"Putting Christ Back In Christmas"

NOTE: Through the and efforts of the Federated Junior Club, the Citizen is printing in the following Christmas issues articles written by local ministers on the theme, "Putting Christ Back In Christmas."

BY REV. CARL Q. BAKER
Pastor of the
Culver Methodist Church

One of the characteristics of slogans is that they generally oversimplify the issues which they present. "Put Christ back into Christmas" does this. It is also too often uttered in a scolding manner by Christians who seem to be more personally offended by Christmas excesses than they are concerned about faithful keeping of the festival.

Upon careful observation one will find that the holiday really is made up of many Christmases. Customs and traditions arise which may or may not be related to the original source of the festival but which nevertheless are meaningful to many people. This is no more true at any time than it is about Christmas.

There is the Christmas of the market place, the festival of buying and selling, of giving and receiving. We seem offended at this; but should we be? The basis of our society is the market place. We are proud of being the greatest and most successful of capitalists. Why would an American Christmas be devoid of the market place? Because we buy and sell does not mean that we are un-Christians or anti-Christ. It is one of the national expressions of such a festival celebrated by commercial, affluent society.

There is the festival of Santa Claus. By this is implied the real holiday atmosphere of Christmas. Schools out! The streets and houses are decorated. The trees are aglitter with tinsel and lights. Families will gather for delicious meals and holiday cheer. The gifts are wrapped and anticipations are high. Visions of sugar plums (slot car races, walking, talking, crying, laughing dolls, bicycles, footballs, water skis, etc.) dance in the heads of children of every age. Good times and cheerful days are part and parcel of our Christmas.

There is the festival of the Christ Child. This is the abiding and underlying meaning of Christmas for those who claim to be Christians. For the Christian, Jesus of Nazareth is the full expression of God's love for every man. And Christmas is the symbol of the entry of that love into our lives. This is the festival of faith, a constant reminder that since the coming of Jesus the whole world is new and different to those who know of Him and believe through Him.

There are many other aspects of the holiday, but these are sufficient to remind us that Christmas has many faces. And it would appear that the faithful man does not fulfill his mission by attempts to destroy or even downgrade the marketplace or Santa Claus. Indeed he will also take part in them. But it does remain his task to remind himself and others that without Jesus there would be no festival at all.

Chamber Of Commerce Meeting Held Monday

The Culver Chamber of Commerce met Monday, Dec. 5, for a noon luncheon meeting in the Culver Inn.

Dr. Joseph Howard, president, reviewed his past year's term in office, commenting, "I wish to thank the Chamber membership for their enthusiastic cooperation and I feel confident that the momentum will carry over with the new officers, to create a stronger and unified Culver Chamber of Commerce. It has been my goal to increase membership (presently standing at $7 merchants); creation of a central Chamber of Commerce office and headquarters, so the members can have an actual physical location for obtaining pertinent Tourist information; and continual work on Culver Community projects. Although I feel that only 5 percent of my goal has been accomplished, my encouragement and help will go out to the incoming officers for 1967."

Andrew Venum, speaking for absent Everett Easterday, chairman of the 1967 nominating committee, said "A slate of candidates has been suggested by the committee and will be presented to the membership at the January 23rd meeting." Other committee members include Robert Taylor, Earl Dean Overmyer and Fred Adams.

During the meeting, Secretary-Treasurer Pete Trone, presented a secretarial and fiscal report of the past year's achievements. The membership voted to increase the 1967 Chamber membership annual dues from $10 to $25. The Chamber also voted their approval in joining the NIEDA, Northern Indiana Economic Development Association, whose program includes promotion of the Northern Indiana section, nation wide, for industrial development and economic growth.

Fred Adams commented briefly on the current trend of bank credit cards now being used throughout the country in the metropolitan areas. During the 23rd of January Chamber meeting, Mr. Adams will present a detailed report on this trend and how it will affect the Culver merchants and community.

Recording Facilities Available For Messages To Servicemen In Viet Nam

Anyone having a son or close relative in Viet Nam service who would like to send him or her a talking letter is welcome to use the recording facilities of Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Norris, 2805 East Shore Drive, Culver.

Dr. Norris stated that they will provide the blank tape and detailed instructions regarding how to mail the tapes. Appointments to do this are to be made with Doctor or Mrs. Norris, phone 842-2853, in the evenings.

This program is being promoted through the Indiana Recording Club, 5101 Winthrop Ave., Indianapolis, Ind. 46205 of which Doctor and Mrs. Norris are members.

The annual Christmas program, directed by Mrs. Bertha May Rnst, music instructor, will include the more than 500 students in grades one through six.

The pageant type musical program will include the narrated story with songs by each grade, song flute numbers by the fourth grade and special arrangements sung by the sixth grade chorus of 44 voices.

The public is invited to attend the admission free program.

NOTICE!

Culver basketball fans are reminded that this weekend the Culver Indians will play away games on both Friday and Saturday nights.

On Friday night, Dec. 9, the Indians will travel to Caston, with game time listed at 6:15 p.m. (CST).

On Saturday night, Dec. 10, the Indians will play Rochester, with play getting under way at 6 p.m.

Indians Lose Two Games Over The Past Weekend

Hatten And Jewell Lead The Scoring

By Steve Bair

The Culver Indians lost to Knox last Friday night by a score of 57 to 49. The Indians hit 28 percent from the floor, scoring only 13 baskets out of 47 attempts, while the Redskins scored 28 baskets. The Indians were never far behind, even catching up with the taller Redskins in the final period, but the tribe again fell behind in the waning minutes.

Paul Hatten led the tribe scoring with 23 markers, while Lowry and Jewell each added nine points. Nichols and Wilhelm led the Redskins with 13 and 15 points respectively.

