Gen. D. T. Spivey Feted Monday At Testimonial Dinner

Major General Delmar T. Spivey, retiring superintendent of Culver Military Academy, was honored at a testimonial dinner attended by 135 local businessmen, residents, and guests Monday night.

The dinner was sponsored at the Culver Inn by the Chamber of Commerce in recognition of General Spivey's 11 years of service to the Academy and the local community. General Spivey will retire officially Aug. 31 and his successor will be Brigadier General John W. Dobson.

Three speakers discussed many facets of General Spivey's tenure at the Academy and the evening was highlighted by a presentation to General and Mrs. Spivey of a painting done by local artist Jean Williams. The painting is of the home the Spiveys have occupied since 1956 with special emphasis on a tree house built for the Spivey grandchildren.

"With all of the many gifts that have been given to you recently, the artist and the Chamber agreed you should have something to remind you of the home in which you have spent 11 happy years," said Dr. Joseph Howard, president of the Chamber of Commerce. "That this painting emphasizes the tree house used by your grandchildren is no accident. We felt this would crystallize your memories of Culver better than any other painting we could commission."

Representing the Town Board, Wilfred "Bud" Craft said he felt the relationship between the town and the Academy is at its highest point in history.

"You have done more to better the close relationship of the town and the Academy than has ever been done in the past," Craft said. And as an aside, Craft, who spent 47 years as head of the Academy's boat department before he retired this year, added: "I would say that as a General, you won the respect of many because rather than order people to do things, you suggested they do them."

The main speaker of the evening was Robert Rust, superintendent of Culver Public Schools. He quoted from an early Spivey speech given in 1956 when the General said: "Too often things are changed just for the sake of change. It will be my policy to change those things which can be advantageously changed."

Rust said the job of superintendent of schools is never an easy road.

"A superintendent walks a tight line between students, faculty, parents, alumni, the community, and his board of directors. Survival is a touch-and-go situation. It is an awesome responsibility."

But Rust said General Spivey met this responsibility "because challenge is what this man likes."

"Any tribute to you must be a tribute to the institution you serve. And I must add there has never been a dull moment in your life. I commend you for your urgent interest in youth and for your interest in the life of the community. More has been done for the community than people realize, and most of it has been done behind the scenes," Rust said. He cited among other things General Spivey's intense interest in the Boy Scout program, the local, county, state, and national levels.

In expressing his and Mrs. Spivey's appreciation to the Chamber and to the community as a whole, General Spivey said:

"We have made some progress at the Academy over the last 11 years, but this would have been done whether or not I was here. The Academy was doing a good job long before I came and will continue to do so after I am gone. The Culver family has been a strong foundation under the school, but it is additionally blessed with an extremely competent faculty and talented and loyal employees."

General Spivey said independent schools like Culver face a difficult future without the help of the federal money pouring into public schools. The good independent schools will have to get better and the weak ones are going to die, he added. Although the Academy has received $10 million for its endowment during General Spivey's tenure, tuition has continued to rise. He said the school would have to continue to meet the challenge of other good independent and public schools.

"I am not responsible for the success of Culver, and I appreciate the kind things that have been said tonight about my relationship with the community: I have tried to do my job as a citizen in this community. But as friends of the school and of Ginny and me, I must ask for your continued help. We have the ingredients to make Culver the finest town in Indiana. And we have come to solutions when we have sat down reasonably and discussed our problems."

"I can only add," General Spivey said, "that Ginny and I will miss more deeply than you realize this community we have loved for the past 11 years."

25th "Moonlight Serenade" To Be Held This Weekend

If Culver Summer Schools' musicians need any incentive to make this weekend's (July 22-23) "Moonlight Serenade" the best in the history of this Lake Maxinkuckee community, they need only to look to the calendar for inspiration.

This year's "Moonlight Serenade" marks the 25th time Culver Summer Schools' musicians have boarded the square-rigger O. W. Fowler to sail under a full moon playing old-time musical favorites for Lake Maxinkuckee residents. Ironically, the silver anniversary of the serenade comes on the year in which the two men most responsible for it are retiring.

Col. Edward T. Payson, chairman of the music and art department and bandmaster at Culver, conceived the idea of the Moonlight Serenade in 1942. He put his youngsters aboard the newly-constructed square-rigger Fowler and spent one night cruising the East shore of Lake Maxinkuckee and the next night the West shore. He also carefully picked out a weekend in which the moon was full.

