The illness or injury must be a condition which will show up in medical examinations and tests and must have lasted six months or more. Disabled workers meeting these requirements are eligible for monthly social security disability benefits. Some members of their immediate families may also be entitled to benefits. These payments would be exactly the same as if the worker had reached 65 on the date he became disabled.

Find out your rights. Contact your local social security office. If you do not wish to call in person, write and ask for the leaflet.

WINTER WEATHER REQUIRES SPECIAL DRIVING TECHNIQUES
 HERE ARE A FEW SUGGESTIONS FROM THE CHICAGO MOTOR CLUB

- Leave extra time for bad weather driving.
- Clean snow or ice from all car windows before entering into traffic.
- Use reinforced tire chains on packed snow or glare ice.
- Before you leave on a winter trip check road conditions on day of departure.
- Try your brakes occasionally by gently pumping the brake pedal.
- Don't follow too closely. It takes from 3 to 12 times as far to stop on snow and ice.
- If you skid - don't panic! Turn your wheels in the direction of the skid. Remember greatest skidding dangers exist when it is just cold enough for water to freeze.
- Never run your car engine in a closed garage. Carbon Monoxide is odorless, tasteless, and deadly. When driving, always keep one car window at least partly open.

OASI-29, "If You Become Disabled." These leaflets are free and contain exact up-to-date information about the disability provisions of the social security law.

Failure to apply in time may result in loss of benefits. This is especially true of persons who have been disabled for 8 months or longer. According to present law, after June 30, 1962, it will no longer be possible to establish a disability beginning before 1961.

Internal parasites should always be considered when diarrheas are observed in livestock on pasture, point out Purdue University veterinarians. A positive diagnosis can be obtained by taking a fecal sample to a veterinarian.

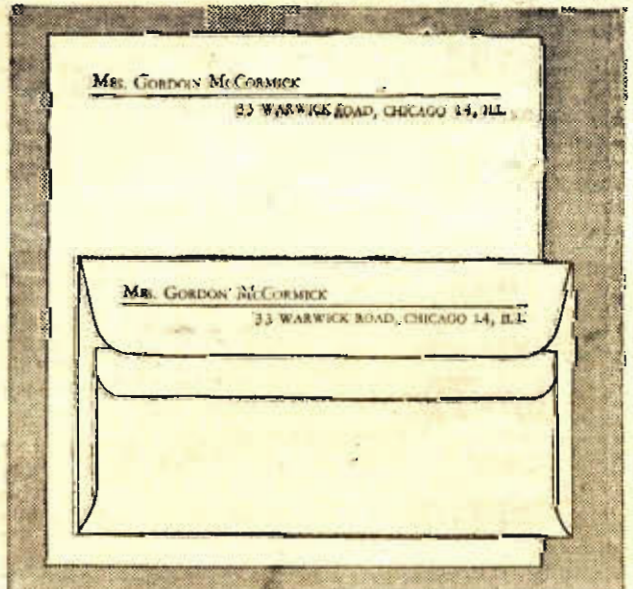

When the weather is bad, start your trip a little earlier, says the INDIANA TRAFFIC SAFETY FOUNDATION. Driving speed which is safe for a dry surface can be suicide when streets are wet or icy.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE PRESS CLUB OF CULVER HIGH SCHOOL

Inexpensive Books Made Available To CHS Students

By Pam Phelps
 Last week the high school office received over 130 new paperback books ranging in price from 25 cents to $1.00. There are many various types of subject matter available. In the scientific field there are books on chemistry, nuclear energy, and dentistry. For college bound students, Mr. Robinson especially recommends those on philosophy, math, vocabulary, and composition.

Among the novels received are "Gone With the Wind," "Andersonville," and "Anna Karenina." There are many fiction and non-fiction books, plus biographies and autobiographies.

There are about 2,000 titles available upon ordering, so during the year there will be new books arriving. These, too, will vary in subject matter.

The books are on sale in the high school book store, and Mrs. Warner will be happy to help you with your purchase. It's hoped that making these inexpensive books available to the students their reading habits will be widened and increased.

