Allen Marshall To Head CMA Fathers Association

A Culver, Ind., businessman is serving as head of a 6,000-member organization affiliated with Culver Military Academy.

Allen L. Marshall, 40 West Shore Drive, Culver, is president of the Culver Fathers Association, which has members in every state in the nation and many foreign countries. Marshall, who is in the investment and real estate business, also serves as an advisory member of the board of directors of the non-profit Culver Educational Foundation, which operates both Culver Military Academy and the Culver Summer Schools.

The Fathers Association was organized in 1935 to render service to the Academy, the largest college preparatory school in the nation, and the Summer Schools, which is also the largest educational-recreational program of its type in the U.S. The aims of the Association are to seek out qualified boys for enrollment in the winter and summer programs, to nominate qualified boys for scholarships when financial assistance is needed, to increase the Association's endowed funds, and to assist the Academy in other areas of work.

Marshall is a graduate of the Summer Schools and attended Culver Military Academy two years. He did his undergraduate work at the University of Louisville. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall have a son who was graduated from the Academy in 1966 and is now at Tulane University and a son Gregory who is a member of the Academy Class of 1968.

Fire Destroys Barn On Roy Overmyer Farm

The large bank barn on the Roy Overmyer farm, Route 2, Tulip Road, Culver, was completely destroyed by fire Sunday morning, Sept. 24.

The raging fire was already out of control when discovered by Jerry Schwimsher, the Overmyers' grandson who was visiting there.

The large frame building, almost a century old but always maintained in good repair, had been a landmark for many years.

Lost in the fire were most of the Overmyers' farming implements, as well as a large number of swine, including several sows with their young. The Culver Volunteer Fire Department was able to save several other farm buildings near the barn; also a goodly number of the pigs.

This major catastrophe is not a new experience to this well-known, long-time farming family as their present attractive home replaces the home and furnishings they lost by fire 22 years ago. At present, their plans in replacing the barn are indefinite; likewise the amount of their loss has not been accurately computed.

WILLIAM CLEAVENGER JOINS ROCHESTER BANK

William Cleavenger has joined the Farmers & Merchants Bank at Rochester as a teller. A graduate of Culver Military Academy and Purdue University, Cleavenger has been employed summers by banks in Hammond and has also served as a summer officer of the Culver Lake Patrol.

4-H Enrollment Deadline Is January 1

How do you enroll in 4-H? Enrollment in 4-H in Marshall County is relatively simple. However, one must be aware of the enrollment deadline which is Jan. 1, 1968, for Marshall County. Some of the surrounding counties have a different enrollment deadline.

To enroll, a prospective member must obtain an enrollment card from a 4-H club leader, a 4-H council member, a 4-H club member, or the County Extension Office. Many of the schools will have a supply of 4-H enrollment cards. The prospective member must complete the enrollment card and indicate the project, or projects, that they want to take. The card must then be given to a 4-H club leader. If a person does not know who the leader is, they should ask one of their 4-H friends or call the County Extension Office in Plymouth. The phone number is 936-3141.

To be eligible for membership, a boy or girl must be between 10 and 19 years of age in the 1968 calendar year. This means if a boy or a girl is 9, but will be 10 sometime throughout the calendar year of 1968, they are eligible. If the boy or girl is enrolling in the beef project, or some other livestock projects, they should have the animal enrolled by Jan. 1. Therefore, they should check with their leader as to the enrollment time for their project. This is in addition to the enrollment for the member.

Any 4-H member who moves into or out of the county can ask to transfer their membership to their new community. Most areas of the state and the nation have 4-H; however, the rules and regulations vary from one county, or state, to another. Each county in the nation has a county extension office where information about 4-H may be obtained.

Enrollment in 4-H is the step to many experiences for a boy or girl. It is hoped that every boy or girl has the opportunity to have these experiences.

In 1967, over 1,200 boys and girls were enrolled in 34 4-H clubs in Marshall County. They completed over 3,000 4-H projects.

Don Osborn Named President Of United Fund Drive

Budget Meeting Set For Oct. 3

The directors of The Culver-Union Township United Fund met on Thursday, Sept. 21, in The State Exchange Bank Lounge at 7:30 p.m. to begin plans for this year's drive.

Harold Fitterling was elected to replace James Bonine as a director and Louis Base was elected to replace Mrs. Glenn Overmyer.

Officers elected for this year's drive were Don Osborn, president; Mrs. Walter Gollnick, secretary; and Ron McKee, treasurer.

Last year's president, Ron McKee, commented on the excellent performance by all of the team captains and the individual team members. "It was the enthusiasm and the hard work of these people that again carried the drive over the top", he said. Mr. McKee stated he was very thankful for all the co-operation demonstrated during his year as head of the campaign.

