TEN CENTS

One-Half The Buyers Of Stocks Make Mistakes

Investors Urged To Read Reports

BY ROGER W. BABSON
No. 1 U.S. Economist

Babson Park, Fla. — One half of the buyers of the stocks on the New York Stock Exchange buy when they should sell; and sell when they should buy. This is because there cannot be a seller without a buyer; or there cannot be a buyer without a seller.

Even Bankers Are Sometime Duped

I once knew a Massachusetts bank director who founded a successful machinery company which is now listed on the New York Stock Exchange. He was a very generous man and provided a four-acre Golf Club in New Hampshire for his friends and summer residents. Many fine homes were built there and are now occupied in the summer by very prominent people. In Boston financial circles this man's opinion on investments was given serious consideration.

When this well-known man died, he left two sealed trunks in his attic. One contained Russian rubles and the other German marks. He left a note stating that he had paid nearly $2,000,000 for this foreign money. As he had always been very kind to his neighbors they took up a collection to pay his debts; his young wife (a second wife) went to work.

How To Lose $45,000,000

A man known world wide in utility circles had a winter home at Mountain Lake, Florida, near where I am writing my column this week. He had a chair and desk which the present generous owners of his late home gave to Webber College. This famous man was written up in the magazines during the 1920's as "America's Richest Man." Well, he told me shortly before he died: "I made $50,000,000 sitting in that chair in 1926-28; then I lost $45,000,000 in 1929-30, sitting in the same chair." He did his business by telephone; never wrote a letter.

I give the above illustrations not to criticize anyone. During my fifty years of active life I have never met any man (or woman, except Hetty Green) who would have never to have lost money speculating. The lesson, however, which I want to drive home to readers is the importance of knowing when to stop. The time to retire from the stock market is when things look good and your friends are all bullish, and you are "walking on air." That is the time to stop. What this stock market will do before 1962 is over no one knows; but I do earnestly advise that you sell enough and take profits enough to pay up all you owe.

Corporation Officials Take Notice

This is an era when corporations are making foolish "splits." After you receive a stock dividend your original stock, plus the new stock, is worth no more than before. Yet the price goes up even on the rumor that such a dividend will be paid. Since the Securities & Exchange Commission has been organized, many men with money have refused to be directors of corporations. The officers are given "options" and other incentives to compensate for the risks they are taking.

Surely nothing could have prevented the two men described above from losing their money. Furthermore, I could give many other similar illustrations. These

Strawberry Festival At Leiters Ford

A tentative date of Thursday, June 14, has been set for the annual Aubbeenaubee Township Strawberry Festival in Leiters Ford. It was announced today by Paul Davidson, chairman, and Robert C. Kline, co-chairman.

The yearly spring event is conducted for the benefit of the Aubbeenaubee Township Volunteer Fire Department the proceeds going towards the purchase of a new tank truck. This was the same project that the festival had last year, from which proceeds a truck tractor has been purchased, however more money is needed to purchase a pup trailer and tank, in order to complete the project.

Probably no place in the United States or the World for that matter, can one find the united effort towards a common civic project more outstanding than has been shown in the past in this small township located in the northwest corner of Fulton County, since nearly all the residents of the township put their efforts towards making it a success. Churches at Leiters, Delong, Mt. Hope and Zion lend their support, as do the Leiters Ford IOOF and Rebekah Lodge, 4-H Groups, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

A meeting for all committees has been set for May 23.

Benedict Noses Out Cook By 19 Votes In Trustee's Race

Dr. Otis R. Bowen Again Defeats Eugene Stanley

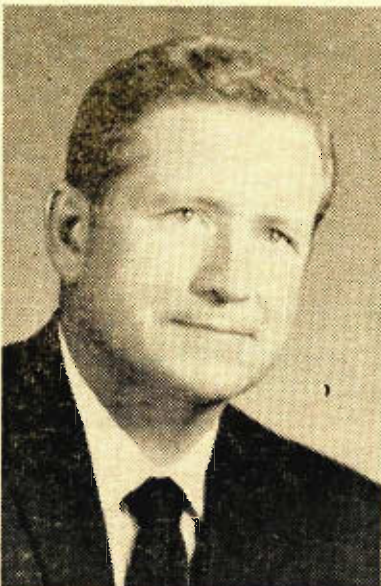

EUGENE BENEDICT

The hotly contested battle between Eugene G. Benedict and Charles E. Cook for the Democrat Nomination for Trustee of Union Township ended Tuesday, with Benedict winning the decision by 19 votes.

The voting was as follows: in the five precincts in Union Township for Benedict: 1, 48; 2, 48; 3, 42; 4, 73; 5, 38 — a total of 250 votes. For Charles E. Cook: 1, 30; 2, 35; 3, 20; 4, 93; 5, 53 — a total of 231 votes.

Other Union Township results in the Democrat Primary were as follows: For Justice of Peace, Jesse Sims, 434; for Members of the Advisory Board, Wayne Kline, 300; Maurice E. Nelson, 301; and Oscar R. Wesson, 304.

In the Republican Primary, there was no opposition in any of the offices to be voted upon, which automatically gave the various candidates the office. Those running were Glenn L. Overmyer for Trustee; Paul T. Snyder, County Councilman 2nd District; Everett Gibbons, Paul Steele and Judd T. Stinchcomb for Advisory Board.

Otis R. Bowen, M.D.

