Local Scout Units To Mark Scout Week, Feb. 7-13

Steven Neff Wins Patriotic Award

Culver Boy Scout Troop 290, Cub Scout Pack 290, and Explorer Post 290 will celebrate Scout Week, Feb. 7-13, by participating in various activities. The theme for this year's nation-wide observance of Scout Week is "Strengthen America's Heritage."

During Scout Week, all members will wear their uniforms to school, meetings, and to their respective churches on Scout Sunday, Feb. 7, where they will participate in Scout Sunday services.

Also, during this special Week, the Troop plans to conduct flag ceremonies at school.

Of special local interest and occurring chronologically with Scout Week, is the announcement that Steven Neff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Neff, 321 W. Washington St., Culver, has been chosen the Tri-Valley Council winner of the coveted and high-ranking George Washington Honor Medal Award for his last summer's outstanding essay on the theme, "What the Scout Oath and Law means to me as a responsible American citizen."

Steve, one of 32 Indiana Boy Scouts to receive the engraved medal from the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, is among 976 winners in the Nathan Hale Essay Awards Program that included the best patriotic thoughts from tens of thousands of Cubs, Scouts, and Explorers from every state as well as American Scouts in Europe and Asia.

Steve is a member of Culver Boy Scout Troop 290 that is sponsored by the Culver Methodist Church.

Presentation of the award will be made during special ceremonies to be held on a future date to be announced later.

Culver is fortunate to have such an active Scouting program which does so much in the training of the youth of our community. Residents are reminded to support this important program when the opportunity presents itself.

Jaycees Name Promotion Group For New Industry

The Culver Junior Chamber of Commerce met Thursday night at the Bank Auditorium and named an Industrial Promotion Committee from its members with a goal of attracting new industry to Culver.

Jaycee President Ronald McKee appointed Don Muehlhausen to assist him as co-chairman of the committee, and named the following committee members: Jim Bonine, Latham Lawson, Bill Snyder, Bob Kline, Roy Nicodemus, Roger Wise, Charles Edgington, Ken Martin, Dave Ulrich, Jerry Wolfe, and Eddie Amond. The committee called its first meeting for Wednesday, Feb. 3, at the Bank Auditorium to draw up a plan of activity.

Jaycees also voted to send three delegates to the Indiana State Convention on May 14-15, and expect to have representation at the Region B Workshop to be held in Nappanee on Feb. 18.

Ron Tusing reported on preparations for the Park Benefit Dance which will be co-sponsored with the Maxinkuckee Junior Women's Club on March 13 at a place to be determined. Bob McFarland will provide the music.

Joe Anderlohr discussed the Jaycee Ball and Raffle, and the details will be investigated by a committee. Latham Lawson offered the idea of having a Soap Box Derby in Culver, and was named to contact General Motors Corp., the national sponsor, for specific information.

Eddie Amond offered the suggestion of instituting an "Outstanding Citizen" or "Distinguished Service" award for the community under Jaycee sponsorship. A discussion of the proposal followed but no decision was made immediately.

School Board Names Mrs. Ervin Part-Time Nurse

On Monday evening the Board of School Trustees met with Richard Miller and Byron Sutton of the architectural firm of Wiley and Miller of Elkhart to discuss details for planning a new high school building. During the interview, such matters as a relation between school design and air conditioning provisions, use of rooms without outside windows, and methods of financing the building program were considered. Following the interview, the School Board voted to make the final decision on choice of an architect on Monday, Feb. 8.

In other business, the School Board voted to employ Mrs. Connie Ervin as part-time school nurse. Among her duties will be administering the various state-required testing programs related to the health and physical condition of pupils. These include vision and hearing tests, tests for tuberculosis, etc.

After discussing the raising of the funds which will be necessary for the purchase of equipment and construction of sidewalks, drives, and parking areas for a new high school, the School Board voted to propose a Cumulative Building Fund levy of 80 cents to be collected in 1966 and 1967. It is estimated that somewhat more than $200,000 will have to be spent to complete the projects listed above before the new building could be occupied in the fall of 1967. These costs will have to be paid from revenues raised by the cumulative levy rather than by money raised by the bond issues for construction costs.

