Town Board News

Several concerned citizens appeared before the Culver Town Board Monday night presenting surface drainage problems. Don Osborn, President of the Town Board, assured them that the Board was aware of their problems and intended to do all that was possible with available funds.

Henry Krieg was spokesman for interested property owners in his neighborhood. He stated that since the resurfacing of Slate Street, and after a heavy rainfall, the water accumulates on the south of his house flooding his basement to the extent he has discontinued remodeling plans. Other property owners south of his residence are also bothered with the problem.

Robert presented a petition from property owners on Liberty Street requesting an injunction be filed against the property owners north of the town limits whom they claim are responsible for an increase of drainage on their street. Since in the last three years there has been a change in land contour north of town, the petitioners believe this to be the source of the problem. They also believe there is a law governing the diverting of water and consequently base their request on this law. Mr. Osborn further pointed out the damage caused by the excessive drainage of water on Liberty Street, such as the deterioration of curbs, sidewalks and possible street undermining. Don Osborn informed them that the town attorney would notify them as to the Board's decision. He also pointed out that a plan had been formulated for improvement on surface drainage and the blue prints for same could be examined at East-erday Construction Company.

Robert Hill complained of water not draining off his two lots on South Main Street. He said that when sewer and gas lines were installed he believed tile was destroyed in the process, therefore, water no longer drains off his property. Mr. Osborn said they would investigate the matter and see if the tile could be replaced if such was the case. Mr. Hill also asked what could be done about trespassing on his property. He was told to report such action to the Police Dept. and they would investigate any complaint.

In other action, ordinance 203 against loitering on streets and sidewalks in Culver was presented to the board for further action.

Mr. Lester Houghton was advised in regard to his request for annexation, that Mr. Downing, the town attorney, was working on a legal description of plans for a petition for annexation of certain properties to the town of Culver, which will have to be circulated owners before a new ordinance can be passed.

Verl McFeely reported that the problem of surface drainage on the Franz property on West Street had been investigated. He said the town crew had dug where Mr. Franz said water was bubbling up from the ground. They discovered an old septic tank which was connected to a basement drain in Franz's home. Mr. Franz said he would take care of the matter.

Don Osborn announced that Sam Madonna had been appointed Town Marshall and that Loren "Skip" Kiel and John Lucas had been appointed Deputy Marshalls. Further appointments included Mrs. Glen Schrimsher as school crossing Patrol Lady and Mrs. Ronald Mackey was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Park Board caused by the resignation of Mrs. Clarence Bair.

It was disclosed that Madonna

CMA To Present "South Pacific" Saturday Night

Cathy Mitzell (Nellie Forbush) and Pete Josendale (Luther Billis) sing the Thanksgiving Follies number "Honey Bun" in a scene from Culver Military Academy production of "South Pacific." The musical will be presented May 11, May 18 and June 1.

The cadets and faculty daughters at Culver Military Academy will present Rodgers and Hammerstein's "South Pacific" Saturday (May 11) at 8:15 in Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium.

The first performance is a part of the Academy's Mothers Week end activities, and the cast will again present the musical May 18 and June 1, as a part of the Commencement program.

The musical centers around two love stories told against the background of the Pacific Theater in World War II. Oscar Hammerstein II collaborated with Joshua Logan, a Culver alumnus, in preparing the book for the show.

Assisting the cadets in the production are faculty daughters Cathy Mitzell (Ensign Nellie Forbush), Mayra Perez (Bloody Mary) and Vickie Helber (Liat). The girls are among 16 faculty daughters who attend the Academy.

The male leads for the show are Fred Busse, South Bend, Ind., (Lt. Joseph Cable); Charles Lynch, Plainfield, Ill., (Emile de Becque); and Pete Josendale, St. Joseph, Mo., (Luther Billis).

The musical has produced such standards as "Younger Than Springtime," "Some Enchanted Evening," and "There is Nothing Like a Dame."

Culver's student theater has also produced Archibald MacLeish's Pulitzer Prize-winning "J.B." and Garson Kanin's "Born Yesterday" this year.

Bill Vukovich Among 1968 "Indy" Rookies

Officials in charge of the 52nd annual 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway on May 30 anticipate a busy weekend on the basis of steadily increasing activity ever since the start of practice on May 1.

Most of the 77 cars on this year's entry list, which includes nine turbine-powered contenders, are at the track now; and some of the 15 young drivers, trying to win a starting position at "Indy" for the first time, already have passed the final 155-mile-an-hour segment of their rookie tests.

Two outstanding members of the 1968 "freshman" contingent are Bill Vukovich and Gary Bettenhausen, whose fathers were among the popular "500" veterans of the 1950's. Bruce Walkup, early leader in the "Hoosier Hundred" after setting a new qualifying record at the Indiana State Fairgrounds last fall, also is regarded as a strong contender for "rookie of the year" honors.

Principal interest, however, centers on such favorites as A. J. Foyt, Mario Andretti and Parnelli Jones. Foyt will be trying for an unprecedented fourth victory and Andretti has high hopes of winning the pole position on May 18 for the third straight year. Jones, who dominated last year's race until his turbine car was eliminated by transmission trouble while leading the field with only four laps to go, heads "Offies" and six other varieties the STP team again.

