CMA Helps Lift Park Supervisor Fund Forward To Halfway Mark

During the past week contributions to the special fund established by the Board of Parks and Recreation brought the fund total to $565. Gifts were also received from Dr. Joseph Howard, Culver Home Demonstration Club, and the American Legion Auxiliary, Post 103.

The Board is in touch with the State Red Cross, Indiana University, and Park and Recreation Boards in other communities in an effort to find qualified candidates for the position. As soon as sufficient funds are in hand the Board will select the supervisor for the Culver Park.

In other recent action the Board has employed David Kelly as full-time life guard for this summer. David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kelly, will graduate from Culver High School next month. Colorful new telephone directories have been mailed to Indiana Bell customers in the Culver exchange.

Manager James H. Rader said the directories were mailed earlier this week from the printer and should begin arriving at homes and offices early next week. He said delivery should be completed by the weekend.

A colorful cover on the front of the new books shows four Hoosier scenes against a turquoise background which has the appearance of fabric.

A golf course in spring, a toboggan run in winter, a covered bridge during autumn and a river showboat in summer are featured in four color photographs on the cover.

Rader called attention to the introductory pages which have been rearranged to make them more compact for easier reference.

Emergency numbers are listed on the inside front cover, together with spaces where personal medical numbers may be recorded. The inside back cover features spaces where frequently called numbers may be recorded.

The introductory pages also include a map of the local calling area, area codes for use in speeding long distance calls and typical long distance rates.

Assessment Tax Forms Mailed To Union Residents

To Be Returned By May 15

Marshall County Assessor Harold Roush has stated that personal property assessment forms are being sent to owners of motor vehicles in the County (including Union Township).

Because household goods are no longer being assessed, most taxpayers will not be visited by deputy assessors, but will receive forms through the mail. Deputy assessors would still visit income-producing properties, such as farms, and homes where building improvements have been made.

The forms being mailed contain a question concerning improvements. Roush said that deputies would also use building permits issued the past year by Plymouth and the towns in the County as a crosscheck.

The forms to be filled out contain information concerning motor vehicles received from registration slips from the County auto license branch. The owners must complete information as to the model and equipment of the car.

Information as to boats and equipment, airplanes, and dogs owned must also be given. There are also questions concerning improvements on real estate, ownership of property in other counties, ownership of intangible property, and payment of gross income taxes. Roush pointed out that valuation of cars and boats will be set by Township assessing officials when the forms are returned.

The forms can be mailed to either Union Township Trustee Maurice Curtis, Route 1, Culver, Ind. 46511, or Deputy Assessor Harry Speyer, 416 Forest Place, Culver, Ind. 46511. Persons wishing to know the valuations should include a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

The forms are due back by May 15. Failure to return them by then can mean a penalty of $5 on property with a value less than $1,000, and a penalty of $10 on property valued at more than $1,000.

Chamber Of Commerce To Meet Monday Evening

The next meeting of the Culver Chamber of Commerce will be an evening session and will be held at 7 p.m. on Monday, April 17, at The Three Sisters Restaurant.

A special program will be given by Warner Williams, Artist-in-Residence at The Culver Military Academy. Also scheduled for the evening will be the presentation of the Culver Chamber of Commerce Certificate of Merit Awards to several merchants in the Culver area.

FARM BUREAU MEETINGS

The Union Township Farm Bureau will have a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, April 15, in the American Legion Home. Ham will be furnished for the supper. Richard Berglund, exchange student, will be the guest speaker.

The Marshall County Farm Bureau meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, April 18, in the Lincoln Auditorium at Plymouth.

Noted Vietnam "Time" Reporter At CMA Sunday

Harrison Salisbury, the New York Times reporter whose visit to North Vietnam made headlines last December, will deliver an address at Culver Military Academy on Sunday, April 16.

Salisbury will appear at 5:15 p.m. in the Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium on the Culver campus. The speech is for students and faculty but is open to the public at no admission charge.

With the approval of the State Department, Salisbury spent part of December and January in Hanoi and other parts of North Vietnam to report the war. A series of five articles, summing up this and other phases of a tour of Southeast Asia, appeared in the Times.

His reporting won the George Polk Memorial Award presented at Long Island University in March. The award was given Salisbury in foreign reporting on "a pioneering news mission in North Vietnam that contributed a new dimension to coverage of the Vietnam war and, in significantly enlarging international comprehension of the conflict, influenced the course of contemporary history."

