Babson Discusses Christmas Trade

Predicts It Will Be Better This Year

Babson Park, Mass. With the upcoming congressional elections sparking political discussions throughout the nation, one of the parties has been stressing the bad points in the business situation. One charge hurled against the "ins" is that our economy is going sour, and that Christmas trade will be disappointing this year. This the Kennedy Administration denies. Frankly, I think such pessimistic predictions are wrong. I think this is going to be a good Christmas for quite a number of reasons. For one thing, pessimistic news — both national and international — should make people more anxious to spend money for permanent things rather than for speculation. The stock market action of the "recreation stocks" illustrates this point.

Roger W. Babson

HOPEFUL BUSINESS BAROMETERS

The Gross National Product of the U.S. for the first three quarters of 1962 shows a gain of 7% over the same period a year ago. While this is not a very spectacular advance for a period of economic recovery, I expect to see some further moderate rise between now and the end of the year. This should stimulate retail trade to some extent. I anticipate at least a normal seasonal rise in employment and some decline in unemployment totals between now and December 31st. There will undoubtedly be further small gains in the factory work week, resulting in at least a mild expansion of overtime wages to supplement regular salaries and other income for many families.

A bright spot, too, is personal income, now topping a year ago by somewhat more than 5%. Between now and year's end I look for continued increases in personal income, probably widening the favorable margin over year-earlier figures. In spite of a heavy tax burden and other large fixed payments, disposable income will also keep on rising at least through the rest of this year.

YOUR BUYING STARTS ITS OWN CYCLE

There is a lot more to Christmas Holiday buying than is immediately evident. When you make a purchase, for example, you start a business cycle in miniature. You not only give pleasure to the one receiving the gift, but you also help the retailer, providing him with the money to conduct his important distribution operations. Keep in mind that you not only give the retailer his percentage of profit, but you also help to send along their small cents to many other worthy people. These include the retail clerks, the landlord, advertisers, and others either directly or indirectly involved. This means more people employed all along the line, and hence more wage earners to keep the cycle in healthy motion.

It is my feeling that spending psychology will remain good at least until early 1963. At the end of December you will see my detailed "Forecast for 1963" in these pages, in which I will analyze and project major business trends, including whatever changes of atmosphere may show up between now and then. It is particularly important to note that the stock market declines of 1962 have actually had no serious effect on retail sales, even though the business community generally has perhaps become hesitant and cautious since the Cuban upset.

ANOTHER BANNER CHRISTMAS FOR RETAIL TRADE

I am expecting Christmas buy-

IN SERVICE

HOWARD E. WINTER

CAMP LEJUENE, N. C. — Marine Private Howard E. Winter, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Winter of Route 1, Monterey, completed four weeks of individual combat training, Nov. 13, with an infantry training regiment at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

The training provides newly enlisted marines with a background of experience in the field under combat conditions. Live-firing exercises are conducted, in addition to field trips and classroom lectures.

Under carefully selected instructors, the young marines learn to take their places in small fighting units, such as the four-man fire team and the 14-man squad.

The address of A 3/C Larry V. Holston, AF 16725904, is 4510 Spt. Sq. TAC Box 244, Gila Bend AF AUXFLD, Gila Bend, Ariz. Holston is the son of Mrs. Janarita Stuntz, Route 1, Culver, and is a 1960 graduate of Culver High School. He entered service in Feb. 1962.

Services Held For Infant Son Of Gordon Bell

Graveside services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gordon Bell of East Shore Apartments were held at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 11, at the Culver Cemetery with Reverend Joseph A. Lenk, pastor of St. Mary's of the Lake Catholic Church, officiating.

The baby was dead at birth Sunday morning at Parkview Hospital in Plymouth.

Surviving with the parents is the grandfather, William F. Gordon Bell, of Norwalk, Conn.

The Easterday Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

ing to top last year's record by perhaps 2%—3%; that means another historic high for the holiday season. I should emphasize that this does not represent anything like a boom, but only an upward nudging on the already elevated plateau. Get ready for an extraordinarily lively demand in such lines as toys, clothes, greeting cards, and—contrary to the forecasts of some observers—even home furnishings. I advise heavy holiday promotions aimed at the enormous upper-teen-age group.

I would be somewhat more encouraged about the approaching holiday buying if it were not for the previously mentioned caution on the part of the general business community, the still sagging stock market, and sharpening international hostilities. Competition will be keener than ever. Of course, so that many price upshadings will have to be absorbed by retailers. This will require more advertising — especially in local newspapers.

Watch out for school children, especially if they're driving.

Santa Claus To Visit Culver This Saturday

2 P.M. Arrival At Library

Jolly old Santa Claus will make his annual stop in Culver this Saturday to talk with all the boys and girls of the community. He'll be eagerly looking forward to seeing all of you kids and learning what each of you would like to find under your Christmas tree come Christmas morning.

The Culver-Union Township Fire Department, who serve each year as Santa's trusted helpers, will escort him down Lake Shore Drive atop the big red fire truck. The town is all decked out for Santa's climatic arrival at the Culver Public Library which is set for two o'clock Saturday afternoon, Dec. 15.

Santa, as you know, is a mighty busy fellow, especially at this time of year, so he hopes that everyone can get in to tell him what they want before four o'clock.

Santa's friends from the Culver Chamber of Commerce will be there. They have made plans to provide a treat for all of the jolly old gent's guests.

So kids, be sure to be at the Culver Public Library this Saturday afternoon at two o'clock and help provide a rousing welcome for jolly old Santa Claus.

Culver Stores To Remain Open For Holiday Trade

Culver stores will observe new opening hours during the Christmas holiday season, beginning Dec. 14.

Friday and Saturday, Dec. 14-15 stores will remain open during the evening hours.

The week of Dec. 17, stores will remain open every night during that week.

On Monday, Dec. 24, stores will observe the usual closing hours.

Christmas Issue Of The Citizen Is Next Week

Next week's issue of The Culver Citizen will be our big Christmas number containing many special Yuletide features as well as the traditional holiday greetings from nearly all of the business establishments and professional people in this area.

If you have overlooked signing up for either a Christmas or New Year's illustrated greeting we suggest you call The Citizen at once at VIKING 2-3377. Prices range from $3.60 up and several beautiful greeting ads are still available.

CMA CADETS BEGIN CHRISTMAS VACATION THIS FRIDAY

The corps of cadets of Culver Military Academy will depart at 11:30 a.m. Friday, Dec. 14, to spend their annual Christmas vacation with family and friends. Cadets will travel via automobiles, buses, trains, and airplanes to all parts of the United States and several foreign countries.

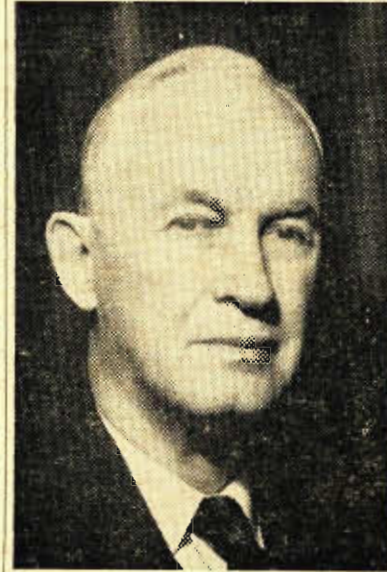

Cadets will return by 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 2, with classes resuming the following day.

Members of the faculty will enjoy the same vacation as the corps of cadets.

Employees will have vacation from noon on Saturday, Dec. 22, through Christmas Day. New Year's Day will also be a vacation day.

You can sell your used things through a want ad.

Named To Board Of Directors Of Culver Foundation

The election of Ralph L. Smith of Kansas City, Mo., to the Board of Directors of The Culver Educational Foundation is announced by E. R. Culver, Jr., chairman of the Board.

The Foundation is the non-profit organization that operates Culver Military Academy during the academic year as a college preparatory school for 850 boys in grades 8 through 12 and as a summer camping and educational program each July and August for 1,600 boys between the ages of 9 1/2 and 18.

Mr. Smith, who for many years has been interested in the cause of education and other humanitarian activities, will serve as an advisory member of the Culver Board.

Mr. Smith attended the University of Kansas and Harvard College. From 1909 until his retirement last January he operated lumber companies in Missouri, Oregon, and California.

Since his retirement, Mr. Smith has devoted his time to philanthropic activities and to the raising of pure bred Angus cattle. He has been particularly interested in the permanent Wondercraft Camp Culver now is erecting for 650 boys enrolled in Summer Schools and is advising Culver on its construction.

Mr. Smith is married and has two grown daughters and a son. He resides with his wife at 3325 Tomahawk Road, Prairie Village, Kansas.

Edward G. Peters Dies At His Home At Age Of 62

Edward George Peters, age 62, died Monday evening at his home in Hibbard following a heart attack. He had been in ill health for the past two years.

Mr. Peters was born Dec. 24, 1899, in Winamac near where he operated a farm until 1942. In 1920 he married Ethel Marie Jones who died in 1954, and in 1958 he was married to Velda L. Funk who survives.

Survivors, in addition to Mrs. Peters, include five sons, Raymond Peters, Winamac, Richard Peters, Bourbon, Harold and Roger Peters, Culver, and Dexter Funk, Culver; four daughters, Dorothy Broeker, Culver, Edna Mae Morris, South Bend, Julia Funk, Culver, and Mary Sherrill, South Bend; two brothers, Elmer Peters, Winamac, and Fred Peters, Hot Springs, Ark.; and 12 grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Easterday Funeral Home with Rev. Thomas Rough of the Pretty Lake Church officiating. Burial will be at the New Oak Hill Cemetery at Plymouth. Friends may call at the Easterday Funeral Home.

Area Churches Offer Impressive Christmas Rites

Schedules Are Announced

As the world once again prepares for the observance of Christmas, the birthday of Christ, various churches of our community also plan special services, class parties, and children's programs in observance of this Holy Season.

Culver Methodist Church
Various groups of this church have held Christmas parties and meetings or carried on Christmas projects.

