CULVER CITY LOCALIZED.

And Put in Good Form for the Benefit of the Herald's Numerous Readers.

Capt. Oliver Crook is upon the sick list.

Henry Spever made Plymouth a business visit Monday.

Full line of choicest canned goods at Avery's.

Ask for "Snow Flake" sugar corn and "Lake View" peas at Avery's grocery.

Geo. A. Corlett and wife, of Detroit, Mich., spent a few hours in Culver last Monday.

Mr. Harry Wheeler, of Chicago, and who owns a cottage on the east side of the lake, was in town Monday.

Bring in your Job Work. We are now prepared to do any class of work in first class style and at lowest living prices.

Saturday and Sunday the first excursions of the season arrived in Culver one from Indianapolis and the other from Lafayette.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Medbourn, of Kokomo, where in town Sunday visiting friends. Ben says he is doing well in the roof painting business.

Mr. Jay Butler, of Terre Haute, Ind., spent Sunday with his wife and daughter, who are visiting Mrs. R. K. Lord.

One week from next Sunday, an excursion will be run from Terre Haute to this city. Also one from Indianapolis.

Mr. Avery sold over 200 loaves of South Bend bread last week. This shows the great popularity of said article. He has it constantly on hand.

Just call at Porter & Co's store and see their splendid line of straw and fur hats. New styles and at prices on par with the times.

Those desiring first class creek minnows, can find the genuine article by calling at Taylor's. They are selected with care.

Hays & Son are constructing a feed shed in the rear of their livery barn which we understand will accommodate at least 75 horses. We also understand they will have it so arranged that farmers can put their team under the shed for a long time for the sum of 10 or 15 cents.

A gang of men have been cleaning up the railroad park the past week, a very commendable act. We understand the company will plant flowers Decoration day. Good enough.

We learn that Mrs. D. A. Bradley, who now resides at Petoskey, Mich., has been dangerously ill since her departure from this place, and has been a good share of the time under the consulting care of two physicians, but at this writing is slightly improving. We also learn that Mr. Bradley has not entered into any business yet.

Mrs. Henry Speyer is suffering from a severe case of the mumps.

We are pleased to state that Hon. H. H. Culver is slightly improving in health and that there is strong hopes of his permanent recovery.

Porter & Co. have just received a splendid line of ladies and misses slippers. They are beauties. Call and see them. 47tf.

Mrs. M. B. Oner and Mrs. Stone, of Indianapolis, were guests of Mrs. R. K. Lord, last Sunday.

Shirt waists are going rapidly at Porter & Co. store. They have a splendid selection. Call before purchasing elsewhere. 47tf.

Children's Day exercises will be observed at the M. E. church, June 6th.

John Gerard, of Logansport, spent a few days this week visiting relatives and friends at Culver.

"A newspaper whose columns overflow with advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as a newspaper well patronized, and its power should be appreciated."

So says Dr. Talmage, who is a good business man of keen observation, as well as a pulpit orator.

Few people know that John Wesley was ever in America. Few know that it was he, and not Robert Raikes who established the first Sunday school in the world. It was also John Wesley who preached the first Methodist sermon delivered in the United States.

At Porter & Co's store you can find a full line of summer washed goods. They are offering special bargains in this line. No better stock in the county as the goods are selected with care. Call and see them. 47tf.

Try South Bend bread. For sale at Avery's grocery.

Located on the south shore of lake Erie contiguous to the Nickel Plate Road are many country homes that will accommodate summer boarders. Send to B. F. Horner, General Passenger Agent of the Nickel Plate Road at Cleveland, O., and he will forward you a list on receipt of a two cent stamp. 45w10.

A smooth roadway. Perfect Passenger service. Uniformed colored train porters for the convenience of both first and second class coach passengers. Quick Time. Through sleeping car service between Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo, New York and Boston. A superb dining car service. No change of cars for any class of passengers between Chicago and New York City. Rates lower than via other lines. These are the advantages presented by the Nickel Plate Road. 45w5.

A GREAT CONFLAGRATION.

The Fire Fiend Finally Visits Monterey

A Dwelling House and Two Barns Were Consumed. Also Three Head of Horses and Two Hogs.

On last Wednesday evening occurred one of the greatest and most disastrous fires that Monterey has ever witnessed. About 9:15 p. m. P. A. Follmar in company with a Mr. Fitzgerald, returned from a drive to Ora, and placed the horse they had been driving in the barn of Mr. Follmar. A short time later John Schall entered the barn to feed and water the horse, taking a lantern Mr. Follmar had left hanging in the barn, home with him. Half an hour later John Schall saw a flame of fire emitting from the roof of the barn and immediately sounded the call of "fire." In ten minutes the call had rung to the uttermost parts of the village and men, women and children were wending their way to the scene. By this time the exterior of the barn was a mass of flame beyond any human control and the roof of John Marbaugh's barn just across the street was on fire. Before a sufficient quantity of water could be brought to bear upon the building the house of Mr. Marbaugh was rapidly being consumed. The household goods were conveyed from the house, Mrs. Jno. Marbaugh coolly packing dishes until one of the walls of the house was falling. By this time the summer kitchen of Follmar's was a mass of flame, but by superhuman efforts on the part of all the men it was kept under control and the adjoining dwelling saved. By midnight the fire was under control but not until John Marbaugh's property erected such a short time ago nothing but the foundation remained.

The loss of Mr. Marbaugh was a dwelling, barn, buggy shed, 30 cords dry wood, two buggies and out buildings, estimated at a value of $1050. The loss of Follmar was: 3 horses, 200 bu. corn, 2 hogs, barn, and summer kitchen estimated at about $600.

The property of Mr. Marbaugh was insured for $900 and that of Mr. Follmar for $150.

Many thanks are due Martin Murray, Henry Myers, Mr. Sherman, George Paulisson and many others whose efforts alone prevented the fire from consuming many more dwellings. Wm. Johnson and S. H. Schuh kept eight or ten persons pouring water upon their roofs to put out the numerous sparks which in a short time would have laid their buildings in ashes.

It was evident to all witnesses of the fire that had an efficient fire department been on the spot all the property of Mr. Marbaugh could have been saved. Steps are now in progress by the citizens to secure such a department and prevent any such thing occurring again.

What a lesson Culver can learn from this, for the first time a fire occurs accompanied by a high wind our beautiful city will be in ashes.

On the first day of July next the bill permitting the printing and use of private mailing cards, with a one-cent stamp affixed, will go into effect. The bill is approved by the Postoffice Department, as it tends to popularize postal cards, besides effecting a saving to the Government of the difference between cost of the cards and stamps.

G. M. A. NOT ABLE to Find Its Match Upon the Diamond Thus far This Season.

And it came to pass in the reign of McKiuley, that there dwelt in the city of Lafayette, a band of young men, whose faces were as the faces of lions, and they were as fleet of foot as the roes upon the mountain top. And it came to pass that these young men were students at a university called Purdue, and were noted far and near as experts at a game called base ball. And it came to pass, after this band had defeated several other bands in the north-west central part of a state known as Indiana, like Alexander of old, they began to look around for other worlds to conquer. And it came to pass that they cast their eyes toward the far northern portion of the state, and finally learned that there dwelt in the land of Culver, a band of young men, who also knew something about the game called base ball. And the Lafayetteites marveled much, and said one unto another, "we will go to the far north and we will smite the C. M. A. band hip and thy." Hence it came to pass, upon Saturday 22, 5th month, in the year of our Lord 1897, that this bold band arrived, accompanied by a large number of Lafayetteites belonging to the same school.

And it came to pass when the band from the north-west-central gazed upon the boyish warriors of the Culver Military Academy, there came a look of contempt upon their faces, and the chief of the band said, "Verily we have a soft soap, as we will shut these fellows out, yea verily, we will wipe them from the face of the earth."

And it came to pass after certain preliminaries, the game was called, with a warrior of the C. M. A. as umpire, a fair impartial man. And it came to pass that the Lafayetteites went to the bat first and after a desperate struggle made two scores, and they chuckled to themselves, saying, "Verily we showed these youngsters a trick to start on." And it came to pass that the game was hotly contested, but it did not take long for the C. M. A. youngsters to dampen the ardor of their old opponents, who were finally defeated by a score of 22 to 9.