The appearance of Salisbury at Culver is under the joint sponsorship of the Academy's America's Democratic Heritage lecture series and the Class of 1962 Lecture Series. America's Democratic Heritage is a Culver-established course for ninth-graders in which students discuss their heritage in terms of the conflicts impinging upon it in the world today. The Class of 1962 provides funds each year for lectures and previously presented Dr. James Silver, author of the book "Mississippi: The Closed Society," and John Mulliken, a Culver graduate who is the Pentagon correspondent for Time magazine. Mulliken appeared at Culver last year only a few months after he was wounded by a Viet Cong sniper in Vietnam.

Salisbury's trip to Southeast Asia, including Laos, Burma, the Himalayan-Indian border up to Mongolia and Siberia — approximately a complete orbit around China. His latest trip in February included a visit to Moscow. He is the author of two recent books, "Orbit of China" and "Behind the Lines — Hanoi."

An assistant managing editor of the New York Times, Salisbury also won the Pulitzer Prize in 1954 for a series of articles called "Russia Re-visited." The series was based on five years as Moscow correspondent for the Times and extensive travel in Soviet Central Asia, a region almost unknown to Westerners. The series was later expanded into the book "American in Russia" in 1955.

Salisbury's observations of what he calls "the rising conflict between Russia and Red China" are based upon his experience in Russia and another trip in 1959, which took him to Siberia and Mongolia. His book, "To Moscow — and Beyond," is a report of the Soviet Union at that time and its relationships with the other colossus of communism, Red China.

Born in Minneapolis in 1908, Salisbury attended the University of Minnesota and edited the college paper there, working at night for the St. Paul bureau of United Press. Upon graduation in 1930, he went to UP's Chicago bureau to cover the tail-end of the Prohibition gang wars and the trial of Al Capone. In 1940 he was transferred to the foreign desk in Washington, D.C., and in 1943 he became the London bureau manager and directed coverage of the war in Europe.

Salisbury's first assignment in Russia was as head of UP's Moscow staff in 1944. He accompanied Eric Johnston, then head of the United States Chamber of Commerce, on a 6,000 mile odyssey through the Ural Mountains, Siberia and Central Asia, visiting big Russian steel, munitions and aircraft factories as well as the "forbidden" cities of Samarkand and Tashkent. That year he traveled 25,000 miles inside Russia, and saw liberated cities and the Red Army in action.

At war's end, he returned to this country as foreign news editor, and covered the birth of the United Nations in San Francisco.

Salisbury joined the New York Times staff in 1949 and soon was back in Russia as correspondent, a post he held five years.

Soviet authorities objected to the prize-winning articles he wrote in this period, and barred him from their country for five years. During this time he worked as a reporter on the Times city staff, and wrote notable articles on urban transportation and juvenile delinquency. The latter series was expanded into the book, "The Shook-Up Generation." He also toured Soviet satellite countries, including Yugoslavia, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, Poland, Bulgaria and Albania.

The ban lifted temporarily, and Salisbury was back in Russia for the 1959 trip. He also accompanied Vice President Nixon on his visit to Russia, and Premier Khrushchev on his trip to the United States.

A sixth trip to Russia, made in 1961-62, resulted in his book, "A New Russia?", which takes a new look at the Soviet challenge and another appraisal of Russian relationships with Red China.

Besides his five non-fiction books about Russia, Salisbury has written a novel, "The Northern Palmyra Affair" (1962) about the city of Leningrad and its citizens.

The 51st annual convention of the Marshall County Federated Clubs was held Tuesday, April 4, at the Culver Methodist Church with 106 members and guests attending. Mrs. Ronald Hooley, organist, played the prelude.

Mrs. Ted Strang, Marshall County president, called the meeting to order and Rev. Carl Q. Baker, pastor of the church gave the opening prayer.

Mrs. Everett Hoessel of Culver brought greetings from the hostess clubs, Maxinkuckee Federated Junior Woman's Club and Culver City Club. The response was given by Mrs. Sam Baker of Plymouth.

Mrs. Strang conducted the business when reports of committees were given. Mrs. Lawrence Carvey, Plymouth, chairman of the nominating committee, reported the following slate of officers for next year: Mrs. Allen Goodrich, Plymouth, president; Miss Mildred Laird, Bourbon, first vice president; Mrs. William Cronin, Argos, second vice president; Mrs. Glenn Tillman, Plymouth, secretary; Mrs. Gerald Shreve of Plymouth, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Shoemaker, Argos, trustee, and Mrs. Ted Strang, Culver, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Strang introduced Mrs. Lloyd Swoverland of Etna Green, 13th District president, who gave a most interesting talk titled, "Federation Tapestry" in which she compared the various shades of the many colors of a piece of tapestry to the works of various departments of club work. She closed with a poem.

