Voters Urged To Reject Marston School Plan

One of the most important questions to be voted on this coming Tuesday, Nov. 6, will be the rejection or the acceptance of the proposed Marston School Unit for Union Township.

The Union Township P. T. A., after careful and detailed study, unanimously voted against the proposed school unit as being not in the best interests of the township.

The Culver-Union Township School Reorganization Advisory Committee also, after 3½ years of careful study, recommends that the proposed Marston School Unit be rejected. The resolution, as passed, is contained below.

These organizations plus other civic organizations in the Culver community have rejected the Marston Plan. They urge that when you go to the polls next Tuesday, that you cast your vote AGAINST the proposed plan. The plan will do nothing for Culver and Union Township in solving the school unit problems. To vote for it is to saddle Union Township and other townships, with a large school debt, which the community does not want or deserve.

VOTE NO on the Marston School Unit Plan, Tuesday, Nov. 6. Do not be confused with the wording on the special ballot. The wording will read thus: County Committee for the Reorganization of School Corporations. This, or Marston School Unit Plan are one and the same. Again we urge you to vote NO.

RESOLUTION:

It resolved that the Culver-Union Township School Reorganization Advisory Committee goes on record as recommending a vote against the proposed Marston School Unit. It is the conviction of this committee that this proposed reorganization is not in the best interests of the citizens of Union Township.

Signed:

Eugene G. Benedict, Chr.
Wayne Kline
Mrs. Glenn Overmyer
Kenneth L. Cole
Donald Davis
Harry Edgington

Also endorsing the Resolution are:

Eugene G. Benedict, Union Twp. Trustee
Maurice Nelson, Advisory Board
Ralph Osborn Jr., Advisory Board
Wayne Kline, Advisory Board
Ralph Osborn Jr. is the Culver-Union Township representative to the County Reorganization Committee.

C.H.S. Opening Basketball Game Friday Night

Indians Meet Aubbee Here

By Earl Mishler

Hoping to rebound from one of the most dismal seasons in years, Culver's basketball Indians will open the 1962-63 campaign at home Friday night against Aubbeentown Township.

Coach Gene Crosley welcomes back five lettermen from last year's squad, which won only three times in 21 games. Seniors Rick Ervin, (who averaged 3.1 ppg last year), Wade Logan (2.8), and Thad Overmyer (3.9) and juniors Sam Lowry (5.7) and Paul White (8.0) all return after earning varsity letters last season.

The balance of the squad includes seniors Jerry Nelson (1.0), Dennis Shock and Robbie Ogden, junior Ned Davis, and sophomores Dave Lemar (1.4), Jim Boswell and Jim Lewis.

Coach Crosley, starting his second season at the Indians' helm, expresses confidence of a much better season than last year. Although Tom Boswell and Jim Carter, who did most of Culver's scoring last year, have graduated, Crosley feels his scoring attack will be good. The problem, he believes, is to improve the team's defense and rebounding. The popular Indiana mentor adds that the Indians have more experience than last season, and should have better balance.

Friday night's opening line-up is set with the exception of one position. White (5-7½) and Lowry (5-9) start their second season as first-string guards, Ervin (6-3) will start at center, and Overmyer (6-2½) has nailed down one forward slot. The other forward berth will be filled by either Logan (5-10) or Lemar (5-11½). In early practice sessions, Lowry, Ervin and Overmyer have been particularly impressive among the starters, while Boswell, Lewis and Davis have stood out among the reserves.

Two new opponents appear on Culver's schedule this year, Royal Center and North Caston. They replace Richland Center and Napanee.

One major rule change has occurred since last season. The swinging of elbows has been outlawed. If contact is made with an opposing player, of course, it is a personal foul; if no contact is made, it will be ruled a violation resulting in the loss of the ball.

The B-Team this year will be coached by Jim Cox. Four juniors, three sophomores and four freshmen make up the Papoose squad. In addition, Boswell and Lewis may see part time action with the B-Team. Coach Cox may chalk up a fine season with the Papooses, especially with those two boys in action.

Game time Friday is 6:45 for the B-Team game, with Varsity action following immediately.

CHS Gets 1962-63 Basketball Season Underway Nov. 2

It's basketball season again and time for the old school spirit to come forth as we support our Culver Indians during their 1962-63 schedule.

As a prelude to the season's opening game Friday night against Aubbee, to be played on the local hardwood, a pep rally, complete with a huge bonfire, is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 1, on the school playground. The school organization submitting the best pep poster at this rally will be awarded a trophy.

All home basketball games will be played on the same Eastern Standard time schedule — the B team game at 6:45 p.m. and the varsity game at 8 p.m. The gym doors will be open to the public at 6:15 p.m.

Season tickets for the nine home games are now on sale and priced at $3.00 for students and $4.50 for adults with all single game admissions priced at 75 cents. An added feature this year will be a pep block composed of over 100 students which should add much to the interest and enthusiasm of these home games.

450 Attend GOP Variety Show, Ainaly Speaks

An estimated crowd of over 450 people packed the Culver Lions Den last Thursday evening to enjoy the free supper, hear and meet the Union Township, County, and District candidates, and to enjoy an evening of entertainment furnished by the GOP Showboat.

The huge crowd was served sloppy joes, cole slaw, tomatoes, potato chips, coffee, milk, and home-made pie by the candidates. Mrs. Dewey Overmyer headed the township food committee.

Following the supper, Wilber Taylor, Union Township Republican chairman, introduced township candidates including Glenn L. Overmyer for trustee; Everett Gibbons, Judd T. Stinchcomb and Paul E. Steele for the advisory board.

Marshall County chairman Howard Menser introduced the county candidates and Charles W. Ainaly for Congressman from the Third District and Dr. Otis B. Bowen for State Representative.

Featured in the GOP Showboat were Mrs. William Johnson vocalist, Dick Hutchins a well-known Indianapolis area pianist, and Johnny Keek and his Dixieland music makers, Leroy the Great, noted television ventriloquist, entertained the small fry with his Sammy and demonstrated how anyone could make a hand puppet from household articles.

The Showboat was so well received, it held the crowd for over an hour after the regular program.

Ainaly, following his introduction, addressed the huge gathering. Ainaly, in his remarks, charged that "wasteful spending is running rampant in Washington."

He said his opponent, incumbent Congressman John Brademas, has been one of the worst offenders in the careless spending of our money.

"He has voted for every spending measure brought before Congress," Ainaly said.

"As late as October 2 of this year, the Congressman from our District voted for a 10 million dollar expenditure for an aquarium in Washington, in spite of the fact that the city already has a large aquarium operated by the United States Department of Commerce," Ainaly said.

"This is at the heart of the election this year," Ainaly said. "The people in our District will have the choice of electing a Republican, or letting Kennedy 'appoint a Democrat,'" he said.

"If elected I am going to do everything within my power to eliminate this wasteful government spending," Ainaly asserted. "Reduced federal government spending will make possible tax relief which our families so badly need," Ainaly concluded.

Culver Telephone Users Will Make Change Nov. 5

Culver telephone users will make a change next week in their procedure for paying bills and conducting other types of business transactions with Indiana Bell. David S. Orr, manager for the company, says the changes will be for the better.

Beginning Monday (Nov. 5), the telephone company will close its business office on Lakeshore Drive in a move designed, Orr explained, "to provide more convenience for our customers."

Telephone bills may be paid, after the change, either by personal visit to Kline's Appliance and TV Store at 120 North Main Street or by use of self-addressed envelopes provided by the company.

"Kline's is open from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Saturday, including the noon hour," Orr pointed out. "This will give customers a considerably more hours per week in which to transact telephone business."

Persons seeking information about telephone service will continue to dial V12-3301 but the calls will be answered by IRT service representatives in South Bend. Special equipment will switch the calls to South Bend automatically.

Installation and repair service, Orr emphasized, will not be affected by the new arrangements.

A GIFT SUBSCRIPTION to The Culver Citizen, the home town paper, is enjoyed 52 weeks a year. Only $4; $4.50 out-of-state. Beautiful gift subscription card with your name thereon mailed free.