And it came to pass, that unto this day, the C. M. A. is looking for some band that can make it interesting for them and mourneth because it findeth it not.

Obituary.

Last Thursday, May 20, 1897, at six o'clock p. m., another old pioneer of Marshall county departed this life, in the person of Mrs. Rozella Duddleson, who was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, Sept. 10, 1810., being 86 years 8 months and 10 days old. She was the daughter of Ralph and Anna Moore, and was converted in her fourteenth year at an Indian Campmeeting conducted by Rev. J. B. Finley, and joined the Methodist church in 1824. She was married to James Duddleson in 1836, and with him moved to Wyandotte county, Ohio. Here she again identified herself with God's people doing mission work among the Wyandotte Indians. While working among the savages, she formed the acquaintance of mother Stewart, whose life is familiar with all Advocate readers. In 1855, Mrs. Duddleson with her husband, and family moved to Indiana, and settled in Marshall county, Union township, and settled upon the farm now owned by L. C. Dillon. She united with the Methodist church at this place, and retained her membership until her death. Her husband died July 2, 1896, of old age, being 91 years of old. In March 1893, Mrs. Duddleson, was stricken with paralysis from which she never recovered, being unable to walk or talk for four years. She was the mother of nine children, and raised one step son. Funeral services were held at the M. E. Church Saturday at 10 a. m., Rev. Howard officiating, assisted by Rev. Sholtz, of Litters Ford, a large concourse of citizens from this community and abroad being present.

Remember that all those who desire to take part in Decoration Day services must be at the M. E. church promptly at 9 o'clock a. m. next Saturday morning.

THE ROSS HOUSE.

Gastronomers Enthusiastic; Epicures Delighted, and Gormands' Hearts Made Glad.

These are the universal sentiments expressed subsequently to partaking of sumptuous repasts always served at the Ross House. This public house of entertainment is a perfect gem in all its appointments. Situated upon one of the broad and shady boulevards in the beautiful city of Plymouth, Ind., within convenient distance to all the railroad depots, renders it one of the most desirable public resorts for the traveling community; but a bountifully spread table of delicious viands is the real mainspring that prompts this class of patrons—as well as others—seeking in countless numbers entertainment at this excellent and well-conducted caravansary. The latching string is always out, and the warm welcome extended by the genial landlord and the amiable and charming landlady make this hostelry a pleasant and comfortable home. The hotel contains seventy-five spacious bed-rooms magnificently furnished, plenty of covering, downy beds, immaculate counterpanes, and if the guests fail in cultivating during the night that delightful nocturnal companionship so widely known by the familiar sobriquet—"snooze"—the fault cannot possibly be attributed to the gentlemanly landlord, Mr. J. B. Bowell. In short, everything is complete throughout. The renowned landlord, the graceful and accomplished landlady, polite and efficient clerks, spry and attentive waiters and proficient chef de cuisine are a complete and well-drilled army of eminent "hustlers." It has recently been renovated and remodeled from the substructure to the top of the superstructure and fitted up in modern style, with bath-rooms, the entire house heated by steam, with many other added conveniences that justly commends it as the leading hotel of Plymouth—or, northern Indiana. The house is conducted principally upon the European plan.

J. B. Bowell looms up high in the estimation of his legion of friends and acquaintances as a "jolly good fellow" and a "hustler" to an eminent degree in the "tavern" business. He is a generous purveyor, and ever on the alert to see that his guests are crammed to satiety with the choice dainties his table is always noted for. In fact the Ross House has gained such an enviable reputation under his management, that the traveling public is satisfied that there is not, and never will be, a hotel in Plymouth that can come in "gun shot" of this popular house so far as appointments and up-to-date service is concerned.

"The Lake View," Lake Maxinkuckee. The hotel reopens on strictly first class basis, June 7th. New management, improved service, appointments thoroughly modern. Accommodations will be reserved upon application to J. B. Schofield, Manager, Lake View Hotel, Culver, Ind.

BY A GASOLINE BLAZE.

TWO PERSONS MEET DEATH AT ST. LOUIS.

Kitchen of a Tenement Transformed Into a Roaring Fiery Furnace—Disastrous Floods in New Mexico—Grain Goes to South Africa.

Fuel Was Deadly Fluid. Five persons perished and one was fatally and two painfully burned by an explosion of gasoline in a St. Louis tenement Thursday night. The kitchen in the rear of the second story of 2341 Menard street was transformed into a roaring, fiery furnace. In this furnace were confined a helpless mother, her two babies and the 15-months-old tot of a neighbor. The mother perished in torturing agony. One of the little ones was sacrificed to the raging fire. For her desperate effort to save her baby's life another mother will probably sacrifice her own. Mrs. Mohr, in whose kitchen the explosion occurred, in order to make the fire in the cook stove burn faster, poured gasoline over the wood. The blaze in the stove ignited the can of gasoline and an explosion followed. The burning oil was thrown in all directions, enveloping Mrs. Mohr and the children. Mrs. Howard, who was also cooking supper in her house, heard the cries, and, running out on the porch, caught sight of the flames. She darted into the burning kitchen and began groping for her boy. She was dragged from the room by Max Gumpert.

STREAMS SWOLLEN BY RAINS, Serious Damage to Small Towns in New Mexico.

According to dispatches from New Mexico, heavy rains have so swollen the Rio Grande and other streams that considerable damage has already been done and more is threatened. The valley north and south of Albuquerque is inundated. The small Mexican villages of Rancheros de Attisco, Los Padillos, Barclas and Arisco, near Albuquerque, are partly submerged and a number of houses are surrounded by two feet of water. If the rise continues and the Rio Grande sweeps over its banks to a greater extent than at present, a number of adobe houses will be washed down, valley farms will be obliterated, and there will be great distress among the small farmers. A number of men are watching the dyke north of Albuquerque. A heavy hailstorm killed thousands of lambs, besides a great number of sheep. Near Las Vegas and Springer, and up the Red River country, streams are reported out of their banks and bridges washed away, impeding travel. Considerable damage is reported in the Las Vegas Hot Springs Canyon. One of the dams of the Las Vegas Water Company was carried out. It is impossible to ford the Canadian river. Wires along the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe and Denver and Rio Grande railways in New Mexico are prostrated.

SUNK IN LAKE HURON, Steamer Florida Sent to the Bottom by Collision in a Fog.

The steamer Florida of the Lackawanna line, bound from Chicago to Buffalo with grain and general merchandise, was sent to the bottom of Lake Huron by collision with the steamer George W. Roby at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, between Middle Island and Presque Isle. It was very foggy at the time of the collision. The Roby struck the Florida on the starboard side about midships. A hole twelve feet long was cut in that steamer's wooden side. It was instantly seen that it was only a question of minutes before the Florida would go down. The Roby steamed alongside of the doomed boat and took off her crew. In about twelve minutes after the crash the Florida went to the bottom, sinking stern first and breaking in two about midships. As she went down the imprisoned air in her hull blew off the cabins and upper works. The cargo of the Florida consisted of 56,000 bushels of wheat and about 500 tons of merchandise. Most of the latter was flour, shipped by Chicago and Western mills.

Wheat for Cape Colony. It is said that the rush of grain to South Africa is about to be resumed. The British steamship Kurdistan took 50,000 bushels of wheat and the British steamship Mount Sephar has commenced to load 60,000 bushels. It is the best No. 1 spring wheat and is worth here about $1 a bushel. Freight costs 25 cents, bags and sewing 13 cents, so that it will cost about $1.40 per bushel by the time it reaches its destination. It is said that for the next three months the shipments to the cape and to the East African ports will be as great as those of last year, which were unparalleled in the history of South Africa. At the same time enormous quantities of mining and agricultural machinery and other American products will complete the cargoes.

Athletes of the Diamond. Following is the standing of the clubs in the National Baseball League:

Table with 2 columns: Club Name and Wins/Losses. Includes Baltimore, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Boston, Cleveland, Philadelphia, St. Paul, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Columbus, Louisville, Brooklyn, New York, Chicago, Washington, St. Louis.

The showing of the members of the Western League is summarized below:

FIGHTING AT DOMOKOS.

Edhem Pasha, with $30,000 Men, Attacks Greek Position.