The county races for the Republican nominations, Dr. Otis R. Bowen running for State Representative for Marshall County defeated Eugene Stanley 2,829 to 877, a plurality of 1952. Charles W. Ainlay running for Representative from the Third Congressional District, defeated his opponent Theodore G. Wood, 1,817 to 1,566, a plurality of 251 votes.

For County Commissioner of the 1st District Foster V. Annis defeated Robert W. Slack 2,252 to 1,362, a plurality of 890 votes. For Commissioner of the 2nd District, O. Paul Stackhouse won by the slim margin of 21 votes. Stackhouse received 1,372. Victor G. Samuelson, 1,351 and Keith G. Felix, $30.

The County Democrat primary results were about as expected. Brademas for Congressman of the 3rd District polled 2,674 votes. In the race for nomination for State Representative, George W. Schricker polled 1,965 votes to his opponent's 947, a plurality of 1,018 votes.

For Sheriff, Jerry D. Greenlee won by a large majority over his opponent Donald R. Risner. Greenlee's vote was 2,610 to 378 for Risner. A plurality of 2,232 votes.

As usual, the voting in Tuesday's primary was light, with the exception of where the office was hotly contested as in the trustee's race here in Union Township on the Democrat ticket. Approximately 75% of the Democrat voters went to the polls. With contests in the Republican Primary uncontested, the vote was very light.

As is always the case, many ballots had to be destroyed because of mutilation by not marking them correctly. Most of the voting violations consisted of the following mutilations: 1. voter used a check mark instead of an "X"; 2. voter marked the "X" sign completely outside and to the left of the boxes; 3. voter scratched out the "X" and made it in another place instead of asking for a new ballot.

Instructions for marking your ballot are plainly stated above the names of the candidates. The "X's" must be placed either under the emblem of the party you are voting for and INSIDE THE CIRCLE, or the "X" must be placed in the square beside the candidate's name, or on the line to the right of the candidate's name, and square. Marking in the square for opposing candidates running for the same office, also mutilates your ballot and it can not be counted.

Kokomo Youth Rescued From Lake Sunday

Culver Firemen and Police were called to the southwest shore of the lake at 3 p.m. Sunday when an unidentified youth from Kokomo capsized in a small skip-jack boat on which he had placed a motor.

The motor was too heavy for the boat and when making a turn, the boat upset throwing the young man in the lake.

Sam Allen, of the Allen Boat Company, and a Company employee, Peter Ott, went out in a boat to rescue the lad, who was not injured.

Central States Regatta At CMA Saturday

Lake Maxinkuckee will be the scene of the 1962 Central States Schoolboy Regatta beginning at 1 p.m. Saturday, May 12.

Capt. Robert Bolton, USN (Ret.), chairman of the Regatta for the sponsoring Culver Military Academy, announces that crews from seven midwestern schools and one from Florida have entered the event. The Regatta is the only one of its type in the Midwest and will precede by two weeks the national championships slated for Philadelphia.

Races in six events will be held between the hours of 1 p.m. and approximately 4:30 p.m. A mile long course has been laid out along the north shore extending from the town beach to the finish line near the Academy's Naval Building. A second course, to be used in the event of bad weather, has been laid out along the south shores. Capt. Bolton urges the cooperation of area fishermen in keeping the area clear of all boats during these hours Saturday.

Capt. Bolton has extended an invitation to the public to watch the races from the Academy shoreline or any of the piers in the vicinity of the Naval Building. For those who desire to go on the lake to watch the races, the three-masted schooner FOWLER and the miniature destroyer YARNELL will depart from the Naval pier at 2:15 p.m.

The Regatta chairman explained that it is important that as few boats as possible be in the vicinity of the course during the races. He also is limiting the number of official boats permitted on the lake in order to make the course as ideal as possible for the Regatta.

The number of schools represented in the Regatta is one more than competed last spring at Chicago's Lincoln Park Boat Club. The additional crew is from Winter Park (Fla.) High School, where the Optimist Club is sponsoring an 1100-mile trip for 14 oarsmen and their coach.

Capt. Bolton said entries have been received in all six events, to be climaxed at 3:30 p.m. by the championship race for varsity eight-oared shells. Heading the list of six schools entered in this event is Roosevelt High School, Wyandotte, Mich., which won the title last year. Others include the host Culver Military Academy crew, runner-up by less than a boat length to Roosevelt last year; Winter Park, Fla.; Lane Tech High School, Chicago; South St. Paul (Minn.) High School, and St. John's Military Academy, Delafield, Wis.

The Regatta will open at 1 p.m. with competition in the single sculls. The order of events and times are as follows:

- 1 p.m., single sculls.
- 1:30 p.m., double sculls.
- 2 p.m., four-oared shells with coxswain.
- 2:30 p.m., junior eight-oared shells.
- 3 p.m., four-oared shells without coxswain.
- 3:30 p.m., championship event for varsity eight-oared shells.

The Academy will tune up for the Regatta in its traditional race with St. John's Military Academy at 4 p.m. Friday.

Cadet Mothers To Have Wonderful Weekend At CMA

Full Three-Day Program Planned

More than 1,000 parents and guests are expected to visit Culver Military Academy during Mothers Weekend, May 11-13.

The purpose of the event is to honor the mothers of Academy students, and the three-day celebration will end Sunday morning when Culver's corps of 850 cadets stage a special review. Mothers will join Major General Delmar T. Spivey, USAF (Ret.), superintendent, and other Academy officers in the reviewing line.