GOP Showboat Will Close Season At Plymouth

The curtain will close on the "GOP SHOWBOAT" after she steams into Plymouth for the final performance of her 1962 Marshall County campaign voyage. The final production of the GOP variety show, which is billed as a Center Township-All County rally, is set for Thursday evening in the Lincoln Junior High School auditorium, with a free supper beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The Showboat was launched in West Township Sept. 6 and has visited each township port during the past two months, playing to capacity and enthusiastic crowds at every stop.

Thursday's rally, originally intended to include only Center Township, has been expanded to include all townships in order to accommodate people who missed earlier rallies.

The food committee for Center Township is headed by Bill Welch. Assisting will be Mrs. Charles Robertson and Stewart Robertson.

Singing in the chorus from Center Township will be Mrs. Wayne Graves, Lloyd Beatty, Charles Robertson, David Kinson and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gee.

Prominent stars of the show from Center Township are Mike Boys, master of ceremonies; Patty McDaniel, tap dancer; Johnny Keek, banjo player; Dorothy Keek, bass; John Wilson, clarinet; Jerry Wilhelm, trumpet; Jim Manuwal, drums; and Lee Ducharme, piano.

Also performing will be Kellie Holloway, 13-year-old baton twirler from West Township, who has garnered seven medals and six trophies for her twirling. Claudia Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Carson, is the GOP page girl representing Center Township and will sing in the chorus.

Mrs. Art Thomas is the director of the show and Mrs. Eugene Chipman and Mrs. Tom Goshorn are in charge of script and production.

Tri Kappa's Mental Health Coffees Well Attended

With the kind cooperation of the M & M Restaurant, the Coffee Shop, and the Culver Inn, who shared their facilities without charge, the annual Tri Kappa sponsored Mental Health Coffees held on Wednesday, Oct. 24, were most successful.

Proceeds from this project are used locally. This year they will go either to help meet the current needs of the Four-County Clinic at Warsaw, of which Marshall County is a member, or to build up the rehabilitation fund for outgoing Marshall County patients of Beatty Memorial Hospital who need financial assistance until they are able to re-establish themselves and find employment.

Tri Kappa wishes to thank the businessmen and women of the community for their enthusiastic response, as well as all others who so generously supported the Coffees.

Judith Anderson To Appear In Person At CMA

JUDITH ANDERSON

One of the nation's leading actresses, Dame Judith Anderson, will portray her two greatest roles in a performance Thursday, Nov. 1, at Culver Military Acadomy. Supported by a cast of eight, Miss Anderson will do a climactic condensation of Robinson Jeffers' Drama "Medea" and a complete dramatization of the role of "Lady Macbeth." The 8:15 p.m. performance will be given in the Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium as part of Culver's 1962-63 Concert-Theater Series.

An Australian, Miss Anderson has become one of the foremost actresses on the American stage. She first came to public attention in "Cobra," after an arduous apprenticeship. After that she scored in such well known productions as "Strange Interlude," "As You Desire Me," "Mourning Becomes Electra," "Come of Age," and "The Old Maid."

She made her first appearance as a classical actress in "Hamlet" and followed that the next season with her initial venture into the role of Lady Macbeth, which she recreated in six separate and highly successful productions. The first was given at the famed Old Vic in London, opposite Laurence Olivier. Later Miss Anderson came to New York for the portrayal of Lady Macbeth, opposite Maurice Evans, and to do "The Three Sisters" with an all-star cast including Katharine Cornell. Her most shattering performance came in the title role of "Medea." Miss Anderson carried the banner of her art abroad to her native Australia, to Paris where she played Medea as part of an international season at the theatre formerly graced by the great Sara Bernhardt, to whom she has most often been compared, and to Berlin. Among her many unforgettable screen appearances was Mrs. Danvers in "Rebecca." Miss Anderson regards as a high point in her career her knighthood by Queen Elizabeth II as a dame commander of the British Empire in 1960. She also has won two television emmies for two different performances of Lady Macbeth.

William J. Martin, director of theater at Culver, said that reserved seats are still available to the public for Thursday's performance. Telephone and box office orders may be placed at the reserved seat prices of $3.50 and $2.50.

'63 Wheat Program Offers Insurance Features

The diversion and price-support payments available to farmers who take part in the 1963 Wheat Stabilization Program will offer income protection no matter what natural disaster might affect their crop output. Carl W. Price, Chairman Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, pointed out today.

The diversion payment — for reducing wheat acreage and putting it to an approved conservation use — will be figured on the farm's established wheat yield per acre (based on 1959-60) times one-half the county price-support loan rate times the diverted wheat acreage.

Likewise, the extra price-support payment — to wheat growers who participate in the wheat-diversion program and who are also in compliance with their wheat acreage allotment — will be made at the rate of 18 cents per bushel on the normal yield of the farm's 1963 wheat acreage.

These payments, the Chairman explained, supplement the regular price-support loans and purchase agreements which will be available to farmers complying with their farm acreage allotment for the 1963 wheat crop. The national average price-support is $1.82 per bushel.

As approved by wheat farmers in a referendum last August, marketing quotas will be in effect for the 1963 wheat crop, and marketing quota penalties will apply to the "excess" wheat of growers who do not comply with their acreage allotments. Marketing quotas do not apply to farms that

ARRESTED SUNDAY FOR DISORDERLY CONDUCT

George Baker, Sr., of Culver was arrested last Sunday by Chief of Police Don Mikesell for disorderly conduct.

Baker appeared in the Justice of Peace Court of Harry A. Smeltzer and being unable to pay fine and costs of $42.50 was remitted to the County Jail in Plymouth.

NIPSCO workmen are shown in the company's first motorized vehicle about 1912. Operators had difficulty with the wooden rims which often dried out and caused the tires to slip off. The wheels were soaked in water over weekends to overcome the problem. Today, NIPSCO vehicles are maintained in nine district garages, and last year traveled more than 10 1/2 million miles — equivalent to 427 trips around the earth or 21 space flights to the moon and back.

Group Formed To Encourage Private Redevelopment

Mrs. William Drubert, Plymouth, has been elected chairman of a new Indiana state organization formed to co-ordinate local committees favoring urban renewal development "through dynamic private investment instead of federal tax programs," to be known as the "Indiana Free Enterprise Community Development League, Inc." An organization meeting of the new group will be held in Indianapolis early in November. Mrs. Ellsworth Bradley, Plymouth, is secretary-treasurer. Regional vice chairmen in northern Indiana are E. L. Abbott, Mishawaka; Richard Kirkman, South Bend; Bettie Fraser, Hammond; C. Killian Parker, M.D., Logansport.

Francis Parker, M.D., Logansport; Mrs. James Miley, Plymouth; Margaret Feltz, Brookville, and Harry Feltz, Batesville, will form the advisory committee.

In the incorporation papers, the purpose of the league is stated as an effort "to seek repeal of the Redevelopment Act of 1945, as amended, and U. S. Housing Act of 1949, as amended; to seek a mandatory requirement for a referendum in all urban renewal and redevelopment plans; to oppose by legal means redevelopment and urban renewal projects believed to be detrimental, unwarranted, illegal or unconstitutional," and other purposes.

"Locally each community group will work to encourage private community redevelopment," Mrs. Drubert said, "such as the Riley Center in downtown Indianapolis where a large section of the city is being redeveloped and producing new tax money instead of spending the taxpayers' wages."

SILVER LADEN — A Winamac auto dealer, A. J. Daugherty, had more than a pocketful of silver when a new car purchaser made partial payment with $950 in silver half dollars. Daugherty told The Pulaski County Democrat the purchaser explained he had been saving half dollars nearly four years in anticipation of buying a new car. The huge pile of coin weighed about 60 pounds.

CMA Schedules Evensongs To Begin Nov. 4

Culver Military Academy announces a series of five services of choral evensong to be held in Memorial Chapel on the first Sunday of each month.

