

Miss Hughes Becomes Bride In Culver Saturday

The marriage of Miss Johanna Barbara Hughes and Slobodan Trickovic was performed at 2:00 p.m., Saturday, July 13 at the Culver Methodist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Borislav Trickovic, Belgrade, Yugoslavia, are the parents of the groom.

The Rev. Carl Baker performed the ceremony before an altar centered with an arrangement of white gladioli and daisies. Mrs. Theodore Ervin was the organist and Mrs. Bryce Bigley sang the wedding music.

The maid of honor was Miss Jean Vickers of Miami, Fla. and the bride's sisters, Mrs. Ribhi Kalla and Mrs. Angel Panagua both of Chicago, were the bridesmaids. The attendants wore identical floor length gowns of maize knette. A belt in front accented the Empire waist of the skirts that featured an inverted front panel. Daisy clusters held the maize net circlet headpieces. The attendants carried white baskets of mixed colonial flowers.

Miss Kristin Kalla, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a yellow dotted Swiss dress with white appliqued daisies. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor length gown of delustered satin, which was fashioned with a fitted bodice, and a natural waistline of the A-line skirt highlighted by a self-bow in back. Bands of Venice lace encircled the standaway collar and long fitted sleeves. The same lace trimmed her satin pillbox to which was attached a train of imported illusion. She carried a Bible adorned with stephanotis and ivy.

Ribhi Kalla, brother-in-law of the bride, acted as best man. Eric Hughes, brother of the bride, and Dr. Angel Panagua, brother-in-law of the bride, were ushers.

A reception at the Culver Inn followed the ceremony. Mrs. William Cleavinger was in charge of the guest book.

For their wedding trip to Wisconsin, the new Mrs. Trickovic wore a white linen coat-style dress with open-work featured on the long sleeves. After Aug. 3, the couple will be at home in Costa Mesa, Calif.

Mrs. Trickovic is a graduate of Culver Military Academy and Ball State University. She will teach at Fountain Valley, Calif., this fall.

Where Will It All End?

A certain cigarette commercial on TV asks, "Where will it all end?" Of course they are referring to the length of the competitors products, but that same question can be asked time and time again in other fields and still not receive an answer.

Recently, the news has again been centering around a few strikes, depending on what kind of news you like. The hard problem of settlement and some of the matters decided upon makes one ask themselves, "Where will it all end?" The two political conventions, certainly prime TV, radio and newspaper material, are being threatened by a strike either on a nationwide basis or on local basis as in Chicago. It has come to the point now that the situation is getting critical and the strikers certainly know this and are using this as an additional crutch in their bag of tricks.

But, if you are one who isn't particularly interested in politics and "don't give a hoot" for these conventions, you might have been worried just until late Sunday about a favorite pastime of many millions of people, the Sunday afternoon football of the National Football League. Yes, even the football players were on strike and the veterans not allowed into various training camps due to the difference of opinions by the players and the club owners. It seems a little strange that such as this would take to this type of action, but until the final agreement was reached Sunday night, the future of the NFL seemed to be up in the air.

In this case as well, some crutches were used. According to news service reports, there were some 22 matters to be settled and the players and owners had agreed on 21, but only the matter of the pension plan remained. The barring of veterans of over two years from training camps had to have an effect and Vince Lombardi's little statement last week of suggesting that the Oakland team of the AFL be allowed to play in the All-Star game, probably hurt more pride of the NFL than any single item. Old Vince is shrewd as a business manager!

Strikes currently are the biggest single threat to big business that can be seen. It is true, unions are necessary to give the working man representation, but their is a limit on both sides of the fence. An increase in one spot just continues the vicious circle that continues right on around until it is back where it started. All this leads up the spiral of inflation, but somewhere and somewhere it has to stop. The surcharge isn't the answer, but at present is as good as could be put into effect.

Everyone hopes it won't lead to government control of various phases of business but the trends towards socialism seem to get a little stronger day in and day out and again we ask ourselves, "Where will it all end?"

CULVER COMMENTS

When is a law a law and when is a minor a minor? Why can't the beach lodge have pool tables when they are allowed elsewhere? Is this what they mean by "dirty pool"? According to this town's interpretation of a minor (anyone under 18) will a 19 year old now be allowed in taverns? And if the town enforces a law is it possible to enforce only the part they like and ignore the rest? I would like someone to give me a sensible reason why they don't forget the old pool table law and operate "wide open" again. If this whole silly mess was REALLY started by a complaint from a mother will she please let us know the extent of her child's corruption by the pool table? Considering the actual problems the town does have, isn't this issue becoming more than a little ridiculous?