If you find time this week, stop in and see the books. You may find one you would like to buy.

Soph Boy Keeps The Shadow Busy

By Betty Everett
 This week's victim is a wide-awake (?) sophomore boy. I first encountered him going to his locker. After greeting me and gathering his books he was off for English class. As my spy informed me, my victim listened very intently to a discussion on caves. Today, for a change, he didn't open his mouth once.

Second period in study hall my victim was very busy. He slept.

He now is in his favorite class, Plane Geometry, where he learned some new constructions.

Fourth period again I found him in study hall eagerly awaiting the time for dismissal to the cafeteria.

As usual I found him once again in study hall busily talking and telling jokes to his friends. After his strenuous lunch hour he's off to the band building to toot away on his cornet.

Sixth period finds him in French class having his picture taken for the Plymouth Pilot. The reason for this is because French is our new subject this year.

His last class is typing and it usually is the most interesting for me, because he gives out all the gossip of the day.

Eighth period finds him once again in the band building singing in his beautiful (?) bass voice.

In case you are wondering who this intelligent, good-looking, kind, generous (that's the way he describes himself to us) soul is just stop and ask Larry Linhart.

Watch out! The black object following you is The Shadow.

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER

Musicians Prepare For Spring Concert

By Beverly Thomas
 Now that the basketball games are over, the Senior Band students are working on music for the band concert, Sunday, March 18. The High School Chorus is learning music for the Marshall County Music Festival to be held in April. We are glad to see the new boy singers in chorus, and the boys are planning several selections for performance.

The seventh grade general music class during the second semester is hearing about composers, their lives, music, and they are also viewing film strips concerning the important points in each composer's history. The students are comparing the living conditions and problems in the lives of these men.

The sixth grade band is striving to achieve the completion of Book III by the end of this year. The selection "Ivan Was a Russian Boy" is a current favorite of the band.

The Junior Band, after completing a fine record at contest this year, is striving for balance and fine tonal work. The students are becoming fairly proficient in this real problem of telling whether they are sharp or flat. The Senior Band members wish you all the luck in this endeavor.

By Larry Linhart and Nick Knoerzer
 Comment allez-vous? Aloha, and greetings. Another week in the salt mines, and everyone is still functioning (I think).

It seems that Saturday the 17 was a busy day with the State Music Contest. The contestants looked totally bedraggled after 17 hours in Indianapolis!

What's this I hear about Julia Furnas being back in school? Welcome back to the old stomping - or should we say twisting - grounds, Julia.

It seems that we have some new steady couples. Bob Parker is going steady with Glenda Dawson and Marilee Zechiel is going steady with Tom Douglas from Plymouth. Congratulations to all!

It seems Mr. Graham's class has already started Ancestor's Day with a lot of whooping and stomping, right Mr. Lawson? Everyone thought the plaster was going to come down. Mr. Lawson's room probably needs a new ceiling right now!

Well, what do we find in the halls now? It is probably all of the Indian Maidens getting Valentines from their sweethearts. It was all good while it lasted.

The B-Team came through for us Tuesday the 13, by beating Winamac. Way to go, boys.

Well, it looks as though John Benedict has added another Ford to the Senior class. It is a nice looking car.

Is it true that Kathy Clyne is buying Mel's Standard Station, or is it that the car doesn't work? Going around in circles doesn't help, Kathy.

Did anyone realize that Robbie Ogden's name was really George Ogden? Has Mr. Hambrook started something?

The World History class told us that Mr. Robinson looks just like Nero. Maybe they received this impression from the toga and sandals he wore when he had his picture taken for the Plymouth Pilot. Everyone be sure to see the picture, because you might be able to put it to good use someday.

Well, the smoke is beginning to get thick around here, so I guess it's time to say... au revoir, adios, and good-bye.

Students Dream Of Favorite Trips

By Glenda Dawson and Donna Smith
 This week's survey asked the Culver High School students where they would like to go for a trip and why. Here are some of the answers:

Nora Sheppard — I would like to go to Hollywood and meet Elvis Presley.