The first of the series will be given at 5 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 4, and the Academy extends an invitation to the public to attend. Evensong services will be held at the same time Dec. 2, Jan. 6, Feb. 3, and March 3.

Services will be conducted by the Rev. Allen F. Bray III, Academy chaplain, and by Donald R. M. Paterson, choirmaster. For the choral aspects of the evensong, Paterson is training a small group of boy sopranos, tenors, and basses. Several members of this special group also sing with the Academy's 65-voice Chapel Choir during weekly non-denominational services.

The service will begin at 5 p.m. with a half-hour organ re-ital. Music performed in these recitals will include several of the most significant works from the literature, and will often include music that is designated for the particular season of the church year. The service also includes various general prayers and special prayers for the season, in addition to an appropriate Psalm, all of which are sung. The choir will also sing a motet or anthem appropriate to the season.

The Rev. Mr. Bray joined the Culver staff as chaplain and director of religious activities in 1958. He trained for the ministry at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., and Virginia Theological Seminary. Chaplain Bray holds the degree of Master of Sacred Theology from Seabury-Western Seminary, Evanston, Ill.

Paterson is associate instructor of music and choirmaster at Culver. He has taught as assistant in keyboard harmony at the School of Music, University of Michigan, and for three years was instructor in music at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., where he taught theory and analysis, organ, and choral ensemble. He has held organist-choirmaster position at Stockbridge, Mass., and Ann Arbor, Mich.

Post Office To Issue 4c Stamp For Christmas

Postmaster E. Wayne Mattox states that for the first time, the Post Office Department will issue a special Christmas stamp in 4c denomination which will be available to local patrons and collectors at the Culver Post Office on Nov. 2, 1962.

The stamp will serve a dual function — it will make available an issue that is seasonably decorative and at the same time provide preferred handling for greeting cards. It will remain on sale at post offices through Dec. 31, and will be available at the Philatelic Sales Agency, Post Office Department, Washington 25, D. C., indefinitely for the benefit of collectors.

The Christmas stamp, designed by Jim Crawford, a Post Office Department artist, depicts the traditional holiday symbols — burning tapers and an evergreen wreath adorned with a red bow. It will measure .75 by .87 of an inch, arranged vertically, and will be issued in panes of 100. A total of 500 million Christmas stamps will be printed in green and red on white paper.

Collectors desiring first day cancellations may send addressed envelopes, together with remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed, to the Postmaster, Pittsburgh 19, Penn. A close fitting enclosure of postal card thickness should be placed in each envelope and the flap either turned in or sealed. The envelope to the Postmaster should be endorsed "First Day Covers 4c Christmas Stamp." Orders for covers must not include requests for uncanceled stamps. Cover requests must be postmarked not later than Nov. 1, 1962.

Ainlay Lashes Out At Voting Record Of Brademas

Congressional Candidate Charles W. Ainlay speaking at Argos, asserted that America would be dangerously closer to socialism if all of the Democrats in Congress shared the left wing philosophy of Congressman John Brademas.

Ainlay said, "We should be thankful for the courage and convictions of Democrats in the House of Representatives and the United States Senate who refused to be rubber stamps for Kennedy."

Speaking before a township Republican Rally in Argos, Ainlay said that the Democrats with a 3 to 2 margin in the House of Representatives and almost a 2 to 1 margin in the Senate could have put through every Administration proposal they desired.

The G.O.P. Candidate said, "If all the Democrats in Congress had shared the A.D.A. (Americans for Democratic Action) philosophy of my opponent, the Congress would have passed:

(1) A farm bill under which the Department of Agriculture would control the production and marketing of every single farm commodity and reduce the farmer to a servant of the state;

(2) A broad federal program for elementary and secondary schools which many educators are convinced would lead to federal bureaucratic control over our local school system;

(3) A program of medical care under increased Social Security taxes which would be inadequate to really help our elderly people, but would put the foot in the door for ultimate socialized medicine;

(4) A vast public works program giving the President power to trigger public spending whenever and wherever he wished;

(5) A bill creating a Department of Urban Affairs with increased federal influence over our communities.

(6) A bill establishing a Youth Conservation Corps; and

(7) New "stand by" tax reduction authority for the President invading constitutional congressional authority.

"If elected to Congress I will vote my convictions — for what in good conscience I believe is best for the families of our nation and our district," Ainlay said.

Culver Schools Introduce More New Teachers

Pictured here are several of the seven new faculty members who have not as yet been introduced to the many patrons of the Culver Public Schools via The Culver Citizen:

CAROLYN REYNOLDS

Miss Reynolds is originally from Mitchell, Ind., and she is a June, 1962, graduate of the Purdue University School of Home Economics. Miss Reynolds was employed by the University as a counselor both summers following her last two years at Purdue. She did her student teaching at the Akron High School, Akron, Ind. While at Purdue, Miss Reynolds was a member of the Student National Education Association, the Home Economics Club, and the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship. She now is a member of the American Home Economics Association, the Indiana Home Economics Association, NEA, ISTA, and CTA. Miss Reynolds is a ninth grade class sponsor, and is the faculty sponsor of the Pep Club. Miss Reynolds is a fine beginning teacher.

Wagner has had much experience in "in action" science such as work for the Indiana Poultry Association, Michigan Poultry Association, and the Purdue Experiment Station. Mr. Wagner has some 20 years of science experience out in the actual working field. With this training and experience as a nucleus from which to draw, Mr. Wagner can give our sixth graders some real basic understandings as preparations for living in a science-centered world. Mr. Wagner stays all week days in Culver and returns to his Goshen home on weekends. The Wagner offspring have all reached adulthood.

GEORGE VONDRA

George Vondra is one of the three fifth grade teachers. He is a graduate of Chicago Teachers College with a B.S. in Education from that institution in 1957. Mr. Vondra has taught in West Township Schools, Plymouth Schools, and the Grovertown Schools. The Vondras own their own home in Argos, Ind., where they live with their three school-age sons. Mr. Vondra is a quietly reserved man who is now doing what he says is his first love — teaching fifth graders.

CALVIN REVIS

Calvin Revis is one of three sixth grade teachers and a man with quite a depth of background. He attended Spartanburg Junior College and was given a scholastic scholarship to Wofford College, Spartanburg, S.C. With his training in theology Mr. Revis spent several years as a rural pastor before supplementing his training at Marion College, Marion, Ind. Mr. Revis has work from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio; Ball State Teachers College; and from Indiana University from which institution he expects to receive his Master of Science Degree in Elementary Education this coming year. Mr. Revis, his wife, and their two boys and two girls make their home in North Judson, Ind.

JEAN L. SCHRICKER

Jean L. Schricker (Mrs. George W. Schricker) now makes Plymouth, Ind., her home. She is formerly a native of Knox, Ind. This fine fifth grade teacher has taught in Warsaw, Ellettsville, Tyner, and Plymouth. The Schrickers have two children — Sara, 12 years of age, and George, Jr., 10 years of age.

ADAM WAGNER

Adam Wagner is the new sixth grade science teacher. A graduate of Purdue University and Goshen College, Mr. Wagner has many courses in genetics, nutrition, anatomy, biology, chemistry, entomology, and botany. Mr.

ROBERT H. HORBAN

Robert H. Horban, a veteran of the Pacific in World War II as a member of the Army Air Corps, is a graduate of DePaul University, Chicago, Illinois, with a B.A. Degree. Mr. Horban did operate his own retail floral shop in Chicago for some five years. He returned to education in 1961-62 by attending Manchester College and qualifying himself to teach in elementary schools. Mr. Horban teaches one of the three rooms of fourth graders. Mr. and Mrs. Horban have their home near Richland Center where they live with their five children.

THE HUGH HARPERS LEAVE FOR FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Harper left Saturday morning for Denedin, Fla., where they will spend the winter. Enroute they plan to visit relatives in Ohio and see points of interest in Pennsylvania, Baltimore, Md., and Wilmington, S.C. On their trip they will also visit in the homes of their daughters, Betty and Trinka, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Ashworth at Columbia, S.C., and Capt. and Mrs. S. K. Otto at Albany, Ga.

