Marshall County Vote Count Is Strong Republican

Marshall County, traditionally a Republican County, stayed true to form in the November 5th election as big turnouts at the election polls supported the Republican candidates from Richard Nixon and Spiro Agnew right down the line.

John Brademas Speaks To Culver Chamber Meeting

"Growing public resistance to the steady increase in local property taxes makes clear the need to help hard pressed local governments meet the demand for essential public services," congressman John Brademas said at the luncheon address to the Culver Chamber held at the Culver Inn last Friday. He also stated that we must face the simple fact that we can no longer rely on the property tax so heavily as we have in the past for financing local government, especially schools.

He continued by noting that in order to ease the upward pressure on the property tax, local governments must receive an increasing share of expanding Federal revenues as well as aid from state governments. In addition to revenue sharing, Brademas suggested several other measures essential to strengthen the capacity of state as well as local governments. He believes there must be a modernization of state and local tax systems, consolidation of Federal grants-in-aid and an upgrading of state and local government personnel.

Following the address, the members participated in a question and answer period.

Mr. T Makes Grand Announcement

Saturday, November 9, Ronald Tusing will hold a Grand Announcement to announce that he is the new owner of Mr. T's Culver Rexall Drugs, formerly known as the Culver City Drug Store. Mr. Tusing purchased the store in October from Mr. and Mrs. Barrett Irvine.

Ron came to Culver 5 years ago with his attractive wife, Kay, and two daughters, Cindy and Michelle. Previously he was employed at Judd's Drugs in Warsaw where he went to work soon after graduating from Purdue University in 1960.

The drug store, built around the year 1889 has undergone remodeling the last few years and Tusing has plans to continue remodeling to give his customers an attractive as well as an efficient store.

In addition to the Rexall products, the store carries Coty and Revlon cosmetics; Russell Stover box chocolates and Hallmark cards and party supplies.

Customer services such as paying telephone bills and writing money orders will continue. Starting soon there will be a file of individual family records of possible allergies so that Mr. T will be able to prevent possible reactions due to drug sensitivity.

Since this store is famous for their chocolate sodas you will be pleased to hear that the homemade chocolate sauce will still be a feature. We have been told that this recipe has been in use for over 30 years.

To greet you and your family, Mr. Tusing has planned Saturday as the "big" day. He will present the ladies with an orchid; men will receive the popular English Leather cologne and clovers will have balloons for the children.

There will be a drawing Saturday evening at 7:00 p.m. when some lucky people will receive the 1st prize of an Instamatic Camera, projector, screen and $20.00 processing by McJen's; or 2nd prize which will be a Ladies Schick Consolette Hair Dryer. There will also be other prizes given at this time so don't forget to register for the drawing.

Mr. T considers everyone a neighbor so let's all be neighborly and stop in and wish him success.

Did you know Cameos were carved out of sea shells in Italy? Or that Pinna or the "Pen" is a shell that has beautiful golden colored hair which it uses to attach itself to rocks...that can be woven into beautiful cloth? That conch shells were first used by individuals as fog horns? There are angel wings, a bloody tooth, and a jewel box that looks like the real thing. All these and many more beautiful specimens were shown and explained by Mrs. Howard Oberlin who is noted for her shell collection.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. D. Hatten giving the thought "No one gets indigestion from swallowing pride occasionally." The Creed then the Pledges to the United States and Christian flags were repeated in unison. Mrs. Ellsworth Routson gave devotions on the theme "Nothing but Leaves." Mrs. J. Richard Behmer led the song of the month "Prayer of Thanksgiving" accompanied by Mrs. Whitney Kline. The birthday song was sung to Mrs. Ora Reed.

Holiday House will be held on Nov. 14 at the Plymouth Methodist Church Education building. The theme for this year is "Seasonally Yours" and is open from one to eight o'clock in the evening. Anyone interested is invited to attend whether or not you are a member of an Extension Homemaker's Club.

There will be a dollar gift exchange and a cash offering for Riley Hospital at the December meeting which will be held at the Burr Oak Annex on Dec. 6, and the hostesses will be the Executive committee.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments to 28 members and three guests, Mrs. Norman Lamunion, Mrs. Iine Bossinger and Mrs. John Helt.

He also stated that the installation of all pumps will meet state specification. Becker also reported that arrangements have been made to place a light and lettering on the on the on the water tower.

Verl McFeely showed the Town Board the Award of Merit that the Culver Water Dept. received in recognition of their excellent safety record. He also reported that the new well is not operational yet but will soon be ready for testing.

