

Randall Harper Dies Friday As Result Of Fire

Randall Harper, 79, of South Main St. died at 8:30 a.m. Friday, March 15 as a result of smoke inhalation after having been rescued from his burning home Thursday night. Wally Dinsmore was passing the home when he noticed the fire and turned in the alarm. Mr. Harper was alone in the house and had tried to put out the fire himself. Due to some very quick action the firemen were able to keep the blaze from Mr. Harper while Officer Sam Madonna and Fire Chief Dave Burns pulled him from the fire and smoke filled home. The fire was believed to have started around a coal stove.

Officer Madonna would like to commend Dave Burns and his firemen for the tremendous effort they put forth; Dr. George Robero, who applied external massage and successfully revived Mr. Harper; and the Easterday - Bonine Ambulance Service who rushed him to the Parkview Hospital.

Mr. Harper was born Sept. 22, 1888 at Brooke Haven, Miss. to James and Cora Harper. He had resided in Culver since 1923 and was retired from C.M.A.

He was married in Terre Haute, March 11 1923 to Marvel Redmon who survives.

Surviving with his wife are three sons, James of Chicago, Isaac, U.S. Army in Korea, and Randall C. of Seat Pleasant, Md.; four daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Winston of Stanford, Cal., Mrs. Coralee Fowles of Warren, Ohio, Mrs. Doris Owens and Miss Eunice Harper, both of Terre Haute; one sister, Mrs. Eunice Brooks, Jackson, Tenn.; two brothers, George and Thomas Harper, both of Jackson Tenn.; and seventeen grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Sunday with Rev. Joseph A. Lenk, pastor of St. Mary's of The Lake Church officiating. The W. A. Fleet Post of the American Legion conducted grave side services for the World War I veteran.

Burial was at the Culver Masonic Cemetery. The Easterday-Bonine Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Culver City Club Plans Arts And Craft Show

Plans are being finalized for the Fourth Annual Art and Crafts Show sponsored by the Culver Club from April 21 to 27 in the Culver Library basement.

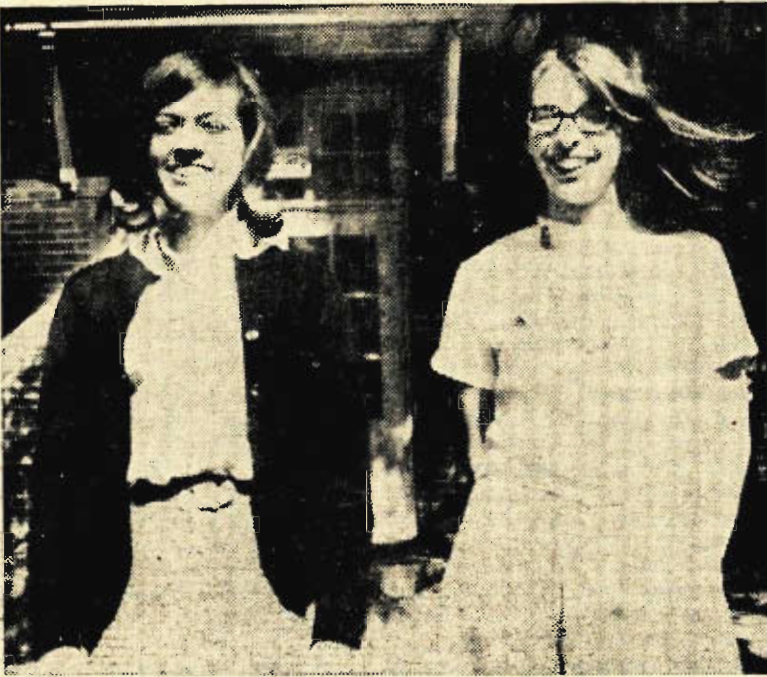

Any person from Culver or formerly from Culver may enter the show. Entry blanks are included in the letters which are being mailed this week to known interested persons but anyone not receiving one and wishing to enter is urged to call Mrs. Wilber Taylor. It is hoped that a large group from the community will participate in the exhibit.

Entry blanks should be returned to Mrs. Taylor by April 17. Entries will be limited to two pictures in any media, sculpture, ceramics, needlework and other crafts done in recent years and not exhibited here in previous shows. Pictures must be wired for hanging and names must be on each article.

The community is urged to visit the show. Last year forty-one local hobby artists exhibited ninety pieces of art and over three hundred visitors registered during the week.

Your chance for advancement lies in your doing your best work today — not tomorrow.

Choose Local Girls State Delegate

By Kathy Tasch

The privilege of attending Hoosier Girl's State is an honor given to one girl and an alternate who can best fulfill certain qualifications. This year's representative is Miss Debra Triplet, a junior at Culver High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Triplet of R.R. 2, Culver, Indiana. Debbie is an active member of National Honor Society, Student Council, the CHS Band, Sunshine Society, Schoolbell, Rainbow, and various other school activities. She was also the recent Homecoming Queen and a cheerleader for CHS.

Bonnie Albert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Albert, R.R. 2, Culver, Indiana, has been chosen Hoosier Girls State Alternate. Bonnie participates in National Honor Society, the CHS Band, Sunshine Society, and other school organizations.

Hoosier Girls State is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

The purpose of this organization is to instruct girls in the rights, privileges, and opportunities of being a citizen of the United States. This is presented by a realistic experience with the democratic system of government. Special emphasis is placed on the contribution women can have in their own community.

The twenty-seventh annual session will be held through the week of June 23-29 at Bloomington, Indiana, and will use the facilities of Indiana University. Miss Triplet is to be congratulated on this award as the Culver High School representative to Hoosier Girl's State.

