Home Of Hibbard Family Destroyed By Fire

Fire of undetermined origin and which was believed to have started near a fuel oil storage tank destroyed the home and its contents of furniture and clothing of the O. W. Anderson family, of Hibbard, last Wednesday afternoon about 5:45 p.m. Culver Fire Department made the run and on arrival at the scene, Fire Chief David Burns said the house was "a ball of flames." The Plymouth tanker truck was also called to aid the Culver firemen in saving the barn and other buildings located near the house.

Mrs. Anderson was at the home of Clarence Broeker, whose home is just two blocks from the Andersons'. She was staying with the Broeker children when she was notified of the fire. She said her children had just returned from school and ran to the Broeker home to tell her of the fire. The fire started on a side porch near the fuel oil tank.

Mrs. Anderson said her husband was working at LaPorte when the blaze started and it was first thought their son, Bill, was asleep in an upstairs bedroom. As the son made his appearance a few minutes later, it was learned he had not been upstairs.

David Anderson, 12, discovered the family's pet bird was still in the house near the rear and rescued it as the firemen fought the blaze. Other members of the Anderson family are Dick, 18; Howard, 10 and Christine, 5. The family is living with the Broekers until they can find another home.

The home that burned is owned by Clarence Banks, Terre Haute. It is believed that the house and the furnishings are partially covered by insurance. Chief Burns estimated the damage to the house would reach the $6,000 figure.

Persons Over 65
 May Be Losing Benefits

Residents of Marshall County may lose hundreds of dollars in Social Security Benefits if they do not file an application. The people who stand to lose these benefits are still working and past the age of 65. Cornelius H. Schafer, Manager of the South Bend Social Security office said that many of these people may still be under the impression that earnings of over $1200 per year would cause them to lose their benefits. Changes to the social security law this last summer make it possible in some cases for a family to receive some benefits even though the worker has yearly earnings of as much as $4497.

Marshall County residents who are 65 years of age and over who are working and have not filed an application for Social Security Benefits are urged to contact the local social security office. Those who are single earning less than $3000 and married persons earning less than $3600 should contact the office. Workers over 65 with children under 18 years of age should contact the office if their earnings are as much as $4497.

The problems of agriculture cannot be successfully settled by conferences around a desk.

Dick Newman and Mrs. Chester Cleveland assisted the hostess in serving refreshments. Mrs. C. Glenn Coolman, chapter president, conducted the business meeting. The committees for the Christmas in August Bazaar made reports of their progress.

A report was given on the Province 10 Workshop held at Auburn, Ind., April 25. Mrs. Coolman, Mrs. John F. Edgell, Mrs. Robert Bolton Jr., and Mrs. Lester Snyder were in attendance. An award for complete coverage of activities was given to the Epsilon Nu Chapter. Mrs. Joseph Clyne is chairman of the scrapbook. Outstanding credit was given to her artistic, creative, and informative news coverage in the Chapter's scrapbook. The Culver Chapter was also recognized at the convention for the outstanding job they have done in this community and area in their scholarship and charitable projects.

Again Tri Kappa is sponsoring the Summer Reading Program of the Culver Public Library. This program is open to children in grades one through six.

Through the Mental Health Program that Tri Kappa sponsors in this area, a donation of $50 has been given to a person who was rehabilitated and returned to his home in this County. This donation provides some of the needed financial assistance required to re-establish this person to his rightful place in society.

Tri Kappa "again wishes to thank the community for their cooperation in making all of the Tri Kappa projects such outstanding successes."

Legion and VFW To Sell Poppies Here May 25-26

The memorial poppies, which will be worn in Culver on Poppy Day, both May 25 and 26, have been made by disabled veterans at the Indiana Veterans Hospital according to the American Legion and the V.F.W. Auxiliary.

The red crepe paper flowers, which are worn as a tribute to the nation's war dead each year, are distributed by volunteer workers under the direction of the American Legion and the V.F.W. Auxiliary.

Mrs. Jack Taylor and Mrs. Neal Lichtenberger, co-chairmen for the American Legion Auxiliary Poppy Day, along with Mrs. Larry Lowry, chairman of the V.F.W. Auxiliary Poppy Day, have announced that more than 2,700 poppies have been received here this year.

"Making poppies provides gainful employment and needed work therapy for thousands of our servicemen still hospitalized with wartime injuries. These tiny replicas of the wild poppies which lined the battlefields of Europe during World War I have become the emblem for personal remembrance of our servicemen's sacrices," Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Lowry said. This year more than one million of the colorful paper flowers have been made for the Auxiliaries by the hospitalized veterans of both World Wars and the Korean conflict. Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Lowry explained that making the poppies has provided beneficial employment for these veterans during the winter and spring months. The work has been directed by the state organizations of the Auxiliaries with the Indiana Department in charge of this project at the Indiana Veterans Hospital.

Babson Discusses Investing Versus Gambling

Learn To Forecast The Future

By ROGER W. BABSON
No. 1 U.S. Economist

Babson Park, Mass. — I have spent the day reading a remarkable book — "The Pictorial History of Wall Street" — 368 pages size 12" x 9". This history shows clearly that the fundamental facts underlying investing during the past decades apply equally today. (This is an anniversary of the New York Stock Exchange founded just 170 years ago.)

Roger W. Babson

Let me describe ten facts.

(1) Safety and income come from careful selection and supervision of your investments. Profits come usually from "gambling"; although your total investment will rise and decline in "value" along with the Dow-Jones Averages. But big profits come from buying into new ideas, new discoveries, and scientific developments. To make big money, read scientific journals rather than ordinary financial news.

(2) Newton's Law of Equal and Opposite Reaction can be depended upon when the AREAS are properly considered. This was first noticeable when African slaves and gold were the only "commodities" traded on Wall Street 200 years ago. I believe that we will continue to have periods of Decline and Depression during the next few years. Congress can legislate only to temporarily postpone declines; but cannot change the AREAS involved.

Dips in Stock Market

(3) A study of Wall Street history during the past 170 years shows that dips in the stock market have always come unexpectedly, without warning. This was true when slaves, gold, or stocks were selling abnormally high — as at present. Such bear markets have always followed great wars, from Napoleonic Days through World War I. No such bear market has yet occurred following World War II. The D-J Industrial Average was around 100 in 1942 and has since climbed fairly steadily, upward, standing around 670 today.

(4) Special groups of stocks have acted differently during the past 150 years. The demand for slaves and land declined from 1860-65 while the demand for gold and railroad stocks was very active. Then, being over-popularized — as the electronics and space stocks are today — they had a terrible slump with most of the companies going into receivership. Most of the stocks in the same group suffer more or less together; but different groups can act very differently.

(5) Bonds — other than governments — were almost non-existent until 75 years ago when corporation bonds began to be issued. A study of quotations shows that the bond market is usually going down when the stock market is going up. Careful investors will hold both stocks and bonds in a proportion varying according to conditions. For instance, good corporation bonds can now be bought to yield 4 1/2% while the stocks of the same corporations will yield today 3% or less. Hence, the switching of stocks into bonds has now begun on Wall Street and it will continue until the stock yield equals the bond yield.

OUR Flowering DESERT

ONE DAY IT IS ALL SAND AND SCRUB. THEN ALMOST OVERNIGHT IN THE EARLY SPRING THE ARIZONA DESERT TURNS INTO ONE VAST GARDEN OF STRANGE AND EXOTIC WILDFLOWERS AND THE AIR IS PERMEATED WITH THE SUBTLE FRAGRANCES OF FLOWERING TREES.

THE RAINFALL IN NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER DETERMINES THE LIFE AND EXTENT OF THIS VAST SEA OF COLOR. BY CENTURIES OF ADAPTATION, THE CACTUS HAS DEVELOPED WAYS AND MEANS OF SURVIVAL IN THE SCORCHING SUN. THE SAGUARO TREE ABSORBS AS MUCH AS A TON OF WATER DURING THE WINTER RAINFALL WHICH IT STORES FOR USE DURING THE MONTHS OR YEARS OF DRAUGHT. ITS BLOSSOM IS THE ARIZONA STATE FLOWER.

FIVE OR SIX THOUSAND DIFFERENT SPECIES OF PLANTS ARE SAID TO FLOWER IN THE DESERT. THE NIGHT-BLOOMING CEREUS OR QUEEN OF THE NIGHT IS THE MOST BEAUTIFUL AND FRAGRANT OF ALL THE CACTUS BLOSSOMS. YOU CAN ACTUALLY SEE THE PETALS MOVE AS THEY OPEN.

YEARS AGO WHILE TRAVELING THROUGH THE SOUTHWEST MR. WILLIAM L. SCHULTZ FOUNDER OF SULLION INC. FELL UNDER THE FASCINATION OF THIS BRIEF AND BRILLIANT BLOOMING OF THE DESERT AND DECIDED TO CREATE THE PERFUME "DESERT FLOWER" TO SYMBOLIZE THE SPELL-BINDING MOMENT THE VISITOR EXPERIENCES WITH HIS FIRST UNBELIEVING GLIMPSE OF OUR FLOWERING DESERT.

Buying Land

(6) Naturally, everyone who knows Wall Street will advise diversification of all kinds. Don't put all your money in stocks or bonds. Real estate can be bought in the Central West and South West at $75 per acre. One must pay more to get land in an oil or mineral "terrain." There never will be any more land. If you can get enough rent for pasture rights to pay taxes, buy such land. When buying land, be willing to pay for adjoining fresh water. Someday fresh water in quantity will almost be "liquid gold".

I believe in African gold stocks — also good Mutual Funds and especially insured savings to pay 4 1/2%. I once asked Thomas A. Edison who was the greatest inventor. He replied "The man who invented compound interest." The lower Manhattan Island — with Wall Street later its center — was bought from the Indians for a few trinkets valued at $24.00. If the Indians had taken the cash and invested it at 6% interest, compounded quarterly, this $24.00 would today amount to around sixteen billion dollars. So don't forget the great power of compound interest even if the bonds yield you only 4 1/2%.

Seek Professional Opinion

(7) Seek the professional opinion of investment advisors who have been in business over fifty years and have made money for their clients. Tell your advisor that you want to diversify according to the basic fundamentals — but that you are willing to do some "gambling" by buying now into companies which may have a big future.

(8) Keep in good health — do not worry. Unless your health is good your judgement cannot be good. You do not need capital or a college diploma to "gamble" successfully; but you do need good health, a good wife, plenty of sleep, and to say your prayers.

(9) The best "gamble" of all is a bunch of good children. Have enough of them and some are sure to turn out to be "whizzes" — very smart. Keep out of debt. I have never borrowed or loaned one dollar in my life or bought on margin.

Forecasting The Future

(10) Profits must come from forecasting the future. Your bankers will call it "gambling." But every forward-looking man has been a "gambler" — from Columbus to those scientists who, like M.I.T.'s Provost Charles H. Townes, are now working on condensed light rays and masers and lasers! Forget the moon, but capitalize on four big things: (1) The heat of the sun; (2) the coming scarcity of fresh water; (3) the cellulose of wood and cotton, to give us cellophane, plastics, and fibers; and (4) science. Stick to these four fundamentals, although you can diversify your holdings over many companies.

