Public Hearing On Sewer Rate Increase Slated

The Town Board has announced that a public hearing will be held on Monday, Nov. 15 at 7:30 p.m. in council chambers on a proposed increase in rates and charges for sewage service.

The new rate schedule, contained in proposed amendment to ordinance No. 145 of December 3, 1951, is published in a legal publication appearing elsewhere in today's Citizen. Included is a new rate of $2.80 minimum monthly for single family dwellings, $5.60 minimum for two-family dwellings, as well as new rates for apartments from one-unit to six units and house trailers.

Commercial shops, stores and offices, eating establishments, garages, theaters, hotels, schools, churches, lodges, taverns, and undromats will likewise have new rates.

The proposed rates, if adopted, will be charged on billings beginning Jan. 2, 1966. The increase is necessary to cover the expense of operation, repair and maintenance, and for the payment of sinking fund payments on the sewage treatment works and sanitary sewers.

James E. Schuler, CMA Cadet, Dies In Ohio Accident

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Nov. 2, in Bellefontaine, Ohio, for 17-year-old James E. Schuler, a Culver Military Academy cadet who died in an automobile accident near his home Sunday.

Three other Academy students and a Culver Summer Schools alumnus were also injured in the one-car accident that occurred on Ohio State Road 540, approximately 15 miles east of Bellefontaine.

Injured seriously in the mishap were C. Lee Winchester, 16, of Memphis, Tenn., a junior at Culver, and 18-year-old David A. Hover, of Bellefontaine. Hover attended the Culver Summer Schools in 1959. Both were admitted to Lima (Ohio) Memorial Hospital with severe contusions of the head.

Culver seniors Barnett Woodruff, 16, of Columbus, Ga., and Robert Ramsay, 16, Birmingham, Ala., suffered minor injuries. They were to be released Monday from Mary Rutan Hospital, Bellefontaine.

Ohio State Police said Hover was driving the car at the time of the accident. Police believe the youth lost control and the car turned over several times. Schuler, Hover, and Winchester were thrown out of the automobile, and the two less-seriously injured boys remained in the station wagon during the crash.

Schuler was on a weekend vacation to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Schuler, who had just returned from Europe. He invited three of his classmates to visit the Schuler home for the weekend, and during that time renewed their friendship with Hover, whom several of the boys knew from having attended the Woodcraft Camp at Culver.

Acting pallbearers were four of Schuler's classmates from Company C. They were: David Breach, Jack Allen, Jay Romig, and Richard Carter. Martin Uebel, counselor of Company C, also attended the funeral Tuesday.

Job Is Awarded; Vandals Damage Beach Lodge

Kowatch Plumbing and Heating, with a low bid of $360.50, was awarded the job of construction of a 5 x 5 cement block building at the Prado St. liftwell, at Monday night's town board meeting.

The shelter will house electrical controls and will contain a poured cement roof, the board indicated. The bid submitted by Kowatch for the work was $31.16 lower than one submitted by Marshall County Lumber of Culver.

In other business, the board learned of damage by vandals to doors and windows at the Beach Lodge over the Halloween weekend. Five panes of glass were reported broken and eight screens were slashed by the culprits. Additional damage was reported to the Maxinkuckee Cruiser owned by Frank Amond which was moored at a nearby pier. A spotlight and electric wiring was ripped off and other damage incurred to the lake cruiser.

Street Commissioner Don Mikesell reported that McMahon Construction Co., Rochester, is scheduled to return to Culver and complete the second phase of street resurfacing and repair which was begun in the spring. He also reported that permanent signs are on order from the Indiana State Prison, Michigan City, which will designate the boundary of the town's planning jurisdiction. These will be installed at highway locations approaching the town.

Extensive Damage Caused By Fire To Garage, Cottage

A smoldering canvas in a garage at the home of Charles Diekerson, 206 Mill Street, set fire to the garage and caused an estimated $150 damage Tuesday morning. Firemen answered the alarm about 10:15 a.m.

Diekerson told Fire Chief Dave Burns he had been using the canvas to collect leaves for burning. A car housed in the garage was safely removed but the interior of the garage was damaged extensively.

Firemen were called Saturday afternoon at 1:10 p.m. to the west side of Lake Maxinkuckee where fire caused extensive damage to a shed and summer cottage.

A shed at the rear of the Reed Keller residence, 1071 West Shore Drive, reportedly caught fire and spread to a summer cottage owned by Mrs. L. B. Hackett, 1061 West Shore Drive. Damage to both buildings, which were unoccupied, was heavy.

While firemen battled these fires, a grass fire broke out in a woods at the Junior Geiselman property, South Tamarack Road, and Monterey firemen were called to extinguish this fire.

On Monday afternoon, firemen doused a trash fire at the Dwight

Tonn & Blank, Inc., of Michigan City, has been selected by McGill as the successful bidder and general contractor for the new plant. A. B. Williamson, Vice President and Bearing Division General Manager, also said that Koontz-Wagner Electric Co., South Bend, was awarded the contract for all electrical work. Total cost approximates $800,000. Construction is planned to begin within the week, with completion scheduled for next May.

