New Basketball Chapter To Begin In Culver Saturday

By Earl O. Mishler

A new chapter in the rich basketball history of the Culver-Monterey-Leiters Ford area will begin Saturday night when the first-ever edition of the Culver Community High School Cavaliers plays host to Argos in the season opener.

Along with the new nickname, there will be a new head coach and a beautiful, new, 2,961-seat gymnasium awaiting fans of the new school, which represents a consolidation of the old Aubbeenaubee, Culver and Monterey high schools.

The new gym will be ready Saturday night and so will the new coach, Dave Huffman, a 29-year-old who already has four years of head coaching experience under his belt.

Huffman, a product of Marion High School and William Penn College who played ball at both places, comes to Culver Community from Oak Hill, another consolation at the Grant-Miami county line. He spent three seasons there, the last two as head man, after a year of junior high experience at Huntington and two as head coach at Swayzee.

Huffman actually replaces two veteran coaches and a rookie. John Nelson, whose 15-year stay at Aubbee was one of the state's longest, is now athletic director at CCHS, and Gene Crosley, varsity coach for the last seven years at Culver, is now assistant coach. Dave Burkett, who was at Monterey as a first-year mentor last season, is not in the system.

Huffman has named an 11-man varsity roster for the 1968-69 season, along with a like number of B-Teamers. Nine of the varsitymen have earned at least one previous letter and nine are seniors.

On paper, the Cavaliers boast not only experience, but height, depth and scoring punch as well. Whether or not this materializes on the playing floor is another question, however, since eight of the varsity players are from Aubbee or Monterey and will be required to adjust to a vastly tougher schedule this season.

For example, four of the ex-Fliers and ex-Braves averaged in double figures last season, including Rick Pugh's 24.6 for Monterey and John Szponar's 23.9 for Aubbee. The question is how well can they perform against the consistently strong competition of this year's CCHS schedule.

The aforementioned height includes the 6-3 Szponar, 6-5 John Wamsley, 6-1 Alan Wentzel and a pair of even six-footers, Pugh and Don Ehlinger.

However, much of this year's success may depend on the performance of the backcourt candidates. These include junior John Bauer and seniors Steve McCombs, Larry Shaffer, Kerry Haenes and Pugh, who may divide his time between guard and forward. Another forward-guard performer is 5-11 senior Steve Snyder.

Another front-line candidate is 5-10 senior Scot Van Horn, who, like Wentzel, Shaffer and Szponar, logged considerable varsity playing time at Aubbee.

In appraising the outlook for his first season at Culver, Huffman expressed what he termed "reserved skepticism." The new coach pointed out that the players are still new to each other and to the coach. "However," he stated, "we're looking forward to a good year. We hope to establish a winning attitude and a winning tradition with our senior-dominated squad in order to give the younger players something to try to emulate."

Huffman said that practice sessions presently are being largely devoted to work on defense, which he feels is the team's present weak point. As far as his starting lineup is concerned, Huffman stated that at least two positions are still completely wide open and maybe more.

Members of the athletic staff at the new school, which includes freshman coach Terry Haskell, have expressed their optimism in looking forward to a season of solid support from the combined communities. As Huffman put it, "We sure would like to see the gym filled every game."

We can't think of a better idea why not get out to that opener Saturday night? You'll see a new team, a new coach, a plush new gym and who knows, maybe even a renaissance in basketball fortunes.

E. D. Overmyer New Supervisor Of Maintenance

A 1968-69 Title I Application emphasizing an individual program, cultural enrichment and tentative plans for a summer program was reported to the Board of School Trustees of the Culver Community School Corporation this week.

Out of an original allocation of $28,228.00, $3,139.25 was designated for the Joint Special Schools Program for the current year in which Culver is participating. The remaining amount of $25,148.00 will be devoted to the program during the current year and summer program for 1969.

In other business, the Board approved the contract for Earl Dean Overmyer as Supervisor of Maintenance for the school corporation. Overmyer succeeds the late Gary H. Cummins. Selected from several candidates, Mr. Overmyer is a life-long resident of this community. He conducted the Overmyer Plumbing and Heating business for several years and more recently has been manager of the Culver office of Gates & Calhoun Chevrolet, Inc. He has been active in civic affairs and is a past officer of the Chamber of Commerce, Culver Lions Club and District Lions organization.

A report on building maintenance showed completion of the installation of a breeching pipe and painting of gym at Aubbeenaubee School, replacement of a sewer tile at the Culver Elementary School, and plans for trimming dead wood from trees around the old Culver building. It was reported that the original planting of shrubs at the new school building was near complete and that electrical lines for shop machinery are to be installed. Work is progressing on the gymnasium and auditorium, with bleachers being installed in the gymnasium. It is anticipated that this work will be completed in the gymnasium by November 16th.

