Mr. Lawson is one of 30 teachers selected for the program on the basis of academic talent, enthusiasm, and the potential to teach with competence and to assist other teachers and administrators in improving the teaching of economics.

The six-weeks course is aimed ultimately at building up students' understanding of economics and the critical role of the economics system in American society.

Duane Bonner Joins Marshall Starke Board

Duane Bonner of Ober was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Marshall Starke Development Center, Inc. Board on June 9 to fill the unexpired term of Salvatore Barone of Knox. Barone's resignation was accepted with regret.

Meeting for the first time with the directors were representatives of the Parents' group, Guilford Snyder of Plymouth, and of the Center's auxiliary, Mrs. Kenneth Shei of Culver. The two will serve in an ex-officio capacity but act as liaison with the board and their organizations, according to Hayden Patz, the corporation's president.

Charles Troike of North Judson, Rt. 2, was a special guest as a member of the Board of County Commissioners of Starke County. He was taken on a guided tour with the board and will acquaint the Starke Commissioners with the center's activities and needs.

Mrs. Grace Blumling, executive director, told board members and Troike of the proposed pre-school and school-age center being sought in the area south of Knox so that a cooperative program with Pulaski County can be worked out. It might also serve as an adult activity center, she said.

Culver Cadet Canoeing To New Orleans

Earle Williams positions the "Happy Hour" flag as he and John Brown take off for Mississippi waters.

Two adventurous Culver cadets are having their vacation from the classroom back Pennsylvania style.

The youths, Earle Williams of Culver and John Brown of Fort Ord, Calif., put their supply-laden canoe into the Yellow River near Culver last Thursday. They will paddle the Yellow, the Kanawakee, the Illinois and Mississippi to New Orleans, a 1600-mile stretch without the oasis of a single motel or drive-in restaurant along the way.

If they make it, they believe they will be setting a new canoeing distance record. And neither of them has any doubt about making it. They're both 17.

Their canoe is older than they are. A rust-off from the Army's headhouse, the 16-footer has been paddled about for 20 years. The only thing new about it is the good sanding, fiberglass and painting it got from its co-captains.

Rusty Water And Obispo Streets Are The Main Gripes

The main gripes heard from the floor at the town board meeting last Monday evening were about the condition of the water, Obispo St. and Wabash Ave.

Concerning the rusty and greenish tinted water, board president, Osborn, informed those in attendance that every so often a well is put down that pumps water with a greenish-tint. This is from the pump and cannot be helped, but the water is still pure. Residents of Culver had been informed when this change over started that it would take from three to nine months to get the full benefit of the new water system. The board is sorry that the people cannot bear with them on this.

In other business, a petition with 15 signatures and complaints about the poor condition of Obispo, Wabash, and South Plymouth Streets, was handed the board. Requests had been made for improvement of these streets on May 20, 1968, but conditions are getting worse. During the discussion, everyone was told that the home owners would have to help pay for the initial blacktopping of streets and then the town would maintain them. One man experienced in this field said that repairs should not be so expensive, if done right.

Board member, George Becker commented about other organizations using the town hall. He thinks this is good. A letter of appreciation was received from Rev. Kueger of the Grace Church, thanking the board for being offered the use of the hall.

Sue Mattox asked the Board's permission to use line in the sewage system, to help prevent the other. The board gave her a positive answer. Paul Strupen offered a sand hole to the town but the town would have to build a road to the hole.

Attention Junior Sailors! Races To Begin

The Maxinkuckee Yacht Club Junior Fleet will start their sailing season this Saturday, June 21 at 9:00 a.m. getting together at Holloway's bar and pier at 1510 East Shore Drive. Any person under the age of sixteen (16) for Sailfish and twenty-one (21) for Skyhawks can participate in the Junior Fleet. However, only dues paying members of M.Y.C. who have participated in at least three races are eligible for awards and trophies.

In the interest of safety, all skippers and crews in the Junior Fleet must have a life belt or jacket during all races. Failure to comply with this rule will mean an immediate disqualification.

Inland Lake Yachting Association rules pertaining to right of way and ILYA scoring system will apply and be used by the Junior Fleet.

Points won for races will be credited to the skipper and not the boat; therefore, it is possible for a skipper to sail any boat or a different boat each week. It is not necessary that the boat owner be a member of the Maxinkuckee Yacht Club.

