Tom Cultice To Sing In Opera At Indiana University

TOM CULTICE

Tom Cultice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cultice, 60 West Shore Dr., Culver, a graduate student in the Indiana University School of Music, will be in the cast for the University's spectacular outdoor production of Bizet's romantic opera "Carmen." The opera, with a cast of 200, will be presented July 27 and 31 and Aug. 1, 4, 6, and 7. Cultice will alternate in singing the role of Morales in the opera depicting Spanish gypsy and peasant life.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, Cultice was a winner in the vocal division of auditions held by the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Mich. He has served as a soloist with various choral presentations in Michigan, and at I.U. has sung in several productions of the Opera Theater.

The Indiana University Opera Theater inaugurated its outdoor operatic productions in the summer of 1963 with four performances of Verdi's "Aida," and last summer presented a like number of Puccini's lavish opera "Turandot." Approximately 30,000 opera patrons from throughout the Middle West came to the University to witness the two productions. The University's production of "Turandot" was chosen as the Hoosier State's official presentation at the New York World's Fair.

Advance ticket sales for "Carmen" indicate that the largest crowd ever assembled at the University for a cultural attraction

Building Permits Required, Plan President Says

Bob Berger, president of the Town Plan Commission, reminded contractors and property owners today that building permits for improvements or alterations to property and land are required within the town of Culver and its outlying jurisdictional areas.

He said plans for such improvements or alterations must be presented to Ernest Carter, building commissioner, who is authorized to issue the permits after checking the plans for conformance to the town's Master Plan and related ordinances. Permits are obtainable from Carter at his home, 442 Lake St., from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The ordinance governing construction, says in part, "No structure, improvement or use of land may be altered, changed, placed, erected or located on platted or unplatted lands, unless the structure, improvement, or use, and its location conform with the Master Plan and ordinances of the Town, and an Improvement Location Permit has been issued. . . . Certain agricultural uses as defined in the ordinance are exempt from this requirement.

Penalty for violation of the ordinance provide a fine of from $10 to $300.

Berger indicated that letters of reminder are being sent to local contractors, and copies of the ordinance dealing with the subject may be had upon request.

Lake Officials Warn Public To Observe Laws

Lake Maxinkuckee officials are again reminding the public that removing buoys from lake waters, or tampering with same, constitutes violation of the Indiana Boating Laws. These buoys are planted in areas to restrict swimmers to a safe swimming area and to contain boaters in a safe boating area and were so placed on the lake's surface to make Lake Maxinkuckee a safe place for boaters and swimmers. Removing these markers endangers swimmers and boaters alike.

Tampering or removal of buoys is in violation of Section 34 of the Indiana Boating Laws which reads as follows: "No person shall moor or attach any boat to any buoy, beacon, light marker, stake, flag or other aid to safe operation placed upon the public waters of this state by, or by others under the authority of, the State of Indiana, or shall move, remove, displace, tamper with, damage or destroy the same under penalty of law".

Violation of the above law carries a stiff fine.

R. A. Nye, Route 1, Bourbon, was arrested Sunday, July 25, on a citizen's warrant, served by lake patrolman W. C. Cleavenger. Nye was arrested for operating a motor boat with a skier inside of swimming area at Ha-Mac's landing in violation of Section 18 of the Indiana Motor Boat laws. He was indicted in JP court of Michael Fitterling and paid a fine and costs totalling $26.

The qualifications of a Culver Citizen Classified Ad are fast, profitable results. Call VI 2-3377.

will be on hand for the six performances.

The gigantic stage designed for the two previous productions, believed to be the largest outdoor stage in the country, will be used for "Carmen."

Support The Church Series Receives Award

The Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, has announced that the Keister "Support the Church" series, which has been running in The Citizen since 1962, is again the recipient of the George Washington Honor Medal. This is the 9th such annual award bestowed upon this nationally-famous feature since its origin in 1944.