The representatives of the powers in Constantinople held a long meeting and drew up a note which will be presented to the Turkish Government as soon as one of the ambassadors receives the necessary instructions from his Government. This note does not deal with the peace conditions, but merely repeats the request for an armistice, and declares the powers will not permit Greece to be crushed. Although it is assumed in some quarters that the porte, in accordance with Eastern usages, has demanded more in order to obtain less, it is pointed out that if the Turkish Government desired to bargain it would not have formulated its conditions officially. The tone of the Turkish military officials is most emphatically against abandoning Thessaly. They argue that if Europe has been unable to make Greece evacuate the island of Crete, how will Europe be able to force Turkey out of Thessaly? Fighting between the Greeks and Turks at Domokos began shortly after noon Monday. A dispatch was received at Athens from Crown Prince Constantine, dated from Domokos at 8:30 in the morning, saying that the Turks, numbering about 30,000 men, had appeared in sight marching on Domokos, and that the attack would apparently be directed against the two wings, and especially the left wing of the Greek forces. Another dispatch from the crown prince, dated at noon, stated that the Turks had drawn nearer and were then about four and one-half miles distant.

WHEAT READY TO HARVEST.

Reapers Will Begin to Hum in Oklahoma Next Week.

Next week wheat harvesting will begin in Oklahoma. Reports from every county in the territory show that the crop will simply be enormous. In Noble, Pawnee and K counties, three of the most easterly counties of the Cherokee Strip, the wheat acreage is very large, and old wheat farmers say they will get from 40 to 60 bushels per acre. In Noble County alone there are about 25,000 acres in wheat and the stalk is nearly as high as a man's head. Good authorities place the crop in the territory at 6,000,000 to 7,000,000 bushels, and if the price will remain good the farmers will be happy.

EXPORTS FROM SOUTH GERMANY.

Consul Mason Reports Increase in Shipments to United States.

Frank Mason, United States consul at Frankfurt, submits some statistics to the State Department, from which it appears that from south Germany the exports to the United States during the first quarter of this year were $1,054,242 in excess of the exports during the corresponding period of 1896, and amounted to $9,495,521. The consul also shows that the maximum export from south Germany to the United States was reached in the March quarter of 1893 under the tariff act of 1890 and the minimum shipments in the same quarter of the next year, immediately preceding the tariff act of 1894.

TERMS OF THE PORTE.

Sultan Names Conditions Upon Which He Will Consent to Peace.

The Sultan of Turkey literally outdoes Shylock in dealing with defeated Greece. He demands the annexation of Thessaly regardless of the treaty of Berlin. An indemnity of £10,000,000 is also required from the little Hellenic nation. The Turkish army will continue to advance if these conditions are not accepted. Ambassadors of the powers have met to consider the perplexing attitude of the porte. The powers are not willing to concede all that is asked, and the peace of the Balkans, if not of Europe, seems now seriously involved.

Brigham Young's Country.

"The reason that many Eastern people are flocking to Utah now," said Gill S. Peyton of Salt Lake City to a Washington correspondent, "is that the great natural advantages of our State are just beginning to be appreciated by the outside world. People are sure of being attracted to a country where irrigation makes the crops a certainty. In Utah County, to the south of Salt Lake, there was a large amount of land devoted last year to the cultivation of the sugar beet, and the average profit of the farmers therefrom was $30 an acre. There is still more money to be made in fruit growing, but our people have heretofore been too conservative to engage in that business on an extensive scale. Then our mining interests have scarcely reached the initial stage of development. When I went into the Mercur district, six years ago, not a dollar had been taken out. In 1896 Utah's mines paid more than $2,225,000 in dividends, but this does not include dividends and profits paid by close corporations and mines worked under leases, which amount to at least $2,000,000. The dividends declared and paid during the month of February of this year reach $259,000. Great as this showing is, it is small in comparison with what the next few years will show. It is scarcely more than three years since the great gold fields of Mercur began to yield their wealth to the new process of treating the ores, but since that wonderful district has demonstrated what may be done with the ores, many other properties are being developed. This, of course, relates to gold entirely, but it is also a fact that Utah has more dividend-paying silver mines than all the rest of the world combined."

To Meet Endeavorers.

The committee to receive the members of the Christian Endeavor Society in California will consist of 900 members, led by a staff of thirty-five. Eastern members coming over the Northern and Central routes will be met at Sacramento, while those on the Southern route will be met at Fresno. The committee will afford the visitors all necessary information and look after accommodations for them.

Russian Soldiers in a Wreck.

A terrible disaster befell a Russian military train Thursday evening between Rockenhof and Eliva, on the Valki Jurjev line. Sixteen cars were smashed. Two officers and nearly 100 soldiers were killed and sixty others were seriously injured.

MANY NEW OFFICES.

ADMINISTRATION WILL EXTEND THE POSTAL SYSTEM.

Assistant Postmaster General Bristow Has Plans of His Own—Missouri Judge Says Juries Are Bribed—Fire Evicts Sixty Families—News Notes.

Seeks Better Service.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow has inaugurated a new policy as to the establishment of postoffices. The last administration exercised a very conservative policy in dealing with this question, holding that there were already too many offices in operation and that it would be better, as a general proposition, not to have the offices too close together. The present regime has determined to establish offices wherever any reasonable amount of business can be secured, with the idea of accommodating as many people as possible. While some attention is being paid to the rule that offices generally should not be closer together than three miles, this is not a fixed limit, and many exceptions have been made. The scheme is to provide mail facilities wherever there is a sufficient number of people or amount of business that would make it pay, such questions as location near a star or other route, however, of course, figuring in the matter.

BERRIES RIPE AT SARCOXIE.

Twenty Thousand Pickers Throng to the Missouri City.

The strawberry picking season has opened up at Sarcoxie, Mo., with the greatest and in many respects the most picturesque gathering of people ever assembled in any community. The Sarcoxie Horticultural Association, controlling a farm of 1,400 acres in strawberries, advertised for 10,000 pickers. Their circulars were responded to by fully 20,000 people, who besieged the hotels and lodging houses of Sarcoxie. The overflow has been so great that thousands were forced to sleep upon the ground and prepare their meals in hastily improvised dugouts or shanties constructed of branches and leaves. The line of campers extends for ten miles up and down on either side of Spring river, the long string of tents and brightly burning campfires reminding one of army life during the exciting days of the war. Men representing almost every known avocation are there.

SAYS JURIES ARE BRIBED.

Judge Wofford of Kansas City Makes Sensational Charges.

"It's beginning to look as if any man with money can kill another in this country and get clear." This was the startling statement made by Judge Wofford from the bench of the criminal court at Kansas City, Mo. The judge seemed to be angry when he spoke. He said afterward that he was annoyed by the fact that several persons charged with murder and other serious crimes had recently been acquitted or their trial had resulted in hung juries. He had particularly in mind the case of Benjamin Cates, indicted for the murder of Monroe Balesat, who had been tried twice and each trial had resulted in a disagreement of the jury. The judge believed, he said, that in each case jurymen were bribed.

TOTTERS IN SPIRE OF PROPS.

Beet Sugar Industry in Europe Is Facing a Crisis.

Again the beet sugar industry in Europe is facing a crisis in spite of various ingenious and complex legislative remedies that have been applied. From several of the United States consular officers, Mann at Frankfurt, Muth at Magdeburg and Morris at Ghent, reports have come to the State Department descriptive of the evil conditions that exist in the sugar industry. Consul Muth says the last sugar law of May 15, 1896, has been disappointing in its effects. Prices have declined even in the face of a largely increased demand from the United States. Consul Mann says the law has actually increased the beet acreage, which was already at its extreme point of safe expansion.

Wilde Free Again.

Oscar Wilde, who was sentenced May 25, 1895, with Taylor, a companion, to two years' imprisonment at hard labor, after having been convicted of immoral practices, was released from prison in London Wednesday morning. Wilde, who seemed to be enjoying robust health, goes to Paris immediately. He intends, however, to return to London and to engage in literary work.

Earthquakes in South Australia.

A special dispatch from Melbourne, Victoria, says no fewer than ninety earthquake shocks were felt in South Australia in three days. The subterraneous disturbances were particularly severe at Kings-ton, where buildings were damaged and the inhabitants are living in tents for safety.

Coatmakers Quit Work.

