LaVille Edges Cavaliers For Championship

Two hard-battling teams met in the final game of the 1969 St. Joseph-Marshall County tourney Saturday night and the result was one whale of a game featuring good and hard played basketball. When it was all over, LaVille's Lancers had edged the Culver Cavaliers by the margin of two points . . . two free throws which actually left a little doubt in many minds of the Cavalier fans.

The game was a fierce one under the baskets and during the course of the contest, two streaks of foul free ball by the Lancers had to raise some eyebrows. LaVille was not whistled for a foul in the first 5:29 of the first half and again not called for a violation during almost 11 minutes of the second half despite the fact that much hard basketball was played in this time. The final margin of victory . . . two free throws as both teams netted 29 baskets but LaVille's 13 out of 19 attempts made the difference over Culver's 11 out of 15 free shots.

Cavaliers Start Slowly

Culver just couldn't get started in this contest and fell behind 11-2 and looked like they might bow early to a hot shooting LaVille five. Add to this the defensive efforts early of Mark Taylor and the other Lancers in keeping John Szponar away from the basket and you have the early lead. However, Culver was not about to play dead.

Mark Taylor had scored seven of the first LaVille 11 while John Bauer had managed the only Culver basket, a six footer less than 15 minutes after the game had started. With 3:43 left in the quarter, Rick Pugh hit the second basket and the Culver surge to get back in the game was started. After a free shot by Ken Taylor, Bauer hit again. Ken Shirley hit a lay-in and Ken Taylor one of two from the foul line before Szponar hit his first basket, a nine footer.

Dale Cramer was next to score as he swished one from 18 foot, but Pugh and Szponar hit free throws and Bauer a lay-in after plucking a rebound among the much taller players. Vic Thacker canned one in from 16 foot, but Bauer hit his fourth basket of the quarter and the LaVille lead was just 12-14 at the end of the period.

Bauer continued with the hot hand as he opened the second stanza with a lay-in. Thacker swished one from the extreme corner, but Pugh came back with a free throw. John Wamsley hit his first basket and the Pugh's 10 foot jumper to deadlock the score at 21-21 after 2:11 had passed in the period.

Cramer and Szponar traded baskets, but quick three successive baskets by the Lancers with Kent Bunch. Cramer and Ken Shirley hitting the shots, pushed them ahead once again by six, 29-23. The two teams traded baskets until late in the period when Mark Taylor and Cramer hit successively and the lead was increased to 37-29 at halftime.

The Cavaliers weren't done yet as their two high-scoring forwards, Szponar and Pugh took charge of the offense. However, the eight baskets nailed down by the Culver team in the third period wasn't assisted by any free throws as the foul-free quarter by the Lancers hurt a lot. Szponar hit three basket, Pugh four and Wamsley the other as the lead was out to 47-45 going into the final quarter. Culver had tied the score once, 45-45 late in the period before Ken Taylor's 10 footer banked in for the lead.

Pugh had the hot hand at this time. He sunk a beauty from the flight baseline to tie the score as the last quarter started. Szponar hit an 8 footer and the Cavaliers had their first lead in the game, 49-47. Mark Taylor tied it with a hard-driving lay-in, but Pugh again pushed the Cavaliers to the front. Mark Taylor hit two from the charity line to knot it at 51-51, but Pugh was good for two points anytime he had his hands on the ball and scored with a 14 footer. Ken Taylor knotted the score once more, but Szponar hit the first Culver free throw of the half with two one pointers and at this time a decided weakness could be seen in the Culver defense especially with Wamsley out on fouls and Pugh carrying four, the last one a very, very questionable charge on an attempted lay-in.

Szponar hit a lay-in and Pugh came back with a nine footer and the Cavaliers led 58-55 with 4:21 showing on the clock. LaVille then forged ahead by a six point margin thanks to some fast scoring as the Lancers were concentrating on getting the ball under with Wamsley out and Pugh in foul trouble. Cramer hit first, then Mark Taylor and Cramer again. Szponar added one to the Culver total, but back-to-back baskets by Ken Taylor and Bunch made it 65-59 lead as now only 1:56 remained in this championship game.

Culver fought valiantly in the final two minutes, but to no avail. Bauer hit one of two free shots, but Ken Taylor hit two for LaVille. Pugh scored again only to have that man Ken Taylor score one more from under as an over-anxious Culver defense left him all alone. Pugh hit a free throw as the Cavaliers still weren't on one-and-ones although only 40 seconds remained to be played.

