The Culver Jaycees, meeting last Thursday evening at the Eagles Lodge, gained three new members and voted to continue the Free Street Fair which has proved popular the past two years.

Among the guests of the evening were Jerry Wyman of the State Exchange Bank, sponsored by Ron McKee; Ron Hooley, a new teacher at Culver High School, sponsored by Ron Tusing; Jerry Brown, also of Culver High, sponsored by Jerry Wolfe; Bill Martin of Bell Telephone, and Harry LaPlace of AT&T, both sponsored by Bill Heck. The club learned that Chuck Hewitt, a former member, has been transferred to Indianapolis by his company.

Plans for formally welcoming McGill Manufacturing Co. to Culver were discussed at a meeting of the Jaycee Industrial Committee on Monday night at the home of Don Muehlhausen. Rodger Wise is chairman of the activity.

Bill Stubbs was requested to present plans for a church directory sign for erection at a prominent location, according to Verl Shaffer, chairman of this project. Co-Chairmen Ron McKee and Rodger Wise reported the participation of several Jaycees at the oral polio feeding on Sunday. The volunteers were Don Muehlhausen, Lance Overmyer, Bill Heck, Bill Martin, Roy Nicodemus, Joe Anderlohr, Kenny Miller, Bob Kline, Jim Beckhart, Jerry Wolfe, and Bill Snyder.

Among new projects considered by the membership were sponsorship of a youth music program, antique auction, and a professional basketball game. Latham Lawsons and Jerry Wolfe were named to represent the local club at a state government affairs meeting to be held in Anderson in October.

Ceiling Damage At Culver School Placed At $500

The cost of replacing the ceiling in the projection room at the Culver Community Schools will run about $500, according to School Supt. Frank McLane. About one-third of the plaster gave way last Thursday afternoon and crashed to the floor, causing slight damage to furniture in the 14x45-foot room.

Mr. McLane noted that it was fortunate that the room was not occupied when the ceiling fell, since the room is in use during the greater part of each school day.

Deteriorated metal lath was blamed for the mishap, which occurred in the older portion of the building built in 1921. Ceiling in other portions of this building — the Cafeteria and Room 12 — has already been replaced.

The room was taken out of service until workmen were able to remove the entire ceiling over the past weekend. Work will begin this weekend to install a new acoustical tile ceiling.

Dean Henderson Retires From The Academy

JOHN W. HENDERSON

Dean John W. Henderson, Culver Military Academy dean of admissions emeritus, retired from his position as consultant to the superintendent in parson affairs and in his work with Culver Clubs in Ohio, Detroit and Indianapolis effective Sept. 1. He is ending a 46-year, two month career with the Academy, and he is beginning work as consultant in alumni and patron development for Interlochen Arts Academy and National Music Camp at Interlochen, Mich., in a $25 million fund raising program.

Maj. Gen. Delmar T. Spivey said on Dean Henderson's retirement, "It is impossible for me to overstate the tremendous contribution John Henderson has made to Culver over the years. He has literally lived Culver in his every thought and action, and I know that everyone here shares with me the inadequacy of words to sum up the contribution he has made to the Academy."

"Although he is retiring from Culver, it is like John Henderson to continue to work as eagerly and untiringly as ever. While John's efforts will be devoted to some other fine institutions fortunate to secure his experience and wisdom, I know that Dean Henderson's devotion will always be to Culver. Speaking for everyone at Culver, I can only add that this feeling is mutual."

Dean Henderson is known to thousands of Culver alumni and patrons primarily because of his work as dean of admissions. After greeting a prospective cadet and his parents, Dean Henderson closely followed the progress of the cadet's career at Culver and in the years following graduation.

He came to Culver in 1919 as secretary of the Y.M.C.A., which played a large part in cadet activities for many years. He served as "Y" secretary until he went into admissions work in 1932. He was named director of admissions in 1934 and dean of admissions in 1951. He has also held the positions of commandant of the Culver Woodcraft Camp, director of enrollment and publicity and chairman of the scholarship committee.

When he retired as dean in 1959, he was given the title of dean of admissions emeritus, and he remained on the staff as special assistant to the superintendent. He has continued to work with the Culver Fathers Association, founded in 1936, and Mothers Club, founded in 1959. Dean Henderson helped establish both organizations.