The weekend is one of the most important events during the academic year at Culver. The three days will offer a variety of cadet activities, two student productions of the comedy "No Time for Sergeants," a meeting of the Mothers Club, a picnic, and several sports contests.

Parents will spend much of Friday visiting classrooms and conferring with instructors and counselors. A Mothers-Sons banquet is scheduled for the Dining Hall at 6:45 p.m., and at 8:15 p.m. the first production of "No Time for Sergeants" will be staged in the Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium.

Saturday's 10 a.m. meeting of the Mothers Club and other parents will take on special significance when the organization pays tribute to John W. Henderson, former dean of admissions and now an assistant to the superintendent, for his 43 years' service to Culver. The afternoon will be highlighted by the Central States Schoolboy Regatta, when eight crews from the Midwest and Florida compete on Lake Maxinkuckee beginning at 1 p.m. Approximately 125 young oarsmen will swell the group visiting the campus Saturday. Baseball and tennis contests will also be staged.

At 4 p.m. Saturday a picnic will be held at Beason Park for parents, sons, and guests. The William J. Martin-directed production of "No Time for Sergeants" will conclude the evening events at 8:15 p.m.

Sunday chapel services will be divided due to the large crowd. At 9:15 a.m., the Infantry Battalion and parents will attend services followed by devotional services for the Mounted Services at 10:30 a.m. The Rev. Allen P. Gray III, Academy chaplain, will deliver the sermons. Milford H. Myhre will give a carillon recital following the services at 11:15 a.m., and the special review for mothers begins at 11:50 a.m.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Elgie Good of the violent death of James Young late Sunday in Miami, Fla. The victim's wife is a cousin of Mrs. Good and Allen Weaver and the Young family, residents of Ft. Lauderdale, have visited occasionally in this area.

Mr. Young, assistant manager of the Walgreen Drug Store in downtown Miami, Fla., the victim of unknown assailants, was found bound and dead of severe head injuries Monday morning on the fourth floor of the store. It is thought Mr. Young was accosted while in the process of closing the large establishment Sunday night.

Services for Mr. Young, age 52, will be held tomorrow in Ft. Lauderdale with interment in Vero Beach.

Tractor-Trailer Has Freak Accident

Culver's main business intersection, Main and Jefferson Sts., was the scene of a freak accident Wednesday morning. The locking pin, used to connect a large trailer tank to the tractor section of a tractor trailer outfit, became unfastened, letting the tanker fall to the street. The trailer was loaded with animal fat, enroute to Warsaw.

The wrecker service of the Ford Garage was called to lift the tanker trailer so the tractor could be backed up and the locker pin again fastened to the fifth-wheel. The wrecker did a good job of lifting about 12 ton. The outfit is operated by Kenny Tasch, owner of the Marathon Service Station. No one was injured and traffic was not blocked.

Mrs. F. Houghton Injured In Auto Accident Sunday

Mrs. Forrest Houghton, 609 N. Carl St., Culver, was in Parkview Hospital at Plymouth for observation for injuries sustained when she was thrown from her car in a two-car accident at 3 p.m. Sunday on old State Road 17, south of Culver.

According to Police Chief Don Mikesell, Mrs. Houghton was driving west on 17 and drove onto the berm to allow the police and fire department vehicles to pass. As she drove her car back into the highway it collided with a car driven by Silas Fisher, Route 4, Plymouth.

Mr. Fisher was not injured, but extensive damage was listed to both vehicles.

Police said the squad car and fire trucks were enroute to a boating accident at the southwest side of the lake.

Mrs. Houghton was released from the hospital and returned to her home Tuesday evening.

Securities & Exchange Regulations

I fully approve all the steps being taken to make stocks and bonds safer for investors to buy. I advise my clients to co-operate with the SEC. But no laws can eliminate speculation. It is an instinct which seems inherent from birth, and endures through education, marriage, and to death. People will bet on horse races if they cannot bet on Wall Street. Furthermore, if it had not been for this instinct, Columbus would not have discovered America; yes, and the Pilgrims would never have landed at Plymouth Rock.

I believe in the Regulation Statements which the SEC requires to be prepared, printed, and distributed to prospective stock buyers; but there is no way of compelling these prospects to read them. Moreover, they are quite a burden to young and growing companies, as the cost of lawyers and accountants fees, plus printing, amounts to from $25,000 to $50,000. It is even more important that small investors read the annual reports and proxy statements which every stockholder receives free—once a year.

Metropolitan Pays $41 Million To Policyholders

SANFORD SNYDER

Sanford Snyder, of Culver, Representative of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, reports that the Company's payments to policyholders and beneficiaries in Indiana last year amounted to $41,882,543.

"On the basis of Company-wide averages, about twice as much was paid to living policyholders as to beneficiaries of death claim payments," he added.

Over the last five years, payments to Indiana Policyholders and beneficiaries have amounted to $196,285,996.

Metropolitan paid out a record $1,884,000,000 to policyholders and beneficiaries last year, a sum twice the amount paid out as recently as 10 years ago. It was the fifth year in succession in which these payments have passed the one and one-half billion mark.

Travel Increase Booms Motel Expansion

Sleepy Bear, who symbolizes sleep for the weary traveler across the nation, uses pointer to indicate industry growth predicted by the founder of the world's largest motel network.

SAN DIEGO—Scott King, president and founder of the TravelLodge Corporation which operates the world's largest network of co-owned motels, predicts a gigantic boom in the changing United States motel industry during the next ten years.

