Black Horse Troop Will Attend Fifth Inaugural Parade

Culver's famed Black Horse Troop will participate in the inaugural parade for President Lyndon B. Johnson in Washington, D. C., Jan. 20. Ninety troopers will be selected for the trip.

Maj. Gen. Delmar T. Spivey, U.S.A.F. (Ret.), superintendent, made the formal announcement regarding the Troop's participation yesterday morning. He said, "No formal invitation" from parade officials in Washington had been issued, but that he had been assured Culver would be Indiana's marching representative.

Each state has two official representatives in the inaugural parade. Among the institutions considered as the musical unit representative from this state are Indiana State College, Ball State Teachers College and Purdue University.

"The parade is scheduled to start at 1:30 and end about 4:40 p.m., Washington time, which is the same as our time," said Lt. Col. William B. Scruggs, Jr., professor of military science. He explained that Culver will pass the parade's starting point, where the television cameras are located, midway in the parade, "since we are in the third of six divisions the parade is divided into."

Col. Scruggs and Col. Gerald Graham, horsemanship department chairman, investigated the quartering of cadets and horses in Washington. Both men were in the Capital last week.

When the troopers march in the parade, it will mark their fifth appearance in an inaugural program. They escorted Vice-President Thomas Marshall in 1913 and appeared again in the 1917 parade. The third appearance was in 1957 for President Dwight D. Eisenhower's inauguration.

The last appearance was for the late President John F. Kennedy in 1961. Culver's delegation, only representative of a preparatory school in the parade, was awarded a trophy as the second best marching unit. Virginia Military Institute won the honor.

The Troop has from its earliest days served as an honor escort at national occasions. Its first public escort was in 1897 to Governor Mount of Indiana at the GAR encampment, Richmond, Va.

When the Black Horse Troop was organized, 32 horses were purchased from the famous Troop A. Cleveland, Ohio, an organization that had served as an escort at the inauguration of President William McKinley.

The 90 participating troopers in this inaugural event will leave Culver Monday, Jan. 18, via train, while the horses will be taken in trucks.

Troopers will arrive in Washington Jan. 19, and they will take a tour of the city and then exercise the horses. After the inauguration, on Wednesday, the troopers will return here.

Bethlehem

The world is full of winding roads
That wander up and down,
And circle mountain, marsh, and woods
To end at the same town.

The world is full of travelers
Who journey fast and fleet,
The world is full of wayfarers
Who never hope to meet.

Some on the low road, some the high,
Some on the middle track,
But every road men journey by
Will one day circle back.

For life is like a ring of light
Where love leads on afar,
And all men journey day and night
To meet beneath a star.

Carolyn Snyder Queen Of C.H.S. Homecoming

The third annual Culver Homecoming program was held Friday, Dec. 18, in the Culver Community Building. The first order of business was the crowning of the 1964 Homecoming Queen. The coronation was held between the reserve and varsity basketball games against Walkerton High School and was planned by Chairman Holly Thompson.

The candidates were selected the previous week by the members of the various high school classes in class meetings. The queen was elected by vote of the basketball boys. The winner was unknown until announced by the moderator Latham Lawson.

This year's candidates were led into the center of the basketball floor by the flower girl Miss Mari Babcock and by crown bearer Andy Guise. Last year's queen, Miss Marilee Herrmann, escorted by Larry Fisher, also proceeded through the honor guard formed by the varsity team members of Culver and Walkerton.

The candidates and their escorts were Freshman: Miss Karen Ruhnow and Terry Gentry; Sophomore: Miss Suzanne Overmyer and Wesley Huffer; Junior: Miss Barbara Mikesell and George Babchuck; Senior: Miss Carolyn Snyder and Gary Wallen.

1963 Queen Marilee then crowned the 1964 Queen Carolyn Snyder and presented her with a bouquet of long stemmed red roses. Then each member of her court received one rose.

The varsity and B-team cheer leaders presented a student-produced program entitled "Cheer-leading Through the Ages". The yell leaders dressed in period costumes and performed original yells. Narration was by Larry Crabb.

After the basketball game, a record hop was held by the Juniors. Many of the alumni were present. One spot light dance was reserved for the queen and her dancing partner. Success of this annual affair was assured when the varsity won their ball game 102 to 66.

Enroll Now For 4-H Livestock Projects

Boys and girls who wish to enroll in Beef, Sheep Flock, Sow and Litter, and Dairy 4-H projects for 1965 must do so before Jan. 1.

Cards are available through the local 4-H leaders or from the County Extension Office.

There have been some changes recommended on the state level in regard to the 4-H Dairy project. These have been reviewed and passed by the 4-H Council of Marshall County.

Two parts of this change should be noted by those wishing to exhibit at the State Fair. These are: 1. All Dairy Animals (except calves) exhibited in State Fair classes must have been enrolled on official 4-H Dairy Calf enrollment cards and must have been under the care of the 4-H Exhibitor not later than Jan. Calves must be enrolled by April 30. Club members not officially enrolled Jan. 1 (April 30 in case of calves) will not be eligible to show. 2. No more than two (2) animals may be entered in each class on the enrollment card submitted to the State Office for State Fair show purposes. No more than one January enrollment card can be submitted per club member. No more than one April enrollment card can be submitted per club member.

There also has been a change in the college rule passed by the County 4-H Council, to be in keeping with a state-wide change. This states that any member enrolled in 4-H may participate in any contest or activity in 4-H.

FARM AND HOME MANAGEMENT MEETINGS SET FOR JANUARY

The Farm and Home Management program, sponsored by the Co-operative Extension Service, will hold a series of three meetings in Marshall County, according to County Extension Agent R. C. Harvey. The meetings in Marshall County will be Jan. 13, 20, and 27.

Leon Johnson, Area Farm Management Agent, will be in charge of the classes. Leon states that some of the more important subjects to be included in the program will be long range outlook for farming, opportunities and requirements in farming, basic principles used in farm management, profitable cropping systems, developing livestock programs and farm planning. These classes are for farm couples and so the home will also be discussed in terms of family goals, management, record keeping, budgets, etc. Mary Ellen Howkinson, County Extension Agent, will assist in this area.

Following the classes, visits will be made to the farms of all families cooperating with the program to assist in appraising resources and working out various production alternatives for each individual farm.

Anyone who might be interested in a program of this type should contact the Extension Office as soon as possible because the enrollment will be limited to ten families.

Indians Humble Walkerton; Top Century Mark

Tribe Sets Record With 102

By EARL D. MISHLER

Culver's Indians blasted their way to a modern school and gymnasium scoring record last Friday night, burying Walkerton under a 102-66 score. The victory ran Coach Gene Crosley's squad's record to 6-2 for the season.