Troop 290 met at the Culver Methodist Church Monday, Sept. 27. Preopening game was Dodge Ball. The Panthers served as service patrol. The Scoutmaster, Greg Easterday and Carl Strang showed slides on their recent trip to Philmont Scout Ranch.

The Camporee last weekend was very successful with 18 in attendance and the troop was awarded a blue ribbon.

Do you want to earn a "Rugged Road to Adventure" patch? It's easy. Just bring a new member to next Monday's meeting.

Next Monday we will hold Troop elections. This is very important. Give serious consideration to the Scout best qualified to hold an office in your patrol.

DEER HUNTING LICENSES AVAILABLE NOW AT COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE

Deer hunting licenses are now available at the County Clerk's Office in Plymouth according to Harvey E. Phillips.

Deer hunting season dates for bow and arrow are from sunrise, Oct. 23 to sunset Nov. 20. One deer of either sex can be shot by bow and arrow.

Gun season dates are from sunrise, Nov. 25, to sunset, Dec. 4. One buck with antlers (three inches or more in length) can be shot with a gun by each deer hunter issued a license.

Persons desiring to hunt in Military Reservations must have their application mailed into the Department of Conversation by Oct. 4.

Fall days mean fewer daylight hours, says the Chicago Motor Club, and that means trickier driving conditions during the late afternoon and early evening. The time when afternoon sun fades into evening is a dangerous period for motorists. Visibility is not as good as it sometimes seems, and the low sun creates a glare problem. Be extra alert during twilight driving hours.

California Deaths

Editor, THE CITIZEN:
Gertrude Siepmann Bradshaw of Davis, Calif., just called me to tell us that her sister, Johanna Siepmann, died at 3 o'clock this afternoon at a hospital in Davis, Calif. She had been in the hospital 13 weeks. After cremation her remains will be interred at Davls.

I thought maybe The Citizen should print a notice of her death since Siepmann's had been a prominent family of long residence in Culver, and have many friends there yet.

Also last week I received notice of the death of Paulette Bleyer Lester, of Sepulveda, Calif. The Bleyers lived in Culver some years ago and should be remembered there.

We are deeply grieved over the passing of these two girls who were both former neighbors of ours and have visited us since they left Culver.

Rex and I are real happy here now near our children and grandchildren, although we felt very badly at selling our home and leaving Culver and our friends there. However, we have made many nice new friends here, and we are having a wonderful life of leisure and fun.

Give our regards to everyone. We enjoy The Citizen and the news of what will always seem home to us.

Sincerely,
MARY MAWHORTER

AREA TEACHER MEETING HELD

One hundred teachers, principals, and superintendents from Northern Indiana discussed "Conditions of Work to Attract High Quality Teachers" Monday, Sept. 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the Culver High School gymnasium.

Mr. Earl Wood, Director of Administrative Services, of the Indiana State Teachers Association, discussed laws passed by the 1965 Indiana General Assembly affecting sick leave, tenure, retirement, salaries, and working conditions for teachers.

A panel consisting of Mr. Larry Crabb, Culver; Mr. Boyd Reutebuch, Winamac; and Mrs. Ruth Shanks, president of the Culver Community Teachers Association assisted during the question and answer period.

SESQUICENTENNIAL MEDALLION DESIGNED BY WARNER WILLIAMS

Culver Military Academy Artist-in-Residence Warner Williams has been informed that he has won the competition and the $1,000 prize for designing the Indiana Sesquicentennial medallion. Appointed to the Academy in 1940, Mr. Williams was one of five artists requested to submit sketches for the medallion. He was commissioned to send designs for both sides, and then it was decided to have the reverse side carry the official seal of the state of Indiana.

The face, called the obverse, which Mr. Williams created, will have a design showing a pioneer log cabin in the low foreground. Radiating from this will be a sunburst pattern which leads to an arc of structures which represent agriculture, commerce and industry. A row of large concrete grain storage silos will be on the left. The center will show modern architectural forms which compose the business centers of the larger cities of Indiana. Steel mills with smokestacks, at the right, will symbolize Indiana industry. The obverse will carry the words and dates as a circular border, State of Indiana Sesquicentennial, 1816-1966.