We are living in a new age, the age of "television," fuel cells, ion engines, harnessing gravity, and good bacteria. Don't spend too much time on present educational courses based only upon memory. Rather, learn to forecast the future by reading scientific magazines. In a previous weekly column I discussed stocks in good honest drug companies. Just now they may be selling for all they are worth. But these drug companies are great "gamblers"; if you own their stocks they will do the "gambling" for you!

In closing let me say the U.S. Navy is supporting a project at Sante Fe Springs, California to make bacteria batteries! The chemists are raising bacteria for new insecticides. The seed dealers are using same to improve quality of seeds. Interest in good bacteria and other microorganisms is now so high that the American Type Culture Collection, the national repository for "germs" in Washington, D.C., is planning to build new facilities to house its expanding activities. Read more scientific news!

HOME GROWN — When Mrs. Earl Belt, a LaGrange County woman, wants to make lemonade all she has to do is to step over to a tree in her kitchen and pluck a big, juicy lemon. Mrs. Belt purchased the tree from a greenhouse three years ago when it was a small shoot. She placed it in a pot in her kitchen. It has now grown to a height of five feet. She took one of the lemons to The LaGrange Standard and placed it on exhibition. It weighed one pound, eight ounces, and measured 1 1/2 inches in circumference. Mrs. Belt lives near Howe in Northern LaGrange County.

RIGHT THERE — A Harrison County farmer, Dallam Davis, got prompt service when his pigs needed the attention of a veterinarian. Davis called the veterinarian who has a mobile telephone in his car. "I'll be at the barn before you are," the vet told Davis. And he was. It just happened he was driving by the Davis farm when he received the call.

"Casey Jones" Part Of History Of Recently Reopened Culver A&W

Most people think of "Casey Jones" in connection with early American railroad sagas. But the "Casey Jones" of our story was involved with root beer and crapping.

Back in 1956 Donald "Casey" Jones decided his A & W Root Beer Drive-In should be in Culver instead of Plymouth. A lesser man might have considered selling the building and buying another, or building a new one. Not Casey. He moved lock, stock and barrel (root beer of course) to Culver. Building, foundation and equipment were moved the 12 miles from one town to another by truck.

After his exploit, Casey grew tired of the humdrum existence of a root beer proprietor, and sold the A & W to Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Lewis of LaPorte, who operated it until 1959 when the present owners, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eby, bought it.

The Eby's reopened for their fourth season Saturday, April 14. They say it is a real challenge and a lot of fun as well, and they expect to have their most successful season this year. They can accommodate 20 cars.

The history of the A & W Company itself, is very interesting.

In 1919, in Lodi, Calif., Roy W. Allen started a root beer stand. Today, that stand has grown into the world's largest drive-in chain — the A & W Root Beer chain with some 2200 franchised units.

During the early 1920s, Mr. Allen formed a partnership with Fred Wright; hence A & W's name from Allen & Wright. They began opening franchised A & W outlets in California, Utah, Idaho, and Texas. In 1926, Mr. Allen, who had since bought out his partner, began franchising on a national level. By 1933 there were 181 A & Ws in operation, mostly in the Midwest.

After the war, the chain grew rapidly until there were 425 locations in 1950. At that point, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hartz purchased the business, and it has since grown by leaps and bounds. Today, there are A & Ws all over the United States and Canada, in Alaska, Hawaii, and West Germany. Further expansion in Europe is planned by a new company, formed for that purpose. By 1965, an estimated 4900 A & Ws will be in operation, serving the now famous root beer and many other favorite food items.

Watch out for school children, especially if they're driving.

NO CHECK GRABBER — The Newton County Enterprise tells of a Kentland man, Charles Tuberty, who went to Rochester, Minn., for a checkup at the Mayo Clinic. Dining one morning in a hotel restaurant Tuberty was asked by a waitress if he would mind sharing his table with another man. "Not at all," said Tuberty. "if the guy picks up his own check." Tuberty's table companion turned out to be Jack Benny of TV fame. Tuberty reported no struggle with the reputedly close-fisted comedian over the check but he describes Benny as a "nice individual."

Dairy scientists at Purdue University say to base decisions on culling and dairy herd replacements on milk production records. Production records are more reliable than guess work in building a future herd.

By DAVID KELLY, Troop Scribe

A rock hike was held Sunday, May 20 with the Assistant Scoutmaster in charge. Some very interesting specimens were found.

Forty-one Scouts were present at the May 21 meeting. Mr. James Bonine gave a demonstration on first aid. Touch football was played for the opening game and guardian patrol leader was the closing game. Edward Behnke has joined the Troop. We regret that we are losing Tony Mars, who will be attending summer and winter schools at the Academy and Wayne Cook, who is moving to Texas. Kent Overmyer was promoted to the Assistant Patrol Leader of the Wolf Patrol.

We have received our new neckerchiefs and if any Scout wishes to purchase one the cost is 75c.

If you are planning to attend the Camp-O-Ree being held June 1, 2 and 3 at Myers Lake Scout Reservation bring your 50c fee to next Monday's meeting.

All boys who are attending summer camp must meet at the Scoutmaster's home Wednesday evening at 7:30. We will discuss our camp activities. Summer camp fees are to be paid up next Monday.

Next Monday's meeting will be on preparation for the Camp-O-Ree. Each Scout is to bring his four tent pegs to this meeting.

The Troop will again participate in the Memorial Day services to be held Wednesday, May 30, at 10 a.m. More details next Monday.

A Green Bar meeting will be held Thursday, May 31 at Ron McKee's home. We will plan activities and meetings for June.

Is your patrol having a hike and cookout this weekend? You should! Contact your patrol leader for details.

LEGGY LAMB — A lamb born on the Wayne Cole farm in Scott Township, Steuben County, had six fully developed legs. The extra two were slightly shorter than the other four, but the veterinarian, Dr. V. G. Hornbacker, said they were "well articulated to the body with proper joints." One, he said, is definitely a foreleg and the other a hindleg. The unusual lamb was also one of twins. The Steuben Republican said the lamb has "turned out to be something of a sideshow."

Onion growers in Indiana expect to plant 950 acres for harvest in 1962, report state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. This is an increase of 50 acres from 1961 and 90 acres more than the 10-year average.

Dr. Hargis Opens Winona Lake Summer Season

Dr. Billy James Hargis

Winona Lake Bible Conference grounds, Winona Lake, opens its official summer season on Memorial Day, May 29, when Dr. Billy James Hargis, founder and director of Christian Crusade of Tulsa, Oklahoma, sponsors a five-day "anti-communism conference" which will feature not only his own messages, but those of other well-known evangelical preachers and American statesmen, as well as the founder of another national conservative movement.

The first of four regional sessions to be included in Hargis' recently announced "Rebirth of Christian Conservatism" campaigns for 1962, the Winona Lake meeting will hear sermons and addresses from previously announced speakers: Dr. Charles Poling, Wittenburg, Arizona and Dr. Dale Crowley, Washington, D. C. radio pastor; also Reverend Selgfried Enke, Springfield, Missouri and Dave Breese and Harry Everingham of Chicago.

Vacation Church Schools List 1962 Schedules

Five churches of the Township have already made definite plans for Vacation Church Schools to be held immediately after school is dismissed and other churches are getting ready.

Most of the schools will begin on Monday morning, May 28, although the Burr Oak Church of God will start its school on June 11.

Following are the details so far collected in some of the programs planned:

The Burr Oak E.U.B. Church will open a two-week school on May 28. The daily hours are 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. The theme for study will be "The Bible" Mrs. Helen Cramer is the director.

The Culver Immanuel E.U.B. Church will also start a two-week school on Monday, May 28, at 9 a.m. Each day's session will last until 11:30. The theme is "The Book of the Ages". Mrs. Verda Condon and Mrs. Grace Mallot are the directors.

The Grace United Church of Christ of Culver will open its two-week school on May 28 at 9:30 a.m. Each session will last until 11:30 a.m. The theme is, "We Learn About God." Rev. Harold Hohman and Mrs. Hohman are directors.

The Culver Methodist Church will hold a two-week school beginning May 28 at 9:00 a.m. Each session will last until 11:30 a.m. The theme is "The Book of the Ages." Mrs. Ted Strang is director.

The Burr Oak Church of God will hold a one-week school beginning June 11. The sessions will last from 9 a.m. to 11:50 a.m. daily. The theme will be "Friends in God's World." Mrs. Warren Sorenson is the director.

The Mt. Hope Methodist Church will have a one-week school beginning on May 28 with sessions running 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. The theme is, "My Bible and I." Mrs. Eldon Davis is the director.

As in the past many of the schools receive a small offering which is given to some special mission project or often to the Migrant Program of Marshall County. An achievement program is held usually on Friday evening of the last day or as is the case with Mt. Hope, on Sunday following the end of the school.

We, of the Township Council, wish to express appreciation in this Vacation Church Program. We are impressed likewise with the great number of people who will make considerable sacrifice to see that children have an effective experience. We wish to extend a cordial invitation to every child in the community not already involved in a church to attend one of these Vacation Church Schools.

Art Exhibition Well Attended

An estimated 350-400 men, women and children attended the Area Art Exhibition in St. Thomas' Parish House, Plymouth, on May 19 and 20.

The exhibition was sponsored by the parish women of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church primarily for the pleasure of people in Marshall County. Visitors and artists participated, however, from five neighboring counties, coming from as far as 50 miles away.

A number of Culver people worked on arrangements, or had some part in the exhibition. Local artists having entries in the event included Polly and Mary Curry, Phyllis Helber; Nora Shepard, Patrick Hodgkin, William Robinette, Erna Short, Lucille Porcher and Jean Williams.

So many people expressed the wish that the Area Art Exhibition become an annual affair that the Pastor of St. Thomas', the Rev. William C. R. Sheridan, has agreed. Father Sheridan had encouraged the women to sponsor the exhibition.

The ads tell us we aren't really up to date unless we have a second car, a second TV, a second vacuum cleaner, even a second house. And obviously we're going to need a second mortgage, too. — Changing Times.

HADJI JAMALOL KI-RAM was the Sultan's name. He had ten wives and a very unusual problem. And George Ade, The Hoosier Satirist from Kentland, Indiana, made him famous.

Around the turn of the century George was already famous as a top newspaper reporter and author of the amazingly popular Fables in Slang. But he longed to try his hand at musical comedy. The inspiration came to him in, of all places, the Philippine Islands.

While traveling there he learned of a certain native chieftain (Hadji Jamalol Ki-Ram) who was having quite a time becoming "Americanized." Polygamy was still in great favor and Hadji "was holding out for two small wives instead of one big one."

George built his first light opera, The Sultan of Sulu, around Hadji's interesting dilemma. It was a smash hit on Broadway. It was followed soon by more great successes: Peggy In Paris, The County Chairman, Sho-Gun, The College Widow, and others. Ade became the "king of American musical comedy"—and Kentland became famous as his birthplace.