All five Culver starters scored in double figures in the rout and four others dented the scoring column. As a team, the Indians hit 49 per cent on 42 of 86 field goals, but the starters hit 33 of 68 for a brilliant 56 per cent.

The Tribe raced to a 23-9 first quarter lead, as 6' 1" senior Jim Boswell, operating out of a forward position, tallied ten points in the stanza. In the second period, senior guard Jim Lewis poured in 11 markers and junior center Andy Lowry had eight. Coach Crosley emptied a good deal of his bench early in the second period, as Culver at one point held a 42-17 buige. The half ended, 48-34.

The third quarter found Culver even hotter. The Indians scored 34 points to Walkerton's ten in this frame, with Dave Lemar getting ten, Lewis nine, and Bruce Lindvall, making his first varsity start, eight. With an 82-44 lead after three periods, Crosley again gradually emptied the bench. Finally with 1:17 showing on the scoreboard clock, junior forward Mike Eustis hit a pair of free throws to hit the century mark. As far as is known, it marked the first high school game in the local gym in which 100 points were scored by one team.

Lewis paced the scoring with 24 points, canning 11 of 17 from the field, mostly from 25 feet or further away. Boswell tallied 19 on 7 of 14 field goals and five straight free throws. Lemar added 17, and Lindvall canned eight of 13 for a total of 16 points. Lowry chipped in with ten. Lemar led the rebounding with ten.

The capacity Homecoming crowd was in a frenzy, especially the CHS student body, as the Indians closed in on triple figures. Eastis was mobbed by his teammates at the close of the game. The crowd had witnessed the crowning of CHS's Homecoming Queen, senior Carolyn Snyder, a pretty brunette, between the B-Team and Varsity games.

Coach Bill Stegenmoller's Papooses started slowly, but routed a weak Walkerton B-Team, 54-25. Sophomore, Paul Hatten led the winners, now 5-3, with 14 points.

The next Varsity competition is Saturday, Jan. 2, in the Argos 4-Way Tourney. Culver faces the hosts in the opener at 12:30 p.m. Box Score:

Culver Indians On Vacation With 6-2 Mark

By EARL D. MISHLER

Although only eight of Culver's 20 regular season games have been played, the present Christmas lay-off presents an opportunity to analyze the first portion of the Indians' season and look forward to the remainder of the schedule.

Coach Gene Crosley's boys boast Marshall County's best record with six wins and two losses. Victims of the Tribe have been South Central, 76-51; Tyner, 77-44; Bremen, 74-60; Knox, 51-47; Caston, 46-39; and Walkerton, 102-66. North Judson defeated the Tribe 44-41, and Rochester triumphed, 62-56, both games being played away from home. Although Culver has averaged 65.4 points per game, their offense has been their weakest link thus far this season, particularly against zone defenses. Their hefty points per game average has been built up by easy triumphs such as over Tyner and Walkerton.

Crosley's matching zone defense has been steadily effective, holding opponents to an average of 52.9 points per game. Rebounding, with the exception of the Rochester game, has been good, with the Tribesmen grabbing an average of 34 missed shots each game.

The Indians have hit 42.5 per cent of their field goal attempts, a very respectable figure; and 60.3 per cent from the free throw line, a somewhat less than spectacular percentage. The accompanying charts will break down the individual statistical tabulation. One item not listed is the assist total, which shows Jim Boswell leading with 35, exactly half of the team total of 70 assists.

Last year at the Christmas break the Tribe was 8-2 having played two more games. They were in the midst of a winning streak that eventually reached ten straight and brought them to a 14-2 record. Three straight losses in February sent them into the Sectional with a 15-5 mark, and their final tally was 18-6.

This year's second-half schedule crams 12 games into a seven-week period between Jan. 2 and Feb. 19. However, many of last year's powerhouses, such as Pioneer, New Paris, and Mentone are having off seasons, and as a result the Tribe's task is not so difficult as it might have been.

Nevertheless, strong teams like Triton, Lewis Cass, and Winamac represent major obstacles, and rivalries with Argos, Plymouth, and Culver Military will add to the challenge. The prospect of playing Argos and Triton twice exists due to the Argos Holiday Tourney next week in which the Indians and Dragons square off. Triton will be heavily favored over Mentone, so if Culver reaches the title tilt, the Trojans will be the likely opponent.

Despite these obstacles, there is a good chance for improvement on last year's fine record. Improvement in the play of Andy Lowry and Jim Lewis has been apparent, and more of the same is expected. When the injured Doug Lindvall returns to action, similar progress can be expected from him. And sharp-shooting junior Bruce Lindvall has shown his abilities in the pinch as Doug's replacement.

Against Walkerton, senior Dave Lemar showed signs of regaining his fine shooting eye which sparkled in last year's Sectional. Dave can score points even without it, but higher point totals would result from Lemar's improved outside shooting. And, needless to say, Jim Boswell rounds out the starting unit, giving Culver a truly great all-around performer. The leading scorer, second in rebounds from a guard position, half his team's assist total, 49 per cent of his shots mostly from 25 feet and beyond, and a terrific defensive player — that sums up Boswell's value to the team, unless you want to add to that his experience, calmness under pressure, ball-handling ability, and the great respect for him held by his teammates.

SAVE AND USE YOUR CHRISTMAS TREE

Don't throw away your old Christmas tree, advises Don Scheer, Purdue University extension horticulturist. It can be useful after the holiday season.

For instance, you can make it into a bird feeder. Prop it up in the yard near the kitchen door, pour melted fat over it and before the fat hardens sprinkle wild bird seed on it.

Or, you can add chunks of apples, nuts, cranberries, raisins or bread crumbs. These "goodies" will attract birds and you can enjoy watching them go after the delicacies.

Scheer says there are many uses for Christmas tree branches as greenery — either as indoor or outdoor decorations — and for winter corsages.

Flower arrangement foliage is another use. Good flower arrangements need foliage to help them out, Scheer notes.

With appreciation of our association we extend greetings and our best wishes.

THE SCHOOLBELL

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE PRESS CLUB OF CULVER HIGH SCHOOL

Ho-Ho-Ho! Why are you looking forward to Christmas vacation? This particular question has various answers for both teachers and students. For teachers the answer might be: to be with family and friends — to visit relatives — to relax — to grade papers — to go fishing — to clean the house — to eat Christmas goodies — to read — to dream up wicked exams for next year — to go hunting — to figure out how to pay Christmas bills — to get away from school and students. A student's reply as to what he looks forward to might be: to make up the last three weeks' assignments — to go roller surf'ing — to sleep late — to eat Christmas goodies — to work on senior cords — to ski or skate — to balance the club treasury — to throw snowballs — to work on Tomahawk — to forget everything learned in school thus far — to loaf — to practice basketball — to visit relatives and friends — to play with ouiga boards — to practice cheerleading — to get away from school and teachers. Was anything left out?

