Congress Supplies Money To Buy Stocks - Babson

Spending Adds To Income

Babson Park, Mass. — First, we must remember that the margin requirement has been reduced from 70% to 50%. This enables those with only a few dollars to speculate. These office workers, etc., buy a few shares today and sell tomorrow.

Demand and Supply
Holders of older dividend-paying stocks do not want to sell. The Dow-Jones Average is largely made up of the older dividend-paying shares. They are mostly in the safe deposit boxes of their owners who do not want to be bothered with going to get them. Hence, during 1962, the demand for these Dow-Jones stocks exceeded the supply, insofar as the market was concerned.

There are currently 2,500,000 civilian employees on the federal payroll, whom, I estimate, received $15 billion during 1962. This is included in the total $300-billion salary and wage portion of the personal income figure. Also, during the year, their savings accounts were being increased and their debts were being decreased.

$50 Billion Paid Out Annually
The above figures are for civilians in the government employ. Along with these should be considered the 2½ million men in uniform throughout the world, — over 1 million in the army, 666,000 in the navy, 884,000 in the air force, and 191,000 marines. It is estimated that the pay received by them is spent and saved largely by nearly a million U.S. families.

I estimate that these families receive $11 billion annually. All the above means that the Kennedy Administration pays about $40 billion per year direct to U.S. voters. If to this amount we add the wages paid by the contractors engaged in defense contracts, we reach a conservative figure of $50 billion in cash which is paid out in Washington annually to U.S. people.

I am not saying that the stock market will not continue to go up and down. However, Wall Street's stock market may today have a far better foundation, which makes it safer than in 1929. Then, the Federal payroll was comparatively small; and very little was going into pension funds, mutual and other funds.

What People Save or Invest
We know that the American people increase their savings about $3 billion annually. Adding this to their earnings makes a total of over $50 billion. Much of these savings were used to buy stocks in New York. I, however, believe that at least 20% was savings deposits which banks loaned to the public to build homes and make improvements to homes already constructed; This shows approximately where $10 billion went from the U.S. Treasury.

The above figures leave about $40 billion for merchandise, services, taxes, insurance, and other household expenses. Now I guess that 10% of this $40 billion reaches Wall Street. This means that our Federal Government is supplying annually $4 billion for Wall Street.

During 1962 the average of daily transactions on the New York Stock Exchange was about 3,500,000 shares. If an average price per share is assumed to be $30, this means that $100,000,000 was needed to buy said daily total; but probably only about 10% represented new commitments, on balance. That is, on

Funeral Services Held Today For Paul C. Reichard

Paul C. Reichard, 67, of Route 1, Kewanna, died at 7:10 p.m. on Sunday, March 17, at Parkview Hospital in Plymouth following a three-year illness which became serious the past two weeks.

Mr. Reichard was born in Fulton County on Aug. 28, 1895, and had lived in that community his entire lifetime. On March 11, 1931, he was married at Logansport to Marie Bussard who survives.

He was a member of the Leiters Ford Methodist Church; the Tippecanoe Fish and Game Club at DeLong; a charter member of the Fulton County Farm Bureau; and a member of the Pinhook Grange at Kewanna.

Survivors in addition to his wife are a son, Russell E. Reichard, Route 1, Kewanna; a brother, Omer E. Reichard, Rochester; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. today at the Leiters Ford Methodist Church with Rev. Theodore Roberts, pastor, officiating. Burial was made in the Leiters Ford I.O.O.F. Cemetery. The Easterday-Bonine Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Basketball Team Honored By Culver Lions

The Culver Lions Club honored the Culver High School basketball team last Wednesday evening with the annual basketball supper. Attending were team members, yell leaders, school officials, parents and Lions Club members.

Dr. Oscar Wesson opened the meeting. Mr. William Washburn acted as toastmaster for the evening. Short talks were given by Gene Crosley, Culver coach; Kenneth Cole, Culver principal; and James R. Cox, coach of Culver's "B" Team. Mr. Frank McLane gave the address of the evening.

Trophies were presented to the team members. Thad Overmyer received a trophy for making the most rebounds and the Paul Underwood Trophy which is given the boy voted by his teammates as the most valuable player. Sam Lowry was presented the Free Throw Trophy, which is known as the Tone Shaw-Rex Mawhorter Trophy.

A trophy for getting the most rebounds and one for the most free throws was presented to the "B" team. Douglas Lindvall, won both of these. Lion Norman Baker was presented the Lions Distinguished Service Citation for his activities in the Lions Club work.

Spring Music Concert Of Culver Schools Postponed To March 31

The Culver Public School's Annual Spring Concert will have to be postponed until 3 p.m. Sunday, March 31, 1963.

This postponement is necessary because Richard O. Hambrick, director of music, has influenza.

an average day, only $10 million of new money was needed to keep Wall Street rolling. Multiply this by 250 days, and we have $2.5 billion of new money needed each year.

From where does it come? Of course it comes from a great many sources, mostly from "larger" individual investors, pension funds, trust funds, and investment or mutual funds. But if to this is added 8% of the Federal Government payroll, estimated above at $50 billion, this means that a substantial amount would be coming basically from Washington. Furthermore, an increase in these Government employees of only 1% would add $50 million annually to the above. Hence, to answer my question, the needed money to buy stocks comes largely from Washington.

Easter Vacation Dates Set By School Board

In its meeting of Tuesday evening, March 19, the Board of Trustees of Culver Community Schools approved dismissal of the schools for Good Friday, April 12, and Monday, April 15, for the Easter vacation for pupils and teachers. The School Board also adopted the schedule for the school term of 1963-1964, with organization day to open the term on Tuesday, Sept. 3. The request of the Culver Community Teacher Association for a spring vacation during the week of March 23-27, 1964, was granted. This will provide for the week's recess to include Senior trips next year and will divide the second semester into two equal sections of nine weeks each.

Superintendent Frank McLane reported that the schedules for individual pupils of Grades 7-12 at Culver are being arranged by Principal Kenneth Cole and Guidance Director Jack Miller. As soon as this work is completed, the approximate enrollments can be determined for the various subjects. This will help establish more accurately the teacher needs for the 1963-1964 term. The increase in enrollments at Culver for next year will require some additional members of the teaching staff, with the determination of the teaching areas for the new teachers to be based on the probable pupil loads in the different subjects of Grades 7-12.

Miss Ruth Shank and Principal Kenneth Cole were designated by the School Board to serve as sponsors for the Senior trip for Culver students. Mr. Vernie Bowen indicated that Principal Kenneth Olin would be the probable sponsor for the Auhbeenaubee trip.

The School Board reviewed and made suggestions for additions to the specifications for new school busses to be purchased this spring. Superintendent McLane was asked to publish legal notices requesting bids on the three busses, with the bids to be opened in the meeting of the School Board on Tuesday, April 9. In order that negotiations may be held during April regarding bus routes, the Superintendent was asked to arrange for the preparation of maps of the entire school corporation. These materials then can be used to determine the probable pattern of revision of present routes as a basis for the negotiations with drivers.

The School Board decided to hold the public meeting on plans for handling increased enrollments for 1963-64 and unification of the high schools in the fall of 1964 on Tuesday evening, April 23, 1963. The date had been set previously for April 24. It was explained that the change in date would eliminate conflict with many church activities scheduled regularly for Wednesday evenings.

Hospital Notes

William Easterday, 311 W. Washington St., Culver, returned home Saturday from Parkview Hospital at Plymouth where he had been a patient since March 1. He is reported getting along very satisfactorily.

Mrs. Frank Brooke, 825 Lake Shore Drive, Culver, returned home yesterday from a hospital in South Bend where she had been a patient for six weeks following major surgery. She is reported getting along satisfactorily.

