Babson Discusses Advertising

Newspaper Advertising Ups Living Standards

Babson Park, Mass. — Advertising does not need to be defended against its critics it can defend itself. I am quite aware that tremendous sums of money have been wasted in advertising, but think how much money has gone down the drain in drilling for oil or mining for gold. When the right media and techniques are used in advertising, they can bring tremendous rewards, just as can drilling in oil-rich terrain or mining in promising lodes. Advertising is, of course, a risk, and it should be sold as such.

Chance Worth Taking
Nevertheless, it is a risk well worth taking. I can think of few gambles more likely to pay off. It is obvious from the record that officials of American companies agree with me on this, so their outlays must have been profitable indeed. When the final total is figured for 1962, I expect that both national and local advertisers will have shelled out about $8 billion for ads in newspapers and magazines. This represents a most spectacular channeling of cash into newspaper advertising.

Proof of the success of advertising is found in its steady growth and popularity. Ten years ago, for example, expenditures for newspaper and magazine advertising totaled only $3½ billion, while they amounted to only $1½ billion just twenty years ago. For some years a steadily greater part of corporation costs have been going into advertising, and I am certain that this trend will continue over the years ahead. It is interesting to note that, along the way, those concerns doing the greatest amount of advertising have nearly always been at or near the top in their fields.

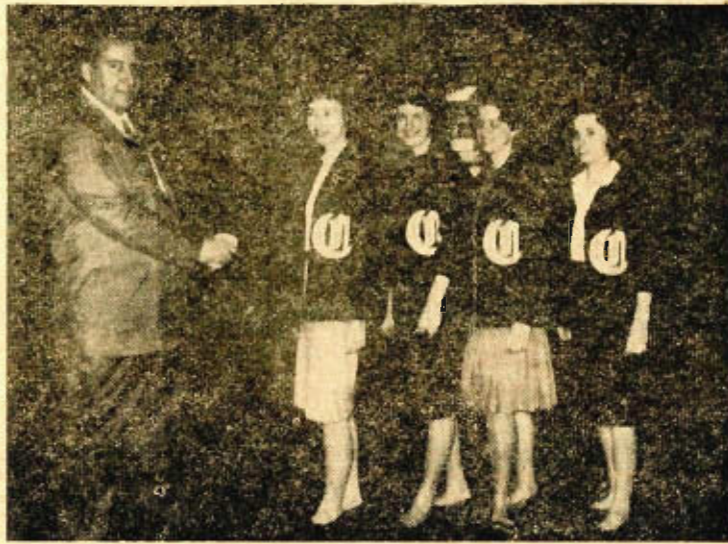

Advertising Helps Everybody
Some labor publications tend sometimes to complain that companies are putting too much money into this type of publicity. Union officials want higher wages for their members, and more and more expensive fringe benefits, — and often think of advertising as mere diversion of money that should go to the employees in one form or another. Hence, company officials should make plain to their personnel the value of advertising in holding up production and keeping employment high. A well-run firm is careful not to waste funds in profitless advertising. Results are always carefully studied, and directions are pursued that bring about greater sales, which in turn lead to larger payrolls.

Newspaper advertising is to a great extent responsible for our having the highest wage rates and the best standard of living in the world. There could be no mass selling without newspaper advertising. Mass production would be an impossibility without mass selling. Without mass production, our standard of living could not con-

Seniors Receive Honor Sweaters

By Lucy Osborn

Friday, Dec. 14, four Culver High School senior girls received sweaters for having exceptionally high grades. To receive an honor sweater a student must have a grade index of 9.55 or higher. This is the equivalent of between a "B+" and an "A-" average. The honor sweaters are presented by the student council as an incentive to students to get better grades. The sweaters are maroon cardigans with white gothic style "C's" on them. This year sweaters were awarded to Cheryl Dillon, Linda Behmer, Carolee Easterday, and Charlene Lucas. These students are also active in many other activities.

Girl Scout Troop 143 held their Christmas party Tuesday, Dec. 18 at the St. Mary's Catholic Church. The troop sang songs and had a gift exchange. Each girl was asked to tell what she wanted most for Christmas.

Refreshments of Christmas cookies and kool-aid were served after which the meeting was closed.

Smaller Cities Important

Many corporations located in or immediately outside of big cities place most of their outlays in national media, but more and more are recognizing the value of local placement. For instance, even some of the biggest concerns are giving more attention to small dailies and weeklies. I expect this tendency to increase over the coming years. Surveys have indicated that people of small communities read advertisements with great care.

