Mrs. C. W. Cleveland And Mrs. Philip Melangton Enjoy Unique Indiana Tour

Mrs. Chester W. Cleveland of East Shore Drive accompanied her sister-in-law, Mrs. Philip R. Melangton, of Plymouth, to Nashville, Ind., last Thursday. Nashville is the county seat of Brown County.

Thursday evening the couple enjoyed an excellent dinner in the famous Nashville House, which is a Brown County landmark. The original building was erected during the Civil War. A visit to the country store, curio shop, and antique shop completed a most enjoyable evening.

They visited the Brown County State Park and the Abe Martin Lodge on Friday. This park is regarded as one of the most scenic sections of the Midwest, with its magnificent Fall coloring of its forests.

A short drive to Bean Blossom and a walk across the noted Bean Blossom covered bridge, always a favorite spot for the many artists in residence in Brown County, was a long-anticipated pleasure. A visit with two of Mrs. Cleveland's favorite Hoosier artist friends, Marie Goth and V. J. Cariani, completed a most memorable day.

On Saturday, Mrs. Melangton and Mrs. Cleveland drove to Rockville, Ind., where they attended the ninth annual Park County Covered Bridge Festival. There are 38 covered bridges in this historic part of Indiana. An interesting feature of this tour were the scarecrows placed along the roads by the rural people, as well as those placed in the yards of the townspeople. Tourists were asked to vote by ballot for their first-place choice of these scarecrows. This festival is a most colorful and unique event.

Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Melangton returned to their respective homes Saturday evening.

Mrs. Grace Eley Speaks At Meeting of The Green Township Homemakers

Mrs. Grace Eley of Argos was the guest speaker when the Green Township Homemakers Club held their family night supper in the Argos Bank Lounge on Friday evening.

Norman Davis gave the evening prayer preceding the potluck supper enjoyed by 16 members and 24 guests. Mrs. Alfred Winenger led group singing accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Norman Davis.

Mrs. Meryl Shivers, president, introduced Mrs. Eley who showed slides and told about her trip to Europe and the Continent with a group tour last summer. Pictures of the Isle of Capri were of special interest. Mrs. Eley stated Holland and Switzerland seemed to be the most friendly countries visited.

Mrs. Alfred Winenger served as hostess, Mrs. O. C. Gibbons assisted with seasonal decorations and Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Kenneth Ecker served on the program committee.

Mrs. L. R. Olin will entertain the club on Nov. 9. Mrs. Doyle Fishburn will give the lesson on Interior Decorating.

Mrs. Arnott M. Cleveland Marks 89th Birthday

Mrs. Arnott M. Cleveland, 223 North Plum Street, Plymouth, is observing her 89th birthday today, Oct. 21. Mrs. Cleveland is the mother of the late Chester W. Cleveland, and grandmother of John A. Cleveland, publisher of the Culver-based Indiana Business and Industry Magazine.

A quiet family dinner is planned Thursday evening at the Plymouth Country Club where the celebrated guest is a charter member.

Edyvean, department of Communications, Christian Theological Seminary; and Professor

Mrs. Ralph Priebe.

Mrs. Robert Cultice conducted the business and reminded members that secret pals would be revealed next month. Mrs. Herman Siems gave a report on the Lutheran Women's Missionary League Zone Rally which she attended at Lafayette last Wednesday.

Rev. R. J. Mueller closed the meeting by reading a poem entitled, "If Jesus Came To Your House," and everyone joined in praying, "The Lord's Prayer."

A social hour followed and refreshments were served to the 12 members and one guest present.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 15 at the home of Mrs. Adrian Snapp.

Noted Ex-Air Force Secretary To Speak At CMA

EUGENE M. ZUCKERT

Observations on the war in Viet Nam will be covered in an address by former Secretary of the Air Force Eugene M. Zuckert at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 23, at Culver Military Academy.

Zuckert, who resigned Sept. 30 after holding the office for 4 1/2 years (longer than any previous Air Force Secretary), is expected to speak generally on the role of the military in today's society with implications on the present conflict in Asia.

Part of Zuckert's address will deal with the recent Chinese Communist Manifesto. The document, published in September, was written by the Red Chinese defense minister and covers Communist military plans for Asia, Africa, and the entire world. The ex-Air Force secretary will also outline the place of the military in today's society and how its role has changed.