It took only a few years for the idea to catch fire. And most years since, Lake Maxinkuckee residents have gaily decorated their homes and cottages as well as their power boats, which form a large flotilla in back of the Fowler each night of the sail.

Col. Payson is retiring at the end of the current session of Summer Schools after 41 years' service to the Academy. And the man who built the 54-foot Fowler in the Academy boat shop a quarter century ago, Wilfred "Bud" Craft, already retired this year after 47 years. Craft still lives in Culver, however, and serves as a member of the Town Board.

This weekend's "Moonlight Serenade" will again feature old-time favorites which Payson believes is also part of the tradition of the concert. The cruise begins at 8:30 p.m. both nights from the pier of the Culver Inn, located on the Culver Military Academy campus.

On Saturday night the Fowler will stop at the Culver Town Beach and play a special concert for local residents, then sail the West Shore with another brief concert at Long Point. On Sunday night, the Fowler will sail the East Shore.

Except for this weekend, Col. Payson also directs the 100-piece band in concerts at 4 p.m. each Sunday in the Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium. The public is invited to attend the "Moonlight Serenade" and the Sunday concerts after this weekend. There is no admission charge.

Band Concert Tonight, July 20, In Town Park

Charles Byfield, instructor and director of Band at Culver High School, announces that members of the Culver High School Senior Band will give an outdoor concert, beginning at 7 p.m., on Thursday, July 20, in the Culver Town Park.

This program of music will feature mostly popular music and promises to provide an enjoyable summer evening highlight.

In case of rain, the concert will be postponed one week.

Every minute of anger is 60 seconds of lost happiness.

Lions Club To Sponsor Outboard Races August 6

Plans for the 1967 Outboard Races to be held here on Lake Maxinkuckee on a course just off the Town Park and Beach, Sunday, Aug. 6, are being activated here this week as Culver Lions Club members, sponsors of the benefit event, initiated work for the Water Sports spectacle.

General Chairman Earl Dean Overmyer indicated that the 16-card race event will attract leading pilots from a wide mid-west area. Cash prizes totaling $500 will be awarded winners of the races which are sanctioned by the National Outboard Association. Paul Wearly of Muncie, Ind., official of the NOA, states that the Culver race will draw a heavy list of entries from a five state area.

Proceeds from the benefit are dedicated to the Community Project Fund. Committee chairmen for the 1967 races announced by General Chairman E. D. Overmyer include: Verl McFeely, Pit-Boat Area parking-policing; Andy Venum, entries and reservations; Robert Osborn and Ralph Osborn, Jr., Park fence-equipment; Dr. James Leach and Dr. Joseph Howard, first aid.

Also Capt. Robert Bolton, USN (ret.), Lake patrol and race course; Donald Davis and Everett Easterday, concessions; Hampton Boswell, finance; Harold Fitterling and Larry Welsh, public address system; Norman Baker, ticket sales; Jesse Overmyer and William Cummings, cotton candy sales; Henry Krieg and Jesse Overmyer, buoys and markers; Robert Osborn, car ticket sales; and Wilbuer Taylor, publicity.

Parcel Post To Be Delivered Six Days A Week

Postmaster E. W. Mattox today announced that parcel post deliveries in Culver were expanded from five days to six days a week as of July 17, 1967.

The boundaries of the expanded service include all areas normally served by city delivery carriers on foot.

This is in line with a recent directive from Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien following the signing of the Post Office Department appropriation bill by President Johnson. The legislation contains an $8.5 Million item for restoration of the six-day-a-week delivery which had been cut back in May 1964 as an economy measure.

Nearly 5,000 cities are affected, Postmaster Mattox said.

Peggy Herr To Leave August 19 For Year Of Study In Europe

A group of 33 Purdue University students and one professor will begin their 1967-68 school year early when they leave Aug. 19 for a year of study in Europe.

Included in the group will be Margaret Ann (Peggy) Herr, Purdue sophomore in French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard R. Herr of Route 2, Culver.

The contingent from Purdue, bound for universities in Germany, France and Spain, will launch the fourth year of the joint Purdue-Indiana University Year Abroad study program.

Prof. Lawrence Radner of the Purdue Department of Modern Languages, will head the program at the University of Hamburg, Germany. I.U. has named Prof. Roy Leake as head of the program at the University of Strasbourg, France. I.U. Profs. Merle E. Simmons and John C. Dowling will head the University of Madrid, Spain, program for one semester each.