DIG DEEP — Here is an example of multiple taxation. The total state and federal annual taxes on a 4-axle tractor-trailer combination in Indiana equals the cost of the tractor and trailer in only six years' time.

Vacationing In The Mediterranean

Photographed Oct. 15 aboard American Export Lines' S. S. Atlantic as she sailed from New York are Col. and Mrs. R. H. Shanks and daughter, Barbara, of Culver. They are off for a vacation in the Mediterranean.

One American family in every five will move to a new address this year. So live that you help to answer the world's problems—not add to them.

C.M.A. Eagles Beat Hobart River Forest

Culver Military Academy's high-flying Eagles zero in on Bloomington University High School Friday night in a bid to continue their current football winning streak.

Coach Russ Oliver's grid eleven hopped on Hobart River Forest here Saturday for a 19-6 victory. The triumph was Culver's fourth in succession and fifth in six games. A large Fall Festival and Fathers Weekend gathering of parents and guests saw the Eagles avenge a frustrating game last year in which Hobart managed a 6-6 tie.

Friday's 7:30 p.m. game at Bloomington is Culver's next-to-last game of the season and presents a formidable obstacle to Coach Oliver's hopes for a top-notch season. University School has a 6-2 record. The Academy will close the 1962 season here Nov. 10 against Schlarman High School, Danville, Ill.

Culver scored touchdowns in each of the first three periods against Hobart, who managed to push the Eagles around in the last period when it was too late to have any bearing on the outcome. The Eagles scored early in the first period on a Joe Williamson-to-Chris Carson aerial that covered 11 yards. Before Hobart was able to muster any kind of an offensive, the Academy eleven scored again at the opening of the second period on a half-yard plunge by fullback Chris Hinkle. Hinkle's TD ended a sustained drive of 76 yards.

For the second week in succession, the Eagles pulled a kickoff play for a touchdown. Hobart booted the second half kickoff to the Culver 30. John Culbertson took the kick and handed off to halfback Tom Lloyd, who streaked 70 yards for the score just as he did a week earlier against St. John's. Rosie Rosenberg booted the placement to end Culver's share of the scoring. Hobart broke into the scoring column in the last period on a 10-yard pass, Dick Lile to Wayne Bernoska.

BUY JEANS FOR COMFORT

Most mothers consider blue jeans a basic part of their child's wardrobe. But jeans are no longer just blue. They now come in red, green, gray, brown, tan and black, as well.

No matter which color you choose, you can select jeans that fit comfortably. But don't buy by age or straight size, says Frieda Stoll, clothing specialist at Purdue University.

Some manufacturers make jeans in a range of body proportions — slim, regular, and husky. Thus, jeans sized the same may vary as much as four inches in the waist according to the proportion selected. Miss Stoll recommends reading the label or hang tag to see if the measurements of the jeans correspond to your child's needs.

Standard cut jeans vary from Western or Levi cut ones, too. The Levis have slim hips and tapered legs, and usually fit boys well. Standard cut jeans are fuller and are often preferred for girls.

For extra wear, jeans may have nylon thread reinforcing the denim fabric. If you iron reinforced jeans use a warm, not hot, iron to avoid melting the nylon. Sometimes jeans are made with vulcanized double knees. This process adds a layer of heavy cotton to the inside of the trouser legs.

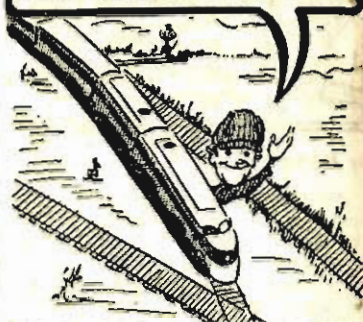

Mothers may find color fading or bleeding cause problems in washing. Jeans with a Vat Dyed label have a high degree of colorfastness in laundering and fading from light, points out the specialist. However, even these dyes tend to fade at points of great wear — such as knees and pockets.

Many people who keep working after they become 65 can get monthly social security checks despite their earnings. Working people over 65 should visit their nearest social security office to see if they're eligible for benefits, the Social Security Administration urges.

Federation Of Clubs Sponsors College Workshop

Final arrangements have been completed at Goshen College for the Workshop sponsored by Indiana Federation of Clubs in cooperation with the college, for Nov. 15.

The Workshop is being designated as "A Day at College for Clubwomen." It is part of the "Back To School" program in Adult Education being emphasized by the Dept. of Education of Indiana Federation of Clubs. Mrs. Parke M. Jessup, Westfield, is chairman of this department.

This workshop is one of seven that have been arranged at other colleges and universities. The others are: Ball State Teachers College, Nov. 13; Indiana University Extension at Gary, Nov. 14; Hanover College, Nov. 15; Purdue University, Nov. 17; Indiana University, Nov. 26; and Butler University, Nov. 28.

These workshops are not limited to members of federated clubs — any woman may attend them. If members cannot attend all day, they are invited for any part of a day. No previous registration is necessary. There is a fee of $3 for a full day. The workshop consists of 4 lectures by faculty members. Subjects are varied.

The program at Goshen College Nov. 15 is as follows:

9:00-9:20 — Chapel in new Church-Chapel bldg. (elective)
Morning session: "Berlin Situation" by Dr. John S. Oyer, prof. of History. "Contemporary Art" with slides by Dr. Mary K. Oyer, prof. Fine Arts.

Afternoon session: "American Foreign Relations" by Dr. Willard H. Smith, prof. of Political Science. "New Dimensions in Religious Drama" by Dr. Roy Umble, prof. Speech.

Members of all federated clubs in the area of Goshen College are urged to attend this workshop. This includes Marshall County which has 13 federated clubs, with a total membership of 433. Mrs. Couda Martin, Bourbon, is president of Marshall County Federation of Clubs. This county is part of the federation's 13th district, and Mrs. George Phillips, Culver, is president of 13th district.

OLD FAITHFUL — A 78-year-old Dearborn County man, John Mason, says of automobiles, "They don't make 'em like they used to." Mason, who lives at Kyle, pats his Model T Ford that he has driven for 36 years and says he'll never part with it. Asked how many miles he's driven it he says, "The Lord only knows and he hasn't told me."

EXPANDED "FILMS FOR FREEDOM" OFFERED TO GROUPS FREE

"Films for Freedom," an anthology of documentary and dramatic films ranging in subject matter from Teddy Roosevelt's rough riders to the forthcoming landings on the moon, is available on a free-loan basis to clubs, churches, industrial plants, colleges and other community groups from Association Films, Inc. The film project, is comprised of 80 films that deal with many aspects of freedom, democracy, free-world trade, defense, and the accomplishments of the capitalistic system here and abroad.

The success of the offering last Spring promoted Association Films to greatly enlarge the project, by adding films and special categories. In addition to such areas of interest as "Spokesmen for Freedom" (biographical films) and "The Alien Philosophies," the freedom project now includes "Land of Freedom" (historic points of interest) and "Expanding Freedom's Frontiers" (peaceful exploration of outerspace). A brochure describing "Films for Freedom" may be had by writing Association Films, Inc., 347 Madison Avenue, New York 17, N.Y.

Don't throw away those coffee grounds! Fill a large box with a couple of inches of dirt, put fish worms in the box, and then cover with nice, fresh coffee grounds. As a result of your efforts (and don't forget to thank the Little Woman for saving yesterday's coffee) you'll have a good supply of worms on hand, lively as the day you caught 'em, for a long time.

A Letter to the Voters of Marshall County

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Voter:

Since my duties as County Clerk are keeping me quite busy and as I wish to continue giving efficient service to the people of Marshall County, I find it impossible to contact each of you personally.

I hope my tenure of office has met with your approval. If I am re-elected Clerk of the Circuit Court, I will continue the same type of service to the people of this County.

Your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated in the November election.

