Richard Ervin Given The Herman Sayger Award

RICHARD ERVIN

Richard Ervin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ervin, Oak Lodge, Culver, was honored at the Culver High School Alumni banquet held Saturday, June 8, when he was presented the Herman "Suz" Sayger Award. The presentation was made by Edgar Shaw, classmate of Mr. Sayger's. Richard was a member of this year's graduating class.

The trophy has been given for the last 15 years to a worthy Senior boy. In giving the award, Mr. Sayger stipulated the boy must have high scholastic ability, moral leadership, all-around athletic ability and fine citizenship. The boy is chosen by a committee of four people: The high school principal, high school coach, a class member and a local businessman.

Mr. Sayger, the donor of the award, is a former Culver resident, now living in Tiffin, Ohio. He attended Culver schools. He took post graduate work at the Culver Military Academy and then entered Heidelberg College at Tiffin, Ohio. During his high school days in Culver, in 1914 he won the all-state athletic crown. After attending Heidelberg, he coached for a few years, but returned to Tiffin to go into business for himself.

Culver Baseball Team Defeats LaPaz, 4 to 0

By EARL MISHLER

Sam Lowry hurled his second shutout of the young season here last Thursday as Culver's undefeated baseballers defeated LaPaz, 4-0.

Lowry, who no-hit Richland Center on May 31, scattered six hits and fanned seven Viking batters in gaining his third win of the summer season. The senior righthander issued a base on balls to Dennis Redman with two out in the seventh to break a 16-inning streak without a walk.

The Indians tallied all four runs in the first two innings, aided by two LaPaz errors. Dave Lemar drove in one of the first inning tallies with a single and Lowry helped his own cause with a 2-run single in the second. Those two hitters have accounted for nine of the 17 Culver RBI's this year.

Culver's defense continued to sparkle, although a bright late evening sun caused trouble in the outfield. Lemar and second-sacker Bob Carter made fine catches, while catcher Paul White and left-fielder Jim Lewis each cut down a LaPaz base-runner with perfect throws.

Monday's scheduled game against Bourbon was not played, as the Comets have yet to field a team. Tomorrow night finds the Indians playing host to Plymouth on the local diamond at 6:00 p.m. Culver batting:

CMA Rifle Team Wins U.S. Army Championship

Culver Military Academy's varsity rifle team has won the Fifth U.S. Army championship with a score that surpasses that of any other military school in the nation participating in this year's competition.

According to information released today by Major General Lloyd R. Moses, acting commander of the Fifth Army, Chicago, Culver's score of 2,814 was first among 11 military school teams competing in this area. Howe Military School was a distant second place in the Fifth Army Area with 2,769, and together Culver and Howe ranked one-two among all military schools competing in six different U.S. Army areas across the nation.

The Army Area ROTC Inter-scholastic Indoor Smallbore Rifle championships were run in two divisions: military schools and ROTC units in high schools. Leavenworth (Kan.) High School fired the best score among 311 secondary school ROTC units at 2,844 and Fair Park High School, Shreveport, La., was second with 2,834. These totals place Culver's score of 2,814 third best among a combined total of 347 military school and ROTC high school units in the country.

The matches were shot in three stages — prone, kneeling, and standing by 10-man teams. Each man fired 10 shots for the record, slow fire.

Major Stanley M. Prouty, assistant professor of military science, coached the Culver team with Richard Gimbel and Master Sergeant Clarence Sprouse as his assistants. Members of the championship team are: co-captains David Dabney, Lake Forest, Ill., and Stanley F. Bloyer, Ripely, Ohio; high scorer Allan W. Estey, Culver; James R. Augustine, Valparaiso; John Arnal, River Forest, Ill.; Michael Jordan, Culver; Ronald Fraenkel, Greenville, Ill.; Kenneth Lippert, Belleville, Ill.; Jeffrey Seel, East Bloomfield, N. Y.; and Thomas Wilds, Denison, Tex.

According to the national Holstein organization, the new production figures compare to an annual output of 7,211 pounds of milk and 270 pounds of butterfat by the average U. S. dairy cow.

Purdue University supervised the weighing and testing of the Holstein records as part of the breed's nation-wide herd testing programs.

The Wagon Wheel Theatre Opens Saturday, June 22

The Wagon Wheel Theatre of Warsaw, Ind., opens its eighth season June 22 with Meredith Willson's "Titanic" hit, "The Unsinkable Molly Brown."