Hey, "Hal" Eustis, how much co-ordination does it take to sprain a foot that's already sprained? What's our team coming to with all the guys being laid up on crutches? Now Doug Lindvall has joined the club of the hop-alongs.

If anyone wants to make a senior red-hot mad, ask him what he does in his spare time. And if that doesn't get you a bloop in the snout, ask him why he waits 'til the last minute to do his Civics theme or World History term paper. Then, you'd better run briskly!

Congratulations are certainly in order for Eva Norris who received an "A" on a Civics essay last week. That takes true talent these days! Speaking of Civics, wasn't that mean of Mr. Lawson to give the seniors an unexpected hour-long "quiz" the other day?

We hate to be fecitious Mr. Hughey, but what in the world do black and white mice, Chevrolets and Volkswagens have to do with trigonometry? And, Mr. Hughey, guess what! There are 1,156,012,596,306,247,680,000 different ways the 22 chairs in the library can be arranged. That golden gem of information was supplied by future Einsteins Steve Ulery and Mike Hansen!

If there was a nationwide contest on who had the ugliest, boniest feet, I'd bet anything that our own freshman Corky Overmyer would win hands down — err — feet down. That's what you get, Overmyer, for having your athletic pictures taken in bare feet! Oh, by the way, Happy belated Birthday, Corky.

Wow, Linda Nelson, that sure was a wild striped sweater you wore to the Caston game last week. Oh — you were just pretending you were a zebra? That explains it perfectly! Speaking of the Caston game, it was good to see junior Mike Eustis back in the line-up.

Hey, wouldn't it be something if the freshmen won a basketball game?

Geer, Wanda, did you and Ned have fun at the pink rose formal at Purdue? You had fillet mignon and everything? And what is this we hear about your having leprosy?! Oh — those are just your "snake legs" stockings!

How come Sue Cole, Carolyn Snyder, and Kay Thomas had tiny bags under their eyes last week? Could this be because they were at Mrs. England's house one night working on Tomahawk materials 'til 2:30 a.m.?

With Christmas coming up, there have been many parties and activities at C.H.S. First, the winter concert which put everyone in the Christmas spirit with many new and old carols and songs. Hats off to the fine jobs done by both the junior and senior bands and the choir. The Thursday night band and choir was a pizza-filled blast. The Sunshine — Hi-Y winter formal was an event looked forward to by all who attended. For this dance the gym was transformed into merry decorations in green and white. Then on Tuesday grades 7-12 congregated in the gym to sing Christmas carols. The French, Spanish, and Latin classes all sang a few carols in their own language. All in all, the last couple of weeks of school before vacation were lots of fun (not counting the quizzes, tests, themes, book reports, deadlines, etc.).

Tongue twister of the week: Sister Susie's sewing striped socks for stately soldiers; striped socks for stately soldiers; sister Susie sews. If sister Susie's sewing striped socks for stately soldiers, where are the striped socks for stately soldiers that sister Susie sews? For that matter, where are the stately soldiers for which sister Susie so strivingly sews striped socks? If you can repeat this out loud ten times rapidly, you deserve a marshmallow Santa Claus and a soft tangerine.

Some long-distance smoke signals have informed us that Steve and Tom Bocock, who now live in Missouri, faithfully read the Culver Citizen each week. If you two are reading the Teepee now, all of us here say huckleberry howdy! Merry Christmas and all that rot! Everyone here is getting along just fine and we hope it's the same there with you.

For anyone interested, the senior trip is now only a little over 100 days off.

Say, Kathy Easterday, have you gotten any interesting letters lately?

"Jump and jive, man alive, we're the class of '65!" "Hey you farmers, hey you hicks, we're the class of '66!" Sophomores, we dare you to yell your own little slogan!

Holy mackerel! Do all of you realize how close it is to Christmas? We've got to rush — so many last-minute things to be done before Christmas — shopping, baking, decorating, wrapping, sending cards and packages, cleaning chimneys, putting on halos.

So, until next year, we bid you a Joyeaux Noel, Felix Navidad Ferras Laetas, and Merry Christmas! Ho-Ho-Ho!!

Christmas In Other Lands

By Cheryl Zink

GREAT BRITAIN: In Great Britain, children hang stockings on the fireplace and hope Father Christmas will fill them with Christmas treats. The day after Christmas is "Boxing Day". Most families give money to milkman, postman, and others who have served them throughout the year on this day.

FRANCE: In France, the children put their shoes on the doorstep so "Petit Noel", or the Christ Child, can fill them with gifts. The French use mistletoe as good luck. In southeastern France the whole family helps bring in the yule log, which must be big enough to burn from Christmas to New Year's Day. The French families often set up a small Nativity scene in their homes.

GERMANY: Some people have Christmas trees in their homes for every member of the family. German families often make their own gifts — the women and girls may spend weeks embroidering, and the boys often carve small figures and paint them in gay colors. On Christmas Eve, everyone gathers for the "Bescheerung", a ceremony to light the Christmas tree. Afterwards, the children receive gifts.

SWITZERLAND: The young people visit nine fountains on their way to midnight church services on Christmas Eve. They take three sips of water from each well. A legend says that if they do this, they will find their future husband or wife waiting at the door of the church. Some Swiss believe that animals can speak at midnight on Christmas Eve, and so they kneel in honor of the Christ Child.

ITALY: The people fast — go with little or no food on the day before Christmas. At the end of the day, the family holds a ceremony around the "Presepio". This is a miniature scene of Bethlehem with the Holy Family, shepherds, and wise men. The family prays while the mother places a figure of the "Bambino", or infant Jesus, in the manger. Then Christmas gifts are drawn from a large crock called "The Urn of Fate". On the eve of the Epiphany, Jan. 6, "La Befana", a kind of aged fairy queen comes down the chimney with gifts for the children. Children listen eagerly for the bell she is supposed to ring. Italians reserve Christmas for religious ceremonies.

SPAIN: In Spain, the people enjoy dancing. After midnight Mass on Christmas Eve, the streets quickly fill with dancers and onlookers. The words and music for the Christmas dance, known as the Jota, have been handed down for hundreds of years. The Spanish call their Nativity scene the "Nacimiento".

NETHERLANDS, BELGIUM, AND LUXEMBOURG: On St. Nicholas' Day, Dec. 6, people exchange gifts; a man, dressed in rich robes of a bishop, represents the Saint. He questions the children about their behavior and promises to return in the night and leave presents for the good children. The children fill their wooden shoes with goodies, and leave them on the doorstep for the Saint. In exchange for the goodies, the Saint leaves gifts. In these countries, Dec. 25 is a purely religious holiday.