On Saturday the Indians traveled to North Judson looking for their first victory. But alas, last minute blues again proved the tribe's downfall. The Indians led at halftime by two markers, but the rugged Bluejays fought back to take the lead by one at the end of the third stanza. The Indians surged ahead with two and a half minutes to go on Ed Wieringa's jump shot, but the Bluejays took over by rebounding our many missed bunny shots and turning them into easy baskets. With the Jays ahead by five, the Indians were forced to make unnecessary fouls which resulted in the nine point deficit, 49 to 40.

The tribe was led by George Jewell's 17 points. Stu Lowry added 16 markers to our losing score. Mathews and Bales led the Jays with 15 and 14 tallies respectively.

School Board Approves Staff Appointments

The Board of School Trustees of the Culver Community Schools named Donald Muehlhausen to the Board of the Culver Public Library at their meeting this week. Mr. Muehlhausen will succeed Robert Lawrance.

The resignation of Clyde Mitchell, mathematics instructor, Culver High School, was accepted by the Board. Mr. Mitchell asked for release from his contract because of health reasons.

To succeed Mr. Mitchell, Stephen M. Wroblewski, South Bend, has been named to the mathematics department.

Mr. Wroblewski will begin his work January 25, 1967 when he completes his training at Franklin College. A mathematics major, he lettered in Varsity football and golf; he is a graduate of Central High School, South Bend.

Mr. Mitchell's classes between December 12 and January 25 will be taken by Colonel J. T. Stinchcomb, retired Culver Military Academy staff member, with other classes being divided between Philip Hughey and Latham Lawson.

The Board approved the appointment of Susannah Spencer as Teacher Aide, grades 7-12, in the Culver Title I project. Other Teacher Aides for Culver Elementary and for Aubeenabbee Schools will be added to the staff at the beginning of the second semester.

The request of Lynnmarie Price, Ancilla Domini, to enroll in the Culver Adult Education class was approved.

In other business, the Board was advised of the State approval of the Culver Community Schools Title I project. A review and report on the problems of heating the Culver School buildings was presented.

The request of Mr. Ikeda, North Bend township, for use of a bus to transport the Boys and Girls Club December 17, 1966, to Purdue University was approved. Three members of the Culver Board; Woodie McGlothlin, Dr. Oscar Wesson, and Thomas Russell; together with Superintendent Robert Rust will attend the A.S.A.A. at Atlantic, N.J. February 11 through 15, 1967.

A study of non-certificated personnel salaries was presented to the Board for the first reading.

Charles Wagner Dies At Age 86 After Illness

Charles Wagner, age 86, of Route 1, Monterey, died at 4 p.m. Monday, Nov. 28, in the Knox Nursing Home, after a lingering illness.

Born Feb. 6, 1880, in Licken County, Ohio, Mr. Wagner resided in North Bend Township, Starke County, for 77 years and was a retired farmer.

Survivors include three brothers, John of Culver, Frank of Letters Ford, and Jacob of Hermando, Fla.

Services were held Thursday, Dec. 1, at the Harry Price Funeral Home in Knox with Rev. Harold W. Hohman, pastor of Culver's Grace United Church of Christ, officiating. Burial followed in Zion Cemetery located southwest of Culver.

Editor, CITIZEN:

Concerning the recent resignation of our former Chief of Police, I believe something should be published about the reasons of why a man who served this community for 20 years was let go so abruptly.

Why should the local people or Town Board, if not satisfied, treat anyone in this manner. There must be a reason? If so, what is it? My personal feelings are that after 20 years, I would expect a little better treatment and at least a more open to the public reasoning. Do we as citizens of Culver know the answers or do we simply let matters concerning the town go and shrug our shoulders.

It seems to me, we have slapped Mr. Mikesell in the face with our "don't care" attitude. I understand the main reason for Mr. Mikesell's resignation was that we wouldn't give him one day a week off.

Gen. D. T. Spivey Receives Silver Beaver Award

Another Scouting award has been presented to Maj. Gen. Delmar T. Spivey, USAF (ret.), Superintendent of Culver Military Academy. Tuesday night he was awarded the "Silver Beaver" award by the Tri-Valley Council for which he has served as vice-president since June, 1964.

He was given the award in a surprise presentation during a Scouter Recognition Dinner at LaVillie High School, Lapaz. The Silver Beaver is the highest award that can be conferred by the Scouting Council. He was presented Scouting region seven's highest award, the Silver Antelope, in 1961.

Gen. Spivey worked as a Scout in Gatesville, N. C., and his son earned the rank of Eagle Scout. He helped institute a scholarship program at the Academy for Boy Scouts from the Tri-Valley Council and Region 7.

His Scouting work has also included activities of Menominee District, which is Marshall County, and hosting Scouting functions on campus. Scouting has been a part of the Academy program through its sponsored troop and post and its historic Woodcraft summer camp for many years.

Speaker for the recognition dinner was Frank W. Braden, regional scout executive for region seven. He had formerly served as vice president of the Fathers' Association of the Academy, and his only son, an Eagle Scout, is a graduate of Culver.

Rex Good Named Director Of Adult Education

Rex A. Good, veteran staff member of the Aubbeenaubee High School, has been named Director of the Adult Education program for the Culver Community Schools.

Mr. Good's appointment to head the adult program, approved by the Board of School Trustees, was announced today by Robert Rust, Superintendent.

Five adult classes including modern math, Spanish, art, sewing, and typing are tentatively scheduled. All except sewing will start in early January continuing with weekly evening sessions through March. The 12-session sewing class will start in February.

Mr. Good will work in cooperation with High School Principal Charles Bernhardt of Culver. Jerry Howard of Aubbeenaubee and assigned teachers.