In 1902, when The Sultan of Sulu, was produced on Broadway, Kentland was a courthouse surrounded by farm land; a typical, semi-isolated farm village. Almost isolated, but not quite. Even then there was the telephone. And, for adventure, one might try a Long Distance call. With time and patience it could be done!

What a contrast today's fast, dependable Long Distance service makes! Just pick up the phone and you're almost there. Other telephone products are adding convenience to many homes: the new Princess Phone, smart, new wall phones, the melodic Bell Chime, to mention a few. And the best is yet to come from Indiana Bell.

SPECIAL HOOSIER NIGHT RATES

Take advantage of the special Long Distance bargain rates in effect throughout the state. Any night after 9:00 P.M., you can call Long Distance—station to station—anywhere in Indiana and talk twice as long and pay no more.

You can talk 6 minutes for the price of the usual 3. If you talk longer, say for 10 minutes, you pay for only 5 minutes, and so on. If you like a good bargain call tonight after 9:00 P.M. and talk longer for less!

The Business of Business

First business efforts were family affairs! Cottage industry flourished during the Middle Ages when entire families produced hand-made products, carried them to towns on market days to sell their wares.

With the coming of the Industrial Revolution—all kinds of businesses were born. Small, highly specialized companies developed—each catering to the needs of their specific customers.

Business has now entered an era of mergers. When small companies merge with larger ones, the selling pattern of the larger company is usually imposed on the smaller. But not always. A unique example is the recent merger of Colgate with the Reefer-Galler Company, the nation's leader in mothproofing products. Reefer-Galler's specialized successful sales formula through department stores will remain unchanged, yet its customers will benefit from the increased Colgate facilities for research, materials purchasing and consumer services.

As businesses expanded and grew, mass marketing techniques came into being. Colgate-Palmolive is a good example of a company selling a half-a-hundred personal and household products to millions through a myriad of mass outlets.

AVOID SWINE POISONING

By adjusting their management practices, hog raisers can prevent many poisonings of their swine, reminds Dr. F. A. Hall, Purdue University extension veterinarian.

Cocklebur, while in the two-leaf stage, is poisonous to hogs. Swine should be kept off pasture containing cocklebur plants until the plants are killed or until the poisonous stage is past. During dry seasons and in dry areas new growth may appear after each rain, Dr. Hall points out.

Rape and occasionally alfalfa will cause an increased sensitivity to sunlight, especially in white-skinned pigs. Severe cases of sunburn may result. White pigs pastured on these plants should be closely observed for signs of sunburn on their ears and backs and removed from pasture as soon as the signs are noticed. Severely burned pigs should be treated and protected from sunlight.

Pitch poisoning is found in pasture used for trap shooting. Clay pigeons have been known to remain in the soil and be poisonous to swine for as long as 20 to 25 years. Hogs seem to crave the portions of broken clay pigeons. Never allow trap shooting in the hog pasture and avoid establishing hog pastures on old trap shoot grounds, Dr. Hall warns. Numerous cases of pitch poisoning have also occurred when swine have had access to discarded asphalt shingles or siding.

Arsenic poisoning may result from access to some insecticides or baits. Arsenic was formerly mixed with bran for insect baits. Unused portions of this mixture have been known to get into hog lots, or hogs have eaten the baits with disastrous results. Hogs have also been poisoned by failure to clean spray tanks of insecticides and using the uncleaned tank to spray weeds in pastures.

Lead poisoning results often from discarded paint pails or using such pails for feed and water before they have been carefully cleaned.

Some worm medicines are as poisonous to swine as to the worms if they are used in too large proportions. The manufacturer's or the veterinarian's recommendations should be followed exactly.

Salt is poisonous in large quantities and poisoning occurs when ample fresh water is not available. Salt added to rations should be well mixed and used in moderation. Sacks of salt should not be left where hogs could get to them.

Rat poisons should be used with caution around swine. Reports have been made of deaths from hogs eating rats poisoned with toxic materials.

Most cases of chemical poisonings in pigs can be prevented if these materials are carefully handled and directions are closely followed in the use of chemicals, sprays, wormers and other toxic materials, Dr. Hall asserts.

Nitrogen fertilizer can't do the job alone, say agronomists at Purdue University; adequate amounts of phosphorus and potassium are also necessary. Fertilizer sales in Indiana show that farmers are increasing nitrogen usage, but not phosphorus or potassium. Test your soils and keep fertility in balance.

Band seeding helps small grass and legume plants compete with oats and weeds in spring seedings, remind Purdue University agronomists.

Fitterling Petition Rejected By Board

The petition which was filed with the Culver Board of Zoning Appeals and on which a public hearing was held last Friday evening, was rejected by the Board. The petition, which was filed by Harold I. Fitterling, asked for the conditional use as a boat service area the property along Lake Maxinkuckee, east of the railroad track opposite Winfield Street and south 150 feet.

At the meeting Friday night, a petition objecting to the Fitterling petition and signed by nearby residents was presented. The counter petition stated objections to possible street congestion and safety factors if the Fitterling petition was granted. The Fitterling petition asked for a variance to the present zoning laws.

In the previous hearing on the writ of variance, several differences were discussed and it was thought that all stipulations had been solved and agreed upon by Mr. Fitterling and no further objections would be forthcoming. However, there seemed to be some doubt in the signers of the counter petition as to the security of these agreements and if they could be enforced.

Proposed Tax League

Editor, CITIZEN:

To the taxpayers of Marshall county —

The Pilot-News has published two letters of mine regarding taxes and the new reassessment, one on May 14th and one on May 15th.

I sincerely hope that the publisher of The Culver Citizen will publish the following as a matter of public interest and possible public reaction.

It is my firm belief that an equitable reassessment is fair to every taxpayer. In several letters, published by state tax men, our citizens were informed as to the why of the reassessment WITH ONE BIG EXCEPTION. This exception is, no mention was made of bond issues, which bond issues are mortgages on our property.

There are many political subdivisions in our county and state, which may petition for and get bond issues under our state Constitution, a few examples, County, Civil City, School Corporations, Civil Townships and there are others —

Up until the present time, this bonding power has been LIMITED to the "net assessed valuations" at a rate of 2%, but not from now on.

I wonder how many of our taxpayers know that in the last session of the legislature, the 1961 session, Senate Bill 173 — (Chapter 122 of the Acts of 1961) was enacted into law, which permits bond issues to cover the FULL VALUE of taxable property?

Simply stated, this means that the bonding power is now THREE TIMES, what it has ever been before, and there is nothing a taxpayer can do about it, it is the law.

Now, what can the taxpayers do to protect themselves on tax issues, budgets and bond issues.

No one individual taxpayer has the time or knowledge to get this job done but there is a way to do it, and ONLY ONE WAY.

The answer to how to protect the interests of ALL taxpayers is to form a Taxpayers League, Tax Research Bureau, Taxpayers Association, the name means little, it is what is done, that counts.

There are a number of these Leagues, operating in the state and have been for years, and the fine part of it is, they are successful. The one, I know best, is the South Bend Civic Planning Association, which has saved the taxpayers of St. Joe county, hundreds of thousands of dollars, in the past forty years. Miss Virginia Guthrie and Mr. Seybold, head up the South Bend organization.

Organizing such a Tax League in Marshall county, takes time and money, but, I assure you taxpayers, that it will prove to be the best investment, you will ever make.

There are five things necessary to form such a League, a board of directors, a full time paid secretary, a full time stenographer, and office and MONEY to get the job done.

The secretary of such a League, should be, in my thinking a highly qualified tax man, not a Marshall county man, and such a man is available.

His job would be to attend every budget meeting of our county taxing bodies, check every budget in detail, check on proposed bond issues and keep our taxpayers informed, at all times.

Up until this new reassessment, we have had around a 65 million assessed valuation which means that for each penny of a tax rate, this penny would take from our taxpayers $6,500.00.

I am convinced that every man, holding an official job in the county, cities, towns and townships, having to do with taxes, would welcome the help of a Tax League Secretary and would cooperate to the fullest extent. A Tax League is not set up to harass our officials but to help them. I say, these tax dollars do not fall off trees and we have the right to know EXACTLY what our tax dollars are used for.

Now, if our county taxpayers are really interested in protecting their pocketbooks, I would like to see a public expression of your thinking in this newspaper pro or con and I would like to receive letters, for or against this proven plan.

If there is enough interest, I will set up a public meeting and an expert on tax matters and Tax Leagues, will address the meeting and answer every question. Do not send a contribution to me, now or at any time and if such a public meeting is held, you will not be asked, at such a meeting, to contribute, you will be told the truth, that I promise you.

I am not going to become involved in a proposed Tax League, except to help all I can, contribute money, and try to get the job done, if a League is formed, the directors will do the job, not me. The Directors would be equally divided between both political parties.

If there is not sufficient interest among the taxpayers, in this matter, to really do something about it, then it is a simple matter to forget the whole thing. Taxes are hurting too many of my friends, I don't like it, I am trying to do something about these matters — I am not interested if just a few are willing to help, if the great majority are willing to help it will cost each taxpayer very little.

Every government unit, from the lowest to the highest has the POWER to tax, but this power IS NOT A RIGHT. There's a world of difference between these two words, and the thoughts behind them!

I contend that our taxpayers, have the RIGHT to know exactly what every penny of their hard earned tax dollars, is spent for and WHY!

The King Bill

Editor, CITIZEN:

It seems appropriate to preface these comments by referring to the philosophy and previous position of the insurance business in regard to Social Security. The insurance business did not oppose the establishment of the Social Security program nor did it oppose the adoption of Survivors' Benefits when they were added in 1939. To the contrary, the industry has consistently cooperated in the development of proposals designed to make the system more effective within the framework of sound principles.

It is precisely because of our interest in maintaining a sound Social Security system that we are concerned about implications of incorporating into the Social Security Act, a program of Medical Care benefits for the elderly.

The King bill is not a new idea. Actually, it is just the latest in a long series of legislative proposals which have been advanced, over the years, to establish, in one form or another, a system of compulsory health insurance at the federal level.

I believe the King bill is unsound, unnecessary and should be vigorously opposed. Some, perhaps, may argue that being in the health insurance business, my concern is tinged with self-interest. I feel, however, that this is not the case, but rather, that my concern stems from the many years of experience of my Company, experience in the health field, and the knowledge gained thereby of the complexity of the problem and the extent of the costs necessarily involved.

OVERNIGHT THE HOTEL'S BALLROOM WILL BE TURNED INTO THE WORLD'S LARGEST KITCHEN WHEN 100 GENERAL ELECTRIC RANGES ARE SET UP FOR THE CONTEST...

The enactment of the King bill would result in an immediate and material increase in the already substantial Social Security taxes. Today, an employee earning $4,800 or more, pays $150 a year in Social Security Taxes. This will rise by 1968 to $222 a year. An equal amount is paid by his employer.

