Babson Discusses The Big Question Facing Investors

Drug Stocks Are Most Popular Now

By ROGER W. BABSON
No. 1 U. S. Economist

Babson Park, Mass. — This question briefly is: Should we buy the most popular stocks, or should we buy those in little demand?

Most Popular Common Stocks For Investment

Probably drug stocks are the most popular today. This is the time of year when so many are sneezing and your favorite drugstore is doing its best business. Also life insurance stocks are always attractive. Everyone is striving to live longer; while the doctors, the hospitals, and the government are helping them to. Consequently, life insurance stocks are high, and hence pay the smallest cash yield of all groups. Investors do not want to sell their life insurance stocks, especially as the companies constantly declare "stock dividends," which investors like. They pay no taxes upon these until they sell the stock received.

Other popular stocks are those of companies making office equipment, due to the scarcity of good office help. This scarcity is the result of older, efficient workers coming into Social Security. If President Kennedy has his way, this will be increased to further help the aged, the ill, and other unfortunates. Companies selling food are also popular. Everyone must eat, and most people like the great new self-service food markets which are becoming a social center where you meet your friends. Of course, the stocks of these food chains are high; but the population is constantly growing. It may reach 200,000,000 in five years.

Common Stocks Bought For Speculation

These are primarily the "electronic and space" issues of companies getting U.S. defense contracts. I do not like these, even though they are much lower in price than they were a while ago. Sometime this nuclear weapons race will end. I do not even expect that any readers of my column will see "world disarmament." This is silly to even talk about now. But the use of atomic and hydrogen bombs to destroy cities will be controlled, especially before China gets them. As this is generally recognized, these stocks will lose their present unjustified glamour.

Unpopular common stocks are the railroads, the cement companies, the coppers and other metals. I would keep out of railroad stocks (bonds are different); but the world surplus of metals is constantly becoming less. This, in a way, applies to the making of aluminum. To make aluminum there must be cheap and abundant electric power such as exists in Africa. I like to buy copper stocks when they are cheap. The "beams" to and from satellites may someday reduce the demand for copper; but these beams and the universal use of microwaves are long years ahead.

Politics vs. New Ideas

The newspapers devote many columns to politics, and we are inclined to overestimate the importance of politics as our investment statistics show that

Three Arrested In Culver After High Speed Chase

Three youths were arrested in Culver at 2 a.m. Sunday by Verl McFeely, acting police chief, after a two-mile auto chase that ended when McFeely fired shots at the speeding auto.

Richard Barnett, 19, Medaryville, paid fine and costs totaling $42.75 in the court of Justice of Peace Claude South, Plymouth, on a charge of reckless driving.

Two passengers, in the Barnett car, Jerry Costello, 17, North Judson and Edward Tauteris, 20, North Judson were assessed $41 each on charges of disorderly conduct.

McFeely said he received a call from George Baker, 213 White St., that there were prowlers outside his home about 2 a.m. Sunday.

The youths drove away in their car when McFeely arrived to investigate. They headed west on Jefferson and then north on Ind. 17 with McFeely in pursuit.

The driver ran two stop signs and reached speeds of 70 miles an hour during the two-mile chase, McFeely said. They finally came to a halt north of Ind. 10 after McFeely had fired at their car.

April 9 Is Last Day To Register To Vote In Primary

Residents of Culver and surrounding area are reminded that the last day to register to vote in the May 8 primary election is April 9.

Harvey E. Phillips, Marshall County Clerk, advises that he has delivered registration cards to Mrs. Ruth Overmyer, Culver Town Clerk, for the convenience of local voters. However, anyone who has moved to a different precinct since the last election must secure a transfer from Mr. Phillips' office at the Court House in Plymouth.

Persons who will be 21 years of age by Nov. 6 are eligible to register.

Mr. Phillips stated that any students or servicemen who wish to vote in the primary, but will not be home to register, should contact him immediately and he will mail registration cards to them. The first day to make application for absentee ballot is April 8.

"Flower Drum Song" At El Rancho Theater

Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Flower Drum Song," which Parents Magazine acclaims the Family Picture of the Month and a gold medal winner, will be shown at the El Rancho Theatre in Culver from Friday, March 16 through Tuesday, March 20.

The movie, which is beautiful to see and hear, has received highest awards from General Federation of Woman's Club, National Federation of Music, School Motion Picture Committee, American Library Association, National Congress of Parents and Teachers, Protestant Motion Picture Council, and many others.

Myoshi Umeki plays her original role as the shy Chinese girl who comes with her father from Hong Kong to San Francisco, and endears herself to the elders in Chinatown by her old world behavior and the songs she sings to the beat of her flower drum. A rich Chinese father wants her to be the bride of his Americanized son, whose own tastes, however, run to a seductive, calculating nightclub performer.

Extravagant production numbers abound, enticing with their songs, ballets and sparkling sets. Myoshi Umeki is delightful as the soft-spoken little Chinese maid; Nancy Kwan as the bold and breezy nightclub singer; and James Shigeta as the handsome hero who must choose between two

Linda Behmer Chosen Dairy Princess

Pictured here are Miss Linda Behmer of Culver, who was selected as princess of the Marshall County Dairy Association at the annual banquet last night, and Carroll Thompson of Argos, chairman of the annual contest.

Miss Linda Behmer of Culver was crowned princess last night at the twelfth annual achievement banquet of the Marshall County Dairy Association at the Tyner School before a crowd of about 300 persons.

Linda, a Culver High School junior, was crowned by Miss Margaret Dodson of Center Township, last year's princess.

Linda is the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Richard Behmer. She belongs to the Sunshine Society, Honor Society, Choir, and Indiana Youth Power. Linda participated in the District Latin Contest, Junior Class play, and won first in the vocal contest on the State level. She is assistant secretary of her Sunday School. She has been a 4-H member for seven years and has held the offices of president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, recreation leader, song leader, and health and safety leader. Linda is secretary of the 4-H Junior leaders, has received the 4-H Key award, and has placed in dress revue several times.

Other candidates, who formed the court following the judging, included Carolyn Hepler, Bourbon; Joan Quivey, Plymouth; Janice Baker, Bremen; Patricia Thomas, LaPaz; Sharon Heckaman, Argos; Joyce Morris, Plymouth; and Carol Mowiser, Tippecanoe.

Each girl presented a special talent performance which included Linda's vocal selections from "My Fair Lady." Other talent numbers were piano, accordion, and ukelele solos, and readings.

Staff members of the Marshall County newspapers — Plymouth Pilot-News, Argos Reflector, Bremen Enquirer, and The Culver Citizen — acted as judges. Dale Davis represented The Citizen.

