CULVER Town Board News

Problems concerning the condition of the town's streets were again brought to the attention of the Town Board at their regular meeting Monday night. President, Don Osborn, stated that the town was at a standstill on street repairs until the installation of the new water lines is completed. Andy Genswain asked that chuckholes on Wabash street be filled and Mr. Osborn directed the town crew to take care of this matter. Other temporary fill-ins will be made until permanent repair on the streets is possible.

In other new business, the Board was informed that by law, a licensed engineer is required before action can be made to correct surface drainage problems. The Board decided engineering firms and set up appointments for interviews.

Mrs. Dean Jones requested that they be allowed to use a "Parking for Customers Only" sign in front of their laundromat establishment. The Board suggested that she contact the railroad company that owns this land and ask their permission. If they waive jurisdiction on this property, the Board asked that the railroad company notify the Board to this effect. Ruth Lennen, town clerk, then requested ten minute parking spaces be designated in front of the Town Hall so that people can pay their bills more conveniently. Mr. Osborn said this would be taken care of.

The question of the legality of gaming machines, such as pool tables, bowling and bagatelle games, in the town of Culver, was brought to the attention of the Board. Marshall Madonna read sections of the State laws that clearly stated that minors were not allowed to play these games and those who allowed this would be subjects to fine or imprisonment. He also read exceptions to this law which stated that these machines could operate within the law if used for educational or benevolent purposes. In as much as the town operated Beach Lodge has some gaming devices, Latham Lawson, spokesman for the Park Board, presented their views. He stated that the machines in the Beach Lodge were not of the gambling nature. He also said that although the revenue from these games is necessary to maintain the lodge, the Park Board realized a law was to be respected and the Board would abide by the Town Board's decision. Since there are exceptions to this law, Mr. Osborn suggested their own attorney be contacted and his views be considered.

A letter from the School Board notifying the Town Board of the school's intention to extend the sidewalk north of the elementary school to the new school site, was read.

A question was raised by Wayne Von Ehr in regard to the

Jaycee Auction Postponed To Friday Night

The Jaycee Auction which was scheduled for June 1, was postponed because the turn out of prospective buyers was not up to expectations. They plan to give everyone a second chance, however, and urge all to come this Friday night June 7, at 7:30 p.m. to the Culver Press Building at the corner of Washington and Lake St. Many items have been collected for this community project. You will find an automatic washer less than a year old for sale; also beds, chaise lounge, tables, books, chairs and loads of miscellaneous items. Help the Jaycees help Culver!

"I THINK THAT I SHALL NEVER SEE"

Goldie, a feline resident with the Ray Houghton family, gave birth to a litter of four kittens about four weeks ago. Now what puts this in a man bites dog category is that Goldie took over an abandoned squirrels nest in a tree for a maternity ward. Scooping at the usual dark corner favored by more conventional cats, this modern puss took to high-rise apartment dwelling.

Mrs. Houghton is thinking of the day when the entire family will descend to every-day living and would like to find a home for these daredevils. Mr. Houghton has used a ladder to look in on this exclusive family and has announced that three are gold like their mother and one black and gray which may or may not give a clue to the father.

If you want a down-to-earth kitten look elsewhere, but if you want something different take your ladder to the Houghtons and pick yourself a cat.

boundary line of the alley past the property he recently purchased on West Westington street. Mr. Von Ehr said this information is needed before he can proceed with plans for sidewalks and the leveling of his land. He also requested permission to remove some trees from the terrace on this property. Mr. Osborn asked for time to meet with the Board at the Von Ehr property so they could become more familiar with the property and would be in a better position to make decisions.

In final action, Harry Winkler was given permission to install curbing at his home on Obispo street.

Alumni Banquet Promises To Be Big Social Event

Letters and reservations are still coming in for the big Alumni get-together planned for Saturday night at the Culver Inn.

It may interest alumni to know that Ellis Clifton will be there for his class' Golden Anniversary and his six children, who are also graduates of Culver High School, will be attending.

Fred Adams personally wrote letters to all his classmates urging them to attend their Silver Anniversary and he advised them that "if he didn't see them in '68, he would see them in '93."

Phyllis Annis Wells, daughter of former principal, Floyd Annis, will be there along with her mother.