The show, teemed "an American folk legend," recounts the adventures of one of America's most colorful and exciting personalities. . . Molly Tobin Brown. Molly Tobin, an uneducated Missouri hillbilly, determines that she will leave her "scrawny" environment and find a place in the world. On her way, she hopes to find a man. She has big ideas and her Irish blood carries her through to victory after victory until she finds her man, conquers the European smart Continental set and returns to America on the ill-fated Titanic. Though the Titanic sank, Molly didn't, hereby giving her the title of The Unsinkable Molly Brown.

Major Herbert Petrie has contracted a company of 38 players to present "The Unsinkable Molly Brown" which will be followed by the stellar line up of "Showboat," "A Thurbur Carnival," "Say, Darling," "Carousel," and "On the Town." The company is a wonderful mixture of familiar Wagon Wheel faces combined with new and exciting personalities from many of the top college theatre departments, civic theatres, and professional groups throughout the country.

One newcomer destined to become one of the Wagon Wheel's favorites this season is Sandie Jamerson from Illinois Wesleyan University. Sandie will portray the title role of "The Unsinkable Molly Brown." Word from first rehearsals of "The Unsinkable Molly Brown" is that Miss Jamerson's talent, enthusiasm, and vivaciousness, will make Molly Brown a show to remember.

Jim Weston, a Wagon Wheel favorite for three years, returns from New York to play Molly's rip-roarin' Irish Catholic, millionaire husband, Leadville Johnny Brown. Since last fall, Jim has appeared as a folk singer at the Cafe Catacomb and the House of Pegasus in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., appeared on television in the nation-wide television special, "The World of Carl Sandburg" and graduated from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York City.

Another old favorite returning for his fourth year is Gary Gage. Gage has appeared in Indiana in the Ft. Wayne Civic, County Line Playhouse, and the Festival Music Theatre. In Michigan he has performed with the Coldwater Players, and Sister Lake Playhouse. Another of Gary's assignments found him with the Hickam Theatre Guild in Honolulu, Hawaii. During the winter months, Gary serves as director for the Manatee Players in Bradenton, Fla.

Another returning favorite is Tom Hontz. One of the Wagon Wheel's most promising actors, Tom graduated this June from Manchester College where he received the Miley Senior Dramatics Award and the Best Actor Award in 1962. September will find Tom teaching speech and dramatics at River Forest High School in Gary.

Last season's favorite character actress, Mary Blomquist is back at the Wagon Wheel again this year, too. Last winter, Mary appeared in several revues at Northwestern University.

Scott Upright, the Wagon Wheel's man of versatility, returns to perform many tasks this summer. Well known as a dancer, Scott was a main stay in the dance corps at the Wagon Wheel last year. At the Wagon Wheel this summer, this talented young man will design all shows, choreograph two, and appear in all.

These are a few brief, thumb nail sketches of some of the many fine talents to be performing at the Wagon Wheel Playhouse, Warsaw, Ind., this summer. Several evenings are completely sold out both for the dining halls at the Wagon Wheel Restaurant and for the Playhouse. Season ticket holders are urged to get their reservations in soon for the entire season. Wagon Wheel management reports the heaviest pre-season sales in its history.

Two Locals Girls To Attend High School Music Clinic At I.U.

Diane Davis, Route 1, and Carol Easterday, 308 N. Ohio St., both of Culver, will attend the 18th annual High School Music Clinic July 6-14 at Indiana University, for which George F. Krueger, associate professor of choral music, will be director.

Some 400 teen-age musicians are enrolled for the clinic which will provide band, orchestra and voice students practice and performance under the guidance of well-known conductors. Daily individual instruction will be provided the high school musicians by I.U. music school faculty.

The clinic orchestra will be under the direction of Tibor Kozma, conductor of the University's Philharmonic Orchestra. The bands will be directed by Ronald Gregory, director of I.U. bands, and S. Thomas Beversdorf, associate professor of music, and the chorals by Prof. Krueger.

Only advanced music students from grades nine to 12 will be enrolled in the clinic.

Sectional rehearsals will be conducted by outstanding high school music teachers, who also will act as clinic counselors. A combined concert July 14 at 1:30 p.m. in the University auditorium will close the clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cook, Cleveland, Ohio, are spending several days with the former's mother, Mrs. Muriel Cook, and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Adams and Jeanne, Jeanne Adams will return home with them at the end of the week for a visit in Cleveland.

