German Exchange Principal Seeks American Solutions At CMA

nativity scenes from around the world at a German Christmas supper in the museum's restaurant and seen a German program staged by Chicago area children of German-speaking parents.

Many of the 33 German Club members are science-oriented, according to Milton F. Hughes, their sponsor, so they also viewed other exhibits at the museum.

Of particular interest was the German U-Boat display, and the Culver students heard some lore from their other chaperone, Werner J. Schafhaus, a German principal who is at Culver on an exchange program this fall.

Other German Club activities this year include a weekly German breakfast in the Dining Hall, films, correspondence with German pen pals and reading of "Man of La Mancha" in German.

Local CMA Students Given Recognition

Jeffrey P. Adams, of Culver, and a student at Culver Military Academy, has received a letter of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation for his high performance on the 1968 Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adams, 304 North Shore Lane, he is among 19 students at the Academy and 39,000 other students in the United States who scored in the upper 2 percent of those who will graduate from high school in 1969.

Ten other Culver seniors have been selected as semifinalists in the program and will compete with 15,000 U.S. high school students for some 3,000 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1969.

Adams, in his fifth year at Culver, is also one of a select group of students appointed to serve on a faculty committee. He will serve on the Fine Arts Council under faculty chairman Arthur G. Hughes.

He is a member of the Varsity Tennis team, the school newspaper's intramural All-Star basketball team, the Guild of Lectors and the Honor Council. The former Woodrafter is also a member of the Blue Key junior scholastic honorary and a recipient of the American Legion Award.

Culver students assume leadership responsibility in 19 varsity sports, 21 intramural sports, 40 co-curricular activities and 14 military organizations.

A West German exchange principal is visiting Culver Military Academy for four months this fall. Werner Schafhaus, principal of the Mathematics and Natural Sciences Gymnasium in Monchengladbach, founded in 1887, is visiting the Academy to learn American solutions to problems being studied in Germany.

Schafhaus is taking part in the International Administrative Exchange Program, sponsored by the National Association of Secondary School Principals in Washington D. C. John G. Kourmadas, a 1949 Culver graduate and director of special services for the association, selected Culver as one of 10 secondary schools in the nation to take part in the new exchange program.

Schafhaus and his wife will be hosts of Culver's Dean and Mrs. Ernest B. Benson in Monchengladbach next year, and he thinks Dean Benson will learn to appreciate his school's use of resources:

"My school has 900 boys, and our building is too small. It was built for 18 classes, and now I have 31 classes. We have an acre and a half for our campus, instead of nearly 1,500 at Culver. Now we are planning a new building to be completed in five years on about five or six acres. Maybe I can show Dean Benson something useful about efficient use of land."

CMA German Club Visits Exhibit

by Cindy Smith

During the second meeting of the Future Homemakers of America, plans were made for the initiation that will be held after school on December 9, 1968.

On initiation day, the girls will wear skirts and blouses that are definitely mismatched, an apron, a necklace that has a conversation quality (such as wearing a pancake turner or measuring spoons), red and white socks, and mismatched shoes. Those that fail to comply with these initiation regulations will suffer penalties during the party that will follow after school.

The committees for initiation are as follows: Skirts and stunts; Pat Surber, chairman; Margaret Koehler, Ginger Hundt, Jackie Kline, Marge Morris, Linda Day, Patty Liette, Robin Singleton. Decorations Committee: Judy Peterson-chairman, Janet Helber, Betty Stoneburner, Jacquire Welsh, Tari Salzer, Pauline Branham, Shirley Hamm. Refreshments Committee: Charlotte Brucker-chairman, Jane Peterson, Tina Martin, Cindy Smith, Cathy Dilley, Cathy Peterson, Karen Lucas, Laura Dinsmore. These committees were organized by the project chairman, Cindy Carter.

Elected during the regular meeting was a girl of the month. This girl was chosen as the ideal girl for December. She was elected on the basis of her outstanding courtesy. Karla Hoover was chosen and was presented with a special charm bracelet which she is entitled to wear during the month of December. Each month a girl of the month will be selected and will be extended the honor of wearing the bracelet. In May, a girl of the year will be selected from all the girls of the month and this girl will keep the bracelet as a special memento.

Another project that was discussed during the regular meeting was a coat and hat check which will be started with the next home basketball game. The girls will check hats and coats using a numbering system. The charge will be 10 cents. The girls that will work at the first coat and hat check are: Barb Shidler, Carolyn Triplet, Ginger Hundt, Bea Napier, Linda Slusher, Nancy Porter, Nancy Kirkland, Vicki Cannedy and Amy Riester.
