Basketball Teams Honored By Lions Club At Banquet

Culver's sectional basketball champs, former Culver coaches, Aubbeenaubee Braves basketball team, yell leaders, student managers, and school officials were honored guests at the Culver Lions Club annual basketball banquet last Wednesday evening at the Culver Community Building. Approximately 280 guests attended the festive affair, made more so by the excellent showing of this year's fine team. Special guests, other than the Culver Indians, were the varsity team, cheerleaders and fans from the Aubbeenaubee high school.

Prior to the banquet, guests greeted former teammates of other years and renewed acquaintances with their former coaches and teachers. The theme of the evening was "Remember." And from the handshakes, smiles in greeting that were in evidence, there was a lot of remembering going on. The banquet tables were arranged crosswise of the gym with the speakers' table at the foot, facing the guests. Tables were decorated with the Culver Community School colors of black and burnt orange. In the center of the speakers' table was a beautiful centerpiece of burnt orange, black and white flowers that were in a basketball. On the stage, directly behind the speakers table, was a large basketball with "Remember" on it, done by C. Warner Williams, artist in residence at the Culver Military Academy. Placed at each plate were miniature Culver Indian pennants in black and burnt orange. The banquet was served by the Burr Oak Church of God ladies, assisted by the men.

Lion president Larry Welsh greeted the guests following the dinner hour. He introduced Robert Rust, program chairman, who served as master of ceremonies for the evening. Mr. Rust introduced Coach Gene Crosley who spoke on "The Coach's Viewpoint" and who complimented the team on their fine year's work. Paul White, team member, spoke on "As The Team Saw It" and Kenneth Cole, Culver school principal, addressed the guests on "Speaking For The School."

Frank McLane, superintendent of Culver Community Schools, introduced Culver's former coaches, who were honored guests. Attending were Paul Underwood, Deane E. Walker, Jim Burns, Harold "Red" Sering, and Evert Hoesel. Unable to attend, but (Continued on Page 2)

Mr. Goodwin, the new manager of the County Co-op, will speak. Lester McGriff will also talk briefly on the wheat situation.

Each family is to bring cookies or finger food and the Farm Bureau will furnish coffee and milk for refreshments.

The newspaper is the only medium that works 24 hours a day to bring the advertiser's name to the public.

Culver Jaycees To Sponsor Easter Egg Hunt

The Culver Jaycees will hold its second annual Easter Egg Hunt for the children of Culver and the immediate area on Saturday, March 28, at 2 p.m., at the Culver Town Park. In case of bad weather, it will be held on Sunday afternoon, March 29.

Children are urged to meet in front of the train depot in the Town Park at the scheduled time so that they won't miss out on the fun and prizes. Children in the age groups from 1 through 8 years old will be eligible to participate.

The children will be divided into two age groups with areas on each side of the Beach Lodge and those finding the gold, silver, and numbered eggs will receive prizes.

Jaycees and their wives will meet on Wednesday, March 25, at 7 p.m., to boil and color the eggs for the event — all 70 dozen of them!

Visitors to Culver judge it largely by the people they meet here. What do you do to make Culver more attractive to visitors and newcomers?

Former Culver Coaches Presented At Lions Club Basketball Banquet

One of Indiana's and the country's most famous trade marks now has been registered — 62 years after its first use.

The trade mark is the large letter "C" with "ulver" inside it as the symbol for Culver Military Academy.

The trade mark of the country's largest college preparatory school has been reproduced millions of times in advertisements, catalogs, alumni publications, stationery, athletic letters, and insignia.

The origin of the unique trade mark is lost in antiquity, but campus historians have a plausible theory.

The large "C" is in the shape of a horseshoe (see illustration). The trade mark was designed in 1902 to publicize the Black Horse Troop, which had been formed in 1897 in an effort to build enrollment at the struggling young school founded in 1894.

The 140-horse Troop still is the Academy's most colorful organization and is the country's largest cavalry unit.

The Culver trade mark was recently registered by the Secretary of State of Indiana. It has a state rather than national registration because the Academy is not regarded as engaging in interstate commerce. This is the interpretation of law, even though the normal year students enroll from about 40 states and a dozen foreign countries.

Registration of the trade mark was taken to protect it for the Academy as a valuable symbol. With the registration, no organization or person can use it without the consent of the Academy.

Culver today has 850 students in grades 8 through 12. During each July and August 1,650 students are enrolled in a combination education and recreation program.

TWO LOCAL STUDENTS TO DO PRACTICE TEACHING

Ball State Teachers College at Muncie will send 243 full-time student teachers into Indiana public schools the spring quarter to get practical experience in teaching and meeting all of the extra challenges that a teacher faces in a school day. In addition to the full-time program, the college has part-time student teaching in schools within commuting distance of the campus.