The Pathfinder Class and the United Class held a Christmas dinner Sunday evening, Dec. 9, at the church. The Wesley Class decorated the tree in Fellowship Hall last Sunday and members are busy making attractive wreaths.

The W.S.C.S. will hold its Christmas meeting on Thursday, Dec. 13, at 7:30 p.m.

The annual Christmas program will be given at 7 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 16, in the nave of the church where Rev. Dr. Ronald C. Williams is pastor. "The Child Of Peace," a narrative drama written by Edith H. Willis and Edith Ellsworth, will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Thomas E. Walker. The Carol Choir and the Junior Choir, under the directorship of Mrs. Winifred Joice and Mrs. Richard Woodward, will also participate and Mrs. Theima Hodges will serve as accompanist. Narrators for the presentation will be Mrs. Fred Adams and Thomas E. Walker, Jim Boswell, Dick Mackey, and Brenda McAllister will compose the speaking chorus. Mrs. Gary Unruh is in charge of costumes.

The Wide Awake Class will observe Christmas with a party set for Thursday evening, Dec. 20, in the Youth Room of the church. A gift exchange will be a feature of the evening.

The annual Candlelight Communion Service will be observed Christmas Eve at 11 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to join in this Christmas observance.

Trinity Lutheran Church
Regular 9 a.m. worship services will be observed Sunday, Dec. 16, by Trinity Lutheran Church in the Culver Library Basement with Rev. R. J. Mueller, pastor.

At six o'clock that evening a family Christmas party and potluck supper, sponsored by the Trinity Guild, will be held at the American Legion Home. The entertainment for the party will include group singing of Christmas carols and a pantomime, "The Night Before Christmas," will be presented by the adult portion of the congregation.

The following Sunday, Dec. 23, Reverend Mueller will conduct regular morning worship services at nine o'clock. The Sunday School Christmas program, "Great Is The Lord," will be presented the same evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Following a practice which was begun when Trinity was first organized, Reverend Mueller announces that the congregation will also observe Christmas Eve with a special candlelight service at 11:30 p.m.

Visitors and guests are cordially invited to attend these services.

St. Mary's of the Lake
Rev. Joseph A. Lenk, pastor of St. Mary's of the Lake Catholic Church, announces Masses on Christmas Day at 7, 7:30, 8, 9, 9:30, and 10 a.m.

At the eight o'clock High Mass, St. Mary's Choir, with Mrs. Sam Strang at the organ, will sing the "Pans Angelicus Mass," by Ed- (Continued on Page 6)

Post Office Open Extra Hours For Holiday Mailing

Postmaster E. Wayne Mattox said today, "Most everybody is doing a wonderful job on the 'mail early for Christmas' campaign. But, a few folks are courting delays and disappointments by mailing poorly wrapped packages with carelessly written names and addresses or without sufficient postage." He suggests that you be sure your mailing lists are up-to-date — that your gifts are packed securely in sturdy containers — that you put your return name and address on every package and Christmas card — and most important of all — that you mail all your cards and gifts within the next few days.

Every facility of the Post Office has been expanded to render maximum service to take care of a record Christmas mail this year. For your convenience, service windows at the Post Office will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Mondays through Saturdays. As an extra service this year, the windows will also be open both this Sunday and next, Dec. 16 and 23, from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Avoid the rush periods by bringing your Christmas cards and packages to the post office between 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Here's a few important reminders — don't mail money in Christmas gifts or parcels, use postal money orders or checks. Insure parcels and register valuable letters. Use special delivery air mail to expedite out of town delivery.

Women Receive Red Cross First Aid Certificates

The first Medical Self-Help Training Class graduated on Tuesday, Dec. 4 at the Bourbon Youth Center. They have been attending classes every Tuesday night for two hours for the past ten weeks. The course is a combined Red Cross First Aid course and Medical Self-Help Training course sponsored by Marshall County Civil Defense. Dr. Otis R. Bowen is the medical sponsor.

The final written examination was held Tuesday night for 23 ladies, two of whom were from Bremen and 21 from Bourbon.

Those who complete the course and pass the examination are issued an attractive certificate of completion of the Medical Self-Help Training class and are issued the standard Red Cross First Aid Certificate.

Cold weather, warns the Chicago Motor Club, increases chances for a skid. Motorists should not jam on the brakes when a car goes into a skid, but should slowly decelerate and turn the car wheels in the direction of the skid. Remember — greatest skidding dangers exist when it's just cold enough for water to freeze.

CHEVROLET... on the road every day!

ITS RELIABILITY COMES FROM ITS QUALITY

A nutshell description of Chevrolet trucks could be "Trucks That Work". It's not exactly earthshaking but it says a mouthful. It's what Chevrolet trucks are best known for—their reliability. Ready to work, day after day, whenever you are.

You can't build trucks that perform like this if you don't put quality into engine, chassis and body. Chevrolet does: double-wall construction, insulated cab, select-wood body floor, chain-supported tailgate, ladder-type frame, the careful attention to upholstery and finish. It's this kind of quality that makes any Chevrolet truck—from pickup to heavyweight tandem—worth more on the average at trade-in!

Miss Drupalick graduated from Argos Community School and for the past two years has been employed by The State Exchange Bank, Culver. Her fiance graduated from Culver High School and presently is employed at Ritz-Craft in Argos. No date for the wedding has been announced.

Ace Of Clubs Enjoys Christmas Party

Members of the Ace of Clubs enjoyed their annual Christmas dinner and gift exchange at Schori's Restaurant in Plymouth Monday evening.

Those attending were Mrs. Dan Weirick, Mrs. Gordon Cultice, Mrs. Earl Eckman, Mrs. Harry Baker, Mrs. Irene Hinkle, Mrs. Verl McFeely, Mrs. Roy Ragsdale, Mrs. Raymond Ives, Mrs. William Washburn, Mrs. Howard Shock, Mrs. Raymond Lowry, and Mrs. Charles Ferrier.

O.E.S. Auxiliary Christmas Party Held Monday

Members of the Eastern Star Auxiliary met Monday evening in the Masonic club rooms, with Mrs. Walter Johnson, Mrs. Orville Phelps, and Mrs. Earl Overmyer as hostesses.

There were 21 members answering roll call. A gift exchange was enjoyed and the mystery prize was won by Mrs. Ernest Carter.

Legion Auxiliary Holds Annual Christmas Party

Members and guests of the American Legion Auxiliary met at the Legion Home on Wednesday, Dec. 5, for their annual Christmas party with 25 attending.

A potluck turkey dinner was enjoyed following which Christmas carols were sung and Vicky McKinney and Shirley Carter entertained with piano music. Gold Star Mothers, Blanche Finney, Florence Krull, Helen Hickman, Hattie McKinney, Essie Butler and Jessie Patzel, special guests of the Auxiliary, were presented gifts.

The Auxiliary decided to prepare cheer plates for the aged and shut-ins. A gift exchange was enjoyed by all and the remainder of the evening was spent playing games.

Committees in charge of arrangements included Matilda Taylor and Agnes Cabell, food; Alice McCarthy, Maybell Reed, and Marie Cowen, decorating; Ruth Walker and Elsie Wagner, Gold Star Mothers; Irene Bieker, gift exchange; and Hattie McKinney, Florence Lichtenberger, and Mildred Miller, entertainment.

Tri Kappas To Have Christmas Meeting Monday, December 17

The regular meeting of Tri Kappa Sorority will convene at the home of Mrs. Robert Bolton Jr. at 8 p.m. Monday, Dec. 17. A Christmas program will be presented and a gift exchange will be one of the evening's highlights.

Assisting hostesses for this Christmas observance will be Mrs. John F. Edgell, Mrs. John A. Cleveland, Mrs. Orville Phelps, Mrs. J. Dick Newman, and Mrs. Charles W. Crowe.

Wide Awake Class To Observe Christmas At December 20 Meeting

Members of the Wide Awake Class of the Culver Methodist Church will meet at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 20, for their Christmas meeting and gift exchange.

Chairman of the hostess committee is Mrs. George Speyer. Working with her will be Mrs. Anna Waite, Mrs. Roy Cromley, and Mrs. Agnes Van Pelt.

Home Demonstration Club Enjoys Christmas Meeting December 7

The Culver-Union Township Home Demonstration Club enjoyed its Christmas meeting Friday afternoon, Dec. 7, at the Burr Oak E.U.B. Church Annex.

Club president Mrs. Harry Leffert opened the meeting by reading the thought for the month. The song of the month, "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing," and "Silver Bells," led by song leader Mrs. Ferris Zechiel, were sung. The birthday song was sung to Mrs. Louis Base, Mrs. Leffert, Mrs. Ruth Kline, and Mrs. Joe Boetsma Jr.

Twenty-seven members answered roll call with a favorite winter pastime. Christmas greetings were extended to the club by Mrs. L. B. Hackett from St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mrs. H. L. Werner from Jackson, Miss.

Mrs. Delbert Jordan was in charge of the following program: Mrs. Adrian Snapp read the Christmas story, "The Life of Mary and Joseph and their son, Jesus." The devotion was closed with prayer. Mrs. George Kerrigan read, "A Story of That First Christmas," and "The Shepherd That Didn't Go." "Silent Night" and "Joy To The World" were sung. A Christmas skit followed with Mrs. Ora Overmyer as narrator and the club members participating.

Mrs. Wayne Kline presided at the installation for Mrs. Wilfred Craft, president; Mrs. George Kerrigan, secretary; and Mrs. William Easterday, treasurer. Mrs. Fred Plantz, vice president, was unable to attend the installation rites. The installation was closed with the club members giving the club creed.

Mrs. Leffert, outgoing president, and Mrs. Craft, newly-elected president, were presented pins by Mrs. J. Richard Behmer, 1962 past president of the Marshall County Home Demonstration Club.

Mrs. Herman Siems drew the door prize.

Many beautiful Christmas decorations were used to decorate the room and the tables. The group enjoyed their gift exchange of homemade or baked gifts.

Delicious Christmas cookies and coffee were served by the hostess committee composed of Mrs. Leffert, Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Craft, Mrs. Kerrigan and Mrs. Overmyer.