Carroll Thompson of Argos was chairman of the Dairy Princess contest.

COUNTY ASC OFFICE TO BE OPEN WEDNESDAY EVENINGS DURING MARCH

The Marshall County ASC Office will be open on Wednesday evenings March 14, March 21, and March 28 until 9 p.m. to accommodate farmers that wish to sign up on the feed grain program and are unable to get to the office through regular office hours.

Thomas Langdon Lists Changes In Assessing

The regular meeting of Township assessors, trustees and deputies, held recently at the County Court House at Plymouth, was conducted by Thomas V. Langdon, County Assessor, and Herbert C. Holms, Northern Supervisor of the State Board of Tax Commissioners.

According to Mr. Langdon all forms pertaining to personal property assessing have been changed. All property will be listed at cash value and the new assessment rate of 1/3 will be applied to this total to derive the assessed valuation. The taxpayer will be assessed by deputy assessors who will be working in the field.

An additional feature of the new forms will be the listing by the taxpayer of tangible personal property owned in another township or county. Outboard motors and boats will be assessed as usual, and serial numbers of cars must be obtained from the taxpayer.

Mr. Holms stressed that any assessments filed with the Township assessor or trustee after May 15 will automatically have a ten dollar penalty attached and after 30 days, if assessment is not turned in, 25% of the tax will be added also.

The deputy assessors working in the field are most anxious to help any taxpayer in figuring his assessment and also help the taxpayer to avoid any unnecessary penalty which could be involved in a late assessment or omitting some property from their assessment.

Farmers will have to complete a confidential form this year and then transfer these figures to a form 101.

All churches and fraternal clubs must file an assessment of their personal property with the trustee or township assessor, a new regulation set up by the State Tax Commission.

The State Tax Commission has set prices on all farm products and cattle.

Items in the home such as colored T.V., Hi-Fi sets and organs, etc. will not be assessed separately but will be taken as part of the room value. These items will cause your room value to increase.

The Triumph of Good

"The life of every man is a diary in which he means to write one story, and writes another; and his humblest hour is when he compares the volume as it is with what he vowed to make it." So wrote James M. Barrie. Each of us, if he is honest with himself, has known such hours, and they are salutary, for they rouse him from a sense of arrogance, mental indolence, and self-satisfaction.

It can happen, however, that one may find the gulf between desire and accomplishment so deep that a hidden feeling of guilt develops and, like a dark cloud, casts a shadow over his life. Conscious of his inability to do the good that he would like to do fills him with despair, and to him life seems to be a battle between irreconcilable opposites in which good is generally the loser.

As we well know, men whom we call great have been aware of this consciousness of human inadequacy and guilt. No one has expressed it more aptly than Paul, the Apostle, in his letter to the Romans (Rom. 7:19), "The good that I would I do not; but the evil which I would not, that I do."

But Paul was not alone in this conflict. He had had the vision of the Christ. Mary Baker Eddy, who discovered Christian Science and founded the Christian Science movement, writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 332), "Christ is the true idea voicing good, the divine message from God to men speaking to the human consciousness." The Christ was with Paul in his hour of need to enlighten him so that later when good triumphed he could say (Rom. 8:2), "The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." Students of Christian Science understand Christ, Truth, to be "the true idea" that lifts mankind from human wretchedness "into the glorious liberty of the children of God" (Rom: 8:21).

Christian Science, which is in accord with the Scriptures, teaches that in our efforts to express good, we must start from a point diametrically opposite to the customary mortal way of thinking. This new starting point is the truth of God and man as revealed in Christian Science and set down in Science and Health. In this textbook Mrs. Eddy makes clear that we are not children of this world, but children of God as man is described in the first chapter of Genesis. One must begin his thinking and reasoning with this fact firmly implanted in consciousness, although it may mean a complete reversal of all previous mental habits.

We read in Science and Health (p. 262), "Startling from a higher standpoint, one rises spontaneously, even as light emits light without effort; for 'where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.'" "Without effort" and "spontaneously"! As one lets the Christ, which reveals the truth of the one good God and perfect man, dwell in him through study, prayer, and demonstration, the old concepts will gradually fade away, and man, as he actually is, will be understood. This correct understanding of man and his relationship to God will result in the triumph of good, and health and joy will follow.

The real man of God's creating is not inescapably trapped in a chain of material causes and effects. Mistakes of the past do not cling to one who knows that the source of his true selfhood and existence is the perfect Father in heaven. The one and only effect in us, around us, here and now, is good.

What we are and what we do are determined by our thinking, which, in turn, also determines what has power in our lives. If we believe that man is mortal, we shall be influenced by evil. But if we accept the message of the Christ, good becomes the only power in our lives.

One can prove for himself and for others who are receptive to Christ, Truth, that man embodies good and that no power on earth can prevent the triumph of good in one's life. — The Christian Science Monitor

Thomas G. Page. Attached to the balloons as a balance weight was a fountain pen cap in which was a piece of paper with the name and address of the Anderson boy written on it. An exchange of letters developed that the Anderson boy had released the balloons pounds of alfalfa and four to six pounds of orchard grass per acre. Another would be eight to 10 pounds of alfalfa and five to seven pounds of brome grass per acre or six pounds of alfalfa, four pounds of timothy and one-fourth pound ladino per acre.

These mixtures generally can be seeded in all sections of the state.

As an addition southern Indiana mixture, Wheaton suggests 15 pounds of lespedeza and 10 pounds of tall fescue or 15 pounds of lespedeza, six pounds of alfalfa and five pounds of orchard grass.

Farmers should avoid seeding grasses such as orchard grass, brome grass and timothy in the same mixture, the agronomist warns. He explains that these grasses mature at different times. If they are mixed in the seeding, part of the crop will always be overmature or immature.

Drilling seed oats at the rate of two bushels an acre has given maximum yields in Purdue University tests, except when seedings were made late in the spring.

HOOSIER HAPPENINGS

By Harold Hansen

TRAFFIC TIP — "A stoplight," says Kenny Bennett of The Putnam County Graphic, "is where you catch up with all the drivers who sped past you on the road several miles back."

BIG BITE — A passenger car in Indiana pays about $166 annually in state and federal road-user, excise and property taxes. A five-axle combination tractor trailer pays as much as $3,235 for the same taxes.

GOOD DEFENSE — Since the start of the basketball season, some digs have been taken at the "colorful" language of sports writers use in describing the results of games. The writer of this column confesses he took one, pointing out that a team seldom "beats" or "defeats" an opponent but "trounces," "trips" or "clobbers" the opposing team and occasionally "okes out" a victory. But Mike Clark, sports columnist of a Monroe County weekly, The Ellettsville Journal, comes up with a stout defense of the sports writers. Says Clark: "In our way of thinking, it's not enough to say that one team beat another. We feel there's a big difference between beating an opponent by three points and beating them by 30 points. Therefore, we feel we come closer to the truth by saying so and so 'edged out' their opponent or so and so 'bombed' the opposition." We'll concede that Mike scored a point.

