Indians Win And Lose In Two Overtime Games

Fouls Decisive In Both Games

By BOB SHIRRELL

Last weekend, with a win and a loss in a pair of overtime games, the Culver Indians raised their record to nine wins and eight losses. In both games foul shots were the deciding factor.

Pioneer Defeats Culver 61-57

On Friday night, in an overtime game plagued with scoreboard trouble, the Indians lost by a score of 61-57. The victory for Pioneer gives them a fine record of 15 wins and only one loss.

At the end of regular play the score was tied 51-51 and the teams went into a three minute overtime. The Pioneer Panthers scored 10 points, and won; the Culver Indians scored only six points, and lost. Of the 10 points scored by the Panthers eight were foul shots; these eight foul shots won the game for them.

Throughout the fourth quarter and the overtime period the clock on the scoreboard failed to operate and consequently, among the players and the fans, there was general bewilderment as to the exact amount of time remaining in the game. Needless to say, this condition hindered both teams' playing ability.

The Culver quintet's floor shooting percentage jumped up to 39 per cent, a respectable figure. The team was sparked by hot-shooting forward Randy Wakefield who hit 50 per cent of his shots and ran up 17 points. Randy was followed by team mates Bruce Lindvall and Andy Lowry who added 16 points and 10 points, respectively.

Norman Newell and Alan Lipscomb led the Panthers on their home floor by putting in 16 points apiece.

Indians Defeat Winamac 67-65

On Saturday, Feb. 5, the Culver Indians defeated the Winamac Indians by a score of 67-65 in a real "Hoosier barnburner." It was an extremely close game all the way with neither team taking much more than a couple of baskets lead at any time.

At the end of regular play the score was tied 62-62. In the overtime the Culver squad scored five points while the Winamac team scored only three points. Thus, Culver won, and Winamac lost.

But the regular play really tells the story of this game. In the game the Winamac team hit a pitiful 36 per cent of their foul shots. That is the lowest foul shot percentage this reporter has ever seen. Had the Winamac squad raised that percentage, hit better than 11 out of 31 shots, they could have won this game.

The Culver Indians continued to raise their field shooting percentage, by hitting 44 per cent of their field shots. The team was led by center Andy Lowry who got 23 points and guard Bruce Lindvall who added 17 points.

Rich Hood led the scoring for Winamac by putting in eight field goals and four foul shots, a total of 20 points.

Weekend Games

This Friday night the tribe will play host to the Triton Trojans, who defeated the local squad in the Bi-County tourney. The Indians will be seeking revenge on

School Board Studies Types Of Floor Finishes

The Board of School Trustees and members of the public holding corporation on Monday evening discussed with the architect, James Rennard of M-W Incorporated, types of floor finishes for several special areas of the new high school building.

Because of special conditions which will exist in kitchen, dining room, arts and crafts room, pool and physical education dressing rooms, and rest rooms, resilient floors such as asphalt and vinyl tiles do not offer entirely satisfactory surfaces. Consequently choice must be made from materials of a more durable nature, such as quarry and ceramic tile, epoxy materials, and other products now in use for many areas in new schools.

The group also approved the use of two tones of brick, with an equal division between a light brown and a tan brick. In the near future the architect will complete a colored picture of the proposed building and a set of the approved floor plans of the structure.

In other business, the School Board talked with principals regarding the employed personnel which will be needed for the 1966-1967 school term. The Board also approved the replacement of a defective clothes dryer for Aubeenaubee School and considered the desirability of replacing the badly damaged sidewalks along the east side of the Culver School. Part of this latter project probably can be completed during the summer of 1966.

Editor, THE CITIZEN:

How tragic for all of Indiana if its great chance for industrial growth is forfeited to a national park.

The administration in Washington talks a lot about job opportunities. There will be thousands of new jobs for northern Indiana if the area around Buras Harbor is given enough room for industrial growth. But the proposed Indiana Dunes National Lakeshore will smother port development.

Such a park would deny thousands of jobs to assist the war on poverty. What could be more ridiculous than for the federal government to spend millions of dollars to stop job-seeking wage earners from finding employment? Would this help the war on poverty?

This is exactly what Senator Douglas of Illinois and the Save the Dunes are doing to northern Indiana. Don't they know the dunes have been saved for forty years by the Indiana Dunes State Park?

People everywhere: Don't let the title of the park bill fool you.

The majority of the Save the Dunes, who favor a national park, know nothing of the area involved, and are influenced by the title only.

MISS MARY A. KENT
 M. R. Box 502
 Chesterton, Indiana

Editor, THE CITIZEN:

Earlier this month the Indianapolis newspapers carried an article informing their readers of a conference to be held on Feb. 5, the inferred pretext of which is to stimulate interest in government among Indiana high school students. The conference is under the direction of one elected Democrat official, Senator Birch Bayh, who will be assisted by four Democrat Presidential appointees: U. S. Ambassador to Luxembourg Mrs. Patricia Roberts Harris, Assistant Secretary of State G. Mennen "Soapy" Williams, Assistant Secretary of Defense John T. McNaughton and Executive Director of the President's Committee on Juvenile Delinquency and Youth Crime James W. Symington.