Mrs. Clay Smith of Rochester, formerly of Culver and former Marshall County and District 13 president, was introduced. Mrs. Smith presented the county with a gavel to be given each year to the club doing the best work on the project. This was followed by the reading of the Resolutions by Mrs. George Eley, chairman of the resolutions committee.

The morning session closed with two musical numbers by winners in the high school music contest: a vocal solo by Miss Pamela Welsh, accompanied by Miss Linda Hudson, and a number on orchestra bells by Miss Virginia Sheidler, accompanied by Harry Fouts.

A luncheon was served in the dining room by the Ladies Aid Society of the Barr Oak Church of God.

An organ prelude by Mrs. Ted Ervin opened the afternoon session after which Mrs. C. O. Goodrich of Plymouth, with Mrs. Ervin at the organ, presented a memorial ceremony honoring deceased members of the past year.

Mrs. Strang introduced the guest speaker for the afternoon, Dr. Karl Richter, Rabbi, Sinai Temple, Michigan City, who used as his title, "The Competitive and Cooperative Society."

Mrs. Strang presented a check from the Federation to Mrs. William Blanding, director of the Marshall-Stark Development Center. Track Team Organized

By Dave Beauchamp

The Culver track team has been organized and already has one meet behind it. Culver was defeated in a tri-way meet with LaVie and Bremen. These are two of the toughest teams that Culver will face all season. With this in mind, we are anticipating much better results in the future.

Although Culver was defeated they put up a good fight with a second in the 100 yard dash, a second in the 220 yard dash, a 3 for the two mile, second in the 880 relay, 3 in the broad jump, and a very respectable first in the pole vault.

We hope to see a lot of fans at our home meets, of which there is only two, so let's turn out and back our team!

Sunshine Society

By Linda Hudson

On the evening of Friday, March 31, at 8:00 p.m., the SSS's Ideal Ladies Party took place.

The affair was started by President Linda Baker. The members stood and sang the Sunshine song and recited the Sunshine creed. Then Linda Baker presented Miss Ruth Shanks, the SSS sponsor, a corsage of carnations and roses.

Marilee Herrmann was given a crown for being elected SSS girl of the Year. Other candidates were Linda McAllister, Marlene Morrison, Cheryl Zink and Cathy Schmidt.

Linda Baker then introduced Miss Shanks, who in turn introduced the speaker for the evening, Miss Irene Meyers.

Miss Meyers, who is from Fort Wayne, gave a very exciting and interesting lecture about her experiences with women in industry and travel.

The Sunshine Society members then introduced themselves and revealed their ideal lady. We, as the Sunshine Girls, presented a gift to Miss Ruth Shanks as our Ideal Lady.

Refreshments were served and another ideal party was over.

Avoid the glare from the driver who is getting a glare from his mirror when you drive too closely to the car ahead of you with your high beams on. The Institute for Safer Living reports that low beams should always be used when overtaking or meeting another car. Switch to low beams early enough to be on low beams when the car ahead or the oncoming car is 500 feet away. Even though the oncoming driver may not lower his lights, don't retaliate by switching to high beams.

Annual Tippecanoe River Race Set For April 15

Changes in Culver Military Academy's fourth annual Tippecanoe River Race and addition of a new cross country-river race highlight the season for Culver's canoeing team.

Since many competitors felt that the 60-mile Tippecanoe Race was too long for so early in the season, race officials have shortened the marathon to 30 miles, Saturday, April 15.

The marathon races will start at Leifers Ford with the finish line at Beason Park along the Tippecanoe between Indiana 14 and county road 400.

All contestants will be placed in either the junior or senior levels and will race in championship, intermediate or novice flights. Junior flights will begin April 15 at 1 p.m., followed by senior paddlers starting at 2 p.m.

Top finishers in the junior division will be presented the Blaho Memorial Award, given in honor of Katman Blaho, international canoeing expert and Academy coach who died last Sept. 24 with a heart attack suffered during preparation for the North American Canoeing Championships on Lake Maxinkuckee.

William P. Garrison, founder of the race and coach of the Academy team, replaced Sunday's marathon with four short events.

Activities April 16 will begin about 9:30 a.m. at Beason Park, an Academy-owned river camp on the Tippecanoe.

Events include a four-man canoe open, mixed doubles, father and son or daughter, and a double blade event with no restriction to type of boat or number of paddlers. Finish line for Sunday's events will be at the city park in Winamac, a distance of about six miles. All events are planned to be completed by Sunday noon.

