Announce Plans For The Opening Of Culver Schools August 28th

Plans for the opening of the 1969-70 academic term of the Culver Community Schools Corporation have been worked out by the school administrative officials, it was announced here today. School will open for students at 1:15 p.m. on Thursday afternoon, August 28th. The first full day session will be on Friday, August 29th.

All students attending the district school his fall should arrange to report either on August 25th or 26th to payment of book rentals. Book rentals are to be paid either on August 25th or 26th so that text materials will be available to pupils on the opening day of school.

Arrangements call for pupils whose last names begin with the letter A through M to pay rentals on August 25th and those whose last names begin with N and continuing through Z to pay rentals on August 26th.

Buildings and school offices will be open on both days from 8:30 to 12:00 noon and from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. For those patrons or pupils whose personal schedules prevent going to the school on the dates and hours stated, principals of schools will provide after-hour arrangements between 7:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. Although most actual scheduling was completed last spring, it will be necessary for a parent or some member of the family to make rental fee payments if the student, because of personal circumstances, is unable to do so.

Any student moving into the community and not having enrolled is asked to contact the school principal on or before August 22nd. From August 10th and continuing thereafter, John Hayes, high school principal, may be contacted at the high school office, telephone 842-3391; Charles H. Downing, Supervising Principal, Culver Elementary (Kindergarten through Grade Eight), 842-3275; Rex Good, Senior Instructor, Kindergarten through Grade Eight, Aubbeenaubee School, phone 832-4522; and Bennie Bair, Senior Instructor, Kindergarten through Grade Eight, Monterey School, phone 514-2601.

Although the high school fees depend upon the courses which the student is taking, the average fee is $14.50, according to Mr. Hayes. The rental fees for Aubbeenaubee and Monterey, Grades One to Eight, will be $11.75. For the Culver Elementary, Grades One to Three, fees will be $14.70; Grades Four to Five, $12.50; Grade Seven and Eight, boys, $15.00; and Grade Seven and Eight, girls, $15.85. The difference in Grades Seven and Eight at Culver is in the price of Physical Education uniform. If the student has the uniform, the cost will be reduced accordingly.

If student accident insurance is desired, applications should be made at the school office at the time of payment of fees. Generally, it is preferred that payment of book rental fees and accident insurance be made in separate checks.

The first day of school, on abbreviated afternoon session, will be held on August 28, 1969, with the first full day on August 29th. Kindergarten classes will start on September 2nd.

SPORTS CORNER

FRIDAY IS THE OFFICIAL kick-off day for the start of the 1969 Indiana High School Football Season. This is the day the teams are allowed to start their regular practice and get ready for the season which will begin in two weeks for many teams. Football has come a long way in Indiana High School in the last few years and this year should be another very interesting, fine football season.

THE GREAT UPSURGE IN the sport at the high school level came with the reorganization program of schools in the past 10 years. There were many schools that simply were too small to finance and properly staff a team with coaches and players. However, when these small schools started turning one, two and even more into one new high school, football really began to blossom. Now easily the largest percentage of the schools have a football program and most of these are in variety competition.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL in Indiana is basically a night sport. Most teams have lighted fields to play on and many have put in very nice plants to include football in the athletic program. This offers to many more boys a chance to compete in a high school athletic event and many are now getting that fine competition that only a high school program can offer. Football is not only the sport that has really blossomed under the reorganization, but is the major sport that has much fan appeal. Wrestling, golf, tennis, cross country . . . these are all sports that have really grown with the larger schools. For many years Indiana was considered a "basketball" state, but today, football does not have to take a back seat to any sport. The only thing missing is the lack of a state tourney which would be a hard thing to hold in a state where the climate is such as ours. California has this and their season runs for many weeks longer due to this, but they can do it successfully in that climate.

FOOTBALL HAS BEEN given a big boost on TV in recent years and although the Pro Football is one of the number one attraction on the tube, it has rubbed off on all levels of the game. Today you will find many more people percentage wise with the knowledge of the game. A few years ago many people who even had to be classified as fans, didn't know a draw play from an end run. Getting former players to do the color on almost every kind of a telecast and the great use of the instant replay to further explain what has just been seen has rubbed off on many people.