Bronze medals will be struck in two sizes. One will be about six inches in diameter for official presentation, and a three-inch size will be produced to be sold to the public.

ELECTED TO MEMBERSHIP IN BOY SCOUT COUNCIL

Major General Delmar T. Spivey, superintendent of Culver Military Academy, has been elected to membership in the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

As a national council member, General Spivey officially represents the Tri-Valley Council, according to J.A. Brunton, Jr., chief Scout executive.

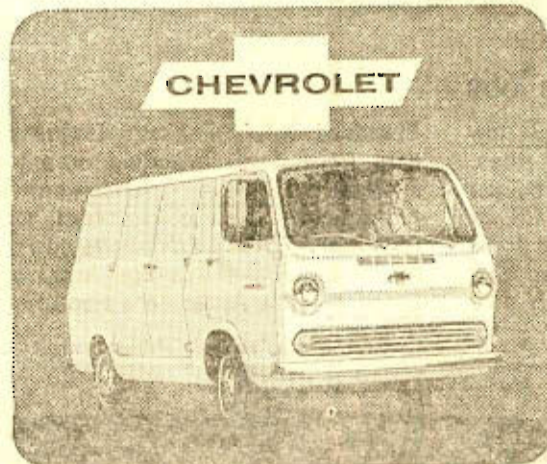

General Spivey has been interested in Scouting since his own experiences in the program as a boy. He recently was awarded the Silver Antelope award for his key contributions to Scouting.

Silver Indians Defeat Kewanna and Aubbee

By Bob Shirrell
Last Thursday, Sept. 23, the Silver High School baseball team defeated Kewanna by a score of 7-2 at Culver. This victory ends the 37-game winning streak for Kewanna and makes the home-ud's record two wins and one the last inning, the Kewanna team, which was four runs behind, came up with two triples, a double, and three runs. That effort was almost good enough to tie the score.

Bruce Lindvall and Terry Gentry led the Culver team at the plate. Bruce went two for four, doubled, tripled, and scored three times. Terry Gentry went three for three and doubled. In all, the Silver team collected a fine total of 11 hits.

Tom Talbott led the Kewanna team by going thru for four, tripling, and scoring twice. Bruce Lindvall pitched for Culver, got his second victory of the season. Bruce raised his total record during the fall season to 6 by striking out nine extra-base hits for Kewanna: McColey, Byfield, 3B. Ley, and Gentry.

The Perfect Girl

By Bruce Lindvall and Larry Banks
There is much more to being the perfect girl than one may realize. As you'll probably agree, the ideal girl should be beautiful. The perfect girl should have long blonde hair and large blue eyes and she should be about five foot, five inches tall. However, beauty is only skin deep. There are other things our perfect girl must include, and one of these is personality. She has to be able to get along with all types of people in all kinds of situations. A ready smile and a friendly word are her greatest virtues. Our perfect girl doesn't have to be a genius, but she must be above average and be inquisitive enough to never be satisfied with her present intelligence. The perfect girl takes an active part in as many extra-curricular activities as her school work permits, and she always enjoys serving others. She is also a very "out-door" type person and always enjoys a good softball game, a long horseback ride, or some other sport. The perfect girl also attends church regularly, and puts into practice her church training. So you see, the perfect girl's physical features and her wonderful personality go together to make one gorgeous person.

CLUB NEWS

By Linda Baker
Here's a little review of what has been taking place in our school organizations and a peek at what is to come.

The STUDENT COUNCIL met to vote on the issue of whether or not to move the good-student sign in the second-floor hall. The move was voted upon and passed. Watch for the new position.

The USHERS CLUB was just recently organized under Miss Lindvall. Take advantage of its services at the basketball games and other programs.

HAND DAY is September 25. It will be held at Manchester College. School funds from all over Indiana will be there to compete. We wish our hand lots of luck! (of course they won't need it).

The SUNSHINE SOCIETY is initiating the new Sunbeams September 29. There are 32 new members! We hope the "old sunshiners" won't be too hard on them. Remember, you were a Sunbeam once.

Well, that's about all that's taken place amidst the confusion of the exciting life of the CHS student body organizations. Bye for now, I have to rush off to a meeting!