Culver's Tippecanoe River Race is one of four events sanctioned by the Indiana Canoe Racing Council. Results of the four races will determine the 1967 state champions. The Academy's canoe team will compete at the other sanctioned races including the Sugar Creek Race at Crawfordsville, April 22-23; Kokomo's Wildcat Race, May 6-7, and the Wabash River Race, May 27-28.

The Academy is experimenting with a race among members of its student body in order to promote physical fitness and interest in the sport of canoeing.

Called the Les Voyageur Race, competitors will run cross country for five miles to the Yellow River and paddle for 10 miles to the intersection of the River and Indiana 17.

Over 20 Indiana High Schools have been invited to Culver's High School Regatta, Saturday, May 12 on Lake Maxinkuckee. In its second year, the regatta is sponsored in conjunction with the Academy's Mother's Weekend.

A dozen boys have been trainees since Thanksgiving under the direction of team captain Jim Eichen of Pittsburgh, Pa. They were joined this spring by 30 newcomers.

Captain William P. Garrison expects to "clean up this year because we started early, worked hard and produced some fine competitors. My main concern is that we won't meet enough top flight competitors to make the expected wins significant.

"We are doing all we can to encourage others to participate in a sport that is only about five years old in Indiana. Last year's junior champions, Lettingwell and Orman of Brookville, will be back again, but I feel confident that we have two, and maybe three teams that can beat them."

Last summer Culver's eight-man war canoe team won the national junior title in a 500-meter race at New Rochelle, N.Y. Returning this year from the national championship are captain Jim Eichen; Rob Fogel, Attica, Ind.; Steve Kline, Warsaw, Ill.; Casper Martin, Elkhart, Ind.; and Keith Oldham, Springfield, Va.

The traveling squad will be filled out by Vic Alexander, Decatur, Ga.; Steve Bachmann, Highland Park, Ill.; Graham Chesny, Pinconning, Mich.; Lew Edwin, Bourbon, Ind.; Randy Eyre, Fort Polk, La.; Bob Mitchell, Camden, Ala.; and Mike Thrasher, Bloomington, Ind.

The bonds of this issue may be redeemed prior to maturity at the option of the corporation in whole or in part and in inverse numerical order, (a) on any interest payment date not earlier than July 1, 1973, from funds other than proceeds of any borrowing made for such purpose, or (b) on any interest payment date not earlier than July 1, 1977, from any money made available for that purpose, at face value, plus the following premiums:

- 3% if redeemed on July 1, 1973, or thereafter on or before January 1, 1978;

Each bid must be for all of said First Mortgage Bonds and must state the rate or rates of interest which the bonds are to bear, not exceeding 5% per annum, stated in multiples of 1/8 or 1/10 of 1%. The bonds will be awarded to the highest qualified bidder who has submitted his bid in accordance herewith. The difference between the highest and lowest rates specified in the bid shall not exceed 1 1/2%. Bids specifying two or more interest rates shall also specify the amount and maturities of the bonds bearing each rate but all bonds maturing on the same date shall bear the same rate. Bids shall set out the total amount of interest payable over the terms of the bonds and the net interest cost on the bonds covered by the bid. The highest bidder will be the one who offers the lowest net interest cost to the corporation, to be determined by computing the total interest on all of the bonds to their maturities and deducting therefrom the premium bid, if any. No bid for less than the face value of said bonds, including accrued interest from the date thereof to the date of delivery, will be considered. No conditional bids will be considered. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. If an acceptable bid is not received for the First Mortgage Bonds on the date of sale hereinafter fixed, the sale may be continued from day to day thereafter, during which time no bids for less than the highest bid received at the time of the advertised sale will be considered.

Each bid must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the corporation and marked on the outside "Bid for First Mortgage Bonds," and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check in the amount of $26,000.00 payable to the corporation as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. The checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned immediately following the award of the First Mortgage Bonds.

The successful bidder shall make payment for the bonds and accept delivery thereof within five (5) days after being notified that the bonds are ready for delivery, at such bank in the Town of Culver, Indiana, or in the City of Indianapolis, Indiana, as the successful bidder may designate. The First Mortgage Bonds will be ready for delivery within thirty (30) days after the date of sale. If the corporation fails to have the bonds ready for delivery prior to the closing of banking hours on the 30th day after the date of sale, the bidder may secure the release of his bid upon request in writing filed with the Corporation.

The unqualified approving opinion of Lee, Miller, Donadio & Ryan, bond counsel of Indianapolis, together with a transcript of the proceedings relating to the issuance of said bonds, printed bond forms and closing papers with the legal opinion printed thereon in the usual form showing no litigation questioning the validity of the bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder at the expense of the corporation.

