Next Sunday Is Marshall County Day At Academy

County Residents Invited To Campus

Residents of Marshall County are invited to attend Marshall County Day Sunday, Aug. 5 at Culver Summer Schools on the campus of Culver Military Academy.

Major General Delmar T. Spivey, USAF (Ret.), Superintendent, extends a cordial invitation to all county residents to visit or a conducted tour of the campus, a band concert, and the traditional garrison parade.

"Visitors always are welcome to the Culver campus," General Spivey said. "However, on August 5 we extend a special invitation to our friends and neighbors in Marshall County to be with us on a day designated especially in their honor."

Conducted tours of the campus will be given between 2 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. Residents wishing to take a conducted tour should come to the parking lot on Route 10, between Routes 17 and 117, marked "Marshall County Day Guests Park Here."

At 4 p.m. there will be a band concert in the air-conditioned Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium. The 110-piece Naval Band, one of the finest in the country, will play under the direction of Colonel Edward T. Payson.

At 7 p.m. the 1,500 students of the Naval and Horsemanship Schools and the Woodcraft Camp will hold a colorful garrison parade on the parade field.

Persons wishing to purchase refreshments or meals can do so at moderate costs at the Culver Inn campus.

Culver is celebrating this summer the 50th anniversary of the Woodcraft Camp, the 55th anniversary of the School of Horsemanship, and the 60th anniversary of the Naval School. An enrollment of 1,500 students comes from 38 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and eight foreign countries for the eight-week session. The Summer Schools are the largest and oldest summer camping and educational program of their type in the country.

Two Accidents Are Investigated By Chief Mikesell

Chief of Police Mikesell investigated two accidents last week.

The first one took place at the intersection of School Street and Highway 10. Cars driven by Clarence Bair Jr., Route 1, Culver, and S. J. Rossa, of 1352 East Shore Drive, were involved. Damage to the Bair car was estimated at about $150 and to the Rossa car approximately $250.

The second accident investigated by Chief Mikesell took place at the junctions of Highways Old 7 and 19 at about 8:20 Wednesday evening. Cars involved were driven by Doris Jean Kuckel, Route 1, Grovertown and Robert Pranger, Route 3, Plymouth. Both cars had come to a stop at the 4-way stop and then both started up to continue across the intersection. The Kuckel car was damaged an estimated $75 and the Pranger car about $150.

"Christmas In August" Bazaar To Be August 8

Tri Kappa Benefit At The Culver Inn

Not long ago, the Tri Kappas sent invitations to organizations reading as follows:

By the shores of Maxinkuckee Lives a tribe of Nu Tri Kappas. Through the snows they bent low working.

Green leaves coming found them weaving.

Now their camp is gay with glitter.

Now they hope you'll take the trail.

Bringing wampum for new treasures.

Eating by the laughing waters.

AND that's the reason why you haven't seen any Tri Kappas around lately. They are all in little huddles working madly to beat the dead line which crept upon them so stealthily.

Phyllis Mars came back from her trip East to get into a welter of felt and glitter to make Christmas Stockings. Fran Bolton finished the gay and elegant wastebaskets, only to recruit help making kissing balls (that sounds like fun!) and glamor snoods. Middy Middleton finished the beautiful gold and white afghan that is displayed in the bank, but she is still knitting every spare minute. If her grandson Chuck Curtis (7 months old) could knit one, purl one, instead of just sitting around, it would help! Muriel Sheller is knitting some fascinating things, while Aldona Muehlhausen specializes in mohair sweaters, and we understand she has enough orders to keep her nose in the knitting book for a long, long time.

The Crows have about decided to leave their nest to Mary Jane and the breathtakingly beautiful Christmas tree ornaments — there are strange people there at all hours, working with ribbon and pearls and sequins. Cleta Nelson finished some aprons for Virginia Bair, only to be talked into making adorable cuddly wee nightgowns. Martha Ogden is in charge of the Art Work, while Virginia tells everyone she is doing "Dead Arrangements" but everyone knows she is doing a great deal more, too. Bee Phelps rushes home at night to do perfectly elegant Christmas tree aprons while Mary Edgell and Ann Oldham rack their brains to think of clever ways to display the "miscellaneous foods" and "Trash and Treasures" contributed by the members.