Culver's oldest graduate, Miss Edna Stahl, will be there once again. Miss Stahl graduated in 1902 and has attended all but a few of the banquets since the first banquet which was held Thursday, May 16, 1912 in the Osborn Hotel (New Culver Hotel). She still has in her banquets since the first banquet which was held Thursday, May 16, 1912 in the Osborn Hotel (New Culver Hotel.) She still has in her possession the program for this affair.

The committees have promised an interesting evening and would like to make this the biggest year ever. So, do plan to attend.

It Affects The Teen Agers Too!

Last week we used some information supplied to us as to teaching young people the value of saving. There is another group along this line that also has tendencies to completely ignore the value of money, this being the teenagers.

Right now, money is easy. Teens can get work, part time or full time that allows them to put in their pockets, more money each week than their parents, or such large amounts that they completely miss the knowledge of what it means to "support" themselves in the battle that may lie ahead. Add to this the fact that credit is easy to get if they don't have the money and you have some of the wildest spending this world has ever seen.

It isn't hard to remember back not too many years when bicycle racks at high schools were over crowded. At eight o'clock in the morning during the nine months of school, the side walks were crowded with students walking to school. In this day and age, high schools have over crowded parking lots. Bicycles are an almost rare thing and walking to school by a lot of kids is an unknown exercise.

Big, fast money has done this. Anymore a kid without a car, or at least considerable access to one, is something different. Walking is becoming an unknown art and what would it be anymore if a fellow showed up at a girl's house for a date without the set of wheels?

The value of a dollar has changed considerably, this affecting the adult as well as the teenager. Sure dad's paycheck has jumped considerably in the past years, but the paycheck that Junior starts out with almost eliminates all value of a job and the dollar combined. No longer do they start off a "learning" wage, but jump right into money that fifteen years ago would have made almost any adult envious. Gone also are the days when a young person has to earn and save the money before making that purchase for something special. A couple starting out on a shoestring now is simply using the shoestring to tie together their payment books that are responsible for the car furniture and appliances they are enjoying.

It has only been some 16 years since the office of price control that put the "lid" on pay, products, etc. went out of our lives, and yet it seems like a much longer time than that. Banks, loan companies, auto financing operations and all the similar line of business are doing a business that is unbelievable. Everyone is getting in the finance act. More and more is being purchased with plastic credit cards than could have been imagined a few years ago. Credit has taken the place of cash and many teenagers today will never know the true value of money due to the fact that they simply don't have to.

It is true that the great American life is one of luxury for anyone who desires, but perhaps we have an entire generation that is missing something that they could have profited by in ways they will never know.

CULVER COMMENTS

We really have a problem—Culver's grime in the streets has risen sharply. Parents, do you know where your children are? You can find them at the bottom of the nearest trench. Our water may no be as rusty when they finish that mess but the rugs are in for a beating.

I haven't been able to figure out why it was necessary to close the school when the water main broke recently. I guess without water the kids couldn't make it without their hourly water break, training for future coffee breaks.

While I'm on the subject of school it has become obvious to me that my having missed New Math has left me out of tune with this world. No matter how I divide, add, or subtract I can't figure out how they determine damage to the text books the kids have been using. Oh sure you can understand fining them for bent covers and torn pages but how do you explain the following: The book Junior has been throwing out the study hall window has a broken back and

It's going to cost you $1.00 to have it rebound however if you care to purchase said volume it will be 25c please. Why don't they just fine them 25c in the first place and ditch the old things.

Culver is catching up with the big cities. Last week we heard there was a rash of report card burnings. I wish a couple of boys near and dear to me had taken part. Could have saved me some shock.

I have it on pretty good authority that if some local group wishes to stage a paint-in at the beach lodge there will be no complaints. I can't wait to see which organization rushes to join this protest against dirty walls.

How long has it been since you have eaten home-made peanut butter? Believe it or not, the Little House is now selling honest-to-goodness no preservatives added peanut butter. Makes your mouth-water doesn't it.

HELPFUL HINTS — How long has it been since you have taken a young child to the zoo? Brookfield is ideal and you can impress the kids by saying it's in another state. Since it is possible to eat there, little preparation is necessary, however it is wise to take along some snacks for the road on the theory that if their mouths are full they're not talking. You must also have a number of answers ready for the inevitable "Are we almost there?" They generally start asking this after you have gone two miles. You might as well plan to buy gas often because you're going to spend quite a bit of time in filling stations. Be certain that you wear comfortable shoes and carry a few tranquilizers and aspirin. You can ride around there but you can tire the little ones sooner if you walk and you will also see much more. I strongly urge you to keep them away from the kangaroos because those things have absolutely no inhibitions and unless you care to get involved in the facts of life—skip the kangaroos. It is also wise to skip the old jokes like "no gnus is good guns," too, because they just won't understand. Tired but happy you all pile into the car ready to return home (after a few more stops for gas). Now wasn't that fun?