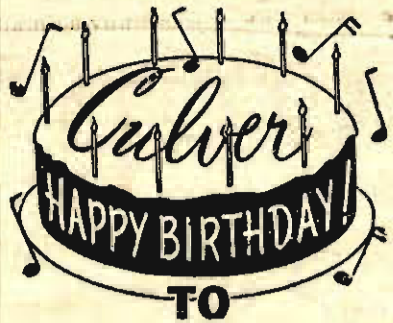

The object of the Foundation's annual awards program is to honor citizens regardless of race, creed or economic status, for outstanding efforts to improve public understanding and appreciation of the basic constitutional rights, freedoms and corresponding responsibilities inherent in the American Way of Life through the things they write, do, or say.

The "Support the Church" series is now appearing in over 1000 newspapers throughout the United States and Canada; interestingly enough, one subscriber in Sweden. It has received enthusiastic endorsement from ministers and leaders in virtually every major denomination in the United States.

The Citizen is pleased to present these forceful messages to its readers. We feel that the sponsors should be proud to be a part of this influential project, reflecting high credit to their own business establishments, and helping to strengthen our churches and indeed our whole community.

Leadership of the Freedoms Foundation includes General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Chairman; the Honorable James A. Farley, Senior Vice Chairman; Admiral Arthur W. Radford, Executive Committee; and Dr. Kenneth D. Wells, President.

The Misses Rose Voreis, Margaret Swanson, and Sally Muncester returned to Culver Monday from a 10-day vacation trip spent in the Shenandoah National Park in Virginia. They enjoyed delightful weather during their stay in the Sky Line Lodge there. An interesting fact about this particular park is that it is the second most visited National Park in the United States.

By Mary Whitman

A "rainy day" box belongs in every home.

Any cardboard carton or lidded box will do. You can decorate it for cheerful appearance by covering it with plain paper and letting the children draw raindrops and umbrellas with crayons. Or use gift paper of the type suitable for showers.

Into a rainy-day box go all kinds of objects a child can play with — buttons, paper cups, toothpicks, colored string, straws, cardboard tubes, cereal boxes, empty spools. Most are household items.

And a reminder to parents is passed on by the editors of Whitman Publishing Company of Racine, Wisconsin. The counters of variety stores also have assorted fun boxes, sewing cards, paper doll books, crayons, magic slates, colored pencils, make believe money and other play materials that are handy in a rainy-day collection.

The box gets taken down from the closet shelf when it rains.

It provides dozens of projects for the youngsters. Some children will think up their own ideas. Others need help.

Making games is a popular pastime. A bean bag can be made by making a pocket of leftover fabric, filling it with dried beans or macaroni or rice, then sewing the top. Holes can be cut out of a large piece of cardboard, with each opening then marked with a score for throwing. The children take turns pitching the bean bag for a winning score of 100.

Round cereal boxes can be turned into doll cradles for girls. Or the boys can make a toy telephone by attaching a wire between two boxes.

A flotilla of bathtub boats can be made out of floating soap.

A game of "store" can be played with canned goods, play money, and crayoned signs.

Paper cups can hold a bouquet of bright flowers drawn in crayon and mounted on paper straws.

All these projects keep dispositions sunny — even when the weather isn't.

ROCKIN' R RIDERS CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL PLAY DAY

The Rockin' R Riders Saddle Club held its annual play day, Sunday, July 25, at the president's home, Ray Morrison. There was an opening parade at 1 p.m. in which 30 horses participated. After the parade, there were 15 different events to ride in and, ribbons were given in each event for the first five places.

Refreshments of hot dogs, ham sandwiches, cup cakes, pop corn, potato chips, fritos, pop, and coffee were sold by club members.

There were 54 members who attended along with many visitors and Sunday joy riders who stopped to watch and enjoy the afternoon.

The second monthly meeting of the saddle club was held July 21, at the president's home. A trail ride to Winamac and a stay-over night at the Tippecanoe State Park was discussed for Aug. 14 and 15. No definite plans were made.

Patches of a horse head with a horse shoe over it and Culver, Ind. underneath, were decided on for the shirts. They will be ordered as soon as possible.

Different kinds of rolls, lemonade, and coffee were served for refreshments to 37 members and 4 visitors.

The next meeting will be held Aug. 4 at 8 p.m.