Donald Osborn, president, mentioned that the new stop light has arrived but will not be put until black topping of Jefferson St. is completed. This work must be finished before freezing weather.

Sue Mattox asked that the Board look into repairs for the Sewage Department truck. It needs emergency breaks and a new transmission among other things. She also reminded them that the space heater in the disposal plant has seen better days and will need to be replaced in the near future.

McFeely and Win Hansen, of the Street Department, suggested that the members of the Board might look into the purchase of a street sweeper that the town of Bremen is selling. This sweeper is eight years old and was overhauled last year. It also has a new curb brush and a new sweeper brush in back. Both men have examined the equipment and state it to be in excellent condition. The Board expressed interest and will investigate as soon as possible.

ILLEGAL

The Culver Citizen has been given several articles recently about various money raising affairs that we are not allowed to print. The jurisdiction over such events, as we will try to explain, is not ours, but the Post Office Departments in allowing or not allowing such to be sent through the mails.

The matter at hand concerns lotteries. The quite complex explanation simply boils down to any such project that has three necessary elements involved to constitute a lottery. They are chance, prize and consideration. This automatically eliminates such things as raffles, bingo, feather parties and many other advertising gimmicks that require a person to give consideration, whether it be money or not, for a chance to win a prize.

It is with regret that we must follow this law when some newspapers have in many occasions let such items go through. Also, making it more binding is the fact that much of this can be mentioned over radio, but still we are not allowed to print this type of materials if the papers go through the mail.

We hope this will help clear up some question with those who have submitted articles with these various forms of gambling involved. If we have any question, we simply call the post office and get their ruling, as we try to accommodate everyone, but at the same time stay within the boundaries of the law.

CULVER COMMENTS

We are delighted that some of you have expressed a desire to contribute to the "Voice of the People." It seems, however, that most of you do not wish to sign your name. We must know who sends the letter but your name will not be printed if you do not want it printed. And — no one can come in here and force us to divulge the name unless they have a court order. The court will not so order unless we are all being sued for libel.

Now the chances of being sued for libel are extremely small. Just don't use names. We, of course, will not print anything that will get you or us in hot water as far as libel goes.

If you don't trust Ruth and I to keep our mouths shut — send your letter directly to Walkerton and even we will not be told your secret.

— C C —

Does anyone have any idea what the police are going to do with all the soap they confiscated from the small fry last week? Naturally, I have a suggestion! Why not auction it off for the benefit of the Town Marshall and Auxiliary Police Coffee Break Fund?

The "boys in blue" almost kept the Halloweeners under control. They kept the lid over everything except the pumpkins, egg cartoon, fire hydrants and paint cans.

— C C —

One of Culver's noted trouble makers was confided to the house on Halloween night (My husband and kids wouldn't let me out.)

— C C —

Main Street always looks so bare after the flowers baskets come down. It's much too early for the Christmas decorations to go up. Maybe someone could hang an effigy or two.

— C C —

Win or loss aren't you happy the elections are over and done? We can now look ahead to four years of uninterrupted TV. The boob tube sure took a beating the last week before the tateful fateful day.

Actually we do have another presidential election the first of the year but that one is decided by the Town Board members. According to tradition a new president will be elected. That would narrow the field down to Esther Powers or George Becker.

— C C —

Don Trone, sporting a "William Howard Taft for President" button on this lapel was to be heard grumbling on election day. He claimed that not one election place had Taft's name on the ballot. Cheer up, Mr. Trone, maybe four years from now . . .

Questions And Answers About Vehicle Inspection

Indiana's new Vehicle Inspection program goes into effect January 1, 1969.

Willard L. Walls, administrator of the Vehicle Inspection Department, says vehicle inspection is an essential part of the overall traffic safety program.

Walls has compiled a list of questions most frequently asked about Indiana's new program. And by answering the queries, he hopes that Hoosiers will become more familiar with vehicle inspection.

Q. When does the inspection program begin?

A. January 1, 1969, is the effective date of the program.

Q. What items will be required to be inspected?

A. Steering, Suspension, Alignment, Brakes, Tires and Wheels, Lighting Equipment, Horn, Mirrors, Windshield Wipers, Muffler and Exhaust System and Safety Glass.