So THAT'S why you haven't seen any Tri Kappas, but they hope to see you all on Wednesday, Aug. 8, in the lobby of the air-conditioned Culver Inn!

Maybe you'd like to watch some local talent (?) on the Dorothy Frisk show, Friday, August 3, at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. Glen Coolman, Mrs. Walter Muehlhausen, Mrs. Robert Bolton and Mrs. Joseph Clyne will display some of the items to be sold at the "Christmas in August" bazaar.

NEW FLASHER LIGHT INSTALLED

A new flasher light has been installed at the intersection of North Shore Drive and Academy Road. The light is set so that Lake Shore Drive traffic faces a caution signal and the traffic on Academy Road faces a complete stop signal. The light was needed at this location as it is a hazardous intersection.

Culver V.F.W. Chapter Finishes Remodeling

The remodeling program planned by the Culver chapter of the V.F.W. has just been completed. The Chapter is to be congratulated on adding a "new look" to the Culver business section. The remodeling and repairs to the front of their club rooms have consisted of new aluminum siding and window frames on the second story front. The entire front has been painted a gleaming white. A new cement sidewalk and curb has been laid. In front of the club entrance a large modernistic electric sign has been erected and this is surrounded by a stone planter.

The chapter now plans extensive remodeling in their club rooms. As soon as the type of wall finishing has been decided upon, this work will start. Early this spring the chapter placed welcome signs at all incoming highways into Culver. These were of heavy gauge metal, painted white with the chapter emblem in color. The sign was attached to

Boy Scout Court Of Honor Gives 86 Awards

Last Monday at the Culver Methodist Church, Culver Boy Scout Troop 290 held a very impressive Court of Honor at which Scout leaders and Troop Committee members presented a total of 86 individual awards and one patrol award. Features of the evening were the main address by Mr. W. O. Osborn and the Eagle award presentations made by Menominee District Scout Executive Richard Brown.

In his inspiring address, Mr. Osborn, after commending the Scouts for their notable achievements, exhorted them to continue to strive for success in Scouting and in the competitive world. He emphasized the importance of using one's intellectual and spiritual potential in achieving life's objectives.

Mr. Brown, in solemn ceremony involving visiting Eagle Scouts and the parents of Eagle candidates, inducted Richard Kelso III and Dean Smith into the Eagle rank. Mr. Brown stressed the obligations incurred in attaining this highest rank in Scouting, and then he led the candidates and all Eagles present in their oath. The mothers of candidates pinned on their sons' Eagle badges, and in return they received miniature Eagles from their sons.

Other advanced ranks presented were the Life Scout rank to Fletcher Mattox and Star Scout ranks to Steve Bocock and Greg Yapp. Eleven boys received a total of 53 merit badge certificates in recognition of their work toward ranks beyond First Class.

Culver Streets Are Re-Paved By McMahan Co.

Several streets in Culver were paved last week by the McMahan Construction Company of Rochester. A layer of hot asphalt mix was spread over the street base and packed down by large heavy rollers. Funds for the re-paving came from the money returned to towns as their share of the gas tax from the State Highway Department.

Streets that were re-paved are: Washington Street from Main to Lake; Lake Street from Washington to College; Jefferson Street from Ohio to State; and one block on State from Jefferson to Washington.

Police Chief Mikesell stated that as funds became available other streets would receive the same treatment. The progress of this work will depend on funds available from state agencies.

Arrests Made Over The Weekend

Ernest W. Van Dyke, of South Chicago Heights, was arrested on Saturday, July 28 by Officer Shoemaker, of Argos, for operating an automobile exceeding the posted speed limit on State Road 17. Van Dyke appeared in the Justice of Peace court of Harry A. Smeltzer, paying $18.75 in fine and costs.

Culver Public Library Receives L.S.A. Funds

The Culver Public Library has recently been enjoying the benefits of Library Services Act (L.S.A.) funds. This act provides several states, through federal aid, with funds to assist libraries in their finances.

In our local library, $2,000 has been allotted for the purchase of new books. In the first six months under this program 300 adult books and 335 children's books have been purchased. L.S.A. funds allow $1,000 in salaries for extra help, which at this time consists of the services of Marizetta Robinson and Linda Shock.

This aid has been received through the efforts of Representative John V. Brademas. Congressman Brademas has also donated some books to the library.