Mrs. Jerome Zechiel, Jr. Hostess To Junior Woman's Club Christmas Party

The Maxinkuckee Junior Woman's Club met in the home of Mrs. Jerome Zechiel, Jr., on Monday evening for the Christmas meeting. Mrs. William Snyder, president, welcomed Mrs. Robert Christopher as a new member, and guest for the evening, Mrs. Walter Stock.

Election of the nominating committee for 1963 was held, with Mrs. Ted Strang, Mrs. Hugo Anderson, Mrs. Jack Campbell, Mrs. James Cox, and Mrs. George Hopple elected. The club received an invitation from the Culver City Club to attend their meeting at the Bank Lounge on Jan. 3. Following the business meeting the closing thought was given by Mrs. Anderson.

Bunco was played during the evening, with holiday punch and candies served at the tables. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Kenneth Martin, and Mrs. Charles Edgington. The singing of Christmas Carols, a gift exchange, and a cookie exchange followed.

Refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table, decorated with a silver and blue centerpiece. Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Christopher presided at the table. Assisting the hostess for the evening were Mrs. William Herrmann, Mrs. James Cox, Mrs. John Hoesel, and Mrs. Dale Heiser.

Carol Joyce Brockey Speaks Nuptials With Jackie Lowell Kinney

In an atmosphere of candlelight, Miss Carol Joyce Brockey and Jackie Lowell Kinney were united in marriage at 8 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 8, in the Santa Anna Methodist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brockey, Route 3, Rochester, and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kinney, 421 Harding Court, Culver.

Mrs. Donna Beckner was organist. "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Mrs. Ann Bigley.

The altar was adorned with baskets of white mums and yellow pompons, interspersed with candelabra and palms, for the double-ring ceremony which was read by the Rev. Clyde Beckner.

Miss Brockey was given in marriage by her father. Her ballerina dress was fashioned of Cantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. The Sabrina scalloped neckline was encrusted with sequins and seed pearls and the long sleeves tapered to bridal points over her hands. The bouffant skirt featured a panel of lace and tulle. A tiara of seed pearls held her veil of silk illusion. The bride carried a corsage of white carnations and yellow roses on a white Bible which had been carried by her mother on her wedding day.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Bonnie Smith and Mrs. Linda Gochenour. They were attired in ballerina gowns of yellow satin brocade and wore matching headpieces. Their bouquets were composed of yellow and white pompons.

Dave McCarthy was best man. Groomsman was Brent Gochenour. Seating the guests were Larry Brockey, cousin of the bride, and

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brockey appeared in a light blue floral print jersey dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a dark blue jersey dress. Both mothers had corsages of white roses.

The church parlor was decorated in a white and yellow color scheme for the reception which was held following the ceremony. The four-tier wedding cake, trimmed in yellow and white, was topped with yellow wedding bells.

Presiding were the Misses Irene Crow, Betty Jane Peer, and Joan Smith. Doris Engel registered the guests and Brenda Wynn took charge of the gifts.

Upon their return home from a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Fort Wayne. For traveling the bride wore a baby blue wool sheath dress complemented with a corsage of white roses.

The bride, a member of the 1961 graduating class of Richland Center High School, is also a graduate of the Vogue Beauty School, South Bend. The bridegroom, a 1959 graduate of Culver High School, attended Indiana University. He is employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad, Fort Wayne.

Ray Brockey, brother of the bride. Flower girl was Debbie Mumbower, cousin of the bridegroom. Her basket was filled with rose petals.

Some modifications have been made in provisions of the farm facility loan program to assure that the program meets present-day farm storage needs more effectively. Carl W. Price, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced recently. Under the program, farmers may borrow funds from the Government in order to purchase or build farm needed storage.

Farm storage is important in providing storage for farm commodities, particularly at harvest time when distribution channels and commercial storage are likely to be at capacity. However, the tremendous increase in both commercial-warehouse and farm storage capacity in recent years is lessening the need for continued heavy expansion.

The Chairman explained that the maximum amount to be loaned on new facilities has been changed to an amount up to 85 per cent of the out-of-pocket cost of a facility but not more than 50 cents per bushel of storage capacity. Previously, the maximum loan on facilities costing 40 cents or less per bushel was up to 95 per cent of the cost; for facilities costing more, the maximum was 95 per cent of 40 cents per bushel times the capacity or 80 per cent of the cost, whichever was greater.

A new provision, Mr. Price pointed out, is that, in order to be eligible for a facility loan, the farmer must be eligible for price support for the current year on all price-supported commodities produced on his farm. All loans under the program will be made by the Commodity Credit Corporation through the ASCS County Office.

In determining the need for farm storage, the farmer's NEED will be based on the capacity to store 2 years' production — based on normal yields on allotted or permitted acreage — for commodities under acreage or production limitations, and on the capacity to store 1 year's production for other price-supported commodities. Formerly, this need was determined on the basis of 1 year's production plus a 1-year carryover for all commodities except cottonseed, for which 1 year's production was the basis.

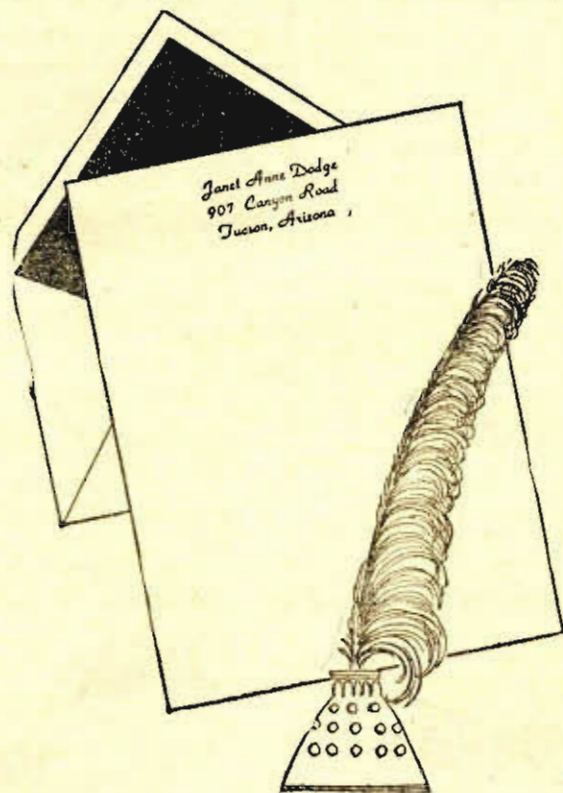

Loans will be available on new movable or immovable conventional farm-type facilities such as bins, cribs, or buildings, and on new oxygen-free silos or similar facilities. Loans will not be available for immovable facilities to be located on railroad property. Facilities which are purchased as a complete unit must be obtained from vendors who have been approved under a Supplier's Agreement, which vendors will enter into with the ASCS County Office.

As formerly, the farm storage facility loans run for not more than 5 years from the date the loan is disbursed, and they may be repaid in not more than four annual installments with the first installment due on the first anniversary of the loan. Interest is charged at the rate of 4 per cent per annum on the unpaid balance.

Since 1949, when the farm facility loan program was started, almost 166,000 loans have been made on more than 700 million bushels of farm storage capacity.

SURE FIRE CURE — A remedy for ivy poisoning recommended by a Jennings County man might be difficult to obtain these days. The cure suggested by Earl Wildey is this — douse the affected skin with water from a pan in which a blacksmith has plunged red-hot horse shoes to cool them off. Wildey gave the prescription to Richard Mayer, Jr., editor of The North Vernon Sun but warned it might be hard to get the water as there are not many horseshoeing shops around Jennings County anymore. Wildey insisted one application of the "horseshoe water" would make the poison ivy disappear overnight.

Area Churches Offer Impressive Christmas Rites

(Continued from Page 1) ward Grey. During the offertory the choir will sing "Adeste Fideles" and after communion, the hymns, "O, Holy Night," and "Angels We Have Heard On High," will be sung.

Confessions will be heard on Monday, Dec. 24, from 2 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m.

The children's Christmas Party, sponsored this year by the Christian Family Movement, will be held on Saturday, Dec. 22. A potluck supper for all members of the parish will be served after which the members of the committee, consisting of Mrs. Joseph Currens, Mrs. William Fish, Mrs. Bernard Busart, Mrs. Milo Guise, and Mrs. John Mars, have arranged to have Santa Claus present to greet the children and to present each child of the parish with a gift.

Burr Oak Church of God

The annual Christmas program of the Burr Oak Church of God will be presented Sunday evening, Dec. 23, at 7:30. A traditional candlelight service, "Out of the Darkness Light," will be the presentation. The choir will accent the scriptural accounts of the birth and life of Jesus, the Christ. Appropriate hymns will be sung to tell the story of the Christ. The service will begin with the sanctuary in total darkness with a processional of the choir carrying lighted candles. The processional will be led by the pastor carrying the lighted Christ Candle. The service portrays the birth of Christ as the Light of the world. Through His ministry and the appointment of the apostles, represented by 12 candles lighted from the Christ Candle, light is reflected throughout the world. The service will conclude with the symbol of passing the light from generation to generation, from Christ to Apostle, to disciple, from others to us. Each person of the congregation will pass their light to another as they have their candle lighted from another. The theme of the presentation will be, as each person receives the Light of the world, that Light is given to another, that the darkness of the world may be dispelled by the Light of the world, even Jesus, the Son of God. The organist will be Mrs. Albert Overmyer, with the choir under the direction of Larry Norman. The public is cordially invited to attend the service and participate in the worship of God as we reflect the truths of the Christ of the Christmas tidings.

E.C.B. Church

The Youth Fellowship of the Culver Emmanuel Evangelical United Brethren Church will decorate the church and have their Christmas social Saturday, Dec. 15, starting at 3 p.m. at the church. The Social Committee will be Jan Wagner, Ann Wagner, and Charles Snyder, who is the newly elected Y.F. President.

The sermon for the 10:30 a.m. morning worship service Sunday, Dec. 16, is "They Came To Him," the advent story of the Lord Jesus Christ, as it is taken from Luke's Gospel, Chapter 2:3-21.