Setzler To Head "Will Erwin For Congress" Group

Frank M. Setzler, Culver, Indiana, retired Head Curator of the Department of Anthropology of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington D.C., is the Chairman of the Marshall County Will Erwin for Congress Committee. He was the first Indiana State Archeologist from 1928 to 1930.

Setzler, a Republican Precinct Committeeman, is former Vice President of the Culver Chamber of Commerce, served as President of the Lake Maxinkuckee Association and was Chairman of the successful Marshall County G.O.P. Lincoln Day Dinner this year.

In a letter to Marshall County Republican leaders, Setzler said, "I am impressed by the fact that Senator Will Erwin has acquired such astonishingly varied political experience. All of it contributes to his qualification for major office."

"With my experience in Washington, I believe that the new Third District of Indiana needs a Congressman who will properly represent the entire District. I think, further, that Republicans should nominate the man best equipped to win. I am convinced that Will Erwin is that man."

Commenting on the new Marshall County Campaign Chairman, Will Erwin said, "Dr. Setzler is a man of outstanding scientific and cultural accomplishment. His skill and understanding are going to be valuable assets in our campaign. We are very proud that he has accepted the chairmanship of our committee in Marshall County."

It's Dog Tax Time

Town Dog Tax is now due and payable at the office of the Clerk-Treasurer. If mailed make check payable to the Town of Culver and give the following information: Name, breed and color of dog and whether male or spayed or unspayed female dog. Receipt and Dog Tag will be sent by return mail.

The Dog Tax Assessment as Amended May 4, 1964 reads in part "an annual tax to be levied and collected on all dogs six months old or older, in the amount of ONE DOLLAR for each dog or spayed female dog, the sum of THREE DOLLARS for each unspayed female dog and the sum of FIVE DOLLARS for each additional dog, male or female owned, acquired or harbored within the limits of said Town."

CULVER TOWN BOARD NEWS

George Becker, vice president of the Town Board, presided at the meeting in the absence of Donald Osborn, president.

In a resolution, the Board moved that all sewer and water billings shall be due the first of the month shown on the billing statement and all bills for sewer and water service not paid within 15 days from the due date thereof as stated in such bills, shall be subject to a penalty charge as established by the Public Service Commission and the Town Board of Trustees. This change is to become effective April 1, 1968.

Dave Burns, Fire Chief, was given permission to purchase 30 ft. of chain needed by the fire dept. He also brought to the Board's attention the fact that some hoses will need replacement in the near future.

Charles Groce, Town Marshall, reported that there had been quite a few acts of vandalism, including 7 schoolbuses that had been broken into and gas stolen from some of these. It was decided that the schoolbuses be moved so they will be clearly visible from all sides. Fourteen homeowners had their lawns torn up by some youths that backed their car onto the lawns and then "gunned" the motor leaving deep ruts in the yards.

During the meeting a complaint was lodged against two town employees. The Board will meet with the complainant at an early date to investigate the matter.

Mr. John Downer, Town Attorney stated that he had delivered the water works revenue bonds to the purchaser and the check has been turned over to the Town Treasurer. After professional service costs have been met, this amounts to around $340,000, a part of which is available to be invested until needed. Mr. Downer has worked out a program of short term investments to defray a portion of the interest the town is now paying on this amount.

CULVER FIRE DEPT. NEWS

The Culver Volunteer Fire Dept. has been kept rather busy this last week.

They were called out Saturday, Mar. 16 to extinguish a blaze in the kitchen of the Culver Military Academy. The grease fire caused several thousand dollars damage but was covered by insurance. Two murals in the dining sustained water damage.

Later the same day they were again called to put out a grass fire started by some youngsters playing with fire crackers.

Sunday, Mar. 17 they put out a grass fire between the Becker property and the Howard Clinic.

On Monday, Mar. 18 they answered two alarms at the Jake Siple farm. The first fire was deliberately set in some pine trees; the second was believed to have been started in a corn field by a passing train. A large area was burned and many evergreens destroyed.

Monday evening at 9:30 they were called again to a trailer fire on the county line road. Chief Dave Burns reports that the trailer was gutted.

Indiana Bell Requests Changes In Some Rates

Changes in rates and charges for certain miscellaneous telephone services provided by Indiana Bell were sought by the company today in a petition filed with the Public Service Commission. There would be no change in the monthly rates for most telephone services, the company emphasized.

Under the proposed plan, residence telephone users with three or more phones could elect to pay one monthly charge for a "package" offering containing a choice of optional equipment. In nearly all cases, the packages charged would be somewhat less than is presently paid for use of the several special items.

For example, in areas where Touch-Tone service is available the customer would have an option of paying $5.00 a month over his basic service charge for the use of three push-button phones, in his choice of style and colors of phones and either of two cord lengths.

A similar package charge for three standard rotary dial phones with options as to color and length of cord, would be $1.50 a month above the basic service charge for Culver subscribers. The non-recurring charge for installation of package plans also would be reduced.

Purpose of the offering, the petition said, is to encourage customers to order more complete telephone at one time.

Rate changes are sought in four principal categories of business telephone service. A much simplified rate structure for PBX service, based upon service features instead of items of equipment, was asked.

Under the proposed structure some of Bell's larger PBX customers would pay for their service, depending upon the equipment needed and the scope of the service required.

The mileage charge for foreign exchange service would be reduced from $3.50 to $3 monthly per airline mile to conform more closely with existing private line telephone rates.

The charge for measured time WATS service within the state would be reduced from $220 a month for 15 hour's use to $130 for 10 hour's use. This change is designed to expand the market for high volume long distance usage by businesses, the petition said.

The present semi-public telephone service plan would be substantially revised as a result of cost increases since the last change in semi-public rates was made 17 years ago.

The company also proposes to establish a uniform schedule of charges for telephone service connections, moves and changes throughout the state. These charges now vary, depending on the size of the exchange.