The students leave New York City Aug. 19 on the M.S. Aurilla for an approximately 10-day voyage to Le Havre, France. Courses in culture and language are offered on the ship, which is chartered to take American students to Europe for study and to take European students home from American universities.

The Purdue students will spend a few days in Paris, then will leave for their own European school, to arrive in early September. About a month of intensive language training will be taken at each school before regular classes begin in early October.

The students will live with residents of their host countries or in dormitories with European students. They will have many opportunities to travel throughout Europe and explore the host country.

The study abroad program began by Purdue in 1964 at Madrid and broadened to include Strasbourg and Hamburg when I.U. sent its first students a year later. Purdue and I.U. professors alternate as resident directors on assignment from the home schools. Purdue's Prof. Bernard Shiffman will return to Lafayette this fall after two years as head of the Strasbourg program.

The resident directors assist the students in personal and academic guidance and assure their progression to degrees from their home schools.

Selection of students for the program is not limited to Purdue and I.U. or to language study majors. Students whose study is in electrical engineering, home economics, math, political science, psychology and philosophy are represented this year.

At Hamburg, Radner will welcome six Purdue students. There will be 11 from I.U. Six Purdue students also will be among the 20 at Madrid and 20 from Purdue among 37 selected to study at Strasbourg.

Radner will return to his homeland. He was born in Germany but came to the United States when he was a boy. His education was at the University of Washington and Princeton University. He taught at both these institutions and at Gonzaga University before coming to Purdue in 1952.

Radner has wide interests in audio-visual teaching and comparative literature and has studied and written about the German poet Eichendorff.

A young Yank pilot landed his plane on an aircraft carrier during the war and dasked up to the bridge, and as he was pulling his life jacket off his head, recounted the day's work.

"What a day I had, skipper!" he proclaimed. "Sunk a Jap carrier, shot down seven Jap planes and left a Jap battleship listing!"

As he finished pulling his life jacket up over his eyes, he heard: "Velly good, Yank! But you make one velly bad mistake!"

Sweet Sultans

Sweet sultans have fringed flowers in pastel shades, are easy to grow, handsome to see.

Close relatives of the cornflower or bachelor's button so familiar to gardeners, sweet sultans are relatively unknown. They are as easy to grow as cornflowers, which means they will grow in any soil, in sun or semi-shade and will give continuous bloom all summer if only faded blossoms are cut.

Exquisitely fringed flowers in pastel shades of lavender and yellow as well as white have a delicate fragrance that endears them to both the gardener and the flower arranger. The blooms are borne on 2½-foot-tall stems so are well displayed in the garden.

For best results plant seeds early where the flowers are to bloom. Cover with ¼ inch of fine soil and firm it over the seeds to make good contact. Sprouting will occur in just 8 days.

When plants are 3 inches high, thin them so the remaining ones are 6 inches apart. Water well when weather is dry and cut the blossoms early and often.

CRAIG SPENCE, CSS ALUMNUS, TO PRESENT RECITAL

A 1965 Summer Schools alumnus will return to Culver Military Academy to present a piano recital Sunday at 4 p.m. in the Eppley Auditorium.

Craig Spence will play Mozart's Sonata in F, Chopin's Scherzo in B Minor and two Mazurkas, and six of his own compositions. He began composing at the age of six and is currently a piano student of Sydney Foster at Indiana University. He has also studied with Milford Myhre, the Academy's organist and carillonneur.

Spence was first heard at Culver in a piano recital in 1965 when he was captain of the 100-member Summer Schools Band.

SWIMMING THROUGH THE AGES by THOMPSON

FOR ALL OF YOU WHO ENJOY GETTING INTO THE SWIM OF THINGS, RESEARCHERS AT JOHNS-MANVILLE HAVE COMPILED THESE HIGHLIGHTS OF THE HISTORY OF SWIMMING.

1. THE CAVEWOMAN BEGAN THE DEVELOPMENT OF SWIMMING WHEN HE WAS FORCED INTO DEEP WATER EITHER TO SAVE HIS LIFE OR TO CROSS UNFORDABLE STREAMS.