Jean Elizabeth Warner Speaks Nuptials With
Arthur Lamoin Banks In Candle-light Rites

MRS. ARTHUR LAMOIN BANKS

In a beautiful and impressive Saturday evening candle-light ceremony at 7:30 o'clock on July 24, performed before the altar of the Culver Emmanuel Evangelical United Brethren Church, Miss Jean Elizabeth Warner exchanged wedding vows with Arthur Lamoin Banks.

Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. George C. Warner, 220 Summit Street, Culver, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Banks, Route 1, Culver.

Baskets of white gladioli, palms, and candelabra graced the altar of the church and the bridal aisle was white carpeted between pews marked by tall white candle poles and large white bows.

Rev. Malcolm Gillespie, Carbondale, Ill., campus minister of Student Christian Foundation at the University of Southern Illinois at Carbondale, assisted by Rev. Dwight McClure, pastor of the church, performed the double-ring rites and officiated at the communion served to the entire congregation.

Paul White of Culver was organist and accompanied Mrs. Bryce Bigley as she sang, "O, Perfect Love," by Barnby, and "I Love Thee, Dear," by Grieg.

Lighting the candles were Ricky Banks, brother of the bridegroom, and Kathy Banks, cousin of the bridegroom, both of Culver.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a full length gown of angel mist taffeta fashioned with long sleeves ending in bridal points at the wrists and a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace featuring a square neckline. The gown was highlighted with a wattleau detachable train which was topped with a soft taffeta bow. Her illusion veil fell gracefully from a headpiece of Chantilly lace and orange blossoms, edged with tiny pearls. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of White Amazon lilies and yellow roses.

Mrs. Stanley Handschu, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Dell Kepler, sister of the bride, and Miss Karen Banks, sister of the bridegroom, were the bridesmaids. All of the bridal attendants wore identical floor length dresses of powder blue taffeta featuring short sleeves, scoop necklines, and softly pleated skirts. Their powder blue nose-tip veils of tulle were secured to channel bows of taffeta. Their cascade arrangements of yellow roses and stephanotis were centered with a lighted white taper.

Denise Hatten, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl and appeared in a full-skirted dress of white eyelet batiste, made with cap sleeves. Her headpiece matched those of the other attendants and she carried a nosegay of white carnations and yellow roses from which she pulled the yellow petals to strew.

Clyde Poppe of Elkhart was best man. Groomsmen were Randal Banks, brother of the bridegroom, and Jon Keith of Oglesby, Ill. Stan Handschu, brother-in-law of the bride; David Warner, brother of the bride; and Don Banks, cousin of the bridegroom from Pontiac, Mich., were ushers.

Ring bearer was David Brian Warner, nephew of the bride.

A reception for 175 guests was held immediately following the ceremony in the church social rooms. The bride's table was centered with a beautifully-decorated five-tier wedding cake. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Randal Banks, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Miss Barbara Hatten, cousin of the bridegroom. Mrs. Charles Kalistrom of LaGrange Park, Ill., was in charge of the guest books.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Warner selected a gown of beige lace with pale green accessories. Mrs. Banks chose a dress of bone eyelet with honey tan accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of yellow roses.

For their honeymoon to Michigan, the new Mrs. Banks wore a shirtwaist dress of yellow daron and lace with white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds will be at home at Carbondale, Ill., where both are attending summer school, and after Sept. 1, they will reside in Argos, Ind.

The bridal couple are graduates of Culver High School and the University of Southern Illinois at Carbondale.

Guests attending the wedding were from Anderson, Argos, Evansville, Indianapolis, Marion, Morocco, Plymouth, South Bend, and Culver, Ind.; Carbondale, Chicago, LaGrange Park, Oglesby, Ill.; and Bay City and Pontiac, Mich.

STAIN RESISTANT FINISHES

Clothes that don't stain or get wet in the rain may be yours.

Mrs. Bonita Farmer, clothing specialist at Purdue University, says fluorine based finishes can be applied to fabrics in the final steps of manufacturing to make fabrics resistant to oil and water-borne stains.