WITH A FIVE TO SIX month saturation of football on week end, people now are knowing the game. They have also found people now are knowing the game. They have also found out that football on week ends, that football on a high school level can be a very interesting game. These boys have been getting good, coaching on this level and do put on a fine performance for their fans. High school football also has something else that other phases don't, that being the high school spirit and knowing personally the boys that are participating.

THERE IS A LOT OF hard work and time put into a high school football program. It is a rough game as is any contact sport, but also a game that can offer the participants a lot of opportunity and they derive a great deal of satisfaction from it. Just watch the enthusiasm generated by a boy when he crashes into the end zone or races down field to pull in that pass. Nothing can compare to the thrill of a victory to a bunch of boys that have put in a lot of team effort to become successful. Plan now to be an active fan of Indiana High School Football this coming season.

The Annual meeting of the Lake Maxinkuckee Association was held in the Little Theatre of Eppler Auditorium on Friday, August 8, 1969.

In addition to the election of officers and board of directors, the secretary Mrs. Hippensteel reported that the results of the membership drive brought the total membership to 218. President James Rocap expressed the gratitude of the Board for the generous response to the Buoy Fund, which enabled Dr. Kraning to install 75 along the shores of the Lake.

Considerable discussion showed the interest and cooperation of the members with regard to preventing problems of pollution that have effected so many other lakeside communities. In this connection the officers have been instructed to formulate a program during the fall and winter months.

The following members were elected to office: President; James Rocap; Vice-President, Frank M. Setzler; Secretary, Mrs. Faith Hippensteel; Treasurer, Floyd Sparling. To the Board of Directors: John Edgell; Carl Steely, E. William Schilling,

Weeds Are Bad This Season

The annual period of suffering for Hay Fever victims is on us once again, but right along with this is another thing that is over evident this year in both town and country. That is extreme weed growth. Wood growth is so bad this year and cutting operations seem to be nil, that many intersections, railroad crossing and curves in roads are almost completely blind due to the excess wood growth.

Most incorporated areas have restrictions on weed growth and much of the very unpleasant growth that is extremely heavy, far exceeds the limitations. The responsible parties just aren't living up to their responsibilities of keeping this excess growth cut.

The high growth of weeds makes both a health and traffic hazard. Many sufferers of hay fever can appreciate any relief possible by controlled weed growth. The pollen that bothers them usually comes from the unkept areas where free growth is allowed to continue.

The menacing hazard created on many rural roads and even some town streets could easily lead to a traffic accident. One doesn't have to drive very far to find this excess growth creating blind corners and so forth. Many railroad crossings and right-of-way have weed growth to extreme proportions. It is doubtful whether or not these weeds could mar the vision of a train, but the unsightly crossings and hazards that are created could easily be corrected with a cutting or two each year.

Some property owners are just as lax as the railroads and county highway departments. It is true these larger units have plenty of work to do in the summer months, but most property owners could easily find the time or the help to keep weeds out. The benefits of appearance and other aspects clearly outdistance the time or money it would cost to have the work done

Methodist Church tower are gone, and their passing will recall to many the day, when they attempted to give the time of day to the town.

The trunkline of the Indiana Bell Telephone Co. is being placed underground along Lake Shore Drive as part of the Company's move to take out of the air its main cable from Logansport to South Bend.

Around 2,000 employees of the Shell Petroleum Co. are expected to attend the annual picnic Sunday at the Town Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Asper celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary Saturday with a family dinner at their home.

and Miss Bessie Medbourn were entertained at supper last Tuesday by Mrs. H. J. Meredith.

CULVER COLUMN

Only in Culver could a bunch of kids marching in a parade DRUM up trouble. "Not uniformed" shout the uninformed who were not aware the Jr. Band was the performing band. If you people want to TOOT your horn by bragging about the money you contributed to uniform, that's your business. I, however, feel the Jr. Band should be praised for their ability. Let's stop the SOUR NOTES and enjoy the MUSIC. After this the band director could use some BAND-aids and encouragement.

There's quite a stink about garbage disposal around here. First a guy gets caught trying to unload his refuse beside a highway, then an out of town car was seen unloading a huge amount of garbage in the town park barrels and now comes complaints about someone throwing garbage out of an upstairs window. This is a litter-bit more than the town can handle!