Zuckert retired this fall after 20 years of government service as an attorney, consultant to the Atomic Energy Commission, and undersecretary and secretary of the Air Force. He was also an educator and rose to assistant dean of the Harvard Graduate School of Business.

Zuckert is a director of the People-to-People Health Foundation, the non-profit corporation which operates the HOPE ship, and he is also a member of the executive council of the Yale Law School Association.

Zuckert will be a guest of General and Mrs. Spivey during most of the Fall Festival Weekend. The program begins Friday morning and includes the Saturday afternoon homecoming football game and a formal dance that evening, church services at 9:30 and 10:45 Sunday, and another garrison parade at 12:15 p.m. Sunday.

Zuckert's Saturday morning speech in the Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium will be delivered before a capacity audience of students, faculty, and guests. Major General Delmar T. Spivey, Academy superintendent, will present Zuckert with Culver's Distinguished Service Award, and the former Air Force secretary will be honored during a garrison parade to follow his speech at 11:30 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Listenberger and Mrs. Charles Cooper went to Warsaw Sunday afternoon where they paid last respects to Paul Landis at the Landis and Chamness Funeral Home. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Listenberger and family in Warsaw.

Mrs. Herschel Dyer of Desota, Ind., was a Thursday overnight guest of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Osborn.

Mail Overseas Christmas Gifts NOW!

The deadline for mailing Christmas packages overseas is fast approaching.

Packages addressed to members of the Armed Forces stationed overseas and sent by surface transportation must be mailed before Wednesday, Nov. 10, to insure before-Christmas delivery. Air mail packages should be mailed between Dec. 1 and Dec. 10 — this includes any mail handled through APO or FPO addresses.

Christmas gifts mailed by surface transportation to civilians in the Near East, Africa, South and Central America, and Europe must be mailed no later than Nov. 10 if they are to arrive in time for Christmas.

If you are in doubt as to size, weight, packing procedure, or other specifications, consult your local postmaster. If your loved ones are to receive your Christmas gifts before the Holiday, you must shop NOW and mail these gifts before Nov. 10.

WARM DOG HOUSE

Chisel the end out of a 50 gallon steel drum. Now insert a 40 gallon paper barrel and stuff the space between with straw or rock wool. Close end with boards and a canvas door. House will be warm in winter, cool in summer.

SHOT HAIR

Shotgun pellets force hair into squirrels or rabbits. Each spoils a tiny piece of meat. Remove hair by inserting the broad head of a toothpick in the rope and turning it. Action gathers hair and pulls it out.

Academy Sports

A badly-bruised Culver Military Academy is expected to recover from a 25-0 shellacking at Fort Wayne last weekend in time for its important homecoming battle here Saturday with St. John's Military Academy.

The 25-0 defeat was administered by tough Bishop Luers High School at Fort Wayne, and in addition to suffering their third defeat of the season, the Culver Eagles took a physical beating that will sideline several key players during practices this week.

Coach Russ Oliver said that among the bruised players were key backs Jim Vestermark and Mark Thurlow. Vestermark, the starting quarterback, and Thurlow, an offensive threat at fullback, both will sit out early practices this week in the hope they will be ready for St. John's Saturday.

The St. John's game will be one of the highlights of a busy weekend when more than 1,000 parents and alumni will be on campus for Fall Festival-Homecoming weekend. Game-time is 2:15 p.m.

Although the Cadets were outmanned and outgunned at Fort Wayne, they managed to stay with Bishop Luers for most of a quarter. Vestermark's injury hurt the Academy's attack at the same time Luers got its offense moving towards only its second victory of the season. Culver gained only 38 yards from scrimmage and three first downs, but the damaging blows came on five pass interceptions and a lost fumble.

Luers scored on two 25-yard plays, one a pass from Joe Bobey to John Dunlap and the other a run by Jim Bail. Mike O'Reilly scored twice, one a run of 48 yards.

Development Center Needs Contributions

An executive from the state department of mental health recently commended the directors of Marshall-Starke Development Center for their "excellent start."

Richard Rembold, assistant director of the division on mental retardation, met with the directors of the new center for retarded and physically handicapped children at their regular monthly session.

Business at the meeting concerned a drive for donations for the center, setting a fee scale for pupils and announcement of a special meeting for the entire membership of the corporation.