The School Board voted to continue efforts to sell the Ora School property. Since statutory regulations require that the School Board accept no less than two-thirds of the appraised value of the property, the minimum selling price on the basis of the appraisal would be $1800. Attempts will be made to effect a sale of the property as soon as possible.

Culver Firemen Battle Fire At Dickeson Home

Culver firemen answered a 3:15 p.m. Sunday fire alarm which sent them to the rural home of the James Dickeson family, five miles southeast of Culver on Queen Road, where they fought the blaze for nearly two hours in sub-freezing temperatures.

Fire Chief David Burns said the fire, which caused extensive damage, apparently started from an overheated furnace while the Dickesons were away from home.

A passing motorist told firemen he noticed smoke coming from the dwelling and drove to a nearby home to notify the fire department.

Burns said a staircase and wall in the home were badly damaged by the blaze and there was extensive smoke and water damage. He estimated the damage at $2,000.

Year's Toughest Weekend Ahead For Culver

By EARL D. MISHLER

After finally having broken their double-header hex, Culver's Indians this weekend face their biggest challenge of the year. Friday night the Tribe hosts rugged Pioneer Regional of Cass County, and on Saturday they travel to Winamac.

Pioneer's Panthers own a fine 12-4 record and have never lost to a Culver team. Gone are stars such as Ed Schmaltz, Gerald Garrison, Rich Morphet, and Glenn Minks, who led Royal Center to the Semi-State in 1963 and Pioneer to the Regional last season.

Although only two lettermen return, the Panthers make use of great B-Team personnel from last year. A pair of 5'8" senior guards Jim Conn and L. J. Burton are the letter-winners, and Conn consistently leads their scoring attack.

On the front line, Pioneer uses 6'2" junior Craig Cross, 6'1" junior Ted Blank, and 6'0" senior Butch Cookerly. Top reserves are sophomore Tom Minnick and junior Norm Newell.

The Tribe will be putting on the line their undefeated home season record of 6-0, plus their five game win streak. The Culver B-Team is 8-0 at home, and will likely also face a serious challenge from Pioneer's Panther Cubs.

Saturday's encounter at Winamac must be considered the year's most important game. Coach Joe Heath's Indians are 14-2 and own a nine-game winning streak. Both Logansport and Southwestern gained eight-point decisions over them. The most impressive Winamac game this season was a win at Attica over this year's Wabash Valley champions.

Heath's greatest asset is the Indians' terrific depth and experience. Leading scorers are forwards Jim Herrin (16.4) and Bob Roth (11.3). Both are only slightly above the 6'0" mark, as is starting center Barry Hippsteel (8.2); yet this trio gives Winamac great rebounding with high jumping and terrific pursuit.

Starting guards are 5'9" seniors Jim Lebo (8.4) and defensive specialist Larry Larkin (6.4). But shooting ace Jim Getz (6.1) is also still around for backcourt duty, as is senior Randy Olds

The Culver Town Board, meeting on Monday night, with Union Township officials, accepted two bids totaling $20,375.92 for the purchase of a new fire department water pumping truck and equipment.

The winning bids were those of Ray Wicker Ford, Culver, for a new tilt style cab and heavy duty chassis and engine, at a cost of $6,825.92; and John Bean Fire Apparatus Division of FMC Corp., Lansing, Mich., for a 750-gallon-per-minute pumping unit with 750 gallon water tank for $13,550.00.

Though the Wicker bid was not the low bid for the cab and chassis, the board expressed the opinion that, since only about $35 separated the Wicker bid and a bid received from out-of-town, it was desirable to accept the Culver bid, from the standpoint of service and other considerations.

Other bids received were Jordan's Ford of Mishawaka for cab and chassis, $6,791.88 delivered in Mishawaka; and two alternate bids for cab and equipment from Midwest Fire Apparatus Co., Logansport, for $22,333.39, and $24,169.11. The bid of the Lansing, Mich., firm was the only bid submitted for equipment only.

