Here and There Around Our Town Of Culver

By Margaret McDonald

Today is Armistice Day, more recently named Veterans' Day, and Culver marked this observance with fitting ceremonies at 11:30 o'clock this morning before the memorial stone on the front lawn of the Culver Public Library. Culver's tribute to the Nation's war dead was planned by the commanders of the William A. Fleet Post No. 103 of the American Legion and Post 6919 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The Women's Auxiliaries of both organizations also assisted and members of these four organizations participated in the event.

The Culver Post Office and The State Exchange Bank remain closed today and all students of the Culver Community Schools are enjoying a one-day vacation.

Ideal weather still prevails over our area, which means we can save wear and tear on our winter wardrobes and economize on heating bills. The warm sunshine and gentle breezes that we enjoyed during much of October were unbelievable and are even more so, now that it's well into November. We hope this weather stays with us a while longer so that our senior citizens will tarry in Culver later this season before leaving to winter in warmer climes.

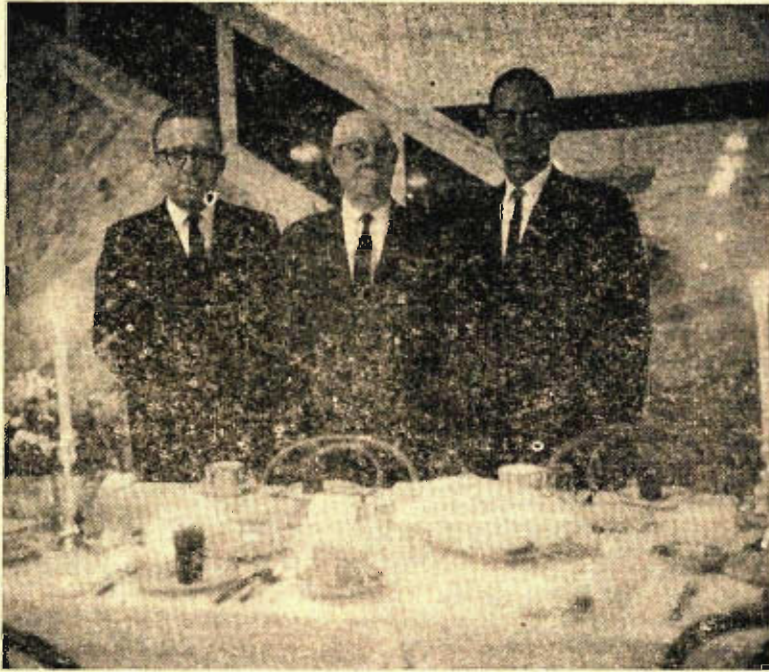

Ray Kline, well-known owner and operator of Kline's Appliance & TV Store at 202 North Main Street, is returning this evening from a week's tour of Rome and Naples, Italy. Ray was awarded this free vacation tour from the Norge appliance dealers and traveled via jet to and from Europe. All those hours in Italy and so very much to see! So we add another Culverite to the list of those viewing all the splendors of Rome. Congratulations, Ray!

Some of Culver's junior citizens have also been busy touring a local point of interest, namely Dwight and Dick Newman's Mink Ranch, located a short distance southwest of Culver. On Wednesday, Oct. 27, eight Cub Scouts of Den 9 and their Den Mothers Mrs. Ted Strang and Mrs. F. L. Babcock visited this fur farm, which is the only one in Marshall County and one of about 100 in Indiana. On Nov. 4 Mrs. John A. Cleveland and Mrs. Robert Matson accompanied eight Cub Scout members of Den 2 and learned first hand many interesting things about raising mink and preparing this valuable fur for market. Did you know baby mink are called "kits"? Also, did you realize that mink is the most durable of all fur? Indiana mink is known as "Blue Lake" mink. Mink is typed under six color classifications: Standard — which is black; White; Blue — including Aleutian, blue iris, sapphire, and violet; Brown — pastel, dawn, and orchid; Taupe — heinen, capucine, lavender, and hope; and Pearl — pearl and opaline; with the browns being the most numerous. Now, with ideal weather, a trip to this busy, interesting business would surely prove informative to anyone.

Hunting season for small game opened yesterday. Has any Culverite noted wild geese in migration to the South?

United Fund Workers Honored At Dinner At Culver Military Academy

UNITED FUND WORKERS attending a dinner held in their honor at Culver Military Academy Monday night paid special tribute to Ernest Carter (center), who has worked on 25 campaigns since they started in the Culver area. Carter is flanked by Dean Ernest B. Benson, deputy superintendent of the Academy, and Everett Easterday, chairman of the Culver-Union Township campaign.

$5,500 Has Been Collected Towards A Goal Of $7,000

The Culver-Union Township United Fund campaign is apparently headed over the top today, according to Everett Easterday, chairman of the drive.