In fact, I should say that I still consider newspapers, both large and small, as a safe investment. This is particularly true where there is only one newspaper which controls a given area, with the focus in a smaller city. True, production costs are moving upward, but it is still relatively easy to raise the price of a newspaper by a cent or two. People still want written news, and the more they pay for the paper the more carefully they read both the news and the ads. This means that the advertising space becomes more valuable.

Advertising and You

Occasionally I hear somebody say, "What is advertising doing to help me?" That is an easy question to answer. It is helping you, for one thing, to hold your job 52 weeks out of the year. It is helping to up your "take home" pay. It is increasing employment, so that your children too can get a good education. All of us should

Nickle Plate May Abandon Two Trains

The Nickle Plate Railway has petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to abandon two passenger trains now operative on the line, asking that on Jan. 6 it be permitted to cut in half the passenger service which presently moves through Knox.

The trains in question are No. 7 and No. 8; both day-time trains, one headed east and the other west. The only other passenger trains now being operated by the line through Knox are night-time trains, an eastbound shortly after 1:00 a.m. and the 6:46 a.m. westbound.

The trains which the rail line seeks to abandon are the 1:29 p.m. eastbound and the 3:51 westbound, with ultimate destination of Buffalo, N. Y. and Chicago, Ill.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has accepted protests from citizens who would be affected should these two trains stop service.

Hospital Notes

Pete Ott was admitted to Parkview Hospital in Plymouth Thursday evening where he underwent a tonsillectomy Friday morning and was released to his home Saturday where he is recuperating satisfactorily.

William Easterday, who had been ill at his home the preceding week, was admitted to Parkview Hospital at Plymouth on Saturday for observation and treatment. He is in room number 200.

Mr. Roy Cromley is in the Veterans Hospital at Fort Wayne for treatment and observation. He would be glad to hear from

Officials To Meet To Discuss School Consolidation

The details effecting the school consolidation of Aubbeenaubee Township in Fulton County, Union Township in Marshall County and North Bend Township in Starke County will be discussed at a meeting to be held here in Culver on Thursday, Dec. 27 at the State Exchange Bank Lounge, at 7:30 p.m.

The consolidation has been approved by the State School Reorganization committee, which is believed to be the final step in forming the unit under the Acts of 1947. The corporation was formed early in 1960 by members of the three townships with plans for the Tri-Township high school to be at Culver. There were no objections at that time.

The state committee, however, would not approve the plan and ruled that the commission would not approve school corporations which had been formed across county lines, without the approval of each county committee involved. The three county committees did not give their approval at that time.

The announcement made by the state committee last week that the commission had approved the consolidation without the approval of the county committees involved, apparently gave the go-sign on the original proposed plan and application.

During the November general election, citizens of the proposed Marston United School Corporation, which took in Argos, Culver and Aubbeenaubee Townships, voted against the plan 3,136 to 548.

Petitions were circulated in North Bend Township earlier this year asking that North Bend be released from the Starke County school committee in order to join the Culver-Aubbeenaubee proposed plan. Starke County committee refused to release the North Bend Township on a technicality of names withdrawn from the petitions.

Stephen Milliser Dies After Illness Of Several Months

Stephen Milliser, age 80, died at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 25, at the I.B.M. Nursing Home in Plymouth after an illness of several months.

Born in December of 1881 near Leiters Ford, Mr. Milliser had spent his entire life in this vicinity, farming and teaching school.

Surviving are one son, Russell Milliser, Villa Park, Ill.; one daughter, Mrs. Orval Gaby, Wilmington, Del.; one brother, Jacob Milliser, Rochester; four grandchildren; and five great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Easterday Funeral Home in Culver where friends may call. Rev. Theodore Roberts, Pastor of the Leiters Ford Methodist Church, will officiate and burial will be at the Leiters Ford Cemetery.

Services Held Tuesday For Ross Infant

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ross, 309 Lake Shore Drive, Culver, was dead at birth Sunday in Parkview Hospital, Plymouth.

Surviving with the parents are a sister, Cynthia Lou, at home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland G. Ross, DuBois, Pa.; and the maternal grandparents, Mrs. Florence Elinger and Willis Hartman, both of Plymouth.

Graveside services were conducted at 4 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 25, at the Culver Masonic Cemetery with Dr. Donald Williams, pastor of the Culver Methodist Church, officiating.

The Easterday Funeral Home, Culver, was in charge of arrangements.

Culver Masons To Observe The Feast Of St. John

Freemasonry in Indiana returns to a once honored but now almost discarded Masonic Festival when on December 27, lodges throughout the state meet to observe the Feast of St. John the Evangelist.