The opening of bids was presided over by Theodore L. Ervin, town board president. Others taking part were town board members Edgar Shaw and Wilfred Craft; Union Township Trustee Glenn Overmyer; and Advisory Board members Wayne Kline and Henry Henning.

In other town board action, members passed a resolution that the portion of Clerk-Treasurer Ruth Lennen's salary that is paid from sewer department and water department funds should be divided equally, rather than two-thirds from the sewer fund, as in the past. A portion of Mrs. Lennen's salary is also paid from the general fund.

The board announced the appointment of Mike Bennett as an employee of the Town of Culver, to fill a vacancy created by a recent resignation.

Howard Hilles, Plymouth, who is attorney for the Town of Culver, attended the meeting and answered several legal questions raised by board members.

Fertilizing house plants during the winter, say Purdue University extension horticulturists, may cause them to grow straggly since light intensity is low.

(2.8).

Up front 6'1" Jim Lincoln (5.5) and juniors Rich Hood (5.3) and Chuck Rausch (3.1) give Heath great reserve material.

Winamac must now be considered the favorites in their own Section) this month, in which Culver will also be a highly-seeded team.

Next week we will preview the Culver Military Academy Eagles and the Lewis Cass Kings.

Culver Chapter, O.E.S., Honors Visiting Matrons and Patrons

At a called meeting of the Emily Jane Culver Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Friday evening, Jan. 29, at the Masonic Hall, Visiting Matrons and Patrons Night was observed with 168 attending. The chapter was opened in regular form by the officers under the direction of the worthy matron, Mrs. Herbyn Maynard.

Mrs. Dale Dolan of Plymouth, deputy of District 20, was introduced and escorted East by Mrs. Fred Banks, past worthy matron of the Culver chapter. Mrs. Roger Thews, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Cleo Ringle, sang a song honoring Mrs. Dolan and she was presented a corsage and gift from the chapter.

Other grand officers and distinguished guests were introduced and Mrs. Maynard welcomed all.

The theme for the evening was "Friendship," and the chapter room was appropriately decorated in the worthy matron's colors of red and white with a touch of green, using white mums and red carnations. The decorating committee was composed of Mrs. Evert Hoesel, Mrs. Harold Hatten, and Mrs. Harold Fitterling.

After the guests had been introduced and welcomed, Herbyn Maynard, worthy patron, introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Dr. Frank M. Setzler, who resides with Mrs. Setzler in their new home at 950 East Shore Drive.

Doctor Setzler, a well known archeologist, has retired and moved to Culver recently from Washington, D.C., where for 25 years he was head of the department of anthropology and chief curator of the Smithsonian Institution. Prior to that he was Indiana State Archeologist from 1928 to 1930.

A graduate of Ohio State University and the University of Chicago, Doctor Setzler, also has the degree of Fellow, Society of American Archeology, and Fellow, A.A.A.S. American Anthropology Association, and is the author of numerous books, articles, etc., on anthropology and is recorded in "Who's Who." In 1948 he headed an expedition to Australia.

Doctor Setzler had as his subject, "An Archeologist Returns to Indiana." In a most interesting manner, he told of some of his personal experiences in his work.

After the chapter was closed a social time was enjoyed in the club rooms. The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of red and white carnations, greenery, and white candles. The honored guests were seated at a table with places marked with favors of tiny brown tea pots.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Donald Parson, Mrs. Lester Brown, Mrs. Sam Allen, Mrs. James Grover and Mrs. Donald Reed.

Rainbow Officers Installed Thursday At Public Ceremony

In a public ceremony Thursday evening at the Masonic Hall, Miss Carolyn Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Snyder, was installed as worthy advisor of the Culver Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Miss Joan Dillon, retiring worthy advisor, was the installing officer. Other installing officers were Sheryl Hohman, marshal; Carol Heiser, chaplain; Mrs. Donald Parson, recorder; Carol Overmyer, soloist and Paul White, musician.