The Philadelphia coat makers' branch of the Garment Workers' Union, to the number of 260, have joined the garment workers' strike for an increase in wages. It is believed that unless the contractors accede to the demands there will be from 7,000 to 8,000 garment workers on strike by the end of the week.

Roaring Furnace Beneath.

The mines on the upper level of the old Scotch Hill, near Newburg, W. Va., are on fire and threaten the existence of the town, which is built over the mines. The fire was started years ago by malicious persons and has recently grown so large that the residents have become alarmed.

Big Tobacco Deal.

E. C. Morrow and brother of Clarksville, Tenn., have closed a contract by which they will furnish the Italian Government 15,000 hogsheds of fine dark tobacco, almost the entire crop in that section. The sale amounts to about $2,000,000.

FAMOUS RELICS BURN.

Courthouse Structure at Lexington Suffers Damage of $60,000.

Fire in the Lexington, Ky., courthouse Friday afternoon destroyed valuable paintings and relics which cannot be replaced. The building, which was erected in 1883 at a cost of $125,000, was damaged to the extent of $60,000. Fireproof floors saved the records in the circuit and county clerks' offices, reaching back to the first settlement of the State, when Levi Todd, Mrs. Abraham Lincoln's grandfather, was first clerk of the court. During the fire the bell, which was cast in Philadelphia in 1816, fell, crashing to atoms the beautiful statue of "Woman Triumphant," by Hart. This piece was the pride of the city. It was purchased of Tiffany for $5,000 by the women of Lexington, and occupied a position in the rotunda. The portraits destroyed, all of which were in the circuit court room, were those of Henry Clay, James O. Hanson, his law partner; Col. Joe Daviess, who fell at Tippecanoe; Frank Hunt, Judge Haggin, M. C. Johnson, John C. Breckinridge, William T. Barry of Jackson's cabinet, staff officer to Gov. Shelby at the battle of the Thames; Chief Justice Robertson, Richard Menefee, John B. Huston, Thomas F. Marshall, Chief Justice Boyle, Judge Richardson, Jesse Bledsoe and Judge Charles Thomas.

SENSATION AT CHICAGO.

Adolph Luetgert, a Wealthy Man, Arrested for Wife-Murder.

Adolph L. Luetgert, president of the largest sausage factory in the world, is under arrest at Chicago charged with murdering his wife. Some time ago he made an assignment; shortly after, his wife disappeared, and he offered $200 for her apprehension. The police did not accept the suicide or lost theory, and now claim they have discovered charred remains of the woman in the factory furnace, together with her wedding ring, defaced by acid, but with the inscription "L. L." plainly decipherable. Luetgert denies his guilt. The police say they have unearthed one of the greatest crimes of history. They assign domestic difficulty as the motive for murder.

Railroad Horror Averted.

The crew and 200 passengers on the Central Railroad train which left Newark, N. J., at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon had a narrow escape from an awful death. The fact that no one was injured is little short of miraculous, for the train jumped the track while crossing the Passaic river bridge, and the engine and every one of the four cars left the rails. The train was traveling at a speed of twenty miles an hour across the bridge, the upper part of which is of steel construction. It was on a straight track unbroken by switches or anything else. When the big draw of the bridge was reached there was nothing to indicate danger. It was closed and everything was apparently all right. Instead of riding over the joint of the rails as usual, however, the first wheels of the engine seemed to catch the ends of the rails on the draw. In an instant the engine left the tracks, going to the left and heading slightly toward the center of the bridge, tearing up the rails and breaking the heavy bridge ties as it went. The four cars behind it followed, and as they bumped along there was a panic among the passengers. Men shouted and clung to the car seats; women screamed and prayed. Some were thrown to the car floor by the shock, and, quickly scrambling to their feet, waited breathlessly for what for an instant everyone thought was inevitable, the dropping of the train into the river. The engineer shut off power at the first shock, however, and after traversing nearly half the length of the long draw over the ties the train came to a standstill, and in a few seconds the 200 passengers had clambered out of the cars on to the bridge.

Catholic University Enriched.

It is reported at Baltimore that the Roman Catholic University at Washington has received a legacy of $150,000 from the estate of Mr. O'Brien of New Orleans. The money will be used to endow three chairs to be selected by the authorities of the university.

WORK OF CONGRESS.

THE WEEK'S DOINGS IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

A Comprehensive Digest of the Proceedings in the Legislative Chambers at Washington—Matters that Concern the People.

Lawmakers at Labor.

The Senate Monday passed a measure appropriating $50,000 for the relief of American citizens in Cuba, in accordance with the suggestion contained in a message from President McKinley. Several members of the House insisted upon amending to incorporate a recognition of Cuban belligerency, and the matter was hung up temporarily. The House resumed consideration of the Indian appropriation bill.

The Senate was occupied Tuesday chiefly by the Cuban question. Mr. Mason spoke in favor of the Morgan resolution, and Messrs. Hoar and Hale opposed. The debate was bitter. Among the bills passed by the Senate were those authorizing the construction of bridges across the Missouri River between its mouth and the mouth of the Dakota or James River, and across the Illinois and Des Plaines Rivers between the mouth of the Illinois and Joliet, Ill., and to prescribe the character, location and dimensions of the same; also for a bridge across the Red River of the North at Drayton, N. D. The conference report on the Indian appropriation bill was presented and agreed to. The House did nothing of importance.

Another stirring debate on Cuba occurred in the Senate Wednesday. The main speeches of the day were made by Senators Foraker, Cannon, Lindsay and Hoar. Mr. Foraker spoke in favor of a reference of the resolution to the committee, but on the general question declared his purpose of supporting the resolution recognizing Cuban belligerency when it should be reported by the committee. Mr. Cannon was bitter in his denunciation of Spanish atrocity. Mr. Lindsay declared if the information furnished by United States consuls was so shocking as to subject them to danger of assassination if their names were disclosed it was time to send warships to Cuba and to terminate all diplomatic relations with that country. It was developed in the course of a colloquy between Senators Foraker, Morgan and Vest that the State Department had withheld the names of United States consuls reporting on the serious condition of affairs in Cuba because it might lead to their murder. No action on the resolution was taken.

The Senate Thursday passed the Morgan-Cuban-belligerency resolutions, by a vote of 41 to 14, after a most exciting debate in which Messrs. Mason, Morgan, Gallinger, Hall, Fairbanks and Hoar participated. In the House the resolution appropriating $50,000 for relief of destitute American citizens in Cuba passed without a dissenting vote. An attempt to incorporate the Morgan resolution failed, but the debate was sharp and exciting. Both houses adjourned until Monday.

BOY'S PLUCK SAVES HIS LIFE.

Fred Lawson, Five Years Old, Clings to the Ties of a Railroad Trestle.

Fred Lawson, 5 years old, the son of a resident of Edgewater Park, Ill., was crossing the Northern Pacific railroad bridge at that point the other day when the sharp whistle of an express train caused him to stop short in alarm. Turning his head, he beheld a swiftly moving train approaching, the ties beneath his feet quivering as the engine thundered on to the trestlework.

Escape seemed impossible, and for a second the boy was stricken with the terror of impending death. Acting upon sudden impulse, however, he threw himself flat upon the ends of the ties outside the rails and clung desperately to the projecting timber. The whole bridge vibrated as the train sped on its way, but the child clung to his position until the last car had passed. Spectators of the incident were horrified at the boy's peril, for the projecting gear of the car axles almost brushed his back as he lay upon the ties. The danger passed, they came to his assistance and led him in triumph to his home.

MAY LEAD TO A WAR.

SENATE PASSES THE MORGAN BELLIGERENCY RESOLUTION.

Forty-one Members Vote Yea and but Fourteen Say Nay—Success of Measure Brings Cheers from the Galleries—President's Policy Defined.

Decisive Senate Vote.

The long and exciting debate on the joint resolution recognizing the existence of a state of war in Cuba and declaring that strict neutrality shall be maintained by the United States passed the Senate by a decisive vote of 41 to 14 at a late hour Thursday afternoon. The announcement of the vote was received with tumultuous applause. The resolution as passed is as follows: "Resolved, etc., That a condition of public war exists between the Government of Spain and the government proclaimed and for some time maintained by force of arms by the people of Cuba, and that the United States of America shall maintain a strict neutrality between the contending parties, according to each all the rights of belligerents in the ports and territory of the United States."