A teacher of math and social studies, Mr. Good is a graduate of Manchester College and he has studied at Ball State University. He has served on the Aubbeenaubee staff for the past 15 years on a 30 year teaching span all in Pulaski, Fulton, and Stark Counties.

A World War II veteran, he is a resident of Monterey, Indiana.

Culver Lions Club To Hold Ladies' Night Dec. 14

The Culver Lions Club will convene at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday evening, Dec. 14, in the Lions Den and will hold Ladies' Night.

A highlight of the evening meeting will be a slide presentation presented by Mrs. Ray Kline depicting their recent trip to the Holy Land.

Indiana, which became the 19th state to enter the union on Dec. 11, 1816, will celebrate its 150th Anniversary of Statehood during 1966.

Miss Shirley E. Waltz Becomes Bride Of
Richard L. Kuhn in Florida Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD LEE KUHN

Miss Shirley Elaine Waltz exchanged wedding nuptials with Richard Lee Kuhn in an impressive candlelight ceremony at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, Nov. 19, in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in New Smyrna Beach, Fla. Rev. William J. Collins performed the double-ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Waltz, 810 Edwards St., New Smyrna Beach, and the late Mr. Leonard Waltz.

The bridegroom is the son of

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Kuhn former Burr Oak residents who now live at 818 16th Ave., New Smyrna Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Norman Vogt, organist, accompanied Steven Fletcher, soloist, in appropriate wedding selections.

Robert Waltz gave his sister in marriage. The bride selected a full-length gown of Chantilly lace in traditional white, fashioned with a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves, and a scalloped neckline touched with seed pearls and twinkling sequins. The full, bouffant skirt swept into a chapel train of tiered Chantilly lace. Her circle crown headpiece of seed pearls and true-cut crystals held a lace-edged Spanish Mantilla, which fell gracefully to her fingertips. She carried a floral arrangement of white chrysanthemums and button pompons, centered with a white orchid entwined with a crystal rosary, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Barbara Nelson was maid-of-honor; Mrs. David Cevaseo served as matron-of-honor. Mrs. Irene V. Sweat and Miss Melinda Kuhn, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids.

The bridal attendants wore full-length dresses of silk organza over tulle styled with fitted bodices accented by small bows at the waistlines, gently scooped necklines, and elbow-length sleeves. The A-line skirts boasted wateau decors in the back from which soft folds fell to the hemlines. Their crown headpieces, crested with three organza roses accented with satin petals and seed pearls, held shoulder-length veils of illusion. The honor attendants appeared in turquoise blue, while the bridesmaids appeared in apricot-colored gowns. Each attendant carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pompons.

Airman, first class, Ronald E. Kuhn, Homestead Air Force Base, Fla., served his brother as best man. Ushers were David Cevaseo, Robert Mangrum, and Richard Nelson.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Golf and Country Club. A beautifully decorated four-tier wedding cake graced the bride's table. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Leon Bennett of Culver, Ind., cousin of the bridegroom, Mrs. Walter Nelson, Mrs. John Stedman, Mrs. Carol Seng, and Mrs. Judy Peterson.

Indiana residents in New Smyrna Beach for the wedding were Mrs. George Thornburg of Argos, Ind., grandmother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Jack Kowatch, aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Bennett and her children, Cynthia and Trent, all of Culver; and Mrs. Carl Bennett of Burr Oak.

Following a honeymoon tour of Florida, the newlyweds are now at home at 666 1/2 Dora St., New Smyrna Beach.

The new Mrs. Kuhn is employed by the First Federal Savings and Loan of New Smyrna Beach and Mr. Kuhn, a Culver High School graduate, is employed by Floored The Company in Titusville, Fla.

The Asa Walkers Mark 40th Wedding Date At Sunday Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Walker, long-time Burr Oak residents, were feted at an open house Sunday afternoon, Dec. 4, at the Eagles' Lodge located north of Burr Oak on State Road 17 marking their forthcoming 40th wedding anniversary.

The Lodge decor was striking with the white linen-covered tables centered with lighted tapers in the traditional ruby red. Other decorations carried out the white and ruby red color theme. A lavishly decorated 4-tier wedding cake centered the linen-covered serving table amid the other crystal and silver appointments. The cake was trimmed with white roping, white doves carrying wedding rings, and white hearts and wedding bells effectively set off with ruby red roses and topped with a glittering ruby red number 40 set amid red leaves.

Presiding over the serving table were Mrs. Michael Bennett, Mrs. Jay Snyder, Mrs. Annis Crum, Mrs. Arnold Christensen, and Mrs. Wilbur Wright. Miss Sharon Wright registered guests, with each one being favored with a miniature wedding ring tied with red ribbon. The anniversary couple received many beautiful gifts, including many pieces of glassware and linens in the ruby red color.

Over 100 guests from Argos, Burr Oak, Culver, Plymouth, South Bend, Wheatfield, and Winamac, Ind., and Franklin Park, Villa Park, and Kankakee, Ill., attending the open house.

Miss Uretha Emigh and Asa Walker were married Dec. 24, 1926, in Chicago, and came to Burr Oak 31 years ago. Mr. Walker is a retired employee of the McCord Manufacturing Corp., Plymouth. Their only child, a son, Eugene A. Walker, died in 1964. They have one grandson, Terrence L. Walker, of Rocky Mount, N.C.

V.F.W. Ladies Hold Christmas Meeting

The V.F.W. Ladies Auxiliary met Monday evening, Dec. 5, in the home of Mrs. Ward McGaffey for their annual Christmas dinner and party.

Following the dinner, the business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Robert Gibbons. The mystery prize was won by Mrs. C. Art Bennett.

The gift exchange and games followed.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Ted Strang and Mrs. Jack Sanders.