LaVille picked up two more points, their final two of the night to go ahead 71-63 with just 29 seconds were left as Bunch hit another lay-in. However, Szponar score a basket and was fouled. He converted the three point play and then a steal gave Culver the ball again with just seconds remaining. Szponar was fouled and hit the first, but missed the second and Culver was unable to get the rebound. LaVille moved down the floor only to lose the ball again and Pugh hit a lay-in just ahead of the gun to run the final score to 71-69, a heartbreaking loss for the Cavaliers.

Pugh Hits 29

Rick Pugh's great second half pushed his game total to 29 for the night, a total that had all scorers. John Szponar had 21 as this one-two punch totaled 50 of the Culver points. Bauer finished with 13 points as his scoring in the early stages was all that kept Culver alive. Ken Taylor had 23 to lead the Lancers while cousin Mark had 17. Cramer totaled 14 for the other double figure total by a LaVille player.

LaPetite Bakery Is New Business Now In Culver

Culver is indeed fortunate to have another new business locate here. LaPetite Bakery is the name of the new establishment and it is located on Lakeshore Drive, across from the park.

Owned by Mr. and Mrs. Garry Lozier, the business will be operated by Sue McCombs and Gloria Banks and will be open six days weekly from seven to five. A complete line of sweet rolls, pies, cakes and bread will be featured and special orders will be taken.

Mr. Lozier's parents were in the restaurant business at Mentone for a number of years and he himself has a bakery at Bourbon where the goodies will be baked by an experienced baker and sent to Culver daily. Mr. Lozier is also owner of the Lori Construction Company at Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Lozier reside in Bourbon and are the parents of two children a boy, Mark, and a girl, Sabrina.

Culver has been without a bakery for several years and this new store will surely be a welcome addition to the community.

Mrs. Walter Foscitt Dies In Florida

Word has been received here that Mrs. Walter Foscitt died Christmas day at her home in Palm Beach.

The Foscitts owned Elmwood on the east shore of Lake Maxinkuckee for many years.

Mrs. Foscitt was the former Bertha Ferguson and spent her girlhood in Culver.

Charles Baker Family Hosts Exchange Student

Our weather was a shock to Miss Monica Vasquez, the exchange student from Santiago, who is staying with the Charles Baker family. When Miss Vasquez left her home it was summer with temperatures in the upper 80's, but when she arrived in Chicago, January 12, it was anything but warm.

She will attend school here for 8 weeks before leaving on a 12 day tour of the eastern United States with other members of the International Student Exchange, Inc.

Monica is the eldest of Israel and Silva Rozas Vasquez. Her two brothers and a sister are all home. Mr. Vasquez is a mechanical engineer and her mother teaches Spanish at Dunelstair School where Monica has just finished her sophomore year.

Since this is Monica's first time in our country we asked her if she found any of our customs strange. Our dinner hour is quite different; in her country they, like the British, have four meals a day including tea in the afternoon and a light supper around 9:00 p.m. She does enjoy the American hot dog and finds the foods of the two countries similar.

She is very impressed by the friendliness of the Culver students and loves basketball. Basketball is rarely played in her country.

The Baker family have made plans to take her on a tour of the University of Notre Dame and attend an ice show in South Bend. They also will take her to Chicago for a few days to "see the sights".

Miss Vasquez is a very charming representative of her country and we hope she is happy during her stay with us in Culver.

ANOTHER BI - COUNTY Tourney is history and in the brief history of the event, it is the first time a defending champion has won the title for the second straight year. Until this year, each defending champion was beaten in the championship game the next year. However, LaVille made it two in a row with their second straight two-point victory in the title game.

LOOKING BACK, SOME real good ball was played. Some outstanding individual efforts were witnessed by capacity crowds and also some fine team efforts. Several tourney records were set, but in just their fourth year, this is to be expected until the meet records are such that real efforts will be needed to rewrite them.

THAT BRINGS UP ONE other subject. LaVille has won all four tourneys and at the start of the Bi-County meets, they had the only gym and school that could handle such an event. And, it might be added that the LaVille school officials, headed by athletic director, Dale Cox has done a fine job. However at present LaVille now has only the fourth largest seating capacity and having the home court is a definite advantage. Some schools are in favor of moving the tourney.