2. SWIMMING AS WE KNOW IT WAS PREVALENT AS FAR BACK AS THE 9TH CENTURY B.C. ASSYRIAN BAS-RELIEFS PICTURE SOLDIERS SWIMMING WITH AN OVER-ARM STROKE RESEMBLING THE MODERN CRAWL.

3. THE GREEKS ARE KNOWN TO HAVE HELD ORGANIZED SWIMMING RACES AS EARLY AS 500 B.C. BOTH THE GREEKS AND THE ROMANS CONSIDERED SWIMMING VALUABLE TRAINING FOR MILITARY SERVICE, AND A HEALTHY RECREATION DURING PEACE.

4. MOST PEOPLE FAVORED THE DOG PADDLE AS A SWIMMING STROKE UNTIL THE 16TH CENTURY, WHEN THE BREAST STROKE WAS DEVELOPED. THE MODERN CRAWL WAS BROUGHT FROM THE SOUTH SEA ISLANDS BY AN AUSTRALIAN WHO, ACCORDING TO SPORTS WRITERS, SEEMED TO "CRAWL" OVER THE WATER.

5. IN THE 20TH CENTURY, COMPETITIVE SWIMMING BECAME THE RAGE; CHANNEL SWIMMER GERTRUDE EDERLE WAS AS FAMOUS IN HER DAY AS CHARLES LINDBERGH. LATER, OTHER SWIMMING CHAMPS BECAME MOVIE STARS—AND THE SWIMMING POOL WAS A POPULAR SYMBOL OF SUCCESS HOLLYWOOD-STYLE.

6. IT WAS NOT UNTIL THE 1940S THAT SWIMMING POOLS ACQUIRED SUCH REFINEMENTS AS DIATOMITE FILTERS TO KEEP UNWANTED ORGANISMS FROM THE WATER. TODAY, MORE AND MORE PEOPLE HAVE THEIR OWN POOLS, EQUIPPED WITH CELITE FILTERS TO KEEP POOL WATER SPARKLING CLEAN.

SESQUICENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

A WAY OF LIFE
by Mira Slovak

(High point driver, unlimited hydroplanes, 1966 Member of the Gulf Racing Hall of Fame Pilot for Continental Airlines and an accomplished aerobatic pilot)

It's probably hard to consider driving a 3-ton boat at over 150 mph as pleasure boating. In fact, there is often a great deal of displeasure connected with this kind of boating -- the sickening feeling when you get washed with a rooster-tail from the boat ahead and your engine drowns out, or when you lose a rudder and your boat takes off like a flying saucer for parts unknown.

But pleasure boating it is. It had its start there anyway. Driving an unlimited hydroplane is probably the pinnacle of competitive powerboating. When you join the ranks of unlimited drivers, you are truly on of a select breed.

But racing is only one way to enjoy boating. There are almost as many ways to have fun on the water as there are people to enjoy them. Racing is one, or just plain family boating is another.

You don't have to go 150-plus mph on the water to enjoy it. There is just as much thrill in working a canoe down through a set of rapids, or plotting a course with your cruiser and coming in on the button, or any of the many water borne activities.

Looking at my boat, 'Tahoe Miss, it's easy to see that she has been built with just one purpose in mind--speed and control. It makes me think that there are many boats that have been designed and built for specific purposes. And this makes it hard for you, or anyone else, to pick out just the right boat for what you want to do on the water.

A couple of things you should always look for in a boat are sound construction and design and safety. You can be sure 'Tahoe Miss is built to take it. While you won't be driving your boat like I drive 'Tahoe Miss, you should still be sure that your boat is built to take whatever water and driving conditions you think she'll face. You don't want her to come apart on you whether you're going 50 or 150 mph. It's embarrassing, and often dangerous.

As far as safety goes, we've taken every possible step to make sure our unlimited boat is safe. You should do the same with your "limited" boat. Select a boat that has sufficient flotation built into her to keep her afloat even when filled with water. Chose one that has sufficient room, too, and a certified capacity for your family. And never overload it.

Make sure, too, that you have the required safety equipment on board. The law requires you to have certain items on your boat. See that you do. But even that equipment is minimal. There are other things that you ought to carry even if you're not required to. Talk these over with the local Coast Guard or your dealer. I'm sure they can give you some tips on equipment.

Of course, the most important element in good boating is the driver. Maybe I take a chance now and then when I'm racing, but you can be sure that I don't take wild chances. I may push the boat a little harder to pass a competitor, but I don't do anything foolish. I can't afford to at 150 mph. And you can't afford to at 15 mph. You've got a responsibility to yourself and to others both in your boat and in the water around you.

