The characters that appear in the great western drama, entitled "The Golden Gulch," at Colonade Hall Saturday evening, are well chosen, and each one will play his part with credit to himself. All have appeared before the footlights and have won high encomiums from an appreciative public. The fore part of last week Miss Maude Koontz was taken sick, and in a short time complained of an exceedingly sore throat. Dr. Wiseman was called and Wednesday morning examined the throat thoroughly and discovered appearances strongly pointing toward diphtheria. He quarantined the family, and at once sent what a doctor calls a "culture" to the secretary of the State Board of Health, and received a telegram in reply that the "culture" showed no diphtheria and later a letter from the secretary highly commending the doctor upon the course he pursued. We are pleased to note that our physicians are ever on the alert to prevent the spread of contagious diseases, and the community should hold them in grateful remembrance for this extra precaution as in many instances it saves the purchase of those white caskets.

A GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY.

A very pleasant, social event took place at the home of Jacob and Frederica Zechiel, two miles south of Culver, March 22nd, 1899. It was the 50th anniversary of their marriage. Jacob Zechiel was born in Auerbach, Baden, Germany, Nov. 4th 1824. His parents came to America and landed at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in 1827. In a few weeks they settled in Berks county, Pennsylvania, and in 1832, they moved to Marion county, Ohio. Frederica Zechiel, nee Wolfardth, was born in Oberbrieden, Wertemburg, Germany, July 10th, 1828, and with her parents came to Marion county, Ohio, in 1834. Here, later, Cupid did his work and on March 22nd, 1849, the union which has lasted for fifty years was consummated. To the couple were born eleven children, two died in infancy, six sons and three daughters have grown to manhood and womanhood, and had the pleasure of all being together at home once more to enjoy this happy event. The family have resided at their present home since 1855, and are known far and wide throughout this and adjoining communities. The aged couple have the esteem and respect of all who know them, and many friends gathered at Emanuel's church where a religious service was held to which all were invited. The church was well filled and the following program was rendered:

1. Song—"Greeting."
2. Scripture Lesson, Children and Grandchildren.
3. Prayer, Rev. J. H. Evans, Elkhart, Ind.
4. Song—"All at Home."
5. Ten minute Addresses.
  1. "Our Youth," Rev. Geo. Wolfardth, Spencerville, O.
  2. "Fifty Years Ago" Rev. F. E. Zechiel, Urbana, Ind.
  3. "Twenty-five Years Ago," S. I. Zechiel, Louisville, Ky.
  4. "Today," Rev. A. H. Zechiel, Bellevue, O.
  5. "Our Parents," Rev. D. E. Zechiel, Waterloo, Ind.
  6. "Our Children," Rev. L. Newman, Rochester, Ind.
  7. "What Next?" Rev. J. H. Evans, Elkhart, Ind.
6. Song
7. Congratulations.
8. Prayer, Rev. A. H. Zechiel.
9. Doxology and Benediction.

The service was impressive in many ways. A brother to Mrs. Zechiel, three of their sons, and one nephew who are in the ministry were among those who made short addresses together with their pastor and P. E. The songs sung at the service were all original. After the services at the church, 110 relatives gathered at the house where every want of the "inner man" could be and was well supplied at a well laden table presided over by competent cooks. Among the guests were the 9 children, 19 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. All the brothers and sisters of the couple were present except Wm. Zechiel, of Marion, Ind. Quite a number of the guests were from Ohio. The presents were numerous and valuable. But the aged father was too smart for his children who had intended at the close of the dinner to remember their parents with a gold coin. But their father hastened to dispatch his dinner and deliberately said, "Since it is a Golden Wedding the children should share in the distribution of gold," and suiting his actions to his words handed each of his children a piece of gold, and a gold contribution to the missionary cause, but the children were ready with a prompt return and returned $38.50 in gold which was supplemented by other friends with the following presents:

One gilt picture frame, gold urn, gold frame mirror, gold desert spoon, gold souvenir sugar spoon, gilt sugar and cream set, gilt butter dish, gilt