SWEDEN: St. Lucia's Day, Dec. 13, begins the celebration of the Christmas season. Swedish children believe that elves called "Jul Nisse" help them with many holiday tasks. The children thank the elves by leaving food on the table for them at night.

Norway: Dec. 21, St. Thomas' Day, the Yuletide Season begins. When young people go visiting, they creep up to the house and shoot a gun to frighten any witches. A Norwegian Christmas pudding contains an almond. The people believe that the person that gets it in his portion will be the next to be married.

FINLAND: Villagers cut pine boughs and pile them in a long, green carpet for the Christ Child from the top of a hill to the center of the village. People leave food and extra grain for the birds in their yards on Christmas Eve.

POLAND: In Poland, people fast the day before Christmas, then have a feast at nightfall. A vacant chair for the Holy Child always stands at the festive table. A few straws are scattered on the table to remind everyone of the stable where Jesus was born. They bake small wafers called "oplatki" with Nativity figures stamped on them. The people have these blessed by the priest, and then exchange them as other people send Christmas cards.

YUGOSLAVIA: The children celebrate the second Sunday before Christmas as "Mother's Day". They tie her to a chair, and she gives them gifts to make them untie her. They do the same thing to father on the next Sunday. Someone stands watch over the "Badnyak", a Christmas log all night, because it is considered bad luck if it goes out. A cake, "chestnitsa", is baked, containing a silver coin. Whoever finds the coin in his piece of cake is supposed to have good luck.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA: A girl puts a cherry twig in water on Dec. 4. If the twig blossoms before Christmas Eve, she will supposedly marry during the following year.

ALBANIA: The people of Albania eat pancakes fried without butter or oil. After the meal, they leave some food on their plates to show they are grateful for more than they need.

RUSSIA: The children in Russia formerly celebrated Christmas Eve by going from house to house singing, until people came out and gave them food.

LATIN AMERICA: The Christmas season starts on Dec. 16, and lasts until Jan. 6 in Mexico. The "Posada" is the nine days before Christmas. Each night the family enacts the Posada in memory of Joseph and Mary's search for rooms on Christmas Eve. The children go to each room of the

Where Did Our Christmas Customs Begin?

By Donna Rogers

Many people do not know where our Christmas customs began. Like many other customs, they are just present and for the most part are accepted.

A lot of our customs are directly related to the birth of Christ and stem from church religious observances. There are a few which have a basis in folk customs, some were present before the birth of Jesus.

Early Christians did not celebrate the birthday of Jesus as a day of festivity, as it is known today, for hundreds of years after he was born. The reason for this objection is that Christians believed they were associated with pagan rituals.

The word Christmas, according to the Rev. Martindale, is taken from the Old English words Crist-Maesse which means the mass for Christ. The Dutch word for Christmas is Kerstmisse. Dies Natalis is Latin for Jesus' birth, root of the Italian Il Natale and the French Noel.

Christmas is sometimes written Xmas, this is because "X" is the Greek equivalent of the "ch" sound and the letter "X" is taken to represent the word Christ. The northern European Yule (or Jul) is of disputed origin. One source says it may be derived from the Anglo-Saxon word for feast, geol.

Dutch settlers brought the tradition of St. Nicholas to America. St. Nicholas' tradition was the forerunner of Santa Claus. St. Nicholas was the archbishop of Myra.

Santa Claus includes the aspects of Father Christmas, a folk figure long known in Northern Europe. He wore the traditional red robe trimmed with white fur. He was very jolly, and enjoyed merry-making and encouraged the tradition of mistletoe.

The Wise Men, who brought gifts to the Christ Child, started the idea of exchanging gifts. Even today children in Spain put straw in their shoes for the Wise Men's horses in exchange for gifts.

The Christmas tree as Americans know it was most likely originated by the Germans. A German story said that Christkind, a child messenger for the infant Jesus, was supposed to have chosen far and transformed it with gilded nuts, apples, and lights. Historians believe that the Hessian soldiers spread the custom to America during the American Revolution. The display of a tree in a window or lighted decorations is a practice which came from customs of putting candles in the window to light cathedrals. Evergreens, trees, and boughs were first used in festivals in the Roman times.

Caroling started from plays performed in cathedrals during the Christmas holiday which were set to music. One of the best known is "The Twelve Nights of Christmas," which was originally sung along with a dance on Twelfth Night.

Some people believe Christmas cards possibly came from gift exchanging at the holiday time, but one authority believes this custom began with reforms in the British postal system when cards were allowed to be sent at a uniform rate throughout the United Kingdom. The first card in England featured Christmas merrymaking and wished for a happy New Year.

Janet Manchester Is Sunshine Girl For December

By Pat Ogden

Janet Manchester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Manchester, has been elected by Culver's Sunshine Girls as the "Sunshine Girl of the Month" for the month of December. Janet was chosen on the basis of her good conduct.

Pep band, pep club, Sunshine band, and choir are Janet's extra-curricular school activities. She is also active in the Culver Chapter of Rainbow for Girls and the Methodist Youth Fellowship. On top of all this, Janet is the junior class treasurer. She must be a very busy gal!

Our Sunshine girl has no special hobbies, but she enjoys all sports. Janet likes all her school subjects, but history is her favorite.

When asked her feelings about this award, Janet replied, "I was quite surprised when I was elected 'conduct' for the month in Sunshine."

It is an honor to be selected for the "Girl of the Month," and I wish to congratulate Janet. Keep up the good work!

Christmas in Other Lands

house, but are refused. When they come to the room with the altar, they are admitted. They put figures of Mary and Joseph in the manger scene, but they wait until the last day of the Posada to put the figure of Baby Jesus in the manger. After the Posada, each night, the children try to break the pinata, a papier-mache figure filled with goodies. Instead of a Christmas tree, people use flowers for decorations. Most children in South America believe that wise men bring them gifts on the eve of Dec. 12. The children leave water and hay on the doorstep for the wise men's camels. Most Indians in South America hold a fiesta during the Christmas season.

ASIA: The Chinese call their Santa Claus "Dun Cle Lao Ren", which means "Christmas Old Man". In Japan, the ancient god "Hoteiosho" makes an excellent Santa, because he has eyes in the back of his head. With these extra eyes, he can watch all the children's behavior.