WEATHER OBSERVATION — Says Ward K. Bartlett, editor of The Newton County Enterprise, "If the weather is cold enough, an overcoat as heavy as a horse blanket seems as light as a night gown."

SEEMS LOGICAL — Speaking at a civil banquet in Brookville, Pat Harmon, sports editor of a Cincinnati newspaper, told of a discussion between two of his sons, one of them five years old, the other seven. The youngsters' topic was whether the sun or the moon was most important. Harmon said the boys decided in favor of the moon "because it shines at night when we need the light."

STILL GOING STRONG — Back in August of 1957, the Rev. Ernest Drebert, who has a home at Hope, in Bartholomew County, announced his retirement from active ministry in the Moravian Church. Since then, however, he has accepted eight calls for interim service as pastor in Moravian churches throughout the country and also has served briefly as a missionary in the Virgin Islands. The Rev. Mr. Drebert informed The Hope Star-Journal recently of his acceptance of a temporary pastorate of a church near Minneapolis, Minn. "I'm less retired than before," he told The Star-Journal.

MELLOWED BY AGE — Scattered throughout Hoosierland are many homes nearing the century mark but few of them have withstood the ravages of time as well as the 11-room Pennsylvania Dutch Funkhouser home east of Delphi in Carroll County. The home, owned by Lewis Funkhouser and his son, Richard, was built in 1862 by William Whistler, great grandfather of Lewis Funkhouser. The house, of brick and frame construction, has been little changed on the outside but the interior has been modernized. However, The Delphi Citizen reports that the modernization "does not detract one whit from the beautiful hand-made woodwork that is in evidence throughout the house."

COSTLY DEER — It was a dear deer bagged by John Gregory, an Aurora jeweler, during the deer hunting season. The Dearborn County Register reports that Gregory, while on the hunt, lost a diamond ring valued at $2,000 and only partially covered by insurance.

RILEY UPDATED — The editor of The Danville Gazette, in an editorial on traffic safety, suggested that were James Whitcomb Riley alive today, he might have written: "When the frost is on the windshield and the fodder's in the shock, Hoosiers keep on drivin' and killin' 'round the clock." The editor then added: "The minutes it takes you to clean off all the windows of your car mean you live that much longer."

Why not clip this and send to a serviceman or other displaced Hoosier?

Gregory says the outlook for an increase in DHIA testing is encouraging, since more dairymen recognize the DHIA record as a useful tool for adjusting their operation to the needs of present-day management.

Three record keeping programs are available to Indiana dairymen through the agricultural extension service. Of these, the DHIA is the most widely used. The DHIR is a program which the dairy cattle breed associations accept DHIA records as official for their association breed improvement and promotion work. The OS records are worked in cooperation with county extension offices. DHIA and DHIR records are computed by automatic data processing equipment and OS records may be of the electronic type.

Additional information about DHIA or OS testing can be obtained from county agricultural extension offices.

RECORD NUMBER OF COWS ON TEST

A record number of cows - 41,492 - was on Dairy Herd Improvement Association, Dairy Herd Improvement Registry or Owner-Sampler test in Indiana last Jan. 1, reports S. M. Gregory, Purdue University extension dairyman in charge of records. This was an increase of six per cent over a year ago.

Some 1,445 Hoosier herds, averaging 29 cows, are cooperating in the record keeping projects. Counties with the highest percentages of dairy cows on DHIA test are Howard 30.5 per cent; Delaware 24.3 per cent; Cass 24.2

LABOR SAVING DEVICES INCREASE

Labor saving devices continue to increase on Hoosier farms and in farm homes, according to state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University.

The 1961 enumeration of household appliances shows:

Home service water softeners in eight per cent of the homes. This is up one per cent from 1957 and three per cent from 1954. Commercial water softeners in five per cent of the homes, the same as in 1957, but two per cent more than in 1954.

Window air conditioners, enumerated for the first time in 1960, in two per cent of the homes, the same as two years ago.

Built-in wall ovens in three per cent of the homes, the same as in 1960.

Here are the 1961 figures on newer farm equipment:

Electric arc welders, counted for the first time in 1961, reported on five per cent of the farms.

Field feed or hay choppers reported on four per cent of the farms, compared to three per cent in 1955 and one per cent in 1949.

Grain augers or screw conveyors reported on four per cent of the farms for the last two years.

Hay conditioning machines, enumerated for the first time in 1961, were found on a little more than one per cent of the farms.

Field corn shelling equipment - corn combines, pickers with trailing shellers, picker shellers - reported on more than two per cent of the farms, compared to less than one per cent in 1957, first year of enumeration.

Nearly 15 per cent of the farms reported silos. This compares to 12 per cent in 1957 and fewer than 10 per cent in 1937. Of the silos enumerated 71 per cent were of the conventional upright type, 20 per cent of the trench or bunker type and nine per cent of the newer air-tight or sealed type.

HOOSIER LIVESTOCK, POULTRY VALUES UP

Indiana farmers owned livestock and poultry valued at $454 million last Jan. 1, report state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. This is four per cent higher than the Jan. 1, 1961, aggregate value and nine per cent above average.

Inventory numbers of hogs and chickens exceeded those of a year ago, but there were fewer sheep and turkeys on Indiana farms. The number of cattle remained unchanged, and the statisticians no longer estimate horses and mules.

Cattle totaled 2,103,000, one per cent more than average. Inventory value of cattle and calves totaled $292 million, based on an average value of $139, compared to $134 the previous year. Continuing their downward trend, milk cow numbers dropped one per cent to 463,000.

Conversely, hogs, estimated at 5,092,000, totaled five per cent more than a year earlier and 12 per cent above average. Their inventory value reached $140 million, eight per cent more than last year. Average value per hog was $27.40, compared to $26.70 a year ago.

Sheep and lambs totaled 503,000, three per cent fewer than Jan. 1, 1961. Sixty-six thousand of these were on feed; the remainder were stock sheep. Average value of stock sheep and lambs was $12.60, down from last year's $14.40.

Chickens, excluding commercial broilers, totaled 13,856,000, one per cent more than last year. Total value of all chickens amounted to $15 million, down a million dollars from a year ago. Average value was $1.10, compared to $1.20 last year.