That evening at 6:30, there will be a congregational carry-in dinner meeting. We invite our friends to join us. After the fellowship and breaking of bread, we will have a brief congregational meeting for the election of Church and Sunday School officers. At 8 p.m. the annual Sunday School Christmas Program will be in the sanctuary. The theme of the program will be "Come And Worship." Gladys Cronley is in charge, and she is assisted by Wilma Zechel, Maxine Bennett, Lela Heeter, Jesse White, and the pastor, Walter Chisholm. All Youth Departments of the Sunday School will participate, with the Senior High Youth acting as Choir for the entire program. Sunday School Superintendent George Warner announces a Christmas treat for the children after the program. So, come and worship with us.

The Youth Fellowship will go caroling on the evening of Dec. 17 at 8 p.m. Their counselors are Joe and Dorothy VanderMeade, and Gladys Cronley is Youth Director. The group will return to the parsonage after caroling for hot chocolate and doughnuts and a Christmas surprise.

The Gleaner's Class will hold their annual Christmas social Dec. 18 at 6:30 p.m. at the church. They will have their Christmas dinner, devotions, and a gift exchange.

The Mary and Martha Circle of W.S.W.S. will meet at the church at 7:45 p.m., Thursday, Dec. 20. Wilma Snyder, chairman of the Circle, is program leader and will bring a program entitled, "As Good Stewards Of Christmas."

The morning sermon at 10:30 on Christmas Sunday, Dec. 23, will be "The Greatest Gift," the text coming from the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter 1:18-25. The sermon will point up three things: God making Himself known in the Incarnation — God's action in love for us — and the response of man to the love of God. The sermon points out that God loved man before; yet He came to redeem man in Christ, and He continues to come as man responds in faith. We must echo the words of Paul, "But now is Christ risen" — and we have victory through Him.

During the morning Worship Service there will be a service of baptism, and adults will be received into membership, as well as the catechism class of youngsters who are now studying weekly with Reverend Chisholm.

The traditional Christmas Eve Candlelight Service will be at 11 p.m., Dec. 24. It will be a service of hymns and music of the Christmas Season. The Church Choir, under the direction of Bess East-erday, will bring two special numbers, "There Were Shepherds," and "While By My Sheep." The Pastor's message will be, "Our Lord Emmanuel." We invite all our friends and neighbors to join with us as we light candles in the hope of peace throughout the world, in the joys of Jesus Christ.

At 11 p.m., Dec. 31, the annual New Year's Eve Service will be held. This will be followed by a social gathering in the Church Social Hall. Be with us to welcome the New Year.

Culver Bible Church

The Culver Bible Church's observance of Christmas will be presented this year in a flannelgraph story of Christ's birth by the children of the congregation. An adult musical program will be an added feature of this presentation scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 23. Refreshments will be served following this service in the church basement.

Rev. Paul King, pastor of the church, will conduct regular worship services at 11 a.m. on Sunday, Dec. 16 and 23, to be preceded by the Sunday School hour convening each Sunday at 10 a.m.

Regular Sunday evening services will be held Sunday, Dec. 16, at 7:30 and the above Christmas program will take the place of the Dec. 23 evening worship service.

The young people of the congregation plan their caroling for the evening of Friday, Dec. 21, under the direction of Marjion May and Roy Fritz.

Grace United Church

The third advent service, with the sermon subject "Road To Bethlehem," will be delivered Sunday morning, Dec. 6, at 10:30 o'clock at Grace United Church where Rev. Harold W. Hohman is pastor.

Sunday evening, Dec. 16, the Church School will present its annual Christmas program at 6:30 o'clock. The junior and junior high departments will give a play-let entitled, "A Tree Of Remembering." The kindergarten and primary departments will present a variety program of Christmas messages and songs. A social hour for all who attend will be held following the program in the social rooms of the church. The committee on Christian Education is in charge of arrangements. Members and friends are cordially invited.

The Sunday morning, Dec. 23, Christmas Worship Service at 10:30 will carry the sermon theme, "His Coming — Our Hope." Special music has been prepared by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Judson Dillon, accompanied by Miss Margaret Swanson, organist.

The Crescent Class of the Sunday School will have its Christmas potluck dinner and party at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 19. Arrangements are in charge of the officers.

Confucius say: "Man who stop advertising to save money is like man who stop clock to save time."

SERVED ITS TIME — A log cabin built in Putnam County in 1821 and that has served as a family residence through the years was finally razed this summer. The two-story cabin, located near Cloverdale, was finally torn down by its last owner, Guy Gaston, who had built a new house adjacent to it. The Putnam County Graphic, tracing the history of the cabin, said it was built by John Haddon Sr., a Putnam County pioneer who migrated to Indiana soon after the Indians moved out. Gaston and his family moved into the cabin in 1937.

HAVE PATIENCE!

When do you lose patience with your child?

Usually, when the child doesn't do what you want him to do, or when you are under a strain, answers Elaine T. Dolch, family life and child development specialist at Purdue University.

You can't expect to be patient at all times, but if you are cross with your children most of the time, take a good look at what upsets you. Perhaps a few changes in your family routines will create a more pleasant, relaxed home atmosphere.

The specialist says frequent sources of tension are expecting more of a child than he is able to do, or allowing situations to develop that he cannot manage.

Mother often sets the stage for impatience with her own indecision. If she cannot make up her mind about what to do, she may push the decision onto the child. If she forces him to make a judgment beyond his ability, she upsets the child as well as herself.

Do not ask your child to make a decision you cannot allow him to follow.

How much patience you have often depends on how you feel physically and emotionally, observes Mrs. Dolch. Good health is essential for mothers. She recommends eating a well-balanced diet for energy and health to meet the many demands on your strength and emotions. Enough rest and sleep are necessary, too. If your sleep is interrupted at night, catch a nap during the day—even 10-15 minute rest periods help.

Developing your sense of humor helps you manage with a light touch instead of a heavy hand, the specialist says. Mothers also need time for personal development and outside interests.

Academy Sports

Culver Military Academy's wrestling squad surged ahead of two other winter sports teams today with an undefeated record in its first three matches.

Coach Collin Stetson's grapplers, bolstered by 10 returning lettermen, rapped Pike High School at Indianapolis Saturday, 27-17. It was the team's third straight win after springing an unexpected 29-11 pasting on South Bend Washington-Clay last week.

While Stetson's wrestlers breezed along unbeaten, the basketball and swimming squads were experiencing some difficulties. Hardest hit is Coach Chet Marshall's basketball team, which is winless in four games. The swimmers have opened their record at 1-1.

In basketball, Pike and Crown Point were the latest to jump on the weakened Eagle cagers. A big and rough Pike five gave Culver its worst beating of the young season Saturday night, 67-37, while the Academy played its best game of the four in losing to undefeated Crown Point, 63-56, here Friday night. John Teeter paced his team with 20 points as the Eagles gave Crown Point a whale of a battle. And the addition of Paul Killian, a sophomore moved up from the junior varsity, helped the squad. But nothing much seemed to aid the Culver cause Saturday. Bucky Nesson was the only man in double figures with 11 points as Teeter was held to four points.

After losing to South Bend Central last week, 57-38, Coach Frank Walaitis' swimmers blasted Goshen High School, 73-22, here Saturday afternoon. Record-breaking performances by Bob Lamoreaux and co-captain Buzz Gammel helped the Culver victory. Lamoreaux broke his own record in the 400-yard free style for the second straight meet with a time of 4:43, while Gammel broke his own record of last season in the 100-yard breast stroke with a time of 1:10.7.

FALLING LEAVES A PROBLEM?

Colorful autumn leaves fluttering earthward can be a lovely sight.

But Don Scheer, Purdue University extension horticulturist, says that if this fluttering is going on in your own backyard, you may be in for some hard work, unless you mechanize the clean-up job.

Hand raking can be a chore, especially when you must rake leaves often to prevent them from matting and damaging your lawn. When you hand rake, be gentle and protect the young grass blades. Better still, mechanize.

If you have only a few leaves, Scheer suggest attaching the leaf

Nineteen Boy Scouts attended the Dec. 10 meeting held at the Methodist Church Fellowship hall. Opening ceremony was given by the Flaming Arrow Patrol. Art Haywood, a cadet from Culver Military Academy, gave a talk on his trip this past summer to the physical fitness camp in Colorado. The closing game was dodge ball. The meeting closed with the repeating of the Scout Benediction.

Six members of the Troop will meet at Easterday's Construction at 9 a.m. Saturday to finish the deer feeder and set it up at Keith Faulkner's Woods. Also we will fill our bird feeders at this time.

Next week will be our Christmas party. Bring a 50c gift for the exchange.

An overnight at Camp Tamarack will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 28, 29 and 30. Bring your meal fee for this event to the Monday, Dec. 17, Troop meeting.

In cold weather your battery becomes less efficient, says the Chicago Motor Club. Lights, radio, heater, defroster, and frequent stops and starts in slow traffic tend to weaken a battery. Have it checked once a week.

ELEVATED FLOWERS — A Steuben County resident, Virgil Foutz, told The Angola Herald last year he had the tallest sunflowers in the county. He was back this year with the same story, so the editor went to the Foutz home to see for himself. The editor gave this report: "Sure enough, there, high in a maple tree in a crotch of the limbs were several sunflower plants growing and in bloom. Since they were about 20 feet up we assumed these were the highest sunflowers in the county." Foutz said he puts out sunflower seeds in a bird feeder and he believes squirrels carry them up the tree and hide them in the crotch where they sprout.

PIGS HER PET — A Wayne County girl, Virginia Holcomb, who lives near Hagerstown, found a tiny pig that had lost its mother and she converted it into a household pet. After first feeding the piglet with a medicine dropper and then with a baby's bottle, Virginia graduated it to eating with her pet cat. The pig, named Sambola, then took to eating and sleeping with the cat. Virginia says her two pets have the same tastes for food. If the cat tastes a food and likes it, Sambola will eat some too, but if the cat turns up its nose at a food Sambola also will reject it. Virginia now leads Sambola around on a leash.

Argos Students To Receive The $100 Kleckner Award

A $100 T. A. Kleckner Junior Science Award, granted by the Indiana Heart Association, will be presented to an agricultural teacher and four students of Argos Community High School Friday, Dec. 14, during the half-time session of the Argos-Akron basketball game.