Q. What vehicles have to be inspected?

A. Autos, Buses, Trucks, Truck Tractors, Trailers, Motorcycles, foreign made vehicles and antique motor vehicles.

Q. What is the cost of the inspection?

A. The inspection fee is $2.50. The state receives fifty cents of this fee.

Q. Where and by whom will these inspections be conducted?

A. Inspections will be conducted by state licensed automotive establishments who qualify as inspection stations. Mechanics are required to have at least one year's experience and will also be licensed.

Q. How many stations will there be in Indiana?

A. As many as can qualify. There is no limit as to the number of stations that will be licensed.

Q. Who will regulate this program?

A. The Indiana state police department will supervise the program and all law officers at the county and city level will enforce it.

Q. What protection does the motorist have against unethical inspection stations?

A. First, all stations will be examined to be sure they are reputable, reliable, and properly equipped. Second, they will be licensed to insure performance. Third, periodic inspections will be made by members of the Indiana State Police. Fourth, the public has much control over this because repairs can be made anywhere the motorist wishes. Fifth, complaints will be thoroughly investigated and licenses of stations who do not operate according to the rules and regulations of the department will be revoked and the owners will be subject to prosecution.

Q. Will there be any restrictions for inspection stations?

A. Yes. An inspection station must have a certain specified area under roof, adequate inspection equipment, and qualified personnel.

Q. If a car fails to pass the inspection, where will the repairs be made?

A. Anywhere the owner chooses, and he will have fifteen days in which to have the vehicle repaired. If repaired and taken to the same inspection station within fifteen days, there will be no additional inspection charge. The owner may repair the vehicle himself. Should repairs be made by the inspection station, a written estimate of the cost for repairs. If requested, must be given to the vehicle owner before any repairs are made.

Q. How many states have an annual vehicle inspection program?

A. Toady, there are with vehicle inspection programs and 7 other states will be starting their programs in the near future.

Q. Isn't it true that unsafe vehicle condition accounts for a small percentage of accidents?

A. Reliable evidence indicates that unsafe conditions are a contributory cause for a greater percentage of accidents than usually believed.

Q. Does vehicle inspection cut accidents and save lives?

A. States with effective vehicle inspection have reduced the number of accidents in which unsafe vehicle condition as a contributing factor, even when the total number of accidents has increased.

Q. Do new cars need inspection?

A. Yes, an automobile, regardless of how carefully it's manufactured, is a machine subject to deterioration.

Q. Can vehicle inspection actually save motorists money?

A. Yes. Balanced against the minor personal expenses of inspections is the fact that vehicle inspection is a form of insurance against traffic accidents caused by unsafe vehicle conditions. As an added bonus inspection often spots minor troubles before they become major expenses.

Any motorist voluntarily may present his vehicle for inspection at an official inspection station in January and February 1969. This can be done to avoid the last minute rush.

If not inspected in these two months, a vehicle must be inspected by a date based on the last number of 1969 license plates.

If the last number on a 1969 license plate is a 1 or 2, it must be inspected by March 31, 1969. If it is a 3, 4 or a 5, deadline is April 30; if it is a 6, 7 or an 8, deadline is May 31.

If it is a 9 or 0, deadline is June 30.