He estimates there will be in excess of 75,000 motels in operation by 1972 with an additional 1,500,000 rooms available to the traveling public. King points out that in the ten year period from 1951 to 1961 the number of motels in the nation jumped from 42,000 to more than 62,000.

Speaking from a background of twenty-five years in the motel industry and having observed its transition from auto camps to auto courts, to motels and on to the present era of elaborate luxury motels, King certainly rates as an authority on the subject.

"I am convinced that there is a large and increasingly important place in the national picture for the adequate, well-located and well-managed lodging facility catering to business travelers, tourists and vacationers," King said.

He went on to point out that the increased complexities of modern business, with its required dealer and customer servicing, will call for an ever increasing volume of business travel. In addition, King said that in his opinion, the fact that the standard of living in the U.S. is always increasing encourages more and more tourist travel. "More leisure time makes such travel available to a much larger segment of the population."

King, who travels about the country constantly supervising the TravelLodge Network of more than 200 co-owned motels, said his surveys have indicated a tremendous number of motel customers are now traveling by air and using rental automobiles for their local travels.

"What this means to the motel industry," King said, "is that a man who flies to a city and then rents a car is just as much a potential motel customer as the person who travels cross-country in an automobile."

He concluded by saying that since motels have moved off the highways and into the downtown districts, an innovation in the industry pioneered by TravelLodge, many business and pleasure travelers prefer the convenience and economy of a motel as opposed to staying in a hotel.

Plants," catalog 119 species suited to Indiana conditions.

These mimeos list each flower by common and botanical name, color, height, flowering season and whether it prefers sun or shade. Brief comments are made about care, where to grow, value as cut flowers and particular qualities of each. The "List of Annuals" also tells when and where to sow the seed.

For a free copy of each HO 72-1 and HO 72-2, Indiana residents should see their county extension agent or write to the Agricultural Publications Office, AES Building, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana.

FRIENDSHIP GARDENS STRESS TULIPS FOR OPENING ON SUNDAY

Many of the 300,000 of the world's finest tulips will be blooming profusely throughout International Friendship Gardens, at Michigan City, by Mother's Day, May 13, when the Gardens will be formally opened to the public this year.

There will be 500 varieties on display and more colors this year than in previous years because of the constant experiments of the Dutch Bulb Growers Association which supplies bulbs for the tulip showing. There will be brilliant hues of red, purple, white, yellow, orange and variegated. They heighten the colors for the background created by dogwood, redbud, crab and peach.

To reach the Gardens, autoists will find it most convenient to follow U. S. 12 eastward from Michigan City about 1 1/2 miles to the cooling tower of the N. Y. C. R. R., turning right on Liberty Trail and following the signs to the entrance and the large parking lot.

By DAVID KELLY, Troop Scribe

The first meeting of May was held in the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall. Nineteen Scouts were present for the Board of Review and uniform inspection. Demonstrations were given on topographic maps, using a compass, and measuring your stride. A Board of Review was held with Mike Baker and John Cook passing their Second Class rank and Greg Yapp his Star.

A paper drive will be held this Saturday. All Scouts should meet at the bank parking lot at 9:45 a.m. in uniform. Scouts will pass out string during the week. If you need more you may pick some up at any service station.

Next week Troop 290 will receive about 20 new members from the Cub Scouts. This will almost double our size. We will form a new patrol next Monday.

A swim meet will be held Wednesday, May 16. We will meet at the church at the usual time — 6:45 p.m.

Capt. R. Bolton
Named Chairman Of Regatta

An officer with 30 years experience in the U.S. Navy, a veteran rowing official, and a former Olympic oarsman have been named as key men in the 1962 Central States Schoolboy Regatta to be held at Culver Military Academy on Saturday, May 12.

Selected to serve as chairman of the rowing classic is Capt. Robert Bolton, USN (Ret.), an Academy mathematics instructor who also is director of the Culver Summer Naval School. As a testimony to his long service to rowing, Richard Canman, Chicago, has been named honorary chairman of the Regatta. B. P. "Pat" Costello Jr., Detroit, a silver medal winner in the 1956 Melbourne Olympics, will be referee and starter.

The three men will coordinate the series of events pitting top crews and oarsmen from four Midwestern states who will compete over the mile Lake Maxinkuckee course. They will also head a staff of timers, judges, and recorders.

Capt. Bolton announced the names of other officials who will serve during the afternoon races beginning at 1 p.m. Judges at the finish line will be Howard Jackson, Detroit, long-time secretary of the Central States Amateur Rowing Association; Donald M. Marshal, chairman of the Culver language department and a former oarsman in England; and James S. McIntosh, Detroit, also a participant in the 1956 Olympics.

Timers will be: Arthur Rinker, St. Louis; James Woog, coach of the University of Minnesota crew; Donald Loe, St. Paul, Minn.; David Burke, Culver, Ind.; Arthur Sims, Detroit, an official of the National Amateur Association of Oarsmen; Peter Trone, Culver, Ind.; and Claus Haage, Chicago.

This is the first time since

1957 that the Regatta has been held at Culver. Last year's event was held at Lincoln Park Boat Club, Chicago, where Roosevelt High School, of Wyandotte, Mich., won the championship eight-oared event.

HOOSIER HAPPENINGS

By Harold Hanson

FARMS TO PENS — Last year, 14 major markets in the United States trucked in 100 per cent of their livestock from farms throughout the country. Among them, both Muncie and Evansville reported that 100 per cent of their cattle, calves, hogs, lambs and sheep came by truck.