Using actual claim experience gathered by the New York Insurance Department, insurance actuaries estimate that addition of the program proposed by the King bill would result in an employee earning $5,200 or more (proposed new base) paying a tax by 1968 of at least $284 per year. From $150 per year to $284 would be an 89 percent increase in the employee's Social Security taxes in the short space of 6 years. Even more might be required.

The addition of the cost of the King bill, under these estimates, would require a total Social Security rate well in excess of the 10 percent rate which Secretary Ribicoff of the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, said in May 1961, appeared to be about the maximum which should be imposed without making the burden too great to be borne.

In my opinion, the King bill would lead first, to pressures to cover all medical care expenses of those 65 and over; (the present proposal covers only about 10 percent of these expenses) second, to a lowering of the age limit; and eventually, to a national program of medical care for all. Such a program would, in turn, lead to a lowering of the standard of medical care in the United States.

CLOVER MITE CONTROL IN HOUSES

Clover mites, tiny, red spider-like creatures, are appearing in Indiana homes in countless numbers, reports Dave Matthew, Purdue University extension entomologist. They don't bite people or cause damage indoors, but they are annoying and leave a red stain when crushed.

Clover mites are difficult to control because they are so numerous and hide in cracks and crevices. Usually they first appear around windows, but later

What to do about them?

Matthew suggests first to sweep up all you can reach with the vacuum cleaner. Then use a "bomb" spray containing synergized pyrethrins. On the outside, spray foundations and around windows with malathion.

To prevent the problem this fall, Matthew recommends spraying a 10 to 20-foot band around the house with a miticide. Some miticides which are effective and safe for use are Kelthane, Chlorobenzilate, Tedion, chlorobenzilate and malathion.

As an alternative you can place a barrier of pea gravel 18 inches wide along foundation walls.

FRUIT ROTTERS

Once fruit rot has become established in your strawberry patch, nothing can prevent the losses and disappointment it will cause. But, points out Eric G. Sharvelle, Purdue University plant pathologist, much of this problem can be averted by taking precautions in May.

The most common rot is Gray mold rot, which may occur on both green and ripe berries. Wet weather encourages the spread of this disease. Rhizopus rot or "leaky berries" is another common rot. Leather rot, brown rot and stem-end rot also add to the headaches of the strawberry grower.

What to do about it? Sharvelle offers these suggestions:

Keep the ripening berries off the ground — straw or dry hay placed under the plant will keep the berries from contact with the soil.

Hand weed the patch at least during May, since weeds not only reduce yields, but greatly accentuate the fruit rot problem.

Apply the proper fungicide weekly to ripening berries throughout the month of May. Captan or Thylate at the rate of two tablespoons in a gallon of water, using about three gallons of spray per 100 feet of row, should be applied. Neither of these fungicides is harmful to persons eating treated berries.

Dusting is never as effective as spraying for plant disease control, Sharvelle asserts. However, dust formulations containing Captan or Thylate may be applied at the rate of 3/4 lbs. of dust per 1,000 square foot of berry patch. The patch should be dusted twice a week during May.

SAFE GRASS CUTTING

A power lawn mower, helpful tool that it is, also can bring injury, even death, to the operator or a bystander. So, urge Purdue University farm specialists, prac## tice power mower safety.

More than 75,000 power mower accidents occur each year in the United States. But in the hands of a mature and careful operator, a power mower need not necessarily be dangerous.

Many key safety precautions can be taken before the first blade of grass is cut. For instance "police" your yard and remove debris or any object which might be thrown with enough force to injure someone or jam the mower.

Get the children and pets out of the vicinity of the mowing area (and keep them out until you've finished the job.)

Be sure you are wearing shoes with a good grip, especially if the lawn is sloping; never mow in your bare feet and mow across slopes, not up and down them.

Check the mechanical condition and adjustments before starting the engine. When you start the motor, place your foot so the mower won't roll back and take off your toes.

Don't refuel the motor while it is running (fire is also a hazard) and never leave it on while you're performing some other chore.

If your mower is electric, use a three-wire cord; one wire is for grounding the motor and equipment to the power source.

And, if older children want to learn to use the equipment, teach them correct and safe operating procedures.

VARIETY — Patricia Clary, a writer for The Lafayette Leader, made a survey of names in the new Lafayette telephone directory and found it fascinating. Listed, she found names of various colors, currencies, royal titles, animals and other categories. There were, for instance, a zoolful of names, a Bear, a Bee, a Bird, a Canine, a Crow, four Deer, a Dolphin, a Peacock, four Hogs, six Lyons and plenty of Fox, 14 of them. Colors included Black, Blue, Gray, Green, Redd (with two d's) Orange and Tan.

CATAFTER COP — The town marshal of Liberty, Ray Hensley, recently had the mortifying experience of being chased around the public square by a polecat. Hensley, sitting in his office on the square, saw the skunk ambling the sidewalk. Anticipating no trouble he went out to chase the animal out of town but it turned on him. Hensley fled up the street to seek the assistance of his deputy. He circled a parked car a couple of times with the polecat in hot pursuit before the deputy showed up armed with a rifle and dispatched the skunk. The dead body was turned over to the town dog warden who said he believed the skunk was afflicted with rabies.

ACADEMY SPORTS

The 1961-62 Culver Military Academy sports season neared an end today with a sprinkling of activities Saturday highlighted by the Academy's sending of its varsity crew to the National Schoolboy Rowing championships at Philadelphia.

All five Academy spring sports teams were successful during the weekend, with Coach Lawrence BeBout's crew stealing the spotlight with a record-breaking performance on Lake Maxinkuckee. Tuning up with great determination for the national championships, the varsity crew walloped Lincoln Park Boat Club, Chicago, in a race Friday. Michigan State's fresh crew had to cancel from the race.

In defeating Lincoln Park, the Eagle oarsmen whipped over the one-mile course in record fashion. They were timed in 5:05.4, far better than the 5:15.4 regarded in recent years as the school record. Lincoln Park also beat the record with a time of 5:15. The Chicago boat was loaded with the best oarsmen from Lane Tech and Weber High Schools, and several older crew members with experience in college. The time was more than 11 seconds better than that recorded in the Central States Regatta finals held here May 12, when Culver lost to Roosevelt, Wyandotte, Mich., by a tenth of a second.

Junior Crews

The Academy's junior crews also did well in beating the Lincoln Park lightweight boat. The first junior boat from Culver finished with a time of 5:15, also beating the old course record. Culver will wind up its crew season Saturday on two fronts. While the varsity is competing in Philadelphia, junior crews have been re-shuffled into varsity and junior varsity boats for a 2 p.m. race here with Ecorse Boat Club, Detroit. Dr. Ronn Minne, assistant to Coach BeBout, will direct the crews for the race against Ecorse.

Baseball

In baseball, the Academy continued to show marked improvement under Coach Jim DeArmond. After losing to Penn earlier in the week, the Academy nine won its fifth game in 12 starts 9-5 over Howe Military Academy. Phil Goetz came on in the sixth to preserve Jon Raelin's victory as Jerry Marsh hit the first home run of the season for Culver. Marsh's belt traveled far over the left fielder's head.

The baseball squad closes its season with a double header Saturday at Niles, Mich.

Tennis

The tennis season ended Saturday when Coach Ted Clarno's netmen shut out Howe 7-0. The victory was Culver's ninth, and only an 8-1 loss earlier in the week to talented Peru High School marred the season's record. Peru has won 44 straight dual matches. In the match against Howe, Academy regulars Tom Norris, Rick Berlin, Gil Bickel, and Lee Schlesinger all won easily, and they were joined by Guthrie Packard and Charles Rosenberg in completing the shutout.

Golf

The Culver golf team won its fourth match in five starts by edging past Howe 5-3. The match was limited to nine holes because of a late start. Jeff Levenburg and Bill Fohey won their matches, and Jim Bryant scored a tie to gain one point. Levenburg tied with Howe's Leigh Towhey for medalist honors with a one-over-par 37.

Track

Culver's track team was to have closed its season earlier in the week with a meet against Gary Horace Mann School. The hurriers have won all five of their dual meets to date, including a 59-50 decision over Warsaw here last week.

Fencing

Five Academy students placed in the Indiana Divisional fencing contest held here Sunday under the auspices of the Amateur Fencing League of America. Cadets Paul Merry and Don Levinson were second and third in the foil event. Don McIntyre was third in the sabre and co-eds Jane Benson and Dee Gleason were second and fourth in the women's foil. Fencing Coach Elmer White, who directed the contest, said the

CMA Tennis Tournament Cancelled

Cancellation of the first annual Col. James H. Bishop Memorial Tennis Tournament, scheduled for Friday and Saturday, May 25-26, at Culver Military Academy has been announced by Joseph Saine, tournament director.

Saine, coach of the unbeaten Peru High School net squad, said the tournament was cancelled for this year because of the lack of entries.

"We've had at least 20 schools which have written us indicating their interest in entering the tournament next year," Saine said. "The time factor was against us, and rather than hold the tournament this year with a small field, we have decided to get an earlier start for next year. Trophies have been purchased and will be used for the 1963 tournament."

The tournament was to have honored the late Col. James H. Bishop, former president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association and a veteran member of the Academy faculty.

BARBARA WATTERS WINS ACADEMIC AWARD AT DEPAUW UNIVERSITY

Greencastle, Ind. Barbara Jane Rust Watters, a Culver senior at DePauw University, was presented a scholastic award at the school's annual recognition chapel Wednesday, May 9.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rust, 830 College Ave., Culver, she was given an Alpha Lambda Delta scholarship certificate for maintaining a four-year grade average of at least 2.5, at DePauw (a 3.0 equals straight A).

winner is eligible for the Midwest championships in Cleveland next month.

CMA Crew Entered In National Races This Weekend

Culver Military Academy has entered its senior eight-oared crew in the National Schoolboy Rowing championships to be held on the Schuylkill River, Philadelphia, Friday and Saturday, May 25 and 26.

Major General Delmar T. Spivey, USAF (Ret.), superintendent, said the decision to enter a Culver crew in the national championships for the first time in many years was made because of the performance of Academy oarsmen in the Central States Schoolboy Regatta held here May 12.

Roosevelt High School, Wyandotte, Mich., won the Central States' varsity eight-oared championship in an exciting race with Culver and three other Midwest crews. Judges estimated the Culver crew finished only three feet behind Roosevelt, and official timers clocked the Eagle boat as one-tenth of a second off Roosevelt's winning time of 5:16.4 for the one-mile Lake Maxinkuckee course.

Crew Coach Lawrence E. BeBout and 11 oarsmen will fly out of Chicago Thursday night in order to arrive in Philadelphia in time for Friday morning workouts and qualifying heats in the afternoon. The finals are scheduled for Saturday afternoon. The Culver crew will fly from Philadelphia to Chicago Saturday night.

