C.M.A. Girls To Be Featured In Look Magazine

A rare experience in which girls attending Culver Military Academy sailed a three-masted square-rigger will be featured in a picture story in the June 13 issue of Look Magazine.

The issue, due for newstands about May 30, devotes three pages to pictures taken at Culver last summer when 20 girls took over as the crew of the square-rigger O. W. Fowler and sailed it over Lake Maxinkuckee. It is believed to have been the first time an all-girl crew ever sailed a square rigger. Says the magazine:

"Girl sailors, the staff finds, are highly motivated and learn the ropes faster than expected."

The magazine also mentions Wilfred "Bud" Craft, the Indiana shipwright who built the 54-foot Fowler along with a miniature destroyer and a fleet including some 123 sailboats. Craft, recently retired, was head of the Academy's boat department for nearly half a century. His home is in Culver.

Girls have been a part of the 1800-student Culver Summer Schools since 1965, when the Girls School was established. They regularly learn to sail, but before last summer they had never sailed a square-rigger. The Look pictures show them atop 40-foot masts unfurling the sails in a heavy breeze.

The article is part of a special boating issue with a circulation of 7,600,000.

Hal Holbrook Accepts Academy's First "Man Of The Year" Award

Hal Holbrook, the distinguished actor best known for his portrayal of Mark Twain, was given a standing ovation at Culver Military Academy Sunday when he received the school's first "Man of the Year" award.

Holbrook, a 1942 graduate, spoke to an audience of 1,000 after making a hurried trip to Culver from New York, where he is appearing on Broadway in the musical "The Apple Tree." He returned to New York the same day.

The acceptance speech was one in which Holbrook, the actor, gave a performance as carefully planned as any he has given on the New York stage. He won his audience immediately with irreverent recollections of his days as a student at Culver, calling himself a weak student and a poor specimen in athletics and in the military system. He failed to mention that he was 58th in a class of more than 160 and that only a few years later he was graduated from Denison University with a citation for his academic record.

He characterized his experiences by telling that he finished last in track for many years until his senior year at Culver, when he finally won a race. Recalling that day, he said:

"And when I saw how easy it was going to be, I just went ahead and did it. I think my trouble was that I was always afraid I couldn't win so I never tried hard enough. I think I've been afraid of the last 100 yards most of my life."

In directing his remarks specifically at the nearly 900 students before him, Holbrook asked: "And lately I've begun to wonder if it has something to do with being afraid of trying to win."

Holbrook said he spent his early years as an unhappy cadet until he found Dr. Charles Mather and the theater in his senior year at Culver. The late Dr. Mather was then the director of theater who induced Holbrook to make his first stage appearance in a play "Seven Keys to Baldpate."

"I found I had joined in a kind of rebellion against the locker-room ideology. But without realizing it, I had become different. I was on the outside looking in — and that's when I began to take a good look at what was 'in'."

Speaking for the arts and artists, Holbrook said the actor's job is not only to observe people and their motives but also to observe himself.

"What puzzles most people about the arts — and particularly artists who work in the field — is that most artists don't run with the pack. They tend to be independent. A bit strange. They are off following those visions — they've got too many secrets going for them. Then, as the artist matures and tries less to please the crowd and more to please his own vision, he runs the risk of being labeled a dissenter. . . . At this point, there aren't many sides left in the field."

Holbrook, after carefully bringing his audience to a point of near irreverence, gave it the conclusion that helped produce the ovation:

"As far as the school, to tell you the truth I kind of love it in a way. But I'm not sure why. Maybe because it was tough. There are places on this campus where I fought and died and got up and lived again. And out of that I found me. And that's what counts."

"I wouldn't dare let you know how proud I am to get this award. I just am."

Myhre And Minor, CMA Musicians, To Give Recital Sunday

Two Culver Military Academy musicians will give a recital at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Eugene C. Eppey Auditorium. The public is invited.

Artists are Milford H. Myhre, pianist, and Brian Minor, a saxophonist. The recital is the last for Myhre, who is leaving the Academy and will appear as carillonneur at Bok Tower in Florida next Fall, and the first on the Culver campus for Minor, who joined the Academy's language department last September.

Myhre is a graduate of the University of Kansas and the University of Michigan, where he received a master's degree in music. He is well known as an organist, carillonneur, and pianist.

and has appeared in recital in many cities. The recital Sunday will round out 10 years' service for Myhre to the Academy and its music department.

Minor has studied under some of the world's leading saxophonists including Cecil Lason, of Northwestern University; Marcel Mule, of the National Conservatory of Music, Paris; and Sigurd Rascher, of the Eastman School of Music.

Minor is a Fulbright Scholar and additionally studied in France last year through a grant from the Indiana Language program. He was a guest soloist on a CBS network show in 1965 and has appeared with several symphony orchestras.

Myhre's Sunday program will include: Mozart's Sonata in B-flat, K.333; and music by Brahms. Minor will play Eugene Bozza's "Improvisation and Caprice," and Lawson-Lunde's Sonata, part five "Allegro marcato." The two musicians will perform together in three numbers for piano and saxophone.

Father: "My daughter is used to getting everything she wants. Can you give her that?"

Suitor: "Well, I can right now, she says all she wants is me."

School Board Signs Contracts And Accepts Bids

Signing of teacher contracts, final approval of salary scales, establishment of bus driver salary schedules for 1967-68, acceptance of bids for scheduled rehabilitation projects, acknowledgement of resignations, approval of teacher appointments, and progress reports of the new high school has kept the board of trustees of the Culver Community Schools preoccupied this week.

Bids approved for scheduled rehabilitation projects were awarded as follows: Culver High School building, new roof, Lawmaster Roofing Co., Bourbon, $5,997.00; Easterday Construction Co., Culver, ceiling in 16 areas with installation of new lighting, $13,873.00; flooring, study hall, $2,679.00, and guidance office partition, $750.00.

The Easterday firm was also low bidder on the repair of the Elementary Building wall, $1,500.00; painting of Aubbeenaubee School gymnasium; Kleckner Painting Co., Middlebury, $1,584.00. Bids for furniture, and glazing and caulking windows were taken under advisement for further study.

The salary schedule for teachers takes into account the 1967 scale together with five months of the approved 1968 scale. The new schedule was developed in a series of meetings in which the School Board and the Welfare Committee of the Classroom Teachers Association conferred. It provides for Class I, those with Bachelor's degrees and no experience, $5,805.00 as the starting salary. The present pay is $5,411.00.

Class I teachers with 12 years experience will be $7,555.00.

Class II, Bachelor's degree plus 16 semester hours towards M.A. Degree will receive $6,020.00 to $7,614.00, 12 years. Class III, Master's Degree, starts at $6,047 with continuing increments over 24 years to $9,611.00. Class IV, "Master's-In-Field" starts at the sixth year at $7,136.00 to $9,667.00 in 24 years. Few changes were made in the extra-curricular pay schedule for the 1967-68 year.

Approval of the appointment of new staff members included: Jerome Friedrich, administrative assistant; Ann Bigley, vocal music; Bryce Bigley, Elementary science; Marilyn Friedrich, Girls Phys Ed; Charles Byfield, Band director; Gwen Lane and Phyllis Hartman, Elementary classroom teachers; and Margaret Jewell, clerk-typist.

Resignations were acknowledged as follows: Culver High School, Charles Bernhardt, principal; Jack Miller, guidance; Sandra Asay, art; Beverly McClellan, French; Jerry Brown, Biology; Stephen Wroblewski, math; Culver Elementary, Terry Eitel and Florence Page; Aubbeenaubee School, Phyllis Fields, Home Economics; and Bus Driver, Reverend Eric Ryser.

