The school calendar as adopted provides for the opening of school September 3rd, with a ten day Christmas and a four day Easter Holiday, closing on May 29th.

The Policy Manual represents considerable study in an effort to codify policies of the corporation into a single manual. It has been prepared in a preliminary report form for Board study.

SPORTS CORNER

THE LONG AWAITED DEBUT OF PRINCETON'S BILL BRADLEY IN PRO BASKETBALL HAS BROUGHT HAPPIER DAY TO THE NEW YORK KNICKS...

NEW STAR IN THE BIG TOWN...

THE RHODES SCHOLAR AND ALL AMERICAN HAS BEEN LABELED A SURE FIRE SUPER STAR IN THE NBA AND ALSO A TOP BOX-OFFICE ATTRACTION...

THE THIRD ANNUAL Bi-County tourney is over and the third different team in three years now wears the crown of champion. LaVille, the host school, won the title with an exciting final game victory over Bremen, last year's winner. This follows the pattern set last year when North Liberty, the first winner was runner-up this year.

IN ALL THE TOURNEY was basically thrilling in all games for at least a while and play and sportsmanship was good. However, after setting under the basket for the games and reading carefully the box scores, it has been a long time since these eyes have seen such aggressive play under the baskets and as few fouls responding. However, to the satisfaction of the fans with the exception of particular fans on a lot of whistles. This favored the play of such teams as LaVille, Bremen and Triton, probably the three best teams on the boards.

THE FIRST GAME FOUND Glenn playing North Liberty with the Falcons using a good second half to drop the Shamrocks. Jack Ross led the running attack of Glenn's in the later stages of the game that broke open a 24-24 halftime score. Despite the concentrated efforts of the Falcons on Chris Anderson, he still tossed in 24 points for another fine performance. The final score was 65-56.

THE HOST LAVILLE TEAM then took on Argos in Wednesday's second game. This matched a lot of board strength under the basket as Overmayer and Hardesty of Argos went against the front line of Herbster, Vance and Kinney for the Lancers. As it resulted, a good battle was witnessed, but the fouling out of Hardesty and Warstler for Argos proved to be their downfall as the LaVille team won by six, 60-54.

THURSDAY NIGHT'S ACTION did not give the closeness of the Wednesday play to the fans but both games had their excitement in the first half. Triton used their size to good advantage and some good outside shooting later in the game to top Culver 66-45. The Trojans gave indication of playing better ball than they did the early part of the season.

BREMEN MET NEW CARLisle in the final first round game. The Lions jumped to a good early lead and then were bothered by a Tiger press for a while in the second quarter. A late basket by Jud Robinette pushed the Lions to a 10 point halftime lead and from this point on, they began pulling away from the hustling, but much less effective Tigers.

IN SATURDAY'S PLAY, THE first game matched Glenn and LaVille. After a good exciting first half, LaVille's power under the boards really took over to hand the game to the Lancers by a 78-59 score. This put the Lancers in the foul game. Herbster, Vance and Kinney were the Lancers big guns.

THE SECOND GAME THEN pitted Bremen and Triton. These two clubs put on a real nip-and-tuck battle for most of the game. However, Bremen, after dropping behind in the fourth quarter, came storming back from the deficit to win going away over a beat group from Triton. This completed the cast for the night game.

IN THE NIGHT GAME, THE two combatants really put on a show. If they would have continued switching the lead, fighting back and forth, but continue to play close ball. With both squads strong on the boards, the battle was fine. Bremen held a little edge from further out with Anglin and Robinette both able to plunk the ball in from the floor while LaVille is much better getting their offense moving from the baselines, utilizing their under the basket men.

A SPECIAL WORD OF CONGRATULATIONS should go to the hosts again this year. If Dale Cox, LaVille's athletic director, and company, continue to make such an attractive tourney, we may all be spoiled. The thought of a variety of entertainment between the sessions of Saturday's play, the many other various advantages they offer and the friendly attitude of the entire meet, puts this tourney in a class by itself.

BASED STRICTLY ON THE tourney appearances of the players, our selection of an all-tourney team would be headed by Jud Robinette. He has to rate the most valuable nod in our book as his presence in the Bremen line-up makes Bremen a threat in all details. His play, while some classify it as too rough, is backed by hustle, desire and that great competitive spirit that makes a winner. Add to this honor team, Anglin, of Bremen; Herbster, Kinney and Vance, of LaVille; Anderson, North Liberty; Stoneburner and Long, Triton; Ross, Glenn; and Lowry, of Culver. This is eleven boys, but none of these should be omitted.