Vicki Lyons — I would like to go to California and spend a week, and all of my money, at Disneyland.

Bonnie Good — Florida, to thaw out.

Barbara Hatten — Riverside and Corona, Calif. to visit my aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Lila Donnelly — Washington, D. C. to ask J. F. K. where he thinks the money comes from.

Chuck Warran — New York.

because it's bigger than Culver.

Marizetta Robinson — New England, New York City, Washington D. C. and Virginia. I'd like to see the historical places and beautiful scenery.

Don Miller — A trip around the world lasting a couple of years. It would be very educational and a lot of fun.

Barbara Williams — To Purdue to see a certain young fellow.

Richard Lutz — I would like to go to California and look for gold.

Jane Thomas — A trip around the world, because if you're going to take a trip you might as well go all the way.

Bob Parker — Around the different states to find out where to take a trip.

Lana Berger — To Paris, France so that I could practice my French. Parlez-vous francais?

Martha Lowry — Florida, no snow.

Chris Hand — Someplace where it is warm.

John Crum — Around the world to get away from Uncle Sam.

Cheryl Dillon — Anywhere!

Brenda Baker — Overseas to Germany to see a certain J. F.

Linda Kose — I'd take a trip through the scenic U.S. and if I wanted to see more, I'd tour the countries of Europe.

Margo Overmyer — I'd like to get married and find a secluded island to live where one can be away from such things as cheating in the classroom.

Remember, a trip is a dream come true, so don't be afraid to dream about such things... just don't let them interfere with your homework!

Motorists should avoid lane-straddling and lane-weaving, says the Chicago Motor Club. If you have to move from one lane to another, first make sure you can do so without endangering others.

In Honor Of Geo. Washington

By Lucy Osborn and Tom Yocom
 George Washington, general, statesman, and first President of the United States, was born at Bridges Creek, Virginia, on Feb. 22, 1732.

Little has been recorded about Washington's childhood, a fact which invited Mason L. Weems to write his fictional story regarding the hatchet and the cherry tree.

Over six feet tall, Washington was a handsome man, whose portraits fail to do him justice. He seemed somewhat cold and formal to the public, but with his family and friends he often relaxed. He loved dancing, parties, and theater, and his dinner table was constantly surrounded by guests. He had a bad temper which he usually held tightly in check. He helped many people financially, asking only that they would not reveal the donor.

Washington was the only President ever to be elected unanimously. He accepted the presidency unwillingly, and said that he left Mount Vernon for New York in the same frame of mind as a criminal riding to his execution.

Many United States Presidents are honored for their great work, but two stand above all others - George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Lincoln is remembered for his great human qualities. Washington is beloved as the "father of his country."

In cold weather your battery becomes less efficient, says the Chicago Motor Club. Lights, radio, heater, defroster, and frequent stops and starts in slow traffic tend to weaken a battery. Have it checked once a week.

PLYMOUTH, TIPPECANOE, and CULVER

Immediately after the opening battle, Tippecanoe's Police Dogs (11-9) face the hapless West Township Bulldogs (0-18). First-year coach Tom McPherron has led his Tippey squad to a surprisingly fine season, climaxed by their 32-20, four-overtime, upset of Bourbon. Billy Robinson leads the scoring with 20.0, while Mike Morlan and sophomore Trowbridge are scoring at 13.2 and 10.2 ppg, respectively. Coach Bill Snyder of West, also a first-year man, has yet to experience a victory. Lanky Chuck Brocker is the top Bulldog threat, averaging 10.1, but keep your eye on freshman Herb Hendrickson, a future great, who has averaged 7.6 in seven games. Tippey should have no trouble.

Bremen Meets LaPaz
Tonight at 7:00, (DST), Bremen's Lions (8-13), who surprised everyone in last year's sectional, face the LaPaz Vikings (3-16). Coach Chuck Blackburn will start a pair of talented sophomores, Eldon Anglin, who leads the Lions with an average of 9.8, and 6-4 Craig Roeder. Veteran forward Paul Felten is also averaging 9.8. The Vikes, who like Argos have slipped from their greatness of recent years, are led by seniors Mike Wynn and Roger Kaufman, with averages of 11.9 and 10.1 respectively. Bremen should triumph fairly easily.