THIS WOULD BE ONLY fair, but LaVille is the only one of the gyms that could handle the tourney that has anything near a central location. Culver, Triton and New Prairie all have new spacious gyms with more seating than LaVille, but the locations of these gyms are all on the fringe area, making longer trips necessary for many schools. This could become an interesting topic in planning the future meets.

IN THE FIRST GAME OF the meet, a very cold North Liberty was defeated by Argos. The failure of the Shamrocks to score was the main factor in the Dragons advance to Saturday's play. The second game found a hustling Bremen team giving the pre-tourney favorite by virtue of record, Culver, all they wanted. The Cavaliers emerged with a three point win in a hard-fought game.

THURSDAY, GLENN FELL to new Prairie in a game that found the Falcons looking bad most of the time. The only sparkle of life was Roger Stull and in this game Jim Noel of the Cougars, set a new single scoring record as he tossed in 33 points. The second battle figured to probably boost the winner into the final game. LaVille beat Triton from the free throw line in a game that found the Trojans not getting any breaks at all under the basket where the action was fierce.

THIS MOVED THE ACTION to Saturday's semi-finals. Actually, these two games were not the best as Culver advanced easily over Argos and LaVille had little trouble with New Prairie. This 11 point victory by the Lancers was the only game they outscored their opponents from the floor. Their ability to draw fouls under the basket almost got ridiculous in some of the action. A team playing as hard as they do and playing as fast, are bound to commit fouls as well as anyone else.

THIS SET THE STAGE FOR the final game in which LaVille made it two in a row over the Culver Cavaliers. The hot action of this game, played before a more than capacity crowd, certainly finished off the meet in fine form. Win, lose or what have you, each team contributed something to this fine meet.

ONCE A MEET IS OVER, A lot of speculation comes about next year. This has to be classified as a year of the seniors. In all, out of 84 boys listed on the eight rosters, 53 are seniors and one more junior in his last year of eligibility. This means a lot of new faces next year. To follow this a little more, two freshmen were listed, and only one sophomore. However, these three all saw a lot of action as Kurt Pletcher, of Glenn, starts, while Max Trowbridge of Triton, is an often used reserve under the basket and Bremen's Paul Wagner, the sophomore, also starts. It looks like most of the schools fill their B Teams for the B Team tourney with sophomores.

TO MAKE MATTERS WORSE, LaVille, the champion the past two years, has as few graduating as any team in the meet. They will have five of ten leaving as will Bremen. New Prairie has five of eleven graduating, with Glenn losing six of ten, Triton seven of ten, North Liberty eight of twelve and Argos and Culver both losing nine, Argos ten while Culver listed an eleven man roster.

PICKING AN ALL TOURNEY team is hard as one person sees one thing while another sees it different. However, our selection of a twelve man team, based strictly on the tourney play includes: John Szponar, Rick Pugh and John Bauer, of Culver; Mark and Ken Taylor, of LaVille; Jim Noel and Rich Dodd, New Prairie; Mike Cook and Don Long, Triton, Paul Wagner and Fred Hampe, of Bremen; and Roger Stull, Glenn. Our nomination for the most hustle and hardest worker has to be Jerry Nolin of Argos, the unselfish player who gives one hundred per cent all the time. The outstanding player not goes to John Szponar, probably the most marked and defended player in the meet, yet the best and most valuable. Without Szponar, Culver is just another team in this field.

Annual Mid-Winter Conference Of CMA Alumni

Alumni from eight states will return to Culver Military Academy this weekend for the annual mid-winter conference of the Culver Summer Schools Alumni Association.

Among topics to be discussed are the 1969 homecoming, the scholarship program and other aspects of the Culver Summer Schools which annually attract 1700 boys and girls from across the country. Conference participants include these men: Frank L. Hutson, Jr. '36, director of public relations and development at the Academy who is a vice-president of the Association; Peter D. Trone '48, summer admissions officer at the Academy who is secretary of the Association; Gerald R. Thomas '54 of Culver, treasurer and assistant secretary; and Col. Donald W. Gidman '18 of Culver, a director.

Couple To Reside In Kentucky

The marriage of Miss Diane Kay Davis and Lt. Charles Frank Taylor was solemnized at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, January 26 at the Wesley United Methodist Church in Culver. Rev. Carl Q. Baker officiated at the double ceremony before an altar of palms, colonial candleabra and white flowers. White flowers also decorated the front of the church and red and white bows adorned the pews.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Davis, Route 1, Culver and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Taylor, 100 Heritage Dr., Evansville, Ind.

