Second Oral Polio Vaccine Feeding Set For Sept. 26

All persons in Marshall County could know that their family physician greatly desires that everyone take advantage of the second oral polio vaccine mass feeding to be given in Argos, Bourbon, Bremen, Culver, and Plymouth on Sunday, Sept. 26, from 10:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. If the first dose was missed on May 23, you may take the first dose on Sept. 26, and the second or follow-up dose may be obtained from your doctor not earlier than eight weeks later.

Dr. James Robertson, County Health Officer, says that the polio shots give good immunity but do not eliminate the possibility that one may be a carrier. He recommends that everyone of all ages from six weeks of age take the oral vaccine as it gives good immunity perhaps better and probably much longer lasting, at least five years, and also eliminates one as a carrier of the disease to someone not immunized. Eliminating the carrier of the polio virus entirely from the area is the only sure way to eradicate this dreaded disease, he said.

It is emphasized that the oral vaccine is pleasantly dissolved in the mouth and is not at all distasteful. A donation of 50¢ to defray the cost of the vaccine may be made and none shall be denied the vaccine because of inability to pay.

Many civic organizations are assisting in this county wide project and it should take only a few minutes out of the day to have a whole family immunized. Transportation to those who need it will be furnished by telephoning one of the nearest feeding stations on the day of the feeding at the high schools in Argos, Culver, and Plymouth, the elementary school in Bremen, or the American Legion in Bourbon.

Dr. Robertson stated that no known illness or pregnancy prevents anyone from taking the vaccine but that there will be doctors, pharmacists and nurses at all feeding stations to answer questions.

Seeks Injunction Against Co-op

A complaint alleging violation of the town's ordinance governing building permits and a request for permanent injunction to prevent the operation of corn drying equipment in the Marshall County Co-op elevator in Culver have been filed in Marshall Circuit Court.

Town Attorney Howard Hilles, acting for the Culver Town Board, filed the legal action on Monday and said papers were being served on Co-op officers in Plymouth.

Town Board President Ted Ervin said the Co-op violated the town zoning ordinances when it poured concrete footings and undertook construction for the installation of the drying equipment without having first obtained a building permit.

Vern Weiger, manager of the Co-op branch here, appeared before the Town Board on Monday, August 2, requesting permission to install the equipment consisting of (Continued on Page 6)

Adjustment Board Sets Culver Tax Rate At $5.8864

The County Tax Adjustment Board has certified recommended rates for county taxing units, including Culver, according to Marshall County Auditor Glendyn Albright.

The proposed Culver town rate, which includes the township, school, library, and county rate, is $5.8864. This rate will be reviewed by the State Tax Adjustment Commission before it becomes final for 1966.

The Union Township rate was set at $4.6634; and the Culver town rate (separate from schools, township, county, and library) was set at $1.173. The county rate is $1.4534, which includes levies for hospital, health department, cumulative bridge fund, cumulative jail fund and county-wide school levy.

The tax levy for the operation of the county government is recommended at .692 cents per $100 valuation. This includes operation of county offices, salaries, maintenance of buildings, and supplies.

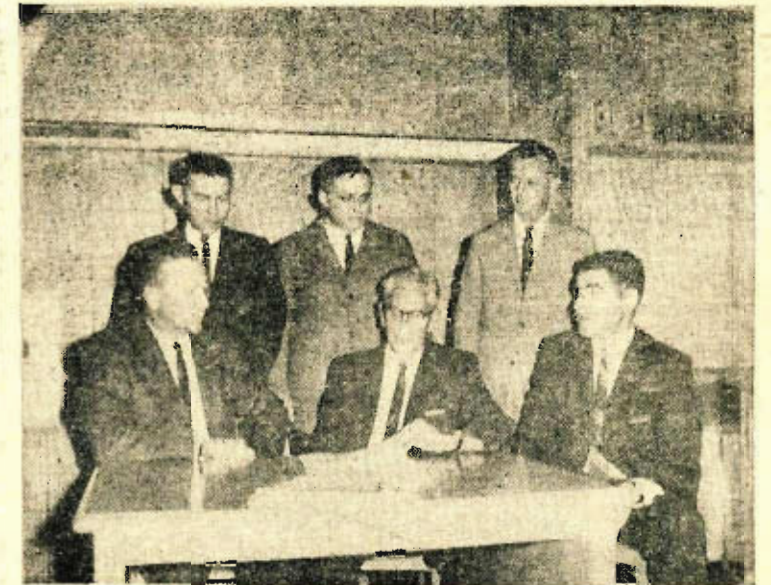

The proposed 1.272 tax levy of Culver was reduced 9.9 cents, to reflect property valuation changes. This year's levy is $1.20. Mrs. Ruth B. Lennen, clerk-treasurer, appeared before the board to explain details of the budget and levy.

Culver Library's proposed levy of 22 cents was cut two cents, making it the same as this year's levy. The reduction reflects a property valuation increase. Peter Trone appeared before the board in behalf of the library.

The proposed Union township levy of 19 cents was approved without change. This year's levy is 12 cents. Glenn Overmyer, township trustee, appeared.