Roy C. Ragsdale, 510 E. College Ave., Culver, who walks with the aid of crutches since suffering a broken hip in January, 1962, had the misfortune to fall at his home Saturday morning receiving a severe head wound which required several stitches to close. He was taken to a local doctor's office for treatment and X-rays and returned home where he is recuperating satisfactorily.

Frank Hartwig To Address Culver Lions Club

FRANK HARTWIG

Frank Hartwig, executive director of the South Bend Committee of 100, South Bend Chamber of Commerce, will be the guest speaker at the Culver Lions Club meeting Wednesday, March 27, at 6:30 p.m. at the Lions Den.

Hartwig, as executive director, has full charge of the management and development of the South Bend Airport Industrial Park. He will address the Lions Club on the subject of Industrial Parks, their development, management, and operation.

Hartwig's talk will act as a supplement to Dr. Bergin's address, made recently before the Culver Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Bergin addressed that body on economic growth and area development.

Officers and members of the Culver Chamber of Commerce and the Culver Jaycees, as well as all Lions members, are urged to attend this meeting. Because of the new interest being shown locally in area and industrial development for this area, Hartwig's address should be most interesting and instructive.

Reservations for the dinner and meeting may be made with Harold Fitterling, James Bonine, or Jesse Overmyer. Reservations must be made not later than Monday evening, March 25.

Hartwig has had wide experience in industrial development programs. He has been manager of Petroleum-Industry Department, Tulsa, Okla., Chamber of Commerce; manager, Industrial Development, Boise, Idaho, Chamber of Commerce; manager sales, Production Planning and Industrial Relations, Quaker Oats Company, Sherman, Texas; manager of transportation, Chrysler Corporation, Detroit, Mich. He attended Texas A. & M. College and is a graduate of Michigan State University.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 148 TO SELL LIGHT BULBS BEGINNING MARCH 23

Girl Scout Troop 148 was rained out on last weekend's scheduled canvass to sell light bulbs in the Culver area.

Girl Scouts will conduct this campaign, weather permitting, next Saturday, March 23, and evenings after school.

Proceeds from this light bulb sale will be used to purchase needed equipment for future camping trips.

The bulbs come in an eight-pack, consisting of 4-100 watt, 2-75 watt, and 2-60 watt bulbs selling for $2 a pack.

Each troop is allowed only one fund-raising project, in addition to the cookie sale. This bulb sale is the project of Girl Scout Troop 148.

Anyone who is missed during the canvassing may purchase bulbs at the Wallace Helber residence on Harding Court.

TOWN BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Jaycees Will Sponsor Easter Egg Hunt

The Culver Jaycees met on Thursday, March 14, at the State Exchange Bank Auditorium with president Sanford Snyder presiding.

Carl F. Foust was appointed chairman of the Easter Egg Hunt, which will be held Saturday, April 13, rain date Sunday, April 14, for the children of the Culver area. Details will be announced later.

The National Jaycee Convention will be held at Louisville, July 24-27. Members from here are planning to attend.

Robert Kline, scrapbook chairman, reported his committee was functioning and the club's scrapbook was up to date. Norman Witt, chairman of the funds committee, reported a plan to give away a live steer as a method of raising funds for the club.

Verlin Shafer, project chairman, presented a program for consideration which included beach improving, ball park, carnival, winter events, septic tank project, and national holiday observance and participation.

William O. Osborn Featured In "The Vedette"

Mr. William O. Osborn, president of the State Exchange Bank, is featured in an article appearing March 15 in "The Vedette," the Culver Military Academy's student newspaper. The article, written by Steven S. Piecuch, editor, and titled "William Osborn — President of a Bank, Godfather of a School", presents a very interesting account of the association between Mr. Osborn and the Academy down through the years.

Interspersed through the article are the sound philosophies of Mr. Osborn, which have been the foundation on which The State Exchange Bank has been built into the successful institution it is today. In conclusion of the article Mr. Osborn says, "There are only four things in Culver — The Academy, the bank, the people and the lake".

Linda Carl Wins First Prize In Art Exhibit

Miss Linda Carl, a member of the Culver High School senior class, won coveted honors at the art exhibit held Saturday and Sunday, March 16-17, in The State Exchange Bank Auditorium.

High school students who were winners in the seven counties of the 13th district submitted entries to the exhibit sponsored by the Federated Clubs.

Miss Carl won one of the two first prizes and receives a one week, all-expense-paid trip to the Art Clinic at Ball State Teachers College for her portfolio entry of pencil, pastel, and sculpture artwork.

Linda also won a cash award for her pastel art entry.

Warner Williams of Culver and Miss Mary Wallace of Elkhart served as judges for the exhibit.

Besides possessing noteworthy artistic ability, Linda maintains a general scholastic average of "B."

Stanley O. Ross At Burr Oak Church of God

Stanley O. Ross, National Superintendent of Missions of the General Conference of the Churches of God, was guest speaker for the morning worship service, March 17, at the Burr Oak Church of God.

Mr. Ross resides in Oregon, Ill., the national headquarters of the Church of God. He has been in his present position in the mission work of the Church of God for the past year and a half.

Mr. Ross challenged the local congregation on the subject of "Our Mission Responsibilities", using the words of Job 31:17, "have I eaten my morsel myself alone". Many interesting facts and highlights of mission opportunities were brought out in his message. He inspired the congregation by telling of the new developments in the Church of God mission program. The local church is currently sponsoring the filling of dime banks to be used in this mission work.

A special offering was received during the morning services to be used in the building expansion program of the Church of God College in Oregon, Ill. The high school class of the Burr Oak Sunday School, presented a tithing chest containing their tithes for recent weeks. This amount was added to the build-expansion fund.

Assisting in the service were, Larry Norman, directing the congregational singing; Cindy Kemple leading in the scripture meditation; and a vocal trio consisting of, Mrs. Albert Overmyer, Carol Overmyer, and Carol Heiser.

Mr. Ross left for South Bend to conduct a similar service at the Hope Chapel Church of God, on Sunday evening.

Boy Scout Troop Wins Conservation Merit Award

Boy Scout Troop 290, of Culver, has won the Conservation Award of Merit, given by the American Forest Products Industries, Inc., for completing the conservation requirements established by the Boy Scouts of America. Each Boy Scout also was presented a pocket-size card which is a replica of the Award of Merit.

Scoutmaster Carl F. Foust stated that the minimum goals were three projects (Troop 290 accomplished four); seventy-five percent of the Troop membership required to pass the individual conservation goals; and 75 percent participation in the Troop's projects. Troop 290's percentage was 79% and 83% respectively.

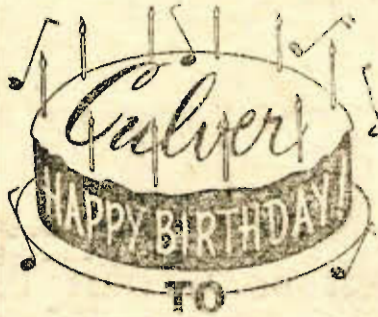

The projects completed by the Troop were: (1) The building of wood duck boxes and placing them in good locations; (2) building bird feeders and keeping them supplied with bird food during the winter months; (3) building a deer feeder and keeping it supplied with food; and (4) setting up underwater brush shelters for the protection of small fish.

Scoutmaster Foust says that the Troop plans a very ambitious program for 1963. They will work closely with the Maxinkuckee Fish and Game Club on several of their proposed conservation programs.

GRETA HUGHES NAMED TO HONOR ROLL AT MacMURRAY COLLEGE

Greta Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Hughes of Culver, has been named to the honor roll at MacMurray College, Jacksonville, Ill., for the first semester. To qualify, a student must carry at least 14 hours of academic work and achieve an A- average.