A charge of $7.50 to install move or change main residence phones now applying in most exchanges would apply to any or all home phones in all Indiana Bell exchanges. Charges for business phones would be $10 per installation, move or change for main telephones, and $7.50 for each extension, also in all exchanges.

All repair visits will continue to be without charge.

The company stated that while the proposed changes would increase revenues somewhat, there would be no significant effect on company earnings because of additional expenses to be incurred.

The best nation is that which maintains a high standard of living for the average citizen.

ANOTHER INDIANA STATE basketball tournament is history and Gary Roosevelt has been crowned champion. The Panthers of the Gary School, not a favorite four weeks ago when the firing started, came through strong sectional, very strong regional not so strong semi-state, and of course the final four to earn the title of champions.

ACTION SATURDAY AT the Hinkle Fieldhouse pitted the Panthers in the first game against Vincennes and the second game matched a fine Indianapolis hortridge team and Marion, a very big ball club of almost all underclassmen. Firing began between Roosevelt and Vincennes and despite the fact that neither team looked good at the start, it didn't take too long to see that the muscle featured by Roosevelt was going to win out.

THE GARY SCHOOL HAD three very strong boys under the basket with a fine shooter in Aaron Smith. Add to this two small guards in Robinson and Pendleton who like to put pressure on all over the floor and you have six very strong ball players going for you. The rebounding power of Nelson, McFerson, sixth man Henson and the hot shooting Smith who also is a fine rebounder, and you have a group that if they desired to hit the boards, would be challenged by very few. This was obvious Saturday.

VINCENNES DIDN'T SHOW much at Indianapolis. Their big 7'7" center, Memering, looked at the offset of the game, but the Roosevelt size really took care of his area as the game progressed. Especially strong under the basket was Henson when he got in action and his five out of seven field attempts was a big offensive life. The Vincennes team looked like they were almost afraid and didn't really look impressive although on several occasions they made a good run at the Panthers before falling behind by a sizable margin.

THE SECOND GAME WAS one that really started the thrills. Shortridge was much smaller, but their tremendous jumping ability made them an exciting team to watch. Marion jumped to a first period lead as the Giants were playing good ball. Things looked bad for Shortridge when their center, Holt, got in foul trouble early and had to leave the game, but this didn't stop the Blue Devils at all. If anything it seemed to give them a lift. After leading 18-14 at the end of the first period, it looked like Marion might have been playing just a little too careful, but also they fell way off in their shooting and the Indianapolis entry came back in a rather low scoring quarter to take a 24-23 lead as the Giants only collected five points in the second period.

THINGS BEGAN TO LOOSEN up in the third quarter and with Evans and Allen leading the way, the Shortridge team began to open up a larger margin. However, Marion was not done by any means. They battled back from deficits of up to nine points, but came battling back to trim the lead to a single point before Shortridge again scored. Then came the real excitement. Marion finally tied the count at 56-56 with 18 seconds to go. Shortridge came down the floor and looked like they were trying to set Allen up for the final shot, but the big Marion defense was working hard to stop any shots until they got the ball to Evans on the side. He let a jumper fly over 6'6" Suttor before the buzzer and the ball hit nothing but the bottom of the net to give the Shortridge team an exciting 58-56 win.

THIS SET THE STAGE FOR the finals between Shortridge and Gary Roosevelt. No Gary team had even won a state crow and Roosevelt then took care of that. Once again the Shortridge team was giving away considerable size under the basket and as the game progressed, it was this fact alone that turned the tide to Roosevelt's favor. No one doubted the ability of the much smaller Shortridge boys, but against the big front line of Gary's, well the statistics point out what happened. In the first half, a 32-32 score resulted. However, Roosevelt was ahead in the rebound department 28-11. Also the fouls were important. The Panthers had hit 10 of 13 while Shortridge had on two of three attempts. Shortridge was doing the best job in percentage shooting, but the fact that Roosevelt was controlling the boards gave them a definite advantage in this respect.

FOULS TURNED OUT TO BE extremely important. In the final tally, it was the free throw line that spelled the difference. The one-pointers kept Roosevelt in the game and when the nip-and-tuck battle finally broke open in the last minute and a half, free throws again were important. In all, Shortridge outscored Roosevelt from the floor 56-52, but the 16 free throws to four of Shortridge made the difference.

BOTH TEAMS HAD SOME outstanding boys and heroes at various times. However, the thing that impressed most people was the overall power of these two clubs. There wasn't any shooters in the games that could match Smith and Evans, but the board strength by the forwards and centers and the ball handling display most of the time by the guards, proved the all-round power of the clubs.

FOUR HUNDRED AND eighty-eight teams started the play and 487 bowed out along the way as Gary Roosevelt reigns supreme for another year. However, don't be surprised if once again some drastic changes come about come tourney time next year. This year it was just one favorite after another falling, starting in the opening rounds of the Sectionals. This was the year for the upset, proving once again that anything can happen in an Indiana basketball game, and certainly in the state tourney.

MUCH SPECULATION HAS been kicked around on what will happen next year in many areas. The number of schools will continue to dwindle as the reorganization continues to cut its path through the number of schools. However, new gyms, fieldhouses and constant building will continue to shift scenes from one place to another and in this area much change could be seen. It is expected that South Bend will have a double sectional such as Ft. Wayne has as the new Notre Dame convocation center with its some 12,500 seating for basketball will be ready. If this is the case, we hope to see regionals at both South Bend and Elkhart, doing away with such as the Logansport center in the old Berry Bowl. What will happen when the semistate alignment comes up, remains to be seen. Ft. Wayne has been a fine host for the northeastern part of the state for years and whether or not the coliseum will lose this meet remains to be seen. At any rate, basketball in Indiana will continue to give to all the thrills and excitement such as was displayed all over the state this year right down to the final battle Saturday night.