If you have been keeping track of your tax outgo lately, you certainly didn't miss the little gem about the town rate going down nearly 30c while the school rate is going up about the same amount. Hurrah for the Town Board member, who have figured out some way to control spending. Perhaps they're contemplating any expansion.

I'm still trying to figure out the roster of the police dept. I think I have figured out who has resigned, but I need help with a new addition. One prominent police watcher says he is not sure who the new member is but he was seen somewhere a couple weeks ago pulling a awning behind him??

Governor Whitcomb has claimed this week a "Willing Water." It's like this that make you appreciate what a tough job the Governor has.

Plans are still pending on the closing of the streets. It takes as much time as the painting of diagonal lines on Main Street, don't hold your breath.

Roth Cline made a good point in his editorial about "Kill Kerner." A top light could be the answer. Do you suppose the town still has the old unpaid down stop light around? It might be better than nothing.

THINKS COLUMN

FILLS A NEED

I would like to make a few comments on the "bridge table gossip" item referred to in a letter to the Editor of the August 7 issue of the Culver Citizen.

In the first place, I am getting a little tired of all the screams of "yellow journalism" that seem to be the fashion in Culver today. Journalism is defined as the occupation of writing for periodicals and new papers. Really now... what is the function of a small town newspaper? Certainly to inform those interested in the recent happenings of their community. I personally feel that a column like Culver Comments or the more recent Culver Column fills a need that can only be filled by this type of column. Today's small town paper has to be a combination of things... a bulletin board of community, social, civic government and commercial activities, and in some small way, a "conscience" for our civic pride. Let us be realistic about this issue. If there is something you do not like, offer some constructive criticism and see what can be accomplished.

And now for the "gossip" item... the man referred to in this item did, as a fact, create a disturbance himself, putting a lot of people in a bad situation needlessly, and used vulgar language in front of a large group of young people. If this man had a legitimate complaint, he should have let the police handle it and kept his temper under control. I have been told that this man is the founder of an organization called Youth of America for Constructive Action. I would like to hear from him.

Does he really feel that the example he set for the young people involved, or those in attendance was truly constructive? A Proud Citizen of Culver

Band Members Says Uniforms Are Hot

The letter to the editor written last week by a band member I'm sure it does not reflect the opinion of the majority of Mr. Byfield's students. To my knowledge, the reason the band did not wear their uniforms at the park concert, was because we expressed a desire (to put it lightly-actually we complained relentlessly) not to wear them because of the heat. It's true that the uniforms are heavy, and with the marching overlays, they're unbearable in hot weather. The people who have made donations for the purchase of the uniforms have had opportunities to see them and will see them many times again. The band is very proud of their uniform, but they can be very uncomfortable.

As far as Mr. Byfield's support and encouragement in producing a good marching band is concerned, we have received as much as any one can give. I've been in band for six years, and I have seen enormous improvement in the band in the few years that Mr. Byfield has been at Culver. Any band member should be willing to admit this. Janelle Price

"WAS THERE"

After reading last week's Culver Column, I decided to answer, or clear up some confusion on Mrs. Walker's part. I happened to be at the root beer stand the night of "the incident." As a matter of fact I was in the car next to the one involved. The man involved did not conduct himself as a gentleman and negated any cause for complaint by his actions. I was offended not only by his rude conduct, but by his careless use of "street language". The boys involved showed much more maturity in their actions than he.

I received a letter from the same gentleman about joining his Youth for Constructive Action a few months ago, because of my loyalty, conduct and good citizenship (someone had given him my name). Without going into this area any further, I find it extremely disappointing to discover the man in this incidence at the root beer stand and the person who sent me the afore mentioned letter were one and the same.

I do not believe there were any intentions, in the part of the paper, of questioning this man of what he has done for the Youth of Culver or America, or his personal accomplishments. His complaint was perhaps justified, but if he is so wrapped up in the youth and helping them become leaders, the first example should come from him. In this case, it did not. This is not gossip — I was there.

Not a Minor

Dear Editor,

Congratulations to Mr. Martin, as chairman of the Regatta parade, the co-operation of the townspeople was encouraging and delightful. A role should also go to the teamwork shown by the V.F.W. members for their building is becoming one of the finest improvements in our town.