The Bremen-LaPaz game will be followed by the game between this afternoon's winners. Talma is our choice to emerge victorious from that game.

Thursday afternoon, Rochester (11-9) opens its bid with a battle against Richland Center (10-9). The Zebras, under veteran coach Paul Rockwell, are a tall hot-shooting club which has improved due to superior competition. Big Bill Basham leads the balanced Rochester attack with a 17.0 ppg mark. High-scoring Center, coached by Hugh Roessler, will have its hands full with the talented Zebras. The Wildcats have shown steady improvement over the year, and boast the leading scorer of the area in guard Phil Alber, who is averaging 23.8 ppg. Rochester should have little trouble taming the Wildcats.

Tyner To Play Plymouth
Tiny Tyner (11-8) with sharpshooters Rex Stull and Chuck Creech leading the way, will attempt to upset host Plymouth (5-13) in tomorrow's second afternoon game. Coach Hal Muncie's Redmen almost surprised Bourbon in the County Tourney after losing their first game of the season to the Comets by 39 points. Stull averages 22.7 and Creech 13.7. Coach Bob Hileman's Pilgrims have recorded a poor seasonal record, but have faced stiff competition. The tall hosts are led by senior Fred Perry with a mark of 15.7. We'll pick Plymouth in a squeaker.

Our own Culver Indians (3-17) drew a Thursday night bye game for the fourth straight year. This year the opponent is County Champ Bourbon (16-5). Coach Gene Crosley's first year began with eight straight losses, and will end in the same way unless the Indians score a major upset. Seniors Jim Carter and Tom Roswell lead the Culver attack with 13.2 and 12.3 respectively. Coach Dick Campbell finally has a winner at Bourbon and so far the Comets have capitalized on their chances. Junior Chris Booz, the star of last month's County Tourney, leads the speedy Bourbon offense with a mark of 16.0. We hope we are wrong, but our choice here is Bourbon.

Thursday's last game will pit the afternoon's winners. If the Rochester-Plymouth battle materializes it will be the best game of the Tourney. Rochester has defeated the Pilgrims twice, and we think they'll do it again.

Semi-Finals
No games are scheduled for Friday. The semi-finals are slated for 1:00 (DST) Saturday afternoon, with the title game that night at 8:15. We pick Bremen over Talma and Bourbon over Rochester in the semi-finals, with the Comets walking over Bremen in the title game as they did last month. A more general prediction would be that whoever comes out of the lower bracket will be the Sectional champ, and the Comets look good from here.

In other area sectionals, we pick Mentone at Columbia City, Elkhart at Elkhart, South Bend Adams at South Bend, and Knox at Knox. Compare these choices with yours. See you at the Tourney!

Just a reminder to phone in your personal and society items for next week's Citizen. Please call Viking 2-3377 or deliver them in person.

Grades Busy On Valentine's Day

By Gloria Baker and Diana Boots
Everyone seems to be getting a year older. It won't be long until they will rule C.H.S.
In the second grade, John Hansen, Randall Kirk, Robert Martin, and Jack Campbell all had a birthday. In the third grade Ronald Gross and Patty Thomas had birthdays. Congratulations!
Every class has joyously exchanged Valentines and had parties. Several students have missed out on these activities due to illness. They are Vickie Clifton, Cleo Napier, Ronald Gross, and Curt Hatfield. Oh, we can't forget Thomas DeTroy, because Thomas had an accident while ice skating and broke his foot. We hope all of these students are back in school, soon!

February isn't just for Valentine's Day. In Mrs. McLane's room, some children have looked up the month of February in the encyclopedia and have reported on famous men, such as George Washington, John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Abe Lincoln, and Thomas Edison. Jack Houghton is being patriotic by learning the Gettysburg Address.

In the third grade the Eager Beaver Arithmetic Contest was won by Vicky Mikesell and Juan Ruez.

Mrs. Allen's second graders made valentine socks and a circus parade from boxes and spools. They are very pleased with both.