Culver Community School Building Corporation was organized for the purpose of erecting and leasing a school building to Culver Community Schools of Union Township, Marshall County, Indiana, Auburntownship Township, Fulton County, Indiana, and North Bend Township, Starke County, Indiana. All action has been taken and the bonds are issued in compliance with the provisions of Chapter 273 of the Acts of the Indiana General Assembly of 1947, and all acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto. The bonds will be secured by a mortgage indenture to the State Exchange Bank, in the Town of Culver, Indiana, and will be subject to the terms and provisions of said indenture. All bidders shall be deemed to be advised as to the provisions of the above mentioned indenture.

The property to be covered by the mortgage has been leased for a period of twenty-two (22) years to the aforesaid Culver Community School Corporation at an annual rental of $213,000.00, plus the payment of all taxes and assessments, which rental is payable semi-annually on June 30 and December 30 in each year, commencing with the completion of the school building to be erected thereon. All bidders shall be deemed to be advised as to the provisions of said lease.

Said bonds constitute an indebtedness only of Culver Community School Building Corporation, payable in accordance with the terms of the above mentioned indenture and the provisions of the aforesaid Chapter 273 of the Acts of 1947, as amended. Under the provisions of the governing statute, the First Mortgage Bonds and the interest thereon are exempt from all taxation in Indiana, except, however, inheritance taxes. In the opinion of bond counsel, under the existing federal statutes, decisions, regulations and rulings, the interest on the first mortgage bonds is exempt from federal income tax and the issuance and transfer thereof are not subject to federal documentary stamps taxes.

Further information relative to said issue may be obtained upon application to George F. Stevens, Attorney for the corporation, 119 West Lomb Street, Plymouth, Indiana, or Robert Rust, Superintendent, Culver Community Schools, 110 South Main Street, Culver, Indiana. If bids are submitted by mail they should be addressed to the corporation, in care of Mr. Robert Rust, Superintendent, Culver Community Schools, 110 South Main Street, Culver, Indiana.

The stranger was greeted by the farmer. The visitor produced his card and remarked: "I am a government inspector and am entitled to inspect your farm."
A little later the farmer heard screams from his alfalfa patch, where the inspector was being chased by a bull. Leaning over the gates as the inspector drew near, the farmer cried: "Show him your card, mister, show him your card."

FILLERS

A luckless goose flying south for the winter flew past a drive-in showing a horror movie and was so frightened he got people-pimples.

The high spot of our family album! We've only seen Meg hold this solemn expression once before, when she was a freckled angel in the Sunday School pageant . . . and then she wasn't quite so cross-eyed!

Meg's our darling adopted daughter, and usually she's a little livewire . . . full of surprises. It was Meg's enthusiasm for Church School that led us to improve our own record of church attendance. It was Meg's searching question, "Why don't we ever thank God for dinner like the Andersons?" that revived the custom of mealtime grace in our home. And it was Meg's worry about "the poor hungry children" that eventually drew us into our work for the Mission Fund.

Frankly, we used to be "fringe Christians," giving God very little of our time or thoughts. Meg was God's instrument in showing us that our church really needs us . . . and that it is a blessed thing to be needed.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Culver Citizen:

Seeing U.S.A. by Greyhound Bus.

This began in July of 1950; in fact, it was July 3rd. I had purchased a ticket for $141. The itinerary was from San Diego to Seattle, on to Glacier National Park. My stay in this gorgeous park cost $24.01 for 24 hours. From there I went to Minot, N. D. to visit with the John Burns family. In the late 1890's it seemed that half of Burr Oak migrated to North Dakota, many of whom were Burns families.

John Burns served 12 years in the North Dakota legislature with distinction, after which he retired to Surry, N. D. where he had a blacksmith shop. How many Burns do you find around Burr Oak and Culver now? Dave Burns, the fire chief, is all I know.

From Grand Forks, N. D., I traveled south to Omaha. What a farming country! In mid-July it was at its best. I think of it as the bread basket of the world. From Omaha, I went over into Iowa with friends. Then on to Aurora, Ill., where three of my children attended Aurora College. In fact, my eldest daughter was Dean of Women for eight years. My sister, Mrs. Everett Osborn, now of Tucson, Ariz., was a matron at the college for four years after the death of her husband, whom I am sure many knew. It was rewarding to be there mingling with faculty and students for a week.

Chicago and environs was then visited. Many relatives and friends reside there. Remember, we are seeing U.S.A. by Greyhound Bus. We were doing this in leisurely fashion, for the Greyhound is very liberal with stopovers. — Next we went to Culver, Ind., near our birthplace and scenes of childhood and school days. This time was a thrilling experience. Renewing old acquaintances and making new friends is what I enjoy. I like things, but I love people.