Other drivers assigned to new turbine cars this year include Graham Hill of England, Dennis Hulme and Bruce McLaren of New Zealand, Jackie Stewart of Scotland, Greg Weld and Bob Hurt.

The field also includes 27 of the 255-inch Ford engines, similar to those used in all of the last three winning cars; four turbocharged

Ford units, 21 turbocharged of piston engines.

Practice sessions are scheduled daily, from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. (EST), and the admission charge is 50 cents. Time trials to determine starting positions will be held on May 18-19 and May 25-26 with all seats available on a first-come first-served basis at a price of $2. Only the fastest 33 qualifiers will be in the Race Day lineup behind the Ford Torino pace car.

of Jones' car last year. The influence of the turbine is similar to the one of the rear engine cars not too many years ago. Racing will continue to come up with advancements as this is the story of racing. The sport was started to come with better ideas in cars and speed and if the turbines is the thing of the future, this will be the case. The only problem now is to get the noise back in the car. Many feel that the roar of the engines will be missed greatly by the silent swiftness of the turbines. The roar of the motors and the pop of the slackening off the throttle are all part of the game. However, the race itself is what the people want to see and they will continue to see the battle of man and machine against man and machine. It takes a perfect combination of the two to produce a winner at Indianapolis and this year will be no exception.

concert was held Friday, May 3 in the Monterey High School gym and featured both the Aubbeenaubee High School bands and choirs.

The choir sang first. Their program featured these songs: "This Is My Country," "The Water is Wide," "Open My Eyes," "Gonna Build A Mountain," and "They Call It America". The songs were of a great variety because they were religious, patriotic, and folk music. Then the band played six numbers. The band and choir were both directed by Mr. Clayton Moon who teaches at both schools. The concert was a great success.

At least once every minute this season, some hunter will be using chain lightning to connect with his bird. And the double action bars on a Remington Model 870 pump shotgun will have paid off again. Double action bars give the 870 its lightning speed and effortless action. Over a million 870 shooters can so testify. And they can tell you some other solid facts: A receiver machined from solid steel. A breech block that locks into the barrel extension. A finish that looks like a million.

ACTIVITY IS AGAIN IN full swing at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway as a week of practice, drivers test and testing cars has been completed in preparation for the two big week ends of qualifications coming up. All of this is for the richest and most popular race in the world today, the Indianapolis 500 mile race on Memorial day.

THE YEAR 1968 COULD GO down in history again as the year of the change. Last year Andy Granatelli provided the controversy with his turbine car and had employed one of the great drivers, Parnelli Jones to drive this much talked about, much heralded car. Even before the race and testing the car over the long haul, all the drivers felt that Jones was the man to beat in his silent powerhouse of an automobile which featured four-wheels along with the revolutionary engine. The net result was that they were right.

ONLY A GEAR BOX FAILURE kept Parnelli from being the winner of this race in what developed into almost no contest. Leading comfortably and not really pushing the machine, Jones had it all his way until the fatal failure with less than five laps to go. This let the veteran driver A. J. Foyt come into the winners circle for the third time. However, once again Foyt was labeled a lucky winner as everyone knew Jones had a lot more car than Foyt.

THE ACTION THAT FOLLOWED was something. A restriction was put on cars by USAC that put Granatelli's famous whooshmobile on the sidelines for this year unless he could alter the car for the new standards. He took the case to court trying to leave old number 40 the same, but ended up getting suspended by USAC for a while and the ruling on the size intake and motor remained. Since the trial, big Andy is back in good standings and has a field of six cars entered this year under a company headed by his brother.

GRANATELLI HAS BEEN joined by several others with turbines. The style is different in the new ones with the engine being placed behind the driver as opposed to the side-by-side style

May in Indiana is Safety Check Month for the state and in a drive that began several years ago, each year many vehicles are inspected and approved or at least the owner was given a warning that something was wrong with the car. Again this year May is specified for this check.

Indiana now is planning a mandatory safety check by the State through cooperative garages, filling stations and car agencies. However, this wouldn't be in effect until next year and the rate the program is moving forward, a considerable change will have to take place before next year or it won't get off the ground at that time.

The knowledge that a vehicle is safe is nice to have, but to curb the continual slaughter on the highways, the mechanical problems of a vehicle are not the point at fault. It is still the person behind the wheel that either has little or no respect for the law, or will not adjust his driving to conditions whether they are weather, road or personal.

A safe vehicle is a good thing and again we would urge everyone to have their car safety checked and many faults that are found corrected. These lanes will be set up at various times and places for the next few weeks. Be a conscientious driver and car owner and sport the safety checked sticker on the lower right side of your windshield.

CULVER COMMENTS

By Anenor Osborn

After a peaceful relaxing two weeks cleaning two houses and moving, I am returning to work to get some rest. There was a rumor circulating that I had quit this job so I had better explain. I quit every week, usually on Thursday when the paper comes out because I always want to be able to say "You can't fire me, I quit."

I must admit I am out of touch with what is going on but as I watched the river rushing by the window of our cottage it brought back fond memories of the coffee klatch crew steaming past the office on their way to solve the problems of the world. I really missed their bright shining glares.

