One hundred and sixty children have now enrolled in the Culver Public Library's summer reading program. It is not too late to "sign in", and all those who have completed any grades one through six are encouraged to join as soon as possible.

There will be two prizes awarded this year. Each prize is a $30 gift from Tri Kappa for the purchase of books by the teacher of the winning room. One prize will be awarded to the room having read the most books in levels two, three, and four; and other prize goes to the room with the largest number of books completed on levels five, six, and seven. As well as providing the awards, Tri Kappa sponsors the Summer Reading Club.

Story Hour each Saturday morning in the Library Auditorium

Mrs. Alice Neff is conducting a from 10 until 11 o'clock. This is a special time for those who are to attend school for the first time this fall. In addition to stories, Mrs. Neff uses movies, games, and paper work especially chosen for children of five and six years of age.

These two projects are offered to increase young children's knowledge and reading ability during the non-school months. These programs are designed to increase learning, and it is hoped that more children will take advantage of this opportunity.

A city boy, visiting his country cousin, was walking through a pasture when he heard a buzzing sound.

Cousin: "Come away from there. It's a rattlesnake. If you go near it, it will strike."

City Boy: "Gosh, do they have rattlesnakes?"

Joe Schweidler Builds Authentic Dutch Windmill

One of Joe Schweidler's latest hobby creations, (shown above) and certainly his masterpiece, may be viewed in the side yard of his residence at 418 Liberty Street here in Culver.

Mr. Schweidler has worked better than three months to create, entirely of wood, this reproduction of a Dutch windmill which still stands in Holland and is more than 100 years old.

This unique reproduction stands about four feet high and is mounted on a flower trellis. The shingles were each hewn by hand and the structure, which has actually moving parts, boasts a natural finish, which makes for an even more authentic reproduction. This windmill is equally interesting at night when it is electrically lighted.

Another reproduction of this Dutch windmill may be found in Holland, Mich., but Culver, Indiana, now has a like possession, thanks to Mr. Schweidler.

Mrs. England Is Attending NDEA Institute At Purdue

Mrs. Mary Frances England, Culver High School English teacher, was one of 20 high school teachers attending an opening dinner Sunday, June 19, at Purdue University's Wiley Hall as a prelude to an eight-week NDEA Institute for Advanced Study in English, sponsored during the summer session by Purdue's English Department.

Director of the institute, Prof. Allen Hayman, conducted an orientation meeting for the teachers following the dinner. Participants in the institute were selected from about 200 applicants.

The institute is being conducted under a $38,448, federal grant authorized by the National Defense Education Act (NDEA) and will run from June 20 to Aug. 12. The grant was awarded in December by the U. S. Office of Education.

Object of the institute, according to Hayman, is to train secondary teachers to teach advanced placement or honors courses in English for gifted high school students. The improved high school training offered in such courses often will allow students to receive college credit in English prior to entering college.

Hayman notes that many high school teachers do not feel equipped to offer a college-level course in literature and composition. The institute will teach them techniques of approaching any literary work "responsively and responsibly."

Also included in the full-day, five-day-a-week schedule will be intensive study of textbooks, instructional aids, teaching techniques and reference sources. Instruction will include the areas of poetry, prose fiction, exposition and drama.

PARENTS URGED TO MAKE SUMMER PLAYTIME MORE SAFE FOR CHILDREN

Summertime is playtime for children, but they often take to it with a little too much enthusiasm. Playtime accidents are frequent, and the State Police urge parents to guide their children in the right direction.

A few tips are recommended by Public Information Sergeant Tom McCarthy: Know where your child is and who he is with. Establish certain boundaries for the child, and check for any hazards in that area. Rivers, deep drainage ditches, and other waterfills should definitely be out of bounds. Teach them to avoid deserted structures, construction sites, strangers, and even stray animals. Small tots should always be accompanied by a responsible person.

Traffic is the greatest danger, and children must have a healthy respect for it. Be assured they know the pedestrian rules, and can properly ride a bicycle.