A five dollar ($5.00) entry fee will be charged for each participant which entitles him or her to race in any or all Junior Fleet races.

For further information contact Rupert Esser, 324 South Shore Drive, Culver or phone 842-2788.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A year makes. Last year baseball belonged to the pitchers. Everyone was proposing legislation to give the hitters a break. All of a sudden the game was unfair to the hitters and belonged to the pitchers. Many were afraid it was getting so one-sided that fans would be staying away because of the pitching domination.

NOW LOOK AT THE GAME today. Scores this year in many games resemble football finals. Home runs are falling like rain. The double figure scores are as common as the shutout was last year. Recent games found runs being scored so fast the games often are no contest after a very few innings.

THERE WAS A COUPLE OF minor changes in the rules on pitching last year, but did that cause all the change? The mound was lowered six inches, supposedly to give hitter a better chance at hitting the ball. The strike zone was cut back to letters and top of the knees again to offer the man with the bat a better ball to hit.

BUT STILL, THE MAIN factor in the increased scoring has not been mentioned yet, that being the expansion of both leagues to 12 teams. Last year there was not 20 good major league teams right down the line-up. Adding four more teams just opened the door for 100 more regular major leaguers and pitching always seems to be the hardest to find.

THIS YEAR THERE ISN'T enough good pitching to go around. Every pitching staff lost someone that they could have used. Maybe it was a couple of relievers but still they are pitchers and they moved out with expansion. Many good young prospects that would have been moving up to the original clubs are now scattered around and the pitching is spread a little thin. Also, many a back-up man at various positions has been handed a job due to the expansion and are coming through the way the clubs thought they could at one time or another, but weren't ready for them until the expansion came along.

BASEBALL, IN ORDER TO keep growing, has to be interesting. And, most fans will tell you, to see an interesting game, you need to see some hits and runs. Everyone appreciates well pitched game . . . especially when it is pitched by your favorite or hometown pitcher. But still, that same fan goes to a game or watches it on the TV, and wants to see hits and runs. That action on the base paths and crossing the plate is the interesting part of the game.

REGARDLESS OF WHAT the difference was, baseball is a more interesting game this year and yet you have the pitchers still winning their game. Several are below the 3.00 mark and strikeouts still occur in bundles by the strikeout pitchers.

EVERYONE WILL ADMIT, a typical Cub game this year has been exciting baseball. The Cubs can be down three, four or five runs and come busting back to win. The style of ball they are playing is interesting baseball and it features heavily the runs scored more than the shut-out pitching. This brings out the point that baseball is a more interesting game with runs and the change this year to the additional hits and runs is good for the game. And don't forget, the pitcher is still out there and having his day as well, it is just that you are hearing a little more about the hitting so far this year.

BIOCHEMICAL DEFECT MAY CAUSE SCHIZOPHRENIA

STUDIES OF DREAMING CATS lend support to a tempting theory that schizophrenia is the result of a biochemical defect in the patient, reports a Stanford University neurophysiologist. He believes that an abnormality in the function of an essential brain chemical serotonin causes abnormal behavior by allowing patients to dream while awake. Using a new drug that prevents the brain from producing serotonin, he made cats hallucinate, attack other cats and behave with the curious mixture of normality and abnormality observed in persons with severe mental illness. Brain wave recordings of the cats showed the electrical pattern during the abnormal behavior to be identical to that of cats that are dreaming while asleep.

A NEW PLASTIC designed for use by military medical corpsmen to stabilize broken teeth and jawbones has been developed. Such injuries previously required specialized laboratory facilities and highly trained personnel. The plastic material is prepared for use by mixing two components, a powder and a liquid, to form a dough-like substance that can be shaped around the areas inside the mouth that must be stabilized. The mixture polymerizes inside the mouth within seven minutes and can later be removed from the mouth with a dental burr or similar tool.

SINUSITIS or a common cold can't dull the acuity of a special smoke sniffer that stands guard over industrial complexes. The photoelectric smoke-sensing system of Cardox, Chicago, can detect the first trace of smoke in the air and sound an alarm that a fire is beginning. Some fires do not generate sufficient heat to trigger heat-sensitive fire devices soon enough to prevent damage. However, where there is fire, there is smoke, and the smoke detector knows smoke when it sniffs it.