It should now be evident to everyone that the foxholes in the streets were left that way so that the crew putting in new water system wouldn't have so far to dig. Just think, when the new mains are in everyone will know where the water system is located.

We're all set now - telephone number in the book and lettering on the windows. With our luck the desk will collapse or the typewriter will die.

I certainly sympathized with Ruth when I read that she accidentally sprayed her hair with lemon wax but if you think that's bad consider what happened to me. Being a little near-sighted, I used hair spray instead of Ban. It took the whole family to get my arms down.

I hear more rumbles of discontent about no women being put on the school board. I fully realize that men turn pale at the thought, but what do you women think?

If any of you are joining Mackey's Marathon Mushroom hunt why not bring in a steak to go with them?

HELPPFUL HINTS — By now you have probably gotten out and tried on all your summer clothes. Discouraging, isn't it? Those knees out from under last year's dresses have become a trifle chubby haven't they? Arms a bit fat too when seen in last year's sleeveless dresses? Was that bulge there last summer? Okay, face up to it and trim down. Stop making those fattening desserts even if your family puts up a howl. Why should you suffer alone? Remember that man does not live by bread alone so let's throw the bread out too. The same goes for potatoes, gravy is a dirty word, and T.V. snacks are subversive.

Keep a large bunch of grapes around so that when you can no longer stand the knowing hunger pains you can wolf two or three. Your temper will be hard to live long before you can hop into those dresses without catching yourself those without catching yourself in the zipper. Will-power does it. All this advice has made me hungry so I think I'll have a piece of pie and start on the diet tomorrow.

HOROSCOPE — This is an excellent week for secret matters if you can keep anything a secret in this town. Family matters will improve — I don't see how they can get any worse. Have confidence in friends and associates if you can trust any of them.

Now that the elections are over I hope all of you decided whether you are hawk or dove. Personally I'm chicken.

We now have the complete line of Rytex Stationery so where are all of you that called about it?

Bunker Hill Air Force Base To Become Grissom AF Base May 12

Bunker Hill Air Force Base, Ind. will officially become Grissom Air Force Base on May 12, 1968, honoring the memory of the late Air Force Lieutenant Colonel Vigil I. Grissom, one of the original seven United States Astronauts.

A formal dedication ceremony marking the occasion will take place on the flight line of this Strategic Air Command installation at 1 p.m. Colonel Grissom's widow, Mrs. Betty Moore Grissom of Houston, Texas, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Grissom, Mitchell, Indiana, will be present at the ceremony. Others who will participate include several of his fellow astronauts.

The base will be open to the public beginning at 8 a.m. on Dedication Day. Numerous exhibits will be displayed in the flight line area. They will depict Aerospace accomplishments from Vintage flying machines to outer space.

Following the dedication ceremony which is scheduled to end at about 1:55 p.m., the Purdue Marching Band will honor Colonel Grissom's memory with a 30-minute concert.

An air show will follow the band concert and will feature the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds, the U.S. Army jump team, The Golden Knights, and many other attractions.

The May 12 ceremony will culminate efforts by base officials, members of the Base-Community Council and many leading Indiana citizens to name the "Hoosier" state's only active Air Force installation for a native son.

Lt. Col. Grissom, a native of Mitchell, Ind., was killed January 27, 1967 at Cape Kennedy, Fla., along with two fellow astronauts, Air Force Lt. Col. Edward H. White and Navy Lt. Commander Roger B. Chaffee. They were trapped in their Apollo spacecraft which was engulfed in a flash fire as they were testing it on its launching pad. The fire, fed by a pure oxygen atmosphere, swept the craft, killing the astronauts within seconds.

One of the original seven Astronauts chosen in 1959 to pioneer America's space efforts, Colonel Grissom flew the second U.S. manned spacecraft on July 21, 1961. At that time he was the victim of a near tragedy, when he had to swim for his life as his Mercury spacecraft, Liberty Bell 7, sank.

On March 23, 1965, he teamed with Navy Commander John W. Young to fly this country's first three-orbit mission in Gemini 3. During that flight he became the first man to maneuver a spacecraft in space.

At the time of his death he had been chosen to command the first flight in another new program — Apollo, the one that will eventually land a man on the moon.

"Gus", as he became known the world over, joined the Army Air Corps in 1946. After his discharge, he enrolled at Purdue University and helped work his way through school by frying hamburgers in a Lafayette restaurant while his wife worked as a telephone operator.

In 1950, he graduated from Purdue with a degree in Mechanical Engineering, then enlisted in the U.S. Air Force. He received his silver wings and commission as a second lieutenant in 1951 and was sent to Korea where he flew 190 missions and won the Distinguished Flying Cross.

The installation which will bear his name is located on U.S. Hwy 31 adjacent to the small town of Bunker Hill, Ind., 14 miles north of Kokomo and eight miles south of Peru. Built by the U.S. Navy during 1942, it was originally called Peru Naval Air Station and on April 14, 1943, the name was changed to Bunker Hill Naval Air Station. It was a primary flight training base during World War II.

The base was deactivated in 1946 and reopened by the U.S. Air Force during the Korean conflict. It currently houses the 305th Bombardment Wing and supporting units. The wing is equipped with Mach Two B-58 "Hustler" delta-winged bombers and KC-135 Stratotankers.