Contributions Needed

Miss Virginia Spenner of North Judson, public health nurse for Starke County, is chairman of the contribution drive. Organizations and individuals who would like to contribute either goods or cash for use at the center are asked to write or call her at her office in the Starke County Courthouse, Knox. Her telephone number is 772-4312.

Some of the items the directors hope will be contributed are magazine subscriptions, cots, or day beds for a nurse's room, a cabinet and first aid supplies, teachers' desks, blackboards, clocks, children's books, pictures, and plastic telephones.

Also, large lacing shoes, plastic dishes, silverware, cooking utensils, paint, bookcases, table and chairs, filing cabinets, office supplies, toys, towels and dish cloths, wash cloths, metal wastebaskets.

Other larger items which might be donated by one group or which some person or group may want to contribute toward are a piano, record player, mimeograph, typewriter, adding machine, tape recorder, electric or gas stove, refrigerator, freezer, a cabinet sink, washer, dryer, portable dish washer.

After studying fees charged in similar centers in other towns, the directors decided on a "sliding scale" of $2 to $5 per week. The amount each child will pay will be determined by the family income.

The fee will cover a hot lunch each day and help toward the cost of supplies for the center. Exceptions to the fee scale will be considered in cases of low income families, but each pay something each week.

Mrs. August Wickert and Mrs. Art Mosher, both of North Judson, were appointed membership co-chairmen by Dr. J. Kent Guild, president of the board of directors.

They are in charge of the program for the first meeting of the general membership of the corporation. It will be Monday, Nov. 8, at 7:30 p.m. in The State Exchange Bank Auditorium.

They are also in charge of selling memberships which are available for $2 per person per year. A membership in the corporation entitles one to vote for the board of directors. Members will be informed of the progress of the center and be invited to special programs such as the one Nov. 8.

Memberships are still available. Checks should be made payable to Marshall-Starke Development Center, Inc. and sent to Mrs. August Wickert, R.R. 1, North Judson. She will return membership cards by mail.

So far 40 applications for enrollment in the center have been received. Applications are still being taken in Post Office Box 163, Plymouth. Parents should tell their names, child's name and age and the nature of his handicap.

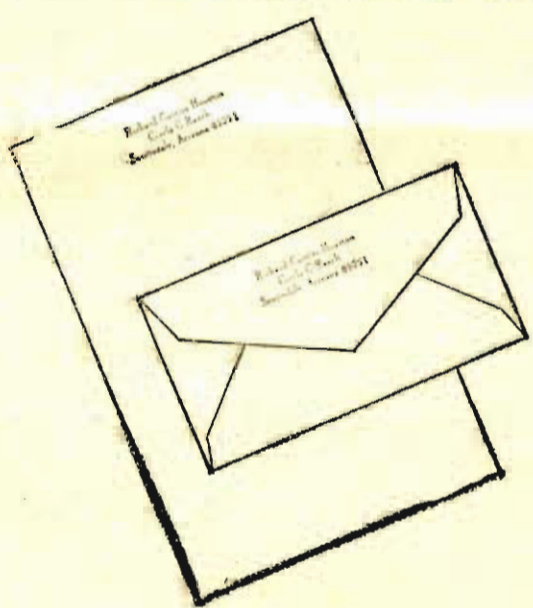

The development center located in the former Lincoln Lodge Motel west of Plymouth on old U.S. 30, will serve children aged four to 16 who are not now being educated in public schools. The first semester will begin in January.

All children will be tested for placement by Darrel Kraft of Plymouth, a licensed psychometrist.

For 1966-67
NMSQT Test

Students who expect to complete their secondary school requirements at Culver High School and enter college in 1967 can register now at the school office for the 1966-67 National Merit Scholarship Program, Director of Guidance, Jack P. Miller announced today.

The first step for all students who wish to enter the nationwide competition is to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMSQT), which will be given in the school at 9:00 a.m., on Tuesday, March 15, 1966.

Participating students pay a $1 fee, which is remitted by the school to the testing agency, Science Research Associates. When the test is given on a Saturday the school may charge an additional fee up to $1 for special administrative costs of testing on a non-school day. If a student is unable to pay, the testing fee will be paid by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) if requested by his school.