Board members will participate in the Regional Classroom Teachers Association meeting at Culver, November 7, 1968, and the ISBA meeting at the Morris Inn at Notre Dame on December 10, 1968.

Conference requests approved by the Board included State Conference on Reading, Peru, November 12, Mrs. Jeanne Epley and Mr. Shelton Kaiser; Wabash Health Conference, Indiana State University, November 1, J. Parents Without Partners To Hear Dr. Bryce Rohrer

The Plymouth Area Chapter of Parents Without Partners, Inc., will have their monthly speaker meeting on Thursday, November 21, 1968, at 8:00 p.m. EST at the First United Church of Christ Annex, corner of West Adams and North Center Street in Plymouth.

The guest speaker for the evening will be Dr. Bryce B. Rohrer of the Walkerton Clinic. Dr. Rohrer graduated from Indiana University and is a member of The American Medical Association, St. Joseph County Medical Society, The Indiana State Medical Association, Past President of LaPorte Hospital Medical Staff and an active member of the American Academy of General Practice. Dr. Rohrer is an Elder of the Presbyterian Church and involved in many civic and community activities. The topic to be presented will be "Adult Sex Education." There is a broad but very mistaken assumption that sex education is for the young, that the mature man or woman doesn't need it. This just isn't so, there is an extraordinary lack of awareness by adults of their own concepts of sexuality and what it means.

We invite all prospective members in Marshall County and surrounding areas to attend this meeting to hear Dr. Rohrer speak.

The opening paragraph of the preamble to the Constitution of Parents Without Partners, Inc., reads — "As conscientious single parents it is our primary endeavor to bring our children to healthy maturity, with the full sense of being loved and accepted as persons and with the same prospects for normal adulthood as children who mature with their two parents together." Therefore, we of the Plymouth Chapter work to this end with discussions, speakers and family outings; through the exchange of ideas, mutual understanding, and the help and companionship we find with one another.

"To be eligible for membership in Parents Without Partners, Inc., a person must be a parent and single by reason of death, divorce or separation, or unmarried." There are no other restrictions or exclusions to membership except that you be of good character. Custody of the children is not a factor of eligibility.

living in Culver.

The program of raising funds from alumni and friends to help meet the needs of the school is now in its fifth year. It is conducted annually by the School of Medumni Association, in cooperation with the staff and faculty and with the Indiana University Foundation.

In last year's campaign, gifts were received from more than 1,500 donors in 440 cities throughout the nation.

Dr. Earl W. Mericle of Indianapolis, national chairman of the 1968 program, said that local chairmen are now organizing for personal solicitation in 220 cities throughout the nation.

"Contributions to the Fund will be used for student scholarships and loans, for facilities, for research, and other urgent needs, in accordance with the wishes of the donors," he said.

BUYING YOUR THANKSGIVING TURKEY

When you buy your Thanksgiving turkey, make sure you know how to select a quality bird, reminds William Stadelman, Purdue University professor of animal science.

What determines the quality of a turkey? Stadelman suggests buying poultry by grade and size. Grade A birds are fully fleshed and meaty, free of pin feathers and attractive in appearance — these quality birds can be found in all sizes from five to more than 30 pounds.

Many years ago producers of Broadway shows developed the technique of taking the show out of town for tryouts before bringing it to the big town and that crucial performance before the theater critics. Thus it has been common for audiences in New Haven and Boston and Washington to see the shake-down performances of Broadway hits before the "opening night" spectacular on The Great White Way.

Now the Federal Government is doing the same thing. Believe it or not the bureaucrats are doing a tryout of the controversial "negative income tax" in Trenton, New Jersey. "Negative Income Tax" is a fancy and misleading name for a program of guaranteeing an annual income to the poor, and this tryout has been going on for almost three months already. It is being financed with $4 million provided by the Federal anti-poverty program.

Beginning the first of August no less than 80 flabbergasted families in Trenton received a government check and in mid-August they received another. Twice a month the 80 lucky families get a check drawn on the US Treasury, and there are no questions asked, no restrictions on how the money is spent—in short, no strings attached. It is reported that many of the families couldn't believe that they were getting this bonanza for nothing, but it has seemed to gratify the government men that nobody refused the checks. As you would expect this is a pretty compli-ated program involving sliding-scale payments depending upon the family income. Basically the intent is to guarantee that each family has an income of $3,300 at least, that being the "poverty level" established by the men in Washington.

By the time spring rolls around the managers of this show will have a total of 1,000 families on this guaranteed annual income payroll, all of them in the six largest cities in New Jersey. Just why New Jersey was singled out for this test largesse isn't clear, although it is the baliwick of that stout Democratic Governor Hughes who catered the Glassboro meetings some months back.

Some families which have a wage-earner are getting as little as $10.75 a week during this tryout. Others receive as much as $78 a week from the Office of Economic Opportunity representatives. Nobody has to report how he spent the money.