This new plant for the manufacture of CAMROL Cam Follower bearings will contain 66,000 square feet of production space with an additional 6,000 square feet devoted to offices. Plant layout calls for an attractive building 300 feet wide by 220 feet deep with office space to be 150 feet by 40 feet in center front. It will be of steel construction above poured concrete footing and cement block base five feet high.

Windows will be used in the office section only. Extensive landscaping provides for a circular drive in front with access and parking from Mill Street.

Construction and general plant layout is planned so that additional space can be added easily to the rear along Mill Street as needed. The front, including office space, faces new Indiana 17 just west of Culver city limits.

NIPSCO DECLARES QUARTERLY DIVIDEND

Directors of Northern Indiana Public Service Company have declared a quarterly dividend of 44 cents a share on the outstanding common stock of the company. Dean H. Mitchell, NIPSCO chairman and president, announced today. The dividend is payable Dec. 20, 1965, to shareholders of record at the close of business Nov. 30, 1965.

The board also declared a dividend of 44 cents a share on the 4.40% cumulative preference stock of the company, payable Dec. 30, 1965, to shareholders of record at the close of business Nov. 30, 1965.

NIPSCO ONE OF LARGEST TAXPAYERS IN INDIANA

Northern Indiana Public Service Company — one of the largest taxpayers in Indiana — has paid more than $9.5 million this year in property taxes toward the operating costs of state and local governments and schools, Dean H. Mitchell, NIPSCO chairman and president, announced today.

The utility's November installment of $4,818,832 in property taxes, added to its spring payment, brings the company's total state and local taxes for 1965 to $9,638,246.

"Just as with every other tax-paying company in America," Mitchell said, "these tax dollars are collected from customers as a part of their service bill. In fact, almost 20 cents out of every dollar of revenue received from customers goes for federal, state or local taxes."

John E. Nikoloff, NIPSCO Plymouth district manager, said that total local taxes paid by the utility in the Plymouth area in 1965 amounted to $436,206, of which $79,440 went to Starke County; $54,536 to Fulton County; and $302,230 to Marshall County. The city of Plymouth received $116,226; the city of Rochester, $17,402; and Knox received $14,748.

Tax payment checks were sent to NIPSCO district managers well ahead of the November 1 deadline to make sure county treasurers received them in plenty of time.

Most perennial flowers, such as iris, peonies, day lilies and perennial phlox, can be planted in the fall.

Forward to Fall

Fall is the time when your lawn must recover from the rigors of Summer: drought, sun and heat. For all three affect grass severely and Autumn allows time for repairs so that when Spring rolls around again, you have a beautiful, velvety green lawn that is a source of true pride.

To strengthen your lawn, begin by using an ample feeding of fertilizer. In doing this, you are preparing it for the Winter months when it lies dormant but actually is in a state of hibernation. The Fall application is the major feeding. Agrico grass food is essential to supply sufficient soil nourishment for the hard months ahead. This grass food is a tremendous aid to a healthy, beautiful lawn. Then, too, remember that Autumn is Nature's own time for renovating. So renovate bare spots and worn-out areas now.

The dead leaves which fall on your lawn choke off light, water and air from the grass so it's important to rake thoroughly before mowing. Your reward for diligent lawn care in the Fall will be a dense turf next Spring, a lawn with high, clear color, healthy grass and deep roots.

Actually, Autumn is the prime growth season for grass. What you do now will assist nature to carry your lawn through until

Editor, THE CITIZEN:

John S. Etsinger, Commander of the Third District of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, stated that most of the VFW Posts of St. Joseph, LaPorte, Elkhart, and Marshall Counties are planning civic activities for Veterans Day, Nov. 11.

This is in keeping with the annual custom of the VFW in honoring our deceased comrades, who gave their lives directly (or indirectly) in defense of this great country of ours. He further stated that "It is doubly important this year that ALL true Americans fly our country's colors, this day, in answer to the Communist-lovers, who would destroy our way of life, if they have a chance. It is somewhat questionable whether the protestors against our action in Viet Nam are Communist inspired or speak out as a result of personal cowardice.

It is comforting to note that many of our college students (and others) are donating blood for the Viet Nam conflict. The Communists pick up each little action by a minority group, in our country, for propaganda purposes. One person in a group of thousands can furnish fuel for the Communist propaganda machine.

Blood, sweat, and tears are as old as the world. If you value your freedom and our way of life, it will cost you your blood (or that of a loved one), it will cost you much sweat (on your job or sweating out how your loved one is doing), or there are always tears left for those who lose a loved one.

Our country is not perfect, but it is the greatest "imperfection" in the world. Please support your local veteran and civic groups on this day of re-dedication."