Turkeys, including 40,000 breeder hens, but excluding turkey fryers, totaled 67,000. This is 12 per cent fewer than last year. Average value of turkeys on farms was $3.20, compared to $4.40 a year earlier.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE PRESS CLUB OF CULVER HIGH SCHOOL

By Charlene Lucas and Shirley Crow

"Live news at fifty-five." Yes, this is your old friend Culver Brave coming to you from the Peppermint Lounge - oops, I mean the halls of C.H.S. You'd really think it was the Peppermint Lounge to watch the students. They stand in the class room waiting for the bell to ring and in the meantime show anyone who's interested their own version of "The Twist." This fad has been here for quite a while, maybe it's here to stay. Now parents, don't panic — we said maybe!

Speaking of "The Twist," we hear that all the dads and daughters had a real ball trying to do the twist. Congratulations are in order for Susie Gardner and Mr. Gardner for winning the twist contest. We'd better look out or our parents will be better at this dance than we are.

The theme of the Sunshine party was "Italian Village." Everyone would have to agree that B. J. Lawrence and her decoration committee did a beautiful job in carrying out this theme. The Sunshine girls hope all the fathers enjoyed their meal and their evening.

Spring may not have arrived yet, but Cupid is still hard at work. Sue Ruhnow is now going steady with Ron Tanner. Congratulations to both of you!

The juniors, between selling Ham Supper tickets and writing term reports, don't seem to have had time for parties or general relaxation. Knowing the juniors, however, this won't last long! While we are talking about the juniors, we might as well put in a plug for their Ham Supper. It will be held Saturday, March 17. You can get tickets from any junior, and they hope to see everyone there.

If Sandy Osborn seems to be a little less cheerful than normal for the next few weeks, it is understandable. The number one man in her life has gone back to the naval base, and will not be home again until after her graduation. That's enough to make anyone unhappy; but we imagine Sandy and Vic will manage to keep the mail service pretty busy!

The "Romans" from the World History class put on their play for the Eastern Stars. The adults seemed to enjoy it very much and I know the "Romans" enjoyed the refreshments.

The senior class is happy to welcome to its ranks "Minnesota Fats" Clyne, the best pool shooter in Marshall County. Keep up the good work "Fats," you'll be famous yet.

Some of the senior girls have been rather cheerful lately and for good reasons. Mimi Fisher is excited because Carl will soon be home from his basic training; Julia Furnas is planning a big weekend at L.U.; and Mary Jane Guise and Margo Overmyer are going down to Wabash College for the weekend.

From the reports I've been getting, the girls who are practicing at the Academy are really having a riot with the help of a few comical remarks from Mr. Hambrook and "crude" examples from Mr. Anderson.

What's this we hear about Nick Knoerzer wanting to take a coffee-break or something like that during band rehearsal? Really Nick, how do you expect to play your sax while drinking coffee?

From the howls of laughter coming from the Senior English class lately you can really tell that they have enjoyed giving their pantomimes. Some of them have brought out the true character of the seniors.

There is a new member of the senior high school chorus — Donald Duck. Funny thing though, he only appears when Mr. Hambrook isn't looking or is out of the room. What about this, Beverly Barshes?

Well, that's all we have to report this week. We'll return next week with more live news from C.H.S. We leave you with this final thought for the day. "Seniors count up your days until the Senior Trip!"

Reporters Recall 30 Years Ago

By Jan Scruggs and Beverly Barshes

While browsing through the Schoolbell of March 9, 1932, we found Culver had been beaten by Plymouth in the last game of that year's sectional.

Another story we found was entitled "The Good Old Days." It was concerned with Culver's first basketball games in the year of 1908. According to the article each player was required to pay a small fee if he wanted to be a member of the team. All the games at the start, were played out-of-doors. Each coach would referee for half the game and so the game ran. Out of 91 games played with neighboring teams, Culver was the victor with winning 76. They conquered Bourbon alone, 21 out of 24 times. Very good, if you ask us now.

The students of 30 years ago also had that dread occurrence, we call semester grades. During the first semester of 1931-32 there were 87 A's, 570 B's, 605 C's, 180 D's, and 33 F's, given to the students. Given in a percentage this would be 6% A's, 30% B's, 41% C's, 12% D's, and 2% F's.

If you would like to compare classes, the 7th grade had 4% A's, 42% B's, 37% C's, 13% D's, and 4% F's. Then the 8th grade cleared the semester with 7% A's, 37% B's, 41% C's, 13% D's, and 3% F's.

Now to the upperclassmen. The Freshmen had 5% A's, 40% B's, 41% C's, 11% D's and 3% F's. The Sophomores followed with 8% A's, 35% B's, 43% C's, 12% D's, and 2% F's. The Juniors and Seniors tied in failures with 0%, however, the 12th grade topped the Juniors in percentage of A's, with the Seniors shaving 9% and the Juniors a mere 6%. The Juniors also had 36% B's, 44% C's, and 14% D's. The B's and C's made by the Seniors tied at 41%, and leaving a 9% D's.

Attention all Latin students. The Latin classes had the highest percentage of A's in the school, with 43%.

As you can easily see good old C.H.S. was doing pretty well back then. Do you think our school has improved? We do.

Embarrassing Experiences

By Susan Ruhnow, Melissa Fisher and Jane Ann Thomas

This week the roving reporters were seeking out the most embarrassing moments of the students at C.H.S. The answers to this probing question were many and varied. For further enjoyment read on!

Glenda Dawson — At tourney time when I was hurrying for the bus and I slipped on the ice and then got teased by one of the teachers.

Pat Lutz — At tourney when I fell down the steps in front of all those people - with a box of popcorn at that!

Christine Hand - When I thought I backed into a teacher's car after one of the ballgames.

George Herr — When I'm in the cafeteria with Joe Rosebaum, John Crum and Ron Leffert.

Pat Hicks — When I slipped on the ice going to the bus and fell flat on my back.

Julia Furnas — When I was commenting on the condition of a certain teacher, I turned around and she was standing right in back of me listening.

Lana Berger — I guess it happened while eating at the Don-Marie Restaurant with my one and only (at the time). Somehow my filet mignon ended up on the beautiful white tablecloth. I was embarrassed, but not nearly as embarrassed as he was!

Betty McFarland — The day I lost my pajamas on the way to school.

Gloria Bean — I went to sleep in geometry class and the teacher woke me up in front of everyone.

Shari Croy — When I lost my slip at a dance at the Academy.

Carol Heiser — When someone took me over their knee and spanked me! (In public, too!)

Anna Lutz — When a chocolate malt flew off the malt machine at the drug store.

Janet Martin — When I picked up a glass of water at the Shack that was turned upside down and filled with water.

Jim Carter — If I told you, I might get embarrassed.

Janet Beck — When I lost my shoes during French class.