Betty Jean Hosimer, an elementary education major, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hosimer, 603 Obispo St., Culver, will be teaching first grade at Studebaker Elementary School.

Emily Anne Allen, also an elementary education major, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Allen, 670 West Shore Drive, Culver, will be teaching fourth grade under Mrs. Rommie Lee Smith at Jefferson Elementary School.

Full-time student teachers will report March 23 or March 30, whichever date falls after the local schools' spring vacation, said Dr. E. Graham Pogue, director of student teaching.

Change in Direct Distance Dialing Effective April 26

Indiana Bell will shorten the Direct Distance Dialing procedure for Culver telephone users late in April, Manager David S. Orr announced recently.

He said DDD users will dial "1" instead of "112" to gain access to the long distance network beginning Sunday, April 26. This also will be the effective date for a new telephone directory.

New equipment now is being installed in the Culver telephone building to make the simplified DDD dialing possible. Orr said work on the $5,000 installation project started early in March and will be completed in about a month.

The equipment is being installed by technicians from Western Electric Co., the manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell System.

"The new DDD procedure will add to the convenience of dialing station-to-station calls," Orr said. "It will improve still more the speed with which you can dial any of more than 80 million phones in the United States and Canada."

INDIANA BELL

... It Must Be THE LAKE WATER

By Bob Kyle

IMPORTANT HAPPENINGS at the Town Trustees meeting . . . the Bennett beauty shop, new location, is free to operate, as it was permitted before zoning was effected.

Double-parking, and sidewalk and terrace parking is illegal, and nothing has been done about it in a decade, so Town Marshal Mikesell, when he returns from vacation, has his work scheduled. The board says it really means business.

The resignation of Judd Stinchcomb as Culver Community Schools board member, representing the town, was accepted and President Theodore Ervin announced his successor was Walter Johnson, effective April 1.

Bids to operate the Beach Lodge was ordered advertised, and extra seats for the council chambers are being negotiated with the Library Board which needs the space in the assembly room in the basement for expansion.

Property owners bordering on the alleys between School Street and Lake Avenue, and between College Avenue and Lake Shore Drive attended the meeting seeking a solution to the near-impassable conditions, the debris scattered about and the fencing-in of one alley without due process.

Property owners present were Manford VanGilder, Dr. Dan Bieker, Mrs. Maggie Dean, Mrs. Lucille Irvine, William Washburn, Dr. Donald Reed representing Mrs. Edna Reed, Raymond Ives and Robert Kyle. Property owners not present but notified of meeting were Mrs. Adolph Massa, Mrs. Clark Ferrier and Walter Johnson. Lee Jewel, who lives near Plymouth, could not be contacted.

After everyone was heard it was decided that the Board, along with property owners and Street Commissioner Mikesell, would make a survey of the entire situation and take whatever action necessary.

DOLLAR DAYS drew extra prospective customers to Culver Friday and Saturday. Crabb's furniture and Snyder's Hardware seemed particularly well patronized.

NO FISHING this week. Cary Cummins reports water too cold for fish to bite . . . Don Trone spent the better part of a forenoon scraping the Made-In-Japan labels off the American flags the Legion used for place favors at their anniversary party . . . Looks like Jim and Mildred Burns are deserting Plymouth for an acre in Walnut Township and intend building a house . . . Nellie Jackson wants a map of the world. She has an old pix of the Culver Comics, a baseball team in 1910 composed of her husband, Coleman, catcher; Luther Whitted, Sheep Scott, Charlie Dickerson, and a lot more who were really semi-pro ball players . . . More about them later when I can corral Sheep . . . Jim Middleton of Argos, the old N.Y. Giant relief pitcher, (circa 1917), was in town last week and Lake Water reminisced old times about John McGraw and Christy Mathewson in the halcyon days . . . The O. T. Smiths are back from Florida and glad of it.

WEATHER WHETHER YOU LIKE it or not: State Water Resources says February most enjoyable for several years. Precipitation varied widely throughout state, from Gary .49 of inch to 2.67 at Madison. February was seventh consecutive month near-drought conditions.

NO BORES LIKE WILD BOARS: Nimrods Pat Keller, Pee Wee Raub of Leiters Ford, and Ray Houghton went boar hunting in Eastern Tennessee last week. Came home with four and were only treed once by these ferocious, dog-ripping, man-attacking creatures. Lake Water was recipient of a wild boar roast from that veteran bulldozer Pee Wee, under circumstances too numerous to mention.

Anyway, he read up on cooking wild boar and marinated it three days in the refrigerator completely surrounded with celery, carrots, onions, garlic, tarragon, cloves, pepper corns, tabasco, wine, lemon juice, monosodiumglutamate, tenderizer and loving care.