MacMurray, the first coordinate college in the Midwest, has an enrollment of 851, with 399 students in the Men's College, founded in 1955, and 452 in the 117 year-old Women's College.

Famous Landmark Being Removed For Traffic Safety

The historic sycamore trees, which line State Highway 29, on both sides of the highway, south of Logansport are being removed in the interests of traffic safety. The huge trees, numbering about 50, have been a landmark for many decades. Some of the trees are well over 100 years old. The trees line the highway for about 165 yards and are along the section of the highway just south of Deer Creek in Carroll county. Deer Creek is 9 miles south of Logansport.

The state highway department wants to widen the highway to a 24 foot right-of-way through the area. The present width, because of the trees is only 18 feet and in some instances the trees are growing in the blacktop. Not all the trees will be removed. John Burrough, sub-district superintendent, says "we are just trying to make it safe for the traveling public". He pointed out it was very dangerous for school busses traveling the highway as well as for passenger cars.

Over 300 View Tri Kappa Art Exhibition

The free exhibition of paintings sponsored by the Epsilon Nu Chapter of Kappa, Kappa, Kappa, Inc., was attended by 300 from Culver and the surrounding vicinity, Argos, Bremen, Logansport, Plymouth and Rochester.

The selection of 24 paintings from the permanent collection purchased through the years from the Hoosier Salon was exhibited in the Art Gallery of the Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium, Culver Military Academy, from Sunday, March 3, through Monday, March 11.

The Culver High School art students, one class under the direction of Miss Priesen and two classes under Mr. Smith, attended the exhibit during their art periods. The attendance of the Bremen High School art students and their art teacher, Miss Baker, was made possible by the Epsilon Pi Chapter in Bremen.

The exhibition was opened with a formal tea arranged by Mrs. J. W. Henderson and her committee, Mrs. Melvyn A. Estey, the president of the Culver Chapter and Mrs. C. G. Coolman, the past president, welcomed the guests.

Mr. Warner Williams, artist-in-residence at the Culver Military Academy, was present to answer questions concerning the paintings.

During the week and the following weekend coffee was served under the direction of Mrs. John Cleveland with other members assisting.

Mrs. George Ogden, art chairman, and her committee, Mrs. J. W. Henderson and Mrs. John Cleveland, wish to thank the Culver Military Academy for the use of the Art Gallery for the display of the pictures; the Culver Inn for their fine cooperation; Mr. Warner Williams for his gracious assistance; and each Tri Kappa for her splendid effort in making this community project a success.

Visitors to Culver judge it largely by the people they meet here. What do you do to make Culver more attractive to visitors and newcomers?

"Vedette" Editor Receives Top Writing Honors

Steven S. Piecuch, editor of The Vedette student newspaper of the Culver Military Academy, is one of four high school students who has won top writing honors in a contest sponsored jointly by the American Newspaper Publishers Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. He won top honors for the best news story. More than 500 contestants participated in the annual contest.

Steven S. Piecuch, 17, has attended Culver on scholarship for five years. He has been honored for high academic achievement and has been an outstanding member of several campus groups engaged in extra-curricular activities.

Chief among these extra-curricular groups is The Vedette, student newspaper at Culver Military Academy for 68 years. Piecuch joined the bi-weekly newspaper staff as a cartoonist three years ago and his Nebbish-like cartoon characters that depict the foibles of Culver cadets are well received by a readership of 4,000 students, faculty, parents, and alumni.

In September, Piecuch assumed leadership of a school newspaper that was honored in two previous years with an All American rating by the National Scholastic Press Association (1960-61) and an A-plus by the National Newspaper Service (1961-62). The Vedette also received a First Class rating last year from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and never has received less than that distinction from any service since it was submitted for critical analysis five years ago.

Piecuch's prize-winning story was entitled "Education Goes On for Culver's Bob Osborn at Ole Miss," and was printed in The Vedette several days after riots killed two persons on the University of Mississippi campus. Osborn, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osborn, 433 Forest Place, is an Academy graduate and is a freshman at Mississippi.

Obtaining his information from a telephone call to Osborn at Oxford, Piecuch described the scene on the Ole Miss campus as Negro James H. Meredith was enroffed at the university. Osborn vividly related post-riot scenes around the campus and in the dormitories as an uneasy truce lay over the university.

Piecuch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Piecuch, formerly of East Chicago, Ind. The Piecuch family currently is moving to Culver. His father is a tool and dye maker and supervisor for the Plas-Steel Company, Walkerton, Ind.

Culver is a nationally known college preparatory school for 840 boys in grades eight through 12 from September to June. Steven hopes to attend Wabash College, Crawfordsville, next year.

At the end of a day's trek, westward-bound wagon trains were drawn into a tight circle. This makeshift campsite also served as a theater-in-the-round where pioneers danced and sang. Main purpose, however, was to provide protection against Indian attack.

Road-side inns appeared along stagecoach routes after the West was won. A simple meal, a few hours of sleep were all the road-weary could expect. Many considered themselves lucky to get a seat near the fireplace.

Today, mobile Americans can count on clean, comfortable lodging at Imperial '400' Motels. Partnership management between operator and the chain and modern decor have made Imperial '400' the fourth largest motel chain in the country.

"Winter Kill" Is Explained By Conservation Dept.

The death of fish under the ice is a natural catastrophe called "winter kill." The appearance of dead fish in lakes and ponds, as the ice melts, is a disappointing sight to anglers and pond owners.

The past winter has been one of the coldest on record. Subzero temperatures caused a layer of ice to be formed which exceeds 30 inches in some northern Indiana lakes. The water level of many lakes and ponds was already below normal. Shallow, weedy impoundments are the most likely places for "winter kill" to occur. The combination of low water level, thick ice, and snow over the ice, has probably cost the lives of many fish.

Fish must have a supply of oxygen in water to breathe. When the water is shut off from contact with the air and sunlight, no oxygen can be added. The oxygen content of the water may become low through the decay of plant material. When this happens, all or part of the fish population may die under the ice.

If "winter kill" strikes a small bay of a large lake, no real harm will result. The surviving fish will soon provide replacements. A pond owner who finds a great many dead fish should check carefully to see what kind were killed. If bass of all sizes from adults to fingerlings are found, it may be necessary to provide additional bass for the pond. Panfish and especially rough fish are more resistant than bass to "winter kill." If these kinds of fish are the only survivors then poor fishing will result in future years.

Another natural occurrence at this time of year is the death of a few fish due to old age, parasites, or disease. Finding an occasional dead or diseased fish is no cause for alarm.

A CLOSET FULL OF TOYS

A place to keep her child's many toys is a problem mothers share.

But if you can spare an entire closet for toys, you can stow much of your child's collection there, points out Rita Coake, Purdue University extension specialist.

Install shelves of varying heights to hold toys of different sizes. Use top shelves for toys infrequently used.

Leave floor room for a "garage" for a small wagon, doll carriage, or large trucks.

Hang paint aprons, jump ropes and the like on clothes hooks on the walls of the closet. Put the inside of the closet door to work, too, suggests Miss Coake, by installing narrow shelves with a front guard, similar to a spice rack. Use these shelves for balls, paste and paint jars, housekeeping equipment or a collection of small toys.

Set a box or umbrella stand in the corner of the closet for stick toys, parasols, golf sets, stilts, etc. You may have room for a rod to hang "dress-up" clothes.

Use sturdy boxes of all sizes, especially one with hinged lids, to hold toys. Label the boxes with crayon or a picture of the contents. Cottage cheese cartons are good for jacks, marbles, and colored pencils, while gallon ice-cream containers can hold large items. Sturdy baskets or plastic dishpans are attractive and easy to handle. Try a plastic laundry basket for balls or stuffed animals.