The date for the budget meeting for the 1967-1968 drive was set for Tuesday, Oct. 3, at 7:30 p.m. at The State Exchange Bank Lounge. As always the public is invited to attend this budget meeting.

Parents Can Assist 4-H's

As a parent of a 4-H member, do you wonder about your responsibility? Whether you are a parent of a new member, or one of several years membership, you can help your son or daughter become involved in this great "youth movement".

With your love, understanding, patience, and counsel, your own 4-H member has a start in a pleasant and beneficial experience.

Not only does 4-H offer satisfying experiences for your child but for you, too, by providing ways to influence your child's growth and that of neighbor 4-H's. You will have pleasant associations with local leaders, sponsors, and friends of 4-H.

Here are some ways that parents can help:

1. Counsel with your boy or girl in the selection of 4-H projects that are interesting and can be conveniently financed.

2. Show your interest and enthusiasm after the projects have been selected. Read over the project manual with your boy or girl and help him or her to understand what to do, when to do it, and how to carry out different phases of the project in a systematic way.

3. Assist your boy or girl with new experiences and situations in project work, but don't do the job for him. Your job is to teach, not to govern; to guide, not to control. Learn to give increased freedom as your child develops.

4. Remember many local leaders work without monetary pay, give many hours of time and some bear extra expense to help 4-H's develop into well adjusted, happy, useful citizens. Your interest and cooperation with the

W. O. Osborn To Head Rural Banks In USO Campaign

W. O. OSBORN

W. O. Osborn, chairman and president of The State Exchange Bank of Culver, Plymouth, and Argos, has been named Indiana state chairman of rural banks for the United Service Organizations (USO) fund raising campaign, according to a recent announcement made by Russell W. McDermott, Indianapolis Insurance executive, who is serving as regional USO volunteer chairman for the states of Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and Ohio.

Former United States Senator Homer E. Capehart has accepted appointment as national chairman of the USO fund raising campaign.

USO has been providing services for America's military men and women for many years. The demands for additional USO services have increased with the war in Vietnam. The USO serves only in areas where it is asked by the Department of Defense and has increased the number of clubs in Vietnam from five to 11 in the last 10 months. Only recently the Defense Department requested four more service clubs in Vietnam and three additional clubs in Thailand.

The operation of USO clubs is made possible by the United Funds and Community Chests across the United States. However, there are areas in the nation where community fund drives are not made.

As chairman of the rural banks in Indiana, Mr. Osborn will help promote fund raising campaigns in those parts of the state where United Fund and Community Chest drives do not reach. Indiana bankers will be asked to assist Mr. Osborn in this fund-raising effort.

The older generation thought nothing of getting up at 5 o'clock in the morning—and the younger generation doesn't think so much of it either.

Local leaders will be beneficial to you, your boy or girl, and the entire 4-H club.

5. Attend local meetings when possible. You will better understand the 4-H program and give confidence to your child.

6. Keep informed on all 4-H information that comes to the 4-H'er or your family.

7. Keep 4-H work as a subject of constructive conversation in the home and the community. Remember what the club member has learned in the process of winning the award is more important than the award itself.

Constance Nordstrom And Michael Overmyer
Exchange Marriage Vows In DeMotte Church

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL OVERMYER

Palms, white gladioli and mums adorned the altar of the American Reformed Church at DeMotte, Ind., for the lovely 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon wedding on Aug. 12, which united in marriage Miss Constance Ann Nordstrom and Michael Overmyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nordstrom, DeMotte, are parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Overmyer, Route 2, South Redwood Road, Culver, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. G. Alberts performed the double-ring ceremony. Organist Paul White of Culver accompanied Mrs. Eugene Smith, West Lafayette, who sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Wedding Prayer," and "One Hand, One Heart."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her floor-length gown of white linen and Venice lace featuring a scooped neckline, three-quarter-length sleeves, and a fitted bodice. The A-line skirt was enhanced with a heart-shaped detachable train bordered with the Venice lace. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion fell gracefully from a matching crown of the Venice lace, and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, white roses, and white stephanotis, accented with white ribboned ivy.

The bride's attendants were Miss Vicki DeYoung, Lake Village, matron of honor; Miss Patricia Overmyer, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmaid; and Miss Susan Anna Nordstrom, sister of the bride, junior bridesmaid.

The attendants were attired in floor-length gowns of maize linen, fashioned with Sabrina necklines, elbow-length sleeves, and empire bodices. Moss green velvet ribbon and tiny floral trim accented the waistlines of the A-line skirts. Their headpieces were fashioned of matching bows with net veiling. Each attendant carried a basket of yellow-orange flowers matching the floral trim of her gown.