NOW WE CAN SETTLE down to completing the regular schedule before we see five of these same teams plus three more powers meet in the sectional, also at LaVille. Win or lose, this was another fine with a lot of good basketball and thrills for all. Congratulations to all the teams and coaches for their part of this spectacle.

Herbster Cuts Loose For Two More Points For LaVille

LaVille's big gun, Carl Herbster, lets fly with a jumper in second half action as he and the other Lancer big men did the bulk of the scoring in their 78-59 win over Glenn Saturday afternoon. Larry Groves, in front, and John Stasko, behind Herbster cannot stop the efforts of the big man.

Culver's Kreuger Tries For Two Against Triton Defense

Jeff Kreuger evades the efforts of Triton's Loren Enders in Thursday night action only to have the basket evade him on this effort. Kreuger battled the larger Trojans all night long underneath, giving him one of the hardest jobs in the tourney for any one as the Indians once again gave away considerable size under the basket.

Bake A Continental Cake

If you should go searching for cake recipes in Europe, you would find that many of them call for a mixture of wheat and another flour. Very often the second flour is corn flour, the continental name for what we in America call corn starch. We discovered a delicious cake using corn flour in Switzerland. It was a marble cake baked in a tube pan and like many European cakes, is served warm without any frosting. Warm or cold, this cake is good.

Continental Cake

1/4 cups sifted flour	3/4 cup margarine
1 cup corn starch	1 cup sugar
3 teaspoons baking powder	4 egg yolks
1/4 cup sugar	1 cup milk
3 tablespoons cocoa	4 egg whites

Sift flour, corn starch and baking powder together. Thoroughly blend 1/4 cup sugar and cocoa. Cream margarine and 1 cup sugar in mixing bowl; beat in egg yolks. Mix in sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. (Batter may appear slightly curdled.) Divide batter in half. Stir sugar-cocoa mixture into one portion, blending well. Beat egg whites until soft peaks form when beater is raised. Fold half into each portion of batter. Drop batters alternately by teaspoonfuls into greased 9-inch tube pan. Bake in 350 degrees F. (moderate) oven until cake tests done, about 1 hour. Serve warm or cooled. Makes 1 (9-inch) tube cake.

"Good News"

News! This element is often an elusive thing. Things are always happening, but news is not always happening as we define news.

Listening to Gaylord Toll, the principal of LaVillie high school, speak to the Walkerton Lions club, the ladies and members of the John Glenn National Honor Society, should have given everyone present some good food for thought. His topic was "Good News."

He reminded us that things are always happening, good news, but our society wants and accepts the "spectacular" news rather than the volumes of the "good" news we could have at our disposal.

Rape, murder, riots, war . . . these are the headlines we read because this is the spectacular type news we want to read. A "voice of the people" article in Tuesday's South Bend Tribune suggested a column for good deeds that are done. This is something we don't look for and yet is what we want to hear deep down inside.

Two examples of Mr. Toll's point this out very clearly. A divorce can make the headlines or be the topic of conversation, but what do we hear about the marriages that are happy and remain that way. Also, he cited such as 425 students and school officials having day after day of successful classes and operations in a school, but let one get in trouble and you will hear about that one everywhere but what about the other 424?

What happens to the "good" news that it eludes us? Is it just that conversation is so scarce with our fast living, extra busy schedules and home hours filled with television or a radio blurring away that we don't talk anymore? And the conversation we do have has to get that spectacular item in because it has more "spice" than the run-of-the-mill talk? Are we victims of lack of communication that this has developed?

This is one advantage we feel we have by being a weekly newspaper. We carry no national news . . . belong to no wire services . . . have a hard time finding the details on the so called "spectacular" events anyway. We are interested in you, your family and the club or organization that you belong to that does its good through many different outlets. The list of an honor roll of a local school means more to our media than an orbiting astronaut or the riots going on in various parts of the country.

It is true, publishing once a week can bring you news that happened last Thursday or Friday and you know all about. But, maybe your neighbor does not know of this. Maybe a former resident now living in another area will read of the accomplishments of a grandchild, a friend or the neighbor they used to have back home.

News is everywhere but getting it can be a problem. However, regardless of where it is, in the local weekly paper or the New York Times, what we want is all we will see anyway. Maybe the simple little item of a person contains that much-wanted "good news" despite the fact it isn't that "spectacular" type story we are so accustomed to day in and day out. Why don't you look for the good news and realize that this type of thing happens everywhere and everyday. Our society isn't all bad yet, and with the help of all, will remain "good news."