It isn't bad enough that we have to detour all over Culver to get from one street to another—now we face the fact that we may wake up some morning to find an entire state road missing.

The State Highway Dept. armed with a crystal ball have foreseen the day when 5,000 cars will hum along Highway 10. What in the world is going to bring 5,000 cars a day flocking bumper to bumper on Road 10? Certainly the water system will be in before that happens so what is the attraction? Is it possible that we are on the verge of receiving an award for our participation in the Keep America Beautiful campaign which is exemplified by our spic and span streets? Or perhaps our defensive measures against water pollution Lake Maxinkuckee could teach conservation officials a lesson they wouldn't soon forget.

We shall just have to wait until the hearing to have the question answered. I would like to ask everyone who intends to appear at the July 23rd meeting to watch their language because I will be taking notes and I don't want the reported version filled with "??&". I have enough trouble reporting these meetings straight as it is.

At any rate, since the relocation scheme comes to Culver as often as an intestinal flu epidemic, you will be relieved to know this will be the last time they intend to propose this popular plan.

There seems to always be something going on that upsets our little community. The proposed gun control laws have more than just a few people up in arms. Most feel that once the registration is complete, the obvious next step will be confiscation of guns. If this is true who is going to protect us from all those rabbits, squirrels and ducks that threaten us. Surely no one wants to face the time when we will not be able to shoot someone in self-defense. According to the constitution we are allowed to bear arms but then who pays any attention to the constitution. Certainly not the government. All these facts have been pointed out many times but one right so far has not been mentioned—everyone has an inalienable right to a shot-gun marriage. Let your congressman know how you feel and stick to your guns.

Everyone is eagerly awaiting the Regatta, Corn Roast, and Sidewalk Days that will be held the end of this month. We have been trying to figure out how the Citizen office can join in on the Sidewalk Days. Outside of a stack of old newspapers and some shoe horns left over from the previous business, we are at a loss. If all else fails, I can always auction off my job.

Someone really pulled a boo-boo by tearing up Lake Shore Drive too soon. Didn't they know that was scheduled for the weekend of the Regatta?

CULVER COOKERY

Mrs. Eloise Sikora contributed a foolproof pie crust recipe this week. The crust will remain crisp with a cream filling and is easy to prepare. Be sure to use peanut oil only.

Peanut Oil Pie Crust (single crust)

1 c. flour
1 teas. salt
1/3 c. peanut oil
3 T. cold water

Mix oil and water with flour and salt mixture. Mix only until it forms a ball. Pat on wax paper to 6" circle. Add wax paper to top and roll until desired size. Be sure to roll thinly. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 to 12 minutes. This recipe can be doubled for a two crust pie.

A pay-as-you-go-policy is all right, but for the family budget it might not go far.

Tri Kappa Has Initiation Services

The beautiful and spacious home of Mrs. Norman Perry was the scene of a very lovely and impressive initiation service Monday evening, July 15th.

Forty one members of the Epsilon Nu Chapter of Kappa Kappa Kappa were present to welcome the new members. The new "Tri Kappas" are: Mrs. Carl Stealy of 1930 East Shore Drive and Mrs. Richard Lewis of 1002 Academy Road.

The President, Mrs. John Edgell, presided over a short business meeting following this service. At this meeting, a letter was read in which the chapter was thanked for their contribution to provide a Campership for the Riley Camp. It is being used for a child in this area who needs it very much and it is greatly appreciated.

The chapter also received a beautiful letter of appreciation from Mrs. Walker Winslow. She thanked them for the delightful tea which was given in her honor at the Culver Inn on July 11th. This tea was to celebrate Mrs.

Winslow's 60 years as a member of Kappa Kappa Kappa.

Final plans were made for the Christmas in August Bazaar to be held in the Culver Inn on August 9th. Brunch will be served by the Inn from ten o'clock until one and it portends to be quite a gala affair—but, watch next week's paper for details!

At the conclusion of the meeting, delicious refreshments were served from a beautifully resplendent with white carnations in the glow of candlelight.

The next meeting will be on August 12th at the home of Dr. McIlwaine with Pam Phelps and her committee as assisting hostesses.