 Greeting by F. E. Zechiel.
 We are coming dear parents to greet you today,
 Some gathered from near, others farther away,
 These fifty long years God has spared you to us,
 Giving this Golden Day, for greeting you thus.
 Greeting, meeting, yes,
 With golden bells ringing the joy of today.
 For fifty long years you have stood side by side,
 In holy love wedded what e'er did betide,
 And so you'll continue, while here you may roam,
 Till in honored old age, God shall gather you home.
 Greeting, meeting again,
 Greeting, meeting again,
 In that Golden City all meeting again.
 When over in heaven that land of pure day,
 You'll watch for your children, you've taught them the way,
 By example and precept, you went on before,
 And we'll all follow well till we meet on that shore,
 Greeting, meeting, again,
 In that Golden City all meeting again.
 Grandchildren, and children, all greet you today,
 That God may long spare you, united we pray,
 But what e'er be His will, the best we will call,
 Till over in heaven you welcome us all,
 Greeting, meeting, again,
 In that Golden City at home to remain.

HON. H. G. THAYER, ONE OF THE

Best and Most Brilliant Men Upon the Rostrum. At M. E. Church Thursday Evening April 6th.

We are pleased to announce to the citizens of this community that Hon. H. G. Thayer, of Plymouth, will deliver his famous lectures, entitled "Saint Paul's Journey to Rome and his Subsequent Execution," at the M. E. church, Thursday evening, April 6th. The fact that Mr. Thayer is one of the leading lectures of today, and that he tenders his time and pays his own expenses for the purpose of having the proceeds of his lecture go toward swelling the fund for the construction of the new M. E. church, should induce our citizens to fill the old church to overflowing. Mr. Thayer will give you a new idea of Saint Paul's Life, in a manner both fascinating and thrilling. Wherever he has been he has received a hearty and deserving tribute from the press and the community. The Epworth League, of Lansing, Mich., in passing resolutions of appreciation, relative to Mr. Thayer's lecture, says: "Words fail to express our appreciation of this splendid lecture. Since hearing it, St. Paul and those associated with him and his trials and journeys, seem more "real" than before. It is with the greatest pleasure that we commend Mr. Thayer to all who wish to hear a wonderfully graphic description of the late years of "Saul of Tarsus."

ACADEMY LOCALS.

What the Cadets Are Doing this Week.

Thomas Harris, of Canton, Ohio, was enrolled as a cadet Tuesday. When at home he was a near neighbor of President McKinley.

Ray, son of Wm. Cummings, of Kentland, Ind., was enrolled Monday as a cadet. He has the appointment to West Point by Congressman Crampacker, of the tenth district, and is here preparing for entrance in said institution.

Superintendent Fleet, has already received numerous applications from those desiring to attend the school next year.

The quarterly examinations are being held this week.

Cadet Barrett, made Plymouth a visit Monday.

The captains are fitting up a tennis court upon Capt. Glascock's lawn.

Wilson D's parents, from Indianapolis, visited him over Sunday.

Mr. H. Squires, of Dixon, Ill., visited his son over Sunday.

Mrs. Collins and son, of South Bend, visited cadet Collins Saturday.

Cadet Robinson is visiting his parents at Lafayette.

With four new horns and four copper trumpets, the band is prepared for all emergencies.

Cadet Mackenzie was made hospital steward with rank of first sergeant, Wednesday.

Cadet Wilson M. has now full charge of the band instruments, and his room has been placed off limits, as he is responsible for the same.

A majority of the cadets are great hunters, and duck hunting is all the rage. Several of the boys were out hunting Monday, and when near Long Point they approached very near a number of ducks, so near in fact they opened fire upon them when to their consternation they discovered the supposed ducks were only decoys. Of course the boys are "num."

The base ball game with the Purdue University, April 15th, is assured as the contract has been signed.

The class of '99 has been given until April 11th, to hand in their orations.

The following promotions were made last week: Second sergeants, White G., Wilson D., Myer L., and Matthews. Third sergeants, Eacock, Fleet W., Taylor, and Gates.

The entertainment given by the cadets Saturday evening, was a grand success. It was opened with a selection by the Mandolin club, followed with a recitation by Fleet H. The song by Wilson D. was well appreciated, as was also the sketch by Cunningham and Jackson. One of the best numbers on the program was Capt. Wickham's song entitled, "The Kings of the Road." He responded to an enthusiastic encore by singing "The Mountebank's Song," which was also well received. The dramatic sketch written by cadet Cunningham and rendered by cadets Enos, Barton, Kieselhorst and Cunningham, made a great hit, and the comic song by Beck and Jackson created considerable enthusiasm. The violin solo by Wilson M., was one of the most excellent features of the program. Blow and McNeely F. entertained the audience with an exhibition of acrobatic skill, and the program was closed by a very creditable selection by the Cadet Band. The majority of the numbers were scored, and everybody pronounced the entertainment a credit to the promoters.