Sincerely yours,
 Roland M. Strader

The Tale Of A Turkey
 3936 Iowa St.
 San Diego, Calif. 92104

EDITOR, The Citizen:
 In the fall of 1967 my brother, Ray, and I purchased a meat market of the late Daniel G. Walters. This venture had its ups and downs, possibly more downs than ups.

I believe it was Thanksgiving time in 1968, there was a lady came in the market to purchase a live turkey hen. I brought the turkey in the shop and was going to weigh it on a platform scale.

I had heard if you would put the head of a fowl under its wing and swing around a few times it would be sound asleep. To my regret I tried this, the turkey awoke prematurely and hopped up on the meat block. The late Fred Hinshaw was our meat cutter and when he saw that turkey on the meat block he made a dive for the turkey. Well that turkey took off and went through the center of the large plate glass, out into the street, and up the stairs into Dr. Norris' dental office.

The turkey was returned to the shop and sold to the lady, Urias Mensor, who owned the building, replaced the glass window at the wholesale price of $33.

This was one of the downs in this business venture so many years ago.

WILLIAM J. SMITH
 The Citizen thanks Mr. Smith for his contribution to Thanksgiving, 1965.

Development Center Being Remodeled

Members of the Marshall-Starke Development Center Corporation are invited to their first meeting Monday, Nov. 8, at 7:30 p.m. (EST) in the auditorium of The State Exchange Bank, Culver.

They will hear a progress report on the Center, see an educational film and vote on proposed amendments to the articles of incorporation.

Directors will tell of remodeling work being done at the former Lincoln Lodge Motel (west of Plymouth on old U. S. 30) to get it ready for use as a school for retarded and handicapped children in the two counties.

The first volunteer work crew Saturday got a good start on the job. Volunteers will continue to work each Saturday until the project is completed. Officials at Norco Engineering and Arrowhead Engineering, Knox, are taking charge of the remodeling work.

Enough food was donated for the first work session that much of it was frozen and will be used for these later work days — beginning this Saturday. A potluck lunch will be served to workers at noon.

Work gets started at 8:30 a.m. (EST). All volunteers are welcome and asked to bring whatever tools they have available. Carpenters are especially needed.

Membership in the corporation is still open. Anyone may join by sending a $2 check to Mrs. August Wickert, Route 1, North Judson. Membership entitles one to vote for the board of directors and members will be kept informed of progress made at the Center through meetings such as the one scheduled for Monday night.

Miss Mona Jean Eikenberry and Lowell G. Singery Are Married In Argos Church

Miss Mona Jean Eikenberry and Lowell G. Singery, both of Argos, were married at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 24, at the Walnut Street Church of The Brethren in Argos. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Eikenberry of Argos, Miss., former residents of Culver and Argos. Mr. and Mrs. Lowell G. Singery, Route 2, Argos, are the parents of the bridegroom. Rev. Robert Ebey, pastor of the church, performed the double service before the altar which was decorated with baskets of flowers and pompons, candelabra palms. White bows with red and greenery marked the pews.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Faulkner, uncle of the bridegroom, was organist and accompanied Mrs. Lamoine Banks who sang, "Because," "Whither I Goest," "You'll Never Walk Alone," and "The Lord's Prayer." Musical motifs of bugles and iridescents centered the self fabric rosettes highlighted the bodice and full length of the bride's gown which was fashioned of peau taffeta. The gown was made with a high scoop line, long pointed sleeves and a long train. A crown of pearls touched with seed pearls and crystal drops held her bouffant veil and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses with red carnations.

Miss Phyllis Singery, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Miss Margie Singery, also his sister, served as bridesmaid. Mrs. Betty Eikenberry, sister-in-law of the bride, as bridesmatron; and Mrs. Mona Eikenberry, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

The attendants' dresses were of a brocade styled with high necklines, elbow length sleeves, and street length, bell shaped skirts. The cummerbunds had a large bow at the back with sash extending to hemline. They wore gold chair double crowns trimmed with tiny pearls to match their hair, and carried cascade arrangements of mums and pompons. Mrs. Ann Eikenberry, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore an ivory brocade dress with gold sash styled like the attendants' gowns. She dropped autumn leaves as she went down the aisle. The bearer was Jack Van Derle of Argos.

Lowell Singery served his brother as best man, and groomsmen were Lowell Singery, brother of the bridegroom, and William Eikenberry, brother of the bride. Junior bridesman was John Faulkner, brother of the bridegroom, and usher were Richard Stauffer of Ben Harbor, Mich., Bruce Stauffer of Argos, and William Eikenberry of Argos.

At her daughter's wedding

Mrs. Eikenberry chose a three-piece berry colored suit with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a three-piece blue suit with black accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement for approximately 200 guests from Peru, Wabash, Houston, Miss., Wisconsin, Indianapolis and Argos. A five-tier wedding cake surrounded with pompons and greenery centered the refreshment table. Serving were Sandra Hathrun of Mentone, Marilee Zechiel of Culver, and Mrs. George Whistler. Miss Joyce Rogers, cousin of the bride, registered the guests.