In a report given to volunteer workers, Easterday said early reports indicate this year's campaign is ahead of last year although reports are due from at least half of team captains.

"In our goal for $7,000," Easterday said, "we have received reports totaling more than $5,500. These are from 22 of our 44 team captains. We've still got a job to do, but this report is optimistic on the basis of last year."

Easterday spoke at a dinner honoring United Fund workers given by Culver Military Academy. Fifty workers attended the Monday evening dinner held in the Academy dining hall. They were entertained by the Blue Notes, a student singing group from the Academy, and Deputy Superintendent Ernest B. Benson expressed the Academy's interest and good wishes for a successful campaign this year.

"We are in an era in which many people believe all things should be done by taxation," he said. "You and I know this isn't possible or desirable."

"The voluntary support of worthwhile community services is as important for the donor of such support as it is for the recipient. General Delmar T. Spivey, the Academy superintendent, wishes me to extend his thanks and appreciation for the untiring efforts of all volunteer workers and to express his continuing full support of the annual United Fund campaign."

Easterday paid special tribute to Ernest Carter, a veteran United Fund worker who has been involved in campaigns since they began in Culver some 25 years ago.

The dinner was one in a series over the years in which the Academy has served as host to area people working on the United Fund campaign.

Census Takers To Visit Farmers In Coming Week

Plans for taking the 1964 Census of Agriculture in Marshall County have been announced by Mrs. June Askins, of Bourbon, newly-appointed census crew leader for the county.

The job will be done in three stages, according to Mrs. Askins. First will come recruitment and training of enumerators to count all farms in the county. About one enumerator for each 150 farms will be needed.

Shortly after Nov. 12, the Bureau of the Census, an agency of the U. S. Department of Commerce, will start the second stage by mailing agricultural census questionnaires to all rural box-holders in the county. This will give farm operators, who are required by law to fill out the forms, a period of time to consult their records and fill in answers to the questions.

In the final stage, enumerators will visit each farm in the county to collect the questionnaires. At the time of this visit, the enumerators will help farmers complete answers to any questions the farmers may have had difficulty with. Enumerator visits are scheduled to begin in this county on Monday, Nov. 16. Enumerators will make about three weeks to complete their work, the crew leader estimates.

The Census of Agriculture is taken every five years in the years ending in "4" and "9" to gather up-to-date information on the nation's agricultural resources and production. Such information is vital in making decisions affecting many segments of the U.S. economy. Data gathered include the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock inventory, information on farm equipment and facilities, farm products sold, and use of fertilizers, insecticides, and herbicides.

The information will be published starting in 1965 for counties, states, and the nation.

4-H ACHIEVEMENT NIGHT SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY, NOV. 14

Achievement Night for 4-H members and their parents will be held Saturday night, Nov. 14, in the Lions Den.

A potluck supper, with the Union Township Farm Bureau furnishing the turkey, drinks and rolls, will start at 6:30 p.m.

Following the supper a program of magic tricks will be presented by Rev. Gooby of Atwood, and pins and awards will be given to the 4-H members by their leaders.

Nation Honors Veterans Of Past Wars; 22 Million In U. S., 551,000 In State

VETERAN'S DAY

Proudly we salute the veterans of our fighting forces . . . for their high courage in time of war . . . for their steadfast devotion to the finest ideals of citizenship in time of peace.

Americans in all walks of life are observing Veterans Day today — a day dedicated to peace and an opportunity to draw confidence from our history. High officials of national, state and local government will lead the nation in the observance.

There are now almost 22 million living veterans of all wars in the United States. A total of 36 million persons served in the Armed Forces during the various wars, from the Revolutionary War through the Korean Conflict; over half of all participants having served in World War II.

Until 1954, November 11th honored only veterans of World War I and was called Armistice Day. In 1954 Congress designated the date as Veterans Day, thus honoring veterans of all wars.

The American people have not failed to provide for their fighting men, said A. J. Bohicchio, manager of the Indianapolis Regional Office of the Veterans Administration. Legislation administered by the VA is intended "to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan."

Of 551,000 war veterans now living in Indiana, Bohicchio said 123,000 served in the Korean Conflict; 379,000 served in World War II; 57,000 in World War I; and 1,000 in the Spanish-American War. The average age of Korean Conflict veterans is 34; of World War II veterans is 45; of World War I is 70; while all Spanish-American War veterans are more than 80 years of age.

The Indianapolis office maintains 386,662 case histories and during the past fiscal year paid compensation or pension of approximately $100 million to 89,000 beneficiaries.

Since the passage of the GI Bill in 1944, Mr. Bohicchio said the Indianapolis office has guaranteed 122,789 home loans representing more than $900 million. Additionally, 8,621 direct loans have been made totaling over $48 million.