It was roasted Sunday as the piece-de-resistance and the invited guest was Frank Simmons, the renowned and celebrated military photographer from Mofett's, Chicago, who has made portraits of Culver cadets for more than 20 years. He pronounced it excellent as only a gourmet can do. For a while Lake Water felt that the best thing was to throw the boar roast out and sip the marinade.

NOTES ON BREAD-MAKING contest: Will be held in April . . . Harry Speyer, Bill Easterday and Don Trone will be the contest superintendents . . . Understand all stores will stock Spruance Old-Fashioned Ready Mixed Flour . . . Many valuable prizes offered.

Robert K. Kyle, The Citizen's columnist . . . "It Must Be The Lake Water," and senior partner in the nationally-known political publicity specialists firm of Kyle, Ketchum, Hokumson & Ruch, with offices in Chicago, Washington, San Francisco, and New York will handle publicity for Luke White of Covington, Democratic candidate for nomination for Governor.

Mr. White is the son-in-law of Mrs. Jerome Zechiel, Sr., Lake Shore Drive, and her daughter Margaret, was a pupil of Mrs. Kyle's in Culver schools.

Editor, CITIZEN:

Those wishing to socialize medicine don't give up easily. In fact they don't give up at all, but keep bouncing back with a slightly different proposal. With election year at hand, "compulsory health insurance," as they label it, is threatening once again.

Our existing health care laws — Kerr-Mills and similar programs — are voluntary and are helping those actually needing help. They are operated by the states, without federal control, although the federal government shares the cost. These programs don't require vast numbers of new federal employees for administration. This approach is perfect for the people, but not much help to the politicians.

With so many people in positions of power working to perpetuate themselves in power; medicine, by contrast, is the only profession that endlessly labors to destroy the reason for its own existence. American medical science — working in the American way — has added almost ten years to the average life span during the past two decades. It's not reasonable to believe that a profession which has done so nobly will fail to provide care for the aged without the force of federal intervention and control.

Let us spend our efforts in perfecting our progressive system, the one we already have, rather than promoting the reactionary system of putting the politician between us and the doctor.

Voices Of The People

Editor, THE CITIZEN:
"Proof that the Citizen really gets around." — Since my return home from the hospital, several weeks ago, I have been amazed and pleased to receive so many many cards from "Out of Towners." Especially from Culverites in distant states. They all had an affectionate word for The Old Home Town. And I agree, — for a little town it's quite a wonderful town — with a lot of wonderful people.

PRODUCTION TESTING REPORT MADE ON LOCAL HOLSTEIN COWS

An official production testing report from The Holstein-Friesian Association of America at Brattleboro, Vermont, includes the recently completed lactations of these area Registered Holstein cows.

Culver Dictator King Cindy 406640, an eight-year-old, produced 21,561 lbs. milk and 798 lbs. butterfat in 365 days. Culver Lad Dictator Nancy 4743894, a three-year-old, had 17,973 lbs. milk and 766 lbs. butterfat in 339 days. Culver Lieu General Cupid 3975352, an eight-year-old, had 14,412 lbs. milk and 559 lbs. butterfat in 334 days. All are owned by John A. Newman & Sons of Culver.

These new production figures may be compared to the annual output of 7,211 lbs. of milk and 270 lbs. of butterfat by the average U. S. dairy cow, notes the national Holstein Association.

Purdue University supervised the sampling, weighing and testing operations in cooperation with the Holstein organization's herd and breed improvement programs.

Babson Wonders If Our Emotions Affect Business

Emotions Affect Us In Many Ways

Babson Park, Mass. — I have long been interested in just how much our national mental health may influence the business cycle and forces of prosperity. Today, with such swift transportation and lightning-flash communication, I am brought to wonder, too, how much of an effect man's emotions may have upon international, commercial, and political developments.

The Power Of Our Emotions

Roger W. Babson

I am firmly convinced that our emotions direct our behavior in more instances than we like to admit. It is a psychological fact that a successful salesman aims at our emotions if he finds that his appeals to our logic have failed. And if you have ever attended a town meeting, you know how easy it is for some spellbinder to completely override logic with an emotional appeal. Nine times out of ten we give in to the purely emotional gimmick.

In most national political elections, I would venture that the outcome has been even more heavily influenced by emotion than by common horse-sense. Since emotion plays such a big role in our individual lives and in politics, is it not reasonable that the way we feel about business conditions may very well have a bearing on those conditions themselves? Surely nobody would deny that confidence is a very important factor in manufacturing, banking, and consumer purchasing.