FISH, like people, need "breathing room," says a state fish specialist in Wisconsin. As every fisherman knows, fish cannot survive in water that lacks dissolved oxygen. During a hard winter, thickening lake ice slowly descends while an invisible "floor" rises as bacteria and decaying vegetation in the bottom muck use up oxygen. As winter continues, breathing room in a shallow lake shrinks into a narrow band of oxygenated water right under the ice. When there is no more room and the lake becomes nearly devoid of oxygen, winter kill sets in. Fish, large and small, die by the thousand.

THE PREDICTION of earthquakes is one of the objectives of current studies by the U.S. Department of Interior. At present it is not possible to predict the time, place and size of a specific earthquake in advance.

Dekruyter - Dillon Vows Spoken

Flower arrangements of white carnations, daisies, and lilies, with candelabra and white bows decorated the altar of the St. Andrew Presbyterian church at Indianapolis for the marriage of Miss Judith Ann Dekruyter and Gary Paul Dillon. Dr. John G. Dekruyter, father of the bride and Dr. John Fox officiated at the double ring ceremony, which took place at 10 p.m. on June 7.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Dekruyter of Indianapolis and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Judson Dillon of Culver, the parents of the groom.

Mr. Kenneth Bird, organist played several selections and accompanied Mr. David Greenlee, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose to wear a floor length gown of peau de seiche which had been worn by the groom's two sisters for their weddings. Styled with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline and three quarter length sleeves, the neckline and sleeve edges were trimmed with seed pearls which formed floral appliques. The controlled skirt continued into a chapel length train which was also embellished with pearl appliques. A tulle fabric bow adorned the back of the bodice and her elbow length veil of illusion cascaded from a wide band of peau de seiche with seed pearls. She carried a short cascade of white roses with garlands in the center.

The maid of honor was Miss Margaret De Kruyter, sister of the bride and Mrs. Donald Love of Lafayette was the bridesmaid. The attendants wore identical gowns of light blue moire taffeta with long fitted sleeves, and an empire waist trimmed with a band of white daisies and matching bow at the back. Their head pieces were of blue net moire with a blossom on the middle and trimmed with trailing white daisies. They carried yellow and white daisies.

Dr. John Batchelder of Indianapolis, fraternity brother of the groom served as best man and Donald E. Hand of Fort Wayne was the groomsman. Ushers were Lance A. Overmyer of Culver, James Parker of Knox and John C. De Kruyter of Indianapolis, brother of the bride.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a beige Irish linen dress, trimmed at the hem with beige lace and an orange, yellow, and beige flowered hat. Her corsage was of yellow rose buds and baby's breath.

The groom's mother wearing a fern green dress with self fabric appliques of floral design and matching hat and beige accessories also had a corsage of yellow rose buds and baby's breath.

A reception was held in the church parlor with a three-tier cake topped with a bride and groom, and white candles and a punch bowl surrounded by greenery decorating the table. Miss Thelma Smith was in charge of the guest book and Miss Verda Romig the gifts.

After a short wedding trip to Brown County, Indiana, the newlyweds will be at home at 8151/2 Weghorst, Indianapolis. The brides going away ensemble was a creamy white A line dress with pink accessories.

The bride graduated from Crawfordsville High School and Alma College in Michigan, with a B. A. in speech and theatre. She was active in the theatre in high school, college and at the Wabash College. She is presently employed in the dean's office at the I.U. School of Medicine.

The groom is a graduate of Culver High School and Wabash College and is presently a sophomore at the I.U. School of Medicine. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi Fraternity, Masonic Lodge and the Order of Scottish Rite. He will be doing research this summer in orthopedics at the school.

Approximately 75 guests attended the wedding from Culver, Indianapolis, Seymour, Bremen, and Lafayette Indiana, Muskegan, Newport News, Virginia and Des Moines, Iowa.

Age-Old And Old Age Ideas

Mr. J. C. Penny, one of the most venerated of American entrepreneurs, spoke on courage and creativity in business. He said that the qualities of courage are three: a willingness to stick your neck out, to be an innovator, and to make changes in order to be progressive. To his way of thinking, innovation marked the difference between the mature executive who is on top of his job as compared with the immature executive whose job is on top of him. To many of our old-line executives today are simply slaves to routine. In the same vein, a noted psychologist pointed out that, "The mere fact that something has been done the same way for 20 years is often a sign it is being done wrong."

The new, mature, responsible type of businessman has created multi-product companies capable of great saving to the consumer through their "economy of size." All this innovation has obviously scared the pants off the old-line business establishment.