Culver Community School's proposed levy of $3.02 was cut one cent, reflecting a property valuation change. This year's

Bearings Plant Will Hire Both Men, Women As Initial Force Is Expanded

Young men with mechanical aptitude who are interested in earning machinist's qualifications will be sought when McGill Manufacturing Co. begins hiring for its new Culver plant, probably in May of next year.

This was brought out during interviews with McGill officials who were in Culver last Friday to complete the purchase of land at Mill Street and State Road 17, which will be the site of the new factory.

Allyn B. Williamson, vice president and general manager of the Bearing Division, said that after a gradual build-up to a full manufacturing facility, a number of women — up to 25 percent of the work force — will be employed to serve in assembly and inspection at the new bearing plant. Construction of the plant will start in early November, according to Company President Charles S. McGill, with completion expected by May, 1966.

An initial work force of 25 is expected to be increased to 60 production employees during the first year's operation, and eventual possibilities include adding space to accommodate up to 200 people the company stated. Only 20 acres of the 58-acre site are being used in the initial construction.

The new Culver Bearings Division will represent an investment of a half-million dollars in land and buildings, the company said. Necessary new machinery will eventually increase this to two million dollars, plus equipment to be moved from the parent bearing division plant in Valparaiso. Moving this equipment will allow for further expansion with new machinery especially adaptable to the bearing types to be produced here in the future. The Culver plant will have multiple spindle automatic screw machines, heat treat facilities for hardening and carburizing, plus grinders and tool room.

Robert D. Anderson, McGill executive vice president, said that initially small roller bearing CAMROL cam follower production would be transferred to Culver. As facilities are expanded and new people trained, all production of this McGill innovation will be moved from Valparaiso to Culver. It is expected that the

OATMEAL TO THE RESCUE

When a million-gallon water tank developed a leak at a Florida plant, oatmeal was used to save the day, reports Chemical Week, McGraw-Hill publication. Skin-divers dove into the tank and released three cases of oatmeal near the crack in the tank. Water leakage pulled the meal in to the crack, where it swelled and plugged the leak.

"Drums Of Death" To Be Staged By Culver Seniors

Curtain Time Is
8 P.M. October 2

The Senior Class of Culver High School will present a three-act mystery play on Saturday evening, Oct. 2. The play, entitled "Drums of Death," will be staged at 8 p.m. in the Culver Community Building. Admission will cost 75 cents for children under 12, and $1.25 for adults. Tickets may be purchased from any C.H.S. Senior or at the door.

The plot centers around the disappearance of an elderly man who has in his possession a magic stone from Africa. Flying rat-tail files, lurking shadows, and a hooded monster add to the effects of the dim lighting and a suspenseful evening of complete pandemonium.

The cast includes: The man in charge of the Bailey property is Sheldon Harley, otherwise known as Mike Hansen. Larry Boetsma plays the part of Jules, a Haitian negro. The part of the County Sheriff, Newton Cooper, is acted by Larry Banks. The midnight visitor who appears is Dr. Cameron, alias Chip Wallstead. Mr. Bailey's granddaughter is played by Janet Manchester. Celeste, an octoroon servant, is played by Loretta Berger. Mrs. Oakley, the housekeeper, is played by Ronetta King. A distant relative of the family is Eugenia Bowels, who in real life is Sharyl Welsh. Mrs. Gillette, Mr. Bailey's sister, is played by Pammy Fish. Bringing up the rear is Hollister Thompson, who takes the part of Amelia Gillette. She plays Mrs. Gillette's 18-year-old granddaughter.

The stage manager is Jim Easterday. His assistants are Nick Hartz and Dean Smith.

The adult directors are Larry Crabb and Miss Mary Ann Charlton.

Special lighting and unique sound effects will be used to assure everyone a very terrifying evening.

Legal Transfers Granted For 22 North Bend Pupils

The school officials of Culver Community Schools on Tuesday received notice that the State General Commission on Education had granted legal transfers for twenty-two North Bend pupils to attend school in the Knox-Washington-Center School Corporation this year. The requests of five other pupils for transfers were refused by the State Commission.

In July the School Board had granted legal transfers for fifteen pupils of the North Bend area so that they might continue to attend Knox High School. The School Board at that time turned down requests for transfers which had been submitted for thirty-two other pupils. The parents whose requests had been refused then appealed to the State General Commission.

With the action of the State officials, thirty-seven pupils of the North Bend area now are eligible to attend the schools of the Knox-Center-Washington School Corporation as legal transfers. Actually all of these pupils represent homes from which pupils have been in the Knox Schools in recent years. Thus the transfer group does not represent a loss of pupils who have been attending school at Culver.

Two pupils who live in Washington Township in the Ober area also were granted transfers from the Knox-Center-Washington Schools to Culver. The parents of Linda Shirell, grade nine, and of Jerry Eskridge, grade three, had appealed to the State General Commission after their transfer requests had been refused by Knox school officials. These two pupils had been attending Culver Schools with the parents paying the private transfer costs during the past few years.

According to Superintendent

Frank McLane, the enrollments in the local schools on September 15 were as follows. Aubbeenaubee School — Kindergarten, 14; Grades 1-6, 115; Grades 7-8, 44; and Grades 9-12, 76; Totals 249. Culver School — Kindergarten, 79; Grades 1-6, 499; Grades 7-8, 187; Grades 9-12, 287; Totals, 1052. The total enrollment for the two schools is 1301. The initial enrollments a year ago for Kindergarten to Grade 12 totaled 1274 for the two schools. The largest enrollment increase this year is in the seventh to twelfth grades at Culver, with the enrollment increasing from 441 a year ago to 474 at present. With last year's large sixth grade at Culver moving to the seventh grade level this fall, the enrollment in Grades one to six at Culver has dropped from 521 last fall to 499 at present.