Analysis of the Vote.

An analysis of the vote shows that the affirmative was cast by eighteen Republicans, nineteen Democrats and four Populists, and the negative by twelve Republicans and two Democrats.

Prior to the final vote the motion of Senator Hale to refer the resolution to the Committee on Foreign Relations was tabled—yeas, 34; nays, 19. Mr. Fairbanks of Indiana proposed a substitute providing that the President extend the good offices of the United States to Spain toward securing an end to the conflict and the ultimate independence of the island. This, too, was tabled—yeas, 35; nays, 15. Then followed the adoption of the original resolution.

The voting occurred after an exciting debate participated in by Senators Thurston of Nebraska, Elkins of West Virginia, White of California, Fairbanks of Indiana, Hale of Maine, Spooner of Wisconsin and Gorman of Maryland. Mr. Thurston spoke of the bloody contest which had raged during the last two years. There was ample information as to its extent, from American correspondents who had written their dispatches on the field of battle, from the reports which filled the records of the Senate and in the archives of the State Department. Every man in the United States ought to be ready for action on this question at this time, and if any Senator was not sufficiently informed Mr. Thurston commended him to the consideration of his constituents.

RIOT IN A LEGISLATURE.

Wild Scene of Disorder in the Illinois and rioting occurred Thursday in the Illinois House. An attempt was made to pull Speaker Curtis from the chair. P. J. Meaney was hit on the cheek bone with an inkwell which was hurled directly at the Speaker, and which would have struck Mr. Curtis but for the fact that Meaney was in the way and reof a war of words with the presiding officer, he was seized by the coat collar by Mr. Needles and dragged from the platform. This was the signal for a rush from the Democratic side to defend Mr. Novak, and in the scramble that ensued there was a general "mix-up."

Mr. Galligan attempted to use a wooden mallet which he had procured. Galligan, with mallet in hand, made a leap for the Speaker. He was angry at being intercepted, and tried to use his mallet on the heads of those about him, but was prevented. He was dragged down, with a half-dozen members on top of him in the aisle. It was here that the cool-headed members succeeded in partly restoring order by separating the combatants and getting the members to take their seats.

THE TURKISH "PLENIPO."

Moustapha Bey is the man who will tell Secretary Sherman all he is entitled to know about the war between Greece and Turkey. Moustapha is the Turkish "plenipo" at Washington, and he is a notable figure in the capital. No matter what official society may think about the unspeakable Turk at Constantinople, it takes very kindly to his suave and polished representative in America. The Turkish minister had a great run with the ladies ceived the missile instead. An ugly gash was cut in Meaney's face, from which the blood flowed freely. It was the stormiest scene witnessed in the Legislature for many years.

The trouble started immediately after Speaker Curtis called the House to order at 3 o'clock and lasted for an hour and a quarter. So great was the disturbance that it was heard plainly at the Leland Hotel, six blocks away. During the turmoil bill files were smashed by pounding the desks, waste baskets were hurled indiscriminately across the hall, members shouted themselves hoarse, and a free-for-all fight was prevented only by the action of cool-headed Democratic members.

The excitement was at fever heat during all the session, but reached a culmination point when Mr. Novak, who had been shouting for recognition for an hour, left his seat and proceeded up the aisle to the Speaker's desk. The Republicans, thinking it was his purpose to drag Speaker Curtis from his chair, made a rush to defend the Speaker. Mr. Novak reached the Speaker's platform, and, in the midst when he first came to Washington. Anxious inquiries were made at once as to the number of his wives, and the relief was great when he swore by the beard of the prophet that he had but one. Like all the Turkish representatives in America, Moustapha has left his wife, or wives, and his family at his home, a great palace on a high hill overlooking the city of Constantinople, surrounded by tropical gardens and vineyards. When at home he is a practical, busy man, and devotes much of his time to affairs of state, in which he is an adept, and to the education of his children, all of whom are now grown to womanhood and manhood. Moustapha is descended from a long line of noble ancestors, and his family has been prominent in the affairs of the Turkish Government for many generations. He is wealthy, able, diplomatic, and does not resemble the "villainous Turk" of tradition.

Broker Chapman, who was found guilty of contempt before the Senate sugar investigating committee, entered upon his prison sentence Monday.

at the Nashville exposition. It may be that he has at last solved the mystery of aeronautics. In a ship of his own construction he journeyed over twenty miles through space and finally landed at a point twelve miles from where he started. During this time, he says, he had absolute control of his machine and steered it at will. The ship has an air chamber shaped like a cigar and is 46 feet long by 18 feet in diameter. It is made of silk and cotton and filled with hydrogen gas. This chamber is confined in a network of small rope which holds the metallic frame work and aeroplanes underneath. The seat is made on the order of a bicycle frame, and from this the operator controls the wings, or aeroplanes, on either side. The two propellers, or screws, extend in front of the operator, acting on the principal of an auger. In guiding the airship the operator moves the screw from the right to left in the direction he wishes to go and ascends or descends by raising or lowering the side wings.

CHARGED WITH FOUL CRIME.

Chicago Sausage-Maker Arrested for Having Killed His Wife.

Adolph L. Luetgert, who is in jail at Chicago, charged with having murdered his wife on the night of May 1, is president of the A. L. Luetgert Sausage and Packing Company. Should he be hanged for the crime charged against him, the wedding ring he placed upon the dead woman's finger eighteen years ago, when he swore to love, honor and protect her, will be the thing of all things which will put the noose around his neck. Acid and quicklime, it is alleged, all but made away with her frail body, but they left untouched the golden band of wedlock. The story of the crime, as recited by the police, is replete with details of one of the most diabolical murders ever committed in this country. Luetgert is charged with having planned the killing a week in advance, and, when all was ready for the deed, with having enticed his wife from the handsome family residence at 10 o'clock that night, after which he led her into the adjacent factory and there struck her down.

The story next has her body thrown into a huge vat, into which had been dumped a barrel of quicklime and a large quantity of chemical liquid. The quicklime and the acid failed to entirely eat away the flesh from the bones and otherwise reduce the body. After a wait of an hour or two portions of the remains were raised and placed into a sausage curing receptacle, a round which are steam coils capable of producing a heat of 200 degrees. Apparently the destruction was not complete enough to satisfy, and what was not wholly removed in the "smoker" was transferred to the boiler furnace in the engine room. Action here was more thorough.

The most damaging evidence is in two rings which were identified as the property of Mrs. Luetgert. One of these was the wedding ring, the other a plain guard ring of gold. The finding of the charred bones was good evidence, but not strong enough to warrant an arrest. Afterward, however, the vat was examined and then came the climax. Close to the bottom of the vat is a draining hole, and after the body had been removed the murderer evidently turned the hose in and overflowed the receptacle, withdrawing the plug from the hole near the bottom, thinking that the contents would go to the sewer. The mixture thus diluted with water ran off, but enough remained in the bottom of the vat to betray its character. Upon examination the sediment and the rings were found.

MONETARY DELEGATES IN PARIS

Messrs. Wolcott, Stevenson and Payne Reach the French Capital.

The United States bimetallic commission, consisting of Senator Edward O. Wolcott of Colorado, ex-Vice-President Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois and Gen. Charles J. Payne of Massachusetts, has arrived in Paris. The commission will not take any steps officially until Gen. Horace Porter, the new United States ambassador to France, has presented his credentials. Then, through Gen. Porter, the commission will ask President Faure for an audience. Upon that occasion the commissioners will present their credentials to the president and will await the appointment by the French Government of special-delegates with similar powers to their own, with whom they will confer, Old Man Loses $2,000 After a Visit from His Children—Jury Acquits a Man Who Was Traced by Dogs—Garrett Makes the Hoboes Hustle.

Found His Hoard Gone.

An old man named Haverlin of Prairie Creek township has reported to the Terre Haute police that he has been robbed of $2,000. Two of the old man's children by his first wife came to visit their father recently and, during their stay, are alleged to have tried to prejudice him against Mrs. Elliott, who is a daughter of his second wife. They are said to have persuaded him to tell them where he kept his money and how much there was of it, so that they would know just where to look for it in case he died suddenly, or in any other emergency. Haverlin told them where his cash was hoarded in the garden. Shortly afterward his children returned home and he was taken ill. When he got out into the garden he found his money gone and he was almost crazed. He has been dangerously sick ever since. It may have been that someone overheard him when he divulged the secret, as the children deny all knowledge of the disappearance of the money.