Frank Kirk — When I ripped the seat of my pants out in English class.

Bob Parker — When my seam didn't hold at the Home Ec, Beatnick Party.

Musicians Face Busy Months

By Bonnie Good

The months of March and April will prove to be quite busy for the Music Department. On Sunday, March 18, the Concert Band of Culver High School will present a full program of musical selections for everyone to enjoy. The selections will include classical, semi-classical, Broadway musicals, marches, and Cuban folk songs. Also to be featured on the program will be a group quartet, trumpet trio, and a brass sextet. The program will be held in the Culver Community building at 2 p.m., CST. The band hopes that the entire community will be able to attend.

On April 1, at 2 p.m., CST, the high school chorus and the Junior Band will perform in the Community building. There will be more details on this performance later.

On the 23rd of March, students from Culver will attend the production, "The King and I," at Concord High School. This production will be staged by the Concord Music Department.

The Marshall County Music Festival will be presented on April 27 at the Argos gymnasium. Place this date on your calendar for it promises to be an excellent program.

The fifth graders are being tested by the music department for their ability in music. Upon completion of these tests students will be selected to join the new instrumental class. These classes are to be started around the 2nd of April.

CLASS PRESENTS SKIT

The world history class presented its skit on the contributions of Rome to modern civilization at a meeting of the Eastern Star lodge last Tuesday night. The members of the cast enjoyed refreshments as guests of the lodge after the play was over.

Miss "X" Keeps Reporter Jumping

By Martha McAllister

The shadow strikes again! This week my victim is a popular sophomore girl to whom we shall refer as Miss "X". Now begins a typical day in the life of Miss "X".

I first spotted my victim as she pranced gayly into first period English class half asleep, as usual. As the bell sounded, Miss "X" looked very alert and ready to tackle the day's activities. She cleverly sank down in her chair as Mrs. Smith picked people to read characters in "The King and I." My victim paid close attention during the whole period and as the bell rang, she leaped out of her chair, grabbed her books, and strolled down stairs to Health and Safety class. She did not, however, pass up any opportunities to mooch gum, etc. from some unsuspecting soul. During this period she made up a test on alcohol, drugs, and tobacco. (She's a real authority about this sort of thing!) While the rest of the class saw a movie. That means she was by herself. (Hmmm no, of course not.)

In geometry, Miss "X" set her little mind to working by answering the first question Miss Lindvall asked. Shock!

Fourth period I find my victim busily and noiselessly (?) studying (?) Oh well, miracles are happening all the time.

Miss "X" went up town to eat lunch while I ate in the cafeteria. So I can't be sure of her ventures, but my secret service agents tell me she ate very hardly because she had stated several times that she was famished. I suppose this is natural for a growing girl, but please don't grow any more Miss "X" or we won't be able to see your head. (No offense.)

After spending the noon hour in room 10 pestering everyone in sight, my victim found herself tooting away in the third clarinet section of the band. (Actually she should be first chair, but she's very modest about such things.) Oh - I hope my victim doesn't flunk French now that Mr. Hambrook stated that there would be no more studying in band.

At the sound of the bell my victim pushed, shoved, and stepped on a few feet 'till she finally made it through the band building door. Then she slid around on the ice, threw snowballs, and splashed people with mud (such fine spring weather we're having) 'till she managed to squeeze through the crowds into the school building.

Then it was off to merry old "classe de Francias." Miss "X" must have been trying to act intelligent as she listened to the tapes and asked questions. Oh well, on to seventh period typing.

After pouncing on a few people for goodies of course, zeaning her ears with her typing eraser, and a few other miscellaneous tasks, Miss "X" galloped off to choir.

I'm afraid my victim gives Mr. Hambrook a very hard time in choir. Her imitation of Donald Duck is very amusing, but in choir? Mr. Hambrook didn't think so, did he?

As the final bell sounded, Miss "X" left very quietly considering she only stepped on five or six people while descending the choir risers.

Thus concludes an episode of a somewhat typical day in the exciting life of Miss "X". Better known as Beverly Barshes. Beware! Don't turn around, don't look behind you, don't turn that corner. The shadow may be watching you!

Many Activities In Grade Rooms

By Christine Hand and Pat Hicks

Mrs. Melton — Kindergarten: The kindergarten class was treated when George, the white mouse from the sixth grade science room, visited them. The children took interest in his performance. Last Halloween, the class planted pumpkin seeds in their terrarium. One of them is now in blossom. Saint Patrick's Day will soon arrive and the children have been working on decorations to hang around the room. Kenneth Hartle treated the children to a birthday party.

Mrs. Shirrell — Second Grade: The second grade is completing a unit about aircraft in their reading class. Some of the boys have completed construction of an airport. Jack Campbell has recently returned from Florida. He brought a stuffed alligator to show to the class and some pictures of an alligator farm near Orlando, Fla. Timmy Overmyer served cupcakes last Thursday to celebrate his eighth birthday.

Mrs. McLane — Second Grade: February was history month, so a number of the children tried to learn the Gettysburg Address in honor of Lincoln. John Houghton learned it well enough to address Mr. Cox's junior high school history classes. Melissa Guise and Vickie Mikesell tied for the Eger Beaver Arithmetic Contest.

Mrs. Carter — Third Grade: The class has collected pictures of old time and present day machinery. Some of the children drew pictures of the machinery. Some of the students who have time and are interested are studying the different kinds of birds and are reporting to the class about them. Lynne Langlois won the spell-down. In arithmetic the students are learning to multiply, and in health class they have studied about bones and muscles.

Mrs. Alice Keller — Fourth Grade: The fourth grade wrote adventure stories and read them in English class. The class was interested in the many kinds of adventure told. The class is learning how fast they can write the answers to the 81 multiplication facts. Virginia Thews had a birth-

Music Society To Present Concert At CMA Tonight

The Eppley Chamber Music Society will be presented in an instrumental concert at Culver Military Academy tonight at 8:15 p. m.

There is no admission charge and the public is cordially invited to attend. The performance will be given in the Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium.

The concert will include a program of classical music played by musicians of the Northern Indiana area. The Eppley Chamber Music Society consists of members on March 5.

Miss Henning — Fourth Grade: The fourth grade spelling had five persons not missing a word. They are Cynthia Carter, Bonnie Day, Dennis Hall, Eric Hughes and Margaret Ruhnow.

Mr. Conner — Fifth Grade: The fifth grade is planning to make nine planets and the sun from paper. On one of the bulletin boards, they have the local and international news events. This is kept to date by the bulletin board committee. Steve Kelly, Carl Thomas, and Carl Strang are the committee for this week. The other bulletin board contains pictures of wild life. Russell Teach, Sara Hosel and Mary Beth Ives are the head committee.