Summer projects at the three school buildings have been outlined in cooperation with maintenance personnel. The 1967-68 bus driver daily salary schedule has been set by the Board of School Trustees as follows: Drivers of school owned busses, $9.50 per day for routes up to 40 miles and $10.00 for over 40 miles. Daily rates for driver owned chassis has been set at the daily rate plus 21 cents per mile.

Philip Hughey, Culver High School staff member, will coordinate and develop specifications for the new high school building. He will be working with M-W, Inc., architects, in all areas, except language lab, auditorium stage, and art and ceramics.

It was announced by the Holding Authority directors that Cary Cummins had been named as clerk-of-the-works on the forthcoming building projects which is expected to get underway early next month.

The School Trustees approved a resolution permitting the issuance of conditional contracts to teachers of the Monterey School. The contracts are conditioned upon the local district being the surviving corporation in the studies now being projected whereby Tippecanoe Township of Pulaski County may be disannexed by formal resolution of the Pulaski Board and annexed by formal resolution to the Culver Community School District. Hampton Roswell of Culver and Richard Diltz, Winamac have been named to study valuation of schools as is required in the resolutions.

Schoolbell A Hectic Day

By Norma Davis and Debbie Triplet

Every day at school all it seemed we heard was — Lancer Relays, and we thought — What in the heck are Lancer Relays? The boys clearly informed us that the Lancer Relays was a track meet at LaVelle where Culver, Argos, North Liberty, Triton, and LaVelle competed for track honors. After being pestered about no school spirit, we wondered how we could show these boys that they were wrong. The only way out was to go to these Lancer Relays on Saturday. It was just our luck that Saturday turned out to be freezing cold and we had forgotten to bring any blankets, but some kind samaritans rushed to our rescue and let us use theirs. Anyone would have mistaken us for Eskimos.

Now we were all set for these Lancer Relays to begin, but where were we supposed to look first? Things were happening all over the track at the same time! HELP!! Finally some smart guy decided that he would inform everybody over the loud speaker what was coming off.

The first event was the shuttle hurdle relay, or so the man announced. Even before the gun sounded a group of boys frantically began to rush hurdles on the so called track. Patriotically we began yelling for our boys to push faster, and they were really doing great, but to our disappointment we discovered that they were only preparing the hurdles for the relay. Finally the gun sounded and the hounds — we mean boys, were off. We guessed we had done pretty good 'cause Coach Waxman had a broad smile on his face and the man said we had broken a record. We were kind of stunned because why would anyone want to see any broken record, so we finally decided the announcer had made a mistake. Next came the sprint medley relay and at the end of that the man again said that we had broken another record, so between us we decided that breaking a record was pretty good.

There were six relays that followed and out of the six, we had three firsts and had broken two more records.

We came to the conclusion that the most outstanding event of the meet was the novelty relay. This event was when four boys had to run a certain distance simultaneously. The first runner had to be the heaviest member of the squad. The only reason we could figure out that they did this was because naturally the heaviest man would have the biggest uniform so you couldn't miss him around the track. The next two boys each ran a 220, what ever that is, but the last guy really took the cake. Brace yourself!!! Would you believe that they actually made a boy run around the track with a lead ball which resembled the balloon on the top of the flagpole!! It was hilarious!! We mean, have you ever seen a giraffe trying to carry a bowling ball??

Oh well, we guess our track team did a real fabulous job. Our team came home with five trophies. Four for setting new records and one for winning the entire meet. Incidentally, Culver had had a perfect 6-0 record in its dual meets.

Even though it sounds like we had a hectic day it was a very rewarding experience to acknowledge the fact that basketball is tire meet. Incidentally, Culver fans should anticipate each year. Previously our entire school year was centered around basketball. Mainly because we had never attended any track meets.

We would like to relay this message to the entire student body of Culver — Wake up kids. Basketball is not the only interesting sport at Culver !!!!!!! This message may be too late to benefit the track team, but baseball is starting and then there is cross-country. Come out and back your team. They are representing your school and you are part of your school.

The young bride noticed her husband was depressed. "George, dearest," she whispered, "please tell me what's bothering you. Your worries aren't your worries now, they're our worries."

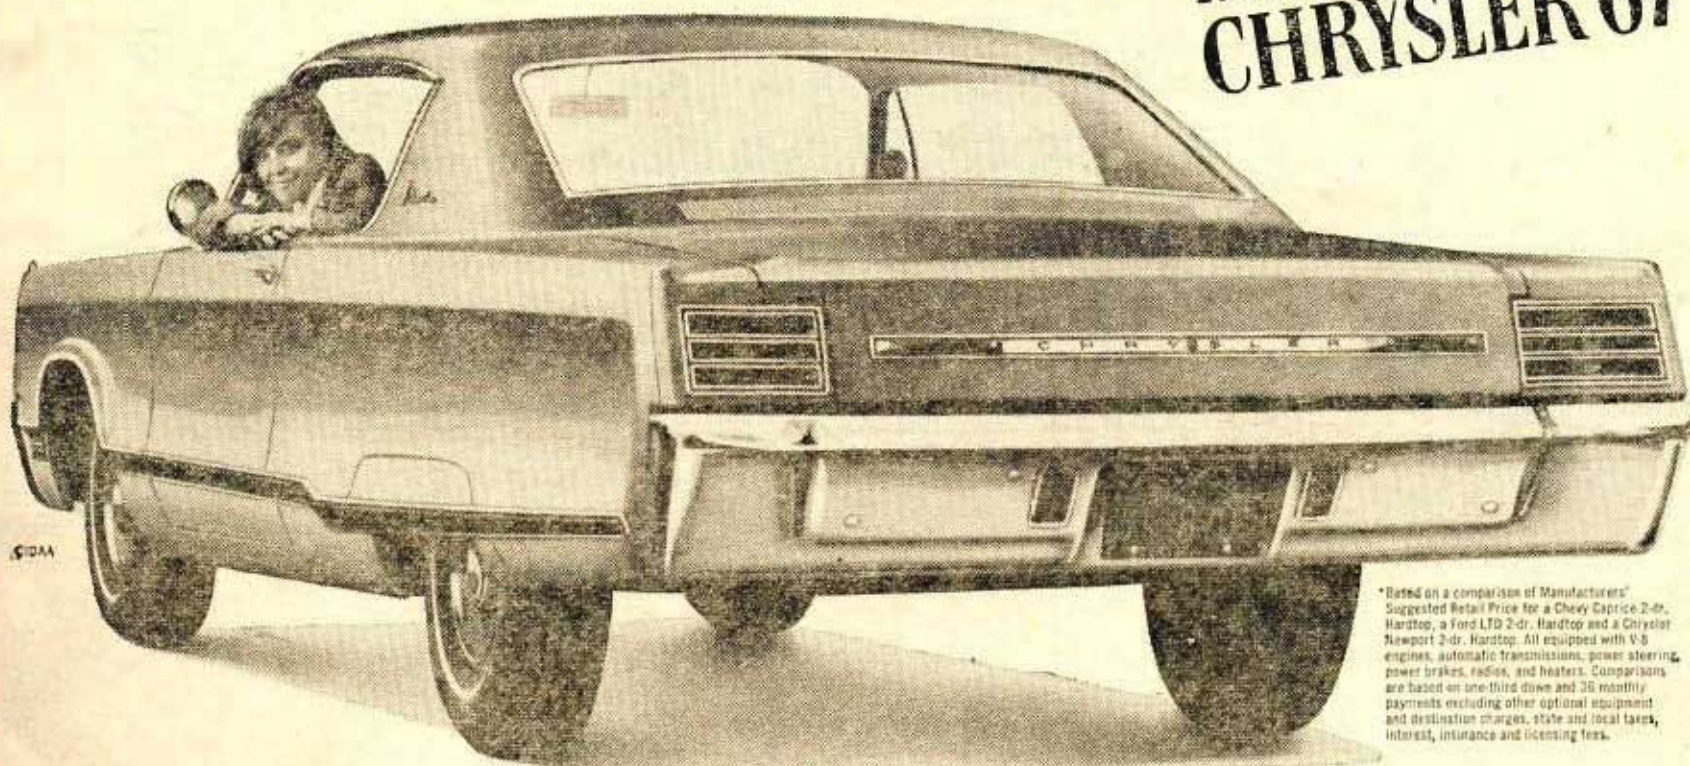

"Oh, very well," said George. "We've just had a letter from a girl in Detroit, and she's suing us for breach of promise."