You must have noticed the face lifting job on the outside of the Ben Franklin Store. Looks very nice doesn't it?

That's not all that's new. Ron Tusing is a real live Preceptor! I had to look it up so why should I tell you what that word means?

CULVER COOKERY

This week's strawberry treat will be a switch from strawberry shortcake. A fresh strawberry sauce to serve over ice cream or sponge cake is a different way to enjoy this delicious fruit.

Fresh Strawberry Sauce

Wash and hull berries. Cut up enough to make ½ cup; mash, mix with sugar and then with corn syrup. Blend corn starch and water. Combine with mashed berries in saucepan. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until mixture is thickened and clear. Add a few drops food coloring, if desired. Cool. Cut about half the remaining berries in two. Sprinkle lemon juice over whole and halved berries; add to cooled mixture. Chill until serving time. Makes about 1½ cups.

Does anyone have a strawberry recipe they would like to share with us?

Your Gas And Electric Service Will Continue Despite The Strike

Most Nipsco customers can expect near-normal gas and electric service even though some of our employes are on strike and others are not working because of it.

Management people and their representatives are working hard, doing everything possible to keep gas and electric service flowing to your home.

We're giving special attention to emergency requests, of course, especially to hospitals and other essential operations and to requests dealing with public safety.

If you have a problem and need service, call your local Nipsco office and please be patient. If the phone is busy, please bear with us and keep trying.

We will do everything we can to match your patience with a desire to maintain the best possible service until the strike is over.

Thank you.

WHAT'S THE STRIKE ALL ABOUT?

Nipsco wants its employes to be well paid. We know that good wages and fringe benefits are needed to attract and keep the kind of people we want and need.

This is why we have offered our 2,600 production, maintenance, construction and operating employes the largest package of wages and fringe benefits ever offered by a gas and electric utility of Indiana.

Even before this package was offered, these employes received higher wages than any utility in the state.

Even though this agreement was rejected by the union's membership, after approval by its own officers and negotiating committee, we intend - in the interest of all our employes and customers - to continue our efforts to reach a settlement as quickly as possible.

The 13-man negotiating committee of Local 12775, District 50, United Mine Workers of America - including its president and vice-president - unanimously agreed to accept this package.

BURR OAK CIRCLE PARTY

The Mothers and Daughters Circle party was held in the social rooms of the Emmanuel United Methodist Church on May 24. Mrs. Inez Humbert, president, opened the meeting and devotions were given by Mrs. Marge Jones and Mrs. Nancy Guss. Several Mother's Day Poems were read and a hymn was sung by all with Mrs. Givens accompanying at the piano.

The meeting was closed with a prayer by Mrs. Humbert.

The hostesses, Mrs. Marge Jones and Mrs. Guess served refreshments. The plants on the beautifully decorated tables were given to the oldest mother, Mrs. Clara Sheppard; the youngest mother, Mrs. Betty Cable; and the mother with the largest family, Mrs. Gladys Prosser.

Find It In The Classifieds

Help relieve the ringing in her ears.

She's your Directory Assistant (you remember her, she used to be called an Information Operator). The friendly gal who helps you find the telephone number you're trying to call.

Did you know that, in a single day, she and her friends over the state answer hundreds of thousands of calls? Needless to say, that's a lot of ringing in her ears.

You can help relieve this condition by using your telephone directory whenever possible, because most of the numbers she's asked to find are listed right there in the book. And the First Pages section has the answer to most any question about the use of your telephone.

Of course there will still be times when you need help, like if Aunt Martha just moved and has a brand new phone number. That's a job for a Directory Assistant. And when you really need her, she'll be there.

"Rock of Ages", "Peg of my Heart," and many "I don't knows" were the answers to the roll call question "Your mother's favorite song."

The May meeting of the Golden Key Extension Homemakers Club met in the home of Mrs. Richard Flagg. Ten members and two guests, Mrs. Lance Overmyer and Mrs. Asbury Talley, attended the meeting. Mrs. Overmyer was accepted into the club.