Bride Of David Marriner In Annapolis

Candelabra entwined with smilax and alter arrangements of white snaps, majestic daisies and carnations decorated the St. Anne's Church, Annapolis, Md., for the marriage of Miss Mary Irene McKinstry, Annapolis, and David Hayes Marriner also of Annapolis. Officiating at the June 22nd, 2 p.m. double ring ceremony was Rev. Reginald Eastman, Ware Episcopal Church, Gloucester, Va., assisted by Rev. James F. Madison, St. Anne's Church, Annapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Emmett McKinstry, Annapolis are the parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Madison McKinstry also of Annapolis, are the parents of the groom. The bride's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John William Henderson of Culver.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of ivory peau de soie, with yoke of re-embroidered Alencon lace and a square cut neckline. The chapel train fell from the yoke of the dress. She wore a lovely heirloom Rose Pointe mantilla, made about 1860 in Brussels and Malines, Belgium and worn by a titled English lady at court receptions of Queen Victoria. The design of pody-pody fern, Canterbury bells, and primroses represented the flowers and ferns of the English countryside. The bride carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis with curly leaf fern.

Mrs. LeRoy Thomas Dunnington, Arnold, Md., was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Lynne Thomas, San Marino, Calif., Miss Holly Hasset, Pittsburgh, Pa., Mrs. Paul Van Dien Davis, Rockville, Md., and Miss Diana Thompson, Annapolis, Md., all cousins of the bride. The attendants wore floor length gowns in mint green voile designed with white daisies at the empire waistline and a border of the daisies and lace around the hemline. They wore picture hats in green mint with daisies around the crown and carried nosegays of daisies.

Mr. David Kerr Warner, Annapolis, Md., served the groom as best man. The ushers were Mr. Stephen Mark Marriner, Severna Park, Md., Mr. Edward Randolph Marriner, Annapolis, brother of the groom; Mr. Michael Waldron McKinstry, Annapolis, brother of the bride; and Mr. LeRoy Thomas Dunnington, brother-in-law of the bride.

The flower girl was Miss Deborah Jane Marriner, sister of the groom, and she wore a floor length green mint dress identical to other attendants, with a crown of white daisies in her hair. She carried a nosegay of daisies. Master Robert Emmett McKinstry, Jr., brother of the bride, served as ring bearer and Master Andrew Selby Marriner, brother of

The bride's mother wore a pale blue silk and worsted dress with a beaded neckline, matching accessories, and a hat fashioned of rose leaves and phalaenopsis orchids, and carried a corsage of phalaenopsis orchids tinted to match on purse. A beige sleeveless organza dress with unlined full length matching coat and matching accessories was worn by the groom's mother. Her corsage was a cluster of coral sinora roses on her purse.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Annapolis Yacht Club. Mrs. Harrison C. Bristol, Jr. of Lloyd Court, Annapolis, gave a luncheon for the bride and her attendants preceding the wedding on Saturday.

The bride's travelling costume was a monogrammed green linen dress with navy accessories. After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will be at home at Watergate Apartments, Annapolis.

The new Mrs. Marriner is a graduate of St. Catherine's school, Richmond, Va. She attended Garland Jr. College, Boston, Mass. and Parsons School of Design in New York City. Mr. Marriner is a graduate of Severn Preparatory School, Severna Park, Md. and attended Elon College in North Carolina. He is currently associated with the family's highway construction business. He recently returned from Viet Nam where he was on duty with the U. S. Marine Corps stationed at Chu Lai and is now in the Marine Corps Reserve.

Attending the wedding from Culver were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Henderson.

MYC NEWS

by Evelyn Stofer

Sunday's race is another one that will have to be resailed, when the "possibility of occasional thunder showers" became a reality. Dark, ominous clouds, thunder and lightning and strong winds prompted the judges to fly the checkered flag and abandon the race just in time. Skippers and their crews scurried for shelter and most boats were safe and sound before the storm arrived. Steve Speer, who was leading the large fleet of 17 boats when the race was called off, will have to wait another day to make his victory bid.

Saturday's race was a good one for Cutter Washburn when he found the correct combination for the shifty winds, and brought his "TO" in for the first place cannon. Jerome Zechiel did some counting and decided 21 had to be before 22, and his T21 finished ahead of Bill Furry's T22 who had to be content with third place. Brother Dave Washburn was only able to sail T101 to a fourth place spot this week. Bud Suverkrup, with the help of some family crew, improved his position to fifth this week as did Fritz Muehlhausen in T10 who finished sixth. Steve Speer in this race finished seventh ahead of Pete Tron in T88. Bruce Moore brought T50 in for ninth place followed by Bill Stofer in T52.

Saturday morning the Junior Fleet produced its first two time winner when Charlie Roth captured another first place spot. Some of the "C" fleet skippers are considering taking sailing lessons from this young man!! Janie Moore moved up to second place this week followed by Dave Smitson who was third. Mark Baker, son of "da judge" was fourth and the Shaver skylark did not cross the finish line.