Aubbeenaubee's enrollments for Kindergarten through Grade 12 have increased from last year's total of 243 to 249 at present. The Kindergarten there dropped from 19 to 14, but Grades one to 12 increased from 224 to 235.

Definite plans and committees were announced for the 1964 Tri Kappa "Christmas in August Bazaar."

Anita Marsh Weds LeRoy Mahler In Delong Ceremony

Miss Anita Marsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marsh, Indianapolis, and LeRoy (Butch) Mahler, also of Indianapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mahler of Monterey, exchanged wedding vows at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, Aug. 28, at the Delong Methodist Church, with Rev. Norris King of Leiters Ford officiating before the altar graced with baskets of white gladioli and mums, large palm leaves, and large pink bows.

Miss June Zechiel of Monterey offered traditional nuptial music, including the "Wedding March," and accompanied Rayna Reinhold of Leiters Ford as she sang, "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride selected a sleeveless floor-length sheath gown of white satin, highlighted with an overblouse of white lace delicately rimmed with tiny white tear drops and seed pearls. Her bridal veil fell gracefully from a crown headpiece fashioned of white puffed satin, trimmed with iridescent sequins and tiny white pearls. She wore white accessories and carried a cascade arrangement of white mums centered with a corsage of pink mums and ribbons.

Miss Linda Carl was maid of honor and wore a sleeveless treet-length gown of pink satin, fashioned with a gathered skirt and an overblouse of white cotton lace. Her short veil of pink net was topped with a flowered headband. She carried a cascade bouquet of white mums with pink ribbons.

The bridesmaids, Misses Carol and Claudene Marsh, sisters of the bride, wore lower girls and wore white cotton dresses and white accessories.

Miss Judy Marsh, sister of the bride, wore a pink dress and large pink hair bow and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

John Mahler, served his brother as best man. Ushers were Denis Mahler, brother of the bride, and LeRoy Marsh, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Marsh chose a two-piece suit of light blue nubby rayon with navy blue accessories. She wore a corsage of white mums and pink ribbons.

Mrs. Mahler wore a black cot-to dress with beige accessories. Her corsage was identical to that worn by the bride's mother.

The grandmothers, Mrs. Golda Walbridge of Eau Clair, Mich., and Mrs. Bessie Mahler of Monterey, and a friend of the bride, Mrs. Crackle of Indianapolis, were honored with corsages of white mums and pink ribbons.

Immediately following the ceremony, a dinner and reception was held for 150 guests at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

For their honeymoon through the southwestern part of Indiana, the bride wore a navy blue dress and the pink corsage from her wedding bouquet. The newlyweds are now residing at 7125 New Augusta Drive, New Augusta, Ind.

Guests attending the wedding were from Indianapolis, South Bend, Mishawaka, Rochester, Monterey, Culver, Lawton, Leiters Ford, Granger, and Elkhart, Ind., and the states of Michigan, Iowa, Pennsylvania, and Colorado.

ing of two gas-fired heaters and blowers which would be heavily used during the height of the soybean and corn harvest season.

Two weeks later, the Town Board, after investigating the operation of similar equipment at nearby locations, voted to deny the request, noting that excessive noise would be an unjustified irritant to residential property owners in that area.

Mrs. Ruth Lennen, Town Clerk-Treasurer, said she notified Weiger of the Town Board's action by telephone, and later confirmed the telephone conversation by letter.

Ernest Carter, building commissioner, said no building permit was requested for the work taking place at the elevator.

The town ordinance governing building permits says, in part: "No structure, improvement or use of land may be altered, changed, placed, erected or located on platted or unplatted lands, unless the structure, improvement, or use, and its location conform with the Master Plan and ordinances of the Town, and an Improvement Location Permit has been issued." Penalties for violation of the ordinance provide for a fine from $10 to $300.

The Town Board, meeting on Monday night, heard recommendations from Jim Talley, local electrician, for extensive improvements at an estimated cost of $900 to one of two lift-well pump systems which supply the sewer treatment plant. This includes installation of 200-ampere service, installation of new pumps, and new control boxes. The board took the recommendations under advisement for further study.

Also related to the problem of the lift-well pumping system, which was knocked out of service for several hours during a recent storm, was a letter from the Board of Trustees of Culver EUB Church. The letter asked for compensation in the sum of $50 for alleged damage resulting when the sanitary sewer backed up into the church basement. The Town Board expressed regret over the sewer system failure, and took the request under advisement.

McGill Plant

Culver division will be complete, with stocking and shipping facilities, under a plant manager who will be transferred along with a limited — number (four or five) key supervisory people from Valparaiso. Construction and operation of the new division will be under direct supervision of Mr. Williamson.

Design engineering, sales and general management functions will remain in Valparaiso, where McGill employs over 850 people to produce anti-friction bearings and electrical specialties in two modern, well equipped plants. Combined sales of both Bearing and Electrical Divisions approximate 16 million dollars annually.