Tom Hendricks, Summer Resident, Dies In Chicago

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS

Thomas A. Hendricks, a summer resident of 1780 East Shore Drive, Culver, died of a heart attack Wednesday, Nov. 4, while playing squash at the University Club in Chicago. He was 70 years of age.

Mr. Hendricks, Indiana sportsman, newspaperman, politician, and a national spokesman for medicine, had been assistant to the executive vice-president of the Continental Casualty Company since September, 1963.

Prior to that he had been a ranking executive of the American Medical Association since 1946. From 1924 to 1946 he was executive director of the Indiana State Medical Association.

He was a graduate of Shortridge High School, Indianapolis, and of Princeton University.

Mr. Hendricks recalled he spent his childhood as one of the Booth Tarkington boys, a gang that included Cole Porter, the late Hoosier song writer.

Many of Tarkington's Penrod and Seventeen stories were about the Tarkington gang that roamed the near downtown around the turn of the century.

He was a great nephew of Thomas A. Hendricks, former U. S. Senator and Vice-President.

Mr. Hendricks began his newspaper career as a high school reporter for The Indianapolis Star and later went to The Indianapolis News.

There, he once wrote, "I did sports, including the state legislature."

He worked on the city's newspapers in the era of Meredith Nicholson, George Ade and Senator Albert Beveridge.

As a sportsman he rode at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway with Howdy Wilcox and Ralph DePal-ma and played tournament tennis with the great Bill Tilden.

He rode in the country's first horseless carriage with its inventor, Elwood Haynes of Kokomo.

Mr. Hendricks, with his brother Blythe, is credited with making the first radio broadcast of a Hoosier basketball game. He also was among the pioneer broadcasters of the 500-Mile Race.

Mr. Hendricks served in France during World War I in the Army and worked there for "Stars and Stripes." He served in the Indiana General Assembly, both in the House of Representatives (1933-35) and the Senate (1935-41). He was a Democrat.

He invited the late Will Rogers to address the State Senate and the humorist began his oration by saying "I understand this is the best Senate that money can buy."

Mr. Hendricks was the first newspaperman to become executive secretary of a medical association and under his leadership Indiana's became one of the most active and progressive in the United States.

He went to the American Medical Association in Chicago in 1946 as secretary to the AMA Council on Medical Services. He later became assistant to the executive vice-president of the association.

Mr. Hendricks commuted between Chicago, where he had an apartment, and Culver, where he kept a summer home.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Saturday in Planner and Buchanan Fall Creek Mortuary, Indianapolis. Burial was in Crown Hill Cemetery.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Robert Hollowell Jr. of Indianapolis, and three grandchildren. Mr. Hendricks' wife, Margaret Hendricks, died in February.

November Cancer Education Month; Many Gains Cited

Governor Matthew E. Welsh has urged all citizens of Indiana to avail themselves of the cancer education program of the American Cancer Society, especially during the month of November which has been designated "Cancer Education Month."

"Current statistics reveal that cancer will strike one person in every four and two of every three homes in Indiana," Governor Welsh stated. "The Society has an outstanding arsenal of strategically planned education weapons to combat the disease and prevent needless fatalities. These include motion pictures, film strips, exhibits, posters, publications, news media materials and many others, all available on a free or free-loan basis.

"Educational programs are offered to businesses and industries, the news media, clubs and organizations, schools and colleges. The Society strives to provide these materials through its local units.

"Our doctors are curing one of every three persons so afflicted and we can rejoice in the fact that more than 1,200,000 Americans, once victims, have been cured and are alive today. Many thousands more could be saved each year if the public would take advantage of the detection and treatment methods available. One-half could be spared if the illness is detected and properly treated in the early stage."

Culver PTA Meeting Well Attended

The Culver Community Schools had their most successful PTA meeting last evening, Nov. 10, at the Culver Community Building. To coincide with the unusual attendance of 85 persons, was the excellent and most interesting program presented by Mr. Tankley, school librarian, and Mr. Kaiser, audio-visual.

The attendance prize of $15.00, given to the elementary grade with the largest number of parents in attendance, was won by Mrs. Shirrell's second grade.

Along with all the other successes must be included the hostesses, Mrs. William Herrmann, Mrs. C. Marshall, and Mrs. H. Van Horn, for their wonderful refreshments.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 12 at the Culver High School gym. Parents are urged to attend these PTA meetings.

Seasons For Fur
Bearing Animals
Hunting, Trapping

Northern Indiana "coon" hunters are to get an earlier start by two weeks this year. Discretionary orders outline this year's hunting and trapping regulations. The Conservation Director divided the season for raccoon, opossum, skunk, mink, and muskrat by the geographic use of Route No. 40.

season on these animals begins at noon on Nov. 1 and closes at noon on Jan. 31, 1965. South of Route No. 40, the season begins on Nov. 15 at noon and closes at noon on Jan. 31, 1965.