These finishes form an invisible coating around each fiber that repels watery and oily substances, prevents their being absorbed, and thus protects fabrics against being "wet" by rain or staining materials. The liquid remains in drops that sit on the top of the fabric and can be removed easily by blotting — without leaving a ring.

With proper care, these finishes last through repeated launderings or drycleanings.

The only way to tell whether a fabric has been treated for stain resistance is to read the hangtag, label or look for the name on the selvage of yard goods.

Fabrics now being treated include those made of cotton, polyester, acrylic, silk, linen, acetate, rayon, nylon and wool fibers.

Stain resistant finishes are particularly suited for slipcovers, upholstery, draperies, bedspreads and wearing apparel — especially rainwear, children's clothing and sportswear. Some other uses are sleeping bags, boat covers, luggage, uniforms and seat covers for cars.

To insure good performance from these finishes, here are some tips on their care. Blot or sponge the liquid immediately when an accident occurs — this is good procedure for any fabric or spill, says the specialist.

Follow regular laundering procedures for washable fabrics but pay particular attention to rinsing. Since soaps and detergents are wetting agents, they may mask the repellency of the finish if they aren't rinsed thoroughly.

For smooth, wrinkle-free fabrics, remove items from the dryer or clothes line while still damp and iron with a steam iron. Pressing the garments at the normal temperature for the fabrics will preserve these finishes as heat increases their effectiveness.

As in laundering, thorough removal of drycleaning solvents is

Let's Have a LUAU!

HERE'S YOUR chance to present the most unforgettable, exciting and exotic party ever... The "Luau"—literally a Hawaiian feast—immediately captures the warmth, gaiety and excitement of the tropics. It can be staged indoors or outdoors on your lawn.

TO START with, send out invitations in the spirit of your Luau; then follow through with Hawaiian table settings, costumes and music. Where possible, use low tables so that your guests sit on floors, or on mats. And award a prize for the best man and woman hula dancer.

EXOTIC FOOD and drinks will be, of course, the highlight of your Luau. Pineapple Alii, Island Sweet-Sour Spareribs, Waikiki Shrimp Dip, Shrimp Tempura and Banana Royal are all mouth-watering Luau food specialties. For the recipes of these delicacies—and a dozen others—send ten cents to Orchids of Hawaii, 305 Seventh Ave., New York, N.Y. 10001. The booklet you'll receive in return, is not only a treasure trove of island recipes, it also gives detailed directions for making your Luau the party of the season.

Chicagoland Music Festival Set For August 7

The Chicagoland Music Festival, held each summer for 35 years in Soldiers' Field, will be presented this year in the Arie Crowna theater in McCormick Place on Saturday night, Aug. 7. The curtain will rise at 8 o'clock.

The festival, which has drawn hundreds of thousands of music lovers since it began in 1930, is sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc. For its indoor debut, the 36th program has been arranged to provide something for everybody, according to Phillip Maxwell, who has directed the festival since its inception.

The New Christy Minstrels, nine bright-eyed young people, will present a program of modern songs entwined with old ones.

A brilliant young comedian, Corbett Monica, will provide humor of a type that can be repeated anywhere. Two elderly gentlemen from New York, Noble Sissle and Eubie Blake, will bring to the theater golden moments of their great show, "Shuffle Along." With Blake at the piano, Sissle, who attended colleges in Indiana, will sing his world-wide song, "I'm Just Wild About Harry."

For those who revel in the masters' works, there will be winning vocalists, a pianist and a violinist who will draw from operas and concertos the kind of music that will make the festival a brilliant concert. These young artists will be supported by the festival symphony orchestra, conducted by the general music director, Robert Trendler.

A special treat for the audience will be an opportunity to pay tribute to 88-year-old Dr. Rudolph Ganz, a great musician, who will lead the orchestra in John Phillip Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Winning soloists on the program, and also second and third place runners-up in each contest division, will be awarded scholarships by the Society of American Musicians, which is conducting the contests to pick the amateur musicians who will appear. The scholarships, totaling $15,000, are a grant of the Robert R. McCormick Foundation.

The festival tickets are $5, $4, $3 and $2, with all seats reserved. They may be ordered from the Festival Ticket Manager, Tribune Tower, Chicago, Ill. 60611.