A sorority sister of the bride, Miss Nancy Snyder, played organ selections preceding and during the ceremony. Another sorority sister, Miss Polly Gamble, was the vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride fashioned her own floor-length wedding gown of white velvet. The empire bodice was of cut velvet with designs of roses and petals which featured a modified scoop neckline and long sleeves that formed bridal points over the wrists. The A-line skirt was accented by a satin band at the waistline. The detachable chapel length train was fastened at the waistline beneath a large satin bow that was trimmed with seed pearls and crystals. A satin pillbox trimmed with lace, seed pearls and crystals secured the bride's puffed finger-tip veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of gardenias and sweetheart roses with stephanotis.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Dwight Cochran, West Lafayette, wore a gown of red velvet styled with an empire bodice, bell-shaped sleeves and scoop necklines. The A-line skirt was accented with a bow at the waistline in the back. She wore a large matching bow for a headpiece and carried a white velvet muff with red roses and leather leaf attached.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Ned Davis, Culver, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. Dan Lucas, Bloomington, sorority sister of the bride. They were attired identically to the maid of honor.

Craig Taylor served his brother as best man and the groomsmen were Larry Johnson of Radcliff, Kentucky, fraternity brother of the groom and Rick Van Hoose of Evansville, Indiana. The ushers were Ned Davis and Kent Davis, brothers of the bride.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church Fellowship Room. The Misses Snowden Stockey and Melissa Morris, sorority sisters of the bride, served a five-tiered wedding cake from the table decorated with a centerpiece of red roses, white mums and gladiola in silver and crystal epergne. Presiding at the punch bowl were the Misses Judy Thews and Mary Norris, both of Culver. Miss Loretta Berger registered the guests and Miss Betty Carr, sorority sister of the bride, assisted with the gifts.

For the wedding trip to Michigan the bride chose a red wool dress with lace trim and black accessories and corsage of gardenias and sweetheart roses from her bridal bouquet.

The surest way to have no future is to live in the belief that the future is tomorrow.

Don't Stop There!

The Indiana Vehicle Safety Check is one of the most controversial items in the state for a long time. It was passed by the General Assembly a couple of years ago in their last session and slowly and inefficiently put into operation. Now it is again a hot topic at the 1959 General Assembly.

There is nothing wrong with the program if more time and study had been given to the mechanics of the check. Many places that are to be official inspection centers are delayed due to lack of materials they need and many are holding off simply because they feel that something will come out of this session to either delay it or revise it.

This is probably true. A delay, whether it comes during this session or as an emergency measure near the deadline, is very probable as the slow start indicates that not enough centers will be in operation to make it possible for the check to be completed by the last of June.

The program in itself is necessary for a state to have if they want to continue to get federal funds for road work. This is enough to make any state take action. All this is designed a course, to make the vehicles on the road safer, thus eliminating accidents.

It has been proven that a very small percentage of accidents are caused by unsafe vehicles . . . at least driven within the boundaries of the law. Where the real push is needed to do something about this 50,000 annual figure that loses their lives on the highways, plus millions more injured and billions of dollars in property damage, is to clamp down on the drivers.

It is true that police are numbered and not enough police could be hired to check every car all the time. This would only add to the confusion on the highways, but some sort of a program is going to be needed to get the careless and reckless driver off the road. Speed is still the number one fault as this results in the failure of cars to be under control. Speed is the "in" thing in this country. Everything has to be done with speed, but on the highways, speed must be controlled to the conditions and then many accidents will be reduced.

The safety check, when the bugs are worked out, will be fine, but still the job of making the highways safe belongs to you and to me. Everyone must be a good driver to eliminate the continual slaughter on the nations highways and streets.

The five-legged horse, owned by H. H. Austin, is now being exhibited in Logansport. The animal is nine years old, broke single and double and will work in any kind of harness. It weighs 1,100 pounds. The most curious feature is that the fifth leg is a natural hind leg, 2 1/2 feet long, and located on the head, coming out between the ears. The leg is well-formed, with hock joint, fetlock, and hoof, the same as any other leg.

PROFIT ANGLE

It's easy to see both sides of a question — unless you stand to lose money on the decision.

CULVER COMMENTS

If you have nerves of steel, a strong heart, and want a thrill, try picking up a high school kid about 3:20 some afternoon. The school buses come tearing in and out of the school in a manner reminiscent of Russia's takeover of Czechoslovakia.