The cost of the program is being paid for by taxpayers money, taxpayers who are BOTH Republican as well as Democrat.

It is almost beyond my understanding why some astute politician, or at least some fair minded irate citizen, didn't blow the lid off of this sham the instant the announcement was made.

This is without question the most sordid hoax perpetrated by one of our highest elected state officials in more years than most Hoosiers can remember.

If this is the democracy I fought three years for during World War II, perhaps I would have been better off to have spent my time in another endeavor.

Are we, as citizens, supposed to stand idly by while the party overwhelmingly in power crams their doctrines down the throats of our youth? I say, not on your life. This method is too suggestive of the tactics used by certain European Countries in the years prior to 1939. It is a clear and concise politically partisan maneuver.

In view of the fact that this conference is being supported by both Republican and Democrat tax money, would it not be more apposite to make the panel bipartisan?

Since this meeting, being supported by taxpayers money, is to be strictly a partisan forum of the Democrats and since two students and one teacher have been invited from every high school in Indiana, it should be most interesting to the townspeople where these high schools are located, when they learn which teacher or principal may be finding it advantageous to play footsie with the powers that be.

Editor, THE CITIZEN:

As expected, the President's proposal to double the term of members of the House of Representatives was greeted with resounding applause by those congressmen. It came as something of a "pay-in-advance" for the repeat performance of last year's "rubber stamp" House.

In view of last year's session, even two years is too long for the current majority. The record of the 89th Congress was one of the most disastrous in the history of our nation. As a "rubber stamp" body, it lost all claim to individual stature.

More than any other Congress, it completely ignored the limitations of federal power, as spelled out in the Constitution, and transplanted more power from the local level to federal autocracy.

Summed up, the 89th did more than any other Congress to change our form of government from a constitutionally restricted Republic into a demagogue and socialized democracy. Considering the damage done within this short time, even two year periods are hardly fast enough to bring needed changes by the electorate.

Man Found Guilty On Reckless Count

Richard Thomas, 37, of Culver, was found guilty in Marshall Circuit Court at Plymouth, Monday, on a charge of reckless homicide, and Judge Roy Sheneman set Feb. 21 for sentencing.

Thomas was indicted by a Marshall County grand jury in connection with a highway accident Aug. 16, 1965, on State Road 17 north of Culver in which Miss Carol Heiser, 20, Route 2, was fatally injured.

The trial evidence was heard by Judge Sheneman after Thomas filed a motion waiving a trial by jury.

The head-on collision involving cars driven by Thomas and Miss Heiser occurred at the junction of State Road 17 and State Road 8. Witnesses said the southbound Thomas car veered first into the northbound lane and then back into its own lane, where it collided with the northbound Heiser car which had turned abruptly to the left in an apparent attempt to avoid the collision.

Statistics released today by E. F. Schenk, District Manager of the Chicago office of Dun & Bradstreet, reflect the activity of the business population in Marshall County during the past year. Figures obtained from a physical count of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book for January, 1966 totaled 613 manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers in this area.

The Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book lists all manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers who seek or grant commercial credit. It does not include some of the service and professional businesses such as beauty and barber shops, security dealers and real estate brokers.

Schenk added that during the past year 310 changes were made in the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book listings of Marshall County businesses, including names added, names deleted, and changes in the ratings of continuing businesses.

Using the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book listings as a guide, it is interesting to review what has happened in the larger County Communities during the past year:

Reference Book listings in January, 1966: Plymouth 272, Bremen 122, Culver 68, Bourbon 56, and Argos 43.

Reference Book Listings in January, 1965: Plymouth 252, Bremen 119, Culver 67, Bourbon 62, and Argos 44.

As one phase in revising credit reports and keeping them up-to-date, Dun & Bradstreet, through its national network of offices, writes annually to all businesses in each of the 50 states listed in the Reference Book (7,880 pages, in 4 volumes) to request their financial statements. This year, these requests are being sent to approximately three million businesses — to the corner grocery store worth a few thousand dollars as well as to businesses worth millions.

When the owner or officer of a business enterprise, or his accountant, fills out and mails his financial statement to Dun & Bradstreet, it becomes a part of the credit report on his business and a factor in determining the credit rating of his business.

The Dun & Bradstreet credit rating consists of two symbols. The first, a letter of the alphabet, indicates financial strength or the tangible net worth of the business. The second symbol is a number which reflects a composite appraisal of the background, operations, financial stability and payment record of the business.

Each Reference Book listing, which includes the rating, is a condensed summary of the information contained in the Dun & Bradstreet credit report. The report includes the following: a history of the business, (who owns it, who runs it, and how long it has been operating); a description of what the business does and how it does it; a financial section which usually includes the latest financial statement; and a record of how the business pays its bills.

While credit reports are primarily used by businessmen who want to evaluate the credit risk of a business before shipping or selling, insurance underwriters also use credit reports to review risks, rates and coverage for fire and other types of insurance.