Mrs. Beauchamp's room helped Ronald Gross celebrate his birthday. Ronald treated his classmates to ice cream bars.

The sixth grade girls treated the boys to a beautiful party. Karen Krsek brought a lovely heart-shaped cake, which all her classmates enjoyed.

Mr. Smith's class is studying about barometers, anemometers and others.

The fifth graders in Mr. Weaver's class are studying about the heart.

Mrs. Carter's third graders are adding and subtracting three figured numbers. In science they are studying about the care and use of muscles.

You, the reader, after having read this article, will be able to see that the elementary students are also very busy.

Mystery Guest Has Pet Peeves

By Mary Jane Guise
This week's mystery guest is a very attractive senior girl with brown hair, blue eyes, and freckles. Her favorite color is blue, and she likes all kinds of food except for sauerkraut and pork mixed together. Her favorite teacher? Well, she doesn't like to incriminate herself. Her favorite class is choir, but she enjoys her others very much. Some of her pet peeves are: classes in which she can't become interested in the subject matter; people who lie; disorderly classes, and themes. Some of her favorites are: food (especially chicken); bowling (when she doesn't throw her ball down the gutter); swimming; boys; dates; meeting new people (preferably boys); goofing off; honor study hall; most of her classes; drawing; band trips; noon hour; watching stocks; Purdue; and Indiana University. Have you guessed who she is yet? In case you haven't, she's a typical, happy, bubbling, senior girl — Janet Logan!

Sunshine Girls In Valentine's Program

By Janet Beck
A committee headed by Lucy Osborn presented the Sunshine Society with a Valentine's Day Program on Monday. Lucy began the program with a talk about the history of Valentine's Day. Following this, Carol Barton read two poems which were entitled "Red" and "My Valentine." Pamela Phelps then changed the mood of the program by leading the group in the song, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," by leaving out the words "you" and "your." The members who sang "you" and "your" had to go to the front and repeat the song also leaving out the word "sweetheart" and replacing it with a sigh.

The Hi-Y officers met this week to make further plans for their coming party. They are also planning a project for the school.

Noted Tenor and Guitarist To Give Concert At Eppley

Richard Dyer-Bennet, noted tenor and guitarist, will appear in Culver Military Academy's 1961-62 Concert-Theater Series on Saturday, Feb. 24.

The English troubador will perform in an 8:15 p.m. recital in the Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium. The concert is open to cadets, faculty, and the general public.

Dyer-Bennet, whose art has done much to bring about the current popularity of folk songs in the country, will present some of more than 600 songs included in a repertoire that Look magazine described as a "six-century hit parade." These melodies range from the songs for victory sung by the conquering English soldiers after the battle of Agincourt to the ballads that came into being during World War II.

Born in England, Dyer-Bennet grew up in Berkeley, Calif. He was preparing for his concert career when, on a trip to Sweden, he heard the famed old troubador Sven Scholander, and was so impressed that he set about collecting a repertoire of his own in the virtually undeveloped field of American and English folk songs.

Tickets for the Dyer-Bennet performance are available for both the orchestra and balcony. Mail and telephone reservations may be made by contacting William J. Martin, director of theater, Culver Military Academy (telephone Viking 2-3311, extension 303).

"The Yew Trilogy"

By GARY C. POTTER
Unusual and interesting, Harvey Firari's "The Yew Trilogy" was presented under the direction of William J. Martin by the Culver Military Academy faculty on Wednesday, Feb. 14. The play offers a deep, penetrating, and delightful off-beat study of the morality of modern society.
The production, which was staged in the Eppley Auditorium, was greatly enhanced by Mr. Martin's superb direction and the professional quality of acting by the Black Clown, Channing Mitzell and by John Hartley, Cathy Martin, Peter DeTroy, Arthur Hughes, Coke Smith, and Charlotte Walker.

The trilogy views various aspects of modern morality, in its criticism, in Parts I and II and in Part III the experience of the drama is transported to a lofty summit as the play is knit together.