Thad Overmyer, Culver, was best man and groomsmen were James Carter of Kewanee and James Smolek of North Judson. Ushers were Bill Jenson, Chicago, cousin of the bride, and Doug Lindvall, Culver.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Nordstrom selected a mint green linen dress and bone white

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Fellowship Hall and the Sunday School Auditorium. Assisting with the serving were Linda Popp and Nancy Overmyer, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Audrey Evers was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Ed Bozel and Mrs. Jack Marsh, both of DeMotte, presided over the gift table.

For their honeymoon to Tampa, Fla., the new Mrs. Overmyer selected a jersey dress of white, with matching accessories and a daisy corsage.

The bride attended Roselawn Grade School, Mt. Ayr High School, and is a graduate of DeMotte High School and a 1967 graduate of St. Elizabeth's School of Nursing, Lafayette.

The bridegroom is a 1962 graduate of Culver High School and a 1966 graduate of Purdue University. Mrs. Luke White Re-Appointed To Purdue Board

Mrs. Luke White of Covington, Ind., whose three-year term as a member of the Purdue University Board of Trustees expired this summer, has been re-appointed by Governor Roger D. Branigan. Mrs. White is the former Margaret Zechiel, daughter of Mrs. Jerome Zechiel Sr. of Culver.

The nine-member board establishes policies essential for the continued growth and development of Purdue. Under the act of 1869 establishing the university, the Indiana Legislature charged the trustees, "To do all acts necessary and expedient to put and keep said university in operation, make all by-laws, rules and regulations required or proper to conduct and manage same."

The trustees delegate certain of these powers to the president of the university, who acts with their approval and within the framework of the policies which they establish.

Members of the board are appointed by the governor of the state. Three of the members so appointed must be nominated by the Purdue Alumni Association; two must be men of prominence in agricultural pursuits; two must be men primarily engaged in manufacturing industries; and two must be citizens of distinction in other fields. One must be a woman.

Under the current by-laws, the trustees hold six stated meetings a year plus special meetings as needed. Regular items of business during the course of a year include adoption of the budget, awarding of contracts, approval of all staff appointments and changes, and establishment of fellowship programs.

The trustees also formally approve all degrees granted by the institution, sanction the establishment of new schools, and accept gifts and grants. They must approve matters relating to fees, leases, property transactions, and student and staff regulations.

Mr. Fegler gave a talk answering the five points that the Auxiliary had brought up at the last director's meeting. The school lunch program will be continued, speech therapy will be given, a testing program will be arranged, a discipline program will be worked out and each class will have their own assemblage for saluting the flag, singing songs, etc. as a group.

Also present were Mrs. Chaney Bright and two teachers, Mrs. Mary Eckert and Miss Martha Holmgin.

A jewelry party will be held the latter part of October for the benefit of the Center.

A motion was made and seconded that the Auxiliary donate $750 for the purchase of new playground equipment. The director, Miss Blanding, and her associates will decide what type will be suited for the benefit of all the children.

High School Day At Purdue Set For October 14

Purdue University will give thousands of prospective students a broad view of the opportunities in college education at its annual High School Day Saturday, Oct. 14.

The all-day program on Purdue's Lafayette campus is intended mainly for high school seniors and juniors, whether or not they plan to enroll at Purdue. Parents and high school counselors and teachers are invited too. Last year's program drew more than 2,900 persons.

Reservations for the day's program should be made with Miss Shanks or Mr. Dillon in the Guidance Office, Culver High School, by Sept. 29.

The program is aimed at encouraging the visiting pupils to ask questions about careers and what kind of college education they require. Opening the day's educational preview at a general session in Elliott Hall of Music at 9 a.m., Harland W. White, director of admissions, will speak on "The Quest in Questions."

At 10 a.m., visiting pupils will be divided into groups to meet with counselors in the academic area in which they could prepare for their first-choice career.

"Through the years, we've found this kind of professor-student exchange can provide valuable help for youngsters trying to decide what they want to make out of their lives," said Charles A. Henry, associate director of admissions, who directs the High School Day programs. "They get another kind of insight — on a student-to-student basis — when they eat lunch with Purdue students in the residence halls."

In the afternoon, visitors will have opportunity to talk with counselors in a second-choice academic area, seek additional information in the first-choice area or join in conducted tours of Purdue facilities.

All Purdue schools and departments co-operate with the Office of Admissions in conducting the daylong program.