The next meeting will convene Dec. 19 at the home of Mrs. James Talley.

Fidelis Class Elects Officers And Plans Feb. 7 Pancake Supper

The Fidelis Class of the Grace United Church of Christ met for their monthly meeting Sunday evening, Dec. 4, at 7:30 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fitterling.

Rev. Harold Hohman opened the meeting with a prayer, after which the president, John Torr, presided over the business meeting.

The first order of business was the election of next year's officers. The nominating committee brought before the group the names of Judson Dillon as president, Jerome Zechiel as vice-president, Mrs. Shelton Kaiser for secretary, and Mrs. Oscar Wesson as assistant to the secretary-treasurer. These names were unanimously accepted by the class.

The group voted to make their annual contribution of $10 each to the Fort Wayne Children's Home and the Winnebago Home at Neillville, Wis.

At this time, the new president, Mr. Dillon, took over the meeting and the discussion of the annual pancake and sausage supper. This year it will be held Feb. 7 in the social rooms of the church. Because of increased food prices, the group voted to raise the price of tickets to $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children, ages five through 11 years. Pre-kindergarten children will be admitted free.

For devotions, Mr. Torr read an article from "The Christian Herald" magazine, entitled "The Unexpected Guest."

Games and movie slides taken by the Harold Fitterlings were enjoyed, followed by a late evening potluck salad bar served to the 20 adults and one child present.

The next meeting will be Jan. 29 at the Shelton Kaiser home with the new officers as hosts. This will be a chili supper to begin at 6:30 p.m.

BREMEN TO HOST STATE VFW ROUNDUP

Roland M. Strader, Public Relations Director for the Third District Veterans of Foreign Wars, announced today that the annual Fall Membership Roundup for Northern Indiana, will be held at Bremen Post No. 8972, Dec. 10.

Past National Commander-in-Chief Merton Tice will represent the National organization.

The banquet and meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

Strader stated, also, that the Bremen site was picked due, in large part, to the fact that the Third District (composed of St. Joseph, LaPorte, Elkhart, and Marshall Counties) has lead the Department of Indiana in the 1967 membership drive for four consecutive months.

Goldie Wacknitz, Former Resident, Dies At Age 78

Mrs. Goldie Ellen Wacknitz, sister of Mrs. Charles L. Haney of Culver and former Culver resident, died Saturday, Nov. 26, at McCray Hospital in Kendallville after a short illness at the age of 78.

Mrs. Wacknitz was born Aug. 14, 1888 in Van Wert, Ohio, and had resided with her husband, Rev. F.C. Wacknitz, former pastor of the Culver E.U.B. Church, in Kendallville for nine years at 921 E. Main St. Reverend Wacknitz also served the Bourbon E.U.B. Church.

Surviving with the husband and sister are two daughters, Mrs. Ida Geisel of Kendallville and Miss Naomi Wacknitz of Bourbon; five grandchildren; three other sisters; and a brother.

The Berkhalter-Hutchins Funeral Home in Kendallville was in charge of arrangements.

Culver Native Is "Social Doctor" In World's "Smallest Republic"

NANCY ERVIN

FREEVILLE, NEW YORK — A native of Culver is finding her work as a "social doctor" in the "smallest republic in the world" to be a most fascinating and rewarding experience.

She is Nancy Ervin, 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ervin, 726 Peru Court, Culver, who recently joined the social service staff of the George Junior Republic, an almost completely self-contained educational community for teenagers. Here on the Junior Republic's 1,000 acres of scenic landscape in central New York State, the young people run their own government, work to support themselves, and literally help themselves solve their own problems to become effective citizens of a democratic society.

Miss Ervin is one of a group of professionally trained social workers, psychologists and psychiatrists known as social doctors at the Junior Republic who do individual counseling of "citizens", as the youngsters are called. The citizens, who come from many parts of the United States, include many who found it difficult to adjust to family and school in their home communities. They may be sent to the Junior Republic by their own families, or they may be referred to the Republic by a court or welfare agency. In its social service work the Junior Republic operates under the supervision of the New York State Department of Social Welfare.

After attending the Culver public schools, Miss Ervin graduated from Purdue in 1965 with a major in psychology. She did graduate work in family relations and child development at Syracuse University last year.

Last summer she was a member of an educational team which worked with children of migrant workers at a labor camp near King Ferry, New York.

Miss Ervin expects to complete her thesis and receive her master's degree this coming January. She finds working on the thesis entitled "Emotional Development in Cognitive Style in Young Children" to be "pretty boring" but her eyes light up when she talks about her work at the Junior Republic. You realize pretty quickly that she prefers working with people much more than she does with papers.

"Our work at the Junior Republic offers opportunity for creativity in human relations," she points out. "This means, in effect, that we are able to deal with the young people at the Republic as persons, not as 'cases'."

Miss Ervin may well have gained a considerable amount of practical experiences in human relations by being the only sister of three brothers in her family. It appears that the relationships worked out very well, for her brother Richard, 21, who just received his army discharge after serving a year in Viet Nam with the medical corps, started working last month at the Junior Republic. Her two other brothers, Andy, 11, and Bob, 10, are at home.

Miss Ervin's talents include the playing of several wind instruments. Her musical abilities are being used to assist the citizens in their musical training.

Miss Ervin also is serving as an associate houseparent in the girls' cottages, where the citizens live family-style in small groups. "Living in a home-like atmosphere helps the young people develop warm, personal social relationships that are impossible to attain in a dormitory," she notes.

While she leaves little doubt that she is enthusiastic about working at the Junior Republic herself, would she recommend it to her friends who are interested in social work and have training in this field?

"I most sincerely would," she says. "I cannot imagine a better place to grow in personal experience and in achieving that sense of real worth that comes only through helping others achieve theirs."