Only one bus of that terrifying throng stopped at a stop sign the afternoon I watched. I realize that schedules have to be met and it's a rough job for the drivers. The ones I know are competent, careful men except at those stop signs. Those buses are loaded with kids and even if they don't have an accident it is not a very good example.

Meanwhile up at the old school, Eunice Schrimsher has been doing a bang up job of directing traffic. Cars and children are competently handled by this woman who surely deserves recognition for the way she deals with this situation. Perhaps our police dept. could park down at THAT corner for a few days and get some pointers from her on school traffic. The presence of a traffic director at the new high school is clearly needed by the bus drivers.

Two new businesses opened in Culver last week and we wish them both success. It's wonderful to see formerly empty stores suddenly filling up.

Great Britain has come up with a plan to keep their soldiers busy and at the same time pay for their keep. They are going to rent them out to people who are in need of extra help. I am a great believer in using other people's ideas so why can't Culver institute a Rent-A-Cop plan? Besides putting some money in their little fund, it would be a service to the town. Do you need a fourth at bridge; someone experienced at walking dogs or maybe someone to chaperone a dance? Need the fuzz? Just buzz "Rent-A-Cop."

Some people are getting a little touchy about the new car inspection law. Seems as how the rough terrain of the town's streets has jarred some of the cars' front wheels out of alignment. After a lengthy study of the law books, I regret to inform you that the town can not be held responsible. You are going to have to foot the bill yourselves.

The inspection law has one little tiny loophole in it that you might care to check. Technically you can have a car without an engine pass inspection if you care to tow it into the garage. Nowhere on the list of things to test is any part of the motor mentioned. Don't believe me? Ask the man who does the checking.

Credit the Culver V.F.W. for coming up with a unique idea. Saturday night some of the hunters put on a dinner for members and their families featuring some rather unusual meats. Barbecued raccoon, elk roast and sauteed muskrat. Naturally I couldn't miss the opportunity to try these delicacies. My favorite? The muskrat! And before you choke, consider this; a muskrat is a very clean little fellow and a strict vegetarian, whereas a chicken will eat anything.

Well anyhow, a good sized crowd turned up and pronounced the evening a great success.

Now, if I can just get some of that buffalo meat that has been offered for sale around town.

I'm not too sure about the "stop and frisk" laws awaiting enactment by our lawmakers. If passed it will enable our police to stop any person who appears suspicious to them and frisk him or her. If this passes, I can only thank my stars that I am not ticklish. I also would like to go on record as claiming that any strange lumps that are showing are a result of overeating and not firearms.

Congratulations to the Cavalier for the good showing made at the Bi-County tourney. Although the game was a hard one to lose, the team deserves much credit for the way they have worked together and once again have brought recognition to Culver.

Culver's Main Street is all agog this week over the big remodeling celebration at the friendly A & P Food Store which also coincides with the 100th anniversary of one of America's greatest business institutions — The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company. Assisting Mr. Ted Strang in the management are Jerry Knepper, Gary Hicks, Fern Canterbury and Kate Kowatch.

Culver, which boasts a national reputation as a summer resort, last week experienced the most savage winter storm of the present century, according to local weather observers. For close to a week, the entire area was subjected to the most violent snow and sleet exhibitions in modern history. Electricity went off along the East Shore for 65 hours, longest period in local utility annuals, and about nine inches of snow remains.

Steven Ulery Takes Bride

St. Mark's Lutheran Church money.

Monroeville Ind., was the scene of the January 25th, 1:30 p.m. wedding of Miss JoAnn Kay Row of Monroeville and Steven Ulery of Culver. Pastor Byron J. Somers and Mr. Paul Row, brother of the bride, officiated at the ceremony. Miss Row is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Row, Route 1, Monroeville, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Ulery, Route 2, Culver, are the parents of the groom. The bride was given in marriage by her father, before an alter flanked with alter vases of white and yellow mums and standing vases of palms. She chose a long, A-line empire gown of white crepe, long sleeves with bridal points, and a chapel length train attached to the back of the gown. Alencon lace applique adorned the scoop neckline, the front of the skirt and the train. Her elbow length veil of illusion was held in place with a crown of crystals and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of yellow roses, white cushion mums and ivy.