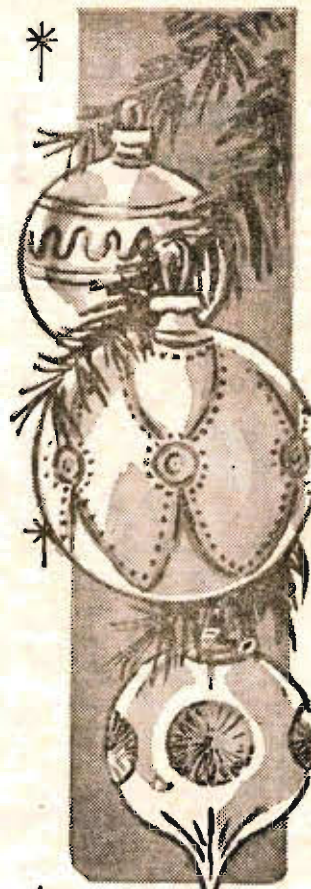

Do you enjoy greeting cards and expensive gifts? The best way to receive them is to have your birthday listed in The Citizen's popular weekly column. Just phone your name and date to Viking 2-3377.

The Joys Of Christmas

By Sue Cole

Every year the children of the Culver Community School Corporation, in grades one through six, put on a Christmas music program. Each grade has spent three to four weeks preparing for the show. The final rehearsal is the only time the whole show is practiced together. Over 500 children — every child in all six grades — participate.

This year's theme was "The Joys of Christmas." James Hoesel and Robert England were the narrators for the program. Members of a representative family were: David Schrimsher, Kenneth Baker, and Patty Thomas. The Shepherds were played by Victor Plet, Richard Ruhnaw, John Houghton, and Dennis Reinhold. Warren Bair, Mathew Garrison, and Juan Ruiz portrayed the Wise Men. Mary was portrayed by Barbara Baker, and Joseph was played by James Stevens. Linda Day was the Angel.

Of course no show could be performed without stage helpers. These were: Stephen Ruiz, Richard Banks, and George Tanner. The ushers were: Lewis Piechuski, Ronald Gross, Gary Yeazel, Larry Peters, Scott Croy, and Rodney Stubbs.

Some of the musical arrangements were sung by the entire grade school. Each class sang at least one song individually. The fourth graders played song flutes. The sixth grade choir also sang. Special groups that sang were: a fifth grade sextette, a fifth grade trio, and a group of fifth-grade boys.

The songs were, in order: "Joy to the World," "Christmas Was Meant for Children," "Christmas Is Coming Soon," "Seven Joys of Christmas," "Deck the Halls," "Jingle Bells," "O, Christmas Tree," "Twelve Days of Christmas," "Up on the House Top," "Manger Song," "Go Tell It on the Mountain," "Away in a Manger," "Christmas Lullaby," "Shepherds on the Hillside," "Long, Long Ago," "Angels We Have Heard on High," "Jesus Born in Bethlea," "In Bethlehem Where All Is Still," "We Three Kings," "Silent Night," and "O, Come All Ye Faithful."

May peace be your gift during this Holy Season.

Winter Wonderland

By Jeanne Adams

Under a canvas of green and white streamers, approximately 40 couples danced from 8 to 11 p.m. in the gym, on Dec. 19, to the music provided by the Dixie Kats of South Bend. What was this gala event? It was the annual winter formal sponsored by the Sunshine and HI-Y.

Babcock as chairmen, Vera Smith, sister of: Linda Nelson and Ron Babcock as chairman, Vera Smith, Valerie Gunder, Becky Easterday, Marsha Guise, Judy Thews, Bruce Lindvall, Mike Hansen, Larry Boetsma, Mike Eustis, and Larry Washburn, and carried out the theme of "Winter Wonderland." The center of the display was a nine foot snowman with three nine foot Christmas trees sprayed with snow surrounding it. At the base of the snowman, there was angel hair spread around to make a type of fence, and above the snowman and trees were balls of cotton representing snow. In front of the display were the words WINTER WONDERLAND depicting the theme.

On the tables there were white candles with branches of evergreens around them, and little snowmen as favors. I would like to congratulate this committee on all the hard work they put into these decorations.

The refreshment table as usual was the most popular during the dance. The refreshment committee, headed by Sheryl Fisher and Bob Eustis, consisted of: Janet Parker, Janet Manchester, Shelia Fish, Andrea Siple, Darlene Taylor, Jon Van Horn, Jim Boswell, Arl Altman, Larry White, and Gary Wallen. The refreshments, consisting of teacakes, punch, and homemade cookies, were scrumptious.

The week preceding the dance, Diane Davis and Paul Liette were much sought after. No it was not because of their great popularity (although they are very popular), but rather because they were the persons from whom people could purchase tickets for the dance. The tickets cost $1.25 per person (I can't figure this out, because nobody could go stag.) and could be purchased by a Sunshine or HI-Y member and his or her date.

The people who were the luckiest of all, were those who were on the clean-up committee. This committee was headed by Marilee Herrmann and Steve Ulery, and all sophomore girls in Sunshine and all new HI-Y boys had to help. They assembled at the gym Sunday afternoon and tore down all of the beautiful decorations, thus ending a wonderful evening. The dance truly was a "Winter Wonderland."

Librarians Enjoy Dinner

By Darlene Taylor

The student librarians and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tanksley at The Culver Inn on Sunday, Dec. 13.

The Culver Inn was gayly decorated with Christmas trees and other decorations for the Christmas season.

Mr. Tanksley presented each student librarian with a gift. Cathy Carrothers, student librarian President, then presented Mr. Tanksley with a gift from the librarians.

After the dinner Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tanksley entertained the student librarians at their home.

In behalf of all the librarians, I would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tanksley for such a wonderful evening.

Kenbar continued to be the leading barley variety in Indiana this year, equalling its 1963 percentage of planted acreage — 32 —, say state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. Decatur was second with almost 30 per cent of the acreage.

Hoosier tomato growers raised 210,600 tons for processing this year, report state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. The crop was 24 per cent smaller than in 1963.

MOVE GARDENING INDOORS

Don't let winter stop your gardening. Move your interests indoors and plant a glass garden or terrarium.

This enclosed glass container can be used for an interesting plant display, suggests Don Scheer, Purdue University extension horticulturist.

Tropical-type terrariums could use either native or cultivated plants. Native maidenhair fern, wintergreen, fungi on pieces of rotted wood, pitcher plants and venus fly traps are all good. Cultivated types include African violets and peperomia.

For a desert terrarium try the slow growing small cactus. You can add dried wood, miniature stage coaches or fossils.

Scheer describes how:

Cover the bottom of a container with at least an inch of pea-size gravel, and cover this with three or four inches of organic soil mixture. This mixture should contain a complete fertilizer such as 10-10-10. One teaspoonful of fertilizer to each two quarts of soil is plenty.