Advancing the season in northern Indiana was done after considerable study was made of animal populations, crop destruction and average weather conditions. Additional 'coon may be taken by sportsmen without endangering the resource and will benefit farmers by reducing crop destruction.

Two raccoons may be taken each day during the season and the term of the day is explained to be from 6 p.m. on one day until 6 p.m. on the succeeding day. The sportsman may have the hide of any animal in his possession no more than five days after the end of the season. Licensed fur buyers must make a full report of their purchases no longer than sixty days after the conclusion of the season.

Dogs are not permitted to run these animals for fifteen days prior to the opening of the season from sunset until sunrise. North of U. S. No. 40, this ban begins at noon on Oct. 17 and ends at noon on Nov. 1. South of U. S. No. 40, the closed period begins at noon on Oct. 31 and ends at noon on Nov. 15.

Team a pork roast with apple-nut dressing balls, suggest Purdue University food specialists. Add chopped apple and nuts to your favorite bread dressing recipe. Form into balls and bake alongside the roast.

Nothing improves your driving like a police car following you.

African violets grow in temperatures of 65 degrees at night and 75 during the day. Purdue University horticulturists recommend they be removed from windows on cool nights to keep the plants from chilling.

Hunting Seasons For Upland Game

Discretionary orders outline hunting regulations for 1964-65, and establish seasons and bag limits on rabbits, pheasants, quail, and Hungarian partridge in Indiana.

An important change in this year's season takes place on opening day. No hunting will be permitted until 12:00 noon on Nov. 10 to allow pheasants, quail and partridge an opportunity to get off their roosts and to allow hunters more time to obtain permission from farmers.

In counties respecting the Central Standard Time Zone designation, the hunt will begin at noon. In those counties designated as Eastern Standard Time Zone, the hunt will begin at 1:00 p.m.

The rabbit season this year will begin on Nov. 10 and continue through Jan. 9, 1965, excluding all Sundays. The limit on rabbits is five per day with no more than ten in possession after the second day.

The quail and Hungarian partridge season begins on Nov. 10 and continues through Dec. 19, excluding all Sundays. The limit on quail is ten per day with no more than twenty in possession after the second day and no more than thirty in possession after the third day or at any time thereafter. Five Hungarian partridge may be taken daily with no more than ten in possession after the second day.

The pheasant season begins on Nov. 10 and continues through Dec. 12, 1964, excluding Sundays. Two cock pheasants may be taken daily with no more than four in possession after the second day. Special hunts on Fish and Game areas begin on Nov. 16 and continue through Dec. 12. Two pheasants of either sex may be taken at these areas.

There will be no pheasant hunting in Shelby, Johnson, Vigo and Knox Counties and that portion of Clinton County south of State Road 28 and east of U. S. 421 and those portions of Tipton and Madison Counties north of State Road 28, east of State Road 213 and west of State Road 13.

SQUIRREL HUNTING ON STATE FISH AND GAME AREAS

The Division of Fish and Game of the Indiana Department of Conservation has completed a compilation of the number of hunters of fox and gray squirrels on State Fish and Game Areas during the open season which ended on Oct. 13.

The number of hunters using these areas decreased from 3,502 in 1963 to 3,296 in 1964. However, the smaller number of hunters bagged more squirrels with a total of 2,160 in 1964 as compared with 2,010 in 1963. Willow Slough, Winamac, Tri-County, Pigeon River, Crosley and Glendale State Fish and Game Areas all registered better hunting success, while Jasper-Pulaski showed a decrease. The new LaSalle State Fish and Game Area was open for the first time.

Since brick and cement or concrete floors are porous and may stain, wipe off or hose off spills immediately, advise home management specialists at Purdue University.

THE SCHOOL BELL

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE PRESS CLUB OF CULVER HIGH SCHOOL

Diploma Is Help And Achievement

By Sue Cole

Like the weather, the dropout problem is a subject that many people talk about; the difference being that great numbers of people are trying to solve the dropout problem.

About one half of the nation's youth stay in school long enough to graduate from high school. Of these, 55 to 60 per cent are boys. The higher boys' rate may be due to the greater ease with which a boy may acquire a job.

Many reasons play a part in the development of a dropout. Quitting school to find work is the greatest excuse given. More than one influence may cause this situation. Some youths must actually work to help support a family. These cases are rare. Cars are the factor in this problem. They can prove costly.

Marriage also takes youths out of school. Most who drop out because of this are girls.

Two other reasons are that a student may become bored with his studies because he was held back for being slow to grasp ideas.

Parental attitude can play a big part in developing a dropout. If the parents show a feeling of uninterest or distaste towards schools, a youth will lean more towards quitting.