After the assembly was opened, Miss Snyder was escorted behind the altar and installed as worthy advisor. As she knelt at the altar, Miss Carol Overmyer sang, "The Lord's Prayer," and Mr. Snyder escorted his daughter to the East which was decorated with a bouquet of white gladioli against a light blue background.

Cathy Carrothers was installed as worthy associate advisor and Miss Overmyer sang, "You'll Never Walk Alone" to her.

After the other officers were seated, Mrs. J. B. Allen was installed as mother advisor and Miss Overmyer sang, "My Task," in her honor. As Mrs. Allen was brought to the East, she was greeted by an escort of six girls, each of whom said a small verse and handed her a rose.

After the new Advisory Board had been installed, Joan Dillon, installing officer, presented Carolyn with the gavel. Carolyn then read a short poem about her experiences in Rainbow, and welcomed all the guests. She introduced her immediate family and relatives and Dr. Oscar Wesson, who sat in the East representing the Culver Masonic Lodge.

The new worthy advisor announced that her motto is, "Prayer is the Key to Heaven, but Faith unlocks the door." Her colors are blue and white and her flower the white gladioli. Her watchwords are Confidence and Hope. She then asked her brother, Sanford Snyder, to say a few words about her motto.

The new worthy advisor presented Loretta Berger, who was installed as faith, with a ritual after which Miss Snyder escorted the retiring worthy advisor, Joan Dillon, to the altar to sign the Bible. The song, "Perfect Day," was sung honoring Miss Dillon, who was then presented a gift from the Assembly. Carolyn thanked Mrs. Jack Easterday, the retiring mother advisor, for all she had done for the Assembly.

After the chaplain had attended at the altar the formal closing march was performed.

It was announced that Lynn

Mackey will be installed as choir director at a later date.

Refreshments were served in the club rooms at tables decorated with white gladioli and blue candles. Hostesses were Mrs. Shelton Kaiser, Vicky McKinney, Mary Ann Lewis, Jean Gross and Karen Banks.

SCOUT NEWS

By TIM FRAIN, Troop Scribe

An overnight was held at Tippecanoe State Park last Saturday and Sunday. Many demonstrations were held with several of the 13 Scouts present passing their requirements. On Sunday a fine church service was conducted by Carl Strang and then a hike was conducted. A "coffee can casserole" was cooked after the hike. One of the highlights (?) of the weekend was when the Scoutmaster spilled the beef stew!

Troop 290 met at the Culver Methodist Church basement Feb. 1 with 15 members in attendance.

Opening ceremonies were conducted by the Beaver Patrol and the opening game was "Free Lift."

In Patrol corners we studied Morse code and then had a contest. There were no winners.

"Ring Strip" was played and the Arrows and Beavers won. Then closing ceremonies were held and we were dismissed.

Scout Week is Feb 7-13 and all Scouts are urged to wear their uniform all next week. On Scout Sunday, Feb. 7, all members are invited to attend the Methodist Church. Wear your uniform and meet at 10:30 a.m. at the front door.

During next week we will conduct the flag ceremonies at school.

Basketball

The Culver Military Academy Eagles will travel North and South this weekend for basketball games against Park School (Indianapolis) and Niles (Michigan).

Culver (5-4) faces Park Friday night. They edged the Indianapolis team 49-47 last year. Pete DePrez took scoring honors with 13 points playing forward; he has been moved to center this year.

The Eagles lost to Niles last year 83-65 with Paul Killian hitting for 24 points. He and DePrez are the leading scorers this year.

Killian scored 15 points and DePrez 14 in a losing effort against Argos Saturday. Lee Cox dropped in 20 points to lead Argos to a 55-50 victory in a game that was close all the way.

THE SCHOOLBELL

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE PRESS CLUB OF CULVER HIGH SCHOOL

The chief has been playing around with his short wave set and he seems to be getting radio station CHS, channel 88. Let's listen in while they broadcast the weekly news.