DON'T send the kids to church — TAKE 'em!

est, and one prize for the room in grades 5, 6, and 7 with the highest. This next rule is important: Any one book you read may count as one point as long as it is on your reading level and signed by your parent or guardian. But, you have a limit of 12 points as the greatest number you can contribute to your class, so the library is inviting your parents to help you and your class out. You should urge your parents to register in their own name for the Reading Club at the library and they, too, will get a green booklet in which to record their books read. These extra points will be counted in with your class and can really raise the number of points. Besides, parents also need to read this summer, don't they? All booklets must be returned no later than July 31, as this is the only way points will be counted. You get one booklet only when you join — there are no seconds — and you must take good care of it. One last rule: No count will be made of books put in the book return unless they are reported to the librarian in person.

This club is the same system as last year's and the winners last year were Mrs. Shirrell's second graders and the seventh graders.

These are the facts. Now that you're all excited, be sure to enroll at the library on June 5 or soon after so you can have plenty of time to read. If you can read this article, you can read 12 books!

A special feature of the club this year will be a Story Hour for kindergartners. Parents of all kindergartners are encouraged to allow their children to attend this delightful hour of storytelling. Marizetta Robinson will be the master storyteller at these Saturday sessions. The first is on June 16 from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. — the same for each following Saturday. The children are certain to enjoy this hour and will more than likely come up with a few original stories of their own to tell. It is bound to be as enriching for them as will the Summer Reading Club for all you kids and your parents. Join and READ!

Veterans Dominate "500" Starting Lineup Tuesday

With veteran drivers occupying all positions in the first four rows of the starting lineup, the fastest field in history is ready to take the green flag for the 51st annual 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway next Tuesday.

They'll be competing for prize money which may top the $700,000 mark for the first time and officials of the United States Auto Club are working tirelessly in an effort to make certain of a smooth, safe "flying start." Briefing sessions have been scheduled with all eligible participants and the Race Day procedure will be reviewed again at the traditional drivers' meeting Monday noon.

Matri Rose, a three-time "500" winner (1941-7-8), will be at the wheel of the Chevrolet Camaro pace car.

Barring an unusual amount of "yellow light" time because of weather conditions or accidents, there is every reason to believe the race will be a record-breaking "helmet dash" from start to finish. Jim Clark, starting in the sixth row this year after qualifying at 163.213 miles an hour, holds the present race record of 159.686.

Mario Andretti will be in the No. 1 starting berth for the second straight year after setting new one-lap and four-lap marks of 162.779 and 168.932 on the first day of time trials. In the front row with Andretti will be Dan Gurney at 167.224 and Gordon Johncock at 166.359.

Two-time "500" winner A. J.

Foyt will start on the inside of the second row, flanked by Parnelli Jones in the turbine-powered car which he qualified smoothly at 166.075.

The lap prize fund this year has been boosted to $40,000 with the first-place car winning $150 and the second-place car $50 at the end of each lap.

Gates to the grounds will be opened at 5 A.M., eastern standard time, and pre-race ceremonies will get under way four hours later. The parade of bands again will be led by Purdue University's All-American marching unit.

Celebrities from the entertainment world will accompany 500 Festival Queen Janice Cruse and her court during the special cavalcade around the race course and outstanding floats from Sunday's gigantic parade in downtown Indianapolis also will be a part of the colorful procession.

All 33 cars will be in their respective starting positions when the Purdue band plays the "Star Spangled Banner" at 10:40 A.M., followed by "Back Home Again in Indiana;" and Speedway President Tony Hulman will give the traditional command, "Gentlemen, Start Your Engines!" at 10:53 A.M. for the start of the pace lap.

Our Academy Neighbors

(Culled from the May Issue of the CMA Messenger)

Jeanne Anderson's thoughts are already watching Granatelli's new turbine take the checkered flag at Indianapolis during the Anderson's annual exhausting, but "oh, what fun" trip to the 500.

Remember the Democratic Convention of 1965 when the Governor of Kentucky, the keynote speaker, in a well-aimed jibe at the Republican Standard bearer said, "Oh, Lord, take us by the hand and lead us to the fairways?" Well, those are precisely Jackie Walaitis's sentiments and a hole-in-one or two would make a well-wrapped package deal.

Colonel Zieg, not one to have many idle thoughts, will be flying to Colorado Springs in May to do constructive thinking as a panel member on a Long Range Planning Seminar to train other independent schools in preparation of long range financial plans.

And while we are speaking of constructive thinking, consider Delva Large who wastes no time in spring housecleaning, but merely rids herself of the tedious task by acquiring a whole new trailer complete with new furniture.

Bob Ott and wife Louise, are contemplating a few days away from the hurly-burly of Culver by taking a trip to St. Louis to see their son, Tom.

Spring thoughts which seem to bring forth material examples are the forte of Bern Stukenborg this month, who is even now working on a combination of pontoon-sailboat to take the waters this summer.

Lyman Craft was taken to the Parkview Hospital, Plymouth, April 4, for observation and treatment. After spending several days in the hospital, Lyman was released to his home in Culver and at present is back on the job in the Electrical department.

We of the B & G department wish to convey our most sincere sympathy to Art Mahler and family on the death of their small grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Don Weiss and family of LaPorte spent Sunday, April 23, in the home of Bob and Doris Craycraft and family in celebration of the birthdays of Doris and daughter Barbara.

Colonel and Mrs. John D. Baker of Wichita Falls, Texas, were the weekend guests of C.M. Sgt. J. C. Freyburger and family in North Judson April 22 and 23. Colonel Baker and Sgt. Freyburger served together on Okinawa while with the U.S. Air Force.

Mrs. Mae Mudra arrived from St. Petersburg, Fla. to spend a few weeks with her daughter and family, Ben and Blanche Mishler.

Welcome to the new faces in the B & G department: Grace Klindinst, Ralph Klindinst, Tom Machlan, Ruby M. Clingler, Jim Humes and Jack Monteleone are the new Custodians. Helping in the Garden department are: Steve Crump, Jim Kellar, Mack Pinks, Harold Anderson, Richard Lutz and Owen Weaver is again caretaker at Beason Memorial Park for the summer months.

Sadly missed in the Mechanical department and the B & G department will be Lester (Hopple) Hopple. Hopple retired from his duties after several years with as to his plans. Hopple's reply was to "get fat and lazy and to do lots of fishin." We wish the best of everything to Hopple on his retirement after 46 years of loyalty to the Academy. (We learned later that Mrs. Hopple suffered a stroke Saturday and was taken to Parkview Hospital, Plymouth.) Bill Kose will act as supervisor of the Mechanical department.

John Kerrigan, son of George Kerrigan is the new helper in the Electrical department.

Mary "Posie" Curry, daughter of Polly and LeMar Curry, was recently awarded third prize in the Eastern Indiana Art Show at Ball State. She was one of 17 participating Indianapolis artists. The show is sponsored each year by the Muncie Arts Association.

Local garden buffs have taken to the soil this year on the Academy tract just west of the Kemp Moores. In recent years they have looked hoos on the "north forty" at the Academy nursery. Word is out that Will Straw has the drop on all local talent with giant tomato plants, ready for action, in his kitchen window.