I agree with Mrs. Tom Walker, that each family should have the courage to report any disturbances to the police. It's unfortunate that there are a few characters (or maybe a couple of individuals with a lack of character) that cause traffic and noise problems. These "characters" who continually gun their motors, toot horns needlessly, block traffic while talking to their buddies, and drag through town, give a poor, poor impression to local taxpayers. I repeat, it's only a few and I only wish the responsible "Young Adults" would avoid these "motorized morons". Culver is not only a nice place to drive through at night, but is also a pleasant place to live — please respect the families who have chose to settle in Culver, new and old.

The merchants and the Chamber of Commerce cannot afford to lose any families; Mrs. C. C. let's don't encourage the motorized morons to cause anymore dwindling of the Culver population.

I also wonder if Mrs. C. C. was guilty of some infraction of the lake involving the Lake Patrolman, this would explain, but not excuse her needling him. Culver Merchant

APPRECIATED EDITORIAL

Mr. Roth Cline's guest editorial in last week's Citizen was very timely for me, as things are the same way in Porter Co.

There have been 27 two-car wrecks at one bad city dirt road which adjoins State Road 12.

Sunday after church, I went to the Chief of Police to ask what jurisdiction this dirt road was in and to my surprise found it was a Porter town road! This was way out in the country! He was very kind and told me to talk to the Town Board president, who was kind enough to go over the dangerous road with me. It needs "slow" signs, "dangerous" signs and "danger approaching State Rd. 12".

He explained to me that these signs are made by the inmates of Michigan City State Prison and just as soon as he could get these ordered and obtain them they'll be placed at once. After an interesting talk with him I learned that a town cannot tinker with signs on State Highways, unless the State has given a portion of a State Road back to a town.

I know plenty of smart people around Culver that will work on this. People are so cooperative if you meet them half way.

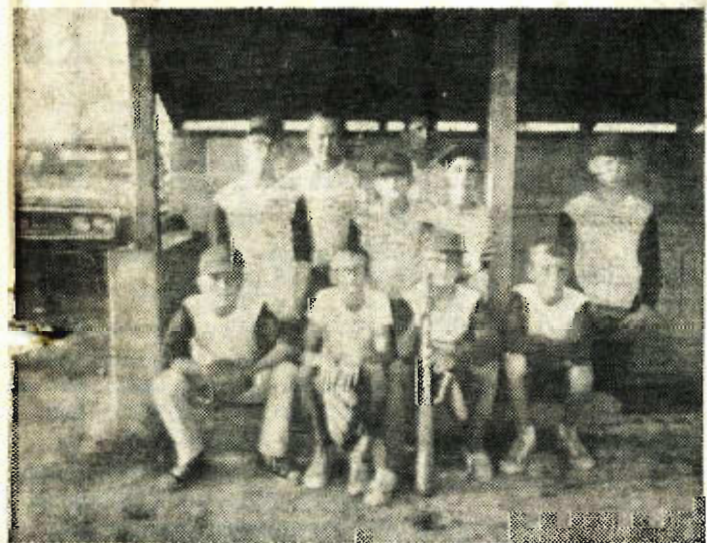

Some just set in the old taverns and tell what ought to be done and yell for unneeded 3-way license for another corner tavern while others are trying to make this world a better place to live. Like the great John F. Kennedy said, "God's work on this earth is truly ours."

By the way, Allstates' latest insurance record is that one out of fifty drivers on the road today is drunk... not drinking... drunk! Fifty-five thousand and highway deaths last year and one-half of these accidents and deaths involved drinking. Isn't this a real great record for a Christian nation and a good example for our children?

At this time I would like to compliment the Culver Military Academy for properly displaying the American Flag at half-staff during the mourning period for President and General Dwight Eisenhower. It's the only one out of thousands that I saw displayed right.