Enjoy your boat, but enjoy it wisely.

WATER SKIING IS FOR PEOPLE WHO LIKE FUN
by Liz Allan

(Current Women's World Overall Champion; holder of the world jumping title for women and world distance title for women (106 ft). Three time winner of the national overall title for girl's division; 16 years old)

Water skiing has meant so much to me that I am always glad to share its enjoyment with others. For teenagers, you can't beat water skiing and other water sports for good, clean fun. There is no meanness in water skiing.

I learned to swim and began to water ski when I was five years old. My family had just moved to Florida from Germany where my father was in military service. One of the first things he did when we got settled in our new home was to buy a boat. This started a whole new world of enjoyment for our family.

My sister and I not only learned to swim and ski but we joined an outboard cruising club and began to enjoy the water as a family with others like us in the Winter Park-Orlando area.

Swimming and water skiing are my two favorite sports. Swimming has been more than fun to me. For one thing, it has kept my weight down. This is important to a girl and is doubly important to a competitive skier. Swimming also helps me to keep in condition when the weather is too chilly to water ski.

Another thing about swimming, you can't beat it for watersports safety. I think everybody should learn to swim before they learn to ski. We have competition skiers who don't know how to swim, but I think they'd be better skiers if they took the time to learn to swim.

However, whether you can swim or not, you ought to wear a safety jacket in boating or water skiing. I wouldn't think of getting out on the water without a ski jacket or ski belt on. My Dad and I often stop to tell kids to put on a jacket when we see them skiing without one. This is something you never have to tell a tournament skier.

I will never be able to pay water skiing back for what it has meant to me. How many girls of 14 get a chance to compete in a world tournament in Australia, competing against skiers from all over the world? You can, if you work for it.

I would advise any young person to learn to ski if the chance ever comes—and maybe even go out of your way to make the chance. If you know any skiers, they will be glad to teach you to ski. I taught my best friend to ski, and even the 8-year-old girl next door, who's already skiing on a single ski.

Once you learn to ski, you ought to start a club and get other skiers together. If there are no tournaments in your area, start informal competition among your club members. The American

Once you begin competing, practice becomes more than just fun. You're working toward something; there's always a goal in front of you.

One thing to remember—don't ever give up. You'll get discouraged at times, I do, but I lay off for a few days, and then come back fresh and usually I can work the problems out.

It's a great sport, whether you compete or not. I hope to enjoy the fun of it and the people involved for a long time.

A story told by Kentucky Governor Bert Combs concerns a cowboy who came out of a saloon with a few schooners under his belt. When he got outside he saw an old prospector just in from the hills, leading a burro down the street.

"Do you know how to dance?" asked the cowboy.

The prospector said he didn't, so the cowboy said, "I'll teach you," and he began shooting under the old fellow's feet.

The old prospector counted the bullets—one, two, three, four, five, six, as he danced. After the sixth, he quit dancing and pulled out his own six-shooter.

"Did you ever kiss a burro?" he asked the cowboy.

What will it mean to you when we cut the ribbon on our multi-million dollar electric package?

Plenty! In the next decade, Nipsco is investing millions of dollars to see that you have all the low-cost, dependable electricity you need. In 1968, we plan to add 422,000 kilowatts to our Bailly Station and 100,000 more kilowatts by 1970 to our Mitchell Station in Gary. And when our 500,000 kilowatt, nuclear-powered unit "goes on line" in 1973, you'll have more than 1 Million new kilowatts to grow on.

MEDICARE

Every month many persons in the Marshall County area sign up late for their medicare benefits. Mr. Charles E. Burke, Social Security District Manager, said today.
Mr. Burke urged Marshall County residents who are approaching age 65 to find out as much as they can about the Federal health plan for older Americans. A person should sign up for medical insurance two or three months before he reaches 65, if he wishes coverage of doctor bills to begin in the month he reaches 65, Burke said. If he waits until later, his doctor bill insurance may not begin until one to three months after he signs up, and if he waits more than three months after he reaches 65, he will not have another chance to sign up for a long time -- perhaps as much as two years.