After a winter of feeling not quite up to par, Mrs. Worley, Sally Reichley's mother, with spring and sunshine on her side, departed for home near York, Pa.

April showers may bring May flowers but they also bring May weddings and Jeannie Curry, after being April showered in Culver can prove it. Jean, daughter of the Burt Currys, will wed Gerald Stephenson May 27 in The Friends Meetinghouse in St. Louis. The 11:30 ceremony will be followed by a reception at the Cheshire Inn in St. Louis. Anna Helen and Mel Estey plan to attend the wedding with the Currys. Brother Lee will work around his exam schedule at Hanover College to be on hand, too. Jean, along with Greta Hughes Kalla, was one of the first two coeds graduated from the Academy. She is teaching Program Headstart in the St. Louis area and "Steve" does social work for the city. They will be making their home there.

Ill during the month lay Art Kurz, who had a long 10 days at Memorial Hospital. He was in for observation then and expects a return bout . . . Edith Strait in and almost out of Parkview Hospital for major surgery before anyone knew it. She checks back into the classroom yet this week . . . Ginny Spivey canceling plans at the last minute for major surgery at Bunker Hill when that old devil virus bedded her at home. Surgery still pending . . . Rosemary Robinette really in and out of Bunker Hill before the "word was out." . . . Grace O'Callaghan has bounced back beautifully from cataract operations at Memorial Hospital, Logansport. She should be home by the end of next week.

News of our servicemen . . . Brian Linhart, husband of Barbara Moore Linhart, has a new set of orders that will keep him in Okinawa for the next 9 to 13 months. He is stationed with a Marine division . . . Pete Spivey last week officially traded his captain's bars for major's leaves. Attached to MAC (Military Airlift Command) at Dover, Delaware, Pete is in the air navigating more than he is home. He has flights to all corners of the world including Viet Nam. Meanwhile, Sally and the boys hold the fort at home. Sally and sons will make Culver their home-away-from-home this summer while the boys attend Woodcraft camp.

Visitors on the scene are Susan son Ian Robert. They winged into Chicago last week from Coconut Grove, Fla., and will have two weeks with proud grandparents, Fran and Bob Bolton.

Our condolences to Lt. Col. Scruggs who departed suddenly Tuesday, April 25th for Washington, D.C., and then journeyed to Raleigh, N. C. to attend the funeral of his aunt. He returned to Culver via Washington Friday, April 28th.

All members of the Military Science Detachment are expecting to depart for Fort Riley Summer Camp during the early part of June with the exception of Sergeant Major Chesser who will stay behind to tend the fort.

A surprise Wiener Roast was held for Kathy Gaines and Marilyn Drang April 15 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Drang. There to help celebrate were Mr. and Mrs. John Drang and Sherry of Culver, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gaines and family of Knox, Mrs. Robert Drang and children of Ora and Agnes Drang of Culver.

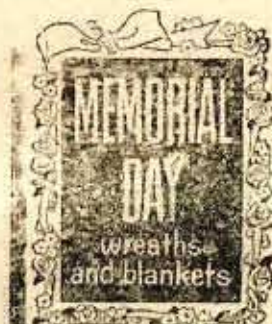

John Saults of Argos will enter South Bend Memorial Hospital May 22 for knee surgery.

Jerry Kimmel, son of Lester and Margaret Kimmel arrived home April 23 from Viet Nam. He will leave for Moran, Spain, May 17 where he will be stationed for three years with the Air Force.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steed and Lisa spent a week in the Kimmel home when Chuck had spring vacation from Hanover College.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gaines and family and Mr. and Mrs. James Drang motored to Stanton, Mo., to visit the Meramec Caverns, April 29 and 30.

The Academy's varsity sports near the end of their seasons Saturday as the golfers meet Marian of Mishawaka at 2 p.m.; tennis players challenge Concordia Lutheran at 1 p.m.; and the canoeists paddle for the final points for the state championship at the Wabash River Race; and the baseball team plays Winamac at 4:15.

The varsity crew rounded out its season 3-1 with a win over St. John's Military Academy and Lane Tech High School at the Central States Regatta. They won by 7 1/2 lengths. The junior varsity ended its season with a win over Weber High School by 1 1/2 lengths.

Academy canoeists on their way to the final race for the state championship raced in the Les Voyaguer race sponsored by the Academy. Last Saturday 52 entries ran cross country for five miles and paddled 10 miles on the Yellow River. Keith Oldham and Steve Kling won the race in one hour, 40 minutes. Roger Bolting and Alf Jones won the Class B race for non-varsity competitors.

The baseball Eagles swept a doubleheader last Saturday against the Logansport Berries at Logansport. The scores were 4-0 and 4-3 to give the Eagles a 10-2 record. Dave Dale pitched a one-hitter in the opener and Doug Richards added a three-hit performance in the second game.

The Eagles' bats accounted for 20 hits in the two games. Mark Bodem and Chip Linnemeier had five hits apiece. Doug Richards had a key double in the sixth inning of the first contest which gave Dale the only runs he needed to pick up his sixth victory in seven outings. Dale served up two walks and struck out 18 to bring his total for the season to 133 and an earned run average of 0.228.

Logansport capitalized on Richards' wildness in the second inning to score three runs but failed to score as Richards earned his third victory for four times on the mound. Culver could only account for four runs from 12 hits.

Culver golfers led the field in the St. John's Invitational Saturday in Delafield, Wis. Rick Durkes, Al Ranney, Tom McMillan and Bob Crosby scored a 322 to win the tournament against Dominican, Lake Forest Academy, Milwaukee Lutheran Northwestern Military, St. John's, University Lake School, University School of Milwaukee, Wayland Academy and Wisconsin Lutheran. Culver has recorded a season of 14-1-1 to date.

Eagle tennis players, missing four of their first six players beat Wabash 5-0. They won 13 matches with the loss of only one set. Their season record to date is 6-1. Varsity winners were Tom Strong, Santiago Montufar, Mike Curtis, Jeff Adams, Arnold Kirschman, and Mike Mater. The junior varsity also beat Wabash 9-0 to run their wins up to four.

Culver returned from Monday's Logansport Relays with a first in the mile relay run by Dave Bennington, Chuck McNagay, Jim Reitman and Stasz Gorski in 3:31.9.

The team won seconds in the sprint medley and shuttle hurdle relay; thirds in the mile run with Doug Scholz, high hurdles with Perry Smith; a third and fourth in the two mile run with Joe Cummings and Mike Scholz; a fourth in the 880 relay; and a fifth in the pole vault with Jack Shoaf.

Doug Scholz broke his own school record in the two mile run with a time of 10:04.4 against Munster Saturday. Jack Shoaf won the 100, low hurdles and pole vault. Culver beat Munster 81-37.

REFLECTION FOR MEMORIAL DAY

MEMORIAL DAY

We have come once again to that time of year when Americans pause to honor the memory of those who have given that last full measure of devotion on battlefields at home and abroad. As Abraham Lincoln said: "It is fitting and proper that we do this."

As we pay our respects to the nation's war dead, it also is fitting that we turn our thoughts to the peace for which we all pray. It is fitting, too, to reflect on life — not death — and on ways in which life may be preserved.

No more fitting time than Memorial Day could be found for this reflection, for the holiday signals the beginning of the summer highway carnage. In a year's time more people are killed on our highways than died in combat in all of World War I.

Automobiles are safer today than they have ever been. So too, are the highways over which we travel. That leaves the problem squarely on the shoulders of the third element in any design for greater-highway safety — the person behind the wheel.

One of the great freedoms we Americans share is the right to travel in our country when and where we please. It is a freedom to be preserved for all of us. Let's not abuse it.

cludes fundamentals of anthropology.