HYBRID CORN BULLETIN

Corn crop profits are affected by the farmer's choice of a hybrid, say Purdue University research agronomists in Research Bulletin 761. "Performance of Commercial Dent Corn Hybrids in Indiana — 1959-1962," recently published by the Agricultural Experiment Station.

The bulletin lists the yield, stand, water at harvest and broken or lodged plants — up to four-year averages — of the hybrids of 22 companies on 11 locations throughout Indiana.

A copy of Research Bulletin 661, "Performance of Commercial Dent Corn Hybrids in Indiana," will be sent free to Indiana residents who request it by writing the Agricultural Publications Office, AES Building, Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind. (A postal card is sufficient.) Be sure to request the bulletin by number and title. Copies are also available at County Extension offices.

FIRE DEPARTMENT calls should be made to Viking 2-2121.

"So, you still think you're a good driver because out of 4,000,000 disabling auto accidents last year you were only involved in ten of them!"

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE PRESS CLUB OF CULVER HIGH SCHOOL

If you've pulled back the flap of your wigwam within the past few days, you may have thought your abode had been transplanted to the Orient in the monsoon season. But no, we hope the patter of rain is a signal that spring is just around the corner. Just put on the rubberized moccasins and rain-proofed war bonnets whenever you exit from your wigwam and you should have it made so far as the weather is concerned. Don't be too discouraged, after all, those little flowers are going to look really cheery when they pop open and they need the rain!

Mrs. Smith mentioned that her tulips are blooming, but she advises them to go back where they came from because it's too cold for flowers!

We have a mighty "corn-fused" little Cupid among us. It seems that his arrows slipped from the hearts of Bev Barshes and Bob White at the record hop. But before the evening was over, he had them replaced by a brand new set!

During Cupid's little escapade, his arrows pierced Martha McAllister and a graduate brave, Sam Medbourn. We all sympathize with Martha because Sam has left for the great pale-face village of San Diego. Happy birthday, Martha, and congratulations on winning the dance contest, too.

Many of the Juniors were forced to tax their grey-matter while taking College Boards. To recuperate they took a little jaunt to Indianapolis. If you call starting out at 6 a.m., sitting three in a seat, tramping around the Capitol and State House, and another three-hour ride a form of recuperation, that is!

Ned Davis, just how did you and your fellows get lost going from the cafeteria to the first floor?

Bob Carter really got a charge out of self-service elevators while in the State House!

The Junior Record Hop was another highlight of the week. The disc jockeys from Logansport were quite a success!

Judy Kimmel had an unfair advantage with John DePebe because she met him on her journey to Hanover a few moons ago. He must have been impressed, cuz he called her the morning after the dance all the way from Logansport! The girls at Judy's Friday-night bash can vouch for her!

There were a couple of pretty flashy Comets at the Junior Record Hop, right Thad? Bonnie Booz and Lynn Hargrove also spent the night in Culver at Lucy Osborn's slumber(less) party, right Thad? It seems as though Lucy's party caused quite a bit of controversy, what with girls coming in at all hours of the night. Some of them even forgot to let go of their boyfriends! Special notice to Sharon McGaffey: "Don't worry, Sharon, we'll never tell!"

The record hop was profitable for one person in particular. Jim Hopple benefited a whole cake through Dick McCracken's generosity.

osity. The only thing we can't understand is, how did you know the d.j. was going to drop the cake, Dick?

Say Juniors, how much did it cost to have Dennis Pollock and Kay Overmyer guard the east entrance to the high school Friday night?

Judy Welty, the Comet Doug Lindvall has captured, remained in Culver Friday night, too.

Don't concern yourself about any Juniors whom you see walking the halls humming an abstract tune. They're just trying out Prom themes.

Our smoke-transmitter is becoming a little water-clogged as the mud seeps into the teepee. Braves and maidens, have you forgotten that you may take a rest from your rain dances? We'll remind you again though, so cut it out! ! !

Juniors Tour State House

By Bob Carter and Sharon McGaffey

The Juniors, who are taking United States History this year, went to Indianapolis, March 7, to tour the State House and to see the 93rd General Assembly in action. After a three-hour trip the Juniors arrived at their destination, and following a slight delay, they started their tour through the building. During their delay the class was able to observe the structure of the building. It is built mostly with limestone from Indiana's own quarries. The top of the building is capped with a stately dome, 72 feet in diameter, rising 234 feet above the ground at its center.

Their first stop was at the museum which contained many articles of both historical and natural interest — such articles as Indian relics, stuffed animals, and an interesting attraction of a merman.

After observing the museum the class watched a movie entitled "How a Bill Becomes A Law." This film showed the steps a bill must take to become a law in the Indiana State Legislature. Then following this informative movie, the Juniors were taken through the Secretary of State's office where they were shown the Constitution and the Seal of Indiana. The class was then escorted to the Governor's office. There they saw the Governor having his picture taken for the newspapers.

The class then proceeded to the Supreme Court Room where they were told that the Supreme Court consisted of five judges elected by the voters of Indiana. The room is cubed shape, which stands for justice.

Their next stop was at the House of Representatives which has 100 members. There the class witnessed the discussion and voting down of a bill. From the House they went on to the Senate. In the Senate, there are 50 members. While there the class again witnessed the discussing and voting of two different bills.

Following the tour, which ended in the Senate, the class went to an adjoining building for lunch.

List Honor Roll Students

By B. J. Lawrance

Our school is gifted with many talented students. We have many excellent music students, art students, mechanically inclined students, home making students, and gymnastic students. We are also gifted with many pupils with high academic records. These pupils must have at least an 8.0 to be on honorable mention and a 9.5 out of a possible 11 to be on honor roll.

SENIOR HONOR ROLL: Linda Behmer, Linda Carl, Cheryl Dillon, and Sheryl Hohman. HONORABLE MENTION: Dennis Shock, Charlene Lucas, Carolee Easterday, Sherril Edgington, and Barbara Hatten.

SEVENTH GRADE HONOR ROLL: Ruth Benner, Andrew Hodgkin, James Taber, Susan Donnelly, Katherine DeWitt, Christine Stevas. HONORABLE MENTION: Stuart Lowry, Virginia Shidler, Susan Thews, Edward Ricciardi, and John Lucas.

I think these students should be congratulated for their fine work during this fourth six weeks. These students aren't what you call exactly talented, they have to work for their grades, it doesn't come naturally.

Sports News

By Charles Snyder

The basketball season is over for Culver but track season is starting. About 35 boys have answered the call to track and are working out to get into condition for the '63' season. We have 10 returning lettermen this year including Bob White, who was last year's leading point-getter with 97-3/4 points.

The team has had an encouraging practice meet with C.M.A. and is looking forward to the first actual meet, April 2, with Mentone, on our own field.

A three-way meet, including Culver and Tippecanoe, will be held at Culver on April 5. Good Luck to Coach Cox and all the boys on the team!

Music News

By Peggy Herr

The seniors who are in band and choir had a wonderful time at Valparaiso University. The other band and choir members treated them to the opera, "The Barber of Seville," on Friday, March 15.

The senior band and mixed choir will entertain the public on Mar. 31 at 3 p.m. with its Spring Concert. There will be several highlights such as: a swinging stage band of "modernists," an ensemble playing the real hep "Bubble Machine" number, and a finale featuring mixed choir singing the ever popular "Battle Hymn of the Republic." This will be accompanied by the band.

Culver and Argos will present a joint band and choir concert on April 26, here. I am sure that no one will want to miss this.

The eighth grade general music class has been passing the last week in the projection room viewing several films. These were the "Grand Canyon" and "The Life of Stephen Foster."