Miss Dorothy Row, New Haven, served her sister as maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Karen Zimmerman, Ft. Wayne and Miss Patty Elwell, Gaylord, Minn.

The bride's attendants wore dresses similar to the bride but with short sleeves. The peacock blue gowns were fashioned of antique satin with a bias trim at the neckline, waistline and edge of sleeves. They wore matching pillbox headpieces and carried colonial bouquets of white and yellow cushion mums.

The best man was Russ Ulery, brother of the groom, and serving as ushers were Owen Row, Kendallville, a brother of the bride; Bill Ulery, Denver, Colo., brother of the groom; and Jim Hibschan, Mishawaka, a cousin of the groom.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church social rooms.

The bride wore a light olive green dress with gold and brown accessories and a corsage from the bridal bouquet for their southern trip to Little Rock, Arkansas. They will be at home at 1016½ Arkansas Avenue, North Little Rock, Arkansas.

The new Mrs. Ulery graduated from Monroeville High School and Purdue University. She is a teacher for Economic Opportunity Agency. Mr. Ulery is a Culver High School graduate and attended Indiana Central College. He is presently a VISTA Volunteer at Little Rock, Ark.

ENGAGED

Scout Leaders Needed For M-S Center

A need for Boy Scout leaders at the Center was discussed at the January meeting of the Marshall-Starke Development Center Auxiliary on Monday, January 20. Thirteen members were present for the meeting when Mrs. Jane Roush opened the meeting with the Auxiliary Prayer.

A scout leader, preferably two, is needed and the Auxiliary is asking for volunteers. Men who work at nights might possibly come in the daytime to give a helping hand to these boys by organizing a program. Helpers are available but organizers are needed. If you are available, the Auxiliary asks that you contact the Center at 936-4845 and leave your name. Mrs. Charles Roush will then contact you.

It was noted that the Auxiliary donated $25 to the Girl Scouts at the Center. The big insulated food container used by the Center was on display at the meeting for everyone to examine. The container was purchased by the Auxiliary so that the children attending the Center would have hot meals.

An Amway Products party is being planned for Monday, March 31. This is to be held at the Eagles Lodge at 8 p.m. EST.

The meeting was then adjourned and refreshments were served by Mrs. Helen Kutchke and Mrs. Mildred Bovee.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. George Baker are the parents of a daughter, Tamara Lynn, born January 23 in Parkview Hospital.

Culver Triumphs Over Bremen In First Round 56-53

The Culver Cavaliers gained revenge for an earlier season loss to the Bremen Lions in a first round game in the annual Bi-County Tournay Wednesday night at LaVie. After a very hard-fought, exciting basketball game, the Cavaliers were on top by a 56-53, but definitely knew they had been in a ball game.

A good minute and a half spurt well into the final quarter broke a 46-46 tie to give the Cavaliers an eight lead and they went from there to the final tally of 56-53. Battling a very aggressive Bremen team, the Cavaliers broke the tie on a basket by big John Wamsley with 3:52 showing on the clock. Wamsley took a nice pass from John Szponar to lay the ball in. Just half a minute later, Wamsley hit a 13 footer to open the gap to four points and put the Lions in a definate hole. Szponar was next, as Bremen wasn't getting results on their shooting at this time. He hit a rebound lay-in for a 52-46 lead. Some time passed before either team scored again as the Cavaliers were moving the ball very well on offense waiting for the good shot to come. It came and Rick Pugh hit a lay-in to put the game almost out of reach. Unsicker broke the Bremen spell with one of two from the foul line, but Szponar came right back and scored on another rebound for a 56-47 lead. Hampe hit two baskets and Wagner threw in a 32 footer just at the gun to account for the final margin.

Szponar was the early game power for Culver. In a nip-and-tuck battle, John hit three baskets and four free throws in the opening quarter to push the Cavaliers to a very brief 16-15 lead. Szponar hit first on a tip-in, but Wagner came back with five straight points to push Bremen ahead. Szponar hit a pair of charity tosses, but this was matched by Hampe. Szponar got his sixth point on a neat turn around effort only to have Hampe hit from 11 foot on the side. Wamsley collected hit first and John Bauer pulled the Cavaliers within one on a lay-in.

Hampe, Bremen's leading scorer since the loss of Robinette for the season, hit from under, but Szponar made four quick points to change the lead again. Wagner, proving to be quite a nemesis, made a nice move under the basket with the big boys and the 5'7" guard pushed the Lions in front 15-14. Pugh hit a nine-footer and Culver led 16-15 at the quarters end.