NO TOWN IS AN ISLAND!

No city or town is self-contained, and neither is the suburban and rural area surrounding it. Rural people depend upon city merchants to provide them with shopping and recreational facilities. Merchants in town need the business that comes from rural and suburban families; urban people need the food and fiber that is grown in the country.

There is no city, town or family in Indiana that does not benefit from rural electricity

A survey made by Indiana's leading farm publication shows that rural electricity will help keep cash registers ringing on Main Street this year. Farm families, alone, plan to buy 85,000 major electrical appliances . . . plus additional thousands of smaller electrical items. This multi-million dollar market is the direct result of the rural electrification program in this state.

Post Office Dept. Goes In For Code Numbering

Our five-digit ZIP Code is 46511. Postmaster E. Wayne Mattox announced today.

"Everyone in Culver will use this ZIP Code on all their correspondence to speed mail deliveries and reduce the chance of mis-sent mail," Postmaster Mattox said.

ZIP Code, the Post Office Department's revolutionary new system of improved mail dispatch and delivery, goes into effect nationally on July 1.

Postmaster Mattox stressed the importance of all citizens of Culver learning this city's ZIP Code and using it in their return address on all correspondence. In answering mail, he said, ZIP Codes taken from return addresses on incoming mail should be used.

"The ZIP Code is literally the last word in mail addressing," Mr. Mattox said. "It should follow the city and state in addresses."

He cited this example of the proper use of ZIP Code:

E. W. Mattox
Culver, Ind., 46511

The new ZIP Code plan, Mr. Mattox said, for the first time will permit the Post Office Department to short-cut repeated address reading.

"The address on mail must often be read as many as eight or ten times by postal employees, to get it to the proper destination," Mr. Mattox said. "Each handling slows the process of mail dispatch and adds to the opportunity for human error."

"With ZIP Code, a clerk needs only to glance at the code to know immediately to what national area, state and post office the letter is destined, and to speed it on its way, cutting up to 24 hours off the time between deposit and delivery."

Mr. Mattox said that when ZIP Code is in full swing, the United States will have "the most modern system of mail distribution and delivery in existence."

Pictured here is a section of Vandalia Park on Lake Maxinkuckee as it was in the gay nineties or early 1900's. The park, now our Town Park, was made and maintained by the Vandalia Railroad Company which operated six passenger trains daily with additional excursion trains during the summer season.

The Light House, with the waters of the flowing well emerging from its rocky base, made an impressive feature of the park. The depot and one of the shelters are seen in the background. The Round Stand at the left, near the water's edge, was a popular place for buying magazines and newspapers, peanuts, cracker jack and candy. Ice cream, hot dogs and cigarettes had not yet made their appearance.

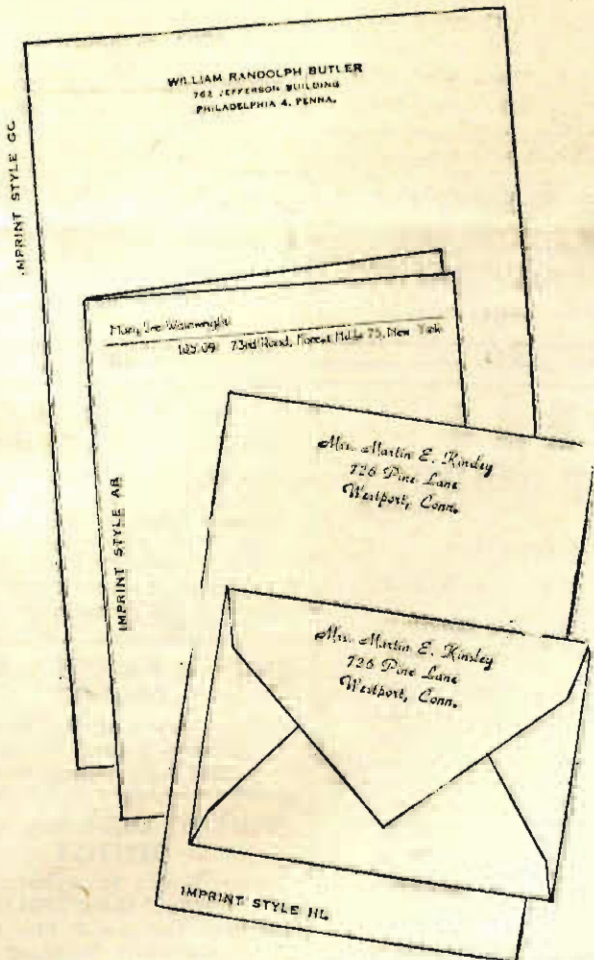

The young man pictured is the late Otto J. Stahl and the girl sitting on the rocks is Miss Pearl Parks of Bourbon.