Junior High Teacher Is Interviewed

By Virginia Shidler
I'm sure you all have noticed our new science and biology teacher rushing through the halls during our three-minute breaks. Well, this man is Mr. Brown from Attica, Ind. Mr. Brown graduated from Attica High School and then went on to get his Bachelors of Science Degree from Indiana State University. He is now living in Venetian Village with his wife, Shirley.

Mr. Brown has many hobbies, such as listening to good music, raising pets, tinkering with auto mechanics, and cooking fancy foods.

His favorite sports are football, basketball, and track. He took part in all of these activities during his high school days.

So far Mr. Brown has very much enjoyed his first year of teaching. He likes the faculty, the students, and Culver itself. We hope he continues to enjoy

"Kiddies' Korner"

By Holly Thompson and Patty Overmyer
This week in the Kiddie Korner we visited Mrs. Linhart and Mrs. McLane's first grade rooms. We talked to future seniors and found out just what they are interested in and what they most like about their first year of school.

Here are a few of the remarks we got from the cute little kids. Shawa Baker and Melody Singleton enjoy the games that the class play in their room.

Julie Sherwood and Ricky Warner like to work in the workbooks that they have.

Christy Dan and Timmy McFarland like to color and draw. Timmy also enjoys telling stories to the class.

Peter McKay and Carol Johnson have fun during the three recesses, when they can play on swings and the house bars.

Jack McCan and Bruce Musial seem to be interested in the sports angle of school. Jack likes to play football at recess and Bruce is the best marble shooter in the first grade. (Just ask him)

Dolly Dallahan and Alfred Burkett like to ride the bus to school. They also like to play games on the playground.

Andrea Busart and Scot McKinnis both like to color and some of their pictures were on the bulletin board, so they really are good at it.

Susan Oldham and James Hansen enjoy the stories that the class act out, such as "The Three Bears," "Goldilocks," and "Little Miss Muffet."

Linda Franz and James Eagle like to read in their "Tom and Betty" books.

Susan Campbell, Robert Bickel and Ken Bradley all like to write. They have writing books which they practice with everyday.

Catherine Brown and Robert Cultice like to sing songs and color pictures of animals.

Cindy Tusing and Laura McFarland enjoy their "Tom and Betty" books.

Patty Brown and Brian Faust like to read from the storybooks the class has in their room.

Tom Week and Tom Wigley think that recess is the best part of school, and we are almost willing to agree.

Pam McCune and Jodie Jones both like counting and they also enjoy learning to write new numbers.

Timmy Overmyer and Jackie Saunders are real food eaters, so their favorite part of school is the Cafeteria.

Susan Baker and Wendy Barrett both like the books they have to read.

Andy Guise and John Baker think that the rhyming words and the ABC's are fun.

Jim Warner and Paula Thompson have fun going to the cafeteria everyday.

Marl Measles and Rick Scott and Teri Napierkowski like to write their numbers on the blackboard.

Don Geisleman and Bob Hervitt think reading from the "Tom and Betty" books are always fun.

Roger Thews and Jim Butcher have different interests. Roger likes art the best and Jim enjoys their "Tag" book.

Kent Garrison and Becky Fields both agree that recess is the best part of any school.

Argentine Schools

By Cheryl Zink
All Argentine children begin school at the age of four. After the first year of "jardin de infantes", kindergarten, there are seven years of primary school. Then, they may choose to attend a normal, commercial, or private school.

Both boys and girls attend the normal school, which consists of five years. At the end of those five years, graduates are entitled to teach primary school. The commercial school lasts six years, is co-educational also, and is somewhat comparable to our high school. The private schools are either military or parochial.

Argentina has fine secondary schools, especially engineering, law, and medical institutes. There are more universities now under construction.

Culver as much as we like having him with us.

Each school has its own uniform. In the school I attended, which was a normal school, we wore white pinafores over our street clothes. For gym classes, the girls wore navy blue skirts and white blouses; the boys wore all white.

At this school, there were 13 subjects, all mandatory. They were similar to ours, except for a few such as child psychology and "practica", in which period each student was required to teach a class of primary students once a week.

Instead of changing classrooms, each grade had a designated room in which all classes were held.