After the soil is in the terrarium, you can level it, mound it to form hills and valleys or slope it from the back to the front.

Add the plants, setting them at the same depth they originally grew. With a narrow-mouthed container, you will need long-handled tweezers and planting sticks to position and set plants. After planting, water.

Finally, cover the container, preferably with glass. The cover should be removable so the terrarium can be ventilated occasionally when water collects on the sides.

Trying to rest after an exceedingly hard day at the office, poor father was being bedeviled by a stream of questions from little Willie. "What do you do down at the office?" Willie finally asked.

"Nothing," shouted the annoyed father.

After a thoughtful pause, Willie inquired, "Pop, how do you know when you're through?"

She had paper and pencil ready as the operator looked up at number. "Madam," the operator said, "the number is Capital 1581."

The woman paused, then asked "How do you make a capital 5

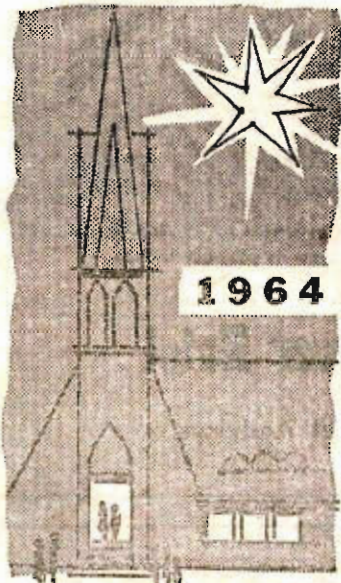

Clinton 60 held its top spot as the oat variety most widely sown in 1964 in Indiana with 10 per cent of the total harvest acreage, according to state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. In 1963, Clinton 60 was planted on 20 per cent of the acreage.

YOUR INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER DEALER

A family bought a very intelligent dog. The first night after coming home they found him on the sofa so they punished him. The second night when they came home they found him not on the sofa but near it and acting nervously. They felt the sofa and found it warm. Again they punished him. On the third night, however, in order to surprise him in the act they came home early and peered through the window. He was excitedly moving on the sofa.

A Texas tycoon rushed into the airport terminal and said, "Gimme a ticket."

"Where to, sir?" asked the agent.

"Anywhere, son!" boomed the Texan. "I've got business all over."

CHOOSE SWEATERS BY FIBER CONTENT

Sweaters rate high on the list for warmth and fashion, notes Lois Folk, Purdue University clothing specialist.

Whether selecting a cardigan or a slip-on, a classic or a bulky knit, consider the fiber before purchasing.

Natural fibers, such as wool, are warm, absorbent, feel soft, but require care in laundering. The terms woolen and worsted are sometimes used to describe yarns of lamb's wool. Woolen yarns are spun from short criss-cross fibers of various lengths. These sweaters will be soft and light weight. Worsted yarns are made from long staple fibers, combed to lie flat. Sweaters made of worsted yarns have a smooth flat surface with less pilling and generally give longer wear.

Special fibers such as angora, cashmere and mohair are often combined with wool. These fibers are delicate, soft and expensive. Laundering these fibers requires special care.

Sweaters made of nylon yarns are strong and elastic, but they do not absorb moisture. These sweaters snag readily unless the yarn has been textured, as in a bulky knit. Little extra care is required for nylon sweaters. They can be laundered by hand or machine. Check the label for the manufacturer's laundering recommendations.

Acrylic yarns such as Orlon, Acrilan and Creslan are also used for sweaters. These yarns are strong and light weight, however they tend to pill and the sweater may lose its elasticity after several washings. These sweaters usually may be machine washed and dried, but follow manufacturer's directions.

Sweaters of Sayelle yarns must be machine washed and dried because they become larger when wet. These sweaters look and feel much like wool, but they have the advantage of being easy to care for.

Regardless of which sweater fiber you select, air sweaters after wearing, before folding and storing, and launder them according to the manufacturer's directions.

INDOOR PLANT ARRANGEMENTS

Containers filled with unusual plant arrangements can brighten up your home this winter, suggest Purdue University extension horticulturists.

These indoor arrangements, called dish gardens, could be used to show woodland scenes, field and meadow scenes, desert scones or tropical scenes.

The key is the plants you use. Desert scenes, for example, can be created through use of various types of cactuses.

Containers should be shallow for cactus and at least four inches deep for other types of dish gardens, advise the horticulturists. Use a half-inch layer of small stones in the bottom of the container, and add about half an inch of sand.

Arrange three or four plants with the tall ones to the back before you add soil. When you're satisfied with the design, add soil, remove the plants from the pot, and plant them in a mixture of one-half top soil and one-half peat moss for most plants, and one-half top soil and one-half sand for cactuses.

Finish your planting by covering the soil with moss — or sand, for the desert garden.

 Christian healing will be the theme of a Bible Lesson to be presented in all Christian Science churches this Sunday. The subject is "Christian Science."

Included in the Scriptural readings are the words of Jesus: "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you" (John 14:- 26).

Related readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include these lines (P. 270):
 "Christ's Christianity is the chain of scientific being reappearing in all ages, maintaining its obvious correspondence with the Scriptures and uniting all periods in the design of God."

IN THE WAKE OF A SONG

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
 ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation.
 (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

*Carols in the night... the old story made ever new again... the love for the Christ Child, poignant, deep... the nostalgia of past Christmases remembered.
 In the echo of a song, "Silent Night, Holy Night," all this comes to mind. And we endow Christmas with the swoopings of baby and midwife, the flash of bright red ribbons, the glitter of the tinsel on the tree.
 Yet, south of the Equator, Christmas comes in mid-summer. There is no holly, no mistletoe, and there's not apt to be a tree. But it is Christmas just the same.
 This is not merely a season, this time of the birth of Christ. It is much, much more. To understand it fully... to see it in its entirety... turn to the Church.*

Chaplain Bray To Spend Holidays At Air Force Base

The Rev. Allen F. Bray, III, director of religious affairs and chaplain at Culver Military Academy, will spend the Christmas holidays ministering to U.S. Air Force personnel stationed at Thule Air Force Base, Greenland. Chaplain Bray will spend a week at the Air Force's northernmost base situated at the "top of the world." He will assist base chaplains in Christmas religious services, conduct Episcopal communion, and lead religious services at outlying stations.

A member of the Fleet Marine Corps during World War II, Chaplain Bray now holds the rank of lieutenant commander in the Chaplain Corps of the U.S. Naval Reserve. He flew to McGuire Air Force Base, N.J. Sunday, Dec. 20, and departed from there for the six-hour flight to Greenland Tuesday, Dec. 22. He will leave Thule for the U.S. on Dec. 29.