The prime recommendation is that each parent take a little time to tell their children what they must do, why they must do it, and then insist that it is done that way.

The Japanese student, who was attending an American university, wrote his father in Tokyo about his new school. "An American university," he wrote, "is a vast athletic institution where, fortunately, some studies are maintained for the benefit of the feeble-bodied."

U.S. ARMY ENLISTMENTS SOAR

While Draft-niks Burn!

These New Yorkers are a few of the 11,000 young Americans who enlisted voluntarily in the U.S. Army since March 1965. Administering the Oath is Captain Petro Sodol veteran of Viet Nam.

NEW YORK (CFN)—Despite the glaring headlines, and sensational newsreels, the majority of draft-age Americans are not burning their draft cards in front of recruiting offices, delaying troop trains, or even holding sit-ins at the White House.

On the contrary, according to the United States Army Recruiting Command at Fort Monroe, Virginia, the unquestionable patriotism of most young Americans has been more than demonstrated by a 157 per cent increase in voluntary Army enlistments for March 1966 as compared to the same period a year ago.

A total of 6,873 voluntary enlistees were in the Army as of March, 1965. A year later the figure was 17,701.

A spokesman for the Recruiting Command said the increase was no doubt due in part to public support for the United States' commitment in Viet Nam. However, most young men are enlisting in the Army for the opportunity to choose from more than 200 careers in the many branches of service within the Army. Furthermore, enlistment enables the volunteer to select a duty station either inside the continental limits of the United States or overseas.

The uncertainty of the draft—not knowing when he may be called into uniform once he has been classified 1-A, where he will serve or what his military occupation will be—has unquestionably moved some young men to volunteer for the Army.

But according to a Recruiting Command spokesman, "The choice, not chance aspect of a voluntary military obligation accounts for much of the 157.4 per cent increase in voluntary enlistments as of March of this year over March, 1965." The vocational and educational opportunities to be found in the Army are mighty attractive blandishments to young men faced with either the indiscriminate specter of the draft or uncertainties about what kind of career to follow after graduation from high school.

What the Army offers these young men is a plan which encompasses such aspects as over 100 vocational schools, "on-the-job" training courses from which to choose if they qualify, and the opportunity to continue with college studies as well. For example, young men interested in aviation can select intensified training in one of 15 different courses ranging from single-engine plane maintenance to operational duties on multi-engine transport helicopters.

In addition, there are openings in service schools where men can train for future-oriented careers in electronics, communications, engineering, construction and transportation.

A father was buying a fountain pen for his son's graduation gift. "I suppose it's to be a surprise, sir" said the clerk.

"I'll say it is," replied the father. "He's expecting a Jaguar."

The secretary was telling her chums about her latest squabble with the boss. "And all I asked him," she said, "was, 'Do you want the carbon copy double spaced, too?'"

"How is the new girl doing?"
"Not bad, but she's awfully nervous. As soon as she sits down at her desk, she starts to work."

CHRISTMAS TREE GROWERS FORM ORGANIZATION

The Christmas tree growers in Northwestern Indiana formally organized into an association at a meeting held at Wanatah Wednesday evening, June 8.

Officers and directors elected were: President, Stanley Hensler, Hamlet; Vice President, Gerald Apple, Plymouth; Secretary, John Anderton, LaPorte; and Treasurer, Don Rosenbaum, LaPorte. Members of the board of directors include Willard Simecox, LaPorte, and Denslow Doll, Walkerton.

Objectives of the new organization as included in the by-laws are education and production of top quality trees by its members. Included in the objective is the promotion in sales of the quality Northwest Indiana Christmas tree.

It was pointed out that the climate and soil conditions in Northwestern Indiana provide unusually good conditions for producing the quality and type of tree most desired by the consumer. Due to close proximity to markets, local trees are also always freshly cut. This provides a natural tree and a tree that will hold its moisture and needles while in use by the consumer.

Christmas tree growers in Northwestern Indiana, who desire to become charter members of this new association, are encouraged to contact one of the officers, directors, or their respective county extension office.