Other recent donors include: Mrs. R. M. Flarshelm, Mrs. W. E. Covington, Janet Braneman, Marizetta Robinson and Norman Kelly. Mr. Kelly's donation took the form of a year's magazine subscription to Nation's Business.

Mrs. Ruby Mattox, as of July 23, is replacing Norma Mohr at the library. Mrs. Mohr's husband is returning home from overseas and the Mohrs will be leaving soon, as Mr. Mohr will be posted farther south in Indiana.

America will probably double its population within the next 40 years.

Miss Mary E. Todd Weds John F. Platt In Impressive Academy Ceremony

MRS. JOHN F. PLATT

On Thursday, July 26, Miss Mary Esther Todd and John Franklin Platt were married in the Memorial Chapel at Culver Military Academy. Miss Todd is the daughter of Mrs. John F. Edgell of Culver and the late James H. Todd of Noblesville. Mr. Platt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin Platt, Sr., of Everett, Wash.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Donald O. Platt, uncle of the bridegroom, assistant Rector of Trinity Church, New York City, and the Rev. Allen F. Bray II, Chaplain of Culver Military Academy. The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, John F. Edgell, of Culver.

The church was illuminated only by candles. Two large arrangements of larkspur and mastic daisies flanked the altar, along the white-carpeted aisle, the pews were decorated with tapers trimmed with strands of ivy and white tailored bows with white streamers.

Miss Todd wore a pearl-de-soie gown with a pearl and crystal trimmed Alencon lace bodice, bell sleeves, a sheathed silhouette underneath, and pearls and Alencon lace trailing down the front of the sheath. She wore a bouffant illusion veil, draped from a pearl and crystal-trimmed Alencon lace pillbox, and she carried a crescent-shaped arrangement of roses and lilies-of-the-valley with variegated ivy strands.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Louis Kutcher, Jr., of Wakefield, R.I., sister of the bride. Like all the attendants, she wore a white silk organza dress with a removable cape over a fitted bodice and a bell skirt with a bow at the front waistline; double white veiling attached to a rhinestone tiara; short white gloves; and carried a single white Duchess rose with a long stem in moss green velvet tubing.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ann Abel of Muncie and Miss Lucy Link of Paris Ill., Tudor Hall classmates of the bride; and Miss Theresa Mullin of Noblesville.

Flower girl was Miss Fairlie Firari of Culver, who wore a double white organza dress hanging from the shoulders, with a double-gathered ruffle at the hemline, short white gloves, and a circlet of ivy about her head. She carried a deep basket of wicker trimmed with ivy and filled with yellow rose petals.

Best man was Thomas M. Smith III of Houston, Texas. Ushers were J. Rodney Todd of Culver, brother of the bride; Louis W. Kutcher of Wakefield, R.I.; Thomas E. Platt of Everett, Wash., brother of the bridegroom; and Jeffrey H. Strohm of Indianapolis.

The mother of the bride wore a sand colored dress of imported silk, matching accessories, and a complementing cymbidium orchid.

Upon leaving the Chapel the bridal couple were escorted under an arch of crossed sabres formed by a detail of Midshipmen.

A reception at the Culver Inn followed the ceremony. The receiving line stood in front of a hand-carved, four-panel screen banked with woodwardia fern. The tables were covered with white satin and draped with smilax. The five-tiered wedding cake was topped with an arrangement of white roses, white grapes, and ivy. The bride cut the cake with a sabre carried by her husband when he was a cadet captain at Culver.

After the ceremony, the young couple left on a wedding trip to San Francisco and the Pacific Northwest. The bride's going-away costume was a powdered yellow knit suit with patent accessories, and she carried a corsage of white roses from her bridal bouquet.

On Wednesday, July 25, the parents of the bride entertained the bridal party and out-of-town guests at their home for dinner, following the rehearsal in Memorial Chapel. Guests were seated at small tables on the terrace, decorated with hurricane lamps, ivy rings, and white daisies. A combo played dinner music, and afterwards for dancing.

The bride graduated from the Tudor Hall School, Indianapolis, and attended Endicott Junior College, Beverly, Mass. The bridegroom graduated from Culver Military Academy and is a student at Texas A & M College. After Sept. 15, the young couple will be at home at College Station, Texas, where the bridegroom will complete his studies at Texas A & M.