In the second quarter, the Cavaliers forged ahead in the lowest scoring quarter of the game. After Bremen took a brief lead on Hampe's jumper, Bauer hit one and Wamsley two baskets before Kuntz connected for Bremen. Baker followed with a basket for the Lions, but Wamsley hit his third basket of the period and Szponar collected his only two points of the period from the foul line. Wagner and Unsicker hit in succession but Pugh's basket with 2:22 left on the clock, was the final points of the half with Culver leading 28-25.

Pugh took charge of the Cavalier scoring in the early second half. Wagner scored first, but Pugh hit two baskets. After Hampe tossed in another jumper, Pugh made a nice fake and drove for a lay-in. Bauer than hit from the baseline and the Cavaliers enjoyed a 36-29 lead only to have Hampe come back with two fast buckets followed by a single free throws by Baker and Unsicker to cut the lead to one. Pugh connected on a three-point play, giving him 9 points in this period. Bauer added one, but Wagner got three and Hampe a baseline basket to knot the score at 40-40. Szponar hit with 37 seconds left in the quarter to keep the Cavaliers ahead 42-40 heading into the crucial last eight minutes.

Szponar made it 44-40 with a lay-in after a minute had passed in the final stanza, but the Lions weren't dead yet. Baker hit a 13 footer from the left baseline and Unsicker tied it with a 16 footer beside the circle. Bauer made a very hard driving lay-in and Baker's attempt from the baseline again tied it at 46-46, setting the stage for the late Culver heroics in this exciting win.

All during the game, these two hard-fighting teams had given the capacity crowd a good show for their money as action was both fast and fierce, yet not sloppy and wild as these two teams both played 100 per cent basketball in this game. The officiating let the boys play and yet didn't let them get out of hand, a real credit to what is often viewed in this basketball of today.

Szponar Hits 22

John Szponar led all scorers in this battle with 22 points on eight baskets and six free shots. He had double figure help from Pugh with 13 and Wamsley at 12. In all, only four Cavaliers scored with Bauer getting the other nine points. Hampe had 20 to pace the losers and Wagner chipped in 16 from his guard position.

The Indiana Trucking Industry pays taxes, 52 weeks a year, for use of Indiana Highways. It all adds up to an amount equal to almost two-thirds the total cost for all work done on state administered highways. And that 62% figure represents only road work paid by Indiana tax monies. The total tax bill, State and Federal, is 2½ million dollars a week.

One thing is clear: The Indiana Trucking Industry pays its own way . . . and then some.

Cavaliers Make Final Game By Bouncing Argos

Culver's Cavaliers, a first round winner over Bremen in a hard fought game, encountered Argos Saturday afternoon in a semi-final game of the St. Joseph-Marshall Bi-County tourney, and had a relatively easy time in disposing the Dragons by a 65-43 score. The win came easy after an eight point surge in the first quarter pushed the Cavaliers safely ahead and they were never seriously threatened again in this game.

Argos, featuring big Keith Hardesty, scored first as the center hit an 11 foot shot from the side. John Wamsley tied the score with a similar shot, but the Cavaliers took the lead on a 19 footer by John Bauer. Hardesty tied it at 4-4 with an 18 footer as early in the game both teams were trying to hit from the outside to open up under the basket for the big boys.

Bauer and Bill Beam craded free throws and then Wamsley and Bauer hit one-pointers. Beam tied it with a tip-in for Argos, but John Szponar got his first points of the game as he hit a rebound first and then a free shot. Beam made it 10-9 with a long one-hander and this set the stage for a quick rally by the Culver five that opened a safe margin.

Rick Pugh started with a free shot. Szponar was next with a hard driving lay-in and Pugh hit another charity shot. Szponar then added two from the 15 foot line and Kerry Haenes hit a nine foot shot before Jerry Nolin hit a free throw to break the Culver streak. Hardesty hit his third basket of the game, but Bauer's two free shots ended the quarter with the Cavaliers leading 20-12.

The second quarter found coach Dave Huffman's five increasing their lead steadily behind the scoring efforts of Pugh and Wamsley. After Nolin hit a rebound lay-in for the Dragons, Pugh hit from the right baseline. Beam added a free throw to the Argos total, but Szponar hit from the middle of the lane and Pugh added two more, this time on free throws. Don Thompson hit a short baseline shot, but Pugh hit again, this time from almost in the corner. Wamsley then picked up the scoring getting three baskets in the next two minutes and the lead was increased to 38-25 at halftime.