Mr. Smith — Sixth Grade: In this week's science class, an interesting experiment was made by Andrew Hodgkins. He made a drum by placing a stretched balloon across a jar. This experiment was made to show that sounds are made by vibrations.

CMA Dance Band To Give Concert At Eppley Sunday

Col. Edward T. Payson, Director of the Culver Military Academy Band, has announced that a musical event of exceptional interest will be presented on Sunday afternoon, March 18, at 4:30 in Eppley Auditorium.

The Music Department proudly presents the 1962 Culver Dance Band in a program of most unusual numbers for soloists, quartets, and a concert wind ensemble.

The talent to be presented in this concert includes some of the best solo and ensemble players Culver has had in many years. All the performers were medal winners in the 1962 State Music Contest at Plymouth and Indianapolis. This group won 14 Gold Medals and 13 2nd Award ribbons.

Three of the numbers were highlights of the day at Butler University out of hundreds of events drawing warm praise from judges, directors, and listeners.

This concert is open to the public and there will be no charge for admission.

Michael McCullough Receives Academic Honors At C.M.A.

A Culver cadet is one of six juniors at Culver Military Academy who have been honored for academic achievement by membership in the Blue Key Society.

He is Michael P. McCullough, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Shanks, Culver Military Academy.

The Blue Key Society is an organization at Culver with the purpose of giving special scholastic recognition for academic attainment during the junior year. Members of the organization will be marked as outstanding students for all of their senior year, since the Blue Key will be worn from the time of induction into the society until the end of their senior year.

McCullough was honored by being named on the first Blue Key list of the year. A second Blue Key list will be named during the second semester. He will be inducted into the society at the Honors Convocation during the Academy commencement in June.

McCullough is also one of 27 cadets who have been honored for academic achievement through the awarding of a Gold

A. The Gold A is one of the highest academic awards presented at Culver. It is given to students who maintain an average of 5.33 quality points, carry four units or more of work, receive no grade below B plus in all full-credit subjects, and receive a discipline average of "good" for the second grading period of the semester.

1962-63 Eppley Theater Schedule Is Announced

Agenda Includes Famous Performer

William J. Martin, director of theater at Culver Military Academy, has announced plans for the 1962-63 Concert-Theater Series.

Mr. Martin said he considered the program to be perhaps the finest in the four-year history of the series.

Included on the eight-program agenda are two of the theater's most renowned performers — Charles Laughton and Judith Anderson.

The booking of Mr. Laughton meant a successful conclusion to attempt during recent years to have him appear on the Eppley Auditorium stage. He will appear Feb. 11 and will read from great literature, a program familiar to theater goers and televisioners for many years. Mr. Laughton has appeared on many network shows in reading from the Bible and other forms of literature. He also appeared with Miss Anderson and the late Tyrone Power in a series of readings several years ago on a tour in this country and abroad.

Miss Anderson is scheduled for Oct. 30, when she will appear with a cast of actors in scenes from Macbeth, a production for which she is widely known.

Mr. Martin said some of the dates are pending final exchange of contracts.

- The list announced follows:
- Oct. 18 — Panhellenion, a folk festival of Greece.
  - Oct. 30 — Judith Anderson and cast in scenes from Macbeth.
  - Nov. 14 — Little Mary Sunshine, La Comedie Canadienne fully staged production of the recent Broadway hit.
  - Dec. 6 — Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra.
  - Jan. 4 — Chanteurs de Paris, eight French singers.
  - Feb. 11 — Charles Laughton, readings from great literature.

March 8 — The Turn of the Screw, Patricia Neway and supporting cast in fully-staged, orchestra and chorus in Benjamin Britten's new operatic success.

March 14 — The Premise improvisational theater, a new medium, which ran for two years off-Broadway and now a hit in Washington, D. C.

Haitian Dancers To Perform At CMA On Weekend

Destine and his Haitian Dance Company will end the professional portion of Culver Military Academy's 1961-62 Concert-Theater Series in two performances here Friday and Saturday, March 16 and 17.

A 1 p.m. matinee Friday is scheduled for 1,700 Marshall County public school children who are participating in Culver's Program for Education in the Performing Arts. The students from nine areas will see the dance troupe through grants given the program by the Morris and Oare Foundations of South Bend, and The Culver Educational Foundation.

Academy cadets, the faculty, and the general public will attend an 8:15 p.m. performance of the Destine dancers Saturday in the Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium. William J. Martin, director of theater at Culver, announces that reserved seat tickets are still available for the Saturday night performance. Telephone and mail reservations may be made with Martin.

The weekend performances bring to a close the professional segment of the Concert-Theater Series, which brought nine theater events to Culver during the current academic year. Three of the events were made available to the Marshall County public school children in special matinees, and Culver plans to stage a fourth production for this group sometime in May. This will be a Martin-directed production of the play "No Time for Sergeants."

Here's How They Feel

How do Hoosiers feel about the welfare state as proposed by the New Frontier? Many of those in the Sixth Congressional District have some firm opinions, according to results of a poll just completed by Representative Richard L. Roubush. Twenty-seven newspapers co-operated with the Republican congressman in sampling opinion in this central Indiana area.

Here are the results:

84 per cent oppose purchase of $100,000,000 in United Nations bonds.

85 per cent are opposed to Federal aid to education.

83 per cent oppose the use of Social Security to finance medical care for the aged.

64 per cent oppose an increase in postal rates.

94 per cent don't like the President's request to increase the Federal debt limit.

67 per cent disapprove of the President's request for authority to cut tariffs.

89 per cent oppose creation of a Department of Urban Affairs.

95 per cent would deny the President's request for authority to fix income taxes and unemployment benefits.

91 per cent want to halt all trade with Communist nations.

91 per cent want to halt all trade with Communist nations.

This is a fairly clear indication of the temper of many thousands of Hoosier voters in this district stretching from the center of the state to the Illinois border. The significance of this poll is not likely to be lost or ignored.

We Are NOT In Second Place!

In order to be equal to Russia today, we in the United States would have to:

- Abandon three-fifths of our steel capacity;
- Abandon two-thirds of our petroleum industry;
- Scrap two out of every three of our hydroelectric plants;
- Eliminate 95 per cent of our electric motor output;
- Rip up 14 of every 15 miles of our paved roads;
- Destroy two of every three miles of our railroads;
- Sink eight of every nine of our ocean-going ships;
- Junk 19 out of every 20 of our cars and trucks;
- Slash all paychecks by three-fourths;
- Transfer 60 million Americans back to the farms;
- Destroy 40 million TV sets; rip out nine of every ten telephones, and tear down seven of every ten houses.

