“Well, folks, here it is—our home away from home, the Tepee for the Culver Indians, where we have all had our good times and our sad times—those sad times which didn’t turn out to be so sad after all. We, the Senior of 1960, whose privilege it is to record this year’s school life in this year’s TOMAHAWK, wish also we could record for you some of the affection we feel for the years we have spent here in this place. But this seems to be the kind of thing that one has to appreciate only by experience, that once-in-a-lifetime experience—graduation from high school. In due time the experience will be yours, but this is how we see it, so let’s go inside and look around.”

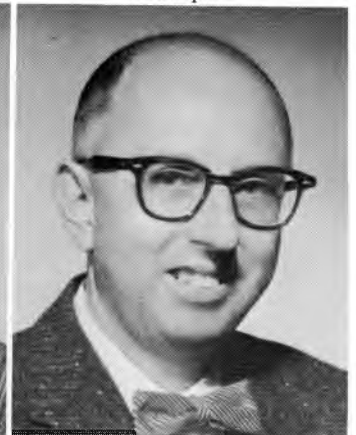

"We roll out the carpet to our fine administration and faculty."

M. R. Robinson, Assistant Principal and Director of Guidance, is shown discussing test results with student, Joyce Morrison.

Mrs. Warner, Office Secretary continues her busy schedule.

"Here is what makes the school tick."

Ed Kowatch, Al Systma, and Leon Bennett are always ready to answer the call, "Will a janitor please come to the office?"

Although Pat VanSchoiack is in the minority, she seems to enjoy helping with the physics experiments.

Mrs. Johnson is very proud of her Latin I student Bonnie Parker, who knows the exact location of Rome on the map.

Mrs. Strait, Eloise Tanner, Carol Heiser, Donna Smith, Mary Mevis, and Pat Wesson are ready to taste the bread they made in Home Economics II.

The Seniors spent many long hours working on their Senior cords. Here Kerry Spahr, Jane and Jean Ditmire work diligently during Art Class, under the supervision of Mrs. Allen, who is surely nearby.

“Our Seniors have been busy all through their high school careers.”

In September, 1956, 46 happy Freshmen were eager to start upon the long path that leads to graduation. Our officers were: president, Gene Benedict; v.-president, Don Hand; secretary, Betty Kose; treasurer, Joan Barshes. The main subjects discussed in our class meetings were ways of earning money for use on the Senior trip. It was decided that fudge sales would be our first project, and sales were held every few weeks throughout the year.

At the beginning of our second year in high school, 41 students were enrolled in our class. Our class officers were: president, Gene Benedict; v.-president, Stan Curtis; secretary, Joan Barshes; treasurer, Emily Allen. We began our money making activities by raking leaves during the fall. The class also held several food sales, and a new project was started when the class sponsored a movie, which proved to be a financial success.

Anticipating a very busy year ahead, 43 Juniors enrolled at Culver High in 1958. The officers elected were: president, Gene Benedict; v.-president, Bud Watson; secretary, Joan Barshes; treasurer, Emily Allen. On October 17 all the actors and actresses from the ranks of the class provided an eveningful of entertainment in their hilariously funny play, “Father Was A Housewife”. After much waiting, the rings finally arrived, to the joy of all those who had been looking forward to them for so long.

The class sponsored dances after all the home ballgames, and also sponsored a Record Hop, something new for Culver, on March 13. Joe Kelley, of WSBT-TV, was master of ceremonies, and an evening of dancing was enjoyed by all. Everyone seemed satisfied that they had received plenty to eat at the annual Ham Supper, which was held April 11. The class found that due to the salesmanship of some of the members of the class, the supper turned out to be a financial success.

Finally, that long-awaited day arrived and we spent all day May 15 decorating the gym in preparation for the heavenly prom, South Pacific. The gymnasium bedecked in different hues of blue, it was ready for the music of the Key Notes, to which we all danced the night away, after which we had breakfast at the Plymouth Country Club, thanks to the aid of several spirited people about town.

Oh Boy! We're Seniors, now. Yes, at last our Senior year is with us, and it will prove to be the busiest of all. 39 students made it to the last lap of our journey. The officers elected were: president, Gene Benedict; v.-president, Bud Watson; secretary, Joan Barshes; and treasurer, Emily Allen. Our first project was the magazine drive, with Sue Medbourn being the high salesman, turning in a staggering $193.76. We began selling concessions in the recreation room during noon hours, and prepared for selling during the ballgames. The Seniors all banded together and spent many long hours stenciling their Senior cords, which were worn around school on certain days, and at many school functions.