Students can take the test to obtain information useful in planning their further education of careers as well as competing for the scholarships awarded by NMSC. Along with his NMSQT scores, each participating student will receive a handbook to help him understand his educational strengths and weaknesses, evaluate his scores, and compare his performance with that of other high school students across the country. The handbook and other interpretive materials are furnished by the testing agency at no extra cost.

The highest-scoring students in each state will be named Seminalists and will receive further consideration in the Merit Program. In addition to these awards made by NMSC, more than 280 business corporations, foundations, unions, trusts, other organizations, and individuals give scholarships through the Merit program.

Some 2,000 Merit Scholarships are awarded last year with stipends ranging from $400 to $6,000 for four college years. A winner's stipend is determined by assessing the amount of financial assistance he will need at the college he will attend.

About 11,000 students have won Merit Scholarships in the first 10 annual programs.

GET THE AIR

A few cents buys an attachment to utilize the air in your spare tire to blow up air mattresses. Spare is deflated only a small amount but the savings in lung strain is considerable.

People, Spots In The News

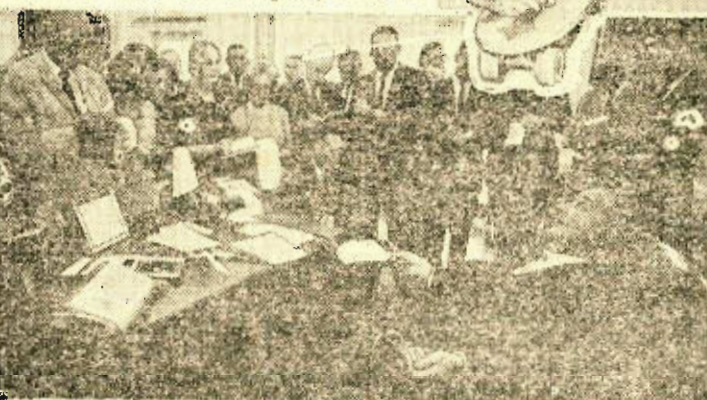

AIR LIFT at Berlin's Tempelhof: Cantarelli "magically" levitates his aide, but admits he can't make her jet 500 m. p. h. on her own.

SKATEBOARD can't make a monkey of this chimp, confidently vows Tonette, of Chicago's Lincoln Park zoo.

NO-SHELL SHOT: Discharge of unit of "caseless ammunition" (no cartridge) is studied at Omark Industries, Portland, Ore. as new energy source for industrial tools the company makes.

MAN AT WORK: President Johnson takes his ease in full-tilt swivel chair while explaining a few things to press at White House conference.

COLD NIGHTS

If you ever camp without adequate covering and the night gets cold, try this: Instead of rolling around trying to get warm, sleep on your stomach. Your body can retain more heat in this position and you'll stay warmer.

SPOON COLLECTION

If you save bright-colored plastic spoons in all sizes, you'll soon have the fish-catchingest collection in town. Cut off handles, drill both ends. With split rings attach hooks at one end; swivel at the other.

NOW! A WHOLE NEW SERIES OF ULTRA-LUXURIOUS CHEVROLETS

'66 CAPRICE

BY CHEVROLET

Caprice Custom Coupe—with exclusive formal roof line that comes on no other Chevrolet.

Caprice Custom Sedan—with superb new Body by Fisher elegance inside and out.

Caprice Custom Wagon—with fine new look of hardwood paneling on sides and tailgate.

Everything it takes to create a distinguished luxury car has gone into these new Caprices.

Beneath the formal styling elegance that sets the Custom Coupe apart, for instance, you'll find thick wall-to-wall carpeting, comfort-contoured seats and the look of hand-rubbed walnut on the instrument panel, glove compartment and inside door panels. You can order a finely instrumented console, together with new Strato-bucket front seats.

In the Custom Sedan, a new Strato-back front seat is available with bucket-type contours separated by a fold-down armrest. And in the equally opulent Custom Wagons, offered in 2- or 3-seat models, you can even order carpeting for the cargo area.

Each model rides super Jet-smooth. And for incomparably smooth power, you can specify Chevrolet's advanced Turbo-Jet V8 in either a 396- or 427-cubic-inch version.

The price of it all? Somewhat more than you're used to paying for a Chevrolet. But less, as your dealer will happily confirm—than the select class of fine cars these new Caprices invite comparison with in every detail.