McGill Manufacturing Company, Inc., was founded near the turn of the century by the late James H. McGill in Chicago and moved to Valparaiso in 1905. The original name was The Crescent Company. The first products were essentials of the growing electrical industry such as lamp bulb guards, cord spools, drop cord adjusters, socket handles, baby gasoline torches, coloring fluid for bulbs, etc. The well-known line of Levolver switches was developed in 1918, along with the beginning of what is now the most complete line of quality stationary and portable lamp guards on the market today.

In the early 1920's the McGill Metal Company was formed and made cast bronze precision ball retainers for the old Super Strom ball bearings which were used extensively in machine tools and early custom-built automobiles. When the Strom Company was sold to the Marlin Rockwell Corporation, this source of extra quality bearings was interrupted and these same precision minded customers persuaded McGill to add a bearing division in 1925.

Ball and roller bearings were developed under the SCHUBERT trademark and later changed to the company name of McGill as the extra precision quality bearing line for the machine tool industry. In 1931, the MULTIROL bearing, the first self-contained full type needle roller bearing was introduced and patented. At about this time McGill designed and patented the first roller bearing cam follower now trademarked CANROL.

In the decades that followed, GUIDEROL, the first heavy-duty rollers; CAGEROL retainer-type roller bearings with center-guided rollers; CAGEROL retainer-type SPHERE-ROL, the first single row roller bearings and most recently, spherical roller bearing with built-in seals each contributed to making McGill a nationally recognized source of precision bearings.

McGill bearings have won exceptionally high acceptance among manufacturers of precision industrial machinery, hydraulic pumps, machine tools, earthmoving and construction machinery to name but a few customer categories. The McGill customer list includes hundreds of types of products which require high-quality, dependable bearings. During World War II, McGill was a major producer of tank bearings and has continued as a source of precision bearings for the nation's military and space equipment.

The Electrical Division has also steadily expanded its product line with the addition of toggle, snap-action and a variety of types of switches as well as lamp guards, sockets and lamp changers. The McGill trademark Levolver has been synonymous with quality among electrical wholesalers and contractors for over 50 years. Recently McGill has successfully invaded the original equipment market to put switches on washers, dryers, movie lights, outboard motors, electric fans, ovens, etc.

McGill recently held an open house to show over 4,500 employees' families and friends the newest bearing plant addition of 55,000 square feet. This was the fourth step in a planned expansion program that included a new heat treating building in 1961, a plant addition of 45,000 square feet in 1957 and new offices and manufacturing space in 1953.

The Bearing Division has over 20 full-time direct company representatives in principal cities throughout the United States. In addition McGill bearings are sold through leading authorized bearing distributors here and abroad.

Electrical Division products are also advertised and sold on a national basis through a score of representatives and hundreds of electrical wholesalers.

McGill bearings and switches are used by leading manufacturers of a wide variety of well-known products from appliances to aircraft. After 60 years of growth, McGill continues to emphasize new product development for ever increasing markets. There are many reasons to believe that growth to date is just a beginning.

Music and Art Group hold Luncheon Meeting at Wizard of Oz Lodge

The first fall meeting of the Music and Art Group of Culver City Club was held Thursday afternoon with a luncheon at the Wizard of Oz Lodge at Bass Lake. The officers of the group, Mrs. Wallace Helber, Mrs. Hampton Oswell, and Mrs. George Hardt, were in charge of arrangements.

Following the luncheon Mrs. Oswell introduced the owner of the Lodge, Harry N. Baum, who entertained the 22 members attending. Mr. Baum, whose father as L. Frank Baum, author of "The Wizard of Oz," and other famous children's books, gave a most interesting talk about his father and about his writing this first American fairy story and about other books he has written including, "Mother Goose in Prose," which was illustrated by the famous artist, Maxwell Parish. Mr. Baum stated that his father began writing when his mother-in-law heard him telling his own children stories and suggested that he should write the stories.

Mrs. Baum was then introduced and she presented a group of piano solos. Mrs. Baum is a talented pianist, having attended the Cincinnati Conservatory and graduated from the Cosmopolitan School of Music at Chicago where she also taught for 16 years. She is very active in lyric opera circles in Chicago. She is founder and chairman of the Musicians Club of Women Opera Series and was instrumental in promoting the singing of operas in English for the benefit of young Chicago singers. She stated that she is especially interested in Russian music and began her program with two Rachmaninoff preludes after which she played two Scriabin Etudes, a Chopin Nocturne, a Liszt Waltz, and concluded with a Chopin Scherzo.

Mrs. Boswell announced that the next meeting of the group will be Oct. 21 in the home of Mrs. Troy L. Babcock. Mrs. Wilber Taylor, chairman of the annual Art Show sponsored by the Music and Art Group, announced that the Group will sponsor another Art Show in April and artists in the community are urged to be working on new pictures to be exhibited at that show.

THE SCHOOLBELL

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE PRESS CLUB OF CULVER HIGH SCHOOL

By Cindee Lemar, Mike Hansen, Linda McAllister, and Sara Hoesel

Here we are fans, now orbiting the earth in Gemini VI. Every 90 minutes we pass over Culver High School. As we look down we see some very unusual happenings.