Crew members making the trip are: Stephen M. Combs, Terre Haute, Ind., coxswain; Stephen Mulvihill, Dearborn, Mich., stroke; James Craig, Culver, Jay Ambrosini, Grosse Pointe, Mich.; Ira F. Jones, New Rochelle, N.Y.; Arthur Moore, East Orange, N.J.; James Pickrell, Kansas City, Mo.; Tony Maessen, San Antonio, Tex., and Reeve Little, Cleveland, Ohio. Alternates who will make the trip are: Robert Clendenin, Monmouth, Ill., and Roger Miller, Goshen, Ind.

Dance Theatre Presents Program At CMA Sunday

"Come and See the Peppermint Tree," a program of dance, will be presented Sunday, May 27, at 3 p.m. in Eppley Auditorium by The Virginia Bays Dance Theatre.

The program will feature 13 dance members, many of them Culver students. The production is a dance adaptation of the delightful children's record about the search for a peppermint tree. The fantasy in dance takes the group through a series of adventures while seeking the tree. Choreography is done by Virginia Bays.

Members of the group are Ma Strow, Cathy Carrothers, Karen Nichols, Donna Kay Dawson, Bonnie Bollini, Bill Smith, Christine Stevens, Rene Schultz, Eley Graham, Jayne Bray, Betty Zeig, Patty Ogden, and Jody McClure. Some of the selections to be presented are "Follow Me," "Kitchen Stuff," "Jump and Spin," "All Mixed Up," "Carrots and Things," "Thingamabob," and others. All have been adapted and are interpreted through dance.

Mrs. Kermit Zeig is in charge of costume, Mrs. Harvey Pirari, set design.

The public is cordially invited. There is no admission charge.

Seniors Praised For Conduct On Class Trip

Following are excerpts from a letter received by Miss Ruth Shanks, one of the faculty members who accompanied the seniors on their annual trip.

"Thank you for your letter of May 7. Your kind remarks make me feel that our personalized handling of schools is the right approach and we hope to continue this policy.

"I am pleased that the Culver students enjoyed their tour and I certainly appreciate the opportunity of contributing to the success of the trip.

"I meant what I said when I told you and Mr. Cole that this year's Culver group was by far the finest group that I handled this year. They seemed to enjoy everything and were so consid-

Culver Joins In County Music Festival

By David Frain

The eighth County Music Festival was held Friday, April 27, in the Argos Community Building. A short talk was given by Superintendent Frank McLane in which he thanked the people and all participants for making the county music festival so successful. A brief history of the guest directors was given and the program began.

The massed bands were led by Professor George Graesch, Director of Music at Indiana State Teachers' College. The mass chorus was led by Professor Lemuel Anderson, Choirmaster at Ball State Teachers' College. Following the band and choir numbers, the band and choir combined for the song, "All Glory, Laud, and Honor" by Teschner-Cain.

The Music Festival brings together students from almost every school in Marshall County and they spend a day of hard work preparing for the concert in the evening. It is indeed an enjoyable experience for everyone involved.

Principal Cole Reviews Past Year

By KENNETH L. COLE, PRINCIPAL

At the risk of being classified as a materialist, I would like to give a brief resume of the concrete gains in and about the school this last year. Some of our new equipment and advantages were gained during the summer.

For example, the two new sixty passenger buses, the extra bus used for both athletics and as an emergency bus any time one of the major buses has a breakdown; natural gas was piped into the building for the first time thus enabling us to have more and hotter water than ever before and further enabling us to have gas ranges in the foods laboratory of the home economics department; the antiquated equipment in the foods laboratory of the home economics department was removed and an ultra modern facility installed (now there are three electric and three gas ranges); in the same department but in the clothing laboratory two new electric sewing machines are in evidence.

During the school year many pieces of equipment have been acquired in the various departments — attachments for the power tools in the cafeteria kitchen; many pieces of audio-visual equipment, various new pieces of science apparatus, a new window washing gadget that will enable one man to stand on the ground and wash a third story window by himself.

In the music department one of the big Sousaphones was purchased with this year's budget money just as was a completely new set of risers for vocal music. Of course with the advent of the enrolling of the North Bend students we had to purchase almost three new rooms of grade furniture and this would have to include all that is necessary to make up a grade room even including new chalk boards and teacher's desks.

We have added some new power tools in the area of custodial equipment. Needless to say this list is one that only hits the high points of other than routine expenditures — obviously not listed are library expenditures, etc.

One topic that I would just as leave not have to mention is the ridiculous time situation that we found ourselves grappling with this school year. I feel fairly certain that almost every individual in the community had rather firm convictions where this problem was concerned; however, we in the school had to make a judgment and we made the one that we thought was the most logical one over-all.

I personally feel much better about the athletic department and the present rapport that is evidenced there. We have three coaches that get along fine together and all three love and respect boys. All three of these men I will classify as coaches, gentlemen, and good school teachers in the classroom. Although good coaches are said to be a dime a dozen, the combination I have just described is a rarity indeed. Not to be mercenary, but I couldn't pass the athletic department without mentioning that it is in the best financial condition it has been in for years.

There are two major reasons that cause me to hate to see the end of the school year come and these reasons are named M. E. Robinson and Arthur Alexander. Both of these men have served the school long and well and both are retiring at the end of their present contracts. Both will be truly missed come another school year.

Thinking with regard to the academic achievements of the students this year, I feel again that much progress has been made. The National Honor Society is slightly larger than usual and promises to be much larger when the present freshmen class is available for admission next year. Culver's usually good curriculum has, I think, been enhanced by the addition of our four-year French program. This I think is proven by the fact that one hears French being spoken in the halls, in the home, and in the places of business downtown. Most of our other departments are receiving more student interest than they have in the past. As an example I would point out the commerce department which has the largest number of students enrolled in the history of the department. Another year will see this department even more used as is pointed out by the fact that another partial teacher will have to be assigned to that department in order to handle the class load. I am not citing the commerce department over and above the other departments for nearly the same thing is happening in most others. Just to make the case in point I would point out that there will be eighteen mathematics classes this coming year and four different teachers will have their hand in teaching those. I think there is little doubt that academically Culver Public Schools are moving forward.

Since the principal is automatically the head disciplinarian in any high school, I could not properly fail to consider this aspect of this past year. Although I do not keep score I feel certain that I have not paddled half as many students as I had to paddle the previous year. This is not to say that I have suddenly in my second year become a "softie" or to mean that I have soft-pedaled the application of discipline. I have had the usual almost stereotyped little disciplinary problems that any principal in any high school has almost as a daily routine. I think it is therefore complimentary to the student body in general that they are using a little more self-discipline in their own personal behavior.

It would be criminal to look back over this particular school year without giving high recognition to Culver Military Academy and all of those over there who had anything to do with our being invited to four terrific performing arts convocations. The schools of Marshall County are indeed fortunate that Culver Military Academy is located on the shores of Maxinkuckee. Three of the four convocations were without doubt convocations that larger schools could not even afford and possibly could not gain access to even if the money was available.

I don't particularly believe in innovations just for innovation's sake, so it was only after much deliberation that we decided to attempt a new program in Latin. We have very carefully selected only the outstanding achievers from this year's seventh grade class (next year's eighth grade) and invited these students along with their parents to seriously consider taking what would normally be Latin I as eighth graders. Parents of eighth graders who were not selected for this trial program should not feel slighted in the least for the selectivity was ultra-high. We are hoping if this program proves effective to see what can be done with future extensiveness.

May I say in closing that this school year has not been without its pitfalls, but that all in all this has been quite a good school year "time or no time." The faculty is qualified, cooperative, and professional. I feel that Culver has and always will want a good school and that the community is increasingly getting just that. One needs to point out that the school community as of right now is Culver-Union-North Bend, and it has been quite an interesting and enjoyable blending experience this year.

Band Plans Summer Concerts

The High School Choral Ensemble sang for the baccalaureate service Sunday night. This group is composed of both girls and boys from the high school chorus, and will be heard in the commencement exercises Friday night. The Junior Band played for the baccalaureate service with Carol Overmyer and Sharon Norris playing the organ and piano respectively. The Senior Band will be heard in the commencement program playing "Overture Militaire" by Haydn. The usual

"Pomp and Circumstance" will be heard with the Senior Band playing a new arrangement from the original score.

A summer band program will be held this summer. It will be similar to last year, but with a few revisions. Students are asked to read the bulletin boards in the music building. Schedules will be released during the last week of school.

Install New Sunshine Staff

By Barbara Hatten and Bonnie Good

Since school is coming to a close some of the clubs are not as active as they have been in the past weeks. For most of the clubs the finale came with the Presentation of Awards which was Friday, May 11. The finale for Sunshine, though was the Senior Breakfast.

Everyone enjoyed the Senior Breakfast — I should say those who got their eyes open. Each Senior received a yellow rose and told what they enjoyed most during their high school years. B. J. Lawrence, Pat Kline, and Carmen Gretter put on a humorous skit, which was enjoyed by all. Sweet rolls, milk, and orange juice were served for breakfast. The Seniors left with souvenir diplomas and graduation silhouettes.

The installation of officers for Sunshine will be held Tuesday, May 22, with Janice Neidlinger, president; Carol Overmyer, vice-president; Pamela Phelps, treasurer; and Sharon Norris, Secretary; replacing our capable officers for this year.

Pamela Phelps and Carol Overmyer will represent the Culver Sunshine Society at Sunshine Camp this year. It is held at Camp Tecumseh near Delphi, Ind., during the week of June 9 to June 16.

As you can see, these Sunshine girls are not only busy during the school year, but the summer months as well.

Classes Visit Town Library

By Janet Heiser and Bonnie Saft

Mrs. Melton, Kindergarten: Our Readiness Tests are about over. It was very interesting to the children. One part told a story of three little chicks, Scratchy, Patchy, and Chick-Chick that was to be retold by the child to the teacher. A little one started out by saying Itchy, instead of Scratchy. Liane Chisholm celebrated her 6th birthday May 14 with a lovely party.

Miss Page, Second Grade: We enjoyed our trip to the town library for there were so many nice new books. The librarian explained the summer reading program and showed us the prizes we would get when finished with the program. We want to thank Mrs. Scruggs for sharing her books with us this school year.

Mrs. Carter, Third Grade: Michael VanHorn was nine years old on May Day. The class took a trip to the Culver Public Library. We are reviewing spelling. We are through with our readers and are reading out of "More Streets and Roads." There were 23 families represented at our open house, and in some cases both fathers and mother came. They were pleased with our display of the year's work. Our room is decorated with Japanese lanterns.

Mrs. Keller, Fourth Grade: We are finished taking our Achievement Tests. We have finished the work in our readers and are now taking the tests to accompany "Roads to Everywhere." Linda Snapp has not missed word all year in spelling.

What Seniors Will Miss Most

By B. J. Lawrance

Since the members of the class of 1962 will never again be students at Ole Culver High, we decided that we would find out what each Senior would miss most about Culver High School.

Lana Berger — I guess it's mainly the speed gossip files and, of course, "Bobby."

Tom Boswell — J. B., Pete, Jim, Fats, and most of all, athletics.