Ball State Program To Aid Librarians

Because of the critical shortage of librarians for elementary and secondary schools, public libraries and college and university libraries, Ball State University will offer a graduate program leading to a Master of Library Science degree.

Dr. Marion Grady, Ball State librarian, said the graduate program will begin the fall quarter although students may enroll in courses during the summer terms.

A number of assistantships are available to qualified graduate students for the academic year. Stipends, Dr. Grady said, range from $2,400 to $2,750, depending on previous experience.

Candidates without previous academic training in library science will need to take a preparatory core of work required of undergraduate library science

Culver Community School Board News

A Preliminary Teacher Curricular Organization for the Culver Community Schools District was presented in detail to the Board of School Trustees at their regular meeting this week.

The Survey of the preliminary plans shows predicted enrollment of 500 for the unified high school. In 1968-69, the Monterey, Aubbeenaubee and Culver High Schools will be unified and present plans call for them to occupy new high school building now under construction north of Culver.

In grades K-8, a preliminary redistricting involves shifting of forty-four pupils. If such redistricting is activated, the enrollment of the Middle Schools, Grades 6-8, would be 628 at Culver, 64 at Aubbeenaubee, and 46 at Monterey. The predicted enrollment of K-5 would be 498 at Culver, 133 at Aubbeenaubee, and 85 at Monterey.

The survey further defined that, under such a reorganization, a staff of 87 teachers would be necessary. It further defined the ratio for the elementary, middle, and high schools as ranging from a low of ten per teacher to a high of 26 per teacher. Further detailed studies with recommended changes will be effected before presentation to the Board for final approval. Coaching and extra-curricular assignments were discussed during the course of the meeting.

Letters of Intent for professional employment, 1968-69, as approved by the Board, include Mary Allen, High School Art; Charles Gene Fisher and Janet Mon, Junior High (Middle) School. A contract for the employment of Claudine Janes, Jacksonville, Florida, Mathematics, was approved.

Staff applications for Title I, Summer School Federal Project, and the credit courses were presented. Board Members will inspect buildings at Monterey, Aubbeenaubee, and Culver on Saturday, April 5, with Principals and Head Custodians participating.

Members of the Holding Corporation and the Board of School Trustees will join at the site of the new high school building on March 22, at 1:30 p.m., to inspect the high school building.

Failure of the paint to hold up on the exterior of the Aubbeenaubee School Gym was again reported. The building, painted during the late summer of 1967, has been inspected by the contracting company and will be redone, it was reported.

Busses were entered on Friday night, March 15th at the parking area of the Culver School, with a loss of some 40 gal. gasoline, 7 axes, and seven fire extinguishers. A meeting between the State Police, Bus Safety Officials, the town police, insurance representatives and school officials was reported.

Time Is Still A Problem

Time is still a hot issue in Indiana. Despite the confusion and contradictions the time issue has had for many years, it is still a problem and one that could cause more hard feelings in the future than it has in the past if that is possible.

Now facing Indiana is the possibility of half the state being on "double fast time" this summer, or rather for the six month period from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday in October. This is due to the fact that the eastern part of the state which is supposed to be on fast time now, is so ordered to follow the Eastern Time Zone by going on Eastern Daylight Saving Time this April 28. This would leave that portion of the state one hour faster than the rest who usually is on Central Daylight Saving Time.

The question then arises, what about the areas that have been operating on fast time this winter that aren't supposed to according to the tie line drawn and adopted in Washington in 1966? Marshall county is one of these counties that according to the boundaries should be on slow time this winter, but chose to make the switch to fast time.

Despite all that has been written and discussed about this time issue, there will be no satisfaction until someone, whether it be the State or the Federal Government makes a decision and makes one that CAN be enforced. To date, there is nothing that can be done to any area that decides to go on what ever time they desire. If enforcement was possible, then it would be something else.

It certainly is getting to be a headache in this area where all the time, one side or the other is effected by the difference in the six winter months. Now to have added confusion possible for the year round, just adds insult to injury. It looks like the chances for the entire state to be on one time is almost an impossibility, but if it must be split, a little more sense can be made than is presently the case where it is just "pot luck" as to who is on what time.

Purple Martins

If more people knew what purple martins would do to the insect population around their homes, there would be more purple martins and fewer insects.

A purple martin, it is estimated can consume its weight in insects every day. A family of them could keep a yard virtually free of flying insects - including mosquitoes - all during spring and summer months. Besides, the bird is desirable to have around. Martins are great people lovers. They get along well with other birds with the exception of hawks, sparrows and starlings. They make a cheerful sound, and interesting to watch and they enjoy apartment houses to live in, especially shiny new ones made by man.

The purple martin can't live for more than 48 hours without an adequate supply of mosquitoes, ants, wasps, daddy long

The Department of Transportation, who has been working on the time issue for some time, set up a line that basically splits the state in half. However, the number of counties that were supposed to be on Central Standard Time and those that are, is two different things.

Many people favor what we have known as fast time all year round while many others like the six months of fast and six months of standard. However, this double fast time would really be a switch. If this is the case, a good share of the state would have daylight in the summer months to 10 p.m. and later, giving them a rather weird day. This happened in Michigan last year and many reports from that state declared dissatisfaction with this set-up as it was simply light too late.

All the letters that can be written, the protests that can be lodged in person and everything else will have little effect now. Mayor Allen in South Bend has already emphasized that South Bend will stay on the time ordered in 1966. This means six months of each fast and slow. However, the decision of Plymouth is something else. They choose to switch to fast time in the six winter months making the difference between St. Joseph and Marshall and Starke and Marshall counties a very inconvenient thing. Now we will have to wait and see what develops this summer as evidently the summer time for Marshall County again will depend upon what Plymouth chooses to do.