The seventh grade music class was taken by surprise when Mr. Hambrook had them dance to the rhythm of some of their songs. They seemed to be enjoying themselves.

The sixth grade band would like to welcome Jim Miracle into their group. This ambitious young student has learned to play the sousaphone in six weeks. We would like to say congratulations to Jim.

We have several music students who have auditioned at various places. One of these is Debbie Henderson. She sang at Mount Pleasant Church as a contestant from the Maxinkuckee Junior Women's Club. Also, Carol Overmyer and Sharon Norris went to the Academy for an audition for a scholarship contest. Mr. Hambrook accompanied them at both auditions.

The band and choir members have been having a jolly dripping time wading from school to band building. Some daring soul even ventured a swim in the miniature Lake Maxinkuckee outside the door. We suggest you wait for a more appropriate time.

SENIOR CLASS: We are all enjoying a nice quiet day while the seniors are on their trip to Chicago. This trip was sponsored by The State Exchange Bank in Culver. They will be given a tour through the Continental Bank, The Board of Trade, and The Merchandise Mart.
 The senior band and choir members are also going to Valparaiso this Friday to hear an opera. This trip is being sponsored by the high school music department.

JUNIOR CLASS: The Junior Record Hop was a huge success and the total profit was estimated at $95.
 The Juniors are now working very hard on their ham supper. The boys have chosen their partners to work with at the ham supper and a class meeting will be held this Friday so that the duties can be assigned to each class member.

Martha McAllister, Lucy Osborn, Janet Beck, Larry Linhart, Bob White, and Tom Schmidt were chosen as a committee to come up with ideas for prom themes and create ways to decorate for the prom. The Dixie Cats from Walkerton have been selected as the band to play for the prom.

The junior class went on an educational trip to Indianapolis last Thursday. They had a guided tour through the Legislative Building.

SOPHOMORE CLASS: The sophomores have been trying to urge everyone to bring fudge. Their next fudge sale will be March 29. ALL 10 A's BRING FUDGE!

FRESHMAN CLASS: The freshmen are very pleased with their fudge sales, and the amount in their treasury is growing fast. Their next fudge sale will be March 22.

News From The Art Department

By Gloria Baker
 Miss Linda Carl of Culver placed first among six entries in the art contest. Her portfolio included two pictures and a modern sculpture. Miss Carl's art portfolio will be entered in the district art contest at the Culver State Exchange Bank Auditorium the weekend of March 15-17. The public is invited to visit the bank auditorium and view the paintings and other works of art that will be shown. We students and teachers from Culver are quite proud of the job which Miss Carl has done.

The high school classes are seeing movies of art, they have seen many different works of Michelangelo and were quite fascinated. Throughout the movie it told the life Michelangelo had led and we were quite shocked to find out he had so many hard tasks and decisions to make. He died at the age of 93. Just before his death he did his finest art piece, the Dome of a Church in Rome.

NIPSCO Plymouth District Wins Safety Award

Northern Indiana Public Service Company's Plymouth district has earned an Honor Roll Award for safety improvement for 1962. Walter K. Paul, NIPSCO's manager of industrial relations, has announced.

The award will be presented by Dean H. Mitchell, NIPSCO chairman and president, at the company's annual safety dinner in Michigan City next month.

Special guests of honor at the banquet will be the 122 employees of the Michigan City Generating Station, winners of the company's top safety award for 1962. Station employees posted the best safety record for the year in competition with 23 other districts, plants and departments across the company's 12,000 square mile service area.

Honor Roll Awards for safety improvement over the previous year will go to: the Plymouth, Crown Point, Fort Wayne, Gary, Hammond, Hobart, LaPorte, Logansport, Michigan City, Monticello, Peru, Valparaiso and Wabash districts; the By-Product Plant (East Chicago); and the General Engineering and Electric Operations departments.

SCHOLARSHIP REWARD — The Blue River Athletic Conference, composed of nine southern Indiana high schools, has decided to make an award at the end of the 1962-63 basketball season that will be based on something else than a player's field goal and free throw shooting ability. The award is to be made to an athlete who maintains a high scholastic record and shows the best display of sportsmanship during the season. Coaches from the nine schools will make the selection. However, a coach is barred from voting for a boy from his own school.

SAFE AT HOME — The columnist of The Delphi Citizen, Mindwell C. Wilson, tells a story of a young Delphi father, an ardent baseball fan, who was left in care of an infant child while his wife went to a social gathering. In the course of the evening the wife received a frantic call from the husband and this exchange ensued: Father — "What do I do now?" Wife — "Listen carefully. Don't get excited. Got the diaper in front of you? That's good. Now that's a baseball diamond. Bring second base to home plate. Lay the baby between first and third. Now bring first base, third base and home plate together and pin. Be sure to dust home plate with a little talcum."

This area escaped the terrible visitation of Sunday night's tornado. A heavy wind prevailed and there was rain and hail. In the west and north the lightning was blinding, indicating the activity of the storm in those directions. At three o'clock in the morning the wind, thunder, lightning, and hail awakened most people but the disturbance was short-lived.

A telegram was received Tuesday afternoon, dated Monday, by William Hayes asking him to come to Terre Haute as Mrs. Hayes' mother was badly hurt. It is feared that the home of Mrs. Hayes' mother has been destroyed because it probably was in the direct path of the tornado.

Madam Schumann-Heink completely captivated the entire corps of cadets, faculty, and guests of Culver Military Academy with her beautiful singing during Easter Sunday observance on campus.

WINTER SALADS

Good salads are as desirable in the winter as in the summer — and just as easy to prepare, notes Marcelle Allen, Purdue University food specialist.

Use the wonderful variety of salad foods available the year round to keep your menus out of a rut. Take advantage of apples, nuts, citrus, cabbage, carrots and other produce featured during the winter, she recommends.

If the fresh fruits and vegetables you desire happen to be out of stock, remember that cooked vegetables, marinated in a tasty French dressing, may be a spicy substitute.

Combine fresh, canned & dried fruits in a vitamin and mineral packed fruit plate that's easy to fix and fun to serve. Use citrus fruits, apples, pears or prunes — top with cottage cheese or cream cheese.

Molded salads are probably as popular for winter menus as for summer. Vary the size and type of mold used, as well as the ingredients, to add variety to meals.

Meat, fish, poultry, eggs, cheese and nuts, in any pleasing combination, are as popular for salads as fruits and vegetables.

Add to eye appeal by garnishing a fruit salad with whole cherries, strawberries, nuts or frosted grapes. Cut vegetables into slices, rings, or strips for variety — top with radish roses or a sprig of parsley or mint. Garnish meat salads with pickles, spiced fruit, hard cooked eggs or olives.

SPRING'S SUIT SHAPES

Spring suits have a new style — they look like dresses, like shirts, like sweaters, like costumes! observes Lois Folk, Purdue University clothing specialist.

Sweater suits that resemble two-piece dresses are the season's newest silhouette. Refreshingly different, the jacket closings are concealed in the front, or moved to the back. Necklines copy sweater lines, cowl, stovepipe or a clean V-neckline. Shirt cuffs finish off easy-shaped sleeves. Blousing at the natural waistline or a lowered waistline further points up the sweater illusion. All kinds of skirts are found, pleated or eased.

Open-air suits, styled for the future, have barely shaped jackets, open necklines and coordinated over-blouses. Jacket sleeves narrow to the wrist, then widen into a cuff. Skirts may have a panel insert, trouser pleat, or gathered waistband.

As nonchalant as a blouse and skirt, the new shirt suit is a casual favorite. Blouses often slip over the head, and have cuffed sleeves. Waistlines are belted in the over-blouse fashion, and skirts are as skinny as a reed.