The answer came from another columnist on the staff, Mindwell C. Wilson. She said her father, the late A. B. Culver Opposes Bourbon Thursday For County Title

Indians Beat Argos In Playoff Game

Culver's baseball Indians defeated Argos, 9-2, here Monday night to advance into the championship game of the Marshall County Summer League Playoffs.

Catch Gene Crosley's boys had earned a tie for first place during the regular season by beating Bourbon here last Thursday, 4-2. Meanwhile, Argos was surprising Plymouth, 8-7, in a game for fourth place and the playoff berth.

Thursday night Sam Lowry cooled off the hot-hitting Comets on four hits. The junior right-hander walked no one and struck out three, retiring the first thirteen Bourbon hitters enroute to his eighth straight pitching victory.

Held to five hits by loser Steve Shively, the Indians capitalized on five walks issued by the Bourbon righthander. Timely singles by Rick Ervin, Andy Lowry, and Paul Liette accounted for one run apiece for Culver.

While Bourbon was defeating LaPaz in the playoffs, Argos visited Culver. The losing Dragons outlasted the local heroes, 9 to 3, but eleven walks and three hit batsmen literally handed the game to Culver.

Lowry once again started for the Indians. But after seeing his team build up an 8-0 lead, Coach Crosley brought in sophomore lefty Jim Lewis in the third inning. Lewis scattered seven hits over the last five innings, fanning five and walking only one, to gain his second high school victory.

Seven runs in the second inning without benefit of a base hit iced up the game for Culver. Frank Harley, first of three Argos pitchers, was the loser.

Culver will now try for its fourteenth straight victory Thursday night against Bourbon in the game for "all the marbles." The game will be played on the middle diamond of Plymouth's Centennial Park, starting promptly at 6 p.m.

Coaches Crosley and Dick Campbell of Bourbon have agreed that both the regular season title and the playoff trophy will be determined by this game. Sam Lowry will pitch for Culver, while the Bourbon starter will be either Steve Shively, Will Metheny, or Chris Booz. Box scores:

Junior League Team Completes Brilliant Season

Culver's Junior League baseball team lost to West Twp., 1-0, last Tuesday to ruin an otherwise perfect season. The team, coached by Varsity coach Gene Crosley, compiled an 11-1 record, easily the best in the County. Lefty Jim Lewis, trying for his sixth straight victory, pitched a one-hitter, but lost on an unearned run. West's Johnson pitched a 3-hitter and fanned ten.

Many of the boys on Culver's fine team were also members of last year's undefeated freshman basketball team.

To give you an idea of how tight their pitching was, the three hurlers, Lewis, Bruce Lindvall, and Paul Liette allowed only 13 earned runs in 12 games. The performance of this year's Varsity (13-2) and the fact that only one baseball player at Culver is a senior give hopes of a very bright future.

Argos To Get New Post Office Building

Argos will have a new post office building in the near future, according to the announcement made Tuesday by Representative John Brademas. Plans for the new building call for a 2,933 square-foot, one story structure. It will be erected on a lease-purchase contract.

CSS Homecoming, Woodcraft Rites Draw Thousands

F. W. Braden Gives Address

A leading midwestern Boy Scout executive told an audience of 2,000 attending an anniversary celebration of the Culver Summer Schools here Saturday that "Americans have reached the stomach-turning point where we should re-examine the debilitating philosophy of permissiveness."

Frank W. Braden, chief executive for 750,000 Boy Scouts in four midwestern states, delivered the commemorative address at ceremonies marking the 50th anniversary of the Woodcraft Camp as part of the Culver Summer Schools. He told a gathering of parents, faculty, students and guests:

"Let this not be confused with the philosophy of liberty. A school system that permits our children to develop a fourth of their natural talents is not a champion of our liberties... the healthy man who chooses to loaf on unemployment compensation is not a defender of human freedom. The playwright who would degrade us, or the author who would profit from pandering to the worst that's in us is no friend of ours."

"This is plain talk — but it needs to be said to the people who can and who will do something about it."

Quoting from a recent speech by Jenkins Lloyd Jones, a Culver alumnus and editor of the Tulsa (Okla.) Tribune, Braden said America is drowning its youngsters in violence, cynicism and sadism piped into the living room and even the nursery.

"The grandchildren of the children who used to weep because the little match girl froze to death, now feel cheated if she isn't slugged, raped, and thrown into a Bessemer converter," he quoted from Jones' speech.