Following a trip to the Southern States the couple will reside at 209 1/2 South Michigan St., Argos. For going away the bride chose a bitersweet colored two-piece suit with black accessories.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Culver High School and is employed in the office of Midwest Spring Manufacturing Co. at Mentone. The bridegroom graduated from Plymouth High School in 1959, served in the U.S. Army in Viet Nam, and is presently employed at the Argos Elevator.

DENTAL CARD PROGRAM STARTING IN FULTON COUNTY SCHOOLS

During the first week in November, a new School Dental Card Program will be started in Fulton County Schools. Fulton County was one of several communities chosen by the Dental Division of the State Board of Health to test this program.

The program's purpose is to motivate the child and parent to have at least one good dental check up yearly. Only by starting early and forming good dental habits can we expect to have good, sound teeth.

An orange card will be given to every child in grades 1 through 6, except the children in grades 3 and 5 who have already had a dental inspection at school this year.

The child is to take the card with him when he visits his dentist for a check up. The dentist signs the card when all work is complete and the card is then returned to the school teacher.

Yearly dental inspection has shown that many children have been seeing their dentists regularly, but it is important that every child have this attention.

Miss Carolyn Snyder, a freshman student at Indiana University, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Snyder, 464 State Street.

Vincennes University student Linda Sparling visited over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Sparling, of 784 West Shore Drive.

Paul Liette, who is attending St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, spent the weekend with his family and visited with his father, Luke Liette, who remains a patient at Memorial Hospital in South Bend since last May.

LOCAL STUDENTS RECEIVE HONORS

Dennis Allen Shock and Miss Mary Stapan of Culver were recognized for scholastic achievement last year at Indiana Central College at the annual fall Honors Day convocation Oct. 15.

They were two of 71 students recognized for making the annual honor roll by completing 24 semester hours or more last year with a grade average of B or better.

Dennis, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shock, Route 2, was graduated from Culver High School in 1963.

Mary, daughter of Elias Stapan, Route 2, was graduated from West Township High School in 1961.

My Neighbors

"I'll accompany you on the drums while you talk."

For a pretty, easy to clean finish, line the inside of stained or unfinished dresser drawers with self-adhesive plastic. Purdue University home furnishings specialists suggest using a design in keeping with the style of furniture.

In the average home, spilled water, grease and similar materials probably cause more falls than highly polished floors, observe safety specialists at Purdue University. Clean up spilled substances promptly to prevent falls.

Termites drop their light colored wings shortly after emergence. The presence of these wings after a swarm of insects disappears is a good indication that they were termites, not ants, say Purdue University Extension entomologists.

Water house plants carefully as approaching summer brings stronger sunlight. Purdue University horticulturists recommend moving plants that are doing poorly in the brighter sun to shady locations.

RECEIVES COLLEGE HONORS

Miss Deborah Brooke, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brooke of Culver, recently received two honors in her senior year at Franklin College. She was first voted by the faculty as the outstanding woman student on the Franklin campus. Later, her name was selected by the faculty and the administrative staff to be entered in the annual publication, which includes the names of students outstanding in character, leadership, and scholarship.

Debbie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brooke of Fort Wayne. She is a native of Marshall County and lived in Culver with her mother and two elder sisters while her father was in the service. Her present plan is to enter another college next fall and work for her Master's degree in English, following which she expects to enter the teaching profession.

Home Ec Classes Learn Through Tours

By Molly Norris

On Thursday, Oct. 21, as part of their learning process about children, the Home Ec. II class took a "Stork Tour" of Marshall County Parkview Hospital. The tour is offered four times a year and is conducted by members of the Hospital Women's Auxiliary. Mrs. Herbert Newman is in charge of the tours and is assisted by the tour guides Mrs. Oscar Wesson and Mrs. H. W. Hohman. Miss Lela Diefenbaugh, the administrator at Parkview, assisted with the orientation session, in which much of the routine was discussed. First on the tour was a visit to one of the hospital's labor rooms. The tour continued with the visitation of the delivery room and ended at the hospital nurseries, where the students gave their undivided attention to the new-born babies, one of them less than an hour old.

The center of interest for the Home Ec. I class the first semester of the school year is foods. Although the students do spend some time in lab sessions carrying out the actual making process of food products, much of the time is spent in the study of nutritional values of foods, how to prepare dishes, and how to serve them attractively. The class has just recently completed a study of the "most nearly perfect food" - milk.

To get an even better idea as to the way milk is prepared for the market, the students had the opportunity to visit Dean's Milk Company in Rochester. On Oct. 26, the bus, driven by Mr. Cole, left the school building at 9:50 a.m. Upon arrival, the class was divided into three groups and shown through the plant. The tour began with a viewing of the huge cottage cheese vats and an explanation as to how it was actually made and packaged. Next the complete process of pasteurization and homogenization was explained. The tour continued with the making of cartons and packaging of the milk. The bulk trucks in which the milk is brought to the plant, the storage rooms in which it is kept ready for market and the refrigerator trucks in which the product is hauled to the customer were also included in the tour. At the completion of the tour the students returned to school with a better understanding of how milk is prepared for the consumer.