Love to All Our Friends,
Mrs. Alvin L. Baker

Little League Completes Successful Year

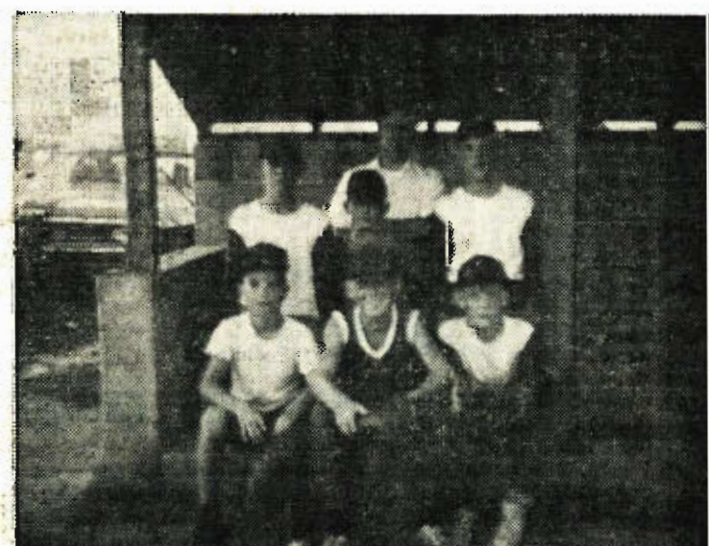

The Park Baseball Little League has just completed a very successful season. Their leaders have expressed their appreciation for the cooperation of the sponsors and coaches who have donated money and time to make this a good year. Sponsors of the teams were various businesses in Culver. Each business donated $25 which was applied to uniforms which included shirts and ball caps for each member of all the teams.

The Little League sponsored a concession stand this year which sold cokes and popcorn. Profits from this stand paid their bus trip to a Chicago Cub ball game and also treated the boys attending with 84 hamburgers and milk shakes.

The leaders of the league voiced a special thanks to the league commissioner, Kenny Grether; the sponsors; coaches and assistant coaches; Dale Heiser, umpire and assistant help; Culver Community School for busses; John Strycker and Kal Waxman, drivers; and last but not least, the parents.

Fair Program To Be Televised On Area Station

The upcoming Indiana State Fair will be brought into the homes of millions of Hoosiers by a television network of six stations carrying the 1½ hour Jim Gerard Show from the Indiana State Fairgrounds.

Gerard, a popular host on his own show originating on WFBM-TV in Indianapolis, will be on the stage of Universities Building East (the old I.U. Building) from 12:30 p.m. until 2 p.m. from Monday, Aug. 25 through Friday, Aug. 29.

All the shows will be "live" except the first one which will be taped during the previous week end to allow the station's equipment to be set up across the street in the Coliseum. There, WFBM-TV will originate live telecast of the champion 4-H Club steer and barrow auction that evening.

Stations carrying the Gerard show are WKJG-TV in Fort Wayne, WTVW in Evansville, WLBC-TV in Muncie, WNDU-TV in south Bend, WTWO in Terre Haute and WFBM-TV in Indianapolis.

Many state fair personalities will be featured on the show and it is expected that many of the giants of the entertainment world appearing at the fair will be on the show.

The fair's entertainment schedule includes the Bob Hope Show, The King Family, the Glen Campbell Show, The Association, Anita Bryant, Mary Lou Collins, Diane Shilton, the Gold-diggers and others.

The big Hoosier exposition this year begins Friday, Aug. 22 and runs through Labor Day, Sept. 1.

Tall Corn Competition Set At State Fair

The corn will truly be as high as an elephant's eye at the Indiana State Fair. And a very large elephant at that.

The corn in question can be seen at the Fair's Tall Corn and Large Sunflower Contest held at noon, Friday, Aug. 22, in the Agriculture-Horticulture Building.

The competition is something of a "fun thing" because the type of corn entered in the contest is produced by exotic seeds, most of them from South America or other foreign continents, and the corn has little farming value because it does not produce ears.

But, what stalks! The winning entry of Raymond Francis of R. R. 1, Freetown, in last year's competition was more than 18 inches in diameter.

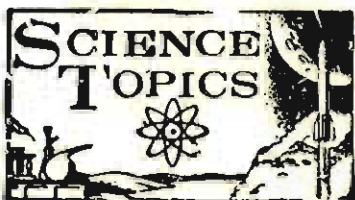

Fair officials are expecting 20 or more entries in each of the two divisions of the contest.

The sunflowers, you might say, are "for the birds."

The seeds, that is, make excellent feed for our feathered friends. And, the bigger the sunflower, the heartier the fare for the birds.

The corn stalks are measured from ground level to the top of the tassel.

The entrant who shows the tallest corn stalk will receive $25 with prizes scaling down to $3 for fifth place. Sunflower contest awards range from $15 to $3.