Are there any more like Miss Ervin around the Culver area? The George Junior Republic says it can certainly use them.

COMMUNITY HOME SCHOOL THE SCHOOLBELL

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE PRESS CLUB OF CULVER HIGH SCHOOL

Do You Care How Your High School Band Looks?

By Linda McAllister and Debbie Triplet

Culver Citizens: Culver has always been a conservative town remembering its duties to its Country, Clubs, and School for many years. At this time it is necessary to bring to the public's mind an overlooked subject. Your high school band has been marching at local basketball games, in area parades and going to Band Day ceremonies, representing you in 25-year-old uniforms!

Since most of the public probably has not been aware of the inside story on these old, but respected garments, we feel it our duty to enlighten you as to the reasons why these ancient uniforms need to be replaced. It is possible to purchase replacement uniforms but it would not be economical because the entire set of uniforms would have to be replaced because of their worn condition.

A minor point but worth considering would be the fact that the school colors have changed recently and they no longer agree with the uniforms colors.

At the moment, the band is under a contract which forbids them to raise the badly needed funds themselves so, unfortunately, they must depend on charity. However, parents of students are urged to contribute if possible; it will be greatly appreciated.

As far as the cost goes, $8,000 will be the entire amount needed. This is not unreasonable; this includes a total of 75 uniforms for $85 apiece. Many clubs concerned with the problem, have graciously offered to donate sums, one of which is Tri Kappa, already pledging $500, giving the band a total of $527. Many thanks pour out to Tri Kappa for their donation and interest in the Culver High School Band.

Now that you are aware of this previously overlooked subject, we hope that you will take action in aiding the replacement of old uniforms.

The Perfect Boy

The perfect boy varies in looks and build in the viewpoint from girl to girl.

The perfect boy has manners. He is a fairly good sportsman, all the time. He is cordial to all. The perfect fellow must be able to hold his own on the dance floor! He is easy to converse with and seldom uses profanity. He is well-groomed, clean shaven, and clean, with well kept hair.

All considered, the Perfect Boy is just plain fun to be around. But alas, fellow females, there is a one to one correspondence here. Along with the Perfect Boy must be the Perfect Girl!

National Honor Society Initiation

By Elaine Kaiser

Sixteen members were initiated into National Honor Society on November 30. After parents and the student body were seated in the gym, the NHS members were seated on chairs on the gym floor.

Patty Overmyer, the president, greeted everyone and introduced the speakers. Bob Shirroll talked on scholarship; Karen Stevenson, service; Patti McCombs, leadership; and Stu Lowry, character.

What If

By John Milner and Steve McCombs

The Culver Organizations got together and did something to improve the appearance of the Town Park.

Hawk's Lake was cleaned up and turned into a nice healthy lake — not a dump for Culver sewage.

The Town people thanked Don Mikeseff for the great job he did in making Culver a good place to live.

Mr. Lawson was the quiet type. Miss McClellan was 5 ft. 8 in. Steve Bair didn't read his paperback books in second period studyhall.

Mr. Waxman's name was Smith. Kitty Liette got her bookkeeping done on time?

Gary Davis's Corvaire got stuck in a snowdrift by the Three Sisters Restaurant.

Culver's shortest basketball player was 4 ft. 2 in. Those stop signs would stop jumping out in front of Terry Clifton all the time.

The Class of '67 was the last to take a Senior Trip.

The Schoolbell wasn't censored. George Jewell was married.

Miss McClellan was married to a guy that stood 6 ft. 7 in.

The authors weren't so neat. The school was heated.

The Senior Trip was tomorrow. All the Seniors scored 600 on their SAT tests.

Culver had no drugstores. The Yellow Club wasn't Yellow.

Purdue University News

Prospective college students will find there are no such things as "masculine professions" or "Feminine Professions" in the curricula of the Purdue University Center in Michigan City.

Case in point: Miss Pamela C. Fischer, 18, of 312 Jackson St., Michigan City, typifies the growing number of girls planning to major in engineering or other sciences.

A freshman at the Purdue Barker Memorial Center, Miss Fischer has set her sights on becoming a chemical engineer. She thrived on subjects like mathematics and physics at Elston High School in Michigan City. Also, her inclination for technical studies was probably inherited from her father, Robert F. Fischer, a design engineer for Urschel Laboratories in Valparaiso.

More cases in point: There are two young men among a score of women enrolled in the registered nursing program at the Purdue Center.

Wilbur Stephens Jr., 22, of 1521 Sallwasser Dr., and Charles D. Waterson Jr., 19, of 215 D Street, both of LaPorte, are the two male nursing students in the two-year associate degree program.

Both are LaPorte High School graduates who responded to the nationwide campaign to enlist more men in the nursing profession to help alleviate the critical shortage of nurses.

Also, they are cognizant of the fact that male nurses tend to wind up in administrative positions in hospitals and medical centers.

Name Queen Candidates For Homecoming

Last Monday, each class held a meeting to choose its candidates for the Homecoming Queen. The Student Council decided that eligibility would be based on two things: a girl must be in good standing in her class, and she could not be a former queen. The Queen will be chosen Dec. 21 by the Varsity team members and crowned at the Homecoming ball game.

This year each class was allowed two candidates. The Senior candidates are: Diane Nelson and Patti McCombs; Juniors: Suzi Riester and Karen Stevenson; Sophomores: Karen Banks and Vickie Morrison; Freshmen: Harriett Johnson and Connie Morrison. Congratulations to the candidates and may the best girl win!

Congratulations homecoming queen candidates! The team is really going to have a tough time picking the 1966 Homecoming Queen.

If you notice the Juniors walking around with their hands on their faces or waving their hands in the air, it's not because they have problems, it's because they are trying to show off their new rings. They sure are sharp!