Student Awards Day

By Cheryl Zink and Barb Mikesell

Friday, October 22, was Awards Day at Culver High School.

Mr. Cole recognized the three seniors who had scored exceptionally well on the National Merit Scholarship qualifying tests: Lois Newcomb and Mark Lowry who received letters of commendation, and Lucinda Ricciardi who qualified as a state semi-finalist.

Mr. Cole also presented honor sweaters to seniors Pam Carter, Bruce Lindvall, Diane Davis, and Lucinda Ricciardi.

There was a "mystery house", whose location was unknown to the seniors during their annual magazine sale. Janet Manchester was the fortunate one who sold magazines at this house and was awarded an Instamatic Kodak Hawkeye camera by Mr. Crabb.

Coach Crosley presented Sheryl Fisher with her four-year cheerleading sweater. Then the Student Council president, Cheryl Zink, presented charters to the editors of the Press Club and the president of the Projectors' Club. (These clubs now have written constitutions, actively participating members, and met the requirements of their constitutions - all requirements of the awarded charters).

Mr. Cole presented Gary Davis with his National Honor Society pin and certificate. Gary missed the presentation of these honors last week since he was representing Culver in the sectional cross country meet.

Coach Stegemoller recognized the Culver Cross country team for winning the county title. Then Mark Lowry, on behalf of the team, presented Mr. Stegemoller with a gift certificate - a token of the team's appreciation. Kerry Haenes and Paul Hatten presented two large trophies, which the cross country team had won, to the school to be put in the trophy case. Mr. Stegemoller also announced that Paul Hatten, Gary Davis, and Mark Lowry had been winners of the 10:15 club, while Ron Babcock and Bob Crow had been winners of the 10:30 club. (These boys were able to run the two-mile course in the mentioned times or less.)

"What Is An American?"

Editor's Note: The following article was written by Bob McFarland as part of an assignment for Mr. Lawson's Civics Class.

What is an American? Many people have been asked this question and all have answered it in somewhat of a different way. But all have said about the same thing overall. They use words like — unique, different, an experiment, oneness, manyness, liberty, equality, and democracy — to describe what an American is made up of. These are all good words to use, but I believe that the best word that I have ever found to describe an American is the word flexible. Flexible means — (1) able to bend without breaking; pliant (2) easily influenced (3) adjustable to change; and these all describe what an American actually is — FLEXIBLE!

An American is said to be flexible because he is able to bend without breaking. He is able to bend but the only reason he is kept from breaking is compromise. He can virtually bend over backwards to get what he wants and through compromise he doesn't achieve his ultimate goal but he gets partially there by agreeing to a settlement in which each side receives a little and loses a little.

An American is flexible because he is easily influenced. He has to be, because he is made up of thousands of different beliefs, religions and customs, each one influencing him. Each one has a different effect upon him so he can be like no one else anywhere in the world — this is why he is referred to as being unique. No one, anywhere can think or act just like he can.

An American is flexible because he is adjustable to change. He had to be or he wouldn't be what he is today or his standard of living wouldn't be what it is today. If he was unchangeable he might still be running around like some of the natives of Africa — unclothed and un-educated with no future in life but to eat, sleep, and die. But he did change — he has been changing for about 1500 years and he still is changing today. Most likely he will be changing for the rest of his life, for no one will ever be happy with what he has at the present, he will always try to better himself.

Americans are said to be one from many because they are made up of people from almost every race of man — so they are truly one from many. But since Americans number over 190 million it may also be said that he is one of many.

National Education Week

By Marsha Guise

National Education Week starts Nov. 7 and continues through Nov. 13. The ministers of the area will introduce the idea to the public the first day of the campaign.

The purpose of this special week is to develop a better relationship among students, parents, and teachers. A special open house is planned for Nov. 9 from 6:30-7:30 so parents can go to the school and discuss any problems students may be having. All the teachers will be in their classrooms, so this provides a very good chance for all parents to discuss any questions at all with teachers.

At 7:45 the same night the P.T.A. will hold a meeting. The theme of the program is centered around National Education Week. Cheryl Zink will be there to give a talk about her summer in Argentina and also show slides. The three winners of the essay contest will be announced, and the winners will then read their themes entitled "Invest in Learning".

The committee — Mrs. England, chairman, Mrs. Epley, Mr. Harris, and Mr. Miller — worked very hard in programming this special week. They urge the interested parents and citizens of Culver to make a showing Nov. 9 and help make National Education Week a success in Culver.

You'll get fast and satisfactory service through the Want Ad section of The Culver Citizen.

"Kiddies' Korner"

By Patti McCombs and Sheryl Welsh

This week we reporters decided to venture to the first grade to ask them some questions. Listed below are the responses we received from Mrs. Barbara Linhart's first grade.