DILEMMA

Man is a reasoning creature who believes in logic until it threatens his pet prejudice.

There seems to be an overproduction of almost every commodity except good will.

For And About Teenagers

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I Just say hello. And see what happens from there. There are countless topics of short conversation — the weather, school activities or school sporting events. Don't expect to become a brilliant conversationalist all at once — but remember that you have to start sometime. Once you have made an effort to be friendly, and even if you don't feel that you pulled it off so well, you will discover that there was really nothing to "freeze up" over. The next attempt at conversation will come much easier."

OUR REPLY: Relax. Be yourself. The "freeze up" bit is a natural thing. You are unsure of yourself. You probably think you will say the wrong thing — and you will say the wrong thing if you just walk up to a girl and announce something such as "I like you." It is not necessary to tell a girl that you like her. Simply by your friendly, natural self and she will know that you like her. It is not as difficult as you may believe. Begin with something simple.

Culver Falls To Triton Thursday In Bi-County Action

Culver's Indians fought a much larger Triton team on pretty even terms for the first half but fell victim to the size disadvantage to drop their opening game in the Bi-County tourney by a 66-45 score. The game, played Thursday night, found the Indians being eliminated from the tourney and lowering their season record to 2-12.

Triton scored first getting a pair of baskets. Loren Enders hit from under on a rebound and then Long tossed in a basket. Stu Lowry hit for Culver and then tied the score a minute later with a shot from the side. Lowry then added a free throw with the quarter half gone to give Culver a 5-4 lead. Steve Stoneburner and Jeff Krueger traded baskets before Mike Cook pushed Triton ahead for good with a basket. Enders hit again from in close but Terry Gentry tossed in a one hander from the corner. Stoneburner made it 12-9 Triton with an 18 footer but Corky Overmyer hit one of two Triton open the gap to six. Kerry Haenes hit a jumper, but Stoneburner connected for two points in close. Lowry tossed in another basket to cut it to four, but Dave Reichard hit two baskets in the final minute to give the Trojans a 32-24 halftime lead.

Margin Starts To Widen

The second half was a little different. Triton had been trying to work in closer in the first half than they did in the second. They began to connect on shots from 15 to 25 foot to open up more of a margin and also put additional pressure on the Indian offense to force them in their effort to play catch-up basketball. Long hit first, but Haenes tossed in an offsetting basket. Ganshorn hit again for Triton and this time it was Overmyer with a two-pointer for the Indians. Enders and Stoneburner hit consecutively before Haenes hit again, this time from 19 foot. Stoneburner and Ganshorn came back with Triton scores as the Trojans were slowly widening their lead in the game. A last second shot by Overmyer climaxed the period as the Trojans had gained a 14 point lead by this time, 47-33.

This lead was quickly stretched to 20 in the opening minutes of the final period and from this free throws. A three-point play by Long with 1:08 left in the quarter pushed Triton to a 15-12 lead and from here they moved to a 17-14 first quarter lead.

In the second period, the Indians were able to stay with the Trojans although never catching up with them. A pair of free shots by Krueger trimmed the margin to one before Cook and Enders hit back-to-back in the first three minutes of action. Lowry then pegged in two jumpers in rapid succession to again cut the lead to one, 21-20, only to have a brief point streak by point out, the two teams battled on about even terms. The final score was 66-45 Triton.

LORD DISMISS US

By Michael Campbell

A marvelously touching, funny, and truthful novel already hailed by leading authors and critics as a book that will establish Mr. Campbell in the front rank of British writers. This novel tells of the extraordinary effect that the cloistered life of a boy's school has upon the students and masters alike.

Weatherhill, an old and tradition-bound school, atrophying in the Buckinghamshire hills, is rudely shaken when its new headmaster, concerned with neither human values nor school tradition, embarks on a program of purge and revolution.

The author peoples Weatherhill with an unforgettable cast of characters, overwhelmed by the tri-gonic events meant to restore the school's faded grandeur: among them, Carleton, a student in his final year before going to Oxford, who learns that love can and does exist. Ashley, a brilliant erratic young instructor who sees in Carleton the person he himself was at that age; and Dr. Rowles, assistant headmaster, torn by respect for his associates and his loyalty to a school he regards as home.

Every page shows an author who can evoke laughter, pity, outrage and concern and one who, with this book has created a brilliant work of art.