The Transportation Department stated they didn't have enough time to work on this situation. However, it doesn't seem like it would take very long to say yes or no to whether the state would be put on fast or slow time. The confusion that has racked Indiana should be answer enough to anyone that a suitable and enforceable time should be reached. Until that time, what time is it can remain to be a very challenged question in Indiana.

legs, horse flies, bugs, beetles, moths, dragonflies, spiders, and other insects which they grab on the wing.

Nest building begins in late April and eggs are laid by mid-May. The young birds make their appearance in about two weeks, with each nest containing from three to five weeks.

Even people who ordinarily spend little time watching birds enjoy the antics of the martins and talking about their personalities. If they like a neighborhood well enough, a whole colony of them will move in.

Purple martins are on their way northward now. They have already arrived in many southern states. If you want to reduce the population of flying insects around your home, you might try attracting purple martins. And if they take up resident in your yard, outside living during those spring and summer days will be more fun and more comfortable.

A man who believed he knew all about parrots undertook to teach what he thought to be a young, mute bird to say "Hello!" in one lesson. Going up to the cage, he repeated that word in a clear voice for several minutes, the parrot paying not the slightest attention. At the final "Hello" the bird opened one eye, gazed at the man and snapped out, "Line's busy."

CULVER COMMENTS

By Alienor Osborn

If all the coffee grounds thrown out after coffee breaks were laid end to end, I'll bet we could fill all the holes in the streets with them during a work break.

No one has called about sighting the first robin of spring. I thought surely at least one would have blown in with last week's blizzard. I don't think people pay too much attention to our little feathered friends any more; they're too busy looking for the first flying saucer of the season. With all the Girl Scout cookies and Sangralea Valley candy I have consumed lately, I hope the rumor is true that one of Culver's enterprising businessmen is going to install exercise equipment in his place of business. We definitely need a place to cut the flab, trim the fat, and shave a few inches here and there.

We should all extend a warm welcome to our new Culverites formerly known as the West Terracer's. Didn't the judge put it beautifully when he wrote "were in fact economically and socially joined"? It sounds so much refined than "joined by water and sewerage lines."

HELPFUL HINTS — Now to the next installment on spring house cleaning. If you have completed the jobs I mentioned last week you are ready to start the kitchen cleaning. Start at the top and work down so that by the time the family rushes in yelling "what's for dinner" you will be on the floor, preferably on your back. Moan feebly and show them a restaurant that features carry-out dinners. If they have any feelings at all this will be hint enough. If they don't, you know how to get even with them without any advice from me.

One time consuming job in cleaning cupboards is to gather all partially filled packages of spaghetti and put the contents in one box; the same goes for cereal, coffee, noodles, and rice. If you have just a little bit left feel free to mix them. After all, that might be the way Rice-A-Roni was invented.

Now take a few minutes to stand back and admire your clean kitchen — it only will look that way until the kids hit the refrigerator.

HOROSCOPE — All signs point to possible accidents so be sure to watch your step, drive carefully, and take your pills. Avoid unnecessary debts and black cast. This is a fine week to repay social obligations; in other words isn't it about time to pay back all those dinner invitations?

Mrs. Mackey is on vacation but I'll be here to answer when you call 842-2297.

Who's "Precious"?

Well you finally did it Stu - a graph without a single flower on it! Wow!

Speaking of Etu, how many people do you need to help take down the flag, anyway? Something funny going on here!

The freshmen band members have been demoted to junior band. Que pasa? Oh - it's just for contest - well, good luck.

Phil, have you figured out what your unknown in chemistry is

Culver Track Team Begins Practice

By Perry white

On March 4 the 1968 Culver High School track team began practice under the supervision of Coaches Kal Waxman and Ray Gangloff. Thirty-three boys have turned out for the team thus far: six freshmen, three sophies, sixteen juniors, and eight seniors. Coach Waxman is in charge of the running events while Coach Gangloff instructs the team in the field events. Each evening after school the boys spend from one and a half to two hours running, exercising, and weight lifting. When asked what goals they hoped to achieve this year Coaches Waxman and Gangloff revealed that they have 1967 titles at the Rochester Class "B" Relays and at the Lancer Relays to defend. They also hope to extend their record of six dual meet victories in a row to a string of ten victories. Both men feel that with a little hard work a very successful final season at Culver High can be attained.

As the spring thunderstorm season approaches check your lightning rod system for defects or loose connections, suggest Purdue University extension agricultural engineers. Look for bent, loose or missing air terminals and see that conductor cables are in good condition. All ground connections should be firm.

A life is more precious than the time you'll save speeding.

Double action bars give the REMINGTON MODEL 870 PUMP SHOTGUN its lightning-fast operation

At least once every minute this season, some hunter will be using chain lightning to connect with his bird. And the double action bars on a Remington Model 870 pump shotgun will have paid off again. Double action bars give the 870 its lightning speed and effortless action. Over a million 870 shooters can so testify. And they can tell you some other solid facts: A receiver machined from solid steel. A breech block that locks into the barrel extension. A finish that looks like a million.

BOOKS YOU WO'T WANT TO MISS

By Susie Donnelly

Books are the key to understanding the world around us and the medium to discovering distant new worlds. Some books should be read by everyone; they are musts. One of these is "Flowers for Algernon," a believable science fiction on novel written by Daniel Keyes, which poignantly portrays the life of Charlie Gordon, a moron who is scientifically treated to become a genius. The brilliance and understanding with which the novel is written lets the reader become Charlie, lets him suffer Charlie's frustrations and enjoy his successes, and forces him to examine the "advances" of the modern world. Another must is John Steinbeck's "The Grapes of Wrath," a tragically realistic novel about the nightmarish lives led by the poverty stricken migrant workers of the U.S. The biting truth of this book makes it one that opens reader's eyes and haunts their minds long after it has been read. "Lord of the Flies" by William Golding is a shocking modern novel concerned with the savage instincts of men. A group of young English school-boys are marooned on an island when tragedy starts to run rampant. The book is convincing, and thought provoking.