Culver Extension Homemakers Club

Have you ever heard an honest to goodness poetess read a poem she composed while the first part of the May meeting of the Culver Extension Homemaker's Club was disposed of? The 26 members and 6 guests who were lucky enough to be at the Grace Church on Friday May 3 were very impressed. Mrs. Bertha Hague was the writer of the poem and many others, some of which she read to the group of the special mother's program. She is twice gifted as she painted a chalk picture which was a thing of beauty depicting the sky, water and land at sunset, while the record "Beyond the Sunset" was played.

The meeting was opened by the President, Mrs. D. Hatten giving the thought of the month, "God couldn't be everywhere so He made mothers." The pledge to the American and Christian flags was repeated by all. Devotions were given by Mrs. Larry Zechiel and the song of the month "Faith of our Mother" but originally called St. Catherine's song was led by Mrs. Guy Davis with the pianist Mrs. Whitney Kline accompanying.

Roll call was answered with "Mother's favorite Song". May birthdays include Mrs. Nellie Baker, Mrs. Ora Overmyer and Mrs. Whitney Kline and anniversaries, Mrs. Howard Obedlin and Callie Culter. Mrs. Guy Davis gave a short resume of history of Crewel Embroidery and invited the members to see the display of articles by those who took the special lessons on it.

Afterward the business part of the meeting was given, then a seed and bulb exchange was held. Each woman went home with something new to plant. The social hour followed with the hostesses Mrs. Ora Reed and Mrs. Edgar Shaw serving delicious refreshments at tables decorated with fragrant spring flowers and individual baskets filled with fresh violets for each person present.

Culver Cleaners Collect Clothing For Appalachia

This month many members of the National Institute of Dry Cleaning are participating in the Annual Donated Clothing Collection program in conjunction with Save the Children Federation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ricciardi, owners of the Culver Cleaners announced that there is now, more than ever, a pressing need for good used serviceable summer and winter clothing for babies, children and adults. They are asking local citizens to check their closets. Hidden away in your closets, tucked away in your dresser drawers, is a treasure - a precious gift to a child nipped by cold - to a family made homeless by flood or other disaster - to a mother shielding her baby from the wind and rain. You can help by donating the good, wearable clothing your family no longer needs to the National Institute of Dry Cleaning Clothing Drive for Save the Children Federation. "Clothing your family has outgrown can become a new wardrobe to some children in the Southern Mountains of Appalachia who now walk to school in the bitter cold," say the Ricciardis. They also note that donations of clothing are deductible from income tax at their "fair market value." The National Fair Claims Guide for Consumer Textile Product says used clothing that is still usable has a residual value of 15 percent of what it would cost to replace it with comparable new clothes. If it is not still usable, it should not be given to charity.

Save the Children Federation's

Program in the Southern Mountains does much to enable children to attend school. At Federation Clothing Centers, located in Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia, serviceable garments are made available to children and their parents at token prices. Clothing is also made available free of charge, in conjunction with Save the Children Federations. Self-Help projects conducted in Southern Mountain Communities.

Though much of the Federation's donated clothing goes to America Southern Mountain children and their parents, thousands of pounds of additional clothing is stockpiled to meet, upon request, emergencies at home and abroad. The Federation this past December shipped ten tons of clothing to Florence, Italy for the flood victims of that country.

wearable clothing no longer

Mr. and Mrs. Ricciardi urge residents to bundle up all good, needed such as sweaters, low-heeled shoes, pants, suits, jeans, mittens, blankets, hats, dresses, and any other type of clothing. Bring it to their shop located at 202 S. Main St., Culver, and it will be then sent to the Process-Federation in Knoxville, Tennessee for distribution.

Academy Sports

Culver's baseball team achieved a 5-2 season mark by splitting a double header Saturday with South Bend John Adams. The baseball Eagles lost 3-0 in their first game but bounced back in the second to win, 10-9. The team has 11 more game before the end of the season.

The Academy's canoeists attended the Ohio State Championships last weekend in Springfield, Ohio, and returned with two first, a second and a third.

Jani Garrison, daughter of Culver coach William P. Garrison, won the Ohio Women's championship in a 25-mile marathon with partner Suzy Lovett, daughter of counselor Francis W. Lovett.

Miss Garrison and Miss Lovett joined forces again to take third in the women's slalom. Miss Garrison re-entered the event with another partner, Deana Crosley, and won the women's slalom race.

Defending Indiana champion Jim Etchen and partner Carlos Garcia took second in the men's 25-mile marathon with a time of 2:35.0, seven minutes behind top Indiana contenders, Paul Rannels and Ward Wilkins of Crawfordsville.

Culver's varsity and junior varsity crews won the Wyandotte Boat Club Regatta last weekend outside Detroit. The varsity beat Mount Carmel high school by three boat lengths. Mount Carmel placed third last year in the National Schoolboy Regatta. The junior varsity beat two crews from Roosevelt high school, one by one-quarter of a boat length, and the other by six boat lengths. The races took place on the Detroit River.