Let's see now, after only seven days of the new semester, first period economics class reports seven tardy arrivers! That's really some record! Oh, by the way — why did Susie Spencer have such a hard time getting to class on time the other day? Had she been put on top of the lockers again? Oh, not this time? Well, Susie, you'd better start tearing yourself away from those certain guys before the bell rings.

What are those pieces of blue paper that most Seniors are carrying around? I'll bet I know — they've just received the latest info on the Senior trip! Only about 56 more days now, right? Well, we're counting even if Mr. Lawson isn't.

Speaking of Mr. Lawson — he doesn't like three of the four Varsity cheerleaders' uniforms because they're too short! Look, Mr. L., have you ever tried to get into a skirt that was made for someone who is shorter and/or smaller than you are? Apparently not, there aren't too many people that are smaller than you are! (Yuk! One good slam deserves another.)

Hey, Patty Overmyer, church pews were made for sitting in — not jumping over — especially when Mr. Wolfe is watching. And say, Mr. Wolfe, jokes are to be laughed at — not ruined when you have already heard them! Right, Patty?

EEEEEEEEEEEEKKKKKKKK!! Hey-uh-er-Elaine-uh-Marilee- um-Suzanne-er-and-Elaine . . . you forget to get dressed this morning! Geo, gang, they're standing out there in the middle of the gym floor in their nighties and curlers, teddy bears and clod (er, I mean "Cold") cream . . . what gives? OHHHHHH, they're just members of a new singing sensation — The Bedbugs — lots of luck to you gals. And to the rest of you sunbeams — jolly good show!

Boy, Mike Hansen, you sure did fall (flat) for that Argos cheerleader, didn't you? I see you have a nice swollen lip to show for it, too.

Becky, where in the world did you find that odd vocabulary word for English class. My sources couldn't find it anywhere in the dictionary. Are you sure it's spelled s-p-l-e-n-d-o-s-p-l-i-n, and has something to do with skin?

A word to the wise — if you don't want to spend one civics class and two study halls erasing marks in your civics books — don't write in it in the first place. One particular Senior evidently didn't learn this lesson like she should have. Just this morning I saw her writing in her world history book. Won't you ever learn, Carolyn S.?

Another thing, Carolyn. What were you doing in the office sixth period the other day? I thought you were in band. Oh, you got sent to the office for talking in band . . . CHUCKLES!!

Flash! Happy belated birthday to Wanda Warren. Gee, that was a cute card that Ned somebody sent you — tell us about it.

Hey, next year's Seniors — if you don't want to spend half your noon hour in Mr. Lawson's room — don't talk while he's passing out themes. If you don't believe me, just ask the third period economics class — they will tell you.

Larry Banks, don't you know any better than to talk in fourth period study hall? Well, you had better learn.

Here's a mystery to be solved. What bright enthusiastic Junior guy is so excited after the B-team tourney that he decided to take a venture out in the country on an empty tank of gas — with girls along? Then after this daring fete is accomplished, has to drive clear to the east side of the lake where he just happens to live. What are you trying to do, fella? Make an honest effort to run out of gas on some dark, lonely road — so far from home? O.K., Ron B. We know all about your tricks!

Hey! Who's that banging on the piano? I don't know . . . Could it be Ray Harness and Pat Seslar playing the piano in the study hall at noon? Melvin Jackson is pretty good, too. Encore, fellas, encore.

Hey, Pam Crozier, what did you get in the mail today?

Jeanne Adams! Lay off the refs! (at the B-team tourney) Mr. Wolfe, you didn't have to accept that free bag of popcorn.

Crash, Boom, Spphht. It seems that the rainstorms have disconnected the chiefs short wave set and radio station CHS. We can't seem to make out what they're saying. So don't forget to tune in to radio station CHS, channel 88 next week.

What Would You Do With An Oligopoly?

By Phyllis Jewell, Robert Vondra, Sheryl Welsh, and Janet Crow

During the past week a number of students at CHS have been asked to what purpose they would put something with the name oligopoly. These are a few of the answers.

Kris Strang — Another name for my father.