Ideas, please contact Mrs. Huff or deposit your idea in the "Hip-psy" box outside the high school office.

Sex Education

By Mike Wynn

One course that is not being offered next year or even being discussed as future course is sex education. The main objectors to this course are parents. The parents say "no" because they want to explain sex to their children themselves. But these objecting parents are the ones whose children grow up ignorant of sex. These are the parents who think that sex is a dirty word, but their children are the ones who grow up in the dark and are in trouble in our fast-paced world. Ours is a world where sex is an everyday word. It is not something to be put aside thinking there will be plenty of time to explain later. People who feel this way realize explain soon enough. These people who are against sex education in the schools are hurting their children more than helping them. Youngsters that learn about sex on their own usually have the wrong attitude toward it. With a sex education course, the students can be properly educated to help them better understand life in our society today.

Make good use of your time and you'll have more to spare.

Operation "Huck Finn"

A group of Culver Military Academy students are going to spend their spring vacation paddling 600 miles in a canoe down three midwestern rivers and into the Mississippi.

The project, called "Operation Huck Finn," will begin at noon on Friday, March 22, on the Tippecanoe River near Winamac, Ind., and conclude on Sunday, March 31 at Osceola, Ark., a Miss. river town about 75 miles upstream from Memphis Tenn. The trip, made mainly for adventure, will be supervised by Mr. William Garrison, history teacher at the Academy.

News Tips From The Monterey Public Library

The March story Hour was held at the Monterey Tippecanoe Public Library on Saturday, March 16th. Sarah Fox was the flag bearer for Pledge of Allegiance. The birthday song was sung to the birthday children: Beth Ann Zehner, Doug Keller, Laura Zehner, Lynn Miller, and Susan Keller.

The St. Patrick's story was told by Mrs. Zehner, libr. also the coming of spring was discussed with the group. Action poems "the more we get together," and etc were played. The game "see something" was also played. The lovely little story "Tubert Turtle" was read and pictures were shown to the group. Refreshments were served to the children attending furnished by the birthday children. The next story hour will be in April and help children discover the meaning of Easter.

Opportunity often works wonders and ability gets the credit.

Club And Class News

By Debbie Triplet and Pam Scott

Seniors: The mighty seniors have been planning and saving for their long awaited trip. Only 3 more days to go!

Juniors: The juniors have begun to plan their play. Try-outs were held and a talented cast was chosen. The juniors have also selected their Prom theme and the decoration committee is vigorously planning its success.

Sophomores: The insecure sophies haven't done much since the first snow fall, but the annual chicken supper is just around the corner, so don't despair.

Freshmen: The freshmen of Culver have held their first successful class party. It sounds like the kids had a real WILD time!