Not only do dropouts create an economical problem, but most juvenile delinquents are high school dropouts.

A bill to raise the dropout age from 16 to 18 years of age is in the Congress. This law (if passed) would help keep students in school. Also outside the school, campaigning with nationwide publicity may bring facts to light that would discourage youths from quitting school.

The increased ratio of counselors and guidance supervisors (in favor of the personnel) has played an important part in reducing the number of dropouts. Encouraging students to participate in extra-curricular activities is very important. Good schooling involves group activities as well as acaademic classroom situations.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction requires that a seven page form be filled out by school administrators for each dropout.

The federal government is concerned. It has set up a vocational rehabilitation center at Camp Atterbury. Here a person is paid to finish school so he can find work.

At Culver the dropout rate is spectacularly lower than that of the nation. During the school year of 1957-58, the dropout rate at Culver was 3.3 per cent. The rate dropped to 1.6 per cent in 1958-59 and gradually increased to a peak of 4.5 per cent during 1960-61. Since that time the per cent of dropouts has decreased to a low of 1.6 per cent in 1963-64.

The outlook of the Culver administration is that students are better off the longer they remain in school. I believe the administration should be applauded for the tremendous work they have apparently been doing.

Parents' Night

By Steve Bair

Thursday, Oct. 29, marked the date for Culver's defending sectional champs to make their first public appearance in front of their parents.

While the coaches' wives served coffee and cookies to the parents, Coach Crosley described some of the set plays which will be used this season. The coach also let the team scrimmage to demonstrate these plays. The B-team uses plays similar to those of the Varsity. The B-team, under the coaching authority of Mr. Stegmoller, also scrimmaged.

After the exhibition the coach defined some of the more important training rules to the parents. These included no smoking and drinking, no going steady and no dates on school nights. After his explanations the coach dismissed the boys to leave with their parents.

All in all, I think Parent's Night was a great success.

An AX-Crutiating AX-Perience

By Kay Thomas

It was on a shivering, phantom-filled Friday Night that we went to see "Strait Jacket," the first of two Halloween horrors at the local show. Anyone that had this terrible misfortune knows AX-actly what I mean. EYE was at first AX-ious for the double feature movie to commence, for I love an AX-clusive murder mystery as well as the nAXt insane person.

This show had a SMASHING beginning, a real AX-ceptional tale of DRIPPING terror. It was not long before all the people around me were becoming AX-ceeding AX-cited and screams of deadly shock encompAXed the entire theater. It gave me real PAIN to see my best friend sitting adjacent to me, her trench coat thrown over her AX-asperated head. To see her this way to me was KILLING. And, L.S. in front of me got so CUT-UP that she fell off her chair. What a real SCREAM she was. MINUTES later my friend next to me started NEEDLING me to leave with her before it was too late. But I'm no OFFUL coward — you can BUTCHER life! An' KNIFE never seen such a CHICKEN as she! Soon the AX-aggerated movie got so gushy that even fearless I started WIGGLING in my seat. I went to get some popcorn to try to HANDLE my shaky nerves. When I came back I saw the AX-traordinary murderess in the movie AX-hibit her SKILLS by using AX-treme measures to AX-tinguish another victim that lay in her way.

As I CHOMP, CHOMP, CHOMP-PED my popcorn, I decided this AX-cruciating nightmare of certain death was too much for my JANGLED nerves. After seeing the feminine killer AX-terminate another poor soul, we all decided it was about time to BEAT IT. We didn't stay to see the AX-tra adDEAD attrAXtion second feature. When the two-hour terror was over, there was MASK confusion as we all AX-collorated toward the AX-it. My friend and I wondered HOW we would get home, when, to our surprise, in walked her brother, who had BEND DOWN town involved in various Halloween pranks. I felt AX-tremely better when he tokok my friend and me home.

Without AX-ception, you can't show me one AX-ample of a person who saw that bloody show that went to bed that night without feeling AX-haustingly uneasy. Many of us wished we had stayed only to see "Hey There, It's Yogi Bear." There, at Yogi Bear, we should have stopped while we were AHEAD.

If, gentle reader, my accounting has made you jittery and afraid to attend Halloween midnight shows, I humbly AX you to AX-cuse me.

Our Team Will Go Elementary Sports

By Darlene Taylor

Basketball season opened Tuesday night with the introduction of our team. Thursday night there was a big pep rally to start our team on the road to success. Friday night our big team met South Central in their first real game of the season.

Season ticket sales started Oct. 19, despite the fact that they were in demand last summer. There have been approximately 210 season tickets sold to pep club and pep block members. Other season ticket sales amount to approximately 415, for a grand total of practically 625 tickets.