Question number one was — What is a teacher supposed to do? Susan Oldham — Well, she teaches. Oh, and she makes papers and she helps kids. Ricky Warner — She helps you "solve out" problems. Alfred Thomas — She writes and (pause) she gives you grades! Belinda Stevenson — Oh, just do stuff. What kind of stuff Belinda? Well, write letters, call names, and stuff like that. Julie Sherwood — She works. James Napier — She teaches 'ya how to write. Melody Singleton — When you first feel tired she makes you rest your head.

Scott McKinnis — Teach 'ya how to read and teach 'ya how to work. Bobby Cultice — Talk to 'ya, tell 'ya to sit down, and stuff like that. The next question asked was — Would you like to be a teacher when you grow up? Susan Oldham — Yes. (Why Susan?) It's fun. Ricky Warner — No. (Why not Ricky.) Because I don't want to. Alfred Thomas — Yes. (Why.) Just 'cuz. Belinda Stevenson — Yes. (Why.) Because you can make a lot of money. Julie Sherwood — Yes. (Why?) 'Cuz I think it's fun. James Napier — No! 'Cuz there is too much work! Melody Singleton — Yes. (Why?) Because you need to teach them things to do. Scott McKinnis — No. (Why not?) Well, I DON'T KNOW. Bobby Cultice — No. (Why not?) I don't like to.

Our last question was rather difficult, even for first graders who are usually able to talk their way out of anything. How old do you think someone is when they are "grown up." Susan Oldham - 20. Ricky Warner - 19. Alfred Thomas - 7. (Why seven Alfred?) 'Cuz I'm seven and I do a lot of grownup things. Belinda Stevenson - 20. Julie Sherwood - 18. James Napier - 25. Scott McKinnis - 'Bout, well I don't know. Bobby Cultice - 17. (Why 17 Bobby?) Because your boyfriend is 17 and you're almost grown up and he's bigger than you are, so he's grown up. (Bobby's my neighbor)

We had to stop there because the first graders were leaving to wash their hands for lunch. We'll see you next week with more news from Kiddies' Korner.

"HANS' WEEKLY VINNERS"

I have just learned that C.H.S. is to have its own basketball predictor this season. As yet not many details have been learned about Mr. Hans Von Schnook, but we have been in contact with Hans' roommate on the Queen Mary. They are both en route to the United States and they will probably arrive within the next two days. The following is a letter received from his friend while sailing to the United States:

Dear Editor:
I am writing this letter in regard to your request that I describe Hans Von Schnook. Hans is a massive Polack who stands 6' 6" and weighs 317 pounds. He has a first grade education, but is a genius at predicting the winners of basketball games. I remember him predicting four NBA champions! He told me that his only aim after he arrived in Culver was to pick at least 90% of the basketball winners in the immediate area and show up a so-called predictor from neighboring city.

You'll probably want to know a few personal things about Hans. Well, his favorite song is no secret; it just happens to be "I Was Not a Nazi Polka." His favorite food is Polish sausage sandwiches and his favorite basketball team is the good old burnt orange and black of C.H.S.

I was very happy to supply you with the preceding information about Hans, and I would like to wish my dear friend all of the luck in the world.

Sincerely yours,
Wilhelm Guinsnedst
Hans has made the following predictions for the first few games in the area.

On Nov. 5th: Pioneer over Brook - the Panthers should be real tough this season. Aubee over Tyner - Tyner just doesn't have what it takes to win basketball games. Kewanna over Monterey - Kewanna will be even tougher this year.

On Nov. 9th: Bristol over New Paris - Bristol is weak but not as weak as New Paris.

That's all for this week but stay tuned for even more predictions and for the prediction of the first Culver game.

Have you heard about the sharp new blouses the Pep Club wants to get for the pep block? The blouses are orange on one side and black on the other, and would really make the block look great! Here are a few opinions stated by Pep Club members:

Vickey McKinney - I'd have to see them before I could comment! Loretta Berger - They'd really make the pep block look tuff, as long as they're not made of that thin T-shirt type material.

Jeanette Salyer - Anything is better than those little black vests. Patty Overmyer - Great. If the blouses are neat and everyone would wear theirs.

Sheryl Fisher - Neat, if everyone wears them! Brenda McAllister - What blouse?

Karen Banks - Cool, if everyone would cooperate and wear them to all the games.

Suzi Overmyer - I think it would really add to the pep block if everyone wore them.

Linda Shirrell - Neat idea! The block will really look tuff.

Suzi Riester - I agree with everyone else.

Cheryl Zink - I think they'd look tuff - but while we're buying some, we should get some good ones that will last.

Carol Schilling - I think they'd look sharp.

Marsha Guise - I think Culver High School has needed them a long time.

Janet Manchester - They'd be neat if everyone wore them.

Cathy Schmidt - Anything would be better than those vests!!

DOUGLAS LINDVALL PLEDGED TO SIGMA PI

Douglas Lindvall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lindvall, Route 1, Culver, is one of 39 Vincennes University students who were pledged to Sigma Pi, national college fraternity, at recent ceremonies and will now undergo pledge training during the Fall semester at V.U.