A minimum of detail is shown on the tunic suit. It has a longer jacket with bare neckline, skinny sleeves, and a narrow skirt.

Of course, the Chanel suit and cardigan boxy suit are still fashion favorites, notes the specialist. Three piece suits, with a color matched blouse and lining, are popular. Suits with a smooth back and shaped front look newest when little-boy details — narrow notched collars, long skinny sleeves, and shirts — are added.

As a rule, jackets are longer this spring. They may be belted at the hip line, or continue below it. Reed thin skirts are usually shown with the longer jackets.

Soft details enhance the femininity of a suit. Collars and revers are trimmed with braid; cardigan jackets with wide self bandings or rope edges. Pockets, yokes and cuffs are pointed up with dressmaker details. Middy ties top many pullovers.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Easterday and the latter's mother, Mrs. Gerard, all of Logansport, were Sunday afternoon callers of Mr. and Mrs. William Easterday.

A bank in Brainard, Nebraska, owes its beginnings to a snow-storm in 1886 which marooned its founder there during a cross country rail trip.

Five Steps to a Lovely Lawn

Early spring is a good time to groom your grounds. Studies conducted by Heritage House, which offers the homeowner convenience lawn products, have produced this simple five-step procedure which makes lawn-tending easy . . . and leaves you more time for lawn-lounging:

RAKE. Clear the lawn of stones, twigs, and leaves which have gathered over the winter.

RE-SEED. Rake bare patches to loosen the soil. Seed by hand if patches are small, cover lightly, and water. Use a spreader if bare areas are more than five feet across.

NOURISH AND PROTECT. Fertilize! And make sure your grass is not done in by enemies. A special Heritage House product, "Weed Killer plus Lawn Food," does both jobs at once.

WATER. In general, it's best to water heavily and infrequently. Soak until water penetrates three to six inches. Don't water again until the ground feels dry. There are exceptions for certain regions and types of grass.

MOW. Mowing schedule and cutting length also depend upon region, weather, and type of grass. In temperate areas, cutting to 1 1/2 inches is usually recommended. Newly seeded areas should be allowed to grow to 3 inches before cutting.

DELAY GRAPE PRUNING

Grape vines in Indiana, exposed to extremely frigid temperatures this winter, should be pruned with unusual care, observes Jerome Hull Jr., Purdue University extension horticulturist.

Ordinarily, established grape vines four years or older are cut back to four or five long canes of last year's growth and eight to 10 buds, or eyes, are left on each cane.

Homeowners desiring to prune their grape vines now should leave seven to 10 canes, says Hull. If all of these are alive by mid-April, remove the surplus. The extra canes, or arms, should be cut back to two buds from the main stem. Canes will develop from these buds this year, explains Hull, and produce the bearing wood for next year's crop. Grapes are produced on new wood arising from the live buds of last year's growth.

Hull says that if pruning is delayed until all danger of freezing weather is past, cut the vine to four long canes and three or four renewal spurs each containing one or two buds. "Bleeding" of cut vines during early spring doesn't injure the plants.

News Items About Our Academy Neighbors

(Called from the March Issue of the CMA Messenger)
 With a good start on a summer's tan, Mary Edgell is home from a few weeks in Hollywood, Fla., with her parents, just in time to pack for a Spring Vacation trip. John and Mary will trek East, stopping a few days with John's parents in New York City, then on to Kingston, R. I., to visit daughter Nan and Mickey and amuse the grandchildren. . . . And speaking of grandchildren — John and Norma Henderson now have 18! The latest addition belongs to the Jimmy Hendersons, back in Watertown, Mass., and has been named John Stuart. . . . The whole LoRe family will be together again when Jesse picks up young Jesse and Sammy who have been having a great time with their grandmother down in Tampa, Fla. Capt. LoRe will make a flying trip during vacation.

Greta Hughes is a senior at MacMurray College and will be giving her Senior Production in Drama at the college on Mar. 29. The play is the Phaedra, which Greta has directed, set, and lighted. Art and Barbara will be proud parents in the audience.

As the Messenger was going to "press" last month, John Ortmyer slipped on the ice (conveniently in front of the Infirmary) and broke his leg. Since then he has been minding young Heide, who's delighted he can't run! and catching up on his reading. He will be back in the classroom as soon as the weather clears enough so that he won't slip and break the other leg!

Another one of those fairy tale vacations was planned by Gordon and Lorrie Bell when they flew to New Orleans for the week following Mardi Gras, the crush of which they purposely missed. Gordon, who spent four years at Tulane and therefore knows the city well, intended to show it all to Lorrie, and accomplished part of the guided tour of restaurants, race tracks, Mississippi river boats, and the Tulane campus, before the flu bug flattened him. Cadet Buddy Bolton's parents hosted several of these forays.

Gordon nursed his fever at the Hotel Royal Orleans! Now they have an excuse to go back and finish what they began, another time! . . . Now that Gordon is back to mind the fort, Bob Reichley is traveling, accompanying Steve Pieuch to New York to the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention, March 14-18. Steve, Bob's Vedette editor, will receive the American Newspaper Publishers Award for the best news story of the year, one he did on the University of Mississippi. . . . Welcome Bud Roberts to the Homeowner's League. He has purchased Miss Bogardus' lovely home.

Mac McMinn is busy packing his bag these days in preparation for a Spring Vacation trip to Paris, escorting a group of cadets. . . . Erlich Smith, who is stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training school, informs Coke and Virginia that he tried out for, and made, the Blue Jacket Choir. Quite an accomplishment! Almost immediately on arriving at Great Lakes and being sworn in, he landed in sick bay with the flu.

Sympathy to Ken Hsegard on the death of his brother.

Trees Available For Reforestation

Although the season is rapidly advancing there is still time for landowners to order trees for spring planting. State Forester Robert D. Ralsch announced recently.

Ample amounts of white pine, red pine, jack pine, Scotch pine, shortleaf pine, Virginia pine and black locust available for purchase. Supplies of black walnut, red oak and tulip tree for this spring are exhausted said Ralsch.

Tree planting stock is sold by the Indiana Division of Forestry to farmers and other landowners in Indiana for planting in rural areas for erosion control, for windbreaks around farm buildings and orchards, for Christmas trees, for reinforcing the farm woods and for future wood products production. Trees are not furnished for shade trees or ornamental purposes according to Mr. Ralsch.

Persons interested in planting trees this spring should obtain a tree application blank immediately, said Ralsch. Blanks can be obtained from the local County Agricultural Agent, the local Soil Conservation Service Office, the Service Forester or the District Extension Forester in the area. You may also obtain a blank by writing to State Forester, Room 607 State Office Building, Indianapolis, Ind., or to the Extension Forester, Department of Forestry, Purdue University, West Lafayette, Ind.

IT'S A FACT!

Poison ivy and Poison Oak are found in almost every part of the U. S. and only in North America. The plants are easily recognized by the three shiny leaves per stem.

No one can be sure he is permanently immune. And you don't even have to touch the plant to contract it — animals, clothes, tools will spread the poison.

For years scientists have worked on preventatives as well as cures. Now, a series of tablets or injections will give you and your family a full season's immunity. Start early this spring for proper immunization — ask your doctor.

Rev. W. C. Klein Is Chosen New Episcopal Bishop

The Pastor of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church at Plymouth, the Rev. William C. R. Sheridan, announced today the election of a new Bishop Coadjutor for the Episcopal Diocese of Northern Indiana.

The Very Rev. Walter C. Klein, Ph.D., S.T.M., S.T.D., Dean of Nashotah House Theological Seminary, Nashotah, Wis., is the priest who was chosen Bishop Coadjutor-Elect. If Father Klein accepts his election, and if a majority of the Bishops of the American Episcopal Church give consent, he would be consecrated Coadjutor Bishop (Assistant with right to Succession) in late June or July. The Consecration would take place in the Cathedral Church of St. James at South Bend.