Cindy Carter — It means dud-dum. Therefore I'd eat it.

Darlene Peterson — If it's the name of a new Beatle group in England, I'd go see them.

Joy Borg — I think it means some kind of martian planet that hasn't been discovered yet.

Betty Jo Cihak — It must be a kooky kind of drink that the Beatles get drunk on, if it's not that then it must be a new version of the monopoly game.

Suzie Overmyer — It sounds like a newly devised geometric figure.

Patti McCombs — An invention by mad scientists.

Robert Vondra — "Duh"

Diane Davis — An oligopoly is like a monopoly, only of olives. So it would be a bunch of olives.

Mike Hansen — I would drop one of the o's and one of the i's and one of the p's and add an "e" to make the word geology.

Peggy Herr — Put it in a hole and bury it.

Holly Thompson — Eat it.

Cindy Kemple — Have its name changed.

Pat Ogden — Look it up in a dictionary.

Pam Fish — Change its name.

Karen DeWitt — I'd kill it!!!

A few faculty members gave us their opinion also.

Mr. Cole — Throw it away.

Mrs. England — Look it up in the dictionary.

I'm sorry but there were no correct answers. Seniors, we were

New Books To Start Semester

By Joy Binion
Mr. Tanksley has been busy again trying to find books that will catch the interest of CHS students. I believe he's come up with a good variety this semester.

Several of the books contain information about politics. "The American Political Dictionary" is one of these. This gives precise meanings of political terminology. Not only is this a dictionary, but the reading of a chapter will provide a basic understanding of an entire subject area. By the way, this is where we found the word oligopoly.

The book "Talking to an Audience" explains how to arrange a complete speech. It helps you arrange your material and arrange it to fit the amount of time required.

In "Faith is a Star" some fifty great Americans give their own testaments to the power of faith.

There are several historical books which clarify a certain period in our history. Some of these are: "Life in Colonial America," "Pontiac and the Indian Uprising," and the "Louisiana Purchase."

"The Old Man and the Boy" is a warm novel which makes simply good reading material. This book has several philosophies stated. These philosophies are explained by the old man while teaching the boy about life.

We haven't been able to tell you about all of the books by any means. Why don't you come down and browse through a few of them? You might even find one that you like?

Organization Meetings

By Joan Dillon

Jim Boswell, president of the Culver Chapter of the National Honor Society, has presented to the members the possibility of their serving as tutors to fellow classmates. More specifically, troubled students might be benefited by the honor students availing their services in the form of study help.

A rough sketch of the idea would be as follows: Each honor society member would "specialize" in one or two subjects; he would signify which periods of the day he has study halls and would be available for tutoring. A list would be composed of the subject; the students available at specific times of the day; what room is free for co-operative study; and whether the student is a senior, junior, or sophomore. Such lists would be posted on bulletin boards and would possibly be handed out to students. Then, for example, if during the day an underclassman finds himself unsure of a specific concept in English he might check his list finding that a junior is offering help in this area; and, after a short question-answer period, the problem might be solved.

After such a briefing the Society members discussed the possibilities of the plan's succeeding. As some students already ask their classmates for help, whether or not the latter is in NHS, some members feel that the project might not be of any use. There would be the possibility that honor students need their study halls for personal study, therefore might not be willing to spend time solving someone else's problems. Others were enthusiastic for the Society to show some action after a period of dormancy. It is possible that students might be inclined to ask a classmate for help when the regular teacher is busy conducting another class. This training would give honor students a chance to share and use their knowledge to the advantage of other guys and girls. It might also influence them in a teaching career if they have been in doubt.

This program will need the co-operation of junior high and high school students, as well as the help of the National Honor Society, in order for it to show any kind of success.

The day following the involved National Honor Society meeting another vital organization convened. Mr. Crabb, newly appointed (and industrious) sponsor of the Student Council, presided at a meeting of Council members. To snap them to attention they were given a short quiz on which were asked such questions as "What are the three offices of the Council and the responsibilities of each?"; "What are the reasons for such an organization?"