George Jewell seemed to have a swinging party Saturday night. Who offered you that bushel of apples, George? Norm Johnson, one of the new juniors, was there and brought his steady from Lakeville. We were glad to meet her, Norm.

It seems there are 3 senior guys that are going Hollywood. Mike Hansen, Larry Banks, and Larry Boetsma seem to be hits as far as school plays are concerned. Speaking about the play, we heard that it was going to be a mystery but the cast is a bunch of comedians. Chip Wallstead is the coolest monster in the play. We know you want to steal the show, Chip, but do you have to go as far as ripping your pants.

We hear Phil Scruggs almost breathed his last when he fell (chair and all) in Miss Charlton's class. It really seemed to shake Miss Charlton up. Were you hurt badly, Phil?

Linda and Mike, when you plan on going on a picnic, also plan on telling the others involved. It might help.

Marsh, tell us who was that cool looking "school teacher" you dated this summer.

Lots of cool things happen in this world but Larry Washburn, why does your car drive by itself? For more info, contact Ron or Dan.

Carol Kline, have you "run into" any cool looking senior guys lately?

I hear that Susie Riestler's party turned into a football game. Susie, is that the extent of your original party ideas?

You'd think that by the time kids are seniors they could fold a flag but it seems Marsha and Steve Guise haven't yet mastered that trick. You never can tell about some of the seniors.

Leave it to the class of '67" to find a new and better kind of class ring. It seems they have chosen oval-shaped rings this year. Bet you can't wait huh, kids!!!

As you look around the halls of CHS you'll see many sad-faced junior and senior girls. Could it be that they already miss the class of "65"? Never fear kids, they'll all be back around Thanksgiving.

Say Randy, we hear you don't believe that Beowulf killed Grendel's mother. Don't you believe in sea-monsters?

Pam Fish, why are you complaining that you'll not graduate this year? Is it because you're taking chemistry, math, and civics? Don't worry, next year's seniors are of a good sort. You'll get along with them real well.

Sorry folks that our static registers are weakening and we are losing contact with CHS's gossip club. See you next week.

SPORTS

By Robert Vondra

Last night, under threatening skies, the Culver cross-country team swept to an easy victory over the Triton Trojans by a score of 23 to 38.

Here are the placings and times of the two teams:

CULVER

- No. 1, Hatten, 10:04
- No. 2, Davis, 10:30
- No. 3, Lowry, 10:43
- No. 4, Babcock, 10:46
- No. 5, Crow, 10:51
- No. 6, Jewell, 11:06
- No. 7, K. Haenes, 11:09

TRITON

- No. 1, Yaniss, 9:58
- No. 2, Zinn, 10:41
- No. 3, Moriarity, 11:36
- No. 4, Mullens, 11:46
- No. 5, White, 11:05

In Culver's previous two meets, they were defeated at Rochester by a score of 25 to 30, and won over Argos by a score of 18 to 38.

Coach Stegemoller has started a 10:15 club and a 10:30 club for the outstanding members of the crosscountry team. So far Paul Hatten is the only runner who has run a race in 10:15 or under, and Gary Davis is the only runner who has run in 10:30 or under.

The cross-country team works as hard, or maybe harder, than other teams, and deserves some attention. And as in other sports, the team is always helped by the encouragement of the fans. So please come out and show your school spirit.

CLASS NEWS

FRESHMEN: At the freshman class meeting, the class decided that their dues will be $1.00 per semester. The freshmen won't be selling fudge this year but will be having a dinner, along with the sophomore class. They also discussed the idea of going to the dunes on a class trip, but this was vetoed because of transportation difficulties.

Mr. Hooley is Interviewed

By Bob Vondra

The new Junior High social studies teacher and assistant basketball coach for Culver this year is Mr. Hooley, a recent graduate of Manchester College.

Besides playing varsity baseball and intramural basketball at Manchester, Mr. Hooley was also on the varsity basketball team in high school.

Mr. Hooley and his wife, Cathy, who is the elementary school secretary, live in Culver and find it to be "a wonderful place to live". This will be Mr. Hooley's first year of teaching and, from the remarks of junior high students and from the B-team basketball players, he's started his career off in a proper manner.

Visitation Days

By Lyn Mackey and Carin Manchester

Culver Public Schools, grades 1-6, had their visitation days on Sept. 14 and Sept. 16. Grades 1, 3, and 5 were represented on the 16th. The hours for the visitation were from 7 to 9 o'clock on both nights.

Visitation was for the purpose of providing an opportunity for parents to visit the teachers and see the class rooms.

The school urged parents to make good use of this time to get better acquainted with the Culver Elementary School system.

Roving Reporter

By Patti McCombs and Vicki McKinney

Recently a group of students at Culver were asked their opinions of the draft. There were mixed emotions concerning this as you will see.

Mary K. — If I were a guy I wouldn't mind fighting for my country if I knew it was doing any good. However, I don't think it has accomplished anything in Viet Nam.

Marilee H. — I don't think it's fair.

Diane N. — I don't see why we should send our boys over to get killed. I think it is silly.

Mike K. — No American should be forced to fight for his country but if freedom and liberty are threatened, then I am all for the draft.

Linda M. — I think it's pretty sad when people of America aren't willing and actually try to get out of fighting for their country.