The horizons of coin collecting are as wide as the whole world — because every nation has coinage of some type.

The United Nations, for example, has more than 100 member countries, and each of these has a wide variety of metallic currency.

"The challenge of collecting foreign coins is endless," notes Richard S. Yeoman, one of the nation's leading numismatic authorities. "And this area of numismatics is becoming increasingly popular."

Collecting foreign coins offers a fascinating gateway to further knowledge of the world around you, says Yeoman, who is general manager of the Coin Division at Whitman Publishing Company, Racine, Wis.

You can learn more about the countries of their origin; the denominations; relative monetary values; and other facets of government, history, rulers and geography which they represent.

"Your interest in foreign coins may be sparked by a friend who returns from abroad with a pocketful of change," continues Yeoman. "Or it may be a relative in the Armed Services who brings back some foreign coins. In any case, the first thing to do is find out what the coins are — and how much they're worth. Then pick a country you're interested in, and take it from there."

Coins of all nations for the past 100 years are listed, priced and described in Whitman's A Catalog of Modern World Coins, authored by Yeoman.

Plentiful supplies of foreign coins are available to collectors through numismatic dealers, although some of the better known "name" issues (those associated with famous figures of history) are scarce.

One word of warning: a collector of foreign coins must be willing to do homework. He needs some knowledge of history and geography to operate effectively. "However, the rewarding experiences far outweigh the investment of extra time," concludes Yeoman.

Social Security

Starting with 1966, workers whose income includes tips are beginning to build more social security protection for themselves and their families, according to Mr. Charles E. Burke, social security district manager in South Bend, Indiana.

The social security office has a free booklet that explains how tips are to be reported for social security, and how the income can be credited for disability, survivors, or retirement insurance benefits under social security.

Both the social security office and the Internal Revenue Service, Mr. Burke said, have copies of a special record book that employees with tip income can use to keep track of their tips. The book also includes the forms needed to report tips to employers.

Mr. Burke reminded employers that they don't have to match their employees' tax on tips as they do the tax on wages. The quarterly tax return for employers has been revised to account for tips separately.

Employees with cash tip income — and their employers — who have any questions about the new coverage of tips for social security are urged to inquire at the social security office. That way they will avoid errors and costly corrections.

FEDERAL TAX

Q - Tax is withheld from my paycheck but I still end up owing money when I file my return. Is there anything I can do about this?

A - One way to increase your withholding is to drop some of your exemptions for payroll purposes. You can always claim all the exemptions you are entitled to when you file your tax return. If this is not enough, you can ask your employer to withhold additional amounts from your paycheck.

Have you heard about the visiting Texan who tipped a waiter $100?

"I beg your pardon, sir," gasped the waiter. "Do you realize how much you just gave me?"

"That's to teach you a lesson, son," growled the Texan. "I didn't leave my usual tip because I wasn't too satisfied with your service."

"This match won't light!"
"Wasn't matter with it?"
"Duano — it lit all right a minute ago."

Jehovah's Witnesses Plan 5-Day District Assembly In Canada

"Delinquency is successfully overcome as adults face up to their responsibility. Jehovah's Witnesses have largely been able to overcome this worldwide problem by applying Bible principles in their daily lives and the lives of their children", said Mr. Spangler, presiding minister of the Plymouth Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Mr. Spangler made these statements when he reminded local Witnesses this week of their invitation to attend the five-day "God's Sons of Liberty" District Assembly to be held at the Canadian National Exhibition Grandstand. Among the more than 50,000 delegates expected to attend will be thousands of teenagers and younger children.

Twenty different departments are being set up to operate the convention. These will be manned by a staff of over 8,000 volunteer workers. "However, none of the volunteer workers will miss the convention sessions," Spangler stated. "Because all departments will be tied in by the public address system. It is estimated that over four miles of wire will be required to do this."