Mrs. D. Hatten and Mrs. E. W. Carter spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Day, at South Whitley. Other guests with them were their brother, Michael Bernhard, also of South Whitley, and Richard Day, Fort Wayne.

Did You Know?

EGYPTIANS who lived in 3000 BC had amazingly modern home furnishings such as folding beds and chairs, low serving tables and linen chests. But they devised no better way to beat the heat than by hand-operated fans.

THE first electric fans, developed in the 1800's consisted simply of blades, a motor and a small base. They were considered mechanical marvels and a boon to healthful living. Then in the early 1900's air conditioners were devised for use in factories, theatres and office buildings.

THE latest home air conditioners are oil-powered units that not only circulate cool air in summer, but also provide warm air in winter. These units have no moving parts to wear out, are sealed for life, and have a single thermostat for either winter or summer. And when you use oil all the way, you have smaller bills for heating and all the hot ever need.

JULY 27, 1955—

The Ahlenius brothers, John Jr. and Franklin, claim they have found what virtually amounts to a gold mine — a 45-foot deep deposit of peat moss in a bog on their father's farm located southeast of Bass Lake. The Ahleniuses say peat moss is formed in layers, one a year, from the decayed green moss and that it takes 10,000 years to build up 10 feet of peat moss.

News Items About Our Academy Neighbors

(Culled from the July Issue of the CMA Messenger)

More happy parents-grandparents were found in the Brad Craig household when Capt. John Craig, Cindy, and their two young misses came to spend a month in Culver, taking leave from Lincoln Air Force Base, Lincoln, Neb. On their way back to the base John and Cindy planned to swing down to San Antonio to visit the little girls' maternal grandparents . . . Milford Myhre met recently with 32 other carillonners, and played in concerts at a meeting at Iowa State University. Milford had a chance to renew acquaintance with Dutch carillonners whom he met when he gave recitals in Holland several summers ago . . . It's good to see the Hugh Harpers back in town and their usual, active participation in town "doings," after their winter in Florida . . . They came back from Florida as Sunny and Russ Blair were streaking South to Orlando to visit Russ, Jr., and his family, over the June vacation . . . Walt and Linda Lambert loaded Leslie Suzanne and all her "gear", and only incidentally, a few things for themselves, into the car, and headed toward Ann Arbor where Walt is attending history classes in summer school to bring the Master's degree within sight.

Just say that Marie Stevens was running a hotel over the July 4th weekend, but 'twas fun for all to have Mrs. Deane McLelland and her children (neighbors of the Stevens' when they were in Bloomington) come for a visit, toward the end of which Christine came home from Ball State's modern dance workshop, and Len checked in from Cape Gerardeau, Mo. All's quiet now, with Jimmy "living in" at Woodcraft, Christine and Michael studying French and Latin, respectively, and Marie teaching — and Len back in Cape Girardeau, teaching and house-hunting.

In the Fall, when the Stevens have gone to the Cape, we'll find the Bob Reichley family moving into the big house on Academy Road . . . After a welcome visit from their son, Capt. John Clarno, and his family, Frieda and Ted took off with their trailer toward the Pacific Northwest and an uncharted ramble around that beautiful corner of the world . . . The Elmer Whites, after a very academic year, felt they owed themselves some travel, away from the books and typewriter, and hid themselves to Iowa to visit Kathy's family, stopping along the way at antique shops and at the historical Amana Colonies, where they were shown around by fellow-passenger, Grampa Neilyn (Lil Jurgensen's father).

The local small-try were treated to Richard Edward Spivey's seventh birthday, a big event, a red, white, and blue event, so near to July 4th. Mother Sally and Grandmother Ginny were introducing him to future class-mates since the young Spiveys have bought the Don Parson house in Culver's North addition, and will be moving in as soon as the redecorating is finished. Sally, Richard Edward, and Scott, who is in Woodcraft, will stay in Culver while Captain Delmar B. Spivey is in Viet Nam.