Theology 119 — New Testament (3 semester hours). Salvation history; special study of Christ's role as depicted in the Gospels; consideration of man's role as emphasized in the epistles.

Tuition for the summer session is the regular cost of $15 per semester hour.

With the exception of "Studies in Modern Drama", "German 273" and "Spanish 275," all courses are presently assigned to morning or afternoon hours. Should a sufficient number of students prefer an evening period, the change can be made; but anyone desiring such a change of schedule should call the College immediately while such a transfer of time is still possible.

All new students should make formal application for admission by submitting an application form to the Registrar at least two weeks before the registration date. Such forms can be secured from the College.

Applicants for admission as regular students should have an official transcript of their high school credits sent to the registrar before registration.

Any additional information can be acquired by writing Ancilla Domini College, Donaldson, Indiana, 46513, or by calling 930-3177.

75-year-old "500" Enthusiast Ready For 1967 Big Race

Editor's Note: The following article is reprinted from the May 22 issue of "The South Bend Tribune" and is apropos reading for this issue of "The Citizen."

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — Memorial Day, 1911, she fixed a lunch for herself and her boy friend and they picnicked in the infield while watching the first Indianapolis 500-mile race.

Ray Harroun won it, chugging around the 2½-mile track 200 times in 6 hours 42 minutes — an average of 74.59 miles per hour for the 500 miles.

Now, 56 years and 46 races later, Mrs. Grace Humphreys does not bother to fix sandwiches.

"They've gotten so fast that there's no time to eat anyway," says the grey-haired little great-grandmother.

Graham Hill of England roared around the 500 miles in just over three hours last year, averaging 144.317 m.p.h.

Mrs. Humphreys was there, and she'll be there this year, as excited as anybody about the controversial new turbine car.

"They say that here's little Parnelli Jones will have to worry about with Studebaker's new turbine ride except the brakes, and I'll be thrilled to see it," she says.

Mrs. Humphreys, a spry 75 and just this month giving up her fulltime job as a comptometer operator, remembers the days when the racing was slower but the thrills just as big.

There was Barney Oldfield, "with his big cigar and his checkered hat."

And Ralph DePalma pushing his car, a leak victim, back to the pits, "and I could have just cried for him."

She remembers cheering for the drivers in the old National cars because her family had one at the time.

She remembers the two big "foreign invasions" at the Speedway — the first in 1913, the second last year — when European drivers dominated the scene, but she still roots for the Americans.

"I like to see things stay at home," she says.

Since the death of her husband — her date at the 1911 race — Mrs. Humphreys has been attending the "500" with her sons.

She's missed only four of them — for three years starting in 1962, and again in 1966, to babysit for friends who wanted to go to the race.

"There's no bigger thrill than hearing, 'Gentlemen, start your engines.'"

The Long
Awaited Day

By Debbie Triplet

The day everyone had anticipated finally arrived. Last Friday afternoon the entire 7-12 grades assembled in the gym for the long awaited achievement day. Mr. Miller called each sponsor and representative to announce the recipients of the awards.

The first award was the American Legion Award given to an eighth grade boy and girl. The winners are voted on by their classmates. Colonel Uebel was proud to present the honorable mention awards to Mary Jo Fishback and Steve Neff. The boy and girl who won first places were Lynn Langlois and John Houghton.

The next award was also given to the eighth-grader. It was the Summer School Award to the Academy, presented by Admiral Bays. John Houghton was the honored winner.

Mr. Kaiser, the sponsor of the Projector's Club, then awarded the audio-visual awards. Our music teacher, Mr. Fouts, recognized the Senior Band members, the Senior members in Chorus, the Senior Band majorette, and the Senior Band director.

The honor of presenting the cheerleading and the PE awards was given to our varsity coach, Mr. Crosley. He presented awards to B-Team, Freshmen and Varsity cheerleaders. The Varsity, B-Team, and Freshmen basketball players then received their long-awaited awards. Finally the Senior Pep Block president, Marilee Herrmann, was presented with a well-deserved award.

Mr. Tanksley, our librarian, presented pins to the 1, 2, 3, and 4 year librarians. Our school nurse, Mrs. Erwin, gave the nursing awards to all the hard-working aids and briefly explained the purpose of these aids.

Our student councilor, Mr. Miller, distributed pins to the Schoolbell editors and staff members for their participation in Schoolbell this year. The sponsor of Student Council, Mr. Schmidt, proudly presented honors to this year's Student Council representatives.

The Time Magazine Awards, presented by Mr. Lawson, were based on the students' scores on a current events test. The students that received these awards were Bob Shirrell, Susie Donnelly, and Kent Overmyer. Miss Asay was then called out to recognize the editor and staff heads of this year's annual Tomahawk.

Last, but by no means least, was Mrs. Ulrich, who presented the Usher's Club Awards.

To conclude the program, Mr. Bernhardt expressed his opinions of this past year and officially ended the Achievement Day Awards for the 1966-67 school year.

PLEGDED TO ALPHA
GAMMA DELTA SORORITY

Loretta Berger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berger, Route 1, Culver is among Indiana University coeds who have been pledged by social sororities in open rush this spring on the Bloomington campus.

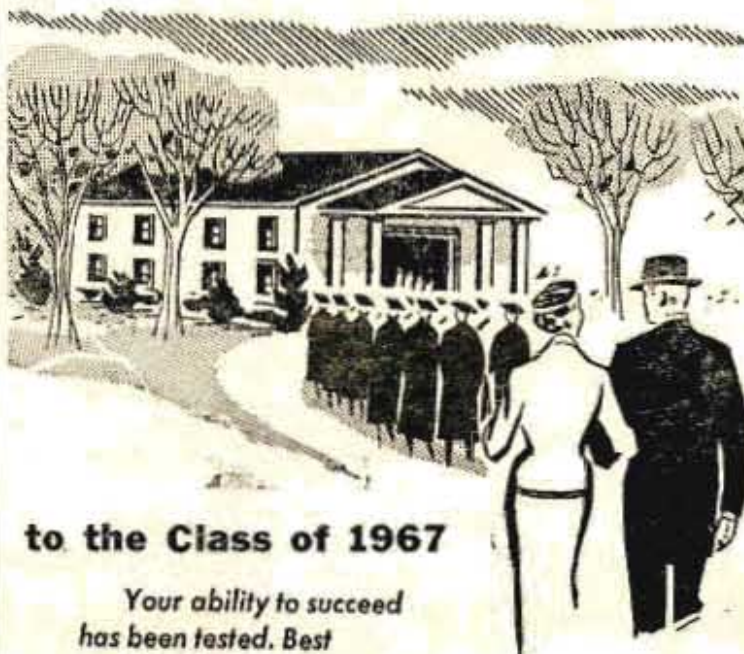

To participate in open sorority rush, students must be at least second-semester freshmen.

Formal rush for other freshmen and upperclassmen was held earlier this semester. There are 20 social sororities at I.U.

Miss Berger was pledged by Alpha Gamma Delta.

To Attend Institute

By Susie Thews

Stuart Lowry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Lowry, has applied and been accepted at the Mathematics Institute for high school students at Indiana University this summer. Stu, a Junior at Culver High School, will be housed in a University dormitory for the duration of the Institute. The session Stu will attend begins July 16, and continues until July 22.

The purpose of this program is to provide high school students with a deeper understanding of the axiomatic study of contemporary mathematics.

The courses to be offered will be "Topics in Applied Mathematics" and "Group Theory". There will be four secondary mathematics teachers who will act as counselors. They will also direct problem sessions during afternoons and be available to assist students in individual study.

Stu plans to continue his education in either the field of mathematics or chemistry after graduation.

Advice To Underclassmen

Howie Albert — Live life as it comes.

Linda Baker — Do your best, but enjoy yourself at the same time.