Ofelia Briones — I will miss all the senior boys and girls that I got to know during my senior year.

Jim Carter — Tom, Pete, John, Fats.

Kathy Clyne — The help Mr. Robinson has given, Chinese proverbs, all the underclassmen, but most of all the seniors.

Shirley Crow — I'll miss all the gabbing in the hall and the "senior corridor."

John Crum — Those loud mouth underclassmen.

Tom Curtis — Truthfully, nothing.

Glenda Dawson — Mostly all the kids.

Bob Dickson — All the underclassmen who are always bothering me, especially in algebra.

Julia Furnas — Knowing we can always go to Mr. Robinson with our problems and complaints.

George Herr — Fifth period sleep and study hall.

Pat Hicks — I'll miss my fourth period study hall buddies, Martha, Sharon, and Pat.

Linda Kose — I'll miss the atmosphere of C.H.S., the seniors, the underclassmen, and Mr. Robinson's friendly smile and understanding.

Janet Logan — The small town atmosphere.

Pat Lutz — My senior classmates and Mr. Stukenborg's home room. Janet Martin — Riding the school bus with a certain JUNIOR girl, all the friends and fun I have had.

Don Miller — Not a thing. Sandra Osborn — The senior corridor.

Pete Ott — J. B., Jim, Tom, Fats.

Margo Overmyer — I will miss the wonderful people who have gone to school with me, as well as the school activities, academics, and the underclassmen.

Chuck Reed — The constant inconsistency of school.

Preview Of Seniors In 1972

By Lucy Osborn and Tom Yocum

Here we are in the year 1972 at the joint opening of the Howard Phillip Rosebaum Screw Driver Manufacturers and Parker's Pizzeria. There has been a lot of preparation for this grand event. The Lutz and Lutz Testing Company has been testing screw drivers relentlessly, while the famous Thomas chefs have been making pizza. Crum Breads, Inc. have been working 24 hours a day making deliveries here.

Carol Heiser and her "Heiser Hustlers" have been polishing their instruments, with Lana "ham" Berger at the piano, Ofelia Briones on the harmonica, Ron Leffert on the drums, and Chris Hand in the tuba. (We think she fell in while polishing it!)

Some of the guests are beginning to arrive, among them are many celebrities. Barbara Williams, star of the "Tall Man," just arrived in her black limousine which is driven by her chauffeur, Phillip Gretter, who just won the safe driving award of the year. Here comes Don Miller, star of the "Sing Along with Don" show. He looks great except for that silly beard. He is accompanied by two of his sponsor's models, Julia Furnas and Mini Fisher. By the way, his sponsor is Miss Citroil.

Who's that coming in with that lady cop, Nancy Franz? Why it is Reverend George Baker, and his assistant Chuck Warran.

Here come two of the pres-identical candidates, the Gross and Rodney Edgington. With them is their companion Robert Dickson, who is hoping to pick up enough knowledge so that perhaps he will pass civics and be able to graduate this year.

Over there are the directors of the Martin and Crow bird watchers' club; their accountant, Marilee Zeehnel, is solely responsible for their bankruptcy.

Look, there is the new principal of Culver High School, George Herr. Who are those two sad faced girls to whom he is talking? It is Linda Kose and Margo Overmyer, they must have lost another one.

Chuck Reed, editor of "Playboy" magazine, is proposing a toast to Tom Boswell for his recent success — he was just promoted to bat boy for the Milwaukee Braves.

Oh, that sharp-eyed house detective, Elouise Tanner, has got her eye on that suspicious looking couple over there. Well, it is only that traveling salesman Pete Ott buying cigarettes from the cigarette girl Pat Hicks.

It seems the other house detective, Bernice Mevis, has caught that adroit bum, Jim Carter, swiping candy from the Curtis candy man. There goes Mike Overmyer to her assistance. Mike is now a professional Santa Claus.

There's Pat Wesson, world famous photographer, taking a picture of Miss Brand X of 1972, Susan Ruhnow, and Miss France, Mary Jane Guise. Some picture!

Our congratulations to Kathy Clyne for being the first person to ski around the world (Underwater!)

We just got back from the assembly line, and guess who is painting screw driver handles, Janet Logan! We have always had a great respect for her artistic ability.

Has anyone heard anything more about John Benedict? It seems he cannot get his feet out of the space capsule to explore the moon. We don't know who is responsible for this, but it might be Sandra Bootsma. Oh well, they are sending Marizetta Robinson up to help get him out.

We hope you have enjoyed this party and we give our thanks to our hosts, Joe and Bob, and to our hostess, Glenda. We surely do pity those poor janitors, Donna Smith and Sandy Osborn.

Ten . . . Nine . . . Eight . . . Seven . . . Six . . . Five . . . Four . . . Three . . . Two . . . One . . . Zero! ! The moment has finally arrived when: Our dear seniors graduate, school is out, summer is not far away, and the frustrated teachers begin their three months recuperation period. After nine long months of hard work (?) the braves and maidens of C.H.S. are finally free for three whole months.

This school year has been a blast, and the perfect climax was the Junior-Senior Prom on May 18. The beautiful full moon on Prom night, helped to make the theme "Moon River" even more enchanting. The gym was beautifully decorated with a wishing well in the center of the gym, and the juniors are to be congratulated on a wonderful job. The After-Prom party at the Plymouth Country Club was also enjoyed very much by everyone who went.

The day after the Prom, many of the braves and maidens ventured to Turkey Run and River-view, and it proved to be very enjoyable for all. Just ask Carmen Grotter and Bob Dickson, Larry Miller and Charlene Lucas, Tom Boswell and Sheryl Holman, or Phil Grotter and Donna Rogers. Right Kids?

Farewell 'ole Sunshiners! Sob! Sob! That was the farewell song at the Sunshine Senior Breakfast, and it was a bit sad. But don't worry, seniors, we will never forget you. You've always helped us in time of need (?) Oh, tell us another one!

Speaking of swimming, it seems some of our seniors got the idea of going swimming in the middle of April! Ask George Baker and Tom Boswell for the latest report on the Lake Maxinkuckee water temperature, they should know!

The seniors are finally getting back to their normal vivacious selves after experiencing the Senior Trip. In spite of several sleepless nights, aching feet, and empty pockets, they will tell you that they had the time of their lives! It seems while on the trip, several exciting things happened. First of all, at the subway station, Phil Grotter and Ron Leffert were waiting for the subway. When it finally arrived, the doors opened, Phil quickly got on, but — Ron didn't! Nothing like getting separated in New York City to liven things up! Also, we heard that Pat Hicks, Sue Ruhnow, and Eloise Tauner went into Tiffany's pretending to be wealthy career girls, but after trying on expensive jewelry for a while without buying anything, the clerk finally got wise. Too bad girls, nice try. Rumors have been going around that not everyone went to bed at 1:00 a.m. We would like to know just what did go on in those hotel rooms all night. The seniors claim they were just playing cards, so we guess we will just have to take their word for it!

On Monday, May 14, all students in grades seven to twelve, along with several other county schools, were guests of C.M.A. to see the Commencement Play, "No Time for Sergeants." It was certainly crowded on the buses, but the play was very good and everyone enjoyed it.

Well kids, many moons shall pass before we will see all of you again, and the smoke signals are slowly dying away. It has certainly been a wonderful year, and even though we are all glad to see summer come and our vacation start, we think that you'd all agree that the school year has gone much too fast, and was over too soon. But, we all need a vacation now and then, so we will see you all in the season of the falling leaves for the beginning of a brand new school term. Until then, farewell to all Indians! Have a nice summer!

Culver Honor Students Hold Initiation Rites

By Dennis Shock

Tuesday, April 24, the Culver chapter of the National Honor Society attended Argos High School for the initiation ceremonies of their newly established chapter. Argos High School's new chapter was named after D. R. Rohrer of Argos.

The ceremony was opened by Gerald Hess, the principal of Argos High School, who introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr.

W. O. Osborn. Mr. Osborn emphasized the importance of the ability to think and to continually draw from a God-given reservoir of human knowledge.

Mr. Hess then introduced Mr. D. R. Rohrer, after whom the new chapter was named. Mr. Rohrer accordingly made a few appreciative remarks. Mr. Hess then explained the basic requirements to become a member of the National Honor Society and followed with an introduction of Mr. M. R. Robinson, the sponsor of the Culver chapter of the National Honor Society. After a few statements Mr. Robinson introduced the Culver National Honor Society.

Five Senior members of the Culver National Honor Society gave short talks on the five qualities needed to become a member of the society. They were as follows: James Carter, Truth and Wisdom; John Benedict, Knowledge; Linda Kose, Leadership; Tom Boswell, Character; and Margo Overmyer, Service. Three Seniors and a Junior participated in lighting the candles. They were Marizetta Robinson, Martha Lowry, Patricia Wesson, and Cheryl Dillon.

The candidates then repeated a pledge, led by Mr. Hess, and were presented with their certificates and pins. Refreshments were served following the ceremony.

ANN WAITE ELECTED PRESIDENT OF COUNTY FOOD SERVICE CHAPTER

Mrs. Ann Waite of the Culver Schools Cafeteria was elected president of the Marshall County chapter of the American School Food Service Association at the organization meeting at Plymouth last week.

County schools cafeteria cooks, managers, and supervisors attended the meeting. The purpose of the organization is to improve health in the school and the community and to create and promote public interest and support for quality food service.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Wanda Keller, Plymouth, president-elect; Mrs. Nadine Snyder, Argos, secretary; and Newton Tibbetts, Plymouth, treasurer.

The next meeting will be held at the Plymouth High School Cafeteria on May 24, at 7 p.m.

MERRYMAIDS HOLD 4-H INFORMAL INITIATION

By Mary Ann Lewis

The Merrymaids had an informal outdoor initiation Monday, May 14, after school. Mary Ann Lewis led the pledge to the Flag, and Paula Haenes led the pledge to the 4-H Flag.

Nancy Overmyer, song leader, led the singing of, "Row, Row, Row Your Boat," accompanied by Linda Snapp, pianist. Roll call was answered by giving our favorite animal. Girls that are taking cooking must bring 50¢ for equipment.

Health and Safety was given by Janet Zochiel, minutes were read by Mary Jurgenson; and the demonstration on, "How To Use A Knife," was given by Kathy Listenberger and Margaret Ruhnow.

Following recreation, which was led by Bee Napier, refreshments were served. Initiation by the fifth and sixth grade girls concluded the meeting.

Next week Jane Kosterman and Betty Chak will give the demonstration, and refreshments will be furnished by Patty Walter, Judy McKee, Doris Maxson, and Kathy Wolverton.

Moon River Is Prom Theme

By Linda Behmer

Excitement was running high as the Juniors finished their Prom decorations Friday after school. Everyone was eagerly looking forward to that evening. Finally at 8:00 we met in the school with our dates. All the girls had pretty hair-dos and bright dresses; the boys looked extra nice in their tuxedos.