Culver's three golf teams all boast winning seasons as of last weekend. The varsity has a 6-2 mark, the junior varsity has accumulated 10 wins against one loss, and the freshmen have won two and lost none.

The varsity lost Friday, 158-160, to Plymouth high school but won a quadrangular match Saturday. The Eagles beat LaPorte, Lafayette Jefferson and Marion with a score of 311. Rick Durkes was Culver's low scorer in both events. He leads the Eagles with an overall average of 39.2.

The junior varsity golf team beat Culver high school's varsity April 22, 167-208, and the Argos varsity last Thursday, 166-194.

Some sort of record must have been set Saturday when the varsity and junior varsity teams away from Plymouth with two perfect scores. Both teams scored 9-0 marks.

The varsity singles winners were John Schumacher, Santiago Montufar, John Mehrstens, Jeff Adams, Andy Lee and Arnold Kirschman. The doubles winners against Plymouth's stunned varsity were Schumacher-Montufar, Mehrstens-Adams and Lee-Woody Pelton.

The junior varsity's winners were Pelton, Rick Jennings, John Tucker, Donn Spitzer, Paul Winsauer, and Gary Steele. The doubles winners were Jennings-Tucker, Spitzer-Winsauer and Steele-Mike Carr.

The same day, members of Culver's track team individually left their mark on the Lime City Relays at Huntington. The Academy placed fourth overall in the field. The Eagle track men came back with three first, two seconds and a fourth.

Huntington's Paoletto vaulted an all-time Indiana high school best with a 14'7" mark, followed by Culver's Jack Shoaf and a 12'6" vault. Shoaf also a forth in the high hurdles.

Doug Scholz won the 2-mile run in 9:59.6 to score and school records. The 880 relay team of Shoaf, Gordon Delk, Charlie McNagny and Stasz Gorski scored a meet record and won in 1:31.5. The relay team missed Culver's record by two-tenths of a second.

Gordon Delk brought home another first with a winning 29'3 1/2" long jump. Stasz Gorski ran 50.4 on the anchor leg of the relay to make up about 15 yards and capture a second for Culver. He was joined by Delk, Andy Griffiths and McNagny in a time of 3:29.4.

John Ambrose put the shot 51'2" for his best mark so far in the season and a second in the event.

Culver Military Academy is preparing for the biggest competitive day of its athletic year on campus this Saturday. Two regattas, a golf invitational and a memorial tennis tournament set the pace for the day's activities.

Many of Indiana's top contenders in tennis, golf and canoeing are expected to compete.

Eight of Indiana's leading tennis teams will participate in the Col. James H. Bishop Memorial Tennis Tournament. The tourney has long stood as the state's tennis championship event. Col. Bishop was head of the Academy's history department, president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Assn. and founder of the Junior Davis Cup program. The tourney starts at 9 a.m.

The Culver 36-Hole Invitational will bring 14 other teams to the Academy. They will alternate play with 20 threesomes on the Academy course and the Maxinkuckee Country Club. Club Defending state champion Madison Heights of Anderson and second place LaPorte will be represented in the invitational. Play begins at 8:30 a.m. and will continue until late afternoon.

Culver's annual High School Regatta will take place on Lake Maxinkuckee from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The event is sponsored to interest more high school age athletes in the sport of canoeing.

The Academy rowing team will put its crew against Marietta, Ohio; Parkersburg, W. Va.; and Lane Tech and Weber High School of Chicago at 3 p.m. on Lake Maxinkuckee. The annual Culver Crew Regatta draws chief interest from the rivalry between Culver and Marietta.

The Academy's baseball team racked up an 8-2 record Friday after defeating LaVille, 12-4. Winning pitcher John Grant gained his third victory in as many outings. Rich White accounted his third victory in as many outings. Rich White accounted for three hits, one a triple, and George Tezich, Bob Eisele and Alex Williams each scored two hits. Earlier in the week, the team beat LaLumiere, 8-4, and South Bend Clay, 4-1.

The golf team won its own eight-team match Saturday with an aggregate score of 334. Culver's Rick Durkes shot a low first round 38, Bremen's Art Beer led in the second with a 39, and Tony Asch of Howe had a 18-hole low of 81. Culver defeated Howe, 340; Munster, 349; Bremen, 349; Bremen, 358; Clay, 361; Marian, 368; LaVille, 390; and Delphi, 390.

The Eagle tennis team blanked its second opponent of the season Saturday. Concordia Lutheran of Fort Wayne fell to Culver in all seven matches. Culver's winners were John Schumacher, Santiago Montufar, John Mehrstens, Mike Curtis, Woody Pelton, Schumacher-Montufar and Mehrstens-Curtis.

The track team added three victories to its tally in the last week. They beat Bremen, May 4, 74-44, and scored 69 1/2 April 30 against Fort Wayne South's 61 1/2 and Fort Wayne Central's 37.

The trouble with pulling strings is that you never know who's pulling at the other end.

Thanks . . . From Editor

I would like to thank the members of my Schoolbell staff for working so diligently on assignments, and at the same time I would like to congratulate you on the splendid job you did this year. With your vivid imaginations, and terrific ideas, you have come through with a very successful year for the Schoolbell. I would especially like to commend the sports reporters. Sports are a very important part of Culver High School, and reporting such events is a tedious job, and I feel the job was done well. Again, I thank the entire staff.