The concern in Washington is not a result of mergers or even the combining of large businesses, but the threat that the business establishment feels to its age-old, and age methods of doing business.

Mr. Penny is also quoted as saying that, "Rain or shine, some people go about their jobs the same way every day of the week... with never a single new idea to contribute to their company... then they sometimes wonder why younger, 'less talented' men (or so they seem to think) go sailing past them into positions higher up the executive ladder. The reason may well have been that the 'less-talented' men had a few suggestions now and then that helped cut costs, increase profits, improve efficiency, facilitate distribution, or otherwise enable the company to enlarge its scope of operations."

So, age has nothing to do with creativity, innovation, and growth - it's all in how you use the tools.

SODBUSTER SEZ

by Herman Sodbuster

Rumors, rumors, and still more rumors. The latest to hit Culver is the one concerning patrolmen other than our own little force. This 'un supposedly occurred the night of the Commencement Ball. It seems some eager heaver patrolling the east side of the lake made his own do-it-yourself speed trap. This ingenious fellow was seen hanging from a tree with a stop watch to catch speeders. One eye witness said he never gave the theory of evolution a second thought until he saw this spectacle.

SS

The Strawberry Festival in Leiters Ford had a pretty good turnout considering the weather. There were plenty of Culverites there and all of them casting doubtful eyes at the sky. After all the work and planning those people put into this yearly event, it would have been awful if it had rained. What in the world would they have done with all those strawberries?

SS

Have you noticed the Culver Fire Dept. has added another piece of equipment to their inventory? A panel truck is the latest acquisition. Since its not actually new I guess they did have a little bit of trouble getting it started the other day. But once they got it fired up it took off faster than the auxiliary police car.

SS

Whatever happened to the diagonal parking plan for Culver? After a big announcement it is flat. Probably couldn't find anyone who could paint diagonal lines or maybe paint wasn't allowed for in the town budget. Its just as well though, because they couldn't possibly made room for more cars that way and putting a limit on parking time would be rather difficult to enforce--unless they planned to install parking meters. And that wouldn't be one bit popular now would it?

SS

Now that Father's Day is over I hope all you Dads have found a place for those horrible new neck ties. Some really devoted fathers actually wear them once before conveniently losing them.

SS

Have you noticed quite a few people around itching and scratching? Not poison ivy but a bumper crop of strawberries to blame. You couldn't even give them away this year and who would want to waste them? Personally I don't care if I never see another one again. Cool strawberry soup was the last straw!

You feel a little edgy, or maybe cross.

Sooner or later, that day comes, the day when a woman feels she's changing. It's not a good feeling either. And she could use a good old-fashioned medicine then.

You might even have what we call hot flashes and feel sad and slightly off-balance.

Whatever you feel, we have something for the day you need a little comforting. Lydia E. Pinkham Tablets. They're made with gentle, natural ingredients that work to help you feel better. When you start changing, you could use a good old-fashioned medicine for an old-fashioned problem. CMA Chapel Scene Of Wedding

The Culver Memorial Chapel decorated with white flowers, greens and candelabra, was the scene for the marriage of Miss Mary Margaret Jurgensen and John Jay Reitman. Dr. Hardigg Sexton, formerly of Culver, now of Miami University, officiated at the 11 o'clock morning ceremony on Thursday, June 12.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jurgensen of Culver and Dr. and Mrs. James S. Reitman of Lardo, Texas are the parents of the gown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of candlelight silk organza over matching taffeta and fashioned with a yoke of dainty Venice lace which also formed a mandarin collar. The sleeveless bodice had a band of organza forming a belt fastened by a bow at the back. A wide band of lace encircled the hemline and edged the chapel train. An open cap of lace held the bride's bouffant veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

The maid of honor was Miss Ruth Benner of Culver and bridesmaids were Miss Jean Reitman, sister of the groom, Miss Cynthia Marshall, Miss Jane Lovett and Miss Leigh Linnemeier, all of Culver. The attendants were attired in floor length gowns of maize linen styled with a sleeveless Empire bodice and with a train extending from the back. They wore picture hats of matching Swiss braid and shirred tulle. Each of the attendants carried a single long stemmed white rose.

James S. Reitman served his brother as best man and the ushers were Richard E. Reitman, brother of the groom; John W. Jurgensen, brother of the bride of Houston, Texas; Charles McNagney of Fort Wayne and Robert Warner of New York.