Medicare Meeting Set For Thursday At Culver Library

A Medicare meeting will be held at the Culver Library on Thursday evening, Feb. 10, 1966, at 7 p.m. This meeting will be conducted by the representatives from the Social Security Administration.

A slide presentation covering Medicare and the recent changes in the Social Security Law will be followed by a question and answer session. After the meeting, the representatives will accept applications for Social Security and Medicare benefits. This is a good opportunity for individuals working full-time to file their applications without taking time off work.

The Social Security people recommend that everyone age 65 and over, who has not filed for Social Security or Medicare benefits, file an application with the Social Security Administration as soon as possible.

This meeting will be a good opportunity for those that have not made their decision regarding supplemental medical benefits under Medicare, to obtain sufficient information to make an educated decision.

FEDERAL TAX

Q — Our medical expenses should be well over 3 per cent of our income. Can you tell me if we can deduct the full amount of our expense that we have been billed for or just what we have paid so far on these bills?

A — Only the amount you actually paid last year should be used as the basis for figuring your medical expense deduction. Remember to deduct from that total whatever reimbursement insurance, etc. you received for these expenses.

Medical expenses which exceed 3 per cent of your adjusted gross income will be deductible. However, only medicine and drugs over 1 per cent of your adjusted gross income can be included as a part of those medical expenses. If you or your wife are 65 or over, these limitations do not apply to either of you.

FEDERAL TAX

Q — I received unemployment benefits from the state last year. Are they taxable?

A — No. State unemployment benefits are not taxable and do not have to be reported.

Seeks Nomination For Joint State Representative

DR. OTIS R. BOWEN, M.D.

Dr. Otis R. Bowen, M.D., Bremen physician, today announced his intention to seek the nomination for Joint State Representative for Marshall and Starke Counties. Dr. Bowen at present is the Joint State Representative for Marshall and Fulton Counties. Reapportionment, however, has now placed Marshall and Starke Counties in the same Representative district.

Dr. Bowen, age 47, has been a practicing physician in Bremen, Ind. since 1946 following his release from 3½ years of service in World War II. He and his wife, Beth, have 4 children: Rick, at Indiana University, Judy, at Purdue University, and Tim and Rob at home. He has always been active in local and state government. He served as Coroner for Marshall County from 1952-56 and as State Representative for Marshall County in 1957, 58, 61, 62, 63 and 64 and as Joint State Representative for Marshall and Fulton Counties in 1965 and 66. During his terms in the state legislature he has served and is serving on many standing committees of the House and on many special study commissions. In addition, he at the present time is Minority Leader of the House of Representatives and a member of the Legislative Advisory Commission.

Dr. Bowen stated that he is especially interested in seeing that Indiana has the finest system of education at all levels, takes good care of its mentally ill, its handicapped, and its unfortunates, its law offenders with emphasis on cure and rehabilitation rather than simply custodial care, and finding solutions to reducing the number of tragic deaths on our highways. He stated that these problems are with us and can and must be met in a manner that we can get a dollar's worth of good for a dollar spent.

Academy Sports

(Last Week's Items)

Pete DePrez continued his assault on the basketball record books at Culver Military Academy last week as the Shelbyville, Ind., center added another 44 points to his bid to become the highest scorer in Eagle history.

The victim this time was Argos High School, which fell 76-73 as DePrez scored more than half of the Academy's points. While DePrez's individual effort was devastating to Argos, the victory could be considered a team triumph just as when DePrez set a new scoring record of 45 points two weeks ago against Avilla. Both teams set their defenses to stop the high scorer, but the Academy's other 4 men chipped in enough scoring and ball control to win.

Along with the top effort by DePrez, Saturday's game against Argos was a big night for Bill Osborn, who is not related to the local family. The Fort Collins, Colo., forward dumped in 12 points to take some of the pressure off DePrez, and floor leader John Packer made his contribution as the set-up man on offense. The Academy led all the way against Argos to avenge last year's defeat. The victory was Culver's seventh in 12 games and the sixth in the last seven games.

In other Academy sports, Eagle wrestlers, swimmers, and marksmen all suffered defeat Saturday.

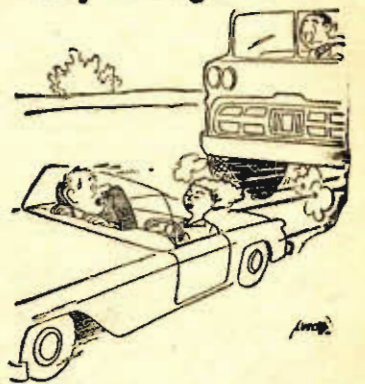

The wrestling team finished third in its own Invitational Tourney but won five individual championships. Penn High School finished first with 97 points, New Haven was next with 91 points, the Academy had 90 points, and West Lafayette was a distant fourth with 35 points. The fact that West Lafayette failed to bring a full complement of wrestlers aided Penn in its championship since the Mishawaka school was fortunate enough to draw three byes in preliminary bouts and to thus score additional points by placing three of its wrestlers in the finals.

Mike Schrage continued his own brilliant wrestling record when he added two more victories to run his unbeaten streak to 30 over a period of two years. Jim Brooks also protected his unbeaten streak this year. Scott Wood, Mike Fleming, and Les Senour, of Plymouth, Ind., also won individual titles.