Marlene M. — I think it is wrong to send our guys to Viet Nam because they aren't really defending their country, they are dying for another country. If it ever comes to a war in the United States then I think the draft is okay.

Elaine E. — The age limit is so low — next thing you know Culver High will be an all girls school. You can fight for your country at 18, but you can't even vote until you are 21.

Steve M. — I think that if the government must draft someone they should take the school dropouts and other able Americans. Leave the college students in college.

Patty O. — I think the draft system is unfair the way it is now, and if it continues, it should be changed.

Linda B. — I feel the draft is somewhat unfair in that so far it has proven nothing — but I feel great patriotism associated with the attitude of the eligibilit trying as hard as they can to escape time and time again in disgrace to our country and t it.

Bill P. — Being a humble person, I would like to say that I believe the draft is probably the only way for getting recruits because that was the judgment of the Congress and who am I to argue with them.

Mark K. — (Listen to the record "Eve of Destruction" sung by Barry McGuire.) In my opinion the draft is necessary because there are so many eighteen, nineteen, and twenty year olds that aren't married or aren't going to college and just aren't doing anything.

Donna G. — I hate it! It is stupid.

Linda F. — I wish it was needed!

Mr. Crabb — Something that necessary during this period of history. A good place for a high school drop-out or any other young man who has nothing to do and might otherwise get in trouble.

Carin M. — I think it is a good idea because it gives the boys a chance to have better training. Boys from college or married, NO!

Cindee L. — I think it should only be for men who want to go not just anyone they pick.

John K. — It's alright with me as long as I'm not drafted.

Susie R. — I'm glad I'm not a boy!

Rex S. — I think they ought to quit a couple of years from now.

Joan K. — It's okay as long as Mr. Ulrich doesn't get drafted.

Barb M. — It's necessary but icky.

Gary D. — When I come home I'll let you know!

Mrs. England — It is the present and immediate answer to John F. Kennedy's "ask not what your country can do for you, but what you can do for your country".

Plans were made for the coming school year. Refreshments were served by Mrs. McCarthy, assisted by Mrs. David McCarthy.

Academy Sports

Culver Military Academy will tempt to throw off the disappointment of its opening game loss and win its first football contest of the season Friday night at Bremen High School.

But Coach Russ Oliver has some reason to be concerned about the outcome since Bremen and Hobart River Forest, who unexpectedly ruined (13-7) the Academy's football debut last Saturday, have a great deal in common.

In the first place, neither Bremen or River Forest have ever beaten the Eagles in past seasons. Both teams are small, scrappy, and always ready to score an upset. And neither team has done particularly well in this year's campaign.

The Academy fully expected to hand River Forest its third straight defeat at Hobart last Saturday. The Hobart team hadn't scored against its first two opponents this season, and when Culver rushed away to a touchdown on the opening play of the second period, things looked rosy. But something happened. An Academy end dropped a touchdown pass in the end zone. Then River Forest sprung halfback Sam deMontes on a 46-yard touchdown jaunt just before the end of the first half and the score was tied 7-7.

The second half was one of frustration as two Culver drives ended with fumbles inside the River Forest 20-yard line. River Forest supplied the clincher in the third period when Jim Lee went over from the 10-yard line for the final 13-7 score.

Friday's game at Bremen begins at 7:30 p.m.

NAMED SEMI-FINALISTS IN NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION

Eleven Culver Military Academy students have been named semi-finalists in National Merit scholarship competition.

The 11 Culver students were among the top 19 semi-finalists from among all of the independent boarding schools in the seven-state Midwest Region. The total of Culver students was higher than last year when seven Academy cadets reached the semi-final stage of competition for highly coveted National Merit Scholarships.

Among the Culver students, who now move into competition to become finalists, are:

Wayne A. Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen L. Marshall, 40 West Shore Drive, Culver, and Louisville, Ky.

Peter W. Rossow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rossow, Jr., American Embassy, Rome, Italy, and grandson of Mrs. Robert Rossow, of Culver.

Timothy E. Rouch, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Estelle E. Rouch, Royal Center, Ind.

W. W. Strait To Head CMA Science Department

Walter W. Strait, Eppley chairholder in physics, has been appointed chairman of the 11-man science department at Culver Military Academy.

As part of his department, Strait will have under him Dr. George O. Johnson, who has been recalled from retirement to serve as Eppley chairholder in chemistry, and two new instructors, Darrell H. Beach, a chemistry teacher for eight years in Mount Clemens, Mich., and Kenneth D. Laser, formerly a biology instructor at Hazel Park, Mich.

Strait in 1961 became the first permanent chairholder in physics under an endowed program set up by the Eugene C. Eppley Foundation, Omaha, Neb. He is well known as a physics teacher, having served for two years as a consultant to the national PSSC physics committee and as an instructor and visiting lecturer at National Science Foundation institutes at the University of Colorado.

The new science department chairman was born in Albion, Mich., and educated at Albion College. He has a master's degree from the University of Michigan and has done graduate work at U.C.L.A., Case Institute, and Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me. Strait taught in the Brooklyn and Athens (Mich.) public schools before joining the Culver faculty in 1934. He formerly headed the independent schools' science committee and was a consultant to the National Education Association science committee.