Receiving the award in behalf of the students will be Eugene E. Cooper, 340 Indiana Ave., Argos. The students are Phil Hoskins and Charles Redinger, juniors, and the sons respectively of Mr.

and Mrs. Harold Hoskins and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Redinger, both of Route 3; and Vaughn Berkheiser and Jan Umbaugh, sophomores, and respectively the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Berkheiser, 145 Short St., and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Umbaugh, Route 1.

Presenting the $100 check in behalf of the Marshall County Heart Association will be Mrs. James Coursey and Mrs. Harold Pifer, both of Plymouth and co-chairmen of the county association.

Botany will be the field under study by Mr. Cooper and his researching students as they will attempt to define deficiency symptoms in plants which have been grown in nutrient deficient water." The money Mr. Cooper and his students will be receiving will go to purchase necessary equipment and supplies used in their research program. At the end of the year, the youth research team will submit a detailed work report noting its progress and results.

The name of T. A. Kleckner, after whom the award is named, is much more than just an adjective in Marshall County. The former executive director of the Indiana Heart Association and vice-president of the American Heart Association in New York once taught at Plymouth High School. Also, he once was school principal in Bremen.

Mr. Kleckner died in 1959, after giving unmeasurable hope to thousands of heart patients in Indiana.

FAVORABLE WEATHER AIDS CROPS

Favorable weather in Indiana's major corn and soybean producing areas has lifted the state's 1962 production prospect for these major farm commodities.

State-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University estimate the corn crop at 331,968,000 bushels — up three per cent from the Sept. 1 figure and eight per cent larger than the 1961 total.

An average yield of 78 bushels an acre — four more than last year's record high — is expected.

Harvest weather for soybeans has been good. The state's soybean crop is forecast at 77,220,000 bushels, expected to be the largest of record.

Hay production is expected to total nearly 2.5 million tons, four per cent smaller than the 1961 crop. However, favorable September weather conditions aided late haying operations and boosted the expected yield.

Indiana's 1962 apple crop is estimated at 1,850,000 bushels, but the state's peach production of 140,000 bushels is 65 per cent smaller than a year ago.

September supplied weather conditions favorable for harvesting the state's 181-million pound potato crop. This is 28 per cent larger than the 1961 output. Milk production in September totaled 258 million pounds, three per cent less than the September, 1961, total and a 17-million-pound seasonal decline from August.

Egg production during September was 157 million eggs, compared to 170 million in August and 175 million in September, 1961.

The statisticians estimated that stocks of old crop corn on Hoosier farms totaled 22 million bushels. This was 27 per cent smaller than a year ago.

Wheat stocks total 3,502,000 bushels, 52 per cent smaller than on Oct. 1, 1961. But oat stocks on farms amounted to 25,384,000 bushels, 16 per cent larger than a year ago and reflecting this year's larger production.

Barley stocks at 554,000 bushels are down 32 per cent from last year, while rye stocks are 12 per cent smaller than the Oct. 1, 1961, farm stock total.

News Items About Our Academy Neighbors

(Called from the November Issue of the CMA Messenger)

From White Plains, N.Y., has come Simon Strauss, Bea Van Dusen's father, to live with Bea and Van. He was just in time to join the family in a trip to Evansville for Thanksgiving with Van's mother, Mrs. E. L. Blandford. Son Roy has just received notice from Purdue that he's been accepted with early admission. . . Horton Reed persuaded his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horton W. Reed from Greenfield, N.H., to come for a good look at the Academy. . . Weekend house guests with the Warner Williams were Mr. and Mrs. Hill Sharp and son, David, from Muncie. Mr. Sharp did the portraits of Adm. Rodman and Adm. Fowler which hang in the Naval Building. . . Stopping in Culver to visit Ron and Dottie Gleason and Jack and Ann Anderson were Jack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Anderson, Sr., from Stoney Lake, Mich. They were on their way to St. Petersburg for the winter. Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Battenberg, from St. Louis, were here to spend Thanksgiving with Jack, Ann, Tina and Mitch. . . Polly Curry's sister and painting partner, Mrs. John (Betty) Letcher, from Lexington, Va., were here for a fortnight of painting and creativity and good ole' visiting. . . Mary Curry brought friends up from I.U. just to hear the Joan Baez concert, and went right back that night.

Phyllis Mars has returned home from a pleasant duty of greeting a new nephew; his proud mother is Phyllis' sister, Mrs. Virginia Fitzgerald, of Lexington, Mass. . . Art and Barbara Hughes took advantage of their last opportunity to attend Parent's Weekend at MacMurray College, from which Greta will be graduating in June. Daughter Tina took time off from her studies at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis to join them. . . Frieda and Ted Clarno has received the happy announcement that their son, John, who is stationed at Travis Air Force Base, has been promoted to captain. . . Sunny Blair was in Philadelphia visiting her mother, who has just returned from a European jaunt, but came home for Thanksgiving. . . Myra and Russ Oliver skipped over to Troy, Ohio, to help son Bruce celebrate his birthday. Karen Oliver's parents, Barbara and Ken Heggard, had planned to go, but were unable to do so.

Word has been received that Ery Nelson was rushed to the hospital around the first of November with a severe ulcer attack; with prompt and good care he is on the mend now and is at home with Miriam and "Mac." Cards may be addressed to him in Rensselaer, Ind., % Dr. C. Mackey. . . Sally Reichley, high scorer so far in the Wives' Bowling group, is going to give the gals a chance to catch up. She's chosen the hard way to do it: she underwent surgery Nov. 16, at Memorial Hospital but was home for Thanksgiving turkey. . . Eckie and Jim Miracle want to take this opportunity to express their very great appreciation for everything that the generous-hearted faculty and friends have done for them in Eckie's recent hospitalization and the simultaneous, literal upheaval of their house. We are happy to report that Eckie is feeling much better and would welcome visitors.

Thanksgiving vacation saw the Hartmans take off for Michigan and some pheasant hunting. . . Dr. Richard Strait and wife Jan are moving soon from the guest cottage in Wahi and Edith's backyard, to Bourbon, where Rick has bought a very thriving dental practice. . . Don Patterson, our busy choir director, has organized an Evensong Choir of 15 boys, among whom are Ricky Gimbel, Marshall Brown and Lanny Bray. . . Penny Pate, holding fort here while Al is emerged in Spanish at Boston University this semester, reports that Al is working hard and doing well. . . Warner Williams began his portrait of Hiram Smith, who has contributed so much to the new Woodcraft Camp, when Mr. Reuben Fleet brought him by for the preliminary sketching.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Clifford Dawson, Quarters O-38, Fort Belvoir, Va. . . Mr. and Mrs. John Kourmadas, 2562 Holman Ave., Silver Springs, Md. . . Congratulations to Judd Stinecomb for his elec-

Union Township, in the recent election.

Sympathy to Ken Heggard, whose sister-in-law, Mrs. Lewis Heggard, passed away last week in Hammond.

Ruth and Wally Gollnick journeyed to Purdue for the Purdue-Michigan game recently. While there Bub informed them he had been elected president of the freshman council at Residence Hall H-1. Daughter Judy came in Hall H-1. Daughter Judy came in birthday with her parents.

John Baldwin, Plymouth, started to work as a presser in the Uniform Dept., Nov. 5. John replaced Mike Andrews, who quit to take a job elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Morris visited for a week, the latter part of October, with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Morris, in Falls Church, Va.

Becky and Bill Carr are the proud parents of a daughter, Barbara Ann, born Oct. 17.

Reba Wagoner, one of the nurses on the staff, entered Parkview Hospital on Oct. 25 and underwent surgery on the 31st.

Because of poor health, Myron Densmore has retired.

Harold Scott wishes to announce his approaching marriage to Mrs. Ruth Bundy of Chicago. The wedding will take place in Chicago on Dec. 23, 1962.

The Dining Hall warmly welcomes Roger Burkett, Joe Kane, Byron Mahler, Walton Towry, and William Turcek as new employees.

Ray Kuchel, also, returns to the Dining Hall after his wedding trip through southern Indiana. He and the former Miss Laura Maxson were married Nov. 4 in the E.U.B. Church of Burr Oak.

Anthony Fornelli has joined the staff of the Barbershop. Anthony is from Knox. Don Shock now works in Plymouth.

Eva and Glenn Doll spent a few days in Columbus, Ohio as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Poling and Tim. . . Margaret Kimmel, Jennie Dickson and Eva Doll spent Nov. 10th, in Indianapolis shopping. . . Jennie Dickson and sons Larry and Bob spent last Sunday in Chicago visiting her sister and brother-in-law who is ill. . . Margaret and Lester Kimmel and Judy spent Sunday, Nov. 11, at the Bill Stokes' home in South Bend, celebrating Margaret's and Judy's birthday.

Marquerite White and daughter Lucille, attended the shower for Vickie Allen at Monterey Lions Den, Oct. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Siddall spent a nice weekend recently in Cadillac, Mich., and Appleton, Wis. . . John Peterson is welcomed as a new employee in the stables. . . Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mott spent a recent weekend in Chicago with their niece, Mrs. Helen Harris.

Kathy Kline has returned to work after having undergone surgery recently at Parkview Hospital at Plymouth.

Nancy Kersey started working in the Admissions office Nov. 6. She replaced Jan Peterson, who transferred to the Business Office.

Ruth and Don Zehner are the parents of a little boy born Nov. 8, who weighed in at almost seven pounds.

Mrs. Shirley Melander's brother, Albert Renollet, visited her Oct. 29. He was on his way home from the Navy. . . Shirley and her husband recently spent a few days in Frazee and Detroit Lakes, Minn., visiting their parents.

"Tact: Changing the subject without changing your mind." — Clarence Achgill, Oklahoma City (Okla.) Live Stock News.

BUILD 'EM BIG — A Batesville father and son who manufacture custom built furniture recently received one of their biggest orders. It was for a dining room suit that will cost $18,000. The manufacturers are Fred Poske and his son, Hubert. They said the table alone will weigh 2,500 pounds. The table top, cut from a stump of Oregon myrtlewood, is seven feet, six inches long and six feet wide. It will set atop a handcarved base. The elaborate suit was ordered by a Springfield, Mo., customer.