Eagle swimmers, after bumping into one of the best teams in the state last week when they lost to South Bend Adams, lost to another top combination Saturday. Kokomo won 53-42, but the meet went down to the last event and could have been won by the Academy had the Eagles been able to pull off a victory in 320-yard freestyle relay. Kokomo now is 14-0 for the season while Culver is 6-3.

Howe Military School won a rifle match over the Academy 1,408 to 1,402 at Howe. The Academy, however, salvaged part of the match by winning the junior varsity competition 1,351 to 1,291.

My Neighbors

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE PRESS CLUB OF CULVER HIGH SCHOOL

This week's teepee is coming to you from a snowbound homestead, so I'm not sure how long our signals will clearly come through.

Vickie Morrison sure does look different with her hair up. I think all the queen candidates looked really cool this year, and our congratulations go to Linda McAllister for being chosen as this year's Homecoming Queen. Speaking of homecoming, Mr. Crabb you did a great job carrying the crown. We're all proud of you.

The juniors held their usual after the game dance Saturday but this time they had a live band. The FIVE DIMENSIONS provided the swinging music and did a fine job. Although the dance was a smash, it seemed the senior girls were having a bit of trouble. All over a guy too. Hope it gets patched up soon kiddies.

Elaine Epley and Kerry Haenes were together at the dance. Could this mean something? Linda Sihrell seemed to be attracting attention from all sides of the gym Saturday, too. Do you think it could have been her granny dress?

Along with all the fighting and arguing Saturday, it seems the snow got in the way too. Danny S. got stuck so kind hearted Linda B., of course, came to the rescue and pushed him. It sure is too bad about the tall fight that got in the way. Oh, well Danny, you needed a new one any way.

Marsh, who was that good looking soldier you were talking to in the drugstore the other night. . . Come on now give.

Congrats to all the C.H.S. students who sang at the vocal contest in Kokomo Saturday. From what I hear they all did pretty well.

Susie D. do you and Savie B. have a thing going? Oh, you say he's only your big brother. I guess it's alright if he buys cokes for you in the drug store if that's the extent of it.

The student body wants to send out a get well wish to old Mike Wynn. He's now recovering from an operation on his toe. Hurry back Mike, we miss ya.

Susie Thews, do you always play with jig-saw puzzles in study hall?

Diane D., can't you keep yourself home when H3 calls you from California? Disappointing, isn't it?

FLASH . . . I just got a bulletin. Oh, so Bob Shirrell and Linda Reinhold are steadies now. I guess maybe one pleasant thing happened last Saturday night at the dance.

Miss Charlton should pick the English 12 movies more carefully. Poor little Mark Kosierman and Mike Hansen were so upset by last week's movie that they were crying.

Hurry, Hurry, be the first one on your block to own a soap rabbit that grows hair. Just go to the Culver City Drug store and Vick or Marsh will sell you one.

Well seniors. Only 39 days till trip time? That's going to be a great week. Now that you know how to pack a suitcase all you have to figure out is how to get all your junk in one dinky case. Good Luck. . .

Tell us about your new flame Paula H. He looks familiar.

How was your flight to Texas, Becky. It must be rough to just go flying off to a neat place like Texas in the middle of the week.

Cindee, why were you so happy Friday night? Is it a secret? By the way Cindee, why didn't you go to the C.M.A. dance Saturday? Oh, you were more interested in seeing a guy at C.H.S., that figures.

Welcome back to the old stomping grounds Loretta. We were beginning to think you'd left us or something.

What's this? Larry Washburn is getting married? Oh, it's just a rumor. I should hope so.

Every one is getting their locks cut short. It's really cool, Diane.

WARNING . . . All seniors had better start skipping school any period but that of Mr. Lawson's. He is making every senior write an outline of the day's work that they miss. That makes it almost better to make it to Econ. class every day, doesn't it.

Well, if I want this news to get published in time I'd better quit before I get snowed in. See ya next week.

"HANS" WEEKLY WINNERS"

Headlining this week's article is the POLACK POLL. Plymouth's decisive victory over Culver caused the only major change in the poll. Culver dropped from second to third, and Knox regained second. The third weekly POLACK POLL is as follows: 1. Plymouth 69, 2. Knox 54, 3. Culver 46, 4. Bremen 42, and 5. Triton 37. Also receiving votes: Argos.

Plymouth has lived up to its expectations, with Kral leading the way against our arch-rival Culver. Knox is still tough although faltering against Twin Lakes.

A rematch of the Culver Triton game is coming up this weekend at the Indians' home court. The team as well as the fans have been waiting for this, a moment of revenge. It might be noted that the mighty Trojans will be without the services of their sixth man, John Gassensmith.

Due to the large pile of letters on my desk that I have to answer I will have to go on to predictions.

FEBRUARY 11
CULVER over Triton — everybody saw the game in the Bi-County Tourney.

Plymouth over Manchester — a toss-up!

Pioneer over Fowler — where is Fowler?