THE ARTIST

There is one distinguished member of Culver High you simply can't miss. He's an easy going fellow and hardly ever gets upset. You may have a problem talking to him face to face since he stands around six feet tall. He has long dark hair and is quite the muscle man. Dancing is one of his favorite talents, in fact you might hear him referred to as "Go Go"! He is also quite profound at acting and at art.

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the title of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Ephesians: "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light."

The Lesson-Sermon also contains these lines from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key" to the Scriptures by May Baker Eddy: "The Son of the Virgin-mother unfolded the remedy for Adam, or error; and the Apostle Paul explains this warfare between the idea of divine power, which Jesus presented, and mythological material intelligence called energy and opposed to Spirit."

Services at First Church of Christ Scientist, Plymouth, 428 So. Michigan St., begin at 10:30 a.m. The public is invited to attend.

Acknowledge

"In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths."

— Proverbs 3:6

Life is a series of ups and downs. Some days things seem to go well. Other times, it appears nothing seems to turn out as it should.

Recognize God in all that you do and you will find the roadway straighter and more level. God will not shield you from temptation and trouble, but you will have a greater strength of purpose and see a clearer pathway any moment of need.

Mealtime's A Breeze With Dairy Foods

When June comes, can summer be far ahead? And summertime means a season of heavy exercise and light, nourishing foods to supply the vitality needed for outdoor activities. Meals are a breeze to make with versatile dairy foods, nature's own convenience products.

One menu might include Fancy Franks for a picnic lunch anywhere. Just heat 'em and eat 'em and taste buds will flower under the tang of Cheddar cheese combined with chili sauce. For a go-along side dish, why not try a Snappy Salad easily made with greens and bacon bits complemented by sauteed pecan pieces. Dessert could be a Frosty Apple Pie, a tasty crumb crust lined with melted chocolate and filled with Cinnamon-spiced apples with a vanilla ice cream topping.

Set a meal for a crowd in a lonely place quickly and easily from a toted refrigerated cooler and a portable barbecue grill. And, don't forget to include milk to cool that warm weather thirst. Take it easy this summer — rely on dairy foods.

It's fun to eat outdoors, especially in kick-off summer month of June. The weather is right for casual meals and the family's in the mood to pack a basket and have a happy time.

How about planning a meal you can tote along to the park, or pack for teenagers to take to the beach? There's a minimum of fuss involved in serving Fancy Franks; just heat 'em and eat 'em. No sand in the sandwiches with this recipe. (Sounds funny — no "sand" in sandwiches).

All you do is mix the delicious cheese filling at home, wrap the filled franks in aluminum foil and heat later over the charcoal grill. The filling is simple to make. Just combine shredded Cheddar cheese, chili sauce, pickle relish, and a dash of oregano for zesty Italian flavor. Heat the foil wrapped sandwiches over glowing coals until the cheese melts and the franks are piping hot.

Take along a vacuum jug filled with icy-cold milk to drink, and for an easy dessert, pack Carry-Out Cupcakes in sturdy paper cups. They're a breeze to make with today's convenient prepared mixes. Use a yellow cake mix for the cupcakes and split them crosswise after baked and cooled. Then stir up a batch of chocolate pudding and pie filling mix; when slightly cooled, spoon a couple tablespoons into a paper cup. Top with the bottom half of a cupcake, add more pudding and then the top portion of the cake. A swirl of chocolate pudding crowns each individual dessert. Cover with transparent plastic wrap and they're ready to travel.

Try this tote-along menu soon. When you do, you'll agree that Fancy Franks, Carry-Out Cupcakes and milk make a relaxed, enjoyable meal for the entire family.

Fancy Franks

8 sandwiches

1/4 cup chili sauce
2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese
1/4 cup pickle relish
1/4 teaspoon oregano
8 frankfurters
8 sandwich buns

In a mixing bowl combine chili sauce, cheese, pickle relish and oregano. Slit frankfurters lengthwise but do not cut through. Fill with cheese mixture placing about 4 tablespoons in each. Place frankfurters in buns. Place the sandwiches on rectangles of aluminum foil. Wrap and seal edges carefully and twist the ends to give the ponytail look. These may be stored in the refrigerator or carried to the beach or picnic grounds. Place on grill and heat 10-15 minutes until cheese melts and sandwich is hot.

Carry-Out Cupcakes

8 servings

Prepare yellow cake mix as directed on package and bake in buttered muffin tins or in paper-lined cups. When cupcakes are cool, split 8 in half. Prepare 2 packages (3 oz. each) chocolate pudding pie-filling mix as directed on package and cool until just warm. Spoon layer of chocolate pudding into paper cup. Top with bottom half of cupcake, another layer of pudding and remaining half of cupcake. Swirl additional pudding over top.

Note: Remaining cupcakes may be frosted or frozen as desired.

I'll bet you wondered if we had a salad suggestion to go outside with Fancy Franks or to stay home with your regular meal.

Here's a snappy salad that is quick and easy to make and it really is perfect for outdoor picnics or barbecues, but if you insist, will be quite as tasty indoors.