Should Be Looked Into

Businessmen in general seem to have little time for sociologists, anthropologists, and psychologists, because their experiments take a long time to complete and are usually costly. But it is my opinion that if some realistic-minded social scientists would get together with a group of farsighted businessmen to study in depth the effect of our national mental health on the business cycle and prosperity, some great discoveries might be made that would benefit not only our country but other nations as well.

Forecasting has been my business for many years, and I have long wondered if there are not some now unknown spiritual and mental factors that would be valuable — if identified — in making economic predictions. As long ago as the turn of the century, Harvard's eminent Doctor Cannon declared that half the patients who came to him for treatment had nothing wrong with them physically. Their trouble was psychosomatic, meaning mental and emotional. When you think of the vast numbers of people who are undoubtedly psychosomatic but who never seek treatment for this, you can imagine how many are ill simply because they think they are.

Impact Of Emotions On Business

Everyone recognizes the parts played by religion and psychiatry in developing entirely new, successful, and happy personalities. Industry itself has made surveys which indicate that the cause of many serious and costly strikes is not economic. Instead, many have a purely emotional origin: the emphasis, really, is more on recognition, security, and individual attention than on wages or hours. Hence, why is it not likely that business depressions could be profoundly affected by emotional currents.

I wonder what might happen during this new year if business, and people generally, should begin to feel cautious and pessimistic, irrespective of conditions and of what the economists and bankers forecast. While most economists predict a business advance during 1964, could the mental and emotional health of our people reverse the trend in spite of the all-time highs now existing in employment, production, earnings, and retail trade? I sometimes wonder if we are right in figuring solely on money, employment, sales, etc., as the criteria for prosperity. Perhaps someday it will be found that mental and emotional attitudes do more to mold our business patterns than the purely economic barometers. I feel sure even now, that our spiritual and mental health does affect business conditions. It is certainly an interesting area for further study.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY DIRECTOR TO VISIT THE CULVER MILITARY ACADEMY

Dr. Edward B. Jenkinson, director of Indiana University's English Curriculum Study Center, consulted with members of the Culver Military Academy English Department in a visit here Tuesday, March 17.

Dr. Jenkinson is particularly interested in the work being done at Culver in the teaching of transformational grammar. The Academy is one of the few secondary schools in the country to develop and offer a course in the structural linguistics approach to the teaching of grammar, and one of its English instructors, John C. Mellon, has written a textbook on the subject following graduate work done at Harvard University and Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

NAMED TO DEAN'S LIST

William K. Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Millbrath, Route 1, Culver, has been cited to the Dean's List for scholastic achievement for the past semester at Rose Polytechnic Institute at Terre Haute.

Students named to the Dean's List received a 3.10 or better average out of a possible four points.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SOUL IN STONE

What do you see here? Figures of statuary? A symbol of religion? A monument to the Master?

Look with your heart and you'll see something else. You'll see the soul of the sculptor.

A man mightily inspired — who wanted with his talents to worship Christ — who took stone and chisel and hammer . . . and all the strength of his body . . . and all the faith of his heart. He said to the world with his Art-Words that which he could never have spoken with his lips nor written with his pen.

For twenty centuries Jesus, the Saviour, has inspired our best. In the annals of mankind a million thrilling breakthroughs in human achievement have been dedicated to His service.

So never pass the humblest creation of sacred art — not even the crayoned Bible-picture of a child — without remembering that you too have a soul. And talents to give your God!

Conservation Dept. Announces 1963 Record Fish

Fishermen were invited to send information about their big fish to the Indiana Department of Conservation beginning on Aug. 1, 1962. Many fishermen did this, and a really fine array of fish specimens are represented.

The biggest fish in each of 19 categories have been chosen as Record Fish in Indiana for 1963. The proud anglers received a beautiful certificate, signed by Donald E. Foltz, Director of the Indiana Department of Conservation, in honor of their achievement. Also, each one received a colorful patch to wear on his fishing jacket as a symbol of his championship rating.

There are still three species of fish in which no State Record yet exists. Anyone catching a nice Rock Bass, bowfin (dogfish), or spotted bass (Kentucky bass), should fill out and send in an entry form along with a photograph of the fish.

Right here and now a challenge is issued to everyone, whether man or woman, adult or child, Hoosier or visitor, TRY FISHING IN INDIANA! Not everyone can break these records every time, but bigger fish are there. Someone will land them, and be recognized for bringing in a record breaker, it might as well be you.

Culver Lays Claim To Part Of New Beatlemania Craze

Culver, however remote, can lay some claim to the "Beatlemania" that has swept the country, since the shaggy-haired English Beatles have made their appearance in this country. It happened this way.