Among the topics of business discussed were plans for a Student Council Spaghetti Supper. This is a money-making project for the organization which purchases the certificates, awards, and sweaters presented throughout the year to club members and honor students. The supper is scheduled for April 3, 1965.

The Student Council has an active part in the criticism of the relatively new method of supervised and co-ordinated test taking. During the preceding days a variety of students had been given evaluation and comment sheets which were then collected for discussion at this meeting. Miss Shanks read comments of the faculty members. Due to a shortage of time, however, there was little constructive criticism of the exam schedules so a further discussion of the topic is planned for a later meeting. At this next meeting will be the election of Council officers.

The reporters, co-editors, and sponsor of the Schoolbell Staff met to evaluate the CHS edition of the Citizen. Again, students needed to be reminded of such qualities as neatness, completeness, and promptness of their articles. They were asked to grade their work using standards of informing, interesting, and entertaining the public.

While each Staff member evaluates his own work, it will also be graded by the co-editors. At the end of the year a particular student's sheet will determine his status as a Staff member; an agreeable status as a writer will win for him the Schoolbell pin.

The writers considered new ideas for articles. They pondered how to entice CHS students to co-operate in the gathering of information and opinions for the "Teepee" and "roving reporter" portions of the paper. A discussion brought up the general feeling that the Schoolbell should offer more material which might amuse and please the readers. The Staff is open to constructive criticism by Culver students and townspeople alike.

The Shadow Strikes Again

By Bob Shirrell

"Hey you, wake up! It's time for French class."

Those were the words that started our sophomore boy's day in first period French II. You see, he didn't get enough rest last night and he's trying to catch up. Well, he finally did wake up, answered two questions, and walked out of the room as though he had a medal on his chest.

Then our victim went to his second period typing class. This was one period he did his work and did get something done. He should really be proud of himself!

Third period our victim went to study hall where he "talked incessantly" until his pass to French lab was signed. Although he does often study, today he and some other sophomores got into an argument with a smart (???) senior boy whose first name is Jim. After the argument, which lasted all period, he went to Mr. Kline's health and safety class. Following Mr. Kline's discussion concerning blackheads, pimples, and acne, our victim went to lunch.

His lunch finished, he went to the gym where he happened to meet a cute freshman girl. They wandered about the halls, talking and laughing, until he had to go to his fifth period English class.

During fifth period, our victim was continually throwing things at the wastepaper can, and that may be one of the reasons he has had three different seats this year.

After fifth period our victim went to study hall again, where he got all of his assignments done (amazing isn't it?)

The victim's next class was geometry, with Mr. Stinchcomb. Our victim was "talking incessantly" again and no one sitting near him could get a thing done.

Eighth period our victim went to the student council meeting. Yes, now you know for sure that the victim is Paul Hatten. But . . . beware! Next week the shadow could be watching YOU.

Determination

By Paul Liette

Last Saturday was an exhibition of pure desire to win a tourney as the B-team defeated two tough teams. In the morning session, our "Papooses" defeated a huge Oregon-Davis team 48-43. Leading the team in scoring was Mark Kosterman who gathered 14 points. He and Jim Jackson also dominated the boards. Neither of these two boys were regular starters for the B-team, since three of the starting members were given a short retirement for the tourney.

In the final game, the "Papooses" defeated Argos 49-42, which was more than they beat them the night before with the regular crew and after having played two games within 16 hours. Kosterman and Jackson again dominated the boards. Kosterman also led the team in points with a repeat of 14.

Jewell, Hatten and Babcock played two great games. Jewell and Babcock brought the ball down well against the presses that were used on them in both games. Hatten's drives and defense also proved to be of much value. All in all it was a team victory and a great show of the want to win.

 "God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." This reference from the Gospel of John sets the theme of the Bible Lesson titled "Spirit" to be read at Christian Science services Sunday.

Readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this: "Spirit being God, there is but one Spirit, for there can be but one infinite and therefore one God" (PP. 334-5).
 The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (2:11): "What man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God."