Human Skin Grown In Lab

Actual Reconstruction of human skin by tissue grown under artificial conditions outside a living organism is reported as having been achieved by a Stanford University medical research team. Skin grown in laboratory cultures for periods up to six weeks acted as a source of new skin cells in ulcerated or burn wounds.

Man will take the 50,000,000-mile journey to Mars long before he makes 50-mile journey into the earth, say University of Chicago scientists. They say, in fact, that steel-crushing pressure, rock-melting heat, and engineering problems may keep man from ever penetrating through more than the equivalent of "a thin pencil line around a circle the size of a basketball." In their conjuncture about the interior of the earth they studied both samples from below, thrown up by volcanoes, and meteorites that might resemble internal constituents of the earth.

Development of a totally new waste water purification process described a one that could revolutionize water treatment and help solve both water pollution and water supply problems has been announced by New York University civil engineers. It is a chemical-physical process that would replace conventional biological treatment and that promises to make large-scale water re-use a practical possibility. The researchers reported that in laboratory tests it purified raw sewage samples - - to "equivalent or better quality than the average drinking water for most cities."

The versatility of nitrogen was demonstrated recently when Chemtron Corporation formally opened one of its air separating plants that produces the cryogenic gas. A company official used a metal baton to shatter a soft rubber tube that had been made brittle by passing liquid nitrogen through it. The gas has a temperature of minus 320 degrees F.

Tension Buildup in underground rock may be the key to predicting earthquakes, reports a University of Utah geophysicist. Researchers installed device to measure underground strain deep within a granite records vault in mountains near Salt Lake City and observed rapid tension buildup several days before earthquakes were felt in the Salt Lake City valley. A chain of gradual tension buildup has also been recorded, followed by a series of "snaps," minor earth slippages, or "micro-earth-quakes," after which the rock goes into compression before again building up tension.

An inch of rain falling evenly on one acre of ground is equivalent to about 27,205 gallons of water, report hydrologists of the U.S. Geological Survey.

BLUEPRINT FOR BAZAARS

Boxes stack up as a decorative, inexpensive way to display your wares. Selling baked goods? Use one-size boxes in a pyramid stack, for a symmetrical effect that takes the cake! Random-sized boxes can also be stacked to form a display stand; the tallest box holds your sign. Wishing for a full-profit display? This pretty wishing well is your answer. Build a square of bricks and trim it with ivy or plants. Cover the bucket with a large mesh wire screen and fill bottom with water for good luck. The pennies will take care of themselves!

Older than Aladdin's lamp, newer than Appollo X, bazaars have been delighting buyers and sellers for thousands of years.

Now they may reach an all-time high in fun and profit, thanks to the wealth of ideas in paper-wrapped grab bag prize.

A "Wishing Well" of bricks and greenery, with a bucket for coins. Make it as attractive as you can, to lure the penny-tossers.

For the bazaar-on-a-

Eye-appealing eyeglass cases.

McCall's Step-by-Step Bazaar Book, now available at your local newsstand.

This brand new magazine covers everything from publicizing your bazaar to pricing the merchandise. According to its editor, Nan Comstock, even experienced bazaar-planners can pick up pointers, "such as how to set up easy, inexpensive displays to give their bazaar a 'new look' and heighten the interest of prospective customers."

Booths for all seasons and all reasons—including a colorful Christmas booth—are described in the Bazaar Book. Here are just a few of the suggestions:

An "Apron Park"—aprons pinned to clotheslines strung between artificial trees—calls attention to these perennial best-sellers.

A "Chinese Laundry"—buy a ticket, and take home a shoestring, McCall's Step-by-Step Bazaar Book, suggests making a booth out of boxes! Color them festive, stack them on a table—and you have a versatile display stand that can hold cakes, toys, even jewelry.

Another highly successful low-budget display is a "mittens tree" with all kinds and sizes—including dust mitts and golf mitts.

Whether your bazaar is big enough for a hall or small enough for a church basement, do try to stock a variety of merchandise. "Something for everyone!" is the password to success.

To help you achieve this goal, the Bazaar Book has 78 pages of instructions for making 200 useful and appealing items.