Douglas and Donald Spence, former Oneonta, N. Y. residents now living in Daytona Beach, Fla., are twins. Both are married with two children and both are employed by General Electric. Donald whose hobby is abstract art, applied his talents to depicting the shaggy four immediately after the Beatles first TV appearance. The two brothers promoted the painting in Daytona and when the Beatles were in Miami in person, they presented the painting to the Beatles' manager and the boys. It was an immediate success with them and contracts were signed with a publisher and the Beatles.

The painting, which looks like someone had laid a paper flat, dumped four ink blots on it, then held it right side up so two dribbles would run from each blob, will be used as a back-drop for the Beatle appearances, a record album cover, an autograph giveaway and a stationery seal. The Spences think the picture will be available commercially "in a few weeks."

Just where does Culver come in on this newest fad of the Beatles? Very simple: the wife of Donald Spence, the former Meri-K Lockridge, is the granddaughter of Mrs. Clara M. Heine, 445 Vandalia St., Culver.

CHANGE IN MANAGERS AT SOCIAL SECURITY OFFICE

Appointment of Charles E. Burke as District Manager of the South Bend office of the Social Security Administration was made known recently by Melville H. Hosh, Regional Director, Region 5, of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. Mr. Burke is taking the place of Cornelius R. Schafer who has been moved to new responsibilities in one of the Chicago District Offices.

Mr. Hosh, in making the assignment, pointed out that Burke comes to the South Bend post with a wide background of administrative and executive experience in government agencies, before joining the Social Security Administration in 1938, he was connected with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, the Department of Labor, and the Home Owners Loan Corporation.

With the Social Security Administration he was first in Baltimore, Maryland where the more than 150 million wage records of participants in the Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance Program are maintained. In the past 24 years he has managed three New York offices — Kingston, Poughkeepsie, and Newburgh. Beginning in 1955, he managed two offices in North Carolina — Fayetteville and Winston-Salem, before coming to his last post in one of the Chicago offices.

Mr. Burke will enter on duty in his new post on March 16, 1964.

OCTOBER, 1919. Woodrow Wilson lay stricken. The White House was shut off from the nation by a veil of mystery. The President's condition was concealed from the public, from Congress, from members of his cabinet. Even Vice President Thomas Marshall was not permitted to see or talk to him.

But there was talk up on Capitol Hill. Amidst the whisperings emerged a project to declare the President incapable of carrying on his official duties, and to elevate Marshall to the Presidency.

But Marshall refused. To consider such a step without the urging of the President himself was unthinkable. He remained loyal and devoted to Wilson. At a time when Marshall might have gained a lasting place among the nation's Presidents—by a simple nod of his head. They should have expected this of Thomas Riley Marshall. For he never outgrew his faith in God and man. He never put ambition ahead of fair play.

But, for all his idealism, he was never stuffy. He kept his gift for plain speaking and delightful wit ("What this country needs is a good 5¢ cigar!"), throughout a career as lawyer, Governor of Indiana and two terms as Vice President of the United States.

Tom Marshall was born in North Manchester in 1854, the son of a country doctor. And he sometimes went on horse and buggy calls in the country with his father.

Just imagine what a help today's modern telephone system would have been to Tom's father. How such fast communication would have saved so much time—and so many lives. Now there are other communication aids. Answering-recording sets that can answer a doctor's phone and record the caller's message. Car radio-telephones that can keep him in touch with office or hospital.

Yes, doctors—and most everybody else for that matter—depend on some sort of telephone service. And it is so fast and efficient that you take it for granted. For there are some 8,000 Hoosiers working hard to keep it that way. The people of Indiana Bell are determined to maintain your telephone service as the finest in the world. And the best is yet to come.

...IT'S FUN TO PHONE LONG DISTANCE!

What a wonderful way to keep in touch. It's the next best thing to being there in person. It's such a friendly gesture to call on birthdays, anniversaries and holidays. But there's no need to wait for a special occasion—someone, somewhere, would be thrilled to hear your voice right now. And remember, long distance calling is more convenient—more economical—than ever before. Be sure to use the Area Code of the place you're calling (if it is outside the area from which you are calling) to assure even faster and easier phoning. Pick up your phone right now—and you're almost there.

CMA Plans First 60-Mile Canoe Race In April

A 60-mile canoe race on the Tippecanoe River will be sponsored by Culver Military Academy on the weekend of April 18 and 19.

William Garrison, an Academy history teacher, conceived the idea of the race and will serve as its chairman. Garrison formerly taught at University High School in Bloomington, Ind., and chairmanned a similar event in that area last year. Thirty participants — many of them college students — competed in the race.

The Academy race is scheduled to begin at 8 a.m. Saturday, April 18, from Leiters Ford. The end of the first leg will be at Elvera Beason Memorial Park, an Academy-owned recreational facility located on the Tippecanoe some 17 miles from the Culver campus. Canoes and crews will set out Sunday morning to cover the remaining distance to Buffalo, Ind.