On February 3, as guests of The State Exchange Bank, we spent the day visiting the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust Co., The Board of Trade, and the Merchandise Mart. Also during February, we were measured for our caps and gowns, and we realized that the time was fast approaching that we would be out of our home away from home. We selected our class flower, which was the orchid; our class colors, which were mint green and silver; and our class motto, which was, “There is no goal we cannot reach if we climb with care and confidence.” We left on April 28 for our long-awaited Senior trip to New York City and Washington, D.C. We returned, tired, but very happy and full of experiences, on May 4. On May 6 the Juniors entertained us at their Prom, and we all enjoyed it very much.

We were inspired by the words of the speaker at our Baccalaureate service on Sunday, May 15. At last we came to the end of our journey when we received our diplomas on May 19.

MR. ROBERT BOYD
Culver's popular Director of Music

"We're proud of our Twirlers."

The flashy majorettes lend their own kind of spice and entertainment to the marching band. Kneeling are the captains, Joyce Morrison, Margo Overmyer, and Beatrice Price. Standing are twirlers Judy Bishop, Bonnie Parker, Penny Downs, Sherrill Edgington, and Janice Neidlinger.

"Here's what our musicians have been doing this year..."

The Culver High School Music Department began the 1959-60 school year with a new director, Mr. Robert Boyd, whom we have all learned to like quite well not only as a friend, but also as a fine musician in his own right.

The first public performance for any of the musical organizations was on September 17, when the band journeyed to Bourbon to play for the grandstand at the Bourbon Fair.

Our band was invited to participate in the Band Day at Manchester College, which was held on October 2. The Marching Indians looked good alongside the many bands representing schools from all over Northern Indiana.

The Choir made its debut in South Bend, where it was greatly honored by the Northern Indiana teachers' association when they invited us as the guest choir this year. As there are over a hundred choirs in the district, it can be easily seen that this was quite an achievement. The choir turned in a marvelous performance, and looked sharp decked out with a red carnation which was provided by the association.

November 21 was a big day for all students of Culver High, as we played our first home basketball game of the season on that evening. The Marching Indians did a fine job with the halftime show, which was received well by all. This was also the first time that the band was seated on the stage during the entire game, providing music between the quarters of the B-Team game and between the two games. The people of Culver enjoyed the fine music which was emitted from the stage during the games this year.

On December 13, members of the Culver High School Choir joined the Combined church choirs and the Culver Military Academy Chapel Choir in presenting a Christmas program in the Culver Military Academy Memorial Chapel. Everyone attending the impressive service was inspired by the fine music and singing that were offered.

The Music Department presented its Christmas Concert on the evening of December 22. Appropriate songs were sung by the Choir accompanied by Shari Yocom. Lana Berger played Christmas anthems on the organ, after which the Senior High School Band and the Junior Band offered their programs, consisting of Christmas medleys and some traditional music. The Culver musicians' first concert was a definite success.

Immediately after the Christmas vacation, the members of the Music Department, from the sixth graders to the Seniors, began working diligently on their solos and ensembles in preparation for the NISBOVA contests. The piano and vocal district contest was held at Goshen on January 30. Culver received very good ratings at this contest, as did those students from the Teepee who participated in the district instrumental contest at Penn Township High on February 6. Those members of Senior Band and Choir who received first ratings at the district contests were entered in the State Contest at Indianapolis, where five of Culver's thirteen were rated "superior". We are very proud of these individuals.

On March 6, the Music Department presented its Winter Concert. The Senior High School Band and the Choir presented interesting and diversified programs, including traditional numbers, spirituals, overtures, and marches. Several of the state medal winners presented their contest pieces for the enjoyment of the many people gathered to hear the concert. The Junior Band also presented several numbers, and was well received, also.

The Annual County Music Festival was held on April 22 at Argos. The Band and the Choir spent the day rehearsing under the expert guidance of the guest directors, and learned much from the experience. The concert which was presented in the evening was well attended by music enthusiasts from all over the county, who were very much pleased with what they heard.

The Music Department presented its Spring Concert during the first week of May, at which time the two new music awards were presented, along with another fine program of music which is "easy to listen to".