Prize yourselves Seniors. The pictures are here. That is everyone's except Elaine Kaiser's. According to the photographer Elaine's eyes were too mushie. Better luck next time, and the time after that, and the time after that, and . . .

It was great seeing the class of 1966 home for Thanksgiving vacation. Thanks to all the CHS graduates who came to our game. But who was the tall dark and handsome fellow with Linda McAllister? Gee whiz, he looks familiar. What did you say his name was?

Hey Kerry, what's more important, being Vickie's escort or playing in the game? Even after seeing the scratches on your neck I still say she could find someone else.

It seems Diane Nelson knows someone who can predict the future. Tell us about your telegrams, Diane.

Hey Paula L., Congratulations. For those of you who haven't heard, Paula is sporting a new ring and it isn't hers. He hails from South Bend and answers to the name of Mike Zorn.

Well it looks as though the Sophomores' leaf raking project is over for the year. We hear you are going to start shining shoes to earn more money since you did not rake very many yards. Well, good luck Steve McCombs!

Kathy T. we hear that after all your persuading with Freddy, you finally got his ring. Congrats Kathy and you too, Fred.

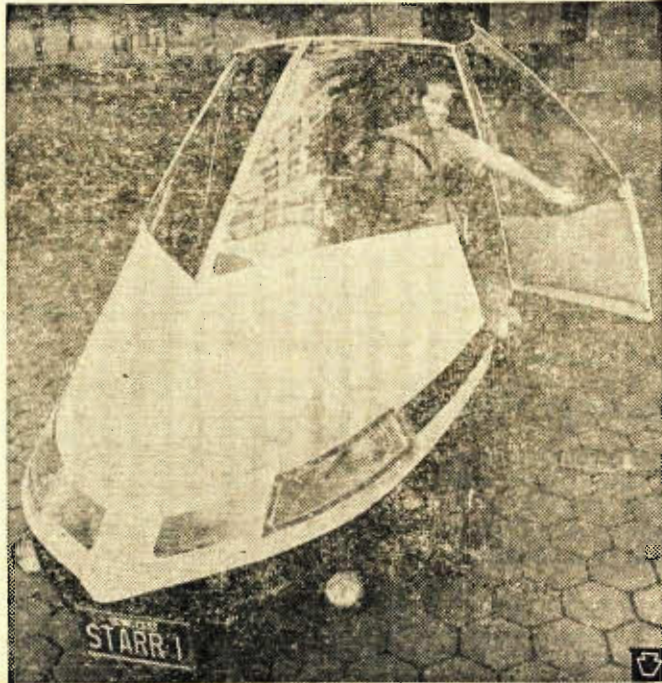

Linda Baker was so anxious to try out her new pair of boots that she drove her car as far as the Standard Station and walked the rest of the way to school. This isn't the real reason she walked but it makes good reading.

Speaking of good reading, I've entertained you long enough. See you next week.

P.S. Oh yes, one last thing, anyone attending Vincennes University who knows why Ray Zellers has not written Cathy Schmidt, will you please notify her immediately. Thank you.

. . . You'll get fast and satisfactory service through the Want Ad section of The Culver Citizen.

SESQUICENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK

By J. M. Guthrie
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
Indiana Sesquicentennial Commission

FOURSCORE AND SEVEN

Abraham Lincoln's most famous speech, the "87" one, was not made in Indiana but he made some good ones in Hoosierland. Every speech he made for about 14 years was uttered in Indiana for he grew up in Perry, later Spencer, County. And he often came back to Indiana to talk. What some Hoosiers (and many other Americans) thought about Mr. Lincoln in his day do little credit to the man, who many say, made the most lasting and best-phrased utterances of any person, save Jesus of Samaria.

Old state newspapers tell of a speech Lincoln made in 1859 at the Masonic Hall, corner of Washington and Tennessee streets, in Indianapolis.

"Mr. Lincoln began his address in a familiar reminiscent vein in which he moved the audience to laughter by the assertion that he had grown up to his present enormous height on the good soil of Indiana. He said he had chopped wood, raised log cabins, hunted bees and drank out of the same bottle, as was the fashion of those days, with the woodsmen of Indiana, and he gave a graphic account of a bear hunt in the early days of this country, when the barking of dogs, the yelling of men and the cracking of the rifle when bruin was treed would send the blood bounding through the veins of the pioneer.

"These were the days when friendships were true, and he did not think any other state of society would ever exist where men would be drawn so close together in feeling and affection.

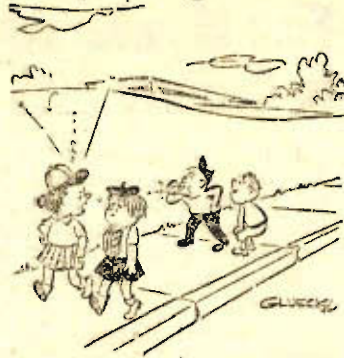

"His speech proper was in line with the previous Douglas debates, being largely a discussion of his former assertion that 'this government of ours cannot endure permanently half slave and half free; that a house divided against itself cannot stand, which assertion, he said, had given great offense to Judge Douglas.' . . .

"He was not delivering a set speech, but . . . his mind dealt freely and fluidly with a body of convictions that rested on a profound study of the questions in hand. Like all his utterances, it reveals the broad, rich background from which he drew . . ."

About the same appearance, the Indianapolis Sentinel stated:

"At 7 o'clock precisely a Band of music which had been procured commenced playing from the balcony of the Masonic Hall, and numbers crowded to hear the distinguished champion of niggerism, who had made such a gallant fight with the black flag waving over him on the prairies of Illinois.

My Neighbors

"Who knows what evil lurks in the hearts of men!"