TOO DEEP — The editor of The Rockville Tribune tells of the applicant for a job on a state dam project who was called upon to take a written examination in order to qualify for employment. The job seeker, says the editor, pondered the first question which was "What does 'hydrodynamics' mean?" He thought for awhile and then wrote, "It means I don't get the job."

Evergreens will either make the home look better — or worse — for years. Therefore Purdue University horticulturists advise to select them carefully.

The spreading or creeping type of evergreen usually is better around most homes than the upright types, since they tend to blend the house into the surrounding area better.

Some recommended creeping types, all of which grow under two feet tall, are the Andorra juniper, which has a purple color during the winter; the Waukegan juniper, which is blue colored during the winter, and the Sargent's juniper, which is green during the winter.

Among spreading evergreens, the horticulturists suggest the Dwarf Pfitzer juniper, the common Spreading Japanese yew and Taxus Wardi. They will usually not grow over four feet tall and can be trimmed to as low as two feet.

Plant the creeping evergreens 1½ feet to four feet apart and spreading types three to six feet apart. Distance depends on specimen size and speed of cover wanted.

Mimeo HO-81-1, "Some Woody Ornamental Plant Materials for Indiana," will help in making a wise choice of plants for the home grounds. Single copies are free to Indiana residents. Write Agricultural Publications, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana.

WHISPERING — The editor of The Dunkirk News and Sun, Hugh Ronald, says his pastor in a recent sermon made a remark he thinks is worth passing on. He quotes the minister as saying, "Some people will believe anything so long as it's whispered to them." The editor added this observation of his own: "If you've heard any wild rumors lately that's probably the way they got started."

DAIRY FARMING RECORDS IMPORTANT

Success of a dairyman can be determined by Dairy Herd Improvement Association records, says Sam Gregory, Purdue University extension dairyman.

Gregory suggests that dairy farmers desiring a successful operation should check their dairy herds by using a few brief rule-of-thumb guides in answering the following questions:

Do cows average 305 to 310 days per lactation and have 60-day dry periods preceding the next lactation?

Is the total yearly milk production more than 10 times the total body weight of the dairy herd?

Do the cows average more than a pound and a third of butterfat for every day in the year?

Is the market value of home-grown and purchased feeds per hundred pounds of milk produced less than 40 per cent of the price received per cwt. for the milk?

Does the income above feed costs from milk sales and home use amount to one and a half times the total yearly feed bill for the milking herd?

Are the cows bred and safe with calf in the period of 60 to 90 days after calving?

Is net energy supplied to provide maximum production under present management?

Is a breeding, calving, health or veterinary record maintained on each cow?

Are the most advantageous sources of net energy used in relationship to their costs?

If dairymen cannot answer these questions for their herd, Gregory suggests the need for DHA records, because today's DHA records contain the answer to many of the questions that baffle dairymen.

TODAY'S FURNISHING FABRICS

Do you know how to clean that nylon carpet? Must you dryclean that new chromspun bedspread and draperies? What did the salesman mean when he said this was of monofilament construction? What kind of material should you use for silpcovers, for drapes? These are only a few of the questions the homemaker must answer as she selects and cares for the many fabrics used in her home.

To help her, Purdue University has published an explanation of INDIANA TIME MAP—Time schedules being observed by Indiana communities this fall and winter are shown above, with the shaded sections indicating Central Standard Time areas. Areas observing year-round Eastern Standard Time have edged westward and now include 69 counties and parts of six other counties. The dotted line through the center of the state represents the western border of the official U.S. EST zone. Areas just west of this line are observing EST unofficially. While there now is no state law on the subject, the entire state normally observes Central Daylight Time (or EST) during a six-month period beginning the last Sunday in April.

PLANT DWARFED APPLE TREES

Dwarfed apple trees probably are best for home planting, advise Purdue University extension horticulturists. They are smaller than standard size and are easier to prune, spray and care for. They also bear fruit at a younger age.

Dwarfed trees are obtained by grafting the desired variety onto a special rootstock. The horticulturists recommend East Malling IX or Malling Merton 106 rootstocks. They are designated EM IX or MM 106 in catalogs and should be ordered as such.

Plant trees in the late fall in mild weather, since new root development will occur only when the soil temperature is above 45 degrees F. Or you can have them delivered for early spring planting. Plant at least two varieties for cross pollination.

A word of caution: Before you plant any fruit trees, even the easy to care for dwarfed apple, care for them properly. You'll think about and be prepared to have to spray and prune them regularly. Commercial growers often spray 12-15 times each growing season.

Indians Lose Heartbreakers To Knox, Judson

B-Team Loses One, Wins One

By EARL D. MISHLER
 Playing very inconsistently, Culver's Indians lost two heartbreakers last week to North Judson and Knox. Coach Gene Crossley's boys played poorly Tuesday night, bowing to a weak Judson team, 58-56, then retaliated for a fine showing at home Friday, only to lose to an undefeated Knox squad, 49-45.

Culver's inability to rebound, play defense, or hit free throws handed North Judson's Blue Jays their first win of the season. The Indians started fast, grabbed a 21-17 first quarter lead behind the scoring of senior forward Thad Overmyer. However, paced by the shooting of forward Sonny Distel, the hosts scrambled to a 35-27 half-time lead.

When senior center Rick Ervin was forced to the bench in foul trouble early in the third quarter, Culver's already weak rebounding was weakened even further. The Blue Jays stretched to a 49-40 margin after three periods. But the Indians surged back into the game, as junior guard Sam Lowry found the range from the outside for the first time this year. The score was tied at 54- and 56-all in the last minute. Baskets by Distel and sophomore Jerry Risner spelled defeat for the local Tribe.

Overmyer, whose hustling play kept the Indians in the game, led the losers with 18 points and Lowry added 12. Distel led all scorers with 24, which Chuck Trinoskey added 11.

Doing a sharp about-face, Culver threw a scare into the unbeaten Knox Redskins Friday night. Ervin and soph Dave Lemar led a strong surge on the boards that was at least equal to that of the taller visitors. And, the Indians' defense tightened up, as they nearly matched Knox' famous zone defense in effectiveness.

Both teams started slowly, but the shooting of junior guard Sonny Wyland led the visitors to leads of 13-9 and 27-20 at the quarter stops. Overmyer picked up his fourth foul in the second quarter and his scoring punch was sorely missed.

With Ervin and Lemar working on the boards, Culver shocked the Starke County fans by moving to within 36-34 after three periods. Only in the final seconds did the 'Skins open up their lead again, with Wyland's two free throws clinching the victory after Overmyer had fouled out.

Ervin's 14 points topped all scorers and 6'3" pivotman held high-scoring Ken Buckley to 11 points in the middle of Culver's zone. Junior guard Paul White added 11 and Lemar tallied nine.

After five games Overmyer leads the team in scoring with 62 points, with White right on his heels with 60. Ervin has scored 49, Lemar 42, Lowry 33, Wade Logan 13, and Ned Davis 4.

The Culver B-Team split even in their two encounters last week, losing to Judson, 37-33, and bombing Knox, 55-35. The loss, their first of the year, was at the hands of an older B-Team, and the Papooses were also minus the services of soph forward Doug Lindvall.

Jim Boswell led the attack at Judson with 11 points, while Harold Busse, a junior, scored 13 for the Baby Jays. Friday night Jim Lewis poured in 13 points in less than half the game to lead the potent Papoose offense. Steve Harbison led Knox with eight markers. Many observers feel this year's B-Team, coached by Jim Cox, is the finest at Culver in years, and it is worth noting that the top six Papoose scorers are four sophomores and two freshmen!

This weekend the Indians make two visits to Fulton County. Friday night Culver meets North Caston at Fulton, and on Saturday they travel to Rochester. Box scores:

Girl Scout News

By Pam Thompson

Girl Scout Troop 143 held their regular meeting Tuesday, Dec. 4, at the St. Marys Catholic Church.

The meeting began with group singing and the repeating of the Girl Scout laws. Mrs. Glenn Overmyer was guest speaker. She talked to the troop about the merits of first aid. The troop then practiced making arm slings. Refreshments furnished by Bonnie Day were served after which the meeting was closed.

 Troop 52 of Culver held their usual meeting at St. Mary's Catholic Church on Dec. 11. We opened the meeting with the flag ceremony and were joined by younger girls. We made Christmas ornaments out of styrofoam and little decorations. When some of us were through, we played Gossip. We closed the meeting as usual.

SCHOOLBELL NEWS

Now is the time for all sane braves and maidens to plug in their electric blankets. After peering out my tent flap, may I also suggest that everyone blow the dust from his boots and ear muffs!

I'll bet many seniors have discovered friends they never remembered having. Everyone seems to want a picture of the seniors. The pictures definitely do our seniors justice! Also, if anyone has any doubts as to the time which must elapse before the Senior trip, just ask any senior! Congratulations to all the candidates for Homecoming Queen! We wish each of you the best of luck.

We would like to report some helpful information to all C.H.S. girls. If anyone would like to find out the results of using starch for a hair spray, just see Sharon Wright. She has become quite an expert on the subject.

Oops! We have received the weekly police reports on the unsolved mysteries around the reservation. There seem to be quite a number of questionable happenings this week. For example, we would like to have an explanation as to how Mike Cihak woke up with ink on his pillow. And what's the scoop on those pictures, Cindy Kemple and Bob McFarland? This one has really got us baffled! Who is the Culver basketball player who is making all the points for Lucy Osborn? Boy, we are going to have to call in Scotland Yard to solve that one!

Well, what do you know! Cupid did not go into winter hibernation after all. Bob White and Beverly Barshes have taken that fatal leap, and are now going steady. Susie Tanner is also sporting a certain Tyner Senior's ring. The lucky boy is Harold Fritter.

As usual, the entire school is proud of the music department. The Christmas Concert was really great! The senior band sweater winners were happily displaying their garments after the concert. Those sweaters certainly make the four years of hard work worth while. Of course, someone always has to goof up the works when pictures are being taken. Leave it to Charlene Lucas, she'll do it every time!