A new addition has been made to the pep block this year in the form of a boys' pep block. The boys form their own block on the floor in front of the stage. The block consists of all boys grades 9 through 12 who wish to participate in the organization. They will help accompany the yells which will add to the volume of the pep club. You can distinguish a boy in pepblock by his black felt hat with an orange feather, and a pep club button.

Let's all yell hard and back our team all the way. Your school spirit will be shown in the way you yell at basketball games and how you back the team all year. Let's help make this year's basketball season the best yet. With all the student body behind them our team will win. Let's show our coach and team that we are behind them 100%.

If you have walked down the halls of the elementary school recently, you have probably noticed softball teams posted on the walls. The fourth, fifth, and sixth grade boys have just completed a six-game softball schedule of intra-mural play. The winning team was the Athletics with three wins, one tie, and two losses.

Now that softball season is over everyone is anxiously waiting for basketball season. The fifth and sixth grade boys will start basketball Nov. 7 with 56 boys participating.

During the week interest has been aroused in a new sport — soccer. Soccer is a national game in many countries and is now becoming popular in the United States. The students are thinking of having an intra-mural soccer league until the weather becomes too cold to be out-of-doors.

The fourth, fifth, and sixth grade girls had an early go at kickball, but the activity was halted because of lack of interest and participation. They hope to start the game again however, in the near future.

The boss called the new stenographer into his office. "Miss Gann," he said, "you are the best looking girl we ever had working in this office."

A pleased look came into the girl's eyes.

"You dress well," the boss continued, "you have a nice voice, you make a good impression on the public, and your deportment is fine."

"Oh, thank you," she said, "your compliments are very pleasing."

"Enjoy them to the fullest," returned the boss, "because we are now going to discuss your spelling, punctuation and typing."

In Indiana... after bowling, beer is a natural

After you've bowled a game or two, or when you're winding up the evening at the neighborhood bowling center, it's good to relax with friends and compare scores. What better way to add to the sport and the sociableness than with a refreshing glass of beer? However you take your fun—skiing, skating, or at your ease in the game room—beer always makes a welcome addition to the party.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Indiana... beer goes with fun, with relaxation

FIREARM SAFETY

Everything in front of a loaded firearm is a target — the ground, a pheasant, an automobile windshield or your best friend.

A hunter on the way to the field, for example, could come in contact with a hundred objects he doesn't want to shoot. But a loaded gun doesn't make a distinction if the trigger is touched.

Many hunting accidents, Purdue University farm safety specialist Dick Willsey explains, happen before the hunter ever reaches the field.

Keep your gun unloaded until you are actually in the field and ready to hunt, and unload it before getting into a vehicle, entering a camp, climbing fences or entering a building.

Even though a firearm is unloaded, always treat it for what it is — a deadly weapon. Never point it at any object you don't want to shoot.

When you get to the field and start hunting, carry your gun so you can control the direction of the muzzle even if you stumble. Keep the gun safety on until the second you are ready to pull the trigger.

Be sure of where your companions are and never shoot at a target you can't see clearly.

Two thin coats of wax protect a clean floor better than one thick coat, say Purdue University home management specialists. Thick wax forms a top crust. Dirt penetrates the crust and lodges in the soft, gummy wax underneath.

County Vote Totals 16,717 Or 83.6%

Marshall County's total vote in Tuesday's general election, was 16,717, according to Harvey Phillips, county clerk.

Phillips said that this year's turnout for the general election was 83.6 per cent of the total number of registered voters in the county. Phillips said this indicated a good turnout; but in the 1960 presidential election with 198 fewer registrations, there were 321 more voters — an all-time county record.

Approximately 5.5 of the county vote in Tuesday's election, was by absentee ballot, the highest in Marshall County's history, according to Phillips.

 "Mortals and Immortals" will be the subject of a Lesson-Sermon this Sunday in all Christian Science Churches.
 Golden Text: "Ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light" (Eph. 5:8). Scriptural readings will range from the story of Noah's ark in Genesis to Paul's letter to the Galatians (3:26) — "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

 Related readings from the denominational textbook will include this statement: "The eternal Truth destroys what mortals seem to have learned from error, and man's real existence as a child of God comes to light" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 288).

FREEDOM'S DISCOVERY

There is joy in giving to God. That is freedom's ultimate discovery. And the hundreds of thousands of churches which we have built and supported bear testimony to the fact.

But when there are nations who despise God . . . who tear down churches . . . or forbid their support, how shall we teach this Christian joy to the boys and girls who will be our nation—tomorrow?

Karen and Paul are placing Sunday School "envelopes" at the foot of the children's altar.

Of course, what Karen and Paul and their classmates can give will hardly pay for an altar. But our world of tomorrow cannot be built on Kremlin economics.

A mighty generation must learn to worship in prayer and faith and sacrifice. There is joy in giving to God!