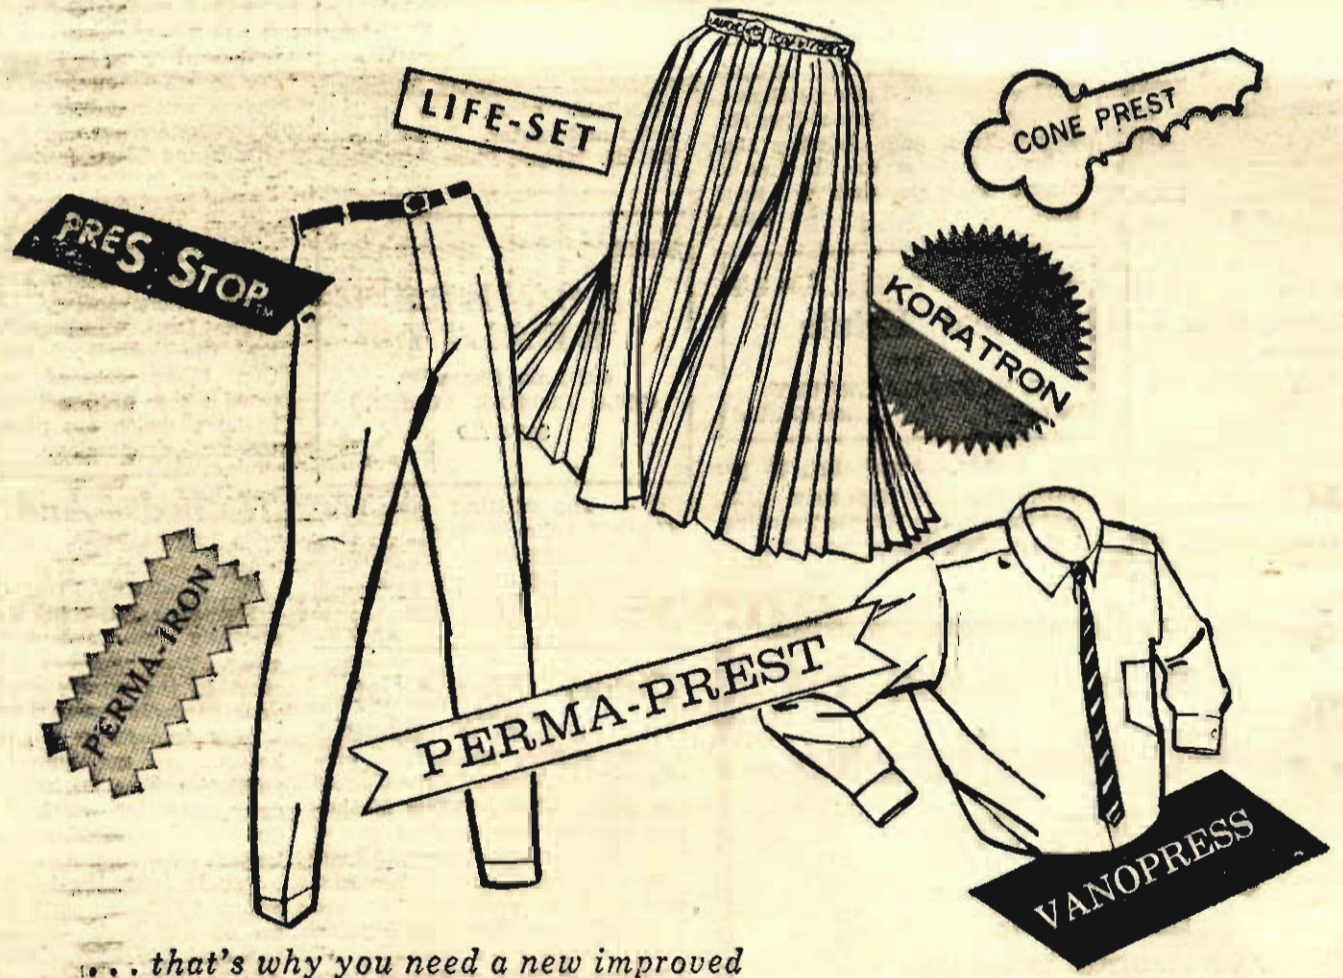

Sunshine: The Sunshine Society has been very busy this past year and intends to make the future months even busier. April 5 will be the Ideal Ladies Party in the gym, and plans are being made to make this the very best one in years. Also they are planning to take part in a clothing drive for the children of Appalachia. If anyone has any surplus clothing, please contact Miss Shanks, Mrs. England, or Susie Donnelly. At the last meeting, Karen Stevenson was chosen Sunshine Girl of the month for April on her personality.

Student Council and National Honor Society: The SC and NHS are planning a dance for April 6. The profits are to be used to buy achievement awards.

Pep Club: The last game of the season has been played and all the student fans have turned in their pep blouses, (all clean and neatly pressed of course). The members of Pep Club nobly decided to leave the remaining money in the treasury for next year's Pep Club.

Schoolbell Staff: The staff of the witty Schoolbell met and discussed how to brighten up the drab school page in the Citizen. Anyone having any fresh, new

Hotbeds And Coldframes Give A Head Start

Hotbeds and coldframes are methods of gardening under glass. They can give you a head start in the spring and extend your gardening season into fall.

Most important reminder for hotbeds and coldframes at this particular time is to give them daily attention, emphasize Purdue University extension horticulturists.

Try to keep the temperatures around 70 degrees until the plants are an inch high, then lower it to about 60 degrees during the day and 50 degrees at night. Open the sash any day that the temperature is about 40-45 degrees. Ventilation is important. If you plan to be gone for a day or two, raise the sash about an inch. Cooler temperatures probably won't do as much damage as the extremely high temperatures.

It's to your advantage to have plants ready for transplanting as soon as weather permits. You may want to start seeds indoors in flats. As the seedlings mature, move or transplant them to the coldframe. This should allow for hardening off, and plants will adjust when transplanted to their permanent position in the garden.

If you are interested in building a hotbed or coldframe, check gardening books or write to the Mailing Room, AES Building, Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind. 47907, for Pamphlet HO 53, "Hotbeds and Coldframes." Single copies are free to Indiana residents. Request it by number and title.

Culver Tri Kappa Chapter Meets

The monthly business meeting of the Tri Kappa was held Monday evening, March 18 at the home of Mrs. Burton Curry.

Mrs. James Pierson presided at the meeting of twenty-eight enthusiastic members who attended.

The Bridge-o-rama committee reported on their plans for the "play off." They asked that all scores be in by April 24th. The first "play off" will be on April 29th at the homes of Mrs. Robert Bolton and Mrs. Donald Faulkner; the second, at the homes of Mrs. Frank Setzler and Mrs. John Edgell on May 6th. All winners will receive notification and further information. If there are any questions Mrs. Edward Schultz or Mrs. Donald Faulkner may be contacted.

The scholarship committee reported that there would be a music clinic at Indiana U. again this year. The membership voted to assist any qualified students who are interested but, otherwise would be unable to attend.

The co-hostesses, Mrs. A. J. Donnelly and Mrs. William Cleavenger, assisted in serving very delicious and spring-like refreshments from a lovely table, decorated in honor of Saint Pat.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Piersol on April 15th. Mrs. Hampton Boswell and Mrs. Gerald Graham will be the assistant hostesses. This is a very important meeting and members are urged to be present if at all possible.

PASTOR AND WIFE ATTEND CONFERENCE

The Rev. Mr. Carl Baker, pastor of the Culver Methodist Church, and Mrs. Baker are attending a meeting of the executive committee of the National Conference on Christian Education of the Methodist Church this week in Nashville, Tennessee.

Mr. Baker is a member of the executive committee of the section on General Church School Work. He is also Northwest Indiana chairman of the Agency on Education.

SCIENCE - FICTION WRITERS, poets, and philosophers prepare society for the changes that science brings about, reports a nuclear physicist at the University of Texas. As an example, he cites H. G. Wells. In 1914 Wells predicted "with amazing accuracy" the Atomic Age, the United Nations, the nonproliferation treaty and other developments that were far in the future.

MAN does not live by bread alone — but if he did, says a University of Wisconsin scientist, his daily bill would be far more than 300 gallons. This amount — well over a ton of water — is the amount required to grow enough wheat to produce 2.5 pounds of bread.