The two ring bearers were nephews of the bride, James B. Sparrow and John B. Sparrow.

A breakfast was held at the Culver Inn for 200 guests. The dining room was decorated in white and yellow.

The bride's mother wore an ensemble of soft yellow gold and had a gardenia fastened on her purse. The groom's mother's ensemble was of soft green and she also had a gardenia.

For the short wedding trip, the bride wore a yellow dress and jacket ensemble and carried a long stemmed rose.

The newlyweds are graduates of Culver Military Academy and

State Fair Plans Programs For 1969

Glants of the entertainment world, including Bob Hope, Glen Campbell, the King Family and Anita Bryant have been booked to appear at the Indiana State Fair during its 11-day run, Aug. 22 through Labor Day, Sept. 1.

C. Melvin Young, fair board member from Greentown and director of the fair's entertainment, said, "That's just the beginning o' the list."

Hope will be accompanied by The Goldiggers, Diane Shelton, Mary Lou Collins and orchestra leader Richard Hayman, all stars in their own right, during shows - Monday, August 25 and Tuesday, August 26.

Still in negotiation is a contract to bring The Association and The Ventures to the fair for a day of entertainment aimed at the teen set Friday, Aug. 29, Young said.

Top USAC drivers A. J. Foyt and Don White may be expected to participate in the 10¹/₂-mile State Fair Century stock car race the first night of the fair, Aug. 22.

The State Fair Century and two companion races, the Indiana Classic 100-mile USAC stock car race June 21 and the Hoosier Hundred USAC championship car race Sept. 6 comprise the outstanding racing program of any state fair in the United States.

In addition, state fair racing major domo Joseph L. Quinn Jr. has scheduled the inaugural running of national championship motorcycle races on the fairgrounds 1-mile dirt track Aug. 28.

Rodeos Inc. is furnishing rodeo stock reputed to be the "meanest in the world" for the State Fair Championship Rodeo Saturday Aug. 23 through Tuesday, Aug. 26.

Entertainment acts for the rodeo include a high-diving "aqua mule," Roman chariot races and a relic of trail-driving days, chuckwagon pony races.

The perennially crowd-pleasing Jack Kochman Hell Drivers will be back putting new cars through the paces jumping ramps, driving on two wheels and doing reverse spins at 60 miles an hour. Of course, each show will have its own T-bone auto crash and many "near misses" as drivers exactly gauge their cars' performances.

A four-day harness racing program will star world-record holding horses and their sometimes millionaire sulky drivers Friday, August 29, through Labor Day, Monday, September 1.

The 42nd Fox Starke Sunday, August 31, is the continent's classic for 2-year-old pacers and is expected to offer a record purse of more than $70,000.

Among the colts eligible for that race is the most expensive yearling in harness racing history, Nevele Bigshot, brother of the 1965 Fox Stake champion, Romeo Hanover.

All the members of The King Family are expected to be present for shows Saturday, August 23 and Sunday, August 24. The performances will give their tremendous television following a chance to see the group "live" and in person.

Anita Bryant will appear for six performances of the English Horse Show Sunday, August 24 through Wednesday, August 27.

The former Miss Oklahoma has distinguished herself through starring roles in legitimate theater, on television and through performances at the White House and before royalty in Europe.

Glen Campbell will be at the fair for six performances through the Labor Day weekend, Saturday, August 30 through Labor Day, September 1.

The young singer has become a super star as the result of his best-selling records and television triumphs.

He is certain to include "Gentle On My Mind," "Wichita Line-man" and "By The Time I Get To Phoenix" on his program.

Bob Hope, the great legend in show business history, will share his quips and comments on the world in general during two performances - one at 8 p.m. Monday, August 25, and the second at the same hour the following evening, Tuesday, August 26.

A ticket order form and brochure on Indiana State Fair shows may be had by writing to "Tickets", Indiana State Fairgrounds, Indianapolis, Ind. 46205. Be sure to enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.

 "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject of this week's Bible Lesson-Sermon which will be heard Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

In the Responsive Reading, from Job, one verse asks: "Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth?"

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy reads: "The universe, like man, is to be interpreted by Science from its divine Principle, God, and then it can be understood; but when explained on the basis of physical sense and represented as subject to growth, maturity, and decay, the universe, like man, is, and must continue to be, an enigma."