A mass baptism of approximately 800 new ministers is scheduled for Friday morning, June 24. The climax of the convention will be on Sunday, June 26, at 3 p.m. when Nathan H. Knorr, President of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society will speak on the subject "What Has God's Kingdom Been Doing Since 1914?"

The Toronto Assembly is the first in a series of 16 which will be held in the United States and Canada this summer. It is expected to be the largest Christian gathering ever held in Canada.

TONS OF ASPIRIN SIGN OF TIMES

More people have taken more aspirin for more reasons than any other drug in the history of the world, according to a drug and cosmetic firm.

Americans alone consume more than an estimated 37 tons of aspirin each day, says Chesebrough-Pond's. The company, which has developed the first eight-hour aspirin (Measurin), says in round figures, that's about 2.8 billion of the little round tablets a year.

The Monterey Library has been the receiver of some very valuable gifts recently: Mrs. Onda Good presented to the Library a copy of Wagler's "The Mighty Whirlwind, the story of the Palm Sunday tornado that ripped through Indiana in 1965. This is a very recent publication and is now ready for circulation. Winfred Hartman, Monterey Postmaster, presented three very valuable manuscripts, one is the Bill of Rights, one is The Declaration of Independence, and the other is the Constitution of the United States. We hope to have these manuscripts framed and ready for display at the Library in the near future.

The Monterey Lions Club will sponsor a Disposal Sale, also Consignment, July 2, at 1 P.M. at the Monterey Lions Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Hartman and family and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zehner and family were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson at Rochester.

FEDERAL TAX

Q - They put in a new sewer where I live and I was assessed for part of the cost. Is this deductible?

A - The law generally does not permit deductions for local benefits that tend to increase the value of the property. You should capitalize the cost of your assessment, however, and add it to the cost of your property.

How America Grew

Harold Warp, founder of Pioneer Village, Minden, Nebraska, stands outside the Sod house he had built to show people of today how pioneers lived on the plains in the mid-1800's. This house took 9½ acres of sod and some $3,000 to build. When Sod houses were originally built they cost $40.

Historians, observers of American life and other social scientists assert that today we have a definite American type.

The consensus is that it was the pioneer settlement that produced this individual who has the stamp of self-reliance and resourcefulness. And it was he who gave impetus to America's growth and greatness—the common man.

While the explorer, soldier, missionary, and the fur trapper were the first to move deep into the wilderness, it was not until the arrival of the farmer on the frontier that there was any change in the face of the land. Seeking a new home, he cleared fields, built shelter, and set about building a community that promised an orderly life for his family.

One of the unique records of this era of pioneer settlement is found in the Harold Warp Pioneer Village at Minden, Nebraska. Some 190 miles west of Omaha, there has been assembled a complex of buildings, complete with household items and appliances, wagons, farm implements and machinery, hand tools, and other items which are displayed as they might have appeared more than a century ago.

Every community was founded around a church. The Pioneer Village church (completely restored) was not only a place of worship, but it was the community hall, school and gathering place as well.

Here, one can see the community life of the men and women who helped America grow.

year. The percentage to use in figuring the taxable portion is obtained by dividing your net cost of the pension by the amount you expect to receive during the life of the pension contract. Additional information on this subject may be found in IRS Document No. 5018, "Retirement Income and Credit," available free at your local Internal Revenue Office.

He was charged with trespassing, and the judge asked him how he pleaded.

"Not guilty, yer honor," he said, "and let me tell ya why."

He was a short, skinny fellow. He looked about 50.

"Well, now," he began, looking at the judge, "me and this here woman was down at my place a drinkin' liquor that day. We drunk up all I had and we was still thirsty."

"She said she had some purty good stuff up at her place. And besides, her husband was away at work. She wanted to know if I'd go up there. Well, I couldn't see nothin' wrong with that. She had the whiskey. We was still thirsty."

The court perked up. The man was talking with a good-natured grin on his face. He acted just like he was speaking to friends at home.

"Well, she had some whiskey and we drunk that. By then I was feeling purty good. She was still thirsty and I went out to get more liquor."