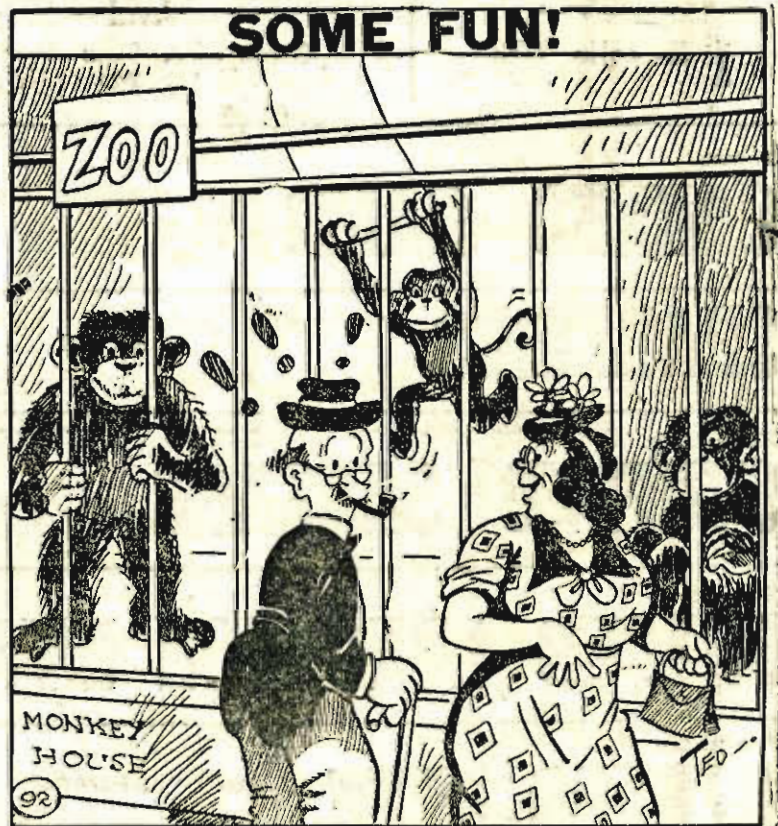

A windshield sticker, indicating cars have been inspected officially, will be valid for one (1) year from the month it is affixed on the vehicle, provided it is inspected and approved prior to the end of the month in which the inspection is due.

The sticker will remain valid for the year, provided you do not transfer the ownership of the vehicle or your vehicle is not involved in an accident which requires filing a written report with the Indiana State Police.

The new vehicle inspection program is an important part of Indiana's total traffic safety effort.

Linda Shirrell DAR Good Citizen

Miss Linda Shirrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shirrell, R.R. 3, Knox, has been named D.A.R. Good Citizen of Culver Community High School for 1968-69.

The Senior Class chose three girls who possessed the following qualities to an outstanding degree: dependability; truthfulness; loyalty; punctuality; service; cooperation, courtesy, consideration of others; leadership; personality; self-control; ability to assume responsibility; patriotism; unselfish interest in family, school, community and nation.

The contest is limited to senior girls in accredited public and private high schools.

A competitive examination to determine a country winner will be given Tuesday, November 5 at the home of Mrs. Harold Rose, Plymouth.

A State Good Citizen will be chosen from the county winners and a second and third place winner named also. In addition 10 honorable mention girls will be chosen.

The state winner will receive a $100 Government and a state winners pin.

Cavaliers New Name Of All Athletic Teams

Culver Community High School will be known in athletics as the Cavaliers. This was decided by a recent vote of the student body under the auspices of the athletic council composed of coaches and administrators.

The students suggested near fifty different names in the beginning. These were then narrowed to three by the athletic council and resubmitted to the students for final vote.

To the best of our knowledge we are the only high school in Indiana now known as the Cavaliers.

NMSQ Test Will Be Given At CCHS

Culver Community High students who expect to complete their secondary school requirements and who expect to enter college in 1970 can register now to participate in the 1969-70 National Merit Scholarship Program.

All students who wish to enter the nationwide competition must take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMSQT). The test will be given in the Culver Community High School on Tuesday, February 18, 1969. A fee of $1.25 is payable before a student can take the test.

When the NMSQT scores are reported each participating student will receive a vocational handbook to help him evaluate his scores and compare his performance with that of other high school students in the United States. Also the handbook contains information about choosing a college and financing a college education.

The students scoring highest will be named Semifinalists and are eligible for Merit Scholarship consideration. Several other organizations use the NMSQT scores in selecting winners of their respective scholarships.

During recent year, several students from this area served by the Culver Community High received Merit Scholarships. Others have received substantial scholarships from cooperating scholarship programs.

The Guidance Department of the Culver Community High School urges all students who are interested in 1969-70 NMSQT program to register in the Guidance Office immediately.

UNDERSTANDING

Some parents to realize that their teen-age boys and girls see life's problems from a juvenile point of view.

CCHS Cross Country

On August 19, team candidates reported for the first X-C practice. Eighteen boys reported for the first of many practice sessions, all in varying degrees of physical readiness. Four boys reported with an edge on their teammates; they had run 500 miles to qualify for the CCHS 500 mile Club. These boys Kerry Haenes, Carl Strang, Tom Vonda, and Juan Ruiz started their journey to the 500 Mile Club last spring after school let out and finished the day school started this fall. They did their running of mornings before work or after work of an evening. They averaged 5 to 6 miles each day all summer.

Workouts for the team continued every evening from Aug. 19, until school started. The workouts covered from 3 to 5 miles of high speed intensified running each day.

After school started workouts increased in intensity covering 4-6 miles in preparation for the first meet on September 6, at Argos.