Brademas Announces Exam For Appointments To Military Academies

Congressman John Brademas today announced that he will use the competitive system of nomination in filling two appointments to the U. S. Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colorado, and three to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, New York, available to the Third Congressional District in 1968.

A competitive written examination prepared by the U. S. Civil Service Commission, especially for service academy aspirants, will be held at locations throughout the nation, including South Bend, on Saturday, November 4.

There will be a make-up examination on Friday, December 1, for those candidates who cannot report for the November examination.

Brademas said that all prospective candidates from St. Joseph, LaPorte, Marshall and Starke counties will be required to take this examination. They must notify him by October 2, of their desire to compete for the appointment and whether they desire to take the examination in November or December. Candidates must be between 17 and 22 years of age on July 1, 1968. Applicants should write to: Congressman John Brademas, 1026 Longworth House Office Building, Washington, D. C. 20515.

Brademas emphasized that the CSC examination is a preliminary test given to determine candidates for the academies. The candidates must then qualify for admission by passing written and physical examinations given directly by the academies.

The Hoosier Congressman also announced that he is allowed to nominate ten candidates to compete on a State-wide basis with other Congressional nominees for Indiana's allotment of seven 1968 vacancies at the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy at Great Neck, Long Island.

Candidates for the Merchant Marine Academy will also be required to take the CSC examination either on November 4, or December 1, and should apply to Brademas by October 2.

Brademas urged all aspirants to the three academies to write him as soon as possible in order to receive information made available by the Civil Service Commission concerning the written examination.

C.H.S. Senior Attends Chemistry Inst., Manchester

By Steve McCombs

For seven weeks this past summer Jim Taber attended a Chemistry Institute at Manchester College. This institute is sponsored annually by the National Science Foundation. To be able to attend this conference, Jim had to fill out an application blank and take a standardized test that was given on a nation-wide scale. Of the thirty-four students picked, Jim was one of the lucky ones.

During the session there were two lecture periods each day, one two-hour period in the morning, and a one-hour period in the afternoon. A two-hour laboratory session followed the afternoon lecture. The lectures were given by Manchester professors who also supervised the laboratory period. During the lab the students were mainly on their own and the professors offered advice only when asked to do so.

When asked if the institution did him any good, Jim had these comments:

"Since chemistry is my basic interest, I feel that this was a worthwhile experience and that it helped me to broaden my knowledge in this field. I would also recommend an institute of this kind to any student wishing to enter a field involving any of the various phases of chemistry."

Cheryll made the finals, and then went on and was selected as one of the 24 Pom Pom girls. Cheryll was a varsity cheerleader at Culver High School for three years. In order for a girl to be a cheerleader at Indiana University she must first be a Pom Pom girl. The students of C.H.S. would like to congratulate Cheryll and wish her the best of luck.

Changes At C.H.S.

The term of 1967-68 has once again begun its daily activities, but many changes have been made.

The office has been greatly improved with the adding of the guidance counselor's office. Another feature is the addition of the new ceiling in the halls. This created a cheery atmosphere for all students. It was a pleasure to come back to CHS and see the terrific changes made in the study hall. On behalf of the students, we would like to thank those responsible for these changes.

This year we believe that we have a great staff of teachers among us. The seniors are especially confident in the staff because the seniors will be continuing their education after graduation. We would like to welcome all the new teachers and we hope that you will have a pleasant and successful year at CHS.

Another change is that we do not have the one-week colored lunch tickets to bother with. It is more convenient to pay at the door as we did in the past.

In the afternoons, some students from Monterey High School attend classes at C.H.S. We would like to welcome them and hope they will find Culver students friendly and hospitable.

NOTE FROM EDITOR: Starting next week, Monterey's news articles will be published in our friendly and hospitable.

We feel this is a step forward in combining the schools.

The SENIORS have been working frantically, selling the all important magazines, trying to build up those last desperate points. They didn't reach their goal but sold $4,600 worth.

The JUNIORS are eagerly awaiting the class meeting. They have selected the ring style and their preference of colors. Soon they will be flashing about the halls, displaying how proud they are of their long-awaited rings.

Last week at their class meeting, the SOPHOMORES established that their class dues should continue to be $2 annually. They also discussed their first project — Leaf Raking. The teams have now been selected and posters have been made to set out around town.

NOTICE: Anyone wanting his yard cleaned by a superb team of rakers — contact the Sophomore class. Your liberal donations will be appreciated immensely.

The FRESHMEN seem to be taking it easy. They aren't in the process of planning anything right now.

The STUDENT COUNCIL has been discussing whether to have school license plates with Culver Indians inscribed in orange and black. Also discussed were plans for Homecoming, but as yet they haven't been revealed.