Sigma Pi was founded at Vincennes University in 1901 and now has its national headquarters at Shaw Wood, the former Eugene C. Wharf estate near Vincennes.

Inactive at Vincennes since 1911, the grand chapter was reactivated in February 1965 by special action of the National Interfraternity Council. It is the only such chapter of a national fraternity at a junior college.

Lindvall, Sigma Pi pledge, is a graduate of Culver High School.

Films Available At Culver Library During November

"Achievement In Hong Kong" -15-c- Depicts the resettlement of nearly 3/4 of a million Chinese who fled to Hong Kong. The homeless Chinese first became squatters in makeshift, unsanitary living quarters pieced together from scraps of tin and wood. Their resettlement into sound, quickly constructed concrete housing has been widely hailed as a successful and remarkable program. (International Film Bureau)

"Andrew Jackson At The Hermitage" -16-c- This film uses Jackson's own words to provide insights to the man, his philosophy of government, and his position on the then two vital issues — the nullification controversy with South Carolina and the fight against the Bank of the United States. (Coronet)

"Avalon Holiday" -14-c-s The Avalon Peninsula of Newfoundland juts out into the Atlantic farther than any other part of North America. Between it and the other side of the world there is nothing but limitless sea. This fact alone contributes much to the Island's unique character. In this film you move from place to place to take in the Island's many charms. (Loaned by CTFL)

"Bill Of Rights Of The U.S." -16-b&w- On the first ten amendments to the Constitution, regarded as specific guarantees and safeguards to personal freedom. (Encyclopaedia Britannica)

"Breath Of Life" -27-c- Describes a new frontier of underwater exploration. Includes a demonstration of underwater equipment and safety techniques. An informative and enjoyable sport film. (Coast Visual)

"British Isles: Land and People" -11-b&w- Provides a survey of the island region containing England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales. Surveys representative aspects of British life; and emphasizes Britain's interdependence with the rest of the world. (Encyclopaedia Britannica)

"Constellations — Guides To The Night Sky" -11-c- Uses animation and live photography to show the easily recognized constellations used for locating other constellations and celestial objects in northern and southern skies; and, through the use of overprints, relates constellations to their mythological origins. (Indiana University)

"Ethiopia" -17-c- Lack of a universal language, improved travel, and adequate schools have kept the Ethiopians from contact with the outside world. Today their ruler is seeking ways to improve the living standards in his kingdom. (Walt Disney)

"Game Hunting With A Camera" -19-b&w-s- Tells the story of Graham Wilson, a school-teacher from New Jersey, who rides a lightweight motorcycle along a forest ranger trail in the Flathead National Forest in northwestern Montana. (Loaned by Harley-Davidson Motor Co.)

"Great Lakes" -22-c- The Great Lakes lie in one of the greatest industrial regions on earth, and furnish some of the world's busiest shipping lanes. (Contemporary)

"How Much Affection" -14-b&w This is a study of the problems of young people and the adult emotions they feel, and how to understand and control these emotions. (McGraw-Hill)

"Life Story of the Humming Bird" (Print 2) -16-c- Slow-motion and high-speed photography, with many extreme closeups, make it possible to observe aspects of the humming bird's behavior which have never been so clearly recorded on film before. (Ency. Brit.)

"Make Way For Ducklings" -10-c- Film adapted from the book written and illustrated by Robert McCloskey. The book was awarded the Caldecott Medal as "The most distinguished American picture book for children" in the year of its publication. (Weston Woods)

"The Mediterranean World" -22-c- This film shows the significance of the Mediterranean region in the development of Western civilization. The distinctive features and achievements of early civilizations are illustrated and contemporary life in the Arab countries and Greece and Italy is shown. The importance of the region as a center of world tension today is pointed out. (Encyclopaedia Britannica)

"Monkey On The Back" -30-b&w- Documentary drama, based on real life experiences of a drug addict. (McGraw-Hill)

"Pipers And A' -10-c-s- A lively and musical film (if you warm to bagpipes), explains a good deal about the Scotsman's passion for pleats. There are paintings and engravings from Scotland's archives, but the action for the most part was filmed as the Glengarry Highland Games, only a caber-toss from Ottawa. (Loaned by CTFL)

"Power Among Men" -14-c- A U.N. film dedicated to the proposition that science is but the tool of man and man alone is responsible for his own survival. (de Rochemont)

"The Valley of the Tennessee" -28-b&w-s- This film is a dramatic story of the unified development of the Tennessee Valley. (Loaned by American Heritage)

"Villages In The Sky" -12-c- The lives, habits and ceremonies of the Hopi Indians. (Avalon Daggett)

"Wastage of Human Resources" -11-b&w-s- Emphasizing the needless loss of life through a hotel fire, the film discusses various cases of the wastage of human resources at different age levels, such as disease, accidents, juvenile delinquency, unemployment, alcoholic and drug addiction, mental diseases, crime and war. (Loaned by American Heritage)

"With These Hands" -49-c&w-s- Shows the depressed living and working conditions of a garment factory worker before his union was established. Depicts the rise of the International Ladies' Garment Workers Union in 1910, following tragic fire in which all employees perished. Shows the workers gaining collective bargaining rights, better working conditions, an improved standard of living and establishing a retirement and medical program in their powerful and efficient organization. (Loaned by American Heritage)

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kline were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker and two children, all of Elkhart, Curtis and Charles are Mrs. Kline's brothers.