After this wonderful time with relatives and friends I went to Cincinnati, Ohio, to spend some time with a life-long friend, Park A. Garn. He has always been more than generous with me. One morning he said, "I have a surprise for you today, Billy." He got the Mercury out of the garage and we were off for a couple of exciting days of travel over Southern Indiana and considerable of Kentucky. We visited Camp Atterbury, crossed scenic Brown County, and then on to Louisville and many historic points in Kentucky. In Bowling Green, Ky., I parted company with Park. He went his way, and I was on my way home by Greyhound. There will be those who may read this who will remember Park as a dapper young man looking for a wife, moving in Culver and Sligo society. He finally took a Pickeral girl from Argos as a wife.

Before I went to Cincinnati, I went to Michigan for a couple of weeks. I visited relatives who were very generous with their time. One cousin drove me from Lansing, Mich., to Fremont, Ohio, to visit with other cousins and friends.

After I left Park Garn I went to Nashville, Tenn., where I visited the Hermitage, the Andrew Jackson home and cemetery about 15 miles from Nashville. I also visited the grave of President James K. Polk in Nashville. The only show I saw on the trip was "Grand Ole Opera" in Nashville. It was well worth seeing, and it is still going strong.

From Nashville I went to Memphis and on through Arkansas to Muskogee, Okla., to visit my favorite uncle, Eugene Overmyer and family. He was a dentist who went to Muskogee in 1902 and grew up with that part of the country. He became president of the Dental Association of Oklahoma. I visited with friends in Tulsa and El Reno. Here I spent ten days with the Paddock family whom I had grown up with on the Burr Oak flats. From there I went to Pueblo, Colo., where I spent a week with cousins, some of whom I had never met before. These were relatives on my mother's side. Overmyers. I then went to Denver for five days where I met my wife and daughter who were on their way to Aurora and Chicago.

I then traveled to Salt Lake City where friends were met and various places of interest were visited. Among these were the Mormon Tabernacle, gold room in the Capitol Building, and Kennecott Open Copper Mine at Bingham Canyon. I then returned to San Diego after nearly three months of leisurely travel.

Quite a portion of my ticket was not used. I turned it in at the Greyhound Ticket Office. They refunded me 36 dollars. That is the Greyhound Way.

The second Greyhound trip started in May of 1954. The first stop was in Tucson, Ariz. to visit my sister and other relatives. From there on to Lake Charles, La., to visit a cousin, who with her sons were raising 1400 acres of rice. This was a new and interesting experience to see how one of our food staples is raised. From Lake Charles, I went to Baton Rouge. It had been recommended to me that I visit the 2200 acre campus of the Louisiana State University. I did. I hired a Negro to drive me over this beautiful campus. This was on Saturday. I wanted very much to go through the capitol building which Huey Long had had built. It was 5 p.m. by the time I arrived there. The doors were locked. I saw a man getting into an automobile on the parking lot and ran out to him. I asked him if he knew how I could get in. He said, "I have the keys." He got out of the car, unlocked the building, and took me through. He told me that when there is a special session of the legislature in Louisiana it convenes on Sunday. He showed me what he had been doing all day — placing bills on the desks of the legislators. After he had done this and much more, the time had come to leave the building. He asked me where I was going. I told him to New Orleans and that I needed to get to the Greyhound Bus Depot. He said, "I will take you." On the way to the depot he said, "My name is John Daggett, and I live on Daggett Ave." I thought to myself — there is one man in a thousand, who would do so much for a total stranger. At Christmas time I sent him a card. I guess Mr. Daggett is like many men I have known — not given to writing. But his good wife wrote. For 12 years we kept in touch before meeting in person. More about this 12 years later.

I spent a couple of happy days in New Orleans, which is rich in historic lore. I reviled in it. From New Orleans I went to Montgomery, Ala. My stop here will be remembered as long as I live. I went to the Capitol and met a man. After conversing with him for a few minutes he said he had to go to work. He reached out his hand and said, "My name is William J. Smith." "Well," I said to him, "that is my name." We struck up more conversation. He introduced me to the hostess of the Capitol. I'll not forget how she looked when he said, "Mrs. Ousley. I would like you to meet William J. Smith." Mr. Smith went to his work in the Tax Department, and I continued the conversation with Mrs. Ousley. There were many experiences in Montgomery. Needless to say I have been in touch with Mr. Smith since that day and have visited him and Anabelle in their home.

It is rewarding to go Greyhound, visit places, and make new friends.