"Men of all parties were there -- Republicans going to gape and wonder and drink in all that fell from the lips of the prophet, and Democrats to listen and learn . . ."

And then there were more critical comments:

"T w a d d l e - A b e Lincoln's Speech" -- the speech was "diluted and had flimsy arguments which may appear sound and satisfactory to weak-headed Republicans, but they can not be accepted by an intelligent auditory . . . His plausibility was too transparent to deceive the most credulous, without possessing even skim milk substance . . ."

"Mr. Lincoln is a tall, thin plain-looking man, reminding us strongly of our friend the Hon. J. D. Williams, the senator from Knox, but lacking that gentleman's grace of manner and intelligent look.

"If Mr. Lincoln had been expressly hired to serve Mr. Douglas he could not more faithfully perform the task than he did in his speech in this city . . . Further comment is unnecessary."

Another paper reported:

"The political setting for the occasion was an Ohio gubernatorial campaign in which his (Lincoln) services were enlisted as a counter-balance to Senator Douglas, who also was in the campaign on the Democratic side, so these two old-time antagonists who had figured so conspicuously in the senatorial campaign of 1858 again opposed each other.

"In short, Lincoln's propensity for following up Douglas and combating his utterances made him a sort of bete noire to the 'Little Giant'. In this Ohio campaign Lincoln . . . played this role, and his visit to Indianapolis was in keeping with it, for a week or so before his coming, Douglas had been here and made a brief speech from the balcony of the American House. This was a mere stopover between trains, without prear-

SAVINGS BONDS REPORT

Harold E. Rose, Chairman of the Marshall County U. S. Savings Bonds Committee, has received a report revealing that the County's Savings Bonds sales for October were $58,137 compared with $27,867 for the corresponding period of last year. The State's sales for October were $11,972,734 which is a gain of 9.2 percent compared with sale of last October.

Sixty-four of the State's 9 counties reported sales gains for the month when compared with sales of October 1965.

Do You Remember
'Way Back When?'

Highlights of Culver News of 10, 20, 30, 40, and 50
Years Ago This Week

DECEMBER 5, 1956—

Alex M. Kennedy was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce for the coming year.

Graveside services are being held today at the Culver Cemetery following morning rites in Benton Harbor for Mrs. Mary Zechiel, age 86, who died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emmett Culver, in Benton Harbor.

The Culver Indians were on the short end of a 59-46 score in last Tuesday night's contest with North Judson.

The Culver High School Choir, in cooperation with the Culver Community Orchestra, will present Handel's "The Messiah" on Dec. 16 in the Community Building. Janet Zechiel, Robert Kennedy, and Tommie Glaze, along with Stanley Curtis, Tom Culfice, Tom Ott, Karen Hespard, Virginia Reed, and Eileen Overmyer, will carry the solo parts.

DECEMBER 4, 1946—

Dr. C.G. Mackey of Culver, county coroner, is completing work on a dam to make a private lake covering about 10 acres of ground in West Township just west of Pretty Lake. Dr. Mackey bought 30 acres of land and plans to build a country home on the shore of his lake some day.

Marshall County public schools plan to have an extended Christmas vacation to conserve coal because of the present coal strike. Culver is fortunate though in having a three to four week supply for residents without hoarding.

A picture of Mrs. Irene Hinkle with a bluegill she had caught appeared in the December issue of "Outdoor Indiana," publication of the Indiana Department of Conservation.

DECEMBER 2, 1936—

Capturing an easy victory over the Argos quintet last Wednesday night in a pre-Thanksgiving game which ended in the score of 44-13, the Culver High School basketball team really had something to be thankful for on Thanksgiving Day.

Samuel Buswell, 74, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A.B. Long, on Saturday morning after being in ill health for several years.

DECEMBER 1, 1926—

Station WCMA of the Culver Military Academy was on the air Monday evening until the wee hours with the opening program of the new broadcasting station.

The dwelling of the W.O. Osborn farm west of town was saved from complete destruction last Monday morning by the effective and persistent work of the fire department.

The community was greatly shocked this morning by the sudden death of Col. B.H. Greiner, commandant of the Academy. Cause of his death was given as embolism of the heart.

Wilbur Nesbit, a poet of Evans-ton, Ill., and Meredith Nicholson, the famous novelist of Indianapolis, were guests of the Academy faculty Monday.

NOVEMBER 30, 1916—

Mr. S.S. McClure, known as the founder of McClure's Magazine, gave an absorbing talk upon the European situation on Tuesday afternoon at the Academy.

Russell Stahl, superintendent of the gas plant of Davenport, Iowa, is at home this week on an annual vacation visit.

The Town is building a cement block addition to the tool house. It will shelter the street sweeper.

Postmaster Urges
Use of Zip Codes
On Christmas Mail

ZIP code will help Santa and his helpers deliver Christmas presents this year.

Postmaster Mattox today emphasized that the proper ZIP Code in the address will help assure on-time delivery of Christmas presents sent through the mail.

"Every Christmas several million of Santa's presents travel through the mails. In a great many instances, ZIP Coded parcels travel by shorter routes and are handled fewer times because the five digits help postal clerks choose more direct transportation routes," the Postmaster said. "This means there is less chance for damage to the gifts because they are handled fewer times. Probably the easiest way of getting ZIP Codes for your parcels is to check the return address on mail you receive."

"Culver delivery patrons have generally been very cooperative about keeping their walks and steps clean of snow and ice, and the approaches to their rural boxes clear. Our hard-working carriers greatly appreciate this and trust it will be especially remembered during the Christmas rush. Much as we dislike it, occasionally mail cannot be delivered if it is too difficult for the carrier to get through to a patron's box," Postmaster Mattox said.