Voice Of The People

It was with deep regret that I learned of the death of Mrs. Ethel Smith Zechiel. She was my teacher when I graduated from the eighth grade in country school. As one who has spent a lifetime in the field of education I can say that she was not only a good teacher, but she was a great one. Whatever may have been lacking in the old Hibbard School, according to present educational standards, she made up for it with her fine qualities as a teacher and as a person. As the wife of a minister for many years, I am sure she touched the lives of many people in the same way.

THE SCHOOLBELL

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE PRESS CLUB OF CULVER HIGH SCHOOL

The smoke signals are coming into the old teepee rather few and far between these days because everyone has been too busy cramming for exams to do anything else, to say nothing of bothering to send up smoke signals about it.

Hey, what's this we hear of Jan's new name? Bucky — what?? You can chalk this one up as another French Class Folly.

Susie T., what is so funny about Kerry Haenes? Whatever it is, it can't be all that bad.

Happy birthday to Pam S. and Freddy M. Now that they're sixteen we have only one more month to be safe on the roads — or do we?? Oh, we heard that Pam received a very practical present. For more information ask her.

The Sunshine Dance is coming up on February 17 so everybody must be sure and make plans ahead of time. (A paid political announcement.)

There seemed to be a sickness going at the South Central ballgame. It attacked Karen S. the worst. Karen, what did you say you felt like?

Chuck "Rapunzel" Beck looks great with long hair. It's too bad he wasn't born a girl.

Linda Shirrel really seems to have had a great week — seven stitches in her chin and wrecked car. But of course the accidents weren't your fault, they just happened to you.

Gary H. really enjoyed the Shakespear performance at the Academy.

Godzilla is coming to Culver next week. (?)

Hey it seems as if Chuck B. has a rough time keeping on the road. (He wiped out on "Dead Man's Curve"!)

Kitty, we hear that everyone was giving you a hard time at the South Central game. It being the president of the Pep Block really worth all the pain.

It seems that two of Culver's well known juniors were stranded down by the riverside last Saturday and had to thumb a ride back. (Names withheld to protect the innocent.)

Well, another senior girl is out of circulation — Congrats on getting your ring, Laura.

The sophies really worked hard to produce the poster in the study hall. Even the juniors and seniors like this one!

Suddenly there comes an unfamiliar sound from the girls Pep Block. Who could it be? Oh, just those fantastic (?)

you can tell which class wrote most of teepee this week) juniors. Their new yell "He's 'Out of Sight' is really (if you'll excuse the pun) out of sight!

Hey, Stu, who was that cool girl you were with at the South Central game? Oh, you say it was only Kerry trying on Susie's fall. You sure had us fooled!!!

Well, we've gotta' run outside and look for some more smoke signals so see ya' next week!

Mr. Lawson Is A Deltiologist

By Linda Reinhold

One of our high school teachers is engaged in the unusual hobby of deltiology (collecting postcards.) Mr. Lawson is a social studies teacher and likes to travel a lot, which accounts for his having collected his many postcards.

Mr. Lawson first started collecting postcards in 1945 when he was trying for a merit badge in Boy Scouts. He didn't get very many postcards, but the idea fascinated him, and he began collecting them in earnest.

You may think that postcards take up a lot of room, but Mr. Lawson's 14,000 postcards are snuggled in a nice little filing cabinet. This cabinet has 14 small drawers — each containing certain states which are then divided into their major cities. The postcards are also arranged in chronological order.

In his varied collection he has postcards of artist's painting, animals, ways of traveling from 1917 to the present, foreign countries, the rulers of Russia, the World's Fair and Expo '67. Name anyplace or anything and chances are Mr. Lawson can show you a postcard depicting it. Contrary to popular belief all postcards do not come in paper. Mr. Lawson has wooden postcards, leather postcards, and even some that squeak when you press on them.

If anyone has any postcards he would like to trade, contact Mr. Lawson and he will be happy to oblige.

EDITORIAL

By Jan Price

Whether or not it is evident to some members of our school, it is a well known fact to most students that making posters is both time consuming and money consuming project. It is for this reason that no one appreciates having their posters ripped down.

It is rather maddening to spend several evenings making a poster to have it ripped from the wall the morning it is put up.

The people who would do this sort of thing are not the ones who devote their time to making posters for their own class. Possibly they think that because they have nothing of which to be proud, no one else should be allowed pride in their accomplishments either.

The posters of one year would still be appropriate the next basketball season. The excuse that they were done with it anyway" is rather weak.

The only solution I can offer is that these people take more of an interest in their class and school activities and possibly acquire a pride in this sort of participation, and if not, at least a respect for the efforts and achievements of their fellow students.