The Rev. Mr. Bray will join two Protestant and two Catholic chaplains responsible for the religious affairs of Air Force personnel stationed at Thule. In addition to services conducted for service personnel, base chaplains are also involved in visits to seven Eskimo-Greenlandic villages, which they will complete by Christmas Day. Much of Chaplain Bray's participation in the programs related to outlying stations and villages will depend upon the weather and the Air Force's ability to reach these places by snow tractors.

The Air Force has maintained facilities at Thule since 1946, however the base, as it now stands, was begun in 1951 with the cooperation of the Danish government. Thule is part of the 4683rd air defense wing and has, as its primary mission, support operations within the Ballistic Missile Early Defense Warning System.

"Yes, Ma'am," said the sailor relating his experience to an old lady. "I was torpedoed in the Atlantic and lived for a week on tin of sardines."

"Dear me," said the old lady sympathetically. "How did you ever keep from falling off?"

And the old maid said: "Don't put 'Miss' on my tombstone when I'm gone for I haven't missed a much as you think I have."

ON LAKE MAXINKUCKEE • INDIANA'S MOST BEAUTIFUL LAKE

70TH YEAR, NO. 53

CULVER, INDIANA, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1964

TEN CENTS

Here and There Around Our Town Of Culver

By Margaret McDonald

Christmas, 1964, is now just a vivid memory and those caught in the final crush and rush of this Holiday Season are topping their New Year resolutions with a firm decision to start now with their plans for Christmas, 1965.

Culverites enjoyed a gray, dull Christmas Day weatherwise, with the absence of snow and a high temperature of 32 degrees. But the lack of sunshine didn't dampen the spirits or fun of the many family gatherings and turkey dinners.

The ice, which began to form on the Lake, disappeared as the weather warmed up shortly before the Holiday and those lucky kids who received skates and sleds from Santa will have to bide their time for colder and more suitable skating and sledding weather. Monday evening colder weather brought rough, icy formations to Lake Maxinkuckee's west shoreline as the raw, easterly winds crested the steel blue waves with whitecaps. So, any day now the Lake may become icebound and provide safe skating.

Further proof that Indiana is a progressive State in all phases is the fact that small mirrors, 3 1/2 inches square and made of polished steel, are being used successfully, especially along U. S. Highway 35 north of Winamac, to help cut the death toll of deer struck by cars at night. Arranged in pairs 34 inches above the ground, 10 feet from the highway, and 66 feet apart, these mirrors, which were developed in The Netherlands, reflect the approaching car's headlights to the side of the road, frightening deer away from the highway they are about to cross. The drastic reduction in deer killed along this stretch of highway has likewise resulted in an even more important reduction of injuries to occupants of the autos.

Friday begins another New Year, 1965 — just when we're getting accustomed to writing 1964! This is the time we make sincere resolutions to do better, to be better. Then we find the most worthwhile resolutions are the most difficult to keep! The Citizen sends to all best wishes for a PEACEFUL, HAPPY NEW YEAR!

THE CITIZEN OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED SATURDAY, JAN. 2, SO THAT EMPLOYEES MAY ENJOY A LONG HOLIDAY WEEKEND.

Jaycee Christmas Decoration Winners Listed

The Culver Jaycees have announced the winners of the second annual outside Christmas decoration contest.

First place winner was the entry of Don E. Mikesell, School Street, who was awarded a cash prize of $15.00.

A cash award of $10.00 went to the entry submitted by Mrs. Max Geiger, 442 South Ohio Street.

Ora Reed was a third place winner of $5.00 in cash for his 458 Lake Street entry.

The Jaycees hope to enlarge this contest next year and plan to offer more lucrative prizes and set up a more detailed award system.

The Jaycees work diligently for the betterment of the Culver community and this seasonal effort helped greatly in the lighting of our Town for the Holiday Season.

Tractor Mishap On Farm Injures Ray Harness

Ray Harness, of Route 2, Culver, was treated at the Culver Clinic and released after a tractor accident on the Guy Flosenzier farm Monday afternoon.

Dr. E. D. Powers, who attended Harness, said he sustained an injury to the upper left leg which was not considered serious. The injured man is recuperating at his home.

Harness was pulling logs with a tractor on the Flosenzier farm on Yellow River Road, two miles north and one-half mile east of Culver, when the tractor reportedly hit a stump and overturned, pinning the driver to the ground.

Culver firemen and the Snyder Motor Sales' wrecker, driven by Jay Snyder, rushed to the scene, and the wrecker was used to lift the tractor during rescue operations. Harness was brought to Culver in an ambulance.

Culver Press Employees Enjoy Wednesday Christmas Party

Members of The Culver Press, Inc., and their families were guests last Wednesday evening of their employer, John A. Cleveland, and family, and Mrs. Chester W. Cleveland at their annual Christmas party which was transferred from the Plymouth Country Club to the American Legion Home in Plymouth.

The group enjoyed a full course chicken dinner amid a Christmas decor and were entertained following the meal by the "Hoosier Harmonettes," a five-girl novelty band from Mentone, very capably directed by Denton Abbey, also of Mentone. This group of 13-14 year old Mentone students presented skits, jokes, and novelty arrangements and added Holiday setting with various Christmas carols. The enthusiasm and naturalness with which Pamela Abbey, Katy Boggs, Linda Meyer, Janice Hoffer, and Kathy Tridle presented the evening's program added much to the warmth of the affair which was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

Those attending this most enjoyable evening with Mr. and Mrs. John Cleveland and Mrs. C. W. Cleveland were Peter, Leslie, and Suzanne Cleveland; Mrs. C. E. Glass; Robert Hansen; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferrier and Tina; Mrs. Edith Hudson and Linda; Miss Rosemary Schall; Mrs. Margaret McDonald, Karen, and Sharon; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hatten, Barbara, and Paul; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ditmore, Jeff, Coleen, and Melanie; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Foust, Brian, and Leanne; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Davis and Larry; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ruby, Jimmie, and Peggy; Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Wakefield, Randy, Penny, Chucky, Sandy, Tony, and Terry; Mrs. Trula McKee; Earl Mishler; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rice; and Mike Wallen and guest.

Culver Indians Open Tourney Against Argos

By EARL D. MISHLER

1964 was a great year for Culver's basketball Indians; during the past 12 months, the Tribe treated local fans to a Sectional championship, the completion of a truly great 18-6 season, and a 6-2 start toward another outstanding year.

However, time marches on, and 1965, a year which might hold even greater glory for Coach Gene Crosley and his boys, is upon us. Culver's first venture in the new year is scheduled for this Saturday at Argos' annual 4-Way Holiday Tourney. The Indians face the host Dragons at 12:30 p.m., followed immediately by the Triton-Mentone game. At 7:00 p.m., the losers vie for third place, followed by the championship tilt. Last season, Culver defeated Argos and Mentone for the title, with Triton third.