The Culver Post Office will have their service windows open for Christmas mailers all day (8 a.m. to 5 p.m.) on Saturday, Dec. 10, and Saturday, Dec. 17.

All kinds of office supplies on sale at The Citizen.

Culver Claims
Five Memberships
In Century Club

Culver claims five of the memberships in the Century Club of the Marshall-Starke Development Center and the Culver Jaycees have decided to aid the drive by enlisting more memberships in the area.

Culver Tri Kappas have presented one of the largest amounts, $500, to the school for retarded children. The Culver Lions Club, the W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church and the Maxinkuckee Junior Women's Federation have each presented $100 checks. The State Exchange Bank, together with its banks in Argos and Plymouth, has also "purchased" a membership.

Groups wishing to arrange a program on the activities of the Center or a tour of the school may call 936-4845 during school hours (9:30-2:30 weekdays). Further information is also available from Don Muehlhausen, who is treasurer of the board of directors for the Center. Checks should be sent to the Marshall-Starke Development Center, Route 3, Plymouth.

So far $7565 of the $10,000

Century club goal has been reached. The money will be used for current operating expenses and for future expansion of facilities at the Center for the retarded.

Charley: "How come you stopped chasing girls?"

Jack: "Well I used to—now you can hardly find any that will run."

BIRDS, HOW WE IDENTIFY THEM -11-c- Two boys, armed with field glasses and bird guide book, find and identify many different birds. They learn how to distinguish one bird from another: by appearance; the sounds they make; and their actions, both on the ground and in the air. Identifying characteristics of many of the more common birds are pointed out. (Coronet)

BOW HUNTING BY THE SEA -14-c-s In this film the limelight turns on the ancient sport of archery, as ace-sportsman Lee Wulff applies his skill to big-game hunting in Newfoundland. (Loaned by CTFI)

DANGEROUS STRANGER -10-b&w- Produced in cooperation with the Los Angeles Police Department. Designed to warn children of the dangers of associating with strangers who might try to befriend them in lonely alleys, movies, parks and automobiles. Addressed to children but also of interest to parents, teachers and child welfare workers. (Sid Davis Productions)

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE - BY THE COLONISTS -16-

-c- Presents this historic statement of democratic principles as it affected many people in many places, and the risks taken in the cause of liberty. (Encyclopaedia Britannica)

DISCOVERING PERSPECTIVE -14-c- We live in a world of depth, of distances. Some things are close to us, some far away. We can create the appearance of distance on a flat surface by using perspective. (Film Assoc. of Calif.)

HIDDEN EARTH -29-c- Shows how scientists try to learn about the interior of our planet, from earthquakes, explosions and study of the earth's heat. Discusses future possibilities of new tools and techniques to probe deeper into the hidden earth. (McGraw-Hill)

HIGH COUNTRY -12-c- Shows the Rocky Mountain Country of North America with its white peaks, emerald lakes, wild life and profusion of mountain flowers, also, the famous Calgary stampede. (ACI Productions)

INDIAN SUMMER -28-b&w- Farmers and craftsmen, who chopped their route through the wilderness, established in Cannonsville, New York, a way of life which is practiced by their descendants today. But this village and its cat-skill valley, rich in lore of Revolutionary times, is soon to be submerged by a new reservoir and water shed for the population of the huge city far to the south. (Contemporary)

ISRAEL -30-c- Presents historical background, eventful years between 1900 and 1948, and the present day conditions -- an epic history of one of the world's oldest peoples and one of the newest nations. (Bryan-Int. Film Found.)

JOURNEY INTO THE PAST -21-c- Presents an historical introduction to the early civilization around the Mediterranean and provides a geographical background to the histories of Egypt, Greece

and Rome. (Int. Film Bur.)
LAND OF THE OVERLANDERS -21-c-s- From Jasper, along the road running near the foot of the great glacier, to Mount Robson Park and Wells Gray Park and on to the Shuswap and Kamloops regions. (Loaned by CTFI)

MARK TWAIN'S AMERICA -54-b&w- Using 1,000 pictures from a collection of 3,500 period photographs and engravings--many of them never before seen publicly--this film recreates life of a great American literary figure and the age in which he lived. (McGraw-Hill)

NOT WITHOUT HOPE -23-c- Designed to inform the public about one of the most misunderstood disorders of our time by depicting the moving story of a victim of epilepsy who faces a world still prejudiced by cons-old superstitions. (Faber.)

OUR CHANGING FAMILY LIFE -22-b&w- Contrasts the closely integrated farm family life of 1880 with the family life of today. (McGraw-Hill)

STORM CALLED MARIA -48-b&w- A unique pictorial biography of a titanic storm and the struggle of courageous men to minimize the destruction. Based on the book "Storm" by George Stewart. (Walt Disney)

THIS IS HAWAII -14-c- Covers Hawaii industrially and socially through visits to schools, churches, factories, and tourist attractions. (Richard Cline)

TURKEY-KEY TO THE MIDDLE EAST -20-b&w- Considers the position of Turkey in relation both to its own past and to the state of present-day world affairs and includes a short history of the important strategic country over the last thirty years. (British Information Services)

WORTH WAITING FOR -28-c- Explores some of the problems inherent in early marriage. Shows two teenage couples, one married, the other planning marriage in the face of all objections. Presents the idea that a marriage built on sound values is worth waiting for. (Brigham Young University)

PLEDGED TO FRATERNITY

Danny Haenes, 201 Ohio St., Culver, and Richard Mackey, 503 W. Madison St., Culver, were among 755 college men pledged to social fraternities the first semester at Indiana University, Bloomington. They were both pledged by Lambda Chi Alpha.

Rush began early this fall for the 32 national fraternity chapters on campus, and culminated with the recent pledging ceremony.