LaVille over Walkerton — the Lancers have a homecourt advantage.

C.M.A. over Aubree — C.M.A. has lost their FAB!

Argos over Tyner — the Red-men have won two!

Rochester over Peru — Steve Norris makes the difference.

Knox over Bremen — Knox is too tall!

Winamac over Delphi — the Oracles are weak!

FEBRUARY 12
New Carlisle over Triton — the Golden Bay rides again.

Knox over Walkerton — "K" comes before "W."

Argos over Mentone

CULVER over C.M.A. — re-

Bremen over Caston — two evenly matched teams.

FEBRUARY 15

Rochester over Knox — cinch game of the week? (not really) TOP GAMES THIS WEEK

On Feb. 11 St. Joe over Penn — two in a row for Joe!

On Feb. 11 LaSalle over Monterey — the Lions are tougher.

On Feb. 15 Adams over Jackson — cinch game of the week! (really)

"HONORABLE HANS"

CLUB NEWS

By Lyn Mackey

The SOPHOMORES are keeping the posters rolling in. Also, a reminder: Dues were to be paid by the first semester, and many students have not yet paid.

The JUNIOR class showed a little bit of spirit at the tourney by their poster. Keep up the good work, girls! The Juniors must be very proud of their candidate for homecoming queen. Congratulations Linda. It seems they made quite a profit on the homecoming dance. It was sure nice to have a live band for once!

The SENIORS are busy preparing for the senior trip. They received a non-detailed schedule of events and are now planning their nights in New York. Just 39 more days.

Guess Who!

Well, here we go with another week of "Guess Who." Maybe if we give you more clues you'll be able to figure out who our victim is!

This week we shall call our victim "Horace," because he seems to be a little hoarse, in fact, he's practically lost his voice!

"Horace" is about five feet, two inches tall, blondish-brown hair, and he seems to be very popular with all the kids at school. He enjoys parties and whenever anyone has one, you can expect him to be there. "Horace" goes to every basketball game and he's very enthusiastic about them. I've never heard anyone yell so much!

If you followed "Horace" around all day you wouldn't get very tired, because when he's not in his classes he's in the Sophomore group on the second floor.

Have you guessed who "Horace" is yet? Well, it turns out that "Horace" isn't really a "he"! "He" is a she . . . by the name of Lyn Mackey!

Can You Qualify for These Jobs?

How about it? Could you qualify as a welder . . . a tool and die maker . . . or a draftsman?

Probably not—without special training.

More and more jobs today require considerable skill and know-how . . . to make the best possible use of modern methods and tools.

In fact, there is a growing demand for persons who can qualify for today's jobs—for craftsmen, programmers, technicians, engineers, planners and other skilled people.

The U.S. Labor Department predicts that American industry will need 43% more professional and technical personnel between 1960 and 1970. During the same period, there will be jobs for 28% more clerical and sales people . . . 21% more managers . . . 20% more skilled workmen . . . 18% more semi-skilled . . . and 34% more service people.

On the other hand, no increase is expected in the number of jobs for unskilled workers.

These figures clearly indicate that the person with a good education—or some sort of special training—stands the best chance of landing a job in the future.

How about your chances? That depends largely on you—on your ability to learn a skill and your desire to equip yourself with the necessary education.

There will be plenty of jobs tomorrow for those who can qualify. The time to prepare is now.

By Carin Manchester, Patti McCombs, and Barb Mikeseil

Culver High School's fourth annual "Homecoming" was held on Saturday, Jan. 29, 1966. In the local gym between the B-team and varsity games.

The candidates were escorted onto the center of the gym floor and led down an aisle consisting of the Culver varsity basketball team and the Culver and Plymouth varsity and B-team cheerleaders. The candidates and their escorts were as follows: senior - Diane Davis escorted by Mike Hansen; junior - Linda McAllister escorted by Phil Scruggs; sophomore - Cathy DeWitt escorted by Phil Edgington; freshman - Vicki Morrison escorted by Steve McCombs. After much excitement and anticipation Linda McAllister was named the "1966 Homecoming queen." Andy Lowry, captain of the varsity squad, crowned her queen and presented her with an armful of long stemmed red roses after which she graciously presented one to each member of her court. After several pictures were taken the queen and her court were escorted off the floor, thus ending another wonderful "Homecoming" for Culver High School.

Social Security

Farm operators must file their own 1965 Federal tax returns no later than Feb. 15, unless an earlier estimate has been submitted. Owner-operators and tenants are subject to both income tax and social security tax, but farm landlords pay social security tax only if they have been active in the production of crops or livestock.

Operators who did not clear enough to pay any income tax must still file a return and pay the social security tax if their net earnings were at least $400 for the year.

Mr. Charles E. Burke, Manager of the South Bend Social Security Office, suggests that farmers contact his office and ask for pamphlet 864. This contains tips on filling out a farm tax return and also information on an optional method of filing for additional social security credit to many farmers.

SESQUICENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK

By J. M. Guthrie
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
Indiana Sesquicentennial Commission

INDIANA, LAND OF INDIANS

In this Sesquicentennial Year of the great state of Indiana it may be of interest to some to learn about the previous owners or claimants of this land.