Church Of Jesus Christ Latter Day Saints To Show Film Here Tuesday

A film featuring a Visit to temple Square, showing the temple and grounds in Salt Lake City, Utah, and a motion picture highlighting the famous Mormon Tabernacle Choir, will be presented to the public by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon) Tuesday, March 26, at 7:30 p.m. in the Bank Lounge. Following the films, a question and answer period will be held and refreshments will be served.

This program will be presented in Culver by two Mormon elders assigned to Warsaw. Elder Ken Mathews from Provo, Utah, has served in Michigan and Indiana for 20 months and will return in June to Utah and his regular life. His companion, Elder Denny McLean, Hamilton, Montana, has served the same amount of time principally in Ohio and Michigan.

The rapid growth of the church is believed due to missionary programs where more than 17,000 young men and women volunteer and pay their own expenses for a period of two or two and one half years to tell people of the importance of their beliefs. They are assigned to a particular mission by the present day prophet of the church, David O. McKay, and are then transferred to various towns and companions by a mission president.

The church which was started in New York state in 1830 claiming that through revelation and the visits of heavenly messengers to a young man named Joseph Smith, the church of Jesus Christ was restored to earth in the latter days. But persecution caused the "Mormons," as they were nicknamed, to settle first in Kirtland, Ohio, then later were driven to Illinois and Missouri. From these two states they were driven out in midwinter of 1846, (after the violent death of Joseph Smith) under the leadership of Brigham Young, the second prophet in the church. The Mormon pioneers began their one and one half year trek west to the valley of the Great Salt Lake arriving July 24, 1847.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints has no professional clergy. Lay members are chosen as general and local officers and receive no monetary compensation for their services.

The general authorities of the Church are headquartered in Salt Lake City. These men direct the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church throughout the world.

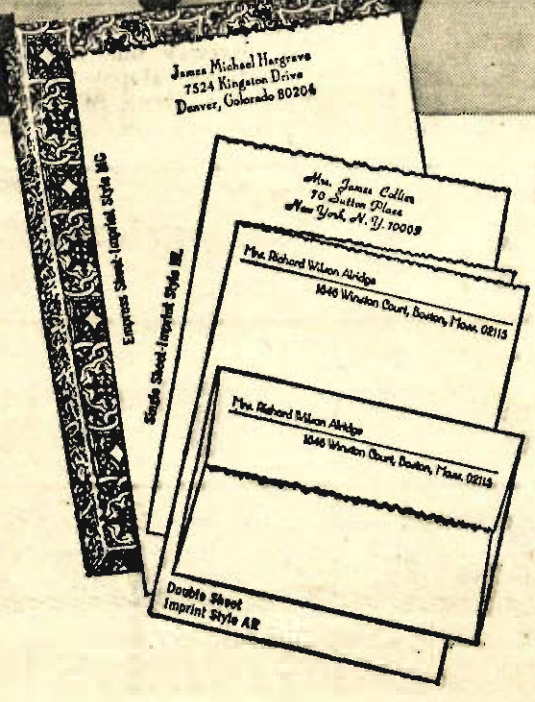

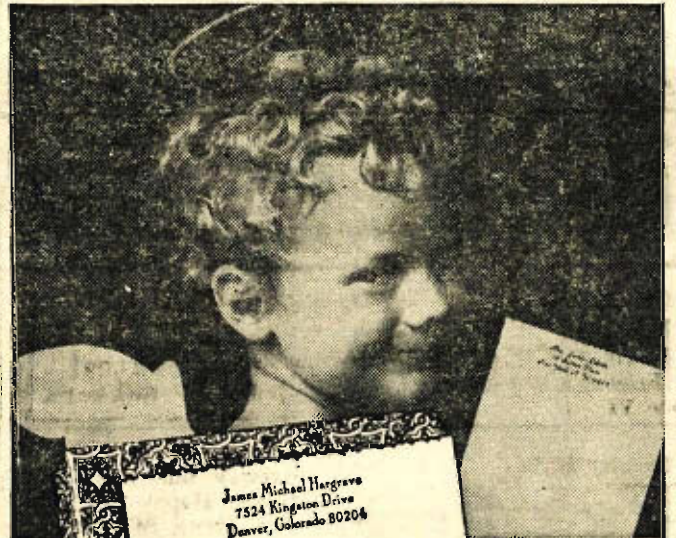

The major geographical subdivision of the Church are designed as stakes and missions. A stake comprises several wards or fully organized congregations broken down into districts and branches. Over each stake is a president and two counselors. Affairs of each ward are administered by a bishop and two counselors.

Liveweight of the 301, 300 head of livestock slaughtered commercially in Indiana during January totaled 112.2 million pounds, report state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University. This was nine per cent above the December, 1967, liveweight, but 10 per cent below the total for January, 1967.

Academy Sports
 Although spring sports competition at Culver Military Academy gets into full swing in April, the track team has already compiled an 8-2 record in its indoor season.
 The indoor season will close with the results of Wednesday's meet against Goshen and Hometown and Saturday's Hoosier Relays in Bloomington. The polo team, sporting a 12-3 record after a 12-8 loss to Cornell University last weekend, will close its season in Canada against the Toronto Polo Club.
 The track team scored a resounding victory at its own six-team indoor invitational. Culver scored 80 1/2 to Gary Andread's 44 1/2, Merrillville's 39 1/2, Peru's 28, Chesterton's 25, and Bremen's 21 1/2.
 Culver runners set three meet records in the invitational, and a Chesterton runner set the fourth record.
 Culver's fencing team wrapped up a 6-4 season with a 17-10 victory over Indiana Institute of Technology last weekend. Capt. Melville K. Short's duelers lost to IIT Jan. 19 but rebounded with victories in two out of three weapons.