Happiness: A perfume you cannot pour on others without getting a few drops on yourself.

C.H.S. Sports

The Culver High School Cross Country Team soundly defeated Winamac in a dual meet here last Friday. Andy Tarquino received a first on the rugged two-mile course. Andy was closely followed by Carl Strang, who finished second for Culver. A few seconds later, the first Winamac runner crossed the finish line. Culver's victory score was 23 to 35.

Tuesday night the boys journeyed to Knox for a triangular meet. The meet was scored as a double duel meet. Culver beat Knox by the score of 19 to 42 and also beat Argos by the score of 22 to 38. This victory brought the CHS outstanding record to six wins against only one loss.

These boys of the cross-country team have really worked for their victories and deserve to have you people out there watching; so if you're not doing anything after school, come on out and give the team some encouragement during their meets.

Wrestling is a new sport at Culver this year. This sport is very fast and tiring because each boy is matched against someone of equal weight and strength. Approximately 20 boys are going to initiate the sport for Culver. Wrestling practice cannot officially begin until November 1, but all the boys are doing calisthenics and are running to get into shape for practice. These athletes will also need your encouragement throughout their season. Be sure to attend some of their exciting matches.

Whoopee! It's Friday and by looking at my victim for this week, you can sure tell it! Of course today is a rather special day for my victim, whom I shall call Madame "It", because tonight her guy, one of CHS's mighty seniors of '67, comes home from college. Yea Rah! What a weekend!

In the first period Madame "It" has band. How sweet and mellow her horn did play! Ah well, that is when she took time out from her endless chatter to blow a few simple notes.

Her time in study hall was taken up by sneaky glances at the teacher and hurried whispers to her friends trying to find some current events for next period's United States history.

It looks like Madame "It" got her information all right. Too bad her current events didn't match the ones Mr. Lawson chose to test her on! Ah well, such is life Boy oh boy!! Was fourth period ever fun. Madame "It" learned how to talk about "food", a favorite subject (but not THE favorite) in another language, Spanish, of course; however, to the dismay of the teacher, she still managed to find time to get in a few English words here and there to her next-door friend.

Today Madame "It" tried to make lunch more fun by putting all of her new-found-food vocabulary to use. Since when was milk called "Albondigas?"

The beautiful voices coming from the band building fifth period were so lovely I almost cried, especially when I heard the wrong notes from my victim ring out o'er the rest.

Sixth period I found Madame "It" actually paying attention in her first year Home Ec. class. She's going to make a great little housewife someday. Yep, she really is!

Madame "It" aired a few opinions of her learned mind during a debate in English seventh period. In about the list fifteen minutes of class; however, she became impatient to get home so she could change and go to see her "Homecoming Soldier of Education." There went the bell and Madame "It" along with it. Never to be seen again... till Monday, that is.

In case you haven't guessed, Madame "It" returned to school Monday with a smile, a laugh, a chain, and for that chain, a ring. Congratulations to Karen Banks for another job well done.

Hoosier Girls' State

By Karen Stevenson

In order to be considered as a delegate for Hoosier Girls' State, a girl must have the following qualifications: (1) interest in government, (2) outstanding qualities of leadership, (3) good character and honesty, (4) courage to do the right, (5) cooperation with those around her, (6) scholarship in the upper third of her class. The principal of CHS believed that Susie Thews possessed all of these outstanding qualities and selected Susie to represent our school at Hoosier Girls' State from June 18-25 at Bloomington.

The purpose of Girls' State, which is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, is to teach all of the Girls' State delegates the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities of American citizenship. It is also an attempt to teach these girls knowledge of the basic principles of their own state's government through actual practice. Each girl is assigned a political party, either Nationalist or Federalist. The girls follow regular party organizations in precinct, county, and state. In each "city" the following "city" officers are elected: mayor, clerk-treasurer, 3 councilmen.

At the State Party convention, which was held on the fourth day of the session, nominations were held for state officers such as governor, lieutenant governor, and other necessary officials. Susi held the office of city chairman and later was a state representative.

Susie said that going to Girls' State was "a really great experience", and she wishes that every girl would have the opportunity to attend. She has been impressed by both the friendliness and the patriotism of the girls who attended.

The Saturday dinner guest of Mrs. E. W. Carter was Mrs. Ethel Brown of Winamac, a former classmate of Mrs. Carter's while attending Ball State University.

Speaks To Classes

The girls in Home Economics I and V have begun the school year with the study of food packaging and shopping know-how. They are also interested in the customs and foods of other countries; and as an aid to learning, they called on Mrs. Carmen McCoige, who is originally from Panama.