Father Sheridan, who knows Dean Klein and who is a graduate of Nashotah House Theological Seminary, spoke of the Bishop-Elect with warm enthusiasm.

Father Klein is 59 years old. He was born in New York City, but reared among his Pennsylvania Dutch family and relatives in Pottsville, Pa. He is a graduate of Lehigh University, Bethlehem, Pa. The Dean was educated for the priesthood at General Theological Seminary in New York City. He has a Ph. D. from Columbia University and is the possessor of two degrees of Doctor of Sacred Theology and the author of five theological works.

Father Klein has served the Episcopal Church successively as a parish priest; a Navy chaplain; a special mission teacher in Jerusalem in connection with St. George's Cathedral work with the Arabs; a seminary professor; and the Dean (Rector) of a seminary. If Father Klein accepts his election he will become one of a handful of scholar-bishops.

The Diocese of Northern Indiana is one of the smaller jurisdictions of the world-wide Episcopal (Anglican) Church. In all, there are some 360 dioceses in 70 countries. The Holy Eucharist is celebrated in more than 109 languages and dialects for the 42,800,000 Anglicans who comprise its multi-racial membership.

Father Sheridan was one of four diocesan priests nominated for Bishop Coadjutor. At his request, he was permitted to withdraw his name.

A Look At CAP

It was announced last week by Col. John Richards, commander Indiana Wing Civil Air Patrol, that CAP summer encampment will be held at Bunkey Hill Air Force Base July 20-28. It will be a joint encampment with the Kentucky Wing CAP.

It is expected that three to four hundred seniors and cadets from both Kentucky and Indiana will attend the encampment.

The encampment will help many cadets forward on the road to the coveted Certificates of Proficiency, as attendance at an encampment is one of the requirements.

Last year's encampment was at Shaw Air Force Base, South Carolina.

Mrs. Luke White, daughter of Mrs. Jerome Zechiel, Sr., returned to her home in Covington, Ind., last Friday, following the death and funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Olga Krause, of South Bend. Services of Mrs. Krause, who was Mrs. Zechiel's sister, were held in South Bend on Tuesday, March 12.

Auto Safety Facts

Eleven states now issue "safety" license plates, tags coated with a material that reflect headlights of approaching cars. These plates, which can be seen from almost a half a mile away at night, reduce nighttime accidents.

Professional driver training schools were asked for safety suggestions: One: Why don't cars have rear-window wipers, so drivers also can see through rear windows during a rain storm?

The National Safety Council claims that 5,000 lives a year could be saved if drivers and passengers used seat belts.

A Bible lesson on the subject of "Matter" will be read this Sunday at First Church of Christ Scientist.

Among the many Scriptural selections, will be this citation from II Corinthians (5:8): "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." Other passages will bring out the Christian Science teaching that all matter is a "graven image," a temporary, limited, delusive sense of things that must finally give way before the consciousness of ultimate, spiritual reality created by God. Included in this sentence from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p.14): "Become conscious for a single moment that Life and intelligence are purely spiritual, —

CUB SCOUTS VISIT THE CULVER PRESS

Culver Cub Scouts of Den 8 and their Den Mother, Mrs. Jerome Zechiel Jr., visited The Culver Press, Inc. Thursday afternoon to see the presses in operation.
Scouts present included David Brown, Don Hansen, Tom Mattox, Michael Goldwater, Mike McFarland, and Jeffrey Zechiel.

The newspaper is the only medium that works 24 hours a day to bring the advertiser's name to the public.

NO PLACE TO GO

All dressed up, the expression goes, and no place to go. These boys are hardly "dressed up." But the rest of the description fits them perfectly.

They are two of the millions of American children who are growing up WITHOUT A CHURCH. Boys with the God-given right to grow up in faith . . . with the American right to worship God freely according to the dictates of their own conscience. But someone hasn't understood their rights.

Parents who make no provision for their children's religious education are, in effect, robbing these children of the most precious heritage of every American. Grownups who, by the tell-tale example of indifference, encourage boys and girls to emulate the Godlessness that the Iron Curtain seeks to foster are undermining the spiritual substance of our nation.

No more serious problem faces America today than the children who on Sunday morning in a land of churches have no place to go.

Honestly, now, are you creating the problem — or helping to conquer it?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

CARDS OF THANKS
In this way I wish to express my sincere appreciation to my friends, relatives, and neighbors for the flowers, cards, letters, and many kindnesses to me during my stay in the hospital and since my return home.
WILLIAM EASTERDAY 12n

We wish to take this means of thanking all our friends, relatives, and neighbors who were so thoughtful during the illness and death of our husband and father, Paul C. Reichard. The expressions of sympathy, the beautiful floral tributes, and the many acts of kindness were deeply appreciated.
THE FAMILY 12*

In this way I want to express my deep appreciation and gratitude for the many cards and letters extended to me during my recent ten-week stay in the Bay Pines Veterans' Hospital in St. Petersburg, Fla. Each thoughtful remembrance means much to me.

TAKEN FOR A RIDE — When a Carroll County boy, Danny Julien, trained his beagle hound named "Pooch" to ride in the trunk of the family car when going on a hunting trip he didn't reckon the dog would hop in uninvited. But one evening when Danny and his mother returned from a shopping trip Danny carried the purchases into the house leaving the trunk lid open. After dark Danny went out, closed the lid and drove the car into the garage unaware that "Pooch" had climbed into the trunk. The following day Danny's father, Paul Julien, drove the car to Lafayette and on the return trip was startled by a howl. He pulled over to the side of the road, opened the trunk and discovered "Pooch." The dog, evidently hungry after a night and part of the day in the trunk, had chewed through the electric wiring to the tail lights.

ANOTHER ISSUE — Although taxes and reapportionment appears to be prime subjects for discussion in the 1963 Legislature, Frank White, Hoosier columnist, predicts a bill to repeal the 50-year-old ban on the killing of doves will engender a lot of heat. Bird lovers beat a dove killing bill at the 1961 session but a similar bill is ready for introduction in the next Legislature. White's against it and he's soliciting support for the "Defenders of the Doves."

THE CULVER CITIZEN

IN THIS WORLD

"THE LAND IS A GARDEN OF EDEN BEFORE THEM AND BEHIND THEM A DESOLATE WILDERNESS," SO SPOKE THE PROPHET JOEL OF THE LOCUST 3,000 YEARS AGO.

INSECTS AGAINST MAN...

THE LOCUST IS BUT ONE OF THE MORE THAN 6,000 SPECIES OF INSECTS THAT FEED ON MAN'S LIMITED SOURCE OF FOOD SUPPLY. THUS, IT IS NATURAL FOR MAN TO DEFEND HIMSELF WITH INSECTICIDES.

INSECTICIDE
AS EARLY AS 1,000 B.C., HOMER, THE GREEK POET, SPOKE OF "PEST AVERTING SULFUR."

LEAVING IN THE INSECT WAR ARE THE FARMERS AND RANCHERS WHO MUST PRODUCE FOOD FOR THE WORLD'S POPULATION...

RESEARCH CHEMISTS PROVE HEROES...

IN A RECENT INSECT INVASION IN EGYPT, A MAJOR FOOD CRISIS WAS AVERTED WHEN THE EGYPTIAN MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE REQUESTED THE EMERGENCY AIR-LIFTING OF 2 MILLION POUNDS OF A NEW U.S. INSECTICIDE, KNOWN AS SEVIN. IT HAS BEEN TESTED AND ACCEPTED AS AN EFFECTIVE AND SAFER CHEMICAL BY AGRICULTURAL AUTHORITIES OF MANY DIFFERENT COUNTRIES.