Betty Bickel — Work hard and get through the Senior year. You will never regret it. Study your econ. and civics — you'll need it.

Tom Boeck — Practice a lot on graphs and charts to prepare yourself for Mr. Lawson's wonderful civics class!

Gary Burkett — Study hard.

Claudia DePoy — To the Juniors I wish you all the luck in the world for civics and econ. Believe me you'll need it.

Linda Dinsmore — Study hard.

Elaine Epley — Don't let yourself get too involved in too many things — besides studying.

Paul Hasten — To the Juniors — Learn to sleep at night because you can't in civics and econ. To all underclassmen — If you take psychology or sociology with Mrs. Ulrich, learn to enjoy violin music.

Mike Holloway — Strive hard, which I didn't do, it's very important.

Patsy Huffer — Study hard, but be happy.

George Jewell — Don't follow my example or you might find yourself in prison, eating popcorn and cracker jacks for the rest of your life.

Norman Johnson — First relax, get to know your teachers and not fear them. Second, set some goals for future and after school. Third, work according to your goals realistically, don't use false or unworthy goals. Fourth, keep scholastic standing high so you can enjoy whatever you want without fear of flunking out of it. Fifth, remember all good things and enjoy them now. Your years will slip by too fast. Believe it or not.

Elaine Kaiser — Don't sit in the front of the room in civics.

Dave Kelly — Stick with it, try hard, and you can.

May Kozlowski — Make sure you let the teacher know who is boss at the beginning of the year.

Brada McAllister — Work hard in your studies and don't worry about trivial things. Don't cram for tests and all that.

Linda McAllister — To be yourself and to be patient with the members of your class — they're growing up too. To cooperate with your teachers and to do what you think is right.

Patti McCombs — Make your time worthwhile. Never be afraid to say what you believe and stand up for what you believe. Also, never worry about being popular. Be yourself.

Joe Miller — Keep trying.

Marlene Morrison — Work hard for what you get, but most of all have fun! Never take the negative attitude toward school because by the time you realize how much fun you can have, your time has grown short.

Diane Nelson — Have fun, but study.

Kent Overmyer — To always remember to put up the flag!

Patty Overmyer — Be yourself at all times — don't let people stereotype you. Also, stand up for what you believe.

Suzanne Overmyer — "Grit and bear it."

Bill Pletka — Develop good, solid opinions; and know why you believe what you believe. Be tolerant and patient with others, always remembering you're not as perfect as you think you are. Try to please everyone as long as you do not lower your standards or ideals. Remember: enemies are a dime a dozen, but friends are as rare as an "A" in econ.

Both Routson — Be true to yourself, and don't listen to gossip.

Jeanette Salyer — Even if you are a minority of one, say and act as you think. Don't be afraid to be different.

Cathy Schmidt — Get the most you can out of high school.

Bob Shirrell — I don't have any; the underclassmen could probably give us advice just as good as that we could give them.

Vickie Smith — To take care of this school so that it lasts until the new one gets built.

Tom Sturdevant — Graduate.

Robert Vondra — Study!

Penny Wakefield — Hope for the best and have a great year.

Cathy Welsh — Don't make the same goofs as the class of '67. Make some that are original. Ours are getting trite after all these twelve years.

Patty Wentzel — Be good and don't cause trouble.

Ed Wieringa — Be prepared to study hard in civics and econ.

Robert Yenzel — Study hard in civics and econ, 'cause Mr. Lawson's jokes are funny but his tests aren't!

A mother, annoyed because her 14-year-old daughter had been calling her boy friend too frequently, took a tip from a former wartime advertisement and posted a sign over the telephone: IS THIS CALL NECESSARY?

Next day there appeared, pencilled on the card, a brief but logical reply: HOW CAN I TELL TILL I'VE MADE IT?

Watch out for school children, especially if they're driving.

1967 Senior Class Will

Being of sound mind and soul, I, as a member of the CHS class of '67, bequeath to those people still at Culver High School the following things:

Howard Albert — To Argos High School my cap gun, so they can start their track meets without a whistle; to Carl Strang, my gym locker; and to the cross country team, another undefeated season.

Steve Bair — To Chris Keifer, my athletic ability; to Susie Thews my grossness; to Steve Miller, my all-round good looks; and to the under class girls, their freedom.

Linda Baker — To everyone, all the luck I possibly can 'cuz they'll need it!

Betty Bickel — To Jean Gross, my locker; to Bev Pollock, my old guys; to the Junior class, the fun of the senior year; and to anyone who wants them my long nails.

Tom Boccock — To Coach Gangloff and Coach Waxman, my golden locks.

Terry Clifton — To some lucky soul, my ability to stay out of trouble.

Claudia DePoy — To Linda Reinholt, my locker.

Linda Dinsmore — To LaDonna Darosci, my locker which sticks when it's opened.

Paul Hatten — To Kerry Haines, my blue sock cap; to Gary Davis, my track shoes; to Jeff Krueger, my great ability (?) on the basketball floor; to Anna Barrabes, my ability to dance; to the juniors, my ability to forget my themes; to the juniors, my ability to sleep in classes; to Mary Ann Lewis, my ability to get in trouble in the library.

Mike Holloway — To the juniors, Mr. Lawson and his stock reports.

Patsy Huffer — My locker, to Bev Pollack and my old Civics book (which was willed to me last year) to Bev also. Maybe she'll use it more than I did.

My good looks to Mr. Fouts; my quietness to Jim Taber; my great sense of humor to Jeff Krueger; my tricycle to Susie Thews; my green and white striped socks to Terry Gentry; my study habits to Jack Lucas; and my track ability to Chris Keifer.

Elaine Kaiser — To Susie Donnelly, the Tomahawk and its problems; to Rex and John, my left over paper wads from third period study hall; and to Mary Ann, a snake I found in my car.

Dave Kelly — My track shoes to Phil White; My stock market graph to Susie Donnelly; my curry comb to Sheep and my broken slide rule to Corky Overmyer.

May Kozlowski — Linda Baker. Brenda McAllister — To Larry Collins, my common sense; to Peggy Shel and Linda Reinholt, all my good times.

Linda McAllister — My ability to reason, to Linda Fisher; my Civics brain to Mr. Lawson; my nerves, to Peggy Shel; my goldfish to Larry Collins; and my ability to succeed to the sophomore boys!

Patti McCombs — I will a good attitude to all CHS students not because I necessarily had one, but because they are necessary; the long, boring hours I spent here to John Kreig and Rex Schrimsher because they are the only ones who can liven them up. I will the sturdy desks in study hall to anyone who thinks they can write on them; my height to my good friend Davie Bean; and all my old conservative clothes to Mr. Lawson to be made over into ties.

Joe Miller — I will to the underclassmen all the old books, the old desks, and the old building.

Marlene Morrison — To Kitty Liette-my ability to tell good jokes. To Connie all the fun I had these past four years. To Mr. Miller-my thanks for helping me plan my future success. (If I'm a failure, it's his fault).

Diane Nelson — To Susie Donnelly-all my underclass friends. Tom Overmyer-my great ability for keeping my locker neat, to Jack Lucas all the post cards from the Senior Trip to send back next year.

Kent Overmyer — My draft status and my monitor duty.

and Susie.

Suzanne Overmyer — I will my great editing ability to Susie and Lyn.

Bill (Gilly) Pletka — I, William Pletka, being of sound (?) mind and body, do hereby will all my great French ability to John Cook and Tim Frain.

Vickie Smith — The school.

Tom Sturdevant — I will my mini-bike to Mr. Kaiser.

Robert Vondra — Quiet study halls — there were one or two.

Penny Wakefield — I, Penny Wakefield, being of sound mind and body, will to Bev Pollock my smartness and beauty. To Kathy DeWitt all my coordination, she needs all she can get.