RIPE OLD AGE—Further proof that terrapins live long lives and seldom wander far afield comes from Orange County. Two brothers, Aaron Parks of Route 2, French Lick, and Orville Parks of Chicago, while squirrel hunting on Aaron's farm, found a terrapin on whose back their father had carved two sets of initials and the date 1921. The initials were M. P. and B. W., those of Manford Parks, father of the Parks brothers, and Bennie Walters, a friend of father. Aaron Parks said his father, who died in 1949, had a habit of carving his initials on the shells of terrapins he found.

GHOSTLY — A young couple who operated a souvenir store along U.S. 50 near Shoals got interested in relics of olden days and they now have re-created a frontier town. They are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hirsch and they call their village "Ed's Ghost Town." From various sources they acquired weather beaten buildings which they have set up along an old fashioned board walk. The buildings include an ancient jail, a saloon, a livery stable and a hotel with a second story balcony across the front. In the various buildings are relics of pioneer days. In the livery stable is a survey with the fringe on top.

HE TOOK AIM — The testimony of an alleged participant in a tavern brawl at Dunkirk caused some smiles in the court of City Judge Burmond Gaunt. Lelon Neely, charged with disorderly conduct, told the judge he and another man were playing a miniature bowling game and an argument started when "the bowling machine started messin' up." Asked if he had been drinking Neely replied, "No, but I was aimin' to do some." A plea of guilty to the disorderly conduct charge brought him a fine of $25.

LONG CAT TALE — It seems cats have a penchant for seeking refuge from rain or cold beneath the hood of a convenient automobile. A Fulton County cat that did so traveled at least 18 miles before it was restored to its owner. Mrs. Russell Mathias, who lives between Akron and Rochester, reported to The Akron News that one Monday evening she parked her car in Rochester. While there a rain storm came up. Later she drove home and the following morning drove to Akron and left her car at a garage for servicing while she went to a beauty shop. While at the beauty shop the garage operator sent word he had found a white cat beneath the hood of the car. Mrs. Mathias and the garage man decided to release the cat hoping it would find its way home. Then Tuesday evening, Mrs. Fred Rakestraw of Rochester advertised in a home town paper that her Persian cat with long white hair had disappeared from her home Monday afternoon. The cat was found Tuesday evening at the Akron home of Mr. and Mrs. George Stephen and was restored to Mrs. Rakestraw. The cat evidently had ridden under the hood of the car to the Mathias home 12 miles from Rochester Monday night and then six miles to Akron the following morning.

SMALL WORLD — While motor-ing through the northwest, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Gushwa of Delphi stopped for gasoline at a filling station in Whitehall, Montana. As they pulled into the station some 1,300 miles from home, they were astonished to see another automobile with an Indiana license plate bearing the prefix "QC," the prefix assigned to Carroll County. The car belonged to Olaf Brown, another Carroll County resident. It was just a coincidence that the Hoosiers from the same county met in the far away place.

BUSY MAN — We don't know where she heard it, but Mrs. Margaret Wyatt's "HEAR and There" column in The Brown County Democrat contained this gem: "No matter how busy a man is, he's never too busy to stop and talk about how busy he is."

Currens of Route 2, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stults of Argos, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Shock, Jane and Jan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sheppard, Rich and Ron Kuhn, all of Burr Oak, and Mrs. Lodema Thornburg of Culver. Melinda received many nice gifts.

POISONOUS PLANTS ENDANGER LIVESTOCK

A springtime hazard to livestock is poisonous plants sometimes found in Hoosier pastures, points out James L. Williams, Purdue University extension botanist. Animals rarely eat these plants if the pasture is good, but they remain a serious threat.

Poisonous plants of major importance are water hemlock, Dutchman's breeches, dwarf larkspur, cocklebur sprouts, white snakeroot, wild cherry, black locust and black nightshade.

If plant poisoning is suspected, change your livestock to another pasture and consult a veterinarian, advises Williams. He suggests checking pastures for the presence of toxic plants, since plant poisoning is first a matter of prevention.

Prevention of livestock poisoning by plants depends on keeping the plants out of reach of the animals and maintaining a good grass sod in the pasture. Williams says this may be accomplished by:

Destroying poisonous plants.

Fencing livestock out of areas where poisonous plants grow.

Practicing pasture fertilization and management which will maintain a good grass sod.

NIPSCO Pays Tax Installment Of Over $4 Million

A spring tax installment of more than $4-1/4 million ($4,261,990.98) in real estate and personal property taxes was paid this week by Northern Indiana Public Service Company as its contribution toward the continued successful operation of schools, cities, and towns throughout the northern third of the state.

Dean H. Mitchell, NIPSCO chairman and president, said, "The payment represents an increase of $308,560.56 over last year's installment, making us one of the largest single taxpayers in the state of Indiana."

John E. Nickoloff, Plymouth District manager, said that local taxes paid by the utility in the Plymouth area amounted to $149,646.62, of which $38,174.13 went to Starke County; $14,308.21 went to Fulton County; and $97,164.28 went to Marshall County. The city of Plymouth received $47,869.71; the city of Knox received $8,332.76; and the city of Rochester received $6,489.08.

NIPSCO tax checks were sent to the utility's district managers well ahead of the tax payment deadline to make sure county treasurers received them in plenty of time.