Unfortunately none of the pre-historic or historic Indian tribes had any form of written language (aside from "memory sticks") and legends and folklore make poor history.

Of the so-called "Historic" Indians of Indiana it is believed by some that a tribe known as Akansa or Quapaws were here until possibly the early 16th century. These people were later found on the west bank of the Mississippi, north of the mouth of the Arkansas River.

Shortly after, a tribe identified as Ofo or Ofogoula were in southern Indiana (and Ohio). Early French sources refer to them as Monsoupelea or Mosopelea. These people, like the Akansa, migrated southward along the Mississippi before white exploration.

Many tribal names have been associated with this region in early chronicles. Many, if not most, references to certain names can be traced back to hearsay sources — an Indian travelling through civilized areas referred to people of what is now Indiana, or somewhere within 500 miles of it, as Honniasontkeronons, Andastes, Chiouanons, Outagames or Iskousogos or other unpronounceable names which were doubtless distorted in translation.

Certainly, most authorities agree that the most powerful of Indiana tribes faced by whites was the Miami. Their title to this land is not at all clear. Like all other "red" men, the Miamis were a migratory people. They came into Indiana from the north and had been visited in 1658 in the Green Bay area by Gabriel Bruilletes and in 1670 along the Fox River in Wisconsin, by Nicholas Perrot. They moved southward within a few years and established at Chicago and on the St. Joseph River of Lake Michigan. Gradually they moved eastward across northern Indiana and finally established their main villages around the Fort Wayne region. Kekionga was their capital city. Interestingly, they settled on ground that had previously been "owned" by the Ottawas.

The Delaware began moving into southern Indiana, between the White and Ohio Rivers about 1770, by permission of the Miami and other tribes. Some of them moved northward and they had towns in the vicinity of Muncie and Ft. Wayne and in Hamilton and Madison counties. They left Indiana by 1818.

The Shawnee were roaming in all parts of Indiana by 1788 and one large village was near the mouth of White River. They were friendly with the Delaware and established towns among them. They established along White River and on the Mississinewa. The Shawnee had a village on the Tippecanoe and one near Ft. Wayne. They were a nomadic people and their bands roved over the Old Northwest. Their tribal legends say they came here from Florida. Most of them left or were removed from Indiana by 1825.

Potawatomis, close relatives of the Miami, but often unfriendly toward them, began spreading southward from Michigan about 1765. Generally they lived in the north and western part of Indiana and in Illinois. Those on the Tippecanoe were often referred to as "Potawatomi of the Wabash." They were the last tribe to leave Indiana and many were removed by force about 1838.

Kickapoos moved into Indiana from the west about the same time Delaware (and/or Muncie) came in from the east. They had come into Illinois from Wisconsin, split up and some moved west, some east into Hoosierland. They settled along the Vermillion and Wabash, much to the disgust of Miami and Plankeshaw people. But Kickapoos ceded what claim they had to Indiana land and moved west of the Mississippi about 1809.

Plankeshaw people were from the Great Lakes region and moved southward in Indiana, just as their blood brothers, the Miami had done. The Plankeshaw lived much along the Wabash, from the mouth of the river northward above Lafayette. In the south, they claimed ownership of land as far east as Louisville at the time of General Clark's first expedition.

The Wea were close relatives of the Miami and lived along the Wabash. Their principal villages were in the Lafayette region.

A small band of Mahicans from upper New York are known to have migrated into Kankakee River country about 1720 and later some of them lived along White River. A mixed group of Mahicans, known as Stockbridges, also moved in and after about a century left for northern Wisconsin.

sin. All of these historic tribes (and the main ones living in Indiana are mentioned here) spoke Algonquian languages except the Hurons, who were Iroquoian. Most of them readily understood each other's dialects, customs and habits. They seldom respected each other's claim to territory though the Miami, being the most powerful, seemed to have had best control of all, such as it was.

Perhaps we are a bit too critical of our forefathers' "ruthless" treatment of the "noble" redmen and the taking of "their" land. None of the historic Indians had much claim to it; all had come into Indiana about the time of early white exploration and they never did agree among themselves as to which tribe "owned" exactly what. Their claims got stronger with every council and treaty with white men and reached staggering proportions as time passed. Perhaps some day someone will attempt to compute the total amount in trade goods, whiskey, money, western lands, jewelry and sundry other items that whites have paid Indian tribes for Indiana.

Pensions and Annuities

Indianapolis, Indiana — Do you get a pension or an annuity? Pension and annuity payments received by residents of Indiana during 1965 fall into one of these three classes for Federal income tax purposes: non-taxable, fully taxable, or partly taxable, the Internal Revenue Service said today. Pensions that are tax-free and need not be reported on federal returns, include Social Security payments, Railroad Retirement Act pensions, pensions to veterans, and family benefits and disability retirement pay of military personnel retired on disability resulting from active service.

Payments received by a retired employee from a pension plan provided by his employer, without cost to the employee, are fully taxable.