Roberta Yeazel — I will my seat in Econ & Civics to Laurel Prosser, it's the first seat.

Cheerleading Tryouts

By Linda Reinhold
"Go Out 'Em!", "Indian Team Is Really Great!" Those were some of the sounds echoing from the gym Wednesday, May 3 during activity period. The reason: cheerleading tryouts for next year's Varsity and B-Team cheerleaders.

As the pep club members filed into the gym, the girls were either sitting on the floor relaxing until they had to perform or still practicing until the final moment came. They were smiling but I'm sure they were quite nervous.

The regulations for trying out are: anyone entering grades 9-12 are eligible. For B-Team you do not have to have been a cheerleader previously, but for Varsity you must have been a cheerleader at least one year, either a Freshman or B-Team. Mr. Miller announced the girls names as they came forward to do a yell by themselves. After each had done two yells, we then received ballots. Mr. Miller explained to us that we were to choose four for

Oddly Enough

RADIANT HEATING

RADIANT HEATING, the principle of using heated panels or built-in coils to warm floors, ceilings and walls, dates back to at least 2000 BC—to the "Spring Rooms" in the homes of Korean noblemen. Fires burning in the hollow masonry floors of these rooms kept the atmosphere spring-like, even on cold, damp days. The ancient baths of Rome were heated in much the same way.

MODERN RADIANT HEATING

MODERN RADIANT HEATING makes use of coils of tough steel pipe through which hot water is circulated. Thermostats regulate the heat and flow of the water, and control the temperature in the room so accurately that there may be a variance of only two degrees from the floor to the ceiling.

DURING THE MIDDLE AGES

DURING THE MIDDLE AGES, radiant heating dropped out of use. But in 1909, this clean, effective method of heating was introduced in the U. S. in a four-room schoolhouse in Gary, Indiana. A piece of boiler plate, placed around the wood-burning stove, radiated heat to keep the students cozy—some cozier than others.

HAWAIIAN SUNSET

Varsity and four for B-Team. He told us to choose them on the basis of their ability to do yells. So we all carefully voted for the girls which we thought could do a good job of leading our team on to victory.

At the end of sixth period, the girls found out who made the Varsity and B-Team squads. The 1967-68 Varsity cheerleaders are: Susie Thews, Linda Fisher, Lyn Mackey, and Karen Banks. The B-Team cheerleaders are: Debbie Triplet, Vicki Clifton, Connie Morrison and Harriet Johnson.

Congratulations girls!! We know that you will all do a good job of leading our teams to victory next year.

Cat's Teeth
Cats have teeth that are extremely specialized for a diet of meat, reports the Feline Pet Care Center. Their teeth are sharper than those of such meat-eaters as dogs and bears.

It took us until 2:00 to decorate the gym, but it was worth it.

Tonight was a big and exciting night for both the Juniors and the Seniors. Everyone assembled in the halls by the office at 5:15 and at 8:30 the march got under way. Leading the march were the sponsors, faculty, superintendent, Junior and Senior Presidents, Junior and Senior Presidents, and then the couples. Arriving in the gym we walked up a boat plank to leave Culver and above us was a Bon Voyage sign in spotlights, then walking down the plank to the other side we arrived in Hawaii. What a beautiful sight we saw as we stepped into the gym. The ceiling was unusually done. The colors were apple green and canary yellow. The crepe paper was arranged in layers of three and draped down the sides of the walls. In the east corner of the gym was a bamboo refreshment hut in which sandwiches, cookies, and punch were served. Then right beside the hut was the band.

On the back of the stage was Diamond Head and the sunset with the ocean roaring in. In the front was the beach and the island with palm trees and different plants on it. The tables were on both sides of the gym and were decorated with small palm trees and bright yellow, orange, and green crepe paper.

The evening got under way with Patty Overmyer singing the Lord's Prayer and Hawaiian Sunset. After that Gary Davis, the Junior President, gave his welcome speech and Paul Hatten, the Senior President, gave his response. Mr. Bernhardt also gave a little speech and then the music began.

Our band this year was Bob Flora's band. It consisted of five members. They played various numbers and they were just great.

We had two hours of enchanting music and romantic scenery. Then at 11:30 the Junior-Senior Prom came to an end but at 1:00 the after-prom started. It lasted all night with music from Stanley Sikora's Band and refreshments were served for everyone. At 5:00 breakfast was served and at 6:00 the after-prom came to a close and the weekend was ending for most of the kids. Several of the students were going to take off the next day for the dunes, and various places.

We would like to thank everyone and especially the committee chairmen for their hard work and long hours in preparing for this great event. We would also like to thank the Lions and the Eagles for the wonderful job they did in entertaining us at the after-prom. Also a vote of thanks goes out to the Bands.

Baseball

By Steve McCombs
Last Friday, after only two days of practice, the C.H.S. baseball team met the John Glenn Falcons on the home diamond, and came up with a hard-earned victory — 5 to 3.

After being held scoreless for the first 2 frames, Culver exploded for 3 runs in a big third inning. All told, C.H.S. came up with 4 hits and only 1 error while Lindvall and Gentry combined to hold the Falcons to 6 hits and 3 runs.

The Indians have 2 up-coming games, one with Rochester at home on the 18th and with Triton at the Bourbon diamond on the 19th. Both games start at 4:00 and we hope to see a good crowd.

GOLF

Culver's little heard of golf team wrapped up this year's season with the Sectional match on Tuesday. In the county meet last Saturday, they finished fourth. Parker and Lindvall carded a 23 and 25 respectively, to lead the team. These boys are to be commended for their fine play and the way they represented our school at the matches this season.

Sunshine Skits

On Wednesday, May 10, 1967, we Sophomores and the new members of the Sunshine Society presented their annual Sunshine skits in the gymnasium. The girls were divided into committees, and were told to prepare a skit, humorous, serious, etc. The girls were given two weeks to prepare and to practice.

The first skit was presented by Carol Kline, Mary Beth Ives, Linda Miller, Peggy Shei, and Bonnie Alberts. It was entitled "If You Don't Succeed The First Time, Try and Try Again." The skit was humorous and was about a cast of people rehearsing for a movie scene.

The next skit was entitled "The Bar". It was presented by Janet Helber, Sylvia Roberts, Diane Cummings, Pam Moran and Bea Napier. This scene was funny also and was centered around a fighting scene in a saloon.

The third skit was presented by Vicki Clifton, Kathy Tusch, and Linda Shirrell. It was called, "The Maritan." It pertained to a visit by moon men to the earth.

There were a few absentees on the day that the skits were to be given, so therefore all of the committees were not able to perform their skits, but Miss Shanks would not let them go without giving them a skit to do too. The skit they did was called "Holding Up the Line" and Karen Banks assisted her. This was also funny and caught most of the girls by surprise. After the final skit was given Linda Baker thanked all of the girls who participated in them. All of the skits were very good and you could tell that all of the girls had put a great deal of work and practice into them.

By Karen Stevenson and Kathy Tasch

This is the year 1992 at the 25th reunion of the class of '67. A lot of changes have taken place since their graduation. For example, the new school that everybody was talking about back then was finally built, but the biggest change took place within the alumni. Let's take a peek in on this party and see what's happening!!

Linda McAllister still looks as young and vivacious as she always did. That tall dark and handsome man is her husband. They say that she was the airline stewardess and he was the pilot.

Marlene Morrison looks quite contented. She's grown a little plump these last years but with all those children, I think 7 was the number at the last count, who could blame her?

Suzanne Overmyer is one of the most successful alumni from the class. In 1984 Suzi won the Mrs. America pageant, but now has settled down to raising children and loving every moment.

Governor Robert Shirrell is truly our pride and joy. It seems he started out small but moved on to bigger and better things. Bobby hasn't stopped yet, so who knows?