"We drunk that, too. By then, judge, I was gittin' purty drunk. She still wants some more to drink. I tell her I ain't goin' after no more."

"That's when she gits mad. And besides it's about time for her husband to come home, so she swears out a warrant for trespassin'. I don't think I'm guilty."

The judge didn't either.

An Indian had gone to see the doctor, who, after examining him, told him to be careful about what he ate — in fact, not to eat at all until he got an appetite. Meeting the Indian a few days later, the doctor asked how he felt.

"Oh, I feel fine now," he replied. "I wait one day, appetite no come, wait two day, appetite no come, wait three day, appetite no come, get so hungry eat anyway."

A highway clerk was married recently and, not having time for a vacation, took his bride through the territory with him as a honeymoon trip.

First morning the nuptial couple decided to order honey at breakfast to symbolize the fact that they were by way of being honeymooners.

The waiter arrived with the breakfast, but no honey.

The highwayman, figuring an old patron of the hotel deserved better service on such an important day, was incensed. "Mose," he demanded, "Where is my honey?"

"Don't know, boss," was the reply. "She don't work here any more."

Q - I retired last year and have a pension from my company. Is it taxable?

What is ELECTRICITY?

"Electricity is the free flow of negatively charged subatomic particles called electrons, exchanged from atom to atom within the structure of a conductive medium."

But electricity is better defined by what it does.

A penny's worth of electricity will wash 14 pounds of clothes, or freeze 12 homemade popsicles, or sew 2,736 knee-patches on your trousers. It can bring you 3 hours of your favorite TV show . . . or brush your teeth for a year—for the price of a piece of bubble gum. What is electricity? When you stop to think about it . . . it's one of the biggest values in the whole, wide world.

Nothing you can buy gives you more value per dollar than your gas and electric service.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

428 S. Michigan St., Plymouth
Morning Worship 10:30 a.m.
Evening Worship Wednesday 7:45 p.m.
Reading Room open in Church Edifice 2 to 5 - Wed. and Sat.
Christian Science churches will present a Bible Lesson on the broad and specific meanings of the term "Christian Science" at their services this Sunday.

Included will be one of the many parables which Christ Jesus used to describe the coming of his kingdom: "The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened" (Matthew). Along with it, will be read these lines from the denominational textbook: "Ages pass, but this leaven of Truth is ever at work. It must destroy the entire mass of error, and so be eternally glorified in man's spiritual freedom" ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy).

The following advice appeared in a physical culture magazine:

"Here's a good test for your midsection muscles. Clasp hands overhead and place your feet together on the floor. Now bend to the right at the waist as you sit down to the left of your feet. Then, by sheer force of your muscles, haul yourself up, bend to the left and sit down on the floor to the right of your feet. Stick with it, and let us know the results." Not long after a letter came in. It said simply: "Hernia!"

Proper use of the horn, says the Chicago Motor Club, is an important asset to safe driving. It is mistaken courtesy to refrain from using your horn at times when an audible warning would be appreciated by others, or could prevent a possible collision. However, blowing one's car horn unnecessarily should be avoided.

NEW PERSPECTIVE

She went up and up. "Again, Daddy, again," until from her great height she looked down on a strangely distorted scene. Daddy was different from the top. Mommy was little and far away. Even the familiar old tree had hidden its friendly trunk and she caught her breath with a thrill of the unknown. I saw her expression change and suddenly there was a cry tinged with fear, "Don't Daddy!"

I dropped back while the swing slowed down. She tumbled out of the swing into my arms and I realized that there was a vast and unfamiliar world ahead for my child, with many distorted themes. I looked across the house tops to a church spire and thanked God for a foundation of faith... to guide her through the uncertainties ahead.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Every child now has a chance to know the characters in Winnie-the-Pooh.

Up to now the famed books by A. A. Milne have been cherished by many readers while being unknown to others.

Presently a Walt Disney movie, at theaters coast to coast, changes that. Youngsters who meet the rollicking animals on screen will want to know them better. After the picture there are pleasant follow-ups a parent can pursue.