According to Jack F. Hewson of Evansville, Grand Master of Masons in Indiana, the Hoosier program is a unique one. He said nothing similar to it has been attempted by any Grand Lodge jurisdiction in the United States.

In a proclamation dated October 1, Mr. Hewson urged that at least 10 per cent of the 547 lodges in the state observe the traditional St. John's Day Feast seated at a Table Lodge. Nearly 200 lodges have indicated that they will participate.

The Henry H. Culver Lodge, No. 617, F. & A. M. will observe St. John's Day, on Thursday, December 27. The dinner will be held at the Lions Den at 6:30 p.m. Tickets for the dinner are $1.50. Following the dinner the members will assemble at the lodge rooms, above The State Exchange Bank for the rest of the program and installation of the 1963 officers. The meeting is a closed meeting for Master Mason only.

Following the meal a short talk will be presented at each lodge. A special message from the Grand Master will be read after which ancient and traditional Masonic toasts will be given.

Concerning the December 27th observance Mr. Hewson said:

"In restoring this ancient Masonic Holiday to its proper place we seek to kindle anew the bright light of brotherly love."

Charles Simmons, Mrs. Edith Hudson and daughter, Linda, spent the weekend in Chicago where they attended a pre-nuptial party for Harold Scott on Saturday night.

Former CMA Staff Member To Be Honored

BROOKS AFB, TEXAS — An Air Force space medicine pioneer retires Dec. 28 at Brooks AFB, Texas. He is Col. Paul A. Campbell, commander of the Aerospace Medical Division's School of Aerospace Medicine, and formerly of the Culver Military Academy medical staff from 1928 to 1936.

He will be honored with a parade at Brooks Friday, Dec. 28 at 10 a.m. to which the public is invited.

He will be succeeded by Col. Harold V. Ellingson, now vice-commander of the School and formerly commander of the Medical Service School at Gunter AFB, Ala.

Early Leader

Colonel Campbell is recognized as one of the earliest Air Force medical authorities to foresee the aeromedical problems of manned space flight. While Director of Medical Research at the School from 1950-53, he was instrumental in expanding aviation medicine into space medicine. He helped procure the world's first space cabin simulator for the School, and secured jet aircraft for the institution's early research in weightlessness.

Later, while he was chief of the institution's Space Medicine Division, the world's first two-man space cabin simulator was designed and built for use at the School.

He is the author of over 70 professional papers, has written portions of 11 textbooks, eight on space medicine, and helped organize the first two symposia international on "Physics and Medicine of the Upper Atmosphere," held in San Antonio in 1951 and 1958 respectively.

World War II Research Director

Colonel Campbell first joined the staff of the School of Aerospace Medicine in 1940 following completion of the Flight Surgeons' Course. He rose to become director of Medical Research at the School. After the war he went to Europe with the Air Staff Intelligence Team to study German Air Force research.

Returned to inactive reserve status in 1946, he was recalled to active duty in 1950 and again served as research director at the School. From 1953-1956 he was assistant air attache for England and The Netherlands, and from 1956-1958 was special assistant to the commander of the Air Force Office of Scientific Research. He then returned to the School to head its Space Medicine Division. When the USAF Aerospace Medical Center (now division) was established at Brooks AFB in 1959, he became special assistant to the commander and chief of the Advanced Studies Group. He was named commander of the School in February, 1962.

Colonel Campbell's decorations include the Legion of Merit, and two Air Force Commendation Medals, for his work in directing and accomplishing aerospace medical research in World War II and the Korean Conflict.

He was co-founder in 1950 the Space Medicine Branch of the Aerospace Medical Association.

Among his many professional affiliations, he is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Medicine, England, a member of the Society of Sigma Xi, and in 1961 was elected to the International Academy of Astronautics and the International Academy of Aviation Medicine.

State Exchange Bank Employees Hold Annual Christmas Party

The Culver Inn was the site on Tuesday evening, Dec. 18, for the annual Christmas party for the employees of The State Exchange Bank of Culver, The State Exchange Bank of Argos, Farmers State Bank of LaPaz, and State Exchange Finance Company of Culver. Husbands and wives of the employees were also guests.

Punch was served a 6 o'clock in the Inn Parlors and a complete turkey dinner was served in the dining room at 6:45 to 146 persons. The pink, silver, and white color scheme was carried out in all of the decorations. The beautiful centerpieces were candle holders shaped like trees with pink carnations and white candles. Favors marked each place setting.

Mr. W. O. Osborn, bank president, gave an informative talk about the business and the annual bonus was presented to the employees by Carl Adams.