"The Last Satyr," shows the modern playboy, an insatiable satyr, enjoying his pastime until he finds the innocence, to which he succumbs, to be too tempting when he is turned into a human being. And, as a man, he acts again like a satyr.

"Farewell, Little Mongie," on the surface a simple tragedy of an unwanted circus, carries with it a giant theme of love and hate suggesting the very fine line separating these seemingly opposite poles of the human emotions.

Part III, entitled symbolically "S-Yew" tries to reach the audience through the emotions, rather than the mind. Modern man's cathartic relief in the eternity is here contrasted with a virtuous man's triumph over the Black Clown of the eternity.

Here the play ends and the theater-goer leaves, pondering many questions of love, life, hate and death. To each theater-goer, however, these questions arise about different points in the play and on different levels of meaning; herein lies the proof of the playwright.

SHAGGY DOG STORY — In her column in The Dearborn County Register, Clella Mulroy tells this story on a man she calls "Brown." She says "Brown" isn't really the man's name but anyhow here is her story. "Brown" was annoyed when a neighbor telephoned at 3 a.m. and complained, "Your dog is barking so loudly I can't get to sleep." The caller hung up before "Brown" could reply. At 3 a.m. the following morning "Brown" called his neighbor. When the neighbor answered, "Brown" said, "I haven't got a dog." Then he hung up.

Academy Sports

The winter sports scene at Culver Military Academy moved into its final stages today with only one basketball game remaining before five spring activities take over.

Already workouts are in progress for crew and track with baseball, golf, and tennis practices still to come. But first there is the season-ending basketball game Saturday night at Delafield, Wis., where Coach Chet Marshall's Eagles hope to log their eleventh victory of the season against St. John's Military Academy. Culver defeated St. John's 76-43 in an earlier game this year.

Coach Marshall's eagles spent a harrowing weekend that began to tell in the final stages of a game here Saturday night. The Academy quintet first made a desperate and impressive attempt to halt North Caston's 21-game winning streak. But they failed in a game that was closer than the 71-58 final score indicated. Weary from the Friday night game, Culver locked in a tight struggle with Cranbrook School the next night and emerged victoriously only when Coach Marshall gave an anxious crowd a look at his underclassmen. The final score was 65-55.

Against North Caston, Culver was in the game until the final four minutes. Both teams showed the pressures that were an offshoot of North Caston's attempt to enter the post-season playoffs with a 21-0 record, one of the best records in the state. The Academy led at various stages in the game, including the first period score of 18-16. The cadets fell four points behind at the half, six at the third quarter, but they trailed by only 59-54 with four minutes and 20 seconds remaining in the game. Harassed but still very much in control of the situation, North Caston took time out, set its strategy on ball control, and waited for Culver to foul as the one alternative the Eagles had open to them.

It was there — on the foul line — that North Caston preserved its record. Culver matched the Comets from the field, but Caston connected on 23 free throws in 32 attempts compared to the Academy's 16 for 18 at the charity stripe. Interesting was the fact that Culver got and missed many more good shots from the field. The Academy made 24 for 57, but Caston showed remarkable accuracy by making 24 for 38.

Caston's ace Lonnie Showley was easily their offensive stand-out, both in points (19) and rebounds. But Culver's John Teeter led the scoring with 27 points.

Saturday, Culver churned through 32 agonizing moments before subduing Cranbrook. The score was tied at 31-31 at the half, and Cranbrook led at the third period. Surprisingly, Coach Marshall picked a tense situation with the score tied in the final minutes of the game to insert many of the players who will make up his varsity next year. These included Butch Pretorius and Bucky Nesson, two junior varsity players, who joined underclassmen Teeter, Rick Berlin and Dave Griffith. This combination paid off in victory and gave Academy followers some degree of optimism for next year.

In other activities, the Academy wrestlers closed a 6-6-2 season with a 21-21 tie with Cranbrook, the rifle team defeated the best marksmen in three Indianapolis high schools, and Coach Jim DeArmond's junior varsity basketball team won a pair of impressive victories. The rifle team scored 1,845 points to 1,846 scored by the best marksmen from Howe, Technical, and Broad Ripple high schools.