We're in FIRST PLACE, and we're going to stay there!

Returns From South Seas

Editor, CITIZEN:

Have just returned to Indianapolis after a seven-week trip to the South Seas. First an eight-day period in Tahiti, where one is supposed to lol! on sparkling beaches, breath intoxicating frangipani, and be lulled by the soft caress of sea breezes.

Add some good French cooking, and bad, plus some dirt, and a fling with the paregoric bottle for dysentery, and you have it made. Morea, the island of Bali-Hi in South Pacific, just 12 miles across the strait from Tahiti, is by far the most beautiful island I have ever seen.

I had a week in Fiji, and this was torid, but fun. There was a week each in both North Island and South Island, New Zealand, where we toured the islands completely and saw everything from glow worm caves, to glaciers and more southerly sounds.

From New Zealand we went to Australia and skirted the "Out Back," as they call it, as there were no facilities for taking care of tourists. I held the Kualla bear, flirted with the kangaroos, which are a menace, and admired the long legged ostrich.

Tasmania was the final island. From Hobart, where it got colder and colder as we neared the South Pole, I flew in 24 hours, 17½ of these in the air, at a speed of a jet 13,000 miles. We took on fuel at Fiji and off we went to Honolulu. This is the longest flight I have ever had all at one dose.

It was rigorous, but fun and most educational. I have brought back slides of this trip and have about 100 of last year's "Round The World Flight in Eighty Days."

now I have done everything except Russia and South Africa and I am not about to enrich either of those countries now.

WATCH OUT FOR IMPORTED CLOVER SEED

With domestic medium red clover seed production down and prices strong, European and Canadian seed is expected to move into the Indiana market. But, cautions Marvin Swearingin, Purdue University extension agronomist, European red clover is not well adapted to Indiana conditions even though it may be available at "bargain" prices.

Extensive U.S. Department of Agriculture tests of seed from several sources in the 1930s and 1950s gave almost identical results. European varieties produced only 65 per cent as much forage per acre as U. S. varieties.

Altaswede and other Canadian grown strains of mammoth red clover are also available at attractive prices. Results of 1961 tests from northern Illinois showed a hay yield of 1.8 tons an acre for Altaswede mammoth compared to 3.3 tons for domestic mammoth, 4.1 tons for common medium and 3.9 tons for improved varieties - Kenland and Lakeland.

In addition to poor yields, imported strains are lacking in disease resistance. Once planted they also become an inferior strain for local seed multiplication. The tons of forage they fail to produce cancel the few cents difference in the seed price. Swearingin points out.

The Federal Seed Act requires that 10 per cent of seed imported from Europe be stained red. Only one per cent of seed imported from Canada is stained violet and this is not easy to detect, the agronomist explains.

Certified Kenland red clover seed is available and recommended for all of Indiana. Domestic clover seed grown in other Corn Belt states is also acceptable.

Pennscoot and Chesapeake also are satisfactory performers. In northern counties Dollard and Lakeland are well adapted.

INDIANA'S 1970 POPULATION MAY BE 5.6 MILLION

Indiana's 1970 population likely will reach 5.6 million, almost 950 thousand more than the 1960 total, estimate L. T. Wallace and John O. Dunbar, Purdue University agricultural economists. Most of this will result from the state's natural rate of population increase (excess of births over deaths.)

If the present trend continues, by 1970 two of every three Hoosiers probably will live in cities and towns of more than 2,500. In 1950 the population distribution was 60 per cent urban, 40 per cent rural. By 1960 this has shifted to 62 per cent urban and 38 per cent rural. The projection for 1970 is 65 per cent urban, 35 per cent rural.

About 20 of the state's 92 counties probably will lose population in the next eight years. Most of these lie in the southwestern part of Indiana, west of the line from Vermillion and Parke to Orange and Crawford counties.

On the other hand, population in nearly 30 counties will outstrip the natural rate of increase. Some of these may have increases as high as 40 to 50 per cent in the next eight years. For the most part, these counties lie in the state's large metropolitan areas—Indianapolis, the Calumet, Fort Wayne, New Albany and Jeffersonville.

"A continued rapid population movement will result from continued differences in economic opportunity," the economists point out. "It will create problems of orderly community development for rapidly growing areas and problems of maintaining community facilities and economic growth in areas from which people are moving."

FARM CLEAN UP TIME

Rural residents can make the farm a better and safer place to live by a general clean up this spring.

That's the word from farm safety specialists at Purdue University, who say a few hours spent in a spring clean up will give the farm a new look and make it a safer and better place to live and work.

Disorder ranks high as the cause of farm accidents, the specialists assert. A recent study of hospitalized home accident cases disclosed that one of every five was put there by disorder. And, accidents happen most often in cluttered, untidy surroundings.

Needless accidents can be eliminated by following these suggestions.

Pick up broken glass, tin cans them.

Destroy trash that has accumulated all year and clean up that old lumber piled back of the barn.

Give the farm shop a good cleaning. Make a place for each tool.

Inspect broken and worn steps and stairs and make needed repairs.

WORLD POPULATION is growing at the rate of 45 million per year, but famine alone kills more than 10 million people annually.

How to gain dominion over lack of limitation will be explained in the Lesson-Sermon on "Substance" at Christian Science churches Sunday.
Assurance of unlimited abundance is presented in the Bible readings including this verse from Psalm 84: "For the Lord God is a sun and shield; the Lord will give grace and glory; no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee."
From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this statement will be read (p. 391): "As God is substance and man is the divine image and likeness, man should wish for, and in reality has, on the substance of good, the substance of Spirit, not matter."

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (2): "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit."

Babson's Forecast

there is little correlation between politics and the stock market. My readers had far better study the new ideas being developed, such as "fuel cells," "new adhesives," and "foods from cellulose." New developments now in test tubes and on drawing boards have great profit possibilities.

Moreover, history shows that it does not require much capital to start a company with only an "idea." But it requires great patience and persistence. Mr. Clinton Woods of 2803 Goodwood Road, Baltimore 14, Maryland has recently published a book showing that 200 of today's biggest companies started without capital. It is important to young people who are willing to work and who have the patience to wait. I have given away over 100 of these books to help the right people, although they can be bought from Mr. Woods. These books are the best investment that I know of for anyone who doesn't want to pay out more than $1.75 (postpaid).

(Next week I will discuss in my column corporation bonds, municipal bonds, U. S. Savings Bonds, savings bank deposits, and preferred stocks).

THE AVERAGE AMERICAN now pays more in taxes than for food.

Academy Sports

Coch Dave Burke's track squad got the jump on five Culver Military Academy spring sports teams today by logging its first event of the season.