The complete set of Milne books is available at many public libraries, so that children can hear all the stories and verses read aloud at home. In addition, recordings of the stories have been made by noted artists including Maurice Evans; some libraries may have these records to take out, or an album can be bought at record stores.

Best of all, variety stores now have a colorful collection of Winnie-the-Pooh play materials — coloring books, color by number sets, sticker fun books, punch-out books, tell-a-tale books, magic slates and frame tray puzzles of Winnie and friends produced by Whitman Publishing Company of Racine, Wis.

"Each generation discovers Milne with fresh enthusiasm," we are reminded by Whitman editor Dorothy Haas. "Children who grew up hearing the stories still enjoy them as adults, and re-read them to their own youngsters."

Akin Alexander Milne's tales about Christopher Robin and the animals of the hundred-acre woods were first published in England in the 1920s but have become timeless.

There is stuffy owl who likes to use long words, gloomy donkey Eeyore, Rabbit and his relatives, Piglet, Kanga and Roo, and the bear known as Winnie-the-Pooh whose favorite hobbies are eating honey and making up songs. The vivid conversations and the small and preposterous adventures never lose their humor. Long ago the books became classics.

Getting to know Milne is a good guarantee that a youngster will get in the habit of choosing the best on the bookshelf.

Social Security

"As in years past, the Social Security Administration is ready, willing, and able to help you obtain proof of your age." This statement came today from Mr. Charles E. Burke, Social Security District Manager in South Bend, Indiana.

In answer to recent questions about his agency's proof of age requirements, Mr. Burke reported that some time ago social security offices all over the country started asking people for better proof of age.

"Social Security's proof of age requirements will not prevent anyone from qualifying for retirement benefits or medicare, and may actually enable a person to get ben-fits he didn't know about. We ask for a person's birth or baptismal record if he has one. If he doesn't, we want the best evidence he has or can easily obtain. Ordinarily, the oldest evidence is the best, though there are many cases where this is not so. When there is no old record easily obtainable, a person can establish his age on the basis of more recent evidence.

"The primary reason for the proof of age requirement is to assure that every person gets the right benefit at the right time. Because of the large sums that can be paid out in cash benefits and in reimbursement or hospital and medical expenses, it is important that the determination of a person's age be accurate. In the vast majority of cases, a person knows his correct date of birth, but occasionally we find someone who is younger, or, more often, older than he thought. The proof of age requirement is a provision of the Social Security Act.

Mr. Burke suggested that "anyone applying for retirement benefits or for medicare insurance should bring in his birth or baptismal record if he has one. If he does not have either of these, he should bring the best evidence he has. However, no one should delay applying for these benefits simply because he does not have proof of his age. Delay could mean loss of benefits.

When a person applies, we will be happy to assist him in proving his age. Just visit the social security office at 335 N. Lafayette Blvd. in South Bend, Indiana, or phone us at 233-7147."

Reefer Driver: "What? Me get a new car? You must think automobiles grow on trees!"

Wife: "Don't be silly. Everybody knows they come from plants."

SUSAN SHEI WINS IN ARBOR DAY BATON TWIRLING CONTEST

Miss Susan Shei, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shei, Route 2, Culver, attended the annual Arbor Day Baton Twirling Contest at the Rolling Prairie High School gym on Saturday, June 18.

The Rolling Prairie Lions Club sponsored this NETA-sanctioned contest. In keeping with Arbor Day, each solo contestant was presented a live potted tulip tree.

Susan entered the open advanced group and won fifth place out of 12 contestants. She also entered the military march for 11-14 year-olds and won first place over 13 contestants. She received a trophy which was custom made in the shape of the leaf of the tulip tree — Indiana's state tree.

PRODUCTION REPORT

Dairy cows in area herds have been credited with recently completed lactations under official production testing rules to Holstein-Friesian Association of America. These Registered Holsteins and their actual performance records are:

Indians Tie Triton, Lose To North Judson

By R. VONDRA

The Indians were rained out at Triton on Wednesday, June 15, before they could break a 3-3 tie. The game will be replayed on June 24, with Culver as host, at 6 p.m.