Doesn't Believe in Bloodhounds.

The first case ever tried in court at Kentland, where the testimony of bloodhounds was used, has been brought to an end by the jury returning a verdict acquitting the defendant. The home of George McCarn of Goodland was entered Friday night and $20 stolen. The only clew the thief left was his footprint on the freshly painted floor. The Chalmers bloodhounds were put on the scent Saturday evening and never left it until they had trailed a man to a patch of undergrowth three miles from Reynolds, a distance of twenty-seven miles from Goodland. In the Circuit Court the defendant proved a clear alibi by the testimony of four farmers, who swore they had given the prisoner meals, including supper, at 6:30 p. m., on the day of the theft, four miles north of Reynolds, or a distance of thirty-four miles from the scene of the robbery. The owner of the hounds declares there can be no mistake, but the jury acquitted the man without leaving the box.

Drives Out a Gang of Tramps.

A big raid was expected in Garrett that section for a few days, doing much damage in the way of robbery in South Bend, Laporte and Kendallville. Chief of Police J. J. Schreiner was notified of the expected raid and immediately called out ten extra deputies and with their efforts succeeded in driving 124 from the city during the night. It is thought they are waiting in a nearby woods and another raid is expected.

All Over the State.

Mrs. John Denton mysteriously disappeared from her home in Huntington, and no trace of her can be found. She had been sick for some time and it is thought her mind became affected.

Rumors that the gambling fraternity is preparing to open games in view of the approaching city election have caused some uneasiness among the law-abiding element of Indianapolis, and Mayor Taggart was appealed to. He was very emphatic in his declaration that public gambling would not be permitted.

Redding Gray, a farmer near Shelbyville, fed his cattle a large amount of grass which had been cut from the lawns over the city. Late in the night he found that his stock was suffering from poisoning, and two valuable milch cows were dead. The milk from those cows had been used in the family at supper, and later in the night those who had partaken of it became deadly ill. The grass contained poison placed in the yards to kill dogs. Three of the Gray family are in a critical condition.

The constitutionality of the so-called flambeau law, enacted in 1891, was affirmed by the Supreme Court on an appeal from Blackford County. Before its enactment the towns and villages in the gas belt used natural gas for illuminating purposes, burning immense flambeaus, many of which were lighted continuously, and farmers owning their own wells also indulged in similar extravagance until the waste of gas was simply enormous. The law has been enforced in towns and villages, but only recently has the State Supervisor moved against the farmers. In Blackford County the latter united in a test case.

Insurance companies who carried risks amounting to $20,000 on the life of the late Dr. W. A. Dunn, long a practicing physician in Wabash, whose death occurred in March at Naples, Italy, have declined to pay the policies on the ground of insufficient proof of death. The doctor was seized with Roman fever at Naples. His demise was sudden, and the remains were placed aboard a steamer and brought direct to America, only two of the ship's officers knowing that the box contained his remains. Certificates of death were forwarded to the insurance companies, but they decline to pay until absolute evidence of Dr. Dunn's death is furnished them.

A case which will determine the right of corporations to harvest ice from small bodies of water without compensation to persons owning land adjacent has been brought in the Laporte Circuit Court by William Zahert, who lays claim to $10,000 damages for such infringement by the John Hilt Ice Company. The Hilt company cut ice from the lake in proximity to Zahert's land, and this test case has been brought to determine the legal status of such action. Ice-making is the great winter industry in northern Indiana, and a decision awarding damages to Zahert will be followed by almost endless litigation, which would affect large Chicago corporations owning immense warehouses in Laporte and St. Joseph Counties.

Hibbard Feedings.

A bouncing boy at the home of Jess Rhodes, wife and child reported as doing nicely.

Our city was well filled with visitors this week.

Part of the Cavalry troop headed by Maj Cook came up Sunday afternoon, to escort Dr. Scott the company's physician to the Academy. The boys while waiting for the train, amused themselves by doing some fine tricks in bareback riding, and their feats show that they have gone through a very hard course of training.

"Pat Murphy," alias "Pay Car" made the rail road boys happy Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Klapp, made a business trip to Culver Monday.

Mr. Adam Lichtenberger and Phillip Freese came down from Bremen Sunday evening for a days fishing, accompanied by P. Lichtenberger, Henry Lichtenberger and Oscar Clarke, they started early Monday morning for Cedar Lake to fool the finny tribe, but these men had never learned to swim and as the water was to rough to risk the "old saying" they came back feeling pretty bad. We sympathize with them.

Al McGowen and family spent Sunday with Ed. Walker.

Mr. S. Banks, and wife spent last Sunday at the home of John Banks.

A Mr. Rush of Plymouth came down to see his best girl, Miss Laura Klapp, Sunday evening.

Nelson, the young son of Jacob Lichtenberger, is suffering from a severe attack of lung fever being caused by a relapse of measles.

Mr. James Wilson went to Ft. Wayne, where he will accept a position as harness maker during the summer.

Miss Greene, of Tippecanoe, made F. Groves and family a pleasant call Monday.

Mr. J. Watson, editor and manager of the Argos Reflector, was transacting business here Saturday.

The gravel pit at Burr Oak, which has been closed for a few days, opened Tuesday morning giving our men work.

Mr. Lamson, of Culver, passed through enroute for Plymouth recently.

Dr. Loring, of Burr Oak, is kept quite busy now, as sickness seems to have a good hold on our community, there being nine cases of measles and one of lung fever.

At last our supervisor has called out the road force. BRAND NEW.

St. Joseph Classes.

The Sunday School Union of the St. Joseph classes, Ohio Synod of the Reformed church convened in the Reformed church at Culver May 26, at 8 p. m. Convention was called to order by President, Rev. Louis D. Eichon, of Logansport. Consecration service was conducted by Rev. Hibough, of Fulton, Mich., assisted by Revs. Brough, Bretz and Nichols. This was followed by a song by the church choir. The president then referred to the absence of Rev. Sites who was to make the principal address of the evening and asked the presence of the Convention. Rev. Rothberger suggested that Rev. Albright occupy the place of Rev. Sites and the president announced the subject, Ideas in S. S. work—but Rev. Albright requested to be excused. Rev. Roger then voiced the pleasure of the convention in requesting a solo by the president who at once made preparations to accede. The title of the solo was, "Cast thy bread upon the waters," and its purpose announced to enforce the fact that earnest, sincere effort must and shall be rewarded. The selection was most excellently rendered, the expression securing the appreciation of the convention. The business of the session was then proceeded with and the various charges called. The charges numbered 18 and were represented by 25 delegates. The following officers were then elected for the coming year: President, Rev. Benjamin Ashbaugh, Vice President, Rev. Ronbaugh, Permanent Secretary, Miss Ida Mass, Treasurer, Rev. Roger. Session closed with song by congregation and benediction by Rev. Albright.

New Church.

We are pleased to chronicle that Mr. Myers, of Terre Haute, has donated a lot in Culver to the Catholic society upon which to erect its new church. Already quite a sum of money has been subscribed and the erection of the edifice, is a sure thing. As we stated in last weeks Herald, all those desiring to donate from five dollars up to one hundred can leave the same at the Marmont Exchange Bank and it is hoped that a liberal spirit will be manifested in the matter. We can't have too many churches in a community. Then there is a strong possibility if the church is established that a first class school will be a feature in connection, and where can a more desirable place be found upon this foot-stool, called the earth. Let the good work go on, and put your shoulder to the wheel on all occasions where the town will be benefited.

An artistic brochure entitled "Summer Outings" is published by the Nickel Plate Road, describing vacation resorts along that line. Address B. F. Horner, General Passenger Agent, Cleveland, O., for a copy. 45w10.

A list of country homes along the south shore of lake Erie open to summer borders will be mailed to any one enclosing a two cent stamp to B. F. Horner, General Passenger Agent of the Nickel Plate Road, Cleveland, Ohio. 45w10.