By Suzi Riester

The Sunshine Society held its meeting for January on Wednesday, January 10. At this meeting the Sunshiners elected the "Girl of the Month" for February on the basis of scholarship. Miss Kathy DeWitt, a senior, was elected to this position. Plans were mapped out for the dance that the Society is sponsoring in February, and the Sophomores were informed about the skits they have to present at the February meeting.

MOMENT OF TRUTH

By Charles Osborn

After 18 weeks of basic training, I now face the moment of truth. Having been through many smaller skirmishes the consensus of my superiors is that I am fully prepared to meet the task ahead. Viewing my fellow comrades, I notice the familiar symptoms of battle; the shaking of the hands and chattering of teeth, some grasping tightly to any favorite good luck charms they may possess, and yet others mumbling last minute prayers.

After a hurried breakfast each combatant checks his weapons to make certain they are sharpened and ready for battle. It is now too late to turn back and the next few hours mean life or death to all of us. My confidence turns to fear as I approach the area I was assigned.

Orders are orders, but is this ordeal really necessary? Why should I be here while others are enjoying their freedom? Suppose I panic and run screaming from the field of battle! Home seems far away at this point but we all must forget our doubts and get on with the job to be done.

It has been a long hard fight, but I've made it. My semester exams are over.

Band Contest

Kathy Tasch

Culver High School band members will participate in the solo and ensemble contest again this year. The contest is state wide and is held every year at this time. The district contest will be Saturday, February the 3rd at Argos High School. Winners with group one entries will go to the state contest in Indianapolis. Culver has a total of 43 solos and 21 ensembles with 84 individuals playing. The junior and senior band members, under the direction of Mr. Byfield, are now preparing for this event.

Culver Junior High Sports

By Perry White

On January 8, the Argos junior high teams traveled to Culver to meet the local junior high. The Culver seventh grade won the opener by a score of 40 to 23. Chester Marshall of Culver had team and game honors with 14 points. Sheetz of Argos had 7 in a losing effort.

The eighth grade had a much tougher contest and were edged out 34 to 36. Treber and Jennings both of Argos had 15 and 13 points respectively to pace their team. Isalah Stokes and Doug Mikesell led Culver's scorers with 9 apiece.

On January 11, the junior high traveled to Bourbon to take on Triton. The seventh grade played its toughest game of the season and were soundly defeated 67 to 34. Trowbridge and Sharpe had most of Triton's points with 25 apiece. Mikesell had 11 points for the Culver squad. Thus far, the eighth grad's record stands at 4 and 5.

Spanish Club News

By Ana Barrabes

The Spanish Club of Culver High School sponsored a sale of candles during Christmas. The candles were beautifully scented and decorated and brought a good amount of funds into the club's treasury. Also during Christmas the club had a party. There were about 30 students present and we had a pinata. After the pinata was broken, there were goodies and records in the cafeteria. Everyone just had a great time.

There will be an exchange student from Chile coming today. She will be staying with the Kline family of Culver.

A committee was elected to choose the club pins for the club which will be ordered soon.

We are also thinking out the idea of having a sidewalk cafe during spring. This project will be sponsored by the Spanish and French Clubs.

Will all the members please pay their dues! — a paid political announcement.

Cheerleading And Honor Awards Given At CHS

By Norma Davis

Friday afternoon the student body of Culver High School assembled in the gymnasium to view the presentation of the cheerleading and honor awards.

Mr. Crosley presented Cheerleading Awards to Susie Thews, Linda Fisher, and Lyn Mackey. A cheerleader has qualified for this award when she is a senior in high school. Lynn Mackey and Linda Fisher both received sweaters while Susie Thews received a black blanket with an orange C in the center.

Mr. Wolfe then presented honor sweaters to the deserving students. To qualify for an honor sweater the students must be a senior in high school and have at least a 9.5 average out of a possible 11.0 points. Those receiving honor sweaters were James Taber with a 10.6 average, Susie Thews, with a 10.00 average, Stu Lowry with a 10.1 average, Susie Donnelly with a 10.5 average, Gary Davis with a 9.68 average, and Kathy DeWitt carrying a 10.0 average.

These deserving students, both cheerleading and honor, have worked very hard in the past few years, and the awards which they received were just a small token of the school's appreciation for the long hours which they have put in to become more reliable and outstanding students.

He can analyze a policy . . . tell you what is good and what's bad and then advise you on the right one to buy from any of a group of companies.