WHEN YOU BUY A BLOUSE

Try a change of blouse to perk up your wardrobe, suggests Frieda Stoll, clothing specialist at Purdue University.

A basic wardrobe item, a blouse easily expresses the wearer's personality and mood. A blouse can be tailored or dressy, plain or printed, white or colored. Necklines and sleeve lengths come in any style—to suit the individual's needs.

When the U. S. Department of Agricultural surveyed 2,300 women recently, 64 per cent reported they bought all their blouses and 12 per cent bought some and made some. Only two per cent made all their blouses.

Price is not always a guide to quality, Miss Stoll points out. The customer may be paying for a designer's name or a special fabric type instead of good construction.

But no matter what the price, the question is, how does it fit? If the blouse does not fit well it will not look well, nor be comfortable.

Since sizes are not standard, the specialist recommends trying on a blouse before buying to be sure it has freedom of movement and easy fit. Often difference in size is related to price—an inexpensive blouse may be cut "short," or smaller, than an expensive one.

Examine the construction, too, the specialist recommends. Is it, held down?

cut on straight grain? Does it have a long "tail" for tucking in? Does it have wide seams, suitably finished to withstand many washings? Are buttons washable and securely sewn? Are the button-holes neatly finished in the proper length? Does the collar lie smooth and even? Are the facings

Enroute home from the funeral services of their aunt, Mrs. Laura Rinehart, last Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Davis called on a friend, Mrs. Hazel Canine in Mechanicsburg. MORNING AFTER — The Dearborn County Register reports that two men, one from Lawrenceburg and the other from Aurora, got into an argument in a Lawrenceburg tavern. The Lawrenceburg man left, returned with a gun and wounded a man he thought was the Auroran. But it was a case of mistaken identity. The Aurora man had fled hurriedly, but he was picked up in his home town on a speeding charge. The Lawrenceburg man meanwhile was arrested in the shooting and he and the Auroran wound up in adjoining cells in the Dearborn County jail. The next morning, officers said, they had cooled off.

COLLECTOR'S ITEMS — A junior at Tri-State College in Angola is an antique automobile collector. The student, William Trier, has a collection that includes a 1912 Reo Speedster and a 1915 Ford. His most prized possession, however, is a 1930 American La France hose and ladder truck. The truck, 35 feet long, nine feet high and weighing six and a half tons, was too big to keep at the college but Trier found storage space for it at the Jack Clark farm near Salem Center, southwest of Angola.

SPEAK UP — A Hoosier native, Bernard Kilgore, born in Albany (Delaware County) who is now president of The Wall Street Journal, believes that lively, local community newspapers are important in the publishing field. In a recent address at the University of Kansas he said: "The newspaper of the future will be one that pulls its own community together with information about itself and takes a position of editorial leadership in the affairs of the community."

He said also that newspapers of all types should comment on local, regional, state and national affairs because "readers expect their editors to have opinions and ideas."

BETTER SURFACE DRAINAGE

Better surface drainage may be needed to prevent "drowned out" areas on Indiana crop land.

Don Sisson, Purdue University extension agricultural engineer, says a surface drainage system, in addition to tile drainage, may be needed on low lands where runoff water from rain collects.

On soils where tile drainage works poorly a good surface system may prove 75 percent as efficient as a combined surface and tile drainage system. On tight soils, a tile system alone rarely will give sufficient drainage. Even on soils where tile is recommended, shallow surface drainage ditches should be used to remove water that collects in low areas.

Sisson says diversion terraces can be used in some areas to divert surface runoff water away from low flat lands. The diversion should outlet into a grass waterway, open ditch or natural stream. A diversion terrace works and acts just like a gutter on a house.

On lands with a slight slope where both poor drainage and erosion are problems, cross slope surface drainage ditches or drainage-type terraces may be the solution. In such cases, direction of rows should be up and down the slope at nearly right angles to the drainage-ways, according to Sisson.

The "W" ditch—where a double channel is found and the excavated materials placed between the two channels—is a popular type of surface drainage ditch on flat lands. Sisson says the "W" ditch is advantageous because the excavated material does not block surface water from getting into the channels readily from either side. The "W" ditch can be built with tractor and plow.

When the surface drainage system has been completed, Sisson recommends land smoothing with a land leveler to even out minor low and high spots. If the land is smoothed more uniform surface drainage will result. Improv-

THE TAX TWIST

Don't Say We Didn't Warn You

The warning word from Washington is that the Administration-backed bill for medical care under Social Security now "has a good chance of passage" this session.

This is a bad dose of medicine for all of you men and women now at work — for your tax increase would be up to $25.25 each year.

Your money would be used to take care of those unable to pay their own bills — as well as those who are able to pay their obligations.

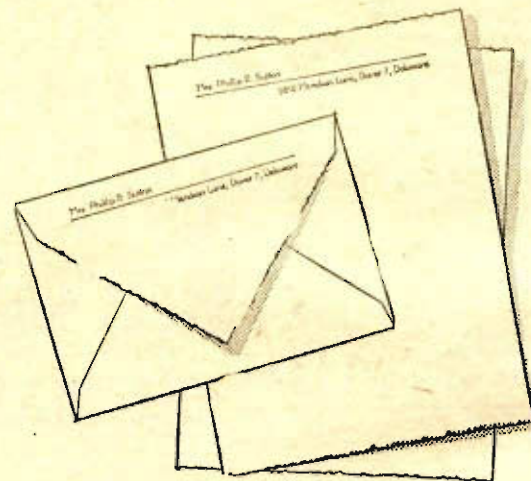

What the government do-gooders fail to point up is that more than half of those over 65 are already covered by their own health insurance policies — and this number is growing rapidly!