We then marched into the gym to behold the splendor of a day's hard work and many weeks of preparation. The gym was decorated in blue and silver crepe paper. There was a wishing well in the center of the gym. The stage was transformed into a park along a river, with the riverboat "Moon River" and a moon in the background.

Larry Miller, Junior Class President, welcomed all the guests and Tom Boswell, Senior Class President, answered. Mr. Cole, Principal, spoke for the faculty. Carol Overmyer then sang the theme song, "Moon River." She was accompanied by Sherrill Edgington on the piano.

The banquet was next. The menu consisted of several varieties of salads, potato chips, rolls and butter, and milk or coffee. Following the banquet, everyone danced until midnight to the music of Bob Howe and his band.

As we said good night to our friends, some to meet later at the after-prom, we promised to always cherish the memory of this beautiful Prom.

Culver Reporters Tour Pilot Plant

May 3, Margo Overmyer and Cheryl Dillon journeyed to Plymouth to spend the day at the Plymouth Pilot-News Office.

No time was wasted, for as soon as they arrived they were off to the Court House with the court house reporter. They accompanied him to the various offices and the courtroom where they met many new people and ran across several old friends too. Next, the girls toured the Police Department. Everything from bicycle registration to fingerprinting was explained thoroughly, and the radio equipment was demonstrated. After returning to the Pilot-News Office, they helped edit the copy for the school page of the paper.

They were the guests of the Pilot-News for a delicious luncheon at Schori's Restaurant. After lunch they toured the rest of the Pilot-News Office and Plant, and received the day's paper "hot off the press." The whole day was fascinating and very educational. The girls went to see the space capsule before returning to Culver.

London merchants "banked" in the Tower of London. Long before there were modern banks with safe-keeping facilities, 17th Century London merchants used to leave their money overnight with prison guards at the Tower of London.

Favorite Class Named By Grads

By Pat Kline, Judy Kimmel, and George Ogden

"Readin', or writin', or 'rith-metic, which one of these subjects will be your pick?" The underclassmen, and teachers also, are always curious to know which class, or subject, is enjoyed the most by the students, so we have asked the seniors this question. Here are their answers with their reasons.

Tom Boswell — Trig, because it is a small class and a very enjoyable subject.

Jim Carter — Trig and analytics — it's my last class.

Tom Curtis — History — I just like history.

Kathy Clyne — World History, because I like Mr. Robinson, and putting on plays, and listening to the war stories he tells.

Tom and Margo Most Likely To Succeed

By Thad Overmyer and Carolee Easterday

Once again, a class is preparing to graduate and leave their "home away from home" at C.H.S. Behind them they leave many memories, some good and some — well, not so good. Naturally, some of these individuals will be remembered for many years to come.

We have taken a poll to determine some of these outstanding individuals, and what they will be most remembered for in the minds of their classmates. The Seniors have chosen members of their class for each of the following eight categories: the most likely to succeed, the best dressed, the best personality, the shyest, the best sense of humor, the best looking, the most talented, and the most athletic boy and girl.

Tom Boswell and Margo Overmyer were chosen as the most likely to succeed. The class voted Melissa Fisher and Chuck Reed as the best dressed. Jane Ann Thomas was selected as the girl with the best personality while Tom Curtis and Tom Boswell tied for the boy with the best personality. The shyest members of the Senior class are Marilee Zechiel and Jim Gross, and Donna Smith, Pat Lutz, and Tom Curtis are the members with the best sense of humor. The class chose Chuck Reed and Sue Ruhnow as the best looking members of their class. Lana Berger and Mike Overmyer were selected as the most talented and Tom Boswell and Beverly Thomas the most athletic.

The votes on all of these categories were very close, so we can see that the Class of '62 believe they have many outstanding persons among them. Somehow, I believe we will all have to agree with them.

Divine healing is a theme of the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" to be heard at Christian Science services Sunday.
Matthew's account of the healing by Christ Jesus of the centurion's servant who was "sick of the palsy" will be included in the Scriptural readings.

One of the correlative citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states:
"Knowing that Soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and salvation" (p. 210).

Seniors Relate Highlights Of Senior Trip

By Vicki Lyons, Karen McDonald, and Nora Shepperd
After four years of hard work, the seniors really looked forward to going on their senior trip. Each one had a particular place that he was especially looking forward to seeing. Now that the trip is over we asked the seniors what they liked best about their own trip.

Pat Hicks — I liked everything, especially Chinatown, Charlie's food, Radio City Music Hall, Tiffany's diamonds and the cute guide who took us to Saint John's Cathedral, the U.N. Building, and Grant's Tomb. I had a wonderful time and I hope next year's seniors do too. I liked Charlie, too!

Kathy Clyne — Actually, I enjoyed everything we did on the trip. The things I'll always remember are the skyline of New York at night, the changing of the guard at the Tomb of the unknown Soldier, the Lincoln Memorial, and of course the bus driver, Charlie. And there was always Flash.

Margo Overmyer — The event that truly struck me as being the most beautiful and solemn was the changing of the guard at Arlington Cemetery. To say the least, I was filled with awe, I too, liked New York, especially the boat trip around Manhattan Island. This trip was very educational and worthwhile.

Janet Logan — Everything was wonderful. But, I think the most exciting part of the whole trip was New York City; of course that includes such things as Radio City Music Hall, "The Sound of Music," etc. Our bus driver Charlie added to the whole trip!

Mary Jane Guise — I believe the things that impressed me the most were the changing of the guard, Lincoln Memorial, the boat trip around Manhattan (especially the guide) and Greenwich Village. The view from the top of Rockefeller Center was positively breathtaking. The whole trip is unforgettable, because we could enjoy and share it with friends.

Linda Kose — I loved everything about New York — Greenwich Village, Radio City Music Hall, the view of New York at night from the RCA Building, and the U.N. Building, but most of all I'll remember the friendliness of the people in New York, our bus driver Charlie and my date with Bryan in New York.

Lana Berger — Everything was wonderful, but I'll always remember Charlie, the guide on the boat trip, Charlie's good food, the Madrid Restaurant on 14th Street, my late date, the Lily scene and the organist at Radio City Music Hall. The most impressive things were the changing of the guard and the Statue of Liberty. Some day I am going to see if Ronnie's penny is still in the U.N. Building. The train trip home was neat in the strato-dome!

Pat Wesson — I enjoyed the trip very much, especially New York, Washington, Williamsburg, and Jamestown. I liked the U.N. and seeing Washington Memorial at night. The most inspiring was Arlington National Cemetery because of the simplicity and its deep meaning. Our bus driver, Charlie, was the nicest person I met on the trip!

Mr. Cole — The thing I enjoyed most, I think, was the wholesome reaction the students had to the wide variety of experience.

Miss Shanks — I liked the tour that Bob Dickson, Bob Parker, and I took through Adlai Stevenson's apartment and the United States Embassy to the United Nations.

Janet Martin — I enjoyed the tour around Williamsburg and the Broadway play "The Sound of Music." I really enjoyed the whole trip; it was wonderful.

John Crum — New York City! Robert Dickson — New York City!

Tom Curtis — New York City and the United Nations Building, Charles Reed — New York City.

Mike Overmyer — New York City.

Rodney Edgington — Getting home.

Pat Lutz — The place I enjoyed most was Virginia, especially our hotel in Richmond.

Phillip Gretter — New York, James Gross — New York.

George Herr — Philadelphia girls!

Don Miller — New York.

Peter Ott — Packing Mike Overmyer and George Baker in ice.

Elouise Tanner — Fast taxi cab drivers.

Jane Thomas — Jamestown.

Chuck Warran — The China Door.

Donna Smith — Staying up till 3:00 a.m. every night of the trip.

Marilee Zechiel — Washington D. C., and riding on the train.

Bernice Mevis — Everything! Especially New York.

Beverly Thomas — Radio City and New York at night.

Susan Ruhnoff — Everything! But, especially the night in D. C. and the Chinese restaurant in New York.

Martha Lowry — Mr. Cole asking Janet Logan what she bought in Sac's while standing on 46th Street in New York.

Melissa Fisher — The whole trip was fabulous, but the most awesome thing I saw was Lincoln's Memorial. Our free night in New York was quite exciting. I enjoyed Greenwich Village.

Anna Lutz — Radio City Music Hall and the New York subway.

Nancy Franz — The first night on the train and the Italian restaurant in New York, also, the show "West Side Story."

Shirley Crow — Best of all I liked the Chinese restaurant.

Carol Heiser — I liked Washington D. C., Jamestown, Williamsburg, and New York! Best of all I liked Radio City Music Hall and the first night in Richmond.

Sandra Osborn — I liked best of all the Chinese restaurant.

Joe Rosebaum — Radio City Music Hall.

Chris Hand — The gardens at Mount Vernon and shopping in New York.

John Benedict — St. John's Cathedral.

Sandra Boetsma — Radio City Music Hall and "The Sound of Music."

Give Advice To Underclassmen

By Diane Boots, Vicky Lutz and Sharon McDonald

Since we all believe in that old saying, "Experience is the best teacher," we have asked our seniors for some of their experienced advice. Pay attention underclassmen, your elders are speaking! This is their advice to you.

Bob Dickson — Be good little boys and girls, like we are.

Don Miller — Try to do as good as the class of '62 — it's impossible, but try. (Oh come now!)

John Crum — Do like I did, work hard and be a good little boy.

Lana Berger — Study a lot — don't waste time like I did, but have fun too!

Marietta Robinson — Do your best, enjoy it, and be a nonconformist (preferably in a positive, not negative way).

Margo Overmyer — Remember that the grades and actions you make now are a mold for your future life and if good, will help you considerably. Also, remember to mix studies and fun because one without the other is no good.

Mary Jane Guise — Make the most out of your studies because you'll be sorry later on if you don't, but don't forget to have fun too. Also, try hard to develop individualism now, it will benefit you throughout life.

Pat Hicks — Have a blast, but don't get bad grades on your report cards!

Shirley Crow — Sell your heart to the junkman!

Sandy Boetsma — Have a good time throughout your school years and keep your schoolwork done, too.

Nancy Franz — Have all the fun you can and make sure your lessons are kept up to date.

Elouise Tanner — Have fun and try to wait for the day you go on the Senior Trip. Ha-Ha, you've got a couple of years yet!

Jim Gross — Don't take machine shop!

Martha Lowry — Don't study or out.

Glenda Dawson — Have all the fun you can in the last year, there will never be another one like it.
Sue Ruhnow — Be kind to your web-footed friends (teachers maybe.) Don't get behind in your schoolwork, and have a blast!

Kathy Clyne — Do the best you can in your studies, but don't forget to have fun — really live it up.

Linda Kose — Put forth a great deal of effort to attain the best grades you can possibly get. These grades will be of assistance to you in your future life. Keep in mind, however, that academics are only part of your development. You also must have fun and participate in extra curricular activities to be a well-rounded person.

Janet Logan — Study, but have fun; spread your interests, and above all, keep working for the future as well as the present.

George Baker — Have fun and give your teachers a rough time.