Culver Bible Church Organizes Women's Group

The ladies of the Culver Bible Church met Monday morning, Jan. 22 at 10 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Ray Clem. The purpose of this meeting was to organize a womens group of the church.

Mrs. Joe Boetsma, Sr. gave the devotion based on the topic "hindered prayer."

They also discussed improving the nursery facilities and they need at this time, a playpen, chest of drawers, and a high chair. If you have any of these items, please call Mrs. Clyde Craft, 842-3692.

Refreshments were served during the discussion. The next meeting will be Feb. 19.

METHODIST ADULT FELLOWSHIP TO MEET

The Adult Fellowship of the Methodist Church will meet Thursday, Jan. 25 in Fellowship Hall. There will be a covered dish dinner at 6:00 p.m. Everyone planning to attend should bring their own table service.

Ted Clarno will present a program of "Interesting Hobbies".

CRESCENT CLASS MEETS

The Crescent Class of the Grace United Church of Christ held their first meeting of the new year in the church social rooms on Jan. 17 with 14 members present.

The president, Mrs. Wilfred Craft, welcomed those present and read an article, "A new Beginning." Business was then conducted.

Mr. Jones, of the Indiana Heart Association at Indianapolis, showed films and gave a very informative talk on heart facts and heart preventatives.

Mrs. Craft presented a meditation on, "God's goodness in the old year," and ended with a prayer.

The mystery packages was won by Mrs. Harold Baker. Hosts for the evening were Mrs. Harold Hohman and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Craft.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Some men can't find words for their thoughts—others can't find thoughts for their words.

INGREDIENTS

Public sanction and approval is an indispensable factor in any lasting victory.

Trust

"I will put my trust in Him."

— Isaiah 8:17

Speaking to the Hebrews, Paul the Apostle reminded that Christ was perfect through sufferings and remained ever faithful as the "Captain of . . . salvation."
This by no means should be construed to the effect that Christ welcomed temptations and tribulations. The opposite is true. Christ suffered humiliation, pain, even death, because it was God's will and it was God's promise that mankind should have opportunity to earn salvation.
Because Christ did "taste death for every man", there is a clear pathway to salvation. We make the first step when we place our faith and our trust in God.

Academy Sports

Culver Military Academy's varsity basketball, wrestling and swimming teams enter five contests in the next week.

The basketball Eagles, claiming a 7-3 record, have two home games this weekend. They meet Howe Military School at 4:15 and 6:30 Friday and face Argos Saturday at 6:15 and 7:45.

The wrestling team, undefeated in dual competition, sponsors its own invitational Saturday at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. with Penn, Niles and Knox as guests. For the first time in the quadrangular's history, two mats will be used to help speed up the competition.

Culver will match its undeated record and last year's individual champions, Jack Scharff and Dan Hoelscher, against defending champion Niles' balance and consistently strong team.

The 6-1 swimming team faces St. Joseph, Mich., in a rescheduled meet at 4:15. Then the team travels to Kokomo for a meet Monday at 5:30. Last year Culver broke Kokomo's long undefeated in the Academy pool, and Kokomo should be out for blood.

The Eagle basketball team beat Hawken School Saturday in its first game with the Cleveland school, 61-51. Tom Matlock led Culver scoring with 20 points, followed by 15 from Gordie Delk. Tim Marshall, a Hawken player, scored 28 points. Hawken sped into the first quarter lead, but Culver took over for the rest of the game.

Culver shot 26 for 66 field goal attempts and 9 for 16 free throws for a 14 percent shooting advantage over Hawken. The Eagles surpassed Hawken in rebounds, 63-19 and the junior varsity beat Hawken, 42-36.

The freshman basketball team boasts an 8-1 record after defeating Kewanna Saturday, 31-21.

The varsity wrestlers took team honors Saturday in the first Fort Wayne Concordia Quadrangular. The Academy had 54 points to Muncie South's 45, Concordia's 36 and Fort Wayne Snider's 14.

Tuesday the wrestlers defeated Valparaiso, 33-11. Pins were scored by Hill, Scharff and Hoelscher, and Schlotterer, Hayward, Rich Rafes at 145, Roger Bird at 154, Killian and Jon Hobson at heavyweight scored decisions.

Thursday's swim meet with South Bend Jackson went right down to the wire, and Culver had to recover from the recent 50-46 defeat to Jackson in the South Bend Adams relays. The teams were tied 44-44 before the final event, the 400-yard freestyle relay. The team of Steve Hawkins, Roger Benson, Bob King and Hiram Smith clinched the meet, 51-44.