The basic hospital insurance protection begins automatically with the month of the 65th birthday.
The South Bend, Indiana social security office is located at 125 S. Lafayette Blvd. The phone number is 234-4001. Mr. Burke said that the office is open from 8:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Thursdays for those who cannot come in during regular hours.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The rose comes very close to man's standard of perfection. Its delicate beauty seems to mock every effort of the artist or camera to capture it. But is the rose really God's masterpiece? Hardly!

For its beauty is passive. It brightens life only for those who seek it out and gaze upon it. And in but a few days it withers and is ugly.

God's masterpiece is MAN. For with all his waywardness and selfishness, Man is capable of reflecting the love of God. When he lets God touch his life he is able to bring happiness and faith to others. He doesn't have to wait until he is noticed. He can actively bring spiritual blessings to his fellow men.

As the gardener cultivates the rose, the Church cultivates the lives of men. Always it strives to help us become all that God wants us to be.

"What is the old miser worrying about now?" said one man to another as they watched a distressed looking fellow making his way along the street.

"Oh," replied the second, "he can't decide whether to take long steps and save shoe leather, or short steps and not strain any of the stitches in his underwear."

We've lost another link with the past. The $2 bill has gone out of circulation — it is no longer being printed by the U.S. Treasury.

Race track bettors will mourn its passing, but the event has sparked new interest in the collecting of paper money, one of the fastest-growing branches of numismatics.

Discontinuance of the $2 bill is only one reason for the increasing popularity of collecting paper money, points out Neil Shafer, associate numismatic editor at Whitman Publishing Company, Racine, Wis., and one of the nation's top authorities on U.S. currency.

Other reasons listed by Shafer are: 1) virtual disappearance of U.S. silver certificates, making them eagerly sought by collectors; 2) increasing popularity of World War II notes; 3) small changes in security features of the notes, reflecting new printing methods; and 4) gradual addition of the motto "In God We Trust" to all notes.

"The long range investment potential of a paper money collection in top condition is becoming steadily greater," he says, "attracting more and more collectors to this field of numismatics."

Growing interest in paper money collecting necessitated a revised edition of the first comprehensive book on the subject, "A Guide Book of Modern United States Currency," written by Shafer and published by Whitman. This volume illustrates and values a modern-size U.S. paper money from 1929 to the present.

Shafer reminds hobbyists of one vital point: condition, always a major factor in collecting, is even more important with respect to paper money. Since the currency is perishable, bills must be crisp and new. Any man-made blemishes will lessen their value.

Nebraska football coach Bob Devaney, while addressing the State Legislature, gave the lawmakers this definition of a successful coach in his particular line of endeavor: "One who, when he is being run out of town by an angry mob, makes it look like he's leading a parade."

There are few Americans who have not seen an Automobile, but plenty who have not seen one soon enough.

Harold E. Rose, Chairman of the Marshall County U. S. Savings Bonds Committee, has received a report revealing that the County's Savings Bonds sales for May were $30,470 compared with $52,739 for the corresponding period of last year. The State's sales for May were $12,112,051 which is a gain of 5.1 per cent compared with sales of last May.

Forty-two of the State's 92 counties reported sales gains for the month when compared with sales of May 1966.

Because of the sack dress, a young fellow we know was going steady for three months before he found out he was engaged to a bag of flour.

MYC NEWS
by Evelyn Harrell

Sail racing on Maxinkuckee was a little limited this weekend, not because of the lack of wind, but because the "C" skippers were participating in the regatta held at Lake Manitou. Seven skippers, their crews and their boats, made the trip to Rochester and did a fine job when they won two of the races, and were ahead in Sunday's race when it was cancelled due to lack of wind. Added to Maxinkuckee's seven boats were 15 to 20 "C" scows from Lake Manitou. With these skippers knowing the lake, its wind peculiarities, weed patches and sand bars, all members of our yacht club should be proud of the showing these seven made.

We want to thank the Rochester club for their help and the friendliness shown to all of us who were at Lake Manitou. We hope that we can show them as good a time when they come to our lake on August 5 and 6. We also hope for a little more wind.

The Junior Fleet sailed Saturday morning and there was another large turnout of Junior skippers. Nine skylarks and 13 Sailfish were present including eight boats from C.M.A. Joe Schaub won another race when his Sailfish crossed the finish line ahead of Allen Moore. Mark Suverkrup had to be content with a third place this week. Skylark skipper Steve Weber put forth an extra effort this week and came in ahead of the nine boat fleet. Jeff Michels took another second place and was followed by Charlie Roth. Gregg Schmoll was fourth and Christine Muehlhausen, who must be benefiting from the hints she is getting from brother Fritz, came up to fifth place this week. Jonnie Schilling was sixth, and Tom Hollowell finished seventh ahead of Susie Speer.