Mrs. Joseph Currens spoke on floor coverings other than rugs. Different types were discussed from vinyls, linoleum dating back to 1860, asphalt and the luxurious tile - cork. Surprising facts on caring and cleaning were discovered. Vacuum more, wash less; use water conditioners and use soap that does not contain an alkali.

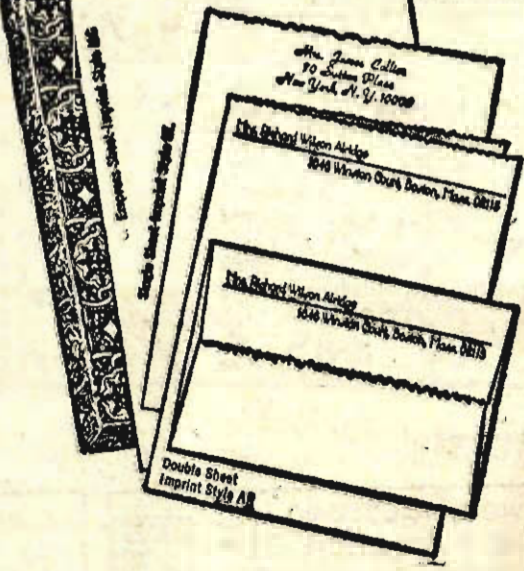

It was stated that Sgt. Charles Neary will speak to the club on June 18 a 8:00 p.m. at the State Exchange Bank Lounge. He will speak on narcotics and its effect in our community. The June 30 club picnic was also discussed with the time set for 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Flagg's co-hostess was Mrs. Leon Bennett who helped with the refreshments.

Reasons and ideas influence our actions — they're guideposts for future accomplishments.

Cake Mixes

Baking a cake from scratch can be a delightful experience if you are using a treasured recipe or when you have time to putter in the kitchen creating a masterpiece from special ingredients. You can make your cake mixes individually yours, by adding ingredients, experimenting with shapes, drizzling, swirling and garnishing. Here are two that may help you win the "best cake baking" award.

Glazed Fruited Gems

1 package (2-layer) lemon cake mix

1 package (3 3/4 ounces) lemon flavored instant pudding

1 cup water

1/2 cup pure vegetable oil

4 eggs

1/2 cup finely chopped dates

1/2 cup finely chopped light raisins

1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon rind

1 cup apricot preserves or apple jelly

Heat oven to 350 degrees F. Grease and flour eight 4 or 5 ounce molds. Combine cake mix, instant pudding, water, oil, and eggs in large bowl of electric mixer. Blend well. Beat at medium speed for 4 minutes. Fold in dates, raisins, and grated lemon rind. Spoon into molds filling each only half full. Refrigerate remaining batter. Bake 15 to 20 minutes or until cake springs back when lightly touched with fingertip. Loosen around sides of molds. Turn out. Cool on wire racks. Repeat baking until all batter is used. Heat apricot preserves or apple jelly until thin and of consistency to brush. Brush over each cake. Decorate with twist of lemon rind if desired.

Triple Chocolate Fudge Cake
1 package (2 layer) devil's food cake mix

1 square unsweetened chocolate, finely grated

1/2 cup butter or margarine, softened

1 package (1 pound) confectioners' sugar, unsifted

1/4 teaspoon salt

1 egg

1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla

3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted

3/4 cup milk

1/3 cup sugar

3/4 cup water

2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted

1 tablespoon milk

3 drops of peppermint oil

Heat oven to 350 degrees F. Grease and flour two 8 x 8 x 2 inch pans. Prepare cake mix according to package directions; fold in grated chocolate. Pour batter into prepared pans. Bake 35 minutes or until cake springs back lightly when touched with fingertips. Cool in pans 10 minutes. Remove from pans. Cool completely on racks.

Cream softened butter or margarine in small bowl on electric mixer. Beat in about half the confectioners' sugar gradually. Add salt, egg, vanilla and 3 squares melted chocolate; beat thoroughly. Beat in remaining confectioners' sugar alternately with 1/4 cup milk; blend well. Fill and frost cake with chocolate frosting.

Combine sugar and water in small saucepan; bring to boiling; boil 1/2 minute; stirring constantly. Stir hot syrup slowly into 2 squares melted chocolate; blend well. Blend in milk and oil of peppermint slowly. Beat or stir glaze until cooled and thickened. Spoon around top of cake making a border about 2 inches wide, allowing some to drizzle over sides of cake. Let cake stand until glaze has set.