Dr. Johnson formerly headed the science department at Culver and was Eppley chairholder in chemistry from 1958 until retirement. He traveled in Europe and returned to teach science during the last summer session. Dr. Johnson has taught at Culver since 1931. He earned his doctorate degree at the University of Wisconsin and has continued graduate study at several universities, most recently at Cornell.

Beach is from Pontiac, Mich., and was a member of the L'Anse Creuse High School faculty at Mount Clemens since 1957. He was a summa cum laude graduate of Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant, and he earned his master's degree at the University of Michigan. He has held National Science Foundation and General Electric Company fellowships and has done graduate work during summer sessions at six colleges and universities. Beach has been listed in "Who's Who in American Education" since 1961.

Laser is from Rodney, Mich., and he received his bachelor's degree from Ferris State College, Big Rapids, Mich. He completed work on his master's degree in biology at the State College of Iowa in 1963. He has attended National Science Foundation institutes at four universities since 1961. Laser has taught in the public school systems at Hazel Park and Jackson, Mich., prior to his appointment at Culver.

SELECTED TO APPEAR IN "OUTSTANDING YOUNG WOMEN OF AMERICA"

Dr. Lynne Lee Stettbacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stettbacher of Culver, has been selected to appear in the 1966 edition of "Outstanding Young Women of America," which is an annual biographical compilation of approximately 6,000 outstanding young women between the ages of 21 and 36.

These young women were chosen to be honored because of their contribution or achievements in community, civic, religious, business, professional or political activities.

The selection for inclusion in the publication is made by the Board of Advisory Editors based on nominations from women's organizations.

McMinn, Estey Receive CMA Appointments

Charles S. McMinn, a member of the faculty since 1927, has been named chairman of the history department at Culver Military Academy.

He replaces Col. Melvyn A. Estey, who has been appointed commandant of cadets.

Major General Delmar T. Spivey, USAF (ret.), Culver superintendent, said, in announcing the changes:

"Culver is fortunate to be able to place Col. Estey in the important post of commandant. He has had a distinguished career in the military, and he has also served the Academy in one of the key academic positions. As commandant, he will have the opportunity to draw on his experiences in both fields in supervising the military activities of 888 cadets.

"The change," General Spivey added, "also gives Culver an opportunity to utilize the leadership ability of Charles McMinn, a veteran teacher and a respected historian."

In addition to the appointment of Col. Estey and McMinn, General Spivey announced the selection of Dr. M. Paul Holsinger, a member of the faculty at Oregon State University, as Eppley Chairholder in History, and Donald R. Bivens, who formerly taught in the school system at Fredericktown, Ohio, as assistant instructor in history.

McMinn holds the rank of master instructor. He has a bachelor's degree from Westminster (Pa.) College and a master's degree in history from Northwestern University. He has also done advanced work in his field at Drew, Chicago, Harvard, and Columbia universities. He heads a department of 11 instructors who teach college preparatory courses required for graduation.

Col. Estey joined the Culver faculty as a history instructor in 1946, was for several years administrative assistant to the superintendent, and became chairman of the history department in 1959. He has a bachelor's degree from Dartmouth College and a master's degree from Boston University. Col. Estey served with the Marine Corps in the Pacific during World War II.

Dr. Holsinger is the second Oregon State University professor to fill the Eppley Chair of History, awarded annually to a distinguished college professor. He is a native of Philadelphia and a graduate of Duke University. Denver University has awarded him a master's and doctorate degree.

Dr. Holsinger held a National Defense Education Act fellowship at Denver for the study of American history from 1959 to 1962. He was a lecturer and teacher in history at Denver and at Black Hills Teachers College, Spearfish, S.D., before joining the Oregon State faculty. He has published articles on western history in several periodicals.

Bivens is a native of Columbus, Ohio, and a graduate of Kenyon (O.) College. He has a bachelor's degree in education and completed work on his master's degree at Ohio State University this year. He taught for two years at Fredericktown, Ohio, and is a member of the Medieval Academy of America.

Culver is the nation's largest independent secondary boarding school. A record enrollment of 888 students attend strictly college preparatory courses in grades eight through 12 from September to June.

Installation of officers was discussed and it was decided to make an amendment that Sophomores be allowed to join.

MA Receives Honor Naval School Rating

Culver Military Academy continues its position as an "honor naval school" according to an announcement today by the Department of the Navy.

The honor school designation, held by only a few institutions in the country, is based on an inspection of the Culver Summer Naval School's facilities and program during August. The Academy holds similar recognition from the U.S. Army for its winter program.

In a letter to Major General Belmar T. Spivey, Academy superintendent, the Navy's assistant chief of education and training, Rear Admiral Mason Freeman, said:

"The continuing high caliber of education and training afforded by your fine school contributes greatly to the proper guidance of many young men today. This preparation helps to fulfill the future needs of our country for responsible citizens in both civil life and the military."

The Summer Naval School is one phase of Culver's program during July and August. Because of Culver's "honor" designation, regular Navy personnel are assigned to help instruct more than 700 boys enrolled in the Naval School. The Summer Schools have an over-all enrollment of 1,724.

James G. Shaw Earns Air Medal For War Service

James Gleason Shaw, 27, crew member with the U. S. Seventh Fleet's Heavy Photographic Squadron 61 (VAP-61) which has been engaged in combat operations in Southeast Asia the past 15 months, has been awarded the Air Medal for meritorious service. He was one of 15 of the squadron's officers and men so honored.