Why that's Patty Overmyer over there, college and these 20 some odd years must have really been great for her. Someone said that Patty is the top specialist in her field of work.

Elaine Epley... why I remember when she —! She started out being Campus Queen but is now under contract with Walt Disney Studios for a movie. What a way to live!!

Marilee Herrmann is satisfied with being Homemaker of the year and Johnny Milner is very contented being looked after by his Homemaker.

Jeanette Salyer was a go-go girl but was carried away by the drummer. (She is now happily married to that same drummer.)

Claudia DePoy is now Mrs. Tom Biggins and has 5 littleuns. She's long since moved out of the trailer into a spacious house.

Patti McCombs still has that long blonde hair after 25 years. She has devoted her life to a worthy cause in helping little children.

George W. Jewell, our distinguished two-millionaire, is present at the goings on. Nobody seems to know how he made his money but he was good in sports in the old days at CHS... Maybe that's a clue.

Steve Blair is still the same ol' "Blair". Nothing could ever change him!

Looks as if Mike Holloway finally gave up waiting for Uncle Sam and enlisted in the service last fall.

Robert Vondra is one of the more intelligent looking ones in the crowd. They say he has a degree in teaching and has 3 boys following in his footsteps.

ZOOOOOO!! What was that?!! Yep! It's Norm Johnson screeching to a halt in his newest sports car. Hey — surprise! He's finally married.

Guess what just arrived? None other than May Kozlowski the world's top ranking beautician. People come to May just to hear where all the latest gossip originated.

Even after 23 years of married life Beth Routson still has that honeymoon glow. We asked her what her secret was, but she wouldn't tell us. It must be the fella she met at I.S.U.

Well, Paul Hatten finally made it — better late than never. His basketball teams are the very best in the country. We always knew Paul was on CHS's team for some reason. He must have taught his teams all the good techniques he learned from Coach Crosley.

A white limousine just flew in front of the school. We can't tell who's in it yet. Oh — why it's none other than our American Ambassador to Utopia, William Plecka. Looks as if the only way to make it in the world today is to attend college in swingin' California. Bill certainly has gone places in his white limousine.

Howie Albert has just informed us that he has added an additional 15,000 acres to his farm in Alaska. He also has discovered a new type of fertilizer. You can now grow things on top of water — thanks to Howie.

If a prize were given to the person who had changed the least over the past 25 years it would definitely have to go to Terry Clifton. Now instead of bombing around on land, he's up in the air. He finally traded his old Ford in for an airmobile.

It's impossible — it just can't be, that couldn't be the White House helicopter landing on the roof of the swimming pool. It is! The President of the United States took time out from his busy schedule to come to his 25th class reunion. Mike Schmoll has not changed a bit since 1967. Maybe that's because we all see him on the tele-screen so much. He started his fourth term in office last January.

Calby "Windy" Schmidt has just arrived. She's Indiana's own Miss Bell Telephone. That seems to be a good occupation for her since she always had a gift for gab.

Tom "Tiny" Sturdevant is a very successful businessman. He owns 200 supermarkets across the country. They are all named after the original one — "Park & Shop".

Patty Wentzel certainly looks and smells good. She's the International Avon lady.

We heard that Elaine Kaiser won't be able to come 'cause she's still in Europe teaching kindergarten. In December, she'll be returning to the States to accept the American Teachers Award for the most dedicated teacher.

Vicki Smith, we are told, is a very successful businesswoman. She invested all the money she made from selling real estate into the stock market. Mr. Lawson would be very proud of her.

Joe Miller told us that he is now a captain of his own ship. He married a little Wave that he met while he was in the Navy and they now have two little ripples.

It seems that more of the girls in the 67 class either have gone to beauty college or become beauticians. Linda Dinsmore now owns her own chain of beauty shops called "Curly Q's", and she has hired Penny Wakefield as her general manager.

Betty Bickel told us that she is now accepting applicants from Europe and Asia to enroll in her beauty college. She's thinking of opening another college in Alaska, provided Diane Nelson doesn't get there before she does. Diane has also been opening her schools "Beauty While You Wait" in the northwest part of the country. Both of these girls are very successful.

This concludes our interview of the class of '67 at their 25th reunion. Hope you enjoyed it as much as they did.

Track 1967

With a nucleus of 8 returning major letter winners, the Culver High School track team started practicing indoors in March. The cold, wet weather hampered workouts and this was evident in the first meet, a triangular with Bremen and LaVie, where Culver finished third. The team improved more rapidly than the weather during the next few weeks and went on to an undefeated season in dual meets. In the process, Culver defeated North Judson 75-43, Triton 75-42 1/2, Knox 65-54, LaVie 75 1/2-42 1/2, Argos 79-39, and Oregon-Davis by a score of 76-42. The team finished second in a four way meet with Rochester, Argos, and LaVie. In a triangular meet with Argos and South Bend Jackson, Culver finished second.

On May 2, the Culver tracksters went to the Rochester Relays and won the Class B championship with a total of 52 1/2 points. May 6 found Culver at the Lancer Invitational Relays at LaVie where they won five of eight relay events, set three records and amassed 93 1/2 points to win the championship.

Eight boys from Culver qualified for the sectional track meet that was held at Elkhart on Friday, May 12. Although none of the boys qualified for the Ft. Wayne regional, they performed very well against the rugged competition they faced. Special recognition is due to several members of the team who were steady performers throughout the season. Dave Kelly was high point man with a total of 123 1/2 points for 12 meets. The half-mile relay team of Phil White, John Milner, George Jewell, and Dave Kelly was undefeated in dual meets as was Paul Hatten in the mile. Sam Jackson, a sophomore, set a new school record in the high jump of 5'8 1/4", eclipsing the mark of 5'8 1/4" set by Jim Boswell in 1964.

The final meet of the season was the county meet at Bremen on May 15. This meet was the ultimate goal of the entire team. The previous meets and relays were looked upon as important steps to the county meet championship and even though the team finished second in the county it was an impressive season by a group of determined young men who represented Culver High

Sunshine Breakfast For Seniors

By Lyn Mackey

Wednesday morning, May 17, at 7:00 a.m., the Sunshine Society held its annual Senior breakfast. It is a breakfast which the members give for all the Senior girls whether they belong to Sunshine or not. It was held in the cafeteria. The decorating committee decorated it with white and yellow crepe paper. There were also little yellow place settings.

Linda Baker opened the gathering, with the members singing the song. Then the new officers were installed by this year's officers. Next year's officers are Susie Donnelly, President; Mary Beth Ives, Vice President; Carin Manchester, Treasurer; Carol Kline, Secretary. The creed was said and then the program was given. Mary Beth Ives and her committee sang some folk songs.

They were pretty good, too. They sang, "This Land is Your Land," "Five Hundred Miles," "Michael Row the Boat Ashore," "If I Had a Hammer," and also a song dedicated to the Seniors, "We Love You Seniors."

After the program Miss Shanks talked about some of the Seniors and a few incidents which happened to a couple of them. Then each Senior and each new and old officer was presented with a yellow rose.

Then Carin Manchester said the prayer and then breakfast was served. It consisted of donuts, orange juice, and chocolate milk.

After breakfast everyone was dismissed.

Baccalaureate Service

On the night of May 21, 1967, Baccalaureate services were held in the Culver Gym at 8:00 p.m. Fifty-nine Seniors entered the gym in time with the procession. The call to worship was given by Rev. Harold Hohman and followed by the congregation singing the hymn "Holy, Holy, Holy". The evening prayer was said by Rev. Joseph Lenk. In response the Culver High School Chorus sang gation then sang the hymn "My Faith Looks Up to Thee". The Benediction was said by the Rev. Charles L. Haney. The Recession was played by Carol Kline ending the services.