Mrs. McCoige has lived in the United State for the past six years, but during the past summer she returned to her homeland for a visit. She talked to the home economics classes about the change in Panama since she lived there and also about the food habits and customs of her native land.

Raw fish marinated in lemon juice is a great favorite in Panama as is fried lizard; however, the main portion of the diet centers around rice, cooked fish, and fruit. The foods that are grown in Panama are fairly reasonable in cost, but goods imported from the United States are very expensive. The average cost of groceries for a family of four in Panama is $60.00 a week even though wages are low.

Home Economics III is studying budgets and housing during their first unit of work. Mrs. Claudia DePoy Biggens came to speak to the class about money budgeting and housing problems facing young married couples. Mrs. Biggens has been married only three months and last year studied budgets and housing as a senior in home economics.

Through the help of these people in the Culver community, the students can learn about the world around them, and the home economics students appreciate the aid given in helping them learn.

Meet Mr. Williams

By Linda Miller and Mary Beth Ives

We have a newcomer roaming the halls of C.H.S. and we're sure you would like to know a little bit about him.

Mr. Williams, our French teacher, really likes it here at Culver since he comes from the Indiana small town of Gas City. He graduated from Ball State University, where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi Fraternity and the French Club. While working on his Bachelor of Arts degree, he discovered he liked French and decided to make it his major.

Along with French, Mr. Williams enjoys ice skating, dancing, and skiing. He hopes to travel abroad very soon.

We would like to welcome Mr. Williams to our faculty and wish him the best of luck this year at C.H.S.

"Let me see that letter you've just opened," snapped the wife. "I can see from the handwriting it is from a woman and you turned pale when you read it." "You can have it," returned the husband calmly. "It's a bill from your hat shop."

Then, there's that once a month when a girl could use a good old-fashioned medicine.

Maybe you feel just plain bad then. Or maybe a little lonely and sad, like you could use a pair of arms around you.

Well, we have just the thing for this once a month time. Lydia E. Pinkham Tablets. They're made with gentle, natural ingredients, including one that works to help relax tightened muscles that give you cramps. Plus a little iron that a girl could use at a time like this. And, you don't run any chance of the kind of unpleasant side effects you could get from some of the newer drugs.

With an old-fashioned problem like this, couldn't you take an old-fashioned medicine.

Concert-Theater Series To Open At CMA Oct. 13

The Broadway musical "The Roar of the Greasepaint — The Smell of the Crowd" will open the ninth annual Concert-Theater Series at Culver Military Academy on Oct. 13.

The Academy's Concert-Theater Series is a full season of nine professional productions in most aspects of the performing arts. The series is scheduled primarily for students and faculty at the Academy but is open to the public for individual performances as well as season subscriptions.

The 1967-68 series will show a greater variety in productions than in recent years. Included in the nine-event program is a Broadway musical, a Broadway comedy, one of the nation's leading dance troupes, a modern jazz group, a Greek tragedy, a symphony orchestra, and, for the first time on the Culver series, outstanding films of Sir Laurence Olivier's production of "Othello" and the La-Scala Opera Company in "La Boheme."

"The films," said Director of Theater Leo K. Cohen, "will enable us to widen the scope of our Concert-Theater Series, present excellent productions of an Italian opera and a Shakespearean tragedy, and to divert our funds to fewer but better live productions in other areas of the performing arts."

Along with the nine professional events in this year's Concert-Theater Series, Culver will offer to the public at least five student or faculty productions by Theater '68. Cohen said that among the productions being considered now are: "South Pacific," "J.B.," "The Visit," "Antigone," and "The Queen and the Rebels."

All of the theater productions are held in the Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium with curtain-time at 8:15 p.m. This year's Concert-Theater Series is:

"The Roar of the Greasepaint — The Smell of the Crowd," Oct. 13. The musical played on Broadway for two years with Anthony Newley in the starring role. "Greasepaint" introduced seven songs that have become standards and also presented a viewpoint of life today in which, as Cohen describes it, "the big fellow makes the rules — as he goes along."

"Othello," Oct. 26 — The film stars Sir Laurence Olivier as Othello with members of the National Theater of Great Britain. It was brought to the screen by Warner Brothers in color. It is not a filmed stage version of the tragedy but rather a specially directed motion picture production.

Randy Weston Sextet, Nov. 13 — The Weston group was selected this year by the State Department for a tour of Africa and Europe as part of the cultural exchange program. His appearance at Culver will be one of the first upon his return from that tour.

"The Impossible Years," Dec. 6 — Well known stage, screen, and television actor Tom Ewell stars in a comedy that pits irrepressible youngsters against alarmed parents. The show played Broadway for two years and is currently experiencing a successful road tour with Ewell in the leading role.