The program for the evening featured the vocal capers of Byrd and Janine, stars of radio, television, and clubs, along with Max Cooper's impersonations entitled, "Satire from the stars," which made an instant hit with the entire group.

Prizes were awarded and those winning turkeys were Mrs. Donald Mikesell, Lois Wingett, Mrs. Gene Van Der Weele, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roose, and LaVern Geiger. Oranges were won by Mrs. Ronald McKee, Carl M. Adams, George Stults, and Floyd Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Witt, Mrs. Carl Adams, Sr., Betty Young, and Karen Dillman won candy. Fruit cakes were awarded to Mrs. Kenneth Williams, Dolores McCarthy, Roger Kelly, and Bob Calhoun. The centerpieces were awarded to A. N. Butler, Mrs. Carl Adams Jr., Linda Cowen, Mrs. E. N. Crescent Class Holds Annual Christmas Party
 The Grace Church social room was gay with decorations when 33 members of the Crescent group met for their annual Christmas party on Wednesday evening, Dec. 19.

A large decorated Christmas tree, a mantel arrangement of an angel choir made by Mrs. Cloyd Miller, a lighted church in miniature, a creche scene, a line of little red socks containing offering of the members to the redecoration project of the church, and many other reminders of the Season greeted the visitors.

After a bounteous Christmas dinner, the members met in regular session. Mrs. Herbyn Maynard, president, presided and welcomed the group. The Scripture Christmas Story from Luke was read by Mrs. Hohman and the pastor, Reverend Hohman led in prayer.

Several Christmas Carols were sung by the group. "Happy Birthday" was sung to Mrs. Walter Johnson. The mystery package was won by Cleve Crabb.

The class arranged to send Christmas baskets to several members of the church. The class voted $200 to the redecoration project, $10 to Fort Wayne Children's Home and $10 to the Church budget.

After the business meeting the film, "Restoration of Williamsburg, Va.," was shown by Tom Easterday.

The retiring officers were the hosts for the evening. They were Mrs. Maynard, Mrs. Wallace Starr, Mrs. Harold Baker, Miss Esther Stahl, Mrs. Herschel Strang, Wilfred Craft, and Mrs. Cleo Ringle.

Boy Scout Troop 290 did not meet on Monday. The next scheduled meeting is Monday, Dec. 31.

A Green Bar meeting will be held Thursday, Dec. 27 at Fletcher Mattox's home. January's meetings and activities and the upcoming overnight will be planned.

The Shadow Becomes Bushed

By Pamela Phelps

This week as the shadow went on its haunt, it found a very busy junior boy. To give you a teensy weensy hint I'll tell you just a little about him. He is 5'8" tall, weighs 155 lbs., and has brown hair and blue eyes. Oh, and he wears a size 9 1/2 shoe.

First period I found my victim working diligently away in study hall. After a tiring 55 minutes, I then followed my victim to chemistry, where, I am told, he made a blue and greenish liquid. Third period I again encountered him in Algebra II where he took a test which I am sure taxed his guessing ability. I didn't see him again until noon, when he was heartily indulging in one of his favorite pastimes — eating! He now has the nickname of the nation's No. 1 stomach stuffer.

I next spied my victim at the window outside of the office talking to none other than Joan Dillon! Fifth and sixth periods found him in French and study hall. Then seventh period I had English with him. He just happened to be the only one in the room to get a straight "A" on his quiz. Eighth period I met him in the typing room at a SSS-HI-Y committee meeting. He was in such a jolly good mood that we could not get much done. However, we pulled the plug from his electric typewriter, which temporarily shut him up! After keeping up my victim's pace all day I was thoroughly bushed by the end of the eighth period.

In case you haven't guessed who the shadow victim was this week, but I'm sure you have, it's the one and only Paul Allen White.

Beware! Next week's shadow may be YOU!

Pep Club Makes Tourney Plans

By Betty McFarland

Sunshine — At the last Sunshine meeting Christmas spirit was illustrated to the group by several people reading poems. "The Night Before Christmas" was read, with pictures being shown depicting certain scenes. The meeting was closed by the entire group singing carols.

The evening of the 18th the group went Christmas caroling to several homes. Afterwards they went to Bonnie Good's where they were treated to refreshments which were really appreciated after being out in the cold.

Pep Club — The Pep Club has made final plans for Homecoming and is starting plans for the tourney. Several committees have already been appointed.