Stu Lowry was the pitcher, and gave up eight hits and four walks.

In what is getting to be a trademark of Culver games, Triton scored most of their runs in the first inning. After loading up the bases, Triton scored two runs on a well-placed single. Their only other run came in the fourth inning, on chance circumstances.

The tribe warmed up in the fifth and scored one on two wild pitches. About this time the steady drizzle that had been falling most of the game turned into a downpour. Realizing the game would be called soon, the tribe got with it and scored twice in the sixth inning. Still in a steady rain, the winning run was put on base and advanced to second, before the umpires decided it was raining and called the game.

Culver gave up a game to North Judson at home on Friday, June 17, by a 6-1 score. The game can be summed up thusly for Culver: They didn't hit at the right time.

Brian Lindvall pitched and gave up nine hits and five walks.

The Indians got off to a rotten start in the first inning, as an appropriate double scored two Judson runs, and in the fourth inning a wild pitch cost a run. But the sixth inning was really good news for Judson, as they scored their remaining three runs on a walk and three meager singles.

The N.J. pitcher, whom the batters testified pitched his Lady Godiva Ball (nothing on it) the whole game, struck out 13. Every inning seemed to be the start of a big rally, but it never materialized. All in all, 12 Culver men were left on base in the game.

The only run for Culver came in the third inning on a home run by Stu Lowry. The grand finale for the Indians occurred in the seventh inning, when they managed to lead the bases and not score a run.

Culver's record now stands at three wins to six losses.

The Indians box score is as follows:

Changes Made In Boating Regulations

A boating regulation effecting teenage violators is one of three modifications in State Boating laws announced today by Lake Maxinkuckee Association.

These changes in the Indiana Motor Boat Laws will be effective this summer. Chapter 521 Acts 1957 Indiana.

Sec. 1. Acts 1957 C 221 S.7 is amended to read as follows: Sec. 7. ALL BOATS shall be equipped with at least one life preserver, ring buoy, life jackets, buoyant vest or buoyant cushion of a make or type approved by the United States Coast Guard FOR EACH PERSON ON BOARD.

Sec. 6. Acts 1957 C 221 is amended by adding a new and additional section 62 and to read as follows: Sec. 62. All flat bottom boats supported by floats, commonly called pontoon boats, shall be required to display a fixed combination red and green light forward and a fixed white light aft, according to the standards as prescribed by the Indiana Department of Conservation.

Sec. 7. Acts 1957 C221 is amended by adding a new and additional section thereto to be numbered Sec. 63 and to read as follows: Sec. 63. Any person between the ages of sixteen (16) and eighteen (18) who violates any of the provisions of this act may be prosecuted and tried in any Justice of the Peace Court of this State.

The Association again reminds that "Ski-Belts" are not acceptable as life jackets, cushions or the like approved by the United States Coast Guard.

JOHN A. NEWMAN AND SONS SELL DAIRY CATTLE TO MEXICAN DAIRY FIRM

The purchase of Registered Holstein dairy cattle from Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota and Wisconsin herds by a Mexican dairy firm has been reported by Holstein-Friesian Association of America. This export transaction, coordinated by Piper Brothers Farms of Watertown, Wisconsin, included 96 females.

Seventy-two animals from 46 herds were selected in Wisconsin. Another group of 16 animals came from Illinois herds; five animals from Minnesota; and three from the herd of John A. Newman and Sons of Culver.

In 1965, a record number of Registered Holstein exports were listed by Holstein-Friesian Association. More than 3,600 animals of all ages were officially transferred to buyers in 27 countries.

Top volume purchasers were Mexico, Venezuela, Italy, Korea and Canada.

Improved exchange rates, intensified promotion and continuing interest in United States-bred dairy cattle resulted in the 73 per cent increase over 1964 sales. The outstanding performance levels of U. S. Holsteins have made them popular in countries where food production is a serious concern.