Further, this bill comes up before the full effect of the Kerr-Mills Act has been felt. This is the legislation which takes care of a greater share of medical expenses, but only for those unable to pay.

President Kennedy's own figures forecast that this new bill would cost about $6 billion a year — all of which means further tax increases.

We suggest you relay this additional ammunition along to your representatives: No one has been able to prove that any large number of older people need medical care — or that they can't get it now.

The perfect nature of spiritual creation will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Among the Bible passages to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" is this one from Genesis (1): "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: . . . So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him: male and female created he them."
From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this citation will be read: "God created all through Mind, and made all perfect and eternal" (p. 205).
The Golden Text is from Job (8): "Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers."

Dairymen can reduce mastitis by sound herd management, correct milking procedures and early diagnosis and proper treatment of the disease, says a Purdue University extension veterinarian.

Dr. F. A. Hall points out that mastitis is a major disease problem of the dairy industry, resulting in millions of dollars of losses annually in both cattle and milk production.

Sound management includes practices that help reduce injuries to udders and tests and make cows more comfortable, such as using ample bedding, keeping barnyards free of mud holes and trash and making sure that cows have adequate floor space.

Correct milking procedures include using a separate towel for each cow when washing the udder, testing each quarter with a strip cup before milking, using two sets of inflation rubbers and alternating them each week. The alternate sets should be soaked in a 5-8 percent cold lye solution. Correct pulsation, speed and vacuum on the milking machines should be maintained at all times.

If the strip cup reveals signs of off-character milk the cow should be removed from the milking string until cleared of the trouble. When antibiotics are used in treating mastitis, a minimum of 72 hours or six complete milkings should elapse to prevent harming the milk with the drug.

Treatment for chronic mastitis is most effective during the cow's dry period. Dr. Hall suggests periodic laboratory tests to determine the amount of infection.

Dr. Hall emphasizes that treatment alone is not the answer to the control of the disease. Use of antibiotics has not solved this problem, but has perhaps created new problems. Antibiotics originally effective against some bacteria associated with mastitis seemingly have lost some of their effectiveness, Dr. Hall adds. In light of this situation the dairyman should use sound herd management, correct milking procedures, and early diagnosis and proper treatment in the control of mastitis.

RED FLAG, FLASHER LAW AFFECTS MOST FARMERS

Now that farm tractors and equipment they pull are appearing more frequently on federal and state highways in Indiana, F. R. Willsey, Purdue University farm safety specialist, calls attention to a 1961 law requiring them to display a red flag or flashing red signal lamp.

The law, Willsey points out, is for the protection of both the tractor operator and the motorist. The flashing light or the waving flag will give the motorist advance warning of the presence of slow moving equipment on the highway.

The law says in part: "When any truck tractor, farm tractor, road tractor or implement of husbandry is operated on a federal or state highway at a speed less than 20 miles per hour, there shall be at least one flashing red signal lamp or red flag mounted, at the height of from 10 to 12 feet, on such vehicle which shall be visible to the rear of the vehicle for a distance of at least 500 feet. Provided, that if such red signal lamp or red flag is not visible for at least 500 feet when mounted on a combination of vehicles, such lamp or flag shall be mounted on the rear vehicle of such combinations of vehicles."

Willsey suggests that faded, tattered red flags, which may have been in use since the law became effective last summer, be replaced.

MIXED CORN HYBRIDS NOT SUPERIOR

Mixing seed of corn hybrids brings no yield advantage over planting a single hybrid, points out Keller E. Beeson, Purdue University extension agronomist.

Research shows that the yield of the mixture was the average for the hybrids planted. The study also indicated that the highest yielding hybrid in the mixture, when planted by itself, outyielded the mixture.

Summaries of five-acre projects and county demonstration plots through the years have indicated no yield advantage for mixtures. For instance, in the excellent corn season of 1961, more than 750 Indiana farmers in five-acre projects produced more than 150 bushels of corn an acre. Their average yield was slightly more than 162 bushels. Of these 750, fifty-six reported planting a mixture of two or more hybrids. Their average yield was 161 bushels an acre.

Neither research nor yield evidence, says Beeson, supports the most commonly heard argument for mixing hybrids; that is, that pollination will be distributed over a longer period and consequently ears will be better filled.

Red warts on the leaves of young maple trees are maple bladder galls. Purdue University entomologists say they are caused by mites. The warts do little or no damage but prevention will improve appearance of the foliage. Use a delayed dormant spray consisting of two teaspoons of 57 per cent malathion in each one gallon of water. Apply in the spring just before the buds open.

INDIANA STATE MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

IMMUNIZATION

IMMUNIZATION changes a person from one susceptible to a disease to one resistant to it. It enables this person to carry his protection with him, whenever and wherever he goes.

Immunization, unlike prophylaxis through the use of drugs, frees him from having to take a drug regularly, from risk of running out of the drug, or the worry about forgetting to take the protective drug.

Immunization, unlike water sanitation or insect control, permits a person to leave a protected area without leaving his protection behind him. And he needs no longer flee an epidemic area, hoping he has fled in time.

Immunization has saved millions of lives and freed others from panic and chronic fear.