Some folks in New Jersey think this is a fine show and are predicting great things for the producer. He is only 26 years old, and has already had a brilliant career as director of admissions at the Woodrow Wilson School at Princeton. There are at least 80 families who think that he will go far and more families are confirming that opinion every week. "The Negative Income Tax" is a hit show, with the cast. How the taxpaying audience will react is something else.

CULVER COMMENTS

At the time I am writing this, we have not had an answer to the lady who wrote to the "Voice of the People" asking for an explanation of the police car flashing lights at people driving in the vicinity of roads 10 and 17.

We feel that she deserves an answer but none has been forthcoming from our officials. We, at the Citizen really appreciate letters and so in an effort to keep them coming I will give all the possible explanations I can think up. Bear in mind, however, that these are my ideas and guesswork and do not necessarily reflect the views of our local authorities.

Dear "Wondering Citizen,"

Is it all possible that your husband paused too long at the stop sign? The local police are dead set against parkers (the romancing kind) and flush them out whenever they find them. There is also a chance that your husband resembles a desperately wanted criminal. You might check the pictures of the 10 most wanted criminals and see if he has a look-alike. Then, too, maybe the spotlight has a short in it and goes off and on at random.

The spotlight flashing could simply be a jolly "Hi" issued by the police to your husband.

I have determined that this is definitely a harmless policy. We must realize that our police are human and as such, need amusement from time to time. Other towns have had problems of police drinking on the job. Our police definitely don't hit the sauce—they're too full of coffee anyhow.

Culver's own Mrs. Poggirdle was about frightened out of her wits last week when the earthquake struck.

Her autographed, hand-tinted portrait of Hubert Humphrey crashed to the floor when the Mayor Richard Daly campaign button that was holding it up gave way.

Rumor has it that our local merchants have purchased some new Christmas decorations for Main Street. November is passing swiftly so we won't have long to wait to see what they have in store.

Believe it or not, someone has accused me of causing trouble by "stirring the pot." Who me? Don't be ridiculous. I don't cook up this brew, although I do season it a bit. Some people egg me on while others get boiling mad. If they don't want the pot stirred they shouldn't leave so many ingredients laying around.

Students at CCHS who are in doubt as to what they want to be might take into account their names while deciding their future. Consider for instance, the faculty at Oregon State University: Dr. Jesse F. Bone is in veterinary medicine; Dr. G. Stephen Pond, oceanography; Dr. Carroll W. Fox, animal science; Dr. Cyrus F. Field, geology; Prof. Gerhard R. Flood, swimming.

In the department of horticulture; Dr. Apencer B. Apple, Jr.; Prof. A. G. Bouquet and Dr. Garvin D. Crabtree.

How long has it been since you enjoyed the real old-fashioned mince meat? The ladies of the Poplar Grove W.S.C.S. will spend an entire day cooking up this spicy, succulent pie filling. They have already picked up 14 bushels of apples. Sound good? They're taking orders now so contact them soon.

Jan Scruggs, Culver's librarian, gave us some interesting information. You no doubt have noticed the monthly listing of films available at the public library. Believe it or not the 21 films available in October were seen by 5934 viewers.

One family in town is happy.

They just received their Christmas Fund check and discovered that they had saved enough all year to pay this month's water bill. Beats going to the loan department.

MAJOR POINTS AND MINOR, TOO

It's about time: We give a full measure of respect to our veterans and men and women now in service.

Veterans Day provides an opportunity for us to reflect on their contributions to America's strength and freedom.

But we shouldn't be appreciative only on Veterans Day... we should remember their sacrifices every day, the year around!

GENE GEMS: I just bought a ski. If I like it, I'll buy the other one... People in the big cities are still living in the horse and bookie days.

— Gene Gasiorowski

EAGER BEAVER: A psychiatrist is a man who never has to worry as long as other people do... sometimes a clear conscience is nothing more than a poor memory.

— Wilfred Beaver

SECURITY TIP: Get a home fire extinguisher and make sure everyone in the family learns how to use it, and on what kind of fires, the Allstate Safety Crusade advises. And have a home fire drill, to make sure the kiddies know what to do and how to call the fire dept. if a blaze breaks out!

The Funny Papers

The common potato is unique among mammals because it has its backbone partly outside its body.

The weather: Mostly fair and continued war.

San Francisco Chronicle Herb Caen in the San Francisco Chron says he figures they're lying when they say: "I wouldn't live in New York if they paid me a million dollars a year"... "I never get more than five hours of sleep a night"... "I just wish I were young enough to go to Vietnam."

Kissing started because of a craving for salt, we're told by Romain C. Brandt of Plymouth, Wis. A caveman discovered he could get salt from a neighbor's cheek on a hot day. Then he found it was more fun if his neighbor was a gal. Then he forgot all about salt.