Fishing is good and many large fish are being caught. They are not all bass, but a great many are suckers, and two legged ones at that. There are some people who cannot be caught by a cold, because they use Dr. Agnew's celebrated Cold Capsules that cure the worst cold in head in one day. They sell for 15c. a box at the Culver City Drug Store.

A Cure for Lame Back.

"My daughter when recovering from an attack of fever, was a great sufferer from pain in the back and hips," writes Loudon Grover, of Sardis, Ky. "After using quite a number of remedies without any benefit she tried one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and it has given entire relief." Chamberlain's Pain balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. Sold at Culver City Drug Store.

At this season of the year people eat heavy foods, such as meats etc. causing constipation and other irregularities of the bowels, resulting in biliousness, headaches, dizziness, etc. Dr. Agnew's Kidney and Liver Pills work wonders and give speedy and permanent relief. For sale at the Culver City Drug Store.

The progressive ladies of Westfield, Ind., issued a "Woman's Edition" of the Westfield News, bearing date of April 3, 1896. The paper is filled with matter of interest to women, and we notice the following from a correspondent, which the editors printed, realizing that it treats upon a matter of vital importance to their sex: "The best remedy for croup, colds and bronchitis that I have been able to find is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For family use it has no equal. I gladly recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Culver City Drug Store.

Through Buffet Sleeping Car to Mackinaw, Mich.

Commencing June 21st, the Vandalia Line will resume through Pullman Buffet Sleeping Car service between St. Louis and Mackinaw. Sleepers will run via Terre Haute, St. Joseph, Grand Rapids and Petoskey Bay View. This will be the only line of through cars from St. Louis to the delightful and cool resorts of Michigan. South bound the last sleeping car for the season will leave Mackinaw, Sunday night, September 26th, 1897. For detailed information, address nearest Vandalia Line Agent, or E. A. Ford, General Passenger Agent, St. Louis.

The Facts in the Case.

A careful perusal of the Map of Wisconsin will convince you that the WISCONSIN CENTRAL LINES running from Chicago and Milwaukee to St. Paul, Minneapolis, Ashland, Harley, Ironwood, Bessemer, and Duluth, touch a greater number of important cities than any line running through Wisconsin. Elegantly equipped trains, leaving at convenient hours, make these cities easy of access. Any ticket agent can give you full information and ticket you through.

To the citizens of Tippecanoe township, Marshall county, and state of Indiana:

The undersigned hereby gives notice that he will apply to the Board of County Commissioners of said county, at their next regular term, to be held at the court house, in the city of Plymouth, in said county, commencing on the first Monday of June, A. D. 1897, for a license to sell spirituous, vinous and malt liquors, in a less quantity than a quart at a time, with the privilege of allowing said liquors to be drank on the premises where sold, for one year, and also to sell soft drinks, lunch and cigars in the room and on the premises where said liquors are to be sold and drank, described as follows, to-wit: On the first floor of a two-story frame building fronting east on a public highway known as the Bourbon Road; the room where said liquors are to be sold and drank is twenty (20) feet wide and fifty (50) feet long with a twelve (12) foot ceiling. The above room is situate on lot number sixty-two (62) in the original plat of Tippecanoe Station (formerly called Hon.) now called Tippecanoe, Marshall county, Indiana.

WILLIAM DAWSON.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effect following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists; price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention CULVER CITY HERALD and send your full postoffice address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietor of this paper guarantees the genuineness of this offer.

We are sorry to hear that Prof. A. W. Stuart, who has held the chair of the higher mathematical department at the Culver Military Academy the past two years, will not be with that institution next year. Since his advent in this section, he has by VERY courteous treatment of all coming in contact with him, won the highest encomiums. Among a large number of pupils he is rated as one of the best instructors in mathematics in this country to day, and has won his distinction by thoroughly centering all his energies in his work, and possessing the happy faculty of inciting a spirit of progression in the minds of every pupil in his department. We can only congratulate any educational institution fortunate enough to secure his services.

Decoration Day, May 29. Grand Memorial Services Expected.

Grand Army men are dying at the rate of 100 per day. Every fifteen minutes of the day, of late years, the final "taps" sound for some one who wore the blue. Each year puts under the sod more old veterans than there are enlisted men and officers in the whole standing army of the United States at the present time. Time is carrying them off faster in the 90's than the bullets did in 60's. Memorial day should not be allowed to pass without proper reverence to the dead heroes of the nation. The day should be appropriately observed this year by every patriotic citizen. Remember that upon Decoration day, services commence at the M. E. church, this city, promptly at 9 o'clock, a. m. Rev. Streeter, of Winamac, orator of the day. He is an old veteran and one of very best orators in Northern Indiana.

BANK BUSTED.

The State National Closed by the Government at Logansport.

In speaking of distressing matter, the Pharos says:

"The people of Logansport, particularly the business community, were rudely shocked Thursday morning when the news, passing from lip to lip, heralded the report that the State National bank had closed its doors. It came as a lightning stroke from a clear sky. It came with bewildering suddenness. Men gathered in groups along the streets to discuss the meaning of the closed doors and to speculate upon the causes that have been potent in carrying down the most important financial institution in Logansport. At first many thought the report to have originated among the gossips, and it was not until 9 o'clock that the real significance of the notice posted upon the door of the bank, that it was closed, dawned upon the community." John F. Johnson, the bank President, has been arrested, and is now confined in jail at Indianapolis, charged with misappropriating $300,000 of the bank's money. Aside from the above he made many private loans, which amounts to several thousand dollars. It is authoritatively stated that all depositors will be paid in full, as stockholders will have to foot the bill, but those who loaned the banker money on his own individual notes, or without security will lose every dollar.

THE MONTICELLO BANK, Rensselaer, Ind., May 20.—The State bank of Monticello, suspended payment today. The institution had $135,000 in deposits, including $40,000 of county money and $6,000 belonging the city of Monticello. The bank was compelled to suspend on account of the failure of the State National bank of Logansport this morning. The depositors will not be paid unless the assets of the State National of Logansport are worth more than indicated at present.

The Montocello bank, of which John F. Johnson is president, is in the hands of State Bank Examiner Millikan, of Indianapolis.

CULVER MILITARY ACADEMY

is situated on Lake Maxenkuckee, Indiana, in a beautiful park of 80 acres containing campus, fine course for cavalry practice, track for bicycle and sprinting races, lawn tennis and base ball grounds, gymnasium, (70x80 feet), six flowing artesian wells, etc. The lake is one of the most beautiful in the United States, covers an area of about 12 square miles, is wholly fed by springs, has a beautiful gently sloping beach, and is a most pleasant and popular summer resort, affording opportunity for all kinds of aquatic sports. The Academy and Dormitory building is complete in every particular, entirely new ABSOLUTE FIRE PROOF, finished in hard wood, heated by steam lighted by electricity, has hot and cold water baths, lavatories, and all toilet conveniences. The course of study compares cadets for college, scientific schools, business, West Point or Annapolis. The Academy is under the supervision of a West Point graduate and ex-army officer of large experience in teaching, who will have direct control of the discipline of the cadets.

AN IDEA FROM AFRICA.

Cupboard for Use Between Kitchen and Dining Room.

Yankee notions of convenience are not so confined to Yankee-land that a description of a household contrivance from far-away Africa would fail to prove interesting to housewives.

In a Morocco hotel, whose stone walls are very thick, there is a long dining-room and a kitchen adjoining. With a direct communication between the two rooms, both odors and sounds might pass disagreeably between the two; this is, however, obviated by a revolving cupboard or dumb waiter placed between the two rooms.

The wall is about 18 inches thick. By permitting the cupboard to project slightly into the room, a circle of two feet and a half or three feet is secured. This is occupied by a revolving drum or cylinder four feet high and divided into two shelves. There is an opening down one side only. When this is toward the kitchen the closed back of the cylinder faces the dining-room, and, as it is made of highly polished mahogany, and the cupboard opening is finished at top and bottom with window casing, the appearance is not at all bad. When the cook has placed the dishes for one course upon the two shelves of the drum a touch of the finger whirls it noiselessly about, and the waiter on the other side has only to take the dishes off.

Current Condensations.

In New York the average number of persons to a dwelling is eighteen and one-half.

Many of the mediaeval churches were originally constructed to serve also, when occasion required, as fortresses.