On September 6, the season was launched on a very successful note with a "slam" over Argos, a slam being 15-50 (Low team score wins). On October 16, the season ended in the same way it began with a "slam" over North Judson. In between the slams the team posted a 11-2 won-lost record in dual and triangular meets. The team also gained the first trophy for the CCHS trophy case by winning the Marshall County Inv. X-C Meet in Plymouth. They also posted a 2nd place finish in the Shortridge (Indianapolis) Inv., 3rd at the New Prairie Inv. and a 6th at the Elkhart Sectional.

The following boys contributed to the outstanding success of the team:

MAJOR POINTS AND MINOR, TOO

It's about time: To take some positive action about litterbugging . . . getting to be more of a problem every year. I'm shocked at the empty pop and beer cans, broken bottles and discarded paper seen at recreation areas and along our highways.

The no refund bottles create a serious situation . . . they are thrown away and broken and are a threat to those who may be going barefoot or playing in the area. Why people have to be so thoughtless and careless is beyond me.

Discarded barbecue coals are a problem, too, the Allstate Safety Crusade reminds us . . . they never should be dumped where anyone can walk on them, for they can cause crippling burns to the unwary. Always douse them with water and cover them well with sand and dirt.

My Favorite Jokes

A 12-year-old boy rushed into a drugstore. "My father's being chased by a police dog!" he yelled. "What can I do about it?" the clerk asked him. "Put some film in my camera!" the kid yelled.

Did you hear about the karate expert who stuck out his hand to make a left turn and cut a station wagon in half?

Manhattan Scene

New York — It's good to be here in autumn . . . when the heat of summer has lifted, and the air is crisper, people more cheerful, new plays opening, and new displays in galleries and museums.

The view of Manhattan from the American Airlines jet was superb as we came in for our landing . . . the tall buildings stood out clearly in the late afternoon sun, reflecting orange shafts from their windows. The breeze had blown away the smoke that so often bedevils the residents of this great city, and all the landmarks were clearly visible.

Such a busy city! And such traffic! What New York needs is a big supply of smaller cabs, compact models which would ease part of the downtown congestion. But the big cabs are here in huge number (sometimes they disappear when it rains, however), and they contribute greatly to the traffic problems which vex motorists and bother the administration.

But with all its bigness and its traffic dilemma, New York remains a fascinating city to visit . . . exciting, vibrant, lusty, often infuriating but always intriguing.

If you come to New York, it's smart to have confirmed hotel reservations, the Allstate Motor Club advises. This is a busy time of year, with meetings and conferences all over the city, so don't get caught without a soft bed to give you the rest you'll need for a swift Manhattan pace.

Eager Beaver: There's nothing like a first horseback ride to make a man feel better off . . .

Don't speed your limit; instead, limit your speed.

— Wilfred Beaver

Major Applause: For Mission: Impossible, a fine TV series, well worth watching . . . the return of "Around the World in 80 Days", an excellent movie . . . The Life Magazine article on pollution of the Great Lakes, a gripping portrayal of the savage thing that business and individuals have done to this magnificent natural resource.

Merely Musing: Middle age is when a narrow waist and broad mind often change places . . . and an after dinner mint is what you need when the night club waiter hands you the check.

REACTION TO GRADE CARDS

It's report card time and the way you react to your child's grades will affect his feeling toward school and himself, reminds Mrs. Jean Zimmerman, Purdue University extension human development specialist.

Of course, if his grades are good, your approval of him and his achievements in school will be easy.

If the grades are lower than you were expecting, don't make your child feel guilty. He needs support rather than criticism. Your child may work harder for a "C" than the one next to him who receives an "A."

And don't expect brothers and sisters to make the same grades. When you compare one with the other, you encourage jealousy and resentment.

She suggests you plan a conference with the child's teacher to discuss possible reasons for low grades. Most teachers welcome parents who are interested in helping their children. The teacher sees the child at work in many different situations and is trained to identify positive attributes as well as habits which are hindering his progress in school. Follow the teacher's suggestions on how to help your child improve his grades.

"Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man." This verse from the Epistle of James is part of the Bible Lesson-Sermon titled "Adam and Fallen Man" to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

At First Church of Christ, Scientist, Plymouth, services will begin at 10 a.m.
 Related passages from the denominational textbook also will be read, among them the following: "The divine nature was best expressed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the truer reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than their poor thought-models would allow. — thoughts which presented man as fallen, sick, sinning, and dying. The Christlike understanding of scientific being and divine healing includes a perfect Principle and idea, — perfect God and perfect man, — as the basis of thought and demonstration."