Staff of the new Girls' School is: Mrs. Wm. J. Martin, director; Mrs. Ralph A. Rhodes, senior counselor; Mrs. S. Mervyn England, junior counselor (Mai-Fan returns to the campus she knew as a child); and Miss Suzane Kimble, Bremen, swimming instructor.

Anna Hawkins spent the weekend in Michigan attending the wedding of her granddaughter, MarLinda Overmyer, to Aaron Carpenter. She also visited in Canada . . . Agnes Drang is the proud grandmother of a son born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Drang June 30 . . . Janet Parker returned home after spending a month with friends and relatives in New Mexico.

July 4th visitors of Emma Swigart were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Warner and family, South Bend, and Mr. and Mrs. Toby Warner, Rochester . . . Mrs. Blanche Raub and daughter Donna spent the week camping at the Shades with Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Mishler and family and Rudy, Eddie, and Jeffrey Schwenk.

Jennie Dickson is the proud grandmother of a baby girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dickson, July 3rd . . . Leatha and Floyd Riddle were pleasantly surprised by the arrival of their son, Chuck Whetstone, and family, Harbor City, Calif., on Leatha's birthday, June 22. This was the first time to see their grandson, Steven, who will be a year old on July 18.

We welcome the following laundry employees for the summer: Daniel Weaver, Edna Bryan, Edward Fluery, Faye Wooldridge, Elsie McGowan, Emma Swigart, Rosie Wieringa, Linda Dickson, Martha Weaver, Mae Jacobs, Barbara Overmyer, Janet Parker, Ella Johnson, James Barton, Frances Freet, Karen Freet, Eva Humes, Donna Hazen, Mildred Gaines, Betty and Dorothy Bickel, Marjorie Humes, Martha Mangun, Bonnie Salyer, Jane Colby, Helen Crabb, Juanita Mangun, Marlene Humes, Margaret Humes, Catherine Allen, Cynthia Ruhnaw, Edith Vornholtz, Charles Huddleston, Frank Sheppard, Barbara Bean and Edith Weirick.

After a round of parties in their honor, the Covingtons, Peggy, Carolyn, and "Cov", hitched their sailboat to the car, and took off for their new haven, Southern Pines, N.C. . . . When Dr. Ron Mine finishes his stint as Program Director at the Woodcraft camp this summer, he'll pack the Mercedes and head for his new laboratory at Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass. Ron will be a chemistry instructor (of course) and housemaster to approximately 20 boys . . . After 33 summers and 11 winters at CMA, Glenn and Grace Coolman will return to Wabash, Ind., to their "new" house and Glenn's new position as Director of Athletics of the Wabash city schools.

Jerry Whitney was off to Washington to visit son, Alden, and his family, after winter school. Who was the first person — almost — that they met when Jerry and Alden went to Ft. Belvoir to keep a golfing date? Who else? Clifford Dawson! (At the rate folks from here are visiting with the Dawsons we might enlist Juanita as an out-of-town correspondent!) . . . After a busy winter for both of them, Helen and Kemp Moore decided to relax by "training" in Vista-Dome comfort, to Pasadena to visit with friends . . . the between-schools vacation . . . Edith and Walt Strait got away from it all at their cabin retreat in Michigan for two weeks in June, before Walt took off (July 5) for Lake Forest College's Institute for Advanced Studies in Physics (NSF Grant), the only institute of its kind in the U.S. He'll be up there until August 27, although the family hopes he'll find a few weekends free to come home before then. In the meantime, Dr. Larry Strait, who has finished his internship at Orange County General Hospital in Orange, Calif., is here for the month of July with wife, Lucy, and children, "Chip," 2, and Beth Elizabeth, 1 year old. Lucy and kiddies will remain in Culver for three weeks in August while Larry is attending Air Force Orientation at Montgomery, Ala., and will join him when he is assigned to the Duluth, Minn., Air Force Base . . . George and Ruth Johnson stopped for several entrancing hours at the Truman Library near Kansas City, and the Eisenhower Museum in Abilene, Kan., on their way to visit Dr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor (Mary Jean), and family in Boulder, Colo., in June. Though they had driven West, they took a scenic tour by Vista Dome-type train through some of Colorado's higher levels; that way they could both look at once! . . . Seems a good many people went West, but Adm. and Mrs. S. A. Shepard came here from San Francisco to visit Fran and Bob Bolton for a week and a round of parties. Mrs. Shepard is Fran's sister. Robbie, who spent nearly a month with his sister, Suzanne, and her husband, "Ted" Davies, helping them get settled in their new home in Coconut Grove, Fla., was home in time to see his aunt.