The Sailfish fleet had their ranks swelled by five sailors from CMA, but it was old pro Phil Schmoll who finished first. Scott Speer was second and was followed by Joe Schaub. Diane Thomas took a fourth place followed by CMA skippers: Page, Maddox, and Berenz, who finished fifth, sixth and seventh. Mark Suverkrup was eighth followed by two other boats from CMA skippered by Hilton and Teles. Alan Moore's boat did not cross the finish line.

There seems to be many more skylarks on the lake that could participate in the Junior Fleet races and we hope that more of them will be encouraged to participate in the races, receive awards for sailing and enjoy the parties the Junior Fleet members have. Saturday mornings at 10:00 these Junior Skippers assemble at Hollowell's lawn on the east shore for sailing instruction and fun. Let's hope that we will see many more of them this week.

A large number of Maxinkuckee Yacht Club members spent an enjoyable few hours at the beautiful home of the club's commodore, Rupert Esser Saturday evening at the annual Commodore's large variety of delicious foods and beverages as well as the opportunity for club members to renew old friendships and make new ones. All members should avail themselves of the opportunities provided for social activities as the season progresses.

This week end many Maxinkuckee skippers will take their boats to Lake Manitou at Rochester for the annual Exchange Regatta. Two races will be sailed on Saturday and one on Sunday. Then on August 10 and 11, Manitou will in turn bring their large fleet of "C" boats to Maxinkuckee to determine the winner of the Inner-Lake Regatta trophy. Any members needing assistance in getting their boats to Rochester or information about the Regatta should contact Regatta Chairman, Charlie Roth. Good luck to our skippers who will participate in this Regatta!

(Delayed)

If wet and wild was the slogan of last week's racing, this week end could only be described as calm and mild! All that was heard on Saturday afternoon, Saturday night and Sunday was the sailors' plaintive cry "blow, wind, blow!" Full holiday week end of racing was planned for Maxinkuckee sailors, but the wind users became wind hunters when light, variable breezes caused the cancelling of the Sunday race and near cancelling of Saturdays. This race of the Sunday Series will have to be sailed at a later date when there is more wind.

The only fireworks visible on Lake Maxinkuckee was a duel between Bill Furry in T22 and Bruce Moore in T50, but Thursday afternoon's winner proved to be Bruce's "Cricket" when he found that extra breeze to bring him across the finish line first. For his win, Bruce is awarded the Hendricks' Memorial Trophy, a new trophy awarded for the first time this year. Third place went to Friz Muehlhausen in T10 followed by Bob Hollowell in T9. Bud Suverkrup in T12 captured fifth place in this race and it looks like Bud is doing more flying in the sky than on the lake. This year Jerome Zechiel in T21 finished sixth ahead of Bill Washburn in T101 who beat out Bill Stofer's T52 for seventh place. Following Bill were Rupert Esser in T26, and Schilling in T13. Whatever happened to those old fashioned displays that residents of Lake Maxinkuckee and Marshall County were treated to anyway?

Saturday afternoon was even a poorer sailing day than Thursday, but Charlie Roth found the breeze to bring his "CharLee" in 31 minutes ahead at the second place boat, Bill Stafer's "Windjagerin". Cutter Washburn's "no-name" drifted out third place. Pete Trone's "Woodtick" finished ahead of Steve Speer in "Windjammer" who was ably assisted by his excommodore mother as crew. Bud Suverkrup's "C-Breeze" couldn't find a breeze and had to be contented with sixth place, but still finished ahead of Bruce Moore's "Cricket" who was seventh and Fritz Muehlhausen's "Minnie" who was eighth. Jerome Zechiel's "Penny" did not finish the race.

Saturday night was the first running of the 1968 Moonlight Race and there was a beautiful bright moon to aid the skippers and their ladies around the course. The only thing lacking from this idyllic picture was wind and "where was de-judge?"

Rupert Esser jumped off to an early lead, however after several hours of drifting, Steve Speer was awarded first place on the basis of his victory in a "water fight" with the other boats. We hope in next month's second running of the Moonlight race that we will either have more wind or larger paddles!! The most successful portion of the evening was the lovely party held at the home of Bill and Marietta Schilling. An enjoyable time was had by many MYC members.