The Night Before Christmas

By Cindy Kemple

'Twas nightsville come Christmas when all through the pad,
Not a bongo was playing, like man things were drab.
The saddles were placed by the firebox with care,
In hoping to get at least warm over there.
The small ones were snuggled all close in their beds,
While visions of jazz players danced through their heads.
With the chek they call mamma, I crawled in the sack,
While hoping to get in a long winter's nap.
When out on the roof there arose such a noise,
I thought for a while it was one of the boys.
Away to the window I flew like a bat,
To see the noise made by that real cool cat.
The moon shone on top of that dirty old ground,
Which gave things the color of brown, man, brown.
When what to my bloodshot eyes should be loose,
But an old fashioned car and eight tiny moose.
With a real hep cat a drivin' that crate,
I knew in a moment he'd be a good take.
More quickly than ever as if in a game,
He shouted and shook and called them by name.
Now, Clovis! Now, Frankie, now Jimmie and Nixon,
On, Johnny! On Crystals! On that 'n and this 'n.
To the top of the roof to the top of the sky,
Now dash away, dash away just like a fly.
As cool cats before a session gets started,
When they get a fight goin' and someone gets parted.
So up to the roof tops the mooses they took,
With a sleigh full of bongos and records all shook.
And then in a moment I heard on the ceiling,
The dancing and prancing of rocking and reeling.
When shutting the window my fingers got mashed,
Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a crash.
He was dressed in a neat looking sweatshirt I'd say,
One that I wouldn't wear any old day.
A bundle of comics he had in his sack,
As he fell kinda stupidly flat on his back.
His eyes how they bugged from the place they were in,
And his face was like he had just gone and been.
His droll little mouth was drawn down in a frown,
An' the whiskers he had were man like long.
The end of a cigar he held in his hand,
While that terrible odor covered all of the land.
He had a square head and a tight little fist,
That made him look mean when doing the twist.
He was chubby and plump, a right hep old cat,
And I laughed when I saw him because of all that.
One glare from his eye and a nod from his head,
Soon made me be wishing I could have been dead.
He missed not a beat as he played on the drum,
And he ate all our food, that dirty old bum.
And laying right down he went right to sleep,
Something just told me there was no more to eat.
He got to his feet as I gave him a slap,
Away they all flew with the wings of a bat.
And when he came near he said to all,
I'll be back next year cuz I had a ball.

Children Give To Lincoln Memorial

By Janet Branaman

Kindergarten, Mrs. Melton — Jeffrey Jones gave a Christmas party for the afternoon section. The class saw the movie "Animals of the Woods." The children have been practicing making numerals. After vacation they will also work on the alphabet. They were each given a folder with the primary alphabet. Since they use a uniform style it is much easier for them to learn the same way the first graders do. Richard Linhart furnished cookies for the afternoon class.

Second grade, Miss Page — Roger Hurt had a party Tuesday to celebrate his eighth birthday. He served cookies, milk, and candy bars.

Third grade, Mrs. Carter — Craig Walker won the spelling bee held last week. Douglas Mikesell furnished the Christmas tree with many students bringing ornaments. Twelve children have been absent with chicken pox. As well as reading Christmas stories in reading the class has made Christmas posters. The following children made donations to the Lincoln Memorial Foundation: Bruce Heiser, Charles Pennington, Craig Walker, Pamela White, Paul White, and Jeffrey Zechiel.

Fourth Grade, Mr. Horban — This week was our best in spelling. Thirty-one children had all their words spelled correctly. Last week the class practiced writing rhymes. Steve Neff, Linda Day, Rhymes Emigh, and Jimmy McFarland had very good ones. Mary Wieringa had an experiment in science that helped the children understand why some things float on water and others do not.

Sixth Grade, Mr. Wagner — The whole class is in a Christmas mood. They have a Christmas tree with many presents already under it. Some students have made stencils on the windows. The class is having a Christmas party on Friday.

School Menu

By Carolyn Reynolds and Ann Waite

(Beginning Wednesday, Jan. 2)

WEDNESDAY: Tomato soup, crackers, carrot sticks, ham salad or peanut butter sandwich, apple crisp, and milk.

THURSDAY: Hamburger and spaghetti, green beans, lettuce salad, fruit cup, bread, butter, and milk.

FRIDAY: Macaroni and cheese, spinach, peanut butter or tuna salad sandwich, apple salad, cookie, and milk.

We welcome her to Culver High School and we wish her the best of luck.

Meet Miss Reynolds

By Carolee Easterday

This week we are going to try to become a little better acquainted with our new home-economics teacher, Miss Carolyn Reynolds.

Where is her home town? With a hint of pride in her voice, Miss Reynolds claims that she lives in Mitchell, Ind., the "town of the astronaut." To clarify this, she said that Mitchell is the home town of Virgil Grissom. She knows his brothers personally but not Virgil Grissom himself.