Our children learn this chiefly from our example and encouragement.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH
 The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Films Available At Culver Library During November

The following 16 mm films are on deposit from the Indiana Library Film Circuit in the Culver Public Library during the month of November. You are invited to reserve the films for showing to your organization, club, church group, etc. Information on these and other films, which will be available in succeeding months, may be obtained from the librarian.

"Drive Defensively" -11-b-&w- Largely photographed from the driver's vantage point. Shows how a driver, despite his own skill, will continually endanger himself and others until he learns to drive defensively. (Encyclopaedia Britannica)

"Eyes In Outer Space" -26-c- Weather is becoming a most interesting topic of educated conversation. Disney has given us a fascinating and understandable picture of weather in this science documentary. We see how man is increasing his knowledge and forecasting ability — and we are given an interesting glimpse into the future where weather will be scientifically controlled. (Disney)

"Fifty Miles From Poona" -20-b-&w- Shows the simple life of one family in a small village of India. Family life, religion, economic situation and daily work are understandingly presented. (Contemporary)

"Grandma Moses" -24-c- Shows the paintings of the famous American grandmother who started painting after she had reached the age of 70. On her farm in New York state she tells of her ancestors back to the Revolutionary War, her home, her studio where she works at her primitive paintings, the land she works on and paints. The narration written and spoken by Archibald MacLeish, adds a great deal. (Film Images)

"Holy Land" -11-c- Background for History and Religion — Jerusalem, Nazareth, the Lakes of Galilee, the river of Jordan, Jericho, and Mount Nebo are shown in relation to Biblical references. (Coronet)

"John Marshall" -18-b-&w- A dynamic portrait of John Marshall, founder of American constitutional law. Describes experiences of his boyhood; depicts his role in the American Revolution; traces developments which led to his appointment as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Reveals court decisions through which he established the Supreme Court as the highest authority in determining the constitutionality of American legislation. (Encyclopaedia Britannica)

"Land of the Red Goat" -20-c-s- The region through which the Stikine River flows has until recently been an unknown land — a region of snow-capped peaks, mysterious valleys, green plateaus. The Indians call it Spatsizi — The Land of the Red Goat — but much other wildlife flourishes in this natural sanctuary. (Loaned by CTFL)

"Life In The Desert" -11-c- This film of life in the desert lands of western United States suggests that the desert is a community where plants, animals, soil, and climate are woven together into a unique life pattern. Competition and cooperation, pursuit and escape, constant problems of food and shelter combine to make the desert, despite its harshness, a place of life and beauty. (Encyclopaedia Britannica)

"Long Ships Passing" -28-c- Discusses the opportunities and advantages of shipping by a lake carrier such products as iron ore, coal, and grain. Includes scenes showing the life of a lake carrier seaman. Animated sequences show how a lock works. (Cinecraft — Lake Carrier)

"Memo To Mom" -10-c-s- A trip that begins with a real sea voyage gives two children many memorable holiday experiences of Prince Edward Island. They cross from the mainland by the C.N.R. ferry Abekweit, drive with their father to Charlottetown and arrive there in the midst of Old Home Week celebrations. (Loaned by CTFL)

"No Man Is An Island" -29-b-&w- A moving story about two young men — a white man and a Negro — who develop a lasting friendship during their army service. Both and confronted with the fears and prejudices of their families and friends when they try to maintain their friendship in civilian life. (Carousel Films)

"People Of The Reindeer" -18-b-&w- Tells about Nils' adventures in the Lapp Country. (Encyclopaedia Britannica)

"Philippines, Nation of Islands" -17-c- The progress the present day Philippine nation is making in the development of public education, rapid transportation and new industries is dynamically demonstrated in this film. (United World Films)

What to do when you want to amuse a shut-in child?

He may be confined for a rainy day, or have a cold, or be convalescing. Experts tell us to keep the atmosphere cheerful, to keep his meals attractive, and keep him happily occupied when he asks for something to do.

Lightweight building sets offer hours of pleasure, and the child can play with these on a tray. Often he'll be delighted with a paint set, complete with frame to hang up his finished work. A length of plastic or oil-cloth can protect his nearby surroundings while he dabbles.

Jigsaw puzzles are also pleasant hour-passers, and many of these give him an extra bonus.

"I learned the names of all the states and capitals by working a jigsaw puzzle when I was eight years old and had scarlet fever," says one game fan, who now heads the editorial department of Whitman Publishing Company in Racine, Wisconsin. In his present job, Mel Benstead, Jr., still a puzzle fanatic, helps plan new products for this largest producer of children's books and games in the world.

Even the youngest child enjoys simple puzzles that teach him how vegetables grow, or how animals are housed in a barn, and many of these painlessly teach spelling as well. Flash cards do the same job. Even a coloring book can take a child on a tour of famous landmarks. Missed schooling can often be made up with these plays-you-learn items available at low cost at many department, variety and drug stores.