Whether company is coming or the family is alone, summer usually means a cookout or a backyard meal. If you build your menu around steak and salad, everybody will be happy! One of the most delicious accompaniments for a charcoal-broiled steak is this savory Bacon-Pecan Tossed Salad. It's a brand-new twist on the usual medley of salad greens, one that combines some favorite flavors in a new and different way.

Here are some tips to keep in mind when preparing your Bacon-Pecan Tossed Salad, or any salad of this type. Always be sure to chill the bowl, the greens, and other ingredients, such as celery and tomatoes, so that everything is cool and crisp. For this particular salad, you add a couple of ingredients that are not chilled, bacon bits and crunchy pieces of sauteed pecans.

This salad is ideal for patio or backyard parties, since the salad greens can be brought straight from the refrigerator and tossed at the outdoor table. Then you can add the salad dressing, made in advance and refrigerated. It's a savory blend of sour cream, chili sauce and mustard, lightly seasoned with salt and pepper. These piquant flavors give the dressing lots of zest, making the salad a perfect partner for your steak and baked potato.

Cool, refreshing salads that require no cooking are first choice with many homemakers these warm summer days. This unusual Bacon-Pecan Tossed Salad is one you'll want to make often.

Bacon-Pecan Tossed Salad

Small skillet

4 slices bacon, cut up
1/4 cup broken pecans
1/2 cup dairy sour cream
2 tablespoons chili sauce
1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard
1/4 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
Salad greens
Diced celery
Tomatoes
Onion rings

In small skillet cook bacon until crisp; saute pecans. Drain on absorbent paper. Meanwhile combine sour cream, chili sauce, mustard, salt and pepper. In salad bowl arrange greens, celery, tomatoes and onions; add bacon and pecans and toss to blend. Pour sour cream dressing over all and toss lightly.

Other than cupcakes we haven't discussed desserts. To many people, a meal without dessert is merely food; to others, it saves them from breaking a diet resolution again.

In any case, the perfect hostess is the gal who's never upset with unexpected guests because she has her food supplies well organized for entertaining. She's always well stocked with convenience foods and has extra desserts and casseroles tucked away in the freezer for quick defrosting. Why not join the ranks of the "be prepared" hostesses by adding these quick ice cream desserts to your freezer repertoire? They're made in a jiffy using ice cream and prepared pie fillings, two convenience products that just naturally go together.

Make a batch of Patio Parfaits to store in the freezer for quick snacking. Just spoon alternate layers of ice cream, blueberry and peach pie fillings into paper baking cup. "Kids" of all ages will enjoy eating these right out of the cup, no forks necessary.

For a more elaborate dessert, make a Frosty Apple Pie. It's as easy as pie to do! Prepare a crumb crust and line it with a thin layer of melted chocolate, a pleasant flavor surprise for the cinnamon-spread apple filling that hides it. Now the "frost" is added - vanilla ice cream spooned over all... ready for the freezer, and waiting dessert lovers. For garnish, bedeck your pie with amazingly realistic chocolate leaves. These are made by brushing real plant leaves with melted chocolate, letting them harden in the refrigerator, and peeling away the original leaves. Try it!

Other easy, summery ice cream desserts include Melba Sundaes, using prepared peach pie filling and frozen raspberries to achieve the superb flavor blend identified with Peach Melba. You'll like Cherry Snowballs, too. For these, roll balls of vanilla ice cream in shredded coconut, serve with an almond-flavored cherry sauce made from cherry pie filling. Crunchy almonds are the finishing touch.

These quick ice cream desserts are the answer to dessert in a hurry and you can have them ready in your freezer.

Frosty Apple Pie

Pie plate, 9-inch

Preheated 350° oven

Crust:

1 1/3 cups graham cracker crumbs (16 squares)
2 tablespoons sugar
1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter, melted

Filling:

1 package (6 oz.) semi-sweet chocolate pieces
3/4 cup evaporated milk
1 can (1 lb. 6 oz.) apple pie filling
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 quart vanilla ice cream, softened

To prepare crust: In a small bowl mix together crumbs and sugar; stir in butter. Press mixture firmly and evenly against bottom and sides of pie plate, building up slightly around rim. Bake 5 minutes. Cool on wire rack. To prepare filling: In a 1-quart saucepan heat together chocolate pieces and evaporated milk over low heat, stirring constantly, until chocolate is melted and sauce is smooth. Pour 1/4 cup of this sauce over crust and chill. (The remaining sauce keeps well in the refrigerator and may be served hot or cold over ice cream.) In a bowl blend apple pie filling and cinnamon; turn into crust. Place in freezer for three hours or until firm enough to cut; top with ice cream and serve. Or make ahead and freeze solid then allow to defrost at room temperature 2-3 hours before topping with ice cream and serving.

So remember, when hot weather strikes "be prepared" with cool culinary ideas on ice. Enjoy easy, breezy eatin' all summer long by relying on versatile dairy foods.

Cure Toothaches Before They Start

In bygone days, some people believed that kissing a donkey would cure a toothache. Others believed that a sprig of parsley hung around the neck would prevent a toothache. While modern dentistry has dispelled odd superstitions, there are still misconceptions about dental health.