Braden said America's greatest asset is its youth. "Culver believes in this and the great organization which I represent joins hands in this great job of training youth for America... The goal of this great institution... is leadership and character. In this setting we have tried for 50 years to give thousands of boys the backbone to stand up and be counted — the courage to face danger in spite of fear — the will to do and the education to somehow understand what is to be done and the desire to do it."

Braden outlined the history of the Woodcraft Camp and its beginnings in 1912, two years after the Scouting movement was brought to America. He included Daniel Carter Beard and Ernest Thompson Seton among those national Scouting leaders who played important roles in founding the Woodcraft Camp and developing its philosophy for boys 9½ to 13.

"The Boy Scout movement was the original inspiration for the Woodcraft Camp... And therefore it is fair to say that Culver and Scouting are inseparably linked together, particularly in the ties of camping. The influence of Culver in Scouting in America is felt perhaps throughout the movement and by people now who may never have heard the name of Culver."

"Culver occupies a place of prominence in America," he said, "because it has demonstrated that it turns out men of quality — its young men stand a little straighter and grow a little taller because of what they learn at Culver. For the biggest business in America is the business of growing up... If America is to be strong, if America is to remain a democracy, if America is to remain free, youth will make it so."

Braden spoke at one of the important events of a three-day observance combining the 50th anniversary celebration of the Woodcraft Camp and the annual homecoming of the Summer Schools Alumni Association. He also attended ground-breaking ceremonies at the site of Culver's $800,000 Woodcraft Camp, a new facility that will provide permanent buildings for 650 boys by May, 1963.

Culver wound up its celebration Sunday, when tribute was also paid to the Summer Naval School, observing its 50th anniversary, and the Summer School of Horsemanship, which is 55 years old. The three schools are the largest and oldest educational institutions of their kind in America.

Chaplain Redman Is Sunday Guest Speaker At CSS

Capt. Emil F. Redman, supervisory chaplain for the Ninth Naval District, will be guest minister during chapel services Sunday, Aug. 5, at the Culver Summer Schools.

Chaplain Redman is one of a series of guest ministers who regularly speak at non-denominational services conducted during July and August by the Summer Schools and during the winter by Culver Military Academy. The Rev. Allen F. Bray III, Academy chaplain, is in charge of the services held in Memorial Chapel.

Chaplain Redman will speak at a 10 a.m. service for the Woodcraft Camp and then deliver a sermon to 1,000 members of the Naval and Horsemanship Schools at 11 a.m. He is the first guest minister for the current eight-week session.

A Naval officer since 1937, Captain Redman now is attached to the staff of Rear Admiral Ira H. Dunn, Ninth Naval District, with headquarters at Great Lakes, Ill. His primary duties are those of supervising a religious program for 252 clergymen in uniform on active and inactive duty. These ministers are scattered throughout 13 states of the Ninth Naval District. Paramount in Captain Redman's duties is the supervision of Reserve Navy chaplains of all faiths.

Chaplain Redman has a long and interesting background with the U.S. Navy. Prior to World War II he was chaplain at the U.S. Naval Station on American Samoa. During this time he was navy representative on the governor of Samoa's staff and in charge of the native public school system. He journeyed to the remote villages visiting each school at least twice a year.

During World War II Chaplain Redman was stationed aboard the USS NORTH CAROLINA with Admiral Halsey's task force in the Pacific.

Nuttall Joins Summer Naval School Faculty

CDR. J. W. NUTTALL JR.

Cdr. John W. Nuttall Jr., formerly Naval attaché in Thailand and Laos, has been assigned to the faculty of the Culver Summer Naval School by the U.S. Navy Department.

Culver is one of four honor Naval schools in the country to which regular U. S. Navy personnel are assigned during the summer months. Commander Nuttall serves as professor of Naval Science in the school, which is commanded by Capt. Robert Bolton, USN (Ret.).

Assigned during the winter as associate professor of Naval Science at the University of Illinois, Champaign, Commander Nuttall heads a staff of four sent here for the current eight-week session by the Navy Department. Under his command are senior Chief Quartermaster E. N. Wilson, Marquette University, Milwaukee; Chief Quartermaster J. H. Hopkins, Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.; and Chief Quartermaster P. B. Davis, of the NROTC unit at Notre Dame University, South Bend, Ind.