She graduated from Purdue University where she spent four exciting years. Like all students, she had her share of fun at school. Once when she was walking back from the Co-rec., three boys threw her into a snow drift and completely buried her. She spent most of her spare time playing bridge on the floor with her friends.

Her number one pet peeve is for someone to call her "Runnolds." She can not stand people who aren't punctual, (students take note) and she hates liver.

She loves sports, especially basketball. Her favorite food is anything with chocolate in it. (Instead of seeing a pile of polished red apples on her desk the week before semester grades, we'll probably find chocolate candy.)

For Christmas, she needs an umbrella to protect herself on the streets.

She has one bad fault. She talks on the telephone too long. She confessed that she is going to receive a $50 telephone bill in January for just ONE phone call!

Miss Reynolds has a rare combination of humor and capability.

Christmas . . .

By Martha McAllister.

Linda Nelson and Bonnie Saft — This week, because it is the Christmas season, we decided to inquire of some of the students of C.H.S. what they wanted the very most for Christmas. Perhaps you will find some of the replies rather humorous.

Mary Anne Shock — What I would like most is to take a trip to California.

Anita Yeazel — What I would like most is someone from Purdue with the initials "D. B."

Paul White — I wish Santa would bring me four inches of growth so I would be six feet tall.

Jerry Huffer — Shorter school years and a lot of money.

Barbara Overmyer — I'd like one of the Three Kings!

Richard Warner — I wish I had more than one Christmas so there would be more than one Christmas vacation!

Brenda Baker — Well, I'm getting both for Christmas.

Ned Davis — I'll never tell!

Wade Logan — Same as Ned.

Charles Snyder — How about educational pills?

Diane Boots — Not much, just a couple of trips — to Wisconsin, Germany, California, and Colorado! (Not much)

Bill Cook — Just a new car.

Vicki Lyons — Two glorious weeks in Hawaii!

Dawn Walter — That's for me to know, and I hope nobody finds out!

Gloria Baker — I think you would find it difficult to get or carry. It's only about seven miles away.

Carol Herr — What I want for Christmas, Janet Rosebaum is getting for me with a ribbon around his neck.

Janet Heiser — Give me a long Christmas vacation and I'll think about it!

Danny Scott — A million dollars!

Sharyl Welsh — Three-piece luggage and a certain boy.

Lois Newcomb — Santa Claus knows and that's all that counts.

Steve Guise — Atlas Missile and Atom Bomb! (Do you suppose he's planning to overthrow the government?)

Sherrill Edgington — For Culver to win another basketball game.

Kathy Easterday — For Culver to win the B-team tourney.

Charlene Lucas — About two days of spare time and not one thing to do with it!

Carol Overmyer — Gary!

Dennis Shock — Fudge (?) and skis.

Rex Crump — A busload of girls.

Andy Lowry — To win the B-team tourney.

Sheryl Hohman — I can't think of anything.

Pat Kline — I can't either.

Larry Linhart — My two front teeth.

Sharon McGaffey — I'll have it right after Christmas!

Carmen Gretter — Brains!

Cheryl Dillon — A wonderful Christmas vacation.

Larry Miller — A Christmas

Lucy Osborn — A tape recorder.

Lonni Darosci — Three guesses!

Valerie Gunder — A Santa Claus named George Wright!

Joan Dillon — It wouldn't fit under a tree, and I also want to be sixteen.

Jeanne Adams — That's my little secret!

Sue Cole — Lots of snow.

Marcella Manns — That's for me to know and for you to find out.

Eva Norris — Well, you just don't get things like that for Christmas!

Pamela Crozier — A package from Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

Sharon Wright — If you can find a box big enough to wrap "him" in, I'll tell you.

Terry Porter — a "63" Corvette Stingray.

Richard Lutz — Ho, ho, ho, wouldn't you like to know?

Dennis Pollock — You can have your Corvette Stingrays, but I'll take a "53" Studebaker anytime.

Leonard Richards — A nice package of cheers, and the certain one who leads them.

Ed Matson — A car of my own and a certain girl to go with it.

Jim Boswell — A package with the Marshall County Basketball Trophy in it.

Layne Zechiel — I would like $1,000,000 tax free, but I would like $1,000,000,000 better.

B. J. Lawrance — A miracle!!!

Tom Yocom — The same things I wanted the last time you asked me!

Judy Price — My one front tooth!

Well Balanced

By Paul White

The varsity basketball team, thus far having a 1-6 record, contains a well balanced scoring attack. The team as a whole has scored 366 points in seven games for an average of 52 points per game. The average field goal percentage per game is 34% and there have been a total of 338 rebounds pulled down for an average of 48 rebounds per game. The team has hit 55% of their free throws for a poor showing in this department, one of the factors that has cost the boys several ball games.