HOOSIER HAPPENINGS

By Harold Hanson

HIS PET—A Franklin County man, Henry Bath of Klemme's Corner, confesses a fondness for his 1928 Pontiac. While in Brookville gassing up at a service station, Bath was interviewed by Raymond A. Everett, editor of The Brookville Democrat. Bath told the editor he had had several chances to sell the car and at one time parted with it, but missed it so much he bought it back at a premium of $300. Bath said some parts for the car are hard to come by, especially spark plugs which are now smaller in size, but he has found that plugs for a John Deere tractor are just the thing for the old engine. The car is the second model put out by Pontiac.

HOUSEHOLD HINT—The editor of The Putnam County Graphic, Kenny Bennett, makes this suggestion to housewives: "The best way for a woman to run her home in this modern electric age is just keep plugging."

BANG—A wrecker truck hauling a wrecked car to a Franklin garage collided head-on with another wrecker truck. Both the wreckers were wrecked and the wrecked car was further wrecked.

March 24 "Rally Day" to Launch American Cancer Society's Indiana Crusade

Dr. I. S. Ravdin of Philadelphia, national president of the American Cancer Society and a former Hoosier from Evansville, and Miss Nan Wynn of York, Pa., an attractive vocalist who is one of the more than 1,200,000 Americans who are alive today cured of cancer, will highlight the program of Rally Day, a meeting in Indianapolis March 24 to launch the 1963 educational and fund-raising Crusade of the American Cancer Society's Indiana Division. Some 400 volunteer cancer fighters from throughout the state are expected to attend. State chairman of the Indiana Cancer Society is Tony Hulman of Terre Haute.

FIT YOUR SPRING OUTFIT INTO YOUR WARDROBE

With all the time and expense involved in a spring outfit, it is a shame to wear it only a few times, or just one season. Prevent that happening by fitting your new spring outfit into a wardrobe plan to get more wear out of it, advises Lois Folk, Purdue University clothing specialist.

To do this, choose stylish clothes that are becoming to you. Keep up with the fashion trends, but adapt them to your personality. Whenever possible, choose a color, style and weight of fabric that can carry over into another season — doubling the wearing period.

When choosing a new costume, consider the place you will wear it, and the type of clothes that look best on you. Select clothes that are fashionable, but not fadish. To increase opportunities for wearing your new coat, dress or suit, choose one that goes with the clothes and accessories you already have.

If you are buying a suit or coat this spring try to choose a style and color that you can wear for two to five seasons (this is often the average period of use for these major items points out the specialist). Solid colors can usually be worn longer and with different accessories than figured materials.

If you buy a coat, hat, gloves, and shoes in the same color you have the beginning of a basic wardrobe. Then you can alternate dresses and suits of harmonious colors for variety of costumes.

DEAR HUNT — The former mayor of Angola, Glen Beatty, recently made an expensive deer hunting trip to the northern United States that lasted several days and covered about 1,200 miles. On the way back Beatty lamented to companions that on the trip he hadn't even seen a deer. Then, as he drove into Steuben County on U.S. 27 only a few miles from home, he looked in his rear view mirror and saw a large buck deer bound across the road just a few feet behind his car. "It was a long way to drive just to see a deer practically in your own back yard," Beatty remarked to his companions.

National Wildlife Week To Be Observed

National Wildlife Week, scheduled for this week, March 17-23, is one of many worthwhile conservation education projects sponsored by the National Wildlife Federation, which has its headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Representing some two million local affiliate members, individual contributors, and associate members, the Federation publishes National Wildlife magazine, Conservation News, and Conservation Report, as well as numerous leaflets on conservation education for teachers and school children, and program suggestions for local and state conservation organizations.

It provides leadership on national conservation issues, sponsoring a national conservation conference in Washington each December. It awards a number of valuable scholarships and fellowships to college conservation students each year and also assists state teacher-training programs, having spent almost a quarter of a million dollars on conservation training projects during the 26 years of its existence. National Wildlife Federation television public service announcement films and press releases for newspapers carry the conservation message to all citizens.

The National Wildlife Federation supports in principle a program at the state level to keep private land open to public hunting which benefits both sportsmen and industry, called the Fair, or Federation in Industry Recreation program, and members of its field staff conduct annual surveys of the waterfowl nesting grounds.

National Wildlife Week is conducted at the community level by local sportsmen's and other conservation groups which are members of the state affiliate of the National Wildlife Federation and valuable assistance is provided by state game and fish conservation agencies. It was first proclaimed by President Franklin Delano Roosevelt in 1938 and has received the proclamation of each succeeding president.

Experimental Wild Coon Hunts Will Be Held In August

Three special experimental wild coon night hunts will be authorized by the Division of Fish and Game of the Indiana Department of Conservation in August 1963. Evaluation of these hunts will be made by game research personnel to determine feasibility of authorizing early season wild coon night hunts.

One hunt will be authorized in Central Indiana on Aug. 10, in the south on Aug. 17, and in the north on Aug. 24. Clubs sponsoring these hunts will be chosen by a drawing at 10:00 a.m., C.D.T., on May 1, 1963 in room 605, State Office Building.

The three successful applicants must conduct their hunt within the zone in which their club is located. The southern boundary of the Northern Zone includes the following counties: Benton, White, Carroll, Howard, Grant, Blackford, and Jay. The northern boundary of the Southern Zone contains the counties of: Sullivan, Greene, Monroe, Brown, Bartholomew, Decatur, Ripley and Dearborn. The Central Zone contains the counties in between those listed.

Application forms for the August hunt may be obtained by writing to Game Research, Division of Fish and Game, 605 State Office Building, Indianapolis 4, Ind. The completed form must be returned no later than April 30.

Trailer Accident Spills Hogs Over U. S. Highway 31

A livestock truck-trailer, owned by Raymond G. Morrison, Rt. 2, Culver and driven by Robert Allen Curtis, also of here, was involved in an accident on U. S. 31 approximately one-half mile south of State Road 28, last Thursday afternoon.

The trailer, which contained livestock and driven by Curtis, broke loose from the tractor and turned over on the northbound lane in the path of another semi driven by H. L. Williams, of Cincinnati, O.

Curtis was not injured, but Williams was treated at the Tipton hospital for injuries. It took five hours to clear the highway of dead and injured hogs, which spilled on the highway when the trailer upset.

By DAVID KELLY, Troop Scribe

Twenty-four Boy Scouts attended the overnight held at Tippecanoe River State Park over the weekend. A "Spies in the Woods" contest was held with the Beaver Patrol coming in first and the Flaming Arrow Patrol taking the second place honors.

Thirty-two Scouts were present at the regular meeting held at the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall. "Guardian Patrol Leader" was the pre-opening game with the Beaver Patrol winning. The opening ceremony was conducted by the Beavers. The Charter Roll Call and Uniform Inspection was conducted with the Troop Committee inspecting the patrols. Patrol corners were then held with attendance and dues being taken and patrol business conducted.

The Troop welcomes David Curtis and Perry White as new members. A special guest, Robert England, an Australian Cub Scout, was also present at the meeting. Greg Easterday and Terry Powers were elected patrol leader and assistant patrol leader, respectively, for the Panther Patrol. Congratulations, fellows! "Jump-the-Shot" was the closing game and the meeting was dismissed with the playing of taps.

A Green Bar meeting will be held at Greg Easterday's home on Thursday, March 21 at 7:15 p.m. We will plan next month's meetings and activities and discuss the Scout-O-Rama.

Summer Camp reservations are still being taken. Get your application and money in as soon as possible.