A native of Somerville, Mass., Commander Nuttall received a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in biology from Boston College in 1941. He entered the Navy in 1942 and served in the Atlantic, European, and Pacific theaters during World War II. Among the vessels he has commanded are the destroyer escort USS HEYLIGER and the destroyer USS CHARLES H. ROAN. Commander Nuttall served for three years as secretary of the Joint Intelligence Committee for the Joint Chiefs of staff at the Pentagon, and before his assignment to the University of Illinois was U.S. Naval attaché in Thailand and Laos.

During the time they are in Culver, Commander and Mrs. Nuttall and two children are living at the East Shore Apartments.

A third child, John L. Nuttall III, is enrolled as a student in the Woodcraft Camp.

maxinkuckee Yacht Club News

By PEG CLYNE

Last week would have been just too quiet after the hubbub of the ILYA Regatta if the Baxters hadn't had their cocktail party. An unusually large number of Yacht Club members and their guests enjoyed meeting on the lawns in front of the Norman Baxters, the Robert Baxters, and the Emory Baxters' summer homes on East Shore Drive. Ted and Ruth Baxter invited everyone to wander through their place where they could view a considerable number of articles picked up on their recent trip around the world.

To get back to the sailing part of Yacht Club business — the Juniors are really displaying a lot of enthusiasm, with new memberships and new boats being

In the first race Saturday morning, John Michaels was first, Rick Baxter came in second, followed by Stevie Speer. In the second race, John Michaels again was first, Rick Baxter was second and Linda Riggs came in third.

Sunday afternoon was a lovely day for the race. The finish was quite exciting, with Tom Heckel crossing the line first, Jerome Zechel beating Rob Hollowell by a short distance right at the finish line. Tad Landerback was a close fourth, with Ken Bateson right on the stern.

LUCKY STRIKE — When Dee Pearson, an Odon coal truck driver, lost a billfold containing $102 a year ago, he made a thorough search and then gave up. Recently Wilmer Wittmer, a mechanic at a garage in the Daviess County town, was about to toss a scoopful of coal into a furnace when he noticed a foreign object in the scoop. He plucked it out and found it was Pearson's billfold with the money intact. Pearson told the Odon Journal he recalled that he was delivering a load of coal to the garage when he lost the billfold.

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862—the same year that

IN INDIANA, Richard Gatling patented the machine gun. Gatling's invention, with six revolving barrels, was a startling new concept in ballistics. Folks toasted the inventor with sparkling steins of beer.

For then as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation. But beer means more than enjoyment to our state. The Brewing Industry contributes nearly 10 million tax dollars to Indiana each year, money that helps support our hospitals, parks and schools.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

Our Apologies
Editor, CITIZEN:

I was both surprised and disappointed to read the article in this week's Citizen about my airplane "accident." My surprise was caused by the exaggeration and inaccuracy of the article which magnified the incident out of all proportion. My disappointment was caused by the fact that your reporter did not bother to get his information from the best source available — myself. This tendency of most news media to exaggerate and to exploit the sensational is something that I deplore but I realize it helps sell newspapers.

Highlighting the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Love" is the Golden Text from the Bible (1 John 4): "God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him."
A citation to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (p. 4): "What we most need is the prayer of fervent desire for growth in grace, expressed in patience, meekness, love, and good deeds."

People will believe anything that you tell them, if you whisper it.

RAILS THAT NEVER RUST

Gleaming in the midday sun ... Chimering under the moon's pale glow ... afire with gold as the night headlights bear down ... rails that never rust.

Rolling wheels won't let them!

Some folks wonder whether it's important to go to Church every Sunday. Why not twice a month—or now and then—or at certain special seasons?

When the wheels stop rolling: RUST! When we relax in our quest of God or interrupt our pursuit of faith, then all the destructive influences in life begin to attack the soul.

The Church helps us keep open our spiritual right of way. And not only church-worship, but personal prayer, Bible reading and family worship right-fully deserve a place on our timetable.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Culver Residents Write Of Extended Four-Continent Trip

Miss Clara Stahl and Mrs. E. E. Zechiel have recently returned from the Holy Land and an extension trip which took them into four continents and 13 countries. The trip was made largely by air but with land travel through Syria, Jordan, Lebanon, and Israel.