What are some of the diseases for which immunity is available? There is a bacterial vaccine against whooping cough, a relatively good one against tuberculosis, and a moderately effective one against typhoid fever. There are highly effective toxoids against diphtheria and tetanus. There are vaccines against typhus fever and Rocky Mountain spotted fever, and good virus vaccines against influenza and rabies; also some specialized vaccines for diseases including tularemia, brucellosis, cholera, plague, mumps, and staphylococcus infection. The new measles vaccine now can be added to his armamentarium at the disposal of the physician. However, despite the life-saving vaccines already developed, many more are needed.

Vaccine against upper respiratory infection and against streptococcal infection are much needed.

There is increasing hope and belief that immunological ways and means will be developed for the control of some, if not all, types of cancer. Advances in immunology are being made constantly, and major breakthroughs are anticipated in the near future.

RUNNER-UP IN SOIL JUDGING CONTEST

Richard Large, Route 2, Culver, a senior in Purdue University's school of agriculture, took runner-up place in the North Central Regional Collegiate soil judging contest recently at the University of Wisconsin. He scored 325½ of a possible 400 points.

Two Purdue teams finished third and fourth in the team event, which attracted seven teams from five Midwest schools. The contest is sponsored by the student section of the American Society of Agronomy.

UNCLE BILL — When a Monroe County man, William E. Summitt of Stinesville, started with his foster sister, Mrs. Sharon Marsh, for a trip to a Martinsville hospital where Mrs. Marsh was to enter a maternity ward, he thought he had plenty of time. But there wasn't. As his car approached Paragon, about seven miles from Martinsville, he pulled off the road at a truck stop where he assisted Mrs. Marsh in the delivery of an 8-pound baby boy. He then took the mother and son on to the hospital. The baby was given the name of William, honoring the uncle who assisted at his birth.

Academy Sports

Last Saturday was one of those times when Culver Military Academy athletic coaches figure it's a great day to be alive.

Three of the five teams won, two others have perfect records, and for Coach Jim DeArmond, who inherited a string of 19 consecutive games without a baseball victory, a doubleheader triumph made it one of the big days of the year.

Baseball
 The baseball squad actually snapped its long losing streak last Thursday when, after dropping six games this season, the Eagles jumped on Winamac and came up with a two-hit, 7-1, victory. John Bartlett became the first Academy pitcher to win a game in 25 starts over three years.

Then on Saturday, against arch-rival St. John's Military Academy, Delafield, Wis., the Eagles had a field day. They pummeled the Johnnies 16-6 in the first game, including a 17-run inning unthought of during the doldrums of the past three seasons. For good measure, DeArmond's proteges jumped away to an early lead in the second game and won 6-2.

The Academy's last baseball victory prior to the win over Winamac Thursday was against Bremen during the 1960 season.

Crew
 Coach Larry BeBout's crew, after finishing second at Marietta College the previous Saturday, made a clean sweep last weekend against the Purdue University freshmen. Over the mile Lake Maxinkuckee course set up on the south shore due to rough weather, the Academy varsity crew defeated Purdue's top freshmen crew by three boat lengths. The winning time was a slow five minutes, 41 seconds. Coach BeBout entered his second and third crews in a junior varsity race against Purdue's second boat, and both Academy teams flashed across the finish line ahead of the Boilermakers. The winning time for the junior varsity event equaled the 5:11 of the varsity race.

Tennis
 In tennis, with Coach Ted Clarno keeping his fingers crossed for a big match with Peru Thursday, May 10, the Academy preserved its unbeaten streak of five matches. The winning total was 8 1/2-1 1/2 over St. John's Military Academy as all players but Gil Bickel came up with victories. But the important match comes Thursday when the Academy meets Peru in a 4 p.m. contest. Peru has won 43 consecutive dual matches.

Although the golf and tennis teams had the day off Saturday, both are rolling along with unbeaten records in dual competition. Coach Dave Burke's harriers added Bremen to its list of dual meet triumphs, 81-23, and the golf team record stands at 2-0 after a cancellation with St. John's Saturday. The track team was led in its fourth straight dual meet victory by Bill Borkenstein, who did a commendable 10.2 in the 100-yard dash.

CMA Team Places Second In State Math Contest

Culver Military Academy will receive a second place plaque in recognition of its team's performance in the Indiana Division of the 1962 National High School Math Contest. High honors also go to John Warren Jurgensen of Culver who placed in the top 1% in the State in the individual scoring.

The National High School Math Contest is an annual event sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America and the Society of Actuaries to stimulate interest in the study of higher mathematics and the many careers it affords. The test given is a difficult one (as any participant will agree) and the honors received for high achievement are well merited.

To provide equitable distribution of awards, the Indiana schools were placed in three size classifications: Class A — 500 or less; Class B — 300 to 900; and Class C — 1000 or more.

The top three teams in each size class are: Class A — Fairmount High School, Fairmount; Attica High School, Attica; and Bunker Hill High School, Bunker Hill; Class B — West Lafayette High School, West Lafayette; Culver Military Academy, Culver; and Hobart Senior High School, Hobart; Class C — North Central High School, Indianapolis; Central High School, South Bend; and Shortridge High School, Indianapolis. Plaques will be presented to these schools by the Contest Committee for Indiana, headed by Professor J. Crawford Polley of Wabash College.

Awards in the form of appropriate mathematical books will be presented by the Indianapolis Actuarial Club and the Actuaries of Fort Wayne to each of the top 25 individual scorers in Indiana.