If you purchased an annuity, or if you retired under a plan financed jointly by you and your employer, part of the payments received by you will be taxed. The computation of the taxable portion is based on a formula which permits the recovery of your cost tax-free.

If you contributed a part of the cost of your pension or annuity, and will recover your entire cost within three years after retirement, you report nothing as income until you recover your cost. After that, all amounts received are fully taxable.

Document No. 5018, which furnishes more detailed information on this subject, may be obtained by writing to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service.

Daughter home from college: "But, Dad, don't you believe that two can live as cheaply as one?"

Father: "I certainly do. Right now your mother and I are living as cheaply as you."

The foreman of a jury reported rather angrily to a judge that no agreement on a verdict was in prospect: "The jury will have to continue its deliberations," ruled the judge. "If you haven't come to a decision by seven, I'll have twelve suppers sent in for you." "If your Honor doesn't mind," said the foreman, "I suggest that the order be changed to eleven suppers and one ham or hog."

Our Men Look At The World...

...and it makes him sick!
Another look at the world and his heart stirs with hope.
The first has seen only the world itself... full of evil, injustice, ugliness, pain.
The second has seen men, men, men. He has seen God... Who is not content with the world as it is... Who offers a man the spiritual tools with which to change their earthly environment... Who promises divine help and lasting reward.
For the man who is tired of scowling at life the Church has a message... and a mission.

THE CHURCH IS ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest force in the world for the betterment of mankind. It is the only force that has the power to change the world. It is the only force that has the power to change the world. It is the only force that has the power to change the world.

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY ABE"
"HAPPY BIRTHDAY GEORGE"

Three outstanding events occur in February — Lincoln's Birthday, Washington's Birthday, and NATIONAL BOWLING MONTH! Chances are that more persons will celebrate the latter event than will pause to sing birthday greetings to Abe and George. To be more exact, it is estimated by the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America (BPAA), that the great majority of 40 million active bowlers will participate during the 28 days of February in open, league, youth, and senior citizen bowling.

February is traditionally the most active month of the year in bowling, already the nation's No. 1 participant sport. This is the time of year when league play is in full swing, youngsters are involved with school bowling classes or youth league play, and when more families than ever head for their neighborhood bowling centers.

The nation's senior citizens play an active role in bowling... not only during National Bowling Month... but throughout the year. There are more than 2,500 Senior Leagues involving more than 10,000 bowlers in the U. S., with similar leagues flourishing in 38 states plus Canada and Puerto Rico.

With the accent on men, women, youngsters and oldsters, it's obvious to all that National Bowling Month is truly a national event.

derstood how it passes through the intestinal wall into the blood, which carries it throughout the body to the cells, and how it passes into the cells. A variety of complex factors are believed to be involved in the movement of calcium through the membrane, including the amount of oxygen and hormones present. The team is now studying the control mechanism involved in moving calcium in the living organism.

Calcium metabolism is as important as it is interesting, the team of life scientists points out: Teeth are formed at two stages in young. Why only them? Bones become brittle during old age. What can prevent this? What can the Space Agency do about the decalcification that seems to take place under weightless conditions?

Hohman, the Hoosier scientist on the team, was born in St. Louis, Mo., on Sept. 12, 1940, and graduated from Fenton High School in Bensenville, Ill. He earned his A.B. degree in biology from Knox College, Galesburg, Ill., in 1962 and completed his master's degree in biophysics in June, 1965, at Pennsylvania State University while on a National Defense Education Act Fellowship, and is working toward his Ph.D. under Dr. Schraer's direction, and under the same fellowship. Already he feels that he is contributing to significant, scientific knowledge that will be useful during his lifetime.

P.M.A. ANNOUNCES PRICE INCREASE TO BE PAID TO DAIRY FARMERS

Dairy farmers who produce milk for the Northwestern Indiana Federal Order 31 milk market will be paid a superpool price of $4.78 per hundredweight of Class I (bottled) milk, effective Feb. 14, 1966 through Jan. 31, 1967, a superpool bargaining committee of Pure Milk Association has announced.

The $4.78 price represents an increase of 33 cents per hundredweight over the $4.45 superpool price on milk used for bottling purposes which prevailed through December 1965.

The Northwestern Indiana milk market area includes St. Joseph, Lake, LaPorte, Elkhart, Koscius-ko, Marshall, Porter and Starke counties. The PMA bargaining committee, headed by Glen Schafer of Lakeville, Fred Hiigli of Union Mills, and Harold L. Smith of Rt.

1, Akron — all members of the association's board of directors — negotiated the new superpool with area handlers at a meeting in LaPorte, Feb. 5.