Sincerely,

Every fisherman knows that his car needs antifreeze when cold weather sets in or he's headed for trouble. But how many fishermen have thought of giving their fishing lines the same treatment? If you go ice fishing and have had your fishing line freeze, you might try soaking it in antifreeze before your next trip. You'll be surprised to learn that the line won't freeze and one taking lasts for quite a while. Now all you need is a warm pair of earmuffs.

FURNITURE PIECES OFFER STORAGE SPACE

If storing your family's belongings is a problem, consider using some of the portable storage pieces, suggests Ezelle Johnson, home furnishings specialist at Purdue University.

Small chests, room dividers and conveniently shaped shelving pieces have some advantages that permanent, built-in storage does not. First and foremost, they can be rearranged in the room, or moved into a different room and used in another way.

Most of this furniture is designed for several purposes, such as a bookcase room divider, or a cabinet TV console. The pieces come in different sizes and styles, so you can find the piece appropriate for your present decorating plan. They are convenient and hold items where they can be easily seen.

Instead of a regular end table, the specialist suggests using a small chest or cabinet beside a chair. Then you can keep magazines and hand-work easily accessible.

Small storage pieces can hold the family's hobby interests, collections and necessary items where they are needed and used. Storage units also help maintain order by providing a "place for everything."

Some storage pieces are supported by tension poles that fit between the floor and ceiling. They may make cabinet type doors as well as shelves. Adaptable to any room in the house, they can be used from either side and make good room dividers.

If you want to store many things for longer periods of time, there are larger pieces, such as a library-type bookshelf that is six to eight feet tall. This is useful for dishes, books, magazines and various items.

Union Township History Donated To Historical Society

The Citizen is happy to announce that, due to the article contained in the Sept. 26th Citizen issue and the conscientious efforts of Frank Brooke, the Marshall County Historical Society in Plymouth is now the proud recipient of a copy of "One Township's Yesterdays," a history of Union Township authored by the late Ed R. Corwin.

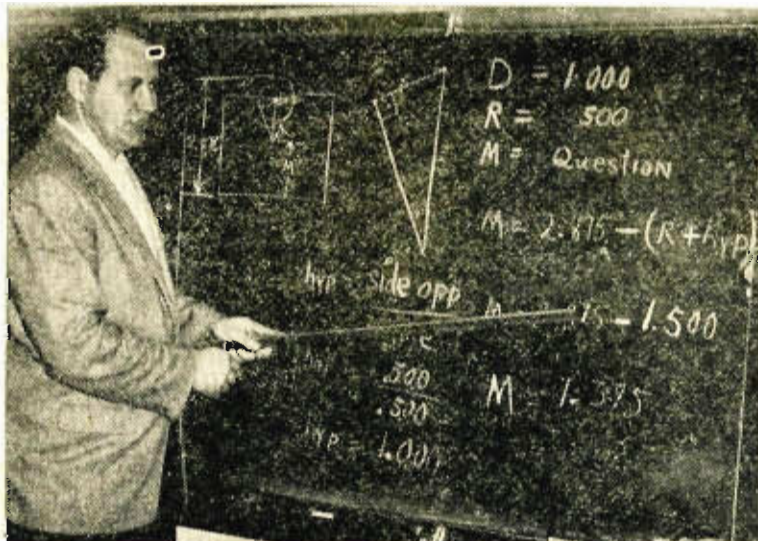

The local appeal for this publication was made by Mrs. Norman Scruggs, librarian at the Culver Public Library, as part of her concentrated effort for the past three years to secure same.

Mr. Brooke clipped the article and contacted Mr. Corwin's widow, now a resident of Beacon, New York, who generously responded with two copies of the now almost extinct volume — one for Mr. Brooke, and the other for the Historical Society.

Mrs. Scruggs presented this valuable addition to the Marshall County Historical Society on Oct. 20.

Babson Discusses Growth Stocks

3 Growth Areas To Be Considered

Babson Park, Mass. — There are three prominent classes of stocks being talked about today: (1) the old-line investment stocks, included primarily the Dow-Jones Industrial Average's thirty stocks; (2) the speculative electronics stocks; and (3) a class which I consider "growth" stocks, which group I would like to discuss today.

What Is A Growth Stock?
Unfortunately, the general public tends to misunderstand the term "growth." As a result, it is often misused. For example, many people confuse real growth issues with the more transitory glamour situations. The sad part of it is that the growth label is most often misapplied during the latter stages of a bull market when stocks are overpriced.

A real growth stock is one which has a proven record of increasing profits, sales, and dividend payments. Let me stress that true growth must include rising trends in both sales and profits. An increase in sales without a commensurate rise in profits is usually a sign of keen competition, cost squeeze, and/or inefficient managements.

Basic Growth Factors
Growth is the result of a combination of factors which enables an industry or company to increase its sales and profits over a period of years. One of the fundamental growth forces is population increase. This is the basis of potential demand for goods and services. However, as India, China, and some other nations demonstrate, purchasing power must grow along with population if an effective demand is to be created. When population growth outstrips the rise in purchasing power, the result is more likely economic stagnation and increased poverty.

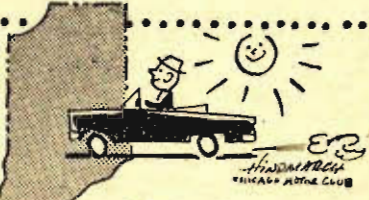

Technological advances constitute another vital growth force. This is quite obvious at the present time because of the great interest in science. In the form of automation, for example, technological advances can raise the level of productivity and lower production and distribution costs. The resultant increase in efficiency can do much to promote growth. Scientific breakthroughs and new inventions create improved products, which in turn create employment and investment opportunities. Remember, however, that while scientific progress opens up new vistas, it can also stymie the growth in certain existing fields because of obsolescence and change. In a sense this reminds me of Newton's Law of Action and Reaction!

How To Recognize Growth Stocks
Selection of growth stocks involves considerable judgment because indiscriminate purchases can be very costly. Many factors must be carefully weighed. Without getting involved in the more technical details, I suggest use of at least the following benchmarks when choosing growth stocks. Look first for a better-than-average record of increased sales and profits, of around 5% a year for at least five years. Allowances must be made for interruptions in the growth trend due to recessions, strikes, etc., but growth stocks usually bounce back strongly from these setbacks. Most growth companies plow back a substantial part of each year's earnings. This builds up future earning power and allows for internal financing of future expansion.

I personally pay close attention to companies which are strong on research and development work. This is an indispensable key to continued growth and a bulwark of defense against competition. I also try to select companies which have the "inside track," in terms of patent rights, trademarks, mineral rights and re-

Cheers To The Cheerleaders!

By Joan Dillon
Come with me, for I would like you to have a first-hand account of the 1962-63 cheerleading try-outs. We will make ourselves at home here in the near-empty bleachers. Look at all of the candidates doing their split jumps and practice yells!

While the guys and gals are warming up, we can look around and see the judges and spectators drifting into the gymnasium and taking their special places. The ninth graders are forming the cheering block all around us. The judges are taking their places apart from the others so they can confer and vote in the privacy of their own little group. We find on this committee a boy and a girl from each of the upper four grades. The faculty is represented by Gene Crosley, basketball coach; James Cox, track coach, and Miss Carolyn Reynolds, the cheerleading sponsor.

Violet Overmyer is giving a preparatory talk to the judges. It is important that they realize the cheerleaders are to be the best possible. Yes, they must have the ability, but another important factor is the person's standards. These girls will represent all of Culver High School. The judges must not be influenced by personal friendships or dislikes.

There are 26 candidates for cheerleaders this year. The judges will choose four Varsity, four B-team, and three Freshman cheerleaders, and location.

Importance Of Timing
During the recent market slump, the so-called growth issues took a fearsome pounding. This emphasizes the need to be patient for worthwhile buying points, as well as to be patient for the growth to occur. At this juncture, a good deal of the froth has been taken off the price of stocks. While some further decline may occur, — barring Cuba, an increasing number of growth issues are becoming more realistically priced.