Brotherhood will be stressed at Christian Science church services Sunday.
Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" will include this advice of Paul: "Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment" (1 Cor. 1).
One of the correlative citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (pp. 469-470): "With one Father, even God, the whole family of man would be brethren; and with one Mind and that God, or good, the brotherhood of man would consist of Love and Truth, and have unity of Principle and spiritual power which constitute divine Science."

Competition In Business

want his kids to work as hard as he worked. It means, first, that he must have worn himself to a frazzle to get where he is, or he would not be so vehement about it. Second, it undoubtedly means that he is giving his youngsters fat allowances, a fancy education and each an automobile. He feels better that way; it saves his conscience. He can then say that he has given his children "everything." But ask the children. They will tell you that he has not given them what they want most, — understanding and companionship.

He has, in fact, paid somebody else to do what he should have done himself, with the loving help of his wife. And this wenching can develop a whole generation of young people who are emotionally undeveloped and self-centered, and who think the world owes them a living. Who is to blame? It is my honest feeling that the pace of today's business has something to do with the situation. I would like to start a move that may prevent high-tension business from wrecking home life. Culver Indians Finish Season With 3-17 Record

Meet Bourbon At Tourney Thursday

By EARL D. MISHLER

The Culver Indians lost two more rugged games last week, finishing their regular season with a record of 3-17. Culver was a victim of Winamac and Lakeville last week.

Tuesday night, in their final home game, Culver's seniors led a losing cause as the local Tribe bowed to the Pulaski County Indians, 91-60. Behind the hot shooting of Tom Boswell, Culver jumped off to one of their fastest starts, grabbing a 20-18 lead after one quarter. But the visitors proved they were even hotter. In the second period, Winamac gunners Don Robinson and Don Holmes led a drive that ended with the guests owning a 37-28 lead at halftime.

With Holmes, a left-handed gunner who will shoot from anywhere on the floor, leading the way, Winamac gradually increased their margin to 57-42 after three periods. Seniors Boswell and Jim Carter both were in foul trouble, a fact that hampered Culver's offense.

The fourth and final quarter saw the red-hot visitors score 34 points to ice up the victory. It was the ninth straight loss at home for Culver, who did not treat the local fans with a victory here all season long.

Boswell and Carter scored 21 and 19 points, respectively for the losers, and George Herr, the third senior on the squad, contributed eight points. Holmes' 24 took point honors, while Bill Malchow added 17.

Friday night, Culver travelled to Bremen for the season finale against Lakeville. The taller Trojans had their hands full with the hustling Indians, but had too much overall punch, winning 64-53.

The St. Joseph County champs started slowly but were hot enough to build a 14-8 first quarter lead. Culver, not getting consistent scoring punches, stayed close to the classy hosts for most of the first half, which ended 34-26, in favor of Lakeville.

The Indians several times chopped away at the lead during the second half, but could never close in. Senior guard Dave Heckaman used his deadly long jump shot often and effectively throughout the game. Culver was sparked in the second half by junior center Rick Ervin, who helped out on the boards and tallied seven second half points.

Heckaman led the winners with 17 points while Carter led the losers with 14.

The Culver B-team split two games last week, stopping Winamac, 48-39, and bowing to Lakeville, 43-37. Bobby Carter and Jerry Nelson led the Papposes Tuesday with ten points apiece, and Dave Lemar tallied 14 second half points Friday for scoring honors. The B-Team's season record was 4-14.

Thursday night Coach Gene Crosley sends his Indians into the arena at the Plymouth Sectional Tournament against Marshall County champion Bourbon. Game time is 7:00 p.m. (DST). Doors will open at 5:45 p.m. (DST).

Thursday, Feb. 29, a Green Bar meeting will be held at Ron McKee's. We will plan the activities for March.

Next week a member from the Town Board will be present and talk on local government. A test on "Totin' Chip" requirements will also be conducted.

Don't forget that March 2, 3 and 4 we will go to winter camp in Michigan. Bring your 50c next week for the overnight.

Marshall Brown is in charge of filling the bird feeders this week.