During the week of Feb. 4 through 10, the nation will observe the 20th anniversary of National Children's Dental Health Week. Its purpose is to provide sound dental health information to children and parents, and to remove misconceptions about dental health.

Today, people don't go around kissing donkeys, but some still believe that dental caries (decay) — the cause of a toothache — can be cured. It can't. Dental decay can be removed from a tooth and the tooth filled. And, with proper care — by cleaning the teeth after meals and by cutting down on sweets — the decay possibly won't recur.

Decay can be prevented — not by parsley, but by fluoridation. Countless studies of children in fluoridated communities have proved that fluoride in the water prevents decay by about 65 per cent. And, if fluoride is not in the water, the dentist can either paint a child's teeth with a fluoride substance, or he can prescribe dietary fluorides. The American Dental Association says some fluoride toothpastes are recognized as effective in decay prevention.

Here are some important facts about dental health:

—Baby (primary) teeth are important. They save the proper eruption space for permanent teeth and are necessary for chewing, speech and appearance.

—Milk does not prevent decay, it helps the teeth form properly.

—Sweets are a causative factor in decay and their consumption should be limited, probably to meal times.

—A great proportion of children have some type of gum disease. If untreated, the disorders will become more serious as the child grows. Gum disease is the greatest cause of adult tooth loss.

—Destroyed tooth enamel cannot be repaired. If a tooth stops aching, this means the pulp has been infected — an indication of real trouble.

Very few people are "immune" to dental decay. Approximately 98 per cent of the population suffers from caries. But regular toothbrushing, fluoridation and routine dental care will greatly reduce decay. 4-68

4-H Hog Raisers Use Science And Management In National Project

While raising hogs is restricted to farm, not every farmer raises hogs. Not any more. Time was when the "typical" farm scene included a few pigs, cows and chickens roaming the yard waiting for backdoor handouts.

Today hog raising is a specialty, as is most farm production whether crops, livestock or poultry. Science and management are the key words in modern farming operation, and it's the smart young farmer who gets a head start in this direction.

Such an opportunity is provided farm — and would you believe — city boys and girls enrolled in the national 4-H Swine program conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service and supported by the Moorman Mfg. Co.

How do city 4-Hers raise pigs? Well, they find a nearby farmer who will provide the space. The rest is up to the youngster's desire to learn and ingenuity to keep the project going.

They start out in various ways, depending on their age and facilities. A pig project is ideally suited for the younger member, say 4-H leaders, because the animal is small (at least at the start) easy to handle and market.

The older teenagers often concentrate on purebred breeding projects. They are quick to use approved health and sanitation practices recommended by the Agricultural Extension Service.

Many apply their new knowledge and skills to upgrade the home-farm production facilities.

An example of a non-farm boy's success is Steve Powell, 17, who lives in Altus, population 22,000. He raises his animals on a farm six miles out of town. What's more, he got other boys interested, and made room for them to start swine projects of their own on the farm.

During eight years in the 4-H project, young Powell raised a total of 41 breeding hogs and 330 market hogs, winning several championships with his animals.

To top it all, last year he was judged state and national award winner, received a trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, and a $500 Moorman scholarship. Soon to graduate from high school, Powell says he plans to use his scholarship when he enrolls in college this fall to study veterinary medicine.

Again this year, 4-Hers from almost every state will compete for county, state and national awards. All winners are judged by the Cooperative Extension Service. Scoring is based on project achievement, overall 4-H activities and leadership.

The 1968 scholarships have been increased to $600, and six will be awarded.

After all it isn't revolving, but solving, that really makes the world go 'round.

WANTED BY THE FBI

JAMES EARL RAY, also known as Eric Starvo Galt, Harvey Lowmyer, John Willard, James McBride, James Walton, W. C. Herron and James O'Conner.

James Earl Ray, a Missouri prison escapee, sought under the alias Eric Starvo Galt in connection with the gunshot slaying of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., is one of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives." FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover ordered the special addition of Ray to the "Top Ten" list to insure widespread dissemination of Ray's photograph and description to speed his location.

Ray has been intensively sought since the murder of Dr. King on April 4, 1968, as he stood on the balcony of a Memphis, Tennessee, motel. An exhaustive FBI fingerprint search, comparing latent fingerprints uncovered in the Dr. King case against fingerprints of over 53,000 persons on whom wanted notices were posted, determined that Galt and Ray are identical.

A Federal warrant, issued at Birmingham, Alabama, on April 17, 1968, charges Ray, under the alias of Galt, with conspiring to interfere with a Constitutional Right of a citizen. Ray, who escaped on April 23, 1967, from the Missouri State Penitentiary, is also sought for unlawful flight to avoid confinement for robbery. His long criminal record also includes convictions for burglary and forging U.S. Postal Money Orders.

A white American, born in Alton, Illinois, on March 10, 1928, Ray is 5'10" tall, weighs 163 to 174 pounds, has blue eyes and short brown hair. He has a nervous habit of tugging at an ear lobe and his left ear protrudes noticeably. Known as a "loner" and "drifter," Ray has worked as a baker, laborer and color matcher. He has taken dancing lessons and completed a course at a school of bartending.

Consider Ray armed and extremely dangerous. Report any information concerning him to the nearest FBI office.