I SHOULD NOT MENTION SPECIFIC STOCK "BUYS" IN THIS COLUMN. READERS HOWEVER, COULD START THEIR SEARCH FOR GROWTH STOCKS AMONGST THE NATURAL GAS, LIFE INSURANCE, UTILITIES SERVING GROWING REGIONS, AND OFFICE EQUIPMENT FIELDS. SOME OF THE SHAKEN-DOWN DRUG, CHEMICAL, AND TEXTBOOK PUBLISHING STOCKS ARE ALSO BECOMING MORE ATTRACTIVELY PRICED.

leaders. The requirement to be a Varsity cheerleader is to have had one year of B-team cheerleading experience. Any member of the Freshman, Sophomore, or Junior classes may be elected a B-team cheerleader. Freshman yell leaders must be members of the Freshman class and not a B-team cheerleader.

Oh, look! Things are getting underway! The girls competing for the A-team cheerleaders are coming out on the floor, one at a time. Each girl leads the cheer of her choice. The judges are choosing various combinations as a way of really comparing the girls at work. The judges are voting! Although the candidates are not visible, nor can we read their minds, I believe it is safe to say each girl is hoping against hope her name will be read in a few minutes.

Miss Overmyer is reading the names from the list! Cheryl Dillon, Sherrill Edgington, Sheryl Hohman, and Martha McAllister are the Varsity cheerleaders for the 1962-63 basketball season! Miss Hohman, Miss Edgington, and Miss Dillon are Seniors while Miss McAllister is a Junior.

The B-team candidates are now exhibiting their talents as cheerleaders. We are following the same procedure. After all lead a yell individually, we see the chosen combinations. There is a lot of idle chatter as the judges vote! Each spectator is voicing his or her opinion. "Who will win?" is the question we all ask. Miss Overmyer is standing up and the gym is now so quiet we could hear a pin drop, given the chance!

Larry Banks, Lonnie Darosci, Kathy Easterday, and Linda Thurin are probably the happiest people on the floor at this time. They are the B-team cheerleaders for the forthcoming season! The three young ladies are Sophomores and Larry is a Freshman. This is the first time in many years that Culver has had a boy as one of the cheerleaders.

OLD STUFF — Newspapers these days are filled with stories of muggings, sluggings and other such disorders but it seems such goings-on are nothing new. The Mishawaka Enterprise picked up this item from its files of 1862, exactly 100 years ago: "From the number of disgraceful street fights that have occurred here lately, one might infer that Mishawaka is degenerating. Such occurrences are to be regretted and should be stopped by some means. We understand the building of a calaboose for the confinement of disorderly persons is under contemplation."

New Teacher Is Former CHS Grad

By Linda Nelson and Paul White
The second new teacher to be interviewed this year is our English teacher, Mrs. Robert Kline. She was born in Culver and graduated from our high school under the maiden name, Carolyn Boswell.

Mrs. Kline attended Hanover College where she obtained her B.A. degree. The day after her graduation she left for Europe. She spent a month on the continent and about two months bicycling through England and Scotland. After her trip she returned to Indiana and taught for a year at Bremen High School. The following fall Mrs. Kline attended Northwestern University where she acquired her M.A. degree. She then taught English at Ottawa High School in Ottawa, Ill. After one year at Ottawa she returned to her home town and became a member of the Culver High School faculty. She teaches freshman, junior, and senior English. She is also sponsor of the Tomahawk Staff.

Mrs. Kline says her students usually show much interest in her classes. She believes it is necessary for students to have homework, but she does not believe the homework should be done in class. She believes class time should be spent in clearing up the doubts and questions the students may have and in having discussions.

Mrs. Kline noticed that many changes have been made in our school since she was a student here. She likes the additions of the French course, eighth period, and vocabulary building for the seventh and eighth graders. She believes by adding the eighth period it gives the students a chance to participate in school activities and talk to their teachers. She stated that the students do not have as long a noon hour now as they did when she went to high school. The longer noon hour promoted an intramural program which she feels added more school spirit. Another change which she likes, however, is that of rules pertaining to dress. She states that this aids discipline and helps students be more conscious of their appearance.

Mrs. Kline says that sometimes she questions the advantages of students taking five solids. She explained that quite often their work is spread out too thinly, where with four solids a student would have more time to do outside work. One thing that she also emphasized was that of extra reading. She said many colleges are promoting this and she believes a student should try to read as much as possible to widen his knowledge of life.

Our last question pertaining to school concerned extra-curricular activities. She thinks that many students overdo it when it comes to extra activities. Although it is up to the individual person, she thinks that the student should make limitations in the field.

As far as likes and dislikes, Mrs. Kline stated very few. She likes water sports and is an avid basketball fan. The only thing she mentioned that she dislikes is macaroni and cheese.

We now see the candidates for Freshman yell leaders. The judges are voting for the last time! We are all tense again and will be until Miss Overmyer's voice can be heard over the dull roar of our conversations! At last! The Freshman squad has as its yell leaders — Sheryl Fisher, Cheryl Harmon, and Holly Thompson.

Whew! I am rather glad this takes place only once a year; it is trying on us all! The guys and girls are panting from all the exercise but their job has just begun! You and I are getting our vocal chords in shape so we will be ready to yell our hardest at the games this season!

As we find ourselves caught in the throng of anxious congratulators (ouch) tromping towards the door, I want to say I have enjoyed pointing out to you the procedure taken in the election of Culver's cheerleaders. These students are taking on a big responsibility. Let us show our appreciation by attending the basketball games this season. The players, as well as the yell leaders, will appreciate our interest. We'll see you at the first game when Culver meets Aubree on Friday, Nov. 2.

Don't Make Me Older Than I Am!

By Joan Dillon and Tom Yoocom
Mr. Joseph Lee Zellers made this plea used in the title when we asked how he compared the music of his generation to that of ours. He informed us that Elvis was in his prime when our personality was a senior in high school! (Sorry, Mr. Zellers!)

Mr. Zeller's home town is Winamac where he graduated in 1956 and where he now resides. Tulane College, in New Orleans, submitted his name for a basketball scholarship to a junior college in Mississippi. He spent his freshman year at this Junior College. This was two years after he received his high school diploma. While he was in Mississippi, he traveled extensively in the South. Mr. Zellers graduated from Indiana State Teacher's College in Terre Haute as a member of the class of 1962. He participated in basketball and baseball in high school and basketball in college.

At present Mr. Zellers teaches junior high social studies, United States history, and world history. His pet peeve in the classroom is people who talk when he is trying to explain something. Another thing he can not stand is for someone to rock a rocking chair with his foot when the chair is unoccupied!

Although this bachelor's favorite food is filet mignon, he has come to the conclusion that after Mississippi food, he can eat anything!

He is indifferent to freckles, his favorite color is blue, and after a moment of consideration he decided electricity is one of the greater inventions.

He wanted to become a professional athlete, but now bowls and plays basketball for relaxation. His life-long ambition is to be as good a teacher as possible.

As of yet, he has not spent any time in the armed forces and has no plans to unless the circumstances arise.

We would like Mr. Zellers to know we like having a teacher of our own generation among us.

Susan Thews and Susan Shei Win Twirling Honors

A National Baton Twirling Association, Class A, open contest, was held in the Buckeye Central High School at New Washington, Ohio, on Saturday, Oct. 27, with two of our local grade school students winning coveted honors.

Susan Thews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Thews and who is in the seventh grade, placed third in the advanced class of eight contestants. She received a miniature boot trophy.

Susan Shei, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shei and a fourth grader, placed second in the advanced class of six contestants. She also received a miniature boot trophy.

The above named baton students were weekend guests of their teacher, Miss Connie Leavell, who drove them, along with three more of her students, to the Ohio contest. Miss Leavell is also an N.B.T.A. judge, and a sophomore student and baton twirler at Purdue University.

Dr. Crane's Column Of Special Interest To Culverites

The following article has a special interest locally. Written by Dr. George W. Crane under the title "The Worry Clinic" which is a syndicated feature, Dr. Crane praises Dale W. McMillen, Sr. of Fort Wayne for his interest in boys of 8 1/2 to 15 years of age.