By virtue of the many fine performances turned in by the various musical organizations throughout the year, the Band has been asked to participate in several parades and band festivals during the summer of 1960. At the time this is being written, plans are indefinite, but one thing is sure: Culver can be justly proud of its Music Department, and the part its members play in the school and the community.

ATHLETICS

"All braves must be strong if we are to remain a strong tribe. The verified athletic program offered at our Tepee builds body, sportsmanship, and character."

Varsity Basketball

"We are the Indians. The mighty, mighty Indians!"

Mr. Benbrook, baseball and basketball coach, is pictured here with Mr. Cox, cross-country and track coach, discussing past records of sports at Culver High School.

"Our Varsity did us proud this year."

The 1959-60 version of the Culver Indians raced to their finest season in the last years, winning ten and losing twelve. The record does not state that among the Indians' conquerors were three sectional champions, two county champions, and such powerhouses as North Judson, Rochester, and Nappanee.

Head Coach Thomas Benbrook began his first season at Culver with a line-up boasting two returning regulars, Dave Washburn and Gene Benedict. Dennie Geiger, Lance Overmyer, and Gary Dillon, B-Teamers from last season, rounded out the starting five that opened the season.

In the first game, the Indians' sizzling fast break easily swept us past Aubbeenaubbee's Braves, 53-41, on the losers' home court. Overmyer led the attack with sixteen points.

Walkerton's fifteen-point halftime lead was too much for our boys to overcome, as the hosts from St. Joseph County triumphed, 58-53.

Geiger had 18 markers for high point honors.

Travelling to Tyner, Culver bombed the Redmen in a loosely-played game, 60-45. Balanced scoring featured the Indians' second victory.

Manchester's Squires, winners of the rugged Wabash sectional, spoiled the home floor debut of the Indians. Manchester came out on top, 62-54, but needed a fourth quarter surge to do it.

North Judson's Blue Jays, perennially one of the area's toughest quints, bombed the Culver team, 69-52. Once more, the Indians stayed right with their opponents until the final period.

Topeka's Bears, a first-time opponent for Culver, invaded out tepee and were soundly trounced by the Indians, 75-55, for the first home victory. Benedict led the attack with 16 points.

Culver, sporting an even 3-3 record, travelled to Knox and was greeted by a redhot band of Redskins. Knox, eventual champions of their own sectional, blasted the Indians, 71-52.

Culver's Baseball Team

Seated: Dave Washburn, Dennie Geiger, Chuck Kiel, Sam Prosser, Gene Benedict, Don Kibort. Standing: Jim Canterbury, George Herr, George Baker, Rick Ervin, Coach Benbrook, Tom Boswell, Jim Carter, and Robbie Ogden.

The Culver Indians compiled a 4-3 record in fall baseball this year. Their county record was 3-3, and they added a non-conference victory over North Liberty.

The opening game of the season was played at Bourbon, and the host Comets won 3-2 in a hotly contested game. Culver slaughtered Tippecanoe, 17-6, in the first home game. Chuck Kiel was the winning pitcher, striking out fourteen batters, and Dave Washburn went 4-for-5. Kiel blanked West High on two hits the next game, as Culver won easily 8-0. Once again Kiel was the winning pitcher as the Indians nipped Tyner 4-3. The Indians lost a heart-breaker to Lapaz 4-3, as our Senior right hander allowed only one Viking hit, but lost due to wildness. Argos ended the conference schedule by blanking us 4-0. The Dragons' Lynn Harley bested Kiel in a tight pitchers' duel.

In an extra game added to the schedule this season, the Indians topped North Liberty 5-3 behind Kiel's final winning effort of his fine high school pitching career. Dave Washburn went 3-for-3 in this last game to round out a fine four year career.

Cross Country

A new sport was introduced at Culver High school this season; cross-country. Coach James Cox, head of track and field sports this year, guided our first team to victories in three of the six meets they entered.

Culver defeated LaPaz, 19-36, and North Liberty, 23-32, in dual meets, while losing to Argos, 28-27, and Rochester, 30-25. In a 3-way meet with Culver Military and Argos, Coach Cox's squad finished second to CMA. In the County meet, we gained first place ahead of Argos and LaPaz.