There is no age restriction on entries and Garrison said anyone may enter the race. Crews will be limited to three members and the type of craft is restricted to canoes. The Academy will make available for purchase a Saturday evening meal and Sunday breakfast at Beason Park, where overnight lodgings will also be provided. Academy buses also will transport contestants from the Academy to Leiters Ford and will also return them to the Culver campus from Buffalo at the conclusion of the race.

Garrison said entry fees will be used to purchase prizes, and crews will have their choice of prizes according to the place in which they finish. He added that Culver will also make some of its canoes available to participants, although Academy students will have first claim. Others will be loaned on a first come, first served basis.

Additional details and entry blanks may be secured by writing Garrison in care of Culver Military Academy, Culver, Ind.

Research Paper To Be Discussed At Workshop

A research paper written by a Culver Military Academy counselor and English instructor is one of 10 selected across the country to be discussed in San Francisco on March 24 as part of the seventh annual workshop of the Committee on Diagnostic Reading Tests, Inc.

Horton C. Reed, a member of the Culver faculty since 1955, will introduce the paper and then take part in the discussions among an anticipated audience of 200. His paper is entitled "Specific Skills in Literary Interpretation Related to Underachievement and Overachievement in English," and it is based on research work done in 1962 for his master's thesis at Tufts University, Boston.

Purpose of Reed's study was to determine what specific skills in the interpretation of literature are the best discriminators of underachievement and overachievement among juniors and seniors. Reed used Culver English students as a basis for his investigation.

Reed will spend five days in San Francisco attending the American Personnel and Guidance Association meeting, March 23-27. The reading research workshop will be held at the Commodore Stockton School.

GRACE CHURCH HAS FINAL MID-WEEK LENTEN SERVICE

The final in a series of Mid-Week Lenten Services will convene tonight, Wednesday, March 18, at 7:30 p.m. at Culver's Grace Church where Rev. Harold W. Hohman is pastor.

Visual basis for this service is Hofmann's painting, "Christ In Gethsemane."

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hatten and Paul were Miss Barbara Hatten of South Bend and Miss Janet Fisher of Syracuse.

Firemen Plagued By Grass Fires

The Culver Volunteer Fire Department has been plagued with a series of grass, trash, and wood fires during this past week. Extremely dry weather and high winds have added to the fire danger. Fire Chief Dave Burns urges that extreme caution be exercised when burning trash or grass. Do not set such fires if it is windy. Plenty of water and fire-fighting equipment should be present to keep the fires under control. Likewise, in no case should one leave any fire unattended. Even a slight wind can cause a fire to spread out of control and endanger property, which could be your home. Help Culver's efficient volunteer firemen in their constant vigil to protect homes, property, and lives.

On Sunday, March 16, the Department was called at 2:40 p.m. to the William Wieringa farm on Hibbard Road where a grass fire was burning along the Pennsylvania Railroad right of way. No damage resulted.

On Monday, March 16, the firemen responded to a 1:50 p.m. alarm at the Harold Pitterling residence where a trash fire was burning out of control.

At 3:10 p.m. the same day, Culver firemen were called to the Earl C. Overmyer farm on 400 S and 1150 E in Starke County where they battled a grass and wood fire which caused about $75 loss to fence posts.

About 5 p.m. Monday the Culver Fire Department was summoned to fight a grass and wood fire in the Ober neighborhood in Starke County. Several hours later, about 7:25 p.m. they were recalled to the same location where the fire had started up again from smoldering embers. No damage was done.

About 2:45 a.m. Tuesday, an alarm was sent in to the local Fire Department from the above same location but it was not necessary for trucks to respond to this alarm.

At 12:25 p.m. Tuesday, Culver firemen again made a run to the Earl C. Overmyer residence to extinguish a fire which resulted from embers of Monday's fire.

No additional damage was reported.

1964 REVIEW OF PLYMOUTH BUSINESS FIRMS

is? Mmmm. . . sounds interesting.

Why is it that Shela Fish always wants to go to Monterey?

They're rioting in the chemistry lab. Who fired the first shot remains to be seen, but the ammunition was found by Private Dave Lemar. And how that sappy glove did fly!! Perhaps Kathy Easterday can vouch for that. . . and Arl Altman, too!

Culver's basketball team seems to have a couple of fans from Anubee. These young men were faithful to the Indian Braves at the regional — and also to two maidens on the fan bus, namely Janie Ives and Jeanne Adams.

Sharon McGaffey and Jim Weirick just about missed out on their bike ride around the lake. Had they waited just a couple of days, they would have had to follow the snow plows.

The juniors came out of the library looking rather fatigued after having taken the NMSQT. An almost unanimous opinion is that they didn't qualify!