Uh, Joan Dillon, may we ask how you managed to break the study hall pencil sharpener? After all, Joan, pencil sharpeners don't grow on trees.

We believe Judy Kimmel has learned a very valuable lesson.

The moral of her story is, "Be careful with personal notes received from friends. Don't leave them around so people like Thad Overmyer can find them." Were they interesting Thad? (We happen to know that they were!)

Did you say Jim Boswell is changing his attitude towards girls? For the inside story ask Dave Lemar.

We hear that Carolee Easterday and a carload of girls were hauling some cadets around on the back of their car. Actually, the girls had nothing to do with it.

The C.H.S. scholars enjoyed the program presented by the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra at the academy. By the way seniors, were you comfortable in the back of that bus? These C.M.A. convocations certainly are nice!

"Frankly I think the whole program should be thrown out the window." — "No, I don't think the surplus is that much of a problem" — The Civics class is at it again. This weeks research and theme was to be written on the farm problem. You'd be surprised at the number of economic experts we have on the subject. (Just ask them, you'll find out!)

st — crack — sss — sss — st — It must be snowing again! The snow always interferes with our signals. We are planning to see you next week (If we can clear the snow off the antennae). Happy sledding!

The Search Is On

By Barbara Hatten and Janet Heiser

Every year thousands of girls all over the United States join in the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

One winner is chosen from each high school entering the contest. This winner is selected by the results of a nationwide contest. This test is taken by any senior girl who is completing her fourth year of home economics.

Practical and objective questions, which every homemaker should know, are on this test. One question which might be included is: "Which spice is generally used to flavor ham. A) allspice, B) pineapple, C) sage, or D) cloves?" A short composition or essay question is also included on this test for purposes of choosing the state and national winners.

The test of the local winner is sent to the judges who select a representative for the State of Indiana in the National contest. A National winner is then chosen from these finalists. This lucky girl receives a generous scholarship to any school of her choice.

Yes, there are some nervous Culver entries anxiously awaiting the announcement of the winner, come January. I know you join us in wishing these girls the best of luck.

Lung cancer now outranks TB two-to-one as a disease of middle-aged men.

Local Boy Scout Christmas Tree Sales Now In Progress

The Boy Scouts are ready to serve your Christmas tree needs. Shown are Scouts Steve Bocoek and Dean Smith assisting a customer in the selection of a Christmas tree. Also available are cut boughs for decoration purposes. The trees and boughs may be purchased at Denny's Standard Service Station on the corner of Main and Washington Streets.

Available free with the purchase of a tree is an informative folder entitled, "Christmas Trees," which includes information on the care, lighting, and safety of your cut tree; tips on cut boughs; and the selection and care of the living Christmas tree.

The money earned will be used for the purchase of tentage and other needed equipment. —Photo by Carl Adams Jr.

Believing Is Seeing

By Kay Thomas

Co-editor's note: The following theme was written as an assignment for Mr. Larry Crabb's English 10 class.)

If, by chance, a teacher asked a question concerning the evolution of man, one child might reply that he does not believe in evolution. Perhaps the pupil next to him would disagree, "Which is right?" they ask. I am sure the teacher could only succeed in giving his own personal belief. Therefore, everyone has and is entitled to his own beliefs and opinions.

There are some overly pessimistic people in the world who believe that everything is evil and everyone is bad. If only these people would realize that there are good people as well as bad, beautiful things as well as ugly, I am sure they would see them.

In starting a club or organization of any kind, there have to be enough people to believe in the standards and purpose of the club before it can be a success.

In early times, men had to believe that there was a land of freedom and undictatorial government somewhere. Because these people believed, they left the Roman Catholic rule of England and set out for a new land.

When the three kings were told that Jesus, the Saviour of the world, had been born, they believed. They followed the guiding star to Bethlehem and saw the infant child.

And what about today? The race in space is of major importance. Tomorrow we may be making a landing on some far-off planet. And to think, it all started with a man who believed that the earth is round. That has led to all different kinds of beliefs hereafter, hasn't it? What next, belief that a brain can be transplanted from one man to another? We'll see!

Confucius say: "Man who stop advertising to save money is like man who stop clock to save time."

Sophomores To Sponsor Show

By David Frain

Seniors — The seniors have received their senior portraits. After exchanging with all the members of the class they were probably lucky to make it home with any for the family! Those senior class band members who had earned band sweaters were presented their sweaters at the annual Christmas concert. The seniors, have also received their scores from the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test.

Juniors — The junior dances have been quite a success, with a total of 131 dollars being made from the first two dances. The juniors hope to see each and every one of you at the dances after the home ballgames. Several juniors also took the PSAT and have received their scores.

Sophomores — The sophomores have made approximately 370 dollars from their leaf-raking project this year. Again, as in other years, the sophomores will sponsor a movie. The sophomore movie will be in January at the El-Rancho Theater in Culver. The show is entitled "The Pidgeon That Took Rome."

An Interview With Mr. Dillman

By Lucy Osborn and Carolyn Snyder

This week we interviewed Mr. Dillman, a new teacher at Culver High School. He is one of the sponsors of the eighth grade class and is the trigonometry instructor.

He began his life on a farm in Miami County, Indiana. He went to Chili High School which is now part of the North Miami consolidation unit. While there he participated in baseball, track, and basketball.

Mr. Dillman graduated from Purdue University where he majored in mathematics and minored in science. He belonged to three scholastic organizations.

Mr. Dillman enjoys Culver, and makes good use of the lake since he has a boat. He also enjoys photography, steaks, and teaching mathematics. If you ever find yourself in one of his classes, beware, because he believes in making his classes hard and in presenting a challenge!

Citizen want ads up to 25 words only 75 cents.

one semester in which to overcome the scholastic deficiency. If at the end of such time the scholastic average is still deficient the member shall be dropped from the chapter. Any active or probationary member whose Service, Leadership, or Character falls below the standards which were the basis for his election to membership shall be dropped from the chapter upon the recommendation of the council. A person dropped from the chapter shall never again be eligible for membership therein. (The council, referred to above, consists of the sponsor and four teachers.) Another proposed amendment is that meetings of this chapter shall be held once a month and upon call of the president.

Ushers Club — Cindy Kemple is the president of this organization and Miss Lindvall is its sponsor. There are eighteen members this year. At the recent Winter Concert those who ushered were Cindy Kemple, Sharon Wright, and Bob McFarland.

Science Club — James Westcott, Jane Ann Ives, and Sue Cole are each working on an experiment on the Thursday nights which the Science Club meets. James' experiment is on the qualitative analysis piece of rock found somewhere around Culver. Qualitative analysis is the breaking down of a substance into its component parts for identification. Sue has two experiments. One is on bacteriology. She has started some bacteria growths and is waiting to see if they will produce anything. As a new project she is experimenting with the growing and observing of crystal growth. Jane Ann is continuing research on a project from last year in biology. It has to do with protozoa studying, preserving, and experimenting.

Many Birthdays Celebrated

By Nora Sheppard and Vicki Lutz

Mrs. Melton, Kindergarten — Several birthdays have been celebrated in the kindergarten. John Newman brought decorated cup cakes for the class; Robert Ervin, candy bars; and Twyla Shaffer, decorated cup cakes. Kirch Franz, Jimmy Bickel, Paula Zehner, and Patricia Lowry also celebrated their birthdays. The children have improved in their coloring. Most of them have learned the colors and how to use the crayons to follow lines of the patterns. The class has also been doing many papers for visual discrimination — determining what is missing, following dots to make a certain picture, deciding which is larger or smaller and which are turned in the same direction. All of this is a readiness program for first grade work. Ronald and Donald Sytsma served cookies to the morning class. Susan Boswell also treated the class with decorated Christmas cookies.

Mrs. Keyser, First Grade — Two children made a perfect score on their reading test. They were Marla Quivey and Wendy Walker. Marty McCombs had a birthday Dec. 3.

Mrs. Barton, First Grade — Karen Parson celebrated her birthday by serving candy bars to the class. P. T. McKinnis's mother and little brother Scot came to school to help him celebrate his birthday. They served delicious refreshments. The students are working on word lists in their reading classes. In science they have some corn sprouting in a glass to see how the roots grow.

Mrs. Carter, Third Grade — The class has made some Christmas scenes for use in decorating the room. Some decorations have already been put up.

Miss Mahan, Fourth Grade — Betty Napier has won her second gold star in spelling — twelve weeks of perfect spelling. Other gold star winners are Bill Babchuck, Mary Jo Fishback, Jill Odle, and Jan Shock. Those who won silver stars are Warren Bair, Brenda Lindvall, Cynthia Marshall, and Terry Smith. With the addition of a new girl, Peggy Albertson, the class now is numbered at twenty-five.

Mrs. Keller, Fourth Grade — The entire class has joined a Science Club. Each month they will receive a box with special objects and complete instructions to follow in class experiments. Their first box has just arrived.

Mr. Horban, Fourth Grade — The class has assembled a scrapbook showing pictures of the seven continents. Their chart on "How To Care for Books" is now completed and is on display in the room.

Mr. Vondra, Fifth Grade — The children have purposely been telling "whoppers" in school. So far Jerry Lemar has told the best "tall tale!" Mr. Vondra only hopes that if they tell "whoppers" at home that it is all in fun.

Mr. Wagner, Sixth Grade — In science the class is being taught from a biology book. As well as learning science the students are receiving practice in taking notes. This week the subject of study is the blood and bacteria. An experiment showing osmosis was presented. The class has also seen many posters concerning science. A spelling test was held Friday with four people receiving perfect scores. The students have enjoyed looking at the white rat which Nancy Porter brought to school.

Calvin Revis, Sixth Grade — The group is planning a gift exchange. Names have been drawn and are going to be kept a secret until the big event. The decoration committee is working to make the room beautiful for the Christmas season. They plan to have a small tree for which the children will make ornaments.