Due to the lack of sufficient facilities in some of the schools, some students went in the mornings and others went in the afternoons.

Some of the less fortunate people in Argentina are illiterate. While I was there, they had "Alfabetizacion Day" on which day all the schools were required by the government to take a census of how many people in their areas could or could not read or write.

There is less personal contact between teacher and student there, and more respect is shown for the teachers. When a teacher enters or leaves a room, the students must stand. They must also stand when addressing a teacher.

As here, school sports are very popular. This year, the girls' volleyball team from my school went to the national championship game in Formosa. Other popular sports in school are soccer, track, basketball, softball, swimming, and rugby football.

There was also a folklore club every Saturday. But other than this and sports, there were few extra-curricular activities.

Academy Sports

Lafayette Central Catholic High School will open the home season for Culver Military Academy's football squad Saturday, and the Eagles are hoping that the large influx of parents expected for the contest will be enough inspiration for the Cadets to break into the victory column.

Despite optimism for a winning season this fall, the Academy 11 has dropped two straight games, the latest of which came Friday night at Bremen, where the Cadets were shellacked 27-0. Previously, the Eagles lost 13-7 at River Forest.

Now, the Eagles are looking ahead, particularly to Saturday when many parents will be on campus to observe Fathers Weekend. Lafayette Central Catholic, however, is expected to be an even rougher opponent than Bremen or River Forest. Game-time Saturday is 2 p.m.

Friday's game at Bremen was one of those contests in which things started off badly and got worse. Bremen, which had never beaten the Academy before but which has always been a difficult opponent, gained revenge in convincing style. The green and white scored late in the first period, and managed to log a touchdown each period after that. It was Bremen's fourth straight victory without a loss.

Bremen kept its attack moving on the ground and didn't throw a pass the entire game. The winners ground out 273 yards rushing while its defense never permitted Culver to advance deeper than the Bremen 41. The big run of the night was turned in by Ralph Young, who galloped 49 yards for his second TD of the game. Bremen's Jim Leeper and Mike Strang accounted for the other scores.

In other Academy sports action, the soccer team opened its nine-match schedule with a hard-fought 1-0 victory over Divine Heart Seminary. The Academy booters had many shots at the Divine Heart goal, and when they did score it was due to a mistake made by an otherwise effective goalkeeper. The Academy will host Argos at 4 p.m. Thursday in its next game.

HARVESTING WIND DAMAGED CORN

High winds and torrential rains have inflicted severe damage in many Hoosier cornfields. The resulting down corn will create additional harvesting problems, particularly in northwestern Indiana.

To harvest as much of the down corn as possible, say Purdue University agricultural engineers, farmers will have to experiment with several techniques to determine which works best.

In some fields corn may be down in all directions; in others, only in one direction. So, farmers will have to experiment to find the best direction to travel.

Harvesting in one direction only and returning empty may increase harvested yield and reduce plugging problems, according to the engineers. This method would require about 20 per cent more time than picking in both directions.

In some fields, it may be better to harvest the same rows in both directions to pick up missed stalks. Then, as corn dries or as a field with another variety is opened the harvesting procedure may have to be modified. Check field losses periodically to justify the changes, the engineers say.

Additional trash will result from the broken corn stalks. So, cleaning adjustments on the combine will require extra attention. If your picker is equipped with a fan, make sure it's working, the engineers add.

Snapping roll adjustment will be more important, too. The snapping rolls should be run as close to the ground as possible. Further, ground speed should be reduced to allow stalks time to straighten and enter the snapping area.

It's a good idea to reread the instruction manual as a refresher on critical adjustments and operating techniques.

The engineers suggest that farmers may want to check with their implement dealers about special attachments for harvesting down corn.

If corn is leaning across the rows, guards welded over drive wheels will prevent knocking down the next row. However, if you are using three or four-row equipment this may not be a problem.

Increasing snapping roll speed only may be helpful. Too, the aggressiveness of most snapping rolls can be increased by adding special pegs, capscrews or beads of weld.

Earlier than normal harvesting of the crop aimed at reducing further damage can add to drying and marketing problems, the engineers point out. Wetter corn requires longer to dry and may cut dryer capacities by 20 to 50 per cent.