And Hal Halborn of Chicago adds the information that juvenile delinquency might drop if there were fewer doting parents and more don'ting ones!

A warning to parents: Don't leave children alone in cars with power windows. The Allstate Motor Club says they could get their necks caught if the window were to be raised.

Riviera Vignette

St. Tropez: This is a jewel of a town on the French Riviera, nestling on a bay of the blue Mediterranean and filled with fun and color for those without big travel budgets, and with huge villas nearby for those with money.

If you come here, a wonderful place in which to stop is the Byblos Hotel, with a Phoenician style borrowed from Lebanon across the sea. I enjoyed a wonderful lunch here on the dining patio near the pool and then had a tour of this 60-room hotel which is one of the most beautiful I've seen anywhere. It is open from April through September. It is located next to the villa of Brigitte Bardot and near those of one of her husbands, Gunther Sachs, and Jane Fonda and her Hubby, Roger Vadim.

There are modest inns and hotels here, too. Put St. Tropez (pronounced Tropay) on your Riviera itinerary; you'll be pleased if you do.

PERSONAL NOTES: Fine movies, if you like musicals: "Finian's Rainbow," "Star" and "Funny Girl"... I enjoyed the Honolulu graffiti: "Diamond Head is a Zircon"... I was surprised to learn that George Washington on the $1 bill wears a Nehru jacket and a jabot... and I appreciated the query of the fellow who asked, "Please tell me how to get some of the wonderful waters the beer people advertise? I don't like beer, but the water sounds good."

Lahman-Tousley Vows Spoken At Leiters Ford

In a 2 o'clock ceremony Saturday in the Leiters Ford Methodist Church, Miss Gail Lehman and Mr. Claudel Kendall Tousley spoke their wedding vows. The Rev. Norris King performed the double-ring ceremony. Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Fred Ditmire.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar D. Lahman, R.R. 4, Rochester, are the bride's parents. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Tousley, R.R. 1, Culver.

Miss Linda Lebo, Leiters Ford, was maid of honor, and Miss Nancy Hovermale of Melott was bridesmaid. Their Empire sheath gowns were fashioned with moss green velvet bodices and off-white crepe skirts. A cluster of moss green velvet flowerlets held their matching bouffant veils and they carried colonial bouquets of bronze mums with velvet streamers.

The bride was attired in an Empire sheath gown of organza over taffeta with cap sleeves and a detachable chapel train of silk illusion edged in lace and scattered with lace medallions. Her bouffant veil of illusion was held by a half-hat of peau taffeta loops with lace petals outlined in seed pearls. Her colonial bouquet was of white roses and mums with satin streamers.

Dallas Tousley, brother of the groom acted as best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Dave Allen, Monterey, and Joe Holcomb of Deedsville.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the church social room immediately after the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Tousley and her husband are both graduates of Aubbeenaubbee High School. She is also a graduate of Rudas School of Beauty Culture and is now employed in the Montgomery Ward credit office, Plymouth. Mr. Tousley is a patrolman in the Plymouth Police Department.

After a honeymoon spent in northern Illinois and Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Claudel Kendall Tousley will be at home at 500 Nursery St., Plymouth.

REMOVE LEAVES FROM LAWN

Leaves can kill your grass, say Purdue University extension horticulturists. Therefore, it is important to the life of the grass that you keep leaves off your lawn. A patch will smother if it is allowed to remain covered with leaves throughout the winter.

If only a few leaves are on your lawn, the horticulturists advise using your power mower. This will shred the leaves and allow them to fall between the grass blades and decay. If you find any thick patches of leaves, rake these and mow the remainder of the lawn. With more leaves a lawn sweeper saves time.

In addition, mulcher plates are available for your mower. These fit over the opening of your mower, and when you run the mower over the leaves they are cut up into tiny pieces as they are thrown out through the plate.

Scatter the leaves first. The process is good for your lawn provided the mulch does not go beyond about one-half inch. Discard the large piles of leaves. Leaves are a source of valuable organic matter which when made into compost can be used to improve garden soil.

Do not burn leaves, emphasize horticulturists, for it can injure nearby plants and trees. It is not necessary to rake leaves from around shrubs, as they act as extra mulch during the winter.

Then, there's that once a month when a girl could use a good old-fashioned medicine.

Maybe you feel just plain bad then. Or maybe a little lonely and sad, like you could use a pair of arms around you.

Well, we have just the thing for this once a month time. Lydia E. Pinkham Tablets. They're made with gentle, natural ingredients, including one that works to help relax tightened muscles that give you cramps. Plus a little iron that a girl could use at a time like this. And, you don't run any chance of the kind of unpleasant side effects you could get from some of the newer drugs.

With an old-fashioned problem like this, couldn't you take an old-fashioned medicine.