Hep-Cat Version Of Three Bears

By Kay Thomas

Like one day a swinging chick named Goldilocks felt like swinging on down the lanesville for a walk. So, like she left her pad (which was like boresville), and like went on her way. After like no time she came to the sharp-looking pad of the trio of hep-cats known as The Three Bears. These three cats had like vacated their pad, so like the swinging chick like made her way in to the swinging, cobwebbed pad, and like made herself at homesville.

She like came to a long stick-like structure that stood on all fours on the floor of the pad. On this stick-like structure was like laid three bowls of the ginchiest liquid that Goldi had ever laid her false eyelashes on. She like sampled the first bowl and like it was cool, man, too cool. So she tried the second. But it was like too fiery for her feminine tonsils. So she tried the third and found it to be real gone, like out of this atmosphere, you know like way, way out. So she filled herself from like head to toenail.

The she commenced like over to three swinging pieces of stick that rocked. She had never seen such square looking jazz like that before so she tried all three. The first two were like harmful to her, so she sat in the next and found it to be just rightsville. But since the chubby chick had had too many pizzas, the chair like, dropped, snapped, and fell apartsville.

The chick like felt slightly weary so she immediately like went up the swinging stairway and went to the night-night room. There she betook three beds. She tried the first (which belonged to Daddy-o), thought like man it was hard like a rock. The second was like quicksandsville and she sank 'way down. But the sleepy chick found the last one like super sharp and soon was in lullaby land, you know like dreamsville.

Like in no time at all the three swinging cats returned to the scene of their pad and like they saw their slurped liquid and Daddy-o like blew his stack and raged. "Like, man, who cooled their tonsils on my swinging liquid?" and like Mama Cat said, "Like, who cooled their tonsils on my cool liquid?" and then like the swinging adolescent baby bear cried, "Eh man, like someone tried to cool their tonsils from my liquid and like succeeded!"

Then they like spied their chairs and hep chick Mama mumbled, "(Eh man, like someone sat in my rock-rock and like it's still like in motionsville. And Daddy-o exclaimed, "(Hey, cats, like some goon tried my stick-like structure and like it is still flapping in the breeze." When Kid Bear saw his rocker, he blubbered, "Eh, cats, someone plunked down in my chair and like now it's like tooth-picksville!" "Hey, kid, like cut the waterworks," said Daddy-o. By this time the family was in curiousville, so they went upstairs to their night-night room. "Eh, cats, like I wonder who's been in my area of night-nightsville. Like someone wrinkled my sheets!" crooned Daddy-o. Then Mama saw her bed and said, "Cool it, man, like who's been in my sleeper? My mu-mu is like missing." Then they came like to Baby's bed. "Like, someone's in my snore-area and it's that shubby Goldilocks chick from down the roadsville." Just then Goldi woke and saw the three hep-cats. "Oh man," said she, "this is dullsville. What a drag, like man, what a drag. I think I'll split this scene." So she split.

(Co-editors' note: While the seniors in English 12 were studying the "Canterbury Tales," they were required to write a conversation between two of the pilgrims who were journeying to Canterbury. In this writing the students were to exemplify the characters of the pilgrims as Chaucer had created them. The following is one of the conversations.)

Late one weary evening while the now silent pilgrims hurried on to reach an inn two miles away in order that they might find rest and protection, a few who tarried at the end of the procession stopped dead in their tracks at the sound of a low moan. The four men; the Parson, the Miller, the Reeve, and the Pardoner; looked inquiringly at each other.

"What was that," whispered the Pardoner.

The Miller, noticing that the sound came from a woods twenty yards away shrugged and said, "It is an animal of some sort and nothing else."

"And if not an animal," joined the Reeve, "it is thieves trying to lure foolish travellers from the path." With this declaration the Miller and Reeve hurried onward, for it was growing late.

But the curious Pardoner, turning to the Parson, asked, "What do you say it is?" for he knew him to be wiser and braver than their two companions.

The Parson replied, "It is someone in need of immediate assistance, if my ears do not deceive me. Come, let us quickly inquire lest it should be too late."

With reluctance the Pardoner agreed, and upon searching, the two found a badly wounded traveller robbed of all possessions lying in a thicket. It was the work of thieves.

The Pardoner immediately reasoned, "He thinks he must have sinned greatly to meet such a terrible fate. Truly, we can do nothing for this most sinful fellow so let us not tarry a moment longer and be on our way lest we should be defiled by an outcast of God and fall prey to the thieves also."

"But my dear fellow," said the astonished Parson, "do you not recall the story of the good Samaritan? It was a parable told from the lips of Jesus himself!"

"Bah! I am busy enough with the Lord's work without having to keep up with all the interpretations of the parables. I am convinced that God is punishing this man for some great sin."

With these words the Pardoner left the Parson to the wounded fellow. The troubled Parson meditated for a few precious seconds, "What should I do?" he thought. It was growing late and if he did not hurry he might never make it to the inn. But at the height of his indecision the wounded man moaned again, and with this the Parson knelt beside the poor follow and mumbled to himself, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

It was dark when the two lone figures reached the inn, but by the grace of God their path was lit by the moon above. The Pilgrims looked upon the arrivals with conflicting attitudes.

For a short while there was silence, but soon the Knight up and spoke to the Parson, "Well done!" as did the Host, the Plowman, the Nun, the Squire, and the Scholar. The rest remained indifferent except for the Pardoner who turned red at the Knight's words.

"More than likely, this vile traveller is being punished for all manner of sins for which he has never paid penance," declared the Pardoner defending his previous actions concerning the wounded traveller.

Meanwhile, the poor wounded fellow who had by now gained complete consciousness stirred himself to speak. "Wait," he cried, "do not despise the good Parson. True, I am a sinner in that I have stolen from the poor and have been a most unworthy Christian, but seeing the error in my ways through this good Parson, I repent of my sins."

"Aha! Just as I thought," said the Pardoner, "a sinner! Tell me dear Parson, how much did he promise to pay you that you

17 Million Dollars in wages for SOUTHERN INDIANA !!!

Statistics show the REMC generating plant will provide $17,728,000 in wages during its construction and operation for the 10-year period following. This money will be spent at home—for food, clothing, housing and recreation—throughout 38 counties in Southern Indiana.

A summary of other amounts which the plant will contribute to the economy during the same period are—

Rights-of-way and clearing.....	$ 4,806,900
Direct taxes, local and state.....	6,089,800
Supplies and services—local.....	15,610,000
Total.....	$26,506,700
Direct taxes paid by employees
State gross income tax.....	243,445
Federal income tax.....	2,876,710
Grand Total.....	$29,626,855

Most important benefit, however, will be a secure source of dependable power . . . for more than 75,000 rural Indiana families who will own, control and receive electric service from the plant.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. Ray Kuhn and Carol entertained at the annual W.S.C.S. Christmas party on Wednesday. Mrs. Ernest Benedict and Mrs. Joe Shoemaker were guests. The president, Mrs. Leslie Mahler, conducted the business meeting which followed the potluck dinner. Mrs. William Lake gave devotions, carols were sung and there was a program of readings, poems and music. A gift exchange concluded the program.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. Ray Kuhn and Carol were in Valparaiso on Wednesday evening where they heard Bishop Raines speak and on Friday evening attended a supper at the Lakeville Methodist Church for District Ministers and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strycker were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lahman at Roches-

A Look At CAP

"Our goals have been set and our record of service established. It is up to us, now, to continue to grow in quality and numbers and to increase our effectiveness in service to the community and the nation." This is what Colonel C. Whelen, chairman of the Civil Air Patrol's National Board, wrote the CAP last year on its 20th anniversary.

This year the CAP is celebrating its 21st anniversary. In the past 21 years the CAP has made a history that will not be forgotten. The CAP volunteers are ready any time of day or night for any call. Daily they perform aerial search and rescue, mercy missions, and disaster relief. By this they add immeasurably to the welfare and safety of fellow countryman.

The aerospace cadet training program helps answer the continuing need of young men and women in our Air Force as well as our ever growing aviation industry.

What is their pay for the services they provide? Their only pay is the lasting satisfaction that comes from rendering public service.

There is a place for you in the Civil Air Patrol. Join the CAP today, you will never regret it.

According to a recent survey, newspaper advertising influences purchasing most. 81% of the people made purchases because of newspaper ads, only 4% because of television.

HAPPY HOMES!

Christmas gifts they'll appreciate all year round!

It's the same old problem. How to give a different gift, and keep it practical too! While you're pondering, let us suggest that a new telephone service may ring a bell.

There aren't many presents that are as personal, as different and as useful, every day of the year. Here are a few suggestions you might add to that list of Christmas ties and fruit cakes:

Princess Phone. It's little, it's lovely and the dial lights up! The Princess is particularly popular with the ladies. It takes up so little room on the desk or bedside table. It comes in a variety of beautiful decorator colors. And the dial glows softly all night long—lights up brighter when you lift the receiver.

Bell Chime. Announces your telephone calls with soft, musical notes. You can also set to regular or loud bell ring, if you prefer. The Bell Chime is of smart, modern design. Mounts on the wall, in hall or living room. Choice of gold or ivory.

Wall Phone. Always close at hand, but never in the way. Wall phones are perfect for those areas where space is at a premium... in the kitchen, basement, recreation room or the workshop. You have your choice of attractive colors.

For complete information on these and other telephone services just call or visit your Indiana Bell Business Office. Or ask your telephone serviceman.

The availability of divine protection and safety will be explained Sunday at Christian Science church services.

Highlighting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Preserver of Man" is the Golden Text from the Bible (II Timothy): "The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom."

One of the citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (p. 151): "The divine Mind that made man maintains His own image and likeness."

These verses from Psalm 121 will also be read: "The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore."

License Numbers Will Not Be Held After December 15

Mrs. Rosemary Bergman, manager of the Indiana Auto License Branch at Plymouth, wishes to again remind residents of this community that if they wish to keep the same license plate number they had in 1962, they must apply and pay for that number before Dec. 15. No number will be held open after that date.

Beginning Monday morning, Dec. 17, any number that is not paid for will be open to the public. Anyone who desires to get a low number may come in any time from Dec. 17 on and pay for whatever is left open. Plates will go on sale Jan. 2. The price of plates this year will be $12.50 and $8.50.

"LET NOTHING YOU DISMAY"

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