Grace United Church Board Meets

In an effort to determine the extent of the fire damage to the Grace United Church of Christ building, members of the official board met last week. The Board named a committee to assist in checking an inventory of equipment and other materials lost in the fire. The committee includes Mrs. Lee Jewell, chairman; Mrs. A. Judson Dillon, Mrs. Donald Osborn, Lee Jewell, Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Davis, Mrs. Shelton Kaiser, Mrs. Robert Rust, Walter Johnson and Rev. John Krueger.

The Grace Church was constructed in 1890, has been in recent years entirely remodeled.

The official board of the Church met on Tuesday evening, June 10th to consider places of worship for conducting services for an indeterminate time. An announcement concerning these arrangements will be made on June 18th.

R. 2, Culver, Ind., is a member of the Aerospace Defense Command (ADC) unit at Keflavik Airport, Iceland, that has received national recognition for proficiency in identifying Soviet bombers operating over the North Atlantic.

Girl Scout News

Thirty-two Girl Scouts from Culver attended Girl Scout Day Camp the week of June 9 - 13 at Limblost Campsite on State Highway 17. They joined with Girl Scout troops from Plymouth, LaPaz, Lakeville, and Bremen to form four troops of over 100 scouts.

The Scouts organized into one Brownie troop, two Junior troops and one Cadette troop. The girls enjoyed out-of-door cooking, crafts, games, singing, fire-building, knot-tying, knife care, lashing, pitching tents, archery, hikes and skits.

On Wednesday night, the Junior Scouts and Cadettes spent an overnight trip at the camp with their leaders.

The Scouts and leaders formed a troop government to plan all activities. At Brownie the level, the governing body was the unit representatives and the "Brownie Ring." At the Junior and Cadette levels, the patrols and unit representatives made the decisions.

On Friday, all units joined in a special closing program. The leaders awarded perfect attendance cards. The girls presented their leaders with Gold Medals of Courage and a bouquet of flowers in recognition of service beyond the call of duty. The program concluded with the Brownie Color Guard conducting the flag ceremony and the singing of taps.

Cavaliers Lose Baseball Game To Oregon-Davis

Culver lost a squeaker to Oregon Davis by a score of 3 to 2 Monday evening on the winner's field. The Cavaliers out hit the Bobcats five to three, including doubles by Bruce Snyder, John Bauer and Steve Crowel.

O. D. scored the winning run with one out in the seventh on a single, a fielder's choice and a bloop single down the right field line by the winning pitcher, Orr. CCHS had tied the score in the sixth when John Bauer doubled and was eventually forced across when Larry Shaffer drew a bases loaded walk. The Cavaliers' first run came on a walk and stolen base by McCombs and he was driven across by Bruce Snyder's double to left.

Shaffer again turned in a strong pitching performance for the locals. He allowed only 3 hits, two of which were of the bloop variety, struck out 9 and walked only one. He had one bad inning, the fourth, when he gave up two runs—both unearned. These came as a result of 2 errors, his only walk and Orr's first single of the game.

The loss evened the Cavalier's Summer League record to 2 wins and 2 losses. They will take on Argos Thursday evening at home in an attempt to go one up on the league.

Farm Bureau County Meeting

There will be a County meeting of the Farm Bureau in honor of the 50 year members, Thursday evening June 19 at the Argos Bank Lounge. There will also be a county amateur program with a social hour following. Everyone is invited.

INDIANA WHEAT PRODUCTION DOWN

Indiana's 1969 wheat crop, estimated at 34.7 million bushels, is expected to average 38 bushels an acre — three more than the 1968 average yield, report state-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University.

However, based on May 1 condition, production is expected to be two per cent smaller than last year's crop and 24 per cent smaller than the 1967 crop. Acreage for harvest is placed at 913,000 acres, 10 per cent smaller than the 1968 acreage and 26 per cent below the 1967 total.

April provided good growing conditions for this year's crop, the statisticians note, adding that on May 2 the average height was 10 inches.

Hay stock on Indiana farms May 1 totaled 375,000 tons, 15 per cent more than a year earlier.

Hoosier laying flocks produced 244 million eggs during April, the statisticians report. This was five per cent smaller than the April, 1968, egg production.

Milk production during April amounted to 214 million pounds, the same as the April, 1968, production. However, it was seven per cent smaller than the April, 1967 production.