The above picture, and several others of "Way Back When" from the collection of the late Otto J. Stahl, will appear in The Citizen through the courtesy of the Misses Edna, Osie, and Clara Stahl.

Anyone else having pictures of historical interest is invited to bring them to The Citizen for publication.

The meeting was closed with the Mizpah Benediction. Refreshments were served from a table centered by a beautiful bouquet of "Queen Elizabeth" roses and pink candelabra, with Mrs. H. L. Werner and Mrs. J. T. Stinchcomb presiding. Mrs. Leonard Hoffman and Mrs. Earl Foreman were co-chairmen of the hostess committee. Mrs. A. N. Butler was in charge of the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Van Schoiack and family of Niles, Mich., were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Stevens.

A CUT UP — The four-year-old daughter of a Salem couple, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Tompkins, provided her parents with a jig saw puzzle. The little girl, Mary Kay, got her mother's pinking scissors and then began operating on some dollar bills she found in her father's wallet. Before her activity was discovered she had cut a number of doilies, paper dolls and other odd pieces out of the nice green paper. The Salem Leader reported that the parents were able to assemble and tape together most of the bills and got them in shape so a bank redeemed them.

Babson Discusses Forest And Pasture Land

Suggests Investing Money in Both

Babson Park, Mass. — We have been taught since childhood "not to put all our eggs in one basket." That, however, was when our parents knew nothing about stocks and bonds, but even then made the mistake of putting all their savings in one bank. Well, the investment future is just as uncertain now as it was fifty years ago.

Forest Lands

Forest lands, like all other investments, have advantages and disadvantages. Trees grow during weekends and holidays as well as any other day of the year. These trees have no labor unions and never argue about "wages." Their value depends upon various factors, — such as the state the forest land is in and also how near it is to transportation to a cutting mill. Hence the price varies from $10.00 an acre to $200.00 an acre according to the location and the length of time for the growth to mature.

Cutover land with spruce or pine trees a foot or two high may be the best investment for young people, if it is properly located. However, such trees in the north are not ready to be cut or sold for fifty years. Then too, we must not forget the fire dangers or wind hazards.

What About Pasture Land?

I have been successful in buying land in Kansas where grass grows which is excellent for feeding cattle. The cattle raisers of Texas buy a railroad ticket to ship their steers to the stockyards in Kansas City or Chicago to be slaughtered and sold for beef. They find that by giving these steers a stopover in Kansas on their way north — to be fed on a pasture like mine for two months — the steers increase materially in weight and are worth much more when they get to market.

Sometimes such pasture land will produce oil. Your real estate agent will send you a map showing what he has to offer for sale and indicating what the chances are that oil might be found on your pasture. Pasture land varies in price — from $75 to $150 an acre — according to the availability and quality of water for the cattle and also in accordance with the possibility of oil. I have never heard of anyone taking losses on such land if it was purchased through a reliable broker. When Texas cattle are pasturing on your land it is customary to pay a professional caretaker so much a head for watching the cattle. All of this information you can get from many sources; but my business I have handled through the office of Carl C. Chase of Eureka, Kansas.

Trustees Have Their

Advantages and Disadvantages. Many readers of this column have put money in the hands of trustees of banks or other trustees in favor of their children and grandchildren. These trustees have their advantages; they are careful, honest, and reasonable in their charges. On the other hand, they naturally do not like to buy forest or pasture land if it pays no income, as their fees depend upon the income from the estate. Therefore, although there are times when certain non-dividend paying stocks are really safer than Dow-Jones gilt-edge stocks, yet trustees refrain from buying them because they yield no income to the trustees.

The trustees' fees, however, can be so arranged that both the principal involved and the income received will be recognized. This is both fairer, and often safer in the long run, for the beneficiaries. Never hesitate to be liberal with the trustees upon whom your children and grandchildren are depending. Therefore, whether you are taking care of your own fund or employing a trustee, I urge you to have some of the money invested in forest or pasture land. Next week I will discuss real estate; but this is something entirely different from what I am writing about this week.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

423 S. Michigan St., Plymouth
Sunday School 10:30 a.m.
Morning Worship 10:30 a.m.
The basic power behind change and evolution will be explored in all Christian Science churches this Sunday. The Bible Lesson is entitled: "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?"