Leading the team in total points is Thad Overmyer hitting 32% from the field and collecting 84 points for a 12 point per game average. Paul White is second with 71 points while Rick Ervin is close behind with 70 and hitting 35% of his shots.

In the rebound department Overmyer also leads with a total of 76 rebounds. Rick Ervin is right behind him with 65 rebounds and Dave Lemar has added 49.

Percentage wise Jim Boswell leads the team hitting a remarkable 56% from the field. White is second with a percentage of 45% and Sam Lowry is hitting 38% for the third position.

The B-team, playing excellent basketball under Coach Cox, has compiled a 5 and 2 record. Their only two losses have been to North Judson and Rochester, two very tough teams.

The freshmen team has a 2-2 record, beating an undefeated Winamac team and Mentone while losing to Lapaz and Bremen.

The seventh grade team has compiled a 2-2 record while the eighth grade stands at 2-3. However, it must be mentioned that several seventh graders and one sixth grader have been playing eighth grade ball.

Do You Remember 'Way Back When?'

Highlights of Culver News of 10, 20, 30, 40, and 50 Years Ago This Week

DECEMBER 24, 1952—

Seven members of the Henry H. Culver Masonic Lodge will be honored next Saturday evening when they will be presented 25-year membership pins. The following Masons will receive the award: Charles Buffington, Ray Fisher, Russel Fisher, Evert Hoesel, Marion Jones, Lewis Kepler, and Ervin R. Nelson.

Pfc. M. E. Thomas participated in an important USMC maneuver. The maneuver took place on a Southern California beach where the division completed its first amphibious assault.

Marilyn Hook and Frank O. McLane were united in marriage Friday, Dec. 19. The bride is presently employed at The Culver Citizen.

Kenneth Steele, senior student in electrical engineering at Purdue University, was re-elected president of the Amateur Radio Association of the Air Force ROTC at Purdue.

DECEMBER 30, 1942—

The Indiana Highway Department has taken over the maintenance of the county road which connects State Roads 17 and 31 and has been designated as Road 110.

Mrs. Henry Meyer of Terre Haute, a former Lake Maxinkuckee resident, died Dec. 21 after an illness of a week.

Following the suggestion of the OPA that hours be reduced, an agreement has been signed by several owners of Culver business firms to close on Thursday afternoons from January 7 to May 30. John Overmyer and Charles Cook were among the 27 young men from Marshall County to be inducted into the Army last week. Fires in Culver and Union Township during the fiscal year totaled losses at $5,275, according to the annual report issued by Cary Cummins, chief of the Culver Volunteer Fire Department.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. F. A. Brewer on Monday night from heart trouble and shock caused by her husband's death, exactly a week before.

DECEMBER 28, 1932—

Charles H. Pierce, well known cottager, died Dec. 22 in Los Angeles, Calif.

Harry Medbourn, Jane Woolbridge, and Mrs. F. E. Newman all underwent operations for appendicitis during the past week.

Mrs. Nettie Rollins, 63 years of age, died Tuesday.

Sarah Ann Turnbull died on Christmas Day.

DECEMBER 27, 1922—

Master Henry Gignilliat was host to a large group of his playmates for a rousing birthday party on Dec. 24.

Four men from Knox have been jailed for stealing cars, changing engine numbers and selling stolen cars. Two others are under arrest but at liberty under bond.

Jacob Zumbaugh died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. R. Thomas, at Delavan, Ohio.

Miss Eleanor Louise Monninger and Lt. H. R. Schuefler were married on Christmas Day.

DECEMBER 26, 1912—

The street hydrants were outfitted with their overcoats last Friday, a true sign that cold weather is coming.

Last week the teachers of the high school met with some of the parents at the school building to discuss the work of the Parent-Teacher organization and the advisability of trying to form such a society in Culver.

Clyde Wilson, son of James Wilson, broke his arm in three places while unloading telephone poles from a car. He was taken to a hospital in Fort Wayne.

W. R. Hettinger, the baker, this week sold his 60-acre farm near Cornwell for $8,000.

For night driving, says the Chicago Motor Club, be sure that all front and rear lights are clean and operating at top efficiency. Replace any burned out bulbs immediately.

The Chicago Motor Club reminds drivers that following the vehicle ahead too closely leaves little room for safety. The recommended following distance under ideal driving conditions is one car length for every 10 miles an hour of speed. If roads are slippery, traffic is heavy, or visibility is poor, a much greater distance is required for maximum safety.