Regular sail racing will resume this weekend with the Junior races at 10 a.m. Saturday and the "C" races scheduled for 2 p.m. With the first full moon of the '67 racing season, "Moonlite Madness" will prevail on the lake this Saturday evening with the first Moonlite Race. Skippers are reminded that a minimum of four people must be on each boat for this race, and that all boats will

HOME-GROWN WINTER SALADS

Salad greens in a week is what you get when you grow cress which comes pre-planted in a handy kit. Just add water.

One crop that anyone can grow, even a person with a thumb far from green, is cress for use in winter salads. Various called "salad cress," "upland cress" or "pepper grass," this tangy green may be mixed with others in a salad bowl or chopped and added to cheese or butter in sandwiches or canapes.

Salad cress grows so quickly that it is ready to be eaten a week after planting! Sounds unbelievable but it's true.

Kits are available in your local stores already planted with salad cress, with nutrients already added to the growing medium, so that you need only add water and place the plastic tray in a sunny window.

Follow directions for watering as printed in the folder included in the kit. No other care is necessary.

Growth is so rapid and harvest time comes in such a few days that even a tiny youngster will enjoy growing salad cress.

assemble at the Hollowell Cottage at 8 Saturday evening for information about the race. At this same time a short meeting will be held to get plans under way for the regatta to be held with Rochester.

HAVE SKIS, WILL TRAVEL

by Larry Penacho

(Holder of the National (1962) and World (1961) Records in jumping; 1965 World Jumping Championship; coached Swedish Water Ski Federation, 1964; advisory board member, Cut 'n Jump Ski Corp.)

When I learned to water ski in 1956, I didn't dream what was in store for me. Skiing has completely changed my life. Water skiing is one sport that offers the most exciting opportunities for the serious skier. There are numerous opportunities for world travel and a few years of successful competition can even lead to a career in the industry.

At 23 I have become a world traveler. I have visited 35 out of 50 states, including Hawaii, and have traveled through 11 foreign countries. Water skiing tournaments and shows have taken me to Australia, Austria, the Bahamas, Denmark, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Mexico, Sweden, and Switzerland.

This could happen to almost anyone who takes the sport seriously.

One of the added advantages or fringe benefits of my new life as a serious skier, I found, was the interesting people I now had the opportunity to meet. Upon returning to Hawaii in 1963 (I had been there earlier to help develop interest in competitive skiing) to ski in one of their first tournaments, I met the famous Duke Kahanamoku and was fortunate enough to learn surfing from George Downing, the World Surfing Champion at that time.

I'll always remember 1964. That was the year I was invited by the Swedish Water Ski Federation to coach their team for three months. I toured Sweden and other parts of Europe with the Swedish Water Ski team, often competing in the tournaments myself. This was a dream come true—to have the time of my life, travel, ski, and be paid for it as well.

At Surfer's Paradise in Queensland, Australia in 1965 I took first in jumping and third in tricks in the World Water Ski Championships. At this time I decided to do something about my slalom ski, which I realized was holding me back in this event.

Upon visiting Cut-N-Jump Ski Corp. in California, I found a new ski just out as a production model. This was the Tunnel Concave Slalom Ski, a special competition ski that is hollowed out down the center to give added stability on high speed turns. I tried it and found it really worked. The result was that I developed new confidence and my slalom skiing improved new confidence and my slalom skiing improved as well as my overall skiing ability.

What's ahead? Well I hope to go to Montreal in August with the U. S. Water Ski Team for the World Championships, but this depends on what happens at the tryouts in Georgia in July . . . and the U. S. Air Force in which I have enlisted.

DR. D. FAULKNER NAMED TO AMERICAN ACADEMY OF GENERAL PRACTICE

Dr. Donald J. Faulkner of Culver has been re-elected to active membership in the American Academy of General Practice, the national association of family doctors.

The Academy, founded in 1947, and headquartered in Kansas City, Mo., currently is spearheading a movement to create a new specialty of family medicine that will enhance the ability of the family physician to provide comprehensive, continuing care to the public. The foundation of this new specialty will be the Academy's postgraduate education program.