The 160 medley relay team of Steve Swale, Dave Brown, Tom Jones and Hawkins opened the meet with a win, followed by victories by Mark Krone, 60 and 100 freestyle; King, 100 butterfly; and Swale, 100 backstroke.

Things got so tight that Mike Schneider broke Culver's 400 freestyle record with a 4:35.15, placing third in the event; Tom Jones brought his time down in the 100 butterfly by six seconds; and Steve Swale broke his own record again in the 100 backstroke with a 1:01.4. Monday's meet at South Bend Riley netted the swimmers a 62-33 victory and a 6-1 record. Culver won seven of the 11 events with the help of the teams undefeated relays.

SELF-DISCIPLINE

Folks are demanding more and more horse-power when what we need is more will-power.

The world would be in a lot worse shape if some men preached what they practiced.

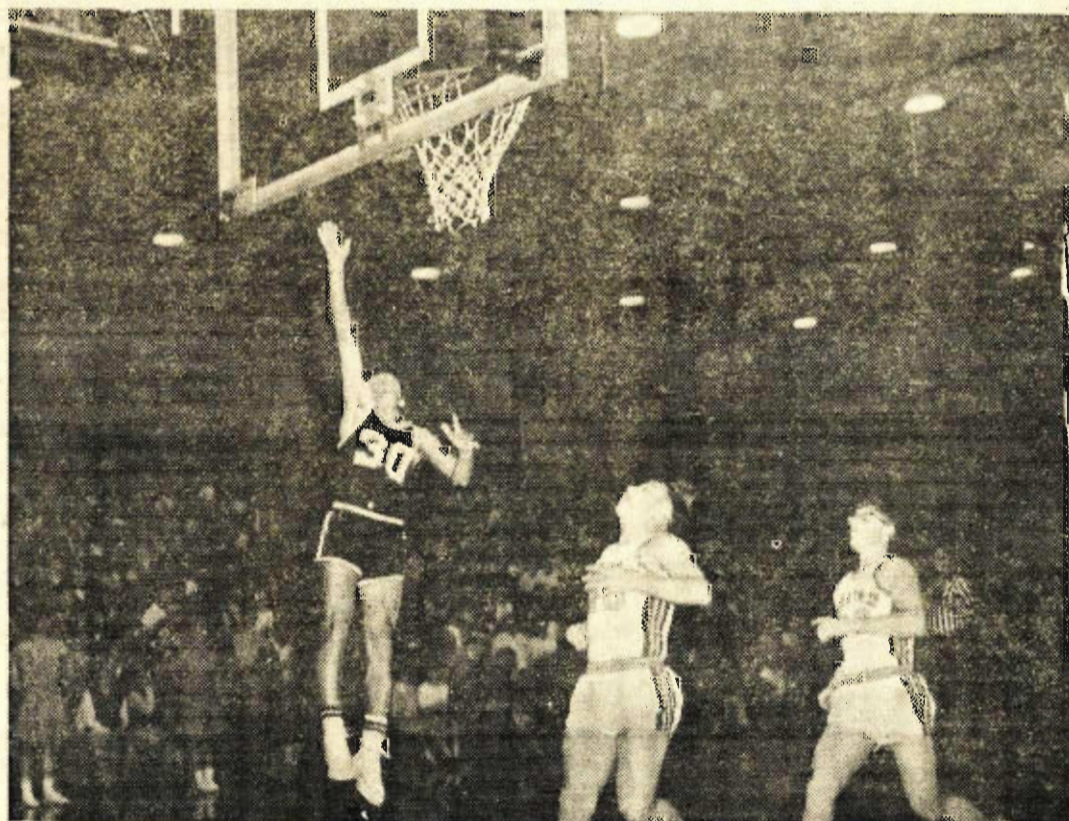

Some take desperate chances because they've nothing to lose.

GOLDEN TOUCH OF HOSPITALITY

Normal as Blueberry Pie

But this pie is not a normal Blueberry Pie! It is deliciously different due to a smooth cream cheese layer beneath the blueberries. Together, they make a delightful flavor combination. Since this pie is made with canned blueberries, it can be enjoyed anytime in the year.

Blueberry Ribbon Pie

- | | |
|--|---------------------------|
| 1 baked (9 inch) pastry shell | 1/2 teaspoon vanilla |
| 1 (1 pound) can blueberries | 1/4 cup sugar |
| 1 (8 3/4 ounce) can crushed pineapple | 2 tablespoons corn starch |
| 1 (8 ounce) package cream cheese, softened | 1/4 teaspoon salt |
| 2 tablespoons sugar | 1 tablespoon lemon juice |
| | Whipped cream |

Drain blueberries and pineapple separately, reserving syrup from each. Blend cream cheese, 2 tablespoons sugar, vanilla and 2 tablespoons pineapple syrup. Mix in drained pineapple. Spread in bottom of baked pastry shell. Chill.