The Saturday morning Junior skippers had better success running their race when six Skylarks and eight Sailfish were on hand for the starting gun. Diane Thomas won her season's first Sailfish race when she crossed the finish line ahead of the greatly improved Mark Suverkrup who was second. Phil Schmoll was third followed by Tim Roth. Alan Moore who came in fifth should take some pointers from his sailing brother. Joe Schaub was sixth followed by Scott Speer and Kent Zacharias. Charlie Roth gave his father something to shoot for in the afternoon series when at the finish line he was ahead of the other five Skylarks. Dave Smitson was second followed by Cub Shaver. Steve Muehlhausen of the "Sailing Muehlhausens" was fourth followed by Mark Baker, fifth, Janie Moore, sixth. We hope that as the season goes on, many more Junior Skippers will sail in this exciting Saturday morning series.

An added feature to the racing program at Maxinkuckee will be an open class Skylark race to be held in conjunction with the Saturday afternoon series. Any and all owners, skippers and sailors of Skylarks are welcome to assemble about 2:00 p.m. at the "C" class starting line for their own race. Members of the MYC realize that there are many sailors of Skylarks on the lake who are not eligible to participate in Junior Fleet races. This open series of Skylark racing will give all of them an opportunity to sail regardless of age, weight, or gender. Come to the Saturday afternoon Skylark races and enjoy this fascinating sport of sailboat racing.

A large part of the Maxinkuckee Yacht Club's yearly activities are the opportunities for members to attend social functions. The first of these is the Commodore's Cocktail Party and all members are invited to attend this party to be held Saturday, July 13, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the home of Commodore Rupert Esser, 324 South Shore Drive.

 A verse from Revelation serves as the Golden Text: "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely."

 The Lesson-Sermon also includes references from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. One quotation is the following: "Time-tables of birth and death are so many conspiracies against manhood and womanhood. Except for the error of measuring and limiting all that is good and beautiful, man would enjoy more than threescore years and ten and still maintain his vigor, freshness, and promise."
 Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 428 S. Michigan St., Plymouth, Ind. begin at 10:30 a.m. All are welcome.

July 21 - 27 Is Farm Safety Week

FARM SAFETY WEEK, JULY 21 - 27, 1968
 1968 marks the twenty-fifth consecutive year that the Indiana Farm Safety Council, Inc. has cooperated with the United States Department of Agriculture in the promotion of national Farm Safety Week.
 In signing a proclamation designating July 21-27 as Farm Safety Week, President Johnson said that modern farming is a complex and highly skilled profession, but that it is also hazardous. He had noted that agriculture ranks third among American industries in accidental death rate.
 According to national statistics, more than 1,000 persons in the United States are killed in tractor accidents annually; approximately 1,800 farm residents are fatally injured in the home.
 Farm Safety Week is set aside not just as a week in which to practice safety on the farm, but a week in which it is hoped farmers will take a long, hard look at work habits developed over the years. By making safety an integral part of each work routine, accident prevention will become a full-time, 52-weeks-out-of-the-year activity.
 William Marvel, president of The Indiana Safety Council, called for stepped-up accident prevention by farm residents. He also commended rural residents in their wide-spread use of the slow moving vehicle emblem. "Now with the seasonal increase in the use of farm machinery and the need to transfer equipment from field to field on the highway, safety must become an essential part of every highway user's life," Marvel said.

 The Indiana Farm Safety Council is a non-profit, non-partisan organization dedicated to making farm life safer for Indiana residents.

WESTERN HORSE SHOW ENTRY DEADLINE JULY 22

The deadline for entries in the Indiana State Fair Western Horse Show to be held August 19-21 is July 22 according to Edgar "Red" Terrell, manager.
 A $500 National Appaloosa Pony Inc. stake has been added to this year's purse to make a total of $4,000 to be offered in stake premiums in addition to prizes awarded in each class.
 Other stakes offered again this year will be the $1000 Quarter Horse Championship Reining, Palomino Grand Championship, and Quarter Horse Pleasure Championship stakes, and the $500 Appaloosa Stake.
 Championship prizes will also be awarded in the stock saddle equitation and open cutting horse finals.

"A brisk-moving, action-packed show has been planned," Terrell said, "with more than 500 top horses expected from all over the United States."
 Featured in the show will be registered appaloosa and National Appaloosa Pony Inc. pony, palomino, pinto, and quarter horse as well as the western show horse, and cutting horse breeds.
 A class for the half-Arabian western pleasure horse in the Western Division has been added this year, Terrell said.
 Classes will include halter, performance, cutting and stock saddle equitation.
 In the Palomino Division, classes will be available for both the stock type and pleasure type horses.

The equitation - stock saddle division will be separated into three classes: 10 years and under, 11 through 13 years, and 14 through 18 years.
 A youth activity division will feature classes for contestants under 18 years of age showing palomino and quarter horses.