From Montgomery I went to Atlanta, then on to Columbus, S. C. I saw Governor James Byrnes, although I did not converse with him. I consider him a statesman and have his book "Speaking Frankly." It is well worth reading. It portrays some of the things that have contributed to the confusion we are in today as a nation.

From Columbia I went to Charleston, W. Va., where I attended a general conference of our church. It was rich in Christian fellowship. I made many new friends. The scenery from Columbia to Charleston is gorgeous.

Once again I got back to good old Indiana and the scenes of childhood. Things have changed. I had made the acquaintance of Dunn Weaver. It was always a treat to get together with him and his good wife, Belle, whom I had known many years before on the Osborn dairy. I was now on my way home, but I made stops in Chicago, Wisconsin, Colorado, New Mexico, and Tucson.

I picked up 400 names and addresses on this trip. It is nice to have friends.

By 1963 the Greyhound Company had inaugurated the "Ninety-Nine Days for $99. I decided to take advantage of that. My brother, Ray, from Seattle was visiting me. We took off for Tucson to visit our sister, Faye Osborn. After a few days I continued my journey, and Ray returned to Seattle. I visited friends in Tulsa, Okla., then went to Vicksburg, Miss., where I had a good friend. He was helpful to me in seeing things reminiscent of Civil War days. We went from here to Montgomery, where I was the guest of my friend, William J. Smith again. We certainly have good times when we get together. From Montgomery I went to St. Petersburg, Fla. The Stahl sisters from Culver were there. We had a lovely time with these life-long friends. They drove me all over that part of the country and finally delivered me to a cousin in Lakeland, Fla. I then went to Lake Worth, Fla., and had several days with a cousin, Harold King, by name. He and his wife took good care of me. I had now visited all the 48 states, except the six in New England. So I headed north. I traveled mostly with friends from state to state. Included was Cape Cod and Plymouth Rock. Everything was rich in historic values.

From Augusta, Maine, I started homeward via Gettysburg, Pa., visiting the famous battlefield. Then on to Indiana, Chicago, Iowa, Colorado Springs, and Pueblo, where stops were made to visit friends. Now I had traveled in all the 48 states by Greyhound Bus.

In 1966 the Greyhound people put out that tempting challenge for travel, 99 days for $99. I succumbed. On Sept. 6 I started on another wonderful trip. The first stop was in Grand Canyon; then three days in Yellowstone National Park; next Mt. Rushmore, S. D. From there I visited in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania. Here I must elaborate some. I had met on person from Johnstown for about one hour in San Diego. He seemed to like me, and I liked him. Through correspondence he insisted that I visit them. I said to myself, "This is my chance." When I made out the itinerary, Johnstown and Glen and Adeline Hastings were included. I had always wanted to visit Johnstown, for it was there on May 31, 1889, the tragic Johnstown flood occurred. It was the first tragic event I can remember. Anyway, Glen Hastings, a retired Baltimore Life Insurance Company man, picked me up at the bus depot. About the first thing he said was, "We want you to stay a month." Well, I was not about to do anything like that. But I was with them eight days, three of which were spent in their summer home 132 miles distant on Pine Creek in the Grand Canyon of Pennsylvania. For eight days that large Cadillac was taking me either and you through that beautiful country. Mid-October the coloring of the trees was beyond description on those Appalachian hillsides. I never can repay such consideration as was given me by Glen Hastings. I could write a book about it.

Time was a factor. I moved on to Philadelphia where I thought I would spend several days. I changed my mind after one night in the city of Brotherly love and went to Washington, D.C. I think I will have to go back to Philadelphia some time. Washington, D.C. treated me extremely well for a short stay, and I was soon on my way to points in Virginia, Tennessee, and Alabama, where again I visited the William J.

Smiths for the second time. He and Anabelle sure roll out the red carpet when I come. All good things come to an end, and so it was I had to leave this hospitable home and move on to Baton Rouge, La. For 12 years I had looked forward to seeing the John Daggett family after having met Mr. Daggett in the Capitol Building in 1954. They told me that the feeling was mutual. I believe it proved to be true. Certainly southern hospitality was at a high point in this home. That goes for John, Sr., Katherine, John II, and Thomas. I bless the day I met John Sr. in May, 1954.

I had intended to be home in time to vote. I reluctantly left the Daggetts, but not before John had driven all over that part of the country seeing sights and wonders. We even got stuck on a sand bar in the Mississippi River.

Now I was on the way home with stops in Vicksburg, Miss., and Clovis, N. M. Here I made up my mind to visit the Carlsbad Caverns for the second time. There is where I was on election day. It was the first time I had not voted since 1908. Anyway, Reagan made it without my vote. I stopped three days in Tucson with Faye Osborn after which I arrived home on Nov. 12. A wonderful 66 days of travel by Greyhound. I love it, and I told no less than a hundred people about this best way to see the U.S.A.