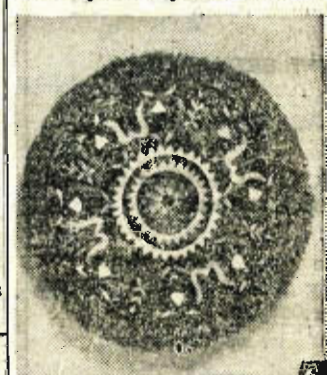

* You'll find beanbags and beaded eyeglass cases... candles, and crocheted toys...embroidered pillows and papier-mache flowers! Also included are fashion accessories: a crocheted beret, a shimmering tie-dye scarf, an array of unusual belts.

Show off your wares to best advantage with clever packaging, artful arrangement. Knitwear stays bandbox-fresh when displayed in shallow boxes covered with transparent wrap. Small potted plants take on style if you wrap the containers in colored foil.

Remember that a few items, well arranged, sell better than a jumble of unrelated articles. To keep counters neat, keep some items back, bringing them out as needed.

Leftover merchandise? Gather it up and auction it off! Then the fair will end as it began—with fun for all, and profit for a worthy cause.

The Ancilla Domini Sisters, the Poor Handmaids of Jesus Christ, will sponsor an Open House Event at Ancilla Domini Convent, Donaldson, Indiana, August 15 from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m., E.D.T., for all the neighbors of the vicinity.

According to Mother M. Clarice, Provincial of the Sisters, and Sister M. Cornelia, Superior of the Convent, the purpose of the Open House is to share the centennial activities of the Sisters. It is the Sisters' wish to meet and become acquainted with their neighbors.

August 1969 marks the end of a year of commemoration for the 100 years of service of the Ancilla Domini Sisters.

As these activities end, and as the last strains of Sister Jeffery's musical SISTER AMERICA, drift into the next hundred years, a look back brings gratitude to those who stamped this year with the impress of devotion and dedication to these Sisters' work.

As one Sister expresses it, the Sisters hope to share the future with their fellowmen in continued service and communication.

Village Art Festival Slated For August 14-17

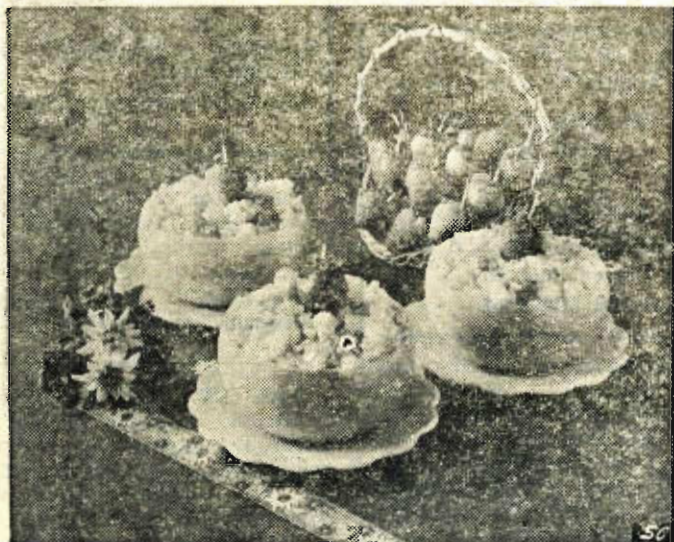

The Pletcher Furniture Village of Nappanee, Indiana will present its seventh annual Village Art Festival, August 14-17. More than $1000 in prizes will be awarded to the winning paintings of the near 1000 entered from across the Midwest. The four day artist's weekend is designed around the Amish heritage and folk art of the Nappanee area. Amish horse and buggy rides, country farm tours, shoo-fly pie and the traditional seven sweets and seven soups, provide an intriguing background for the art display, flea market and farmers market.

Amish Acres, Nappanee's new 80 acre historical farm now under construction will be open for preview tours during festival week. A continuous bus shuttle will transport visitors to the festival grounds from Amish Acres parking lot.

Seat Belts Do Save Lives

Finish With A Flourish

On the downside of winter, in that bleak stretch toward spring, many homemakers rifle through their recipe repertoires seeking quick ways to whet appetites. This Strawberry Rice Dessert suggested by the Borden Kitchen may just end their search. The rice is dappled with bits of pineapple, cherry halves, mini-marshmallows and strawberry yogurt made as the Swiss do with fresh fruit throughout. Refrigerate the desserts till all the fine flavors mingle, peak with a piece of fruit... and dinner is sure to finish with a flourish.