If drying and storage facilities are not available, consider increased late season losses resulting from delayed harvesting as against high moisture discounts from early harvested corn.

These verses from Psalm 119 form the Golden Text for a Bible Lesson on "Unreality" to be read in Christian Science churches this Sunday. Passages from the Bible and the Christian Science textbook will bring out some of the different ways in which men dis-

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4)
For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Once this vine was just a seedling, struggling to survive. Now look at it! Each year it grows stronger and yields a greater harvest.

The Christian faith has grown and flourished like the vine. From the seeds of the early church, Christianity continues to spread its joyful message to people everywhere.

World-wide Communion Sunday is a day for Christians of every creed to meet in spirit at the Lord's Table. This annual event makes us deeply aware of our brotherhood within the Church whose truths we share.

Come and take part in this special service. Your prayers, and those of all Christians, will combine to strengthen the roots of God's vine throughout the world.

NIPSCO Requests Equal Low Rates in All Areas

Northern Indiana Public Service Company has asked the Public Service Commission of Indiana to approve rate schedules that will enable residential and commercial electric customers in suburban and unincorporated communities to enjoy the same low rates that are already in effect in the large metropolitan areas served by the utility.

Under the new plan, NIPSCO residential and commercial customers in this area will now pay the same rate for electric service regardless of whether they live in Bass Lake, Bruce Lake, Burr Oak, Elver, DeLong, Dixon Lake, Donaldson, Grass Creek, Grovertown, Hamlet, Hibbard, Inwood, Kewanna, Knox, Koontz Lake, Lake Maxinkuckee, Lake of the Woods, Leiters Ford, Mill Creek, Monterey, North Liberty, Ober, Ora, Plymouth, Pretty Lake, Teegarden, Toto, Tyner, Woodland or Wyatt.

Dean H. Mitchell, NIPSCO chairman and president, explained at several years ago the utility started a program of equalizing rates between the smaller communities of its service area and the larger population centers. The present reduction totaling some $392,000 is the final step in this program. NIPSCO residential electric customers in cities, towns and communities throughout our territory will now be on a uniform rate, he said.

Mitchell pointed out that the utility has an unbroken record of electric rate reductions dating from the end of World War I. He said that continued suburban and population growth, together with greater customer use of electricity and increased efficiency have enabled NIPSCO to reduce rates in spite of increased taxes and the rising costs of labor materials and services.

For example, residential and commercial electric space heating rates have recently been reduced to 1.2¢ per kilowatt hour, effective with the coming heating season.

In its petition to the Public Service Commission of Indiana, the utility asked that November, 1965, be set as the effective date of the equalized rates. Some 111,551 residential and commercial electric customers in 218 northern Indiana communities will benefit.

John E. Nickoloff, Plymouth district manager, said, "Savings per residential electric customer in communities affected will range between $1.80 and $4.20 per year depending on location and annual usage. In this area these communities are Bass Lake, Burr Oak, Bruce Lake, Culver, DeLong, Dixon Lake, Donaldson, Grass Creek, Grovertown, Hamlet, Hibbard, Inwood, Kewanna, Knox, Koontz Lake, Lake Maxinkuckee, Lake of the Woods, Leiters Ford, Mill Creek, Monterey, North Liberty, Ober, Ora, Plymouth, Pretty Lake, Teegarden, Toto, Tyner, Woodland and Wyatt.

Similar reductions will be available to NIPSCO's commercial electric customers operating in these areas, with an accompanying reduction for some commercial and industrial gas users.

"The electric utility's downward price performance is the marvel of this inflationary age," Mitchell said. "While other elements in the cost of living spiral upward, only gas and electric rates continue to march downward."

The School Safety Patrol performs a valuable service for motorists as well as for school children. Therefore, all motorists should give the Patrol Boys and Girls their full cooperation — and admiration. The great contribution of the Patrol to traffic safety is borne out by the fact that it has saved an estimated 17,500 young lives in Illinois and Indiana alone, since it was pioneered in 1920 by the Chicago Motor Club. In the month of October the Chicago Motor Club will distribute more than 45,000 copies of the above poster to grade school classrooms in its two-state area. Please cooperate with these young lifesavers as they try in 1965-66 to make this an accident-free school year in this area.