WORLD'S FAIR WONDERS

The Ease of Underground Living

From heat, humidity, noise and dust to blissful silence and a delightfully balmy climate would seem to be a giant stride, at very least. But at the New York World's Fair, this apparent miracle has been wrought within 15 feet—the depth of the underground house on exhibit.

Encased in an oblong, concrete-steel shell, the now famous Underground Home is located 15 feet below the surface with three feet of soil over the top of the shell.

The idea is to achieve a home almost perfectly insulated by tons of concrete and steel, and thus provide privacy, silence, controlled climate accompanied by astonishing cleanliness.

Air in this Underground Home is so pure that the house requires only one light, dusting a month. And, with the proper blend of lighting and mixture of climate factors, one may have (electrically) a May climate in December, an October day in July, bright sunshine on a rainy day or midnight at high noon.

Inside the house, the performance of both fabrics and carpet is helped immensely by this controlled climate, without hindering either their beauty or color.

Last year, in a space of 180 days (and these were 12 hour days), 2,052,000 people walked over the high pile plush velvet carpet with an all wool face placed in the Underground Home by Gulistan. This is heaviest traffic carpeting, so called because it provides longer wear-life.

Not only is the same carpeting in the house for the second year of the Fair, it looks as spruce and fresh as it did the first year.

FORT BENJAMIN HARRISON, IND. — Second Lt. Frank M. Bryant Jr., 22, whose parents live in Culver, completed a nine-week officer orientation course at the U. S. Army Adjutant General School, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., July 23.

During the course Lieutenant Bryant received instruction in the basic functions and principles of the Army's administrative field.

Lieutenant Bryant was graduated in 1960 from Culver Military Academy, and in 1964 from Michigan State University in East Lansing.

EDITORIAL COMMENT FROM OTHER PAPERS: "On The Town"

Why are newspapers like women? Let me count the ways.

—They have forms.

—They take pride in their make-up.

—They have bold face type.

—They're well worth looking over.

—Back numbers are not in demand.

—They sometimes fail to show up on time.

—They spread news wherever they go.

—They wield a great deal of influence.

—When they know something, they tell it.

—They're never afraid to speak their minds.

—The world could hardly survive without them.

—Every man should have one of his own and not take his neighbor's.

Plastic bags now come with zippers, and the first to gain by the innovation will be fishermen, reports Modern Packaging, McGraw-Hill publication. Lures and sinkers are being sold in the bags. When a fisherman is finished using the sinkers or lure, he puts it back in the bag, zips it, and it is ready for use again.

LONG RANGE HOG OUTLOOK

Indiana's share of the nation's pork production is likely to increase in the next five years.

This is the conclusion of Purdue agricultural economists J. Carroll Bottum and John Kadlec.

A favorable long run outlook for the state's swine industry is based on these factors:

"It appears likely that pork will at least hold its own competitively with other meat products from the standpoint of cost per unit to consumers."

Indiana's geographic location takes advantage of heavy corn production and close proximity to Eastern markets. Indiana has one of the highest hog-corn ratios compared to other regions of the country.

In projected production figures to 1975, the economists estimate that Indiana hog men will produce 9.7 per cent of the nation's output. This would rank third behind Iowa's 23 per cent and Illinois' 16 per cent.

In the past decade higher quality hogs raised in Indiana have provided the state's farmers with a price advantage. However, the economists say the advantage may narrow in the future.

Although Indiana remains in a strong competitive position, it does not mean all swine enterprises will be profitable. Wide variations in profit can be explained, the economists point out, by farm-to-farm differences in production cost, production volume and selling price.