The McMillen family has become a very important segment of Culver residencies. Mr. McMillen's daughter is Mrs. Charles W. Crowe of 2098 East Shore Drive. Mrs. Crowe was the former Mary Jane McMillen, Dr. and Mrs. Crowe sold their Fort Wayne home and Culver is now their permanent residence. Harold W. McMillen, a son, is a summer resident of Culver. Mr. and Mrs. McMillen have recently completed remodeling the former Wright Cottage at 1054 East Shore Drive, which they purchased this past year.

Dale W. McMillen Jr., another son, is on the board of Directors of the Culver Military Academy. Several grandsons of the McMillen families have or are attending the Academy.

We reprint Dr. Crane's column by special permission from the Hopkins Syndicate and Dr. Crane.

The Worry Clinic

Dr. George W. Crane

CASE N-441: Dale W. McMillen Sr., about 82 years old, is one of America's noblemen.

He belongs in the category of such great benefactors as Andrew Carnegie, Julius Rosenwald, Andrew Mellon et al.

For he is a superb applied psychologist!

And I say that not because he zoomed the Central Soya Company to a quarter of a billion dollar annual business.

But chiefly because he organized a unique type of baseball league for boys 8 1/2 to 15.

You are doubtless already familiar with the splendid Little League Baseball organization.

BUT MR. "MAC," as the boys affectionately greet him, watched the Little Leagues and noted that about half of the youngsters who want to play on a team, don't get to do so. They are rejected.

He realized that this idea of social rejection can lead to many dire consequences in later life, including the shut-in type of personality that even ends in a mental sanitarium.

So, at his own expense, he set up his Wildcat Baseball League, whose motto is this:

"Everybody makes the team!"

McMILLEN started his Wildcat League in June, 1961. Already it has zoomed until thousands of youngsters are gaining valuable training in good sportsmanship through its many teams.

Better yet, they are getting a little ego inflation at being a member of a team.

The boys from 8 1/2 to 10 are members of the Kitty teams.

Those 11 to 12 belong to the Kat teams. And those from 13 to 15 are members of the Tiger teams.

WHAT HE IS doing in Fort Wayne and surrounding areas of northern Indiana, should immediately be put into practice all over America. In fact, it would be a boon to the entire world!

For many a timid youngster, whose daddy is too busy to help the boy learn how to catch a ball or make a base hit, is by-passed when the usual sandlot captains choose their players from a crowd of neighborhood kids.

Eagerly, almost pathetically hungry to make the team, such a boy may stand up straight and almost on tiptoes, vainly hoping one or the other of the captains selects him.

"Aw, he's got butterfingers," rudely comment the captains. "We don't want him. Besides, he always strikes out!"

IMAGINE THE humiliation and dejection of such a boy from a sheltered home whose daddy has been too preoccupied with his law or medical or business problems to realize that social acceptance is a child's major problem.

So I am happy to salute Mr. Mac. And doubly so since his type of constructive youth work is not loaded on the back of us taxpayers!

Social security beneficiaries must notify their social security office immediately if their 1962 earnings will exceed $1,200 or if they now expect to earn more than they had estimated in their reports filed earlier this year. According to the South Bend, Ind., Social Security Office, if these increases are not reported, future benefits may be withheld to make up for overpayment.

Republican Representatives Uphold Constitutional Principles

Donald C. Bruce, Republican Representative in the House, along with other Republican House members, came out on top with the highest ratings as reported by the Americans for Constitutional Action in their analysis of congressional voting. Bruce was given a full 100% count.

The ACC is a group that rates lawmakers according to their votes on measures which "have a significant bearing on the preservation of the spirit and principals of the Constitution as these were defined by the founding fathers of our Republic."

Senator Homer E. Capehart rated 76 per cent from 1955 to now and rated an 81 per cent in the Congress just ended. Senator Vance Hartke, Democrat, rated a tiny 2 per cent.

The Indiana House delegation scored the following on the annual tally of the organization:

	1957-62	87th Cong.
Ray Madden (D)	6	0
Charles A. Halleck (R)	83	82
John Brademas (D)	0	0
E. Ross Adair (R)	90	87

J. Edward Roush (D)	9	12
Richard Roudebush (R)	91	91
William G. Bray (R)	73	74
Winfield K. Denton (D)	15	9
Ralph Harvey (R)	87	87
Donald C. Bruce (R)	100	100

Vote Republican on Nov. 6 for strong constitutional government — vote for Charles Ainlay — his vote will strengthen constitutional principles.

FILL 'ER UP — A Johnson County man, Dr. Kenneth I. Sheek, has a hobby of growing trees and doing a bit of farming on a 15-acre plot near Greenwood. For use in watering his trees he bought an old fire truck on which was mounted a 400 gallon water tank. One day fire broke out in a field of new mown timothy hay and spread to the trees. The old fire truck was ready to go but the water tank was empty, the supply having been used up a couple of days previously in watering the trees. "That tank will be kept full from now on," Dr. Sheek told Greenwood firemen who came to his assistance.

Folk Singer Will Appear At CMA Monday, Nov. 5

JOAN BAEZ

Joan Baez, the most-sought after performer in the folk-music world at present, has been booked for a performance at Culver Military Academy at 8:15 p.m., Nov. 5.

Miss Baez will appear before the student body, faculty, and general public as part of Culver's annual Concert-Theater Series.

Hailed by music critics as the "queen of the folk singers," Miss Baez is 19 years old and of Mexican — Irish descent. She began by performing in Boston and Cambridge coffee houses only a few years ago, and now has reached the point where her nationwide esteem as a folk singer has meant sold-out houses.

Robert Shelton, New York Times' critic, wrote recently:

"Her enormous talent springs from a soprano voice, surprisingly never trained, that has a purity, penetrating clarity and control that not a few art singers would envy — Miss Baez, who accompanies herself skillfully on the guitar, neither emulates ethnic performers nor does she rely on the embellishments many theatrical city folk singers employ — Her manner was one of the tasteful restraint of an Isla Cameron or Jean Ritchie, with perhaps even greater vocal and instrumental resources."

After an appearance in Boston, the Christian Science Monitor said: "Miss Baez's voice has been linked with word purity so often that it seems anticlimactic to state that her voice is indeed pure."

William J. Martin, director of theater at Culver, said tickets will be made available to the public in addition to those already purchased as season subscriptions to the Concert-Theater Series. Reserved seats are $3.50 and $2.50 for Miss Baez's performance, and mail or telephone orders will be accepted by contacting William J. Martin, Culver Military Academy, Culver, Indiana.

Indiana Author Publishes First Book Today

Gladys Vanderburg Turner, well-known Indiana conservationist, is the author of "Hold Fast to Your Dream," being published today by Exposition Press of New York.

Although Mrs. Turner has been a prolific and widely published writer for more than thirty years, "Hold Fast to Your Dream" represents her first booklength publication.

Mrs. Turner is a hoosier and proud of it. With genuine modesty and utterly unsophisticated verve, she writes succinctly and appealingly of the many things closest to her heart.

Her book is largely autobiographical with a charming account of the trials of an author, chatty anecdotes, and some tales of family history.

Gladys Turner is no stranger to the reading public of Indiana. Her column, "Musing from Sunny Bend," is published by the "Indiana Conservationist," and she is the author of "This, Too, is America," a series featuring the national parks and national monuments, published by "Indiana Conservation Cavalcade." She also contributed to the state's conservation magazine, "Outdoor Indiana" under the editorship of W. L. Thompson. She is an active member of the Indianapolis branch of American Pen Women.

SHOULDER DISLOCATION

THE shoulder is the articulation most prone to subluxation. In other words, dislocation of the shoulder is fairly common.

There is a tendency, especially in younger persons, for recurrences of displacement at the shoulder. The second dislocation of the shoulder follows injury of less intensity than that required to dislocate a normal shoulder. Habitual dislocation is a term frequently used in connection with recurrent dislocation.