The Culver barriers, although 58 1/2-50 1/2 losers to tough Fort Wayne North Side last Friday night, put up a game fight in preparation for the time when they'll go outside for the April-May track season.

The meet was the first of five scheduled indoors by the Academy. The Eagles take on Fort Wayne South here Friday night, March 16, and next Tuesday, March 20, entertain Logansport, Bremen, Peru, Chesterton, and Washington-Clay in a six-way meet.

Culver took the lead against North Side, then faltered, and finally finished strong to give the Fort Wayne outfit a good chase. At one point late in the meet Culver edged ahead following a victory in the eight-lap relay, but results of the 12-lap relay and the pole vault gave North Side the victory.

Academy winners included Bill Borkenstein, who won both hurdle events and ran on the winning relay team; John Sullivan, broad jump; Dodd Stacy, high jump; and Dick Swennumson, 220-yard run.

In one other sports event, the Academy fencers Friday defeated Gary Horace Mann School, 15-12. The victory gave the fencers a 2-2 record.

Cadet Chapel Choir To Sing At South Bend Church Sunday

The Cadet Chapel Choir of Culver Military Academy will sing for two worship services Sunday, March 18, at the First Presbyterian Church, South Bend.

Directed by Terrance A. Anderson, the Chapel Choir will sing during 9:15 and 10:45 a.m. services. The choir program will include: "We Pray to Thee" (Palestrina); "Cantate Domino" (Hans Leo Hassler); and "Behold Now, Praise the Lord" (Clokey).

Cadets will be entertained in the homes of congregation members following the services.

The choir is composed of high school-age boys who sing during weekly non-denominational services at Culver. Included among the cities in which the choir has sung, since the inception of annual tours in 1951 are St. Louis, Chicago, Columbus, Ohio, South Bend, Indianapolis, Detroit, and Washington, where the Culver students sang for former President Dwight D. Eisenhower during services at the National Cathedral.

Anderson, who was born in Minneapolis, was graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1958 and received the degree of Master of Music from Wisconsin in June, 1960. He was granted a Rockefeller Foundation Scholarship to the Berkshire Music Festival, Lenox, Mass., in the summer of 1958. Anderson served as assistant director of choruses at the University of Wisconsin and was appointed to the music department at Culver in September, 1961.

SPEEDY—A New Castle dentist, Dr. Roy Gephart, says this is the age of speed. He told of recently lunching in a restaurant in the Eiffel Tower in Paris, eating his evening dinner in New York and arriving home to spend a little time in his living room at New Castle before going to bed. A jet plane trip from Paris to New York and the difference in time between Paris and New Castle made possible the swift transition.

Wheat Growers Cautioned About "Excess" Acreage

Farmers who have excess wheat acreage were reminded today that failure to dispose of the excess in accordance with program provisions could have a number of adverse effects — on the farmer's pocketbook and on his farm's acreage history.

Carl W. Price, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said that such a wheat grower not only would be ineligible for price support and any payments he might otherwise have earned under the 1962 wheat stabilization program, but he also would be subject to marketing quota penalties which are much higher for 1962 than in former years, and his farm's future wheat allotments might be reduced.

Regarding marketing quota penalties on "excess" wheat, the Chairman pointed out that legislation enacted last year made material changes regarding ex-

Quick Soup for Cold Weather

Winter menus invite piping hot soup, and nothing warms and nourishes more quickly. Even though time is short, a good soup can easily be prepared. Use canned bouillon, or stock made with bouillon cubes, as a base.

QUICK FRENCH ONION SOUP

- |  |                        |
|--|------------------------|
| 4 large onions, sliced                     | 2 tsp. salt            |
| 1/4 cup butter, melted                     | 1/2 tsp. paprika       |
| 6 cups beef bouillon                       | 1/4 tsp. pepper        |
| 1 Tbsp. Lea & Perrins Worcestershire sauce | 2 hard rolls           |
|  | Grated Parmesan cheese |

Peel onions and slice thin. Add to melted butter and cook slowly until tender but not brown. Add bouillon, Lea & Perrins Worcestershire, salt, paprika and pepper. Bring to boiling point, cover and simmer gently for 20 to 30 minutes, until onions are tender. Serve in deep bowls, each topped with a slice of hard roll sprinkled with cheese. If possible, place individual servings in heat-proof soup bowls and slide them under the broiler to melt cheese just before serving. This soup develops flavor as it stands, and is excellent when reheated.

cess wheat of the 1962 crop. The penalty has been raised to 65 per cent of parity as of May 1, 1962 (instead of the previous 45 per cent), and the amount of wheat subject to penalty will be twice the farm normal yield on all of the acres in excess of the allotment. If the proved 1962 actual yield is less than this amount, a reduction in the amount of the excess, based on actual production, will be made if a request is filed before a set deadline.

Mr. Price explained that "excess" wheat results when the grower does not comply with the farm wheat allotment (or the marketing quota exemption acreage, if this is larger). The marketing quota exemption acreage is the smaller of (a) 13.5 acres or (b) the highest acreage of wheat on the farm in any of the crop years 1959, 1960, or 1961.

4-H TRACTOR MAINTENANCE CLUB MEETS

Opening comments were given by Lawrence Berglund, adult leader, at the fourth session of the Marshall County 4-H Tractor Maintenance Club when it met at the S and S Ford Tractor Sales at Plymouth Tuesday evening with 40 members present.

The Pledge to the Flag and the 4-H pledge were led by Mike Overmyer and Doug Lindvall of Union Township. Guest speaker of the evening, Frank Crabb of Indianapolis, spoke on "What Makes an Engine Run."

"Do you Know your Tools" was the demonstration chosen by Jim and Dick Houin and Terry Ellis of Center Township. Robert Broeker of West Township presented a very important "Know your Tractor Lubrications" demonstration, and David Boos of Center Township chose "Tractor Safety" to conclude the demonstrations.

After individual group discussions, the quiz sheets were filled out to complete a successful evening. The hosts served refreshments.

Price, spice and everything nice!

Who ever thought a car that saves like this could have so much sizzle? Chevrolet engineers, that's who! Liveliness and luxury for a low, low price were exactly what they had in mind to begin with. And they began from scratch with a whole carload of ingenious new ideas designed to give you more for your money. That spunky 6 with gas-sipping stinginess is just one example. Another: a new unitized Body by Fisher that's fit for a full-size family inside, easy to park outside. Still another: tough but gentle one-piece Mono-Plate rear springs that outdo many a bigger car for quiet comfort. Any wonder Chevy II won Car Life magazine's 1962 Engineering Excellence award hands down? (The wonder would be if you settled for anything less—once you get your hands on one at your Chevrolet dealer's!)