In Wyoming is a mound of rock and earth standing alone in the middle of a plain, called Church Butte. It is of most fantastic shape and looks in the distance like the ruins of some grand old cathedral.

A Danish author told Dr. Felix Oswald, of the case of a relative who would steal from himself. He used to tiptoe into his own pantry and make off with uncooked prunes, raw onions or anything of the kind.

The flagstaff upon which the first secession flag was hoisted in South Carolina when the State seceded in 1860 is still standing. It is fastened with iron cuffs to the gable end of an old storehouse at Skull Shoals post-office.

It is pointed out that the only mechanic buried in Westminster Abbey is George Graham, a native of Cumberland, the inventor of the deadbeat escapement, the cylinder escapement and the mercurial pendulum, besides several other improvements in apparatus useful in astronomical work. He was buried in 1751 and his funeral was attended by all the members of the Royal Society.

No theory or hypothesis which has commanded general acceptance has yet been suggested for the explanation of the aurora borealis or northern light. What is known is this: The direction of the aurora has a connection with the magnetic meridian, and the aurora produces great magnetic perturbation. Therefore it seems evident that the theater of its action is the atmosphere, and that the agent to which its development is due is electricity, influenced in some unascertained manner by terrestrial magnetism.

Playin' Possum.

"Playin' possum" comes from the fact that the possum will feign sleep or death when pushed into sudden danger of being captured. But pains and aches never play that kind of a game. They never try to fool anybody, and go to work to wake up people, leaving no chance to feign sleep. On the other hand, there is a remedy known as St. Jacobs Oil that will lull a pain or an ache so that it won't wake up again in the cure that follows its use. Pains and aches are great or less in intensity just in degree as we treat them. Prompt treatment with the best remedy—St. Jacobs Oil—prevents their increase and by curing prevents their return. Everything is gained by taking pains and aches in time for a prompt and permanent cure, and there is nothing better than the use of St. Jacobs Oil.

The King of Siam's Palace.

The palace of the King of Siam is inclosed in high white walls which are a mile in circumference. Within them are contained temples, public offices, seraglios, stables for the sacred elephant, accommodations for 1,000 troops, cavalry, artillery, war elephants and arsenal and a theater.

England has turned against its own sparrow. The birds are being slaughtered wholesale by the farmers, especially in Yorkshire, and great disgust is expressed at the matter of their taking off. The Board of Agriculture refuses to protect the birds.

American Ingenuity.

American ingenuity has always been a wonder to foreigners. We know of no better illustration of it than is displayed in the manufacture of guns. For instance, the repeating shot gun made by the Winchester Repeating Arms Co., New Haven, Ct., which retails for about $20, will outshoot foreign hand-made guns costing twenty times as much. This has been demonstrated time and time again. The leading shots of the country appreciate this and have put aside their expensive guns for the less costly but better shooting Winchester. The large illustrated Winchester catalogue is sent free upon request.

Herod the Great loved Mariamne, his wife, so devotedly that when he was summoned to Rome by Augustus to answer certain charges made against him and was afraid he might never return, he left her in care of three trusted servants, with orders that if he himself were put to death by Augustus she was to be immediately killed.

Ponder Over It.

A prominent building owner, with years of experience, gave the following instructions to his architect: "I have had my experience with kalsomine and other goods claimed to be just as good as Alabastine. I want you to specify the durable Alabastine on all my walls; do not put on any other manufacturers' dope, if they furnish it for nothing. Alabastine is right, and when I cease to use it I shall cease to have confidence in myself or my own judgment."

Equal parts of lime water and sweet oil well mixed will form a kind of soap which is very efficacious in taking out or removing inflammation, as well as for healing wounds caused by burns or scalds.

There is a Class of People

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over one-fourth as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15c. and 25c. per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Easily Taught.

Although rats are regarded with universal disfavor, it has been proved that they have many good qualities. During her long imprisonment, Louise Michel taught her three cats to live amicably with troops of rats that visited her at regular hours twice a day. The cats began by attacking the rats, killing one and breaking the leg of another. Madame Michel tended the injured rat and thus won the confidence of its fellows. One of their virtues was respect for the aged, another was family feeling, another compassion for unfortunate brethren. The governor of the prison used to send the broken bread from his table for the prisoner's four-footed visitors, and often came himself to witness the visits. She declared that there was no four-footed creature more susceptible of education than the despised rat. The Russian Duroff took up a few years ago the Louise Michel idea of bringing out the human qualities of the rat, and is now making money with a company of tamed rats. They, sailor-like, climb the ropes of a mimic ship and behave in most ways like the industrious rats which were one of the shows of London in the reign of William IV. Duroff had much less trouble teaching rats than dogs. He discovered in them a retentive ear for language, and greater adaptability than he had found in any other species.

Motherhood.

A mother who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution.

The child fairly drinks in health from its mother's robust constitution before birth, and from a healthy mother's milk after.

Is not that an incentive to prepare for a healthy maternity?

Do you know the meaning of what is popularly called those "longings," or cravings, which beset so many women during pregnancy?

There is something lacking in the mother's blood. Nature cries out and will be satisfied at all hazards.

One woman wants sour things, another wants sweets, another wants salt things, and so on.

The real need all the time is to enrich the blood so as to supply nourishment for another life, and to build up the entire generative system, so that the birth may be possible and successful.

If expectant mothers would fortify themselves with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for twenty years has sustained thousands of women in this condition, there would be fewer disappointments at birth, and they would not experience those annoying "longings."

In the following letter to Mrs. Pinkham, Mrs. Whitney demonstrates the power of the Compound in such cases. She says:

"From the time I was sixteen years old till I was twenty-three, I was troubled with weakness of the kidneys and terrible pains when my monthly periods came on. I made up my mind to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was soon relieved. After I was married, the doctor said I would never be able to go my full time and have a living child, as I was constitutionally weak. I had lost a baby at seven months and a half. The next time I commenced at once and continued to take your Compound through the period of pregnancy, and I said then, if I went my full time and the baby lived to be three months old, I should send a letter to you. My baby is now seven months old and is as healthy and hearty as one could wish.

"I am so thankful that I used your medicine, for it gave me the robust health to transmit to my child. I cannot express my gratitude to you; I never expected such a blessing. Praise God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and may others who are suffering do as I did and find relief, and may many homes be brightened as mine has been."—MRS. L. Z. WHITNEY, 8 George St., E. Somerville, Mass.

"I have been using Ayer's Pills for thirteen years, and find that nothing equals them for indigestion. They are the only relief I have found in all these years for the suffering of dyspepsia and indigestion. Mrs. MATTIE S. MITCHELL, Glad Hill, Va., Feb. 21, 1896.

"I have been using Ayer's Pills for years for biliousness and constipation. I find them very effective, and mild in action. They suit my system in every respect."—JOHN F. ASHLEY, Pelican, La., July 19, 1895.

WEIGHTY WORDS FOR AYER'S PILLS.

The Man who is Raising a Big Crop

—realizes that the harvest time is ahead. Ideal farming comprehends not only the growing of the tallest grain—the most tons-to-the-acre of hay; the best farming—the farming that pays—must contemplate something more than this: for there is a harvest time, and just in proportion as a crop is saved successfully, speedily and economically, in just that proportion may be measured the season's profit or loss.

MCCORMICK

Harvesting Machines are the profit-bringing kind; they are built for long wear, hard work, light draft, and in short, to satisfy. There are other kinds that don't cost as much, but there's nothing cheaper than the best.

REASONS FOR USING Walter Baker & Co.'s Breakfast Cocoa.

1. Because it is absolutely pure.
2. Because it is not made by the so-called Dutch Process in which chemicals are used.
3. Because beans of the finest quality are used.
4. Because it is made by a method which preserves unimpaired the exquisite natural flavor and odor of the beans.
5. Because it is the most economical, costing less than one cent a cup.

It is very natural that the Kansas City desperado who killed a post-office inspector in 1894 and got ten months as a sentence should proceed to kill another man when occasion presented. Such a sentence for murder is a burlesque on justice. Jones, executed at Michigan City yesterday, was four times a murderer. Hanging or electrocution is the only safeguard against repetition of such a crime.—Valparaiso Vidette.

The Plymouth Democrat will see that we are not alone in the belief that every foul murderer should be hung in order to prevent a repetition of the crime.