Fifty people attended the World Community Day Service which was observed Friday at the Burr Oak Church of God. The Theme was "New World 'A Coming'". The leader was Mrs. Edward Easterday.
 Mrs. D. Hatten read the scripture from Matthew and Romans and the four readers were Mrs. Ashbury Tally, Mrs. Wilfred Craft, Mrs. George Warner and Mrs. Robert Hill. Mrs. Bryce Bigley sang a solo with Miss Margaret Swanson accompanying her on the organ. Mrs. Judson Dillon was song leader and read an interesting meditation. The ushers were Mrs. Dewey Overmyer, Miss Florence Page, Mrs. Blanche Finney and Mrs. Emil Lewis. Mrs. William MacQuillan and Mrs. Harold Scott had a dialogue on Human Rights. The Rev. Ellsworth Routsen gave the offering prayer and the benediction.
 Cut garments were made by the participating churches from the Culver Community Council of Churches and will be sent to Church World Service for use in Vietnam, Indonesia, or the Middle East. Three dollar certificates were purchased which Church World Service will use for a blanket, five yards of fabric or non-fat dry milk.

Parents Without Partners To Meet Tonight
 The Plymouth Chapter of Parents without Partners will hold their regular panel discussion and business meeting Thursday, November 7, 1968 at the First United Church of Christ, 319 North Center Street (Corner of West Adams and North Center) at 8:00 o'clock p.m. E.S.T.
 The topic of the panel discussion will be "Emotional Maturity" with Jean Kunze as moderator. On the panel will be JoAnn Keller, Alice Gerrard and Robert Hutchings.
 Prospective members are cordially invited to attend. You are eligible for membership if you are a parent and single because of death, divorce or separation. Custody of the children is not a factor.
 P.W.P. is an educational organization devoted to the welfare and interest of single parents and their children. Discussions and speakers are directed at helping you solve various problems, regain self confidence and to function in a normal life pattern. The family type activities provide an opportunity to do things with your children in a group that you would not do alone. The dinner nites are planned to give you an opportunity to get out of the house with others socially.

Environmental Health Scientists at University of Cincinnati
 Environmental health scientists at the University of Cincinnati are studying the zinc, copper, lead and cadmium content of human hair. They point out that cadmium is not an essential element in the body, as zinc and copper are, and yet the amount of it in hair (although low), continuously increases from birth to old age. They said that this suggests that we ought to search our environment for cadmium sources and their relation to man's health. Cadmium is toxic to man at much lower concentrations than the other metals and has a tendency to accumulate in the vital organs, making it dangerous to man as he grows older.

Auto Finishes Getting Better
 AUTO FINISHES are getting better each year because the color pigment industry is making steady advances toward providing more permanent colors, says the Holland-Suco Color Company, Holland, Mich. One such class of pigments, available in a variety of red shades, is known as the perylenes. A special class of perylenes, covered by a U.S. patent application, possesses a high degree of transparency which improves the sparkle of metallized finishes.

Disposable Houses May Prevent Urban Decay
 HOUSES should be mass-produced, inhabited until blighted or obsolete, then scrapped, says urban planner Barrie Greenbie. Modern technology has made it feasible to replace buildings one at a time without destroying a neighborhood, he claims. In calling for a new approach to low- and medium-cost housing he maintains that a house should be as disposable and replaceable as any other product of modern industry. Urban blight can be checked and neighborhoods kept healthy by replacing houses with prefabricated ones, he says. The "prefabs" in turn can be replaced as they deteriorate.

Small Computer at University of Chicago Hospital
 A SMALL COMPUTER at a University of Chicago hospital is being used in a preliminary study to monitor the condition of expectant mothers where complications are indicated. It maintains constant vigil over the patient and continually analyzes and displays its observations. As a result, subtle pathologic deviations from normal labor can now be more easily interpreted by the obstetrician.

SCIENCE TOPICS
 "LET SLEEPING ASTRO-NAUTS FLY"
 HIBERNATING ASTRO-NAUTS plunging light-years into outer space may be more than a science fiction writer's fantasy, reports a Cornell University zoologist. He said the prospect of an astronaut's hibernating for part of his space travel would depend on depressing the metabolism, reducing oxygen consumption to slow down the functioning of the body. He said that it appears that the mechanism pertinent to depressed metabolism can be unraveled and applied to man. One of the features of hibernators is their extended life span, and if serious thought is to be given to long-term space travel, a key consideration must be extension of an astronaut's life span.