This must have been, "Be Kind to Small Animals" week. Not only has Dave been friendly with our small feathered friends, but Linda Sparling has started an aquarium in a chemistry lab sink. Oh, those poor little goldfish had a good time swimming around in the polluted water. Her lab associates were wondering whether the fish wouldn't serve as indicators since the experiment that day was to test the acidity of certain chemical compounds — and the results were going into the aquarium. However, Mr. Kepler came to the rescue and the fish were transferred to the biology room.

Bob Carter spots one floating near the light. Ooops! It's falling . . . blow harder! More fun and games — blowing angora through the French room. It really can be a great sport when 20 students pool their forces.

Meet our acrobatic student, Jim Lewis. Actually, he tried to show us how he could sit on air. Guess what — he failed. Dick Mackey can tell you what happened. (?)

We can hardly wait to see where Dave Lemar hangs his poster advertising the Junior Ham Supper. It is rather unique!

Well, I guess that's it folks. I hope the next time we come around again that it will be a bit warmer so we can venture out for more news. See ya!

Roving Reporter

By Vicki Lyons and Jan Scruggs

As the students stroll through the halls of CHS, the main topic of conversation that is floating through the air is the sectional championship won by this year's team. In order to convey to you some of the feelings that the students have about the victory, we asked them what they thought of the team or the win. As you will see, most of them are as happy as the team members:

Bev Barshes: FANTASTIC!!

Sharon Bustis: G-R-E-A-T! We're proud of our boys.

Carolyn Saft: I thought it was wonderful! I wonder what Doc Fod thought of it.

Linda Baker: It was in the bag all the way.

Elaine Epley: Marvelous! I'm proud to belong to Culver High.

Linda McAllister: Sharp! I guess we showed Doc Fod.

Brenda McAllister: Neat! Even the BEATLES couldn't top it.

Patti McCombs: GREAT! Next year we'll really show Doc Fod and take the regional, too!

Ronetta King: Well, they did not play like a small town school, they're really neat.

Patty Wentzel: Great! Culver really showed Doc Fod.

Mr. N. Tanksley Interviewed

By Mary Norris

Any seventh grade English student who is not interested in improving himself will soon find himself on the black list of Mr. Norman Tanksley for this is his pet peeve. Mr. Tanksley, who is not only an English teacher, but also our new school librarian resides at 112 Madison Street in Culver.

Mr. Tanksley was graduated from Heltonville High School in Lawrence County, Ind. After 12 years of college training, he started teaching in Lawrence County and taught there for six years. He attended Central Normal College where he obtained a B.S. degree, and then went to Purdue University and received a Master's degree.

He taught for 33 years at Cook School which is now under the name of South Newton School Corporation. After teaching grade school and high school, Mr. Tanksley became principal and superintendent of the high school.

Mr. Tanksley has several hobbies which include bridge, chess, reading, gardening, and fishing. Once he is a fisherman, Mr. Tanksley likes our lake. Mr. Tanksley, a sports fan, likes the school spirit among the teachers, administration and pupils. And, of course, he thinks Culver's basketball team has done a great job this year.

As the librarian, Mr. Tanksley says this: The Culver School Library is probably one of the better libraries in the state for a school of this size. Since he came to Culver this year, 736 books have been processed and added to the library, most of which came from North Bend Township. The greatest need at present for the library is more shelving space and a complete card catalog.

Install a tractor rear view mirror for safety during the coming season when you will be towing implements on the highway, advise agricultural engineers at Purdue University. Mirrors prove valuable on some field operations because they cut neck turning in half, most operators report.

A Scotsman thought the best way of saving money was to put a penny in a money box every time he kissed his wife. This he did faithfully for the entire year. When he opened the box and out came not only pennies but sixpences, shillings, and half crowns. He was amazed and asked his wife how she accounted for it.

"We-el, Jock," she replied, "it's not every mon that's as stingy as you be."

Sunshine Holds Mother's Tea

Friday, March 6, 1964, the Culver Sunshine Society held a Mother's party, the first in recent years. Janet Beck opened the meeting by welcoming all the mothers. Becky Easterday then led the members in the creed and Jane Ives led the Sunshine song. Peggy Herr, vice-president of the Society, gave an excellent talk on the value of Sunshine. She explained the different projects which the Society sponsors and told of the aims of the Society.

Miss Ruth Shanks, sponsor of the Sunshine Society, was introduced. She commented on the activities of the Society and its present officers. After Miss Shanks finished, each girl introduced herself and her mother.

The entertainment, prepared by chairman Kay Thomas, was a take-off on the Ed Sullivan Show. Jane Ann Ives acted as master of ceremonies, Carol Slabaugh, Kathy Stratton, and Valerie Gunder did acts. The highlight of the show was the "Centepedes," a group which imitated the popular Beatles. The group consisted of Lonnie Darosci, Carolyn Snyder, Wanda Warren and Kay Thomas.