Winter driving often is a slippery business, cautions the Chicago Motor Club. When driving on ice and snow avoid sudden application of the brakes. If you begin to skid, steer in the direction of the skid. In other words, if the rear wheels skid to the right, turn the steering wheel to the right.

How mankind is redeemed through a scientifically correct understanding of God will be explained at Christian Science church services Sunday.
Opening the Bible readings will be this verse from Isaiah: "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined." The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Christian Science."

A citation to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (p. 466): "The Science of Christianity comes with fan in hand to separate the chaff from the wheat. Science will demonstrate this declaration and its divine principle, making mankind better physically, morally, and spiritually."

KNOT HOLE GANG — A Dearborn County man, Charles Long, was saved from the dog house by a family of blue birds that built a nest in the knot hole of a wooden fence post around his home. Long's wife had read a plea in a newspaper to build bird houses to keep blue birds from becoming extinct and asked her husband to build one but he kept putting it off. "You know how husbands are," Mrs. Long told The Dearborn County Register. But finally, Mrs. Long found a family of three baby blue birds in the nest built in the knot hole and she forgave her husband for his procrastination.

Purdue University agricultural economists say Indiana farm land values are expected to strengthen in the year ahead. Hoosier farm land values rose to an estimated average value of $260 an acre last year.

WHITE NEW YEAR Each new year is like a new-fallen snow — unmarked until errant footsteps destroy its gleaming splendor. But short-lived is that spell of peace and perfection. Soon the newness is trampled out, the same old trails show themselves again.
Tearing the last page off the calendar can change the year. But, it cannot change the MAN. We'll make of each new year just what we have made of the old ones — unless we direct our lives anew toward God and neighbor, unless we re-evaluate destiny and self.
In this New Year don't expect a blanket of perfection to hide the old failures. But seek the better Way. The Church helps men discover new trails . . . and follow them with new hope . . . to a new vision of life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Walkerton Beats Our CHS Indians By 53-43 Score

Play Next Game At Bremen January 4

By Earl D. Mishler

The visiting Walkerton Indians pulled away in the last three minutes of play Friday night to hand Culver its seventh defeat in eight games, 53-43.

The game was a battle of zone defenses, but the St. Joseph county tribe was able to throttle the opposing offense much more effectively than could the local Indians.

Nine minutes of action had elapsed before the game's first foul was whistled. Walkerton streaked to a 12-4 lead and held on to a 14-10 margin after eight minutes. The sharp shooting of tiny guard, Carlos Arce and pivotman, Don Ludwig, led the visitors, but Thad Overmyer's hard-driving play on the base line of Culver's zone offense paved the way in the second quarter and Culver narrowed the gap to 27-26 at half-time.

Once again Culver failed to push into the lead, as they twice tied the score in the third period. Junior guard Ernie Morrison took over the pace-setting in the second half for Walkerton and Ludwig continued his steady scoring. Meanwhile the visitors' zone had stopped Overmyer's baseline moves and no other Culver shooter could hit consistently. Owing a 40-35 lead after three quarters, Walkerton survived one last Culver threat, then raced away to their 10-point victory.

Dave Lemar led the feeble Culver offense with 11 points and Overmyer had nine. Sam Lowry, playing for the first time from a forward position added eight points and rebounded well. Ludwig and Arce had 16 and 12 for Walkerton.

The Culver B-team registered their sixth victory in eight games on Jim Lewis' last second goal, 28-26. Most observers felt it was the Papooses' worst showing of the year, but they showed their class by coming from behind to win. Lewis shared scoring honors with three teammates, Jim Weirick, Andy Lowry, and Bob Carter, each scoring six points. Ron Williams led the losers with eight.

Two weeks of Christmas vacation will be followed by a January 4 game at Bremen.

Toll Road To Give Free Coffee On New Year's Eve

That traditional "one for the road" becomes "one ON the road" this New Year's Eve on the Indiana Toll Road.

Robert A. Tillett, general manager of the Indiana turnpike, said today that a coupon good for "one free cup of coffee" will be given to every traveler on the Road between 10 p.m., Dec. 31, and 7 a.m., Jan. 1, 1963.

The coupon will be honored at any of the 16 restaurants on the east-west turnpike which runs across northern Indiana from the Ohio line to Chicago, according to Fred Gibbons, manager for Interstate Hosts, Inc., which operates the food facilities.

Reminding motorists that the Indiana Road has always been clear for safe driving, no matter what the weather, Tillett cautioned motorists to drive with care over the holidays. "And make that 'last one for the road' a cup of coffee 'on the road' on New Year's Eve," he advised.