Strawberry Yogurt Rice Dessert

(Makes 4-6 servings)

3/4 cup uncooked long grain rice 1-1/2 cups miniature marshmallows
1 cup (8-3/4 oz. can) pineapple tidbits 1 cup (1/2 pint container) Borden Swiss style strawberry yogurt
1/4 cup maraschino cherry halves, well drained

Wash rice in strainer under running water. Drain pineapple; reserve juice. Add water to reserved juice to make 1-1/2 cups liquid. In a medium-size saucepan, combine rice and liquid; cover. Place over high heat; bring to a boil. Reduce heat and cook 20 minutes. Remove from heat. Cover. Let stand for about 20 minutes. *Turn rice into mixing bowl; lightly mix in pineapple, cherries, marshmallows and strawberry yogurt. Chill in refrigerator about 2 hours to blend flavors. Spoon into dessert dishes. If desired, garnish with fresh strawberry or maraschino cherry.

*Rice will be dry.

LET (DR.) GEORGE DO IT

Except in a few backwoods areas, the days of self-doctoring with herbs and roots prescribed by old Aunt Sairay, or with snake oil obtained from the medicine-show man, are gone.

But rural remedies aren't the only form of do-it-yourself medicine that causes more illness than it cures. Some people have a way of peering into that shallow chamber of ancient drug relics, the medicine cabinet; selecting something with an appealing color, shape, or odor; and downing a dose. That can put an end not only to the illness but to the patient. Old medicines should go the way of old illnesses — into the Limbo of the past.

Another way of doing something wrong about medical treatment is to consult the local druggist with your doctor. The druggist has a large variety of patent medicines that can momentarily soothe your cough, your ache, or whatever. But he hasn't the medical knowledge that would enable him to prescribe. A patent remedy can alleviate your symptoms without really affecting your ailment. Bona fide treatment calls for the services of a physician.

Still another self-treatment habit, unfortunately prevalent nowadays, is the taking of handy pills for "nerves". Millions of people beset by anxiety, tension, insomnia, depression or other woes of the nervous system are taking unproven drugs that can do them serious harm. This pill-taking often leads to gradually increased doses up to and beyond the danger point.

Self-medication whether with drugs or snake oil is no laughing matter. It's bad for the health and can endanger life. Your Christmas Seal association suggests: for safety's sake and for better health, let a doctor do the doctoring.

"Soul" is the subject of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon to be heard Sunday in all Christian Science churches. The Responsive Reading includes these verses from Isaiah: "Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee... Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy border."
"A demonstration of the facts of Soul in Jesus' way resolves the dark visions of material sense into harmony and immortality." This correlative passage, also from the Lesson-Sermon, is from the denomination's textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy.

Indiana — The Center Of Things New Adv. Theme

Lt. Gov. Richard E. Folz today unveiled Indiana's new tourism promotion campaign, based on the theme: "Indiana — The Center of Things."

The lieutenant governor called attention to Indiana's geographic location and to the growing number of recreational and cultural events taking place in the Hoosier state that make it "the center of things."

The theme is carried out in a new advertising design which features "Indiana" as the bullseye of a brightly colored target with the slogan "The Center of Things" carried beneath. The outer circle is orange, the middle is hot pink and the center circle is red. The theme will be utilized on promotional materials and advertising of the Tourist Division, Indiana Department of Commerce, throughout the coming year.

Folz made the announcement at a State House news conference last Thursday. Noting a mushrooming trend of automobile pleasure travel, Folz commented that Indiana's location insures that millions of motorists will pass through the state each year.

He went on to say that Indiana in its own right is "fast becoming a center of recreational and cultural activities."

"We have many outstanding college and professional athletic teams and events and, state is making great strides forward in providing entertainment activities," the lieutenant governor said.

"Now we must let the rest of the country know what our state has to offer," he said.

An intensive state and national advertising campaign was outlined at the meeting. It includes bumper and window stickers, billboards, magazine advertising, radio and television programs, posters and banners.

Folz is director of the Indiana Department of Commerce, which, among other things, is the state's tourist promotion agency.

The advertising and public relations materials were prepared for the department by McQuade Wilkens Bloomhorst Inc., an Indianapolis advertising and public relations firm.