Never in the history of the Culver Military academy has the "Black Horse" troop looked so fine as now. The horses under the present grooms look as though they had just been turned out of a parlor.

The lecture by Dr. Shepardson, of Chicago University, on "American Idea of Duty", was scholarly and interesting. The Doctor evolved the relation of doing one's simple duty to the acquirement of fame, showing that deeds of historic importance are always performed when the doer is unconscious of the fame achieved and having only the aim of doing his duty. He voiced the tendency in song and story to lay special prominence on the deeds and sayings of the past, but he thoroughly believed that American history offered instances which for true heroism were preeminent. For his subject matter he departed from the usual plan of selecting such characters as Washington, Lincoln, and others, and in their stead used the lesser known characters of Dr. Marcus Whitman, Stark, the delegation of Flathead Indians, and a simple rustic mother of the old Bay State. The Doctor has a wide range of historical knowledge and his lecture was well appreciated.

EVERY WEEK.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

I advertise for those felt boots taken from the grist mill recently and if they are not returned, I will advertise the name of the man that took them next week. W. S. DUPEA.

There will be special music by the choir. All are invited.

The case of Clemens vs. Garver, set for a hearing Thursday before justice Laden, was called at the appointed time. The court room was packed, some having to stand out in the street. Ex Judge Hess and C. E. Martindale appeared for the plaintiff and defendant respectively. After a short war of words, the defendant moved for a change of venue, which was allowed by the court and the case will be tried before justice I. C. Brooks in the near future.

Ray Carr, of South Bend, is visiting his friend Master Floyd Nearpass. M.C. McCormick and Reuben Kaley, are now sole owners of the grist mill. We understand the mill will be placed in competent hands and continue to grind out flour.

Remember the Easter supper to be given by the Ladies Missionary Society of the Reformed church Saturday evening, April 1st, in the vacant building opposite the hardware store. Supper to begin at five o'clock. All are most cordially invited.

J. E. Myers & Son, who live near Rutland, have just purchased 88 acres of land which joins the homestead farm on the east, consideration $2,500. This makes 206 acres in the farm now, all of which is splendid land. The firm proposes to go extensively into fine stock raising and will add greatly to their present present magnificent herd of thoroughbred stock, which comprises some of the highest bred Polled Durham cattle and Poland China hogs, to be found in the country. It will pay those desiring to improve their stock to call at the Myers farm and look over the cattle and hogs. Mr. Myers has just purchased one of the very best Polled Durham cows, which came from the highest strains in the old world.

The plans for the new M. E. church submitted by architect Crane of Logansport, have been accepted by the trustees after some changes.

Has Resigned.

During the whole of last week meetings were held in the Grace Reformed church each evening. On Saturday afternoon, we understand, the consistory of the church met and the pastor, Rev. Barber, tendered his resignation, for causes unknown to us. He has been pastor here for the past six years and has labored hard for the upbuilding of the morals and spiritual welfare of his people. This place is much indebted to the family of the Rev. gentleman, for they have been ardent workers in the various departments of the church and to their efforts has the great success of the father been largely due. When Rev. Barber leaves this place, he will leave a community of well wishers who will greatly miss his genial presence and Christian influence. We wish him an abundant success wherever his lot may be cast.

We have learned later that the feeling of a desired change of pastor evidenced by the congregations at Delong and Bruce Lake, led Rev. Barber to tender his resignation as above mentioned.

The consistory, we learn accepted his resignation--the Grace Reformed and the Zion Reformed with great reluctance. The Secretary, L. C. Zechiel has been instructed to correspond with a view of securing another pastor at once. Correspondence is to be opened with the Heidleberg Theological Seminary, to secure a young man, a recent graduate of that school, if possible. The pastoral year will not close until sometime in July, and until he secures another charge, Rev. Barber will officiate as pastor of this circuit. Meanwhile a new pastor will be selected, but not until after a series of trial sermons and the unanimous consent of the entire consistory.