Culver Beats Lakeville; Loses Tourney To LaPaz

By BOB SHIRRELL

Last Thursday, July 22, Culver beat Lakeville at Lakeville by a score of 6-2. This makes Culver's record nine wins and five losses.

Seven of the eight Culver hits went for extra bases. Andy Lowry went four for four, doubled, tripled, and homered to lead the team. Mike Eustis had a three-run home run in the first and Bruce Lindvall and Mark Kosterman each had doubles.

Bruce Lindvall got the win for Culver and Larry Geyer took the loss. Bruce pitched a fine game, striking out nine, walking only one, and allowing only four hits. Both Lakeville runs scored on errors.

G. Harvath led the Lakeville squad by going one for three and scoring one of the two Lakeville runs.

Extra base hits: 2B. A. Lowry, Bru. Lindvall, Kosterman, S. Lowry 3B. A. Lowry HR. A. Lowry, Eustis

Lapaz Beats Culver in Tourney
Monday, July 26, Lapaz beat Culver by a score of 3-2 in the first round of the county tourney. Jim Manring got the win and Bruce Lindvall took the loss. This is the last game for Culver in the summer league and so they finish with a record of nine wins and six defeats.

The eight men left on base was the story for Culver. In the fourth inning and in the eighth inning the Culver squad loaded the bases with nobody out and failed to score.

Bruce Lindvall pitched a fine game striking out six and allowing only five hits but just could not get help from his teammates — two of the three Lapaz runs scored on errors. Bruce's record is now five wins and three losses.

Andy Lowry led the Culver team by going two for three and scoring one of the Culver runs. Bruce Lindvall went two for four and scored the other Culver run.

Izdepski led the Lapaz team by going two for four and getting the only extra base hit for Lapaz.

Extra base hits for Culver: 2B. Eustis

Former Pitcher Will Address Methodist Youth

Baseball and religion will be the main topics of discussion at the Culver Methodist Church this Sunday evening, Aug. 1, at 6:30 p.m. The Rev. Mr. Russell Paul Kemmerer, pastor of the Monrovia, Ind., Methodist Church, and a former major league pitcher, will be present to conduct the program for high school and college students, boys and girls.

Mr. Kemmerer is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and will present an FCA film entitled "Springboard." FCA is a national organization of sports minded Christians which conducts summer camps and other year-round work with youth.

Before assuming his pastorate at Monrovia, Mr. Kemmerer played for the Boston Red Sox, Washington Senators, Chicago White Sox, and Houston. This spring he helped coach the Indiana University baseball team in addition to continuing his studies for full ordination in The Methodist Church. Since coming to Indiana, Mr. Kemmerer has been a featured speaker at a variety of events across the state. He also serves as a sports announcer for an Indianapolis television station.

Youth from any churches in the area are welcome to attend this session.

Social Security Increases Will Average $5 Month

An extra $1 1/2 million in Social Security payments may be headed for the South Bend District by October. The district includes the counties of St. Joseph, Fulton, and Marshall.

A seven per cent across-the-board increase in Social Security payments was recently voted by the House and Senate. The payments are retroactive to January 1, 1965. The local figures were estimated by Chas. E. Burke, manager of the South Bend Office.

Some 33,500 social security beneficiaries now are on the rolls of the South Bend district. This group will receive an increase in monthly payments of about $175,000 an average of $5 per person.

If paid in October, that would leave nine retroactive months, or a total of $1 1/2 million due for this district.

The bill calls for a minimum increase of $4 monthly for retired workers who came on the rolls at age 65.

Monthly benefits for workers who retire at or after 65 would be increased to a minimum of $44 (now $40) and to a new maximum of $135.90 (now $127).

The maximum amount of benefits payable to a family on the basis of a single earnings record would be related to the worker's average monthly earnings at all earnings levels.

Under present law, there is a $254 limit on family benefits which operates over a wide range of average monthly earnings. Under the bill, until 1971, the family maximum would be $312.

Burke expects that local checks will be in the mail around October 1. He said the maximum retroactive bonus check for a retired person aged 65 will be $8.90 per month. This figures out to a total back payment of $80.10, if paid in October. The minimum bonus payment for the 65-year-old retired worker would be $24 for the same period.