Wayne Hohman and Team Announce Calcium Findings

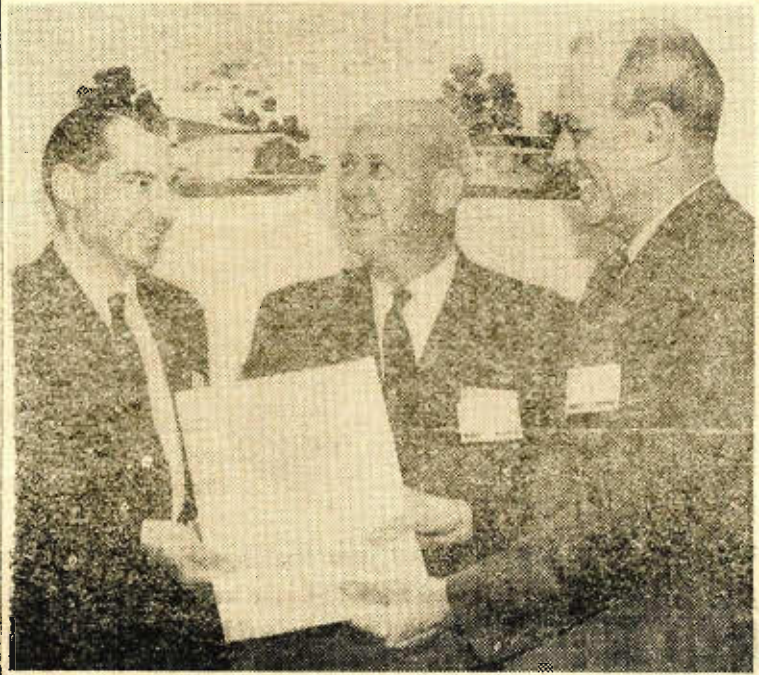

Wayne R. Hohman, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Harold W. Hohman, 215 North Slate Street, Culver, has received coveted recognition in a center-spread news article of the Sunday, Jan. 9, 1966, issue of "The Indianapolis Star Magazine," written by Joseph K. Shepard. Reverend Hohman has been serving the United Church of Christ in Culver since 1960.

A Hoosier student, seeking his Ph. D. degree in biophysics at the Pennsylvania State University in Philadelphia, Wayne is an integral part of a team announcing a vital discovery. Life scientists Drs. Harold and Rosemary Schraer, husband and wife — an associate professor of biophysics and an assistant professor of biochemistry respectively — with Hohman, and one other assistant, have been teaming up on the problem of calcium transport, distribution, and use in living cells for the last five years. They have uncovered clues which indicate that tiny rod-shaped mitochondria in cells play a vital role in the transport and use of calcium within a live organism. Much of their work has been sponsored by the National Institute of Health, U.S. Public Health Service.

The team has been analyzing the role of the tiny mitochondria in calcium transport by studying the shell glands of chickens and certain tissues of the clam. It has long been known how calcium is picked up from food, the scientists said, but it hasn't been un-

Academy Sports

Culver Military Academy's basketball squad moved into one of its high-light games of the season against Culver High school Saturday after splitting two games last weekend.

The Eagles will take an 8-6 record into games this weekend at Aubbeenaubee Friday night and then at home Saturday evening against Culver High School. A large crowd is expected to witness the Saturday evening varsity game beginning at 6:15 p.m. A junior varsity game between the two clubs begins at 4:30 p.m.

The coach, Tom Baker will go into the game against the Indians with all of his players healthy except for local product Greg Osborn. Osborn, a senior with two years experience on the varsity, injured his knee and is questionable.

In last weekend's games, the Academy was surprised by Park School of Indianapolis, 65-64, in a disappointing cliff-hanger Friday night and then went on to win Saturday's clash against Jackson, 89-64. Pete DePrez, who has proven himself one of the best scorers in Academy history, continued his bid for a new all-time scoring record with 24 and 30 points, respectively, in the two games.

Against Park, the Academy didn't get its offense moving until the final period. The Eagles trailed during all of the first half and most of the third period. The Eagles trailed during all of the first half and most of the third period. The score was tied at 52-all going into the last eight minutes, and at four minutes the Academy had a three-point lead. But Park struck swiftly in the final minutes, and five seconds to go and the score tied at 62, iced the game on a three-point play. A last-ditch Academy goal counted but fell a point shy of sending the game into overtime. The Eagles had no trouble with Jackson, which lost its fifteenth game.

In other sports, Academy swimmers were beaten for the second straight week in the final event of a meet. This time the loss was to Danville, Ill., which won the free style relay to take the meet 50-45. Culver's Fred Schlicher set another record, this time in the individual medley. He eclipsed his old time of 1:44.7 with a 1:46.3 at the distance of 160 yards.

The Academy's rifle team finished second in the Midwestern Military Academies championship here. Howe Military School was first with 1,391. Culver was second at 1,388, defending champion Marmion was a close third at 1,386, and Northwestern Military had 1,319.

TAXPAYERS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR RETURNS

Indianapolis — Indiana taxpayers are responsible for all entries and supporting documents in their Federal income tax returns. Taxpayers planning to seek help on their 1965 returns should keep this in mind, District Director of Internal Revenue James E. Daly said today.

No matter who prepares the return, the taxpayer himself is responsible for filing it and for underpayment of tax, penalties, and interest. Husband and wife are equally responsible for joint returns, Mr. Daly said.

Taxpayers seeking help should read the current filing instructions as well as reviewing last year's return, he said.

Freckled girls, reports E. V. Durling, are much more affectionate than others — and better at kissing too.

We'd like to make a spot check-up on this statement.