"Much Ado About Nothing," Jan. 15 — The National Players will make their eighth appearance at Culver in offering a familiar Shakespearean work. But like their previous performances here, there is no indication that the National Players will adhere strictly to Shakespeare. Past productions have made the National Players one of the favorites with Culver audiences.

"La Boheme," Jan. 31 — This is a film of an actual presentation of Puccini's famed work by the LaScala Opera Company. The production was designed and directed by Franco Zeffirelli, while the director and conductor for this performance is Herbert Von Karajan, one of the world's greatest conductors.

Alvin Ailey Dance Theater, Feb. 13 — The Ailey troupe drew lavish praise from Time magazine last year upon its return from a highly successful tour of Europe. The American troupe drew an enthusiastic response from the Culver audience when it appeared here in 1963.

"Phedre", March 4 — This is a production of an ancient tragedy as seen by French playwright Racine. The tragedy is reworked into the French romantic style which led to a recent movie of the work.

The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, April 2 — Conductor Izler Solomon brings the orchestra to Culver for its fifth appearance in recent years.

Further information on the Culver series may be obtained from the Director of Theater at Culver Military Academy.

A clerk in one of the busier shops was waiting on an exasperating woman who spent almost an hour looking over the store's stock, complaining constantly and criticizing incessantly. When she turned on the clerk and said, "Why is it I can never get what I ask for in here?" The clerk let her have it with, "Madam, perhaps we're too polite."

For almost two thousand years the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper has been celebrated by Christians everywhere.
Though variously interpreted by the churches, though administered with different ritual, it has always remained our unifying bond . . . the Communion of the Church with her Lord.

On World Wide Communion Sunday Christian congregations all over the globe will assemble to celebrate this Communion. Each will follow its own accustomed usage, exercising the right of religious freedom that the free peoples of the world treasure so highly. And as millions receive the Sacrament they will be conscious of the joyous faith that unites them with one another and with Christ.

This is a century of crisis in which those who treasure their spiritual heritage must stand together . . . must face with courage the alarming growth and ruthless power of an atheism dedicated to the overthrow of both freedom and religion.

Join your fellow Christians at The Lord's Table!

New ASC Community Committees Elected

Results of the election of ASC community committeemen for the communities of Marshall County were announced Monday by Darwin Roahrig, Chairman, Marshall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. The election was held by mail, and ballots were tabulated publicly by the incumbent ASC county committee on Sept. 21, 1967 at the County ASCS Office.

Farmers elected are listed according to their respective positions as Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Regular Member, First Alternate and Second Alternate.

Green: Don Fishburn, Orville Voreis, Francis Gibbons, Roscoe Heckaman and William Lake.

Union: Whitney E. Kline, Floyd Crow, Norman Ringer, Bruce Ogden and Wayne Kline.

West: Raymond Gross, George Eckert, Donald Lee York, John F. Ruff and Roscoe Sarber.

The ASC community committee chairman, vice chairman, and third regular member automatically become delegates to the county convention, where farmers are elected to fill vacancies on the ASC county committee. The alternate committeemen become alternate delegates to the county convention. The county convention will be held at the PCA Building, 446 E. Jefferson Street, Plymouth, at 10 a.m. on Friday, Sept. 29.

After the county committeemen are elected, the delegates determine which of the regular committeemen will serve as the committee chairman and vice chairman for the coming year.

ASC county and community farmer-committeemen are in charge of local administration of such national programs as the Agricultural Conservation Program, the Cropland Adjustment Program, the feed grain program, the voluntary wheat program, the National Wool Program, acreage allotments, commodity loans, and storage facility loans.

Each year, local farmers earn thousands of dollars through participation in these farm-action programs.

Indiana Jaycees Conduct Model Legislature

The Indiana Jaycees, meeting in Indianapolis this past weekend for their Fourth Annual Model Legislature, considered 13 bills and two joint resolutions. One of these resolutions was written by Latham Lawson of the Culver Jaycees. This resolution called for a constitutional convention and carried both houses without opposition.

The model legislature, which was held in the regular Indiana General Assembly quarters of the Statehouse, enacted eight measures. Some of these measures were: legalized abortion in qualified cases, better regulations of sanitary landfills, control of auto graveyards, establishment of regional hospital affiliated internship-residency program, and a stronger and more inclusive public officials' bribe bill.

Lawson, who served as Speaker of the House in last year's Model Legislature, was the Majority Leader in the Senate this year.