Growing OLD GRACEFULLY

It isn't automatic — this growing old gracefully. Worries seem to accumulate with the years. And there is often the gnawing sense that opportunities once brimming with promise lie empty where we tossed them . . . along a road without return.

But these later years are not meant to be a burden. There is much to suggest that God intended them to bring reward.

He gave us the blessing of memories, so precious moments of joy may be lived again and again.

He gave us the gift of love, so we can experience anew the adventures of youth, the achievements of maturity, in the lives of our children and grandchildren.

And He gave us a Way of Life, revealed in the teachings of Christ. So that every today . . . when it has become yesterday . . . will be another graceful stone in the arch of Tomorrow.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Culver Indians Beat New Paris And Plymouth

Two Wins Run Streak To Five

By EARL D. MISHLER

Culver's Indians finally broke their double-header jinx last weekend, toppling New Paris, 73-71, and Plymouth, 68-59, in a pair of road games. The victories ran Coach Gene Crosley's squad's record to 12-3, and stretched their latest winning streak to five in a row.

New Paris' Cubs shocked the visiting Tribesmen Friday night by racing away to a 25-17 first quarter lead behind a devastating shooting attack led by 6'3" center Steve Hoffman. The hosts hit on 10 of 12 shots in the period.

Culver caught up with the hot-shooting hosts in the second period, sparked by their three leading scorers, seniors Jim Boswell, Dave Lemar, and Jim Lewis. The half ended, 36-all.

In the second half, New Paris kept the pressure on behind Hoffman and 5'10" guard Richard Kerlin, a dead-eye jump-shooter. The Tribe survived some questionable officiating to own a 58-54 lead after three stanzas.

Crucial free throws by Boswell and Doug Lindvall in the waning moments insured the CHS triumph, as Doug's pair with ten seconds remaining made it 73-69. Kerlin's 29th point came on a driving lay-up, and the senior star drew a foul in the process. But Andy Lowry grabbed Kerlin's intentionally-missed free throw and the hosts' bid for a big upset was over.

Hoffman backed up Kerlin's 29 with 26 points of his own, but Culver's senior trio was more than equal to the challenge. Boswell led with 20 tallies. Lemar had 18 and many rebounds, and Lewis contributed 17. D. Lindvall was back in good form with nine points, playing his second game after missing a month's action.

Saturday evening Plymouth's upset-minded Pilgrims grabbed a quick 15-5 lead late in the first period. But the Indians reeled off eight straight points before the period ended to shave the margin to 15-12.

With 6'1" senior guard Jim Boswell showing the way, the Tribe built up a 39-32 half-time margin. Boswell had 17 by intermission and junior guard Bruce Lindvall had tallied ten.

The host Pilgrims, sparked by 6'5" junior center Al Kralovansky, closed the gap to 48-46, after three periods. But Boswell again took charge, almost single-handedly put the game out of reach. Drawing fouls as the frantic Plymouth squad pressed in the waning seconds, Boswell was perfect at the foul line.

Jim ended up with 33 points, including 13 of 16 free throws. He is now averaging 19 ppg for the season, but even more significant is Jim's average since the Walkerton game when he began shooting more frequently; 23 ppg. B. Lindvall was the only other Tribesman shooting up to par, tallying 17 points in his best all-around Varsity performance. Bruce missed his first free throw of the year late in the game.

5'11" junior Dave Williams led the losers with 18 markers, and Kralovansky added 17 for Plymouth, who lost starting guard Mark Deckard, who moved back to Kewanna.

Coach Bill Stegemoller's B-team, after losing to a good, young New Paris team, 45-39, surprised a strong Plymouth squad 51-49. The Papooses, who were fouled only seven times Friday night, hit 25 free throws on Saturday for their margin of victory.

Mark Kosterman led Culver in the New Paris game with 12 points, then Larry Washburn and Paul Hatten paced the victory with 15 and 14 counters, respectively. The Papooses are now 10-5, and need only one more win to insure a winning season.

Next Friday the Tribe plays host to Pioneer's Teutons, then...