I may want to see Canada the same way. For the present I am chartering and conducting tours. What kind of buses? You guessed it. Greyhound!

SAVINGS BONDS REPORT

Harold E. Rose, Chairman of the Marshall County U. S. Savings Bonds Committee, has received a report revealing that the County's Savings Bonds sales for February were $29,001 compared with $49,998 for the corresponding period of last year. The State's sales for February were $12,736,328 and for a like period of 1966 they were $10,658,550 which is a gain of 19.5 percent compared with sales of last February.

Sixty-two of the State's ninety-two counties reported sales gains for the month when compared with sales of February 1966.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schweidler for several days last week were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bogardus of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., former Culver residents.

Visitors to Culver judge it largely by the people they meet here. What do you do to make Culver more attractive to visitors and newcomers?

Academy Sports

Tennis

Bolstered by five returning lettermen and six members of last year's junior varsity, Culver Military Academy's tennis team is preparing for eight regular season meets in addition to the Academy's fourth annual Bishop Memorial Tennis Tournament, May 13.

The Eagle squad will meet perennial rivals Warsaw and Peru, in addition to Logansport, Plymouth, Goshen and Wabash. Teams from Lafayette Jefferson and West Lafayette will supersede much of the original purpose of the Bishop Memorial Tournament, Culver's tourney has been redesigned as an eight-team invitational. Teams already invited to compete with Culver include Peru, Warsaw, New Albany and Plymouth.

The largest tournament in Indiana over the last few years, the Bishop Tournament was considered by many coaches to be a state tournament.

The late Col. James H. Bishop was a teacher and chairman of the history department at Culver until his retirement in 1958. He was extremely active in national tennis competition and won fame as a tennis coach.

When Col. Bishop was killed in an automobile accident in 1961, Chester A. Marshall, Culver athletic director, conceived the idea of a memorial tourney as a tribute.

Returning lettermen on the Culver squad are Lee Backman, Kankakee, Ill.; Rick Hubble, Decatur, Ill.; John Mehrkens, Sao Paulo, Brazil; Santiago Montufar, Quito, Ecuador, and John Schumacher, Hartsville, Ohio.

Culver's junior varsity's activities have been expanded to include more home matches and, for the first time in several years, trips off campus.

Golf

Culver Military Academy's golf team will meet eight of the Indiana top 10 teams in its 11-match season. This year seven of the top 10 teams will compete in the Academy's invitational tourney, May 13. The squad opens its season at Bloomington against University High School, Seymour and Anderson Madison Heights.

Arrangements have been made for this year's Culver Invitational to be a 36-hole tourney. Eight of the 15 teams will play 18 holes on the Academy course in the morning and switch with the teams playing the Maxinkuckee Country Club course for 18 holes in the afternoon.

State champion Marion High School will challenge the defending tourney squad from LaPorte. Runners-up in last year's state tourney competing in the invitational will be Anderson Madison Heights with state medalist Bill Spanuth and Warsaw, tied for third in the state; Gary Andean, sixth; Lafayette Jefferson, eighth; South Bend Riley and Kokomo, tied for ninth.

Other teams competing against Culver in the May 13 invitational will be Logansport, Niles (Mich.), Plymouth, Rensselaer, Elwood, and two-time tourney champ South Bend Riley.

Coach Thomas E. Baker admitted that this year's was the "toughest schedule I've ever had in my years at Culver. We go against eight of last year's top ten teams in the state tourney.

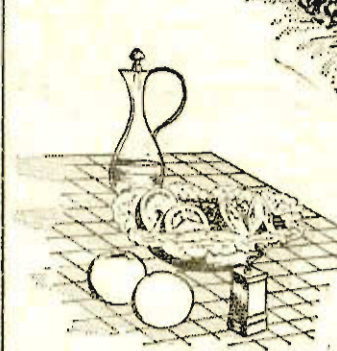

"Culver has never had a losing season match-wise," Baker added, "and we plan to maintain our winning average over this year's 11-match season. We have also been a bridesmaid in three of the last four Culver Invationals; this year I hope we'll be the bride."

The squad lost the service of two lettermen, but Baker has nine years of combined experience in his four returning lettermen. Senior captain Bob Crosby, Athens, Ga., has earned a junior varsity and two varsity letters in the past three years. He will be backed up by senior Tom McMillan, Brewton, Ala.; junior Rick Durkes, Dixon, Ill., and junior Al Ranney, Austin, Texas.