The typical patient with recurrent dislocation of the shoulder is a young person of athletic habit.

In recurrent dislocation, it seems there is no significant differences between the right and left side of the body, nor does right-handedness or left-handedness influence the side affected.

The number of males suffering dislocation of the shoulder is six and a half times greater than females.

Age is an important feature as most cases occur between the ages of 20 and 30, and there are fewer cases in persons 45 years of age or older.

Recurrent shoulder dislocation occurs mainly in the heavily muscled football player, although it also is experienced by the lean, lax-jointed person who does not go out for sports.

Psychological make-up is an important factor, as accident-prone persons are subject to the disorder.

Occupation and activities have a lot to do with dislocation, as some types of work and sport are particularly hazardous in regard to falls.

Specific disorders such as epilepsy favor recurrent dislocations.

Some people with recurrent dislocation of the shoulder discover that a particular movement or elevation of the arm with backward motion causes the dislocation, and they are careful not to indulge in such gestures.

Persons subject to recurrent dislocation of the shoulder can, in about 95 per cent of cases, be benefited by surgery.

THAT'S A WONDERFUL STORY!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
 The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Yes, that's a wonderful story. Maybe he'll be president some day, or like the man in the story-book. Maybe his picture will one day be shown in an historic sketch—a flashback of the life of someone famous.

It could be you. It could be your own child, or someone you know. The young have dreams, the old have visions. But, from young dreams come realities.

The greatest reality is God. He is waiting . . . for you. He waits in your church. Relive the dreams of long ago this Sunday . . . in church we call those dreams, prayers! For prayer is often but a wish, and frequently a silent "thank you" sighed to God. You can face stern realities with stronger faith, if you have that faith renewed—often.

Editor, CITIZEN:

I wonder how many people are thinking seriously about their voting in this coming election. If we, the rank and file of the ordinary citizens, do not start to think more seriously about our public officials we are going to find ourselves behind the eight ball.

For instance our congressman Mr. Brademas, according to a recent article in the South Bend Tribune and the Indianapolis Star, arranged for his father, brother and sister to make urban renewal surveys to the tune of about one million dollars. This may not be illegal but from where I sit it looks highly unethical. I suppose that it is natural for a man up in a plum tree to gently shake the branches so some of the larger plums would fall in the laps of waiting kinfolk below.

Why should we people in the hinterland be taxed to provide slum clearance for people in cities who have not pride enough to look after their own problems. It would seem to me that nepotism is getting to be a rather serious problem.

Of course Mr. Brademas has a good example set for him by Mr. Kennedy who thought his family had such illustrious legal talent that he appointed his brother to be Attorney General and is aiding and abetting his kid brother to be elected senator from Massachusetts. Mr. Kennedy's brother-in-law is currently running the peace corps. Of course good men are at a premium and I suppose it is only natural for a man to think his own family has the most ability.

I feel that Mr. Brademas's opponent Mr. Ainlay is a very able man. He seems to have a fine grasp of current problems and is worthy of our most earnest consideration for congress from this district.

One of the most serious problems of our time is the rapidly increasing cost of running for public office. If things keep on it will soon be that only men of great wealth can afford to run for public office. A good example of this is our president J. F. K. His father I understand has provided him with a large trust fund. Naturally money is not one of his problems. Rockefeller is another rich man who has no money problems. These rich politicians spend the people's money just like there is plenty more so why worry?

It would seem to me that what we need in this country is a little basic economy. A nation is like an individual with good credit. One can spend quite a while until the creditors start to want their money and then they will throw us into the hands of a receiver. We should put forth a little effort in thinking about these pressing problems.

A CITIZEN OF CULVER

Social security beneficiaries who estimated their earnings for this year to be over $1,200, should notify their social security office if their actual earnings are different from the estimate. Since the number of checks they receive depends on their estimate of yearly earnings, failure to report an increase in earnings can cause an overpayment of benefits. Future checks may then have to be withheld to make up the overpayments.

ROBERT BURDETT RECEIVES INDIANA UNIVERSITY AWARD

Robert Burdett, Rural Route, Culver, is among 136 Indiana University students who have been awarded one of the University's most highly-prized titles, "Little 500 Scholar."

Each received a $100 award because he not only has a good academic record, but is helping earn his own way through school.

The $100 grants are made possible from the proceeds of the "Little 500" weekend activities held last spring, including the 50-mile bicycle race, the girls' tricycle race, and the all star Variety show.

Awarded by the I.U. Foundation which raises funds for scholarship and research, the $13,600 in grants went to outstanding students on the combined basis of academics standing and number of hours worked each week.

The winners hold a wide range of part-time jobs including pizza maker, church organist, cream tester, campus policeman, insurance investigator, traffic director, band manager, gardener, school bus driver and dance instructor.

Burdett, a sophomore student in education, has been employed by the Safety Dept. and has done janitorial work.

HOOSIER BACKGROUND — One of the most famous harness horses of all times is Greyhound who, now 30 years old, has been making a series of "farewell" appearances at race tracks throughout the country. Greyhound's dam was a Hoosier bred horse and the big fellow himself did much of his training at the Indiana State Fairgrounds under the direction of the late Sep Pallin of Indianapolis. Greyhound has not raced in 22 years but at one time he held 18 world records and 13 of them still stand. His trotting mark of 1:55 1/4, set in 1938 at Lexington, Ky., has never been equalled.

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862—the same year that

IN INDIANA, Richard Gatling patented the machine gun. Gatling's invention, with six revolving barrels, was a startling new concept in ballistics. Folks toasted the inventor with sparkling steins of beer.

For then as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation. But beer means more than enjoyment to our state. The Brewing Industry contributes nearly 100 million tax dollars to Indiana each year, money that helps support our hospitals, parks and schools.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

JAMES HENDERSON RECEIVES HARVARD SCHOLASTIC HONOR

James Alan Henderson, son of Col. and Mrs. John W. Henderson, 371 Academy Road, Culver, has been named one of 16 Baker Scholars at the Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration at Boston, Mass.

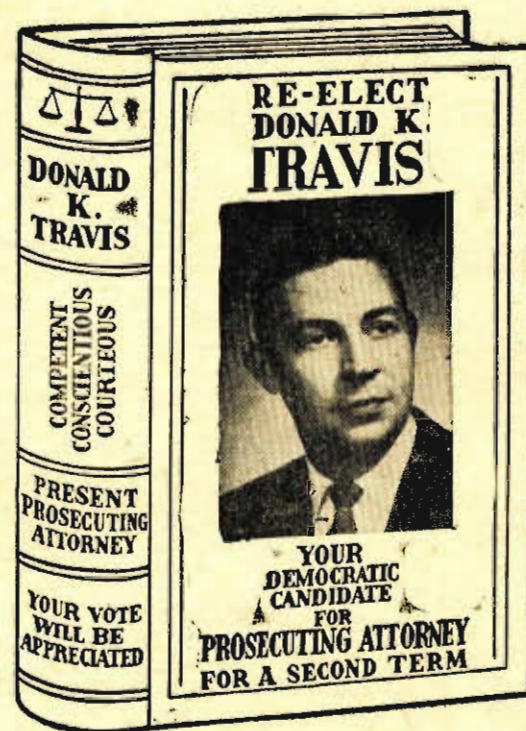

This is the highest scholastic honor it is possible for a Harvard Business School student to receive before graduation. The 16 Baker Scholars were chosen on the basis of a straight averaging of their course grades, and represent the academic top five percent of the Class of 1963.

The Baker Scholars were established in 1939 and are named after the first great benefactor of the Harvard Business School, and late George Fisher Baker, a New York banker.

Henderson is a 1952 graduate of the Culver Military Academy and received his A.B. degree from Princeton University in 1956. At or at the U.S. Naval Academy. Henderson is married to the former Mary Evelyn Kriner of Culver and resides in Watertown.

Never admit you're a self-made man — you might be criticized for not calling in competent help.