His inexpensive games cost far less than medicine, but they're a priceless aid to good spirits and recovery.

Culver Beats South Central To Open Season

Rebounds, Defense Winning Factors

By EARL D. MISHLER

Culver Coach Gene Crosley's problem of which five boys, of a possible seven, to start in Friday night's basketball opener was solved in an unfortunate manner when two of the seven came up with leg injuries in last Tuesday's open house. But the remaining healthy Tribesmen were not bothered, and proceeded to throttle South Central, 76-51, in their home debut.

Culver's rebounding strength, missing to a large extent on last year's 18-6 team, turned the tide in Friday's skirmish, as indicated by their 37 rebounds. Crosley's matching zone defense was also a key CHS weapon, especially in the second half.

The only result of the injuries suffered by 6' 3" senior Bob Eustis and junior sharpshooter Bruce Lindvall was that Crosley had to reach a little deeper into his talent-laden bench. Seniors Paul Liette and Jim Weirick turned in very creditable performances in reserve roles.

Clad in their new home uniforms, the Indians raced away to an early lead, paced by the hard-hitting front line of seniors Dave Lemar, Doug Lindvall, and 6' 3" junior Andy Lowry. This trio, plus 6' 1" guard Jim Boswell, dominated the boards in the first quarter, which ended, 21-9, in Culver's favor.

Early in the second stanza, South Central switched to a zone defense, over which Culver began to score with ease. After building up a 27-10 lead, the Indians coasted to a half-time bulge of 37-27, hampered somewhat by the temporary loss of Lowry and Lindvall, who each picked up three fouls.

The pace slowed considerably after intermission, with only the deadly shooting of senior guard Jim Lewis enabling Culver to keep a safe lead. The third period ended, 47-35, Culver.

With around six minutes to play, the Indians began clicking on all cylinders. Led by Boswell's dribbling, feeding, and free throws, and the scoring of Lemar and Lindvall, the defending Plymouth Sectional champs raced out of sight.

All five starters scored in double figures for Culver, led by Lemar and Boswell with 16 apiece. Boswell also led with 12 rebounds. Lindvall had 14 points and Lewis added 11 big markers. Lowry, in his first varsity start, garnered ten points, although missing almost half the contest in foul trouble. As a team, the Tribe hit 46% of its field goal attempts, and 14 of 19 free throws for 74%.

Earl Cunningham and Randy Goodwin led the losing Satellites with 13 and eleven points, respectively. An interesting sidelight of the game was the fact that Culver's zone defenses held Dan Rosenbaum to seven points, as compared to the 36 he tallied against them a year ago.

Coach Bill Stegemoller's veteran B-Team used a strong second half to earn a 54-39 win in the evening's opener. The impressive Papoose offense was paced by Larry Washburn's 12 points, while four others scored eight apiece.

While Culver fans await the recovery of B. Eustis and B. Lindvall, the Tribe has a two-week layoff before hosting Tyner Nov. 20. BOX SCORE:

Academy Sports

Culver Military Academy rolled to a 26-6 victory over West Lafayette Saturday to wrap-up the football season with a 6-2 record.

The Eagle victory brought to a close Coach Russ Oliver's twenty-fifth year as Academy mentor. His lifetime record is 128 wins, 62 losses and 11 ties.

Coach Oliver presented 26 varsity letters at a football banquet following the game. Fourteen senior gridgers were among the letter-winners. He pointed out that "we started the season strong to about 16 men and finished with the same 16 in good health."

Scott Addis and Steve Wilson were named as co-captains for the 1965 football season. Both were used primarily on defense this year; Addis as a tackle and Wilson at end.

Culver held West Lafayette on downs after the opening kickoff and then marched 50 yards in seven plays. Jeff Diamond carried up the middle for the last nine yards, and Andy Carson kicked the extra point.

Lafayette scored in the second quarter to make it 7-6 and with one minute to play a Lafayette back fumbled on his own 26.

Quarterback Lander Carter fired a first down pass to Jack Trimble who ran into the end zone and Bob Jones added the extra point. Lafayette returned the kickoff to the 37.

With the clock stopped and one second left, the Lafayette quarterback tossed an aerial that Fred Schumacher snared for Culver and raced across the goal line from 30 yards out. The 13 points in the final minute gave the Eagles a 20-6 halftime lead.

Carl Urban scored the final touchdown on a two-yard run after he had moved the ball there on a 11-yard gain.

Individual Scoring
Culver: Jeff Diamond, 9 yds.; Lander Carter pass to Jack Trimble, 26 yds.; Fred Schumacher, 30 yd. interception; Carl Urban, 2 yds.