From Rome they traveled to Cairo and Luxor, Egypt, the land where the voice of the ages speaks through the Sphinx and the pyramids; where the Nile flows majestically as it has done for thousands of years and where the Arabs still bow in their flowing robes and "steal silently away."

Very impressive were the tombs of the kings and the extensive ruins of Karnac and Thebes. Awe inspiring were the ruins of Baalbec which rival the Acropolis in Athens in splendor and magnificence. Old temples, palaces, mosques and tombs made familiar to us by Old Testament history and incidents in the life of Christ were marred at places by barbed wire and a stretch of no man's land, which indicate the tension between the Arabs and the Jews. The windows of the building on the legendary site of the Last Supper are filled with sand bags and guns behind them.

The Greek Island cruise provided stops at Crete where traces of civilization as early as 6000 B. C. may be found. A stop at Rhodes, an important place near Turkey, Greece, and Egypt, gave a glimpse of a happy place where sunshine is enjoyed every day of the year and the fields are fertile.

A stop at the Island of Kis provided a view of ruins and extensive excavating operations and a visit to the famous Plane Tree on the site where Hippocrates practiced medicine. The Island of Patmos, where John wrote Revelations was another stop.

Athens, with its nearly three million population seems a happy place with its Constitution Square and outdoor tables where the town's people gather till late hours every evening but the villagers live a very simple life with very meager salaries.

Beirut, Tel Aviv and Istanbul are interesting and progressive cities with much old world charm which is rapidly being replaced by the onward march of time.

Deer Hearing To Be Held On Monday, Aug. 6

The Division of Fish and Game of the Indiana Department of Conservation stated there will be a public hearing on Monday, August 6, 1962, for the purpose of discussing the open hunting seasons on white-tailed deer. This hearing will be held in Room 602, State Office Building, Indianapolis, Indiana at 10:00 a.m.

The following proposals are the opinions of the Conservation Department.

1 ARCHERS will be permitted to take a white-tailed deer during the period from November 1 through December 1, 1962, both dates inclusive. From November 1 through 21st, archers will be permitted to take one deer of either sex or of any age. During the period of November 22 through December 1, archers will be permitted only one male (buck) deer which must have at least one forked antler. It is to be proposed, however, that for the dates of November 22, 23 and 24, one deer of either sex and of any age may be taken within the area surrounding the Crane Naval Ammunition Depot. The exact boundaries of this area are the Depot property line on the inside and state roads 45, 58, 37 and 450 and U.S. Highway 50 on the outside.

2 The GUN season for taking white-tailed deer shall extend from November 22, through December 1, 1962, both dates inclusive. These hunters will be permitted one male (buck) deer with at least one forked antler. On November 22, 23 and 24 in the immediate area surrounding the Crane Naval Ammunition Depot, one deer of either sex may be taken. Boundaries of this special area are indicated above.

3 A special hunt is being proposed for the Crane Naval Ammunition Depot and Camp Atterbury for November 22, 23 and 24. At CNAD, hunters will be permitted two deer of either sex and of any age, but will be required to purchase a special license in addition to the regular deer license. The Camp Atterbury hunters will be permitted only one deer of either sex and of any age. Other details of these special hunts will be discussed during the hearing.

4 It will also be proposed to permit the taking of one deer of either sex and of any age within the boundaries of Jefferson Proving Ground during the entire season recommended for gun hunters.

VEGETABLE GARDENS NEED WATER

Your vegetable garden, like your lawn, needs water to do its best. Commercial vegetable growers irrigate, point out Purdue University extension horticulturists. And they find they get larger, better quality crops.

The horticulturists say there is a need for extra water at some time during every year, because lack of water retards vegetable growth before the plants wilt. Double yields are not at all uncommon when you irrigate your vegetables.

A general rule is to put on one inch a week when rain is sparse. When the weather is warm and the crops are large, you'll need to put on more than one inch of water. Don't just sprinkle—this encourages shallow rooting.

Check the amount of water you apply by collecting it in tin cans placed on your garden. To apply one inch of water, you will need to have a sprinkler on one spot for about an hour. Soils vary in their ability to soak up water, so don't apply the water so fast that it runs off the surface.

You don't need fancy equipment for watering your vegetable garden either. Your lawn sprinkler will do a good job.

If possible, water early in the day so the plant leaves dry off before evening.