The third period found the scoring pace slowing down a little but the lead was increased slightly by the Cavaliers as the Argos attack was victim of the Culver defense and their own cold shooting. At the end of the period it was 52-36, making the task of the Dragons a real tough one in the final minute. They were forced to gamble and had to score well, which backfires often when a team starts pressing. In the process, the Dragons collected only seven more points while the Culver scoring moved mainly to free throws. Pugh had the only two baskets Culver managed in this quarter, but nine Cavalier free throws incured the victory. Both Wamsley and Szponar left the game in this period on fouls, but as everyone could see, it was just a matter of time and how much. The final score was 65-43.

Four In Double Figures

For the game, of the Cavaliers finished in double figures. Szponar paced all scorers with 17 points, trailed closely by Pugh with 16, Bauer with 13 Wamsley with 12. Hardesty totaled 14 to pace the Dragons. On a team basis, Culver's 44 per cent far exceeded the 29 per cent Argos enjoyed. The real difference came at the foul line where Culver totaled 23 of 39 while Argos was ice cold with only seven of 21.

Gary Herr Is Seriously Injured In Car Accident

Gary E. Herr, 19, Route 2, Culver, was taken to South Bend's Memorial Hospital Saturday evening after being injured in a two-car accident.

Herr and a car driven by Boyd Montgomery were both traveling east on State Road 17 when Montgomery slowed down to pull into a drive. Although his turn signal was on, Herr was unable to stop in time to avoid striking the car. Herr's car then went out of control and struck a tree.

Herr was first treated at Parkview Hospital then transferred to Memorial. His injuries included compound fractures to the left leg, ankle and foot; abrasions and contusions to the arms and lacerations of the face and left leg.

Montgomery was not injured. The Marshall County sheriff's department investigated and reported $400.00 damage to the Montgomery vehicle. The other car was a total loss.

This annual event for the benefit of local high school students, will be held at the Culver Inn on Thursday, February 13.

Desserts from Tri Kappa Kitchens will be featured and will be served at 7:30.

A sale of Tri Kappa Kitchen baked goods will start at 6:30 in the evening.

There will be table prizes and a traveling prize. All members have tickets available for a donation of $1.25.

In other points of business of the evening, the final report on the "Christmas in August" bazaar was given and a change in wording of one of the by-laws to the constitution was approved by the chapter.

Mrs. Jack Jones was hostess to Epsilon Nu members and was assisted by Mrs. Edward Schultz, Mrs. George Ogden, and Mrs. Joseph Clyne.

Temporary Drivers Licenses Are Extended

Gerald W. Habig, Commissioner of the State of Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles announced today all Validated Temporary Driver License Receipts issued on and after November 25, 1968 are hereby extended for an additional thirty (30) days. The commissioner has requested all law enforcement officials in the State of Indiana to honor this extension.

Commissioner Habig further recommended that any person operating on such validated Temporary Receipt, planning to operate a motor vehicle outside the State of Indiana, secure a validated extension from any branch office. No charge will be made for such validated extension.

Waiting too long for a break is the reason many go broke.

Former Culver Teacher Dies

Miss Mildred E. Huffman, 110 Maple St., was found dead in her home at 11 a.m. January 8.

Miss Huffman taught at North Side High School, Fort Wayne from its opening in 1927 until her retirement about five years ago. Before coming to Fort Wayne she taught in the Culver High School.

Survivors include a number of cousins.

ISU Offers Evening Course At N. Judson

Indiana State University will offer an evening extension class at Liberty Junior High School in North Judson beginning Thursday, Feb. 6 from 6 to 9 p.m.

The course is Adolescent Psychology which will be taught by a regular member of the ISU faculty. Three hours credit may be earned.

Persons interested in enrolling may complete registration and pay fees at the first session. Fees are $15 per semester hour for credit and non-credit students.

More information about the course may be obtained by contacting Roger Childress, principal of Crown Point High School representative of the ISU Division of Extended Services.

Additional ISU extension classes in northern Indiana will be held in Crown Point, Logansport, Merrillville, and Rensselaer. ISU will offer 77 extension classes in 20 communities during the spring semester.

FORESIGHT

The average man can see the general outline of his future reasonably well, if he has clear-eyed view of his present.