Coach Ralph Powell's Argos Dragons boast a 6-3 record, and are having their finest season in several years. Among their victims are the Knox Redskins, 49-42, and Mentone, 64-59. The Dragons have also had their low moments, however, having been upset on their home floor by both Tyner and Akron.

5' 10" senior guard Letand Cox is Argos' leading scorer, averaging 14.3 ppg. Perhaps Powell's most talented performer is 6' 0" junior Mark Warrick, whose 11.1 ppg average does not show his full value to the team. 6' 0" junior Wade O'Dell (10.0), 6' 3" senior Kim Martens (7.2), and 5' 8" senior Jerry Patton (8.1) round out Argos' probable starting five. 5' 8" Jay Thompson (7.8) and 5' 11" junior Chuck Lewis (4.1) are Powell's best reserves.

Triton, whose 6-2 record matches Culver's at the top of Marshall County's standings, will be heavy favorites over Mentone. The Trojans manhandled the Bulldogs, 72-50, on the Mentone floor earlier this month. The Triton attack is paced by Joel Berger, a 5' 11" senior guard whose 22.6 ppg mark leads the county.

At the time of this writing, Mentone carried a 2-4 record, with losses at Mentone to both Argos and Triton. 5' 10" senior Ernie Marcia is the top scorer for the Bulldogs with an 11.3 ppg mark, but Mentone's entire offense has been in low gear this season.

More detailed analysis will be presented by The Citizen prior to Culver's games with Triton and Mentone during the regular season. Tony Newell coaches Triton and Mentone is led by Roger Bridge.

To start the new year out on the right foot, Culver will have to clear two large hurdles: Argos' upset-minded Dragons, and Triton's high-scoring Trojans, both in the same day.

Next week The Citizen will feature the LaPaz Vikings, who visit Culver Jan. 8.

Miss Rose Marie Cramer Speaks Nuptials With John Jacob Cromley In Burr Oak Rites

MRS. JOHN JACOB CROMLEY

Miss Rose Marie Cramer, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cramer, Sr., Route 2, Culver, exchanged wedding vows with John Jacob Cromley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Cromley, Route 1, Culver, in a 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon ceremony on Dec. 20, in the Evangelical United Brethren Church at Burr Oak.

Rev. Dwight McClure, pastor of the Culver E.U.B. Church, performed the double ring ceremony before the altar graced with baskets of white glads, blue carnations, blue ribbon bows and candelabra with white tapers lighted by Don Cramer, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Elias Stapan, organist, played nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Dorothy Clauson, who sang, "Saviour Like A Shepherd Lead Us," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer," as the couple knelt at the altar.

Escorted down the white carpeted aisle on the arm of her father, the bride appeared in a gown of silk embroidered nylon organdy over taffeta, featuring a fitted bodice, topped with a Sabrina neckline touched with seed pearls, complemented with short sleeves. The bouffant skirt, extending into a train, was fashioned in a redingote back accented with a butterfly bow. Her full illusion veil fell gracefully from a double crown headpiece of pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and streamers.

Mrs. Bert Cramer Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, served as matron of honor and Miss Phyllis Haney was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of ice blue brocade and tiara headpieces held their short veils. They carried colonial bouquets.

Cindy Ross, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a blue dress, white bow headpiece, and carried red roses.

Bert Cramer Jr., brother of the bride, was best man. Larry Zechiel served as groomsman. David Clauson, cousin of the bridegroom, and Paul Cromley, brother of the bridegroom, ushered.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cramer selected a blue floral print dress and added blue and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with black accessories. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony, 150 guests attended the reception in the Church Annex which was decorated in the bride's colors of blue and white, highlighted by white wedding bells.

The beautifully decorated four-tier wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Ernest Ronk and served by Mrs. Jay Snyder, Mrs. Carl Olson, and Mrs. Earl Clauson.

Miss Alice Cromley, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

The new Mrs. Cromley chose a two-piece blue dress, complemented by the white orchid from her wedding bouquet, for their honeymoon to Georgia.

Upon their return on Jan. 2, the newlyweds will be at home on West 20th B Road, Route 1, Culver, where the bridegroom will begin farming.

The bride is a graduate of West Township High School and is employed at Hart, Shaffner, & Marx, Rochester.

The bridegroom is a Culver High School graduate, attended South Carolina College, and was formerly employed at Fulton Lumber Company in Rochester.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were from South Carolina, Illinois, and Georgia. Area guests came from Mishawaka, Argos, Knox, Rochester, Kewanna, Plymouth, Burr Oak, Culver, Seymour, and Claypool to attend the ceremony.

Dinner guests on Christmas Day of Mrs. Mildred Ditmire, Jane, and Norman were Mr. and Mrs. Gus Brenner, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thomas and sons of South Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ditmire and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Overmyer and family of near Leiters Ford; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Triplet and son, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ditmire, and Vera Smith, all of Culver; and Betty Hauser of Akron. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Cromley, Alice, and Paul enjoyed their annual Christmas dinner in Chicago with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Olson Jr. Mrs. Carl Clauson also attended.

Dinner guests of Mrs. Letty Overmyer on Christmas Day were Miss Jean Overmyer of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dean Overmyer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lance Overmyer and daughter, Miss Kathy Clyne, and Miss Nellie Savage, all of Culver; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Savage and Dannie of Bourbon; and Miss Bonnie Booz of Bourbon. Evening guests with them were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Overmyer of Argos.

Hosts for the happy occasion will be their sons and wives, Mr. and Mrs. John Jack Overmyer of Pretty Lake, Plymouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin A. Overmyer, Nagerville, Ill. They also have four grandsons and a foster granddaughter.

Mrs. Overmyer, the former Augusta Samzel, moved from Chicago in 1906 and lived northwest of Burr Oak until her marriage to Mr. Overmyer, who was born and reared north of Culver on the farm located just north of the anniversary couple's home on State Road 17. ## Hoosiers Work First 118 Days For Tax Collector

The average Hoosier taxpayer will work the equivalent of 118 days in 1965 for the tax collector. That was the conclusion of the Taxation Department of the Indiana State Chamber of Commerce today after its annual analysis of total federal, state and local tax bills in Indiana.

This will mean that on April 28 Hoosiers will "start earning" for themselves.

The chamber set out the April 28 date on its new 1965 "Indiana Tax Calendar" with the notation: "Approximately 32.4 per cent of the total personal income of individuals goes to meet the total federal, state and local tax bills in Indiana. On this basis on the average, income for 118 days of the year is required to meet tax costs."