Bible references will include this verse: "Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind" (Isa. 65:17).

Among the related readings will be this sentence: "Let there be light," is the perpetual demand of Truth and Love, changing chaos into order and discord into the music of the spheres" ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 255).

INDUSTRY SERVICE

Five years ago, says the Indiana Motor Truck Association, a survey showed that Hoosier industrial plants shipped 70 per cent of all outbound freight by truck. A more recent canvas shows the percentage of outbound products from Indiana plants to be nearly 87 per cent.

MRS. NORA SHEPPARD TO PARTICIPATE IN ARTS AND CRAFTS FAIR

Mrs. Nora Sheppard, 516 S. Main St., Culver, will be among the 200 artists and craftsmen who will participate in the seventh annual Edens Plaza outdoor arts and crafts fair. The event will be held Saturday and Sunday, June 29 and 30, from noon until dusk each day.

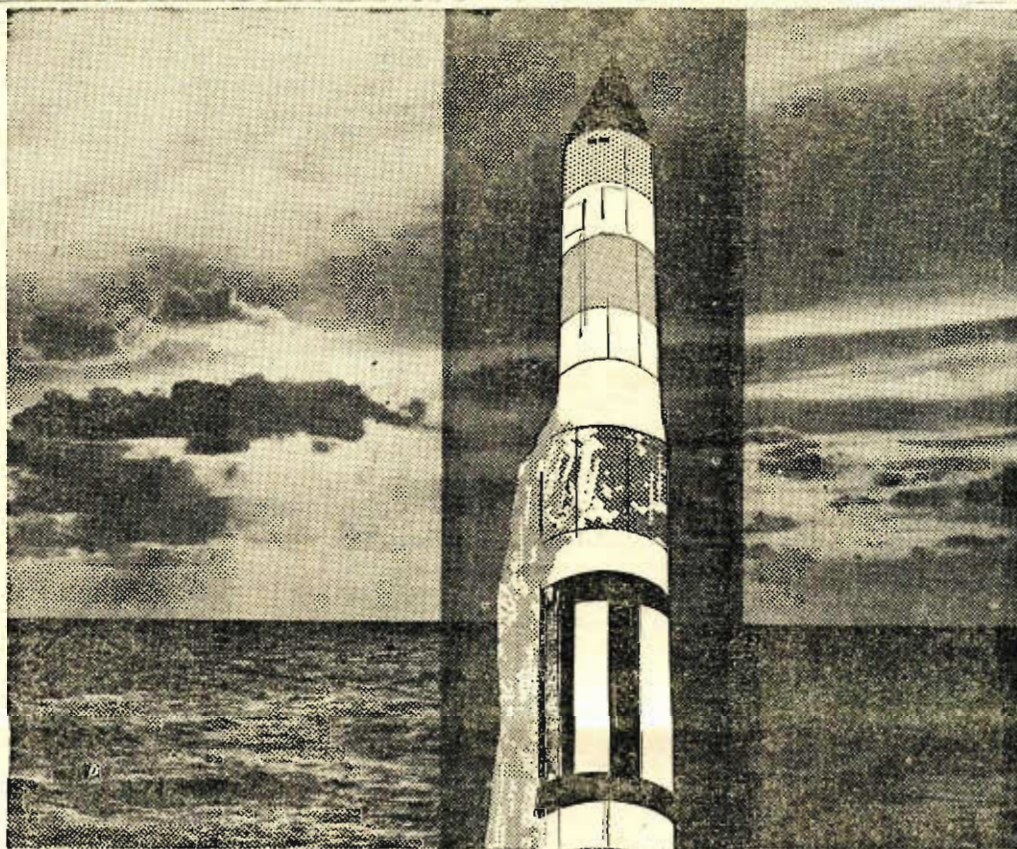

Arts and crafts to be exhibited, and offered for sale include oil paintings, watercolors, etchings, sculptures, handwrought jewelry, ceramics, mosaics, stoneware pottery, and many other original and creative works of art.

A special attraction during the two day event will be Frank Yakoubek, a strolling accordionist, who will be on hand each day to play the visitors favorite requests.

A brochure will be available, at no cost, to the fair patrons to help them locate their favorite artist. Refreshment centers will be located throughout the area. Free parking is available for 1,700 cars.