After the entertainment refreshments of tea cakes, cookies, and punch were served by the refreshment committee, headed by Bonnie Saft. The tables were decorated in green and white for St. Patrick's Day. Shamrocks and Leprechauns made from construction paper were placed on the tables. Decoration chairman, Becky Easterday, and invitation chairman, Cathy Carrothers, carried out the idea of St. Patrick's Day effectively.

After the meeting was adjourned, chairman Holly Thompson and her clean-up committee got to work!

Try this if your hands become messy when greasing cake pans, cookie sheets or casseroles. Slip your hand into a waxed bag "mitten", pinch off a piece of butter or margarine and grease. It's easy to get into all the corners. When you are through just toss your disposable mitten away.

Even when you wear an apron when washing dishes, dresses can get wet. Protect your dress from the unscheduled bath by pinning a piece of plastic to the underside of your cotton apron.

To make shorter work of doing dishes, put the dishes in the hottest water you have, add soap or detergent and let stand until you can put your hands in the water. The dishes will come sparkling clean with a rinse, reports The Lindsay Company, particularly if you have soft water, which is superior in dissolving and washing action.

If you're yearning for contour-bed sheets and aren't ready to replace your current supply here is a simple method to convert them to contour type. Tie a knot in each corner of your sheet and tuck the knots under the mattress. This does a fine job of keeping the bottom sheet taut.

Zipper aren't apt to be so troublesome if you make sure they are zipped shut when you put clothes into the washer.

Indiana State Chiropractic Assn.

NATURE'S WAY TO HEALTH

During the past few years there have been many advances in scientific fields and in the vanguard is the care of our bodies. The science of chiropractic has taught us that all human ailments will show a reaction in the spine because it is through the nerves emanating from the spinal cord that life and health giving energy is supplied to the organs of our body.

Our bodies are so constructed that sickness and disease cannot enter without cause and often times rills, strains or some other reason cause the movable bones of the spine to become subluxated and press upon the nerves causing disease or illness to appear in the organs supplied by the nerve because in its unnatural condition it cannot perform its function as it should. A qualified and experienced chiropractic physician can by examination determine the cause of the disease or illness and by manipulation of the boxes of the spine can often remove the pressure and the cause of the trouble. Good health will naturally follow. However, by study and research additional forms of treatment have been found to be desirable and necessary in many cases. X-ray is a help in diagnosis and many of our outstanding chiropractic physicians are also outstanding X-ray technicians. The science and profession of chiropractic is based upon the highest of ethical practices and no doctor of chiropractic claim to be able to cure every ailment. However, the practitioners of this profession have been able to store to good health a remarkable percentage of their patients and it well behooves any of who are in poor health to consult with a Doctor of Chiropractic. The Doctor of Chiropractic uses the help of mother nature in aiding us to repair our damaged bodies and in doing so using the force that was originally intended to keep our bodies in repair.

Green Thumb Tips

Gardeners in the north should care for their lawns as soon as possible after frost has left the soil. That's the time to rake out dead grass and debris, taking care not to pull out roots of live grass in the process. After this operation is finished, fertilize the lawn, especially if it consists of Merion Kentucky bluegrass which needs plenty of fertilizer.

A different plant for that hot, dry spot is arototis, sometimes called African daisy. This needs full sun and thrives in dry, sandy soil; producing flowers from June until frost.

Do you know that even under the best growing conditions different flowers and vegetables sprout in different lengths of time? 5 to 7 days is sufficient for seeds of radishes, beans, peas, cucumbers and sweet corn while carrots, beets and parsnips take 10 to 15 days. Parsley seed usually takes 3 weeks to sprout and seeds of columbine, larkspur and forget-me-not take as long as parsley or a few days longer to break through the ground.

Foliage plants are quite as attractive as flowers in the garden. Coleus is, of course, the plant most gardeners think of first when colorful foliage is mentioned. It is easily grown from seeds and available with many color combinations.

But the big, beautifully marked leaves of caladiums, the feathery green of a new marigold named Irish Lace, and the brilliantly-colored leaves of any of the anemone are other possibilities.

BREAKFAST SCHOLAR — An 11-year-old Jay County girl, Kathy Dale of Dunkirk, although confined to her bed in her home for a year, has been "attending" school through use of a special telephone line between her home and the Sutton school. When Kathy received her last report card it showed almost a "B" average. After a fall on the school playground more than a year ago it was discovered that a cartilage in Kathy's right hip was deteriorating. An operation was performed and doctors decided the girl should place no weight on her right leg until she had completely recovered.