Machinist Mate Third Class Vern L. Forsythe, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Forsythe of Bremen, and husband of the former Miss Mary Ann Shock of Route 2, Culver, returned to Norfolk, Va., recently aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS America after an extended deployment with the U. S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

During the past eight and one half months the 77,000-ton America has steamed nearly 55,000 miles, participating in exercises with air and naval units of our North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies.

When the Middle East crisis flared, the America came to the aid of the communications ship USS Liberty after that ship was mistakenly attacked by Israeli aircraft and torpedo boats on June 8. The next day crewmen assisted in transferring wounded Liberty crew members to the America and rendering medical assistance.

The ship recently added more laurels to her record by winning the Battle Efficiency Award for Atlantic Fleet attack aircraft carriers for 1966. The award is presented to the attack carrier which, through competitive exercises, proves to be in the highest state of combat readiness.

America's ports of call during the deployment included major seaports in Greece, Italy, Spain, Malta and Turkey.

The bright pupil looked long and thoughtfully at the school examination question which read: "State the number of tons of coal shipped out of the United States in any given year."

Then his brow cleared. He wrote: "1492 None."

Culver C. Of C. Holds "Know Your Candidate Night"

Sixty-five persons attended what is believed to have been the first "Know Your Candidate Night" sponsored here, Sept. 25, by the Culver Chamber of Commerce.

Meeting at the Culver Inn, Chamber members heard seven candidates for local offices state their views of the problems of the local community and what they, if elected, would do to solve them.

Dr. Joseph Howard, president of chamber, termed the meeting a success and said he felt it was a step in the direction of more pre-election dialogue between citizens and candidates.

"As far as I know, this has not been done before in Culver," said Dr. Howard. "Had it been, it might have contributed to better attendance at town board meetings when normally only the board members and some town employees are present. The Chamber of Commerce is interested in getting more citizens involved in the problems of the community, which can't help but result in a better Culver."

Problems discussed by the various candidates ranged from water supply, sewage, drainage, and building codes to taxation and whether or not more town employees are needed. While most candidates voiced what they termed a "conservative" view toward raising taxes, a majority felt that additional funds would be needed if the town board carried out the needs of local citizens. Addressing himself to the sewage and water problems, present Town Board member Tone Shaw indicated further taxation would be necessary to meet community needs. "Previous town boards, and the present one included, made a mistake in not increasing available funds gradually. People now say that a relatively large increase may be needed. This may be true. But if we had raised them gradually over the years, we could have built up a sinking fund that would have given us needed funds."

Among those who spoke were: Mrs. Ruth Lennen, incumbent clerk-treasurer running for re-election on the Republican ticket; Mrs. Esther Powers, Republican candidate for Town Board from Ward 3; Henry Hinkle, Democratic candidate for clerk-treasurer; Shaw, one of the incumbent members running for re-election on the Democratic ticket for Ward 1; George Becker, Republican candidate from Ward 1 for the Town Board; Donald Osborn, Republican candidate from Ward 2 for the Town Board; and Bernard Busart, Democratic candidate for the Board from Ward 3.

A special guest at the meeting was newly-appointed seventh superintendent of Culver Military Academy Brig. Gen. John W. Dobson, who will formally address the Chamber at a future meeting. The next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce is Oct. 30 when new teachers from the Culver Public Schools and Culver Military Academy will be special guests.

Dr. Howard also announced that in a poll of its members, a majority expressed a desire for the community to remain on Eastern Standard Time and also to move the holiday closing of town businesses to the nearest Mondays.

Academy Sports

Culver's football Eagles lost their season opener to the Bremen Lions Friday night, 26-14. The Lions scored twice in the first quarter to open with a 13-0 lead, but Culver rallied to score a one-yard plunge by quarterback Chip Linnemeier just before halftime. The Eagles struck first in the second half on a 25-yard pass from John Casner to John Schumarher to take the lead 14-13 before Bremen countered with the final two touchdowns of the game. Pat Stillson, Paul Hundt, Jim Baker and Otis Kuntz scored Bremen's four touchdowns, and Jud Robinett completed two conversions.

The gridders meet Lafayette Central Catholic Saturday, Sept. 30, at home as a part of the Academy's Fathers Weekend. Culver's cross country team split its first two meets. The team lost 28-29 to Wheeler and beat Hebron 19-40. Second-year team captain Doug Scholz won both races, setting a new course record of 10:13 in the Wheeler race. The runners travel to Logansport Friday for their third meet of the season. The soccer team lost its first game of the season to Argos 1-0. Ron Quimby, Argos, scored on a penalty kick in the second quarter to win the game and give Argos a 3-0 season to date. Culver travels to LaLumiere Wednesday for its second season game.