The location is Lake Avenue, Skokie Boulevard and Edens Expressway in Wilmette.

FIRE DEPARTMENT calls should be made to Viking 2-2141.

PROBING THE UNKNOWN

Early dawn at Cape Canaveral... and out of the flaming roar a finger of science probes the unknown.

Man has never been content to live behind a curtain of mystery. He must seek... discover... explore.

Nor is man's soul less eager than his mind!

For if we are meant each day to learn one more truth of our environment, we are meant, too, to learn one more truth of our Creator. There is hope that scientific probing can enrich our physical life; there is promise that religious searching will deepen our spiritual life.

Tomorrow depends on every lesson learned at Canaveral. But, to even greater degree, on every truth learned at Church.

WIRELESS — An Ohio County man, Orville Hodges, recently tried to telephone his sister who lives just across the Ohio River in the Kentucky town of Rabbit Hash. He told The Ohio County News he made several calls but each time got a busy signal. He finally went to the river bank and yelled across to his sister. She heard him but couldn't understand what he was saying. She then went into her home and found her son using the telephone. She told him to hang up. Hodges then got a call through to his sister.

PARTING SHOT — The editor of The Boonville Standard, C. Richard Johnson, recently filled out his weekly column with this observation: "Nobody ever listened himself out of a job."

Starting Petunia Seeds Indoors

White Cascade petunias in redwood tubs can make your garden a showplace. Start seeds indoors now, following directions in this article.

Petunia seeds are so tiny that they are best started in a sunny window where special care can be given them.

As a planting medium use either vermiculite, a sterile substance available at any garden supply store or a sterilized mixture of 1 part of sand and 2 parts of soil.

To sterilize soil mixture, fill shallow aluminum foil pans, put them in the oven, set the temperature control for 180 degrees and the timer for 1 hour.

After pans are cool, the seeds may be sown in the mixture. Be sure first to punch holes near the bottoms of the sides of the pans to insure adequate drainage.

It is best to sow the seeds from the packet, tapping it gently with one finger so that seeds come out gradually. Sow about 8 seeds to the inch. Don't cover the seeds. If you feel you must do something, press them gently to the vermiculite or soil mixture with the flat of your hand.

Set planted pan in a larger pan partly filled with water and leave it there until the top of soil or vermiculite shows dark. Remove the smaller pan and let it drain. Then pop it into a plastic refrigerator bag and place it where the temperature is even and not more than 65 degrees.

In a week to ten days the seeds will sprout. At that time remove plastic, place the pan in a sunny window in a cool room (not over 70 degrees in daytime, down to 60 degrees at night). Water as needed, using a solution of soluble fertilizer once a week instead of water if seeds are planted in vermiculite, which has no nourishment.

Transplant seedlings to peat pots when their second set of leaves appear. They can be grown in these pots until it is warm enough to set them, pot and all, into the garden.

Yacht Club News

By PEG CLYNE

The Maxinkuckee Yacht Club Judge's Report has all the facts but none of the interesting side-lights that make a race come alive.
For instance, last Sunday's race was headed June 16, 1963, Class "C." We'll go along with these two important facts but, it was the last of three races in the Tune-Up series, so the standing in this race determined the winner of the Tune-Up trophy.
Course - 5-4-8-5-4-8-5. That means that the race started at No. 8 and finished at No. 5 buoy, which is located near Allen's boat house. No. 4 buoy is off Long Point, while No. 8 is on the East side.
Wind - Light and Variable N.W. The word variable can't describe the panic on a couple boats when the gusts almost tipped them, or the delight Rupert Esser felt when he caught a stiff breeze and charged from the center of the racers to second place at the finish line.

Time of Start - 2 p.m. For 15 minutes, the skippers had been testing the wind and trying to get in line for a good running start.
Time of Finish - 3:21 p.m. This doesn't indicate the feeling of power that winner Ken Bateson must have had as he ordered his two-girl crew to bounce on the boards as they were heeling over. Or Pete Trone's helpless feeling as he lost the sheet on the last leg of a good race!
Number of Entries - 10 (2 more than the other races this year)
No. 1 - Ken Bateson (T-25). Winner of Tune-Up Series.
No. 2 - Rupert Esser (T-21).
No. 3 - Pete Trone (T-88). Runner-up in the Series.
The regular summer regatta starts next Sunday and we hope everyone will have their "C's" in racing order by that time.