Blend 1/4 cup sugar, corn starch and salt in saucepan. Combine blueberry syrup and remaining pineapple syrup; add water to make 1 1/2 cups. Blend into corn starch mixture. Stirring constantly, bring to boil and boil 1 minute over medium heat. Stir in berries and lemon juice. Cool completely. Spoon over chilled cream cheese layer. Top with whipped cream before serving.

HOT HEADS DON'T HAVE COOL NOSES
KEEP A COOL NOSE, it might make a difference on whether your brain performs properly! Some enlightening developments on blood temperature and its relationship to brain temperature have just been discovered at Iowa State University. The work demonstrates, specifically, a relationship between brain temperature and temperature of blood flowing from the nose toward the brain. Man has known for ages that anger generates a full head of steam and that people flying around in a cage simply cannot think properly. Now, it can be said, with some degree of responsibility, that the fellow who can keep a cool nose also can keep his brain alert and functioning normally.

USE of radioactive iodine in treatment of patients with thyroid disease does not cause leukemia, contrary to speculation, reports the University of Cincinnati. The reassuring news for hyperthyroid patients is based on a study of 36,000 patients. The university says that hyperthyroid patients treated with radioiodine show no increase in leukemia rate over patients with the same disease who have been treated surgically. Medical science does not yet know the cause of this disease of overactivity of the thyroid gland.

IF SCIENTISTS can find some way to make clouds last longer the Arizona desert might solve its water problems, says a University of Chicago meteorologist. He reports that clouds in the Southwest grow very, very slowly for about 20 minutes and do not undergo an appreciable change in size for as long as an hour. To reach a drizzly size takes about two hours, which is several times beyond the life span of a cloud.

CARBON DIOXIDE, the fizz in soda pop, also sparkle in the profits of foundries. Carbon dioxide process molds for casting of aluminum parts and products speed up production and reduce costs, reports Cardox, Chicago. The gas is injected into a sand mix, producing a mold that turns out aluminum castings as good as those made from shell-molded castings and approaching die-casting standards.

BULLHEAD FISH may not smell good, but they do smell well, say two University of Michigan researchers. They report that bullheads, common freshwater catfishes, communicate with each other by means of chemical stimuli. Their social behavior is based on the ability to recognize individual bullheads by sense of smell clues. The researchers found that the fish, blindfolded, could distinguish one bullhead from another by smell alone.

WINDS BLOW FRESH WATER TO ISLANDS

FRESH WATER drawn from the air is a low-cost method of supplying many islands and coastal regions of the world with drinking water, according to two Columbia University oceanographers. They say that water could be obtained through condensation of atmospheric moisture from humid, maritime winds. Every day more than 300 million gallons of water, in the form of vapor in the lower atmosphere, sweep across every mile of islands shoreline exposed to the trade winds.

CLASS-CUTTING students at Iowa State University can look with envy on 150 students there who enrolled in an introductory psychology course and were required to "not attend" class. They receive taped lectures, carphones, tape recorders and a booklet of blackboard drawings as part of an experiment to compare this teaching method with regular scheduled lectures. Another 200 students are taking the same course in the conventional manner. Both groups take the examinations, see films and have the same access to their lecturer. Results of the program will be analysed by the psychology department to determine whether there are any significant differences or handicaps associated with the two methods.

A 'SQUEEZE PLAY' is going on in the streets of some of the nation's large cities and is resulting in more durable traffic markings. According to Holland-Suco Color Company, plastic traffic markings are being inlaid into asphalt during original paving ing or resurfacing of a street. The plastic tapes, letters and numerals are placed on the asphalt and pressed into the surface by a roller. The firm said the Presslabs traffic markers replace painted street markings.

THE BEST FARMERS in the world may be a tribe of tropical ants, according to researchers at the University of Michigan. The ants eat only one thing, a fungus, and they grow it themselves. If they abandon their fungus garden, the fungus dies. Worker ants of various sizes sometimes cut pieces of leaves from their nests, and carry the pieces back to the nest, where gardener ants cut the leaves into smaller pieces and plant a fungus growth on them. The fungus gardens are continually fertilized by the application of chemicals secreted by the ants.