Phil Gretter gained a first place finish LaPaz and against Argos. Gretter and Gary Dillon tied for first against North Liberty. George Baker failed to win any events, but was Culver's leading challenger in the Sectional at South Bend, finishing in 74th place.

Troy, John Kibort, Gale Vandermeade, Coach Allan Dennie, Dave Lemar, Jim Weirick, Bill Osborn, Larry Fisher, and Manager: Arl Altman.

Junior High Baseball

Vandermeade, Sammy Lowry, Jimmy Boswell, Frank Ikirt, and Jimmy DeWitt; third row, Shaun Donnelly, Bill Osborn, Paul White, Doug Lindvall, and John Kibort.

Coach Allan Dennie's Junior High teams compiled one of the finest records in the past few years this season. The basketball squads started slowly but by the end of the season were performing very entertaining games.

The seventh grade won nine of their twelve games this season, while the eighth graders split their dozen battles even with six victories and six losses. The only opponents to top the young seventh graders were Richland Center, West Twp., and Rochester.

Coach Dennie's baseball squad played only three games, but those three were enough to prove their merit, as the Culver boys won all three. They defeated Richland Center, 8-5, LaPaz, 21-4, and Argos, 6-5.

The youngsters were gleefully awaiting track season when this yearbook went to press, and so we have no information on that phase of junior high athletic competition.

All in all, the future athletic situation at Culver High School is very encouraging, thanks to this fine record.

"From Culver . . ."

Chief L. D. Norman, our mascot, whoops it up before the Indians take another scalp.

The Indians huddle around Coach Benbrook, who has a new plan of attack.

First game half-time entertainment is provided by the fifth and sixth graders.

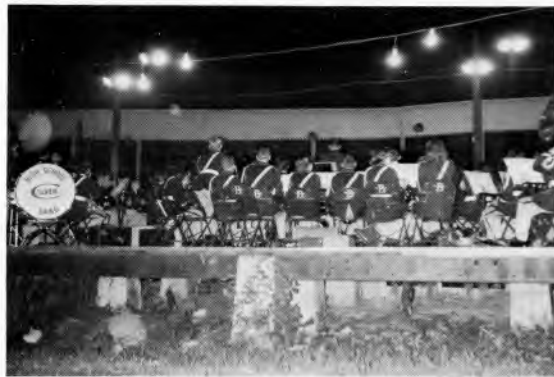

The fans do actions as the Band plays.

"Oops, my deahs!!"

The members of the TOMAHAWK staff want to give you some idea of how we get together to plan and work on the yearbook. Everybody keeps busy from the pasters in the living room to the writers in the dining room to Mrs. Graham preparing one of her specialties in the kitchen.

BEHIND THE BANDSTAND AT THE BOURBON FAIR

Culver's band members braved the Autumn night to provide music for the fairgoers, and had a good time on the midway after the races. Remember Larry and Stanley purchasing caramel corn? "I want a taffy apple."

SOUTH

We danced all night 'neath a sea-blue canopy of our South Pacific sky, May 15, 1959.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Ives stop to enjoy the breath-taking scenery.

Mr. Graham and his English II students certainly did look nice in their original outfits, and they showed that they had put a lot of time and effort into putting their Ancestors' Day theme across.

"Everyone remembers Ancestors' Day, Feb. 17."

"Remember the good time we had at the beautiful winter formal?"

The Key Notes provided music for our dancing and enjoyment at the Winter Formal. Mrs. Allen and her Sunshine decorators and Mr. Alexander and his Hi-Y cleaner-uppers put in a fine piece of work.

December 29, 1959

This young couple under the lamp post helped carry out the "City Sidewalks" theme.

In Conclusion

we would like to express sincere appreciation to

Mr. W. J. Graham, our sponsor, for the assistance and moral support which he has given us throughout the year,

Mr. C. Phillip Hartung, of the Hart Studio, Plymouth, for the hard work which went into the production of the photographs which were used in the book,

Mr. Samuel V. Buchanan, representative of the Myers Yearbook Company, who was very helpful in the planning and laying out of the book, and the Culver-Union Township United Fund for its financial assistance which has helped us so much in the meeting of production costs.

The clever artwork throughout the book is the work of Joyce Morrison, of whom the Staff is very proud.

We sincerely hope that you have enjoyed the 1960 TOMAHAWK as much as we have enjoyed producing it and presenting it to you. We apologize for any omissions which may have resulted.