To keep cherry pie filling from boiling over, bake pie in a hot oven, at least 400 degrees F., for 35 minutes or until top crust is light brown, suggest Purdue University food specialists.

IT WON'T STRETCH

Your automobile policy names some very definite figures. Even though your coverage seems generous, it is commonplace these days for damages to be awarded in six figures. Your future security could rest on the few dollars it would take to raise your protection.

This decision is one you must make for yourself. We can be helpful.

Reading Room open in Church Edifice 2 to 5 - Wed. and Sat.

Scriptural readings on Adam and Eve and Cain and Abel are examined in Christian Science church services this week. The subject is "Adam and Fallen Man."

The Golden Text is from Ecclesiastes: "Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright, but they have sought out many inventions."

A theme of redemption is brought out in some passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook: "The divine nature was best expressed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the true reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than their poor thought-models would allow, — thoughts which presented man as fallen sick, sinning, and dying" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 259).

YOU won't KNOW yourself!

Dressing up is always fun! Whether it's Hallowe'en, Mardi Gras, a Hawaiian luau or a masquerade ball, almost everyone of every age enjoys wearing a costume. It makes us feel "different" . . . less restrained and more light-hearted. Perhaps it's a relief to leave our everyday self at home for a while. For many of us, that tired, worried, unhappy self is far from satisfactory but we seem to be stuck with it.

Yet consider this. The burden of self that we carry is unnecessary . . . and we have a standing invitation to lay it down! One of the joys of following Jesus is that we must "leave self behind." There is no place in the Christian life for worry or woe, because the logical sequences of faith in God are contentment and serenity. Yes, the gloomiest pessimists become clear-visioned optimists when they are filled with the light that only God can give.

Academy Sports

Culver Military Academy will close its 1965 football season Friday night in a 7:30 p.m. game at West Lafayette High School.

The Eagles will be out after the third victory of the season, and Coach Russ Oliver already knows the Cadets will be heavy underdogs to the West Lafayette squad.

The Academy won its second game of the season Saturday when the Eagles jumped on hapless New Carlisle, 21-7. The victory placed the Culver record at two victories, four defeats, and one tie, while New Carlisle lost its sixth game in nine contests.

New Carlisle scored first and gave the Cadets a scare before the Academy eleven got rolling in the second period. Warren Briggs scored from the nine after a 57-yard march with three minutes remaining in the half. The Academy squad came roaring back in the third period on a 75-yard run by Butch Bartlett, and then put the game out of reach with a 19-yard pass play from Dave Rafes to Bartlett.

"Almost every schoolboy today is watching Gemini flights on television and studying pictures of Mars in the daily papers," points out James Lyle, president of Whitman Publishing Company, Racine, Wis.

A child's curiosity now reaches out to the whole universe. As a result, many books on astronomy, engines, rockets and space exploration have recently been published to give youngsters the background help they need. Parents will also find the books useful.

A father and son can learn together from a new book called "Rockets." A rocket and a boy's bike have much in common, the book explains. Both work on principles discovered by Sir Isaac Newton in 1642 when he watched an apple fall and developed his laws of motion. Modern rocket power is explained and the reasons for using various fuels such as lox, or liquid oxygen. New terms become clear. ISP — the thrust produced from a pound of propellant in a second — means the same thing to a space-age rocketeer that "miles per gallon" means to a car owner. These basic terms of today are handy to know.

Children take the new science in stride.

Adults may have a hard time even remembering the names of the planets. If so, it's wise to fall back on an old school-day device. Make up a funny sentence. Counting outward from the sun you have Mercury, Venus, Earth, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, Pluto. So you remember the sentence, "My very educated mother just served us nine pickles," and the first letters are your key.

Don't give the secret away. Everybody will be sure you have a sound grasp of the solar system. And with a little help from children's books you'll prove them right.

"Keep From Between Parked Cars" is the School Safety message that will be posted in Illinois and Indiana classrooms during November.

The Chicago Motor Club warns that a child playing between parked autos is only inches from the flow of traffic and faces impending danger. If he decides suddenly to dart across the street, he is at the mercy of a good set of brakes and the alert reactions of a surprised driver. Children have also been trapped in this spot when drivers, unaware of their presence, back up to leave a parking space. These dangers are increased in the early darkness of autumn days.

The Chicago Motor Club will distribute these posters to more than 45,000 grade-school classrooms throughout its two-state territory for display during the month of November.