Tom Boswell — Tell yourself that you love school, and wait patiently for the time to go on the Senior Trip.

Chuck Warren — Don't throw erasers in homeroom — too dusty!

Ofelia Briones — Have fun and forget everything about the schoolwork.

Mike Overmyer — Have a lot of fun during high school and study real hard. I didn't study and I'm sorry that I didn't, and if you don't you will be too.

Bernice Mevis — Get all your work done before the senior trip.

Marilee Zechiel — Don't let things go 'till the last minute.

Donna Smith — Be present every school day!

Beverly Thomas — Keep Mr. Lawson happy . . . (if possible!).

John Benedict — Take full advantage of Mr. Lawson's class of oriental civics, and the philosophy of Chinese economies.

Joe Rosebaum — Ask John Crum, if he can't tell you then you're out of luck!

Sandra Osborn — Have fun during your senior year.

Ron Leffert — Co-operate with your teachers.

take speech!
Thomas Curtis — Don't let things bother you. Laugh them off, if possible.

Chuck Reed — If you get so you can't stand your superiors, don't express your feelings to them. It saves a lot of trouble.

Jim Carter — Don't take the advice of the upperclassman! (Now here is a man who thinks for himself!)

Pete Ott — Stay away from the C. I. A.

Phil Gretter — Don't pay any attention to old Chinese proverbs, or short Chinese men.

Janet Martin — Have fun in your senior year, and try to hand in all your work on time.

Pat Lutz — Don't get "Senioritis" before the year is over.

Anna Lutz — All I can say is study, study, study.

Jane Thomas — Just have fun, but study.

Barbara Williams — Treasure each day of this last year, you can't relive it.

George Herr — When Mr. Lawson tells a joke, laugh!

Classes Wind Up Activities

By Bonnie Parker and Barbara Rosebaum

The Senior Class of 1962, whether they want to be or not, is already for the big night next Friday. Each member has received his cap and gown, and all commencement announcements and invitations have been sent out to friends and relatives. Next week commencement practices will be held and that will be the end of a busy and wonderful year. Ask any senior, and they will probably agree that it all could not have gone any faster. Good luck to all of you!

The juniors ended an exciting year by working very hard on the Junior-Senior prom. All juniors got a day out of classes to decorate for the annual event. It was certainly a day and night to remember.

The sophomores will have their last fudge sale this Friday, which will end their money-making projects for this year. They did very well on their leaf raking, and appreciate very much the co-operation they received to make their project a success.

The freshman class would like to thank everyone for helping them make their fudge sales a success, also. They have all enjoyed their first year in high school, but are eagerly waiting to begin their Sophomore year. Well, they are waiting, anyway!

DEWORMED WORMS

Gals! Demand this of your fishing husbands. Nobody likes to bait a hook with worms that gush. But if the worms are kept for a couple of days in moist clean sand, they're as clean as a whistle . . . and they live longer on the hook.

Baseball Practice Starts As Track Season Closes

By Bob Carter and James Westcott

The baseball team started practice on Monday, May 14, and eleven boys have thus far attended practices after school. The team looks very promising and Coach Crosley's looking forward to a very fine season.

Track season is over for this year. There were many boys who won major and minor letters in this sport. For the first major letter an eight-inch letter "C" is awarded; for the second, a sweater; for the third, a medalion; and for the fourth, a Culver jacket. Seniors winning major letters were Tom Boswell, tenth major letter; Jim Carter, seventh major letter; Chuck Reed, fourth major letter; and Don Miller, second major letter. Junior major letter winners were Wade Logan, fourth major letter; Dennis Shock, third major letter; Mike Chak, second major letter; and Frank Keiser, second major letter. Sophomores who won major letters were Bob White, first major letter; Paul White, fifth major letter; and Tom Yocom, second major letter; Paul Liette, second major letter; Jim Weirick, first major letter; and Jim Lewis, first major letter. The minor letter winners were Jerry Nelson, Rick Ervin, Tom Schmidt, Jim Jones, Ed Matson, Bob Carter, Jim DeWitt, Jim Boswell, and Bob Albert.

STILL GOING — A public sale of the effects of the late John M. Eberlien of Ripley County, advertised in The North Vernon Plain Dealer, listed for sale a 1929 Model T Ford. The 42-year-old car was represented as still in good running condition. Apparently old Fords are like old soldiers who, Gen. Douglas MacArthur said, "never die, they just fade away." This column recently reported that a 1934 Ford coupe "like new" was advertised for sale in The Boonville Standard.

Junior Boy Is Interviewed

By Carolee Easterday

Our guest this week first made his appearance into the world as a squawling, seven pound, 11 ounce, 22 inch baby on September 18, 1944. Since that initial slap across his face by the doctor, he has made life lively for his family and for us, with whom he spends eight hours of his day, five days a week.

Since he was born while his father was overseas, he did not meet him until he was 15 months old. His mother prepared him for this big day in his life by pointing to a picture of his father and saying that that was his daddy. Well, when the big day arrived, like most young children, he stuck his foot right in his mouth. When he met his father for the first time, he glibly retorted that HE was not his daddy because THAT was his daddy, as he pointed to the picture. We hope he has that little matter straightened out by now.

He used to play with tractors quite often. He would never go to sleep like a good little boy without his favorite teddy bear. As the years passed, he became more and more intrigued by animals. Now, he has an American Eskimo dog named Debbie and he likes Holstein cows. He has quite a collection of stuffed animals that he has won at various fairs too.

When he was in the first grade, this tow-headed "Dennis the Menace" took his mumps to school and being a charitable soul, gave them to his teacher. He certainly learned at an early age how NOT to "win friends and influence people."

Today his tastes are different. He likes basketball and truck—naturally. He does not like to be rushed and he cannot stand to be called more than once in the morning.

If you have not guessed who our guest is by these elusive clues, his initials are Jerry Nelson.

THANKSGIVING EVERY DAY

— Foods once available to Hoosiers only at certain seasons are now obtained any time. More than 65 per cent of Florida fruits are shipped throughout the country by truck, and 70 per cent of the vegetables. Forty per cent of all fishery products are hauled by truck.

champ, Steve Thompson; baritone — Janet Heiber, Lee Eskridge; trombones — Pamela Welsh, Edward Behnke, Jeffrey Adams, Bonnie Albert, Philip White; percussion — Kerry Haenes, Russell Teach, and Steven Kelly. This group meets as a combined band.

Officers Selected For Next Year

By Beverly Barshes and Martha McAllister

On Tuesday, April 17, the Culver High School braves and maidens held their annual election. There were 380 votes cast, and out of this number, only six were illegal. We think this is a very good result. Some of our best tribe members were elected to such offices as class officers, National Honor Society, Sunshine Society, Hi-Y, Ushers Club, and Student Council.

Beginning with the eighth grade, the class officers are: President, Lela Donnelly; Vice President, Marsha Estey; Secretary, Carolyn Saft; and Treasurer, Diane Nelson. The ninth grade officers are: President, Andy Lowry; Vice President, Marsha Guise; Secretary, Diane Davis; Treasurer, Elizabeth King. The tenth grade officers for the coming year are: President, Jim Boswell; Vice President, Jim Weirick; Secretary, Peggy Herr; and Treasurer, Lorrie Sands. The future officers for the Junior class are: President, Paul White; Vice President, Bob Carter; Secretary, Janet Beck; and Treasurer, Ann Wagoner. And last but by no means least, the future Senior class officers are: President, Larry Miller; Vice President, Dennis Shock; Secretary, Janice Neidlinger; Treasurer, Sherrill Edgington.

The officers of the Sunshine Society are as follows: President, Janice Neidlinger; Vice President, Carol Overmyer; Corresponding Secretary, Sharon Norris; and Treasurer, Pam Phelps.

The National Honor Society has elected Cheryl Dillon as President, Sam Lowry as Vice President, and Janet Beck as Secretary-Treasurer.

The Hi-Y officers are as follows: President, Thad Overmyer; Vice President, Paul White; Secretary, Larry Miller; Treasurer, Wade Logan; chaplain, Larry Linhart; and Sergeant-of-Arms, Bob White.

The president of Ushers Club for next year is Cindy Kemple.

The Student Council includes a boy and a girl from each of the upper five grades. From the eighth grade, the boy and girl chosen were Patty McCombs and Fletcher Mattox. From the ninth grade, Danny Haines and Marsha Guise were elected. The tenth grade student council members are Jim Boswell and Lonnie Darosi. From the eleventh grade, those selected were Bob Carter and Pamela Phelps. The senior members of the council will be Dennis Shock and Cheryl Dillon.

We believe this group of students, chosen by the student body itself, will represent Culver High School very well, and we are looking forward to an extremely successful year. Congratulations to all!

Seniors Have Dream Come True

By Margo Overmyer and Linda Kose

Thursday evening, April 26, was the time set for the departure of the Culver high school seniors. The LaPaz train station was the scene of departure and here every senior made his appearance, some with tears in their eyes and others with smiles on their faces, and boarded the train.

Aboard the train, many seniors' voices were heard coming from the stratadome, because this was the scene of the song fest. At last the harmonizing ceased and the seniors retired to the Culver car to spend a night watching the lights of the towns and sleeping.

After a wholesome breakfast in the train's diner, the seniors left the train at Washington, D. C., and boarded the bus they were to occupy for the rest of the journey. On the way to the Capitol to have their picture taken, the seniors gazed upon some of the famous buildings for which Washington is famous. The Senior group toured the Capitol, the White House, the Lincoln Memorial, and the Bureau of Printing and Engraving.

From the many remarks about the changing of the guard at the Arlington cemetery, it was obvious that this truly impressed the group. Before the changing of the guard, the group had taken a tour of George Washington's Mount Vernon.

The seniors then traveled to Richmond, Va., to spend the night in the Hotel Richmond.

Saturday found the seniors arising bright and early to travel to Jamestown and Williamsburg to gaze upon many beautiful and historic buildings.

After having spent the night in the Burlington Hotel in Washington, D. C., the Culver group began its journey to New York City. This trip gave them a chance to catch up on those lost hours of sleep. This trip was approximately 225 miles and provided many scenic views of Maryland, Delaware and New Jersey.

Once in New York the seniors checked in at the Taft Hotel. The two days the group spent in New York were very eventful. Everyone took a guided tour during which they saw Harlem, Grant's Tomb, the Cathedral of St. John The Divine, Rockefeller Center, Central Park and the United Nations building. To add to the splendor of New York, the group attended the movie "Moon Pilot" at Radio City, and after the movie came a stage show featuring the famous Rockettes.

A boat trip around Manhattan Island gave the seniors a better look at New York City, even though it was raining. The schedule was full, but there was plenty of free time for shopping, relaxation and amusement.

Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. the Culver seniors said farewell to New York and headed for home. They went by bus to Washington, D. C., and from there to LaPaz by train.

It was a group of tired people that climbed off the train. Many were sad with the thought that their dream was over and now it was just a memory.

The chaperones for the trip were Mr. Kenneth L. Cole and Miss Ruth Shanks.