Shaw, an aviation machinist's mate (J) second class, was cited "for meritorious achievement in aerial flight as a crew member flying in mixed wing aircraft in Heavy Photographic Squadron 61 during missions in support of combat operations in southeast Asia against the insurgent communist guerilla forces from May 22, 1964 to May 14, 1965. In the successful completion of such missions, Shaw contributed materially to the success of U. S. efforts in southeast Asia. His courage and devotion to duty in the face of hazardous flying conditions were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

Shaw attended Culver High School and completed the requirements for a high school diploma after entering the Navy in 1954. His Naval career includes periods of service at China Sea, Calif., Tulsa, Okla., Memphis, Tenn., and Sanford, Fla. He has also served in the Mediterranean, Singapore, and Japan, in addition to his present station in Guam, where he resides with his wife, Opal, and daughter, Cathy, who is nearly two. Shaw is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Shaw, 426 College Ave., Culver.

Rear Adm. Horace V. Bird, who presented the awards at formal ceremonies Sept. 3 at NAS Agana, VAP-61's home base, said: "Generally, reconnaissance work receives little recognition but as we in the military all know, the reconnaissance crews supply essential material needed by our military intelligence units to fight our war."

In addition to its combat missions, the VAP-61 has also carried out extensive peacetime photo mapping projects in the western Pacific.

Willard Snapp has received a music scholarship to Indiana University for both semesters of the current school year.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1935—

The annual Senior-Freshman Reception was an event of Friday evening and took place in the gymnasium of the high school. The affair was the first of a series of interclass school functions scheduled for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Evert Hoesel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McLane, and Miss Frances Mahan spent Saturday in Chicago.

One more step in the completion of the post office was taken Tuesday afternoon when the cornerstone was laid by the Grand Lodge of Masons of Indiana under auspices of the local lodge. A good sized crowd was present to witness the impressive ceremony.

SEPTEMBER 23, 1915—

Busy summer for your uncle S. C. Thurman. Besides building miles of gravel road all over Union Township, he has become the father of a daughter.

Dr. and Mrs. N. S. Norris took in the Fair at South Bend Friday and Saturday.

Jake Speyer celebrated his 4th birthday Tuesday by fishing — sitting out on the Lake from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. He got nine bass, a string of bluegills and redeyes, two large cold feet, a chill down his back, and a lovely bass voice.

With apples rotting on the ground, there doesn't seem to be any reason why there shouldn't be a barrel of hard cider in every farmer's cellar next winter.

HAPPY LANDING

Copyright 1965 Keister Advertising Service, Inc., Strasburg, Va.

This takes nerve! Imagine dropping into space with nothing but a "silk umbrella" between you and eternity! Yet men do it every day, and they trust that umbrella as we would trust our best friend.

Faith is something like that white parachute, as thousands upon thousands of Christians can testify. Faith upholds you and supports you, no matter how rough the going may be. Without faith in a loving God, man is very much alone . . . and man was never meant to deal with life's problems by himself.

Like the first parachute jump, faith isn't easy at the beginning. It takes courage to hand over the reins of one's life, but you can be sure of one thing . . . you'll always land on your feet. Strengthen your faith by attending the church of your choice.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SEPTEMBER 28 PUBLIC HEARING SET FOR MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES PLANNING

The South Bend-Elkhart Regional Mental Health Survey and Planning Committee will hold a public hearing on its proposed plan for mental illness and retardation services which relates to Elkhart, Marshall, Saint Joseph, and Starke counties. The hearing will be Tuesday, Sept. 28, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the South Bend Public Library.

The plan results from an effort which began only a year ago with a contract between the Indiana Department of Mental Health and United Community Services of St. Joseph County, Inc. The contract called for a survey of existing mental illness and mental retardation services and facilities to be conducted by United Community Services and from the survey a plan be drawn up for the four-county area providing for such services and facilities up to 1975.

From Marshall and Starke Counties they are: Russell Hippensteel, M.D.; Lloyd Beatty; Mrs. Lewis Hurford; Donald Patton; Mrs. Berna Edell and Rev. James Burroughs.

Culver Defeats Oregon-Davis By Score Of 3-2

By Bob Shirrell

Last Wednesday, Sept. 15, Culver defeated Oregon-Davis 3-2, at the Culver diamond. This is Culver's second win with one tie.

The first two Culver runs came in the first when Bruce Lindvall homered with Stu Lowry aboard. The other Culver run scored when, in the bottom of the seventh with the score tied, and the bases loaded, Steve McCombs hit a fly ball to center field and Brian Lindvall tagged up and raced home to score.

The first O-D run scored when Mike Schwenk tripled in the second and later scored on an error by the catcher. The other O-D run was scored by Wallace, the catcher, in the fourth inning.

Bruce Lindvall pitched a fine game and got his second victory of the season. Bruce struck out five and allowed only five hits. Schrider took the loss for O-D.

The next games are with Kewanee here on Thursday, Sept. 23, and with Aubbeenaubee on Monday, Sept. 27, also at Culver.

Extra base hits for O-D: 3B, Schwenk.

Extra base hits for Culver: HR, Bruce Lindvall.
